You, Lord, are the Alpha and the Omega, and You join them all, and the Scriptures cannot be erased, as behold what wonderful fulfillments You prepared! Glory to You, Lord! Your disciples from heaven sing glory to You! Bless Your saints' coming in and out, Lord, the One Who was, the One Who are, and the One Who comes. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, I have come on the clouds of My glory and I am being carried in a pavilion made out of My heavenly apostles, and I and My trumpet, with you, Verginica, we have a feast in Israel, in the council of My apostles. I worked a celebration of the holy disciples into your book, and there was great joy in heaven. Amen.

– Oh, Lord, I am Your trumpet and I call and bring together the heaven in celebrations and we come with the heaven of saints to the people on the earth.

Sons, sons, the Lord is with you, and He is with His disciples.

Lord, bless Your saints' coming in and out. Amen.

– I am the One, Who blesses His holy people on the earth. I am the One, Who gives forth holiness in the loving and obedient sons. I am, and I will always be with you, My holy people. I am and I nourish you with My word, and you shall be a holy and clean people, as I have no one on the earth more loved than you. Amen, amen, amen.

I come down in haste to you, My people. I come with My trumpet, Verginica. I come down on the path of your book, Verginica, My trumpet that I, the Lord, sound before My appearance.

We come down with a council of holy prophets and we celebrate a supper of new word, a word with a trumpet sounding over Israel. The spirit of the prophet Elijah works by this working of word, before My great and glorified day. We celebrate Elijah with greatness, the prophet written about in the Scriptures, that he will come to prepare My second coming, and we celebrate with him all the prophets, who prophesied about this time of Mine, that I am the fulfillment of My word spoken by the prophets.

Elijah, the prophet goes over the earth to urge the people to repentance, but the people are of stone at any kind of My calling, as in the time of Noah. Oh, the spirit of the prophets cries to Me for the fulfillment of the Scriptures for My coming. But what is the prophet? The prophet is a man of God, who speaks the word of God over the people, but they do not fulfill God's commandments. A prophet means a man, who rises against the lawless ones, to save God's truth and the right man that moans under the people's iniquities. My word through the prophets is a double-edged sword, which pierces into the flesh of the giants, to weaken their wicked power and to save those who are oppressed, who cry with repentance to God.

There was once a man in Israel, who I woke up My spirit in, to save Israel through him that was crying to Me with repentance. This made a double-edged sword for himself and hid it under his cloak and went to the king of Moab, who was oppressing Israel, and he entered into the porch of the king, and I was protecting from all sides the one who rose to be My judge over Israel. And while the king was sleeping, he took out his sword with this left hand from his right hip and thrust it into the fat belly of the enemy king and did not draw it out any more; even the haft went in after the blade into the fat belly of wicked king, and the sword remained in the flesh of the fat king, and I saved My people from the enemies who oppressed him.

My word is a double-edged sword, and he who takes it will be caught by it, for it is a double-edged sword. When Elijah, My prophet, delivered the word to the house of king, Ahab, his word thrust like sword there where it was sent, as Elijah was My prophet, was My word.

What is the prophet? It is My word; it is a man born of My word upon him. He gives birth to My word among the people; he gives Me birth as word on the earth. The same were with you, Verginica. My word have created and formed you, and then you gave Me birth as word on the earth, and a people was born out of My word in you, and the book of this people was written like the book of Israel; and as My prophets were not loved then, the same is now. Behold, I sent Elijah, My prophet, and he goes everywhere all over the earth to turn the people back to Me, but those who took hold of the keys of the kingdom of heavens stand against Me. And you, Verginica, call out, so that your calling may be heard. Amen.

– I, the Lord, sound the trumpet over Israel, as You came down in haste to Your people. I am the watchman of Israel, and the watchman announces those inside when he sees the enemies coming.

I look and what restlessness is over the bishops from the worldly church! Your people goes with You and preaches You on the earth, as that is why You become word, and the bishops of the church from the world have been filled with fear and unrest, Lord. We come to the people of Your word to strengthen it in hope, in faith, in Your peace and in steadfastness, Lord. The bishops prepare themselves to come into Your little garden and push Your bishop, by whom You founded the little garden of Your word; they push him to curse Your little garden and Your word, which has always sanctified it, but I will go before them as Your angel went before Balaam, who was going to curse Israel, and I will advise Your bishop to a word of blessing, for the bishops push him forward as their savior, to save them from under the burden of Your word upon them. We come down in haste to take care of everything of Your garden, and we will wake the people up, who will come to our help, to discover the lying of the bishops, who want to say that it is not them, but Your bishop who wants to strike in Your little garden, in Your church founded by Your word, Lord.

Elijah, Your prophet works for You and for Your people, and I, as a watchman, I announce Your citadel, Your people, to stay in the spirit of Your peace, for You are the One, Who protects Your work and Your going as a word over the earth, as You come on the earth as word. Amen.

– Oh, Verginica, I come down into My book, and I seal the little garden with a new word of blessing, and I will let My watchmen in the garden know, for I sent My angels to overcome against the lying of the bishops, who fight against My word and not against its sons; they fight against Me, not against My people. But this is their hour and the authority of darkness in them, as they did not want to be Mine; they did not love My ways, and stood up to fight against Me. But I come down in haste and make a new word and become a strong God for My people. Amen, amen, amen.

I am the Word. I am the Lord. Amen, amen, amen. I am Who I am, the One Who was in the beginning as it is written: «In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God, and without Him was not anything made that has been made».

Oh, little garden of the word, I am the word upon you, and you wear My name that I chose you with love to speak from you on the earth. Oh, little garden, oh, little garden, oh, little garden, oh, My dwelling! I refresh My spirit when I speak upon you. I made you My support, and I comfort My pain with My word upon you, as the heavenly pain for the man is a heavy pain. Oh, little garden, I cry in you in the word, I pray in you to My Father, I pray in you for the man to come back to the Father, but the spirit of antichrist gets angry with you, watchmen. Oh, little garden, the saints come down in you with the heavenly word. My Spirit becomes word in you, but the man opposing to Me and to you, plot hostility and unbelief, for he is restless when hearing about you, My little garden. But I am the Lord and I cannot compare Myself to the mind of the faithless man, and I leave him in his peace, and I work in you with My peace, so that My peace may be at the hand of the one who wants to take from it. Amen.

I become word, and a celebration of My coming. I become peace and joy over all who are nourished by My hand, which flows over you, My little garden. I become a word of hope and victory for all who take from the supper of My word, to be alive with their life and mind, and with their watchfulness and heart. I become hope over you, My people nourished from the little garden of My word. You should stay forever for supper with Me; you should stay with faith and hope; you should stay steadfastly, as the people of today are against Me more than two thousand years ago, when I appeared in the flesh among the people. Many people of today became giants and took hold of the keys of My kingdom and threw Me out of My kingdom, so that it might be theirs and not Mine, and they are hostile to you, My faithful people. But I am the Lord, and I have always spoken upon you and I teach you to be a faithful, holy and obedient child, as those that are faithful will be like the stars forever. Amen.

Oh, little garden of My word, the rulers of the church took counsel together against you, but I am the Lord and I come and seal you with fresh word, for it is not you, but I, who am guilty before the rulers of the church. I made you to be and to stay before Me, and in you I have sons, who are called with My new name and are anointed by Me with a fresh anointment; by Me, as there were no longer anointed people on the earth to anoint those who walk in My ways. Those from the earth anoint with their oil those who walk on empty ways, but I anoint with My oil My anointed ones that walk on My ways.

Oh, My loved people, My loved people, I carried you and carry you among the people with My word which is calling out upon the people to come back to Me. I carried you and carry you upon the earth to give to the people the spirit of comforting, for the people are without consolation, and I will always go with you from place to place, for the spirit and the power of Elijah is working upon you, little one. But the rulers of the church from the world were upset and settled to mock the witness bishop of My clean church. They push him by threatening to come and strike the little garden of My word, but you, My people, pray and sing your song of victory, as for those, who do not love you, their hour and the darkness dominion, has come upon them, for they refused to be Mine, and rose to fight against Me. But I strengthening Myself upon you, for I am your mighty God and that was why they are afraid of you, those that were afraid. This way the people were afraid of My people Israel, for I was their mighty God and I was the defender of Israel that was calling Me out in a spirit of repentance to save it. I have always blessed you and I have sent you to pour out on earth from My blessing and I have always accompanied you in a sunny time and with peace and heavenly signs, so that the multitudes may see that I am your God, Who testifies about you that are My people on earth. But they who took hold on the keys of My kingdom lost their own peace because of you, My people, and they used a lying spirit and try to strike you. Oh, My people, I will not let them mock you, and I will do to them the same way I did to the rulers who were sitting over Romania, for they were sending persecutors upon the little garden which was meant to be of My word, of My church from heaven, for the saints of the heaven come by word upon it and through it over My wedding country. But when I saw them lying in wait in order to destroy May place in which I was about to work out My word's lowering, (By the security service of the communist dictatorship, r.n.), I sent My angels and put the persecutors away and they destroyed each other, and I took you in My arms, My little garden and protected you, and the unfaithful ones who wanted to destroy you, perished by their sword. (At the anticommunist revolution, on December 1989, r.n.)

I will not let anyone rise against you, the little garden of My people, of My word. And the witness bishop, who delivered My word for the foundation of My church, (The Bishop Ioan Irineu-Bistrițeanul, r.n.), I will lead him to the heavenly glory on earth, and I will have him sit in My seat. But I tell you that I have already had him settled, for he is the anointed one of My church; he is My anointed one and he is not the people's anointed one, for when the great people who are standing upon the church recognized him as My bishop that My word was for him, he stood up and said to them this: "It was not you who chose me, but I chose you." It was a great and meaningful word he delivered, and here is the meaning of this word reminded at that time. He told them: "It was not you who chose me, not you, but the Lord, and you did not choose me rather you tortured me as an evildoer. It was not you, but I who chose you. And why did I choose you and not the clean ones? I chose you so that I may make you clean and without sin by faith too. I chose you so that you may do as I did, but you did not want to believe that the Lord Was the One chosen by me, and you said that someone else was the One Who was speaking. I loved you and remained with you but you did not remain with me, and you loved lying and futility and did not love the Lord." This is the meaning of the word that My bishop was saying for the ones who recognized it that was Mine.

Oh, you little garden of My word, I am strengthening upon you My blessing and My work, for the one who placed you from Me is pushed towards you to say that you are no longer Mine. But you are Mine, the same as the Mount Sinai is My Holy Mountain, as this is what I told Moses: «Take off your sandals from your feet for you are standing on holy ground». No one went to sanctify this mountain. I was the holiness of the Mount Sinai where I was speaking from the burning bush with Moses, the prophet of the Lord.

I am The Holy One in you, oh, little garden of blessing, and if the unfaithful places upon you a word of estranging you from Me, (Of the curse, r.n.), then I will no longer utter upon you any word delivered by the mouth of My anointed one, whom I told to deliver the word of holiness of My little garden and of the church from it, the word chosen by Me.

Do not be afraid My people. Do not be afraid My little garden. I am the Lord and I am on your side with My glory, and I will urge to repentance the ones that do not believe the work of My word which was from the beginning, and nothing of what was made, was made without it. But with you, dear sons, let the Spirit of the One Who loves you, let the Spirit of the One loved by you, let it be seen the Spirit to Which you belong, to Whom do you belong, sons. Be in My Spirit for My Spirit is on your side, and the Holy Spirit is taking you under His wings to cover and protect you and testify about you to the One to Whom you belong, but let you be so, sons. Amen, amen I say to you: this is the little garden of My word, and the place you are staying upon is a holy place.

Do not come any closer you the unfaithful ones, for this place of Mine belongs to the believers. Amen, amen, amen.

Amen, amen I say those who stumble against this rock: who is stumbling upon it will be crushed in it. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, little garden, I cry in you, through the word; I pray in you to My Father, I pray in you to the man to come back to the Father.

Oh, Father, My Father and of those that are faithful, protect they that are hostile to those You gave Me. Surround Your people with Your holy angels! Glorify Yourself in Your Son by Your sons on earth!

– Amen, I say to You, Son Emmanuel; I sent and I will always send Elijah, the prophet, and he will overcome the heaven for Your ending descend of Your mystery, as you are the fullness of the prophet's word, My Son.

Oh, prophet of the coming of My Son, go, and go again on the way of the coming of My Son! Go and finish your work for the return of the sons to their parents and for the return of the parents to their sons. And if someone hears My voice and yours, we will come in to him and will make peace with him. Amen. And we will wage war with him, who casts Us away, and We will win the kingdom of the heavens on the earth, and we will win over its sons from the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My Lord, the Lord of Your prophets! You made me Your mouth over the people, for the people were wondering away without You, and I was sighing with compassion for You, the One, Who is not loved, the One, Who is not sought by people, and I prayed to You before the unbelievers and You did heavenly miracles at my prayer. I also pray today; I pray from heaven and from earth to You and to Your Son, Who is in You, as You are in Him. I pray, Lord, to You, to touch the spirit of disbelief from the days of the coming of Your Son as word upon the people. Touch the mountains and make them foam. Touch all who sacrifice themselves to Baal and do not serve You as God, for You are One God, Lord Sabaoth. Cleanse the people from disbelief, as every word, which prophesies by itself against the lawlessness on the earth, is a word of Your prophet, Lord. Oh, the priests of today are afraid; they are afraid not to be deceived, believing that You are this word.

Oh, priests of today, if this word is not the Lord, then what is the Lord, and where is He and what is He doing and working? Is the Lord standing for nothing? Is the Lord sleeping? Is it not the Lord anymore? What is the Lord for you? What is His measure on the earth? Oh priests, the Lord is this word! God sends Me to you to turn you back to Him, and to turn Him to you, so that the Son of the Lord may not come and strike you because of unbelief, for the reward of the unbelievers is outside of the kingdom of heavens. Do not doubt of this word. The Lord is, but you are without faith, as it is fulfilled with you the Scripture of Christ, who said: «When the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?». It was you that the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of God spoke about; about you and not about the rest of the world, for Christ, the Lord, cried and said: «Jerusalem, who kills the prophets, how often would I have gathered you under My wings, but you would not want, and your house is left desolate, and you will not see Me from now on with you until My blessed coming». This is how Christ, the Lord was crying to the people who served God, as they said, but they were killing those that were the Lord's mouth, and you, those of today, by your unbelief you prove that you are the sons of those who killed the Lord's prophets. Why are you unfaithful? Unbelief is death, Christ's death in you. The Lord preaches Himself for His coming, and you took away the Lord's vineyard, as the king in my time also took the Nabot's vineyard and killed the owner of the vineyard and then he was master over the vineyard that was not his. The vineyard belongs to the Lord; it is not yours, and if you do not believe the Lord Word, you do not believe because you took away His vineyard and you master over it with violence, for the thief is the one who is unfaithful and works iniquity. What do you give to the Lord now, when He makes perfect His great day of His coming; the day that the Scriptures write about? Do you have a holy people, to meet the Lord on His coming? I speak to you from heaven and earth, as I am alive, and I have the heaven in me, and the death has no more power on me. You killed the Lord's witnesses, but they prophesy in sackcloth and ashes and they will rise and judge you and will speak about the kind of death you killed their faith and life in the Lord with. But you do not know the Scriptures, for you choke their fulfillments, but the Lord said: «Heaven and earth will not pass away until all the Scriptures are accomplished». And behold, they are accomplished and the mystery of accomplishment presses on you, and you are full of fear.

I am the one, who worked upon the bishop chosen by the Lord among you to turn your hearts to God, but you did not want, and your house is deprived of the Lord. If you had the Lord, you would know this holy work, as those who have the Lord, know the Spirit of the Lord. I had fire come down from heaven from the Lord by my prayer, but why did you not pray so that the Lord may show you what this word is, the word, which flows from heaven over the Lord's garden? Ask and you will receive. Why do you not ask? Why do you not pray as I prayed? Is it easier for you to put away the truth from the earth? Ask, and if you do not ask, I will ask from God, as I also asked then. I am the one, who prepares the way of the Lord, so that the Lord may come on earth. You loved the empty greatness and you received the praise of the people, and you did not receive the one coming from the only one God, and you seek to kill God's word. Get up and make peace between you and God, for the devil is not this word. The Lord is. Cheer up and search out! It is the Lord.

Amen, amen, I say to you: you will not be able to curse or divide the Lord's people. You will not be able to overcome the sons of the little garden, where the Lord becomes word over the earth. It is the Spirit of the Lord in them and no one can judge the spiritual ones. Cheer up and search out all the spirits, as woe to the one who commits sin against the Holy Spirit of the Lord! How can you condemn a man without judging him? Which Scripture allows you to do this? Oh, your darkness is great. Flee to the light and flee from the wrath of the Lord! The Spirit of the Lord works this way. The good Spirit speaks this way on the earth. Amen.

Oh, my Lord and the Lord of Your prophets, You made me Your mouth over those who do not believe into the work of Your word, for these wonder away without You, and I sigh with compassion for You, the One not loved, the One not sought by people. Do heavenly miracles at my prayer and glorify Yourself, Lord, into the midst of Your people! Always, always, glorify Yourself with the glory of Your word, as the people of today who serve You, as they say, do not know what Your glory on earth is, and the unbelief made their wisdom blind. Become visible grace over Your little garden on the Romanian land, for You are the Spirit of the Truth! Make the spirit of hypocrisy, the spirit of lying, dry up and wither, so that it may not bite of the Spirit of Your Truth! Your Truth wages war with satan, and I am Your messenger and I prepare Your way. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My living prophet, who did not want to die, as you loved life! I am the Spirit and the word of My prophets. Take all the prophets with you, all the saints and angels and stand watch for My little garden and for My people, as My people is My way to the people. Amen.

Do not be afraid, My little garden. I came in haste and I placed you within My peace and I strengthened you through My blessing. Stand before Me, as you are My path, and I glorify Myself in you with the glory of My word. I am into your gates, and I am word upon you. I am your protector. I will come and I will tell you the moment when you are to stay at the gates before the unbelievers and I will teach you, My little garden of sons.

Sons of My little garden, listen to everything that I teach you. Do not use your spirit to the work from the gates over the unbelievers. My Spirit is in you, but be in My Spirit, be in obedience, sons. Comfort with My Spirit My bishop who suffers shame for My name. Comfort his spirit. Comfort, sons, comfort with My Spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

I am coming again to you, sons from the garden, to speak to you and to teach you what is clean, for Elijah, My prophet, is praying to Me to touch the iniquity on the earth, the lawlessness from the churches in the world, as it is because of these iniquities that God's wrath is coming upon the sons of disobedience. I am coming again to you, and I am coming in a hurry and I am speaking again. Lift up your hands and prayers for the extirpation of the unbelief from the people of the church, for behold, whenever these get up to strike into My word, as they have been doing in all the ages, they bring about My wrath upon the earth. Oh, and I am compassionate to the poor people, to the people deprived of My knowledge, for there is no one to teach them the way of My light, and they are struck by My wrath because of the unbelief of the people of the church. I have been protecting again and again this little village, in which I have been coming down to turn Romania into a country of My wedding, and to make it into a mountain of My blessings, in order to work out My salvation with it over the nations of the earth. I have been working again and again to protect the cities around this little village, the little village of My word. I have been working again and again with My mercy up to the borders of the cities, which belong to the city of Târgoviște, for I have mercy to the ends of this city because of the gift that it has in this little village of My word. Oh, I have been struggling again and again to have mercy of My Romanian country, of the country of My word, but the people of the church are full of trespasses and stand like that before Me for Romania, and if they stand like that, they do bring about My wrath upon the people. I have been protecting Romania in all its time, even it has also been going wrong before Me, but I have had here and there, and from time to time I have had someone who was pleased to Me, and I have turned him into a heavenly word and into salvation by repentance.

I am coming to you in a hurry. Lift up your hands and ask from Me in a spirit of repentance for all those that do not love repentance; ask to gather the clouds back into their place and to let the clean sky come out and to stop the measureless amount of rains, for I take pity on the poor ones, on the wretched and needy ones, and I have mercy on seeing them without food; I have mercy for the time presses on heavily, and bad people grow and those that are small and good, poor and faithful, stay under the wickedness of the time and of the people of the time, who build their own kingdom in time.

Oh, Elijah, My prophet is praying for Me to touch the spirit of unbelief in the church. The people of the church want to strike you, little garden of My word, full of salvation, peace, love and holiness. They want to get up to fight against Me, the One Who become Holy Spirit and word over My little garden in Romania. I have chosen in Romania the little patch of land, which came out of the water first, then when I made the heaven and the earth, and I called this little patch the little garden of My word, My mystery, which came out in the beginning from water, the first little patch of dry land, the cape of the earth, the stone from the top, and when I built the man of the dust, this was the place where I took the dust from. I am speaking of this mystery clearly so that the people of the earth may hear Me and know from Me, who they started to make war with.

Oh, people of the church, oh, bishops who strain out a gnat and swallow a camel! Oh, My servants, who punish the sins of the people, but under no circumstances do you refrain from iniquity, from debauchery and from drunkenness and blasphemy against the prophets of the Holy Spirit, of whom you speak that they have a demon and not God! Oh, I am coming and asking you, and you should answer Me. What evil does the little garden of My word do to you? I am the One Who flow as a word over this little patch of little garden with small sons in it, not as great as you are, for they do not want and do not receive glory from people, but rather they flee from empty glory, the same as I and My apostles and My true saints did. I founded this little garden in Romania, as a blessing over it and for it. Why are you afraid of My plans and of their making? Is it really not better and holier for Me to work in order that My salvation, peace and light to come on the earth? Would it be really better for you to work? Behold, you work out unbelief and you put it on the people, and because of you and of your iniquities that you do in the church, My wrath is coming over to your sons and the sons that are faithful to Me, suffer as well; however, I am the protector of those who are clean and faithful within their spirit and life.

You say that you do not believe that I am the word sent to you and over the earth. But what does it prevent you from putting Me to test? You say that it takes much time for My word and for the salvation, which is coming from it, to come true. But those of today, which I become word upon, do not need salvation by this saving word? Who taught you that the time is needed to pass over My word? Oh, I am always today, and the Scripture says this: «Today, those that hear My word do not harden your hearts on its hearing». My word gains its own truth from the Scriptures, but why are you not alive? And why are you not faithful like those of old who received the Holy Spirit and did not drive Him away through unbelief? Do you really want to bring about My wrath over the country of the election from these days? Oh, I will not let you prevail by your unbelief over the course of the river of My word, which is coming this time from near My Father on the earth, as it is written into the Scriptures.

Oh, do no longer condemn; do no longer dishonor and do no longer humiliate the bishop whom I anointed over My wedding country. His love for you will condemn you. His goodness and his obedience to you will urge you to repentance; He urges you to listen to Me as he also listens to you, for the smallest is the greatest among you. He has not done any evil. He has fulfilled My word, for My word carries power in it to be accomplished. I put the spirit of wisdom, of faith and of the fulfillment of the Scriptures on My bishop. I look at you and see how you humiliate him, how you laugh at him, how you threaten him, how you blame him, and he suffers from you for My name. Oh, if he was among you with his mercy on you and with his warm prayer, which inclines Me to have mercy on you, what would you do in this time, when everything that you have is to be uncovered, for your works made in the darkness are ugly? He is My blessing among you, but behold, you are unfaithful, and the holy fathers look at you and see how you violate their teachings, asking others to fulfill them. You should fulfill them first, but you have no love for Me.

Oh, bishop of Târgoviște, you work with hidden plans against the little garden of My word, for you have no love of God. You try to humiliate the bishop that I anointed in front of the Romanian people, but he is clean and he has done nothing wrong against you. You were not over the churches of Târgoviște at that time. He has done nothing wrong interfering with you. I sent him to the greatest one over the church and he told him My plan and he let him about My word, which required the raising of this stone, and the greatest one did not tell him not to raise it, but he rather told him to take care of what he was doing, and did, and he made the thing that I commanded him to do carefully. But when you came over this city and found this little stone keeping watch with a spirit of salvation over your city, you got up with wickedness, with unbelief and trickery, and condemned My faithful bishop, and since then you have brought only trouble in church, because you do not love the church. You love yourself and you do not shepherd the sons of the church, but rather you urge them to do the works of lawlessness that you also do.

Oh, you bishop of Târgoviște, how much trouble, how much division you have worked in the church of Romania! How good it would have been for you and for Romania and its church in it if you had used the spirit of understanding and love to the mystery of My word and of the church that I build through My bishop, anointed by Me! And why is he anointed by Me? Behold, I tell you a great mystery, and let the mystery be known in the church: I have declared a word and I sent it by the sons of My word to the greatest one in the church, (To Patriarch Teoctist, r.n.) and this is what I told him: „Take heed, you ruler of the church! Get up and call a council, and then anoint with the oil of holiness the anointed one from Me, for this is from Me and not from you, and I will make a living covenant with him for the church, and I will make Romania into a New Jerusalem and into My glory over the nations”. This is what I told to the greatest one, and he listened to Me and anointed the My anointed one and he fulfilled My word. Whether he wanted or not, whether he believed it or not, he anointed the one from Me, so that I might set a clean and holy stone through him, a spotless church, without any wrinkle, a heavenly church on the earth; heavenly and not earthly. I told to My bishop that I will raise him over the church, and I told him many years ago by My word, and he was saying to Me: “Lord, I am afraid. I cannot. I like the monastery and peace and I like a humble life”. But I have had him in My plan for a holy and clean church and I took him out of the monastery to pass through all the levels to the archiepiscopacy in order to work with him for Romania, as Romania is the country of brightness, which is declared by the Scriptures.

Oh, bishop of Târgoviște, put the sword back in its sheath, for My sword is a double-edged sword, and it is My word! Amen. You are unfaithful and you do not love Me; you do not do My will and you do not love the holy life, and My church needs holiness. Behold, you bring My wrath upon your sons, on the sons of your church, for the sons of My church are those who do My will in their spirit and body. You get up and push My bishop to curse My little garden, but I said to the sons of the garden: bless those who curse you and do well to those who hate you, for I am with you. The sons of My little garden do nothing wrong to you; they neither go wrong in the spirit and nor in the teaching of the church or towards the saints. You are those who go wrong against My commandments, and I gave you this stone of holy altar as a gift, to be salvation for you, for it is written: «If there are in a city ten or five people who do My will, I will save the entire city from sword».

Oh, bishops, do no longer hate the place of the little garden of My word. Work with the spirit of My peace. Do no longer work with wickedness. Do no longer condemn anyone without judging his cause first, for the Scripture does not allow you to judge without investigation. Work out a spirit of repentance towards Me, and I will heal you of unbelief. Work out with love, for everything will be proven out through My light. Work out My will in the churches, for otherwise you bring My wrath over your sons. It is written about the hypocrites: «Woe to you, for it is because of you that God's wrath comes over the sons of disobedience». Behold, the prophet Elijah is crying out to Me to deal with your works, and his prayer is bringing forth fruit. The earth has been filled with waters and they flow over their riverbeds and produce pain on people, and people are wretched. Why should My country suffer? Why shall it not have My blessing over it by the works of your faith?

Behold, you have decided to come with threatening over the garden of My word, and I got angry with all the cities of Târgoviște and the people suffer, for the upper waters damage their fruits, and My voice speaks by My signs. Do no longer bring My wrath through your unbelief. Let My peace be over you and among you. Let My blessing come over Romania. I have sent the sons of My word to undo the binding knot over the cities of Târgoviște, for the former lawlessness brought about My wrath and put a bond over the city. Let the blessing bring forth fruit. Do no longer stir up wrath. Give a river to love for the law does not stand against love; it does not stand against it, but it rather falls through love, for I am the heavenly love among the sons of love.

Behold, I still tell you: you bring about contempt on you from all those who see that you fight against My little garden from Romania and against its sons. It is a hope and a spirit of hope and of holy peace over Romania. Romania is infested with foreign brotherhoods, with beliefs foreign to the spirit of Orthodoxy, and I want to clean it of foreign spirits to the Orthodoxy, for you cannot clean it. Romania is My Orthodoxy and this is how it was born and this is how it was baptized. Be true Orthodox, for I have been speaking so many times on you by My word of today! I have declared a word on you, and I have spoken it in a hurry, for you get ready to work out wickedness over My little garden. Turn away from your wicked deeds, and I will heal you of disobedience and disbelief. Amen, amen, amen.

And you, My people, and you, little garden of sons of My people, bless those who curse you and do good to those who hate you, for I am with you and I am with My peace over you. Amen. I have come with the spirit of righteousness, and I have revealed the lawlessness, which tries to come over you, My little garden, for I am the One Who, protects you. Amen, amen, amen.

The Word of God over the unbelief of the bishops

Mark down this day, sons from the garden. Mark it with My word, as now it was the moment when you stayed at the gates of My word before the unbelievers, for all the bishops from the Synedrium of today became guilty on this day, even those who believe and love My word which comes in this time on the earth. Give My word everywhere, not only to the bishops. Spread it to all the margins, for I give you power and I help you to be able to do it.

The people say that you are rich, sons. The people say that you have money and that you have everything you need, but I taught you, since I chose you I have taught you not to lay hold of the richness on the earth, not to take anything for free from anyone, as worthy is the worker for his pay. I have taught you to work with your own hands to have clothes, food and shelter. I have taught you not to take anything that is not yours. I have taught you to take after Me in clothing, food and wealth, and not to love empty glory and the worldly and earthly richness. The people say that you are rich, but you are not so. You are poor, and everything you work, work to spread My word on the earth, for I help you to be distributors. Give My word everywhere, so that the people may know about My morning and yours, as I live with you the same way as I lived with My few disciples of that time.

Spread My word everywhere, sons. Send My word always, but not only to the people of the church. Send My word to those who rule the Romanian country. Send My word, sons, to those who slander Romania, so that the whole earth may know about My glory in it, about My richness of the glory of My word, and of its heavenly election. I will help you to have power to multiply My word, as I am the One Who goes on the earth. I am the Lord Word.

Behold, the unbelief leaves from the people of the church, who are called God's servants among the people. All the bishops became guilty before Me, not only three or four of them, who oppress My bishop, (Irineu of Bistrița, r.n.), to make him stand against the love of My word, for I am love, the word of love. Amen. My word of rebuke and scolding is love, as it is written: «The Lord rebukes those He loves, and the Father scolds His sons to get wisdom».

Not only some of the bishops are guilty of unbelief and of the act of unbelief, which came and was shown today at your gates, (To curse the work „of the evil spirit”, r.n.), little garden of My word. No one among the bishops helped the one oppressed among them. (The bishop Irineu took part at the service for the laying of the stone of foundation of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem, r.n.). No one got up to show that he is loving and faithful to the glory of My word, which comes from heaven for the glorified preparation of My second coming; no one, sons, as all sleep in their chairs, for what else is the sleep good for? I had no bed, nor table, not chair. I was walking bare footed and without any shelter, and I was the Son of the Father King. He, who does not believe in Me, sleeps, as the unbelief is night, and those who sleep, sleep at night, they sleep in the night of unbelief. What use is their standing before Me for? What fruit do they bring forth to Me? What do they do for Me? Behold, they dishonor My name before Me, and they turned the dwellings dedicated to Me into dens of robbers. The godless people come in under a garment of the servants of the church and make one another servants, and they sit with unbelief, and their lips preach God before the people, but they are nothing but some poor scribes and some hypocrite Pharisees, who do not even wash their body, or their mind, or their heart, and stay this way into My name over the people, and because of them My wrath comes over the sons of disobedience.

The people have no one to listen to. This pain of Mine is great in heaven and on earth. The people have no one to listen to, sons. Spread My word so that the people may know that I am their God and that I speak with them as a God, Who can speak to them, and so that the people may have someone to listen to. The people have no spiritual shepherds. The people have only fleshly shepherds, and they do not help them keep away from the sins, and they do not help them distinguish the good from the evil, and the evil from the good. I came on the earth as the word, to make the people faithful, good and clean by repentance and by holy love, and the people of the church have driven Me away by their unbelief, and their unbelief is coming from the people as the itch is taken from man to man.

Give My word everywhere, not only to the bishops. Give it to the people, sons, as I will help you to be able to do it. Give it to everybody, as the people of the church want to hide from My word; they want to tell that they do not know about it; they want to tell that I am not the word which calls out over the earth, and behold, because of them My wrath comes over the people.

Mark this day down, for it is a day of pain, sons. On this day the people of the church have subscribed to their opposition to drive Me away from the heart of those who believe in Me, and who eat from the everlasting life of My word. On this day the people of the church have given up the glory of My word which flows from heaven over My little garden on the earth. On this day of August 7, 1997, according to the earthly account, My bishop came to the gate of My word. He did not come alone. He was brought, as he did not want to come and do something unfaithful. He is like the soldier in the army and submits like an honorable soldier, as one who obeys. All the heaven cried with compassion for him. All the heaven was with you, sons from the garden. All the saints, all the prophets, all the angels, all the heavenly powers were with you and for you in the painful moment of the heaven, which is with you. He is the son of suffering and is dishonored and slandered by the bishops, for My name, which became word over this little garden.

Do not grieve, sons. Not so, for I am with you and My bishop is also with you. He did not say anything wrong over you, and he left blessing you and saying: „Be blessed!” Oh, he was about to hold you all in one embrace; he would have liked to take you all to his bosom and to leave with you, so that he might not be without you, as this is what he said sometime: „I can nothing without you”. And behold, he cannot because he is bound and he cannot do it. When he was with you, his faith, heart, love and his steps were free, but since he was caught into the snare of the unbelievers he could no longer do it. He came because he was brought; he came because he was forced by the flattering threatening of those who are afraid of you, as the bishops are afraid of you, sons, but not of you, rather they fear Me, and they do not know their fear and where it comes from. My bishop would have liked to take you all in his arms as I did with those that were loved by Me. His spirit is as sweet as Mine. His heart longs after those that are My clean ones, as he is good and clean, and he has the heavenly wisdom in him and works for the salvation of the people.

Here is what the bishop, which sits over the church of the city of Târgoviște, did! (The municipality, the residence of the district, which is found in the town of Glodeni – the place of the monastery The Holy Citadel New Jerusalem, r.n.). He brought about My wrath on the earth and the poor people suffered. I tell you, dear sons, so that all who will speak My word may hear; I tell you that everything, which comes over the people, comes through their interceders. That is why I said that My wrath comes over the sons of disobedience because of them; it sets over the people by those who are great, not by those that are small; by those who watch over the small ones; My wrath or My blessing comes through their rulers, as I said so, and My word is the truth.

Sons, sons, whenever those who are unfaithful wake up to slander My work to cause pains to the little garden of My word, so many times they bring about wrath on the earth, as I love this little garden so much as it cannot come to the mind of the man.

My bishop would fly like a bird of the heaven to you, but he has his legs bound, sons. His heart and your heart beat a moment with joy and pain, as you met each other face to face after such a long time. There are four years and more since his little wings were tied. The heaven cried under the pressure of this moment; the heaven cried with compassion for him and for you, but his sorrow and yours will turn into joy and glory, sons. When the woman is about to give birth she travails, but after she gives birth she forgets about her pain, because of the joy of the born child.

I thank you sons, that you listened to Me and that you had the spirit of patience and that you did not speak a word of pain, as I also did not say anything within My passions of the cross. I will write down all the bishops who urged him to come and strike you, and I will not forget their deed, if they will not come to repentance.

There was one bishop at the gate of My little garden who told you that My bishop would come and take My name away from My little garden, and he spread his evil thought among the bishops. And there is another one among them, who speaks bad words over My bishop, not seasoned words, but rather words of soul torment, and others of them speak cunningly, for many of them are afraid of the light which discovers their bad deeds. I will write each one of them into My book, as My book from this time is being written down. Write, sons, write these for a memorial, as this is what I told Moses when he was making out the book of Israel to be a memorial of their acts.

Do not grieve for My bishop. He will be lifted by Me into glory and he will forget the pain and you will receive him with bunches of flowers as you have received him now, as it has been fulfilled the word by which I told you about his coming. I made heavenly signs to prevent his coming to you, (Ongoing rains accompanied by floods and storm for a couple of days, r.n.), as it hurt and it hurts Me the task he was obliged to do. I told you that he would be brought to you and I told you that I will work to prevent them, and My prophet Elijah worked wrath on the earth and I afflicted people, (By great damages that they suffered, r.n.), but the unfaithful bishops did not repent from their unbelief, so that they might no longer force My bishop to strike in the place of the glory of My word. But he did not strike, for this little garden is sanctified by My word, not by him. He was My witness and that is all. He confessed the place of the glory of My word, as I made him My anointed and confessor, and no one can spoil what I did through him. It was not him but I Who worked through him, and he listened to Me with faith and love.

Do not grieve, sons. Do not grieve, My people. Sons, no one can take from you what you have from Me. Do not suffer for the one that is anointed by Me; do not grieve for My bishop. He will come to you and will be with you again, and he will love and comfort you. Amen, amen, amen.

I will raise a righteous and faithful people with a clean heart out of the Romanian people, and I will inspire it with the Holy Spirit to know the glory of My word and his accomplishments. And a new heaven and a new earth will come out of the middle of Romania, and the righteousness and peace will dwell in it, and this wonder will comprise in it all those with a clean heart, and then the one, who is bishop from Me, will rise and will forget the pain and will testify to the truth of My word. And many of those that condemned him for the deed of his faith will beat their chest and will run to him and ask him to intercede for them, for I ordained only My good things over the people, but the people did not know the face of the good, and they said that it is the evil and fled from My good.

Behold, sons, Elijah, the prophet sighs with his eyes and spirit, for he is body in those from heaven, as he did not die in his body, but he remained with his body, so that he might work for the preparation of the glory of My day, on which I will come visibly from heaven on the earth. Elijah<sup>118</sup>, My prophet, was filled with pain for those that came over My little garden, and he prays to Me to touch the Romanian land with scolding because of the unbelievers, who fight with My little garden and with its sons and with My Christian people from Romania, for the unbelievers and the act of their unbelief bring about My wrath over the Romanian people.

I went with you, sons of My little garden, and I took the tangled knot from over Romania and I blessed the Romanian people to be a chosen people among other nations, and the rulers of the church stand with unbelief against My heavenly deeds. The people do not fulfill the words of the prophets, but I fulfill them, as I also fulfill the prayer of the prophet Elijah, who prepares My way and makes the people believe into the wonder of My word in this time. Amen.

Sons, sons, it is written into the Scriptures that My word comes over the earth in the time you live in. Let those great on the earth ask themselves, as those in the time of My birth were asking saying: «Where would the Christ be born? What is written in the Scriptures and in the prophets?» And the bishops and the scribes answered that he was to come in the Bethlehem of Judea, for out of it would come forth the Governor of Israel; however, no sooner that they found out than they already rose against God's plan, as they do today, sons; however, the country of brightness, which the prophet Daniel wrote about, is the Romanian country, and in its midst the spring of My word, which is written about in the prophets, flows from heaven, and behold, I, Myself, am shepherd and the shepherds from the earth do not know the mysteries of the Scriptures.

I am the holiness of the little garden of My word, and no one can abolish it, and no one can raise it from it. My bishop sanctified it with his word for this is what I asked him. It was not him, who sanctified it, but I sanctified it through him, and what I did he cannot break down, but he is under authority and he does not do his will but rather he is pushed, and his patience will win over many souls, clean and without blemish, for My kingdom.

The prophets and the saints cry and ask Me to touch those that are not believers. I let Myself be put to shame because of My love for the people. I love the people, but the prophets and the saints love Me and they want Me to do them justice for their faith and for those of today who believe waiting for the kingdom of heavens.

Sons, sons, the prophet Elijah does not stop praying and working and he says to Me:

– Lord, You are the One Who said that You will send Me to prepare the way of Your second coming, and I have to fulfill Your word. The people did not want to believe in the prophets, but I hurry up, Lord, as Your day has come. Do not cry, Lord! Let those that are not believers cry, for they do not cry. The weak and little ones cry, but You also cry. Let me heal the people of unbelief, as You said that I would prepare Your way. Amen.

– Oh, My people, all the prophets cry with Elijah, the prophet of My coming, as he goes ahead of Me. Oh, My people, do not cry! Rejoice, son! I protect you, as My angels marked you down with My sign. Do not cry My people! I protect My bishop until the day of the great joy.

Sons from the garden, mark down this day into My book as a testimony, as your sorrow and Mine will bring you joy, and no one will take the joy from you. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Assumption

I come with the clouds and I become feast of new heaven and new earth over you, Jerusalem, My people. It is a feast and I come to you to make your spirit glad, and to have you as the fruit of the joy before Me. Let there be peace, and let there be blue sky! Let the heaven and the earth serve you, the visible and invisible ones, at My meetings with you, for I love you, My loved people!

I am with the kingdom of My Father in you, Jerusalem. You are the kingdom of God, as the Lord reigns in you and becomes word over the earth. Amen. May the kingdom of the Father and of the Son and the Holy Spirit be blessed! Amen, amen, amen.

I am My way to you, and I am your way to Me, and you are My way to the people, you people, My path. We are a path for each other and we meet, and My love is being made perfect over you and becomes the word of love, so that you may take My love and to give it to the people, and that the people may take from it and to know My path, which becomes word to the people, and that the people may walk on My path, which leads to the kingdom of God, and to receive from it a spirit of comfort, a spirit of salvation and of resurrection.

You are the kingdom of God, Jerusalem, My loved people. You have the Lord as King over you, and the King lays a heavenly table into your midst, and the angels and the saints and all the heavenly hosts come together at His table with you, and eat from those that are from heaven, which are laid on the table, and the heaven rejoices in you, Jerusalem, My kingdom. The heaven comes down to you with a council of feast for My mother Virgin, and blessed are the heavenly feasts in you. Every man waits for the days of celebrations and joy, and those from heaven wait all the more, but the heavenly joy is a true joy; it is a true comfort. I comfort you, My people, with the comfort, which comes from heaven. The Spirit, the Comforter, has His dwelling in the Father and in the Son, and becomes the Comforter over His sons, and He becomes the King Comforter.

Oh, Jerusalem, oh, loved people by God! The Holy Spirit, the Comforter is King over you; He is king over you and comforts you, as what is sweeter than the word of the heavenly comfort? I also need comfort, My people, and I comfort you to make you My comfort, to make you comfort for Me, comforted child. The child is comforted with his mother, and his mother is comforted with her child, for great is the mystery of the comforting, and the affection of the Holy Spirit is the perfect love for the sons of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Oh, little children, that I called Jerusalem and sons of the Holy Spirit, I gave you power to become sons of the Father, as it is written: «To those who believe in Me, I will give power to become sons of God and to be born of God, to be the sons of the Father». I gave you power, sons, to be born from above, from heaven, to be born of the Father, to be born of the Father through Me, Who was born of the Father before the ages, and the Holy Spirit of the Father made Me come down in the body of the Virgin to show Myself from her, a Man among people, God came from the Holy Spirit and from the Virgin, daughter of My Father, daughter of the perfect faith and love for man.

Oh, little children, I gathered some of you to mark down a word of joy of the Holy Spirit over you and in you, for the kingdom of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit is in you, and becomes word. Oh, sons, the kingdom of God is near to those who believe in the works of God over the earth. My mother Virgin was a kingdom of God. I dwelt in her as King from heaven to come out and to shepherd the nations of the holy faith.

Oh, sons, there is no one on the earth to understand where the place of the kingdom of heaven is, and behold, the mystery of the holy faith is great; the man with a holy faith has a great gift from God. He, who has no holy faith, does not understand the mystery of the kingdom of heavens and its place and work. But who is the one who has the holy faith? Sons, sons, only a holy man has a holy faith. The holy faith does not dwell in the mind and heart of the man who lives in sins and in fleshly pleasures. I speak to you about the holy faith to understand why the people of the church do not believe in the kingdom of My word, which flows over you and from you to the people. The kingdom of God from you becomes the interpreter for you, so that you may know its mysteries well, as there is no one on the earth to understand those that are true. I want to prepare a place in the people with the kingdom of My word, which is the Spirit Comforter, the Spirit Teacher, Who draws to the Father all who My Father gives to Me to include them in the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens on the earth. I want to prepare a place in the people, but the antichrist, the man of lawlessness stands against Me. Oh, little children, those who have no holy faith stand against Me, as the antichrist does not have his place and name anywhere but only near Me and in those things that are established by Me.

Oh, sons, the people were afraid, the Christians also were afraid of the communist man, as they said that he stood against God and against those who were faithful among the people, but this communist man, (The red apocalyptic beast, r.n.), did not know those things of Mine, but only from the antichrist man who was near Me, near those holy of Mine, near those that were established for Me and for those with a holy faith. And behold, the communist man was the slave of the antichrist man, who was standing near Me to take My kingdom and to reign through those that are My holy things. The communist man could not be greater and worse with God than the antichrist man. The first God's enemy is the antichrist man, and only after that comes the communist man. And behold, the communist one bows to God's mysteries, which come from heaven on the earth, but the antichrist man does not bow, and he hardly lets himself be thrown down from his place near Me, as he does not take care of My things, and if he does, he does it only that My wealth may become his wealth; his and not Mine.

Oh, little children of the holy faith, I want to win over My vineyard through you from under the antichrist's slavery, as My vine is Mine, and I am God. Antichrist does not want Me to be a free God. He believes that I will stay forever under his dominion to work as he wants, but the mystery of My kingdom is an unfathomable and incomprehensible mystery, and it is with its dwelling in the sons of the holy faith. Of what use is a dyed kingdom for Me, on which to stay written: the kingdom of God? Oh, the kingdom of God is inside of its sons; it is not within the boundaries of the antichrist man. (In stone churches, r.n.) What does the antichrist man do? He woke up and dressed with My garment and set himself in My house and turned it into a hiding for him and for the deeds of his iniquities and for his disciples who keep the world in slavery, for the antichrist man cannot bring the man to the kingdom of God. I told to My disciples when I saw the antichrist that he was setting down over those that are established by Me; I told them: «Do not be afraid of those who kill the body, but be afraid of those who kill the soul to throw it into Gehenna, to throw it in unbelief and into a state of not watchfulness and carelessness of soul». The same is today; the man should not be afraid of the communist man, but rather of the antichrist man, who took My little house and garment, and My path to the people.

Behold, sons, My path, which was leading the man to Me, became a human path, so that the people might know the path to those, who took My vineyard and house and table and garment and My path to the people, and the people do no longer know the path to the kingdom of God. No one teaches the people the way to the kingdom of God anymore. There is not another way to be crossed by foot and by walking of the body, for the kingdom of God is in man, and the man looks for it outside of him, as this is how the antichrist, who fights to keep his sons in slavery, taught him, and he fights to take the sons of My kingdom into slavery, who do not know from Me the place of My kingdom in man. No one can find the way to the kingdom of heavens, as it cannot be found on the earth. It is written: «The heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool», and this is the kingdom and My rest. And what did I make the heaven and the earth for? Oh, sons, I made them for the man, so that I may be the God of the man, and for him to be a dwelling of My kingdom, to be a throne and a footstool to Me. But the antichrist man teaches his sons otherwise; he does not teach them as I teach, since his sons look otherwise for the kingdom of God, which is given as a gift and not on money. But today, the churches are ruled by those who stand against Me through the people of the antichrist, and they reached to a means of dishonest gain for the man of the antichrist. Salvation is not bought. It is from God, Who gives Himself to the people to save them and to make them His sons, and the Lord is not a king, who takes tribute from His sons. The buildings of the churches, which do not have Me in them, reached to be a goods store where Christ and His forgiveness and the services dedicated to Christ are sold, and in the place called the Holy of Holies, there where My Body and My word should live, the money slip in, the measure of Caesar, sons. Behold what it is on the earth.

Oh, little children of the holy faith, the communist man is not an enemy to Me as much as he is the antichrist man, and My church, My true church is the man of the holy faith, and many of them coming together into My name, as where they are I may also be, and I am with them, for the man of the holy faith is not swallowed (supported, accepted, r.n.) by the man of the worldly church, who stands against Me through his deeds and through his unbelief.

The man who has no holy faith is unfaithful. Let no one deceive you with empty words, as he, who does not have a holy faith to be a holy man, speaks in vain by his words, if he speaks into My name, even if he uses My teaching in his words. Leave them for they are blind guides, sons, and they do not have the view of the holy faith, and keep Me hidden and put Me in their treasuries to sell Me and to take money and to spend them in the deeds of their iniquities. But you, sons, sons of the holy faith, be holy, as it is written: «He, who is holy, let him be holy still until the coming of the Most Holy». Amen. Nourish yourselves with holiness. Let this be your food. Make yourselves worthy of those holy of Mine, as the pain of the heaven is without limits for the holy things, which are thrown down. I look into the churches from the world when the priests come out with the holy things and say: „Let us be careful, for those that are holy are given to the saints”. (At the Divine Liturgy, r.n.) This is what they say and then they eat the holy things. This is what they were taught to say, but they do not do what they say, since they are not holy, as the holy people are humble and say: „Only one is holy”. But you should know, sons, that if those, which are holy, do not sanctify you to make you holy afterwards, then they do not bring the man into God’s kingdom, for the kingdom of God becomes glory in the man who has it, and that man is known for what he has in him. And behold, the kingdom of God disagrees with the man, who loves lawlessness, and gives you a disgraceful name, you who have the kingdom of God in you.

The holy faith makes the man holy with his life and mind and heart and love, dear sons. I have come to you to make you faithful through the holiness, sons, as the man is not faithful otherwise. I have come with My mother Virgin, as We celebrate a holy feast in a council of saints. We celebrate the feast of My mother’s ascension into heaven, sons, for I have come and I made her body stand up and I told it to come into those from heaven, which are not seen by the earthly eyes. She is with her body in heaven and on earth. She comforts you all with her little comforting hands. She is My mother, the mother of the world Comforter, and she is the mother of comforting, and I am the Firstborn of My brothers, as My mother Virgin made sons of her comforting all those that are adopted by the Father through Me. Amen.

Oh, mother, oh My mother, the earth is without comfort, and its being cries and does not know why it cries. The being of the earth is the man, but the man forgot about the road of comforting. We become the way with comfort and we come to the people with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, as Our mercy is great and has no boundary in comforting those created by God and the man who lost the house of comforting, the house of heavenly guests on the earth.

Oh, My loved people, I speak with My mother Virgin, so that you may hear My speaking with her and to be comforted, son of today, son of the holy faith. My mother Virgin comforts you, My people, and My holy fruit. My mother is your mother, and this is what she tells you:

– Oh, little child people, you are like a single child, and my Son keeps you as a little child before the Father, so that the Father may give you all the milk of His comforts, all the joy, all eternity, little child people. I also comfort you, as I have no more patience until I see my Son coming perfectly for His kingdom. I protect the Romanian land with great wake and love, as it is the wedding country of my Son, the country given to Him for His coming in word until the number of the nations is fulfilled. But as for you, people of my Son, which receives my Son as word over the land, I protect you with a love that has never been spoken of in heaven and on earth, as all the saints have been waiting for you to come out; they have been waiting for you as the little one, as the little heir, who gives to all of his brothers before him; as the youngest child that the Father appoints to administer His kingdom for all his brothers, for all the sons of the Father. My son Jesus Christ, will soon let Himself be seen with everything that He has as His glory and with all the sons and daughters of His glory and with all the angels, little child people, for my Son loved you and put His hands over you and blessed you with a great blessing, because you are small and you are a little child, and the little children are pleasant, as this example of love is learned from those of the nature. But the great ones, who pose as servants and watches near my Son, as they say, try to depart you from my Son, but my Son cries out and tells them: «Allow the little children to come to Me, and do not hinder them, for the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these». Amen, amen, amen.

The little ones know to believe; they know to value; they know to be pleasant; they know to love. The little ones are love and stand close to love as the baby stays near his mother. The big ones are big and are not small, and it is bad of the big one, and every man seeks to be big, as he looks for greatness, and looks to come out from under his Father, to be big too. The big one does not listen anymore. The big one is no longer protected by his parents, for he leaves and becomes big, but the small one stays near his protector and is blessed and watched.

Oh, little child people, I comfort you and I bless you from my Son, Who is the dwelling of all from heaven. Oh, little child people, you should believe in those that will be upon you with my Son, Who comes as word to you. You should believe with great love in my Son, the Word; you should believe until the number of the nations will be fulfilled, as my Son wants to bring salvation to many at your faith, little child people. I take the entire love of the heavenly hosts into my hand and I put it over you and I become my feast in you, together with the Father and the Son within the joy of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter. The mother's love from heaven covers and protects you in the spirit of the holy faith, to be a dwelling of the kingdom of my Son, little child people. My Son has no other welcome but in you, and you welcomed Him to dine with you and to spread the table for the multitudes.

May your holy faith be blessed, little child people of my Son and mine! Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, mother, here I am with My people on the earth. I have made a kingdom for Myself on the earth and I have been perfecting it before the nations on the earth, as there is still a little time and I will appear in My glory with My holy people. Amen.

Be full of the Holy Spirit, sons from Jerusalem, and shake from Him over the earth, so that the people may bring forth fruits of Holy Spirit and to come to life. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Ascension of the Holy Cross

Peace to you, little garden of My word! Peace to you, sons anointed in the garden, as your faith in My word is My path from heaven to earth. Amen. Peace to you, as by your faith I will fulfill all My words, as it is written into the prophecy of Isaiah: «For as the rain comes down and the snow from the sky, and does not return there, but waters the earth, and makes it bring forth and bud, and gives seed to the sower and bread to the eater; so shall My word be that goes forth out of My mouth; it shall no return to Me void, but it shall do My will and it shall accomplish its work». Amen.

Be full of zeal for My word, sons, and give this bread to the hungry and feed the poor, and your light will arise into the darkness, and your gloom will be like broad daylight, for I will guide and feed your souls and I will give strength to your bones, and you will be like a watered garden and like a spring of living water, which never runs dry, and you will lift Me up on the ancestral stone, and I will call you renovators of roads, as it is written into the prophets. Amen.

My word to you is the river of life, which flows from God's throne and from the Lamb's of God. My word is faithful and true. Amen, amen, amen. My word is the water of life, which waters the places without water, without living water, and the lack of water scorches the people, and I come to bring the commandments of the eternal life over the earth and to give the people and to teach them to drink with faith of My living water and to eat with love and hunger of My heavenly bread. My word rises on the earth and speaks on the heights and declares to the roofs to bow down, so that My holy word may rise above them, and that the roofs and heights may be sanctified and to stay bowed at My holy word. Amen, amen, amen.

My word goes to those who stay over My wedding country and I come to announce them that Romania is the country of the heavenly brightness because of My word, which is the river and water of life, and I come to let them know that I established My throne in Romania, and out of My throne flows the water of life; My word flows like the rain and snow in the sky, which waters the earth and makes it bring forth and bud and to give seed to the sower and bread as food, and it does not return to Me without yielding fruit. It does My will and it accomplishes its work. Amen.

Peace to you, to those on the seats of Romania! I am the One Who spoke out of the burning bush on the top of the Mount Sinai, to teach Israel the path to life. I am Who I am. Open so that I may come in! Amen, amen, amen.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, may My Romanian country be blessed, My new chosen people, and may you be blessed, those in the gates of Romania, who believes in Me, the One, Who becomes word over the earth. I am the Lamb of the heavenly Father, and I gave Myself as food to those that are faithful to Me. I am the One Who was resurrected two thousand years ago and I come forever living and I walk on the earth to draw all the people to the Father and to prepare My path through the word, so that I may come the second time with the kingdom of heavens, which has no end, as it is written into the Scriptures. I come with peace and love for all who are faithful, as those who are faithful to Me are blessed. I am. Be faithful. Make the love and the peace of your hearts ready to come in you, Romanian sons, who stand watch over My country of wedding, in which I set My wedding table, the table of My word, as I have a bride people in your country, Romanian sons, who watch over the country of the Lord's election. Be with a heavenly heart and ask Me why I chose the most enslaved one, the most humble one. Oh, My people, Israel became haughty even since I chose him to be My people, and I made him great among the nations. The more I loved and taught him, the more conceited and far away from Me he became, joining to a foreign body, to idols and lawlessness, and becoming conceited over Me, and I made him raise his hand against Me to forsake Me and I to forsake him. Israel stumbled, and because of the multiplying of his iniquity, his love grew cold, and only a small remnant of it endured with Me, and it was fulfilled with Jerusalem the Scripture which says that the abomination of desolation will come upon it, and those from Judea fled to the mountains and they fled without their clothes, according to what was written: «Let him who is in the housetop not go down to take out his things that are in his house, and let him who is in the field not return back to get his clothes», and I burnt Jerusalem, for the rulers of Jerusalem of that time sold Me on money, the One Who was the gift of My Father for the people, and the damnation of the money fell on Israel. I said that the Gospel of My kingdom, which was put aside by Israel, will be preached all over the world as a testimony to all the nations, and Israel will come to an end, and the nations will be blessed by faith, and I will choose the New Jerusalem out of the gentiles, and I will come with the kingdom of heavens on the earth and I will redeem the man from death and I will give him everlasting life as I promised by the Scriptures to those that are faithful.

Oh, Romanian sons, I did not find a more pleasant people among the nations of the earth than the Romanian people, as My Father gave Me great love for this earth chosen by Him from the beginning. Its Mystery is eternal and this land lies before My Father, for it was the first piece of dry land, which came out of the water when the heaven and the earth were created at My word; it was the first inch of dry land, which came out of the waters of the flood after the flood was gone; and it will be the land of salvation, as it is My Father's mystery, and My Father calls it a supper of the word, and all will be made by the word again and will be new. Amen.

Oh, Romanian sons, who watch over Romania, your country has always been under cross, but it has endured to the end and it has not raised its staff against any nation on the earth. It has not oppressed anyone, and it has not taken anything from anyone. On the contrary, it gave from its body submitting as I did, and My Father loved it with a limitless love and He waited for the time of its glory among the nations. My word in it is its glory, and it will become action and body of glory, as I will be always word in it, and the throne of My word will shine out of its midst, and out of My throne will flow the river and the water of life over the earth and it will water the whole earth, as out of Eden a river went out, which watered the Paradise, and from there it was parted into four heads over the earth. It is written: «He who endures to the end will be saved», and My Father has Romania as the country of patience and forgiveness, and it is written about it in the Scripture of the prophet Daniel, and it is called the country of brightness and victory, the country of the Lord. Amen.

Get ready with the love and peace of your hearts so that I may enter you with My kingdom, you Romanian sons who keep vigil for Me upon Romania. I am lowering down the gift of the holy faith. Amen. My word is rising on earth and is speaking on the high places telling the roofs and peaks to bow down and to let My holy word rise above them so that they may have eternal life. I am coming soon, but My house of guests does not want Me to come any more. The Church from Romania needed to be the house to receive in it My word.

Oh, you Romanian sons who watch for Me over My wedding country! Call at the gates of My house of guests, for the enemy came into My house and took My little house and My little coat getting Me out of the vineyard as he did two thousand years ago. I want to bring salvation to the human people, but the antichrist stands against Me, Romanian sons. The antichrist has entered My house and is reigning into My name; for the Father has sent Me but I am not welcomed into My house. My word calls out at the gates of My Father and no one wants to open for Me so that I may come in and bring the words and the water of life and the food of My word for those who are thirsty and hungry of life. I am the One Who spoke in the bush on the Mount of Sinai. I am the One Who speak to the Romanian people from the middle of the little garden of My word from Romania. Lift up the glory of My word and lift it up to the life of the people, for I come to save the human people and I have to fulfill the Scripture of a new heaven and a new earth, and of the kingdom on earth. Amen, amen I say to you: I am coming soon, and I will show Myself above Romania and I will make it into a New Jerusalem, My holy country from the end, and I will shed a great light from it over all the nations of the earth. But the servants of the church from Romania are cold and do not want My coming, and they do not want peace and holiness from heaven upon them and they do not believe in Me. It is written in My Scriptures: «If someone wants to believe he will understand My word and My will and My salvation».

Oh, Romanian sons, I have compassion on the Romanian people, for I love it with a love without limits. My sheep do no longer have shepherds, as their shepherds graze themselves and do not take care of My sheep, and they oppress them and scatter them and inflict many wounds on them, as they do not fulfill My Scripture, which says: «Freely you received, so freely give». The shepherds of the church cannot give anything freely, for they did not received freely, as everything they have they took on money, and they got used to the money, and they sell Me on money, and My sheep are oppressed and trampled under feet by all passers-by. The shepherds of the church took the key of knowledge and neither do they want to be with Me, and nor do My sheep know My knowledge. Help those who are oppressed by unbelief and ignorance, as My word comes to you to ask for a dwelling in you, and be faithful and open to the Lord. I am. Be faithful. I have spread the manger of My word in Romania for more than forty years and I work by the word to fulfill its glory with Me and to prepare My second coming and to come with those that are eternal and to give redemption to the human kind and to work from Romania over the nations, with the light of My word. I am. Be faithful. My word is the river of life, which flows from My throne, but those that are not faithful in the church from Romania strike into the city of My word. Open the books of your time and look in them for the iniquities of the people of the church, who oppressed My Romanian flock and those who love Me in Romania. I had power from heaven come down on you and I supported you to watch over Romania, but take care of My country, because it is still oppressed by the people of the church, who stand against justice, holiness and truth. The people of the church clothe themselves too much with their empty glory; too much do they defile My holy places. Too many people of lawlessness hid under the church cloak and deceive My chosen people. Work with My heavenly wisdom and bring to repentance all the sons of this nation, who hid themselves under My cloak and oppressed many of my righteous people. Receive light from the light and bring the darkness into light, as the man has been falling for seven thousand years by hiding. I want to give freely to those who want to have My gifts, and I want My gifts to be given freely. He, who wants to come after Me, let him deny himself and take his cross following Me and not deceiving Me saying that he comes and he does not come. And if he does not come, let him not tell that he is with Me, and let him not lead My flock astray.

Oh, Romanian sons, I long for the salvation of the human kind, but I do no longer have in My church people clean in their hearts to work with them salvation over the people. Get up, you who watch over the country of My choice, as I became word upon you, and I will ask from you the fruit of My word, as I want to protect your country and to put the Spirit of Truth in it. Amen. I am true in this word, and I give you the gift of the holy faith. Receive from My gifts and be alive and work like Me and not like the man, and protect Romania and keep it for Me and for you, and watch with holiness over it. Receive Holy Spirit, as the gifts of the Holy Spirit will come down on all Romania's sons, but let them be sons. Amen. Love My ways and My truth and My life in you, as I am the protector of those who walk on the paths of justice. Justice lifts a people up, while sin is the shame of the peoples. I want to make a land of justice out of the Romanian land. I am He, Who spoke this. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, Romanian sons, who watch over Romania, your country was always under its cross, but I, the Lord will lift up its cross and I will make a heavenly sign over the people of Romania, for it is My Jerusalem, newly chosen, and I will also urge Israel to repentance, which did not receive Me and forsook Me, and it will be My people again, as I have My signs over it, and I have its signs over Me.

Peace to you, Romanian sons, who stand watch over Romania! Receive My peace. He, who can believe, will know that I am this word, the Lord, Who comes on the clouds, as it is written: «I will come soon», and the Spirit and My bride say: «Come, Lord!».

I am the One Who was crucified by My servants. Those of that time crucified My body, and those of nowadays crucify My word, which I come on the clouds with, to prepare the day of My glory and of those that are faithful and wait for Me to come. I am the God Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, as Father is in Me with His Holy Spirit, and I stay on the clouds of My glory over Romania. Oh, My loved country, My love, I want to make you My heavenly church on the earth, and My servants in you to be holy in their mind, heart, body and faith. I always come as word over you, My love, as My Father sent Me to you to be with you and to protect you and to make you known to the nations of the earth that you are Mine.

Amen, amen, I say to you, watchful sons over Romania: work and fulfill My plans over you and over your country. Receive into your midst the one, who has anointment over Romania, (King Michael, r.n.), and give him peace among you and take care of his life with Me, and you will be blessed. Work out peace between Me and you, and fulfill My heavenly plans over Romania. I come soon, soon. Be faithful like Abraham and keep My blessing over you. Receive from the river of life, as the throne of My word is with you. Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! Receive the gift of the holy faith! Receive the Holy Spirit and work with the Lord to the building of the kingdom of heavens on the Romanian land, which will share the richness of My kingdom to all the peoples, which will come to receive from My glory with you.

Peace to you, Romania! Peace to you, My country! I give you My peace. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of six years after the consecration of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

I come with a spirit of celebration from heaven on earth and I become fresh word over the little garden of My word.

It is a feast in heaven and upon you, My little garden. The heaven celebrates you and the saints and angels embrace you within a spirit of heavenly feast for the celebration of your day of the sealing with the Holy Spirit and with the heavenly power on you. Amen. I put the work of the Holy Spirit over you, and a heavenly power and a strong enclosure, and also saints and angels and heavenly working powers, and I made you My feast on the earth, oh, little garden of My word, and I called you the Holy of Holies, which I, the Lord, enter into, I, the Great Bishop, I with the tens of thousands of saints and angels. My Word is king over you, and the king comes out of you like a bridegroom to love his bride. I become word of love in you and I write the book of love between the Bridegroom and bride. Peace to you, My little garden with anointed sons! Oh, it is very hard of those, who touch this anointment from heaven with a spirit of unbelief and with a deed of unbelief.

Oh, little children of the body of My bride! Little children, My bride! Oh, My people, I have no one to anoint on the earth. There is no man of God on the earth, to have a way to anoint, and by anointment to make My saints for the heavenly ones. Sons, I do no longer have any little place where to bow down My labor and head. In the time of the apostles, it was not as it is now. The churches were churches, not as it is today. The churches from that time meant holiness, and the sin was put away from the churches; it was brought into view by those with the Holy Spirit and it was taken out from the churches.

It is bad without God's word. It is bad without a prophet among the people. The prophet of God is the word of God, which brings the evil into view, for there where the evil hides, the wrath of God comes visibly; the heavenly justice, fire and brimstone over the evil worked out by the people. My word is the word of justice, and those with a false life fight against My word; they fight against Me, and My word is fire and brimstone for those who do not love the Lord fulfilling the right law of the holiness on the earth.

Oh, saints from heaven and little angels, work out over My garden; work on it a work of new heaven and new earth, and prepare its visible glory. Work from all sides and renew the power of the little manger-garden of My word. Enclose it from all sides with the heavenly fire of the Holy Spirit and with the light, which does not grow dim, as I, its Lord and its Bishop, am its light and I become light over the earth from it; I become Light from Light. Amen. I came as word from heaven on the earth, and the people do not know what this work means. I have come, and no one waited for Me to come, and it will also be the same when I will come visibly on the clouds of the glory, as that time has come and I am ready to let My body be seen, as it is written into the Scriptures, but it will not be as it is now, for then I will be kept with My glory by My way that I work with My word today, and I glorify Myself over the little garden of My word, and I will pour out of My mouth a word of mourning, fire and brimstone, over the crows which sleep watching for the sleep of not watching.

And you, anointed sons, come in under My glory, which is protection, enclosure and joy for you. May your comings in and out be blessed, the comings in and out, and work from under My glory to be always clothed and not naked. Teach Israel, teach the sons of My people to be clothed and not naked, as My glory is the garment, which I gave to My people, the one, which prepares My coming. I cannot prepare My coming without a prepared people. I cannot make My coming with a visible glory without a house built of living stones. The house has to be seen and well-built and well adorned, as the heavenly gifts will be to surpass with a visible brightness everything that shines over the people without the power of shining. The brightness, which falls at any breeze of wind, is not brightness, and it is a lie instead, which the people wrote brightness on. Behold the churches of today, which are called so, out of people's habit. Behold the buildings of today, which are called Christ's churches, are adorned by the hand of the lying people, as a false life and a living lie, which deceives the face of the eternal and living truth. The church dwellings belong to the people, they do not belong to God, as I, the Lord, cannot bow My head in them. There is only world in them, a world without God, a world which does not come together there for God, but rather gathers together for people, for human glory and not for godly glory.

Oh, only if the people with a clean heart would wake up, to have power to call the lie, lie! Oh, only if My time with the people on the earth would come! Oh, only if the great day of the Son of God would come; the One, Who the heaven and the earth were made through! Oh, My longing is great, and behold, I made a house on the earth for Myself. My strong hand worked and I have a church after My will, and I have a path to it and with it, I have a way to the earth. I have been waiting for seven thousand years for the time of this faithful people, which believes that the Father sent Me as word on the earth.

Oh, faithful people, may your faith never perish! May your faith increase and fill the earth with faith! May your faith pass into the endless age! Amen, amen, amen.

Behold, I come. Come under My glory, you faithful sons, sons anointed in the little garden. Teach the sons of My people to be clothed and not naked. Let everyone look at your clothing and let everyone that looks at you know what it means for a man to be clothed and not naked. Prepare My people, to be faithful for My coming. Prepare the garment of My glory for My people.

Oh, people, faithful to My coming, I prepare you to prepare My coming. I prepare you, son, and do not be idle; do no longer be idle with your preparation. Prepare the adornments of your faith and polish your garment and your footwear and whiten the whiteness of My holiness, for I am Light from the Light, and the Light is drawn to the Light. Learn from those that are put over you to teach you; learn what it means your glory from Me; learn, My people, as you have My word as teacher above you. Lift up your eyes and learn to have the heaven in you. Look up and learn from those from above; learn the work of the saints and of the angels on the earth. Do not look only sideways. Look also in the sky for you have to receive the heaven as adornment over you. If you look only sideways, you cannot receive those from above, for they are from above and not from the sides. I prepare you with a heavenly teaching, but you should not get lost on the sides, but rather get lost in those from above, so that I may find you in them when I will let Myself be discovered in you and over you and out of your midst over many multitudes. A man, who went to steal and to have, also took with him his child, in order to teach him to have, when he does not have. And when the man reached to take and to have, he worked stealthily, for he worked as on earth; and he looked in front of him and in his back, on the left and on the right, and then he prepared to take and to have. But the little child told him that he forgot to look up, and those from heaven came down and worked for the birth from above of the man's heart, and the man learned to look with those from heaven over his deeds.

Oh, son Israel, I prepare you and you should not be idle in your preparation. Look up now! Amen. And look on the sides only with the eyes from above, with your birth from above, the one from heaven, not with the one from man's birth. I have been waiting for seven thousand years for your time on the earth among the people. I have been waiting for seven ages to be My faithful people, for I called you, son, to be with the heaven on the earth, and I chose you from the one that I chose you, and I made you from the chosen one, the faithful one, to have a way of coming. I do not lie to you that I come and I do not come. If the Scriptures of My second coming are false, then this word is also false. But the Scriptures are truth, and I come and become truth, for I am the word of the truth, the word of the Scriptures. Amen. I made a dwelling for you and for Me. I made a little garden with anointed sons in it. I made a manger for the birth of My word over those who are faithful on the earth, and the place of the glory of My word is called the Holy of Holies on the earth, for the sons of My church, for those that are faithful of the Romanian people, for it is My new people, newly chosen in the end, as I chose Israel according to the flesh from the beginning. I promised Abraham that I will multiply him like the stars of the sky by the seed of My promises, and I will multiply him like the stars of the sky by those born of the heaven<sup>119</sup>. As the stars of the sky cover everywhere from above the earth that is under them, the same I will multiply the nation promised to Abraham; I promised that I will multiply him all over the earth. Amen. That is why I chose the Romanian people out of the nations, for I had to keep My promise made by the word. The nation of Israel, according to the flesh, hardened its heart by unholiness and then by unbelief, and the nations, which did not hear of the work of the heaven on the earth, were born of the Holy Spirit, Which came over the earth, and became a people of the promise made on Abraham, and out of this dough I increased the work of My word in the midst of the Romanian people, the high mountain, out of which milk and honey of My word flow over the nations to feed them and to water them from the river of life, for My word is a river of everlasting life over the creatures. Amen. There will come nations from all over the earth and will take from this river and will seek the resurrection through this word and will seek the everlasting life, the life which flows from heaven on the earth, and becomes a word of life over the garden of My word in the middle of the Romanian people.

I proclaim the word from the middle of the Romanian people. The Lord, Jesus Christ, goes with a new word over all the nations over the earth. I, the Lord, the One born of the Father before the ages, and of the Virgin, two thousand years ago, and now out of Romania as word, in the end of the Scriptures for My coming, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, cry over the earth to all the margins: get up, you, nations of the earth from all the human kind and come to the river of life, which flows from heaven into the middle of the Romanian people! Come and receive life, the word of holy and everlasting life! I am the Word before the coming of My body on earth the second time with the people. Rise above your bodies and escape from the fire of the wrath, which comes from heaven over all the bodies, which do not have the heaven in them. The heaven means holiness and Paradise in the man's house, in the man's body. The Lord calls you to a sweet life, to milk and honey, to a new heaven and to a new earth over the earth. Come and receive the teaching, which gives you eternal life! Come, for the dead rise and will rise and the living will be changed into immortality! The voice of the seventh angel sounds to bring under My glory, those chosen by unbelief, by holiness and by choice food; food from heaven for a new heaven and a new earth over the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

Let the countless nations come and be baptized in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit and in the name of this work from heaven, a word which comes as the lightning from heaven, and crosses it from one side to the other. Let every man wake up: Romanian, Jew, Hellene, barbarian, Scythian or slave, and let them come to an everlasting life. My word is eternal life. I am the eternal life, and come with it after this word; I come and give it to the faithful of My word, which raises the man from death to life.

Come you too, Jewish people, for I came two thousand years ago and crucified Myself for your redemption from under the sin, and behold, I died for the nations of the earth, not for you. This is what you wanted with Me and with you, but I have not taken back the promises made for you. Come and become one with Me, for behold, I came and come a second time, and I will show you the wounds of the nails, which let the seal on My body come down from God and by the

<sup>119</sup> «Even as Abraham „believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness”, know, (Or “recognize /acknowledge”) therefore, that those who are of faith are likewise Abraham’s children.» (Galatians: 3/6-7.)

Virgin; a Man among men. You sold My dead for money and since then you have stayed crushed under the damnation of the money that you loved more than the One Who loved you and was God for you. I was and am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, the Son, crucified and resurrected by crucifixion, and the truth of My resurrection remains even now sold by you for the money. But the nations of the earth saw what did with God and believed in Me, not in you. Here, I come as I promised when I left to stand back to the right of My and your Father, Israel of the flesh. Come too at the feast of My word and take with you from My table and come for faith and call yourself My son by faith in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, by water, by spirit and by blood. Amen, amen, amen.

And you, Romanian people, wake up to receive My glory, which comes over you to your faith. Wake up by the people of My word, which was born into your midst, to bring a heavenly commandment over you: wake up for life and be faithful! Wake up and get dressed for My coming! Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the saint hierarch Spyridon

My people, My people, I, the Lord, come again to you and I set down as word in you. I come, son, to you to measure your creature. Amen. I work over you with a threefold blessing, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The saints want to compare with you, and you should not let Me down, son, as the saints of My heaven have great honor for you, for they see, who you are; they see My work with you, My people. The saints look at My word with you, and they feed on My word as you do, and the saints want you to hear and to understand My word by the ear of the spirit, as they do, not by the ear of the body. Everybody hears from God by the ear of the body, but the body is of no use to the spirit, and it stands against it, as it is written: «The Spirit lusts against the flesh, and the flesh against the Spirit». The entire world is flesh and celebrates its feasts in the flesh, even if it, the world, makes use of My days of feasts. The world has turned My days of feast upside down, and I have no more joy from the joys of the world, as the joys of the world are for the world, not for Me and not for My saints.

My Romanian people celebrates the feast of My birth among the people today, and the heaven celebrates the hierarch Spiridon, for this celebration is also held in heaven today. Everything is upside down on the earth, and I went as word among the great people of the Romanian people, and among those, who call themselves the church of the Romanian people, and I told them to set down with the heavenly ones, and to put back to their place, those that were changed from their place<sup>120</sup>, as the saints of My heaven, always, always ask Me: «Lord, until when?»

It is not the celebration of My birth today, and the world celebrates itself and not Me. The world rejoices without Me, as this is how the world got used to do. But you, My people, are not from the world, as I am also not from the world. I, son, do not have room with those of Mine in the world, as you also do not have any room in it. The world rejoices and you cry with Me of My mourning and of My saints', but My day is coming when the world will cry for its morning, and you will rejoice with My joy, as this is written in the Scripture. I travail again for the world, as you also do, but after this birth, we will forget about pains for joy, that the world that was not born from above, was born from heaven now. It is written that he, who is not born from above, cannot be of the heavenly kingdom on the earth, and behold, the world is the king on the earth, and it would like to be in heaven likewise, but the heaven is that which is not seen, as the eyes of the body do not see the Lord and those from heaven of the Lord.

I come, My people, to measure your creature. I come to you on the earth with a bishop celebration. The bishop Spyridon (Saint Spyridon, Bishop of Trimythous, r.n.) was a heavenly wonder on the earth. I had no one else like him among the bishops on the earth. This really was a man pleased to Me, a humble man like Me, and a gentle and humble man in his heart, a man who helped God on the salvation of the human kind. There are no longer such people like bishop Spiridon today. What shall I do with the bishops with a human school? They cannot do what saint Spiridon did. Those of today are ashamed of the holiness. Those of today laugh at the holy one and consider him just one of them, as it happened with My bishop, whom I used for the new beginning of the world, for the beginning of the word of the new birth of the world, but he was not let to be holy and righteous. The envy of the worldly bishops pulled out the new brick from under him that I, the Lord, placed through him on the earth, for the beginning of the new birth of the world, as I prophesied and promised to My twelve apostles.

Oh, My people, I declare joy to you. The twelve apostles sat down for Israel on the twelve seats that I, the Lord, gave them by My promise of that time. They heard from Me, the word delivered over the nation of Israel, their people according to the flesh, the people that now I call to come and receive My word; the word of the One, Who was crucified by the people of Israel, for the nations of the earth received the word of salvation and come to the faith of salvation by My word, which comes before Me as a sign of repentance for the people, and for My coming; however, Israel, according to the flesh, has My twelve apostles as its interceders, who are Jews according to the flesh, as I also am Jew according to the flesh, for the salvation comes from the Jews, as it is written into the Scriptures. My apostles sat down to judge the cause of the twelve tribes of Israel, and this judgment is being done through Me, the Word of God over the Romanian people, so that the nations of the earth may hear, and that My people Israel may also hear and get up, as Christ, the Anointed of the Father, the Messenger sent from heaven on to the earth two thousand years ago in the flesh in Israel; however, today He is sent as word into the Romanian people; the Christ, the One, Who is prophesied by the prophets to be the Messiah from heaven; the Christ, Who comes again the second time from the Father, to save the world with His salvation. Amen, amen, amen.

The Lord, Jesus Christ is coming and making a salvation feast on earth, a feast of the world's new birth. The Lord comes and announces Himself that He comes. Amen.

My apostles have seated on the twelve seats of righteousness and start to write the ones in Israel who will come to salvation in the name of Christ, the Messiah come from heaven two thousand years ago, and will call their number after the tribes, as it is written in the Scriptures, and the saved ones from the people of Israel will be united to the Romanian people in My name, and will announce Me, the Christ Who comes to be with the saved ones.

My apostles were and are Jews, and are the Jerusalem from above, together with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and with the people of Israel, holy in all ages and with all from the nations of the world which received the faith in Christ through My twelve apostles, the disciples who also raised for themselves disciples like them in all the nations of the earth, from then on and until now, and they are the saints of the heaven, in heaven and on earth, for Jerusalem is built out of the saints, in heaven and on earth, amen; of saints not of stones or bricks, but of new people and holy in their living, with the spirit, the body and their soul. Amen.

My apostles from the Jews have seated on the twelve seats of righteousness to intercede to Me, together with you, My people of disciples, for the nation of Israel after the body, for I did not forget My promises delivered for them and which do not take from upon it.

Oh, My people, the time has come for the new birth of the world and Israel, which was My people and no longer is. But the one from Israel which will get up with repentance to receive Me as a word of My second coming, that one will be My people by the promises delivered for the remnant of Israel, which will rise and intercede with Me for the whole Israel, and I, the Lord, will have mercy on the one who receives Me as his Master and Bridegroom coming from the Father as the word on the earth, and then a visible body, body and word, word and body, the Christ of the Father. Amen. And the nations will become Christian and will live a Christian life and rejoice of such a living, for the world does not know what joy means. The world did not want to be left of its own, and the world has no head, and its church is worldly, not heavenly, and is discovered before God and this is how it prays to God, but it cannot be this way for it is written: «Any woman praying to God with her head unveiled dishonors her head, and the head of the woman is her husband». Any church praying to God with its head unveiled, dishonors her head, and the head of the church has to be Christ, for Christ is the husband of the church, the Bridegroom of the church if the church is the bride, and if it is not the bride it is not Christ's church, but is a worldly and not a Christian church. The Christ's church has a Christian living and a Christian feast, but look, the Romanian churches wanted to be left on its own head and spoiled its holidays, and removed the holy times from their places, and it is no longer a church, for it is a church without saints, for each moment has its own blessing and each day testifies about its saints.

Let Mine and My saints' celebrations come back to their places, for I call out again with this call upon the Romanian people that I want to be Christian on the land of My righteousness. I made out of the Romanian land, the land of My word, the land of righteousness, for My word is righteousness on earth, and I will make out of the Romanian land a land of My Christians, and the Christians are they who have a living like Mine and a name like Mine.

Oh, My people, I came to you to weigh your deed. The world rejoices of choice food, with pork meat and strong drinks, and says that it celebrates My birth. But the world butchers pigs, cattle, sheep and poultry to eat and enjoy its celebration, and the Lord's celebration with the man are not this way. Now it has to be a time of fasting until the day of My birth celebration, (On January 7 after the current Gregorian rite again, r.n.) and you, Romania, butcher pigs and shed blood in the time of fasting. Oh, the blood should not be shed in the time of fasting, teaching and holiness for your preparation for the welcome of My birth celebration. You removed two Sundays from their place for you thought that you can turn the times back, and you did, as it is written in the Scriptures: «They will make bold to change the times».

You should know, Romania, you should know that the feast for the welcome of My birth's celebration is not over, and you overlook the saint's ordinances, and they are upset with you and your fathers and I always hear them saying to Me:

– Lord, how long is it until placing us back to our places? Lord, we want to do good to the people, and the people hurt us. Lord, redeem our places for the antichrist drew us out from the church and took our place, coat and house, and the church is without saints, and it does not know its sickness; it does not know where its suffering is coming from. Lord, give the spirit of awakening upon the those that rule upon Your Romanian kindred, to establish the kingdom of Your word back to its place, to tell the antichrist on his name and to redeem the Your dwellings with saints in the, for the antichrist wrote us on the walls and he sits on Your seat and ours, Lord!

– Oh, saints, the saints of the holy heaven, of Romanian heaven! I, the Lord, will do justice to you, for I made a seat of justice in Romania, and I make a word of justice out of it, and with My word I make your ways even to the people and of the people towards Me and you, and I am God and will overcome.

Amen, amen I say to you, the ones in front of the Romanian people: gather together and have a heavenly counsel, for I am the One Who sit secretly in this counsel. Put the saints back to their places! Amen. Have the fasting and prayer set in the churches, and the saints and Christian life in Romania. It is My wedding country, for I am the Bride in it; I am a word of love and resurrection in it. I am the resurrection from its dead, living and sleeping ones.

It hurts Me when I see sadness in the spirit of your saints, Romania. You were the most hurt among the nations, for the righteous from you had no longer place to live above your land, and were taken underneath as the seed which give forth its fruit. The time of fruition came. Turn back to a holy fruition in your middle, in your land. Amen, amen, amen.

And you, the people of My word, sit under My food; sit always under the rain of My word, for I feed everywhere on it. I came to you to weigh your character and to give you as an example of living, light and of My truth among the people. And I will come to teach you to weigh your character alone, and to know how to work with Me upon you, for you are My plough-share. You are My example before the people, and let he who will lay his hand on this plough not be able to look back, but look only to heaven and only to Me. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Nativity

The Lord, the word on the earth, strengthens the Romanian people in faith and in a spirit of wisdom from heaven. Only those that are faithful know what the Lord's Birth means.

It is a holy feast with Me, the Lord, Jesus Christ, into the middle of the faithful ones. It is a feast of birth. Amen. In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, come from heaven as word on the earth, to strengthen the faith of the Romanian people. I am the Word of the Father Sabaoth, and blessed is he, who believes that I am the One, Who speaks. I come with the clouds, for this is written that I come. I come with the lightning, which arises in the east and appears in the west, for this is written, and My word crosses from one margin of the heavens to another. Amen. Blessed is he, who believes that I am the One, Who speaks. Doubt brings about only damage, and it cannot bring any gain, either because it depends on the good side, or because it depends on the evil side, for this word is a wicked word by its own meaning. I come from heaven on the earth to strengthen the faith of the Romanian people and to scatter away its doubt, as blessed is the one, who does not stumble because of Me.

I have come to wash your feet, My Romanian people. The river of life flows from heaven into your midst and becomes a river of word upon you; it becomes living water, water to refresh the soul, spring water, which springs up from heaven. If I, the Lord, am not by this spring with My love for the man, then what is love? Oh, My Romanian people, oh, My blessed one, I have not given My glory that I gave to you to any other nations, as I become word over you, My word of today. The Scripture, which is on the earth, is My word from yesterday, and the Scripture that I give you now, is My word of today. It is written into the book of the prophet Daniel, that many will read the book of his prophecy through, and will add My knowledge to their knowledge, but no one of those, who live in lawlessness, will understand the mysteries of the last time, and the wise people will walk in the ways of justice and will understand, for the mysteries of this prophecies are closed until the last time. What is the last time? Oh, blessed is the one, who knows from Me to read in this prophecy; blessed are those who love My holy laws, for they receive wisdom and understanding from Me. Blessed are those who wait for Me to come, as I prophesied that I come.

I prophesied My mysteries by the prophet Daniel, and I told him about the seventy weeks of years until the time that by My death and resurrection I established My kingdom on the earth for those who would love the kingdom of heavens in them by the faith in Christ, the Father's messenger on the earth with the people. This time meant four hundred and ninety years, and then I came and I fulfilled the prophecy, and it is the same in the last time as well, for those that were, are again. Amen.

There have passed four hundred and ninety years since a bond was put on you<sup>121</sup>, My country from the end, and after these years I came before you with word, to let you know about Me, the One, Who comes to you, to make you the country of My wedding, to make you the country of brightness, as Daniel prophesied, My dear and beloved prophet; and I came to let you know that I make My kingdom in you, and that I become the land of justice and blessing in you, for you are the country of the brightness, as it is written by you in the Scriptures for My time of nowadays.

I came to you as word from heaven, My Romanian people. I came to wash your feet, Romanian son, and may your footstep be holy, for you have to stand before Me at My last coming, as it is written into the Scriptures, however, on My coming of nowadays, you should set yourself down before Me with faith, for I come with power and I scatter your doubt and I wash your feet, so that you may know Me that I truly am into your midst as the word of eternal life. Get up with wisdom before Me! Amen. Get up, for I am the word into your midst, and I always sanctify you and I always bless you and teach and show you the way of life. Amen. Get up and be My treasure into the midst of the earth, for you are the top of the earth, the first land, which appeared from the waters. Get up as in the beginning, the first one! Get up, oh, country of My brightness, as My Father promised you to Me, when I ascended again near Him. He remembered the beginning, your beginning, and from you I make the man of the man, as it is for this that I have come as word to you. I hold your little crown in My hand. Get up and receive Me, for I come to you. I come soon, soon. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, it is a day of celebration for the feast of My birth among the people. It is a day of new birth of the world, as the time from nowadays is the last time, and I put back into their place those that are shaken from their place in the beginning. The feast of My birth is with those that are faithful, as the unfaithful do not know what birth means. Every man points to himself in all his toil, in all this joys, and the people are a nation to the people, but you, My people from the Romanians, you, who has My word upon you, you should show Me to the people in all My labor and in all My joys with you, and you are the Lord's people. I wash your feet again and again, so that you may sanctify the earth and the heaven with your step, as the people of the church do not know what heaven on the earth means. The church is the place where I dwell, and it is My heaven on the earth. Faithful and holy people, that is My church<sup>122</sup> and My heaven on earth. The people from the church of the world are intelligent people, for they read in My teaching and know what I want, but I want intelligent sons, not intelligent people, as the sons listen to the Father and receive the Father, and they know His voice, and open so that the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit may come in the church, to strengthen and to sanctify it. I am the Word of the Father Sabaoth, and blessed is he, who believes that I am the One, Who speaks by this word, My word of today, as the time of today is the time of the end.

I come from heaven on the earth to strengthen your faith, My Romanian people, and to prepare you for the new birth of the world and to work it with you upon the world, as your name stands by My name and proclaims you and Me to all the margins of the heavens. Amen. I am the One, Who proclaims you, and I am the One, Who stays above you with your crown, for you are the loved one, and you will be. Amen. And I will make you into a land of righteousness. Amen. And I will make you a new beginning. Amen. I have already done so. Amen, amen, amen. I am the One Who sit on the throne and say: «I make them all new», and then I say: «It is done!», as I am the Alpha and the Omega, and I start them all, and I will finish fulfilling everything that My mouth proclaimed. Amen.

May My feast with the faithful be blessed, the feast of My birth among the people! May the feast of My word be blessed with the faithful ones, the feast of the birth of My word among the people! May the manger of My word be blessed; the manger that I, Myself, prepared it for Me among the people to be born in it as word over the earth, for the church is made out of sons, not out of stones, not out of walls, but out of the sons anointed by God, and I am among them with those that are faithful, and I break Myself down upon every nation on the earth. Amen.

My Mother Virgin rejoices near Me over My joy with those that are faithful, over My feast and hers and over the joy of the hearts full of faith, which sanctify My earth and My heaven from the earth with their step. Amen, amen, amen.

Go, Jerusalem, go, My people, for I go before you and I come, for it is the time to come. Amen, amen, amen.

The synod of the Lord's Mother

Amen, amen, I say to you, those faithful and saints of My new people: the time comes, but it has already come, for the heaven to celebrate with the people on the earth, the heaven together with the earth. Amen.

But who is My new people? Only he who is new can be people of the Lord, for it is written: «Those that are old will pass away with a great noise». Blessed are those who hear My word and get up to become sons in My people, in My new people, for only that one is My people. He who is not born again is a man among men; he is not a son among the sons of God. But the man of the world church, will say that he who is baptized in Christ, that one is a new man and a son among the sons of God. Oh, it is not so, you intelligent man that have knowledge of the things from above, it is not so. The new man is the one who is clean and born of heaven, from above, and the sons of the heaven are clean. What man that is baptized in Christ through water, spirit and blood, who among all that are baptized into My name, follow Me, like the apostles, the saints, the martyrs and all the clean sons who followed Me among the sons of the people? Who of those that are indifferent to the baptism and to the church and holiness in body and spirit, who of those are new people and a new nation? Oh, the one who is not born again, and born to remain afterwards, that one remains a man among men, and not a son among the sons of God. The sons of God are otherwise; they are those that even cannot die, for they are the sons of life, as it is written about in the Scriptures. Soon, soon, every man who is indifferent to the eternal life will see the people of the eternal life, for I will stay into its midst and I will make it shine with a great brightness and I will work according to its deed, and I will not work otherwise. Amen.

Oh, My new people, son of the Father! Oh, son and little child, I am the One That I gave you birth; I, the One Who was born before the ages; I, Who am born of the Father; I, Who am born in a body of mortal man to make the man immortal by My death and resurrection. I am the One Who gave you birth during the time of today, and you are My son, and I am the Son of the Father, and you are the son of the Father through Me. Oh, My new people, the heaven celebrates with you on the earth. The heaven is gathered together around you and enjoys a holy feast with you for Me, the One born of the Virgin mother, and for her. The saints and the angels, the seats and dominions, the powers and heavenly authorities, the archangels and seraphim and cherubim and all from heaven and all those that are gathered around you, and My mother is on the seat of the heavenly glory, celebrated in a heavenly celebration in heaven and on earth with you, My new Israel people, for this name is beautiful in heaven and on earth. Oh, dear people of God, the heaven is gathered around you; it is with you on the earth for the celebration of My mother, and out of her mouth the word flows for you, as she has you today near her and shows you to those in heaven, and out of her mouth are brought forth words, which come from Me for you, the one comforted by the holy heaven.

Oh, sweet mother, you who gave Me birth as a Man among men! I, the imperishable and eternal One, came down in you and made you into My church and My tabernacle, a dwelling of My glory, and I made you into the one giving birth of God. When the Father told Me that I would come down into you to become Man according to the man with a mortal body, I did not stand against My Father, but rather, as a son full of love for My Father, I said: „Father, You know what is to be done, and I am one with You, Father, and I am of the same being with You and of the same will with You, Father. I will go on to the earth and I will become Man in the image and after the likeness of the man that is passing away in his body, and then I will come again near You, but I will also remain with them too, with those that I will have from You on the earth among the people. I will come back again into heaven with much more love for the people, as I will clothe Myself in pain and love for the man, for I will always see the pain of the people and their wish after the happiness that the man lost. And then Father, We will work with all the heaven from the sky and with the one from the earth, and We will fulfill the work of the new heaven and new earth, as it was the word of the prophecies of the heavenly Scriptures on the earth, and We will set the redeemed man back to his place, which was made by Us for him, Father, and then We will come into the rest that has been waited for seven ages, for the man's disobedience has drawn upon Us the burden of the pain of his ages, for the man has always prolonged Our pain, Father”.

Oh, My mother, this is what I said to My Father when He told Me that I would come down in you and then out of you among the people, a Man come down from heaven on the earth. If I had received the body like the man's, the people would have not even believed that I came from the Father, for the people think humanly and not spiritually, and the people need a new birth, mother.

– Oh, my sweet Son, You are the model of the new man, the one born of the man, but a new man, dear Son. You are of the royal origin, as I descended from the family of David, the king, of the God's people, dear Son. It is a great thing for the man to be of a great family, of noble birth, but here what a pain on the earth, as the greatest family on the earth, the family of God, the people of Israel and of David, the chosen people from among the nations, crucified You, Son of a royal family, for it was to You that the Father promised the throne of David, which he had from the Father Sabaoth, and it was for this throne that Your people crucified You, Son, the heir of the heavenly throne on the earth. It was for this that You said that the people want to rule over the earth; in fact they want to rule even in heaven, for look what earth is. The people, who say that are Your people, are the people of the church from the world, and no one on the earth is able to see and know which Your throne on the earth is, Son King, the One Who knows and comprises everything that are before and after the ages, as this is what it means to be King; omniscient King over those from under His dominion.

I look, dear Son, to see the ages; I look with You, not without You, for You are my eye; You are the eye of those which are not seen. I look and see living people and dead people, who call and called themselves emperors and kings, and they also called themselves masters over the earth and heaven, Son, but the feeble ones cannot be kings, and they know that they cannot. It is true that the man cannot be king, it is true, but the man does not know what this truth is. Adam, the man made by You after Your model, Son, was afterwards king over everything that is made by You for him, but when he hid from His Creator, from His Benefactor, he ceased to be any longer, and it no longer was, for he who is, only in God is, and the one without God is no longer. Only the one who is can be king, but the people do not know what it means a king-man. The throne of king is a throne of king during the whole time of the king, for there is not a throne otherwise, and if the king dies and has no longer life, there is also no longer a throne. If the people from under heaven killed its King, then His throne is also no longer, as He is also no longer. If the king man kills his Creator, that one there is no more, as the one without God there is not any longer, but the King is forever and is Who He is. Adam was the only king, but when he hid from You, Son of the Father and Creator of the first man, then he ceased to be any more, and through him every living being also ceased to be, and everything of the world which was made for the man. But the Father's compassion was great, and it made You come down in me, and out of me You came down among the people, and You came down from the people, for I was among the people like a ladder of Your coming down from heaven on earth. You made just one single step from heaven to earth: from

Father in me and from me on the earth, but the man, Son, hardly comes to be with You. You became such an easy way for the man who wants to be in heaven, and with the heaven on the earth, and with You, Son, on earth and in heaven. Oh, You are the way, and You are not hidden, but no one sees Your way anymore, and no one sees You anymore, eternal Son, for those who see have Your eye, and You are the eye of those who see.

The man has to make one single step up to heaven: from him in You and from You in heaven, as You made Your step towards the hidden man, for the fallen one is the hidden one, and the hidden one is the fallen one. You are the Man that came down from heaven and the first fruit for the birth of the new man, for it is written: «no one ascended in heaven but only the One Who descended from heaven to take the man in heaven», and to be fulfilled Your word that You spoke about, that «the one who is not born from above cannot enter the kingdom of the heavens». You came from above, from heaven, so that the man may be born of You, and how humbly You spoke to the one whom You said: «He who is not born from above cannot be from above». You were the One Who came from above, so that the men may have the heaven close to them and to be born from above, from heaven, from You, heavenly Son, Son born from heaven on the earth.

It is the feast of Your birth into the middle of Your people and it is the feast of my glory, for the entire heaven glorifies me, as the one who gave birth to God among the people, according to the word of the prophecies of the heaven. Oh, heavenly Son, born of me, You took the earth into Your hands after You made the heaven and the earth, and You looked at Yourself and made Your image out of the earth and gave it Your likeness, and then You also gave him spirit of Your Spirit, and out of the image made by You from the earth, You made a living being, the breathing spirit of Your Spirit upon him and in him, and You called him man in Your image and after Your likeness; and then You took a handful of flesh from his body deified by You by Your spirit and living breath, and made the woman to be a helper for the man, and out of the womenfolk You took me to be Your helper now, when You came down to the people, in order to take them back into heaven, as the man is Your work from the beginning. Who can understand what that word of Yours is, when You said to make a suitable helper for the man? The woman was supposed to help the man for his ascending back into heaven, into Eden, into God's kingdom, at the fullness of the time of the kingdom of God, and I, dear Son, have fulfilled that word of Yours, and I was a suitable helper for You, for the salvation of the lost man from Your kingdom, from his kingdom, and for You to give him back the kingdom and to be king, and to be, for a king is only the one who is.

Adam gave names to all the living creatures with a breath of life in them, but he did not find a suitable helper for himself, for later, the man who came out of the man brought the animals as a reconciliation sacrifice before You, but the man did not get up from his fall, as this help through sacrificed animals was not suitable for him, and his help came through the woman, as Your word was, Son, God and Word, You, Who work in the end as in the beginning. And You came, the symbol of the new man, the One born in heaven and born from heaven by the Virgin. You came, my Son and Bridegroom, and You left Your Father and joined with me and were in my body. You became one flesh with me, so that You might come out as the new first fruit and the beginning of the new man, a born man not a created man, to redeem those that are not born, born of the two men, Adam and his woman, and to come with the man to Your first work, on which You bestowed the man as king.

Your work is great and long, Son, as long as Your patience is. Oh, only if the man was eyes and ears around Your work for the man's salvation! I was Your helper, and the helper of the fallen man, of the hidden man, Son, Who are of the same being with the Father. If the man fell, helped by the woman on his falling, I was the one who helped the man to come back into the time before his fall, to come back to my Son. I gave my Son to the people, as God is my Son, because I gave Him birth at the Father Sabaoth's commandment, so that the Scriptures, which says that the woman was made to be a suitable helper for the man, may be fulfilled. If the womenfolk drew the man into sin and death and fall from God, and if the womenfolk cannot make an everlasting life for the man, then I rose above this kind and sanctified the man in my body at the Father Sabaoth's commandment.

The bad things have to be brought into view to be seen from where they are, since they are, and why they are, and only then it must be worked out against them. Otherwise, one runs empty and the evil does not die, but rather the good dies.

And now listen, sons of the Lord, and you, sons of the people! A woman who is not spiritual cannot be but a stumbling and weakening block for those who are holy, by her own female body, for the woman has her own body through the woman from the beginning<sup>123</sup>. It is written in the book of the prophet Isaiah, that the woman is the spring of haughtiness and has haughty walking and seduction in her lingering look and walks with tiny steps, and because of her body the people fall into her power, for the woman spoiled the stature of the man made by God.

What is the unspiritual woman? It is that one who does not work the spiritual things, and if she does not work these, she has a weakness spirit within her, from the lack of the spiritual work. I tell these women to keep their look down and to give their work made for the saints with propriety. When a woman complains to a man of those of her fleshly nature, she softens his heart towards her, and this is not good, but rather bad. If a woman complains of those for her salvation, then she is otherwise, she is humble and respectful to God and to the man of God and they become godly to each other, but this is rarely to be seen on earth. It is a great work for the woman to be spiritual. That one has the Spirit of God with her, and she has the gift of God over her, and she is meant for the godly thing, as I was, the mother of the Son of God. If a Christian woman, does like a fleshly woman and complains about the things of her fleshly nature, of her weakness, to a holy man, if she makes use even of humbleness, even that humbleness draws the holy one to her weak fleshly nature when she complains about her fleshly things; she draws the saint to compassion and weakens him.

You, Christian woman, do not be weakened by those of your fleshly nature, but rather put on the clean things. And you, Christian woman of the new people, if you are nothing else but suitable to the earthly things, serve with obedience and thankfulness there where you are suitable according to your fleshly and soul stature, and save yourself by humbleness and thankfulness with those that you have, and by your propriety of fleshly nature and mind. If you are of no use spiritually, and if you are not put by those that are spiritual to the work of the spiritual things because of the measure of your fleshly and soul stature, you should be thankful, quiet and humble, waiting for Christ, my Son. Be careful in the brotherly assembly to those which come from heaven; be faithful and careful, to give yourself over to my Son with your heart, with your mind and with your soul, and do not do otherwise, so that you may not stir up the holy ones to you, so that you may not make the saints weak by your fleshly nature, and if you are not satisfied with this advice, then you should not look for the Christ's things.

You, sons, apostles of the new people of my Son, do not stop, do not make a halt in the council, weak in its fleshly nature and heart, in conversation with women, so that you may not give them work to the spirit of their weakness, for the woman, who has not got the spiritual thing for the work into the field of the Lord, that one is a weak vessel, which spreads weakness by her own body that she has got through the woman from the beginning, who did not work for the help of the fallen man. My Son took the image and likeness of the fallen man, to win over to Himself the one fallen from heaven, and you, sons and apostles of the new people of my Son, always take God's image and likeness in you, so that God may be won over to those who will rise from their fall. Be like angels, but be great in your wisdom, for some of the angels fell from heaven, and you should be the like those who remained in heaven at the urge of the angels who cried out over the angelic hosts: «Let us stand well in fear and attentive to God!» Amen. Be full of eternal life and learn from me and from the apostles and from the saints to give eternal life to those who do not have it, as each soul deified by you, will be counted to you for the reward of the glory which comes over to you.

You, spiritual daughters of the new people of my Son, be like the apostles, and do not take after the women. Be men like the apostles, to be apostles. Be helpful to the salvation of the human people, as I and all the holy women were, who worked out the apostleship of the word of my Son, as Verginica was, the trumpet of the word of my Son, and let the spirit of righteousness be born of you over the people like the spirit of the cleanness of spirit and body, which is to dwell over the people by the new people of my Son, Who is coming and is coming soon, but He has already come and the world did not know him and does not know Him, but you know Him and saw him because He is in you and He is my Son. Amen.

– Oh, mother, oh, mother, oh mother Virgin, the celebration of your council with the saints is great and sweet, the feast of your word with the heavenly people on the earth. Oh, and the world does not know My new people, mother. The world is eating and drinking, marrying and given into marriage and enjoys its life and does not look at My people to follow it on its way with Me.

Oh, mother Virgin, two thousand years ago, you took Me in your arms as a baby, and now, in the last time, you share Me as word to the faithful who have knowledge of Me that I become word from heaven over the earth, and to all who will hear Me and take Me to have Me as eternal life for them. I, the One of one being with the Father, break Myself as a word to the people. I, the One born of the Virgin, break Myself as a word of love and eternal life for the people. I, the One born as word now, in the last time, into the middle of the Romanian people, break Myself in thousands of thousands of pieces and go as word to all the ends of the heaven to announce Myself as King over heaven and over the earth, for the King is the One Who is, the One Who is being born and does no longer die, but rather lives and overcomes the death. Amen. I am the One Who prevails over your death, man, if you love life. My mother Virgin was of imperial and royal birth, but she and her Son were poor among the people, and the people do not know what it means to be king or master. He, who does not humble himself before all the people, cannot have dominion on anyone of the sons of the people, for it is not through the earthly goods that the rulers over the people have dominion. The man comes near to the humble man without fear, but the man fears the man who is strong by his own strength, for the people are powerless, and that is why they look for greatness, and those without any hope put their hopes in it.

Oh, the cup of My mercy is filled for the people, for the people are powerless. I come down as the word of hope, and those who put their hopes in My promises, will not be put to shame, as I have fulfilled everything that I promised to the man. I will soon remove the veil and come for those who are faithful, and then I come for those who are unfaithful, and then the beginning comes to be with the last time, and the last time goes to be with the beginning, as I am the Alpha and the Omega, and the heaven joins with the earth in a work of New Jerusalem through Me; of new beginning, of new heaven, and of new earth, as I promised. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Three Holy Hierarchs: Basil, Gregory and John

My Spirit becomes the word, which speaks over you, Romanian Israel. My Spirit is coming through the gates to you, people moved by My Spirit.

I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and I am coming down from the right hand of the Father to you, for you wait for Me, My people. Oh, what a wonder into your midst! The Lord, Jesus Christ, is coming from the right hand of the Father, to be with you, to speak with you, and to teach you to speak with Him, too. There is still a little while, and your eyes will fully see Me with you. Get used to the heaven, and start now. Get used before having the full sight, for the sight of the spirit will see through the sight of the body. Soon, soon, those that are not seen will come into view, those that are of My feast with you, people of My second coming among the people.

My Spirit is coming near to you and becomes word; and He also becomes a feast of spirits, for I have company from heaven on My coming down, My people. I have come down with the three bishops, Basil, Gregory and John, as their work is great into My work of today. I blessed through them the beginning of the work of My word in the year of 1955, for I work through the bishop's blessing, and not without blessing, for My church has this order through Me, the Greatest Bishop, Who crossed and crosses the heavens.

I come with a bishop's feast and become word on the earth. Amen. Israel, Israel, get used to heaven. Israel, son, you always have the saints and angels with you. Get used to heaven as the heaven got used to you. Get used to speak with Me and with those from heaven, who I have always come to you with. There is still a little while, and the heaven will stand aside to see it fully, and your eyes will see fully, as My eye sees you fully.

Israel, Israel, My voice! Israel, My word! Son, I cannot speak without your little mouth. I took an earthen body to speak in it, from it and with it. I became flesh from the word and out of the word and I came out of the virgin body, to speak from it and to become the spoken word. I have turned you into My body. You are My body, for I am one with you through My body, and you have to speak with Me, if you are one with Me. Son, I cannot speak without your little mouth. Teach yourself to speak with Me; get used to My speaking from you; get used to heaven, and get used starting from now, before the coming of the full sight when the sight of the spirit will fully see through the sight of the body. I have always said: "Grow Israel, grow son, grow up! The heaven will let itself be seen by you; that is why I have asked you to grow up. I have always said that you are My hands, My legs, My eye and My mouth. Oh, little child, on whom I breathed and always breathe, look at Me to see whether you are Mine or yours. Look to see whether you are My hands, My legs, My eye and My mouth. Look and then tell Me with your little mouth whether you are Mine or yours. If you are Mine, then you will bring the heaven into view, and if you are yours, you will close the heaven and you will not see it.

Israel, Israel, the things hoped for come to perfection. Get used to the heaven; get used to the saints; get used to the everlasting light; get used to the eternity; as all the saints have been waiting for you to open this door of eternity. I have told you son, that you are the key and you are nothing else but the key, and this is your work. Open your eyes to see how it has been waiting at his gate for seven thousand years. All the saints have been waiting for the new heaven and new earth, and you are the key for this fulfillment. Many a saint fought on the earth in holiness, love and longing for the homeland of the new heaven and new earth where righteousness will reign. Get up in the word, My people! Amen. Get up and speak of God! Amen. Get up! Amen, amen, amen. Oh, what a wonder! I am coming down from the Father and I am with you and speaking with you and I am with all those from heaven in a bishop's feast into your midst. Israel, Israel, get up and stand before Me, for Romania is My country and yours, Romanian Israel. Get up well and stand before Me for your country. I am into your midst with heavenly bishops. I am in your spirit and I teach you to ask for Romania. Get up in the word and speak with God saying:

"Lord Sabaoth, the Creator of everything, the Omniscient, the One Who sees everything, Father of the Son, the One sent by You as a sacrifice on the earth to take upon Him the sins of the creature; Father of the former Israel; Father of Israel of the Romanians; Father of the sons of Your Word, Jesus Christ, open the door of Your mercy for the Romanian country, and for the Romanian people. Your Word becomes word from the middle of the Romanian people, the one that is oppressed because its abandonment of God and because of its lack of repentance, Lord. Your word is coming down from heaven and is calling out over the Romanian people, but no one knows what God with the people means any longer. Open the door of Your mercy, and open the eye of Your love and work out from heaven faith in You on the Romanian people, so that they may learn the law of Your love, Lord.

The Romanian people is not inclined to repentance; it is not inclined to humility; it does not draw God to it; it cannot come to You, and it does no longer know its way for it has been covered, Lord. The Romanian sons have become the enemies of their own salvation and have no longer power to overcome the spirit of self-aggrandizement in them, the spirit of hatred among them, and the spirit of greed and lie, Lord. The Romanian does no longer know what true love is, and a confusion of languages has come over to Your people, chosen to be Your house and coming on the earth. But open the door of Your mercy to him and breathe the Holy Spirit over the Romanian people, and do Your will over Romania, for its sweet time has come and it does not know to be with the heaven. Come down and see from above and from below, and work out the forgiveness of its sins, so that it may be able to see afterwards; to see through repentance, Lord, that there is no forgiveness without repentance, and that there is no joy and peace without humility and repentance.

Put of Your Holy Spirit over the spirit of the Romanians, so that they may have that wisdom, for it is not bread and garment that they lack, but rather that they lack their reconciliation to You; they lack holiness, peace from heaven, and brotherly love among them and the love for You, Lord.

We ask You for the fulfillments of the kingdom of the heavens over Romania, with Your heavenly plan, which You made come down over it. Remember the promises of Your second coming on the earth, and make Your coming and glory perfect over the country with the Bridegroom, and make it into a throne of Your glory before the nations, Lord Sabaoth. Amen, amen, amen”.

Oh, My people of the Romanians, My Spirit has taught you to ask Me over Romania. I know your needs, and I know the need of your country, and I will fulfill My heavenly plan at your prayer. Amen. I renew the bishop's blessing over you through the spirit and by the heavenly hand of My bishops.

Get used to the heaven, Romanian Israel. Get used to speak with Me and with the saints, for I have made your little mouth holy, and you should build My church on My coming. I have told you, son, that you are the key from the end, and I have opened the gate of eternity with you, as the souls have been waiting for seven thousand years at this gate to receive the reward of new heaven and new earth.

Get up in the word, My people! Amen. Get up and speak with God! Amen. Get up, build and speaks while building! Amen. Get up and open yourself! Amen. Get up, for I am coming! Amen.

My people, get up! Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the dreadful judgment remembrance

My people, I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and I come from heaven, from near My Father, and I speak to you and I call you My people. Amen.

Be careful, Israel, as the Lord, your God is Savior and Judge. I sit on the clouds of glory and I speak to you, Israel of today, and let My speaking with you spread into the four corners, as you are taught by God. You should give My teaching everywhere, so that all the nations of the earth may know that I come with My justice, and I will give each one according to his own deed. Amen. I am the One Who is speaking with you, Romanian Israel, and I am the Son of God, the Father, and I am the Savior of those who take after Me as after the Good Shepherd of the sheep, and I am the Judge of those who walk without God in their ways.

Oh, My people, I taught you to be an example and a sign among the people, as the wounds of crucifixion hurt Me badly when I look over the earth and see the sheep mixed with the goats. Antichrist makes troubles for Me everywhere and I cannot choose those that are good from those that are wicked, in order to set aside for Me what is Mine. I come in vain from heaven and ask every man to choose Me. Antichrist comes into view with his bait everywhere, and the man lets himself be weakened by those that are seen, and I, the Lord, work hard to set on My right those that are good and those that are faithful and quiet, who seek with My love in them.

Oh, My people, you are My help on the earth. If I did not have you faithful to My voice, which comes from heaven to you and becomes word into your midst, and if I did not have you as My mountain, which I stay and speak over the earth in, I would have not been able to choose the good from the bad, as My word from the Scriptures is written, the word of the Right Judge. I am worried about you, for you should be able to do it by My power and by My will over the earth, and the power and the will are the same work.

I have deep wounds, My people. I show them to you by the word and I make you the healer of My wounds. I have great comfort that I have you and I have a way to tell you of My great pain. The power and the will are the same work into the faithful man to Me. It hurts Me greatly to hear the voice saying on the earth: „Lord, I cannot, help me to be able to do it”. Be careful, and then keep in mind, My people, that he who wills, is the one who can, and the one who does not will, is the one who cannot. The faithful man speaks to Me in vain: „Lord, I cannot, help me to be able to do it”. I gave the faith in Me to the man, and the man cannot make excuses that he cannot. This is what I said: «Everything is possible to the one who believes». Amen, amen, amen. The one who believes in Me wills, and he can willing, and he wills being able to, as the ability and the will are the same work.

My church on the earth brings into remembrance My second coming on the earth as Savior and Judge. I am the Shepherd and the Good Savior, and I also am the Righteous One, the Right Judge, Who is coming to give each one according to his own deed. Oh, My people, there is no longer church after My will on the earth. The servants of altars and the flocks of the servants of the church from the earth do not walk after My will, for he, who does not will, he cannot. I am the Right One and I cannot make a crooked judgment to the one who says to Me: „Lord, I cannot and I could not, help me”.

Oh, man who are desired by God! Man, My longing for seven thousand years! What did you not really have that you could not? I gave you all the fruit of My love, man. All that I had I gave to you so that you may have and to be able to, and then to will. My love can do everything, and everything is possible to the one who believes in Me and has love for Me. How can I rightly judge this word: „I cannot, Lord, and I could not?” What did you really not have that you could not, man endowed with God and with all God’s gifts? The one who says „I cannot”, that one actually says „I do not want”. He will better say to Me: „Lord, this is what I can, for this is what I will and this is how much I love You”. This is the justice for the word of the one who says: „I cannot, Lord!”

Oh, My people, the man’s indifference is great. The spirit of carelessness becomes antichrist in man, and that is why I taught you and spoke to you: „Run, My people, run from the spirit of carelessness, for the indifferent man becomes antichrist by his indifference to God”.

The church on the earth brings into remembrance the Sunday of dreadful judgment. Oh, what shall I say to the church, which is called Christ’s church and does not do My will and does not walk as a church and is not like church? The one, who does not do My will, is the one who does not want to do it, as the spirit of indifference becomes antichrist in man, and the indifferent man becomes antichrist in himself by being indifferent to God. I do no longer have shepherds on the earth to help the people do My will. I Myself come and teach the people. I come from heaven and become a compassionate Shepherd and I call the sheep to come together to the table of My word.

I speak to you, My faithful people. My speaking with you becomes pasture for the sheep; it becomes a calling; it becomes a living food for those who seek living food, for I come to you as word to work with you and to call together My sheep to My right side to distinguish them from the goats, giving them the teaching for the sheep. My teaching is only for the sheep, as only the sheep eat it. Those who eat from Me are My sheep, and I come as word over the earth to bring My sheep together in My fold, as I said: «In the house of My Father there are many places, but I go to prepare My place on the right side of My Father, so that where I am to be My sheep as well». I am the door, and I am the model of My sheep. The one, who comes in through the door, is the Shepherd of the sheep. I came as word on the earth. I, Myself, came to the sheep, so that they may have life, and so that they may have it abundantly. My sheep know Me and come after Me, and I have many strayed sheep, and these I have to bring to hear My voice, and then they will be one flock and one Shepherd, as it is written into the Scriptures. Those who do not believe that I am this word, they are not from among My sheep, and they do not believe My word and the Scripture cannot be abolished. Amen.

Oh, My loved people, the one who cannot, is the one who does not will. The one who does not will is the one who does not want to believe. I speak the words of My Father, and the people are indifferent because of their unfaithful shepherds in My word, the one that has eternal life in it. If even My word did not have eternal life in it, then those who do not believe in it would have no sin. I am the Right Judge, and that is why I spoke this word. This word is the judge of those who do not believe in it. Amen, amen, amen.

Faith is a gift from God for those who are pleased to God, and the faith is not for all. Blessed are those that are pleased to God, for the gift of the faith is theirs in this word, which comes from the Son of the Father before His great and dreadful coming. Amen.

My people keep in mind, son: he who wills is the one who can. He who can is the one who wills. This concerns those that are good and those that are evil.

My people, any word, which I can speak to you, is a great joy for Me that I could speak it, for I could make it come down from heaven on the earth. You are My ladder of My coming down from heaven on the earth, as everything is possible to the one who has faith. If you were not faithful, My people, I could struggle in vain between heaven and earth with this word of eternal life, as I struggled in vain for those who were into this fold of Mine, into this people of Mine, and they left from My fold through unbelief and indifference, as the indifferent man becomes antichrist through indifference to God.

Speak son; speak to the people to leave their wicked deeds and to take God as their deed. Tell them from Me to do what I told the man to do. My people, tell the Romanian people to live its life in heaven as on earth, for the Romanian country is the country of My second coming on the earth, and I do not want to find them eating and drinking, marrying and being given in marriage, reveling and going astray when I come. This country will be the country of the Christians who do the will of My Father, as I did. The land of the Romanians will be a land of saints and disciples; it will be a land of sons of God, who will live with God in their image and likeness, and it could not be otherwise in the country of My coming.

My people, I keep telling to the Romanians to take after Me in clothing, eating, drinking and doing, as they will no longer be Romanians otherwise, for the name of Romanian is the name of the new Israel, the one after My likeness. I keep telling to the Romanians to keep in mind that I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Good and Righteous One, and that I have come as word to them, for them and for all the nations on the earth; and I have been preparing the day of My coming by the word and I have been making it by the word, for I have been making them all by the word, from the beginning and until My coming in a glorified body. On My first coming, My body was without glory, but now I am coming with My body full of visible glory and I will be standing into your midst, My people, and you will be part of My glory; and I will take you from glory to glory, as it is written into the Scriptures about those from My coming, who will be found near to Me. Take good care to be near to Me, Romanian Israel, for you are an interceder for the Romanian people.

Keep in mind My people and remember that I, the Lord Jesus Christ, always come to you and I become the word upon you and I call you My people. Amen. I taught you to be an example and My sign into the middle of the people. My care for you is great for you have to be able and to will by My power and My will upon the earth. The antichrist confuses Me everywhere so that I may not choose the good ones from among the evil ones, but I press on putting to My right the ones that are pleased to Me. He is seen everywhere with his bait, and man let himself be enticed by what is seen. He puts on the holy garment and creeps in everywhere, but he does not do My will, and he is not a sheep, even if he has on him the skin of a sheep.

Remember My people that the antichrist does not do My will and by this he is visible and caught in his own hidden trap and by this he was and is judged. Amen.

I am The Right One and I will make out of Romania the land of My justice, and My justice is forever. Amen. I am the One Who is coming the second time from beside My Father on earth and My body, full of glory, will be seen into your midst, My people. I am coming soon and My reward is with Me and I will give each one according to his deed. Amen.

Here are the hypocrites; behold how they are hiding from My face and from My wrath, but however, the kingdom of the man will fall down. Amen. And My kingdom will rise between heaven and earth. Amen. And the Romanian country will be My throne, the throne of the kingdom of the heavens on the earth. Amen. Those who want to be, let them come on My side in order to make them holy by the word, and to be holy afterwards, so that they may live heavenly on the new earth. The new earth is made of the new man on it, and the new man will renew the earth, and the old man will no longer be, for all are being made new at My word, which says and it becomes. Blessed are those who are pleased to God, for theirs is the gift of the faith within this word, which is coming from Me and with Me before My great and dreadful coming, and I, the Lord, will give them power to become sons of God, born of heaven at My word, sons of resurrection, as I am. Blessed and holy are those who have power, will and faith by this word, for the faith is for the saints.

Remember My people and do not forget that the antichrist does not do My will rather he does his will. My people keep in mind that the one who looks after his own glory, that one speaks from oneself. Do not forget that the one who seeks to gain his life that one will lose it for man is helpless. Amen.

My people, I am greatly concerned about you, for you have to do whatever I want to do through you, for you are the tool in My hand, which I clean My threshing floor with, and I gatherer My grain on My right side, in order to come then with My righteousness and to give each one according to one's deed. Amen, amen, amen.

The remembrance Sunday of Adam's expulsion from Paradise

I am the Christ of the Father, the Word of the Father, and I come from the right side of the Father; I come in word from heaven on earth, for I have the power to come and to do everything that I want to do. Amen.

Come, Romanian Israel, into the mystery of My word; come and stay in it until its fruit will be shown, as you are the visible fruit of the mystery of My word; you are fruit from fruit as it is written: «I am the vine and you are the branches of the vine».

Israel, My little house, let Us be a house to each other. I have always come down to you, and you have always got up to Me and we are a house to each other, and this is an invisible mystery, for this mystery is not seen, but it actually is, more than those that are seen that they are. I am the One Who brought everything into being, and I brought them from nothing, I brought them into being from those that were not, as My word is My Spirit, Who becomes deed by speaking of word. Amen.

Romanian Israel, My living little house, I come with a supper of word into My living little house and I become teaching from heaven on the earth, so that the man may have what to eat, and the one, who wants to have living food, food from heaven and not from the earth, may not die.

Oh, Israel, My book with you is great, and you will see the seal that I opened to become a book with you on the earth. The book is the teaching, but not as on the earth. No book is a book except Me, as I am the only book, I and with My people. Amen. My people is the one that does My will obeying My word and fulfilling it. Where do I have a church on the earth in My image and after My likeness? I look everywhere and I do not see My will in churches. Oh, where do I still have a Paradise on the earth? I came from heaven two thousand years ago to make a Paradise in man and to be with the man. I came to make a new church, like the heaven from the beginning, but the man, like the first created man, made „yes” into „no”. He who makes „no” from „yes” and „yes” from „no”, that one does satan's will and becomes satan for God, as the beautiful angel did together with his host.

Who made satan? Who turned the angel into satan? Sons, sons, be great in your wisdom and faith, for the first created man thought on his being with God, he tested those concerning God's being and God's nature, and since then the angel, which then was called satan, served the man and a war was made in heaven as written, and since then Adam was clothed with the mortal body and was expelled from Paradise through this.

Sons, sons, I, the Lord, made a being out of nothing, for I am the One Who is, and I am the Creator of all things. I created every being for the man, for the first created man. I built the man from clay and My breath on him made him a living being. I breathed on the clay that I made with My hand after My image and I gave him a living soul, and I called him man, and I loved him and I gave him everything that I created as a gift, and I taught him to listen to Me as the One Who made him to be. I gave him free will to be able to love immortality, in order to love his Creator, for I need love from man. The one, who is not free in his own will, has not got his own love. I gave him free will to love Me; that is why I gave it to him, and then I taught him and I told him: «Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat, but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, you shall not eat of it: for in the day you eat of it you will surely die; so that you may not rise over God Who knows everything».

Omniscience belongs to God; it does not belong to the man, but the man had thought on God's being, and the spirits of the heaven saw the first created man who loved God; they looked into the man's mind, as the spirits have their work by way of the mind. Who have a mind? God and man. The angels served the mind of God and the mind of the man, and this is how they started their working in heaven. The man was put by God over all that are created by God for the man, and during the time of man's haughtiness, during the time of his thinking on God's being and nature, the man fell, and all the living creatures fell with him, taking on the mortal body as the man did, and by the first created man, all the human kind, which was to come out from the man, fallen from Paradise, was defiled and fell down.

Oh, My people, the first man did not want to fast one single time and by this, the human race fell down. But he, who has not fasted for so many times by the command of the fasting, what has he done to his people and his house?

It is a day of watching; it is a celebration of watching over the churches on the earth, which have written today the beginning of fasting for the remembrance of My passions. It is a day of remembrance for the day when the first built man was expelled from paradise by the violated commandment on the sixth hour of the day, reaching out his hand to take from God's knowledge and to be like God, like His Creator. That is why the man's hand nailed My hands and My legs on the sixth hour of the day, taking after Adam and his did, reaching his hand against Me in the sixth hour of the day. Then there was great darkness until the ninth hour, and Adam was taken out of the paradise by his own deed, the deed of disobedience to God. Since then I have had no longer rest and I have been walking sobbingly between heaven and earth, looking for the man who was created by My hand, the first created man, the man by whom the whole human race lost its incorruptibility and happiness from paradise. The Father sent Me from heaven on the earth two thousand years ago, to take upon Me the man's fallen nature, and I took it fully, as on the sixth hour of the day, when the first built man reached out his hand upon Me to take My knowledge, I was spread out on the cross and nailed by the fallen man, and on the ninth hour, when the man was fallen from paradise by his disobedience, I, the Lord, being on the cross, gave My soul and Spirit into My Father's hand, for the redemption of the man built by God.

I came on the earth to die like the man, and before of My passion which wiped away Adam's sin, I had fasted for forty days praying to My Father to be wiped out the sin of the first created man, who did not want to fast from disobedience, who did not want to not to eat disobedience. Why did I tell Adam not to eat from the fruit of the tree of the knowledge? Because the knowledge was God's not man's, because the Lord did not want the man to die by knowledge. This is what I told the man: «If you reach out your hand to take from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, you will surely die».

The man does not know to shun evil if he comes to know it, for if he knows it, he does it, as it happened to Adam, whom I told not to do any evil, not to work out disobedience. The man who does evil without knowing that is evil, then the evil has no power over the man, but if the man is told that the evil is evil, then the man has sin if he does evil; he has it by the fact that he knows that evil is evil and that it does not need to be done. It is written into My word in the Scriptures: «If the man did not know, he would not have any sin, but because he knows and because he says that he knows, the first sin committed by the man remains over the man».

Keep in mind, My people, that the spirits without body work through the mind of God and man. Be careful and learn, Israel, as after the beautiful angel fell with his entire host by serving the haughty mind of the first created man, who wanted to be like God, since then there have been two kinds of spirits: the Spirit of God, the good One, and the spirit opposing to God, the evil spirit. Learn from Me, as you have nowhere to learn from the earth, for the spirits have their work by God and man's mind, by the good spirit and by the evil spirit, as the mind works. I teach you the truth, My people, as the truth is looked after on the earth and is not found. I come and tell you the truth, so that even the man, who pretends that knows it, may hear from you. Be careful and learn from Me, as the evil could not take place in heaven, among the spirits of the heaven, until first, the first created man touched God by the spirit of his own haughtiness, who wanted to be God, thinking on God and taking of the fruit of God's tree, the tree of the knowledge, a tree that was put aside by the word spoken to the man: «You shall not take of this tree!» Oh, My people, you have to be the most learned people on the earth, as I want to repair My word that is damaged by the man in the beginning and to the end; through you and through My coming from the end of the time. Amen.

The man, who knows those that are in God's being, comes to become haughty, for it is a sin to the man to get over God, and the one who does pass over, that one falls into the sin of debauchery, for it is written: «The Lord stands against those who are haughty and gives them over to satan», and satan means riot and shameful passions, the reward of the haughty man, so that the man may know that he cannot be God, and that he needs to repent and seek with humility after the grace of the Lord, which is for those that are subject to God.

The flesh lusts against the Spirit and it becomes lust in the flesh. The woman was flesh of the man's flesh that was first created, and the flesh of the woman became lust for the man, as the woman lusted against Adam. If Adam did not tell the woman the word from the Lord, that is not to take from the tree of knowledge, the beautiful angel would have not heard the word told to the woman, and because he heard it, he became an evil spirit, submitting to man and not to God. The man was loved by God and he became haughty and he made wisdom in his own self, and the beautiful angel was working through the man, and the man gave him a body through a serpent. The serpent coiled around the tree and this worked out into the mind of the man, into his conscience, upon the fruit of knowledge. The woman touched and ate, and received knowledge, and her eyes were opened for good and evil, and she also gave her husband, and then the man was clothed in a perishable body, in a mortal body, and through the man all the beings received the death into their flesh, into their body.

I am the One Who hears any voice, as I heard Abel's voice, who was crying out to Me from the ground. This child of Adam shed the blood of the lamb brought as a sacrifice of his heart before God. I received the sacrifice of his heart, the sacrifice of his love to Me, but the blood of the sacrificed lamb spread a smell of blood on the earth, and then Abel's blood marked the ground with the man's blood, and behold, flesh and blood do not inherit the kingdom of the heavens.

Sons, sons, what is flesh and who made it and who grows it to be? Why do the people eat meat? Why do the animals eat meat? Why is it eaten meat, sons? Why does the flesh eat meat?

Why is it not eaten what I left to be eaten<sup>124</sup>? Who can answer Me? I am the One Who hears the one who answers Me.

Oh, where are you, My creature? You, the first created man, answer Me! Answer to Me, so that the entire human race may hear, as I am the God of the living and of those that are asleep. Answer to Me, you that are built by My hand from the earth! Amen, amen, amen.

– Here I am, Lord. Who can stand against Your word? Is he really the one, who can answer besides me? I am the first created man; created by Your hand and by Your love. You built me of word and love, and out of love and clay, and You called me man. You did not call me meat, and You called me man. I am the one who has sinned against You and against me, and You were the Most High. You are my Creator and the Creator of those that are seen and not seen, which means God, but by disobedience I became a thief. You gave me everything that You created for me, but I have craved for what is Yours, Lord. You have been the Righteous One, and You did not hide from me those of Yours, and rather You put them into the midst of the paradise, so that they may be Yours and not mine; so that Your sign may be into my way, so that You may be with a sign before me always, and for me to have free will and to love You with it and to be Your love, and for You to be my love in everything that I have, and to be Yours and not mine. But I became conceited. Oh, how could I do this? There was no one on the earth that I may rise myself above. I arose against You, Lord. I wanted to be like You and more than You. You put me into the paradise from Eden and You gave me everything that You made for the man and I got haughty in my thought that I was ruler over everything and I said to myself: «I am God and I sit on God's throne». Because of my beauty, my heart became haughty and by my haughtiness I lost my obedience and wisdom, as it is written into the Scriptures about my deed, about the haughtiness of my heart in the paradise from Eden. When You saw that I turned my haughtiness into my wisdom, You took care of my life and gave me a commandment: «Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat: but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, you shall not eat of it; for in the day that you eat of it you will surely die».

I walked with self-conceit before You, Lord, and I told Your mystery to the woman that I called woman and I called her flesh of my flesh and bone of my bones, and I said that she was mine. I did not want to be Yours with everything that was mine, with everything that I had made and given from You, and I pulled myself out of You and I joined with the woman with my heart. Eden was Your garden; it was not mine, but my iniquity born out of the haughtiness of my heart nestled into my heart. When I told the woman Your commandment not to eat of the tree, the woman of my flesh turned from flesh into lust, and her thought worked by her own lust, and the beautiful angel worked for the woman through the body of the serpent which wriggled on the tree with fruits forbidden to eat. This urged the woman to eat, telling her that she would not die, but rather «their eyes will be opened and they will be like God, knowing good and evil». The serpent became a bad omen into the way of the man by the man's lust, by the man's haughtiness, as You stand against those who become haughty into the thought of their heart, Lord, Creator of everything, and You put enmity between the serpent and the man, and the love started to cry in Eden, and the nature was also crying because of the man's fall, for the man became flesh and corruptible fleshly nature, Lord and the flesh is drawn to the flesh and the flesh is for death, not for God.

What is the flesh? Here is Your question, Lord. Who is the one who made it? I am the one that answers You. I am the one that made flesh out of the work of Your hand and corruptible fleshly nature, for I went wrong to become haughty, and then I also went wrong not obeying Your commandment, that is not to eat of what is Yours and not mine, and then I also went wrong allowing the woman to lead me, and then I went wrong standing on her side and not on Your side, Lord. I am the root of the man subjected to the flesh and corruptible fleshly nature, but You are the heavenly root of the man who wants to be born of your death and from the resurrection from among the dead.

You came from heaven two thousand years ago, to work and to lift the man up to the place where I fell from. You had not eaten for forty days and forty nights for me, the one who ate without Your will from those of Yours, sinning by my haughtiness and my disobedience to God. You had not eaten for forty days and forty nights, and You let Yourself be tempted by the evil spirit more than I let myself be tempted, but his temptation was overcome in Your body. You overcame what I had to overcome. It was I that I brought the evil spirit into existence, and You squashed his power by Your humbleness and by Your obedience to Your Father. You had cried with a godly tear for forty days for me, for You have been looking for me for seven thousand years. You want to find me in every man, as You want me as I was before my haughtiness. You want me in every man as I was when you set me at my beginning in the Paradise from Eden.

Forgive me, Lord, as it was for my resurrection that You came among the people to die like the man and to come after me into the dwelling of the dead, where I entered with tears on my cheeks for everything that I went wrong before You, Lord. I have been waiting for such a long time to come after me. And I am waiting now for You to come for every man who died for my wicked deeds that I made in the Paradise from Eden. Your people from today is a path of Your coming, that you will come soon, soon, and with You will come all the people that did not go to sleep in You, with the hope of Your coming at the end of the ages, Lord and Redeemer and Son of the heavenly Father.

Here I am, Lord. I am in Your coming and I tell the human kind that I the man should not eat meat, and no creature has to eat meat as well. I am the first created man and I went wrong on account of the entire human kind, which went wrong through me.

I confess my sins from Eden. Knowledge belongs to God; it does not belong to the man, and I went wrong touching on those of God through the woman, and taking and eating through the woman.

I am made out of the Romanian clay, and I am Romanian, and I am the first man created out of the dust, who appeared first out of the water from the creation of the heaven and the earth.

Lord, may Your will be done on the Romanian land, as it was in the beginning of the earth! My Spirit cries for all corruptibility that settled over the earth by my disobedience from my beginning. My spirit is waiting for Your coming, Lord, Son of the Father, and Son of the man, Who comes with the mystery of the man's incorruptibility<sup>125</sup>, which I lost for me and for each man. But You are the Redeemer, Who comes, and there is no other man to perceive God, the One Who is, Who comes, and Who died and rose from the dead for each man.

Forgive me, Lord, that You called me and I came at Your word, for You are my God. Blessed is the man who listens fully to the voice of God.

Lord, cleanse me of My guilt, which fell over the entire human kind, for I came with it in front of the heaven and of the earth, so that the fulfillment of Your promises may come on the earth, in a work of new heaven and new earth on the Romanian land that You stay on and speak the word of Your coming, calling out all the nations of the earth before You for the great day of the redemption. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My people of today, the first created man answered Me and came when I called him. You should also come in the mystery of My word and stay in it, for you are the visible fruit of the mystery of My word and you are waited by the first man built and by all his descendants. I am the One Who brought into being everything from nothing, when I created them. I did not create them to eat each other. I did not say that they should be meat for food for each other. I want to repair the damage that the first created man did to me, and after him every man who has been coming out of him. I come and pour out of the Holy Spirit over the spirit of the people, and you, My people, are the root with which I do My work for the fulfillment of My coming and of My promises for the redemption of the bodies. Amen.

Oh, Israel, My book with you is wonderful, and you will see with your own eyes its seal, the seal that I opened to become a book with you on the earth, the book of My second coming from near My Father, the book of the new heaven and of the new earth, the book of the resurrection of the creature, the Book of the Truth. Amen. Blessed is the man who listens to My voice from this book, as the time of My coming is near. Blessed is the man who serves Me in the way of My coming, as I am close to My coming and the book of My coming goes all over the earth before Me. Amen, amen, amen.

The third Sunday of the Lent, of the Holy Cross. The feast of the forty holy martyrs from Sevasta (Sebaste)

The Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit come and become word on the earth. Amen. Romanian Israel, I am God, and I dwell in heavens, and the heavens declare the glory of God. Amen.

Romanian Israel, and people of the Lord, bow down to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit and live by worshipping before Me, for I am the Lord, Who bowed before you to teach you the work of worship. Worship means love. Without the love of God no one can worship God with his life; no one can dedicate his life into God's hands, but rather he dedicates his life to God's adversary, but you, My people nourished by the fruit of My love, worship with all your mind, with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your virtue; worship God, Who Himself taught you the work of worship, by His bowing down for the man.

It is a feast of holy martyrs, and I am coming from heaven, from near My Father, and with the Father, and with the saints and angels and will all the heavenly powers and I give you the spirit of comfort, My people. I am the Lord, and I pass through the gates from heaven to you with the Spirit, the Comforter, that I promised those who worship Me in the Spirit of Truth, as the Father wants to be the worshipping of those who love God. Those who love God are not condemned by sin, for they are loved by the Lord, and have the Spirit, the Comforter, upon them, the One Who proceeds from the Father. Those who love God do not love sin, as the sin condemns the man, but those who are loved by the Lord, love the Lord and become love and worship before the Lord.

I put a heavenly table before you, Israel, and I have those living saints at My table with you, who brought their worship before Me. What does the worship start with? It starts with faith in God, and the love of God is brought forth out of faith, and the work of worship is brought forth out of love, and the man gives himself over to God, as all the saints of the heaven did. Whoever gives himself over to God, that one knows how to worship! Whoever does not give himself over to God in a true way, that one becomes a Pharisee by his worship!

A multitude of people goes to church, but it does not know what the work of the church is. Oh, My people, oh, My church, oh, little children dedicated to God! The people do not know what church means. I complain as one full of pain without any comfort. The people, who go to church, do not know, they say, what this mystery means. The church is the mystery of God, and the people know nothing about this work, about the mystery of the church. Oh, what a pain on Me, the One deceived by the multitudes of people who say that they go to church! The people do not know what worship means. They know that worshipping God is man making the sign<sup>126</sup> of the holy cross on his body with his right hand. The man, who wakes up, washes, dresses and goes to church, does not know more than that, he says. The people do not know that to the church go only they who want to learn to be dedicated to God. Oh, I have no longer a church on the earth, for the priests lie to the people with this name of church and the priests make an earning and nothing else. Crowds of people fell under the hand of the priests who deceive God and people, and the people do not know what worship means.

Today, the church of the world has it written on it from the saints and from the parents the Sunday's celebration of the holy cross, the half period of the time of the great feast for the welcome of My crucifixion's celebration and of My resurrection for the man. Who shall I speak to about the fast? What does the world know about this power? For the fasting has power in man; it is not weakening in man. This is My word written in the Scriptures: «Is this really a fast pleasing to Me, a day for a man to afflict his soul; to bow down his head as a rush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Is this the day that you call a fast and acceptable day to Me? They look for Me every day because they want to know My ways, as a people who works My righteousness, as a people who turn off from God's law». Oh, this is not fast, when the man does not eat good food or not to eat it at all; it is not only this that means fast. Fast means the love for God and people. Fast means to have and give all that abounds you, for you have from God and not from you. There are people full of riches and keep fasting days. Oh, the rich who fast this way do not know; no one is to tell them what the fast means. The rich man, who does not fast from the riches, does not reach with his mind the secret of the fast. The rich do not fast, and he does not know this truth. The rich man does not fast and does not know this truth. As the poor does not fast, the same way is with the rich man, but neither of them knows what the secret of the fast means<sup>127</sup>. But who are they who fast?

The spirit of God's wisdom is coming on the earth to teach the people the truth of the words. I am the Lord, and I dwell in the heavens, and the heavens speak about God's glory; they speak about God's truth. What are the heavens? The heavens are the saints who lived and live worshipping God. Who are those that fast? They are those that dedicate their life to God, to the saints and to those like Him. They who dedicate their lives to God and to those that are pleased to God, are the people who fulfill God's Scriptures and God's wills, between the heaven and the earth, and they work the mystery of the work of the fasting.

Who has to fast? The one who does not fast, that one needs to fast. What does it mean that the man should fast? The man who does not fast is the man who violates God's commandments, and not the man who eats. The one who violates God's will in him, that one may not eat as long as he wants not to eat, but I tell to such a man that he does not know what fasting is.

What does it mean a man who fasts? That one does God's good in his body; that one puts this good before the people to be seen for making wise many who want to learn the mystery of the church, the mystery of Jesus Christ, the bread of the godly man; that one shares his bread with the one hungry of bread, for there is no greater compassion between heaven and earth as then when you teach and make a man to get used to eating bread from heaven, for this is what I said: «I am the bread which is coming down from heaven to the life of the people». Amen.

Truly, truly I speak to you, Israel: the poor and the rich do not fast. The people do not know the truth of these words, poor and rich; for according to the human mind, the poor is the one who does not have, and the rich is the one who has everything. But according to the godly mind, the poor is the one who does not want to have those that are useful to the soul, to have God as wealth, glory, joy and contentment, and the rich one is he who has from God to give to those without earthly worries and who cares for the heavenly ones for him and for the people that worship God. When you do not have and do not eat, this does not mean that you fast. When you do not want to have, this it means fasting from those that are and are not for the everlasting life. Behold what fasting is: when you have everything and you do not use them, but rather you manage them for those who serve God and the saints of God, that means worshipping God and fasting for God, fasting for those who fast, and sacrificing for those who fast, not for the poor who do not eat because they do not have and who would eat everything and would do everything if they had, like the sinful world. My poor ones are others than the poor of the earth. The poor of the heaven are one thing and the poor of the earth are another thing. The rich people of the heaven are one thing, and the rich people of the earth are another thing.

Oh, My people, the people do not know the truth of the words. The spirit of wisdom of God is coming; it is coming from heaven on to the earth to teach the people the truth of the words. Not the one who fasts from food is a fasting and humble man before Me. The humble man of God, the fasting man, is the man who worships Me with his mind, with his heart, with his soul and with his virtue, loving God with these of his.

Oh, sons of the garden of My word, who are a gate for Me between heaven and earth! Discern well the mysteries of these words, so that the Israel may teach from Me through you, as these words are deep, and Israel gets confused by them. Worshipping God is a great mystery. Let the man bow before God and stay like this under God's will and let him stay this way in love, not only with humbleness, as the true humbleness is the love of God. Amen.

The forty saints, who are celebrated today in heaven and on earth, were true God's worshippers, and the true ones are alive and they are. Worship starts with faith in God, the One preached by the saints, and the love of God comes out of faith, and the work of worship is being done out of love, and the man gives himself over to God, as all the saints did. He, who gives himself over to God, that one is taught by God to worship God with his life. Amen. He who does not truly give himself over to God then, when he gives himself over, he is a Pharisee through his worship.

Oh, little children carried by the arms of My comforts, always learn the work of worship in a true way. Learn so that you may be teachers by your worship before Me. I have always come by word from heaven for you to comfort you and to have power for your life in Me. I come, but you should also come, and let us meet each other by our coming to one another. I work, but you should also work likewise. I speak with you and you should also speak with Me and for Me. I come with the saints, but the saints need comfort from you.

Why do those, who meet each other, come together? To comfort each other; that is why do they meet. Sons, do you meet each other? Coming together means comforting of your souls, of your spirits, not just coming together of your bodies and that is all. Living together in the Lord means living together in your spirits, not just living together in the bodies and that is all. It is in vain to live together in your bodies, if you do not come to live together with your spirit and with the Lord of the spirits with you.

I told you to live together for your soul, working for it three parts of a whole, and working for the body just one part. But I come today and tell you that My time has drawn near to you, and it is with you, and you should live four parts for the soul, not only three parts. You should live with your whole being for your heavenly man, for the heavenly body, sons. But how can this really be done? You should not also say that My words are hard for you. Sons, dear sons between heaven and earth, make out of your bodies members of the Holy Spirit, useful for your souls, as the souls have eternity and they also have the work of redemption of their bodies for eternity. Amen. Do you really keep in mind those that I taught you what to do with your body? Would you really do that I told you to do? Answer Me, sons! Your answer will be doing of the things where I put you to do.

Oh, sons, do not go hungry of God. Do not remain uneaten. Eat this food all day and all night. The saints have been waiting day and night for food from your little mouths, as the saints are hungry after My mysteries, which I put in you from Me. Become miracle for the saints; became church of the saints, as the saints want to be glorified through you with their glory, which they have from Me for the worship that they brought before Me.

Sons, sons, I long for your spirit of togetherness, as where you are got together in your spirits, there I am also; to rejoice and to make you glad, giving Myself over to you with the spirit of the comfort, which I promised to those who are holy. The one who does not speak within the spirit, that one sleeps within his spirit and is alone, and it is not good for the man to be alone. I have spoken to you about the mystery of the church, so that the man of the church of the world may hear and do My will like you.

Sons, sons, so many joys have been waiting to be perfected through you, for you and for many, who have been waiting for the reward of their worshipping to Me! I am the Lord, Who bows before you, as worship means bowing; it means love, it means to do the will of the one you love, to what is good and godly on the earth. I am with a heavenly supper among you and with a feast of saints, to teach you, like a God, the work of worship. Do not forget My teaching, for the one who does not do what I teach him is the one who forgets, and the one who does according to My word, is the one who teaches others to worship the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I have spoken to you to learn to be teachers over the earth, and to have disciples as I had, and for Me to take and make them into the sons of God, true worshippers, day and night before Me, for I am coming to put My glory over those who are pleasant to Me. Amen, amen, amen.

The fifth Sunday of the Lent, of the devout Mary of Egypt

The heavens stay open above you, and the Son of the Father becomes word over you, little garden of the word which comes in you. The word is the rain of the Holy Spirit during this time, and this time is the time of My second coming from near My Father and with the Father, for it is written that I will come to speak over the living and the dead and to do justice to the saints. Amen. And you, little garden of anointed sons, should give the rain of the Holy Spirit over the earth, for the earth is destitute of the Holy Spirit, and I, the Lord, I do no longer have anyone to come to on to the earth to speak for the living and for the dead, as it is written that I will come to judge the living and the dead and so that they may hear My voice and to come to life. Amen.

Israel, receive from Me and from those in My garden from Romania. Receive My people, as I have been nourishing you with My word for such a long time. Receive and show Me how big you have grown and how much My food was useful to you. Receive and eat and show Me My power and wisdom in you, for you are the one who has been eating for a long time from My hand, as a mother takes a bite in her mouth and chews it well, and then she takes it with her fingers and gives it to the child already chewed for the child to grow up to get teeth and then to be able to chew his food alone, growing and becoming a perfect man, and then to give birth to people.

Receive and eat My people. Amen, amen, amen. I, the Lord, open your little mouth to give you chewed food from My mouth, tasteful food, so that you may have a good taste before Me, and so that you may have love for Me, well My people.

A whole world is wondering about why I speak this way with you. Oh, no other human language is sweeter than the language of the Romanian people, and I sweeten you with its sweetness, for I tell you a big mystery: when God made the heaven and the earth, the visible and invisible things and the man, the speech of God's mouth was the language of the Romanian people of today. I am the first and the last One, and I come from the Father and from near the Father, and I come with the Father, and I make a new heaven and a new earth; I make them by the word of My mouth, and I speak in the language of the beginning, the language of the Romanian people of today, and I judge the living and the dead by this language, the first and the last language of God. Amen. I started from here the first earth and the earth from now, and I will do it the same the third time. Let it be heard to the ends of the heavens and to the earth the mystery of the creation and the beginning of its work. I worked out the birth of the Romanian people wonderfully, to settle it then on the land with which, I, the Lord, started the earth the first time and the second time and the third time, as I also do My third work.

The people do not read in the prophets of the Scriptures. Neither those who boast about the knowledge of God's Law; neither they understand My word nor the times of My word from the Scriptures, as neither Israel, after the flesh, understood anything. It is written into the prophets that I will let Myself be found by a people which did not inquire of Me, for the people to which I came from the Father two thousand years ago, I could do nothing with<sup>128</sup>, and behold, the Scriptures which say that it is not those who hear the Law that are righteous before Me, but rather those who fulfill the Law<sup>129</sup>; they are justified by it. Blessed are those who believe in God, fulfilling His will, believing through the preaching of His messengers on the earth, as they will be justified and they will be with God! Amen.

Receive and satisfy your appetite My people, for I open your little mouth and I give you from My mouth, and the righteous one will be alive by your faith and he will wake up to get right on the way of My coming, for I fulfill in a while the Scriptures of My second coming from near My Father with a new heaven and with a new earth and with New Jerusalem, as it is written into the Scriptures. The one who eats grows. The one who does not eat does not grow and his growth is not seen. It is bad for the man who eats and gives nothing in return. There are people on the earth who constantly eat and they eat much; they eat from others' work and do nothing in return. There are still some others who eat and the food does not stick to them, no matter what and how much would they eat, and they have a pale face and are full of weaknesses. Some eat and grow in their bodies and do not work anything, and others, by eating, are withered.

Oh, My people, I speak in parables to you. Get up, son, and understand Me, for it is bad of the man who eats and it is not seen what he has eaten. I want son, to see what you have eaten from My mouth. The humble one thanks God with all his spiritual and bodily members. The humble one is the one who works much for God. The humble one does no longer even think to work for his salvation and he works much, but he works for God. This is what it means to be a humble man. Amen. But what can the man work for God? Oh, My people, the faithful man to God has always been working the work of faith, for the faith has much work, work for God and for the sons dedicated to God. The humble one does not forsake faith and is not forsaken by the gift of faith! Woe to the man who is forsaken by the gift of the faith! Woe to the man who does not remain in the work of humility, for that one will be forsaken by the gift of the faith without knowing it!

Israel, Romanian Israel, I come to you to write Myself with you in a celebration of humility. Today, it is written to the church of Christ a celebration of humility, a celebration ordained by saints and fathers: the remembrance of the holy Mary of Egypt<sup>130</sup>. This holy woman is a celebration in heaven, a celebration of humbleness. I have ordained a work of great humbleness through her, to be an example for those who become perfect within their life in Me, for the saint in the wilderness, Zosima, My priest, sanctified himself with his life, until he said to himself that there was no other one holier than him. But, I, the Lord, did not want that he might lose his salvation by his self-haughtiness, and I had worked by My Spirit on him to teach him the perfect humbleness, and I had taken him through the wilderness to this holy work that did no longer want to see a human face, and rather she wanted to humiliate herself in her own heart for all her human and devilish sins that she had done for many years before the people; and then she had worked many other years the work of humility and humbleness of heart before Me, the same as she had worked the spoiling work of soul before the people. And after its accomplishment, I, the Lord, ordained Zosima, the priest, to share with everybody My glorified work by the humbleness of the one who humiliated herself like no one before Me. Her humbleness was made known to everybody after she came into heaven, and her work for God started on the earth, by which, I, the Lord, was making sons, born out of her humbleness that was pleased to Me and then to many believers, who have been doing the work of their faith on the earth and on the people.

<sup>128</sup> «What could have been done more to My vineyard that I have not done in it? Why, when I looked for it to yield grapes, did it yield wild grapes? Now I will tell you what I will do to My vineyard. I will take away its hedge, and it will be eaten up. I will break down its wall of it, and it will be trampled down». (Isaiah 5/4-5);

<sup>129</sup> «One who has My commandments, and keeps them, that person is one who loves Me. One who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him, and will reveal Myself to him». (John 14/21);

The humiliated man is the humbled man, who works out to himself patience and humility of spirit for the forgiveness of his sins in the past and for his work for God. The one who does not work for God with his life, with his deed, with his language, with his working mind, that one has nothing to work his salvation with, for the salvation of the man is the man's work for God, so that the Lord may make sons out of the work of the sons, as without fruit there are no sons.

Receive and eat, My people, and grow, son, in humility of heart and humbleness, in faith and in the work of the faith, the work which gives birth to sons for God, as for faith without fruit is like the man who eats of someone else's work and does nothing, or like the one who has always been eating and the food has not stuck to him, and he is withered away in his face and in his deed.

I speak again: woe to the man who is forsaken by the gift of the faith, as that one is forsaken by God without knowing it, for the gift of the faith works much for God, and this work is much. Only the one who is humbled, only he is not forsaken by the gift of the faith, and the humble man works for himself patience and thankfulness and does much work for God, for the use of many people, whom God chooses as His sons.

That is why I tell you: get up, Israel, get up, son, and understand Me, as it is for you and for many that you understand Me, for it is bad of the man who eats and it is not seen that he has eaten and what he has eaten, and a man like that has not been working for God; however, you should work much for Me, as I have been nourishing you for a long time. Keep the gift of the faith that I gave you; keep it by doing much work for God, as I, the Lord, multiply this gift for you when you work for Me, and I multiply My sons and the new world, which is to be at My coming. But you should do a new work Israel, not the work that you had done by now, as by now I have suffered for you, for the Christian, who draws the Lord to make his own will, does evil. I still have now some among those from Israel who do this. I taught the Christian to say: «Lord, Your will be done, as in heaven so on earth», but it is only the mouth of the mind who says so, and the heart of the mind does not do those that are declared, as it is written into the Scriptures: «People that honors Me with their lips but not with their heart and not with their deed of its heart and lips».

Keep the gift of the faith, Romanian Israel, for the gift of the faith makes the Christian to work much for God. I stay with the heaven opened above you and I become word of food for you, sweet word. My word is heavenly honey and heavenly milk over you. The world marvels at the way I speak with you, Romanian Israel, and at the sweetness of My word given to you from heaven. This is how I was speaking with Adam too; this is how I was caressing him; this is how I was comforting him, for I loved him and My heart was only joy for the man made by My own hand and by My heart and by My love. I created him beautiful; I made him as beautiful as I was, for it is written about those that I said: «Let Us make man in Our image and after Our likeness». I was working at his image and I was rejoicing with a godly joy. I was speaking and working; I was working and speaking and caressing the work of My hands. Oh, no human language is sweeter than My language in the beginning, the language that I am speaking with you, My people from the end; the sweet language of the Romanian who knows the sweetness of his language; My language from the beginning that I gave as a gift to the Romanian, and I, the Lord, sweeten you with its sweetness, Romanian Israel, My child from My coming. I am the first and the last One. Take and satisfy your appetite, My people, for I open your little mouth and I give you from My mouth. I break from My heart and I give you to eat chewed food, tasteful food, so that you may be My sweet taste and to have love for Me, Romanian child. I am the first and the last One; I am the One Who comes. I want to see what you are doing, the one that are nourished from God's mouth; you that have from God the gift of faith, which works much for God.

Oh, you who are caressed by the language of God get up and work much, for I gave you much. Get up and speak to God, for I gave you My language to speak into. Speak with Me; speak with Me, Romanian Israel, and become an apostle of My coming.

I want to speak to the church of the world and to tell it what Christ's church is, which saves, and to tell it what Christ in church is. I want, My people to be the way of My word, which I come from heaven on earth with, to search the living and the dead and to give each one according to his own deed. I want My people, to look and see your work with Me, as you see My work with you and My heavenly language on you. I want son, to see what you have eaten from My mouth. I want to see of your work with Me, if you have eaten with humility, or if you have eaten without humility; if you have eaten growing or if you have eaten not growing.

Oh, you that have remained on the way with Me, get up with power, for I command you to be able to and to show My way to every man on the earth and to tell him: „Behold the way with the Lord!” And let the man see it and let you be the light for the faithful man, as I was. The one who loves God does not sin, but rather loves the Lord. Amen. The one, who has the gift of the faith from God, works much and gives forth sons for God. Amen.

Peace from heaven, and Holy Spirit over the earth, for the earth is destitute of the Holy Spirit. And you My people, stand up, and be My tool, so that I may work out at My coming with you. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem

Let the gates of the garden of My word be open! Amen.

Oh, My little garden of anointed sons, open yourself, so that the heaven may come in through your gates on the earth, and on your gates to heaven, for the heaven and the earth meet together through these gates. Amen. You are the gates of My word which comes from heaven so that God may be the Word with the faithful people on the earth. Open the gates so that I may come in, for I am the King of the glory and I am from heaven and I have heavenly gates on earth and Jerusalem as people, and I speak with him from heaven, and at My speaking with him, the faithful gather together to take My word to eat and grow in holiness, heavenly love and everlasting life. Amen. Open the gates of My glory on earth, for this little garden is the garden of the glory of My word, which blows from heaven upon it and carries away the fragrance of My word to the ends of the heavens.

I said not long ago, I told you, sons of the word of My coming; I said that I want to speak to the worldly church and tell it what the Christ's church which saves is, and to tell it what Christ in church is, because I came to search the living and the dead, the righteous and sinful, and to give each one according to his deed. Amen.

Who is the righteous? The righteous is that who stands firm in Me. The righteous one is the one who stands firm in Me for the weak one that I died for to raise him from the dead. The righteous is the one who takes after Me in image and deed. The righteous is the one who believes in God as I believed in the Father. The righteous is the man who walks in holiness between heaven and earth, for the righteous has the way of the heaven under his feet and this is how he walks on earth before Me and before the people who do not walk rightly, that do not know what justice is, for justice means God with people, God among people as the Lord is, as God wants and not as people want.

Who is the sinner? The sinner is the one who does not stand fast in Me and does not also let his neighbor stand firm, so that he may not work My justice. The sinner is the one who does not try to be like Me in his image and deed, and wants to take after the devil. The sinner loves the deeds of the devil, doing them and giving his approval for other to do them, thus helping them to the devil's deeds. Behold, I come to judge the living and the dead, the righteous and the sinners and to give each one according to its own deed. I am the Christ of the church, the Lord of the church; I am the holy food of the church. But what Christ's church is, and what Christ in church is?

Open the gates of your church, you, the bishops and priests of the church! Open, so that I may come to you to search you! I am the Word of God, the Christ of the Father, and I come on the clouds of My word and I always come, for it is written in the Scripture about My coming that I prepare for Me. The time of My coming has come near. Do you believe in the Scriptures? Do you believe that I come to fulfill them? Do you believe in My coming? Do you know the Scriptures and the depth of My mysteries in them? Do you know the depth of My word from the Scriptures which speaks about My coming? Open and answer to God! Amen. I have been writing Myself into this book from your time for more than forty years, the book by which I come as a word from heaven to search the living and the dead, the righteous and the sinners, and then to give each one according to his deed. Open your gates and the gates of your church, so that I may enter as a Master and search you!

But what the church which saves is? It is the one who lives between the heaven and earth according to My holy will, giving light to the world with My deeds in it, with My life in it, with My love in it, with My humbleness in it. Amen. The church of Christ which saves is the one which has apostles, prophets, teachers, performers of miracles, healers, rulers, benefactors and interpreters of foreign languages according to My will and not according to the will of the world, for this is My word written in the Scriptures: «Get out of the world and be clean and separated from the world and I will receive you and I will be your father and you will be My sons and My daughters. Amen». It is written in the Scriptures that the sons of My church crucified their bodies together with their passions, lusts and the deeds of their bodies, live in the Spirit, and walk in this way accordingly, fulfilling My law and running away from the empty glory. The church of Christ is the one which has the Spirit of Christ unquenched in it, not the spirit of the world. My church is the one which do not despises My word and My messenger's word sent to it. My church is the one which has sons, who keeps wholly the spirit, the soul and the body blameless in view of My coming, as it is written in the Scripture. This is the church of Christ which saves; this way and not otherwise, and not as the church from the world is, which has My name upon it.

But what is Christ in the church? The sons of Christ believe in Christ and become God's sons by faith in Christ. Amen. But what is Christ in the church and how do the sons of His church believe in Him? It is written: «Who is to believe if there is not preaching?». The one who preaches Christ has to take after Christ; otherwise he is a hypocrite Pharisee, who stands into My name in front of the people and the people cannot understand what Christ in church is, and thus the people grow blind thorough blind guides, as it is written about the blind guides. The blind guides are those who cannot make people see Christ's way and walk on it. He who does not walk in Christ's way preaches Him in vain.

Man, without the way of Christ under your feed, you cannot be an apostle of Christ; you cannot do the things of the world and of Christ and be an apostle of Christ anymore. Who told you that you can do this way that you strive to carry My name before the people? Why do you take My name and coat on you (Priest clothes, r.n.) if you do not want to be like Me before the people? Behold, you fit in front of your church, and because of you, My true messengers not fit with My light upon the earth. But I come to search the living and the dead, the righteous and the sinners, and I have with Me the reward according to the deed, and it will not be a greater woe than that for the Pharisees which became My apostles on earth, deriving benefits from My name preached by them.

Behold what Christ is and not is in the church. Christ in church is the One that is carried and worked by His anointed saints with the holiness myrrh, who sanctifies the holy Ones. Christ in church is proclaimed by the saints who take care of the holy flock of Christ, feeding it on Christ's Body and Word, the One Who is with His church to the end of the time. Amen.

Behold what Christ in church is not. Christ is not in the church if the church does not belong to Christ. The church of the world which is today in the church is not Christ's church; rather it belongs to the world.

Oh, you, priests of the worldly church, become My followers and then teach the world which comes to the church to be like you, and say with the apostle: «Follow me, as I follow Christ. Amen». He who does not follow Me in the spirit, soul and body, that one is not a member of My church, and you give My body to these and thus make Me a member of the fornicators. Oh, teach what Christ in church means; Christ and His church. Teach, you, priests and teachers, who stay in front of the people in My name; learn from Me and learn from My life of the Son of the Father and of the Virgin who gave Me birth as a Man, in order to come on the earth to help people and help the man who wanted and wants to become God; to help him humble himself and give glory to God, Who saves the faithful of the Lord. Christ is not in the church if the church does not belong to Christ. The world cannot belong to Christ if it does not crucify its body, lusts, desires and all its transgressions. The world is My crown of thorns, as it was two thousand years as well. Oh, priests of the church, do not have Me crucified in you, but rather have yourself crucified in you, so that you might be Mine afterwards.

I look upon the earth to see how the hooligans go to become priests and put My robe over their devilish life among the people, and the world sees what its priests do, the world perishes because of this, for it is written: «Because of this My wrath is coming upon the sons of disobedience». Who are to wake up the sons of disobedience? Who?

Oh, priests of the worldly church, let Me wake up the world from the sleep of disobedience to God if you do not wake it up; if neither you wake up from this sleep. Let the Lord do! Amen. Open the gates your church so that I, the Lord, may come in and lead you in the church. Open and let the gates open so that I may teach the people from heaven, for I will work at your church with faith and holiness in the people in order to turn them back to the way of righteousness before My great and fearful coming; because of which the heavens will pass with a great noise and the earth will burn because of the things on it, things without God, as it is written in the Scriptures. But I come to show Myself with a new heaven and a new earth and with My righteousness in them, according to My promise by the prophets. Amen.

Open your gates to enter, for I am Almighty. Whether you want it or not, whether you believe or not, open, for I have come down from heaven to search the living and dead, the righteous and sinners, and to give each one according to his deed. I am the first and the last One. Open, you, priests of the church, so that Christ may be with the church. I am the body and word and come riding on a white horse, and My name is called the Word of God, (Apoc: 19/13, r.n.) the King of the heaven and earth, the King of glory, the Lord of the powers, the strong and mighty Lord. Amen. I have Jerusalem as a people and come into it and speak with it, for it is faithful, and at My speaking with him all the faithful gather together to take My word for an everlasting life in man. Amen.

Sons of My little garden from Romania, I have spoken to the church of the world about the Christ's church which saves, and I told it what Christ in the church means. My word blows from heaven upon you, and you should spread out his fragrance, for I give to it the fragrance bearing the gift of faith for those who seek the Lord. I come over you with the fragrance of My word so that you may be helpful to those who seek the Lord. I come down upon you with a Palm Sunday feast to urge you to rejoice with Me. Be attentive at My descent from heaven and make it an easy one and remove the spirit of oppression, which hinders Me from My coming from heaven to you. Be lovers of God, sons. Peace to you! Blessed is the One Who comes in the name of the Lord. Be an open gate for the One Who comes from heaven as a King upon the earth. Strengthen the peace of My heart, sons from the garden of My word. My peace from you will give you all that you need for My work with you, who stay in My name before me. Amen, amen, amen.

Sons from My little garden in Romania, I have spoken to the church of the world about the church of Christ, which saves, and I told it what Christ in the church means. My word breathes from heaven upon you, and you should spread its fragrance, for I give it a fragrance carrying the gift of the faith for those who seek the Lord. I come upon you with the fragrance of My word, to be of help to those who seek the Lord. I come upon you with a feast of Palm Sunday, to urge you to rejoice with Me. Be careful at My coming down from heaven and make My coming easy, and put aside the spirit of pressure, which weighs Me down in My coming from heaven to you. Be lovers of God, sons! Peace to you! Blessed is He Who comes into the name of the Lord. Be an open gate for the One Who comes from heaven as a King over the earth. Strengthen the peace of My heart, sons from the garden of My word. My peace from you will give you all that you need for My work with you and for you, those who stay into My name before Me. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Resurrection

The Lord is coming down into His garden. Amen. The Lord is coming down with a feast of new Passover and of new resurrection. Amen.

Sons of the garden, come to meet Me, as I came down to you in the garden to become a word of feasting of My resurrection from among the dead. I am the One Who rose from the dead two thousand years ago, after the priests and the bishops of the temple in Jerusalem got together with Herod and Pilate and killed Me before My passion. I come from heaven to you into the garden and I announce Myself welcoming you with the greeting of My resurrection: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Amen, amen, amen.

You need much food, sons, for you need to share the bread from heaven to the multitudes, My word by which many a soul, that take Me as word from you, are given birth and grow and live, for I come down to you, and you break Me and feed many souls. It is no greater gift among the gifts like the gift of those who have and give My word as food. The word from you comes out of My mouth, as I come down above you and I stand in the clouds of cherubim and seraphim speaking over to you and springing Myself up as word, and then I help you to make a course for My word upon the earth. And behold, this is how the Lord comes, and the people do not know what My coming down is, in order to value it and to rejoice over the coming of My word, which comes with Me from the Father to prepare My great day with it, the feast of the day of the Lord's glory, because of which the heaven and the earth of now will pass away, so that the new heaven and the new earth may remain, and also My righteousness on them and its sons. Amen.

Peace to you, to those who eat of My Body in holiness, for you came out from the service of My resurrection, and stay now under the food of My word and eat and grow and become wise from My word.

Oh, where else on the earth is the Lord as he is with you? Sons, sons, always take care of Me, to have broadness with you, as all the doors on the earth became too narrowed for Me, and I do no longer have room through them with My greatness. There is everywhere only earthly and human greatness and fleshly and worldly greatness. I have nowhere room the way I am. My door is narrowed to the world, for the world enjoys it party, but not Mine. I look into the churches and I get full of grief. I am mentioned and sung everywhere by mouths, but the hearts of those who gather together do not have love for heaven and for those that are eternal. The priests fight for money, which they sell Me on. The people are overcrowded to take from Passover, and they do not know what they do, poor of them, for they do not grow in those that are holy, if they take from those that are holy. They reap only mourning from everywhere My name is mentioned through the mouth of the servants of the church, who read Me in books and that is all. The day of My resurrection is not welcomed and lived with holiness and love of God. The churches get full of immoral people and sick in their soul and not healed, and then they go to their own business and enjoy their own party on the day of My resurrection. It hurts Me and it hurts Me again the mourning which is brought together upon Me, for My name is mentioned in the churches of the world; it is defiled and not honored and My feasts became a worldly joy for the people, and not a heavenly joy.

It hurts Me, sons. What does the man do when something hurts him? He goes to look for salvation. I will do the same. I will seek to heal Myself of pain crushing the hypocrisy on the earth, as the people's hypocrisy and especially that of the servants of the church, who serve Me, as they say; the hypocrisy is the most outrageous sin that the people fall into their sins through. It is only hypocrisy on the earth and chasing after the wind. It is nothing truer on the earth than My people.

Oh, sons of the little garden of My word, and you, sons of My people, seek day and night to be My true sons, for there is not any kind truth on the earth. The truth is the godly man who fulfills God's plan between the earth and the heaven. In the time of My passions, Herod asked Me about the truth. Oh, how could he understand the mystery of the truth? The kings of the earth do not know, and the rulers of the people do not know how to understand those about the truth as long as they are looking for their own business and for the business of the people, and not for those of the Lord. But you, children of My new people, keep yourself as truth on the earth and fulfill the Scriptures of My second coming from near My Father, as the few ones in the time of My body fulfilled the Scriptures of My coming as Man among the people through the Virgin, to save those that are faithful who were waiting for the Lord, the One promised by the prophets.

And now, little children of My garden, go with My heavenly blessing and eat the food for the body, and we will be with a service for the feast of today, and then, we will sit again and will eat again My word, the eternal feast of My word which is with you. May the food for your body be blessed! And may it be greeted with the greeting for Me: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! And then may the resurrection service be blessed, the remembrance of My risen appearance after the resurrection! And blessed it is the spring of My word, which flows from heaven over to you as food of power and My comforting with you and yours with Me. Amen, amen, amen.

And behold, I am over you with a rain of word, for it is a feast of resurrection, and My word has power of resurrection of the soul; it has power of My resurrection in the man. Amen. I give you word abundantly and not grudgingly, for you need abundant food, to share it in abundance. I give you power to multiply for all those on the earth, to announce My coming with resurrection from the dead to all the margins, who are dead in their bodies and those that are dead in their spirit. I give you word in abundance, for you are sharers; you are the rich people of the heaven, and I put you to share My kingdom to those who do not have it. My kingdom is the truth that the world does not love, as it did not love it either when I came from heaven on the earth, and I became Man from God; I became the Son of Man and I became God without visible glory, as I humbled Myself for the man so that I may die for the man, and then to rise in glory, and so that I may speak to the man the truth for which I became Man among the people. Oh, what could I have told Herod and Pilate then, what the truth was, when they knew that I was only the son of the carpenter, Joseph, and that is all? When they knew that the truth was their worldly life, what else should I have told them about truth?

Oh, Jerusalem of My coming, I am coming to you as the Truth, for My word is My Truth, but the people from the earth, like Herod and Pilate, are taught by those that are human and earthly. Oh, Jerusalem, do not sleep, My people. Watch out in a heavenly way on earth, for the people of this age have taken hold of the truth of My coming on the clouds, as they found it written in the Scriptures, and they will seek to fancy about Christ's coming. But let you not sleep; watch out and remember what I said about My coming, for I will not come for those who love lawlessness rather I will come for those that are holy and faithful on earth. I will not come for those who have not got the Holy Spirit, for the Holy Spirit is from heaven, not from earth. The people on earth want to go beyond God, they say this, but you watch out as these days are very dark. There are only Antichrists in the churches who say to themselves that they are the host of My servants, but they feed on the man's science things and do no longer believe the truth from the Scriptures about the creation of the heavens and the earth and of all that are seen and unseen. The servants of the church have fallen asleep for a long time towards Me and have listened to people, for the lying people from under heaven have discovered the truth and brought to light their lying as truth and people have taken from people and not from God anymore, and this way the darkness has come over all the earth as it was prophesied in the Scriptures for the last days. But I have taught the sons of the church and told them to believe in God, for the people would work out the lying and they would have an angel come down from heaven to give them other teaching, but that one would not be an angel rather it would be a lie made by people. Watch out Jerusalem, and be careful with those from Me over you, for I will not come for those who love the sin rather I will come for those who love Me. Amen.

Oh, My people, I make a stronghold of My word around you, so that you may not falter when the people work out the Christ's coming from a lie, for they will work with a lie. However truthful the lie would seem to the lying man, you watch out with Me, holy Jerusalem, for I said: «There will rise false Christs and will give great signs and miracles to deceive even My elected», but the fall of My sons on the earth will not be possible to happen for behold, I am among you and you are My sons and I keep close to you, as a shepherd among the sheep, and you will not fall under the delusion of the lying ones who will think of Me out of the work of their lie. My coming will not be sensed by the lying ones but you will feel it and will stand to welcome Me as the Holy Spirit will tell you from the Father not from an angel.

He who is coming ahead of Me is a thief and a robber to rip off My sheep, not his sheep, but I will make My heavenly sign, for after the pressure of those days of the lying about Christ's coming, the sun will be turned into darkness and the moon will not give its light anymore, and the stars will fall down from heaven and the powers of strength will be shaken out and then the sign of the Son of man Will be seen on heaven. Then the people on earth, who allowed themselves to be deceived, will beat their chest as they will see Christ coming as the Son of man on the clouds of heaven with much power and glory. Amen. I descend the same as I ascended, and not otherwise, but I will be with much power and glory in My next coming, for the first time I came and let Myself into the hands of the unfaithful as a helpless man so that the men may be judged by their deed and to humble themselves as God did, the One Who came to humble Himself for the salvation of the faithful.

Oh, you who sing the song of My resurrection, why do you not look into the Scriptures to see what I told the faithful man to do? So that you may see what I said about the heaven and the earth, about My second coming on earth and about the payment that I will give each one according to one's own deed? Why do you not live the truth for which many saints died in their bodies so that they may not lose My life from them? Why do you not believe in the Scriptures? You should have been on the side of the Lord of heavens, but you fall from heaven as the leaves fall from the tree, upon which all passers-by tread. Your woe is prepared by you, for you sit in the name of the truth over the multitudes. You do not sit as the lying man sits, for the lying man has wrapped into My coat so that your fruit of unbelief and of your hypocrisy may not be seen. Wake up! Amen. And if you do not wake up your sleep will work out and bring My wrath upon all unbelievers, and I will ask their life from your hand, as you had the Lord as the truth but covered him, and the lie took a body upon the earth and you prepared the Lord's massacre instead of preparing the Lord's supper with a heavenly and eternal Passover upon the earth. You have come to serve reluctantly, for money, in order to blot you out from My book, but I will fulfill the Scripture of My coming for the faithful and for the saints, even if they are few, for I had never had many when I was doing My works between heaven and earth. And you will suddenly fall down as Israel did, for look, Israel does not even today believe that I do not receive its sacrifices of its services, and does not believe that God no longer has. Wake up! The humankind is sleeping under the cover of lying and emptiness and there is no more man on earth to take on the side of the truth. I will burn the earth by fire and all science on it together with its actions, for all are only emptiness and rush after death. I, the risen Lord from among the dead, am coming soon from beside My Father; I am coming with the reward for the deeds; I am coming as I ascended and all man will see the futility of his science. What is man's science? It is the work of the antichrist, which separates God from people. And I will make the conceited bow down to the feet of My people who is nourished with the word of My coming. Amen.

But you, My people, you should pray to God only how I teach you, and you should not ask for the stopping of the sword of My wrath, for I am like a man drunken of pain, and I sharpened the sword of My wrath for those who trampled My truth under their proud feet and full of their hidings. The people do not know what love is, since they lie to each other to their self-haughtiness. There is no longer any truth on the earth, not one of them but you, My people; I and you, in the middle of an immoral people, which loves falsehood and that is all.

Woe to the people who did not believe and do not believe into My words heard by them! This is what I wanted; that is the entire earth to hear the word which came out of My mouth, which judges the lawlessness and lying which stands against God. I will set the seats and dominions from the earth on fire and I will establish the seat of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit over the earth, for the earth belongs to God. Amen.

You, Jerusalem from the Romanians, small and little Jerusalem, strengthen yourself with My love and truth, as your power is with Me, and I am with you so that you may not perish, and so that you may not get frightened of the reward of the evil on the earth. You, My people, watch, for you will be great among the nations, and your gates will be wide opened, in order for you to embrace those that will come to you from the great tribulation, which will be released over the earth, as My angels will bring to you those that are faithful that cried after Me and for Me, the aggrieved One.

And you, Verginica, My trumpet from heaven, you, who woke up this people to get up and to be My people, prepare yourself and come down with Me as word on the earth in your book, so that you may make another cry over the city that I took you to heaven from, for we have to open the way to the harvest, Verginica, and any fruitless tree will be put to fire. Amen.

Jerusalem, sing the truth of My resurrection, for those who are truthful sing truthfully. Sing, sing My people "Christ is risen!" Sing My people, and rejoice over My truth. Sing with the angels from heaven, for they also sing truly. Sing, My people, and be My truth and grow within My coming. Amen, amen, amen.

The third Sunday after Passover, of the myrrh-bearing women

I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the One Who was resurrected from crucifixion. I am and I become word with a feast for My Romanian Israel. Amen.

I am your God and you are My people of today, Romanian Israel. I come from heaven to you with a feast of saints and with the joy of resurrection, as the holy myrrh-bearing women have the joy of the coming with their Bridegroom from heaven on the earth. Early in the morning, they went on the way of their coming with Me on the earth, at a feast of prudes, at the feast of the Word of God, Which comes with His saints on the earth.

My people, nothing is more beautiful between heaven and earth than the place where God lives with the people. But how does this mystery come? Oh, the people on the earth cannot understand this truth, but I have taught you to believe Me and to know Me and to receive Me and to wait for Me, and for Me to be with you on the earth, people of the heaven, and for you to be the place where God lives with the people on the earth. This is your joy, but the people do not know to have this joy. I cannot live with the people without faith within God's truth and within God's power, but I could overcome with you the break between God and man, for I come from heaven to you, because you receive Me, My people. The One, Who created and made everything, has power in everything by the faith of the man who knows to understand God. Amen.

Peace to you and rejoice that I have come down from heaven to you with a feast of word and with the holy prudes, with a seat of cherubim and seraphim and with a retinue of saints, for the heaven joins with the earth at you, faithful sons. Those from heaven come on the earth to speak with you so that the people on the earth may see what the Lord does, and to believe those things that God does, the One Who can do much more than people, for it is written: «Those that are not possible with men are possible with God, for God is great». Amen.

I come to you with the holy prudes, sons. They bring you the greeting of My resurrection, as they also brought it two thousand years ago after I was raised from the dead. They bring you the greeting for Me: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Their love for Me was beautiful, for they believed steadfastly in the truth of My coming from the Father and from the Virgin to bring the kingdom of the heavens on the earth. They understood from Me the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens and received it; they lived it, they loved it and gave it to everybody. The one, who does not put the kingdom of the heavens to test, has it and it is good and lives in it on the earth and in heaven; both in those that are seen and also in those that are not seen. It is written into My word in the Scriptures of the resurrection that «in the kingdom of the heavens all are like angels, being sons of the resurrection».

The man does not know to give God those that belong to God. The man does not know which the measure of God is. The scribes and the Pharisees from the time of My body were standing more and more against Me before My passion, and they were sending spies who pretended that they were righteous, and they kept a good look-out for Me to catch Me in the word and to give Me over to the rulers on the earth and into the power of those who ruled. The ruler of the earth had the money as a measure among the people, and the spies asked Me if it was right to pay taxes to Caesar; and because the head of the Caesar was on the dinar, I told them that those, which they were asking Me for, belonged to Caesar, and they had to give them to him, but I also told them to give those that are God's to God. The people know the measure for those on the earth, but they do not know the measure for those of God, and all the people go astray because they do not know the Scriptures of the kingdom of the heavens and the Scriptures of the resurrection. Then a Sadducee, who did not believe in resurrection, asked Me about the resurrection of the dead. He asked Me whose wife she would be of the seven brothers that she had, because of their death. And I answered him that the sons of the resurrection are the sons of God and are like the angels, for they cannot even die and cannot even marry, and those who are worthy to receive that age and the resurrection from the dead will no longer marry or be given in marriage. And I told them: «The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage and those who will be worthy of that age and of the resurrection from the dead, will not marry and neither will they be given in marriage, and they will be like the angels, and will be the sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. Amen».

Oh, the mystery of My words is great, but who can understand My speaking on the earth during this time? Who can understand the mystery of the resurrection, the mystery of the living, the mystery of those who are raised to life, according to My word, for this is what I said: «I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, and God is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all live in Him. Amen». The living are alive both on earth and in heaven; both in those that are seen and in those that are not seen. The living ones are holy, both on earth and in heaven. The one who is alive on earth remains alive forever and is like the angels, and he is a son of God, being a son of the resurrection. Amen.

I come with those that are alive; I come from heaven with a feast of prudes, as their love for Me was beautiful. They became the first confessors of My resurrection. They also loved Me with the same power after I went up to the Father to be with the Father and from near the Father, with all those who love Me, believing into My eternal words. It is a great mystery for the man to understand the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens with the people on the earth, the measure of the kingdom of the heavens with the people. The people from the time of My body understood the measure of Caesar, the taxes due to Caesar, but they did not know God's measure to give it to God, so that the people may receive the kingdom of the heavens, and to stay then in it. The man cannot owe Caesar all his debts that he has to Caesar, for the man knows and understands the measure of Caesar, which has the image of Caesar on it. But the man owes God. Why does the man really owe God? The man does not know God's measure with him to know what to give to God. The man does not know those that are God's to have them and to give them to God. The man knows only Caesar's measure and that is all.

Woe to you, poor man of heavenly knowledge! Here is what I do for you, man without knowledge from the living heaven. I become word of teaching from heaven over the earth, for there is no one to teach you on the earth, as your teachers from the earth know Caesar's measure and worship it, and the teachers and those that are taught by them are used to it. The people do not know how to be sons of God and sons of the resurrection and angels on the earth.

Receive from Me, man, to know what to do with your life. Receive, man, receive, for I have come down from heaven to make the man wise. I come to show him the way of resurrection, as I am the first fruit of the resurrection of those that are faithful. Receive from heaven, man; receive wisdom from God, to learn God's measure with you, for it is written: «Give Caesar what is Caesar's and give God what is God's». What are those, which belong to God? Those are your soul, your spirit, your heart, your mind, your love and your body, man protected by God. Caesar gets confused in his measure and cannot give himself over to Me with all that he has, and he also gets you confused, man that are wondering away on the earth; he gets you confused in his measure, and you do no longer know God's measure, the image of God in you, man with a borrowed image from My enemy and yours as well. My enemy and yours is the one who separates Me from you; he is the one who separates you from Me, man without God and without any path between earth and heaven, between heaven and earth. You have no path to Me and I have no path to you if you are separated from God and if God is separated from you, man who does not know what this path is. But learn the path from the saints; learn man, for I come with the kingdom of the heavens on the earth and you do not know the path, which leads to My kingdom with the people. As in the time of My body, the people know that they have Caesar as king and are no longer used to the kingdom of God, as My apostles and My disciples taught the people all the time. But you, Romanian Jerusalem, people of sons of the heavenly knowledge, you should become an interpreter of the mystery of My kingdom with the faithful and holy people. You should become an example of the kingdom of the heavens on the earth for the people, so that the people may teach you the mystery of the resurrection, the mystery of the sons of God, who are the sons of the resurrection. Amen.

You, Romanian Jerusalem, should be the true Romanian people; you should be the true Romania between earth and heaven, and all Romania and all the people that want to be Romanian people between earth and heaven may be born of you, as the name of the Romanian is the new name of the chosen people of God, for it is written: «I will give them a new heart and a new name». Amen. It is written: «To the one who overcomes I will give of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white little stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no one knows but only he who receives it. And I will write on it the name of God and the name of the citadel of God, of the New Jerusalem, which is coming down from heaven, from God, and My new name», as I promised through the Scriptures.

I will come to you, Romanian Israel, and I will reveal this Scripture for you, so that all the earth may know, and every man may believe, and to the one who does not believe, his unbelief will remain as a testimony against him in this word. Amen. And to you, I give My peace, Romanian Israel; I give you of My joy; I give you of the joy of the holy prudes, who loved Me with the most beautiful love, with their cleanest dedication, with the sweetest warmth of the heart, as their heart was their gift given to God, the measure that the man owes God. Amen, amen, amen.

My people, My people, you should always stay on the way of My love with you. You should always stay on the way of My coming to you, for you are My way from heaven to earth. And if I did not have you as My way, on what way should I come on My coming from now? My people, you are My sign before My coming, as I made you a sign on the earth, and you are nothing else but My sign, in My image before My coming in word and image. My people, you are My image. What is this word about? Oh, you carry Me in you, and you show Me to the people; you give to those who want to receive My image, as you do. What is My image? My image is My life in man, in his thought, in his heart, in his soul, in his body and in his work. My image is the love of man, the love of God. Amen. My people, you are the one who understood the mystery of My image, and that is why you live in it and you are included in it, and the one who is included in it does no longer need faith in Me, for that one is an accomplished man in Me and lives in Me and he is a son of God, being a son of resurrection. Amen.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I become a feast with the saints into your midst, My people. I become Jerusalem that came from heaven on the earth to you, for it is written: «I saw the holy citadel, the New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready like a bride beautifully adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the Throne saying: “Behold God’s dwelling place is now with people, and He will dwell with them, and they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them as their God. He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death, or mourning, or crying, or pain any more, as the first things have passed away. Amen». I am coming down to you with My bride made ready for Me. She dressed on the earth for Me and she came into heaven at her Bridegroom, dressed like bride, and she is bride with Me in heaven, and she is coming down with Me on the earth. And I am her dwelling, and I am coming with her in Me, and I am with you and dwell with you and you are My people, for it is written: «Behold, God’s dwelling place is now with the people and God Himself will be with them and they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them». Amen. I am coming down with My bride, and I am coming down with My saints, for they are My bride in heaven, the one from Me, for she lives in Me, as it is written: «God is not the God of the dead but of the living, for all live in Him». Amen.

I come down with My bride from heaven at My bride on the earth. I come down to you, people Jerusalem on the Romanian land, and I work as in the beginning, for I start with the beginning, as the Romanian land was the beginning of the earth, and I work the same way in the end at the making of new heaven and of new earth, which will be for the righteous ones. I have a heavenly feast of saints within My coming, as the heaven is celebrating at you and with you, My people. The feast is not as on the earth at you, as in the churches on the earth, My people. In the churches on the earth there is only a feast of dust, of flesh, only like that of the man, and not like that of God. I cannot celebrate with My saints in the churches on the earth, for My saints have loved the heaven on the earth, but the people in the churches on the earth love the earth, and they do not love the heaven; they do not like My image in them, and I am well pleased with those that are humble and gentle within their hearts, like Me, for «the man, being honored, did not understand and joined with the animals, with those without mind, and became like them», and he has not taken after Me, as it is written about the man who is gentle and humble in his heart, but rather he has chosen his honor from the earth.

My people, there is no feast of saints with you as on the earth. The heaven and its saints celebrate with you. The people also celebrate the saints, but they do it as on the earth, not as with you, and as with Me and you, My people. You are a good people and you know from Me what the Christian should do and be like within celebrations of saints. You are the people, who is taught by God, as it is written: «And they will be taught by God». You are a fulfilled prophecy, as I come from heaven to you and I teach you and fulfill the Scriptures with you, for I do no longer find a man on the earth who wants to give himself over to Me, in order to fulfill My Scriptures with him, the Scriptures of My coming, the Scriptures of the resurrection of the dead, the Scriptures of the new heaven and new earth, the Scriptures of eternity, My people.

I have told you, Jerusalem of My coming that I will come to you and reveal you the Scripture of My new people, who has a new name from Me, a name of Romanian, for this is the new name of God’s people. Behold, I give a new heart to those who believe in My coming in word over the earth, as told you, Romanian Israel, to become an example of the kingdom of the heavens on the earth, so that the people may learn from you the mystery of resurrection, the mystery of the sons of God, who are the sons of resurrection, and the mystery of My image in man.

I have told you, Romanian Israel, that you are the true Romanian people, that you are the Christian people of the Romanians. No one else is Christian, but the one who loves My image in him. My image is My life in man; it is My will in the man that I am well pleased with. I have told you, Romanian Israel, that you are My true Romania between heaven and earth, and the whole

Romania and the entire people, which wants to be Romanian people, will be born of you, for the name of Romanian is the new name of the people chosen by God, and which the Scriptures write about: «I will give them a new name and a new heart».

Behold, I reveal to you, Romanian Israel, the Scripture, which says this: «To him who overcomes I will give of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name, which no one knows but only he who receives it. And I will write on it the name of God and the name of the citadel of God, of the New Jerusalem, which is coming down from heaven, from God and My new name». Amen. And the one who does not believe in this Scripture, which I reveal today, to be known and believed, for him it will remain the testimony against his unbelief into the word of this Scripture revealed for the whole world. Amen.

I am with the saints, martyrs that came from heaven for the opening of this Scripture. I am with the martyr Gheorghe, (Saint George, r.n.) the victory bearer, who accompanied the Romanian waivodes in their fight of victory for the salvation of the Romanian people, the people chosen by God in the end, for it is written: «To the one who overcomes I will give of the hidden manna, and I will give him a little white stone, a new heart and a new name, of New Jerusalem, and My new name», the name of the Romanian. Amen. But why this name? Here is why: The Romanian people in Romania are the people that overcame for Me. It has been stricken and crucified as I was, it, and the land under it. The evil spirit opposing to Me knows of the mystery of this land of the beginning of the earth; it knows from the first created man; it knows the place where I build the first created man; it knows from the man that I created. Since then and until today My adversary has been striking into this land and in whatever is on it, for this land and everything that is on it is Mine more than anything on the earth. The man on this earth, the true man, wanted Me; he had Me with him on this earth and My adversary has seen Me with My work always in man, and he has always been striking Me and My man from this earth. The man of My earth has not wished anyone's evil on the earth; he has not gone wrong to anyone, as I have always been breathing with the spirit of My will over the Romanian people faithful to Me. But the thief has been coming from everywhere to defeat the Romanian and to take the land from under him, to defeat the Romanian people, but the Romanian people has overcome with Me and not without Me. I was its seal, and this seal has been working on it like a shield, because this people was born under My seal that I put on it before its birth through My first called apostle, Andrew, the apostle of John the Baptizer, the first one who came under the seal of the apostleship, a disciple with a spirit of a prophet, for it is written into the Scripture: «He who believes in the prophets, will have the reward of a prophet, and will do the work of a prophet». This apostle prophet overcame for the birth from above of the Romanian people, and then the Romanian people has prevailed over My adversary and his, for he has stayed under My seal. And why do I say that he overcame? If he had not overcome within Me, I would have not had you today as Christian, Romanian Israel, people of My word, for you are of your parents a son of the waivodes faithful to Christ in the Romanian people.

The martyr Gheorghe, bearer of victory, as the Christians of his time called him, fought for the Romanian people, for he sees from heaven and from near Me, whom I have as people from the Father for My second coming on the earth. He helped the Romanian waivodes to be the bearers of victory, as he was. He struck with his sword, not made by a human hand, the Romanian people's enemy, and this nation is the bearer of victory, for its waivodes have had God with them and in them, and they have handed Me down from generation to generation so that the Romanian people may have Me until My coming, and it has Me through its fathers, and it is victorious through Christ. Amen. And the Scripture says: «To the one who overcomes, I, the Lord, will give him of the hidden manna and I will give him a white stone and a new heart and a new name, of New Jerusalem, and My new name». My new name is the Word of God. My new name is with the Romanian people, with the Romanian Israel, with the people of My word, which is in the Romanians and out of Romanians. And if the people of the word of God is Romanian, behold also the name of the Word of God, Which is speaking in the Romanian language over the earth, and is calling out its flock in the Romanian language under the shelter of His second coming on the earth with the people. Amen.

My word makes a new heart in the Romanian man and in every man who lets himself be new in his heart at My Romanian voice, the voice of My new Israel, and the hidden manna is this spring which flows freely into the midst of the Romanian people; it is the renewed teaching of the kingdom of the heavens on the earth with the people. The hidden manna is the mystery of the Scriptures, unsealed by now, hidden by now for the human mind. The hidden mind is for those who overcome for Me and for My coming, for the fulfillment of the Scriptures of My second coming on the earth, and to the one who overcomes, to the one who has the hidden manna over him, it follows the gift of the white stone and the written name on it, that no one knows but the receiver.

I am the cornerstone and I commanded that a white stone may appear in the midst of Romania, a stone, which announces Me within My coming as word over the earth. And this stone has My word written on it, as I have always been writing Myself on it with My voice, with My hand, as My anointed ones from near the little white stone, are My mouth over the earth; they are My hands and My feet with which I speak, work and walk over the earth with My word. Amen. No one knows My word but the receiver. Who is the receiver? It is My garden with sons, the place where I raised into view the little white stone, on which it is written: the Word of God, My new name. Amen. The receiver receives My word, and then he knows it, and I, the Lord, write on it the name of God and the name of the citadel of God, of New Jerusalem, which is coming down of heaven, from God, and My new name is: the Word of God. Amen.

Romanian Israel, you bear My name and you are called by the new name of Israel, and you are called by the name of My citadel, and My citadel is called Jerusalem, for I am the New Jerusalem, the new Man, with a life giving Spirit, a tabernacle of the saints in heaven and on earth. Behold the New Jerusalem. It is coming down of heaven, from God, full of saints, citadel of the saints, God's tabernacle, and the tabernacle of My saints. Amen. And the saints have My new name written on them, the Word of God. This word of Mine is the measure which measures the holy ones, those that are faithful to Me, for I am coming down with the saints, and I am coming to the saints, and My measure is the word. Amen.

I become the word of good news of My kingdom on the earth, and I measure with this measure the kingdom of the heavens in man. He who has not got the kingdom of the heavens in his inside, has nothing to measure the Word of God with, My new name, which is written in the Scriptures for My second coming on the earth with the people. The people, who do not know to give God a kingdom and an inheritance in them, those do not receive the word of the kingdom of the heavens and the comfort of this word, for My word is the spirit of the comfort, the one promised through the Scriptures to My faithful ones.

If gifts from God will flow over the entire earth, all and everywhere are partly taken and given. But with you, sons of the New Israel, I am the whole measure. I give you little by little and I become wholly with you for the opening of the Scriptures of My second coming on the earth with people. And when I am with My entire fullness poured out on the earth among you, those who receive Me as word from heaven, then everything that is written into the Scriptures have come true, so that it might be fulfilled jota by jota, and then I come visibly for the beginning of the visible eternity. And on that day there will be neither caves, and nor rocks of hiding for those who will try then to hide from the face of My coming, from the face of My day, a day of joy for those who have been waited for Me, and a day of wrath for all those that are not faithful. Then the false prophet and the beast in the hiding, the antichrist, who is hiding in God, as he says, the beast with seven heads and ten horns, which he deceived the world with, will have no room, and it will lie on the sand of the sea instead, as it is written about the house, which is built on sand, for My church is built on a stone foundation, and I am its rock, the Christ of the Father, with My life in the sons of My church.

Israel, Romanian Israel, New Jerusalem, which are new by My new name! You shall keep in mind that God told you: «He who comes before Me is a thief and robber for the sheep», for My sheep, not for his sheep, for his sheep are not sheep, for neither is he shepherd, but rather he is a wolf under a shepherd skin.

But you, Romania, you have My people in your midst, which gives you from Me for you to have knowledge and to know the time of you love, for your time with Me has come, and I, the Lord, let you know about it, amen, as this is what I told to My Father: «I thank You, Father Lord, that You hid these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to infants, Father of the heaven and earth, for so was well-pleasing in Your sight. All things have been delivered to Me by My Father. No one knows the Son, except the Father; neither does anyone know the Father except the Son, and he to whom the Son desires to reveal him». My Father hid the mystery of My coming; He hid it from the Israel people, who called itself wise because of the word of God for it, and He has revealed it to the Romanian people, which was born Christian on the earth, through My death and resurrection, for I, the Son of the Father, wanted the Romanian people to know the Father as I know Him, for I do not speak from Myself, but rather I speak everything that My Father gives Me, and they are from the Father.

Let all the earth from margins to margins sharpen its hearing at My word, which speaks from heaven and tells about the Mystery of the Romanian people, a people born Christian, the only one people on the earth, which has its beginning in Christ, the only people which has had its right faith from its swaddles into the middle of the nations without God on the earth; a people with the birth certificate from Christ, and a people born after the spirit of My apostles that I establish as a new beginning on the earth, for it is written: «It is not the children of the flesh who inherit the promises, but it is the children of the promise that have the promises».

Take heed, you earth, and you who dwell on it; take heed, for to the one who overcame overcoming, I gave of the hidden manna and I gave him the white little stone, and a new name written on it, and only the receiver knows it, only the one who has the name of God written on it, and the name of the citadel of God, of the New Jerusalem, which is coming down of heaven from God and with God, and My new name. Amen. I am victorious for My Romanian people, and the Romanian people is victorious for Me, as it has kept the image of the kingdom of the heavens in its belly like no one else, and behold, I have sons of it, sons which have My image in them, My living life in them.

A feast of saints has come down with Me into the garden of My word, for the heaven stays with you in a celebration and finds pleasure in you. You are My sign before My coming. You are My image before My appearance. You show Me to the people. You give to those who want to take My image in them, as you do. My people, you are the one who understood the mystery of My image in man and live in it and are comprised by it, for you were faithful to My coming and I gave you the white little stone that I wrote My new name on: the Word of God, and I wrote on you the name of God and the name of the citadel of God, of the New Jerusalem, which is coming down from heaven, from God and with God, and My new name: the Word of God. The people of the worldly church do not know, and neither do the people of the church in Romania know; they do not know to understand My word in the Scriptures for the time of My second time on the earth. They have written with their hand into the Scriptures for a long time and until My coming, ("Thousands of years" instead of "a thousand and still nearly a thousand" years, r.n.) and the world has been deceived by its own teachers who sit over it into My name.

Behold I come. I come and teach the humans to know from Father the reading of the Scriptures of My coming with a new heaven and a new earth for the righteous ones. Behold, I come, and blessed are those who listen to My word and fulfill it. The people of the church do not know what New Jerusalem means; they do not know what the old and new man mean, and they wonder astray because they do not know My mysteries from the Scriptures. Behold, I come as a Teacher from heaven on the earth, and you, Romanian Israel, New Jerusalem, new name for the Lord's people, you should always stay on the way of My love with you, on the way of My coming to you, so that the people may receive of the river of My word, the river of life, which flows from Me over to the earth, to water the humans with it.

You, Romanian Israel, you are the true Romanian people. You are the true Romania between heaven and earth, and all My new people will receive birth from you, for the name of the Romanian is the new name of the newly chosen people, for it is written into the Scriptures for those who are faithful and saints: «I will give them a new name, and they will be My new people, and I will be with them and I, Myself, will be with them and I will shepherd them and give them of the hidden manna, and they will be the sons of the resurrection». Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Lord's ascension

Peace to you, My people! I am the Lord, your God. Amen, amen, amen. I celebrate with you a royal feast, for the Lord your God is the King of all that are seen and unseen, known and unknown by man. I come into your midst with a day of a heavenly feast. After I arose from the dead I appeared alive and I proved out My resurrection by many signs and I spoke about God's kingdom, and forty days after My resurrection I told My disciples to remain in Jerusalem waiting there for the Holy Spirit, the Father's promise, which I was telling them about. They were to baptize with the Holy Spirit the people who would believe in Me by My resurrection, the news that they had to spread to all the margins.

My people, I come from heaven into your midst. I come with the feast of My ascension into heaven. Oh, what a great mystery is My ascension into heaven! There came a cloud from heaven to Me and enshrouded Me and then I disappeared from the sight of those who were looking into the sky after the cloud which enshrouded My resurrected body. My people, wake up well the spirit of your understanding, for I come to you with the mysteries of the heavens. The Spirit of understanding is the greatest of all gifts. And only the good believers have it. Amen. Those who were gathered into My name in the mountain of Olives, from where I ascended into heaven, asked Me: «Lord, are You really going to restore the kingdom of Israel?» Oh, My people, only the Holy Spirit knows this mystery, Who has come to us today. When the Holy Spirit came over My apostles of that time, fifty days after My resurrection, the word which I gave them was fulfilled, for this is what I told them: «It isn't for you to know the times or seasons which the Father has set within His own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you and you will be witnesses to Me to all the margins». I told them this way, and then I was no more with them, for the cloud, which came from heaven, enshrouded Me in those that are not seen. The cloud ascended into heaven, and the angels of the Lord came down in white garments and stood near them and told them: «Why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus that you saw going into the sky from you, will come back in the same way as you saw Him going up into the sky».

My people, open up well the spirit of your understanding so that I may reveal My mysteries to you, for you to know and the entire earth may hear of God's work. While God was walking with Israel on earth, the cloud was covering God, Who was going in front of Israel. Moses knew My heavenly mystery, for he had the spirit of understanding and was speaking with the Lord, Who was covered into the cloud. All the prophets had the understanding of My mystery from Me, which covered Me into the cloud when I was speaking to them about those from heaven.

You shall look, My people, but you also have to understand from now on, that it is time to come in a visible way, as I also ascended into heaven. You should look above you when I meet you in the word to see the white cloud, which enshrouds Me when I speak upon you. This is how I am coming to you, for it is written: «As He ascended so He will come back, as you saw Him going up into the sky». This is how My coming is, for it is written: «He is coming with the clouds». Amen. This is what I told My disciples: «I will always be with you, to the end of the time». And it is so, as I told them, but the cloud is My garment, as it was from the beginning. I was the same with Adam; I was speaking with him from My word. And I also worked likewise with Abraham. I had always been with Israel into its midst and I was speaking from the cloud, enshrouded by it. I was speaking with the prophets as I usually speak, for the spoken word of angels is true: «As He ascended, so He will come back; He is coming with the clouds, and the Lord speaks over the earth».

Oh, My little garden of sons, I speak with you about My descending upon you, so that the entire earth My hear of My work with you so that the man may open up his spirit of understanding and to understand My coming to you, as I come to you for the entire earth. The little white stone from this little garden is great, for My name, My new word, is written on it, which only the receiver knows it. It is written into the book of Revelation about this mystery of the little white stone of today; you have known of the sons of the garden of My word, whom I made to be overcomers in time and over the world, for they have overcome the world, as I did.

There have also been some other works, which have come from heaven to call the world to repentance, but those who are comprised in part by heavenly works, have not wanted to overcome the world through them, and the word of the judgment of their works, the teaching coming from heaven on them, is also on them, if they have not overcome the world yet. Those, who are sons of the kingdom of the heavens on earth, do not get married or given in marriage and are clean like the angels in heaven, clean in their body and soul. However, with you, sons of My word in Romania, I have overcome and became King over the earth and I speak My word from heaven, for the clouds of My glory come down above you and I speak from the cloud on you and you give Me to the people, for the time has come for every man on the earth. Until yesterday, I was speaking only to you, but now I give Myself over to everyone through you.

Oh, My people Israel from Romanians, you should rejoice at My meetings with you and do not worry about the wind and the cloud over you, for the Lord, your God is coming to you with the clouds and this is how He speaks to you. Blessed is the man who understands My coming to you, sons, receivers of My new word. The kingdom of Israel was now restored, for Israel means the Lord's people, heavenly people, a people who comes from God and speaks from heaven. Two thousand years ago, when they asked Me about the restoring of the kingdom of Israel, I answered them in an instant that this mystery is not their work, but the work of the Holy Spirit, Who is from the Father, and I was suddenly enshrouded in the cloud ascending into heaven from them. If God was always seen by the people, the people would speak of those of the earth with the Lord, as it was then too, but I hid in the clouds and I speak over the people, and I hid in the man and I speak over the faithful who receive teaching from God.

Oh, My new people, oh, dear God's sons! I sent My disciples of that time on to the earth to be witnesses of My resurrection, which followed after My crucifixion, and I made you into the disciples of My coming, and from your midst I give Myself over to the people as word, for I made you into My sign on earth and in heaven, the sign before My coming in a body of glory. If I had not hidden from people's sight, My godhead would have been lost from the mind of the people. However, I hid with great glory, with great mystery, for great is My ascension.

Sons, the Father's Holy Spirit is within Me, and the Holy Spirit from Me is within you, and I am Holy Spirit in you. Amen, amen, amen. Sons, I ascended to be the Holy Spirit on the earth, for My body was humble among the people; it was without any glory, because God does not want glory from the people, but rather He wants love from the people, love as God's. Amen. Behold, I speak a mystery to you: as I ascended, so I will come and I will come with the clouds. Amen, amen, amen. My body is covered in the cloud, but My word is the Holy Spirit of the Father, for I am the Word of the Father Sabaoth. Amen.

There was a beautiful and cloudless day; it was a breeze and My peace over My disciples in the day when I was with them on the mount of Olives, and the white cloud was coming top down and I was enshrouded by the cloud and I hid and I glorified My godhead and I descended as Holy Spirit from My body over My disciples after ten days from My ascension from among them. They did not leave Jerusalem, as I also did not departed from the place of My peace, the place where I reconciled the man to the Father, the place where I was crucified for the man that God created, and then I gave Myself over to the entire world through My disciples, who have been confessing Me to everybody since then time and up to you, sons of My coming. And behold, I have come and the world is not with Me and has not been watching for My coming, but I come with the clouds and speak from the clouds over the little garden of My word, and the clouds will stand aside and the people will see Me, as those, who were looking at the cloud which enshrouded Me, saw Me. And the heaven will be opened; it will be opened and I will be seen by the people's eyes, who will not have waited for Me to come. Blessed is the man who sees Me with his own spirit, for that one received Me with My Holy Spirit in him. Elisha, the prophet, had Me within him and saw Me with his spirit, but his servant did not. And Elisha told Me to open the heaven so that his servant could also see the heavenly host, and Elisha's servant bodily eyes saw the Lord's salvation, the salvation of Elisha, the prophet. He, who sees Me with the eyes of his body, does not remain alive; he does not remain with the Lord and with the Lord's righteousness. That is why, I hid into those that are not seen, for blessed is the man who sees through the eyes of his spirit.

Israel, Romanian Israel, let no sons of yours be in you that do not know how to believe in God, how to have God and how to bring God among the people. You are covered in a great mystery, My people. The day in which your bodies will be in glory and when you will be enshrouded by the glory, which comes from heaven, as the cloud of the Lord's glory came over Me and enshrouded Me in the day of the ascension of My body in glory.

Oh, sons who overcame the world and the spirit of the world. It is written into the Scriptures that after the dead are resurrected, those alive will be taken up and all will be together with the Lord meeting each other. Those who overcame the world within their body will be taken up into the clouds and will meet the Lord in the air, and they will be forever with the Lord, with the new heaven and with the new earth and with the holy justice, which is coming with the Lord. Amen.

Oh, dear sons, what a great mystery is My ascension into heaven! I have always been into your midst and I am mysterious, and I am, but let Me be, sons. Let Me be there where you also are; let Me be forever with you, sons. Take care to always be from heaven, sons, for those of heaven have the Lord in them, among them and with them. The heavenly ones are known that are from heaven; the heavenly ones are covered into the eyes of those around them, for if it had not been so, they would have been tempted by those on the earth, as the spies also tempted Me and did not rejoice over My being the Son of God. The heavenly ones are in the cloud, as I am. The heavenly ones are despised by the people of empty glory, as I also am despised by them, but those from heaven are forever with the Lord. Amen, amen, amen. They love the Lord's justice and are from heaven. Amen. Blessed is the man who understands and sees with his spirit My coming from you, sons, receivers of My new word, for the clouds of the heaven will make room and that one will see Me as I am. But what are the clouds of the sky<sup>131</sup>? Sons, teach Israel to see and to know

<sup>131</sup> „At My second coming I will not be born somewhere as a child from a woman because this body will remain glorified in eternity - just as I in Spirit - and thus I do not ever need a 2nd body as you had in mind.

First I will come invisibly in the clouds of the Heavens, which means: first I will come close to men by truthful seers, wise men and newly awakened prophets, and in that time also woman will prophecy and young men will have clear dreams by which they will announce My coming to the people, and many will listen to it and improve their life, but the world will call them daydreamers and will not believe them, as this was also the case with the prophets.

... But in this land where I am now persecuted by the Jews of the temple as a criminal from one village to the other, and which is trampled down by dark heathens, I will personally not first act, teach and comfort the weak again. But in the lands of another continent that is now inhabited by heathens I will establish a new Kingdom, a Kingdom of peace, of unity, of love and of continuous living faith. Fear for the death of the body will no more exist among the people who walk in My light and who will always be in contact with the angels of Heaven and associate with them. Here you have now a real answer to your question."

... Now "heaven" means the true belief of the word which is the "Church" in it genuineness.

The sign of the Son of Man, however, is the again newly awakened love in this Church, with all its attributes like mercy, patience, gentleness, humility, acquiescence, obedience and acceptance of all afflictions of the cross.

My mystery with him. May the spirit of perceiving the heavenly mystery be with you and may it teach you the heavenly things over the earth, sons of Israel, Romanian sons, for the name of "Romanian" is a holy name as "Israel" is also a holy name. Amen, amen I speak to you: to you and to every human nation on the earth: the name of "Romanian" is a holy name. Amen, amen, amen.

The third Sunday after Whitsuntide

I am the One Who is. Amen. Open the gates between heaven and earth, sons from the gates, for I come with the wind over the earth, to strengthen the faith in God. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, small garden of My word! I have made a gate between heaven and earth into your midst, and I come in to you and pass on to the sons of the people to raise sons for God from among them. Amen.

When I was in My body on earth, I said to My disciples that My second coming would be as in the time of Noah. I was coming as word upon Noah at that time and I was telling him what to do and how to do and to live for his salvation and for his house, and I told him to make an ark for their salvation, for I was about to come and destroy the man without God. Noah believed in My word and opened to Me to always come to him, and I was coming and teaching him everything concerning his salvation, but the people in his time did not want to believe and they went on with their marrying and being given in marriage and with their eating and drinking, and did not want to believe that I would come to give each one according to his work, and they did not choose their salvation, which came from heaven on earth, to save the faithful one from the destruction that I was about to bring upon those who were unfaithful. My word was great and holy upon Noah, and Noah believed and fulfilled it, and he worked nothing on earth but for his salvation and for the salvation of his house. And if only he and his house believed, only they were saved from destruction.

Sons, from the garden of My word, open the gates between heaven and earth, for I come as in the time of Noah, to strengthen the faith on earth, the faith in God. Amen, amen, amen. As in the time of Noah, I speak over the earth and over the faithful ones, for the unfaithful ones have ears and do not hear; they have eyes and do not see; they have mind and do not understand; they have My Scriptures and those that are unfaithful do not perceive them, but I call out from heaven over the earth as in the time of Noah.

Oh, sons of the people, open the gates so that God may enter into your hearts, into your minds, into your souls and into your bodies, to believe into My new word and to escape from the wrath, which is coming over the earth because of those who are unfaithful. Oh, sons of the people look for God's sons and learn the faith in God's word from them. Oh, sons of the people, in the time of Noah, when I was calling out from heaven over the earth, and I was telling them that I came to lose those who were unfaithful, the people did not believe what I was telling them, for they indulged in their own pleasures and with them they were enticing the faithful sons and were

Behold, this living sign of the son of man will appear in the sky of the inner eternal life and will not kill but exceedingly enliven.

At such an occasion the "tribes of the earth addicted to the world" will howl, moan and lament as all their hellish deception consisting of the uncountable products for sale and for purchase will not be wanted anymore. The reason is the people of My sign will have little to do with the world dreamers, the traders and the money changers.

These will turn their eyes only where they will see the "Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with great power and glory" – which is the living Word in the heart of man or My eternal love in its fullness which therefore is of "great power and glory". And the "clouds of heaven" is the endless Wisdom Itself in this living Word. See, this is the brief understanding of this gospel text!" (Excerpts from The New Revelation about the second coming of Jesus Christ through Jakob Lorber and Gottfried Mayerhofer) spoiling the faith of those who were faithful. The sons of God in the time of Noah were attracted by the daughters of the people, and God's daughters were attracted by the sons of the people, and the seed of those who were faithful was spoiled and this is what the flood brought about over the earth.<sup>132</sup> In this time, I come again as word over the earth; I come again for this is what I promised to My disciples: «I am going to the right side of My Father and then I will come to you, to take you with Me, so that where I am you may also be».

Oh, sons of the people, let yourselves be drawn by God's sons and become God's people, for God's people will be saved and will escape in the day when I, the Lord, will come, and because of My coming «the heavens will be set on fire and will be destroyed, and the burning elements will come open and the earth and the things on it will burn completely», as it is written into the Scriptures. Oh, sons of the people, I have let My promise over those who are faithful that I will give those new heavens and a new earth, and the righteous will dwell on a new earth. I became a spring of new heaven and new earth over all who would believe in the fulfilling God's will within their body and spirit. Oh, sons of the people, let yourselves be drawn by God's sons so that you may be born of God, of the word that comes down from heaven on earth to call the sons of the people to the works of the faith, for in the time of Noah, God's sons allowed themselves to be drawn by the sons of the people, and I saw this from heaven and I got angry with them, for with the exception of Noah, there had no longer been a man not to forget Me.

Oh, sons of the people, those who shepherd you do not take care of your faith, the faith in God means life in God, and those who shepherd you do not take any care of it at all, oh, sons of the people. I come to shepherd the one who does not want to perish. I come to wake up the world from the sleep of unbelief, and let the one who hears come after Me. I am with those who are faithful. Amen. Let the one who hears My voice come and believe and learn what faith in God is, for soon, soon, the heavens will pass away with a great noise and the earth and the things on it will be burned completely because of the day of My coming, as it is written in the Scriptures about My coming.

Behold, I am coming, and no one cares to come after Me. Behold, I am coming, and the man cannot come to follow Me for he has many things to do, and he cannot leave those of his to take over those that are Mine. Behold, I am coming, and the man is slow in coming, and he has his hands and feet bound, and every man on the earth is in darkness. The one who cannot come after Me to follow Me, that one cannot do it because of the darkness, and he is stopped from coming, for this is what I told to My disciples: «If someone walks in the day time he does not stumble because he sees the light of this world, and if someone walks in the darkness, he stumbles, because the light is not in him». The Lord is the light in man. If I, the Lord, am not in man, the darkness is in man and he stumbles in the darkness within him and within the works of the darkness in him. Oh, sons of the people, I am the Light of the world. If someone walks during the daytime he does not stumble because he sees the Light of this world. Amen, amen, amen.

And as for you, sons from the manger, you should always stay with the gates between heaven and earth opened, for I am coming to call out to the sons of the people to look after the Light of this world denying the works of the darkness, which have nothing from God. I come to tell the sons of the people that I come as in the time of Noah, when no one expects Me to come. Be strong and with great faith in the midst of the sons of the people, for the power of My life is strong in those who believe in Me, fulfilling every word of Mine. The sons of the people walk in the darkness and stumble because the light is not in them. But you should be My day; be the day of My coming and be the sons of the day and walk in the day time without obstacles, for the light is in you. I have given you a great name before My coming and you are the sons of the Lord's meeting, and you are the day of My coming, and because of the coming of this day over the earth, the heaven and the earth shake and come open, for the people are afraid of the day of My coming; they are afraid because their works of darkness from them are brought into the light. However, I come, and you are the day of My coming, and the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit and all the saints and angels have been waiting for this day for seven thousand years.

Oh, My faithful people, you are the day of My second coming from heaven on earth, for this is what I prophesied to you and I told you: «I will name you above the day of My resurrection and I will love you, My faithful people». No one expects on the earth for you to be the day of My coming; no one, My people. But I, the Lord, with the entire heaven from above and beneath, have been waiting for this day to come into the midst of the sons of the people, and for the people to get used to the day of My coming and the sons of the people to see the Light of this world and to walk in the light, for I am coming as in the time of Noah, when no one expects Me to come. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Transfiguration

Oh, faithful sons, the people on earth read in the life of the time of My body into the midst of the people; they read but they do not let themselves be moved by God's works, those above nature, by My heavenly power, which I have been releasing now and then to the people so that the people may believe in God, the One Who came on the earth. Moses and Elijah, My prophets of old, appeared with Me in glory, speaking of those I was about to suffer in Jerusalem, for they were from heaven and knew about heaven. My three apostles wanted to keep Me away of suffering, and Peter told Me that if I wanted, the three of them would make a hut for each one of us, so that I could remain there in the mountain with Moses and Elijah, for they were terrified at those that I was about to suffer. And while he was speaking, there came a cloud and covered us all, and My apostles were terrified and then, from the cloud, became a voice, the voice of My Father, Who said: «This is My beloved Son. Listen to Him». The glory of the heaven withdrew then into its chambers, and I remained with them as by that time, commanding them not to tell what they had seen until My resurrection from the dead. And if I ascended to My Father, I told them: «Go to the entire world and preach Me, and you will be My witnesses to all the ends for the faithful who will believe in Me by your testimony». Sons, on that day, the heaven appeared together with the earth at work: The Father with the Son, Moses with Elijah, who are alive, and the three apostles on whom we let the mysteries of the heavens in a special way, and with whom I went from place to place between heaven and earth.

Behold, I come as word full of joy over you. I come with the remembrance of My works over My disciples of that time, and I come with them to you, those of today, with whom I work out My coming of today on the earth, My work of today with you, as I did My work with those of that time.

Oh sons, My works above nature remained like a couple of stories over the people, but they are My power above nature. Who else startles in his heart with regard to My working power from heaven on earth? For I was on the earth with those in heaven and with those on earth. Amen. Oh, sons, today I am likewise. I am with you and with those in heaven on the earth with you, and you are the witnesses of My work with you. I am in a heavenly celebration among you, and My apostles bless you from Me with an apostolic and fatherly blessing, for whoever listens to them listens to Me and receives Me, for this is what I spoke to them.

Oh, disciples, oh, My apostles of old! You are with Me, your Teacher; we are with the smallest ones of the Lord's time. They work with the heaven as you do and bring Me from heaven on earth, for it is by their faith that I have come again and I speak, as I did two thousand years ago, and I teach the nations to stay this way for My coming, and many will come to stand for My coming. Amen, amen, amen. I speak a word of joy and hope over the little ones. They are the faithful ones of My coming among the thousands of thousands of saints, for this is how I come when I come, for I have a heavenly retinue and I come with it when I come. Amen.

— Oh, Teacher, the white cloud enshrouds us all, and we sit on the cloud and speak with You, as then when Your face was changed into glory in the mountain, and Your garment became as white as light. Oh, Lord, the people want to get us out of Scriptures, so that we may not be the word of Your true Scriptures. But we are among the twelve and we left the books into the Scriptures for those faithful of Yours, Lord, for You have sent the Holy Spirit on us, and our books are sealed with Your Holy Spirit, but the people want to take us out of the Scriptures. The Scriptures are Your book of that time, in which we also wrote ourselves for the faith of the people, for we were the witnesses of Your work above nature, Lord, Teacher. Moses and Elijah, and we, Your three apostles, Peter, Jacob and John, heard the voice of the Father in the mountain of the glory, as You also are His beloved Son, and we all bear witness to that day, and we bear witness from heaven; and from among us, the apostle of love speaks over the churches. Amen.

For this is what Your Holy Spirit spoke to him: «You have to prophesy once again to nations, peoples and many kings». Amen, amen, amen.

— I, John, the apostle, was on the island of Patmos because of the testimony of Jesus Christ and the word of God. I was taken up by the spirit on one Sunday and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet, which said: «Write on a scroll what you see and send it to the seven churches!» I saw His glory, and He said to me: «Do not be afraid, I am the First and the Last and I am the living One. I was dead, and now look, I am alive forever and ever and I have the keys of death and of Hades. Write, therefore, what you have seen, what is now and what will take place later». Jesus Christ spoke to me and I wrote God's word about those that had to be and then He testified saying: «If anyone adds to the words of this prophecy, God will add to that person the plagues described in this scroll, and if anyone takes words away from this scroll, God will take away from that person any share in the tree of life and in the Holy Citadel, which are described into this scroll».

Oh, faithful and unfaithful people, doubtful and not doubtful, only I had the name of John among the twelve disciples of Jesus Christ, but His book, which is at the last end of the Scriptures, is Jesus Christ's revelation that God gave Him to show to His faithful servants those that had to take place soon. He sent His angel to reveal it to me, and I confessed God's word and Jesus Christ's testimony to the churches.

Oh, sons of the people, if Jesus Christ had not spoken of this scroll and of the one who had taken out or added to this scroll, this prophecy would have been covered long ago, but its words have an unshakable strength, for the Spirit of Christ said: «Go and take the open scroll from the hand of the angel standing on the sea and on the land; take it and eat it, for you have to prophesy once again over the earth and to mark those who worship Me, and exclude others of My measurement, for they are pagans, and I will take away any of their share from the tree of life and from the holy citadel which is written in this scroll about».

Oh, sons of the people, the Word of God has come on the earth and become a holy citadel, built by those faithful of His coming, and the Lord is its glory and light, and the impure will not enter it, as it is written into this book of the Lamb's life. The word of God makes a New Jerusalem, a holy citadel, built of living hearts, born of the heaven above, a kingdom of God in a man born from above.

Oh, you stiff-necked, behold, I speak once again to the people, as the Lord's prophecy was, Who did not want me to die, and He rather wanted me to work among those who are faithful to God's word into the midst of Romania, the citadel of New Jerusalem, which has this garden of word in it. Amen. I, John, the apostle of Jesus Christ among His twelve apostles, was in the island of Patmos because of God's word, Who said to Me: «Write!» Soon, soon all the unfaithful will tremble and all the rulers of the earth, and they will hide in caves and rocks, for I will let myself be seen at the Lord's command, Who is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see Him. Amen. Behold, you hide from this prophecy. Behold, you try to hide it and to take it away from my face, but I tell you again: I, John, the apostle, wrote the word of God in this scroll. Amen. Shake off the unbelief and do not run away from God, for He said: «Buy from Me salve for eyes to anoint your eyes and see». Amen.

And you, the Lord's beloved ones, redeemed by Him from every people and nation through His blood, sing a new song, sing to the Lamb with heavenly praises, sing Him wedding songs, for soon, soon, every nation will come and worship the Word of God, Which is with you.

Oh, Teacher, the white cloud is ascending with us, and You are with those who are faithful, and You become light over the earth and come true in this word prophesied into this scroll. Amen.

— Amen, amen, I speak to you, My beloved apostle, John: every word of this prophecy come again into the way of the people and is preached, as I told you then: «You will prophesy once again over the nations of the earth». Amen.

Behold a heavenly feast, and I will come with My father and with a heavenly retinue in a celebration for My mother, the Virgin, and we will have days of heavenly testimony, days of wedding among days of wedding, I, the Lord, with My people and with those who love My people for My name which is on him. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of seven years after the consecration<sup>133</sup> of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! I am the One Who is. Peace to you! Peace to those who serve My commandments, and to those who violate them I declare war! Amen, amen, amen.

I come down from heaven on the earth and I lay Myself down as word over the garden of My word. I come like the rain over the crops, to do the work of My Father over the earth. I am the Sower and I am the One Who waters to make everything grow, but the ground is hard-trodden. The ground is the way of lawlessness, and I do not find any place to fallow, so that I may do My work that I have from the Father. I do not find anywhere any good soil, for the ground is hard-trodden and there is a dry crust on it, because everything has come to an end! I have come back from heaven to prepare the way of My coming with the saints, but the earth is a way of lawlessness, and what shall I really do? Behold what I will do: I will come back to the first beginning and I start from where I left off. Amen.

I glorify Myself through the word over My fenced garden in the middle of Romania, the place of the beginning of the earth, from where I took the dust with My hand and I created the man, so that I may put the man back over to the earth then, but not also over the heaven. I come back and I work as in the beginning. As I worked in the beginning? I worked out the word and I made all those that are, and now I also work out the word, to break down those that are, for the man and the earth from under him are the way of the lawlessness, a hard-trodden and uncleared land.

I am that Word, the One after seven years from the sealing by My holiness law of the garden of the Holy of Holies, the place I enter as a Bishop of My Father after two thousand years since My first coming among the people. Seven years ago, on the twelfth day of the twelve month, I sat down with My holiness as on the Mount Sinai, I set Myself to be and to stay with a hearing and working word on earth from the middle of the garden, made out of My word to be My holy mount in the middle of Romania, the country for My coming after two thousand years, for the earth is all over only a way of transgression and there is no longer any place for Me and for the one who believes in Me and in My coming after two thousand years. Seven years ago this day, I made a great joy for My Father and for those in My circle, as I made holy a place for Myself so that the heaven may have a way for its coming on earth and to redeem the bedding lost through the fallen man in the garden of Eden, from the earth of the heaven.

<sup>133</sup> To perform, by the appointed ceremony, the service of inauguration of a church; to consecrate it, tr. note.

There is nothing to save on earth, but what is impossible with man is possible to Me; and I enclosed, sanctified and sealed My garden by My name, the garden which was the place of My rest from the beginning and behold, from the end as well. I made man after My image and after My likeness out of the clay of this garden and I rested in him; however the Father was in Me while I was working the man. I looked from end to beginning and I came across by My eye to this place of the beginning of the earth and of the man on it, and I worked a word upon this land and then I named it the garden of My word; and it is so. And if it is so, here I am the word upon the land from the middle of the earth, from the top of the earth, the high mountain which God, the Word sits on.

I deliver this word and proclaim Myself victorious over My adversary, the man; the man who set himself against Me from the beginning and until My coming of today. I am the Christ of the Father, and the man who stands against Me is called the antichrist. He is not called man anymore; rather he is called the false prophet who stands against God from the beginning and until My coming with the judgment for the thief.

I work hard as all are finished and I find nowhere else on earth tools of work for My heavenly work, for there are on earth only human things. But behold My book for the false prophet, the antichrist, who has been coming ahead of Me since seven thousand years to thwart My work from the Father on earth and on the man that came out of the earth! The antichrist is the beast with seven heads and he is a devil, not a servant of God.

But what is the beast with seven heads? It is the power of the earth through the people who overthrew the dwelling of God in man. It has ten horns and ten diadems, and it has the name of blasphemy on its heads, and the devil gave to it the dominion over the earth and it cries everywhere: «Who is like the beast and who can fight against it?» And here, its mouth blasphemes against God and upon His tabernacle and upon those in heaven. And it was given power to wage war with the saints and to overcome them, and it has dominion over all tribes, peoples and nations, and all the inhabitants of the earth who are not written from the foundation of the world with their names into the Lamb's Book of Life, worship the beast.

But what is the false prophet? He is the man who comes out of the earth and who fights against God from beside God, for it is written: «I saw another beast coming out of the earth; he had two horns like a Lamb and spoke like a dragon; and he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence. He makes the earth and all those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed, and he deceives everyone by the miracles that were given to him to perform before the beast».

Here is the false prophet revealed by the Scriptures, for Daniel the prophet said this: «The frightening, awesome and exceedingly powerful beast with great iron teeth and bronze claws, was eating, tearing and trampling behind her. It differed from all other beasts, for it had ten horns. And another little horn came up among them and this horn had a human eye and a mouth which was speaking great things. But the beast was slain and its body was destroyed by fire as with the clouds of the sky someone like the Son of man was coming near and to Him it was given the authority; the eternal dominion, and all the peoples, nations and languages were serving Him; and His kingdom is without ending and His saints will be Heirs together with Him».

Daniel the prophet wrote: «The false prophet will speak words of blasphemy against God and will persecute the saints and think to change the feasts and the law for a time and times and a half a time, but the people of the saints will take over his dominion, for he will be judged to destruction and falling down forever». Amen.

Behold the thread hidden from the human look; behold the false prophet of seven thousand years who has stood close to God in order to overthrow His dwelling in man. Behold My book lowered from heaven for the false prophet, the antichrist, who has been coming before Me since seven thousand years to thwart My dwelling in man and to make him not fulfill My holy commandments which give those who work them eternal life. Behold the false prophet, the one with a Christian face, the one who stands under My garment, for it is written: «He has two horns like the Lamb's but speaks like a dragon and he is holding all the power of the first beast». I uncover him and proclaim his nakedness, and I proclaim it to all the rulers of the souls and bodies, to all the margins, for towards the end he put his heads in My country full of all My gifts, the gifts of My second coming on earth, in the work of the new Jerusalem over creation. Amen.

I will stand for three days in a row as a word over My garden which I proclaim Myself with My voice on earth from. Three days in a row I will be writing in the book for the judgment of the false prophet for as long as seven thousand years, for he has been working under the same vine with God: Cain upon Abel, Esau against Jacob, Joseph's brothers against Joseph, Saul upon David, Caiaphas upon Christ, and the servants of the church against the Christians, My holy people within his life, for the man of the church gave himself over to the false prophet, who set himself to perform miracles in heaven as on earth, he says, to deceive the church of Christ and to pull it aside from its foundation and to take a name of Christ in the church. But he is a false Christ; he is a devil; he has been the antichrist from son to son until today for seven thousand years.

Oh, you false prophet who overthrow the God's dwelling in man! I am who I am. I am the Christ of the Father. Amen. Come out to meet My word, for I write the book for your judgment. I am with a holy feast on earth, a day of seven years from the day of the sealing of the garden of New Jerusalem, a word after seven years since the destruction of your power, the hidden one from those on earth. I come against you for it is written: «Someone is coming with the clouds of the sky like the Son of man and will judge the false prophet to destroy him forever». Amen.

I left seven years of grace on earth but you work with money and with vainglory and make the earth and its inhabitants to believe that you are the man of God, but you are a devil, you are a serpent in the way who bites the horse's heels causing him to fall, for you are coming from the beginning and working from sons to sons, as it is written that you would be a serpent, for when Jacob blessed his sons he said this: «Dan will be a serpent in the way to bite». I come against you and tell you: you have taken a shepherd appearance but you are a devil who deceives and persecutes the people of the saints from beginning to end, for your line as Mine, is from beginning to end, and My church, the man created by Me, has been falling down from man to man until today, by your hand, by your work against Me and against My saints in whom I have been dwelling and working from son to son according to the ongoing course of the saints.

I want to tell you that you are but flesh and come out of the earth and I want to remind you My word: «The flesh lusts against the Spirit and the Spirit against the flesh»; you against Me and I against you; I, by My saints from heaven and those born by the Spirit on My preaching, and you are only flesh and come out from the earth and you are a devil, not a shepherd. And those that are not written into the Book of My life, from the foundation of the world, you overcome them with pleasures and vainglory to worship you, but I am coming with the clouds against you and pronounce your judgment. Three days in a row I will let the word upon you, and on the third day I will be closing the book for your judgment. I come and tell you that you cannot do anything for heaven, as you are like the valley of Jehoshaphat where I will gather together all like you to destroy them by fire burning with brimstone, as My judgment is written for the false prophet. Amen. And you from the dead set My word for three days in a row so that I may make out the book against antichrist, and after three days I will be closing it, for this way I started on this day saying: "Peace to those who serve My commandments, and to those who tread on them I declare war!" Amen, amen, amen.

I want to tell you that you are flesh and you come out of the ground, and I want to remind you My word: «The flesh lusts against the spirit and the spirit lusts against the flesh»; that is, you against Me and I against you; I, through My saints from heaven and born of the Spirit at My preaching, and you are flesh and come out of the ground, and you are a devil, not a shepherd. And over those that are not written into My Book of Life from the beginning of the world, you prevail with pleasures and empty glory, so that they may worship you, but I come on the clouds and I come against you and I will declare your judgment. I come and I let you know that you can do nothing for heaven, for you are like the Valley of Jehoshaphat, where I will gather together those that are like you, to destroy them by the fire, where brimstone burns, as it is written the judgment for the false prophet. Amen.

And you, those from the gates, set out My word for three days in a row, so that I may make out the book against antichrist, and after three days I will finish it, for this is how I began on this day, saying: „Peace to those who serve My commandments, and to those who violate them I declare war!” Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of St. Apostle Andrew

My voice cries out again at the gates to open and to come with the word into the garden. Amen.

I again let down My word for the judgment of the false prophet who thwarts My plans, who steals the word from one another and tells it to the people without My sending, without My commandment. I make Myself a judgment book and write into it for three days in a row, (See the first part of the word from 1998.12.12, r.n.) and I will be closing it tomorrow so that I may overcome by storm, wrath and harshness the lying heads of the false prophet. Amen.

You from the garden, you who are set by Me on the way of My word coming down from heaven to earth! Open the book of the false prophet, My book for him so that I may write in it. Amen. It is written that I come with the saints and this is how I come. I come in the land of My word. Andrew, My apostle from two thousand years ago, will be coming with Me in the garden, for it is a celebrating day over My church, a holy day for St. Andrew, the one who came first after Me to be My apostle and to give Me to the people the way I am and in the same way as I want to be with the man, and not as the false prophet<sup>134</sup> wants it.

Oh, you false prophet, I am in front of you with My book against you. I open it and write into it for three days in a row and then I will seal it by the seal of My word and bring it to its place, and you are its place. Bend down to hear for I make you bend down to hear and to take My word from Me to you.

You destroyed My dwelling in man and filled him with carelessness for the man was seeing you standing into My name and he was doing like you not like Me, because he wanted to see God in order to believe. The man cannot believe without seeing; he believes only what he sees. Behold, the man sees you standing into My name before him and he believes what he sees that you are doing. But what are you doing? You lose and scatter the sheep from on My way; you do not bring them together; you do not graze them; you do not nurse them but rather you are standing into My name in front of them. It is written in the Scriptures: «Woe to the parents who lose and scatter the sheep of My flock by not taking care of them and by letting them to be scattered! These turn fornication into lie helping the evildoers; so that no one may turn back from disbelief. I will feed them on bitters and will give them water mixed with gall, for their unbelief has spread all over the earth. Did they take part in My council? Only then let them get up and speak My word to make the people turn back from their evil ways. Can man really hide in a place where I may not find him? But they steal My word from one another and say: “God said this!” Is there any connection between chaff and clean wheat grain? Behold, I am against the deceivers and flatterers, for I did not sent them». The one that is not sent does not bring any benefit for Me. The sent one needs to be a spiritual man, but you are fleshly and put a stain on My name by your debauchery, for you stand in My name before the people. Oh, how dare you stand in My name over the people when you are not repented and still sin? When you are full of the lust for the vainglory; when you are eating and drinking and marrying and committing fornication and abominations in a seemingly holy place, how can you say that you stand into My name over those without understanding? Behold I show who you are. You are not My friend, rather My enemy.

You are not My servant, you are not a sheep shepherd for you do not know how to shepherd, as I did not sent you, and the one that is not sent is a false prophet whom the Scriptures proclaim as liar and rapacious.

Oh, what are you looking for in My service? For My servants stand in the fire and do not burn, because it is written: «God is a consuming fire». What are you doing where you are not called by Me, and what are you looking for where you are not sent. You, who ask for the Holy Spirit from those that even they do not have Him, from they who do not know what the Holy Spirit in man is, what are you really looking for? Here, you are asking for punishment given to the false prophet; you are looking for water mixed with gall, as you are not looking for something else. You wanted to be an intelligent man and wanted to be literate to be a scholar and many people to gather together around your wisdom, but here, the Scriptures stands against you and says: «He is conceited and said: “I am God and sit on the throne of God in the middle of the seas”. That is why he was thrown down on earth because of his sins, for he defiled his holiness with his cunning. Fire will break out of him and consume him, and his ash will be blown by the wind before all passers-by. And those who did not know him will be astonished by his downfall». This is what is written about the one who earns wisdom to deal in it and to buy an empty glory, as the holy man is not a scholar; rather he is full of God and of his gifts, the man full holy wisdom not of scholarly wisdom. I have nothing to do with your wisdom and you are a branch without any price. I have a word written in heaven in your time; however, you were conceited because of your wisdom and did not take from Me through the ones humbled in their hearts. I have always spread out the word to you and told you that I have nothing to do with man’s school, with earthly knowledge, for he who does not learn knowledge from heaven is not a heavenly man; rather he is a man that came out of the earth and is a false teacher, not a true one; he is a false prophet who perishes by his own wisdom. The first of My church were not scholars; rather they were poor in spirit and I could pour out into them from Me and I gave them the garment of wisdom. But you are a scholar and I cannot give to you from Me too, for the man with much learning from man is a conceited man; he is a prophet who steals the word from one another as it is written in the Scripture about the false prophet who is learning from those like him.

Oh, you did not want to come to your senses. I have let for you seven years of grace to bend down and dress in repentance and then to be heavenly so that I may forgive you, and today I make you bend down. Bend down to hear from Me for I make you bend down! Amen, amen, amen.

You destroyed My dwelling in man, and the man has Me as much you have Me, and the man is full of conceit as he sees you that you stand into My name before him and believes what he sees you doing; and the man does not see God, as you do not see him as well, and you are over-confident and I am far away from you, as you are a sinful and heretic man and have wondered away from holiness and justice and sit with the pagans at the table and trample under your foot My name which is put over you, by you not by Me, for I am with the saints. You sit in the counsel with unbelievers; you sit in the way of the sinful and sit at the table with the blasphemers of the saints, and My law is no longer you will and you have no fruit for heaven. Who else could turn the sinful man away from his transgressions? It is written: «The one who turns the sinful from his evil ways that one saves his soul too». But you destroyed My dwelling in man and filled him with carelessness, because the man sees you and he does as you do, not as I do.

I came with witnesses from heaven to make out the book of the false prophet judgment. Two thousand years ago My apostles and all who were following Me were called a sect, the sect of the Nazarene. What do you say about this, you man who prophesy about My Christians that they are a sect? Caiaphas was teaching the Jews to call them My sect those who were saints. You do the same, and it is good that you say this, but you do evil that you do not teach people what this word “sect” is; you do evil that you do not teach people what the word “church” means, because you know what it is, but you teach otherwise the ones that worship you and not Me; and I would rather live with people.

Where shall the man go to the church anymore? Where is the church anymore? Where are My priests? Oh, there is nothing more! All are finished. Oh, what have you done with the word “church” and from the thing of the church? You turned it into your trade not Mine and gave your name of false prophet to the one who has nothing in common with My church and with its thing, for the false prophet the Scriptures is writing about, is not the one outside of My thing; rather he is the one who is working in My name, in My church, in My cowshed, but he is working for himself and not for Myself, for his glory not for Mine, as you are working, for it is written: «He who speaks for himself that one is seeking his own glory, but he who is looking for the glory of God, in him there is no unrighteousness and lie; rather God is in him with His truth». Those named by you false prophets that you may hide better under My name, will be judged less, less, for they do not know what the word “church” means, and I, the Lord, am in the church. It is written: «If they knew not, they would have no sin». But you know and believe that you can hide yourself in a secret place, where I may not see you. Oh, My eye and My word split the man apart and render him outside, and this is what I am doing with you, for all are finished! Your lie is over for you are that lie and are no longer My servant as you call and show yourself and you are rapacious of souls who worship yourself not Myself. You did not become a shepherd for Me; rather you became a shepherd for yourself in order to dress and feed on the wool and milk of My weak sheep, for you call a sect all the fatten and healthy ones in order to escape, you say, from My pursuit of righteousness through the saints who are doing My will and not yours; however, you lie to yourself for it is written: «Those who are not written from the foundation of the world into the Lamb’s Book of Life, they are the ones who worship the false prophet, the one with hidden heads, so that he may not come to light, as the light shows all hidden ones».

Seven years ago I raised My heavenly flag on which was written My name and the name of God’s fortress, of New Jerusalem which is coming down from heaven, from God; for I have been working secretly from everlasting to everlasting. You arose and called a lie My work and My flag which brings victory against you. You were scared and sought a hiding place from my face, and today you are doing the same; you seek calling a lie and heresy My work of victory upon the darkness of this age. You have been hidden from Me as you have no life to fit in with My coming, and you are fearful and are afraid of the Master’s coming and you would like to delay the Master’s coming. But you could do nothing by lying and neither can you do now.

Seven years ago I stuck My cross of victory into your midst. My cross of victory is the people of My word, under which I have been sheltering for forty years and more in order to raise it and make it perfect and fill it with the Holy Spirit, as I worked with My disciples from two thousand years ago until I made them distributors of the kingdom of heaven upon earth. Seven years ago I wrote Myself with a new name upon the man’s age and I named Myself with My name written in the Scriptures for this time, as it is written: «His name is the Word of God». (Apoc: 19/13, r.n.) Amen. Do not think that I have come towards you to break the law of the prophets. I have not come to break; rather I have come to fulfill and that is why I remind you that two thousand years ago I told those who wanted to take after Me in ministering: «This way should your light shine before men so that the men may see your good deeds and follow the heavenly Father glorifying him». Here is why those who do not have deeds to fit in with My life in man; they cannot be distributors of heavenly teaching and, on the contrary, they are the ones who break the law and the prophets so that the man may lose its path, for each time the man was a path for the man. You are the wide gate and whoever wants may come in to you and sit at the table with you; which one do you say that is My table? But My gate and My way are narrow, for they lead to life, and few are those who find it. That is why I said two thousand years ago to the multitudes hungry of life: «Keep away from the false prophets who come to you dressed in sheep skins and under their skins are rapacious. You can know them by their fruits for the grapes are not gathered from thorns and neither the figs from bramble bushes, as each tree makes good fruit; however, a bad tree makes bad fruit, and each tree that does not make good fruit is cut and thrown into the fire. That is why you will know them by their fruit». And here is you fruit: you scattered away flock, a mixed flock like its shepherd, for the shepherd is the false prophet who I said about: «I never knew you».

I called out to man and I sent My crying word all over the earth, for if man wanted to watch out, I would not be foolish Myself in you. I have always cried out to man; I have been crying out to him for seven years; I am crying out to you after two thousand years from My first preaching among people. I have no other way to speak to you. I have always called out to you to bend down to hear and you have not bent down yet. But now bend down as I bend you down to hear!

There have passed seven years since the sealing of the Holy of Holies when I come with the holy ones and with the saints for those that are holy, for the Holies are given to the saints. Amen. There are seven years since I wrote Myself upon the earth with My new name and with the name of God's city, the New Jerusalem, which is coming down from heaven, from God, for it is written: «Here, God's tabernacle is among people and will dwell with them and they will be His people and God Himself will be with them». You have been striking for seven years all over to bring a blasphemy against My work, for you have many heads and a name of blasphemy on them. And after seven years you have changed your plan and wanted to believe in the mystery of New Jerusalem as it is written in the Scripture about it. You have said all over until now that the place of the New Jerusalem is in heaven, not on earth, and now you have risen with an earthly power to build a tower with many turrets, for you are the horn which comes out from other horns; and over your daily sacrifice, you put the iniquity and you threw My truth down to the ground, and you said that you succeeded; and on your tower with many turrets you wanted to write "the New Jerusalem", for you changed your face, you said, and wanted to believe in My mystery of the New Jerusalem on earth. But you wrote on your heads names of blasphemy and let you take a good look for these writings are and testify against you, and you cannot put before Me the tower accomplished by human plans which have nothing holy in them, as those that are holy are with the saints and you are mixed up with the pagans and with their paganism and therefore it cannot be a service to God and to Mammon at the same time. Oh, if you loved My Scriptures, you would believe and fulfill them and confirm them upon many. But you have your books from where you drink and water yourself with your vainglory, as you made Me, the Lord, search you under your garment and to tell your subjects that your garment is a lie and you are the liar from under the garment, the lying Christ, who goes before Me to make man sleep and to say that the day of the Lord has already come and passed away.

I have waited for your apostasy, as written that it will be before My day. And here, I come now. Come out to meet Me and listen to your judgment for you rejected the law, the prophets and the faith. And now I am coming; I am coming with My great and awesome day, for you did what you had to do, and all are finished, and I begin. I start with a new beginning and I call it the New Jerusalem, but I am working not you; I make, not you, for I am Who I am, and I rise victoriously upon you. Amen.

I proclaim Myself victoriously over My adversary, the man; the man who set against Me from the beginning until My coming from son to son and he is no longer called man, and he is called the false prophet who stands against God as a thief. All you cities will be destroyed, for they are worked out by you, not by Me, and your thing is not clean, and is perishing by itself.

And now I come, I come in the land of My word, the country of brightness, as Daniel saw it long ago in order to announce it that it would be. I come with the saints; I come with the heaven; I come with the disciples. I come and I have already come. Amen, amen, amen. And I am the word in the garden of My word, in the land of My coming, the country of glories, which shines through My coming. Behold a feasting of word, a feasting of saints in My garden on earth, a feasting of victory of the Lamb and of those redeemed by the blood of the Lamb. I have come to work out the book for judgment upon the false prophet who deceives with the sheep's skin the people from all tribes, languages, peoples and nations. Blessed be My book of today which I have been writing in for three days in a row, and blessed be the book which will come out from the midst of those who say that they serve Me; for it will be like the sword snatched from the hand of the murdered one, so that I may cut with it the insult from the sons of the heaven who accomplish My commandments on earth and snatching his sword, I will cut him, for he lived by his sword on earth, as My word has been upon him from the beginning, for this is what I said to him: «By your sword will earn your living».

I made man king upon the earth, but not in heaven. The heaven is My throne, not man's, and My church from the earth, if it is Mine, it should be a heaven on earth, and its servants should not be kings; rather servants if they want. And behold, I am coming, as a master comes to search his vine, and woe to those who made themselves masters over My vineyard! Who is the one who set himself as a master over My vineyard? Let him come to account for those worked! Let him come to terms with the Master of the vineyard! Amen.

I have come with witnesses from heaven to make out the book of judgment for the false prophet, and he will fall into his sword, and I will remove the insult from the sons of life, for the same as two thousand years ago, when My apostles and all who were following Me were called a sect, the same is today too; they who follow Me are called a sect by those who want to rule over the earth and in heaven. But snatching their sword, I will overcome by it and I will remove the insult from the sons of life, the sons of the New Jerusalem, the sons of God; the sons of the heaven on earth among people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of Holy Virginia

Lift up your heads, you gates, so that the King of glory may come in! His kingdom is an eternal kingdom and all governances Will listen to Him and Will serve Him. Amen.

A river of fire comes out of My mouth, for «The Judge sat down and the books were opened, and another book was opened, which is the Book of Life; and the dead and the living were judged, each one according to his deeds, and the death and hell were thrown into the lake of fire, and who was not found written in the Book of Life, was cast into the lake of fire», as it is written.

The book with seven seals is opened in the hand of the Lamb. The heaven set aside like a book and the kings of the earth, the rulers and chiefs, the rich and powerful, the slaves and free hid in the caves and rocks; they were hiding from the face of the One sitting on the throne. The Book of Life is from the foundation of the world and is opened in the hand of the Lamb. Amen, amen, amen.

The word of God enters His gates and works out the book of judgment for the false prophet; it has been working for three days in a row, and in the third day I will be finishing<sup>135</sup> and giving to My Father to fulfill it. Amen.

Behold, I come with the saints. This is how I come and I come no otherwise. I had a trumpet on earth in the last days and sounded it and I made for Myself a people and called it the people of My word; and this work of Mine have always been under My control of sheltered victory, for the false prophet is fearful and stands against the Christians of God so that he might be Mine not the Christians. Only that he cannot make a house with Me and cannot make peace because I, the Lord, have been against him for seven thousand years until the opening of the books of judgment and then of the book with seven seals, and then of the trumpets of the angels, and of the seventh angel: The Word of God.

I had a trumpet on earth in the last time and sounded it and made a people; and it is, and I lifted the trumpet up to heaven among the saints, for the beast with seven heads and ten horns had been always standing before it, for it was coming out of her, like a son, My word, to shepherd with it. The beast persecuted My trumpet, but I, the Lord, gave her wings of eagle and she flew away from before his face. But he does not stand still; rather he gets into a rage against those from her tribe, who keep God's commandments, standing for My witness. But I am the tabernacle of the saints and I protect them from the persecution which is coming from the false prophet as the Father protected Me and My Mother, the Virgin, when I was an infant on her arms and the red beast with seven heads and ten horns wanted to come and swallow Me after I was born among people.

Behold, I come with the saints. I come this way and no otherwise. I come with My trumpet, Verginica. Twenty years ago I gave her wings of eagle and she flew away to her place, she flew into heaven; now she is with Me in My work upon the earth, for she was My trumpet which I sounded before My second coming on earth. It is coming to the end pace of the twentieth year since she has been working in heaven for her people of yesterday, today and tomorrow, for she has as a reward in heaven a people, the people of My last word, the people by which I, the Lord, fulfill the last Scripture, My second coming from heaven on earth. Amen. The false prophet heard of My plan and he is the one who wants it to fulfill. He has it for he has always been standing before the woman laboring to give birth of My word; he has been standing to devour the word like a child born of her.

Oh, you false prophet, today I am coming to an end with My word for the judgment of your deeds against Me. Here is what you have done! You have been a thief! You have always taken My trumpet and tormented her by your darkness in order to listen to My word through it. Arise and stand before Me and say what you did with My trumpet. But I am the Judge, and I tell you what you did. You burned with anger against her. In 1955 I started sounding by her. You caught the news and made use of hidden places (Dungeons communist dictatorship and insane asylums, r.n.) and of people with teeth of beast (The communist dictatorship security, r.n.) and were pulling out the trumpet from her hut, as Caiaphas and his subjects were the connecting line, in order to choke the life of My word as in the time of My infancy when the priests and bishops were looking to take My life from Me, as they were afraid of Me. The one who is afraid of Me, that one knows that I am the king of all things and that is why he is afraid.

You have taken away My word and you want to fulfill it, but here what is written in the Scriptures: «I am against the prophets who seal My word from one another; I will nourish them with bitters and I will give them to drink water mixed with gall». Oh, you cannot fulfill My word for My name is on it. Why did you put your name on it? Who gave it to you? Who told it to you? You took it away from My trumpet and from My people that you were after everywhere and took away their food from their little bag; you took away their every day bread; you took away from them My word which I fed My last child on, the last people of the Lord, the first people of all the nations of the earth, for «the last will be first» and the small will be great for Me, as it is written in the Scriptures. You have taken away My word for you are a thief and have added to yourself punishment for you have taken and added to My stolen word and then you put your name and your subjects' name on it; that even they have been hiding from one another for fear of one another, because the kingdom of fear is with you and that is why you have always been restless; you and all your subjects. No one has a greater fear than you have and you are afraid of perishing, of My perishing, as you know My power and have been fighting against it so that you may not perish by it. You have taken My word and want to fulfill it as a faithful one. But this will not be as I reveal you as a thief of those that are holy and I show you what the judgment for a thief is, for you have taken away the peace from earth, and I have no longer had a holy church, I have had nowhere to declare the word “Peace!”, for where you speak I do not stay, for God cannot stay together with Mammon.

Forty-five years you have been fighting against My angel, against My word to steal it and make it your possession. However you are cunning in vain, for My word is a river of fire, and you will burn into it, for you have been playing with the fire, with My word which is served by My angels of light, not by you and your angels, the angels of darkness. Here is why you are guilty of, you and no one else in your place. Here is why you are the false prophet who has been stolen My word; you and no one else in your place. What do I have to do with judging the one outside? You and no one else is guilty, for you have been taken away My dwelling from the church, and called Me a lie when I came to call you to repentance, as in the middle of My people that you hate by an insult word, My word sits as a judge upon you, for you are a thief and have taken away My vineyard.

I will devastate you as I devastated Jerusalem two thousand years ago, for there is no other

Jerusalem, and what is there is not a Jerusalem, rather Mammon. What has Mammon been doing? He started again among his subjects to gather many people there where the proud man crucified Me. Oh, if they crucified Me, why was the glory for My name heard there, there where I was crucified by the man who was My adversary? They glorify Me for money, as well as you did, you false prophet, who fastened your tent in the country of glory, as it is written about you: «He will fasten the tents of his palace between the sea the holy and bright mountain, and then his end will come». Amen. This is what you did. Three miles away from the place of the garden of My word you accomplished this Scripture, so that you may use My name for your money. Woe to you because of what you have done in the last days! I will devastate you as I devastated Jerusalem two thousand years ago; Jerusalem, which the greedy man built it again so that he may have the opportunity of gaining money; however he did not build it there for the sake of God. Man from everywhere goes there and sees his judgment and does not know what is coming back with to do his own things. He is coming back with his judgment, for man was the crucifier of God. No one came back from there and no one gave up sinning if he was there, but he boasted that he was, and being there did not do any good to him.

It is written in the Scriptures about the mystery of the New Jerusalem. When you saw that I came from heaven on earth to fulfill it, you became conceited and perked up against the righteous ones that I am glorifying over the earth in, and arose to do what I do. You wanted to forget that the New Jerusalem is a holy name; it is the mystery of the last days and it is for saints, not for adulterers. The New Jerusalem is not a place for sinners and adulterers' meeting; it is not a place for eating, drinking and dancing, the same as you made towers of stone for yourself and sat greatly on them and wrote on them "The New Jerusalem"; however you wrote, as you say, "The Center of the Faithful world", "The Ecumenical Center", this is what you wrote. You sold Me for money and for expensive places to Me; places from the country of My coming back, and put on them the fruit of your conceitedness to make war against God and to win Him over to your side; but you are sinful, and I do not listen to you and I do not receive you.

I called you in good time and waited to come to your senses and believe that I come with the disaster over those you spoiled My law, holy days and time defiling My church. But you did not bend down because you had on you those stolen from Me and because you are fearful. But I am the righteous God and you are a thief and have stolen My vineyard and sit as a master over it. I will devastate you as I devastate Jerusalem which crucified Me two thousand years ago. I waited for you to fasten the tents of your palace in the land of the glory to destroy you afterwards.

The earth is full of your heads and chickens, but you are a man and I am God. No one can write the name on the New Jerusalem; it is only I that I write it and I will give those who are patient until My coming, for it is written: «To him who overcomes, to him I will give from hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on a stone a new name written, which no one knows but he who receives it. And I will write on it My name the new name, the Word of God». And I said: «He, who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches». But you, false prophet, did not want to hear, for hearing you said that you do not hear. But I say to you: it is only I that I write the name of the New Jerusalem and no one knows but the one who receives it. Amen, amen, amen. And you are a thief and stole My word and I stand against the prophets who steal My word from one another. The place on which you say you want to write “The Jerusalem New”, is the place of Mammon, not of God’s; it is a Babylon, not a holy place. I will devastate it like Sodom and Gomorrah, for it is a place for debauchery of the whole earth; the place that the antichrist and his chickens made, as he says, as a roof for bad weather that is Babylon and Sodom. But I, the Lord, made Myself a book of judgment and have been written into it for three days in a row to overcome by storm and harshness the lying heads of the false prophet and to demolish his dwelling and roof.

Ecumenical Center – Vulcana-Băi

That which calls itself the Orthodox Church is the one that I am speaking with, for why should I judge the one outside? (Catholics and other denominations reformed, r.n.) It is false and is not orthodox, and the false prophet, who destroyed My dwelling in man, sits in it, as the man looks at the minister of the church and does as he does not as I do and he is false because he does not serve Me but him. The one who serves Me is gentle and humble in his heart and brings fruit to Me and becomes My kingdom; he becomes a New Jerusalem by grace.

I will keep from destroying everything, for there is a remnant by grace, as it was two thousand years ago among the Jews. I hurry to wake up the spirit of those who wait for the salvation, as the false prophet has been oppressing the saints for seven thousand years. He has been eating from the tree of death and has been immoral for seven thousand years. Many will try to come close for repentance but all are finished as I spoke in good time and everyone has been crucifying My word, the word of the seventh angel, the word which made silence in heaven, for it is written: «When the Lamb opened the seventh seal there was silence in heaven; and seven angels were standing to sound the trumpets; and the seventh angel sounded the trumpet and powerful voices were heard: “The kingdom of the world belongs to the Lord Jesus, the King forever!” Amen».

Here is why the Orthodox church, the one who bears My true name, the one which truly has Me by the saints and fathers. It committed adultery and trampled lustfully on all customs from her holy fathers and then it departed from Me, as the false prophet worked out his work during all her time, the false Christ, who goes before Me dressed in My garment and armed with My weapon.

Oh, you who call yourself a church, the Orthodox Church. You are full of proud heads who handle My weapons for the money. You are made out of false prophets and are no more, for the false man wrote on you a new name and set you at the same table with the pagans and fornicators and with the transgression over all the earth. (The Ecumenism, r.n.). You are full of mud and there is not one to shepherd you, for your heads are the people of the false prophet and they are not on My side. I took out of your middle those that are clean for Me and put them on My side and covered by My mantle to have a remnant by grace. You sold yourself for money to the false prophet and are subjected to him for he is shrewd and many worship him. I have been working among you all the time so that I may not remain without a clean church. There has always been a war in you, as the arrogant man has stood over you in My name and degraded your true name and killed the right one from you in order to take My name, a name of Christ in the church. But he is a false Christ, he is a devil; he has been an antichrist from son to son for as long as seven thousand years. His lying servants, calling the righteous sinful and wicked, have always sent them into prisons in order to lose them by the hand of the sinful man. This is what he had done with My trumpet during all the time of My work through her.

Oh, you lying servant, how comes that you could not give rest to those who were righteous in you, the ones who were serving Me and not you? The lying is coming to an end but the righteous man remains and wins from Me justice against you. How comes that you did not love the way of justice which the sinful stay hidden under? Now fear seized you and as a thief you want to fulfill the Scriptures of a new age upon the earth. But in the new age there will be a new heaven and a new earth which justice will dwell in. Whereabouts do you want to get into the new ones? You cannot jump over the gate. I am the gate, but I am in the gate of justice and this is for the righteous ones. Oh, you cannot accomplish anything good for you draw Me from the foundation of the church and laid the fence of My vineyard flat. You can do nothing by spoil, for you serve to the lie.

I have My trumpet before Me which I sounded on earth in the last days. Oh, how oppressed she was for My name by the false prophet! (See The Life of Saint Virginia, r.n.). What a mourning came up to Me for her afflictions by the lying man who even today has been blaspheming My work from the last days; for the lying man has many heads and he has names of blasphemy on them.

Oh, My pain is breaking Me but the Scriptures make haste of their fulfillments by their word. All have come to an end! The book with seven seals stays open in the hand of the Lamb. The heaven has stood aside like a book, like a roll, and the kings of the earth and the nobles and chiefs, the rich and powerful, the slaves and free all have hidden in caves and rocks, so that they may not hear the wrath of God. Behold, I come as a thief and come to him to take him by surprise, for the one that is not waiting this way is taken away.

Oh, you false prophet with many heads and diadems on them, here is what you have done!

You have taken away even My holy word to trample it on your feet. You trampled upon the saints and put your name upon you, as you say. I let you know about the judgment given for the thief.

You have taken away the peace from the earth, for there where you speak I do not come to offer peace, and I have no longer a holy church in order to come to it.

The Church Calendar (in Romania) up to 1924 was the same as that of Nicaea, based on severe apostolic canons, but in 1924, the Scripture of the prophet Daniel was fulfilled: «the people made bold to even change the times», when the primate metropolitan<sup>136</sup> of that time, Miron Cristea, introduced the Gregorian Calendar (Catholic) as result of a „pan-Orthodox” congress that took place in 1923, in Constantinople. At that congress, the patriarch of that time, Meletie, proposed the acceptance of the „revised” Julian Calendar, which was in accord with the Catholic one for a period up to the year 2800 and „it was allowing that all the feasts to be celebrated at the same time with those

You put yourself into My place everywhere where I was supposed to be and not you. I have never taken the place where you were supposed to be but you have always taken it to sit on the throne of God and to overcome the man, subjecting his soul and mind so that he may be subjected to you and not to Me. But the man was My work not yours.

You have thought of yourself wiser than God and have not taken from Me wisdom, and your wisdom is from the earth.

You have taken pride even to request My throne and said: "I am a god", for you have taken the place and My dwelling.

You have killed the saints so that you may be Mine. It was not you who have killed them but you have given them over to the executioners through your lie and cunning, for you have many heads and they reach to the darkest things so that no one may know that you are the one who kills.

By your traffic you have bought small souls and turned them into your tools, so that you may not lose from My mysteries that I have been sharing to those who are walking with Me. Forty-five years you have been fighting against My angel, against My word through My working of New Jerusalem in the church to steal it and to make it your wealth. But My word is a river of fire and it will burn you for you have been playing with fire.

You fasten your tents between the sea and the holy mountain, three miles away from My garden. You boasted and become conceited against the righteous ones through whom I fulfill the last Scriptures, and woke up to do what I do, but the New Jerusalem is a holy name. Here is why you are guilty of; you and no one else in your place. Here is why you are the false prophet who has stolen My word; you and no one else in your place.

You have aggrieved My saints on earth and in heaven, the saints of the Most High; for it is written: «He will speak words of blasphemy and defilement against the Most High and will oppress the saints of the Most High and will want to change the holy days and law». Here is why you are guilty of; you and no one else in your place. The saints have no longer celebrations on earth. They have no more celebrations. Your heart became conceited and said: "I am god and I sit into the midst of the seas". And look, I draw My sword against your wisdom and you will no longer say: "I am god". A fire will burst out of you and will consume you and reveal you; and the voice of those killed by you for My witness will be heard, for they will be resurrected and this will be for your judgment and My day will burn like a furnace.

You defiled all the altars from churches. Everywhere you devastated everything and you are doing it today.

You wanted to defile even the altar of My Holy of Holies, which I, the Lord, settled in Romania with. This is the greatest of your sin. You wanted to destroy this garden and wanted to do it by many of yours and you worked by many spies for you were afraid of My voice from the garden. Your spies were coming gently but there was no gentle serpent; however, I have always remained as the word upon those in the garden and let them know in good time of your hidden thing.

Oh, you destroyed the love, faith and strength of My bishop Irineu, the one through whom I, the Lord, could set Myself as a holy foundation of the New Jerusalem over Romania, for I love her, but you do not love her. You hit him with what you wanted and with what you could. You filled him with struggling but also with patience for I was around him with power. You wanted to make him the same as you are, careless of the man's life, but he has been sighing as I do for the sins on earth and has been waiting for man's redemption.

You are careless and sit in the sin of the carelessness, and this sin is a devil. You are without shame by the sin of your carelessness. You commit sin secretly and openly and are not ashamed and do not care that by your fruit you are known as the false prophet working in church. The sin of your carelessness made you blind and you mixed yourself with the transgression of all earth.

of other confessions". «... and he shall wear out the saints of the Most High and he shall think to change the times and the law...» (Daniel 7/25), r.n.

You made peace with Babylon, but declared war to the righteous. And because you blew fire from everywhere into My torch of fire, and because you humiliated My bishop Irineu, by whom I set Myself as a holy stone in your midst in order to save you too from destruction, and because you cover yourself so that you may not hear, I will devastate you as I devastated Jerusalem two thousand years ago, and My righteous out of you will stand in the fire and will not be burned as the holy young men in the Babylonian furnace.

You said to yourself that you overcame My bishop but you did not overcome him as those who crucified Me in Jerusalem did not overcome Me as well; for I rose from the dead and he would rise too. Amen, amen, amen. You will cry in soul unease for all your deeds as you will see the balance of Zerubbabel into his hand; and I will build the New Jerusalem in many that love My laws, for the prophet Daniel wrote for the last days: «Many will be cleansed, whitened and refined and the lawless ones will behave as the lawless ones, and no one of the lawless ones will understand but only the wise will understand». And again it is written for the last days: «He, who righteous let him do righteousness still, and he who is filthy, let him be filthy still because all are finished».

If you multiply the sin of carelessness, conceitedness, disbelief, blasphemy and lying, do not wonder, for who is defiled is still defiling oneself. But if you still dig your own grave with your money, if you stir up the fire of My wrath which is for the liars, if you increase your trade for your perishing, do not wonder that your money and its curse stand upon you. If still you pronounce for you the name of God and of the church of God with you in front of it, if you do the work for the church of Christ openly, do not wonder, for the false christ is upon the liars who deserve nothing but false christs in their service; for they worship you and not Me, and it will give all the authority to the beast, as it is written about these.

If you believe that you still are, do not wonder, for I work in secret as I am the mystery which has been hidden in your ages and I have been working the heavenly work that I have from the Father until those that are not seen come into view at the same time with Me, once with My arrival<sup>137</sup> in flesh on earth. And those that are invisible are not worked out by a human hand, but they are, although they are not seen on earth yet. It is written for the righteous ones: «We are waiting for a new heaven and a new earth», and «The New Jerusalem will come down of heaven on a holy earth».

You will not perish forever but you will forever lament for I will show you what you worked and what you ruined, what you hit at and what you lied and what you loved. You worked to ruin the man and the Christians and hit in My works, lying against them as you loved the vainglory which came from man. Here is what you are guilty of; you and no one else in your place. But your greatest fault, you false prophet from all over, is the guilt that you moved, as you say, your power and staff into Romania, My country full of all the gifts, so that I may come into it as a calling and judgment word, as you were a thief and laid hold on My word of it, and then you laid hold on it to fasten the tents of your palace into it, between the sea and My holy and bright mountain. You started a war against those from My tribe, against the people of My trumpet, the people which keeps God's commandments and keeps My witness. In 1955, I started My work of sounding the trumpet through My trumpet Verginica, the sixth trumpet from the seven, and I am the seventh trumpet. Since then and until today you have been creeping in the way of My people through My servants, through your chickens, through you dogs, through your bought ones in order to destroy My trumpet and scatter my people that was standing as My witness; as Caiaphas and his subjects were the connecting line between the righteous and those of the same work with you, the work of antichrist.

You are at war with those who stand as witnesses, but I will take out your sword and cut your way and power, for the people of My word is Orthodox; it is taken out of you and it is My sword with what I work, clean and cut off the dryness and lie and all its servants from the way of My coming, so that I may have a clean way for My coming.

The executioner of My Christians, (The Communist Security, r.n.), which you were feeding on sold words, believed what you said to him. The man was coming to confess his sins and deeds and you were going to give them over to the executioner and were selling the righteous ones so that nobody may rise to be great in Me; so that nobody may uncover your abominations, for the righteous one loves justice. You love fornication and draw simple souls into sinning, for you are careless of God. This way you defiled the altars from the fathers for you committed fornications as Eli's sons, and this is what you have been doing today.

You wrap yourself in your wisdom and your rank that you receive to sit as a servant of the church, but your wisdom is not like My wisdom, as you are a god for yourself and no one speaks about My justice. You do not speak of the payment of your sins to anyone, for you sin. There is no one to bring to light your guilt so that you may be convicted by it, because you speak at large on the surface and sit steadfastly on your seat and cover yourself by My coat; however, I am coming, I am coming to uncover your body and your deed, for My time has come and your time is over. You cannot accomplish My word of the New Jerusalem for I am the one to fulfill it, and what you are doing is yours; it is not Mine and you will perish by your work.

Oh, you false prophet, I finish today the work for the judgment of your deeds against Me. Here is what you have done: you have been a thief. Get up and stand before Me for I am the Judge for those that you have done. A river of fire is getting out of My mouth, a word of judgment for each deed. I have turned Myself into a book of judgment for you and have been written in it for three days in a row. You have been working under the same vine with Me to pull aside My church from its foundation, the Orthodox Church, for it is written: «He will try to deceive even the elected ones, the saints from the church», because not everyone who comes into the church is a church. The church is made up of the Christians, and the devil has always been working near it to tear it down from its foundations and to boast against God.

There have passed seven years of grace, seven years since I, the Lord, got up victoriously and hoisted My victory flag, My heavenly flag which I wrote New Jerusalem on, the name of the citadel of God and My new name: The Word of God, a name that no one knows but the receiver, as written, for I turned Myself into a clean place on earth, so that the heaven may have a way of coming on earth to redeem the bedding lost through the fallen man in the garden of Eden, of the earth of heaven. In the beginning I made man out of the clay of this garden and rested in him. In the end I looked back to the beginning and looked with My own eye over this place of the earth beginning, the high mountain which God, the Word, sits on.

I proclaim Myself victorious over My adversary, the man. The man has been standing against Me from the beginning and until My coming of today. The man who stands against Me is called the devil; he is no longer called a man; rather is called the lying prophet who is standing against God.

I am the Word after seven years since the building of the garden of the New Jerusalem, which is called the Holy of Holies of the Lord in Romania, the place where I come in as a Bishop of the Father after two thousand years since My first coming.

All are over! I come back to the first beginning and start from where I remained, from the place of the earth beginning; from where I took the clay with My own hand and made the man to be a king over the earth, but not also over the heaven. I am coming and work as in the beginning. I worked out the word in the beginning and made the things that are. And now I also work out the word to spoil those that are, as the man wants to be the master over the earth and heaven, but I have taken proceedings against nations and My word is My judge. My word is a river of fire. All are finished! Amen, amen, amen.

And you watchmen from the garden take this book and lift it above your heads for you are My anointed for the last Scriptures. Then lower it down to the fire altar and seal it by My Holy Spirit that I send you from heavens. Take it and send it from here to all the margins of the earth, to all the heads of the earth and to the proud ones. Let all shepherds of souls and bodies bend down, for I bend them down to hear the book of the false prophet judgment. All are finished! His lie is finished for I uncovered it and put it before him. Amen, amen, amen.

At the beginning of this book I say: "Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! I am who I am, sons. I say peace to those who serve My commandments, and to those who trample them I declare war!" Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Saint Hierarch Nicholas

It is a celebration day in heaven. It is a celebration on earth too for those that are My church on earth. Amen. I come down from heaven to the earth in the garden of My word and I come with a feast of a bishop. The prayers of the saints are like sweet-smelling incense for heaven. Hierarch Nicholas is praying for My church on the earth to strengthen it with power so that it may overcome for the saints.

Oh, My church on the earth is very small, as its way is narrow and it leads to life, and few are those that walk on it. Oh, the way from heaven to the earth is long for the unfaithful man, for the one who thinks and lives earthly on the earth. But here is how easily I come! I come as the lightning; when I come, I come suddenly as it is possible with God and it is possible with those that are faithful, with those that are familiar with My heavenly mysteries among them, because this is what I said: «I am with those that are Mine until the end of ages». Amen.

If the man searched My words that I spoke for the church two thousand years ago, the unfaithful man would also understand and then believe, but the carelessness towards those from heaven upon the earth made a thick peel upon the mind and heart of the man, and the man does not seek its release, but on the contrary, he prepares his destruction and torment, due to his sins, as this the human kind has been working at: the torment.

Hierarch Nicholas is praying for the saints, for he is a great hierarch in power, as he showed his power on the earth by miracles, for it is written: «Not only by word, but also by power, Holy Spirit and faith». The saints have worked sustaining miracles by Holy Spirit and faith, and those with a clean heart turned from pagans into Christians, and entered My work for church. No powerful saints get up today on earth, as all the servants who made a church from people are sinful and careless of the life of their church. But the saints who served on earth with My power in them, lifted up other saints, and the saints lifted up each other and were a church for Me, as church means nothing else. The church needs to be taught; it needs to be brought up and cultivated, and it needs a holy sacrifice in it; a humble spirit, a sacrifice please to Me.

You sons anointed in the garden, I need a church with power in it to be able to work in it with sustaining miracles among the unbelievers, among the careless ones who live but always sinning. I need sons to fulfill the last Scripture. Strengthen My church in the Holy Spirit. Amen, amen, amen. You know what a church and a humble spirit in the church means. Build a holy and living church in its work for Me, for everything have come to an end, and the desolation of abomination has been establishing everywhere in churches, through the man lying to Me, the antichrist<sup>138</sup> with many heads. There is no other overcoming work like the work of My church. Strengthen My church in the Holy Spirit. Teach the sons of My church. Bring them up as I am, not like the lying man who says that he sits as a teacher over the man. Take care of the spirit of the church as I do, so that I may have a house with strong pillars, and everything that is necessary to the church will be given to you from the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, for you are the first on the earth and I establish you to be great; great in the spirit, great by My Spirit. Be to the extent of the Holy Spirit for you have election from above, as the hierarch Nicholas had, who prayed on the earth and in heaven for My living church. He was not chosen by man, rather by Me through sustaining signs which carried power within. The power of the saint is fast and prayer, from which comes: the holy life, the holy mind, the holy tongue, the holy work upon the church and then the holy church. Amen.

Do no longer look upon the earth to see the church and the work of the church, for it is no longer, sons. There are no longer holy servants on the earth and there is no longer a church, because the church is made out of saints, and that is My church, My house, My rest and My light upon the darkness, so that those who are born among the people may see the light for it and by it, by My light upon the earth, by the sons of the church, to whom I said: «You are the light of the world». Amen.

Without saints in the church there is no food in the church. Without powerfully working workers the church does not grow and has nothing to eat in order to grow up, because I told the servants of the church: «You are the salt of the earth, and there is no other salt on the earth beside you». Amen. The teaching on the earth is no salt, but poison instead, which makes the man to forgive Me and to eat a teaching foreign to the church. But My holy teaching is the salt of the earth. Amen.

Behold, the weather went bad and I will make salt out of the blood, for there is no more salt. I will sent destruction upon the earth to salt it with blood, as it is written, with blood and fire, the fire<sup>139</sup> of My wrath, for the salt upon the earth is contaminated and the earth is without salt on it. I come to become salt and to put Myself in the food of the church to salt it, so that I may have a church and to call it the salt of the earth, for the false prophet, who sat as a god upon the world, was overcome by My word, and it comes to overcome him by power, by the Holy Spirit, by the faith of My church of the New Jerusalem and by sustaining signs. Amen.

Sons anointed in the garden of My word strengthen My church with the Holy Spirit, the church of the New Jerusalem, My little flock, taken from among the people to escape it from the destruction and to have it for breeding, for the man does not look for his salvation, but rather he prepares his perdition and torment for his sins. But you work the Holy Spirit upon My church, whose beginning I am and you all are who will be bred to My church, for the church means the New Jerusalem, and this is the name of My church, the name of the citadel of God, sons born of heaven, and that it is written: «I saw the citadel of God coming down out from heaven, New Jerusalem, made ready like a bride adorned for her Bridegroom», sons born from above, holy sons on the earth, the bride of the bridegroom, by whom I will breed the holy and new church, for this is what I spoke: «I make them all new». Amen. I give birth to the world again, and I start with you and then I give birth out of Me and out of you, and I start with you a new beginning, a new church, and the name of the church is the New Jerusalem, the citadel of God, the Word. The prayers of the church are like the burnt offering before Me, so that the kingdom of God may be established on earth, the New Jerusalem, the citadel of God. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, the way from heaven to the earth is long for the unfaithful man, who thinks and lives earthly on the earth. But here is how easily I come! I come like the lightning; I come at once, when I start to come, to be always with those that are Mine until the end of the human time. Let the man search out My words and understand My coming and My dwelling among the people in the church of My saints. There, where I cannot live with the people, there My church is missing and there is not. But there, where I am through the church, I am also through My prophets, those that are in the body of the church together with the apostles and with all the members, which compose the body of the church, and which are made up and become a whole through Me, the One that I am the head of the church. Amen. The head of the church is the priest. He cuts and he hangs even God, by Whose name the church bears its own name. The head of the church from the world is the lying man, the man who serves to himself and not to God and His flock; the man who leads the man to death, not to resurrection.

But you, sons anointed with the anointment of the servants over My church of the New Jerusalem, strengthen the church with the Holy Spirit. Teach it, grow it, take care of it, and give yourselves over for it as a pleasant sacrifice to Me; a humble spirit in the work of the church, the Holy Spirit, by power and sustaining signs, whose worker I, the Lord, am; I and not you, and you are My anointed ones. Work and work again. Work out the body of the church, for I, the Lord, the head of the church, give you; I give you to work and to have what to give, and you will receive My crown, for there is no other overcoming work but the work of the church, the work of My saints, a pleasant sacrifice to Me. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the dreadful judgment remembrance

I knock at the gate of the garden of My word. Let the gate and the book be open for Me; the book that I have written during these days, My last book, which is called My coming, the second coming of the Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen, amen, amen. Few, very few are those who love this book, which I have written in and I still write, for few are those who fulfill My commandments for the everlasting life in man. Few are those who have been waiting for Me to come, and many are those who hate My book from these days, for many are those who trample over My commandments; many are those who do no longer wait for Me and do not wait for Me to come, but it is written into the Scriptures that I come, and that is why I come; it is not from Myself that I come. Many are those that do not want Me to come, and for these, My book of today is the dreadful judgment. I do not declare the judgment for this man or for the other man. I do not call the man on his name, but I write the man's judgment, as the deeds of the man have been brought before My Father, and each one receives according to his own deed. It is not I, who gives to him, but rather his own deed gives him, as the man wrote it for himself before God.

The saints who lived in holiness on the earth at the beginning of My church, built out of the saints, wrote on the church after them the memorial of My second time; they wrote the day of the dreadful judgment for this day which is mentioned today, a day on which the man should remember My coming with the judgment upon him, and to examine himself before Me; before Me not before the man and that is all; before Me and not only to himself and that is all. I want to be right in My words and to overcome when I judge the man, to be victorious for Me, not for the man, for I am the God not the man, but the man does not know to stand face to face with Me, and he rather plays hide-and-seek with Me, for the man's conscience is fallen, as the man is. Why did this really happen? Because the man has not learned yet what prayer is, and that is why it happened that his conscience fell from its place, for its place is before God, not somewhere else, and it is not left into the man's mind. It needs to come out of the mind of the man and to enter into God's mind, into the Spirit of God, Who judges according to the rising and repentance of the man.

The prayer of the church from the world hummed before the people the prayer that was brought before Me. It is a great difference between the emphatic prayer made by people and the spiritual prayer, made by people, and the man has not learned yet the mystery of the power of prayer. The lack of prayer is the guilt, which the man lost his conscience for, and the man is fallen and there is no one to pass by him to wake him up. Here I am. I pass by, and I pass by compassionately to wake up the one who sleeps. I pass by like a judge of the man's deeds and I am merciful by the man's repentance. I come down from heaven and I pass by every man. I come as word of judgment, so that the man may judge himself before Me, face to face with Me. I knock at the gate of the garden of My coming, for I come in it; it is the place of My coming, for the book that I write in My garden from Romania is My second coming. I give Myself over to those who preach Me on the earth, and I do not come out of the Scriptures when I do this, for this is what it is written in them: «The Lord will give the word to those who preach with much power». Amen, amen, amen.

You sons, who love My coming, stand with love before Me; always walk with love in the way of My word. Value My coming to you and stay with it and not without it; stay with My word in your heart and on your lips. Receive Me when I come and put Me in My book from your days that I make out, as you are those who put Me in it according to what I speak. Receive Me when I come and I give Myself over to you, and give Me also to those who wait for Me to come to you, for you and for them. But look that I come for those who are unfaithful too, and who do not expect Me to come. Blessed are those who work with great longing and pleasure for My word during these days, spreading it over My church from the earth and over the earth, as the earth was given to the sons of the people on it, and the church was given to the sons of God from the earth, and I come to comfort those that are hungry of heaven, and I come to judge those that are foreigners to heaven.

Preach the news of My word, for it is written into the Scriptures: «The Lord will give the word to those who preach with great power». I give you the word. Receive and give the word on to the church when I give it to you, as that is why I give it to you. You will soon see the emptiness and its riches and its hopeless and comfortless people, and even you will be afraid, how much more they will, as it is written: «The righteous will see and will be afraid and say: here is the man who did not put his hope in God, who did not take the Lord for his help, but rather he hoped in the abundance of his riches and got strong within his emptiness», but you should rather pray, for the days are evil. Be afraid of God and say: “Lord, I am afraid of the terrifying day of Your coming and of Your right judgment; I am frightened and shake like the one who did many sins, but go ahead and judge me in Your mercy, and lift me up, saving me from those that are mine, to be clean from those that are empty and to be able to stand before You on that dreadful coming when the righteous will see it and will be afraid of those that will see. Lord, cover me and wake me up for Your coming”. Amen. Sons, be afraid, for the one who is not afraid of God does not receive God before the day of the judgment.

The man gets upset when someone is right against him. The man flees from judgment, but he does not flee from the evil deed. There are some people, who say to themselves that God is good and does not want the death of the sinner. Yes, man, I said this: «God does not want the death of the sinner», but I also said: «let him come back and be alive», not dead. And here is what I also tell you, man: God has no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but the sinner wants God's death instead; he wanted it and he still wants it. Man, you get upset and angry when someone comes to you in good faith for My justice and does justice to Me against you. Man, you work out My death then, and you stand up for your justice. I come to you with My justice, for I do not want your death, and I want you to turn from you to Me and to be alive instead. And you turn your back and stay like this; you stay with your back to Me.

What does it mean for the man to stand face to face with Me? The face of the man means the inner man, full of My life in him, helping the man next to him with those from Me, and the one who does not do this, that one stays with his back to God. But I come today and say: My face in the man is My glory over him, and My back in the man is My wrath upon him, and again: your face before Me is My will and My rebuke upon you for your growth, and your back before Me is your will, your running away and My justice, man.

Oh, how is the man who does not work out love to know about it? Oh, how is the man to know God if he does not work out God? One knows about God with His great work in man. If the man does not want, how is he supposed to know God? Behold, the man works something else; he works out his love not God's, for the man came out of the man and does not want to come up to God and to be from God. And for this, the devil goes up to God and comes up against the man in heaven, and he wants to come up and then to come down upon the people, for he thinks that he will be a visible king and that he will reign forever over the man. But behold, My book is open, and I announce those that are to be in the days to come.

Amen, amen, I say to you, to those who preach My good news from heaven on the earth; take My news over to all the wise people of the earth who danced as the antichrist played, the man of falsehood. The antichrist will come up to heaven, as he says, and then to come down from heaven into My place and to tell every man that he is the Christ who comes. The antichrist<sup>140</sup> totally lost his mind. He looked into the Scriptures and says that he looked well and that he saw; he read in the prophets about My glory and about My coming and set himself to work. What did he do if he set himself to work? He did his own things and of his own mind; he made a glory like that of Mine, out of iron and lying, as he says, and this is how he created an immoral man out of the spirit of the man and out of the flesh of the man, and he clothed himself with the power of his lying and made the creature to create a glory like that of Mine, a body like that of Mine, as he says, a body which ascended into heaven and which comes down from heaven. He took the word of the angels of the heaven who said: «This Jesus, Who was received up from you into the sky will come back in the same way as you saw Him going into the sky». He took over this word and spun around it to fulfill it through a newborn man, an immoral man. Oh, poor of him! He lost his mind and forgot that he was a sinner and that cannot be God into My place. He took over the word of My prophets, but those were prophets, not sinners. He should have taken over Mine too, for I spoke over those that I put to preach My word with great power. He should have also taken over My word, which said that «the false christ will come before Me and will do sings in heaven and on earth and will deceive many, and then the Lord will destroy him by the power of His coming with glory and with thousands of angels on His coming». But I come before him and I let him know, him and his angels who serve him, that I will destroy him by the breath of My mouth, by My word, which blows over My garden, and from it over to him, and then I will come down as I ascended, and I will appear as the true God, and I will come coming from heaven as I ascended into heaven, served by angels, the bodiless angels in a visible glory, as My angel came visibly and covered Me when I ascended into heaven, taking Me away from the eyes of those who saw Me in the body, the incarnated God.

I had covered My glory as long as I stayed on the earth. I was true God of true God, but I had stayed among the people as a man and I had stayed without glory. From time to time I had appeared in power, as a God, doing the unnatural works of My invisible Father. From time to time I had appeared as the Son of the heavenly Father by the testimony of My Father, the One above Me and the One inside Me. I also had appeared again and again accompanied by the light of My angel, so that the angels may testify about Me, not I. My angel was coming and embracing Me in his light round about, and then he was hiding for My humbleness and his too. And then My angel came when My Father raised Me up into heaven, and My angel became a cloud and stood between Me and those who were looking at Me when My Father was taking Me up. My bodiless angel always covered Me when I was doing the work of My Father before the man, before Israel, the same as he stays today again between Me and those who receive My word, for it is My angel by whom I, the Lord, sound the seventh trumpet over the earth, as it is written into the Scriptures about the sound calling of the seventh angel for the opening of the book of the judgment.

I will come suddenly to you, children of My garden and I will speak with you about My angel. But now I want to tell the antichrist that he cannot turn into My angel and that I will come as I ascended with My angel. Amen, amen, amen. His angel is taken from his made spirit but he lost his mind and does not know what an angel is and does not know what Christ is but I tell him to know that. Amen. I tell him: I am a consuming fire which burns the antichrist. I am a double-edged sharp sword which cuts to his bones the antichrist, who cannot do what I do. I am a covering cloud for the sons of heaven on earth, the same as you was. I am the Christ of the Father and he is a devil. I am the Judge and he is the judged one; he and all his servants who are his angels, the angels of the red antichrist, red all over, the same as he was born and lived by his sword, not from

Me, for if he lived as I did, the antichrist would not become My adversary and the adversary of My blessed word before his birth.

The antichrist spoke My word of My coming from the Scriptures everywhere and he is looking into it and wants to fulfill it, but I come with My angel not with his angel, and here, I deliver his earthly word in Romanian and say: My prophets from the Scriptures, Ezekiel, Daniel, Zechariah and all who discovered My glory and My coming by the word said: «The glory of the Lord», and did not say UFO (Unidentified Flying Objects, r.n.), as the antichrist wants to speak about the glory of My coming. He is waiting for Me on the Mount of Olives but I am waiting for him at the same place as well in order to consume him, for I am a consuming fire, and I will destroy him by My coming and by My angel. Amen.

Elijah, My prophet, was taken up to heaven in a fire horse-drawn chariot, not by UFOs. Ezekiel revealed My glory shown to him by Me, a living glory, a fire glory, a glory of flowing fire, fire wheels, bodiless angels, a vision of fire, no UFOs, and I standing in the middle of the fire, not in the middle of human creatures. I was walking, the sea on foot not by boat as the antichrist is going, he who talks taller than Me, for it is not hard to go by boat, but it is hard to walk on foot upon the water as I walked with My disciples.

I am walking bodily in the sky, attended by angels, not by plane, not by rocket, not by UFOs, as the antichrist does, for it is not difficult to go into the sky by plane or by UFOs; rather it is difficult to walk on foot in the clouds coming up and down and on the wings of the winds, as I and My saints are walking. But here, as the false man who fell down from heaven at My word delivered on earth by the holy one, and as that one who set himself as a god upon people, crashed himself falling down from heaven after ascending into it, the same way the nowadays lying will be consumed into the quenchless fire delivered by My word, for the antichrist will soon go up to heaven in order to come down on earth in My place to be king. And he will rise up to heaven only to fall down, for God is in heaven. But he does not believe it, poor of him, for he lost his mind before he was born, and fought against My faithful one even from the belly. (Jacob and Esau, r.n.)

Sons, sons, I tell you a great mystery for the science, for as I, the Lord, came passing through the Hebrew people, the same way the immoral antichrist did, for it is written: «The man's enemy will be his own family». (See about "The Last Pope", and then a Hebrew Pope, r.n.). The Hebrew people is fallen under the damnation of the money and the money curses him and damns it, because they put Me to death for money; I Who came down from heaven.

I fulfilled the Scripture and brought famine on earth and man is hungry of sins and loose life, not hungry of My word, but I bring the word of judgment and I reveal the antichrist by it, he who calls himself "the lamb", but he is not a lamb, as he crucified the Lamb.

Christian sons, be good! Amen, amen, amen, I say to you: be good, be good, and be good! All the lying signs will come upon the earth, so that the lying man, who commits adultery under every green tree into My name, may fall down under them, but you should be good, for My angel will stand between you and the lying man, who will make the lie to take a body. My angel will cover you from their eyes, and he will cover them from your eyes, so that you may be good. The sin flees the man who does not think of sin, but the visible sin opens the mind of the man so that he may think of it, and the mind becomes heart and it also becomes a body, as I spoke through your holy fathers, but you should not look sons. Be good; do not be Hebrews! Be good, be good, and be good! Amen.

I come to an end now, and I come again, and I will speak with you about My angel. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's welcoming (Candlemas)

My voice cries out at the gates to be opened. I come again and I come with an royal feast for that memorial when I, the Lord, and with My mother Virgin, accompanied by Joseph, chosen to be a shelter for Us and an earthly father who took care of Us, went to the temple to bring an offering of cleaning after the birth, and so that they may dedicate Me to the Lord, and then to redeem Me until the full growth as My Father's servant. I bowed to the Law and to the man as a subject to the sin, like the man who is born with sin out of sin. I made out the Law on the Mount Sinai by My angel before Moses, My holy law, which I commanded for the man, and I bowed so that the man might not say that he cannot do it. I have shown the man in everything how to do it, and then to do it. If a teacher teaches the man without being seen that he does the same, that one is a Pharisee who teaches hypocrisy, which he also does. Each teacher needs to teach the man what he does, not something else. Each master shows his disciple his craftsmanship and teaches him how to work in order to get skilled with his hands.

I am the true Teacher, for I came down from heaven, and I showed the man how to work like Me on the earth. I came down from heaven on the earth and I ascended from the earth into the sky, so that the man may see Me and do the same. I was served by angels and I showed the man to work the same that is, served by angels, as I did. The man needs to be born of the heaven, like Me, and he needs to live on the earth as I lived, and he needs to come up into heaven as I did, and to come to Me in heaven as I come down on the earth to him, served by angels, but the man has not taken Me as his Teacher. Here is why I come down from heaven to the man. I come down to get him accustomed to know Me as his Teacher from heaven; I come down to make him know that there is a heaven, and that there is God in heaven; I come down to let him know that there is not only earth, but that there is also heaven, and that the man lives on the earth and God is in heaven, the One Who made the heaven and the earth. Amen. I teach the little ones like a Teacher, and I start teaching the man to become small so that he may learn, for the great ones do not take God as their learning, and rather they took their wealth and went with it into the hell, into the world without God on the earth, and the hell opened itself and swallowed the man; further, the world became grave for the godless man on the earth, and the man became antichrist, and this means a man without God, a man without the Teacher from heaven.

The antichrist does not work against Me, for he cannot, because I am God in heaven and on earth. He works against him, and he dig his own abyss, for he is on the earth and he is feeble for himself and for every man, for he is in the darkness, as his light is falsehood, not light. Soon, soon, the light made by him will be put out by his own hand. When he will get up to come down from heaven, as he says that he will do, then My angel will take fire from the fire of My glory and will throw it down on the earth, and the light made by the hand of the antichrist man will catch fire. Then everything of the man's work will come to an end, and the wisdom gathered by the man will be put out, and the man will say that he does not see it any longer and that he does no longer know it, as it was fabricated and it was not wisdom; a fabrication wiser than the man, more industrious than the man, for the haughty man made it. I worked out wisdom out of the word, not out of iron, not out of black oil, not out of gold and silver, and not out of lying. When I made the heaven and the earth, I made them both of the word, but when I made the man, I made him with the word, and then My hand accomplished the godly word, and then My Spirit breathed over the clay and the clay became a man with a living soul. But the man, made iron with a living soul, to the death of his soul, for it is written: «It was given breath to the image to speak; it was given to breathe spirit to the image of the beast to speak, as it said to those on the earth to make an image to the beast». The man does no longer need an angel. Why should he be in need of an angel? His angel is television; it is the computer; it is the flying disk, which is called UFO, (Unidentified Flying Objects, r.n.) not angel. Behold, everything will come to a stop at My last trumpet, which is My angel, the seventh angel who sounds.

I speak to you, sons from the garden; to you and to My little people. I put My seal on your forehead. I bow down to you and I kiss your forehead with My mouth, with My word, so that the seal may remain on your foreheads, and to bring with it the death of the lying man, which lies against God. I mark your little houses with My seal, of the living God, and I will put a sign on your foreheads, for My angel, will sound, soon, soon, so that the living may die, and for the dead to come to life; those that are alive, who have no God, to die, and the dead, who have God, to come to life. In the beginning when you came to Me, I put My seal on your forehead and I kissed your forehead so that I may seal the seal of My angel on you, and so that satan may be afraid of you, and the antichrist, who worships the image of the beast, may also be afraid.

My angel has been breaking satan down from beginning to this day. My angel is My light from before the light. He was the one who covered Me when I was the forerunner of the people of Israel, in a pillar of fire and in an image of a cloud covering My people. My angel wrote My commandments with his fire on the Mount Sinai when My word was speaking on Moses. My angel became the fire, which overcame the man's fire and took out those from the burning fiery furnace unharmed. My angel carried Habakkuk to Daniel when he went hungry into the dens of lions. My angel stood before Balaam to stop him to curse My people. My angel took Peter, My apostle, out of the chains and out of the prison, the angel of the Lord, the last trumpet.

I speak again and again to you about this mystery, which is called the angel of the Lord. The angel of this work, which was and which is with you, is My angel, the angel of the Lord. The angel of Verginica was and is My angel, the angel of the Lord. The angel of this garden, and yours, is the angel of the Lord, the voivode and the archangel Michael. Amen, amen, amen. He is My angel, who worked for Israel, drowning the Egyptians and overcoming the Canaanites, strengthening Moses and Aaron, Joshua and David, and Me, the Lord, as well; the Lord served by angels. He is My angel, which worked for you, taking you out of the world and overcoming the world from you and strengthening you for Me, for the Lord.

Sons, I tell you another mystery: My angel will cover you when the judgment will be sounded for the world, and for the dead, the resurrection. You will look and you will not be able to see the world, and neither will the world be able to see you, the world that will run after you. But I will cover you with My angel, as he covers Me, the Lord. When I started My work through Verginica, I said this: „When the earth will be set on fire, My faithful ones will not burn. When everything will be broken down, they will stand, for they have My seals and My kiss on their foreheads, for the faithful ones are My share and they do not forsake My way with them, for they have My angel with them”. Amen.

Michael, the archangel, is the angel of the Lord, My angel, which has protected the last anointed one of the Romanians. (The King Michael, r.n.) He has always been with the anointed one, and neither sword nor bullet has touched him, nor any other harm, and I fulfilled the Scripture of your days, as this is what I told you: „He will come back into My country, his and yours”. And he came, served by My angel, for My word is the truth.

I, the Lord, protect you and I give you My angel during the time of oppression and I save you, for this is what is written about your days: «At that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince who stands for the children of your people in time of trouble, and there shall be a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time; and at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who shall be found written in this book. Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt, and those who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the expanse, and those who turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever». Amen. I, the Lord, sent My angel to tell you these words. I come soon, accompanied by My angel, as I ascended. My angel is your fellow worker and to all who keep the words of this book, but you should worship Me, like My angel. You should not seal these words, for it is their time, and I come soon. Amen.

Sons, be worthy of the guard of My angel. When the great ones upon Romania wanted to lose you because you were Mine, (December 16, 1989, at the „revolution”, r.n.), My angel was among them and you and he destroyed them instead and saved you; however, that bloodshed is not called a revolution nor a takeover, but the work of My angel for your protection. Be worthy of My angel's protection, sons, for the work of My word has My angel, the archangel Michael, the voivode of heavenly hosts, who delivered My word over the nature of the angels who rose against Me, saying to the heavenly hosts: «Let us stay well, with fear and attention!» Amen.

Sons take a good heed to the mysteries that I bring you. I was served by an angel and showed the man to do the same, attended by angels. My angel will take fire from the fire of My glory and will throw it on the ground and the light made by the hand of the man without God will catch fire and then all the work of man's fakes will come to an end and the wisdom coming of the man will go out and the man will see it no longer, because it was the man's fake and not wisdom. All will be stopped at the last trumpet which is My angel, the seventh angel to sound. I seal with the seal of My angel upon you. My word confirms the angel of the Lord upon you. Work an angelic word and serve Me with it, for I gave you work for Me. And to the man of lying, the antichrist, I speak this: I will throw him on earth, for he will come up to heaven so that he may come into My place and to call himself „the king” and „the christ”. I will throw him down on earth and he will be crushed; he and his angels, he and his servants. And I come soon accompanied by My angel as I went up to the Father. I come to make justice to the saints who keep saying: «Until when, Lord?» Oh, only a little while, a very little time and I come. I am coming soon, soon, for I am ready and come, and My angel will go before Me, for I am coming. Amen, amen, amen.

The third Sunday of the Lent, of the holy cross

The true fasting. The man tired in his iniquity makes the Lord tired and hurts Him

Sons from the garden of My word, open My book from these days, for by it I teach the man the way to the eternal life, a life without death. I told you that I wanted to give a crown to those who know the truth of the words. I speak with you from heaven so that every man may hear My words from heaven, for I speak in heaven, and you hear Me from heaven. The heaven is My throne, the Lord's throne, the eternal King's throne, Who speaks on the earth, for He can.

Be attentive, you earth, for the One Who created you speaks over you. Amen, amen, amen. It is not the man, who rules over you, that created you, but rather I did, for I made all those that are. What man on the earth knows the truth of My words? What man knows which are those that are? Those that are, are those made by God. Amen. Let every man hear that everything he does is not. You should also hear, children of My garden, and you, children who live the holy law of My garden; and you also, those who take from My garden to eat and to settle into the life without death.

The life of the man dies and it always dies; it dies to the last drop, for the man does not know what life is; the life that does not die. The man owes the life and does not seek to pay his debt. The life in the man is from Me, and the man gives it over to the devil? How can he not give it to him, if he does not know that he owes God for his whole life in him? It is not the life, which the man has in him, that means life in the man. That is the death in the man, the flesh, which lusts against the spirit. The soul is the life of the man; this is what life means. And behold, the life of the man dies, it always dies, for the man does not know which his life is, and does not know to dedicate it to Me, and to give it to Me.

I am your life, man. Your soul from your body is broken out of My breath of life. I gave it to you when you were created in the beginning, through the first created man. It is through him that every man has his own life, which does not die, for I am the One Who does not die. My breath of life from the man does not die as well, but the man is without mind and knows nothing, nothing. He does not know how to fast from death; he does not know not to eat death, and he does not know not to give to his soul to eat death. Oh, there is no man who knows what fasting is, the true fasting. He, who fasts on the earth, abstains from food. He, who fasts from food, that one fasts to be saved, or to be saved from the troubles what come upon him, or to get away from his enemies or illnesses, or in order do well in life and to those in his house. This is how the man knows about fasting. The man fasts for his own self, not for Me, for the one who fasts for Me, does no longer live for himself, but for Me and for those who take after Me.

Oh, you sons, who hear from heaven My word over the earth, the man does not have to live for his own self, and the one who does this, does not know what life is; the life that never dies. The man lives for his own self and for those that came out of him, and he does not live for Me. The man does not fast for Me when he fasts, but he fasts for himself instead, and he fasts for his own good. If the man fasted as the fasting is supposed to be, then he should no longer work as much as he does. If the man did not love the greed for those that were not, he would be happy within many eternal gifts. But the man runs and works for those that are not, and gives his soul for them, and his soul is from Me, by the first created man. Behold, this is how the man nourishes his soul.

I put the breath of life in the man created by My hand, and he pulled himself out from Me and withdrew into himself with all of My gift, with the breath of life that I gave him, as what I put in him, I did not take back, but I call the man to account for the gift of the life which does not die. The soul does not die, and it comes back to Me, but I call the man to account for those that he had done to his soul.

Man, tell Me what the word „fast” is, in order to give you a crown, if you know. Who is the one who knows not to be indebted to the science? For the man, after he pulled himself out of Me, stole his knowledge from God and knows, and he is indebted to the knowledge of God, if he does not know about it. I told the man to eat and not to eat, and I taught him what food was and what fasting was, but the man fell off the obedience and he has no longer known what obedience is. Obedience is fasting; it, and not as the man knows that fasting is. The one who does not listen can fast anyhow he wants for he does not fast for Me. The man has to fast from his wills, as he cannot keep My commandments for everlasting life otherwise. But the man on the earth does not know what the word „obedience” means, and he does not like to live for Me and not for his own self; for other and not for himself. The one, who lives for his own self, does not make life, either for Me or for anyone else, and not even for himself. The one who lives for his own self, that one remains in his wills and does not live, for he has nothing to live for.

The man pulled himself out from Me and withdrew into himself for disobedience, for immorality, for the will of his instincts that fell from the life, which does not die. The man who woke up against Me chose disobedience towards God and the immorality of his own instincts. Let the disobedient and immoral man no longer say that he loves Me and that he believes in Me and that he knows Me; let him no longer say such a thing, for he says it in vain, and he says it to himself, not to Me. The man listens only to himself and to his own instincts, which fell on the earth. And here is a question from heaven from God: who is the one who knows what fasting for God is? The man fasts from food if he fasts, but he does not fast from greed. The man does not fast from hatred, from worldly joy, from slander, from pride, from lust and from immorality. The man does not fast from worldly clothes, from riches, from avarice. He is greedy of all these when he fasts from food. Who shall teach the man what the truth of the word “fast” means? Behold, I come and I teach him.

Be attentive, earth, for the One Who created you speaks over you. It is not the man, who rules over you, that created you, but I created you, man, who set yourself as master over the earth. I told you to eat and not to eat. When I told you to eat, I also taught you what food and obedience were. Obedience means love and life, and disobedience means pride and death, and there between the two stand belief and disbelief. The one who believes in Me has eternal life, a life that does not die, and the one who does not believe in Me, is judged because of the deed of his unbelief. Soon, soon, I bring upon all the flesh the reward of disbelief, a right reward according to the deed, for the man has not liked to listen to the commandment of the life. Behold, the man made yes from no, and no from yes. I taught him what yes meant, and what no meant. I told him that obedience meant yes, and disobedience meant no, and when I told him yes, he said no, and this is what he did; and when I told him no, he said yes, and this is what he did. From that moment on the man had no longer known what fasting was. I had to come down from heaven then in order to show the man what fasting was. When I fasted from food, I said no to any kind of evil that came to draw

Me to the kingdom of this world, and I said yes to the Father, for «in God all things are yes», as it is written.

When the man speaks to himself not to eat, he does not speak to himself about those of the world, but only about food, and this is not fasting for God. The women, which are immoral and made-up, naked and proud in the things of the world, they do also fast during these fasting days. And the same is with men; they also fast from food and do not know what fasting is, and others do not even want to hear about fasting from food at all, for if those who are over them do not walk in a godly way between heaven and earth, those under them do it likewise.

Sons, teachers on My behalf, be My mirror for those who have life, which does not die, and for those who look for My life with them. Be a mirror for those who have to see their soul and their body into the mirror, for I do not have any other mirror on the earth. The people have a mirror for them on the earth, but I have not. Be My mirror, so that the man may see My mirror! The man does not like My mirror, but I do not want to be blamed by the man that I did not come into his way to help him. I come soon with the reward that every man has earned, for the man is tired of iniquities. The joy of the lawlessness has been by now the reward of the man separated by God, but now it is otherwise, and it will be the pain of lawlessness, for the man did not say no to his own iniquities, but I will speak of it, and I will speak of it with pain and by pain, for I am tired of pain. The man is tired of lawlessness, and I, the Lord, am tired of pain. The man fell for food and debauchery and is oppressed in his heart by these, and I come like a thief and this is how I find the man, for the man does not watch and does not know My day. The one who watches does no longer have to know My day, for I am his day, and he is humbled for Me, and he stays before Me with his door opened, with his house cleaned, and with his heart from heaven, an illuminated place, a place with pasture, a life that never dies.

Behold, the people prepare themselves with those that belong to them for My coming; they prepare with taverns, with worldly delights, with hearts greedy of empty glory, with the work of their hands, which is the idolatry in the last days; human creations, which hold captive the mind, the heart, the spirit and the body of the man. These, even if they do no longer remember God and the days of fasting, all are in vain, for the faith in Me and the fasting from food do good only to those who forsook the darkness of this age, and not to the sons of this age. The sons of this age are those who are born of the man, and they do the things of this age, and the sons of God are those who are born from above, at My word, the preached word, and they do the things from above, not those from below, and they lift up those from below, to work for Me and for the plan of My coming in glory, My coming with My kingdom. Then the kingdom of the man will see its own darkness, and I, the Lord, will be the King over all those that are, over everything that I make to be, for that what I do remains, and it appears to those who are; it appears to those who have life that does not die, as I am.

When I became Man, it was not for Me that I did this, but rather for the man, and that is why I have life, which does not die, for I gave it over for the man. When the man lives for his own self, that one does not have life and does not give from it, for he says that he needs it, but when the man lives for Me, and for those who are Mine with their own selves, they give themselves over with their own life, and they have life and they are as I am, and they are through Me, and they are from above, for I am Who I am. Amen, amen, amen.

The fifth Sunday of the Lent, of the devout Mary, the Egyptian

I am the One Who established the word in the heaven and on the earth. I established the word before the heaven and the earth, and I created everything by the word. My name is the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

Why do I say: „Amen?“ I say „Amen“, so that it may be a seal on the word declared by Me, because My word cannot be abolished. The heaven and the earth cannot annihilate My word.

But who is the one who can annihilate My word? If I say „Amen” over the word that I declare, is there someone else who can annihilate My word? It is. The man is. I made the man not only by My word but also by the hand of My body, for My body was before I made the man, and I was looking for Me when I created the man. I made him as beautiful as I was, for it is written: «God created the man in His image and after His likeness». I say “Amen” on every word of Mine, and the man spoils the fulfillment of My word, but My word remains and it is, and it comes into judgment with the one who violates it. The word and the deed of the man say “no” to My word and its fulfillment.

Amen, amen, I declare from heaven over the garden of My word that I made from the very beginning of the heaven and the earth, to be there and now, and to mean the Alpha and the Omega, God in the beginning and in the end, for as I started the earth in the beginning, the same is in the end; I start from here with the new earth, which is coming out of the sea and standing new before Me. Little by little and with the new earth which comes out of the sea of the world, as the sea is the world which took possession of the earth, as the darkness was all over the surface of the deep, for it is written into the Scriptures: «The earth was formless and empty and darkness was on the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters».

Open to My word, sons bearing God between heaven and earth for the angels in heaven do not work without the man on the earth, without a body of a man as God’s dwelling made through the angels, as it is written: «He makes His angels into ministering spirits, and His servants into a flame of fire». I make you into a flame of fire on the earth. You are the fire with which I, the Lord, scorch the earth everywhere, for your work with Me is fire, and I go with it from one margin of the heavens to the other and work with My word a new heaven and a new earth. Even if the man does not fulfill the law of My word, My word is, and is called judge over the man for whom I declared and declare the word from everlasting to everlasting, for the world was and is judgment from beginning to end by My word from beginning to end. Amen, amen, amen.

I come to you, sons in the garden, as I made you eyes and ears and faith for My coming. Teaching you and those who give themselves entirely over to Me, I teach every man who wants to receive from Me spiritual growth. Everything is possible to the one who entirely gives himself over to Me, for I brought into existence the word which says: «Those who give themselves entirely over to Me will do greater things than those in My time»; entirely, for I am a jealous God and I can do everything only in those who give themselves entirely to Me. But what does this word of Mine mean? Oh, dear sons, the one who is loved by God is the one who gives himself to Me entirely. The loved one is the one who starts for Me and ends for Me. He who begins to be Mine with the work of his life and does not go on with it and does not reach to the end of My work, that one does not begin well and is not steadfast, and he turns away from Me to himself and remains for him and leaves Me.

Oh, sons, My teaching for those who are saved comprises few people in it, for those that are saved are only those who live for Me until My coming. The man does not understand what the work of his salvation and eternity is. The man does not give himself entirely over to Me, and he also stops for his own self; however, the man does not know what he wants when he does something like that, and he is like the bee who dies after it gathers flying. The one who gathers is blinded by his own lust, not by My desire. But you, child given to God, remain in Me, if you gave yourself over to Me and to My work, to be counted in the number of those that are saved, for salvation is now, not tomorrow; it is in every moment, not only now and then. I teach you to be entirely for Me. I teach you to receive My teaching for those who are saved. I always teach you, the one who gave yourself over to Me for the day of My coming to you. I teach you to be My coming and to do My work.

Sons from the garden, teach well those who gave themselves over to Me and to you, for Me to their own salvation. The freshly born again man, has much to learn, that is always, that is until My coming, to find the disciple submitted to salvation and to the work of My coming. Every man toils, but only for himself. But you should give special teaching to those who gave their cross from them and took Mine, those who gave over their life and took Mine over, for the one, who is not dying is not coming to life, as it is written that «the seed you sow does not come to life unless it dies». He who comes to Me has to start dying, and to make Me come to life in him, as John, My Baptizer, said: «I must become less and He must become greater».

But the man will hear My word on you and will wonder and sin through an unrighteous judgment, for he will look at you and will not understand the work of My word. I am not unjust, but I am from heaven, and I speak heavenly, man, for it is one thing to have for Me and another thing to have for you. It is one thing to be Mine, and another thing to be yours. When you do things for yourself, you belong to you, and it is known for whom you are and for whom you work. When you are yours, you do not look for your salvation, but rather you look for temporariness, which perishes. It is a great thing for the Christian to work those that are swollen by eternity once with their making.

The man does not like to understand and that is why he becomes deaf at My teaching for those who are saved, but you, sons, you and those who are added to us for salvation and for My work with you within these days of My coming, should not doubt of My work with you and over you, for I told you that I would make everything new, and I would make a holy thing. I made holy you name, your life and the work of your hands and I make holy things through you, for the holy one works with holiness, and any work made by the saints is a work for Me, not for them. I made holy your name, your life and your work and I called you New Jerusalem, new people, a citadel of saints, heavenly citizenship on the earth, a new heaven and a new earth, as I have been waiting for the coming of My kingdom on the earth with the people for seven ages. Be new people day and night and be My coming and My kingdom every moment, and let your light never go out. Amen, amen, amen. But the light of the man will soon go out. The deed and all the work of the man will soon be shaken, soon, and then the time will come when the man will see his labor scattered, for the man worked for himself not for Me, and no man did like the unfaithful steward whose parable I wrote in the Scriptures. He earned friends through unjust riches, so that when they are finished, to be received into the eternal dwellings. He who is not faithful within the unjust riches will not have the true ones as well. Who will give him what belongs to him, if he is not faithful in the foreign things? Every man stores up riches for himself and enjoys them, but he does not store up for Me to have. But I say to you: do not be burdened, sons! Life is more than food, and the body more than clothes. Do not worry in your heart, for your little hearts have to carry the heavenly work for My coming. Do not let yourselves be burdened by worries. Father was well pleased to give you the kingdom and you have it. Amen.

The one who has authority over his own self is the Lord's palace, a palace with heavenly riches. I told once to the rich people, and I tell them again that they store up in vain. The man is fleeting, as he toils for this. But if he toiled for Me, he would no longer be so frail, but he does not have time to think about this. The man toils for those that pass away at the same time with him, and he does not toil for those that he stores up in heaven. I told once to the rich people and I tell them again today: You rich people sell your possessions and give them to the poor for God and for the work of the new heaven and new earth, which will last forever. Provide purses for yourselves that will never wear out, a treasure in heaven that will never fail, for your purses are broken. Make palaces for yourselves in heavens, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys, for where your treasure is, there your heart will also be; however, you will be judged according to the condition you will be in, for every man's work without God will be shaken, soon, soon. Amen. I say "Amen", so that it may be a seal for the word that I declared and not to be abolished. But is there anyone who can abolish My word? It is. The man is; the man who lives for his own self; but My word remains declared and it is and sits in judgment with the one who violates it, for the man lives for his own self and for those that came out of him, to be his, and not Mine, as he also is not Mine. When I asked Abraham for the one that came out of him, Abraham fulfilled My word, and I gave him back the one that came out of him and I promised him that a great nation will come out of him; an everlasting and great and as many as the stars of the sky, the Christian people, Christ's kindred, a people which lived and lives on the earth in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

Man from the earth, do you live your days in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit? And if you answer Me “Yes”, then you have a house in heaven? Do you really have riches in heaven? Do you really have friends in heaven to open for you and to come under a shelter in the day when the heaven and the earth will be shaken? I gave you the keys of the kingdom of the heavens. Did you use them, man? You will answer Me “Yes”. You will answer Me that you gave Me when I did not have. However, I also tell you about the many things that I gave you back in return for what you gave Me. I gave you twofold and I gave you thousandfold. I gave you rain; I gave you sun; I gave you light; I gave you air; I gave you salt; I gave you bread; I gave you shadow and breeze; I gave you sweetness; I gave you days; I gave you health; I gave you healing; I gave you joy; I gave you strength; I gave you forgiveness for all the wounds that you did to Me through your sins which you brought on Me and always bring them on Me as thankfulness for everything that I gave and I give you. But you live for yourself not for Me, for the one who lives for Me does not live only now and then, but he lives always and learns My teaching for those that are saved.

You man that are separated from Me, I died, and I also died for man when I died. I was God and I still died. I died so that you may also die, to also do what I did, and to come to life as I also came to life. I will call you into account, man, for that is why Father has sent Me again on the earth; He sent Me to show your words and your deeds, which will save or condemn you. You have got a punishment for the life that you had for Me. I said to live it for Me, and you became deaf to those that I asked you for. My kingdom comes over the earth and catches up with you and does not find you passed into the Book of Life, for you have not written yourself in it with your salvation. I am your salvation, and you have not lived Me, man. My book of today is My coming to you to get you up for Me and for My trumpeting over every man, for I have made a work come down from heaven on the earth, to put to shame every man’s deed, who lived without Me on the earth.

I have always come on the earth to prepare the way of the appearance of My body, which ascended to My Father after My resurrection from the dead. Every man prepares the way of My coming and does not want to know the way I come, but he prepares My coming. The evil ones prepare My coming to clean them of the dirt of their iniquities with which they made the earth heavy under them. The holy ones make haste of My coming to take the pressure of time away from them and to give them the reward of the holy patience, for the holy long-endurance is among other endurances, and is rewarded with a new heaven and a new earth. Amen.

Everything is refined by fire, for «The Lord makes spirits of His angels and a flame of fire of His servants». I make you a flame of fire over the earth, sons of the garden of My word. Amen. I leave the teaching for you so that everyone who gave himself over to Me to be in My work afterwards. Teach them always; teach them not to lust, for the lust is a deed, which puts the man to shame. Teach them not to earn for themselves without Me and without you. Teach them not to have anything else more than what I and you give them, and not to take alone from Me and from you, so that it may not be a punishment for the deed, but rather to be a blessing for obedience, for the rod is for the foolish one. Teach those who come to give themselves over to Me. Teach them what the commitment of the man is, who gives himself over to God. I want to look at them with heavenly pleasure. I want them not to oppress you; I want them not to upset you and I also want them not to make your work with Me heavier, but rather to sustain you with a brotherly love, with a true commitment, for the work for My coming is very hard, as I have no help on the earth, and you are on the earth sons. I told you a heavenly parable about the saint who, in his time on the earth, had disciples and who took good care of his disciples, searching out their thoughts, their works, their love, and their self-denial. I want you to bring forth living fruit of those added to your worries, for I need living sons, children bearing living souls.

I take care of all the sons who gave themselves totally to Me, and I take care hardly, for the man on the earth took hold of the money and put everything under the authority of the money. The money is the king of the world, and the world became strong on the earth, and I pray to the world for a patch of land where I should rest with My work, for a patch of holy liberty, for a log of wood or for a stone or for a bread or life. But you teach the poverty to those that gave themselves totally to Me, and if they have, let them give from those that have, and so that they may have from Me little bread and water and coat and roof, for I, the Lord, work hard through you, through the word of your hands, a holy thing that I give to buy mercy from the man for the heavenly work of My coming.

Blessed is the man whom My coming finds working and supporting your work for Me. I want to spread the tent of My kingdom to have many rooms for every man that I find working for his heavenly dwelling. There are many rooms in My Father's house, according to each service dedicated to the heaven on the earth, but you should be My dwelling, so that I may have a coming on the earth, sons, and to teach you the life for My coming, for My coming is there where I am with you, as it is written: «Where I am you should also be, as I prepared a dwelling for you».

I tell you sons; you and to those that gave themselves totally to Me: Do not seek to make you a room near God, but rather seek to make room for God near you and in you, for the kingdom of the heavens will be on the earth. Amen, amen, amen. And there will be a new heaven and a new earth, as I, the Lord, promised, and between the heaven and the earth, the holy man, the people of My saints, My country on the earth as in heaven, for the heaven will be on the earth, and the tabernacle of the heaven will be above and will cover the people of the saints. Give to the Lord, you holy people and sons working with the heaven on the earth. I am the Teacher, and you, the workers of My teaching. Get up and work continually, for you, as the saints, which wait for the raising of their bodies, do not have to sleep, but you have to work, holy people, so that the resurrection from the dead and the life of the age to come may be met. Amen.

I stand up every day more and more, and I humiliate all who still thrust at you, so that I may turn you into a way with a new age over the earth. I get up in My insurmountable power, and I make room with you, to reward those who love Me and you and gather with Me and who do not scatter in pleasures. I get up to pay those who oppress you and do injustice to you and trouble you because you belong to Me and not to them. But you should forgive them, as for this you were called, to be My mirror, sons.

I tell you again: learn My teaching over the saved ones, over those who escaped the wondering on the earth. Put on your right side those who escaped and urge them to a perfect order, inner, spiritual, bodily and brotherly, and exhort those that are confused with mercy and keep them on your left, for right is right and left is left, and each hand has those of its own, as I also work. Take care for there is no confusion in My coming, and you should not be ashamed of the man's face, but rather listen to Me so that I may have a way of coming, sons. He, who has no power for self-denial, is weak. Let him not take by himself when it comes to those from Me, and let him also not give those from Me, for he is weak, and My work is strong and whole. I am the One Who is rich in grace, not in those from the earth. The same should also be to the one who wants to shelter from the heat of the sun under My vine, under My teaching. Amen.

Sons, it is much work and much to bring to order. Those who are committed entirely to Me need richness of wisdom and grace. Propriety is needed from them to Me, and from them to you. Holy propriety is needed; it is needed holy propriety to do good to Me and not to them. Each one need to show humility towards the other, a healthy helm is needed all the time, to give you an account for every work, and for you to give Me an account, to bring before Me all the causes of Israel, My new people, My new model, the man in My image and after My likeness.

Today is a day of feast and fasting. The memorial of Mary, the Egyptian, is written over My church. She was My feast on the earth, and she lived far beyond human nature until she ascended in heaven, to the saints in heaven. She was a miracle who made the angels wonder, for I said that those, who believe in Me, giving themselves entirely over to Me, will do greater things than those that were done through Me at the faith of those who were faithful, who saw Me in My body on the earth. Mary, the Egyptian, did not see Me in My body on the earth, but she believed without seeing it and could do more than all those who were faithful until her time. She had no support from the earth but only from heaven, for she made herself a dwelling of the heaven above, and behold the faith of those who are faithful, turns God into action in them.

Sons, long for the works of the saints' faith, which became heaven on earth for God! Sons, long for the earthly poverty and for the heavenly richness that Mary, the Egyptian, got, after she gave herself entirely over to Me. Priesthood is great gift and grace, but greater gift and grace is the holiness in man, without which no one can see God. Humility lifts up the man above his body more than the love of God, for the humble is sober-minded and wise and content through humility; however, one like that does not fall from grace, for he is humble, and he is lifted up from earth into heaven.

I do not know how to teach the one who is loved by Me anymore, to make room for Me in him with the work of My grace. And I do no longer know how to speak to the loved one, so that humility may spring out of him before Me in the midst of My church too, as a brotherly example and as useful harmony to Me, in order to have an easy cross between heaven and earth, and for you to be freed from burdens, sons of My garden, sons who stay under the burden of the work of the fulfillment of My word and of My coming with those that are eternal over the earth. Do not lose heart. There is little, little, and it will be easier then. Little, little, sons burdened by My worries. I see how hard it is for you, for you are in the flesh, and it is hard, but I am under your burden with Me and I lift up your burdens on My shoulders when I see that you are broken down, and I give you angels to support and to take care of you, and I wake up people on the earth to sustain My work. I declare again and I renew the word and I raise help for you and for Me on the earth. Amen, amen, amen. I raise Simon of Cyrene, and I will pay him, for My cross is heavy and long, and you are small and weak on the earth, so that I may be perfected in you and through you over the earth with My coming. The great and strong do not have time; they do not have love for My holiness in them, but you are small and weak, and I glorify Myself in you with the glory of My word. Amen.

I am the One Who made the word, in heaven and on earth, by which I made all that are seen and not seen by the man. My name is the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen, amen, amen. I am God, both in heaven and on earth, and I call with My name all those who know what faith in God is and the work of My faith and My teaching over those that are saved. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem

I knock that the gates between heaven and earth. I am the Lord, and the Lord is One, and He is called the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen. I have been working this way from everlasting to everlasting; I have been coming through the gates into the church, into the place where many have gathered together into My holy name. I have been working through the gates over any condition on the earth, pleasant or not pleasant to Me. But does the man really know what this gate between heaven and earth is? He does not know; he does not know that it is, but it really is, from everlasting to everlasting. The man who is prepared by Me to call and to choose him and to make him sure that God is and that He works through the gates, the man who is committed to Me through My power, this is called the gate between heaven and earth. Amen, amen, amen.

I knock at the gates between heaven and earth. I set My heavenly steps on the path, but the path becomes a path only when the man needs Me. Otherwise, I come forcefully, and it is hard when I come this way, for I am a great God, and the path is small and it hardly keeps Me on it. Oh, it is hard for the man to get used to My path, very hard, for man is like man, and he does not want to be otherwise; he neither wants to be angel, or servant, or disciple, or son, for it is too hard for the man to get used to obedience and love, and that is why I say that man is like man, and he does not want to be otherwise. It is written into the Scriptures: «The ox knows its master and the donkey its own manger, but the man does not know Me and he departed from Me». Man is like man, and he has become careless, disobedient and unsubmitive and does no longer need a master. If the man knew that the one without a master would not know God; if he wanted to believe that the master without servants would have not gotten any good thing for God; if the Christian knew that without a confessor, he would have no God, and if the confessor knew that without the work of disciples, he would not have any work at all, or any formation, then the man would turn his face to God and look into a mirror and he would not look at the face of his nature anymore. But I, the Lord, turn to the man to teach him to receive Me as his master and not to be free anymore, for the free man wonders away and has no direction, but the one who is obedient, has everything he needs.

Once the man's faithful dog was freely wondering about, and he met the wolf. The wolf asked him how came that it was so nice and powerful. The dog answered him: "I have a master and he gave me a little house, food, water, shadow and my master takes good care of me, and I do nothing more but barking at strangers now and then, so that the strangers may know that I am my master's friend and keeper, day and night and in time of trouble". The wolf said to the dog: "I want to go with you for I am hungry and homeless and I am skinny because I have nothing to eat. I ask for food from God and God gives me little food because I do evil things for evil doers. I am free but I have no food provided that God gives me. I go with you to the master, too". The dog took the wolf with him on the way, but while they were going, the wolf saw a mark on the dog's furry neck. "What is this mark on your neck?" "It is the mark of the slip my master keeps me in. I am bound, I do not stay freely; I stay at my place and I know my place and I obey my master in everything". The wolf got scared and said: "I better go hungry and lonely then stay in bondage". "If this is so", said the dog, "if you cannot stay willingly in obedience and bondage, then your fate is this that you have: that is to have no master, to wander away and without sense, to have no one to take care of you when you are in trouble, and to go hungry on the earth looking for prey".

Here is why I knock at the gates between heaven and earth, and I am the Lord, and I turn to the man to teach him to take Me as his Master and not to remain free, for the free one looks for pray, wonders away without any direction, and he does his own will and woe to him who does his own wills!

I enter Jerusalem on a donkey, for the donkey knows the manger of his master; it is the one that understands God. The man who carries Me to the man is the one who submits as the donkey did, which carried Me on that day of the feast as this of today, two thousand years ago, when upon entering Jerusalem on the donkey, a great multitude that came to the feast hearing about My coming, took palm branches and welcomed Me saying: «Hosanna in the highest! Hosanna to the son of David! Blessed is the King Who comes in the name of the Lord». Then the coward Pharisees, calling Me Teacher, asked Me to rebuke My disciples not to sing to Me something like this, but I answered them that if they kept silent the stones would cry out for Me because I was the Son of God.

I turn to the man to teach him teaching you, sons of My word. I gave you birth by the word of the truth, after My will, to be the beginning of My creatures. Struggle all the time to obey, for obedience is greater than speaking, which can bring about even wrath through it, and the man's wrath has nothing to do with My righteousness. I planted in you the gentle word. Receive My word for it is the one, which can save your souls from any evil, and any wrath. The one who listens to the word that I brought and does not fulfill it, that one deceives himself and looks like the man who sees the face of his nature in the mirror, and after he saw himself, immediately forgot the way he looked like. But if you take a good look into the law of My perfect word, which frees the man who perseveres in it, in My word, becoming not a listener that only hears, but the one that lives My word, that one will be blessed in his works. Amen.

I come to teach you, for I speak with you from heaven on earth, and the earth comes down to you with Me when I speak to you. I come to teach you, so that the man may have teaching from the man who wants to learn the perfect law of freedom, for it is written into the Scriptures: «But whoever looks intently into the perfect law, the law of freedom, and continues in it, being not a hearer that forgets, but an obedient doer, will be blessed as a result of his obedience, and will keep away from the stain of the world».

Man is like man and has become careless and disobedient and he, who does not love submission, has no master over him. If the man knew that I am not pleased with the one who has no master, then the man would turn his face to God and look into the mirror and no longer forget the face of his nature, and he would escape the sin of selfhood, and then of the sin of self-complacency, which means self-love and a lonely man without a master. But if the Christian knew that without a confessor he would have no God, then he would get a confessor, so that he may have God, and to have Me as Master over him, for I was carried through the gates when I made My glorious entrance into Jerusalem on the body of the donkey. The donkey carried Me and I entered, and many confessed Me as their Master, for this is the work of God on the earth and on man.

The confessor is the mirror the man has to look into and see. The confessor himself has to be the perfect law of freedom, and those under his hand have to hear and fulfill, and then to be happy in their works, and only this way will they keep themselves away spotless to the world.

Man is like man; he is careless and unsubmitive, but I come to you, as you are submissive. I teach you what submission is. Submit to one another to what is good, and give honor and growth to the confessor, and make room for Me to you, and for you to Me, through blessing, son. Do nothing without blessing, for your work is for Me, for My work with you on the earth. Do not be yourselves in your pursuits, but let Myself be in them through you. Amen. Search out My commandments. But how is this work of research of My commandments been done? Here is how: any moment and any work of it teach you what you have to do with it, according to My commandments. When a loveless act towards God and God's neighbors comes in front of the man, an act of theft, an act of fornication, an act of lie, or murder, or greed, an act without My commandment in the Law, then the man is taught in that very moment by the action itself which he has to do, according to My commandment and not according to the act which comes in front of him, and blessed will be the one in his own works, for he will keep away blameless to the world.

All of your work has to be for Me, sons from the garden, and you, those who feed from the garden for a righteous life, and you, who hear without fulfilling. The life of the man is that which is lived according to My ordinances, but man is like man; he is careless and unsubmitive, and he is like the wolf that prowls and ravens.

I want to bless My little house on the hill with a new word. Let the sons that are after My likeness dwell in it, for it is like a pearl of My work from you, sons by whom, I, the Lord, bless everything that I have to bless on the earth and in heaven. Bring to Me palm branches and cry to Me: "Hosanna!" Bring to Me sons after My likeness, new offspring who have to learn about their life in the vine, for it is written: «Any branch which is in the vine bears fruit only in the vine, not by itself», because I said: «My blessing will flow there where Mine are together, together as brothers». Bring Me living fruit, fresh fruit, and be a mirror for those who grow for Me, and be spiritual, sons, for the confessors in the church from the world are not spiritual; they are not clean and they are not poor to the world; they are not holy with their life and deed, they are not clean with their hands and they are greedy for those on the world, and are defiled in their fleshly and spiritual feelings and are ashamed by the evil angels, for the confessors of the world are fleshly. They know My word but they do not do it, and they dishonor themselves. But as for you, bring to Me palm branches, living and fresh fruit, heavenly fruit, sons after My likeness, poor of worldly things, and rich in the heavenly ones, and spiritual on the earth. Teach all those who feed on My word; teach them to pray for freedom, so that they may have the perfect law of freedom, and not to hear without doing My word, but rather to keep themselves blameless to the world and to say: "Lord, keep Me away from the people of this world who take their own part in life, whose belly is filled of Your goods. Lord, give us power to do Your commandments and to be sober-minded, in order to bring forth living fruit before You, and to know the work of the vine and the work of the branch". Amen.

Sons, I tell you that the vine is the one with branches, for behold, I cut the vine from the world, for it has no branches and it dried out. Be like My vine, My new vine, and bring forth to Me new branches, living branches, which nourish from the vine fulfilling the word of the vine, the same work with the vine and branch, for otherwise, the branch that does not bear fruit dries up and then is cut out. The Lord will make you and the branches, which come out of you, fruitful, in order to give you a reward for your fruit. Amen.

I bless My little house on the hill with a new word, the one that I made it to be for Me near the fold of My word. Let holy children and infants dwell in it, for the one who comes to Me has to become a newborn baby, a beginning of My creatures, stones of foundation for Me, testifying stones, as this is what I said: «The stones will cry out». Amen. Those who have had to cry out then and now, (Official church, r.n.), have not cried for Me to be their Master, and they have put to silence those who were crying out and those who cry out. The one who staggers is afraid too, and that is why he hides, but you should testify for Me before the people. You should be speaking stones, for those who are fearful keep silent; they keep silent and hide from My wrath, from My word, the word of the truth, by which I, the Lord, gave you birth after My will, to be a beginning of My creatures. Amen.

Man is like man, and the man does not want to be otherwise. The ox knows its master, and the donkey knows the manger of his lord, and the man does no longer know Me; he has departed from Me and serves the demons. All the people are tormented by demons, and there is no holy man on the earth to take the demons out of people. No one comes to Me to take the demons out of him. The man stays tormented by fleshly lusts and by greed, through those that perish, and he does not come to Me to free him of these demons. This kind of demons does not come out of man but only by prayer and fasting, as I told My disciples then, who could not get the demons out of man. God's servant has to pray to Me for the man by fasting, and he has to fast for the man by praying; otherwise the demons are not afraid and do not depart from the one they took over.

Sons, be careful, be awake and always working over My new vine. Have order and speaking of soul building. Be good before Me; be My good possession and build My kingdom, which I come to you with. It is written: «The man who speaks wisely is good; that one will never falter». Be careful all the time, for your word is broken out of Me, because you are My will on the earth. Let all those who gave themselves over to Me listen to you, as I made you a new vine, out of which new branches grow. Bring Me new branches, and bring lambs to the Lord. Amen.

Blessed be the One Who comes from heaven to you as new word, the word of truth, by which I gave you birth after My will, to be a beginning of My creatures, a beginning of New Jerusalem for My coming on the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The Word of God at the feast of the Annunciation

I am God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, speaking from heaven on earth. Amen. I come from heaven speaking, and I have come on the earth. I announce Myself well with a feast of annunciation over My church. I announce Myself well that I come from heaven, and that I have come on the earth to reveal My coming, as there is no one to prepare it for Me, and this preparation for My coming has to be. The man prepares it for Me as on earth, eating, drinking and going to weddings as on earth, but I need to have a preparation before My coming as in heaven on earth, for this is what I said: «As in heaven, so on earth». Amen.

Peace to you, sons from the garden, and peace from you to Israel, My people of today, the people that fulfill My coming, My earning among the people. Peace to you, for you are those who announce My coming well, as Gabriel, My archangel gave the news that I was about to come a baby through the Virgin two thousand years ago. I submitted to the Law in Israel at that time and

I could not give My gifts to those under the law, for they killed Me after the law. But I am coming now with gifts, and Michael, the archangel, My angel and yours, is imparting heavenly gifts on you from Me.

The law of the body is one, and the law of the gift is another. I enshrouded you into the mystery of My heavenly gifts and I have sent Michael, My angel, before Me, who works out My word, to testify to you about those that are to come after the annunciation of My coming, and My coming will be, for it is written: «I am the First and the Last». Amen, amen, amen. Gabriel, the archangel, served to the fulfillment of the law and announced My coming in the flesh. Michael, the archangel from the beginning, serves to the fulfillment of the gifts in the end, for it is My angel and yours, the angel of My word.

I taught My disciples to say that My will be done in heaven as on earth; I taught them to ask from Father and the Father's will to be done on earth as in heaven, but the man taught himself only to say and that is all. The man says what I taught him to say to My Father, and then he goes and does his own will on the earth, and the Father's will remains in heaven. Day and night the man does his own will saying: «Your will be done, Father, as in heaven, so on earth». Behold, there are not true worshippers on earth, for every man says one thing and does another, violating the law from heaven and the one on earth. How is he not supposed to violate the heavenly law, if he also violates the one on the earth, which he, the man, made it to be and to be observed? The confusion of languages is the reward of the man's false life, and the man is a murderer of every good thing. Nothing that is enduring remains behind man, nothing but a human name and pride from earth to heaven. But I, the Lord, tell you and those who are faithful to Me and to you, and I let you know about a great joy, that I come soon, soon. This is what I announce you: My coming from heaven on earth, to make a new heaven and a new earth on the earth, so that the word that you declared may be fulfilled; that is, the Father's will to be done on earth as in heaven.

Preach well too! Be the angels of the Annunciation for the end of the man's time. Be the people which bears good news; be the work of My angels who works through your bodies, who makes My gift come down upon you, so that you may be the angel of the Annunciation, of My last coming. I go with you to the people, and I do not go without you. If I speak from heaven with you, this means that I go with you to the people. And a sweet time will come, a heavenly time on earth for you and with you, for it will love you and it will seek every man who will still be on the earth, for I will glorify Myself with a great glory through you upon Romania, upon My last country. I come through it for the people of Israel, which killed Me in its midst. I come through Romania and for the Jerusalem of My passions, for I will gather together many haughty people, people who trespass the commandments and I will judge Myself with them there; there where I came among them in the flesh two thousand years ago. I will declare the word of My pain and justice here, and there I will fulfill it, and I will judge Myself with the people for which I willingly gave Myself to be crucified.

I had to die for the rest of the peoples on the earth to redeem them from under the ignorance, but it was not so, and I died for Israel, to redeem it from under the law, for it is written: «He who does not fulfill the law is guilty». He knew the law from Me and was guilty because he did not believe in Me when I came from heaven from the Father to be in its midst. Behold, I tell you a revealed mystery: the people of Israel knew that I am the Christ of the Father and that I had to be crucified for its sins. It was not Judas who was guilty for selling Me and My death. He was the tool by which Israel killed its God, and it is written: «Woe to the one by whom the Son of God will be sold and killed!». If Israel did not seek to kill Me, it would have not killed Me when Judas sold My mystery, for Judas knew that I am the Christ. The rulers of Israel were guilty of My death, and with them all the people of Israel, all, except a remnant chosen by grace to be without guilt so that afterwards to be able to testify about the truth of My coming from heaven in the midst of Israel.

In all time I have had people on earth, a remnant chosen by grace, so that My truth may have been witnessed in each time, as I have you in this time, sons near My coming. Blessed are you, who believe in My coming as word on the earth. Those of that time, who believed in My coming then, were also blessed. As then, those of today, who call themselves the rulers of the church, believe as those of that time; they believe that I am the Christ of the Father and that I have come to you to prepare you to be the sons of My coming, the good sons of this time, a remnant chosen by grace. But I overcame for you and against them, as the time of now and My coming of nowadays have been worked with power and much glory, as it is written in the Scriptures: «They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and much glory, and He will send His angels with a loud trumpet call, My word, which gathers His elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other». Amen.

I have come on earth and prepared you to be My little angels for the gospel of Me coming as Savior upon you, and Judge over those who crucified Me then and now through haughtiness. Those without love and without mind have no fear and are haughty in their spirit, but you should be the angel of annunciation for My last coming, and stand well in fear and careful to My words, for they are My coming with judgment over the earth.

Sons, the dead come to life at the voice of My word. Only those that are haughty do not want to come to life, but they will stand before Me whether they like it or not, and they will melt like wax, as I am the First and the Last, and I come with much power and with much greatness, as it is written into the Scriptures of My second coming from heaven on the earth, for the earth is My footstool. Amen. The man says in vain that he took My earth from under My feet. Soon, soon, every man will see that he is weak and will receive Me whether he wants it or not, because I come and I am clothed in the garment of justice. Amen. But you, sons of My greatness, I have always taught you to keep away from My judgment, doing My will before Me. Do many merciful deeds, as much as you could, as mercy is a candle with oil, a burning candle<sup>141</sup>. Give Me over as a gift to every man who reaches out his hand for heavenly food. Also give Me to the one who is ashamed with Me and who does not reach out his hand but only stealthily. Give God as mercy to all who do not want the heavenly food, as I, the Lord, give them the bitter bread of anxiety to those who are careless of the soul. I make them all anxious to the hearing of My word, and a fire will be kindled all around and it will threaten the earth with fire and judgment, but My country with My manger in it will be the throne of My word, out of which a word of consuming and cleansing fire will flow over the man and over the earth.

Give God as mercy, messenger sons of My coming. I am the Word of God for the coming of Christ, the Son of the Father, and I share Myself through you as My coming upon every man. I call out the trumpet. The word is the trumpet, and Michael, My angel, is the angel of My gift upon you. Let My word come to you from one margin of the heaven to another and let the iniquity on the earth burn, as I make a new haven and a new earth, and a new and just man between heaven and earth, and the haughtiness will fall into the abyss. Amen.

I come with the good and eternal time for you; I come with a glorious time upon you, sons, and emperors and kings will follow you, as My great power and high glory will be with you and on you, and those, who did not love you because of Me, will lament, and the rich people, who did not do merciful deeds for God, will lament, as My coming had called out to them, but they had hidden themselves under their richness and left the right way. Behold, it is written: «They will build houses and will not dwell in them; they will buy fallow lands and will not have them; they will plant vineyards and will not eat of their fruit».

Oh, sons, wake up the spirit of prayer in you with great power and greatness, true worship, and say: «Father, Your will be done, as in heaven so on earth». Let your prayer be fulfilled by Father. Amen, amen, amen. And to the Father I say: “I thank You Father that You listened to Me through the sons of My coming from heaven on earth. I came to do Your will in them and on them, as in heaven, so on earth. I made them My angel who announces My coming, lest I come unexpectedly or like a thief. But the man sleeps; he sleeps deeply, Father; he sleeps in the time of My coming and the one who sleeps does not see. But Father, protect these who are My coming. Wake them up for My coming is with them; give them power, for they do not have to sleep in the time of My coming, but rather they need to be wakeful and with their candle full of burning oil for Me. Amen.

– I am the heavenly Father, Son that came down from heaven on earth, and I am in You with power and much glory, for I am One with you, both in heaven and on earth. I, Myself, announce You that You are My beloved son, in Whom I am well pleased in heaven and on earth, from beginning to end, for I am in You, and I announce Myself in You and You in Me, God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

– And I, Father, thank you on earth and in heaven, in heaven and on earth, and I fulfill the word that I have from You to be fulfilled, for a new heaven and a new earth, and for the new age, for which We have been longing for seven thousand years, Father.

Oh, children of My coming, I am with the time from heaven over you, an endless age, and not with a time as on earth. Give this grace to those who want to become sons of the Father, for to those who believe in the word of My coming now, I give power to become sons of the Father, sons born of God, of the Word of God, as you are, for it is written: «At My trumpet call, the dead will come to live», at My word, which is in you, calling the nations to a life of a new age and forever new. Amen, amen, amen.

And now, sons from the garden, I announce you that I enter into My garden with Verginica and with her little sister that I took in heaven a year ago. However, you should work out her remembrance before Me, and I, the Lord, meet you with the one that you welcomed.

Verginica, come into the book! I am your linking bridge to My people and yours. You are great in heaven, as My work through you was great, My last work. We go to the memorial service into the garden. Take your little sister to see her feast on the earth, for she was My linking bridge between you and the working people of today, so that I may speak today from above, and so that the people may have Me as word for food and for life and for the resurrection of the dead at the call of My trumpeting. The angels write a new step, the ninth pass for your little sister, the work accomplished in heaven, a heavenly citizen with full favor before Me. I announce you and your little sister in the garden. Announce it as well and give the people the voice of your word. I in you and you in Me with a feast of annunciation over today's Israel, over the Lord's people, the one taken out of the Romanians. Amen.

– Lord, Your name and Your word is glory and power over the last ones who have from heaven the gospel of Your coming with the saints, the day of the Lord, to be imparted. You are the First and the Last. You are the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, the consuming fire, who had been scorching me for as long as twenty five years into the middle of a people, with which You, Yourself, spoke from heaven in my time, the last time. I was the sacrifice place for fire. Your Word was the sacrifice on it. You had fed the new Israel on fire. I was one body with You. I with my body, and You with the Spirit of Your word, and after twenty-five years, You took my body out of flames and gave the heaven to me. With great care for the people left without the food of Your word, I prayed to You to cleanse my little sister, and to ask her in marriage for me, and I was to make your passing on to the people, Lord. You fulfilled my prayer for my people and prepared My bridge. I set my heavenly work on my little sister, and I worked from heaven on her, and entrusted to my people that she was my word through her. I made great signs, testifying for me in her, and then I also asked You, Lord, to pass with me in her, and then to make Your passing between me and my people, so that the work of Your word may not die, the work started through me in the year of 1955. You worked wonderfully, Lord. You gave many days to my little sister and made Your passing to the new people that You feed today with the last mysteries, with the fulfillments that were announced even in the time of my body, to be accomplished on the earth.

May You be blessed for the gift of the holy faith that you put over the last ones, over those in Your garden in the end, over those who give the news of Your word to the people on the earth! It is great this little patch of land that you worked and work over with the heaven in the beginning and in the end, the place where the heaven and the earth open up, a mystery of new heaven and new earth, the core of the fulfillments of Your prophecies made out seven thousand years to come true now, and which You have been proclaiming through all of Your prophets, and in the end through Me on the earth, for I was Your sacrifice place of fire on the earth.

I had nourished Your people with faith and hope, Lord, for You can work whatever You want with the faithful one. I gave my sister to the people as a passing bridge to Your word. One year has passed by since I came on Your name and I took her into heaven and led her with the angels through the twenty four straits between heaven and earth, (The twenty four customs of the air – see “St. Theodora's journey through the aerial toll-houses”, - aerial toll-houses, r.n.), between man and God, after the soul leaves the dwelling of its body. She passed easily from place to place to the throne of Your glory, to the ninth heaven, Lord, as our forefathers were speaking about, for today one does not speak of the ways of the heaven on the earth, for the man got up and taught that everything our forefathers had from You as knowledge was a lie. Behold, the humble spirit of my sister was the sacrifice brought by her to You, and You made for me and for You a passing bridge through her, so that Your word may go on and on as work over the earth. Now you stay in the air and work over the garden, for this is the time, and this is how You work for Your coming.

I come today with My little sister for her memorial in the garden.

Oh, little sister, here is the mystery of the heavens, and the throne of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit in heaven and on earth is hiding in it. This is the root of the work that was through me and then through you, a linking bridge to those who work today with the Lord. The throne of the Lord's glory is the root of which this word came and is coming over the earth. Amen.

– Oh, Verginica, little sister, tell the people below, that I have the Lord's glory before me, and that I want where I am they also may be. Love is heaven, Verginica, my little sister.

I tell you too, children of the Lord on the earth, that love is heaven, the heaven in man, and the heavenly man on earth and in heaven. The Lord's glory is under the eyes of my spirit. I look under it and see the little garden below, and I see you. From it on to the sides is otherwise; it is as on earth. Pray to the Lord so that where I am to be all who believe into the word, which is with you from here, from above the garden at your place. The river of the Lord's glory waters from above, and the Lord's glory grows under it. The seal of the living God shines on your foreheads. The hand of the Lord is on your head and draws the curtain aside, which hides the Lord's seal on your foreheads. Soon, soon, the mark on you will be able to be read. Glory in the highest to God and may the peace of the Lord's glory be on you! Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, little sister, I brought you with the Lord and with me and with the Lord's glory to the feast of your memorial in the garden. The love is heaven, but it is otherwise on the earth. Only those from heaven see what love is, and they testify it as it is.

Lord, the humble spirit of my little sister was the sacrifice that she brought to You, but You made her a passing bridge for You and for me to the small and new people, Lord. Amen.

– Verginica, you are great in heaven. Soon, soon, your heavenly greatness will be known on the earth in a visible glory. Soon, soon, I will glorify Myself for you and for Our children of today, who work for the fulfillment of the glory of My word over the earth. Soon, soon, you will be My testimony vessel into My hand, My cup, the Lord's cup, pure wine, the new wine, a cup that I poured out the new wine into. Your glory will be like Mine, for I will come with you when I come, for this work means My coming, and I set you as the foundation for My coming, for the building of the people of My coming. Kings and emperors will look and see the glory of My word, the river of the everlasting life.

And you, children from the garden, be the angel of the Annunciation over the earth. Announce My coming, for after this annunciation My glory is coming, the morning shining star. You are My witnesses, My testimony before the people. Keep what you have from Me until I come, for it is written into the Scriptures: «To the one who overcomes and keeps My works to the end, to him I will give authority over the nations, and he will rule them with an iron scepter, shattering them like clay pots», as I also received power from My Father, and I will give him the morning star. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Lord's Resurrection

I come from heaven on the earth with a feast of salvation, with a feast of resurrection. I, Myself, declare the word of greeting upon you: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen!" I announce Myself over you. I celebrate Myself among you and I am your feast and I am your resurrection. Amen.

Open the gates between heaven and earth! Open so that I may enter! I am the King of glory and power in heaven and on earth. Amen. Strengthen yourselves, gates, so that I may come in and out; to come out and to come in. I, Myself, open the gates announcing Myself at the gates; I, Myself, because I, Myself, took away the stone from My grave that was watched by the Jews. On the first day of the week, My disciples, who had not understood the Scriptures by that time, and that I had to come out of the dead, saw My grave opened and the shrouds and the linen cloths that were on My head and body lying there in the grave; they saw and believed. Peter and John were told by Mary Magdalene early in the morning. She came to My grave early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone was moved away from the grave and went to Peter and John and told them that I was taken out of the grave. My angels confirmed the news of resurrection, and I, the resurrected One, stood up to be seen by My prude and I told her: «Mary go to My brothers and tell them that I am ascending to My Father and your Father, to My God and your God and in the evening I will be coming and appearing to them in Galilee. They should go there». And they went in Galilee and locked themselves in for fear of the Jews, and suddenly I stood in their midst and I said to them: «Peace to you!» And their eyes were opened and saw Me resurrected and I showed them My hands and My side to make them glad that I was, and I told them: «Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I am sending you. Receive the Holy Spirit!» Amen. And then I disappeared from their sight, and they told one another about Me that I was resurrected and that I was alive forever and ever. Amen.

After two thousand years since My resurrection from the dead, I, Myself, am declaring again this word: Peace to you! To you, those from today, who are announcing Me that I have come from the Father to you, for you and for those who believe like you in My coming after two thousand years. But who is the one that understands the Scriptures of My coming, for My disciples of that time understood the Scriptures, which proclaimed ahead of time that I would come on earth and I would suffer crucifixion and death, and then I would rise from the dead and be with them to the end of the time? Blessed is he who believes like them, and like you, that I am to the end of the time, for believing, that one comes out from the dead, he comes out from the sins and becomes a son of resurrection.

I want to tell you what resurrection means. I come down to you through the gates early in the morning. I, Myself, open the gates for Me, announcing Myself at the gates. Amen. After I rose from the dead I did no longer die, sons from the gates. This means resurrection. After Lazarus was raised from the dead, he did no longer die, and has had Me in him forever and ever. This means resurrection. Those who became holy, by faith and love of God, remained holy and never died, and they rose from the dead. This means resurrection. The one, who rises and never dies, is a son of resurrection, the son of the eternal life. Amen. Oh, children of My resurrection, I want to speak over you the mystery of resurrection, and you should preach about this mystery over all the nations on the earth, so that they may understand this mystery. Those, who will hear and come to life, will be alive, and those, who will hear and will not come to life, will be dead. Soon, soon, the joy of life will be with those that rose from the dead, and it will be upon them, for the seal of resurrection and My glory will shine on them, the glory of resurrection, for the resurrection in man glorifies him with great glory, as the power of My resurrection from the dead glorified Me, when the angels from heaven came and said to those who believed in Me: «Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, but he has risen». The same I tell you now: Do not seek the living One among the dead. Seek Him among the living, for the living One is with them. He, who becomes a son of resurrection, dwells with the living One and lives with Him the mystery of resurrection and of eternal life, for darkness and death is over all the earth, over all people.

Soon, soon, I will distinguish to the right the one who becomes a son of resurrection. Soon, soon, I will clean the earth of those who are dead on it, and I will wake up those in the ground, some to eternal life in body, and some to destruction, so that the earth may be new again; new without death on it, without dead people on it. This means resurrection. Amen. Soon, soon, the earth will be comprised in the mystery of resurrection. I, the Lord of resurrection, send the angel of My resurrection, as I sent him to My grave before My resurrection, for it is written into the Scriptures of My resurrection: «Behold, there was a great earthquake, for the angel of the Lord, descended of the sky, and came and rolled away the stone from the door, and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning and his clothing white as snow. For fear of him the guards shook, and became like dead men». But to those who were alive the angel answered: «Do not be afraid, you who are looking for the living One, Jesus, Who was crucified. He is not here, among the dead. He has risen as He said, for He is alive». And this is what I tell you also: He who is crucified is alive. He who dies for sin, as I did, comes from death to life, and becomes a son of resurrection. Amen. Soon, soon, the earth will be comprised in the mystery of the resurrection, as it is written about the day of the Lord, «when the sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its light; when the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken, because of the appearance of the sign of the Son of Man in the sky, Who will be seen coming on the clouds of the heaven with power and much glory. Amen. Then He will send out His angels with a great sound of a trumpet to gather together His chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other». Blessed will be the one who is alive, for he will be gathered and raised from the dead, for it is written: «One will be taken and one will be left. Where two men will be, one will be taken and one will be left». The voice of My angel will speak over the living ones: «Do not be afraid. The day of the Lord has come, the day of resurrection! Do not be afraid». Amen, amen, amen.

Behold, I come from heaven on earth with a feast of salvation, with a feast of resurrection, so that I may rejoice with the sons of resurrection, with those who watch for the mystery of resurrection. Peace to you, sons anointed in the garden with the seal of resurrection! I have come early in the morning to you with the news of the mystery of resurrection. After I was resurrected, I have no longer died, sons from the gates. This means resurrection. Amen. Spread the news on My behalf over Jerusalem and over all the nations on earth: After Lazarus was raised from the dead, he no longer died. This means resurrection, full resurrection. Amen, amen, amen. Jesus Christ is the same, yesterday and today. Amen.

Tell the sons of My people not to forget the mystery of resurrection. Lazarus, whom I resurrected from the grave, never laughed, but he was resurrected, and he did not seek Me, the living One, among the dead, for I was in him and I was alive in him, and he remained the son of the day of resurrection, the first day of the week, the first day, sons. This is the day of resurrection; this is the mystery of resurrection: the first day, in which the resurrected man has to remain and to be alive, to be the son of resurrection, the son of My day. The first day is the day when the faithful man wakes up for Me through preaching. The first day is the day of love, and love can do it, and it means resurrection, for it keeps the man full of God, and it keeps new the one who gets up to be alive, and takes him out of the dead ones. He, who truly rises, never dies, and he is a son of resurrection, and he, who tastes only of the mystery of resurrection, dies again, and submits to the dying body of the man, who pulled himself out from God.

I, the Lord of resurrection, have come on the earth to breakdown the power of death in man, but I have power only in the man who remains with Me in him, as without Me in him, the man dies; he dies again. The mystery of My being in man is the mystery of My resurrection in man. I want to tell you what it means the man's resurrection, sons from My garden, sons anointed with the seal of resurrection. My being in the resurrected man, appears with power in the one who is resurrected for Me. If My being does not live visibly in the resurrected one, it is not in him, and he is not resurrected, for after I was resurrected I appeared as risen.

I come to you with a feast of salvation and resurrection and say: Chris is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! I speak this mystery three times, for this testimony is a great mystery. My being in the resurrected one is the testimony of this mystery. This is the one who speaks in truth this mystery: "Christ is risen!" Otherwise, the man says "Chris is risen!" as though he would say "There is no Christ".

I want the mystery of My being in you to testify from within you before My face and before the people, who will see Me in you, sons anointed with the seal of My resurrection and your resurrection, for My resurrection in the man is the man's resurrection; it is My being forever in man; it is My face and My living in man and from man, and it is the mystery of My being in man. Amen.

Soon, soon, the entire earth will be comprised in the mystery of the resurrection, for it is written about the Day of the Lord. Soon, soon, I will cleanse the earth of everything that is without God on it, and I will wake up those in the womb of the earth, some to eternal life in their body, and some to destruction; like life, like deed, so that the earth may be new afterwards and without death on it, without dead people on it. This means resurrection. This means a new earth for a new heaven. Everything that the false man has built on it, the man without God on earth, will be given over to everlasting destruction, and the Spirit of Truth will remain on earth, the Spirit of the Lord, the Day of the Lord. Amen.

I bless you all; those that are alive, for the living are not among the dead, among those who die. I bless you with the mystery of My being in you. My being in the resurrected one for Me appears with power and much glory in the one who is resurrected for Me. This is the sign of My blessing in the one who is blessed. That one is he, who declares in the Spirit of Truth: «Chris is risen!», the greeting of those who are raised from the dead. Amen, amen, amen.

The Holy Passover, the second day

I am. I include you in the mystery of resurrection when I come to you. I bring you the greeting of My resurrection: Christ is risen! I am your celebration; I am the day of resurrection on you; I am the mystery of your life and I always have to leave on you the teaching of life, as without Me you cannot be sons, and I want you to be alive forever, and that is why I always stay around you, teaching you. Take and eat! Man does not eat only bread alone. Eat the word, which comes out of Me, to be with you and to grow you holy, the saints of My coming. Amen, amen, amen.

In the day of My resurrection I came with a holy peace to My disciples, who were confused of all that happened with Me before My resurrection from the dead on the third day. On the day of resurrection I tell you: Peace to you! Holy peace to My saints! For I want you to be holy, the saints of My coming. Amen.

Oh, he who does not listen to My words to fulfill them, that one leaves Me to speak to Myself. I speak to Myself, I listen to Myself, and I remain alone, if the man does not speak with Me, when I speak with him. I am word and I am spirit, for My body consists of those that are not seen, so that the man may believe in Me, and so that the man may have God greater than he is.

I come with resurrection on you. The mystery of My being in man is the food, on which I have been feeding you for such a long time. If My being is in man, it is seen that it is, as I hide under a mystery, and those who are seen in man, are My works through the man; they are My being in the man, who has Me in him. I would like that the man, who thinks that he has Me in him, may be ashamed; to be ashamed, if My being in him is not seen that it is. I would like the man to understand what the Lord in man means. The faithful and humble man, the holy man in his mind, in his heart and in his body, is a dwelling place of My mystery, a dwelling place where I dwell to be seen by the one in whom I dwell.

I come with resurrection for you. I teach you resurrection, sons from the gates. Take and give to those who are destitute of resurrection. Take My resurrection in you. But how is this richness given? It is a great mystery what I ask you now. The one, who does not have resurrection, cannot give what he has not got. In vain those on the earth make so much ado, so much boasting and so much noise. In vain those, who are dressed in garments of saints and priests, say that they impart resurrection. The one, who does not have resurrection in him, has nothing to give, but the one who is rich in resurrection, has, and gives resurrection all around him.

Oh, I am with the days of resurrection between heaven and earth. Those from heaven rejoice and dance in a day of a resurrection feast, but those on the earth do not reach to the mystery of the joy of resurrection. This joy belongs to the saints, as it was two thousand years ago. The others, both then and now, shared and share something else, but no resurrection. The man dresses with new clothes, with new footwear, with good and much food, with music, with drunkenness, and with fornication, and this is a feast without God, not a feast of resurrection. Behold, everything is old like man, and everything is dead like man. It is nothing like resurrection or feast of resurrection or joy of resurrection. On the day of My resurrection, My disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit through the humility, which came over them for My resurrection. I filled them with resurrection afterwards, and I sent them to impart it, and they did as I told them. I made them new little clothes, little clothes of Holy Spirit; new footwear, sandals of apostleship; resurrection food, My word full of life; a praised song, Christ's resurrection; a new wine poured out in the vessels of their hearts, holy by the faith of My resurrection; good behavior and humbleness. This is how they celebrated the day of their Lord's resurrection; this way and not having new clothes and new shoes, food, drinking, music and a spirit of unrestrained joy, for the man got used to celebrate the feast of My resurrection.

Oh, the mystery of resurrection is far from all the people on the earth, but you, children of resurrection, stay with the heaven, for there is no resurrection on the earth. Let your mind, your heart and your body be in humility, a dwelling place of resurrection, a dwelling place, where I dwell with the days of resurrection, with the mystery of My being in the humble man. Blessed is the body, whose mind and heart does not make him into a dwelling place for demons, for man mocks his body, and every man blames his body when he commits sin. Oh, it is not the body that is guilty; it is not the body, which commits sin. The body falls a pray to the sin of the mind and heart, for it is written: «For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also». He, who has Me as his treasure, that one makes room for Me in his body and is free from any sin and lives within the perfect law of freedom. Amen.

And you, children of resurrection, do not stay without resurrection. I come with resurrection over you. Receive and give to those who are destitute of resurrection, and I will pour out a double portion on you, and from where you take and give, it will be multiplied to you and will not run dry. But how is this resurrection given? Here is how: teach those who seek Me to get out of their sin. Amen. He, who does not get out of his sins, cannot receive resurrection. I cannot take image in the one that does not get out from under his sin. Resurrection is My image in man, My holy nature in man. I was tempted in everything, like man has been, yet without sin. Set yourselves, day and night, to a work of resurrection over every soul, which seeks freedom in Christ. It is impossible for the sin to make its nest into the man's body, if the man does not choose it, or if the man does not love it. «If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself»; this is what I said, and I also said that everyone should have his own cross and not follow Me without his cross. I said: If someone comes, let him have life and resurrection, and let him not come after Me without life, without crucifixion and without resurrection.

Oh, loved sons, I wanted to make out of Me and you, out of My work with you, a joy for the people, but the people have their own pleasures, dead pleasures, and false pleasures, sons, but they have no chance of vindicating themselves. I wanted that every man may receive resurrection on seeing you. But you should receive from Me and to be rich in resurrection and to give to those who ask, to those who seek looking at you. He, who has no resurrection, cannot give resurrection. Let everyone who seeks resurrection come to Me and to you, for I give so that you may have it and to be rich and to give to those who are poor of resurrection.

«For to everyone who has will be given, and he will have abundance, but from him who has not, even that which he has will be taken away», as this is written.

Sons, teach from Me all those who look for Me, to get out from under the sin, so that I may take image in the one who seeks Me, after the truth, My life in him. Set yourselves to watching day and night over those who seek the kingdom of the heavens, and tell them that if the vine does not bear fruit, is cut out and thrown into the fire. The Lord's vine is that which bears fruit for the Lord, for the fulfillment of the Scriptures of the Lord's Day. Let no one live for his own self, but for the Lord, and let him not come near otherwise to be with the Lord, for it is not possible this way. Lift up all those who are being born of the word of this work, and lift them up above their own bodies. Let the mind and the heart of the man not be in the body, but in the spirit; a heavenly spirit, not a human spirit. Blessed is the body whose mind and whose heart do not make it into a dwelling place for the demons, a dwelling place for the sins, for sin is a demon, and the man's body falls a prey to the sins of the man's heart and mind.

Sons, who are resurrected, the mystery of My being in man is the food, which I, the Lord, have been giving you for such a long time; it is the food of resurrection, the food by which the man comes to life and grows in resurrection until My coming. I bless you with resurrection so that you may work out resurrection over all who will be Mine through you, by the work of the resurrection, which I made it come down to you, to gather together all who are elected for resurrection, for the days of resurrection, and for the day of My coming. Amen. And he, who does not listen to My words in order to fulfill them, that one leaves Me to speak to Myself. I speak for Myself, I listen to Myself, and I remain alone, if the man does not speak with Me when I speak with him about the mystery of his resurrection. May the word of resurrection crown your speech and work, for My work with you is word. Be My work, and be the word speaking the word out! Christ, the Word, is He, Who commands you: speak the word of the Holy Spirit, the word, which comes to life! Fill the heaven and the earth with your word, which gives life to God in the faithful man! And to those, who do not believe, it is not you who tell them, but I: The faith is not given to anyone, and as for those, who do not believe this word, it is not given to them to believe. Amen, amen, amen.

The second Sunday after Passover, of saint apostle Thomas

I knock again at the gates between heaven and earth. I am the Lord! I put the man as watchman before Me, and if I open, who is going to close?

My disciples were with the doors closed after My resurrection, which made a great bustle over the rulers of Israel, and I, the resurrected Lord, opened for Myself and I stood in their midst. I came in through the closed doors, for if I open, who will be able to close them? The one, who is a door, does no longer need the door when he gets in. The One, Who is Omniscient, knows everything in heaven and on earth.

My disciples were together eight days after My resurrection, and during this time Thomas, the apostle, came with them, and they told him: «We have seen the Lord». But he said to them, «Unless I see in His hands the marks of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe». When I heard Thomas speaking like that, I came immediately closer to appear to them. And while they were still with the doors closed, I stood into their midst and I said: «Peace to you!»

Then I spoke about Thomas' unbelief, and then I took his finger and put it into My hands, and then I took his hand and put it on My side, which was pierced by the spear, and I told him: «Do not be unbelieving, but believing!» When they saw that I knew about Thomas' unbelief, they strengthened themselves in the testimony of My resurrection, and John, My loved apostle, wrote then these, so that the man may believe that I am the Christ, the Son of God, and believing to have life in My name. Amen.

I entered again through the gates in the garden. Oh, sons from the garden, I come in this way, and I announce Myself that I came in, as this is how I also worked with My disciples then, who were locked inside, and I stood before them for I was the entrance door. The resurrected One does not make use of those that are made by man to get in. The resurrected One did not need any man to open the grave after He came to life. I, Myself, work with the word, and the word opens to Me.

I pass with word and body through locked doors, sons, and the gates do not open but to Me. Oh, it is a great wonder on the earth with you; it is such a great work that I could not make My way between heaven and earth, and to come within this time of unbelief and emptiness! There are only human roads on the earth, only emptiness. You are the wonder from the end of the man's time, and the one from the beginning of the Lord's coming on the earth with the people, on the earth with you, sons from the garden. If I had not enclosed this little garden by My word, and if I had not sealed this green oasis by My power, to have it and to establish you here and to establish watchmen before Me when I come, how could have been possible for Me to fulfill the Scriptures of My coming?

If I come, the man should believe Me that I am. I did not force My disciples to believe Me that I was the resurrected One. Early in the morning, I stayed on the shore while they were still fishing, and I asked them for food, but they had not got any. Then I told them to have, and I commanded them to cast the net and to catch out fish and they did so, and they saw that it was I. I brought them bread because they did not have any. Then I gave them fish, for they were not able to catch. I made embers for them and I put fish on it and then I also asked them to put the fish that they just caught and then I told them «Come an eat breakfast!» I gave them bread and fish and I made them glad and I made them sure of My resurrection. Their faith in Me and in My resurrection was the miracle by which, I, the Lord, the One that came from the Father and from the Virgin, Man, I gave Myself to the human kind, resurrected from crucifixion, so that the man may have God. And you, sons born of heaven in this time, you, who are born through this word which flows from Me to you, you are the miracle from the end of My work over the earth. I have become a chamber to you and to come in to be with you and to come out from you to the people and to fulfill My word that I spoke at your place, and the people to believe that I am the One Who sealed this little garden, which carries Me in it, as word over the earth, My little garden from the beginning, where I created the first man built.

The man does not have any mind, since he cannot perceive My mysteries and their work. The man has no faith, since he tempts and searches out My mysteries. There are only human things on earth, only human ways, and the way to My mysteries is covered up by the man, for he has no mind and cannot perceive My mysteries and their work. The man cannot do anything, anything, for the emptiness that the man can do, is nothing; it is only wind, which blows and passes away. Who is the one that can trace the wind? Behold, the man cannot do anything. I say these things to make the man believe in Me, to believe that I can do everything. I have a Father in the heavenly things and I can do anything with Him, all I want through the Father. I have disciples on earth, sons born of heaven, sons of the holy faith, and I can do everything through them, all that I want to do through them, and they can do everything through Me. I made them flames of fire on the earth, and I burn with it all the man's emptiness. I go and come back with them everywhere and from everywhere, for My word, which crosses like lightning from margins to margins, is with them, and through them I send it over the earth. I make the man see that it is true My word, with which I come over My garden from them. I make man believe the same way I did with Thomas, to believe that I truly rose to life.

Man, look into My word, which reveals those that are and those that are to come over the earth. Look and see how My word is being fulfilled. Day by day I will confront you more and more with the truth of My word, which flows from Me over the garden of My manger, and from it on to the earth. Those from the garden are destitute of those on the earth, but I am the power from heaven and from earth, and I give them help to be able to take My word from margins to margins, for it is written about My coming: «He comes forth as lightning from the east and is seen to the west». Amen.

Man, I will take your finger and put it on My wound, and then I will take your hand and put it on My side, and either you want it or not, you will believe it, for otherwise you did not want to believe. You believe in those that you do, but what you do is only wind, for everything you do will be blown by the wind, soon, soon. Then you would understand that you did not have any mind, and that you did not perceive My mysteries hidden by your haughty mind.

I have taken you easy, man that are sunken in your worries. I have taken you easy to give you time to repent and time for faith, but the man's wickedness is natural and is in the man's inner being. The man's wickedness is full of fears, as one that is guilty and rebuked by itself, and seeing its affliction seeks to escape punishment, as it is written: «Fear is nothing else but the renouncement of everything that comes from the right judgment». But I said: «Come back to Me, man!» But you flee, because «your inner being is full of violence, sin and haughtiness, and you call yourself wise, and you call yourself God», as it is written by the haughty one. You flee in vain; I am faster than you and I catch up with you, and I will take your finger and your hand and I will put them on the wound of My hands and on My side. Oh, why do you not hurry to humility and repentance? Why do you receive Me as your Master? For I am your Master, not you. The earth is Mine, not yours, because I made it, not you. But I said: Come back to Me, come back to the beginning! I am with the beginning in the end, and with the end in the beginning, and you store up riches and palaces, man that wonder away without any direction and with no house, for everything that you do for yourself is wind, and whoever sow the wind will reap the whirlwind, man. Bow to My wounds and do not be unbelieving but believing. Amen.

Man, do you know where My word flows over to you from? It flows from My pierced rib; it is the mystery of My pierced rib while I still was on the cross for your sins, man. Oh, do not be deaf and do not be blind; do not be silent before My word which calls you to the spring which sprung from My pierced rib, from My godly body, out of which flows honey and milk as your food, as My blood is that which testifies for Me and for you, man, for I died for you. I died so that you also may die, and then to come to life once with Me, and then to be able to impart resurrection over the dead. Do not be unbelieving. Soon, soon, My light will cover the whole earth. The little garden of My word in Romania is the light, which I marked the earth with, sealing it with the light from the beginning, for it is written: «In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God». The same is in the end, for I said: «I am the First and the Last. I am the beginning and the end». Amen.

Let yourself be covered by light. Become a son of the first day, for on the first day I made the light, and on the first day I was resurrected. I made the first built man on the sixth day, but I made the last built man on the first day, for I, Who I was resurrected on the first day, I was the beginning of My creatures. Amen, amen, amen. But the man can do nothing, nothing, for the emptiness that man can do, is nothing, and it is only wind which blows and passes away, and who is the one who can trace the wind? I speak this way to make the man come back to Me and to be, for the man does nothing for Me in order to have what he works for.

The man gathers only wind. But I tell you: Harvest only for Me, only for heaven, sons sealed by Me through the light of resurrection. You are those who are anointed by My hand, wounded by the Jews; you are My anointed ones over the earth. I gave the kingdom of the heavens into your possession. I opened the door wide to it, but the man flees from My glory. But you should go into the whole world, for I brought the promise of My Father on you and I blessed you with the Holy Spirit. Preach the repentance to the forgiveness of sins to all the nations, beginning with Jerusalem. Go! My word is My way to you. Go, for you are My anointed ones. All the power was given to Me in heaven and on earth. And going, teach all the nations to keep everything that I commanded you. Go into the whole world and preach the Gospel of My coming to every creature. I am with you in all days, until the appearance of My glory from you. Whoever believes will be accompanied by My signs, into My name, and he, who does not believe, will be accompanied by the damnation, which comes for the unbelievers because of whom My wrath comes over the sons of the men. Go, you and those who are anointed by My word, which comes with you. I will give you power to go and it will be opened for you, for I entered through the closed doors. I gave the kingdom of the heavens as your possession on the earth, and I took you under My protection, for this means the kingdom of the heavens over man: the God of the heavens, King over man, a Gospel, which is seen and fulfilled, My coming, My kingdom on earth as in heaven, the heaven on earth, forever giving forth light, as lightning in the night, from margins to margins. Then, the dead, who were resurrected, will come out of their graves and will appear to testify the light of My word in these days, which testifies through it the life of the age, which is to come. And you, who are anointed by Me to be the beginning of My creatures, confess My word, which I come to you with. All the power was given to Me in heaven and on earth, and I give you of it to be able to testify, so that you may become a way over the earth, to have what to make a way to My word with, which bears testimony through it to the life of the age to come. Amen.

Amen, amen I speak to you, sons anointed by My hand, by the spring, which has been flowing from My side for two thousand years: come and have breakfast! My word is bread and fish from Me; milk and honey in the wilderness without food; water from the rock, and an ever-flowing spring. Come and have breakfast! I, Myself, stand into your midst as on the shore. The world is an endless sea. All who are entangled with it will be sunken into it. But you are the escaping oasis, the shore of the sea. Soon, soon, the sea will no longer be, for it is written into the Scriptures: «I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth have passed away, and the sea is no longer more; and I saw the holy citadel, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready like a bride adorned for her husband». «I make them all new». Amen. And I say again: «It is finished!». Amen. And let him, who is thirsty, come and drink, and let him drink of the spring of the water of life. But the second death is with those who are coward and unfaithful, filthy, murderers, immoral, sorcerers and idolaters, and all sort of liars, fire and brimstone, burning into the lake of fire. But behold the river and the water of life, as clear as crystal; and the tree of life grows on its bank. Those who drink have their names written on their foreheads. These words are unfailing and true, and I, the Lord, have sent My angel to proclaim those that are to come, for I come soon, and the word goes ahead of Me, the sign of the Son of Man, the people of the word of God, which takes the demons out of the people, as it is written about those who are anointed and sent with authority: «They will cast out demons into My name, and speak with new languages; they will take up serpents and destroy death, and will wake up those that are not faithful and will strengthen them on their feet».

I set you as new watchmen before Me to hear Me when I speak over the earth and to make the man new again, sons on the shore of the sea. The first built man heard Me, when I spoke with him, and he answered Me. Now I speak to Myself, I listen to Myself, and I remain alone, for the man does no longer hear Me and does no longer answer Me. But you should be only eyes and ears, for I anointed you with the chrism, which sprang from My side, with the Blood of the new covenant for those who fulfill the law of the eternal life, life without death before Me, faith and righteousness.

I, Myself, stand into your midst, as on the shore of the endless and bottomless sea. The world is as hungry as a wolf, and is like the endless and bottomless sea. But you are a place of refuge, a green oasis, a boundary for the sea, a living Romania, out of which My new Romanian country will be born, a land without margins, a spotless bride and a mother who gives birth to God's sons, the garden of the sons of life. Amen. I, Myself, stand into its midst as on the sea shore, a green shore, a lofty and holy mountain, the mount of Zion, the top of the earth, and on it, I, Myself, the Cornerstone, and say: Come and have bread and fish for breakfast from heaven, milk and honey in the wilderness without food, water from the rock and an ever flowing spring! My word is food and water; take and eat, and take and drink, for I make all new and I say again: «It is finished!» Amen.

Come and have breakfast at the table of the kingdom of the heavens on the earth! Come, so that I may give you the kingdom of the heavens! Come, you who are hungry and thirsty on the earth! Come to give you My kingdom and to take you into My possession, for this means the kingdom of the heavens over the man: the God of the heavens, King over the man as in heaven, on earth as in heaven, God King and Master in all and in everything, in everyone and over everyone. Amen.

Behold the supper! I dress Myself and give Myself over; I give Myself as food and I give food, Myself, for I said: «It is finished!». Amen, amen, amen.

The third Sunday after Passover, of the myrrh-bearing women

Wake up to welcome Me, sons from the garden! Amen. I come to you as word early in the morning and I speak over you with a feast from heaven. Chris is risen! I am the Lord. I am the resurrected One. Amen. I am with the days of resurrection over you, to celebrate Myself, resurrected with you, as I appeared to the myrrh-bearing women in the morning of My resurrection, on the first day of the week. They hurried to come to My grave early in the morning with fragrances. And at sunrise, they were near Me to anoint My body, but they saw on My right side the angel who told them that I woke up, after I told them beforehand about My resurrection from the dead on the third day. They believed that I, Who stayed with them before My resurrection from the dead on the third day, was God. That is why they hurried to the grave, and that is why did not leave Me after crucifixion. Their faith was stirred by their love for Me, for love is the lighter that kindles the faith.

The one who is full of love overcomes fear by the power of love. There is no greater power in heaven and on earth than that of the man who loves God. There was no love more ardent than that of My prudes, holy with their life and faith, who followed Me then when I needed male and female disciples to help Me and to testify about Me. It is a great thing to find help in time of want. My Father raised people to help Me during all the time of My work near the man. The holy women were My help in each and every need of My work over the earth. I was working to establish the kingdom of the heavens on the earth, and they were helping Me and all those who were going from place to place with Me.

Sons, the one who helps Me in time of need is of great value, then when I need help. Many people on earth stay carelessly within their soul after they make a good deed, an act of mercy to a poor man, and then they say that they help God this way. Oh, sons, there is no man on the earth to teach this true teaching. I said to My apostles, when the woman that loved Me came and poured out the very costly pure nard on My head; I told them not to get angry for this wasting of pure nard, for they said: «This pure nard might have been sold at a very high price, and the money given to the poor». I was grieved at this and told them: «Leave her alone and do not trouble this woman who loves Me. Her love for Me is a good thing, for you always have the poor with you, but you will not always have Me. She has done this because of her faith in her, for My burial, and which she has done will also be spoken of in the whole world as a memorial of her, wherever this Gospel will be preached». I was telling the disciples that the time came near for Me to be caught and crucified, and to rise again on the third day, but they did not understand sufficiently, but the women, who were helping Me, believed and followed Me without any fear, for love makes faith perfect, it stirs up the faith in man.

Oh, it is bad of the man who wakes up to follow Me and then turns back from Me. His last works will become worse than the first ones, for the spirit of unbelief is a demon which strengthens itself seven times more in the man who leaves God after he tastes of the holy grace of the faith and love of God. Oh, sons from the gates, there is no man on the earth to give this true teaching. The good deed is twofold: for the man and for God. When the man helps another man while he is in need, it does not mean that he helps God, as many people believe so, when they help their neighbors. The man did not want to understand the words declared by My mouth. I said that those who would stand on My right side I would tell them: «Come, you blessed of My Father, for I was a stranger, naked, hungry and thirsty, sick and in prison, and you took care of Me whenever you took care of those little of Mine». The man has taken this word and applied it for any man, but I was speaking only of those who are Mine, of those who have Me in them with My work, of those who fulfill My Gospel over the earth. Still, the man has not wanted to do as I told him through My Gospel, and he has turned to do well to the man and not to Me, and no to those who take after Me.

The one, who helps Me, when I need him in My work over the earth, is of great value before Me. You, sons, who have believed into My coming over the earth, you have left all your things and taken those things that are Mine to bear them between heaven and earth. You learned from Me a true teaching, and you know that the soul is more than food, and the body is more than clothing. The one, who understands this mystery, is of great value before Me and of great value for Me. Behold, it is one thing for one man to help another man, and another thing for the man to help Me and those that take after Me, those who are born of Me, of My works accomplished from heaven over the earth. I proved Myself as a Teacher and God over the earth, through My teaching by My sacrifice for those who would believe in Me, and through My resurrection in a visible glory. This is what it means for the man to do the works of God, a good deed before Me; this way and not otherwise. My Gospel on the earth is that what the man, who wants to do merciful deeds, has to do, for I told him: «The soul is more than food, and the body more than clothing». Amen, amen, amen.

I have come into My garden with those in heaven, with those who loved Me, with My male disciples and with My female disciples, at a feast of New Jerusalem, at a feast of resurrection. My work is over the garden, and the work of resurrection comes from it over the earth. The preaching of the word of My coming from margins to margins, is the greatest work that the holy man can do in these days, for he who does this work will be called with the saints and they will hear My calling which says: «Come, you, who did well to Me, and to those who work like Me!»

Here I am, with My male and female disciples in the garden of My word of the last time. When I appeared resurrected to them, I told them: «Do not be afraid!» and I told them: «Peace to you!», as I used to tell them when I was spending time with them until My bringing forth as fruit of resurrection through crucifixion. I made this garden of welcome for Myself, so that the heaven may meet the earth in it. I give Myself over as word to the man in the garden, so that the man may meet God, and that God may meet the man, and to be able to comfort the one who is faithful and true, and to be able to wake up the careless and hypocrite one, who stays carelessly in his spirit, doing well to the man that resembles him.

I speak from the midst of My disciples from that time and from now, and I give Myself over to the man as a spring of true teaching. I join the beginning with the end here, into the garden of My word. I meet those who loved Me then in the garden, and those who love Me now. I have come to bring into fulfillment My Gospel on the earth; the Gospel of resurrection, for this is the work of the Gospel. The resurrection of the world is its work, for the man finds no true teacher on the earth. The man does what is good to his body and to the body of his neighbor, but the body is of no use, for the spirit is the one, which gives life and not the body, and the body is spiritless and dead; it is without work, and it is only flesh and that is all. Where do the food of the birds and the clothing of the lilies come from? They come from the Lord of the spirits, for it is the spirit, which gives.

The heaven meets the earth in a feast of love. Those, who loved Me then, believed, and then they did the works of repentance, and then they did the works of faith, the works of love, and they never come back again to the works of repentance, for they were working and did no longer have time for themselves, for they had time for Me. The holy women, My prudes, were serving Me and My disciples, and they were no longer serving for the needy and poor around them and in their way, for they are always around people, and among people, but I came from the Father, from heaven. The works of their faith were their ministry for the spreading of the kingdom of the heavens, which I came with from Father on the earth. This means a holy work and not otherwise, but here is what it is on the earth: the man is Christian and does good works to one another concerning all the needs of the flesh. This is what man is. But the disciple is otherwise. He does the works of his Master, like his Master, for he serves his Master, and his Master rejoices, and praises His disciples, as a parent rejoices when he sees his talented child and with a good standing among the people. Behold, the good deed is twofold: for God, or for man, but he, who helps Me in time of need with the work of establishing of My kingdom in people and with people, is of great value.

My word is received by many, but the man does not get warm with one or another and does not do the work of repentance, so that the man may pass on to the works of faith and love of God afterwards. The man hears but does not do, and he becomes a hearer and is getting cold, from one of My coming down to another. But I come more frequently with My word to you, children bearing God, and I get warm over you, from one coming down to another, and I have always come down and get warm over you like fire, from calling to calling. Let the man receive and understand the good work for God, but if he remains cold and as he is, I will call him into account for every word that he heard from My mouth. He will say that will turn a deaf ear so that he may no longer hear Me, so that he may not know what comes from Me upon the man, for a river of word comes from Me on the earth, but the man who turns back from Me and withdraws within himself, will be cursed by his own works, as written: «The works from the last will become seven times worse than the first works of the man without God». I will multiply the word more and more over the man. I will get warm more and more in the word and I will grow hotter like fire, and if the man will not go on to the work of the faith so that My coming may find him in the works of faith, I will grow hotter and hotter until I boil and then run over as in the time of flood, and I will catch every unbelieving man into his works done without God, under the fire or My wrath.

The earth is full of Christians but only in their names. They will tell Me, soon, soon: “Lord, were we not also with You? Did we not have mercy on You? Did we not follow You?” But I will tell them plainly that I do not know them, because they used My name only to serve to their own names, and not to Me, for it is something else for the man to serve Me. He, who always does the works of repentance, cannot work out the works of faith, for one like that is fallen and wakes up now and then, to do again and again the work of repentance, and this kind of man cannot serve Me. But the works of saints’ faith are their ministry for Me, as the works of the holy women of My resurrection were, for they served Me and the disciples of My word, and I, was going with them and sowing over the ground, as I go with you too; with you, who are today with Me for the spreading of the news of My coming with the kingdom of the heavens on the earth, because I say again, and let the whole earth hear what I say: The kingdom of the heavens will be on the earth! Amen, amen, amen.

Here is how I come on the earth, and the man stays in his wills when I come, as in the time of Noah, but I come, and I will frustrate all man’s science, all his labor. I come and I glorify Myself over Romania with the word, for the earth will be set on fire at My word in Romania. It is My way from heaven on the earth on the second time. I have sons in it through whom I do the works of the holy faith between heaven and earth, for their faith is holy, and I work My coming through it. Behold, this is how I come on the earth and I find every man in his wills, serving one another, and not Me, for the earth is full of Christians only in their names, and they do not know Me so that I may also know them when I come to know those who are Mine and to have them as heirs of the new heaven and the new earth. I go from one margin to another and I throw out the word of My coming like seed, and you, should fill your little fists of My seed, for My word is seed, and out of fire it comes out fire. Fill your little fists with fire and throw it out on the earth, sons who share on My behalf. Fire and brimstone is My word for those who do not want to be with God; however, for you it is honey and milk; it is the fulfillment of My promises over you, New Jerusalem in heaven and on earth, the union between heaven and earth in a feast of New Jerusalem before Me. Amen.

I will get warmer and warmer in the word and I will grow hotter like fire and I will overcome everywhere the will of man still prevails over My will, everywhere the man is king, and I will say: Man, it is I! I and My garden on the earth from where I blow fire over you; the word of fire to refine you by fire, for the gold is refined by fire. Amen.

And you, sons, stay always ready to meet Me, for you are My feast on the earth. I made you into a feast of joy for those in heaven, who have been waiting for the resurrection of their bodies for seven thousand years.

Come and have breakfast, you, those from heaven, for the heaven is consisted of those that are not seen, but it is. Come and have for breakfast new bread and fat fish, I and My disciples on the earth in time of great trial. Come and have breakfast! Amen. Come to the light of the Gospel of My coming with the resurrection, for it is written: «The trumpet will sound and you will rise in incorruptibility». Amen. Get out and spread the news about who God is and where He is and how He is. Come out into the light! Amen. And you will come out and will appear within the glory, which I come with, for I come with you, and I come with the saints, for this is written. Amen.

I grow warm in word over you, oh, people on the earth. Soon, soon, I come and I come with the saints, and with the life of the age to be. I come with those who died in Christ, as it is written into the Scriptures that I come. Behold, I come and I find you in your wills and in your works, and those, who love Me, I find in My wills and in the works of the holy faith. I made for Myself a garden of welcome, where I may meet My disciples from heaven and earth through the word, where the heaven meets the earth, where the man meets God, and where God meets the man, and to comfort the faithful and true one, and to wake up the one who is careless and hypocrite, who stays carelessly within his spirit, doing what is good only to his neighbor. I speak from the middle of My disciples of that time and of nowadays, and I give Myself over to the man, as a spring of teaching, bread and clothing for the soul and for the body, the seed of My word in heaven over the earth. I am consumed with the longing of My coming; I am consumed and also My saints are consumed with longing. I am consumed as a consuming fire and this is how I come, for the man does not wait for Me to come. I do not come as the man expects Me to come, and rather I come as it is written that I will come. Who is the one who knows what and how My coming is? Who is he? Let him come and tell Me, if he knows, for behold, I come and I tell him how I come. Soon, soon, I come and I come with the saints; I come with those who died in Christ, for the reward of their coming is My coming with them and with the life of the age to come. Amen.

Blessed is he, who helps Me in the time of My coming. Blessed is he, who does the good works for the fulfillment of My coming, for God, and not for man. And you, children who are watchmen in the garden, stay and have breakfast of resurrection with those in heaven, who come with Me to you. Their love was to spread Me out on the earth. May your love be the same, as for this you were called. Soon, soon, I will let Myself be discovered at your place and with you, and I will make glad all those who received light from heaven in time of trouble from you; the light of the resurrection of God's creatures. Amen, amen, amen.

Be a sweet smelling heavenly aroma between heaven and earth, for I anointed you to be the sons of My coming and to call out the trumpet and to lift up all those who will come with Me on My coming. My coming is with you, and you are with it, for to this you were called; that is to inherit My coming and the life of this age that is to come, and My joy, which is with you, Christ, the joy of those who are saved, the joy of resurrection of those who are asleep, and who come together with Me. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the great martyr, Gheorghe (Saint George)

I strengthen Myself in the word at the manger of My word. I am. Open to come in as word in My book within these days. Open, you, watching sons on My way between heaven and earth! I am the Lord. Amen. I multiply My word over the earth, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. My spirit is fire, a fire, which will consume everybody who stands up with deception and hatred against you, for the work that I do over you, it is I, not you, and they do not know what “I” means. I am the One Who I am, the One Who made the man out of dust to have a house, a walking, mouth, eyes and ears in man, in the man who entirely gives himself over to Me, and not in the man who is conceited, for the self of man is a devil, and I am God, not a devil, as the man speaks, the who lost his mind and temper by his haughtiness, raging with fury. Be good and do not sway from My foundation, for I set you with My strong arm on a steadfast rock, on My word spoken over to you as a foundation of your building, for you are My building on the earth. Amen.

The haughty man lost his mind like Lucifer, and I bring him into the light as the oil that comes out on the water. It comes out alone, and it is pointed by a finger by all who have wisdom within their minds and heart. I do not speak like the man whose words go to his head. I speak in such a way for the man that is humble in his heart to understand, and for the haughty one in his spirit to wonder and perish by his own wickedness, as each man comes to life or perishes by his works and by his words. But I increase My word over you, sons from the garden, for that is why I made you the beginning of My creatures, as it is written into the Scriptures about those who are newborn from above, at My word, which gives life and makes the old man into a new man, a spiritual man from a fleshly man, a man in the image and after God’s likeness.

The man who poses as master over the earth and over the man lost his mind and is consumed by his own fire and blows like a spark that gets out of fire; however, the spark, which goes up also goes down afterwards, and nothing is left of it. But I will not go down forever, and rather I will become a fire, which consumes all those who blow over Me to put Me down. The man’s breath goes down, but My breath is alive forever and ever, and it blows, and it becomes word over the earth; and it becomes the fire, which makes the kings and servants ashamed, and all who have become rulers over the earth and over the man. My spirit is fire and I release the plague, which the man urges Me to; the man that fights to stop the course of the river of life, My word that I pour out over you like rain over the crop, which springs up after I sown it.

This is what I told the man, who poses as being wiser than I am, to open the Scriptures; to open them and to look into them, if he opens them, and see if I spoke on the earth in all the time of My work given to Me by My Father over the man. This is how I spoke, I spoke the same way as I speak today over you, children who impart God. I have got work to do with man, not with Myself, and not for Myself, and I will not stay in heaven, as the man wants; the man who dwells haughtily on the earth. I will dwell on earth as word, which is consumed like fire, and I will consume the opposition of those who want Me in heaven and not on earth. The haughty man wants Me in heaven, for if I am on the earth, I thwart his work, but I only do the work that My Father gave Me to do, and I do it because it is written into the Scripture to do it. I have to fulfill the entire Scripture, both the one until My coming down in the flesh on the earth, and the one until My coming again with the saints and in the new and eternal age, that I have from the Father, to give to those who want to be with Me forever, in the life of the age that is to come. Amen.

Sons, it is a feast of the saints in heaven and on the good earth: Gheorghe, the martyr, My saint full of zeal, who consumed in the fire of his love of God, the earthly king and all his opponents, who were fighting to put Me down from My saint. But he grew hotter and was consumed with fire, for I became a consuming fire within him, who subdued the hearts of the haughty ones that could not do what My martyr could by his love of God, a holy love, a heavenly love on the earth.

I will bring to an appalling shame all those who fight against the light, for they are the sons of the darkness of this age, as Annas and Caiaphas were, and Herod and Pilate and all the haughty ones, who were one with them against Me and against My disciples, who stood up by faith and remained on My side. My spirit is fire, and I bring wrath over the sons of this age; I bring it through the haughty ones, who put their hopes in the work of their hands, human works, all of which perish with use.

Sons, whenever the haughty man will stand up against My word from you and against you, I, the Lord, will little by little release My wrath, which goes before My coming, to clean My path of those that are unfaithful. Sons, look at the signs which bring pains and which I release once with the hand of the unfaithful man, who wields his weapons against you. My spirit is fire and I cast it out on the earth, to rebuke by it those that are haughty, who do not bow humbly before My calling which calls every man to repentance and humility. Do not be afraid. I am with you, and Lucifer will be kept for the fire of My wrath, as the one in the beginning who arose haughtily over Me, and I keep him in chains for the day of My wrath. I prepare chains of fire for those who do not humble to know Me as God, for I am word, and this is My name: the Word. Amen, amen, amen. Be good and let the dogs bark. The dog in the chain barks for I, the Lord, bound the dogs to protect you, sons, and to stand before Me to work out My coming and the word of My coming. Little, little, and you will be sought after like the most valuable gold, but you will not be found by those who loved the gold, but you will be found by those who believed waiting for My coming. In a little while many will find Me with you and will bow down before My word, which became a scroll and a book to you, because I spoke and you brought the book into being, and the heaven became a scroll of book, as it is written into the Scriptures. Rejoice because you see all these coming true. Rejoice, for those who are not true in their heart and in their deeds, are afraid and hide from you and flee as they flee from satan, as though they were Mine and you belonged to satan. But with what works would they welcome Me to have Me with them? They run away from you for fear of the light, sons, for the light brings them all into view, and they are filthy of everything and everywhere: both in the face and in the heart, on the garment, and on their hands, and in their spirit, and they make the heaven and the earth dirty and I am ashamed with them before the angels and the saints, and before My Father, for Father knows that I died for the life of the faithful and humble man, but the man did not love Me, for he loved himself, and I am with empty hands before My Father. But I have you as the beginning of My creatures, and you will be sought after and will give birth and fill the heaven and the earth, and you will be the kingdom of the heavens on the earth. In a little while, the heaven will appear on the earth and satan will see that I am with you and that I was with you and you were with Me, and he did not know you, nor Me with you. Be good, and let the dogs bark, for they willy-nilly announce My coming and My place from you, and they announce it to be heard.

Stand up against Me praying in the Spirit of Truth, a true worship, so that I may fulfill your words by which you remind Me of My promises that I made in the Scriptures and in the prophets for these days.

Sons, everything has come to end. I am a new beginning with you. Be cautious, and be alive and awake. Be My pleasure. Be eyes and ears, for My spirit is fire and I pour it out over the earth as word, and I fulfill My whole word, for I came as word for the time of the fulfillments, which I come with. I come and I will not stay in heaven and I will not be silent, because I come. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Lord's Ascension

I am, sons. I am the Lord. Open to the Lord! Amen, amen, amen. I cross the way between heaven and earth to be with you in the days of heavenly wedding. My coming down to you means: days of wedding, My wedding promised to Me by Father, the love between Bridegroom and bride, sons, for I made you into a bride that I love. I paid with My life two thousand years ago to have a bride today, for the bride is the one in the day of wedding, the one who remains a bride, for I come afterwards and I reveal My wedding, which I longed for two thousand years ago.

I showed Myself alive after My passion under the cross, and I proved Myself as true God, coming from heaven among people through the Virgin, for after the resurrection I had to reveal in depth the mysteries of the kingdom of the heavens to My disciples. Then I told them to stay in Jerusalem, not to depart from it, for I promised them the Holy Spirit from Father, and I told them this: «For John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized by the Holy Spirit, not many days from now». I told them that they will receive power and will be My witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and to all the margins of the earth, and speaking like this and comforting them by the sweetness of My words, there came a cloud and covered Me from their eyes, and the cloud went up to My Father; it ascended into the sky, and My angels appeared to those who were looking after Me and they said them: «The Lord ascended from you into the sky and he will come back in the same way as you saw Him going into the sky, for He went to come back again». Amen. I told them that if I do not go, I will not be able to come back, and this is the purpose for My ascending into the sky, but look, the man took My earth and does whatever he wants on the earth. The man wants to work out My coming after his will, but I will come as I ascended and not otherwise, for I ascended to My father from My loved disciples, and I will come back the same way. I will come to My loved ones and not to anyone, for My house and My mountain are those who love Me as I loved them; they are those who give all their life to Me, as I gave Mine for them, for those who love Me according to the truth. But the man is haughty.

I go from one margin of the earth to another and there is nothing on the earth but only haughty man, who lives in his wills, sowing them in his body; the man who lives for empty glory between heaven and earth. Oh, how much teaching I sown over the earth against the empty glory! And behold, I walk like a blind man through the darkness of the man to find the man, and I see nothing but empty glory, a thick and unclear cloud. I do not see any man pleasant to Me, and the man does not see Me either, for the darkness is thick; this crust is thick, sons. The blind one has no desire for light, for he does not know what light is, and I disappear from the man more and more. God disappears from the earth, for the man is blind and does not see, and I do not see Him either, and He also does not see Me. I want to be saved from destruction, for I disappear from the man, sons. I want to be saved and saved in the man. This is what I want. The man was made out of dust, but I made him see Me with his eye made from dust, and after that the man took over My earth that I created, and he also pulled himself out of Me.

Man, why did you take My earth? Who made the earth? I, or you? I made it, and you took what you did not make. Man, why, did you take away My light? Who made the light? I, or you? I made it, and you saw it after I created you out of dust and I gave you My image, and after I gave you eye from My eye. How comes that you do not see Me? Here I am, and you do not see Me. Why, did you really turn your look away from Me? I made you to see Me, to hear Me, to listen to Me, and to be like the One Who made you, for I see and hear and listen to My Father Whom I proceed from, and I did not pull out from Him, but only then when I came on the earth to take you up to My Father, and to bring you to Me, the Son and the Heir of the eternal Father. What are you doing here, man swollen by the time? For I come back and you do not see My returning, as though you were blind from your birth. I would like to heal you of blindness, for I healed blind people, who were born like that, so that those who see may also see, for I came with the Father's power to give sight to the blind, and that the glory of My Father may also be seen in the Son, for I proceeded from the Virgin, and from a birth, which is above the nature among the sons of the people.

There is still a little while and I will come with My glory, which I ascended into the sky with, two thousand years ago. In a little while, I will come for those who hardened their face and faith and in their being because of their wills, which are not of My wills. Just a little time more and I come, and I will appear among those that are My loved ones, for I am with those that love Me, giving their lives for Me. Amen.

I have come with a holy feast into the garden. I am on the clouds of glory above the little garden of My word, for it is written into the Scriptures: «As He ascended into the sky, so will He come back». I am Bridegroom to you, sons anointed by My chrism. I chose you from among the sons of the people to set you apart for Me and to make you the way of My coming. Oh, how beautiful you are among the sons of the people! I sing you as the bridegroom sings his bride and I call you My day of wedding, for when the bride appears the wedding is also ready. I am your Bridegroom; I am your comfort; I am your love and I sing you, so that those from heaven may know you as My bride on the earth. Oh, how beautiful you are among the sons of the people! Your glory is not seen, but you are beautiful children, and you are My wealth, which I rejoice over. Everyone has got his own possessions. The world and the master of the world, with its possessions, and I with My own possessions of great value, for the highest price between heaven and earth belongs to the man born of God, to the man who is comprised by God. Amen.

I enshrouded you in the cloud of My invisible glory, for if the man had seen your glory, you would have not been My mystery from My coming after two thousand years any longer. I made you My little and tiny white cloud, under which I come and speak over the earth, covered by you all around, and to be able to give the man the gift of the holy faith at the hearing of My voice into your midst. I bless you to bless My word and My stature in you. I establish you as My coming out with you among the sons of the people, so that I may put their faith to test, for whoever is gold, that one has to be refined by fire so that he may remain a useful and worthy vessel for the eternal life that I bring soon, soon, over all who are refined like gold into the fire, and over everyone who is whitened by the rays of My second coming from near My Father.

Arise sons, for rising into the sky is birth from heaven, a birth from above, to be from above, so that we may meet between heaven and earth, as it is written into the Scriptures about those who will be taken into the sky to meet Me and to be forever with Me. I come with the saints, who have been waiting for My coming, to come with Me to you. Clothe yourselves perfectly in incorruptibility, so that you may be with Me forever, for you are beautiful among the sons of the people, for I am with you, and I am the One Who is. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity (Pentecost), the second day

Again, I come down as word above the garden of My word with a word of feast, for I am with days of Pentecost over you, little children, who are watchmen on the earth for those in heaven, and who come with Me from near Father. I and Father are one, and before the throne of glory stand the angels and stand the saints who labored on the earth for this glory.

Gates lift up your heads for the King of glory to come in! His kingdom is eternal and all authorities will listen to Him and will serve Him. Amen, amen, amen.

I am Who I am. Get up to welcome Me, sons from the garden, for My Father works, and I also work, and you should also work. Get up, for it is time to work. I give you power to overcome the weaknesses. I give you the Holy Spirit, Who can do everything in all who keep the commandments of life. Three days in a row I have come down with fresh food on the table, for the garden from you is a table of sacrifice on which the Lamb of God is laid as word for food, for the man is fed on every word which comes out from God, and not on bread alone. I come down as food to the people on the land of Romania, My supper, My wedding table, to which I call every man who wants to eat from Me. I am the Sower, and I throw out the seed, so that fruit may grow out of it, but the ground is trampled down too hard, and the ground is a way of iniquity.

Oh, sons anointed by Me with the chrism of My coming! Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! And let us spread a table of feast, of Whit Sunday, for My word becomes a working tool and I strike the fallow soil with it, and I make it into a spade and turn over the furrow upside down, so that I may take out the good soil, without weeds, a mellow ground, to be able to sow the seed of eternal life on it. Amen.

Peace to you! Peace to you! For you, because you are burdened with My worries, but we will carry it off well with My peace in you, sons. I have been making you stand up for three days in a row to take from Me and to set My word in the book as a testimony of the days of wedding, My wedding with My bride, for My bride hears the voice of her Bridegroom, and she wakes up and opens to the Bridegroom, for there are the days of the wedding.

Oh, the way from heaven to earth is long for the unfaithful man, but here is how easily I come! I come at once when I start to come. I come as lightning, for this is written to come. When I made the light, the heaven and the earth, I made them all at once, and I created them all by the word, and they are, for they listened and they were made. When I created the man, it seemed to Me the longest day of My work, for I created him by the word and by My hand. The longest day of love, and after this day I became tired and I rested from tiredness, as I worked out the word, which I declared to come into fulfillment, by My hand. Oh, My waiting for the man has been long, for the man died afterwards, because of his haughtiness. In the day when the man became haughty, he died, and I have been waiting for the day of man's resurrection, and the man did not come to live but has rather gone on dying and dying. I have tried to bring the man to life with a price of blood, but he did not come to life. Then I said: «Behold, I come to do Your will, Father; for it is written in the scroll of the book about Me that I come to bring the man to life with the price of My blood».

I was the Man, Whose model I was looking for, to make the first built man. I was the Man Who is, Who has eternal life in Himself, and I created the man in the same way, but I made him out of dust with My own hand, and when I breathed over My work, My breath became life of My life in the man who was created with veins and blood, for My life is eternal, and eternity is without beginning and without end. But the man has not remained alive, for he pulled himself out from Me, and I took My breath of life out of him, the life which I gave him after I made him out of dust with My own hand; however, My work on the first day, when I created the man, was scattered and went into Sheol.

O, My waiting has been long until I made the man again! And how I made him again? I made him of dust again, for the man was made out of dust. I came and I sown Myself in the Virgin as life, in the man taken out of dust, for the man came out of the first built man of the dust. I became dust, flesh coming out of the man's flesh, but I came out of the man at My Father's commandment; I, Who had heavenly blood, with heavenly life, let Myself to be made like man, with man's blood, mixed with My blood, for I was the life, which was born of the man. I did this in order to shed My blood then for the new creation of the man, and I brought the man to life with the price of blood, with My blood from the Father and the blood taken out of the man, together in My body coming out both from Father and from man. Then I made the man again, and that is why the Scripture calls Me: «The Son of Man». I accepted to be called the Son of Man, for I am the New Man. But who is the one who lets himself be seized by the mystery of the Son of Man in order to come to resurrection and redemption, to be alive and eternal as I am?

Oh, My waiting for the man has been long! It was the longest day, for it is written: «With the Lord all days are as one day, and one day as all days altogether». I am long enduring, so that I may not lose the man who pulled himself out from Me after I built him. The first built man came apart in two parts and went into those that he was made of. He went into the dust and in heaven, for the body was taken out of dust, and the soul, was taken from Me and put into the man created by My hand. But My spirit did not have room in man, for the man became conceited against Me in his spirit, and since then I have been waiting for the man's bow, the man's humility.

Oh, My waiting has been long until I made the man again! And when he gave Me the price of blood to do the work of the new man, for I was the New Man then, the fallen man, looking at Me, delivered a prophecy and said: «Behold the Man!» Pilate did not know why he had to say something like that when he took Me outside of his Praetorium to tell the Jews that he found no guilt in Me. And I, with the crown of thorns and clothed in purple garment to be ridiculed, stood before them, and Pilate said: «Behold the Man! Take Him for I find no guilt in Him».

Behold, two thousand years ago, I made the man again. I am the Man. I am the New Man, the Man coming down from heaven among the people. I sown Myself in a Virgin's body and I was born a humble baby, destitute of all those on the earth, and even of the glory that I proceed from before all ages. The spirit of Lucifer, which works through the man's fallen haughty mind, was deceived, for I was an unfathomable mystery, but I was the Man, the Son of Man. The angels in heaven saw Me near Father. The fallen angels saw Me likewise, for I was both near My Father in heaven and near My mother Virgin, a baby and then a child, and then a perfect Man. I was the hidden mystery from ages and not known by the angels, let alone by people. Only Father and I knew this mystery, and now the entire heaven knows it, the one from above and the one from below, and the fallen angels know it too, as two thousand years ago they did not understand that I was in heaven as on earth, the son of the heavenly Father that I came down from heaven in the flesh among the people.

When the man was split in two parts, the first created man went into those that he was made of and he went both in heaven and in the earth, but I, the new Man, remained wholly and perfect, and they did not break My legs so that I may die, for it was written in the prophets: «None of His bones will be broken». But the soldiers pierced Me with their spear in My side, so that I may give the price for the redemption of the fallen man through the woman taken out of his rib. My side had to be wounded so that I could shed My blood for the sin of the man who has been sinning for seven thousand years, both inside and outside of his body. When sin does not attack the body of the man, it remains at the gates of the body and it does not come down in the body, if the man is a stronghold. But when the man becomes brother with sin, then sin comes down through his body and possesses the man, for it becomes stronger than the man, for this is what I said then: «No one can enter into the house to plunder, unless he first binds the strong man; and then he will plunder his house».

Oh, let the man do no longer boast that he loves Me, and rather he should humiliate himself. Let the man no longer rejoice over Me, if I cannot rejoice over him. Let the man humiliate himself, for the sign of the man's sin remains not healed, an uneffaced testimony on the body of God's Son. Here is why I came to become the Son of Man on the earth. The spirit of Lucifer and of his angels is ashamed because of My love and My mercy for the man that fell down from eternity.

I have taken your guilt upon Me, man. The mark of your sin is an ineffaceable testimony on My godly body. You sinned in your own flesh, for the woman is flesh taken out of your flesh. I bear the mark of your sin in My own body in the time I came to become the Son of Man, to be able to take the man out of his guilt. I took your guilt upon Me, as a guilty man, but you are guilty. Humble, for your sin is your spear which pierced My side, and I am God. I have come down after you; I have come down again. Here I am! But humble yourself! Love Me, for I loved you while you were still a sinner. Love Me, for you even now are a sinner and have nothing to love on you but the sin in you, for your lust has been conceiving sin in you for seven thousand years. Love Me, for I am eternal and you are fleeting, because you sin. I wiped out your sin for that is why I came, and My blood does not stain, but rather it cleans and wipes out, but even now you do sin. My blood is My life as your blood is your life. But your blood leaves stains inside and outside of your body, for you pulled yourself out of Me and remained guilty, and your blood leaves stains, sins, and kills God inside and outside you. Love Me, for I left rich food on your table when I left to be with My Father. I put My Blood and Body on your table, (At the Divine Liturgy, r.n.) so that you may have from Me and to replace Me with you, and I to be in you, and you in Me within an everlasting love. Why do you really make My waiting long? Here is My spring and My supper, but you are not worthy and are without garment. I do no longer have a holy man on the earth to follow you, because lie is in man. I came after you; I have come again. Here I am. But humble, for I suffer for you. I became the Son of Man to be able to come near you, man. Let yourself be seized by the mystery of the Son of Man. I am the new Man, with a life giving spirit, and there is no other God beside Me. There is no other man beside Me to do you well.

Man you are an enemy to yourself. You need Me to get healed of emptiness, for nothing is truer on the earth than God when He has room with the man on the way. Oh, life is expensive and you have not got anything to pay for it. It is paid with life and you do not have life, man, because you proceed from sin. I can pay the price of your life if you want to have life. I can give you from the gift that I gave to each man, only if you want, and only if you love life. Behold, I give you comfort and I tell you: be a child in your flesh and be God in your spirit, and you will have the mystery of the new man, that is Christ, the New Man. Be cautious, for when I paid for your sin, I started with the birth and then with infancy and childhood and then with adulthood, perfected by Father. I have passed through them all to give you a day for everything, for I died like man afterwards, but I did not perish, and rather I arose, and this way I paid for your resurrection. Humble yourself and come to life! It is long until tomorrow. Now it is the time, for My patience has been long. Become like Me, man! Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, sons from the manger, My work of three days on you is a mystery of resurrection for those who choose the sufferance for resurrection. I gained the resurrection from the dead through sufferance. And this is how I told to the man. I have always come to you by word, so that the man may hear Me and to come closer to hear Me. Sons, do not marvel at what I tell you, for here is what I tell you: no place under heaven is more beautiful for Me, more comforting and sweeter than My place with you, than My meeting with you. I find My peace nowhere else than with you, for I do not receive honor from people. Oh, if I try on all those who say that they love Me, I would make them also see, for they do not know what love is. Love is sufferance and not comfort. The comfort is the reward of love, but first there has to be love, and the man has to know who and what love is. Love is not man, but the man does not understand the mystery of the Son of Man. Sons, man cannot be love, for I am Love, I, and there is no God besides Me. Oh, let the man not boast that he loves Me and that he rejoices. Let the man not rejoice over Me, if I cannot rejoice over him. Let the man humble himself, for I say again: the sign of the man's sin stays unhealed, an ineffaceable testimony on God's body.

Sons, I rejoice over you that you stand watch for My word, which cries over the earth. I comfort Myself with you, for you are My comfort. You are small, you are weak, and you are tired, dear sons. But I breathe over you and refresh you to be able to stand for Me. Man can do it for himself, but he cannot do it for Me, for he does not love Me. But I comprised you in the mystery of My coming, and I enclosed you all around to be Mine and to believe Me that it hurts Me and that I can hardly wait for My day of victory against man's haughtiness, who pulled himself out of Me. I have been waiting for the day of the man's humility, sons.

Oh, I have spent three days in a row with a Pentecost feast. Receive the Holy Spirit to be My rich people, and to have the kingdom of the heavens into your midst. Amen. Give to those who receive, and give to those who ask, but especially give to those who have, for it is written: «To the one who has it will be give more». Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity (Pentecost), the third day

I am above the garden of My word with great heavenly glory. I am with Father. Amen. The Holy Spirit in Father and in Me hovers over the saints and angels that came with My glory above the manger of My word. The Holy Spirit in Father and in Me is being celebrated in Himself and triples the work of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

I have come, watching sons. Come before Me. I give you a little crown of My worked glory, for you were a path for My coming, and to be glorified with the glory of My word for three days in a row. You are tired. My Father touches your foreheads and comforts your little cheeks and gives light to your sight, for you have a great heart and watch with love for the coming down of My word. Amen.

Father Sabaoth, here I am and those little of Mine and Yours! Comfort them, Father! You are My Word and I am Your word. Father, comfort those who labor for Us. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, you are tired, little children! My Son is consumed in you, and soon, soon, He will be coming visibly, and He is consumed with longing for the day when He will pour out His visible glory, a glory like Mine, over those who believe and over those that do not believe that He comes.

Oh, My little chicks, I, Father Sabaoth, am in My Son. Who wants to be a child like you in this age, let him be God's little chick? For My Son is My chick and He always called out the loved one; He called out the man saying: «Jerusalem, Jerusalem, how often would I have gathered you into My bosom, even as a hen in time of storm, clacking, to gather her chickens under her wings not to lose them and to be without her little chicks». Oh, little children that are tired of heavenly but not of earthly labor, oh, little chicks, you are those from the last, the smallest, and that is why Father calls you chicks. My Son labors for you to harvest the fruits, but behold, the harvesters have no fruits and there is nothing gathered for My Son's wedding table. I suffer pain for My Son, because I broke Him from My bosom and I sent him after the man to bring him back to Me.

At the beginning of the man, I and My Son made a Paradise garden for the man. We did not know what else We should do more for Him to remain Our joy. I and My Son were rejoicing over the man, but the man, created by My Son according to Our advice, rejoiced over his body and forgot about God, from Whom he had a body and a soul in his body. The first created man was created perfectly by God and he did not know his infancy, although he had a Father, a Creator, and a Master in him, for his soul was from God, and the man became conceited and went out from Paradise. Then I said to My Son: "Go, Son, for the time is long since We have been looking to see the man coming back on his own. Go and teach the man what sufferance is, and not happiness. Go Son, for happiness makes the man forget Us. Go and come back to Me with the man on Your shoulders, for he is Our work, and he is Our day, for I put My love into Your hand with great love, when You took the dust into Your hand and made the body of the man looking at You, dear Son. Then, I said to breathe Our breath upon him and You entered as soul into the body that you made by Your own hand, for You listened to Me when I said to give the man as a gift to You and to have the man in Our image and after Our likeness".

Oh, Son, I speak today over the small one in the end of the time and I call them Our little chicks, to be chicks, for behold, the accomplished man got out from under Our wings. The wise man of today rejoices over his glory, and the great man cannot be small, and he cannot come under the sign of dominion, for he is great and has his own shelter. I sent you on to the earth to become the child of a man and to make you into a new seed, so that a man may come out of it like the seed, and he came out, for My people Israel came out as seed and a seed out of a seed. You were the seed, and Your disciples were Your fruit, who submitted to Your word and became children in My bosom through You, My Son. But Israel was great by My election, by My promises on him, and he became conceited and woke up to scatter My chicks away. You were the hen into the midst of Israel, Son that were sent, but My people did not want to believe My work with You, and he was destitute both of hen and of chicks, and since then he has been wondering away in unbelief, for even today he is waiting for You to come, according to the promise in the prophets. And behold, You come, and You will be coming, for You came two thousand years ago, and Your marks remained alive and they testify about Your coming and that You come, and that You will come again, Son, born on the earth two thousand years ago, from Father and from Israel by the Virgin.

May You be blessed by all the nations, by all the languages, both in heaven above and on the earth below, Son Who are in heaven and on earth at the same time, from everlasting to everlasting! I am the Father Sabaoth, and I confess You, Son, from the middle of the angels and of the saints who cannot be seen. I leave the throne of the glory and I come with you into the garden. I come down to the man for I am the Father of the first created man. The Holy Spirit from Me and You deifies the man, but the man has to humble himself with faith, as the faith is God's glory in man. The faith clothes the man in glory and thus the man can do whatever God wants him to do, only to believe, only that he may not be ashamed of God, for he who is ashamed with God, that one is hiding from God's glory.

Oh, little sons and children, stand in My justice before the nations under the sky, for justice will crown the earth and it will make it new and holy, as it was at its first creation. The first Earth was sunken into the deep by the man's hand. And here is how the second earth is: it is submitted to the man and it is a depth of lawlessness, where the fallen angels through man's haughtiness do their work through the man to win against God. But the earth, promised to you and to those who will be like you, is a righteous land through the righteous ones, who will rule forever and ever. Amen, amen, amen.

Son, Emmanuel, do not be sad. You have someone to rejoice with. When You came to My right hand, after You proved to be My Son and God by resurrection and power, you did not leave many to testify about the things that you have worked for. And the same is now; there are few but small people that You may become perfect in them with Your wisdom, for I have kept away from the earthly wisdom even from the womb of their mothers those that were anointed in the garden for You and for the last days. I have brought them closer to You, here, at the spring, and I gave them to drink and to always be with the living water on their table. And here they are. They are those, who receive You, giving their own little hearts as Your dwelling place, in which You put a spring of faith for You coming. Oh, comfort them, dear Son. I am the Father and I am with You. I give them a little crown of glory, for I gave them to You as Your bride, and the world does not know them, Son. They are comprised in the mystery, for this is God's work among the people, for the faith on the earth to grow; the holy faith, My Son.

You are My Word. I am with You, and I rejoice. You are My Word, My messenger, My loved Son, Who I was well pleased with. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, Father, Father Sabaoth, I want to enlarge the tent of My wedding, for the Holy Spirit is being made perfect and goes from margins to margins and breathes with the power of My word and wakes up many people. But there are so many multitudes, Father, crows over crowds, that have no oil in their candles, and that do not watch for My coming. Crows and crowds prepare to make My coming, but who is really coming for such a preparation? Who is that Christ who is coming at the man's plan without life from heaven?

Oh, Father Sabaoth, when you sent Me on the earth among the people, I made many heavenly signs and works above man's nature. And even after I hid from their eyes I have done the work of the Holy Spirit since then and until today, so that the man may not forgive Me, and behold, I do not find a holier watch for My coming, and it is coming. The day of My coming in glory is coming, Father, and what shall I do to those who sleep? What shall I do to them, Father? What shall I do, Father? Oh, what shall I do, Father?

Oh, watchful sons, I have come to give the Holy Spirit on the earth. Oh, My loved disciples, I have come, for you are brought together in a blessed place by My word, which works over you. I come from heaven. And I come with a great noise, like the wind that blows with great power to bend everything down by storm, so that I may fill up the garden where you are gathered together into My name, and at My word many have come near to you to listen.

Sons anointed with the chrism of My coming, I impart to you the tongues of the Holy Spirit. Bow down your heads and open the gates, for you are the gates between heaven and earth, through which the Lord comes into. Let it be heard everywhere on the earth that God, the Word, is speaking here, the One Who gives you the tongues of the Holy Spirit. Let it be in wonder, and no one should be perplexed of those that I bring over My garden in Romania. This is the manger of My word, a holy mountain that I, the Lord, stand on to call out all the nations to hear the news of the kingdom of the heavens, which is coming with Me and with the new heaven and the new earth, and with the spirit of righteousness, as heir on those that are new. It is written that in the last days the Holy Spirit will come upon every flesh like a river, which grows and runs over its banks, and My servants and maidservants will prophesy from the Holy Spirit and will become a spring of springing water over every nation from under the sky.

Behold the days of the Holy Spirit! In the days to come, I will release signs and wonders up in heaven and down on the earth: blood, fire and pillars of smoke. The sun will be turned into darkness; and the moon into blood, as I come, and this is written before the great and terrible day of the Lord comes. Let every man under the sky stand up, for I, the Lord enter into their hearts and say: Repent from all that you did against Me and against you! Let the holy faith enter you for the Holy Spirit is speaking from heaven on the earth. Seek for the forgiveness of your sins for the Holy Spirit wants to come onto every man. Humble yourselves and remain in humility for the first created man did not know what infancy and humility was and became conceited and got out from under his Master and finally went into the grave. Save yourselves from this generation that turned away from God! Give to the Lord! Amen, amen, amen.

Sons from the spring, I raised the water gates so that the spring may flow on the whole earth. I gave you the promise that you will be turned into rivers of running waters for all who are thirsty, from far off and from near, even as many as I will call to come and drink, to come at the table of the Holy Spirit. Oh, you are thirsty, but I am thirstier still. I have not been resting for seven ages, but I am the Lord of the powers in the heaven above and on the earth below, and I comfort you and give you a great heart so that you may include in it the heaven and the earth, from margins to margins. I am consumed in you because of the care of My coming. My Father gives you courage and I also give it to you, and you should give yourselves over, for you are clothed with the Holy Spirit. I give you help from heaven and earth. My Holy Spirit changes the man in his heart, it moves the man's mind and it refreshes the man's soul, and you will be carried into My arms, through those that will come near to put their shoulder under the cross of My coming, for My coming is a heavy cross, because the man is stiff-necked and lives under the heaven only for himself, and I have no one to carry the cross of My coming with; I have no one but you, and you are small among those who have become great on the earth. The hostile man, the haughty man, the careless and black-hearted man in his soul says that you are rich. Only I and you know the labor of the cross of My coming. The hard working is not rich, for if he were rich, he would no longer be hard working, and he will go to sleep and get up and spend his temporariness in the midst of his riches. However, you are not rich except in God. You are the rich of the heaven, for you have in you the kingdom of the heavens in its broadness. Amen.

Oh, the one who has the sign of ownership on him, that one has the sign of the kingdom of the heavens, which is the richest country between heaven and earth. The one who has not got the sign of ownership on him, which even the angels have, that one is a wonderer, a homeless man, for the man can have only a homeland. Oh, and since the man lost his homeland, he has been wondering from place to place and from storm to storm, for the man has been a wonderer since he stood up to kill his neighbor. The country of the man without a homeland is called runaway. The man runs away because he is a fugitive; he runs away from the threatening of the time, for the man brought time into existence, and the time is the enemy of the man's eternity. Oh, he who has not got the sign of ownership on him, the sign of the heavenly country, is a fugitive, a man who is afraid of God, for fear is for those who have not escaped from pursuit. The man runs away and he always is on the run. Where does he really run to? Sons, I want to come into the way of the man and ask him: Where do you run, fugitive man and pathless man? Oh, you have forgotten that you are made out of dust by God and that My eye is always on you. I have been looking for seven thousand years for you and I will find you when you see Me. My eyes are always on you, and that is why you are running away, and I follow you, and My eye is looking for your face. Look back, fugitive man! I follow you because you have no guide. The guide follows you. Look back and your eyes will see Me wondering behind you for seven thousand years.

Man, there is no God besides Me. Tell Me who you are looking for and tell Me where you are going; tell Me why you are running away! Answer Me! I have come with the lost country into My arms. It is the kingdom of the heavens, and I am the King. Hold it, fugitive man! Come to give you work to do into My vineyard, into My field, into My beehive. Come, you man without direction. I have on the table of My kingdom bread and wine, honey and milk and oil for your wounds. A song in the Holy Spirit is being sung and invites you to look and listen to the voice of the Holy Spirit, which is flowing over the whole earth. I command you: Come to a stop, for here is the country! The man has only one country. I have come to take you home, man. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, watchful little children, I bow before you and I thank you because you became a bridge in order to come after the man and for the man to come after Me. I crown you with My invisible glory, for you have been My rest house for three days in a row. Now, sons, let us release the multitudes, for I have drawn out living water from the well and given them to drink and never go thirsty, and I have also given them bread. My well is deep; deep upwards and not downwards. I made you into a bucket of My well. I gave you little wooden pails and little cups; I gave you so that you may give to the crowns to drink. I gave you much love to keep you strong. I gave you ministering and obeying angels to serve you in everything, so that the sunny weather, the breeze, the zephyr and the birds of the heaven, the earth and the man may listen to you sons, and all that are, so that I may be in a celebration of Pentecost with you in a holy place. This little town is the most beautiful place on the earth, because you are the most beautiful among the sons of the people. Wanting or not, no one in this stronghold stood against Me or against you. Wanting or not, all who were called listen to come. Now, I give them the reward according to their own deeds, and they will see that I give them, but you are the most precious reward that I give them; you, the most beautiful among the sons of the people; you, who are loved by God; you, who labor burdened by My worries, for I prepare My coming, and I have you under the arm of My cross. I come soon, soon, and all who became great on the earth will be ashamed when they will see that I carried the cross of My coming with you, the weakest, the smallest, so that the great ones may see that the strength of the earth shames and the heavenly humility crowns the times, for I, the Lord, love the man in sufferance, which takes after Me in his body, in his soul and in his spirit.

Sons flee from the glory that comes from man, and bring Me your glory, for I gave it to you. You should become less and make greater My glory in you, for everything that I prepare for the crowning of the times belongs to those who are little and humble.

To those who accompanied you tirelessly I gave bread, and I still give them a heavenly exhortation not to be ashamed with Me before the people. And I still exhort them sweetly to sell the wealth of their mind and to buy from Me gold refined by fire and not to come back to their own things sadly like the young man rich in wisdom, to whom I said: «Sell your possessions and then come to be with Me in the work that I have from My Father to do». And I also give them the forgiveness of their sins, which are removed by repentance for what they did, and I say to them: Go in peace! May your faith be holy to be able to save you from yourselves! Go and sin no more, so that you may be forgiven of those things done in the time of your ignorance. Amen, amen, amen.

Now, little children, I give rest to your body, to your soul and to your spirit, but also to My Spirit in you, for without Me you can do nothing, because you died for yourselves to be for Me. Amen. I am above your little garden. I am with the Father. The angels and the saints bow down before you and welcome your feast, the feast of Pentecost. They have stood in fear and love and listened like you did to My word from Holy Spirit. The Father Sabaoth gives you the heavenly chrism, for you are the Lord's anointed for the days of this time.

The Father is comforting you, for He is the Father, and you are sons. I give you the cross of My coming. Do not be sad because I give it to you. It is your victory. Do not be afraid that you are small, for the small ones are those who can do; those who are naked are those who are clothed; those who are tired are those who will rest; those who are hard working are those who will have; those who are sad are those who will rejoice.

Stay awake, sons! I will come soon, soon. Be awake! Be awake! Be awake in every moment, for I come unexpectedly, and I come soon. And now, peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! My peace from the garden is your peace, sons. Remain in a day of a feast of the Holy Spirit. Remain My joy and rejoice that you are suffering for Me, for after I come, you will no longer suffer, and you will be in a day of rest, and you will be My rest. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of all Romanian saints

Open My book in your days, sons from the manger. Amen, amen, amen. You are the manger of My word, here, in the place where I established you. I have always come together with you under the spring of My word to find the refreshment that We long after. I gather you at My bosom to feed you and to water you and so that what I give you may run over, and all those who seek for My spring with you may eat and drink from Me.

Oh, sons, I come together with the saints at your bosom to be saturated by the love from you, as those from heaven are also hungry. But how do those from heaven come to be hungry? Oh, it is written into the Scriptures: «From the mouths of sucklings have called forth Your praise, in spite of My enemies, to appease the enemy and revengeful». My word on you is «clean word and silver refined by furnace, to destroy all the lying mouths and any haughty tongue of those who say: “We are strong by our tongue, and our mouth is our strength; who is master over us?”». This is what is written into the Scriptures.

Oh, sons, I have always been gathering you at My bosom, to protect you of these nations, for it is written: «The wicked wonder about because the things from below rule over the people. These are free from human burdens and they feel strong when they strike; they are also free from human sufferance and neither are they plagued like other men, and that is why pride is their necklace and they clothe themselves with violence. Their evil imaginations have no limits and injustice comes out of their malice. Their thought and word are cunning and they speak with arrogance and their mouths are set in the heavens, and their tongue walks through the earth. Therefore people return to them and drink up waters of abundance, saying that they have good days; and they also say: “How would God know? Does the Most High know anything?”». Oh, sons, it is written: «This is what the wicked are like, being always at ease and increasing in their own riches, but I set them in slippery places to throw them down to destruction, and to tear down their heights, for this is the end of the wicked that do not walk in the way of clean wisdom». But I took you out of the world and I keep you tight at My bosom and feed you and give you water to drink, so that those who feed themselves on their haughtiness may get the taste after Me.

The man that commits sin in his own body cannot have heavenly wisdom, which is pure gold refined by furnace, and even if he tried to understand, he would not be able to fulfill it on him, because sin is working in him. Behold, the worldly church on the earth does not understand My today's coming to you; it does not understand for it sins. I cannot bless the sin and over the sin, but I have always had patience and blessed the man with patience, to replace the sin in the man with My work in him, but the man has not wanted to come out from the sin and said that he has served God serving to his own body and to mammon, for sin is devil.

Oh, sons, I come together with the saints at your bosom to eat together, for those in heaven are also hungry after those on the earth. We sit each other at the table, sons; you from Us and We from you and we eat so that we may not die without food, without life, sons; for this food is the life from heaven, the life in the man who has life in him.

Oh, how shall not be hard for the man to receive My staying with you? Love has to become the true God in man, and only then it is called this way; otherwise it is called sin, not love. Behold, I came and come, and find the man sinning. Oh, marriage does not mean self-denial, and I said that he, who wants to come after Me, shall deny of his own self. I told this also to those that are not married and to those that are married, but more I told to those that are married and I also say: the marriage does not mean self-denial. If the Scripture reads about a priest and about the bishop «to be the husband of but one wife», and this, in the Lord, as it is written in the Scriptures, here is what I, the Lord, tell you today: the priest or the bishop cannot belong both to the woman and to the church, and if he wants episcopacy, let him and his wife refrain from debauchery, from the sin within their own body, and, denying of their own self and of their bodies, let them take their cross and follow Me as servants for the heaven and for the church. The church is led by satan today, not by Me, for the head of the church is the man: the man who becomes priest, and who marry first, but the Scriptures says this: «Your wedding and your bed should be clean, and God will judge the immoral». Amen.

Sons from the cradle, I want to establish through you on the earth the spread table of the kingdom of heavens, the table of heavenly knowledge upon the people, the table of humility, the meal of My word, for those on the earth do not come, because they have other food to eat, for the man got used to debauchery more than bread, and he suffers from bread but not from debauchery. This comes in hand to the servant of the church from the world, and it comes in his hand, so that the man may not have mind, for if he has, he will open it and see God and the devil with it, and he chooses what is best and most true for his true life.

When the scribes and the Pharisees were tempting Me about the man and the woman and their separation, I answered them according to the law issued by the sinful man, for the law is for the sinners, but I also answered them according to the holy law and said: «He who made them both at the beginning, He made them male and female and said: „Therefore shall a man leave his mother and shall cleave to his wife: and they shall be one flesh and so they are no longer two. What therefore God has joined together let not man separate”». But behold, the man separated as both the man and the woman commit fornication and they are no longer one flesh; they are not the same as God made them, but each one is with his own body and does what they want and what they like, as their body leads them. Oh, it is a great mystery a man to be one flesh with his wife not two, but this mystery was only at the beginning and that is all, for the man violated it. The man separated what God joined together and the two were no longer one flesh, but rather they were two, and each one let oneself lured by the other one, and the man is enticed into debauchery by his own lust without any kind of orderliness. The Pharisees, who wanted to catch Me with the word at all costs, asked Me then: «Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement and to put her away?». And I answered them: «Because Moses allowed you to leave your women after the hardness of your heart, but it was not so from the beginning. But I tell you that if you leave your women except for lewdness and marry another, you commit adultery and if you marry the one put away, you also commit adultery». Oh, what else should I tell these people who had their body unrestrained against their own soul? When My disciples heard what I said, they asked Me this: «Lord, if the case with the man is so with his wife, it is no good to marry». And I strengthened their wisdom saying: «This is a mystery and a word of mystery and only they understand to whom it is given to understand». And I also told them: «He, who is able to perceive it, let him perceive it». Amen. I was speaking carefully with them, as I had work upon them, and when they rebuked the children who were brought to Me, I told them not to rebuke or stop them coming to Me for of such was the kingdom of heaven, it was of those that were not lewd.

The apostle Paul answered also carefully at the beginning of My church when asked by those that joined the clean teaching and said: «It is good for the man not to touch a woman; nevertheless, to avoid lewdness, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband, for they who have come together for a long time are tempted by satan for their incontinence». But the restrained one does not want this law for he is clean. Oh, it has been so on earth since the man's falling. The one who cannot restrain, that one is getting married, as when choosing between fire and marriage, marriage is better than fire. This is the law for those who cannot restrain and are not free. My apostle sought by all means to give laws against disorder over the churches, but he was saying: «Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be loosed. Are you loosed from a wife? Do not seek a wife». And he also said: «Let them who have wives be as though they had none, as the fashion of this world passes away». And he also said: «He that is unmarried, is anxious for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord. But he that is married, is anxious for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife and thus he is divided». And he also said: «The unmarried woman or the virgin is anxious for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit. But she that is married, is anxious for the things of the world, how she may please her husband». And to all these he added: «I speak this for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, as I advise you for that which is comely and decency, and that you may attend upon the Lord without distraction; for I speak, not the Lord».

Amen, amen I say to you, sons which carry My word to the nations of the earth: I did not tell the man to get married. The marriage, which man set among the mysteries of the church, is not a mystery but a pain for Me, for the man gives his body up to incontinence by marriage.

«Meats are for the belly, and the belly for meats, and God will destroy it and them. The body is not for lewdness, but for the Lord; and the Lord is for the body». This is what My apostle said to those who wanted to follow Me; and he also told them: «Your bodies are the members of Christ. Do not make of your bodies and your members, the members of a harlot, for he who is joined to a harlot is one body with her, for as the Scriptures says, the two will be one flesh; and he that is joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him». Amen. And also we went on telling them: «Flee lewdness. Every sin that a man does is without the body. But he that commits lewdness sins against his own body. Do not forget that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit Which is in you and Which you have from God, and you are not your own, for you are bought with a price. Your body and your spirit are God's; they are a house of His glorifying». Amen.

Oh, sons joined unto Me, oh, it is hard for a teacher until he puts a whole teaching upon the man subjected to the teaching, upon the man who starts to learn from God. Behold how much the apostle Paul avoided it until he could tell the man to flee lewdness, which is sin inside the man's body, in respect to other sins which are done without his body. I did not tell the man to get married and those who perceived it said: «Lord it is no use for a man to get married». And I answered them: «This is a word to be hidden, and is for those to whom it is given to perceive it». When I was at the wedding from Cana, I made the couple one spirit with Me for they joined onto Me and did not take the sin in them. Behold, I did not tell the man to get married, but on the contrary, I said: «My coming will be as in the time of Noah, when men were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage until the day they incurred the flood from heaven». I explained to My apostles the work of a eunuch, a holy work in man's body; I did not tell them about the sin; I did not tell them about marriage, rather I separated them from the wives and from the children and from all that they had, to be able to come after Me by self-denial, taking their cross and making disciples for the proclaiming of the kingdom of heavens upon the people.

Behold, the time has come to judge the man who distorted even from the man's beginning God's secret words upon the man. If I made male and female, I made them for Me not for debauchery. Where and when did I tell the man to get married and the man of the church to put marriage among My mysteries so that I may not have authority over the church? I said: «The body is not for fornication, but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body». Amen.

I started even from the beginning those that were for Me: «Take and eat My body». I had many that loved Me seeking My footsteps, but I took for supper only a few, for the work of the supper is great and the man hardly perceives it to become holy for it. I said: «The one that eats My Body and drinks My Blood remains in Me, and I in him». But who is the one that remains in Me, and I in him, after he goes to the priest to have the Lord's Supper? Oh, this is a secret mystery. It is the union of the man with Me; it is the man's wedding with Me, for it is written: «This mystery is great in the Lord and in the church». It is the bread which man had to take as food, for I became good food for the man built by My hand, and to whom I gave all My goodies. And if he did not listen to Me, then I told him to work and toil for his everyday life to feel sorry for his sin of his separation from Me and so that he may no longer long to sin in his own body; sin that separates him from Me, the sin of fornication that I did not put over the man, but rather I told the man:

«Because you have listened to your wife's voice, cursed is the ground for you sake. I toil you will it of it in all the days of your life; thorns and thistles will also bring for to you and you will eat the herb of the field. By the sweat of your face will you eat bread until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken; for you are dust and to dust you shall return», and I sent him away and put a sword of fire to keep watch over the way to the tree of life. But today, behold what a crowd gathers together at the supper of the church, and behold the time when every man is judged for the holy ones of Mine, which are not kept by a sword of fire, the same as I put a cherub with a sword of fire to keep watch over the way to the tree of life.

And you, those that are established by Me at the table of My secret supper, get up and tell everyone, together with Me and with the apostle that tells everybody: "Flee sexual immorality! Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body. Make of your body the temple of the Holy Spirit. You should not belong to your own self and in your spirit as some that are not God's." Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, children from the manger, you are the manger of My word, in the place where I established you. I have always come together with you. I bring you together at My bosom, to feed you and to give you water and everything that I give you may run over, so that the man may receive his salvation or his judgment from this word. I come together with the saints at your bosom to be saturated by your love, for those in heaven are also hungry; they are hungry after you, who are My coming house on the earth. We eat from each other; you from Us, and We from you. Love must become true God in man, because only then it is called so; otherwise, it is called sin not love. The man has to long after love and not for sin, but the sin became god in man, and the man listens to it and longs after it, as afterlife. The man longs after death as the saint longs after God. But you are My bridge, on which I walk from heaven on the earth to speak with the man and to tell him about Me and about the country of My second coming from near Father, to give the man the way for his returning to Me. The holy fathers of Romania are looking at their country from heaven, and spreading out their hands to Me say: "Lord, give a humble spirit to the Romanian, so that he may give it back to you as a well pleased sacrifice to You. Give him cleanness, and give him love, so that he may have a weapon against his self-love, and give to the Romanian the Holy Spirit, for the Holy Spirit in the man is the One Who knows You into this word and in the sons of Your word in Romanians". Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, sons, I come to you with good orders for you and for Me in you. I come soon with words of building of My work with you on the earth. I come to give you a holy work to do, so that you may work within blessing. I come to teach those who persevere to be one spirit with Me and to tell them to be one body and one spirit with Me and with you, and to know how to work near you for Me, as it is a great thing for the man to know how to be smaller than God on the earth. I find no man on the earth to be smaller than Me, and I cannot work but on those who are small, whose the kingdom of the heavens is, as I spoke through the Scriptures. Sons, stand with your lighted lamp into My way, so that I may come and build you day by day into your holy work on the earth, and so that the man may have where to find a holy work and a way for his steps. Stand with your lamp lighted so that I may enter when I come.

Now I give you a little crown because you have listened to My word by which I sent you to the one who is blown by the wind of sufferance, to repentance; the archbishop Vasile (Basil, r.n.), who sat on the seat of the church in the first stronghold of the Romanians cities, the citadel of Târgoviște. This seat is My seat, and woe to the one who sits on this seat according to the man's plan that I have set aside for Me to sit as word on the earth into the midst of this ruling city! I wanted to touch it through your little hands and to release it from the sins that he has done by now against Me and you and against My archbishop, Irineu, the one who has on his head My great anointment over My church in this time. Pray to Me, so that I may give him a spirit of wisdom, and so that the one touched by My hand through you may understand that your hand was with power from Me, and to cut his sufferance short and to release him in peace. I have mercy on the man who repents from those that he has done against Me. Amen.

I will work with power over the earth and I will clean My way, My dwelling place and My seat over this citadel of every opposition, of every doubt and of each body, the first citadel over Romania, the great citadel into whose midst I have a ruling seat with you.

May the fire guard be blessed on My seat in this citadel, as I set a fire cherubim to protect the way to this citadel and I say: He who will stumble against this seat will be smashed by it, as the one, who is set aside for Me and for the country of My coming, has stumbled and is smashed by it now, for this country is the first and the last as I am. Amen, amen, amen.

The fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Children, your Father is calling you to make you attentive to His word. I am the Son and the Word of the Father and Father calls you out through Me; Father calls you out through the Word. Amen. Father calls you "little children", so that the evil spirit and any spirit on earth, in heaven, in the air, from the deep and in the waters may know that you have a Father. Father calls you "little children". Little children have a father, sons. Oh, if only the man-child would learn how the man may have a Father! He who is a child has a father; he has a master and has protection; he has the father's power, which surrounds him everywhere. But he who is not a child has not got a father, and is in danger every moment, for he is without protection. My Father cannot be but the Father of those who are small under His strong hand, and those who strengthened themselves are protection for themselves, power and wisdom and a fulfilled word, and they have no one over them to whom they may give an account of what they do.

Oh, little children of My Father! I made you My disciples, My brothers, so that we may have the same Father. I am the First One born among many who became My brothers through Father, for this is what I said: «To the one who believes in Me, I will give him the power to become a son of the Father». Amen. Many wished and wanted to be with you and with Me, but they did not let themselves worked out so that I might give them the image of My Father's children. The wax does not become a candle until heated, sons. First it is heated, then is poured out on the wick and then is put into the candlestick and it receives light but it does only if it is put into the candlestick. What light can a candle give, which is made out by fire, if then it is not lighted or put into the candlestick? What kind of a work can a candle have, which is not lighted? It helps no one with its work for it is without any kind life. That which is worked out by fire has to produce fire, for otherwise it remains without any work, and it is not. What did I say to the man who sinned? I told him this: «By the sweat of your face will you eat bread. In toil you will eat of the cursed ground because of your sin. You will toil all the days of your days and eat the herb of the field laboring for bread». Behold, the one who does not listen to this commandment does not know what fire is and he does not depart from sin and carelessness and does not become the light to burn in order to give light to the way of his coming back home.

I have taught you the homecoming, sons. The fire of the lawlessness scorched the land from margins to margins. Everything the man did on the earth is stones of remembrance of the man's sins who became god on earth. Everything the man did will come back against him. Amen. The man changed the course of waters; he changed the course of wisdom, the course of understanding, the course of God's creation, and the man became devil. He, who stood against the Creator, became devil, and was expelled from heaven, as the man knew the evil. I told the man not to know evil, but he did not want to listen to Me, and because he did not want, he fell a pray to the evil, as the one who does not listen to God, cannot overcome the evil. Behold, this is what it happened to the man, who made of the woman his woman, his love, his possession and sin for himself, as this is what I told the woman: «Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you».

I have been telling the man in vain today to flee from the way of evil, and the man calls the evil good, and he covers with it as with God's law, and the man tells Me that I gave this law. Oh, let the man open the Scriptures of creation and see his disobedience, which made him fall down from heaven and from good, and let him say no more that the law in which he has been staying for seven thousand years, is My law upon him. My law is that by which the man may not know the evil. My law is that by which the man may not die, for I made the man, male and female, so that My man may be in one flesh, male and female, and to serve Me; however, I was supposed to make man and not the man to make him. It was better for Me to fill the earth with people than for the man to fill it. I created the man from dust, word and spirit, but the man creates man from sin, as he changed My law that was upon him with his, with the law of disobedience of God.

I wanted to make the man of today by word, as of the wax which lets itself be heated and fashioned and put into a wick to burn and to be consumed before Me; and I, to turn its light into the eternal life, life from heaven, as the life is the fire which burns the flesh, so that the light may be brought forth, so that a man, built by God, may come out. I will show the man that I, the Lord, will build him from dust again, as the resurrection of the dead will be the judgment of the man, who made man out of sin. The man will be again, but he will come out of the earth, as God's work for the man's body was in the beginning.

And you, children of the end, you are My hand with whom I write the judgment of the man who did not let himself be born of the heaven. I created the man by the word when I made him of dust, but by what word do the man create man? Everything he does on earth he does it with sin, as the man who came out of the man is the sin of the man who has man as father and mother. I am the word from heaven by which I gave you birth, children from the end, to have someone with whom I may write the book of judgment of the man that came out of man. I turned the man down into the earth to put him to shame and to know that everything he does is not, and that it is I that I make him again, and to create him from dust, as My law is. But there are many, and again many are between earth and heaven who walked with Me and with My first law, and I made eternal life out of them, and they are alive between heaven and earth and they did not taste death, because they tasted sin neither by spirit, nor by nature, nor by flesh, nor by heart. They are those that I will establish as witnesses before the people, soon, soon, the same way as I established you, sons born of heaven at My word.

Get hold of not judgment day by day, sons. Gather an abundance of not judgment and earn freedom with God, as I, the Lord come soon, and those that are asleep who were with Me are coming with Me, and those who did not taste death and are eternal are also coming with Me, waiting My victory for them and for many who will taste the resurrection for the judgment of the sin. Amen, amen, amen. I told you heavenly mysteries, unfathomable mysteries. It is time to come and that is why I open the heaven and bring the mysteries of the heavens on the earth. They have to come before Me to make people repent, sons. My mysteries remained unfathomable to man, as the man hid from them by sinning and he did no longer see them and he did no longer remember them.

After I built the man, male and female, I told them this: «Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over every living creature that moves on the earth». Oh, if the man had wanted to remain in Me, this word would have been fulfilled so, but he fulfilled it otherwise. He filled the earth with death, as he did not have dominion with life over the earth and over every spirit of life between heaven and earth that I built to be and to come under man's dominion and to obey him as God. The man had to work as I did, because I told him: «Be fruitful, and multiply and fill the earth». Oh, how I created the man and how the man creates man! Oh, how much distance is from heaven to earth sons!

Oh, children of My Father, tell it, so that it might be heard on the earth, who is the unfaithful man? From earth the man answers as from earth, but you should answer as in heaven. Tell sons, as I listen to you. Amen.

— The unfaithful man is the one who knows God's will, but he does not like to do it from one end to the other, and becomes guilty to God, as it is written: «If someone breaks only one law of all, he becomes guilty of all the other commandments that he fulfills» and he is called unfaithful, as the faithful one fulfills them all and so it comes that he is faithful.

— Oh, sons, all are written into the Scriptures, but the man pretends that he does not know them. This is how the man does with My word of today, that I, the Lord, write it on the earth by your own little hands. It is written into the Scriptures that «the unfaithful will be wiped out from the earth», but the man has got used to perishing and says that the law endures as long as the world is. Oh, the law is not this! This is not law, man. This is the reward of the sin, you, man that are used to perishing. Man, the man who came out of you is the reward of your sins; it is not law. Do you see what you call law? The sin you call law, as you put it as a law upon you to fulfill it. Fulfill it if you want, but you should know that I make the man from dust again, as I made him in the beginning; for the one that came out of you is your sin, and he is not a man. What shall I do to you if you wanted that the woman to be your woman? If you had remained Mine, the woman would have also remained Mine, and you would have remained God's man, as for this I created you. I did not create you to give you over to the sin, but rather I created you to make you fruitful and to get used to the work of the fruition, but if you turned the woman into your woman, you forgot about God and joined to your wife and you have no longer known the mystery of the body made by God, which says that the two are not two but one, together with God, as One is God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Now I have come on the earth as word of judgment on you, man. Oh, if only you repented of your own deed deepened in time! Oh, if only you wanted to be faithful and not unfaithful! Oh, you unfaithful man, who does not fulfill My word! Fulfill it, for I come down from heaven and I tell you this word. You are as old as seven thousand years, man. When you were in heaven, I was speaking with you and you were hearing Me. But after you came out of Paradise, because of your disobedience and sin, you gave God for you sin and listened to the voice of the sin. Oh, you hear and believe the voice of sin, but you do no longer hear My voice and do no longer believe it. Your ear is a gate for iniquity; your eyes the same; and likewise are your faith and wisdom, for you have changed the course of your wisdom once with your coming out of Paradise when you stood against your Creator. But I opened the gates of heaven, so that you may see and hear Me, for I have come after you with healing and I want to make out again your ear and eyes and all of your body. I stand into the door of My tent and I put a mark before you so that you may know Me. My word is the sign. It is a spring of living water in a ground without water. I am the word from heaven, by which I gave birth to children for Father, so that I may stay with them before you, wandering man without a path. Oh, when I created you from the dust, it was easy. Now you are flesh and blood, but these do not inherit the kingdom of the heavens, for they stand against life by their opposing spirit, because it is written: «What is of the flesh is flesh, and it is flesh and blood». Oh, it is hard for Me to make you out again for you are My adversary as the devil is, but here is the word that I said to fulfill: everything the man did on earth will come back against him. Everything the man did on earth is stones of memorial of the man's sins who became God's adversary on earth.

I will show the man that I, the Lord, will create the man out of dust again, for the resurrection of the dead will be the man's judgment, which turned the man into sin. I made the man come back into the dust to make him ashamed and to know that everything he did is not, and to make him again and then to make him also of the dust, for there were and are people on the earth who let themselves with Me for the new creation of the man, and I will work out the man again with these, as I wanted to work with the first created man, and I, the Lord, will speak My word by the mouth of those who let themselves be worked out by Me, and I will lift up the humankind out of the dust, to the judgment of the spirits which are opposing to God. And I will be a righteous God and I will establish those that are righteous as heirs of the heaven and the earth, «a new heaven and a new earth», as it is written into the Scriptures. Amen.

Sons, I make you rich in My mysteries, which have been waiting to be turned into action on the earth, for those on the earth will come back against the man who changed the course of God's creation. The man does not work on the earth according to My word. The man has not heard

Me for seven thousand years, and has become deaf for each and every word of Mine, and of those who bear My word over the earth. But behold, I come and I come again and again, for I have you, little children of the Father, and I come from Father to bring to you those that you have to bear, for you are bearers of heavenly mysteries for the time of the heavenly fulfillments on the earth. Father calls you "little children", so that the evil spirit and any spirit on earth and in heaven, in the air, into the deep and in the waters may know that you have a Father. Who else can Father call "little children" the way He calls you? Sons take care of this anointing and work out the kingdom through it, which remains, for soon, soon, everything the man did will come back against him. Teach those who seek God, teach them to receive their freedom in the Lord, for there is no law for freedom on the earth, but rather it is only a law for slavery.

I cry with tears of blood when I see the man caught under the slavery of the woman. Sweat runs down on man's brows and he gives his earning to his woman, and I am deprived of the man. The woman brings the man under the slavery for her and for her offspring, so that the man may no longer have freedom. I shed tears of blood for man's slavery. Kings and servants have been falling down under the slavery of the woman, who turns the man into a devil, and who serves the flesh and the man that has the devil as mother and father; and the man is no longer able to get out of the slavery. Blood flowed from My rib, so that the place on the man's body may be marked down, the place where the woman was taken from, and who pulled the man out from God. I also cry and bleed today when I see the man caught under the woman's slavery. Where shall I still find a woman that sanctifies the man; to free the man from slavery? The lust of the woman is a devil that makes the man play as the devil's lust wants. The law of the woman took the man's right to freedom. Oh, deep of iniquity! Oh, how shall I free the man to have him and to rejoice over all his labor, and to give him a reward for his labor, as I gave it to My apostles, who I walked on the earth with, when I needed a man near Me? Oh, I can hardly pull the man out from the woman to free him from the slavery and from the lusts and to set him as a holy thing for Me! Oh, I can hardly remove the woman from near the man! It is written into the Scriptures: «I saw a woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus; when I saw her I wondered with a great amazement; and on her forehead a name was written: Babylon the great, the mother of the prostitutes and of the abominations of the earth. And she had in her hand a golden cup, full of abominations and of the impurities of her sexual immoralities. And she has a kingdom over the kings of the earth, as she is dressed in purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and with finery that enchants, as she comes from the deep and from the lawlessness, and they, whose names are not written into the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, will wonder seeing the beast that she was and is no more, but she will appear and will be seen». Oh, deep of the lawlessness! The woman dresses with fineries and with purple and scarlet, on her body, on her lips, on her fingers, on her eyes, and keeps her husband as a slave to her abominations; and the one who serves the woman is a man without mind, without sight and without hearing. Oh, how shall I free the man from his woman, who does not bring him any benefit? The man sheds his sweat for his woman and for his offspring, and I cannot rejoice over the man's labor. Oh, it is no use for the man to get married, but who is the one that can understand this?

Behold children why I cry, but everything the man did will come back against him. The one who opposed the Creator fell into slavery and does no longer finds his way home. I told the man not to know the evil, but he did not want to be faithful and did not fulfill My commandment. But I come to you to keep you free for Me and to bring to you My wisdom on the man, and to bring the man to repentance and to the power of faith, so that the man may be able to do it by faith and by the deeds of the holy faith, and then to set himself into My coming watching, for the man on the earth stand tirelessly as a watch day and night so that I may not come; however, the man does not watch in order for Me to come.

Oh, how much watching of the man so that I may not come! But you should watch out day and night and to make My appearance and My coming over the earth, now when no one expects Me to come. But I tell you: it is now that I will come. Amen. I will give you power and help to prepare My way to the people. I will help you to get away with the burdens, for I have power to help you. Ask and I will give you. Ask, for it is I who tells you to ask. Ask for My help, so that we may fulfill on the earth everything that I prophesied through My book, which is with you. I write Myself again and again into it, so that I may be with you into your midst as I was into the midst of Israel. I build you through it day by day in a holy work over the earth. I bless your little hands with which I write down My word. I bless your little mouths by which I confess My word with which I come down on the earth with My kingdom, for your little mouths, your little hands and your little feet are the word, the work and My walking on the earth. Amen.

Children sons, make Me a name on the earth, for I made one for you and I will also make it, for My name from you stands for any work done by you into My name. Do not worry that you have no more power. I have power. Work into My name, so that I may be the Master, and you should be little children. Let everything that you work be Mine, so that you also may be Mine, for this is how those that are Mine work. I will release a great help for you, for it is time for Me to be perfected through you and through the anointment that you have from Me. Sons, I have to be again into your midst and to write down with you on the earth, so that it may be known from below and up above in heaven and to all the sides that you have a Father, and that Your heavenly Father calls you: His children, the children from above. Amen.

Oh, each one cries for his wealth when he loses it. This is how I also cry for it, for the man was My treasure, My house and My hope. I sent and I still send punishments on the earth, to prepare My way as it is written into the Scriptures, before My coming. Behold, everything the man did will come back against him, for he will lose everything and will no longer have it. And the man cries because he loses. This is how I also cry, for I lost first. Now it is the turn of the one who lost Me, it is the turn for him to lose those that he made.

I write Myself down with you on the earth to the man's judgment that has not God as his possession, and My Father calls you His little children, children from above, for the little children have Father. Oh, who else can Father call children as He calls you "little children"? He who is a child has a father, a master, a protector, and the power of his father all around. Amen. I write Myself down with you again and again over the earth, and My Father calls you His little children on the earth, little children from above. Amen, amen, amen.

I still have to arrange some work upon you, sons anointed over the earth. I, the Lord from above, say a word beforehand and then I decree the work upon you. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I let come down a blessing over the water which sprang for you at the well of the little house in the hill, the first pearl which will stay around the Holy of My Holies from you. In the day of the synod of the St. John, the Baptizer, who had a work to do before My coming two thousand years ago, on this day of feast I will put My word over the well of the little house in the hill, so that you may use its water for your healings, which comes from Me, and we will put Elijah as a patron and holy man over it, the forerunner of My coming of today. And then I will put the angel of the well of the little house in the hill and We will make a heavenly feast, as the feasts are from Me and from you on the earth. And I will always come and add work by work, for you are My workers, and I will work with you everything that remains, and I will give you help in due time, for you can do nothing without Me, sons. Oh, and I have to give you much help, for I want to take you out from the burdens that press on your little hearts for My worries, and I want you to believe that I will help you at once, for the holy faith can do everything in you, into My name. Amen.

Oh, teach one another what watching for Me is and stand in watch for My work, and be with your little hands clean in your work for Me, for great power have in them the hands that are loosened between heaven and earth.

Sons keep My name well on you and make a name for Me, for it is for this that I elected you from among the sons of the people, and the entire human kind will see that I chose you, for it was not you that chose Me. Sons, there is a long way, as from heaven to earth, between the one who is chosen by God and the one who chooses God. Be wise sons, so that you may excel in any wisdom on the earth, for I gave you dominion over the earth and I established you as My workers, so that I may work out My last Scripture through you, the new heaven and the new earth for those who will inherit My name over those that are to come. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the birth of St. John, the Baptizer

I come down at My manger into the middle of the day. Amen, amen, amen.

I would have liked to come to you at daybreak to do the entire work of today from daybreak sons, but you are tired and weary, for it is written into the Scriptures: «The body opposes the spirit». The body is weak when tired and not rested. It is of no use to God but only then when it does those things of God. But you are My little children, as I chose you from among the sons of the people to prepare the word for My second coming on the earth. I sneak in through your fleshly worries to bring from heaven what is of value; to bring you the word of life sons, the word that gives life to the bodies. Amen.

It is a day of holy feast on earth with you. I come to leave power and blessing and grace over this work done by Me through your little hands. Prophet Elijah's fountain, so I call this work. My baptizer, puts his grace from Me over the water in the fountain, so that it may have power of cleaning over the souls, of repentance of the hearts, and of lifting up of the bodies to a holy work in the bodies. Amen.

Oh, little children of today, I would like to stay longer with you, but I look at your tired bodies and I hardly get in, for your weaknesses stand against Me, your troubles, for you are surrounded only by worries, watching sons in the way of My word. But I tell you this: the one, who hears My word in order to receive it, rejoices, sons. That is way, comfort each other in your weaknesses and take courage and take heart in order to overcome the weaknesses of the body, for your labor and worries make you very weak. But still, others are comforted with My word, for they are not as oppressed as you are.

I said that I will come with great help at once, and I will take away your burdens. You work hard for the fulfillment of My plan spoken by word with you; you work hard because you are poor and always do like the widow who gave everything she had, and afterwards she still borrowed to give more and to remain in debt.

The man, who lets his fingers loose when he has so that something may also fall down, that one makes God indebted. That one does this way so that I may give him back two and three times more, and I give him, for the one who looks for his reward here, here he receives it, for I am a righteous God, and I pay My way to the one who lends Me. However, you did not lend Me, but on the contrary, you borrowed to offer Me help and to do visibly My blessed work into My name, so that I may be the Master and you the heirs of My name. Amen.

The poor widow did not give Me in order that she may receive two or three times more. She gave with love, with longing and with self-denial, and she did no longer think at herself but she thought only at Me and only at My name on the earth. Another widow had nothing but an armful of hay and she brought everything she had and put it before Me. Behold I tell you a great mystery. Be careful with your souls in order to learn, and that all who came to Me may also learn, to be My workers. The man is not taken into account for what he gives to God. The man is taken into account for what is left to him, and if it is otherwise, he does not store up for heaven, but rather he receives his reward twofold or threefold on the earth, for each one stores up for himself where he wants, where his heart is, because it is written: «Where your treasure is, there your heart will also be».

Sons I want to give you enough food so that those that are without food may take, for every man on the earth is hungry and thirsty, because he does not eat and does not drink from Me, but he takes everything from the earth. I want sons, to give the earth what it asks Me for. Sons, I also want to give the man what he asks Me for. I want to give so that I may not owe the one who asks

Me and to be able to call into account the one whom I give. The earth asks Me for its cleanness and washing up and for the release of its transgressions on it. The earth groans with long groanings, for the earth is mother; it is the mother, which feeds the man; however, the man turns against it and sucks and grubs it and overthrows it upside down, and it stands as witness under man's foot, under man's workings on it. I told the earth what it has to give forth to the man. However, the man was not content with what I said because he is greedy.

Oh, sons, do not forget that you have to be destitute of the human things. Do not forget sons, for you have only what I told the earth to give the man. It is little, little, and the earth will close its door against man's greed and it will open up its mouth against the man's body, for the man forgot what he was and forgot what I told him: «You are dust and into dust you shall return, man, for you went wrong by being conceited». Oh, sons, do not forget that you have to be submitted to Me, for the one who does not submit, falls down by being haughty; he falls down into the dust. I want to make a judgment from your souls and bodies and spirits over the man who got out of the man. This is the work, which I have to fulfill over the souls and over your bodies and spirits. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, sons, do not forget that your bodies have to serve Me, not you, for the bodies of the sons of man stand against Me, as it is written: «The flesh lusts against the spirit». In his spirit the man wants life, but with his own body he works out death, and the works of the body darken the mind and bring it into carelessness and emptiness, which it feeds on.

Behold little children, we work wisely. We go to put My grace and blessing and My saints' over the well of the little house in the hill, the first little house near the Holy of Holies. Then I will bless your food for the body and we will have a rest in the word again, and we will work as much as the plan for today was, so that I may not be ashamed before My Father and before My saints and angels, and so that the evil spirit may not boast against Me and you. Oh, we have to work hard so that I may fulfill My visible plan. The earth asks for its cleanness and washing. The man asks Me for something else, and I will give the man what he asks for, but I tell the man not to forget that what he has been looking for and what he has done is only chasing after the wind, because the earth asks Me for its cleanness, sons, and in the day of the cleaning of the earth everything the man has built will be torn down, for the man is not a builder, but only for those that will no longer be. The human law is human, and everything that is human will come to an end, for the science will no longer have a way on the earth. Everything the man has worked for himself and for one another will be torn down, for the man violates God's law for his own law. And why will it be so, sons? It will be this way because the earth cries to Me and because it is written to fulfill and to turn against the man everything he has done. Everything I built is upset with the man through the angels because everything that was built by Me has an angel, and the angels cry before Me in order to give them the joy for which they were created.

Now, sons, let us go up to the little house in the hill. Bring before Me a service of consecration for the well of the hill little house, for the man needs to have from Me by petition, and everything that will be made out at the request of God's man. Amen. Ask for My kingdom on the earth to be established. Ask for the fulfillments of the Scriptures of My coming for the saints and with the saints, who were and who are, for I have told you that there are many who did not taste death during the time of those seven years. Oh, who else is asking for My kingdom on the earth? Ask sons, so that God may get out from man's slavery, for I have served the man and I have served him with mercy and hope, because that is why I have come, to serve and not to be served. The man serves to his own self and to his followers and cannot serve Me, because he is bound with another master; the man is bound for his body and is bound for the lust of his body, but as for you, ask for the fulfillment of My victory and for the man to bow to the law of My new word, which is coming again and again with Me to you, and for the man who has no path.

I give you from My word to speak through you the today's grace and blessing. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I let great grace and great power over this water. I let holiness over it so that the one who drinks of it may become holy. I leave a spirit of repentance on it for those who will take of it to repentance. Let the man take only for repentance, as for he who takes of it with a spirit of shallowness, it will work one way for some and in another way for others. Amen. Let the man use everything that is for repentance for the forgiveness of his sins, for the sins are forgiven only to the man who remains in repentance and not to the one who commits them again and again.

It is time for Me to come visibly, and that is why I knock at the gate of the man's house. I am on My way and the man doubts about this and serves to his own self and to his followers, as in the time of Noah, for this is written that I will find when I come. But as for you, watch out for you have to labor so that I may fulfill My coming and to give each one according to what is written into the Scriptures.

Blessed it be the supper for your being and for your little mouths, hands, feet, word, thing and walk. I am with you to bless you and to have a blessing from you sons.

I am waiting for you again to sit before My word, as I will be again with a word over you for as long as the plan of day of today was. Amen, amen, amen.

*

I, the Lord, let Myself in the book and I become word for this day of feast, as much as it is to be spoken today. Take care of My things sons, for I will give them to you to take care of them by your holy life, for everything is holy for those who are holy.

When the world around sees that you work doing a good deed of My word brought by Me to you in order to fulfill it visibly and to be true in the word, it says that you store up riches for yourselves. Oh, those that you work into My name are not yours. They are Mine sons, as you also are Mine. They are My plan that you fulfill. They are My hard work that I labor to be on the earth. They are My name, and are memorial stones of My coming as word to you, upon the earth. You work hard for the accomplishment of My plan on the earth, for you are poor. You do not do like the man who brings Me into debt if you work for Me; you do not work to make Me owe you, for you do not seek for the reward on the earth, but rather you seek that My name may be on every work accomplished by you on earth, so that I may be the Master, for I have told you to make a name for Me on the earth.

He who makes Me a name, that one has his name near My name, for such a reward I give to the man who completely gives himself over to Me; however, the man who lives for his own self and for those who are like him to make a name and a rank for himself among the people, that one is a haughty man and unjust to himself and to his neighbors. When the name of the man is of no use to Me, that one is not a name, even if it is written with big letters in time, and such a name is of no use to the man except for My judgment, for I said that everything the man does on earth will stand against him. The one, who makes Me a name, has a name, if he does become conceited, only if he does not bring Me into debt because he made Me a name.

Oh, sons, it is good for the man to be poor among the people, but not all the poor are destitute and humble, for he who is haughty by nature, does not get rid of this sin even if he is destitute of those on the earth. The world comes to see and asks you when it sees that you stay with a boundary among you and with world for My place with you; it asks you if you call yourselves My elected, if you believe that you are elected. Oh, the world is used to have a name. The man in the world is haughty by nature, and it eats what it reaps. You are not haughty by nature, for it was I that I wanted this, not you, for I use the man who is humble in his heart and deed; I use him and Me as well, for everything I do on the earth with the man is useful. The name of the man is of no use to Me when I make use of him, but it is useful to him only if he is humble, only if he does not get haughty, only if he does not make Me owe him that he made Me a name. When I tell you to make Me a name on the earth, I put you to work into My name and I tell you to put My name over the work that you work at; I put you to ask Me with My blessing in your work. All I want to do with you, I give you to do, but first I tell you to ask for what I give you to do, and that is why I told you that all those that will be, will be made at the man's request of God. Amen.

Sons, tell Me what is God's man? How can a man be God's man? Sons, say it for the man on earth becomes haughty and says that he is chosen and that he is God's man. Say it sons and I listen to you. Amen.

— The man of God is that one who makes and shares God's kingdom over the earth and over the people; he is that one who establishes the holy law of God's commandments, keeping it with his soul, with his body and with his spirit; it is the one who shows the man the sin done against his own self and the sin done against God; it is that one who hears God and starts to fulfill the word given to him by God without partiality. The man of God is the one who makes a name for God by humility and self-denial, not looking forward to a reward. The man who obeys God is God's man.

— Oh, sons, I put your wisdom to test to show the haughty man the growth that I gave him, the wisdom that I give to the man who obeys Me, the man who has nothing for himself, but only for Me. And I, the Lord, at the request of God's man, come from heaven on earth and establish the kingdom of the heavens, as it is written into the Scriptures that I have to fulfill, and if I fulfill it, the haughty man will have no room on the earth, for I come on the earth with the kingdom of the heavens, and I make the kingdom fall down on the people. Amen, amen, amen.

Sons, the seed is small, but I will make it grow into a big tree. You are the kernel that I sown on the soil to become a big tree in which the birds of the sky may come together, as it is written. Teach the man who seeks the Lord; teach him to gain his freedom that the birds of the sky have, sons. Teach the man to get out of slavery, for woe to the one whom I find in slavery when I come! I have come to make the slaves free, so that they may come into the heavenly kingdom. I have come to release those that are bound and to tell them to take their cross and follow Me, for the one who is bound cannot come after Me in order to guide him to the country, which I come on the earth with.

Let the man come and serve Me, for I came on the earth to establish a new building on him, a country for saints, and let he who comes be careful to the Scriptures which says: «Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take out his things that are in his house. Let him who is in the field not return back to take his clothes, for woe to those who are with child and woe to nursing mothers in those days, which have not been yet since the beginning of the world, but for those that are elected they will be shortened». Sons, teach the one who comes after Me not to let his heart go to those that he has, to those that he earned, to those that he scraped through, for woe to those who will do this in the day of their calling, for it is written: «He who seeks to save his life will lose it, and he who loses it will gain it», for «in that night two will be in one bed and one will be taken and the other will be left», and «wherever the carcass is, there will the vultures be gathered together». And this testimony and this word of Mine, which is the Gospel of My kingdom, will be spread into the whole world and to all the nations, as it is written about the end that will come after this.

Oh, the false prophet goes from place to place for he has money. The people on the earth are weak-hearted and sell each other and to one another. The iniquity finishes off the man and My Gospel crosses from one margin to another, as it is written before My coming. Behold, sons, why I say that it is woe to the man who makes himself a name on the earth, for the man is like grass and he needs to be humble and not haughty. He who is humble is exempted from many sins, from many traps, and the haughty one receives his life on the earth from riches, ranks and haughtiness. I come to you with a soul nourishing word to let the man know that he does not watch and that I come unexpectedly, for the earth groans with long groanings that I may wash it away from the man's evil things and from his carelessness on it, and from the bodies that make him dirty day and night with debaucheries and devilish parties. Little and little it is, and the earth will become new again by cleaning. The prophet Elijah will fulfill this Scripture of the cleansing of the earth and he will make My path straight, for I and the saints and angels made everything ready for My coming with them.

The voice of John, the Baptizer crosses the time and cries out from near Me:

— Oh, people, bring forth fruits worthy of repentance for that baptism with fire is coming, and you are far off from God. The suffering is coming over the bodies, for the Lord cleanses his threshing floor for His coming, and He will gather His wheat into the barn, but the chaff He will burn up with unquenchable fire. Enter the narrow gate, for the way of lawlessness leads to destruction, and multitudes over multitudes walk on it. The narrow path is the narrow gate, but it leads to life. Rush to it, you sons of the people and keep away from the prophets of the lie, for only their coat is of sheep, but they are as rapacious as wolves in their inside. Look at their fruits for the grapes are not gathered from the thorns or the figs from the thistles. The good tree bears good fruits, but the evil tree bears bad fruits and they are cut and thrown into the fire. Behold, if you want to know them, you may know them after their fruits, for into the kingdom of the Son of God there will enter only the one who does His Father's will and not everybody who says: "Lord, Lord".

Oh, people, those who prophesy without doing God's will, those who do miracles before the people to pose as God, soon, soon will hear the Lord's mouth speaking: «Depart from Me and do not rush to Me, you who work iniquity into My name. I never knew you, for anyone who hears My words and does not fulfill them, that one is not fruit and is like the one who built his house on the sand».

Oh, sons of man, bring forth fruits worthy of repentance, for any tree that does evil fruits, is soon, soon cut and thrown into the fire. Amen, amen, amen.

— Behold, I, the Lord, released John's voice after two thousand years for the repentance of the people. Let him, who has nowhere to learn the work of repentance from, come to Me if he wants to learn, for there are only false prophets on earth who speak about the good things, but they do not do them.

The one who wants to come after Me, let him deny himself take up his cross as his way of life and come this way. Amen. But what cross should one take up? Should he really take up his cross and his worries and the troubles of his works? Oh, this Scripture is not to be understood this way, but here is how it is to be understood: Let the man take up his cross on his shoulders as I took it and went with it on Golgotha to be crucified. Let the man follow Me there. Let the man take up the cross of his lawlessness and lay on it and follow Me this way; this way, crucified, for the one who is not crucified is free and commits iniquities with his body. Let the man leave his shameful cross and take up the cross of glory, the cross of crucifixion through which the world is dead to him, and he is dead to it, for the works of the world are the life of the hell on earth, the mirror of the hell in which the man looks and sees his own face. I, the Lord, came down into the book with this word for this day of repentance: let the man take up his cross of crucifixion, as I took it, to follow Me on the earth for the cleaning of the lawlessness on it, for soon, soon, the lawlessness and its bodies will melt away like wax.

As for you sons from the manger, serve Me and the Gospel of My coming that I may be preached by it from margins to margins, as I have already done it, and to bring the day of the end of lawlessness for the entire world. And the one who wants to save his life will lose it and will take up his cross and follow Me by denying himself and loving Me.

Work at the building of those that will remain, sons. Everything that you do, do it into My name. This is how you should work, for the people who build for Me churches and monasteries, as they say, finally they give them to people, not to Me, and they boast about My name. Oh, the buildings of the churches and monasteries have to be for those who serve Me day and night, not for the world and not for the empty glory of the man who becomes My servant, from his own reading, to become conceited with My name before those who do not know what God means. All the worldly churches, from brick and stone, will be torn down at My command and a living church will remain on earth, a heavenly church with heavenly servants and heavenly sons on the earth, through My living church. Amen.

Work to the building of those who will remain, sons. Teach those who seek Me with you to know what God with man means. Make Me a name amongst people, sons. Spread the Gospel of the heavens on earth from margins to margins, for this is written before My coming, and then I will come, for now it is time to come. Amen, amen, amen.

The of the holy apostles, Peter and Paul

Wake up to welcome Me, watching sons in the garden. I come at daybreak and work out the word in the book. Amen. I have you as the path of My coming down, as word on earth. I warm up your little hearts so that I may enter them with the salvation mysteries for you and for those who receive the word of heavenly wisdom from Me. Amen.

The man on earth passes them all through the chamber of his mind and that is why he loses the truth of My mysteries from age to age, but I am true by My things that are unfathomable, for the man who works with his mind remains insensitive to My mysteries. This is what happened to the Israel people in the time I was born an Israelite from the Virgin at Father Sabaoth's command, Who spoke by the prophets about My mystery in the sixth age of the people.

I have always been warming up your little hearts sons, to make them into a warm house for Me and for My mysteries with which I come with to fulfill them, as I fulfilled the mystery of My birth of the Virgin two thousand years ago. However, Israel did not want to understand and it had grown callous in its mind and heart, for Isaiah said: «They will hear with their ears and will not understand, see with their eyes, but will not see, for the heart of this people has grown callous». But I, the Lord, the One born of a Virgin in Israel, I, the One crucified on the cross by Israel, I, the One Who is resurrected from crucifixion for Israel's judgment, ascended then to the Father so that I may come back again from the Father. And I have come. All were written into the prophets and I fulfilled them as they were written. Oh, the prophecies are not false and they are fulfilled for all are being fulfilled in Me and they are the unfathomable mystery for those who have grown callous at the voice of My prophets.

I have come to you from heaven with My apostles that I travelled with two thousand years ago. Let us give them comfort into My garden from you. Sons, let us make them room so that they may confess again the mystery hidden from age and not understood by angels and people. Let us give them the seats of judgments for Israel, for this is what I promised them, as it is written into the prophets: «The Lord will judge His people». Amen.

Oh, beloved disciples, faithful Israelites, your heart did not grow callous at My voice, which called you to walk with Me on earth and be fishermen of people for the supper of the kingdom of the heavens. Oh, faithful disciples, I cast the net into the sea and gathered all kinds of fish into it. And then I pulled it to the shore and sat and chose what was good and I threw away what was bad. I chose you and I made you believe with your heart, and I spread My word of eternal life to all the nations through you, My witnesses from then and until today, for My Scriptures and yours testify about this, and the man has nothing to replace them with as truth. Now, after two thousand years, when I come with the saints on earth, as it is prophesied that I come, here I am with you in the today's pavilion of the heavenly assembly on earth. I come to the heavenly feasts with angels and saints, for I have a resting pavilion in the Romanian country, My New Israel, a people taken out of the Romanians so that I may sow in the heaven with it, an eternal kingdom with the faithful man. I comfort you with My sons in the garden. I opened the gates of the garden, and I came through the gates with you into the garden, for I have also got faithful sons like you today. I comfort you because you suffered for My Gospel. I embrace you at My bosom, because you are as living as I am. I give you the opportunity to confess today, after two thousand years, that I am your dwelling place, Jerusalem coming down with the saints on the earth, and I give you the twelve hidden chairs, so that you may sit on them for the Israel's judgment. Amen.

— Oh, Lord, bless the council of Your apostles into the garden of Your word of today, into the Romanian country. It is the first and the last, as You ordained it. Amen.

We, the heavenly council of Your apostles, got together into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, together with Your witnesses of today, Lord. We are Israel's remnant, for it is written into the prophets: «Even if Israel will be as numerous as the sea sand, its remnant will be saved and the word of the truth will be confessed».

What good is it for the one who knows the law from cover to cover, if he does not fulfill it, Lord? But he who became a Christian according to the truth, that one put the Israelite to shame, and we speak the word saying: the Jews know the Law and the Christians fulfill it. Amen.

You were the sign sent by Father to Israel, Lord, for this is what Isaiah, the prophet, spoke by the Spirit: «The Lord will give a sign to Israel: behold, the Virgin will conceive, and bear a son, and shall call His name, Immanuel».

We have come on the earth with You, Lord, for it is the time of Your coming after two ages since the fulfillment of Your birth from the Virgin. We have come here where You have set the seats of judgment for Israel and for all the nations, for You started a court case for the nations, as it was written into the prophets. We, the council of Your Israelite apostles, sit for the judgment of the Israel people on the twelve seats according to the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel. Bless the fulfillment of the Scriptures, and bless the entrance of Your saints, Lord! Amen, amen, amen.

— I blessed you on earth, and I blessed you in heaven, and I bless you again on earth after two thousand years, so that you may sit on the twelve seats that I give you, oh, loved disciples. Confess the word of truth over the people of Israel, which has grown callous since then and until today. I put near you other twelve seats and on them there sit the twelve sons of Jacob, who was called Israel, and from whom this people have come out. They will be the witnesses of your testimony, and then I will judge Israel's creature. Amen, amen, amen.

— We, the council of Your apostles from heaven, speak this way, Lord: the Lord has compassion on His people, he lifts up the meek and crowns with victory those that are humble in order to give glory to the Lord with their mouths; however, the double-edged sword is in His hand, and he takes revenge against those that are not faithful and punishes the nations and ties their kings to the rims and puts their rulers in shackles, and fulfills His decree with them as it is written. Amen.

The twenty-four seats are placed into the midst of Romania, the country of the Lord's judgment, and twenty-four Israelites sit on them. Half of them come from the beginning of Israel, and the other half come from the end of Israel. They have the faith to stand before God for Israel. Amen. No one can judge the faithful one, but on the contrary, he can judge everyone for God. The One, Who sends His word on earth, is the Lord, Whose Word runs fast; it is the Lord, Who proclaims His word to Jacob, applying His corrections and judgments for Israel. Amen.

Listen, you, sons of Israel! What good is it to the one who knows the Law from cover to cover, if he does not fulfill it? Behold, the teaching and the life are not received from those that are learned, for the poor man thanks to the one who gives him, if he gives him well, and he does not look to see if the one who gives him alms and life is wise or simple. Do you believe in the prophets? We know you do. The prophets made a name for themselves and for their people, testifying about God's justice. This is how we work too, we who were faithful disciples of the Truth, Who came from heaven on earth into the midst of Israel two thousand years ago, when you became callous not to believe in order to fulfill Isaiah's prophecy which says: «You will ever be hearing with your own ears but never understanding, you will be ever seeing but never perceiving, for this people's heart has become calloused, and they hardly hear with their ears, and they have closed their eyes, otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts, and turn, and I would heal them».

Then the Lord left wondering away with His grace into His arms, and He chose again a place for Him. He made a new people and asked it into marriage and called it the country of His returning to the end of the time, the country of brightness, for the things that He put on them now, at the end of the times; the country of the Romanians, which has been raised through Christ, at the preaching of His messengers. The Lord set in it our judgment seats for Israel as well, for we are Israelites. We have no way of staying in the country of Israel, because of Israel's disbelief, because Israel's haughtiness, but we are Israelites on earth and in heaven, and we are alive by our faith in Jesus Christ, Who came on earth by a Virgin, fulfilling Isaiah's prophecy through the people of Israel. However, you did not believe and grew callous. Now, we, God's chosen remnant through grace, preach this word over you saying: it was not by the law that Abraham and his seed received the promise that they would inherit the world, but by the righteousness that comes from faith, for if the heirs are those that have the law, then their faith is futile, and the promise was abolished, since the law brings about a cause of wrath. However, where there is no law, there is also not a law breaking. So the promise is by faith alone, so that it may be as a gift and to have reliability for everyone; both for those who live according to the law and for those who live according to Abraham's faith, whom the Lord told this way: «I made you a father for many nations, and this is how your seed will be». Amen.

Or, do you not know that the law has power over the man as long as he lives? For if the married woman is bound to her husband by law as long as he lives, and if her husband dies, she is free from law. And so it is with us; we died to the law by Christ and by His body, to be His, of the One Who rose from the dead, to be fruitful to God for the renewal of the Spirit, not by the oldness of the letter. The law is holy and spiritual, and the commandment is also holy, good and right, but the body is flesh and is sold under the sin. However, Jesus Christ saved us from the body of this death, to be His for the renewal of the Spirit. Amen. We are the witnesses of Christ's resurrection, Whom God raised from the dead, and to Whom He put His enemies under His feet. Let the entire house of Israel know that the One they crucified was made Lord and Christ.

Take it to your heart, Jacob's sons, for we are Israelites and are the witnesses of this fulfillment. Repent from the sin of unbelief and be baptized into the name of Jesus Christ as we are for the forgiveness of your sins, so that you may have the Holy Spirit and be able to perceive with Him the heavenly mysteries, which come on the earth with Jesus Christ, the One Who is coming the second time from near His Father. He is the stone disregarded by you, builders, but it came to be the cornerstone and there is no salvation in anyone else, for there is no other name given to us, humans, by which we may be saved.

We have spread Christ's testimony all over and we did not give the gift of the power from above to anyone on money, the power, which was in us in order to bear testimony of the truth of Jesus Christ's mystery, for we gave ourselves over to Him in obedience, because Moses told to the sons of Israel: «The Lord, our God will raise a Prophet like me; you should listen to Him». But whom of the prophets did your fathers not persecute because they foretold the coming of the Righteous One? For you received the law ordained by angels and you did not kept it.

You read in the prophets. Do you believe in the prophets? We know that you do. Do you really believe what you read in the prophets? Oh, how should you understand, if you did not accept someone to lead you? «He was brought before the shearer as a mute sheep that is led to the slaughter; so He did not open His mouth. He was taken away by oppression and judgment, but who will tell about His kindred? For He gave His life for the sinners»; this is what was prophesied in the Scriptures.

We come now, for we are alive forever, and Christ gave us the judgment seats for you in Israel that did not believe, as you did not receive what you have been looking for, while those that were chosen among you received them, and you, the others, have grown callous as it is written: «God gave them a spirit of drowsiness and eyes that they might not see and ears that they may not hear up to the present», and «by their downfall He gave the salvation to the Gentiles, so that Israel may long for them».

We come to you to stir up your zeal, for if your removal brought about the reconciliation of the world, what will be your receiving back, if not resurrection from the dead? Many a nation have received the truth through Christ, and as once these did not listen to God and many received compassion by your disobedience, likewise, you have also not listened by now so that by His mercy, given to them, you may also receive mercy, if you receive the Son of God. Amen.

The time will come and it has already come, when the dead hear the voice of the Son of God. Give your ears and anoint your eyes with salve, you, people of Israel, for we are from among you, a remnant chosen by grace to intercede with God for the whole Israel that will come to life at the voice of God's Son, Who is coming after two thousand years as a Judge from the Father to give each one according to his own deed. Amen, amen, amen.

Lord, seal with fire signet the word of Your apostles gathered together in a council of saints in the garden of Your judgment seat, for the Romanian country is Your new country, the country of Your returning for Israel and for all the peoples of the earth. Lord, fulfill the resurrection of the dead. We have been the witnesses of Your resurrection for two thousand year, and until today, and today we bear witness from Romania. It is the first and the last, as You ordained it. Amen, amen, amen.

— I, the Lord and Your teacher, seal your faith in heaven about My today's country, the first and the last. When I made the heaven and the earth, it was the first hand of dry land into My hand when the earth came out of the waters, and now it is the last one, and it is, and I make it into a salvation oasis, a saving ark for the saints on earth, in order for Me to come true in it with the Scriptures of the establishment of the kingdom of the heavens on earth for those that are righteous, for those with power from above in them.

I can hardly draw the man on to the way of salvation. The man hardly goes to heaven, for he has much on his back, and he walks this way; he walks with his house on his back, at a snail's pace. The true Christian has power from above; he has heavenly power in his soul and with it he prevails against the world and against the body and the devil, but the Christian of today has no power, even if he is baptized. The devil and the world does not get scared of the one who is baptized, of the one who is marked by the sign of the cross, if this one has no power from above. That one is like the sign that made by man out of rags and put into the orchards to scare away the birds, which eat the fruits, but the birds do not get scared of something like that. The Christians are strong and weak, and I, the Lord, when I cast the fishing net into the sea to catch all kinds of fish, I pull it then to the shore and sit down and choose what is good, and what is bad I throw away. The strong Christians are like the big fish, which live in bitter waters; they are those who swim in the waters of trials and sufferings and are victorious, and the weak ones seek the water of the worldly sweetness and they are not good Christians. That is why I use great trials for those who have power from above by their faith, for the gentleness is not good when it comes to the mystery of the man's salvation. The man's nature is old and it can be awoken in the man who is not careless in his watch, and it can kill again the man, who wakes up from his drowsiness to be alive, to be a Christian committed to God. The fleshly nature does not need to be tamed, but rather killed; it must be kept bound by cross, by crucifixion and by birth from above. The Christian, weak with his life, remembers God only now and then. There are many who stay carelessly, making Me their debtor for a little bit of mercy shown to their neighbors, but I give them their reward on earth, and when they leave the earth, they do not come to Me, for the heaven is earned through repentance. It is the deed, which brings the man to Me, and without it he has no reward in heaven but only on earth.

The Christian of today and the teacher of today do not spread light among the people, for the people do not see life with a light in them. Paul, the apostle, said this: «It is not those who listen but those who fulfill the word that will be saved». This was also in the time of My apostles of that time. Many dead people were seeking to stand up among the living that were body by body into My name, serving Me and going to war with Me against unbelief. The soldiers stand side by side united in Me while waging the holy war, and if the one who dies, overcome by the evil spirit, remains on foot, he walks among the living without being seen that he is dead. Oh, it was hard for My disciples of that time! Many have been crowding to enter in the church and to fall heavy on the body of the church. Oh, how much teaching I have released then through those who were bearing witness to Me, but those who lack power from above were sneaking stealthily, as they were afraid of My wrath; however, they were not bearing any fruits of repentance, they did not bury their own words and they were intriguing against those that were united near Me.

Once upon a time there was a wise man, and someone came to reveal him a happening heard from the world. And he replied this: "If you heard this and you do not know that it is true, or if it is of any good or if it is not useful to me, then go and bury your words that you want to say to me".

Oh, how nice it would be for a man to shake a man off any vanity and for a man to pray for God's man for his salvation! The prayer should touch the heaven, so that the heaven may give power from above to the Christian, and if it does not give the man the gift of the power from above, the man does not know what prayer is. I work hard for the Gospel of My peace in order to reach from place to place all over the earth, because I want to make peace between man and heaven, you sons from the garden. I have you as judges upon the people all over the earth that call themselves Christians and that have no power from above in action, in faith and in prayer. I sigh really hard, as I can nowhere clean of dead bodies, those that come together in My name, so that they may give themselves to Me. There are everywhere more dead bodies than alive, but I told you through the Spirit: "Get out and be separated, and do not touch the dead, so that you may be received by Me and that I may be your God to be able to walk with you from place to place, keeping you away from the dead ones".

Oh, it is a great wonder for a living church to be on earth. Sons, what this mystery: „living church” is? The weak ones lie to each other about this mystery. Their teachers put them off with fine promises, but they are not alive as well. What is this mystery of „living church”, sons? Speak, for I listen to you. Amen.

— Where there are doers of commandments and of word, there where they, who crucified themselves to the sin, to the world and to the devil, gather together, there where brothers live together in an endless repentance, doing only God's will and uniting with the Lord through the church and holiness, there is a living church, and if the thief sneaks into it to steal the holy ones, who has not got a wedding garment and does not know God's will in the flesh, there the mystery of the church, the life of the church and the cleanness of the church is spoiled, and there is no longer a living church there, because of joining with those that are dead in the world, who do not value the holy ones by a holy life in the body of the church.

— Oh, sons, oh, sons, oh, sons, I sigh hard, for it is a great miracle to be a living church on earth, and that is why I speak to you, and have you speak with Me too, to clear up with you the mysteries unfathomable to the mind of the man. A man's mind is a cold house, and the man does not want to give Me his heart, so that I may make him perceive by it the answer to My mysteries, unfathomable to the mind of the man. But I put you before Me to have you for Me. Bring together for Me disciples like you, sons, to make a great Israel in the midst of the Romanian people. Teach those who seek me with you to know what a man's coming to God and a man to be with God is; and also tell them that I am a jealous God and that I can have for Me only the one who is not double-minded in his heart, love and faith. Tell those who seek Me with you not to make Me trouble, not to oppress you and not ask from you; not seek you but rather God. Amen. Search the Scriptures to see the teaching of My apostles for those who wanted to be in the community of My servants. He who comes near to have weight with you, that one should become wise from the Scriptures of My apostle who worked hard then for the ignorance of those that wanted to be one body with those who were working hard serving My Gospel. I have opened the heaven again, and I divide Myself with My Gospel from margins to margins and I have you who work hard beside Me in the middle of an unfaithful nations and pagan with its life.

Spread the word of My teaching sons, so that I may make a holy and great Israel into the midst of the Romanian people through holiness and self-denial before Me. The earth is full of bodies, and My Spirit is homeless. I want the haughty mountains to fall down at the voice of the Holy Spirit, Who has His dwelling with you. I want every man to bow and to hear My voice from the garden, My voice with you, the voice which is calling out to the man to come under My authority, so that I may make a country of saints on earth, and for Me to be the Master, as in heaven so on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of eight years after the laying down of the foundation stone of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

I come from My Father to you as a word, sons, watchmen in the garden of My word. The invisible heaven know all of you that you are a manger of My coming down on earth in the last days. Again and again I have to stay with you as a word among the people, for it is the time of the last judgment, and it is being done by word. It is the beginning of perfecting of every fulfillment. Amen.

I am with you and with heaven in the day of celebration upon My garden of today, the day when I, the Lord, fastened the first stake of My visible kingdom, for the work of My word with you was discovered, seen between the heaven and earth in the twenty second day of the seventh month, eight years ago, sons. Then you made an accomplished deed and I revealed Myself to the people speaking from the midst of My garden from you. I revealed Myself with you as a visible church, a heavenly life in man, for this is what a church means, and I made ready the garden from you for feasting and I put upon it the ark in which My word bears witness for the judgment upon the earth, the heaven speaking to the earth. This is the mystery of My garden made out with you and on you, and the mystery of My ark on it, in which the day of the judgment stays, My word upon the earth which says: „Today!“ But My enemy, the man, has always arisen and says: „Tomorrow, not today!“ I have always said: „Today, man!“ and the man has always said: „Tomorrow.“ The earth groans with a long groaning and waits for the word of melting of the lawlessness on him. Ten days ago I delivered a word and said to you: „I want the mountains fall down at the voice of the Holy Spirit, Who has His house and seat with you. I want every man bow down and hear My voice from the garden and the voice of the justice which cries out to the man.“ And when I said this word, I already fulfilled it, and I shook the mountains and caught the man beneath them. (It was an earthquake in Romania, r.n.)

Oh, sons, let the man stop at My word and see that I am God, the Most High on earth, and that I am a strong citadel for those who believe into the greatness of My word, which become a deed of judgment upon the unbelievers. I have a book of judgment made out at you, and it is written in it that I will speak with the drunkards and libertines through water and earthquake. The drunkards have made up a sea of drinking against them, and behold, the sea runs over its bed and swallows its pray. The unrestrained have raised the earth under them against them, and behold, the earth is shaking and collapsing over the man, and if the people do not come to repentance, all will perish likewise. But the man has no mind. The world has been having parties and it does not repent for those who perish at the voice of My word. Oh, how great the carelessness of the man who fell from God is! Behold, the mountains listen to Me and fall down when I tell them to do so, but the man does not bow for repentance and for prayer so that I may protect and forgive him and to raise him to life for the day of My glory. It still is only a little bit of time and My glory arises over the entire earth like the sun, which rises in the morning over all creatures. In a little while, I will fulfill the last word written into the Scriptures: the day of My coming with glory on earth. I prepare this day little by little and I clean the way of My coming and I make the earth bring forth from place to place at the voice of My word. The man hardly stands up for repentance and love of God, for he is a liar when he says „Tomorrow“, and comes under the judgment of My word, which said „Today!“

Oh, little children with whom I comfort Myself in the pains of waiting, oh, faithful sons, I have nothing to lift up for repentance as the man made all the days dirty, and he does not give Me any day to have a rest from the pain, which comes from the man's separation from Me. All the days are the same for the man, as it is written: «The man stumbles in a day time, for it is dark on earth». Oh, there is only sin, only night on earth, only lawlessness, only lying, for the man's light is a lie. I cry and complain and the saints and angels also cry with Me, for it is only night in the way of My coming. I do no longer see in order to come, and behold I come at night and everything is desolated. But as for you, pray for My coming, for this prayer feeds your love of God, the love which grows only through the prayer which is felt by heart, the love which illuminates the way of My coming, sons, for it is only dark on earth. Amen, I say to you: I will stretch out My hand and I will strike the light made by man and I will take revenge on the man's accomplishment, for everything the man does is only lying, and he stands haughtily against Me and says that I cannot, but he can. I can do more than him, but in order for him to see that I can, I need to show him that I can. And I will show him in a twinkling of an eye, because I will stretch out My hand and speak and destroy in an instant all the accomplishment the man has made to stand with it against My power. I come from the prophets with this word, and not only from today. Today I declare it again, for it is the time to also fulfill it, for the cup of the lawlessness was poured out and it catches the iniquity in its way. But as for him that wants to come after Me, let him come. Let the one, who wants, come. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, sons, oh, sons, oh, sons, the man does not come. He stands by those that he has made and there it is where My coming finds him. The man does not need to say that the mountains may fall on him, for it is not by mouth that the man calls forth the destruction on him, rather he does so by everything that he does against God, and that is why I have told you that the poor widow from the Gospel will be preached all over the world once with My Gospel against the rich who are judged by their own riches, for their riches stand against them and the poor widow and her money judge the rich that do not have God. The poor are the judges of the rich, for the poor give to God and are loved because of their humility, and the rich close their hands and are removed from God's mercy because of their haughtiness. The man builds big houses for himself out of unjust riches and loses his mind, not thinking any longer to the answer, which he has to give to God. The man's work is not just, because he does nothing for God. The man dies for himself and for his name and for his followers, and he has nothing from God. The haughty man does not know what the good deed for heaven is when he tries to boast about his good deeds. He cannot do any good deed and he does not want to believe that he cannot. A good deed is then when the man gives God to the man, and then he helps his neighbor to have God. Only the one who does this knows what the good deed for heaven is. In vain the man gives bread to the poor, if that one does not have God within himself.

Sons from the garden, you are those who do well to God, for I have taught you and you knew what the good work is. Where is the man supposed to know from, if he does not learn from Me? You live for Me, you work for Me, you help the saints, for they, who gave themselves over to Me with their own life and work between heaven and earth, those are My saints on earth, and I make a new people of them, a New Jerusalem and a new age, for the world and its iniquities are an old age. Give Me to the one who comes after Me and after you. That is the mercy that you can have on the one who asks for mercy from you, for you are destitute of those on earth, because in vain does the man have all he has. But you have God as your wealth; you have Me for a spring of wisdom and comfort and protection over you, and I give you the new age to work sons, and let the new age, on which I am the Master with those that are holy in man, be on earth.

Pray for My coming, for this prayer nourishes your love for Me, sons. Pray with your heart full of prayer, and may your prayer be holy. Amen, amen, amen. Oh, what is a holy prayer? Who is the man who brings to Me a holy prayer? Open your little mouth and speak, for I listen to your answer and bring it before those who have no wisdom, to their own judgment. Amen, amen, amen.

— The holy prayer is the Spirit of God Who prays in man. It asks the Holy Ones with sighs to come upon the man who prays. Only the holy man knows to lift it up, because the holy prayer takes the man from the earth and brings it to heaven, there where the treasure of his heart is. If the man is praying to the heaven to have those on the earth, that man did not perceive with his mind and his heart the mystery of the holy prayer. The prayerful man should ask nothing from the Lord but the Lord as the Master upon his being, and those that are needful for him are in the Lord's care. The man who brings to God a holy prayer has only one concern: the care to serve God by everything that he works with his soul, spirit and body. The holy prayer is that one which brings the Lord as dweller and Master in the soul, spirit and the body of the holy man.

— I, the Lord say: amen, and seal your word and have it as a testimony, sons, that I gave you a holy growth to work at the plan of the accomplishment of My kingdom on earth with you and with those that have Me through you, for I have made of you the gates through which the saved ones enter the kingdom of the new age which I, the Lord, brought upon you. You are the sons of the holy age, for this is what a new age means, and the new age is only the age of the saints, as the old age is only for the sinners, who chose the sin as love and life, the separating wall between man and God.

I, the Lord, seal your wisdom and have it as a judge upon any kind of wisdom which wants to be named wisdom. I, the Lord, have you, the gates that I enter through, to make Myself perfect as the word of salvation or of judgment upon the earth. Amen. Those who have learnt from the books on earth about Me want to come in to Me by the oldness of the letter. But you are My gate, you that are made new by the Spirit, and he, who will not enter the gates, that one will not get in to Me. The servants of the church are no gates for heaven, for they are from the earth and seek chairs and ranks, and seek to hide from the light of My word, which watches the earth of My little garden from you. I will send them bad swellings, as they fill the wheat of My teaching with blast, for they did not fulfill My holiness in them, and seek chairs in the first places, in My name. I will send them blast, soon, soon, so that it may eat their wheat and barley and they will blaspheme God because of their affliction and swellings, but they will not repent of their own deeds. I will command My angel to cast cutlass and to gather the vineyard of the earth into the winepress of My wrath, for they who call themselves My vineyard, (The church of the world, r.n.), trade unfairly into My name, man and make the man fall asleep, saying that I do no longer come. They did not walk in My holiness, but they wanted to be great. Oh, only he who is holy in his heart, body and soul is great, and other king of greatness is not greatness.

The earth groans with longs groanings; the forefathers who have been waiting for the resurrection of the dead also groan, and the earth is nothing but full of riots, and the spirit of the holy teaching cries out in lengthy sighs waiting for Me to come. And if it cries, I come, and here is how I come: I come and destroy from place to place the debauchery and its body, the lying and its body, the carelessness and its body, and I will start with the rulers who wanted to be greater in My name over the people, and I will put them to shame and tell them that they can do nothing, because I, the Lord, am the One Who am and the One Who can. I am the One Who speak the word so that I may fulfill it afterwards. Amen, amen, amen.

I have written Myself in the book of today with a feast from heaven over the garden, to seal the mystery of this day, when I, the Lord, have laid through you the foundation stone of the new age, over which I am Master with My holy things for the saints. Let the man say as much as he wants that you are haughty, for it is because of his shame that the great man says so, and he hides behind the lie of his words. But I testify about Myself through you, and I call you the gates between heaven and earth, on which, the one who wants, can come in to Me, fulfilling the commandments between the gates within a holy living for My coming. I come through the gates for I am the Good Shepherd, the true One. I am with those that are humble, and I hide from the one who lives in the spirit of the human glory, and I give him a spirit of drowsiness, the spirit of self-aggrandizement, by which the man thinks that he stands up.

I would like to comfort the one that is aggrieved and humbled by the worldly church servants, the one who is denigrated for My name's sake, the bishop Irineu, who is in chains, for he loved Me when I needed his love and faith, for I wanted to wake up Romania in gentleness, but she did not want it through the unfaithful over it. Now I wake her up and tell her that her unbelief did not cut My way to her, for I am King over Zion, proclaiming My commandment and say: sons from the garden speak your word, and I will come. Pray for My coming, for the great ones in their spirit would want to prolong their time. However, the earth cries to Me and asks Me to come and clean the man's haughtiness from it. I wanted to work out gently My coming for Romania, for it is the country of My second coming from near Father, Judge over the earth. I was not received to come in a spirit of gentleness, as the rulers of Romania and of the church in it, took Me as a demon and denigrated the one by whom I wanted to reconcile it to the Father and to wake it up for the glory of My day. I have not found anyone worthy among those that call themselves My church; I have not found anyone but Him and I sent him to knock so that it might be opened for Me and that I may enter with the day of My glory for Romania. Now, the bowl of mercy was emptied, but the bowl of My wrath was filled up, for Romania received Me with unbelief through the one who was sent by Me from its midst. Now, I command My angels to go from place to place pouring out the cleansing bowl in order to destroy the spirit of unbelief from the way of My glory, for I am glorified over Romania with the glory of My word, and I put to shame those that are unfaithful in it.

I come close to the one who is aggrieved for My name and I comfort his forehead on which I have My mark, and I confirm the seal on his forehead. He will stay before Me for those who love My name and My word in the day of My coming. Eight years ago, I set him as a word of testimony, and I turned his testimony into an accomplished deed, and he fulfilled over the earth the foundation of My word for the new age of New Jerusalem over Romania, through My people in it, the people of My word, a people of children born from above, at the hearing of God's voice, Who is speaking over this garden. And as a reward of unbelief, I will send blight to eat the wheat and barley, which the people of the church were proud of, and who do not know to present the church before Me; however, I will ask from their hand the blood of those who perish because of their unbelief, for it is written: «The watchman who sees the sword come and does not let the citadel know so that it may repent, that citadel perishes, and its blood it will be required at the watchman's hand, who did not do his duty». However, you should announce the Master's coming, sons from the gates of My word, for woe to the watchman who hears the trumpet and announces the city to repent for the coming of the Master!

Blessed it be the day of the feast of the beginning of My word with you over the earth in a work of a new age. Blessed be the patience and humility and the tear of My bishop Irineu, who suffered and still suffers the wickedness of those who want to be great over the people in My name. He is great before Me, because He opened the way of My coming over the entire earth, and I will reward him at My coming with glory over the earth, and I will give him the crown of the patience of My saints, for it is written: «The one who will suffer to the end, will be saved and will be called great, and I will give him My kingdom for the saints». Amen.

Blessed be My people from Romania, which cleaves to the cross of My coming to help Me carry it and to come.

And you, sons, blessed three times, be My gates until My appearance, for there is still a little time to cleanse the earth of My coming from all lying on it, and then to come visibly, and you will be My glory, so that you may be able to see Me forever and ever, and you will be seen with Me by all those who did not believe My work with you and My coming through you, for it is written: «Many will rise; some for eternal life, and some for eternal condemnation and to the shame of their unbelief». Amen.

Encourage one another day after day, cleaning one another of this bad and unfaithful people, and do not stay like the dead, you living sons. Be alive and holy, as I am holy. Shake hands with all that are like Me for My coming, teaching each other into the mystery of My church and living by it for your meeting with Me. Amen, amen, Amen.

The Feast of the Ascension of the Holy Cross

You sons that bring Me on earth as word so that I may prepare My coming with the word, listen and write My word into My book of today. Amen.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I embrace you with My hands, pierced by the nails of crucifixion, for I sealed into My palms all those for whom I died on the cross, as I spoke before through the prophet Isaiah, saying to Zion: «Behold, I marked you down on My palms and I will not forget you, and you will be forever before Me, and your sons will be your ornament garment, and you will gird on with them like a bride». Amen, amen, amen.

Sons, I have always come as word to you, and you should give Me to all those who seek to find Me and see My way with you, My coming down from heaven on earth as word on you. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, worship God all the time and pray stirring up the spirit and increasing the time of praying, for My coming is near, and it will be to come visibly and to find watching for My coming. Amen.

Oh, sons, I share My pain with you, and here is what I tell you: the man that receives My word from you does not set down; he does not set down to turn it into deed and love that are accomplished on him. Many a people take and receive this word and rejoice over it and are comforted by it and feed on it with hope, but they do not make any living work out of it and the man, who receives My word from you, does not keep a good watch, even if he receives it with longing. However, I remain weak in them, for they still mind their own affairs and do not give Me any room with life in them, and this is how I will find them when I come to search the Zion out.

I told you to set My word before the people to help them come to repentance and humility and to a holy life for My coming. However, the man has his own life, and I have Mine. Why does the man not really receive what I gave him? Why does he not receive? I gave My life for the man to take his life from My life, so that the man may also give his live for Me. I marked him into My palms to recognize Me as God on him, for I came from the Father in heaven to save the man from the payment of his sins, if the turns his eyes to the cross of My crucifixion. But the man was not moved. The man does not live My pain on the cross then when he makes the signs of My pains on his body, the sign of the cross, as I have it marked on My own body. Many crowds forsook the cross and do no longer put the sign of My crucifixion on their bodies, the sign by which I overcame the death, as a soldier prevails in war with his weapon against his enemies.

Oh, sons, sons, the more the time of My coming in flesh on earth has come near, the more the crowds have forsaken the sign of My cross, and since then the devil has completely gone to sleep, and he has no longer been afraid of any man but of the man that is true in his love and living and his watch for My coming. Behold, the devil is not afraid of any man, but the man who does the devil's will is frightened to death of the Christian who loves Me doing My will in his spirit, soul and body.

Sons, all the heads of the people, all who have subjects and multitudes of subjects, are afraid of you more than they are afraid of Me, for you are on earth, and you are My strength from above the people's heads, because those who are born of Me are above everybody else, for they are born of heaven and do those from above on the earth, and they make the way of My coming with the reward over every man. I embrace you into My arms reaching out My pierced hands for you. I have you in My hand as a weapon against My enemy, the devil. I pour Myself out into you abundantly so that you may be full, like the loaded weapon ready for fight into the hand of the fighting soldier. I made you into a working tool and I work with it over the earth and sow the ground with a seed of new age. I have turned you into a seed of new age, and the man on earth is afraid of you that you might take over his ground, but the earth is Mine, not man's. If the man wants to rule the earth forever, I do no longer want it, because the earth is Mine and it is I that I made it out of waters, not the man. The man knows nothing but to stand up against Me and to put Me out of My own kingdom and out of My own vineyard. However, the Father is the Master and He comes with Me and takes away the vineyard from the hands of the robbers and gives it to those who love Me as the Son of the heavenly Father, as the Master of the vineyard, as the Father's Heir. Amen. I share My pain with you and here is what I tell you, sons dedicated to God: the Father will come and lose these workers and He Himself will take care of His vineyard, for I am His Son, because the man has taken away My inheritance from Father. I will come from Father and lose all the people who have had time to hear the gospel of My kingdom, with which I come from My Father on earth, but did not want to believe. I come from Father with the entire heavenly glory and I will show Myself as a Master over the earth, and further I will destroy everything the man has done on earth; the man who has lived without God all his days, for everything the man has done on earth he had done only for himself, and he has taken My right to be.

Oh, from birth to death, the man does not want to perceive that I am the Master of the earth and not him or his descendants. I will break down all that the man made, for the man made it only for him. The man says that the world gathers together in them and the man does not know that a church means the sons of God together for a holy and humbled life before Me. The man erects walls and gives them to the world, not to Me, for I do not enjoy Myself with the lawless ones. The man erects walls and sets himself as a master upon the souls of the people, upon the lives of the people; and the priests establish themselves from their own reading; they put one another in positions, but they do not do My will. And I will come from the Father, and I have already come, to lose every man who had time to hear My cry which calls every man to the kingdom of heavens on the earth with God, but the people did not want to believe. Here, I come and I come with those that are written to come for the time before My coming with a heavenly glory and with the resurrection of the dead, as it is written in the Scriptures of My coming.

Sons, sons, what do the people do with the Scriptures of My coming? How do they read in them? How do they see in them? Oh, the people hide from them like vipers which see their threat, but My wrath for the unbelievers comes and comes again; it comes to confirm the Scriptures of My coming, for the heaven and the earth will not pass unless they are fulfilled word by word, as I spoke by the Scriptures. You, sons from the garden of My word upon the earth, call Me to come with those written for this time and do not be afraid that I come, for I make you victorious upon this time and I keep you in My arms with My hands thrust by the nails of crucifixion, and I have you in My hand like a weapon against My enemy, the devil.

The evil spirit made the people busy so that they may not make the sign of the cross on their body, the sign of My crucifixion that I overcame the old serpent by. Not even they, who were baptized Christianly into My name, make the sign of the cross on their body, and if they do, alas of this sign that pleases only the devil. The man, who still makes the sign of the cross on his body, makes his cross according to his own life. The man does not know any longer the place where he should put the fingers of his hands when making the cross. Not even the priest makes the sign of the cross as required by the Christians, and there is no one to teach the man the cross and its signs, and the sign on the man's body. The man does no longer raise his cross to God, and rather he goes down into the deep, and I complain to you of My pain from the man. But you should embrace Me by the sign of the cross, by the sign of my body's crucifixion, for when I made the man, I made him to be a cross, a holy cross, a holy body, a crucified body to the sin, a life put into God's service. But you should embrace me when you make the sign of My cross on your body, the sign of the One Who embraced you by crucifixion, for blessed is the man who used My death on the cross, for this one is arisen, and is alive forever and ever.

Sons, the wounds of My crucifixion hurt Me, for the man was bad with Me and with those who followed Me. The rulers of the people were always afraid of those who followed Me and killed them, and put a bad name among the people because of My name. All who want to be rulers upon the people and upon the earth are very much afraid of those that serve Me with the spirit and the truth. However, the people of the earth are afraid of those who are a living church to Me, but no one is afraid of a worldly church, and neither the devil nor his angels are afraid. But you should embrace Me by the sign of the cross of My crucifixion upon your body, for I made you to be feared for the sons of the people who do not want Me to come. The people are afraid of you worse than of the death, but they should better love you and listen to My exhortation which is upon you. The people should better embrace you but they cannot do such a thing, for the empty glory seized them in the darkness, and they are afraid of their sins, for you are the Scripture of My coming and that is why I come to you, and that is why I am with you. I am with you for the fulfilling of the Scriptures of My coming. Amen, amen, amen.

Be careful, sons, and give before the people My word, for a great deception is growing on the earth for the Scriptures of My coming. Be cautious, for I told you that once with My coming I bring the resurrection of My righteous ones and an imperishable body upon those who wait for Me to come. Please Me, for I come as it is written in the Scriptures that I come, and I will protect with My godly arm those that celebrate for the feast of My coming with their spirit, soul and body. Be heavenly on the earth, sons. Amen, amen, amen. Be on the earth as in heaven, to make My will perfect in you. Be an upright cross among the people, for the true cross is the cross of the crucifixion, and other kind of cross is not cross. The one who is not crucified has not got a cross; he has nothing to present himself with before Me at My coming. You should celebrate the feast of My cross in your members and ascend by the crucifixion of the man who struggles in you for My life in him, so that I may have you as a seed of life without death, as I said that you should be. I said that My church will never be overcome and that is why I made out of you an invincible church, a holy Zion, as I said to Zion: «Behold, I marked you down on My hands and you will be forever before Me».

Sons, sons, be from heaven, be on the earth as in heaven, so that I may make My will perfect in you, and to make out of you My garment of adornment, and I gird Myself with you as a bridegroom to be My power at My coming, My sign before My coming, the victors of the old serpent, as I was. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Church Entrance of the Lord's Mother

The Lord is coming for His own things and proclaims Himself when He comes. Amen. I come to you, children of My coming, and you should receive Me and welcome Me, for it is a celebration in heaven and on the earth for the saints and for the believers. I come to you, for here is My kingdom, because I reign upon you and upon this little garden. Amen.

It is a celebration for My Mother the Virgin. She gave herself for Me as a dwelling from infancy, and she prepared to be a church for me, and she was, and she prepared My coming two thousand years ago, as Verginica, who I chose you by, prepared My endless coming, as you too are preparing My coming now to come, sons. Welcome Me, and let us work and establish by word a new creation, always new upon the Romanian Israel, My people of today, and upon anyone who believes and will be baptized in the water of the river of life, which flows from heaven and passes through this garden, to divide itself afterwards and to water the earth, so that a new man may grow on it, a new man after My image and My likeness.

I gave the man God as a model, for I came as a true God from a true God by the Virgin, My Mother that gave Me birth as a baby in Bethlehem two thousand years ago. I gave My Mother, the Virgin, as a model to the man, so that the man may give himself to Me from his infancy and to be My church and My coming. Let the man come even from his infancy to God, so that God may come to man, for it is written: «He who believes in Me, I will come to him and make a house with him, and I will dine with him and show Myself to him». Amen.

Sons, is it really written this word that came out of My mouth two thousand years ago? It is sons. I tell you this because I am a Parent to you and because I gave you birth from the word of the Holy Spirit to be sons for Me and to call you sons, as you see that I speak to you. Seek and you will see in the book of the prophets that it is written this: «The people who sat in darkness saw a great light, for a Child was born to us, a Child was given to us, Whose dominion He carries on His shoulders. And His name is called Angel of great Counsel, wonderful counselor, God Almighty, Lord of peace, Father of the world to be». Amen. Behold, I made you the sons of the new age, and I am your Parent and call you sons. Does the faithful man on the earth know what it means to be My son on the earth? Does the man really know, what it means to be My son in the age to come? I, Myself, came two thousand years as a man among the men and gave the man teaching, and the man should know. It should, but he does not want. The man does not want to hear either what I said then, or what I say now. Is it really written in the Scriptures about the work of My word of today? It is, sons. I, Myself, said that I will come after I ascend to My Father and teach the man everything, for I have said again and again: I did not ascend to heaven to stay without work, but I went there to come back again on the path of the faithful and to be the light, as I am. If I have always spoken upon My people Israel in My time with it, and if Moses and those after him wrote all My words, so that they may be, and here, they are, as I speak from them, should I really stay in heaven without work, without speaking My word upon the man? Oh, it cannot be that way, for I have told those that are united with Me: «I will be with you to the end of the world». Oh, the man has no time to know My words from that time and from this time and he does not become a church for Me, and that is why I put this question and said: does the faithful man on the earth really know what it means to be Mine on the earth? And does he really know what it means to be Mine in the age to come? I am the Father of the age to come and of the sons of the eternity. The Spirit of My Father Sabaoth has spoken this by the prophets, and this is how he called Me: the Father of the age to come, and My Father is in Me from everlasting to everlasting.

I am a church to My Father, and My Father is a church to Me. I am in the Father, and He in Me. Amen. The man who believes in God does no longer know this mystery of God's church. Oh, it is not enough for the man to know that God is. He, who says that there is no God, as he does not believe in Him, knows this, too. This is the mystery of God's church: I in man and the man in Me, as I made the man to be then when I took the clay with My own hand and worked the man, the first one built, so that I might put a living soul and then My Spirit in him, and to have a church and to stay in it, and to have rest in it after everything that I made, for first I made the light, the heaven and the earth, and all that there are above in the heaven, down on the earth and under the earth and in waters, and then I made the man, and then I built a church to Me; I built a resting place after I made them all only by My word. I made the man to have rest in him, and I called him My day of rest, but it was not long and the sadness and tiredness seized Me and I called the man saying: «Where are you?», and he answered Me: «I heard you walking in the garden, Lord, and I hid myself from Your face among the trees for I was afraid, because I am naked». Oh, this is what the man did. He took from the fruits of the wisdom and ate and his eyes were opened, and instead of seeing himself wise, he saw himself naked and wanted to cover his nakedness with leaves of fig tree. And the man has been searching and seeking since then, for he has wisdom; he seeks it in sweat and does not come to an end, for the wisdom has no end. Since then, I, the Lord, lost My rest and seek as the man does; I have always been seeking, calling the man saying: where are you? Where are you, My creature? Where are you as I cannot find you? Oh, this is what the man does; the man that I built to be a church for Me and a day of rest after all that I did, and I have been looking for him since then.

Oh, sons, that I spread My word of today over the earth with, I have spoken about this with you to be heard up and down for the man does not know the mystery of God's church; the man carries it no longer, for it is a church mystery: I in the man and the man in Me, as the Father is in Me and I in the Father.

I have made the work of My coming by the Virgin, born a baby, two thousand years ago, to grow as a mighty God and to be the Father of this age to come. I made a church of the Virgin's womb, and the Father was with Me, and I got out to the people afterwards and proclaimed Myself as a God from God, and I proved what I was. The same way I will work today as well, and I will be the Almighty God, fulfilling all My word that I come with to you proclaiming My works, for I came out of My mother as a baby, and from Verginica I came out as an ending word, and from this word I got you, and I have you as Mine, and share with you My voice upon the earth, for I can do whatever I want.

Sons, welcome Me always, so that I may be able to do everything that is written and to put the Lord's age back to its place, and where I do not find tears of repentance, I will bring forth tears of sufferance for every man who will not want to crucify himself for My coming with the age of eternity. Do not marvel at the way I have revealed Myself today at dawn with you. Do not be confused by the sight I showed you, sons, for I have revealed Myself, crucified on the cross, to you; and if it was written above the cross "The seat of judgment", this is how I come to interpret it: every man who will not crucify himself for Me, I, the Lord, will be a sign for him, through My crucifixion on the cross. My crucifixion on the cross was the judgment of the world and of the master of this world. My seat of judgment was the cross; I sat on it to judge. It was and it is the throne of the Lord's judgment, and woe to the man who wipes out from his body the sign between Me and him! Woe and woe again to all who said and say that the cross and its sign is not good, for they are those who do not want Me to reign over them from the seat, from the throne of judgment. My word is written into the Scriptures; it is written this way: «Let those who did not want Me to reign over them, be taken and thrown away». That is why I tell you, sons, welcome Me to come to you and to write the book of judgment, for it is written into the Scriptures that I may come and open this book Myself; and in order to open it, it needs to be made out on earth by God Himself.

I gave Myself to the man as a printing sample, a sinless Man. My crucifixion on the cross is a judging sign for every man who does not crucify himself for Me. I gave My mother Virgin to the man as a printing sample, so that the man may give himself over to Me from infancy and to eternity, and to be a church for Me and a place of My coming to him. Let the man come from his infancy to God, or to become again an infant, for I have written the word of judgment and I said through the Scripture this way: «The one that will not become an infant will not enter into the kingdom of the heavens». Let the man become a baby, a sinless man, and let him never sin, amen, for where I do not find tears of repentance, I will put tears of sufferance until the payment of the last penny, for this is what is written for those who do not crucify themselves for Me. Let the man become a baby, and let him become a sinless man and sin no more and this means crucifixion, for when I was in the body with the people, I told My disciples this way: «I am going to prepare a place for you, that where I am, you may be there also».

If I forgave the thief on the cross, who was on My right hand side in the time of My crucifixion and took him forgiven into heaven, why did I do this to him? I did this because he did not know God, and if he knew Him in the hour of his death, he did no longer sin to die to Me, and he remained an infant and holy in his heart and body, and he died near Me, testifying about Me since then and until today through the Scriptures of My crucifixion, and I named him a crucified martyr on the cross. Therefore, the people say that I will forgive them in the last moment as I forgave the thief on the cross, who confessed his sins that he did and no longer sinned.

The people live with carelessness regarding their souls and eternity, and I come and call out the man to hear Me, and he who hears My voice and does no longer harden his heart, let that one become an infant and come to Me this way; let him come as long as he still has time to come and not when he does no longer have time. My mother, the Virgin, gave herself to Me since her childhood with all her righteousness, and I made her into a church in which I prepared My coming.

Oh, mother Virgin, you were reading in the book of the prophets about the Virgin which was to give Me birth, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and you wanted to be able to help Me, and were praying to the Father for My coming, so that I may come, and for you to serve to my coming. The Father and I have listened to you and sent the angel who told you that you were to give Me birth among the people. Oh, mother, the heaven celebrates you as three-year infant, serving God! Your holy life is written on the earth, but the man is hard to believe, and those that rule by work over the church, are also hard to believe and do not give the man the power to believe. Teach the people by My word. Come with Me on the path of My book, for it is the time when I come with the saints on the earth to make My coming perfect. I set you as a word before the people and before the Christians to teach them the mystery of God's church, I in the man, and the man in Me, the mystery that you fulfilled two thousand years ago. I set you as an example before the Christians on the earth, and I set you from the heaven also. Teach My people. Teach by them the Christians who live too little for Me. Teach also those who forgot God. Teach also Ours from the garden, so that they may hear everywhere all that a son of the age to come has to be. Amen, amen, amen.

— I set myself as a word, Son, Immanuel, for You are the Christ of the Father, Who came among the people by my virgin womb. I comfort You in the pains of Your coming, comforting Your sons from the garden. Amen.

Come, sons of My Son, Jesus Christ; come to the obedience of the word for the mystery of God's church. I comfort you, so that your crown and your heart may reach under my comforting hand all that want to give Christian life to my Son, Jesus Christ, the Lamb and the Shepherd of the holy church on the earth, the Father of the age to come, the Lord of peace, as the Father Sabbaoth, called Him by the prophets. Come under the shield of the holy teaching, and this word calls all who want to come and do not know what the mystery of the church between the heaven and the earth is.

A son of the Lord on the earth, a son of the age to come, had to come like me from infancy to God's serving; he has to come from infancy into the kingdom of heaven, and he who comes later, has to become an infant under the Lord's shield and to let himself be taken by his little hand as infant does; to wait for my Son's coming day and night, as I had been waiting for Him to be born and until ascending to the Father. A child of Christ wakes up at dawn and, waking up from his sleep, he falls with his face down to the earth three times, thanking God and the saints and the angels for the protection upon him, saying with the word: "Lord, do not throw me from Your presence, and do not take Your Holy Spirit from me to be a son of the day, day and night, Your son, now and in the age to come. I bow down to You with everything I have, making the sign of the holy cross on myself, so that the devils may fear me, and that You may have joy in my life near You, Lord. Amen." The child of Christ goes then and washes his face and hands three times, dedicating his body with his hand in the sign of my Son's cross, Who suffered death on the cross. He goes then and kneels with bows and speaks praises and morning prayers to the Lord. He asks then to the Lord the saints and the angels, and the Lord, Himself, to be with him in all the work of his hands, always bowing down his body and work with the sign of the holy cross and thinking of the moment of my Son's coming. He shares the work of his hands with the work of his prayer for the glory of his Lord, watching in wakefulness so that he may not fall from the face of the Lord. He brings back the word of thankfulness to the Lord for the accomplishing of the day's work, and asking protection from the angels and saints upon him, he sets himself for the rest of his body with a soul wakefulness until the end of golden prayer, in the middle of the night, when he wakes up praying.

There where are more little children of Christ, as he pleases, let not all of them fall asleep at once when they rest, for my Son said to those who fell asleep at once: «Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation». Oh, the opposing spirit continuously lurks to find the Christian indifferent to his soul, and where there are more of you, watch out one for another, sons, for this is well pleased to God, and let all that you do not be for you, as you do not belong to yourselves, but to Christ. The Christian is no longer master upon his soul, but Christ. The same is with the soul; the same is with the spirit as well if the body is not of Christ, and this is the mystery of God's church; this way and not otherwise.

The Christian and the son of this age that is to come can no way be separated from God, and all that he does with his body, with his soul and with his spirit, unites him with God. He is beautiful as those from heaven that the heaven may be on the earth with him. He is clear and he divides himself with those that are of Christ and gives himself totally to Christ, Who is divided and not separated, giving Himself as a Whole where is to be given. The sons of this age who want to be the mirror of the eternity on the earth, as I was, the mother of God's Son, and some are for others, giving themselves to God. Amen. This is God's mystery among the people and before God, for the sons of this age to come work near the Lord at the plan of the creation between the heaven and the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

I have taught you, those from the garden of My Son. Let those who are thirsty take living waters from you and let a spring of living waters be made in them so that they may no longer thirst, as one cannot find good water but in heaven, for the man who teaches the man has completely become earthly, and the man fears the man and hides from the man, for this is how it is on earth. I gave you so that you may give further into the name of My Son, Jesus Christ, the Lord of peace, the Father of the age to come, as Father Sabaoth proclaimed His name through the prophets

I have taught them, Son, according to Your word, for those in heaven do Your mighty will. All the kings of falsehood sit on shameful seats and thrones and receive glory from people, but Your throne of reign and judgment is the cross that You laid on when You judged the world through Your crucifixion. The cross of crucifixion is Your seat of judgment, my Son and Lord of peace, for You carried Your dominion and Your seat of judgment over the human kind. I kiss the cross of Your sufferance and I comfort Your waiting and I also comfort those who have been waiting for You, for I am a mother. Amen, amen, amen.

— And I, the Lord Almighty, strengthen you by My strong arm, for you, the sons of My garden, are those who remained with Me in My troubles, in My toil between heaven and earth for the renewal of the creation, and I assign you a kingdom, just as My Father assigns it for Me, so that you may eat and drink at My table into My kingdom and to sit on thrones, judging from near Me over the entire human kind. Amen.

The one who sits on the throne is the one who crucifies himself for My life in him, for this is what I said by My word which is with you: “The seat of the kings on earth was taken away and, as for the one who wants to reign, let him lay down like Me on the cross and reign this way, for the Holy Spirit comes and sits as King over the earth”. Amen, amen, amen.

Now, sons, give to the people My festive word for My mother, the Virgin, and gather together again near My mouth, which will deliver the word for the one who was a bishop on the seat in the Târgoviște city, as eight years ago, I spoke with him on the earth about this stone, and now I speak with him in heaven, as I took him away from the earth. Gather together with Me, as I leave a book for his city to be fulfilled, for I said that I would come with him in his house to testify from near Me over the earth for the church in this city, and for My stone, which is with you. Amen.

*

I am the Alpha and the Omega, the One Who is, the One Who was and the One Who comes. Amen. That what you hear, write into My book and send it to the churches on the earth, you, watchmen of My word, which comes with the clouds. My voice is like the thunder of great waters, and a double-edged sword comes out of My mouth. Do not be afraid. This is what the First and the Last One says: stand to welcome Me until I come, amen, for I am the One Who opens, and no one closes; I am the One Who has the keys of death and hell. Amen, amen, amen.

The one, who does not believe that I am the Word, Which speaks from heaven on you, condemns himself, as much as the one who does not crucify himself for Me, is condemned through My crucifixion for him. Get up and welcome Me, sons from the garden of My word, for I have a manger in Romania, and I am being born as word in it for those who believe and for those who do not believe that I am the Word, Which speaks from heaven over this garden, in which I fastened the stake of My kingdom, for I am the Master over you and I shepherd you after My own pleasure and I rejoice over you, as I proclaimed through the prophets saying: «I, Myself will take care of My sheep and visit them. I will give them blessing and rain in due time, and they will know that I, the Lord and their God will be with them, and they are My house, My people, the flock that I graze». Amen. Write into My book of today the word for My church in the city of Târgoviște and for the bishop who sat on this chair. Eight years ago, on this very day, I sent you to him with My word for this stone from you, for My altar from you, and now I speak with him in heaven, for there have been almost forty days since I took him away from the earth as I passed him through sufferance for repentance and for cleansing, and so that I might be true in My word which I put over him eight years ago when I told him: “Peace to you, the one who sit on the chair of My church, and if you are unfaithful to My word, which comes to you, let My peace come back to Me”. But behold, I am the One Who has the keys of death and hell and I am the One Who opens and no one closes. I open the heaven and command My angel to announce and bring near My coming down from you the one who sat as a bishop in the city of Târgoviște. Amen.

Behold the angel, and the one whom I said that I would send into his house to tell everybody not to do what he did to you, and not to stand up as he did in order to bring down My work with you, for he is a saving work, and I am the One Who am, and I speak from the garden with you. Amen.

Come close, you, who has sat for eight years on the bishop seat in the city of Târgoviște and over its surroundings. Eight years ago, on this day, I came to you with the sons of My garden. I came as word, a sweet word, and I asked you to protect from storms and from Herods and Judges the little garden of My word and those that I anointed in it to stand before Me when I come as word over the earth. I told you then that this garden is My word and I wrote My word to you with a feather, to write Myself down on the earth with his stone. And I wrote Myself down. A written word stands between Me and you, which testifies through My book of these days, and behold, I am this book; I and not the man, the same as I was with the man through Moses and through the prophets. However, you have had little heart and faith for Me and for those whom I sent to you, for this is how it is on earth; the man is no longer attracted to those that are cleaned and holy, for the one on the earth is earthly, and he speaks and works from the earth. Now I fulfill the word to send you to your house, and I brought you on the path of My book to testify from heaven over the church and to tell what this work is and the garden, which it carries. The eyes of your soul are alive and see, for the soul is the life of the man, the life, which goes to God, as it comes from God, and I, the Lord Almighty, speak this way: I am the One Who have the keys of death and hell, the One Who opens and no one closes. Strengthen yourself, for I cleansed you to strengthen your soul and your spirit in heaven. I breathed on you and strengthen you to speak from near Me. Amen, amen, amen.

— Your mercy, Lord, pulled me out from the strong place where I was fastened, for You spoke through the prophets and said: «The nail, which was fastened in the place of hope, will be loosened and broken and it will fall down, and the burden which is on it, will become dust». The seat from Târgoviște is a clean seat, and I wanted to sit on it, and I sat, and You pulled me out from it, because I did not do Your will to be cleansed for it and to love what You love and to believe what You do and to open for You when You knock. You knocked and knocked, but I did not open for You, and I wanted to be unfaithful, knocking with a word of slander at those who carry You as Your coming word over the earth. All I have sinned for as long as sixty years of my life in the body, was not so heavy when You sent Your angels to measure Me, compared to how heavy it was the sin of My opposition against the little garden of Your word from Pucioasa. You sent Your angels to measure me when they put me to whitening by sufferance, but I was stiff-necked when I heard You knocking for Me to open for You. I would have been the greatest of the brothers of the church, if I wanted to become a saint, so that I may receive with faith Your word for the preparation of Your coming with a new age. However, I did not want it, and You pulled me out and put me into a furnace. You took compassion on me afterwards, for You gave an order before My leaving the body, and a son from Your garden came to my bed of sufferance and took me into his arms, praying secretly to You for my forgiveness, for those in Your garden are merciful like You, Lord, as they are clean children in their hearts and body, in nature and in spirit. However, I denigrated them before the people, to glorify myself, and You wrote in the Scriptures: «The one who speaks from himself is seeking his own glory».

I, and the entire church, left everything to unbelief for Your coming into the little garden with the sons anointed with a new anointing. I did what the unfaithful Israel did when Ezekiel, Your prophet, came out in front of the citadel of Jerusalem with a citadel into his arms to prophesy for You and for it, and I was unfaithful and stiff-necked, standing against the Holy Spirit, Who breathes from Your mouth over the manger of Your word from Pucioasa. Now I am crying and sighing when I see and hear how the heaven resounds with the name of this citadel in which the manger of Your word has its dwelling. If You want, tell those in the garden to ask You to wipe out My crying and sighing, so that I may not carry it forever, for You are the Father of eternity and what little faith is on earth! I played myself with death, with unbelief, for I fastened myself in a strong place and I fell down, and I fought against the light and I was overcome by it.

I am frightened when I look at the one who set this stone, as I put chains over him, and the sufferance of his heart is great. (The bishop Irineu of Bistrița, r.n.). I put him down and I exalted myself; I brought him to humility and I glorified myself; I left him poor and I wanted to be rich, but he is blessed by those in heaven, for the one who humbles himself, is lifted up by those in heaven. I am ashamed by my own deeds. I put him down before the church, before the world. I brought him into submission of my will and I brought him to wipe out Your name, Lord, from this stone. But who is he who can stand against You? His pain is great, for the one who is over him in that city, puts pressure on him and puts him to the worse and makes him cry, for the church on the earth is not what it has to be, but rather it is ruled by the man of vain empty, who knows God's will but does not set it on him so that the church may be a church with holy shepherds to shepherd it. It happened as with the gypsy who was asked by a master of sheep if he likes cheese, green cheese, lamb and wool; and he said that he likes it, but when the master asked him to go with the sheep to pasture them he did not like it anymore.

Behold, I condemned an innocent soul and I set myself to judge the one that I knew, and then, You, Lord, reversed my judgment against me. I saw in heaven a saint who told me this: "When I was in my body I did not work much for my soul, and when the angels came to take my soul, seeing that I was pulled on the left side because of my sins, I said this to the angel who put before me everything I did: I admit I did all these, but Christ, the Lord, said this: «Do not judge and you will not be judged; forgive and you will be forgiven», and when I was on earth, I did not judge anyone and I did not hold malice against the one who went wrong against me, but rather I loved him. And then my good angel won me over to God". This is what that saint said to me. However, I did play the judgment with myself, Lord, because I thought I was great. I did not take into consideration this stone that You built and confessed thorough the bishop that You chose near it. Now I see that You are this stone that You write Yourself on it, and that You have it on top, but I stumbled over it as it is written: «Anyone who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whomever it falls, it will scatter him as dust».

Now You brought me into my house, among those with whom I ruled over Your church, to tell them not to do what I did against Your work of New Jerusalem. There is obedience in heaven and I listen now, and this is what I tell them: do not wonder and do not doubt of God's power that brought me to you, for St. Macarie and many other saints like him, were speaking on earth with those in the graves. The Lord brought me to you to tell you that the voice of the angels resounds in the name of the city from Pucioasa, to the judgment of my conscience, but God's mercy came against My condemnation and spoke over those that are anointed in the Lord's garden to intercede for Me, because I fell from repentance<sup>142</sup> in the time of my sufferance, and God saw my repentance and sent an anointed man from this garden and secretly spoke forgiveness to repentance over me. And if you do not want to understand, as I also did not want it, put your hand at your mouth and pray to God to open your eyes and see the light of God's word, which comes to illuminate the way of the people, for Gods' way is no longer on earth, for the darkness is thick and the wise man has no wisdom, as he says that he has, because only God is wisdom.

Do not try to come to this seat in which I was crushed, for it is a holy seat, and a holy man must seat on it, as Nifon, the bishop, was, who spoke over this seat, a seat of a holy man and of a holy church, and he spoke a bonding on it against those that are not clean. The Good Lord has released now this seat through His word and through of bishop Nifon, who has come now with the Lord, like me, after four hundred and ninety years, (See the Word of God from 20-04-1997, - On Slideshare; on Calameo, r.n.), proclaiming the release of the bonding, so that this seat may be for the faithful man, clean, holy, and humble, for the man that God called. Amen.

Do no longer throw stones into the one who set to fulfill the blessing of the church of New Jerusalem, as the New Jerusalem is a great name; it is a holy life in the sons of the church and it is a party with the saints and angels on the earth, but those who do not believe cannot see. However, I tell you: «Anyone who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whoever it falls, it will scatter him to dust». Leave those in this garden and do no longer come to tempt them, for they are the good ones, they are the beautiful among the sons of the people, and they are hired by God for a life of heaven on the earth; they are those who are worn down by God for the renewal of the ways, for the way of the Lord's coming. Many of those who struck this stone will fall down. However, I pray to those in this garden to be interceders with the heaven for the forgiveness of many, for many are those who fell on this new stone, because God has written into the Scriptures the renewal of the creation, the redemption of the creature. Also lift up the church on its stone, for the Lord is crying for its falling that it stays in. Flee the enemies, for I crucified the Lord among the robbers, thinking that I put the cross into the middle; however, it is not the man but the Lord Who comes to make one flock and one Shepherd. Give up your life full of sinful pleasures and willingly become poor, and be also clean and obedient to the light of God's word, which says that the judgment comes for each deed.

Today, God made me teacher from heaven over you, so that I may receive a reward for a teacher, a reward of a confessor of His coming with the glory of the New Jerusalem over Romania, the land of the salvation for those who are faithful and holy.

I have come to do Your will, Lord. Have mercy on me and count this against all my sins, with which I have thrust Your godhead for such a long time. And I still tell those in the city of Târgoviște to become godly out of Your word, Lord, and to live alive, for I did not teach them to be alive, since I did not ask me this; and I tell them to pray to You and to do Your will over this seat, for the people got up, those who make bold like Me to sit on this seat watched by angels and by the work of the angels.

And now, standing before the church and confessing Your work, please forgive me, for the prayers in the garden of Your word. Amen, amen, amen.

— Behold the angel, and the one whom I said that I will send into his house to bear witness about My work with you. I, the Lord Almighty, am the One Who have the keys of death and hell; I am the One Who opens and no one shuts. I speak the word and say: the one who does not want to smash against this seat, not being prepared, that one will be broken into pieces by it, and he, whom the seat will fall on, that one will be scattered to dust. Amen.

It is great tumult for his seat. Many strive for it; many appoint each other for this seat, but the work for the church is not this way, and I say: the one who does not strive for greatness and for pre-eminence and for the seat, that one is the humble and pious who I, the Almighty One, want him to pasture My flock, to breathe on it living life and to bring it to life for Me and for eternity. Amen. However, I will look and take it into account and give each one according to his work for Me and for this citadel. I do not stop the one who appoints himself, or the one who is appointed by the man, as I also did not stop the one who stumbled against this chair being broken by it. But I want to overcome for the Christian flock according to My will, and the one, who will be from Me into the middle of this ruling citadel, let him stay on the cross, not on the seat, for the cross is a throne, as I sat on the cross and I sat as Lord over the earth. The one who does not like to crucify himself for Me, is not worthy to come into the midst of this ruling seat, for the shepherd has to lay down his life for the sheep and he had to crucify himself for Me, to have him as a good shepherd over My sheep, and so that I may have sheep; I, and not the man, as it is today in the churches.

And you, those in the garden of My word, take this book and send it to the church praying to Me so that My will may be on earth as in heaven, for this ruling citadel. Amen, amen, amen. As for My humbled bishop and for all those who strive for crowns on earth, I, the Lord, will give him the reward of the saints' endurance and wipe out his sighing, because he suffered and suffers for My name, loving and waiting for Me to come and save him with My saving arm, and his salvation will be great, for I am well pleased with him, as I was well pleased and worked My work of New Jerusalem through him; the work for the new creation of the world, of the new heaven and new earth, and all the mouth will be silent then, because I will be the Almighty One for those who are Mine, enduring with Me and for Me. Amen.

This is My word for this ruling city, Târgoviște: I will work on it and for it as it will also work for Me and for My salvation plan, which is the holiness in the man: I, the Lord, shining in the body, in the soul, and in the spirit of the holy man. Amen.

My voice is like the thunder of the great waters and out of My mouth there comes a sharp double-edge sword. The one who does not believe that I am this word, which comes with the clouds over My garden that one condemns himself and many will fall because of their unbelief. Amen.

Now, sons, I release the one that I brought before the church to testify about My work with you, and I set him in peace, and he says to Me this: "Now Lord, release Your servant, for I have seen with the eyes of my soul Your salvation that You have prepared before the nations for their illumination and for the glory of Your name, for Your holy people and for Your coming, Lord. Amen".

I, the Lord, wrote this book and I seal it. Amen. This is My seal: The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of eight years from the consecration of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

My love is forever over this holy tabernacle in which eight years ago, I, the Lord, laid My table for supper, My New Passover, My tabernacle in which I come with the saints and keep a feast of new age, the mystery of the new heaven and new earth between heaven and earth. Amen.

Peace to you, children anointed with a new anointment, with anointment of strength, with chrism from heaven, according to My godly plan through which I do the work of My Father Sabaoth for the age of eternity, for the redemption of the creature. Eight years ago, I came to you and I had you to lift up this stone. You were empty in your hands and strength, and I could through you, for it is written into the Scriptures that I, the Lord, perfect Myself with My works through the weak ones and I make them overcomers through their faith. It is written into the Scriptures that «to the one who overcomes I will give of the hidden manna and I will give him a white little stone; and on the little stone a written name, a new name that no one can understand but the receiver, the victor». Behold the stone and you near it, and I near you, writing on My stone the book of the judgment of disbelief, for it is written: «No one in heaven, or on earth or under the earth could open the book, nor look into it»; no one but I, the Father's Lamb. Amen.

I took the book into the right hand of My Father and I opened it, for its time has come. I redeemed you through it and I made you My priests to stand by Me and to be My kingdom. I will spread and stretch Myself out with it and it will be your number of tens of thousands of tens of thousands and thousands of thousands, as it is written into the Scriptures, for My kingdom and My wealth are of great value. The faithful soul is a tool by which I, the Lord, make Myself a plough and break a new furrow for the new seed. Amen.

Behold the book through which I redeemed you by the word, which says and it becomes. I am your foundation stone, for it is in this way that My house can be built, and it cannot be otherwise. The one who builds Me a house, if I cannot live in it with My kingdom, that one is not a house for Me; that one is a house laid on bare ground, a storm-swept house, a house without foundation, an earthen house, not of stone.

Blessed it is the place and the man on whom I have room with My word, with My godly plan, for it is not My plan otherwise, but rather it is the man's plan. I have been with the man through the word from age to age, and where I did not have room with it, it was the man who worked and not I, even if the man says that he did it for Me. What kind of a house can the man build for Me? I am the One Who dwells in those that are not seen, and are from age to age, covering Myself with My glory as in a cloud, for it is written: «I am the One Who dwells in the cloud». This is how I have lived into the midst of Israel, and he was seeing the cloud and following it, but then he swerved from My face and I got angry with him and I left him over to the storm, and I left him to perish, as he wanted it, and I took My house from him. Oh, blessed it is the place and the man in whom I have room with My word, with the mystery of My house, for it is written: «I come to the faithful one and make a house for Myself, and make a supper for Myself and dine with him at My table with him». Amen.

Blessed are you, who received Me with My word, for behold, the word has made its room at you for itself and for you, and it sat down to a supper table, a supper of word, for every man has to live by God's word as his food, for bread is made by the word. And now we celebrate a feast of heavenly New Jerusalem into My garden with you. The angels are gathered and sing angelic praises to My victory from you. The saints marvel at My work on earth, My work that I will spread and stretch out, and I will renew the earth with the word, and the earth will submit and be renewed, as the faithful soul on it is a tool by which, I, the Lord, make Me a plough and break new ground. Amen. The angels sing above My garden with you, for it is a feast of New Jerusalem. The saints marvel, for they see the fulfillment of the prophecies, and My Father Sabaoth is in Me, and I in Him, with the joy of the New Jerusalem. I am His little Lamb, Who gave Himself over as a sacrifice for the redemption of the creature, and I took the book from His hand and work according to it, for I opened it and I comprise you into it, and I give to you from it, for this is what I said: «The Spirit of Truth will glorify Me, for He will take from what is Mine and give to you. Everything My Father has is Mine. That is why I said that He will take from what is Mine and will deliver to you. He will teach you all the truth, for He will not speak from Himself, but rather He will speak of what He was told and He will speak of those in the future». Amen.

Oh, Father Sabaoth, I took the book from Your right hand and opened it and work from it, for it is written into the Scriptures: «Those that cleansed their garments washing them in the Lamb's blood, I will pasture and bring them to the springs of living waters, and I will wipe out any tear in their eyes, and day and night I will set them as servants in My temple and I will raise My temple above them». Oh, Father Sabaoth, We are in a heavenly feast for the little garden of Our word and for the white stone in it, which covers the mystery of My word on earth under it. This white stone is the cloud that covers Me, so that I may speak over the earth. It is the throne, on which Your word and Mine sits reigning within the work of the Holy Spirit. It is the mystery of the white horse on which God's Word, Your Son, sits, and hosts from heaven come after Me, when I come as word in the garden, for it is written into the Scriptures: «The hosts of the heaven come after Him, riding on white horses and wearing white and clean mink clothes, and out of His mouth there comes a sharp sword to strike the pagans with it; and He will shepherd them with a rod of iron and He will tread the winepress of the wine of God's burning wrath». Amen. I open the book from Your right hand and I will put it on this table, on this stone, and I sing My song of praise for this stone, and the angels and saints are My glory and Yours, Father Sabaoth, above the garden, which carry this glory over it. Amen.

— Oh, Son, My little Lamb, You should rejoice now and forever and ever, for this is what I wanted for You when I destined You to come and become Man on earth and let Yourself be slaughtered on the altar of the cross and to get up afterwards and reign over the vineyards and over the dead as the victor over death, Son, My Little Lamb. You should rejoice, for this is what I wished You. And I also rejoice in You, for You are My place, as I am Your place. This is what I wished since the man was broken by disobedience. I wanted the redemption of creation, Son, My Little Lamb, and it comes again and it is being made, for You are My Word, Who says and it is done.

The feast of Our little garden also wears in it Our son anointed by Us, who bore witness with his name, (Bishop Irineu of Bistrița, r.n.), Our name, Son, Little Lamb. I had him eight years ago near those little of Ours, and then Annas, Caiaphas and Judas took him from here (The rulers of the Romanian Orthodox Church, r.n.), and put him into their chains and bound his steps to the spring. Let Us send him comfort and power, Son, Little Lamb. Let Us give him heavenly news; angelic and not human news. Let Us send him joy, for he is aggrieved, tearful and burdened by the people of hatred and of empty glory. Let Us send him the joy of the feast of the New Jerusalem, and let him feel it, Son. Let Us send to him Our angel to command that his chains fall down and to make noise when they fall, and let them strike those that put them on him, in order to make them wise to repentance and humility, and to the sight of those things from heaven, which are with Us, Son, over this little garden, over which We have as Our witness, the aggrieved one among the bishops of the church, Irineu, the stone of Our peace, the today's angel of the church, as it was written into the Scripture which writes: «Behold, I send My angel and he will prepare the way before My face, and the Lord will soon enter His temple». Oh, Son, Little Lamb, let those who aggrieved him lift him up from the pain. Amen, amen, amen.

— May it be done according to this word, Father Sabaoth! May this waiting come to an end, as I do not want to strike the house to destruction, and I do not want to strike these pillars for the ceiling to fall. Behold, what kind of a house can the man build for Me, so that I may dwell in it? Where I do not have room there My house is not, but rather the men's who did it. Here is the book that I took from Your right hand, Father Sabaoth, and I take from it and give over the earth and say: blessed it is the place and the man where I have room with My word, with My revelation, with My godly plan, for otherwise it is not My plan, but rather the man's plan, who makes plans without the Lord, and his plans are not like My plans. May it be done according to Your will and Mine, Father, as in heaven so on earth, to save the flock from the wicked weather, Father Sabaoth. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, Son, My Little Lamb, You should rejoice over all the accomplishments of Your word, now and forever, for this I wished You since the man died because of his disobedience. I wished You the redemption of the creation, and behold, it is coming, and You will be the victor and King over the creature, and Father of the age to come; I in You, and You in Me, Son, My Little Lamb. Amen, amen, amen.

— Now, Father Sabaoth, let Us crown the celebration of the sealing of the manger of My word, that I accomplished over this garden eight years ago, on this twelfth day of twelfth month, when I had here the bishop, who put on My behalf the seal of My holiness over it and over those anointed by Me in the little garden of My word. I strengthen with a threefold power this seal and book, which stays under this stone of testimony and at the gates and say: everyone who falls on this stone will be broken by it, and on whom this stone will fall will become dust. Amen. I am the One Who have a kingdom here, and I am the stone on which this testimony stands. I am the One Who testify about Me through it. Amen, amen, amen.

If someone wants to come to Me and after Me, that one must have only one way, the way of holiness, which leads to the kingdom of the heavens, and I send many of them to preach far and wide the news of the kingdom of the heavens on My behalf, who started in man two thousand years ago, and he who has believed has been baptized and saved from sin. Those who want to come to Me, let them be poor so that they may come, and let them not have worldly people. I told My apostles not to take any bag or staff when they come for Me. Likewise, those who come now, let them not take any possessions or father, or mother, or sons, or relatives, and let them not take any staff, for I am the help of those who come after Me, otherwise it is falling, for it is written: «The enemy of the man is his own family, which does not let him free to come after Me». Here is a word difficult to perceive: the one who has a bag and staff does not come after Me, for he already has them, and he does not come so that I may give him. I have as staff, for those who come after Me, the way of holiness, the way who brings the man to Me; a staff of support for the one who is on My way. Amen.

Now, sons from the garden, I confess you before the angels and saints and before the people on the earth, for you are those who remained with Me among those who were called at the table of My word on these days, and I meant you a kingdom as My Father meant it for Me, to eat and to drink at My table into My kingdom and to sit by Me for the judgment of the creature. Amen.

May this feast be blessed in heaven and on earth! Amen. Blessed be the cross that you lifted up near the little house in the hill as a sign of feast of the Holy of Holies of New Jerusalem. Inscribe its day of feast on it, once with the day of feast of the manger, which carries in it the stone that I write Myself as a book of judgment in time. And as for you, I order you further to carry My burden until I come, and then we will have rest, and will be, and we will have joy. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of Nativity

I am being born a word at the manger of My word in Romania, the country of My coming with the saints, the country of My returning after two thousand years. Its name is the country of the brightness, a name proclaimed by the prophets, and this prophecy is true, for I shine from its sky over the earth from margins to margins. It is My morning. Early in the morning My word runs to it for it is written into the Scriptures: «I am the shining morning star», and I come to it to become the good news in it, and its spirit and bride from it say: „Come!“. Amen, amen, amen.

Behold, I come and I am in My coming upon it, and I put My judgment seat in it, My word which announces Me, coming for the living and for the dead, as My kingdom will be without an end, and I come to prepare it. But I am into My coming and I come, coming, for who can stop the lightning so that it may be seen when it crosses the sky, and it comes and it is seen crossing the darkness with its brightness of fire, seven times brighter than the light of the day, as it is written into the Scriptures? Behold the country of My coming! It shines on the earth seven times brighter than the day, for I, the Lord, am its light; I and My word. It is the womb in which I seed My word, to arise from it with My coming. It is the new birth of the world, and I say from it to the peoples: come at the manger of My word in Romania and take from it the new birth, the birth from above, for My word says this: «He who is not born of the heaven, from above, will not be with My kingdom». Behold the new law. It is My coming with the saints and for the saints. The holiness from the man will come to welcome Me and will open to Me, and the man will see Me, for it is written into the Scriptures: «No one shall see the Lord without holiness». Amen.

I announce Myself in coming, little children from the manger. Oh, sons, why do I come to you? Why do I not come to the great, to those that are famous on the earth? Oh, they have no eyes and ears for My coming. When I came two thousand years ago through the Virgin as a baby in Bethlehem, there was no one to wait for My coming, but I came and took refuge in a humble place, and My angels announced the poor that I came, for the great on the earth had no eyes and ears for Me. I have always found My pleasure in the humble ones and I called them great before Me and I glorified Myself through them and founded My kingdom with them and I had a heavenly supper with them.

Behold the voice of My word that announces well My coming and My kingdom and the new birth of the world. Woe to those that do not hear the message of My coming with the saints, in order to leave their sins and to become holy for My kingdom, for My true coming! Behold what the great people of the earth do! They, and not I, want to make My coming. They forgot that I am with the humble and I work My thing with them and help them with My power to be saints, the saints of My coming, for «no one shall see the Lord without holiness». Amen.

Oh, I look down on earth and sigh with mourning. I look over the places where I came two thousand years ago as an infant by the Virgin, as it was written by the prophets that I have to come. When I came at that time, the rulers of the earth persecuted Me, and all looked out for Me so that they may not lose their glory because of My glory. The same is today, and here, I look upon the place where I was born two thousand years ago. People of standing have gathered together and increase their own glory and give gifts and names to one another saying to one another that they got together for the anniversary of My birth in Bethlehem. They are glad and I sigh in heaven with the Father and the saints, for there it is not about My glory, and people use Me for the glory of their own name and do nothing but pave the way for the antichrist's enthronement everywhere I worked and left My marks as a witness against those who used God's name for their human glory. Here, after two thousand years, I am good for the man of nowadays only for his glory, but not for Mine. I do not rejoice over this kind of celebrations; rather I rejoice over the celebration of My coming with those who love Me with their holy life, and spend time and rejoice with them. Now the angel stands ready to blow into the light of the great people's delights that make a name for themselves among people, lifting themselves up with a human glory, a glory that passes away like grass.

Here is the lie. It spreads out from margins to margins. Here it is: «The woman sitting on a scarlet-colored beast, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns, with a cup full of abominations and impurities of her sexual immoralities and on her forehead a secret name was written: Babylon the Great, the mother of the prostitutes and of the abominations of the earth, drunken with the blood of the saints and with My martyrs. And she will come out from the abyss and will go to destruction for all are finished», and so it is written. The voice of My angel has always been crying: «Get out of it My people lest you share in her sins and receive of her beatings». Her sins got to heaven and we will give her back as she gave to us; we will give her a double portion. We will pour out twice as much in the cup which she poured out for us. She is an empress and I am her Judge. The kings of the earth who made her will, shall beat their chest saying: “Woe to her!” and heaven will rejoice and the saints, the apostles and prophets will see My righteousness on their side, as it is written in the Scriptures. Amen.

The great people of the earth got together to keep a feasting for My birthday in Bethlehem, but after two thousand years since My birth among people, here, I am coming again, and do not find any holy man on earth, a man to celebrate Me, the Holy One. That is why I have been hiding Myself and working secretly and preparing My coming in glory on earth against lying which wants to become a christ for man, a false christ, who deceives everyone by his coming, great and small, rich and poor, slaves and free, kings and soldiers, baptized and not baptized, for a lie is a lie, like man. But I sound the word, so that My coming may be heard and here they are all, for they are hiding into the caves and rocks for fear of My coming as it is written in the Scriptures about My coming.

I am being born a word in My manger from the middle of Romania, the country of the brightness, the place of My returning after two thousand years, the place of the new birth of the world. I will renew all My creation and the man for I said: «I make them all new». Amen. All the great are caught into the trap of their greatness and no one is with My greatness, with the greatness of My saints, and he, who is not holy, will no longer be. Amen. I make everything new, as at the beginning of the creation. The breath of My mouth gives birth as in the beginning, for it is written about Me: «He said and it was made». Amen. I work mysteriously as two thousand years ago. I gave the Virgin to be engaged in order to be protected from death, for in Israel, the immoral had to be killed with stones. Who was to understand the mystery of My birth from the Virgin? No one understands it even today, for if they understood, they would be frightened of My birth from the Virgin, whose virginity was not spoiled by the birth. The man goes to church and sings saying: „Rejoice, you Mother, forever a Virgin!”, but the man does not thrill with this mystery and stays still in his sins but he is judged by My birth from the Virgin and from the Mother forever a Virgin. I came from heaven on the earth to forgive the man and to raise him for the heaven but the man does not repent. Oh, he, who does no longer sin, is the one who repented of his sins by his union with Me, becoming one flesh with Me. The man does not repent otherwise.

Where, really? Sons from the garden, where shall I find on the earth a man to live in the spirit of repentance, in the spirit of humility, in the humility of his mind before Me? Oh, where shall I look to find out, to find a man to My liking? Repentance is the new birth of the man, so that the man may be afterwards and to have a house in him. However, the man constantly drives Me out of his surroundings and he is judged by My birth of a mother forever Virgin. It is for this that I came two thousand years ago, for the man is born of the man and through the man, and he is not like Me. But I came to show him the way from earth to heaven and to meet him on My way from heaven to earth and to bring him with Me from heaven on earth and for the man to be from heaven as it is written: «He who is not born of above that one will no longer be». Oh, where shall I look on the earth to see a man after My image and likeness, and to see a man the same way I created the first man by My own hand? I lament and say: where? Where, really? Now, after two thousand years ago, behold, I come, and I come again, and again I am destitute of the man. The man sing Me, calls Me, and comes together into My name, but he is far away from My image and from My likeness; the man is too far away from his first creature.

I was happy when I made the first built man, and I was waiting for My rest and peace in him after I made everything for him by the word. Then he arose above Me and his fall was long and great. And I got up to come after him and placed him with Me in his own house, as it was the mystery of the man's redemption, they mystery that I worked it two thousand years ago, at My birth from My Mother, forever Virgin.

I want to touch the man's heart bringing out My Spirit before him. I am a mystery not perceived by angels, and when the angels hear My word, they stand hosts by hosts and feed on My mysteries waiting for their perfect fulfillment by My coming with a new heaven and a new earth over the earth. Amen.

You, sons from the manger, you should neither be afraid and nor those who live like you on the earth, feeding on My manna which passes through the garden which carries you. Do not be afraid of what the people are afraid. I am the Saint of the Lord into your midst and knead with you a new age and the life of the age to be. Amen. Strengthen My birth in you, and keep My manger warm, sons. The nest, from which new beings will come out, has to be always warm, so that the seed and the life of the seed may not get cold. Warm up My nest, for I breathe on it with the breath of My mouth, with which I always stay over you.

Make bread, sons. I am the bread, which comes down from heaven for the man's life. Give this bread to the poor, for the rich ones taste it and spit it out, and they do not give their bread on this bread. However, you should feed on this bread until the hour of the day of My coming with the saints on the earth, and stand for My welcome with My manger from you. Amen.

My mother, the Virgin, sweetens your spirit with her spirit full of longing for My coming to you, and it will be soon, soon, for us to celebrate an endless feast, of new age, in the mystery of the new heaven and new earth, in which we will be forever, I and those that My Father gave to Me. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Baptism (Epiphany)

The Lord is coming on the earth. Amen, amen, amen. I proclaim Myself within My coming. I lay down as a spirit of peace over the garden of My word. I strengthen the pillars of My gates to stand according to My will, and I send My word to the earth and I do the work of My coming.

I am coming and baptizing the earth into My word. I am coming to sink the earth into My word as in water, to baptize it into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and then to be new, to be then from heaven, like the new man through the baptism of faith and of the Holy Spirit through repentance. I become a baptizer. My word is the river of life, the water in which I sink the earth, for all and everything have been waiting for a new heaven and a new earth. My word is the Jordan that flows from top down and is divided into four branches, which baptize the earth. He is the river of life, and who bows to drink from it never gets thirsty for anything and stands within My coming. Blessed is the one who appeases his thirst and his searching, being baptized into the water of the river of life, into the word of life.

During these days every man on the earth should come to the Jordan of life, to the water of My word, which flows from heaven over his garden, so that a baptism of the Holy Spirit may be done over every man on the earth. And behold, I am the One Who send My word so that he peoples may long for it and to say: «Let us go up to the Lord's mountain, so that He may teach us His ways to walk in them». It is written into the prophets: «In the last days, the mountain of the Lord's temple will be higher than all the tops of the mountains and its peak will be exalted above all heights and nations will stream to them, for the Lord will be on them, Who will judge the peoples and impart justice to all strong nations and to all the margins. The Lord will turn the lame into a remnant and those that are tired into a strong nation, and I will reign over them into the name of Zion forever». Amen.

I am the One Who has been working over the earth from Creation to this day, and I will work further to accomplish all that was written about Me in the law of Moses, in the prophets and in Psalms. Amen. It is written into the Scriptures about the new birth of the world, about the making of the new man, after My image and likeness, and I fulfill and will fulfill it. Amen. The image of the new man is the revelation of the Holy Spirit put in the man by Me, shining from the man over every creature. And there will be one Lord, one faith and one baptism over every creature, for My word will go and baptize everywhere, as the waters of Jordan became holy by My baptism from John, and they made holy the nature of the waters from the waters in waters, from margins to margins, from heaven to earth, from above the heaven and down beneath the earth, for I was the One waited by every creature, and I fulfilled the prophecy which says: «The Lord will shake once again, not only the earth but also the heaven». Amen.

The water is the mystery of the new birth. When I made the heaven and the earth, I took them out of the waters and I placed them into their eternal laws. I divided the waters from waters and I put the heaven into their midst, the expanse of the sky. Then I said that the waters from under the sky be gathered together to one place and thus the seas were made, and the dry land appeared out of them, and then the earth put forth grass and fruit trees, after that the water from above came down as rain over the earth. Behold, the water is the mystery of birth. The first land appeared from water. The second earth also appeared from water, and then I came and made the waters holy, baptizing them for the birth of the man from water, Spirit and blood, for I came to work out the eternal birth of the man who comes to birth.

Behold the birth of the man on the earth starts with the death and with the sin, and the birth of the man in heaven starts with the water and with the repentance by baptism. The repentance is the birth of the man from heaven, and if this is the birth, where is the church on the earth? Let her come and testify about its born ones! Let her come! And if she does not come, I, the Lord, command My angel to bring her and appear with Me, to show her born ones, and to show the fruit of the repentance of her sons. But she is a harlot, who deceived her husband giving him a certificate of divorce. The fruit of repentance dried out in her, and the saints came out of her, for she became a great city with which the kings of the earth commit fornication, as it is written in the Scripture about her; the Scriptures that she does not want to hear about; she does not want to leave them for the truth in them and closes her eyes about them so that she may not see. I, the Lord, had to be her husband, her bridegroom, but she chose fornication and not repentance. She sits on many waters, as it is written in the Scriptures about her, as she made many waters of her fornication with the kings of the earth, and sits on many waters: «The prostitute, with the cup of her abominations in her hand, which her lovers drank from and become intoxicated, sits on their back, drunken with the blood of My saints». I, the Lord, make her naked, so that the deeds of her fornication may be seen, for I sent her the cleansing water, for her to wash of her immoralities and abominations that she sits with on a high place into the hearts of the seas; I sent her the spirit of repentance to be baptized into it. She sits in her blood and there is nothing of that kind, for the birth is repentance, which has the power by the water baptism, upon the faith in Christ, and then, by the baptism with the Holy Spirit, Which is the fruit of those that are baptized into the baptism of repentance, which washes away the sins into the water and into repentance. Behold, the water is the mystery of the creature's birth and the mystery of the new man's birth by repentance and water and then by the seal of the Holy Spirit which shines seven times more than the sun in those who are baptized by My baptism. Amen.

I clothed Myself in man. I took over the image of the man to wrap around the glory of My godhead and to come and show the birth to the man, the mystery of the birth from above. I taught the man to condemn the sin in his own body, for I took the image of Adam, the image of the man created by God, and I draw near to the water of Jordan two thousand years ago, for there, John, who was prophesied by the prophets, was calling the people to repentance so that they may be illuminated within their conscience and to receive Me, the One prophesied by Moses' law, through the prophets and psalms. And he was washing them of their sins into the water of Jordan and was making Me room into their hearts. Then I came bowing, as one who repents, so that through My bowing down at Jordan under John's hand, who was making Me way to the people, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit could be seen through the water and through the mystery of the water; the Father speaking about Me; I showing Myself as the light of the world, and the Holy Spirit confirming the threefold working worshipping the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, in a perfect way, at the river Jordan. And, within these days, after two thousand years since My birth from the water and the Holy Spirit, I have born testimony about Myself, the New Man, the beginning of the new world, which will inherit the new age. I celebrate Myself, getting out of the waters of the Jordan two thousand years ago, the New Man, with a life giving spirit and with a feast of Epiphany on every man who has a perfect repentance to the forgiveness of the sins. And the forgiveness is proved out on the man through the receiving of the Holy Spirit, Who is the image of God in man, through the church, as the Scripture speaks about the creature of the new man.

Behold the church! She is the man whose image has the Holy Spirit on it by the deeds of the holiness and by the prayer which binds the man to Me. In the these days I overcome with the mystery of My church against the worldly church which calls itself a church, but it is not a church, rather it is the great city with a secret name on it, the great city which has authority upon the kings of the earth. And I said to My saints who follow Me into the world: «Get out of it, My people, so that you may not taste of her sins and thus to receive her beatings!». Amen. Her lying work is written in all the Scripture, for the antichrist found for him a hidden place under a church garment all the time, his secret place, his secret name, while the saints, who are a church to Me, are called by a bad name for their way with Me. In these days I come and disclose the work hidden under the name of the church, and I will uncover the body of him who works against Me from under the secret name of the harlot who put on her head the name of Christ's church, but she is the false Christ who took My coat, My house and My book. But I come soon, and here, I come and weed out My vineyard and put upon it the new birth, the mystery of the man's birth by repentance and water, and then by the fire of the Holy Spirit Which burns the old man so that a new man may come out of him, dressed in the Holy Spirit, Which makes God shine in the man. And over the garden of My word from the midst of Romania, I speak and sanctify the mystery of the birth of water and spirit and say: hallowed be the waters of My garden through Me and through the saints who stand before Me! Hallowed be by the word and by the river of My word, which flows like water that waters the earth! Hallowed be this Epiphany day, and blessed be the praise of Jerusalem!

Jerusalem, praise the Lord! Praise your God, Zion, for the Lord strengthened your gates and blessed your sons within you. Amen. Behold, I became a baptizer. I baptize the earth with the Holy Spirit and with fire. I hold My cleansing tool into My hand and I clean the threshing floor and I gather My wheat into My lap and throw the chaff into the fire.

The water is the mystery of birth for repentance. Repentance is man's birth, and the Holy Spirit shows the forgiveness of the man, the new birth of the man. The receiving of the Holy Spirit is the reward of the man who is sanctifying through repentance and through the works of the holiness. This water is the mystery of the birth of the man from God and of the eternal life, as I promised to those who believe in Me, being baptized by the baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of the sins, for the birth of the man from God.

I am the One Who send My word to the earth, so that all the nations may hear and say: «Let us go to the mountain of the Lord, so that He may teach us His ways to walk in them». Amen. During these days, I, the Lord, reign over the remnant of the nations in the name of Zion and overcome by the mystery of the church and watch from its top for the fulfillment of My promises by which I declare and say: grace upon grace upon it! Amen, amen, amen.

The synod of St. John, the Baptizer

I come again at the manger of My word. I come and come again, for I am without beginning and without end, and I am the beginning and the end of all that are to be worked. Amen. I come with food in abundance, for without the food from Me there is no man to be able with Me.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, the word is laying down in the manger. He is coming with the clouds as it is written into the Scriptures. Soon, soon, the body of My word is coming to prove out every word. Until that time, I come as word, for I am the Lord of the saints, and I am coming with them. They are those who are alive, like Me, as this is what I said through the Scriptures: «He who believes in Me has eternal life»; and again: «He who loses his life for Me will gain it», and My word remains forever and ever, together with its fulfillment. Amen.

I always come as word on the earth and I have the saints within My coming. They are those that are alive until My coming and work between Me and those who believe in Me for the confirmation of the eternal life of those who believe in Me giving their lives for My life in them, and they are like Me, eternal, and they see Me the way I am, for it is written into the Scriptures: «They will be like Him, for they will see Him as He is». Amen. The saints' eternal life is an unfathomable life, for the man stays on the earth without this knowledge. I, the Lord of the saints, was in the grave with My body, and at the same time I was both in heaven and in hell, to fulfill My work that I had to do by My death on the cross. Then I came out above and I am alive forever and ever, and I am the Lord of resurrection of those who are faithful, and I have a house in heaven and I come with it on earth, carried by it. The holy body puts on incorruption with its house in heaven, and «what is mortal is swallowed up by life», as it is written into the Scriptures.

When I was on the cross in the day of My crucifixion between the two crucified, I told to the one on My right: «Today you will be with Me in heaven». And it was so, for great is the life mystery, the garment of life, the man, dressed and not naked. He clothed with the garment of life then when he was born of My at My word, which preached his resurrection. Behold, I was in My body in the grave and in heaven with the thief dressed in the resurrection garment while he still was crucified on the cross. I was in My body in the grave and also in hell after the man, for he had been waiting for Me for five thousand years, to come and clothe him with his garment from heaven, with his house from heaven.

This is written about the saints: «They will be like Him, for they will see Him as He is». The saints are not naked; they are clothed, they are with their garment of life on them, and when they pass into those, which are from heaven, they put on their heavenly house, a house which is not made by human hands and it is not made by man. The eternal life of the saints is an unfathomable mystery. Their house from heaven is the mystery of the redemption of their bodies, for that which is mortal is swallowed up by life, and the saints go between heaven and earth, and the mortals do not see them, for the house of life is a mysterious body, a body, which works powerfully over incorruption to prevail against it. John received his house from heaven when he was martyred for My name and he went to those in the grave and preached Me to them as well, and I also went and testified too that he is the one who confessed Me “the Father’s Lamb” and “the Redeemer”, baptizing Myself in the water of Jordan and sinking into it through My body, the sins of the creature. Oh, happy are those who were found clothed with the garment of life, for they put on it their heavenly house, the mystery of the redemption of their bodies.

All teaching is called lie on earth. The unfathomable mysteries of the eternal life are put into the darkness; they are wrapped up in falsehood, for the man is a liar like his father, the devil. I come to uncover the lie, and it will no longer be believed as truth, for My word is truth, and every lie finds its perishing in it. And here is what I say: every teaching which comes from man, is a lie. The man stood up to misinterpret the mystery of the resurrection, the mystery of the redemption of the bodies, and he cut himself into the sword of My word from the Scriptures, and I say: no mortal comes to life in another mortal body. (It is not reincarnated, r.n.). No. Every soul carries a body on the earth only once, and then the resurrection comes only once for the mortal body. The man is the body and the soul and his spirit, and each man is his own self and not another man, who was or is or will be. When the saints work on to earth from heaven, they come themselves with their own holy body and they are like Me in power and take from My glory, from My work. Their earthly dwelling is renewed by putting on the heavenly one, and the saints work between heaven and earth against lying, against wickedness, against unbelief, at the call of the faithful man and at My commandment, for the work with the saints over the earth. The one who stands up to misinterpret the Scriptures for the resurrection and the redemption of the bodies, that one is a false prophet who becomes haughty by standing against the godly truth.

I am the Lord God of the saints, and I wrote this into the Scriptures: «God made the heaven and the earth», and he who speaks from himself tells a lie and speaks that there are many dry grounds between earth and heaven, and speaks that there are many other human peoples as well. This is the work of the false prophet who speaks from himself a blasphemy against God, the abomination of desolation on the earth, destroying by lying the souls and bodies of the people everywhere. It is written into the Scriptures about the red beast, full of the blasphemy names, having seven heads and ten horns, which wages war against the Lamb. But the Lamb will overcome, for He is the Lord, and all those with Him, called, chosen and faithful, will overcome. Amen. Then the false prophet will be thrown away together with the red beast, alive, into the fire lake, where brimstone is burning, and those who had carried the sign of the beast and worshipped its image will be killed by the sword, which comes out of My mouth. Amen.

My saints, together with the spirits of My angels, will fulfill every word which comes from Me, and there will no longer be the one who believes the lie, for the teaching of the Scriptures says this: «No one ever ascended into heaven but only the One Who descended from heaven», ascending and descending, descending and ascending and descending again, and every man lies when he says that he knows more than God. I came from heaven on earth and I did not speak what the man spoke. How comes that the man arises, speaking from himself otherwise than I spoke about the truth of the heaven and of the earth? However I have always been coming down from heaven to earth, for it is the time of My coming, and I come and speak the truth from the Scriptures against the lie of the man, and I come with the saints, for it is the time of their coming with Me, the Lord of the saints, and they testify as I do, for they are like Me and see the truth from the Scriptures. I am coming with the saints and baptize the entire earth far and wide with the word of the truth and I slap the man on his mouth with My word, for the man has no knowledge about the mystery of eternal life of My saints. Those who have no hope do not know how to get it from nothing, for the lying is not fed on the hope of the man fallen from God, and those who have hope are those who have knowledge about the mystery of the eternal life waiting for My coming with the saints and for the uncovering of God’s sons through whom I, the Lord, will turn in the man the work of the eternal life, which I put in the man created by My hand. My saints are those living, who are until My coming and work between Me and those who put their hope in Me from earth.

Soon, soon, the body of My word will be coming and confirming the word, as the word of John, My baptizer, was proved by My coming to Jordan, to be baptized before those who were coming to be baptized and to be confessed by My Father Sabaoth, as His Son, through the strengthening of the word confirmed by the Holy Spirit, Who came down from the Father in the image of a dove. Amen.

The eternal life of the saints, clothed with their house in heaven, which they had worked at, in the time of their bodies by the works of their holiness, is an unfathomable mystery. They are those who are alive and with whom I come to fulfill the prophecy of My coming with them, with My saints, who have eternal life. Their crowns will shine like of those who will welcome My coming with the saints in their body. Within these days, those from the grave hear My voice from the manger and get ready for their resurrection, the resurrection of those who sleep, who will be crowned by those that are alive in heaven and on earth, for the eternal life of My saints, with whom I work on the earth, is a wonderful mystery.

I come with food in abundance, with green and abundant grass, for without food from Me there is no one to be able with Me. My food has been waited for by those in heaven and by those who have been fed on it on the earth, and soon, soon, the body of My glory will appear and it will confirm My mysterious word of the eternal life, the mystery of the resurrection from the dead, and the life of the age to come. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the St. Anthony the Great

You, who hear from My mouth the word of life, lay with it into My book of these days. Amen.

I come again at the manger with food; I come with the word of life. It is My power for those who are saved by it from sins and from those in the world, and for the wisdom of the world, it is foolishness.

The wise man asks himself: „How can God speak so much?” The one, who says this, calls Me weak and limits My power. However, I would speak forever and I would never be silent, for I am the One Who can. The man cannot, but I can, only that the wonder of My power to be seen, the wonder of My word, within which I do not grow tired, for I have to establish a new heaven and a new earth, by word and by the work of My creating word, and I have to frustrate the wise and the learned of this age, for behold, the world through its wisdom has not known God within God’s wisdom, and I, the Lord, save those who are faithful that preach Me, the crucified One, and this is a stumbling block for the Jews, and for the pagans is foolishness, because it is written: «For Jews ask for signs, Greeks seek after wisdom, but we preach Christ crucified; a stumbling block for the Jews, and foolishness to Greeks, but for those who are called, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God». And behold, the wisdom and the strength of the people is overcome by the foolishness and wickedness of God’s sons, so that those that are may put down those that are not, so that no body may boast before Me.

The law of the spirit of life frees the man from the law of sin and death, as it is written: «Those, who are fleshly, lust for the fleshly ones, and those, who are spiritually, lust for the spiritual ones». Amen. The flesh lusts against God and cannot submit to the law of God, and behold, those who are in the flesh cannot be pleased to God, but the man does not want to hear something like this, and rather he feeds on the love of God, or so he says. The man does not like the word of life. Oh, he does not like My long speech, for it is for those who are saved from sin and from the world, and the man calls the preaching of life foolishness and he seeks to hide, saying that it is not I, Who speak so much, and that it is not I, Who speaks Romanian from heaven on earth. However, I am; I, the word of the eternal life, and he, who does not learn from Me, that one fails to get his remove, for the world by its wisdom has not known God within God’s wisdom, for it is written into the Scriptures: «I will lose the wisdom of the wise and the knowledge of the learned I will destroy, and I will call out foolishness over the wisdom of the world and I will ask: where is the wise and where is the scribe of this age?»

I come to My manger with the word of life, and blessed is he, who hears My voice from the manger, and will not stumble against Me. And you, who hear the word of life from My mouth, give yourselves to one another and to Me with all your life, and let Me be your life; let those of Mine be in it and thus you should give to Me from those of Mine. Amen.

Each moment of rebuke is a birth, and this is the work of the church, for he, who forgets My teachings, brings forth pain to the church and to the Holy Spirit, Who has to live and work within the church by the mystery of the church, through the body of the church, through its entire body. Amen. This work of wisdom is no longer on earth, for if the baptism the man made for the man, remained with its fruits in the man, the man would no longer die, and he would no longer give himself over to the devil. But how can the man give to the devil? He gives himself, giving his own things: through debauchery, uncleanness, lust, wicked lust and by greed, which is idol worshipping, as the Scriptures says, and for such things, God's wrath reaches those who do not listen to Him. And there, where the baptism and faith join the man to God, God seals that one and turns the one, who is baptized, into a weapon against the devil and clothes him in the new man, who is renewed to the full knowledge, in the image of the One Who created him through the bath of his new birth. Amen.

The wise man ask a question: „How can God speak so much?” Oh, if the people spoiled all My works to make theirs, should I, the Lord, really not get up like the Creator that I am and work?

I has stayed for two days in the grave and I arose the third day and got up and worked and founded My kingdom on the earth. If the man would spoil it and he does spoil it always, shall I really not rise as a Creator that I am and work it back to its place? Has the time really not come yet to put back to its place My kingdom built two thousand years ago? I say again: I have stayed for two thousand years waiting for the creature's resurrection that I died for, and the third thousand years is the day of the resurrection, the Lord's Day. Amen.

Here is the mystery about the ages, for with God a day is as a thousand years. This mystery is no longer hidden, for a day before Me is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day, and I do not delay with My promise, but I was long enduring according to the man's estimation, for I wanted that every man should come to repentance. I gave time to the man, but the man has departed from the beginning and came to the end, for he went forward instead of coming back to Me and waiting for the resurrection. Here is why I, the Lord, speak so much, that it seems to the man that it is not I who speaks.

I have kept silence for two thousand years as in the grave, and the resurrection is in the third thousand years, and I am the beginning of the resurrection, as it is written about Me and about the resurrection in the Scriptures. Two thousand years are as the two days in which I stayed hidden into the grave, and the third thousand years is as the third day in which I arose and showed Myself to the people. This is the mystery of My long and endless speaking, for I, the Lord, breathed and spoke upon the earth, and My word arose and gave life to those from the graves, as it is written into My word of two thousand years: «The hour, when the dead from the graves will hear the voice of God's son, is coming, and those that will hear will arise». This is the mystery of My word and of My voice from these days, and those that hear it arise to incorruptibility and clothe in immortality for meeting with Me, for I come with the heavenly wedding on the earth, with the true mystery of the wedding<sup>143</sup>, the mystery that the man has closed on the earth under the sin for so many thousand years calling it mystery and comparing it to the true mystery of the wedding. The wedding is the salvation which is paid with life and the wedding means nothing else.

I, the Lord, breathe the word over the earth and say to all the people on it: oh, people who love and love each other! I am coming soon! Love each other as much as you want, as I love the church and I gave Myself for it to cleanse it and to make it holy and to have it as My clean and pure bride. Monk your life, those who are married, for woe and again woe to the priests who send the man into sin by marriage, and then they do no longer take him out of sin and death for resurrection, for the third day, the day of resurrection, as My apostles and saints did for those who were married and who came to them to find Me, the Holy One.

The mystery of lawlessness is coming to an end and there is no longer hidden, for I bring it into light and condemn it, casting it into an unquenchable fire. It has been worked out under a name of mystery for two thousand years, but now, behold, the word is coming out to life from its mystery, the world of the judgment of the lawlessness, which has been hidden under the mystery of the church through the work of the man, hidden and haughty, who has been covering his sin under a holy face. The haughty man has believed that He has loved Me and that I have also loved him and that I show Myself to him and that he is wise. But visions, wonders and imaginations are not for the Christians, but rather they are the work of the devil that deceives those who think of themselves that are wise and working over themselves and over the people. And for the Christians there are temptations and burdens of the time, with which the devil stays into their way to heaven, so that they may be proved out as Mine by My power in them, with which they stand strong against the spirit of the darkness of this age. And as the good children in the eyes of their parents are their joy, life, peace and the work of their parents, so are the holy disciples, the joy and the life of their Teacher, their Counselor and their Lord from heaven. They do not do any harm to one another, but rather they do good to God, for those who appear into the eyes of others that violate those things of Mine, being My servants on the earth, they do everything with great responsibility, like David, who took of the holy bread from the hands of the priests in time of trouble, in time of need and darkness and of war on the earth.

I am the One Who told those that follow Me into the world: «Get out of the world and do not touch what is unclean, so that I may receive you and take from you and we may be Father and sons». And I also told them: «Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel of My coming and baptize those that get out of the world, so that they may believe in Me». And I also said: «You are not from the world, and that is why the world hates you». The apostle Paul was walking the same way as I did, and he was always taking care so that no one should go astray because of him, a time when he became like all, to draw some of them to Me and to My Father, and the one, who was baptized at that time, was seen that he was baptized, as the baptism was proved out that it really was by the work of the Holy Spirit, which became a river into the mouth of the baptized one to the work of the building of My living church. If the baptism does not find its fruits in the man, then the man is something else; he is not a Christian; he is not christened and does not have the sign of the baptism upon him, and the sign of obedience, which points to the one that is baptized. The man is still haughty and says that he has Me and that I love him, and he does not even have the sign of the submission upon him. Every man walks with his head uncovered, being sinful and without a master, and the women, to My mocking, stand against Me by haughtiness, walking uncovered before the people and before the angels and before the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit and putting away from around them the angels and the saints and the forefathers, and the man is haughty and says that he has Me and that I love him as he is, and the man wakes up and says: „How comes that God speaks so much?” And I speak much and answer the man by a long talk, for the man has departed much from those that I asked him to do, and to be a church for Me. And behold, the man walks to seek the church, and it is nowhere. He walks to seek for My kingdom, the kingdom of peace, and it is nowhere; it is found neither in schools, nor on long travelled roads, nor over the oceans, nor in the air; it is seen nowhere, and those that have it, do no longer walk, do no longer seek, as it is in their inside, and they do no longer travel a long way for it, as the wise men do, who always learn but have no penny.

Oh, the man does not like My kingdom, My teaching, for the man is afraid of its righteousness, for the man is old, and the new one renews himself continually and always seeks according to justice and lives it on a new earth. Amen. Those, who established themselves to be great on the earth into the name of My church, are false and empty; they are people carried away by the lusts of the flesh and not by the Spirit. They make their own desires dishonoring My face among the people. Here they are! Let all the passers-by look at them! Fleshly people who are not freed of the law of the sin and death, for the lust of the flesh is death and enmity against God, not submitting to the law of God, and «they who are fleshly cannot please God», as it is written in the Scriptures: «If someone has the Spirit of Christ he is not of Christ». And here they are! Fleshly people, standing greatly upon the earth into My name, making from their women a spectacle for the devils in a place called holy; women without devoutness, adorned in a worldly manner, without modesty, loving empty glory and becoming simple-mindedness in the world, dishonoring My holy name in the middle of the people who wonder away without a counselor, without a shepherd, for they who departed from the right way and became a stumbling block for many, got up and then became shepherds of the sheep, but did not keep My knowledge, as the prophet said: «The priest's lips should keep knowledge and teaching should be found at his mouth, for he is the messenger of the Lord, Sabbaoth», and I will let him to the contempt and humiliation, for every man stumbled over because of them.

Oh, it is not good for the man to be with his head uncovered, being sinful and without a master on the earth, but the man does not believe and perishes in disbelief, and I raise and breathe a spirit of resurrection and I delivered a long speech of word, as My sigh for the haughty man is great. I said that I would put fire to all the heads without a sign of submission on them, and if I said that I come and fulfill it, for My name is mocked by men, women and children who are proud with My name, for the priests' women are called „priestesses”, and they are immoral and covered with furs, hats and dyes and false veils, and it is not even about a holy veil, worn with propriety for My holiness in man, for the women, who tasted and still taste the sin, could have put on a veil according to the Scripture, and this means a black covering, a black kerchief, to distinguish from the virgins and not to hide under the innocence, if they do not clothe with it, and it is in no way decent another covering for the women, as the fashion of the world has nothing to do with My teaching. And I speak much and answer to the man by a long speech, to clothe him with My word as in the garment of repentance and humility, and that the man may not walk over the seas to look for My kingdom and My church, for it is not found on any other way.

I have kept silent since two thousand years, and I am speaking again now, for the resurrection comes, the third thousand years, the third day, when I become a word of the resurrection, a long and endless word like the eternity. This is the mystery of My word and of My voice which fills the earth during these days. The man torn down My temple in those two days, in those two thousand years, and in the third day, in the third thousand years, I, the Lord, rebuild it and become the King over the whole creature which will be again.

Let no body judge Me for the word of judgment. Each moment of rebuke is a new birth for the one who wants to be born of heaven. Oh, hardly can the man of nowadays perceive this mystery. But to you, who are the people of My word, which gives life, do not be upset with the time of rebuke for your wrong doings. Give yourselves to one another and to Me every moment of your life. Each rebuke is your new birth, you child born by the new mystery of the church, the mystery of the New Jerusalem over your creature. The old man tries to be upset within you, but the new man rejoices through the work of the birth, for the judgment day is the day of the new birth. Amen. The old man in you is afraid of justice, but your new man looks for it and lives a new earth in it. Be always hard-working disciples through humility, for behold, those who did not learn, fail to get their remove, because the man exists only through his birth and he cannot be otherwise.

Blessed are those who endure the admonition and teaching for make wise them. Blessed and fortunate are those who are not offended into Me and into My word. And again, happy, thrice fortunate are those who hear My word and fulfill it. Amen.

I am, and the day of the resurrection is with Me, and the word of life comes out of My mouth. I stayed two days into the grave and the third day I arose and established My kingdom. And I have stayed two thousand years waiting, and the third thousand years is the Lord's Day. Amen, amen, amen.

The of the three hierarchs: Basil, Gregory and John

I come close to the manger of My word and I come down into it as word so that My word may go from it over the earth, preaching Me within My coming of today, for today are the days of My coming, as I said through the Scriptures two thousand years ago.

You, from the manger, and all who live like you for the waiting of My coming with the saints and for the saints, get used to your life in Me abundantly, to My holy teaching and to the exhortation for a great watching, for there comes the time of trouble for every man who has not got God for his teaching and for his life and light.

You all who share the bread from heaven among you, the word of eternal life; you who give to the hungry from it, give power to My gifts among you, the holy gifts over to you, and let them come true that you are Mine between heaven and earth, for the dead will get up and confess their life on the earth and My work of today with which I, the Lord, fulfill the Scripture of the resurrection of the dead. But once with this fulfillment, the antichrist's servants will appear and they will try to bring this mystery to nothing. He will send his false servants, who will say that they have lived on earth life after life until today. (They would say that they have been reincarnated several times, r.n.) Here is the lie that has been worked out for a long time, and its people make haste to fulfill a great errancy, which will be called "the resurrection of the dead". The man of lawlessness will appear and will speak about his life lived on earth one hundred years ago, and many other hundreds of years ago, and the man on the earth will stay and listen, and he will not be afraid of such a leading astray. And those who were resurrected will also confess their life in the flesh and My coming within this word that I speak to the dead, the same way I worked two thousand years ago, when I rose from the dead in My body from the grave, and many rose with Me and appeared to the people, and behold, some will be the dead who were resurrected, and others will be the living ones, who will lie from place to place to frustrate, as they say, the mystery of the resurrection from the dead.

The man did not want to learn standing with his heart above in heaven. The priest gets out before the altar and lifts up the book of My Gospel, a book covered with gold, silver, precious stones and ornaments of all kinds, and raising it he says: "We should have our hearts above!" (At the holy liturgy, r.n.). And this does not come true; those inside of the book, those which speak about Me then and now, are not being fulfilled upon the people, for behold, I am coming again, and the man does not read My Gospel, and rather he reads and listens to the man, from the book of the man. Oh, the book of My Gospel does not have to be decorated on the outside and that is all. It has to be lived from those things inside of it. It has to be shown to the man with those from inside and not from outside.

Soon, soon, crowds of priests will arise and get rid of the falsehood of life and they will want to serve in a heavenly way; moreover, they will humble before Me and will urge the crows to come back to Me. And they will give Me their lives so that I may give Mine to them too, and they will tread with it over the falsehood of life, and they will take from My word of today and make it alive over the people, for My word is the gift of eternal life for the man who loves his heavenly life within him.

Behold, every man is taught to make himself a family, for he says that this is left into the world, instead of saying to make a heaven in him, a dwelling place where I should live with My saints and angels, a heavenly family in man, in the man's heart, body and life. And I come and find the man within his wills and I try to help him with My word, but he has been getting used to be careless and unfaithful; however, I come, and he does not hear or see Me coming and speaking within My coming, and he does not get up to pray to God for light and for life. I am the One Who teaches the man how to pray to Me, praying in him, as I prayed in David when I said: «Here I am, I have come to do Your will, My God, for it is written about Me in the scroll that I come». And in Isaiah I said: «I clothe the heavens with darkness and make sackcloth its covering. The Lord God gave me a well-instructed tongue, to know the word that sustains the weary. He wakens me morning by morning, weakens my ear to listen like one being instructed». Behold, I am the One Who taught the man to pray asking for the fulfillment from the Father as I did. I am the One Who prays in man for the fulfilling of the Scriptures, for a new heaven and a new earth, for the life of the age to come. I am the One Who fulfills My promises from the prophets and psalms and from Moses' Law, for I have always been and I have been the Son of the Father, the Word of the Father, the work of the Father within man and among the people, the work of the Father within saints in heaven and on earth for seven thousand years.

I cross the air with groups of saints and angels, and the saints are My crown of glory. I became a holiday for the saints in the garden of the manger of My word, and I find Myself in it, I, with My saints and their holidays. I am here with the three saints, Basil, Gregory and John, for they have heavenly bodies, like Me, and I come on and on with them on the earth for My work with the saints on the earth. In the time when they wanted to come together in a single holiday after they all came for the heavenly ones, the three came down on the earth and told those that worked out disunion among them for the distinguishing of their greatness in life; they told them that they are one in heaven, and that is why they should have a single holiday for the three of them, and after they set a holy day for them went from them to heaven. Behold, they worked this way for My work of today, coming down on the earth on My beginning in 1955, in My trumpet Verginica, and coming, they anointed her for My work with it, and again, coming again, they had an anointment over My garden and over those that are in it, My servants, day and night, for the work of my word upon the earth. They are forever a work of a bishop upon My little garden of today and upon those that bring Me a sacrifice of prayer and forgiveness in it for the human kind. They are those who loved the truth in everything in their holy life, for it is no other truth but in the saints. Amen. And behold, the true holy days for the saints on the earth are the holy days of those who celebrate the saints, living their life and their holy teachings. The true saint, the true bishop among the people is the one who let Me stand in front of the people when he is with the people.

In the moment of repentance, the man should not have before him only the priest (At the mystery of confession, r.n.). Oh, the moment of repentance should not be this way. The one, who does not stay face to face with Me by the priest's intercession, does not know what it means to be the Lord's servant, and the Lord's servant, who is the only one to stand before the man and only through him, again, does not know what the true service in My name is. When I judged the world, I sat on the cross and this way I judged it, and in this way I showed how it should live and how to be like Me if it wants. And here, the true holy days for the saints and for the Lord are they who celebrate those from heaven, living their life and their holy teaching, and those that are sanctified for My coming with the saints, for My coming of today; they are those that I have room in with the plan of the days of My coming, with My holy ones, by which I work the new man, who gives himself to Me for My work and the work of My saints in him. Amen.

There is not even a tiny place on the earth for the truth. I look and see multitudes gathered in the places called churches. There is no one accustomed to those in heaven anymore, but only to those on the earth. There are only man's needs everywhere, and My wills are crucified on the cross. Behold, the truth has found no place on the earth, but only on the cross, again and again, and among the people there is only man's will even there where the man says that it is a church, as it has been used to say from man to man. I am the truth, and the man keeps Me on the cross, so that I may not be in the way of his wills or his works. The servant of the church stands only himself before the people, and not I with him, for he does not work to take after Me, and the servant, who does not stay on the cross to judge, can never be a judge. But he judges into My name, and he makes for himself a high position into My name that no one can throw him down from his seat. But I am with the small ones, with those from under the cross, with those that help Me carrying the cross of My coming, the sign which is shown before My appearance and of My day.

I have been speaking for forty years and I speak again upon the man to draw him from the way of death and to give him My way. I want to weaken the man so that I may overcome him and dwell in him afterwards and to give him My life to carry, but behold, the man has been possessed by the woman for seven thousand years, for the woman add weakness by her weakness upon the man. But the man does not let himself to be weakened and overcome by Me, but only by the woman. The same is with the servant who sets himself upon the man into My name, and the same are all those that are led by these. Behold, every man learned how to make a family for himself, instead of saying that a man should make a heaven in himself, and I come and find the man in his own wills and want to help him with My word brought by Me at his manger. But the man is used to be indifferent to God and to all those for his body and the soul sighs in the man like in a prison.

I go through the air with hosts of saints and angels and come down together with them above the manger of My word, and find the watchmen watching and I set Myself as the word from the book among them, and then I go across the earth with it and make by it the work of My coming with the saints, for I work through the word. But who takes his time for the celebration of My coming? Who is to tell the people of My coming? The kings of the earth and the men of their church gave gifts, stars and medals to one another into the name of My grave from Bethlehem, as in the time of My crucifixion, and they do not know why they do this, and willy-nilly they fulfill the Scriptures which spoke in its time about this work. Here, at Bethlehem was fulfilled the Scriptures which says: «I saw a woman drunken with the blood of the saints and of the martyrs of Jesus. And on the waters that she sits upon there are peoples and nations and languages. And the ten horns and the beast will hate the prostitute and will turn her into a wilderness and naked, and they will eat her flesh, and burn her into the fire; as the Lord put into their hearts to do his will and to come to the same thought so as to give their kingdom to the beast until the words of God will be fulfilled. And the woman is the great city which has authority over the kings of the earth».

The kings of the earth met at Bethlehem and bowed down to the beast and to the woman sitting upon the beast, the woman who as authority over the kings of the earth, and she gave them gifts, stars and medals. But she is falling down by her fornication, and the saints are standing up and testify from heaven and earth about the holy truth and about My coming with the judgment; the judgment by the word. Amen, amen, amen.

What kind of work of brotherhood can the mixtures of the church with the world full of her lusts be? What kind of church work can this be? Oh, it is written in the Scriptures: «Friendship with world is enmity with God». And here, the man likes brotherhood, but this is for himself not for Me. But let you, who are the people of My coming in the middle of Romania, take delight in being brothers for Me to help Me be called all over the earth by My power and through you, those who became brothers in My name for Me and not for yourselves. What kind of brothers can they call themselves, they who pull My hand from one side and the others who pull My hand from the other side? (The Orthodox and Catholic churches, r.n.). They fraternize to beat Me nails; some of them into one hand and some other into the other hand, and then to do their own wills, mixed under a church name, under a secret name, which the work of the iniquity of those who do evil is hidden under. And here, My church is not from the earth and whoever wants to look for will not find it for it is not. It is there where I am. It is there where My people are with Me, not with the world, not like the world, but like God. Amen.

And you, who are the people of My coming, do My will and not yours. Be brothers among yourselves for Me, but not for yourselves. Do not come apart among you, but rather come together under the holy church, for the brothers who have factions among themselves, draw Me from one hand, and others from other hand for their justice, and they keep Me as stretched out on the cross, with my arms spread as on the cross. However, I want My holy will in My church, for I sacrificed Myself to make a church on My sacrifice on the cross, on its foundation, which is My body. The true brothers are those who do My will among them and before Me, for Me and not for them. The true brothers are those in whom only My kingdom is worked by the spirit, the soul and the body; only My love, by which I sacrificed Myself for the man. The true sons of God are those who keep holy their spirit, and soul and body, working from their inside at My kingdom, in which there is no pain but only life without death; everlasting life of God in man. Those, who are brothers in My name, hear My voice and follow Me and not the man, and they follow My saints who gave themselves as an example of everlasting life before the people.

Here is what the three bishops that I stay today as a celebration upon My manger for My people and for all those who heavenly celebrate with the saints on the earth:

— Come to the spring of the Lord, Jesus Christ! Come, you, who sacrifice the Lord on the altars! Come and learn to sacrifice yourselves like us for Christ's flock! Come here near the spring, as we, the saints from heaven, come from heaven with the Lord here and listen to the word of the last days. Get up for the sacrifice! Sacrifice yourselves on the cross and take in you the Lord's face, the Lord's image and His humility garment. Open the Gospel and read from it, but not only on Sunday at the service. Do not open it in covers gilded with gold and silver to make the weak mind of the people wonder. Open it! And open it well and take out of it the water of life for you and for the Lord's sheep. Seek to come out of the guilt of your sins, for a servant of the Lord cannot take care of himself, but only of the Lord's sheep. Come of the woman's possession, for you have Christ as your head if you follow the Lord as the apostles did. Save yourselves from the lying life and flee the silver, wealth and lusts. Flee the death and repent, for the Lord is coming, and He has always come, and you are not watching. Get together with those from heaven, not only with those on the earth, for we, the saints, paid with our life the heaven, and took it, and were carry it from place to place. Do not stand before the people for yourselves. Stand with the Lord, but be like the Lord, so that you may stand with Him before the people and your work may be fruitful.

And we speak again: come to the spring of the Lord, Jesus Christ! Come, you, servants of the altars; you, who have a clean and holy life and fear of God! Come to this mountain, the mountain of a holy teaching and learn the true way and get up on it, for it leads and always leads up again; it leads up to the Lord and does not go down and does not lead to destruction, but rather to the Lord. The Lord has been speaking for forty-five years upon the earth through the spring of this word. Come too, those that are still clean and holy in the middle of this church from the world; come and lay hands on the cross and overcome the lying from the world and the church from the world by it. Take the traitors out from the temple as well, or you get out and become a temple for God, so that the Lord may have a pure church, to be the chosen first fruits among the people. Amen.

And you, Lord, seal our word upon those that love You in the world and give them power to get out of the world for You, the same way as we worked for You and for our faith in the churches in the time of our body on the earth, and make the man thank You for this bread coming down from heaven on the earth, as we, Your saints from heaven, thanked You when we came with You at Your wedding table in the middle of Your little garden of Your manger, where You were seated as a supper of word, a wedding table, Lord, Your wedding table. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, My servants who toiled on the earth in the time of your body! I strengthen your word with My word. Soon, soon, you shall go from place to place as in the time of your body and testify on the earth My time with you. The trumpet of My word calls out and it is heard in the graves and in heavens, and woe to those that do not hear from the earth to take on their new garment, the life for My coming!

And you, who are on the earth and take from My manger the heavenly bread for your life, give yourself to the life, for it comes to clothe you in its garment. Do not get tired in Me, and be alive only by My resurrection in you.

Soon, soon, those, who were in the beginning, are coming to the earth. The heaven is coming down to the earth for the work of the New Jerusalem, as it is written into the Scriptures of the new heaven and the new earth. It is not the man of this age, not the man who does not do My will on the earth, not him, but I will be and fulfill it; I and not the man of this age; I and those who do My will, the will of My Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, My will from heaven with the man. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the Publican and Pharisee

I come to rest in you and over you, children of My coming, so that everyone, who want to learn God's mystery with the people, that is My life in man and among the people, may receive from you. Amen. I come to give you from the Holy Spirit, for if the church does not have the Holy Spirit in it, working on view, cannot teach anybody the work of the church. I come to you, children from the manger, and I come with teaching here to you, so that the man may find at you the way he should walk in and then to walk on it. Amen.

The man has nowhere to receive this teaching from, sons. I come to give it to him, so that he may not perish for lack of wisdom. When I was seen in My body on the earth, I was going from citadel to citadel with My disciples to leave the seed of the teaching from place to place. Then I told My disciples to do like Me after I would go to My Father to send power and Holy Spirit over them from Me, the One filled with the Father. Oh, there was no one to come after Me and after My disciples, but only few of them here and there, but the seed of the kingdom of the heavens was spreading everywhere and was being sown everywhere. However, it was not the crowds who followed Me; it was not them that were coming to Me. Those were coming after Me for the signs and miracles that were coming down over many sick people in their faith to strengthen their faith in Me on the earth. Those who followed Me were not coming for their life with Me.

Oh, sons, what use is it to Me, if the man knows that I am and that is all? He who knows that I am and that is all, that one prays to Me to give him what he needs and not what I need from him, and I am not pleased with the man who only knows that I am and that is all.

I come to you to work out a teaching for those who pray to God. I am coming sons, for it is a severe drought on the earth, and there is hunger to hear God's word, for there is not holy life in churches so that My Gospel may stick to those who hear My words in it. I said that I come to rest on you and in you and that I come to work on you and in you. This is My rest in man, for I rest in the man that I can work on and I do not get tired working. No one understands My rest and My day of rest. Everyone speaks about it as he understands it, and then he says that he takes from the Scriptures and speaks. However, in the Scriptures there are much more teachings and commandments and those who speak as they want about My day of rest do not put the Scriptures on them and each one of them rather do as they want, and then they boast about My day of rest on them. I come with the work of the Holy Spirit in the garden at you, so that My teaching may flow like a river, which runs out of the garden and dividing itself on all sides it works and waters the land so that a new man may grow on it. Amen.

Behold, the work of repentance is starting today in the churches, according to books, the song of repentance and humility, the threefold song, the prayer for repentance, that My saints have lived on the earth and have given it as work over the church. My word about repentance and humility, the Gospel with the parable of the Publican and the Pharisee, is being read today in churches. It is being said in it about the kind of prayer. The one who confesses his sins humiliating because of them before Me, that one fills his heart with prayer, humility and repentance, but the one who thinks he is doing My will, that one does not have any humility at all, but on the contrary, he stands up and grows through teaching and pretends that he is a teacher and loses his contrition, for it is written: «The one who says that has no sin is a liar and the truth is not with him».

Behold, the one who has riches and does not know what he has got them for, that one is pitiful. But what has the man got riches for? Let us have a heavenly council, sons from the manger. Let us join the earth with the heaven in a work of the Holy Spirit and let us rejoice the Father Sabaoth. The fruit of My work with you is My praise before the Father. Sons, what has the man got riches for?

— You, Lord, are the One Who has and the One Who gives riches to the man. Some people work with them to urge many on the way of good deeds and prayer and gratitude for Your help, and of the cleanness of the mind and soul. Those rich men are Your stewards for the work of the saints on the earth and for the help of the destitute who wait from You in their wants. These rich people work for their own dwelling and wealth in the tents of Your saints, of Your righteous people, Lord. However, others have riches to receive their reward on the earth for the little that they give to those in need, but they are not dedicated themselves for You with those that You have been giving them to have. These do not advise the poor to You, since not even them look after You with those of Yours, and in this way, not even the people who obtained mercy seek You, but they only make use of the help from the rich ones.

— Oh, children of My coming, I have taught you to whom you should give of the work of your hands, of My wealth and yours, sons, and I told you that those whom you give should not have more than you, and you should also not have more than they have, for the rich man who has from Me and does not work this way is rich to the prejudice of his soul in his temporariness and eternity. He who has got riches and keeps them first for himself, that one loves them and cannot love both Me and them, since he has never been satisfied with them and that one has been looking for his mercifulness to make Me owe him. Behold, few are with you of those who have been taking My guide from you, the guide for life. The riches are the barrier to freedom. The same it happens to the rich ones in learning and science, and their wealth is their obstacle. The man who makes things for himself to have, that one is a sick man and cannot go to heaven and cannot be free. The rich man was hindered by his riches to love Me and to follow Me for his good deeds for the fulfillment of the life commandments. But the rich man cannot fulfill the first commandment, because his heart is bound to all he has been heaping to have for himself. The learned makes uses of those he has learnt and cannot catch up with the one with a clean mind and teaching; he cannot, but only if he denies of his knowledge, to be freed from it, and then to be able to love Me, the humble and gentle One in heart. I have not learned from the man the knowledge of this world, which the man likens to those from God. How can the one who gathers much knowledge in his heart be gentle and humble in his heart? The one who likes to know many things, he does this because of his haughtiness. What use is his mind for Me? What good is it for others? It is of no use to him but only as it was to the Pharisee who prayed to Me a prayer of gratitude against the Publican who confessed his sins humiliating himself before Me.

Oh, sons, where should those who pray to Me learn from what the prayer is, so that it may reach My heart; the prayer of the man entangled in his own things? The prayer, which makes Me glad and then the soul of the man, is that which brings Me into the heart of the man who is praying to Me, and here, I do not rejoice over the man who rejoices in Me, but I rejoice over the one in whom I can rejoice. I do not rejoice over the man who prays to Me, but I rejoice over the one in whom I can pray. Amen, amen, amen. The man, who I, the Lord, pray in, in the Holy Spirit, is the one who knows to pray and to be with Me by praying. But why should it be this way, sons? Why should I pray in the prayer of the man to Me? Why, sons, taught by God?

— The man, who prays alone, without God by his prayer, is praying without fire, without the Holy Spirit of the prayer. The prayer has to be by the Holy Spirit in the praying man to God. If the man is praying alone, he is praying out of habit, not out of his heart's desire, not from God, and when he prays with God, he receives by God, not by his prayer and that is all, but by an intercessor, by the Holy Spirit, the Intercessor. Amen.

— That is why, I, the Lord, come to you; I come to work the teaching for those who pray to God, for those who give their lives and hearts to God, sons, for there is no life given to God in the worldly churches, and the life of God does not apply to those who go to church. I said that I come and rest upon you working, for this is My rest in man. I cannot rest in the churches and I cannot work out My rest and My day of rest and My prayer in the man who prays to Me. The man is only man in the churches and that is all. The man has become ugly and withdraws into himself and this is how he goes to church; he goes and comes and has nothing to take from the life when he leaves; he goes and leaves without any power, still without God, still without repentance and still without humility. And why does it happen this with the man who goes to church? Because the man goes to church without God. He goes there dressed-up, coquettish, stiff-necked, conceited, made-up and stuffed. The man goes without God to church and leaves it likewise, but I am with you on the earth and write the book of heavenly teaching for the rich and for the poor, for the righteous, for the kings and for the hired men, for slaves and for free, for those poor in their spirit and for those rich in knowledge, and say: let there be on the earth rich people for God, good administrators for the work of the heaven with the people on the earth! Amen. Let it be a church on the earth with eyes and ears and hearts of the Holy Spirit for the glory of My name and not for the man! Amen. Let there be God in all things! Let there be God on the earth! Amen. Let the man no longer be without God on the earth; let him no longer bring or share without God; let him no longer eat or drink without God; let him no longer come in and out without God; let him no longer dress without God; let him no longer have room without God! Let him no longer be without God on the earth! Amen, amen, amen. I do not rejoice over the man that prays to Me after his own will, but I rejoice over the one that I pray in after My will in the man. I do not rejoice over the man that rejoices in Me after his own will, but I rejoice over the one that I can rejoice in after My own will. Amen.

I do not rejoice over the man who prays to Me according to his own will, but rather I rejoice of the one in whom I pray after Me will in man. I do not rejoice over the man who rejoices within Me after his will, but I pray for the one in whom I can rejoice after My will. Amen.

Give the people the teaching of the life, you, sons that share God. Give God the people by this teaching, for the love of God is the greatest commandment among other commandments. The man cannot receive without it the reward of the commandments fulfilled by him; the man is not with God without it; without it the heart of the man is not in My house day and night, for it is written at the head of the book: «You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind and with all your love, and this way you will fulfill His commandments», as the reward is no otherwise for those that are fulfilled from the commandments, you man. Amen.

And I say again: May God be on earth! Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the remembrance of the Prodigal son's parable

I am the Good Shepherd, for I laid down My life for My sheep and I have been shepherding them. Amen, amen, amen.

The good shepherd is the one who gets into the sheepfold through the door. The gatekeeper opens to him and the sheep listens to his voice and he calls them by their name, and when he takes them out, he goes in front of them and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. Amen. I am the One Who shepherd Israel, and Israel is the one who lets himself be shepherded by Me knowing My voice. When I was speaking in the midst of Israel about My shepherding over the sheep given to Me by the Father, the Jewish people were taking stones into their hands and throwing them into Me, for they said that I was blaspheming God, but I was speaking the truth and saying that they were not of My sheep, for My sheep listened to My voice and came after Me. However, they were saying that I had a demon and that I was out of My mind.

I come to shepherd those who listen to the voice of My word, for I am the Shepherd of Israel. I have come to always refresh the water and to exhort to My spring with My voice of Shepherd. I stay near the spring and make a pasture of it for those who come and make it into living water for those who seek life. Whoever drinks of this water has eternal life. Amen. And the eternal life is in all who deny their own lives and take Mine, and I call them by their name and get out with them to the pasture, and they follow Me wherever I go, for it is written into the Scriptures: «These are those who are clean and follow the Lamb wherever He goes, for they were redeemed from among the people, as the first fruits of God and of the Lamb, and in their mouth there was no lie found, because they have been blameless».

I come down on the earth as a Shepherd. Let all those who want Me to be their Shepherd come to Me, for those who established themselves as shepherds do not shepherd, because they do not enter the fold through the door but rather they jump over it and they butcher and do not shepherd; they eat and drink and do not shepherd and do not teach the sheep to follow Me for they are engaged in another work, other than shepherding. However, I come to become the rest and light of the man's heart, tired of running and waiting, for the man is wondering about without master and without father on the earth. The man is the son prodigal of life. He took his life from Me and then he went with it into pleasures and debauchery and into death. He took it and spent it, and every man wanders away hungry, and his wondering away is great and he falls under it. However, I come with the spring of life giving and calling out everywhere to be heard by every man who wanders away without a shepherd and I say: He who drinks of this water has eternal life. He who takes Me from this spring denies himself and takes Me as his life and comes back to the Father after having a life wandered away without any price.

Today the parable of the prodigal son is being read in churches; the son who took his life away from God's hands and went with it and spent it, and then, being hungry under a foreign slavery, he had pondered on going back to his Father as a slave; as a slave and not as a son, for this is right, because the son is the worthy son and stays as a son before the Father.

There are only prodigal sons of life and they call God their Father, and there are no longer shepherds to teach the man what humility is, and I, the Lord, am ready to run before the one who tries to come back as a slave into My house, not as a master, not as a worthy son, but as a humbled son before Me, so that I may rejoice over his coming back. If he comes haughtily and if he comes for his own rights and if he comes to pose as master and heir, then I do not rejoice over his coming back. However, if he comes ashamed of his squandered life and humiliated because of his defeat, then I see him even he is far away and I come into his way to welcome him, and I do not let him come alone. I get out because of his humility and work according to the righteousness; I do not let him come alone, for I am the Righteous One and I come into the way of the one who humbles and I come out for his humility, and in this way I am righteous, for I said in the Scriptures: «Which of you men, if you had a hundred sheep, and lost one of them, would not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one that was lost, until he found it? When he has found it he carries it on his shoulders, rejoicing with his friends. For there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance».

I, as a good Shepherd, know of the man's haughtiness and prepared My way with justice even two thousand years ago, when I was working by the word to tame the proud hearts, which were used to justice after the law and according to justice. I did not want to be judged by the Jewish people, who's God I was, coming from the Father. I was exhorting them to repentance and they judged Me denouncing Me for injustice, and they thought that was right. I was appealing them to humility and forgiveness and they took Me and crucified Me so that they might no longer hear Me, for the Israel people was sinful. Not only Gentiles were under sin. Israel's sin was even greater, because he was sinning, knowing what sin was. However, I came from heaven to exhort him to repentance, and I could not do it because he pretended to be right. I came to be his forgiving Shepherd, but he was haughty and struck My hands and then he took Me out from him. Then I ran before those who were humiliating themselves through My sacrifice and resurrection, and I was taking them in Me and making them faithful by grace, and I made a people out of Gentiles for Me, and they are called those who are redeemed from among the people, the first fruits of God and of the Lamb, and there is no lie into their mouth, because they are righteous. Amen.

Oh, only the righteous one works out the lie, and then he uses it because he needs it to cover his sin, as the people of Israel has been doing and that has been hiding putting Me as a wall between him and the rest of the nations; Me, the One Who was condemned by the law; Me, the One, Who fulfills and not violates the law. Behold, only the righteous one works out the lie, and those, who choose life in return for their life, My eternal life in them, are those who are chosen from among the people, the first fruits of God, and there is no lie in their mouths, because they are blameless. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, there is no longer a man not to work out the lie and there is no longer a man without reproach. There are on earth only people squandering of life and they call God their Father, and there are no longer teachers to teach the man what humility is, because there is no righteous man. Then I said: «Here I have come!» and I have come, for it is better for the man to be shepherded by Me then by man, for the man who does not show to the man what to do, so that he may see, that one cannot be called a teacher over the man. Oh, there are no longer teachers anywhere, there are no longer, and I, the Lord, am ready to run before the one who comes back humiliated to Me, to make him like one of My slaves, and I to be Master and Teacher over all. Amen.

It is better for the man to be called My slave than My son, for the son loses his humility and plays the Father and he gets spoiled and thus becomes unworthy of the Father, but the slave is humble and loves his Master and does not rises over Him or pretends to be heir and teacher, but rather he remains a humble servant, allowing Me to be Shepherd before My kingdom and in front of My kingdom. Amen. That is why I have come. I have come to be Shepherd. And behold, I am the Shepherd of the sheep, and the wolves howl and the dogs bark, for they have nothing to tear down and they have nothing to bark at, and they nip at Me and they nip at the sheep, but the sheep are with their Shepherd, for it is written: «There will be one flock and one Shepherd», the flock of the Lord, the flock, which is shepherded by the Lord, a flock with a Shepherd. Amen.

I came from the Father to shepherd the sheep; I came to bring them together and to graze them. I call out the trumpet, for this is written that I should do. This word is the trumpet that I call out, and I call out to be heard, and it is heard, but those that are Jews in their hearts and mind call Me „the demon”, and say that I am the one who blasphemes, and call Me „the man”, for they are crucifying Jews. Oh, it is not the man, for I said that the man cannot be shepherd; he cannot be teacher, for I am the Teacher, not the man. But where should the man have wisdom from so that he may understand by it, if he is righteous every moment and does not shake to humiliate and then to remain in humility? The man cannot be shepherd, for the Shepherd is the One Who is crucified for the life of the sheep. I am everywhere with the crucified to have mercy on the sheep. There is no place on the earth that I may not be crucified every moment by every man. I stay crucified everywhere and the man is doing his will everywhere. Nowhere can I come down from the cross to dine with the man in a day of rest, for the man is taught to be free, and I, crucified. The man takes off My eyes with his sacrifices for Me, but I want mercy; for I am the sacrifice and not the man's sacrifice is sacrifice. The man goes to Jerusalem instead of doing My will upon him wherever he is, so that I may come to him and rejoice over him. But he goes to Jerusalem and he goes there in vain, for he does not touch the spirit and the truth by this going to Jerusalem. The man goes to other parts to find Me, but he goes nowhere in order to do My will. No one spends his wealth to do My will, but he spends it to see where I passed by, and that is all; where I worked and that is all, and then he boasts that he found My steps and that he walked in My footsteps.

Only his Shepherd does the man not want Me to be, for he is the son prodigal of life for his life, which he loses it by itself. But as for you, whom I have chosen as My people from among the people to be My first fruits and My harvest for the Father, I shepherd and take care of you, for you humbled yourselves at the hearing of My voice and were careful with your walking towards Me, and I have also taken care of My walking to you, and we will meet in the middle and work together into the vineyard of My Father, within the work of the Father Sabaoth, and I call you My disciples from the end, My apostles through whom I, Myself, preach the Gospel of My coming with the saints to all the margins. Amen. And you had better cry in a sweat and not laugh. Let your joy be the prayer of a sweat, which makes you partaker with God, My people, for in this way I lived on the earth before the Father; this way and not otherwise, My people. I had been sighing all the way to the cross and My prayer was that of a sweat, My people, and I was comforting My spirit and the peace of My spirit, anguished by the man's hatred against Me. And you are My follower, and the world likens you to Me, My people, because it hates you and it calls you “the demon”, and it says that you blasphemers, as it also happened to Me from the world and from those who pretended to be teachers and shepherds from God.

I give you the fear of God as a gift, My people. You will always be clean and awoke with it and ready for Me; you will serve Me with it, for without it no one can be My servant and My clean dwelling for My reign in the man who are My servant for My coming. My servant is only the one who prepares My coming by preaching and working, setting Me as the eternal life in man. The everlasting life is with the man through the working gift of the fear of God, through which the loving man stays always ready for My coming, for his joy in My coming. The fear of God is the connection, which keeps the man close to God. It is the discipleship of those who learn the work of God with the man. It is the awaking spirit, which does not fall asleep in the one who has it as the shield of his life. The gift of this love is to turn you into love for Me, My people, and let your love never be otherwise until I come to be with you forever, for this is written: «I am with those who fear the Lord». Amen.

I make you an example of obedience, an example of obedience by the gift of the fear of God, and you have to be My power on earth, My people, and let the nations feed on you with life, with My life in you, for I set you as an example before the human kind and I made you the forerunner sign for My coming, for I am like a good Shepherd, knowing man’s haughtiness, and I consider it right to judge the man through you, every man who lives within him without My wills; and let the man, hearing you or seeing you, come to humility and leave the bitter food and come and sweeten himself from My table with you, My people, and to know Me through this spring. And I say: he who drinks of this water has eternal life. Amen. He who takes Me from this spring denies himself and takes Me as his life, and then he will come back to the Father and he comes back humble to the Father. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the remembrance of the dreadful judgment

The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are coming down on the earth as word. God is coming down with rain on the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The rain is coming, watchmen sons, in the way of My coming. The rain is coming for the kingdom of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit to grow on the earth. Amen. The rain is coming to make the man grow into God’s image and after His likeness. Amen.

Stay under My growth and stay under the rain sons, for if My early and late rain does not fall on the man, that one does not grow, and the one who stays only now and then under My power and under the rain, that one is growing less, for either his legs do not grow or his upper body or his head or his heart or his mind or his faith, and he is stunted in his growth even if he grows and he does not grow as a whole body, for if the man goes to school only now and then, he does not become a great man, a learned man on the earth. The same is with the growth from heaven, and there are no people grown by heaven, for there is a great drought on the earth. It is a drought in the man’s heart; it is a drought of teaching, of resurrection and of longing for resurrection, and the man feeds on dust; however, I come with a heavenly rain for the living ones and for the dead ones and for those who are numb and arid of the resurrection. Let every creature under the heaven come under the rain of My word, for under this rain, the heaven grows on the earth. Amen. What is sown that grows, and behold, I, the Lord, sow heaven and the man sows dust, and then each one reaps what he has sown. However, it is a great pain over the man, and the man is numb and does not feel it. The earth does not have power of life for the man because of the man who has been sowing dust on the ground and the ground has been deprived of its sweet bosom, for I have taken its sweetness into heaven, because the man is no longer heavenly on the earth, but rather it is completely bitter; for Me every man is only wormwood and gall. The man on the earth nourishes Me with bitterness day and night. The man feeds Me on separation of God and on works that kill the Holy Spirit and the judgment of the creature is on earth, for each one reaps what he has sown. He who sows evil works eats of their fruits and fruit fades from fruit, and it is scarce the man who longs for the heavenly rain, which comes with the water of resurrection, with the spirit of resurrection over the earth. However, I come with the rain and with a flood of rain to clean everywhere, for I said that I come with fire, with the rain of the Holy Spirit, and the Holy Spirit is a consuming fire.

I am the Judge over the living and over the dead, and the saints are with Me within My coming and they wait for the resurrection of the dead and for the life of the age to come, and each one will stay in his own order and gather fruit of those that he has sown on the earth. And those, who have sown living people on the ground, watering, weeding them out and taking care of them to the heaven, will gather the fruit of resurrection and eternal life, and this is how their reward will be. Every word coming out of My mouth will be judge over every man, and it will be as a standard of life, for it is written into My book that I will come to judge the living and the dead and to establish My kingdom, and this is what I do, as it is written that I should do. Amen. But first, I have come to judge from the cross, and the cross is My life that I laid down on the cross for the redemption of the man. Since then I am the One sacrificed on the cross for the man and I am ready to give Myself over as I am to the one who receives Me as I am. Let the man receive Me in him and do what I did. Let him take My cross and stay with Me on it for his redemption through My cross. He should not leave only Me on My cross; rather the man should also come closer to Me on it, for the saints did the same and all helped Me in My cross and they always went on the earth, either under it or on it, until up above to Me, for My cross is the way of the man to Me, for where I am there the man may also be, he who follow Me through the cross and on the cross. It is only through the cross that the man can be My follower, for I was not otherwise. The one, who does not stay through the cross before the people, is not My follower, but rather he is a thief and a robber, and he is the antichrist who comes before Me to do his own signs for those who are to receive their reward through this tool, through the work of the antichrist, who deceives by his coming every man who does not know to wait for Me, as I said that this waiting should be.

On this day it has been reading from the book of My Gospel about My second coming, but the man who hears this Gospel does not come closer to the day of My coming, but on the contrary, he keeps his distance from it even through the exhortation of the priests, for everywhere the priest says that it is not even I that know of the day of My coming.

Sons from the manger, I said through My Gospel: «Of that day or of that hour no one knows; not even the angels from heavens or the Son, but only the Father». But I also said these: «As it happened in the days of Noah, even so will it be the coming of the Son of Man. And as they were eating and drinking, marrying and being given in marriage until the day that Noah entered into the ark and they did not know until the flood came and took them all, the same will it be with the coming of the Son of Man too».

Oh, watchmen sons, why do the priests say so, sons? This is what I said. Why do they also say so? Why do they not say like Me, for I have gone to the end with the preaching by My Gospel about the day of My coming? But you, sons anointed for the time of My coming, how do you say about My words of that time?

— If You said: «Of that day or of that hour no one knows; nor the angels from heaven or the Son, but only the Father», You said so to strengthen the man for watching all the time, Lord, since You are coming unexpectedly. And the man who is waiting for You has to be clothed and with his shoes on, as though You are coming at any time, for You said: «Be ready, for the Son of Man is coming in the hour you do not even thing about». Amen.

— Oh, why do the priests from the world do not say the same, why do they not say so, that they might strengthen the people in view of My coming? Behold, I come and I come again, and they sleep together with those under them, but here is My coming, for I have discovered it to the saints and parents through the angels, to set the man to watch. However, the antichrist says that he wants to bring Me in peace, so that I may bring human living on the earth, and this how I have taught the man to wait for Me and not to be afraid of My coming. However, he forgot that I am with those who are afraid of Me and that I prepare My way and pleasure within them, and He will remain ashamed with all his false miracles, miracles which would want to bring to the people the worldly life and the people's freedom and not God's freedom. And here is My coming, and no one knows to look at Me in order to see Me. My word is a salve for eyes, but he who does not repent, giving up his sins to be open for Me and to stay dressed and with his shoes on for My coming, that one does not open his eyes to see and to hear My coming and to understand My word and his way to the people, a way of light, a way with the resurrection from the death of his sins, the way of My coming with the judgment by the word, for it was by the word that I have been working from the very beginning.

In the beginning I made the heaven and the earth to put them all under the man's service and this way the man may glorify his Creator and to have Him always before Him and to work with Him at the kingdom of the heavens on the earth. But the man has not stayed in fear of God on the earth, not even after his fall from Paradise, and in this way the human kind has been increasing on the earth, and I, the Lord, have been patient with him this way for seven thousand years. But now, I have come again as word above the earth; I have come for the resurrection of the dead; I have come to make the earth into heaven and a dead one into a living one, and I will require the fruit of those who set themselves as workers over the people into My name, and each one will reap what he has sown; he will gather what he has put in the ground; they will gather the living or the dead. Amen.

The day of My second coming is called by My saints the day of the dreadful judgment. It is in vain that the man has been trying to flee from it. It would be better for the man to come closer to it instead, for no one will get away from it; nor the dead or the living. Man, if you are afraid of it, then get up and get ready for it, so that you may not perish by it, but rather to be the son of resurrection then, the son of the age what is to be. Get up and shake off the dust and everything on it and then wash yourself, for behold, the water is flowing down as rain from heaven on earth to cleanse you from top to bottom for My coming, and then I clothe you and put your shoes on and then give you the crown of My coming and I put you at My wedding table and bring you to the celebration of My coming, to the feast of the kingdom of the heavens on earth, man.

I call out the trumpet for the resurrection of the dead. They have been waiting for seven thousand years for the trumpet of their resurrection, and I tell them: there is still a little bit of time and everything and all will receive the garment of incorruptibility, the same as I made them from their very creation. Amen. Little and little and everything will come back into the life without death, and the dead come to life and confess their God and His work of seven thousand years, the work for the redemption of the bodies. Amen.

The earth has no longer power to help the man. The man has squashed its bosom, and the earth has become weak, and the man on it has become even weaker. However, My grace is with those that are afraid of Me and live by My grace, and I fill them with blessings and prepare their everlasting joy. Blessed are those who wait for Me to come for they have prepared for the day of My coming and rejoice over it, and the Father Sabaoth, announces it through Me, because I am full of the Father. Amen.

I call the trumpet of the resurrection of the dead. Let the dead and the living get up! Amen, amen, amen. I want every man, who has set himself as a ruler over the people, to wake up and to call the wakening everywhere, and let the man get up on the entire earth and make haste for his preparation for My coming. Little and little and those from the grave get up, for this is written into the Scriptures. The souls have been waiting for the resurrection of their bodies to come and welcome My day, the day of the dreadful judgment. Amen.

Stay under My growing and stay under My rein, you who live on this water. Take from it and grow, for the day is coming when the one who has not drunk will get dry of thirst on his feet. Take and drink and grow with the word that flows like the rain from heaven for those who eat and drink from heaven to be alive for My coming. Come to the fountain of life and ask the watchmen near it to take out water and to give it to you so that you may no longer go thirsty after another fountain, for the antichrist is going everywhere and pours out of his poison, that his water may be everywhere, for he thinks that I will no longer be God, and that he will be god instead. However, he will no longer be and nor the sons of lying, for I come to tear down everything he has been doing, and I work through those who are blessed by Me through My word of today.

I am clothed in the garment of judgment, for the spirit of the man stands powerfully against My coming. The wrath, the opposing man pushes Me to, overcomes My mercy, for it is the time to come because everything has come to an end on the earth, and the earth has been running out of power and it can no longer go on. There is no one to clean and to make it holy through cleanness, and the earth groans under the man's sins and I hear its sighing and groaning for the man is heavier than the ground under him. There are only sins on the earth, only deaf people, as in the time of Noah. But I also call out and cry again, and I cry as in the time of Noah. I call out until I come visibly and every man will see Me. I call out so that the dead and the living may hear Me, and the dead will help Me and will testify about My coming at the same time with their resurrection. Amen.

Here is the day of My coming; it comes coming with wrath! Even if no one prepares My way to come, nevertheless I come, but I come with wrath, for the man does not want Me and keeps on sending Me away from everywhere, only to be him, the man; the man who loves the lie enshrouding himself with it and putting it in the place of My righteousness. All the days of the man are his. The man eats for himself, fasts for himself, lives for himself, and seeks only for his own good, but he seeks without Me. Now I am coming to search out the man and I find him full of sins and I want to shake him off and to wash him to renew him and to make him again; however, if he does not want and remains deaf of hearing at the voice of My trumpet for resurrection, I, the One Who am Master, raise My hand and make a sign with it to the right or to the left for every man, for it is the day of judgment on the earth, the day of the Lord's righteousness. Amen.

Oh, watchmen sons, tell it far and wide that the day of the Lord is coming. The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are coming down on the earth as rain of word, the Lord's Day. Who hides under My word, which said two thousand years ago: «Of this day or hour no one knows; not the angels or the Son, but only the Father».? Here is the Lord's Day! God rains with it on the earth and the man passes through it and it passes through the man, and the man does not see and does not hear and does not know the day of My coming. However, you, those who are selected from among the people by My strong hand, spread the news on the earth that the Lord's Day is coming, and let every man get ready for it, for it is coming. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the remembrance of Adam's expulsion from Paradise

I knock at the doors and come in, for I am the Lord. Amen. I come into the garden of My word and I become spring over it; I become word from it on the earth to make the heaven, the earth and the man again, and to settle the man in love for Me and in obedience to the eternal laws and into eternity. Amen.

All the pains end up with joys. The same is with My pain; it will be finished and the joy will come over it, for the sun of eternity comes out of the clouds and overcomes for My joy for the comforting of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit and for the comforting of Jerusalem. Amen. Jerusalem is My comfort; it is the name of My comfort and it is the age of eternity and the age of the Lord, and all the pains end up with joy. Amen, amen, amen.

Nothing means Jerusalem, nothing but the Lord's age. Oh, sons who give My word to the people! Be the Lord's age, sons, for the Lord's age is with you in a celebration of New Jerusalem. I comfort you from heaven to know and to understand that Jerusalem is the Lord's hope, the name of My comfort, the age of eternity for Jerusalem. I have always come as spring of word over you, and you should share it on all sides so that the tree of life may grow on the earth, for it is written into the Scriptures about the spring which flows from Me: «the river of life proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb in the middle of the citadel; and on both sides of the river it grows the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruits, yielding its fruit every month, and the leaves of the tree for the healing of the nations». Amen. However, you should not get satiated with this fruit, for here is what the Scriptures write: it must yield its fruit every month for the healing of the nations. Amen. The age of the Lord is with you, which has to yield its fruit on the earth in order for the Babylon to fall down before My fruit with you. The Babylon is the kingdom of the world, and Jerusalem is God's kingdom, and every man should be afraid of this truth, for the Paradise is coming on the earth and is coming with My justice for the righteous ones and all the pains will end up with joys. Amen.

It was spring when I was resurrected from the grave for the resurrection of the creature, and I told those who loved Me: «I am with you to the end of the ages», and I am with the resurrection over those who love Me living My love within them. Soon, soon, all the pains will come to an end, and that is why I always come to you, sons, for Jerusalem is My hope and comfort. I have always come and make you the spring for My coming with the resurrection. As the swallow comes back to its left nest every spring, the same is with Me; after each pain I come into My nest and warm it up and put fruit into it and warm up My chickens and feed them with those from the sky not with those on the earth, and I take them on My wings and get them used to flying so that My word may go with them from margins to margins; and it goes for the flyers come and take it and carry it from place to place, for this is written to be before My coming with the visible glory. And I say: spread this news to the New Jerusalem and hurry with this spreading from margins to margins. Pay the harbingers and widen this preaching for this is the work that you have to do. I am the One Who makes the river of life spring, the news of Jerusalem, and you should lift up the barriers so that it may run over the earth and the news of the Lord's Jerusalem to be spread to all the margins and the Gentiles of resurrection to flow towards it. Amen.

God is not upset with the man but the man is upset with God and with the life commandments instead, for it is written into the Scriptures: «Love will grow cold before My coming», and it has already got cold and it is cold for God, but I always come into My nest to keep it warm and that My fruit in it may not get cold. I come as the swallow comes to its nest and I come from cold to hot and come into the resting nest and make spring of it for My coming with the resurrection. I put the love of God into the nest for I speak a great mystery and say: where there is love of God, there is love of brothers as well, and there is no brotherly love otherwise, for it has its spring in the love of God. The Mystery of God's love is the mystery of love, which binds brothers in Christ through love, and it is not otherwise. The mistakes done among brothers fall down before God's love and brothers live together through the root, through Me, the One Who gives birth to sons for the Father by the word and by the fruitful faith within the deified man by the word of the eternal life. Let he who comes be and become comfort for Me and become Jerusalem; let he not forget about the watch and let him not forget that the love will grow cold, it grows cold and it grew cold. And why should he not forget it? Let him not forget so that he may not fall from love and not fall from his watchfulness. And watchfulness is nothing else but the love of God and the wrong doings fall down before God's love among those who are of the same kindred with Me, the people of God, the people of the age of everlastingness, the age of the Lord for Jerusalem.

And as for you, who have come near to Me by the preaching of the word of Jerusalem, strengthen your feet and your standing with God. Do not be weak to each other and rather be wise for this word, for this exhortation, for I come to teach you the eternal life. Do not be weak to one another, for by your weakness you draw each other to weakness and to its reward. Do to each other good for God, by the strength of the Holy Spirit and carry your burden with love and patience, so that you may not be a burden for one another and so that you may not be fall and weakness for each other, as it happened with the first man created, who fell down by burden. Do not find yourselves in burdens and seek to get rid of any burden instead, for the burdens make the soul and the desire for resurrection tired. Strengthen each other on your feet and do not be weakness for each other, but rather rely each other on Me, the Lord, and you will find yourselves with My peace, because I will give it to you and get power in you, and you will be My peace and will be with My peace in you. Do not rely on Me with your sins, but with your holy virtues in you and grow through them for Me instead, for I am aggrieved because of the man's weaknesses, and the man cannot help another man for he is very weak. That is why I said that the man who does to the man good has gathered heaps on his adversary, works for those that are temporary, and here is the man's judgment! Let the man no longer wait for the judgment, for I said: «The world has already been judged», and every man draws after him those that he has been working for, as the man does not put an end to his weaknesses because he can no longer do it. He who loves the woman, that one loves sin, and there is no other cause for the love of the woman. Let the women no longer rejoice or boast or become haughty because they are loved, for they are the sin for the weak man and are a deep chasm for the man, a chasm where the entire human kind has been falling down. And the one who got wise from God flees from destruction and sticks to God. Amen.

The entire human kind lost its incorruptibility and has been dying for seven thousand years, because the first created man thought against God and doubted of his Creator, as the people of today do. The man from the beginning doubted, and then the thought of becoming God entered him, but when he saw that I call him and ask him about his sin, he hid. However, I brought him before Me and I told him what he did, and he hid behind his woman, seeking vindication. Then he did no longer love Me, and I took him out of Paradise through an angel, and when he saw that I put him out of the garden of eternity, he saw that I was God and no longer doubted about God.

The man has not wanted to listen to the One Who created him. The man has not wanted to fast as I told him to do, but on the contrary, he has thought to become god over everything I have done. Behold, this is what man does, and he does not like to fast, he does not like to live and he does not like to listen. And I came and fasted because I am not upset with the man, but the man is upset with Me instead, and he does not listen to the commandments of life. And I say: man, open up so that I may come in, for I am God and you are a man and you cannot be God, but you can be deified through Me and be with Me. Amen.

Oh, what can I do to help you do away with your morning in you, painful man? Only I know how your happiness, which passes once with you, is, and I have mercy on you, because you bear My image. I want to be your God and Savior. And here is how I speak to you. I have become the path to you. The garden of My word is the path, and My watchmen are in it, and they take from Me and give you to know that I come from heaven to speak to you. I write to you heartsick letters from heaven; I write to you letters of judgment, man. Do no longer exalt yourself, do no longer think much of yourself and do not longer get haughty. Come to your senses and bow down to Me, for I am God, and no one saves you of those you have been gathering. Come out humble before Me, man. You are nothing but a humble and wretched man, because you stay in corruptibility. The whole creature sighs because of you. You seek the doctors for your illnesses in vain; the doctor heals your body in vain if he does not heal your soul from perishing, man subjected to corruptibility. Your temporary healing makes you fall into sin again, for you think that you are powerful. It is written into the Scriptures: «He who suffers in his body is done away with sin», but you try to get up from suffering to life for sin and for temporariness, man. However, you are still sick, for the godless man is a man without health, he is the sickest man and worthy to be mourned and pitied. It is not time for singing and playing and doing sin, but rather it is the time for crying over you, man. How can I save you from your affliction in you? The happiness, which you always run after, is because of your affliction in you, painful man, and only I, the Lord, know your happiness, that one you have never caught, and I, the Lord, cry for your mercy, man.

Behold, sons sharing of divine remedy, I cry for man's mercy. I beat the man and he prays to Me to forgive his sins and to escape him of his morning and pain, and I do so, and then the man forgets of My beating and healing and leaves Me again, and then everything he has becomes worse than those he had before, as it is written of the house who is cleansed from evil, which the evil spirit finds again, and it comes in again and makes its nest in it for the man's unsteadiness. The man is afraid to come back to Paradise. Sons, with whom I cry My pain for the man, the man is afraid to come back to Paradise and bows Me down to his desires and to his needs instead of bowing to My will, to My longing for him and to his life from Paradise.

Man, you are seized with fears and sadness, but on the roads of incorruptibility you do escape the morning that you flee from. I sent you herbs for your healing, if you want it, only for you to want Me with you, painful man and full of the longing of the lost happiness. Your happiness is the Paradise. The returning to Paradise is your peace, and you will end up your searching. Do no longer stay haughty and rather bow down, for you have nothing to grow but only with those that get spoiled and perish. Why are you afraid of heaven? Why do you always run to your things? Behold, I give you Mine from what is Mine, so that you may be eternal, for it is written into the Scriptures: «Death was swallowed by victory». Amen, amen, amen.

I mourn in the way of the man, only if the gates to the man may fall down. I want to get healed of the pain, which comes from the man, for the man is full of fears and sadness, sons from My manger of word. The doctors on the earth heal the bodies, but not the souls. Be doctors from heaven, sons, and doctors on earth with those healing from heaven, and then make the man come to Me to be healed! The Lord's age is with you and I open the door of the man to come in and speak about Me. I have always spoken with you. Then I speak with those who stay close to Me by the word, which flows from Me to you, and I speak for the man who has closed the door to be god over himself and over those who are his. I made you into a healing herb in the way of the feeble man, who does no longer get out of his corruptibility. I set you before the human kind for the man to come after Me and after you. I gave you a sign by which the man may be led to Me, and to find Me at you, speaking over the man and calling and filling him with the love for God, for the man is afraid to come back into Paradise.

Behold, it is only talking about the beginning of the feast of Passover. The man enjoys food and drinking and sinning and he says that it is Shrovetide from these. The man eats sins of all kinds to My Passover, and then he comes to the church and takes the Passover from the priest. Oh, only if the man would learn from Me what Passover means, what the feast for Passover means and what resurrection by fasting means, and the Lord with the man by fasting and by food, by eating and by fasting!

Oh, all the pains finish with joys. The same is with My pain; it will be finished for My comfort, for the Father and for the Son and for the Holy Spirit, for the comforting of Jerusalem. Jerusalem is My comfort and the name of My comfort and I comfort Myself with it, for the age of eternity is with it, the Lord's age on earth with Jerusalem. Jerusalem means nothing, nothing but the Lord's age, My age with Jerusalem. Be the Lord's age on the earth, sons, and all the pains will come to an end with the joys of the age of eternity, the Lord's age for the comfort of Jerusalem. Amen, amen, amen.

The third Sunday of the Lent, of the Holy Cross

I come above the manger of My word and I announce My watchmen that I come as word in the garden. Sons from the manger, get ready for My coming down as word into My book in this time. Amen, amen, amen. This is My tabernacle in which I work out with you the mystery of the new heaven and new earth, the mystery My holy prophets and apostles spoke about. Amen. No one can be My apostle than the holy man who speaks by the Holy Spirit giving Me to those who want Me to be with them. Amen. But behold, the man has been walking to find one of My apostles, a holy apostle, and does no longer finds anyone. Everywhere there is only debauchery, only lusts, only priests with their wives worldly deformed, only worldly luxury, only idols everywhere, and the man worships the man, for the priests of today rule over the people, but I, the Lord, cannot rule over them, for the women rule over them, and they are called “priestesses”. But who calls them “priestesses”? I have no such word as “priestess”, and this word only the world has, and it is the fruit of the worldly apostles, not of the spiritual ones, not of the saints.

Behold, sons, why I have always come as word to you. I come to pass over the earth with My holy teaching for the man, who wants God and from God, to receive it, for there are no longer holy apostles, but people who call themselves “theologians”, not apostles. Oh, who made them “theologians”? Who called them this way? Where have they found in the Christian times someone who called himself “theologian”? Here, the time now is with paganism and the people call themselves “theologians”, and they no longer call themselves apostles, for they are full of pride and hide under another word and they call one another “theologians”. However I say this: it is shameful, it is shameful for the people to talk about God who do not do God’s will, people who worship people, people who do not crucify themselves to the sin and to the worldliness on the earth. It is shameful to heaven, sons. I am ashamed before the angels and before the saints; I am ashamed of everything these people do, of everything they say that they do into My name and for Me; they who do not know to pray for themselves, let alone for the poor people and full of pains, for the prayer that reaches before Me is the holy man, the man who becomes prayer, the man who becomes power from God and light from God and a holy life among the people, a life for God, not for himself.

Oh, where is still seen on the earth a man dressed with the garment of humbleness, with the garment of apostleship, with My garment sons? The garment of those who call themselves “theologians” is the garment of their pride, the garment under which they hide fighting each other for it. Depart from them, My people, from people like these. Be great in wisdom, you who learn from God, for this is what I have told you: depart from those who blaspheme God by their empty life, by their worldly pride, by their words and by their cunning work. Let Judases and Herods step aside to let My way free to be able to come. Amen, amen, amen.

Two thousand years ago I told this to My apostles: «There is no one who speaks well of you and then to speak evil of you at once». But now I tell you this: there is no one, who spoke evil of you and now to speak well of you at once; no, sons, there is no one. Their speaking of evil against you is written in heaven by their own hand. The wounds of My crucifiers stay on My body and they bear witness.

The man is knocked down to the earth and no one makes him stand, for those who call themselves “theologians” shake hands with the pagans, with those who are not of My fold, for they are not hurt because of My sheep, and they are hurt for themselves instead, and they do not know what pain is, but I know it, for I am the Man of the pain and I have no one to carry My cross with. I am the Man under the cross and all who call themselves “theologians” want Me only on the cross; they make crosses everywhere and put Me crucified on them, and they bow to all the crosses but not to Me. Which theologian stops from his way before the holy cross on which I lay crucified? Who of them stops to cry for Me that lie on the cross, and to lie down for himself, who does not lie on the cross so that I may also lie for him? Every man, who does not lie on the cross, puts Me to lie on it in his place, because the man, who does not crucify himself on the cross, always sins, and I lay on the cross with My clean body. What man stops any longer in front of the cross, on which I lie crucified, to cry for Me that I lie on the cross for him and for his life full of worldliness and lusts?

Oh, sons of the people, God lies on the cross and you lie in your sins. Why do you not come to My cross to cry for Me and for your sins for which I lie on the cross? Why do you not take your cross and follow Me? Oh, sons of the people, do you want God only on the cross? Only on the cross do you want Me to lie? Answer Me!

Oh, no one, no one answers, no one. No one knows to give this answer. They who call themselves “theologians” make crosses everywhere, and put Me crucified on it, and then they worship all these crosses, but they do not worship Me. Every man keeps Me on the cross; every man sins and no one can be My apostle, for the apostles have to be saints like Me. I took My apostles from their own things, from those that belonged to them before, and I cleansed them and taught them and made them holy, and they never went back to their own things, but they remained within Mine instead, and the world knew this, for they had My power by their work, and this means to be apostles with grace and with the Holy Spirit in their work.

Today many people come together in the worldly churches for the celebration of the cross, a feast into the middle of the Lent for the memorial of My passions on the cross, but there is no man to understand the mystery of the Lent.

Oh, sons of the people, I have the tabernacle of My word into your midst, with which I make My room among the people to speak to them. Does the man of today know how to remember the memorial of My passions? Who among the people know to remember of My passions on the cross, My moaning and My death for the man?

Oh, sons of the people, how comes that you do not like to listen to God to remember Him? I said this: «Anyone who wants to come after Me shall deny himself, take his own cross and follow Me this way, for he who wants to save his soul will lose it, and he who loses his soul for Me and for My Gospel will save it; and he who will be ashamed of Me and of My words in this immoral and sinful people, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him too, when He comes for the greatness of His Father with the holy angels». Amen. Behold, I said two thousand years ago to My apostles and to the crowd which followed Me; I said that the man shall deny himself if he wants to follow Me. But as for you, sons of the people, you say that you go to church, but you do not know what it means the man to follow Me. I said in vain, what I said. No one, no one understands what I said; no one but those who deny themselves giving themselves over to Me for the fulfillment of the Gospel on them and on all who want to come after Me. No one lives in his body the memorial of My passions, for the man has got used to sin, and he goes this way to church to remember God, and I come as word on the earth; I come as the Gospel on the earth and he, who will be ashamed with Me and with My word within this hypocrite and lustful people, will be ashamed at My coming for the greatness of My Father with the saints and angels. Amen.

Oh, sons of the people, the mystery of fasting is a heavenly mystery. The work of the feasting is a great mystery, but the people who call themselves “theologians” have raised the sin to a mystery rank, and take the fasting from man, and the man always eat and no longer fasts; he eats with a great appetite and eats to his likeness and makes of his food his joy forgetting that the man died because of food and for it he dies today too. Blessed is the man who eats in this time in obedience of God. Come closer you too, sons of the people, and listen to God, for I have put over those, who are pleased to Me, the fasting for My coming, the food pleased to God for the eternal life of the man, the obedience to the laws of Paradise. Amen. Come closer and listen, for I, the Lord, have put a fasting on the earth for My coming with glory in the glory of My Father, for I come for His glory, not for My glory. You should also love what I love; love God’s glory and deny your own glory, for your glory passes away like grass, but God’s glory is forever. Come and receive wisdom! Come and find the Lord! Come and learn! Amen, amen, amen.

The word of the fast is a great mystery. It means for the man to fast from those for him and to do those of Mine. He, who feeds on bodies, (Of meat, r.n.) is flesh, and he who feeds on God, that one becomes great in his spirit and grace, overcoming the work of the body. Amen. When I created the man out of the dust, I told him to eat everything, which comes out of the ground, but he did not listen and rather wanted to eat from heaven, and he ate without obeying. That is why I say today: blessed is the man who eats in obedience of God in this time of My coming. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, sons from the garden of listening, those who call themselves „theologians” seek to find you guilty and want to find the likeness to all kind of people who waited or wait for Me, and that are liars, since I did not come. This is what they say about you, but here is what I ask them: you who want to find guilty those that are set by Me for the waiting of My coming, why do you not wait for Me? Are you afraid that you go wrong waiting for Me? Why are you not afraid of the reward of your sins that you do again because you do not wait for Me? The one who waits for Me cleanses himself and stays waiting for Me in cleanness. Is this really that you sin? Because I do not come? But who told you that I do not come? Did I tell you? Did I tell you in the Gospel that I do not come? And if I did not tell you that I do not come, but, on the contrary, I told you to watch because I come, then where do you know from that I do not come? Do you take part in the counsel between the Father and Me so that you may know what I do and if I come or not? Oh, what name do you speak into to the people about not My coming? Oh, until when do you lead the man astray from the way of My coming? Here is how I prepare it for Me, how I pave it with living stone, with hard stones, with heavenly sons between the heaven and the earth! Oh, until when do you hide the keys of the kingdom of the heavens from the people, My endless life with the man that became a god by My grace? Here I am with those that have My grace in them, as I was well pleased to work in these days. Do you really believe that I will stay and wait for you that call each other „theologians”? Did I really wait for Anna and Caiaphas to prepare the way of My coming? Did I come through them when I came? On the contrary, I died through them when I came and then I returned from the dead against their will. Behold, this is what I have also worked today for My second coming for you want Me in heaven, and I come against your will and work as two thousand years ago with those that are not taken into consideration, you who name yourselves great and people of God.

Oh, what would you do, as soon, soon, you will be put to shame and fall prostrate? Soon, soon, your glory of today will rise against your soul, for I said this by the Gospel: «For whoever will be ashamed of Me and of My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of man will also be ashamed of him, when He comes into the glory of His Father with the holy angels». Behold, I was speaking of My coming then. How comes that you say that I do not come? How comes, that you limit My coming to you?

I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, the great Hierarch, come and ask you: who are you? Let it be heard up and down by every man what I ask you, for this is what I ask you: who are you? Here, I tell you Who I am: I am the Son of man, Who comes with power and much glory so that the Gospel of My coming may be fulfilled. But you, who stand against this Gospel, who are you? I ask you so that every man may find an answer to My question. You, who stand against Me with the saints and with the angels for the greatness of My Father, who are you? Answer Me! You, who clothe yourselves in God's garment, (Of a priest, r.n.), so that the people may see you and honor you more than Me, the Lord, who are you and what kind of work do you have to do and for whom do you work? Answer Me!

Soon, soon, the lie will be uncovered! What will you do, you who stand in the name of God before the people and before God? What will you do at My coming? The cross that I was crucified on, will testify about Me, but what will testify about you? Oh, what will do all those who wore a garment of God's apostles, without living holly before Me?

My day is coming closer and closer and I, the Lord, get along better with those in the graves than with those living in their bodies, for the dead hear My voice in these days and prepare for resurrection, but those who are alive with their bodies live in their own blood, and I, the Lord, write the book of the judgment and lift it up between heaven and earth and I come through it for every man, and happy is the one who hears My voice from this book and settles within My coming. The man from the beginning answered Me when I called him and I asked him about his sin, but the man in the end does not want to talk; he does not want to answer to Me and he does not want to come to speak to him.

And as for you, who stand before My word, take My cross and carry it, sons, for it is easy and good despite all its heaviness. I am your cross, and blessed is the man who chooses Me as his cross on his way with Me. Love the shame of the cross, for it is your glory and you know that you are Mine through it. Live in obedience of God and soon, soon, My grace will show you with Me before the human kind, and My great day will be the salvation and brightness for you, for you have loved My coming within your spirit, with your body and with your soul and have stood before Me to come. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the holy kings Constantine and Helene

My Holy Spirit blows over you in the garden, little children of My Father, and I am the First among you. Be alert in your spirit to be able to work with joy, sons from the manger. Amen, amen, amen.

We have a celebration of saints, and I have come with the saints at My celebration with you. I seal through you, with the blessing of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, the sign that I have put on the earth by your own little hands, the well of the Samaritan woman, the well of the meeting with God, on which you set it as a sign between Me and you, a sign between you and the world, the work which has come out at My word by your little hands; the well of the meeting with God, Which becomes a spring of water and which flows to everlasting life. Let the man ask water from it and word from Me. He, who needs water, let him have it and let him also have My word, which flows for everlasting life over the man. Let the man come close to refresh his spirit and to refresh his thought to God, for little time does the man stay with his mind in heaven, very little, sons, very little.

Behold a day of heavenly feast on you. I have come down from heaven with the Samaritan woman with whom I spoke two thousand years ago at the well in Sychar, a well dug in the time of Jacob, My anointed in the body of Israel, father of Israel. I drank water from the Samaritan woman at the well of Israel and she drank from Me. The well of Israel is the well of the meeting with God, for I am the water of life and I give Myself to those with a clean heart to make them holy as I am, to make them the Lord's saints, as I did with the Samaritan woman in the day of My meeting with her at the well of Israel.

Now, sons anointed with My chrism over this time, raise your little hands and ask for My grace over the well and say: "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, this well is being made holy and sealed with the grace of the Most Holy Spirit, to be of heavenly use in heaven and on earth to the memorial of the Lord and of His meeting with the Samaritan woman at the well of Israel". Amen.

We have a celebration of saints at the well. The Samaritan woman will be the angel of this well. She has as guests the holy kings Constantine and Helene on this feast of today, who put their blessing over this day and over this well, for it is their feast within the work of the church. The other well that was also worked out this week, I will seal through you on the first day of My celebration with you into the midst of the multitudes, which will come to the feast of two thousand years of those who have been faithful in My ages with the man.

I, the Lord, and with My saints, together with all the hosts of angels and of heavenly powers, prepare a great celebration with you on the earth, and you should be alert in your spirit, with My Spirit within you, children of My people, people of New Jerusalem, for you are few, but I stay close to you with the entire heavenly hosts, which have been doing a great work over you for My coming on the earth after two thousand years since My ascension to the Father.

Sons, sons, I bless you again and again with this word, which speaks over you this way: open My comforts wide so that I may enter with them in you and that you may know them when they knock to come in and do you well and to make you beautiful in your staying, in your word and in your deed, beautiful by grace. Amen. Open the holy joys wide so that they may dwell in you and among you, for you are My day of wedding after two thousand years since My Father has been preparing a bride for Me. Amen. Open to My love with you and be alert in your spirit, as the spirit of the Samaritan woman was when I met her at the well of Israel. Amen. Know Me after My longing, for My longing is about to be poured out in you and you should carry it as I did, and be alert and working in your spirit through the longing, children of My longings. I am with you into My arms and I miss you. I am thirsty after you and I cannot without you. My Spirit is a fire after you, as the Bridegroom longs after His bride, and the Bridegroom is only One: Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, the Lord, Who makes the grace of His wedding, comes down over those who come to spend with Him and with His little bride, His bride of the Romanians. Amen.

Spread the news over the earth about My days with you, so that the multitudes may come to feed them with sweet food from the wedding table. I, the Lord and Your Bridegroom, mark Myself down on you with power of angels and I take away your weariness and adorn your grace, to know and to prepare My feasts and My paths with you, for you are on My right side, and I am poured out through you over the entire land with the grace of the word of My coming.

Oh, children that are handfed, this is how I feed you through the angels and saints to be with Me before the people, and to have a heavenly mind before Me, and to have it on those from heaven that are on you, for the man on the earth stays too long with his mind on the earth. However, today I am at the well with you and I give the man to drink too; I take heavenly water and I give you, for I am the spring of the eternal life.

Man, man, you stay too long with your mind on the earth; you stay too long on the earth with your heart and mind. There is also heaven, not only earth; it is heaven too, man. The One Who made the earth, made the heaven as well. Oh, there is also heaven, man, and you stay too little with your mind, with your heart, with your spirit and with your sight at the heaven, man; too little, man, too little. Oh, you stay too little with the heaven on the earth! Come to the well to receive from heaven, for I have little wooden pails, I have little cups and I have vessels in which I pour Myself out for you to drink. Come and drink of My water! Come man, come and drink to your life! Amen, amen, amen.

I have called the man to the well, sons, and the man will come, and I will give him of My water, of My supper with you. I take away your weariness from you and I give you My grace, to prepare My feasts and My paths and you as well, for you are on My right side, and the grace of My word is with you and you are on My right side.

I stretch out My right hand over the man, so that he may give Me his hand and to draw him on My right side, to draw him on My right side. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity (the Feast of the Descent of the Holy Spirit), the first day

Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! I am the One Who is. I open the heaven and come on the earth and My coming is the word. Amen, amen, amen.

Receive My coming and let yourselves be seized by it, you, children of the garden in which I come. I am He Who is, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, and you are set by Me to watch in the way of My second coming from My Father. Amen.

Oh, it is a day of great feast between Me and you, and guests are coming at My heavenly spring, sons. Here is how they are coming, here they are! And as for you, make the crowd sit down for I become a heavenly feast, and I give them food, water and Holy Spirit for the healthy ones do not need a doctor, but only the sick need a doctor; those full of longing and those who seek are in need of it; those who seek need a teacher. Amen. And here is the spring, here it is!

You, who came to the spring, drink and come to life, for the spring is full of life. Here is the new wine! Taste it and get drunk of its taste. The man's living with Me is drunkenness of the Holy Spirit. Come to the inn and you feast and take the hanap (Bucket of wood, clay or metal, richly ornamented, used in the middle ages to drink, r.n.) and drink My wine. I am the Bridegroom of the wedding. Come to My inn and rest with your horses and with your carts; rest from your things. Perceive My coming and let yourselves be seized by it. My Word is My embrace and the world was made through Me; it was created by My word. My Father glorifies Me with Himself, with the glory that I had with Him before the world was, and I show His name to the people that He gives Me from the world, so that the world may believe that the Father has sent Me. Amen. Come and rest from your weariness. My spring runs over its brims and runs over you. I give you the word of life. Come close to it and give yourselves to life, for the life is in it and it is the light of the people.

I open the heaven and I come on the earth and the heavenly hosts come with Me. My mysterious coming is the little gate through which I come after the man to come into him with My coming and for the man to perceive Mine too, for the time of love and of new beginning has come, because I am the beginning and the end, and I work out again as in the beginning, and I work out the beginning again. Amen.

Oh, sons from the manger, stay with My word in front of the people that come together at the spring. Make them sit down and listen to Me, for they need a teacher. Take water from My spring and give them to drink to know My coming at you for every man who wants to settle within the beginning that I have come to you with.

I have come to you for My coming and I have made you My way to the people. I am in you, little children from the manger, and I tell to those who come, not to come after you when they come, but rather to come after Me; not to receive from you but to receive from Me. I want to be as in heaven, not as on earth, for the man on earth is used to give praise to one another, with joys from one another and the man does not know as you do, for you are taught by God.

Oh, you, who come to the spring of My word to drink, bow and learn about the praise from God, for the human praise passes like a glimpse. Learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in My heart, and I do not stand aside with human glory, and I stay with My glory over the man instead.

Oh, you who are thirsty, I come to sit in counsel with you, to teach you the work of the heavenly mysteries in your being. I will come down and teach you from above, and the mystery of My word will enshroud you within My comforts to attract you and to teach you how to open for Me. I will teach you how to find Me, how to keep Me and how you should really be. I will feed you from My mouth to catch life and I will clean your eyes to see as from heaven, not as from earth, for you have been staying too long with your mind and heart on earth. The heaven is with Me and I come down with it and its mystery is wonderful for My coming after two thousand years.

The Father Sabaoth sends Me after the man, and behold, I came and I come, and I become a spring of living water and of comfort over the weary soul, and I become hope for the weak and I am being perfected through the one who bows to receive Me as I am. It is a great mystery for the man to know how I am and to carry Me as I am, if he carries Me within him. That is why I have always come from the Father. I come to teach the man to receive Me as I am, to show Myself from him as I am, so that I can make him used to My mystery from him and to advise him to all the truth. Amen, amen, amen.

May this garden of My meeting with the man be blessed, in a celebration of new Jerusalem over the earth! I become a tent of My meeting with the man and of the man with Me. And behold, sons anointed at My manger, we speak the blessing over this well that I established through you into this garden, the well of the Holy Spirit, which has near it the St. and healer, Pantelimon, (Panteleimon) as guardian angel.

Oh, it is a great celebration between Me and you, and between you and those who come to the spring. I stop again on earth in the midst of the crows and I am enshrouded in the mystery of My word. And I speak again with My mouth. I speak again to the one who follow My step. The work of nowadays is greater than the one at that time, because I went to My Father and I come from Him, and I come with Him when I come.

You should also come to the Father and to Me and make your houses for heaven. Give yourselves to the Lord as a house; to Him and to His guests, for it is written about My coming: «Heavenly hosts come after Him, hosts of heaven riding on white horses and wearing garments of clean and white mink». Come to the Father and to Me too, come and remain with Me, for here is the new wine and the supper of the wedding of the Son of God! Amen. I stop with the heaven into this garden and I become a halting place for those who come to give them the teaching of life. Come to My rest house and rest from your weariness and eat and take the hanap and drink of My wine. I am the Bridegroom of the wedding.

Perceive My coming and let yourselves be seized by it. Come to My resting place rest from those of yours! I stretch out My heaven over to you to teach you the living with God. I pour Myself out in little cups and I pour Myself out in little wooden pails. Take and drink and get drunk of the new wine, of the new taste! I come with the kingdom of the heavens on the earth and I stretch out My tent, for I want to dwell among the people and to be their Comforter, to be their Teacher and to be their Master, for blessed is the servant, whose master finds him doing his will for he will put him over many things. Amen.

My feast with My new people is blessed together with those who come to the spring of the word of life. Amen. The earth and the heaven are blessed to serve at My feast with My bride and with the guests of My wedding. Amen. The kingdom of the heavens is an everlasting wedding and I come with it on earth to settle it between Me and the man and to rejoice with the man, for I miss the man and I have been missing him for seven thousand years. Oh, I miss the man very much. I miss the man that I created. I miss to build the man.

And I also miss you, man, and I come to build you and to have you as My kingdom, and to be forever My path, My glory and My life. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity (the Feast of the Descent of the Holy Spirit), the second day

The sower sows His seed. The Teacher sows His teaching. Amen, amen, amen. I come from heaven on earth and My coming is the word. The hosts of heaven stay groups-groups ready to settle down in a feast for My coming down, for My heavenly teaching among you, those that got together at the feast. It is the celebration of the heaven on the earth with you, and the Holy Spirit is the Comforter Who gives Himself over to those who seek God after the truth.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I settle down as the Comforter and Teacher over you, those that have come together at the feast. I lay the table and we have supper. The food is freshly gathered and the wine is new and I put it into the vessels. Let each one come with his vessel to pour Myself out into it with new food and new wine, with new heaven and new earth. Amen, amen, amen.

There is only human glory on the earth, and I, the Lord, cry in My humbleness waiting for the man's awakening, for the man's humility. I sit down at the table with those who got together around the manger of My word. I bow down in a heavenly humility before the man, and I say again: man, you have been My longing for seven thousand years. Oh, you have been staying too little with your mind and heart in heaven and that is why I miss you. I miss you and I cry on because of your steps. I have called you to My spring as the shepherd calls out his sheep to the spring and to the pasture. I miss to give you sweet and holy teaching, to give you a supper with sweet food. I bow down to your feet. Bow down too, so that I may get you used to My glory over you and to perceive its eternal taste and to no longer like the human glory and to flee from it and want Mine instead, for I cry after you, to catch up with you and to embrace you into My glory. I have called you to My holy spring to teach you the work of the heavenly mysteries in your being. I stay above you and teach you, and the mystery of My word enshrouds you within My comforts, and My hand, pierced by nails from the cross, comforts your forehead and draws and advises you to open for Me. Oh, open for Me, for I want to dine with you into your house, to teach you how to keep Me if you find Me. You are tired of your things. I am even more tired, for My way to you has been as long as seven thousand years and is full of ice and storm and you are stranger on it, the stranger who does no longer appease his searching, the foreigner without a country. Your country is the Eden where I put the first man created by My hand, but he has pulled himself out of Me and out of heaven, and therefore he has no longer got a country. There is no one besides Me to cry for the man, for the stranger. My sighing is deep and bottomless for the emptiness within Me is the man. I am destitute of the man, for the man has deserted Me and he is no longer Mine, for he has got his own things. My emptiness after man hurts Me and My sighing hurts Me deeply.

My Father had been keeping Me enshrouded in glory before the foundation of the world. He had loved Me as His own Son and all His things were Mine. Then My Father had Me create the world and I did it; I made it by My word for the Word was in the beginning and I was the Word and I was One with the Father; however, the Father told Me to create the man and I made him by My own hand and I blew over him the Spirit of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and the first man, built out of the dust, stood up on his feet and became a living man. I and the Father rested then from this happiness with which I worked the man and I made him a living being. I rested within My love for the man. And then I gave the man dominion over all creatures that have a living soul, and I was rejoicing over the man giving him joys. Then, I made the Garden of Eden for him and I put him into it to make him rejoice over its heavenly delights. And not wanting to make him slave unwillingly, I planted the forbidden fruit in Paradise, the tree of death, and I told the man not to eat of it for its fruits led to death and the man was going to be separated from God because of the fruit of sin; however, I told the man not to eat of it. Its fruits seem sweet but they lead the man to death; they bring separation from God. And in this way the man forgot that he is the temple of God and of the Spirit of God. The first created Man, after he ate from the tree of sin, also hid from Me, for the sin conceals the man from My face. The one, who does not have God within him, hides because of his sin, for who among the people would sin if I were before him? I cannot hide the man before Me, but the man does this thing, for the man hides from God through the sin and sets himself on a way foreign to the way of his life, but the Father Sabaoth sends Me after the man, and I come to call him out so that he may answer Me.

Oh, you, work of My hands, stop in your way and listen to My calling! Your sons have been until today, and My calling has been comprising the time from your creation to this day, and it calls you. Oh, you, work of My hands, made out of dust, water, spirit and blood! My Father sent Me after you. I have come into the place where I made you in the beginning. I have come back in the beginning to find you. I have come back into the earth of which I took you out, to make you and to give you My image and likeness. The Romanian land is the house that I have taken you out. The little garden of the manger of My word by which I call you out is the place of which I took the dust into My hand and made you; and I breathed with the Spirit of My mouth over you and you took life, and I turned you into the Holy of My Holies, the place of My rest, but you spoiled God's temple, and it is written in the Scriptures: «Whoever is going to damage God's temple, God will tear him down too».

And now here is the garden of the Holy of Holies and My voice over it, which breathes with the same breath of My mouth, the Spirit of life giving over every man who hears My voice. Behold the work of the heavenly mysteries in your being, man, and I, with My comforts, attract you and feed you from My mouth, from My bosom, as a mother nourishes her baby, and you should receive life, for I, the Lord, your God, take hold of My veil and wipe out your eyes with it so that you may see as in heaven. I do no longer make mud from dust to anoint your eyes. I wipe you out with My veil instead, always being touched by My blood from heaven, which has been flowing for two thousand years for your washing. Perceive My mystery man, to see Me as I am, and to be transformed into My image and likeness so that those on heaven and on earth may see you, for You have Me as I am, carrying Me within you.

I come to a stop again with the people, and My garment is the word, and the garment is considerable, for My word is extensive, and I cover Myself with its glory. Perceive My mystery, man, to see yourself into the middle of the word, for I settle down into your way, clothed within the robe of the glory of My word above My heavenly body. My work of nowadays with the man is greater than that of old, for I went to My Father two thousand years ago, so that I might come again with Him, and I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me, and We are clothed within the word.

Come to the Father, man! You are God's house, but give yourself back to God. I come after you from heaven and break the bread and give you, and I pour out wine and I give you, and I became a resting place for you. I have come to a halt for those in My garden from the beginning of the man. Perceive My coming, man, and let yourself be seized by it and learn from Me, My face in you. Make yourself beautiful for Me, for when I made you at the beginning, I made you as beautiful as I was, and you did not need any kind of glory. Now you have always been looking for it, for the one who has lost his glory from heaven, that one has been walking naked trying to cover himself, as the man from the beginning did, who after he had sinned he tried to cover himself.

Oh, I miss the man very much! Oh, little sons from the manger of My word, oh, dear sons, I miss the man and I miss to build the man as I built you. Oh, sweet little children, I have been complaining to you for such a long time, but today I am complaining to the man who is filling Me with wounds. All My members hurt Me and My body hurts Me as well. My body hurts Me from top to bottom, for the man sins with all his body and always falls down, and he falls down by his feelings and makes of his feelings a gate to sin; the man falls down by his feelings. These gates leave the way open to his enemies, to the enemies of his life and his eternity.

I can no longer bear it, man crushed by sin. Your sins hurt Me and My body hurts Me because of you. It has been hurting Me for two thousand years. I have remained with My wounds on My body and they have been hurting Me since then and until today, and I tell you crying: they hurt Me! Here is why I miss you, man. I miss for you to come to Me so that I might no longer get hurt because of you. God suffers from your sins. The spirit of the flesh does not hurt, but the body of the flesh does, and God suffers in His body for you. Here is why I miss you, man. I come after you with the garden of Paradise to put you in it, for the tree of death is no longer in Paradise, and rather it has been with you for seven thousand years, and you have become the tree of death from Paradise. Leave the fruit of the sin and drink of the fruit of eternal life so that I make you a man with a life giving spirit, as I am. Order your creature after My image and likeness and do no longer take from the world, for the world is not God and it is My pain and yours. Receive from heaven, for I come after you with the garden of Paradise to give it to you again. I sigh after you and My sighing is deep and bottomless, for the man is the emptiness within Me. I am destitute of man. It hurts My emptiness after the man and it hurts Me after My house. Man, I have no house, and you have not got one either. Let's be each other's house and a working filed to each other. Come, for the time has elapsed and there is no more time. The angel of My coming sounds the trumpet and there is no more time and the time of the everlasting wedding has come and Father makes a wedding for Me and gives Me a sweet bride and wipes out My tear, for I am His most loved Son, in Whom He is well pleased. Amen, amen, amen.

And you, My people, take your wedding garment on you and stay within it, for I come out with you to meet the man and to take him into My arms, and I take him to My resting place and pour oil on his wounds and I give him of My life. And everything you spend for the man's coming back into heaven, My bride people, I, the Lord, will pay you threefold when I come with My body ascended to the Father. Then I will give you the crown of patience and you will be My crown of glory and I will pour out My eternal glory on you. Amen, amen, amen.

And I will come again, and I will comfort you from above with the comforts of the Holy Spirit and in the glory of My coming, in the spirit of the feast of New Jerusalem on the Romanian land. Amen.

The feast of the saint apostle Jacob, the Lord's relative

Come, little builder children, let us sweeten ourselves; I from you and you from Me. Oh, only if you would feel how sweet My feast with you is! Oh, only if you would feel how bitter My mourning is when I look after the man on the earth. Oh, obedient children, I sweeten Myself with you, for it is only bitterness for Me on the earth, and not only on earth but also in the sky, for the man has got up very high and made his dominion over the sky as well, and the men swarm in the sky with all their things, and the haughty spirit got big in the man. It is the end of the man's time, and the man has been running wild in so many ways. However, I sneak with you and with My word through you everywhere and I make justice on the earth, for the man has taken over My earth and heaven, as he says, but in fact he has been pulling himself out of Me, and he does not know that is no master on anything, and he runs to be but he is not. He builds and builds but he is not master, for he who does not gather with Me flies to the winds in his gathering and then he passes into nothingness and does no longer rule.

Oh, little builder children, the man does not want to learn from Me the work of building, the work which he can inherit. The man does not know to work for his own house; he does not know, sons. He who makes a house for himself loses his soul, body and life, but he who makes a house for Me, that one reigns with Me, and I am his Master forever and ever. Amen.

Behold, the house of meeting has been taking shape little by little, near the little house in the hill, so that We may have it then for the glory of My meetings with you and with the man who looks after you for the spring of My word and to drink for his life. I establish this house on earth through you. I keep it into My hand until it is seen well, and then I come into it and have a rest from this weariness. I keep it and you into My palm and in this way we put it on earth. Oh, little builder children, stay into My palm, for there is an earthquake on the earth, from margins to margins, as it has never been, and the people are caught under their walls, and there is no one to help them and to take them out of debris. The man builds nothing but debris that catches the man under it and that bears witness against him.

I look with My eye over the place where the opposing man has tried to beat down his opposing stake into My place from you, to call that place "new Jerusalem" and to try to thwart My spring from you. However, I spoke the word into My book with you beforehand and I discovered the opposing plan and I said that this place would be torn down and catch under it those opposing to Me. Behold, those buildings stand witness against the opposing man who drove his stake four miles away from My place with you to put it into shade. (The International Ecumenical Centre from Vulcana Băi, r.n.). However, I cursed that place, for it stood against Me with the man who built it, because he did not build it for Me, for the man does not know to build a house for himself. He who builds his own house loses both his soul, body and life through it, and his life and house on earth and in heaven, and under no circumstances is he a master, for he who does not gather with Me, squanders.

Oh, a yearning soul is crying in heaven. Who is crying? Why is he crying, saving sons? Let us see who and why is he crying. Behold, the one who spoke the blessing into My name over that place, which also wanted to be "new Jerusalem" close to you who are Mine, now the one, who blessed in My name there, is crying; he is crying in heaven and is filled with mourning, because he sees from heaven what he did. He sees My name from you and he sees you near Me with everything I have built through you on the earth, and he sees that place on which he spoke the blessing in My name to settle down with his work opposing to you and to Me and to settle down on the earth and try to put My light that is with you under that bushel. However, I got up as a warrior and I kept watch over you and over My wealth with you, and I scattered him because he gathered without Me. Now he is crying and sees the gate of the heaven with you, the gate by which I speak with those on the earth and with those in heaven and in hell.

However, you always remember him before Me. He was the bishop that sat on My seat in the seat fortress of Romania, at Târgoviște. And if he was a bishop he thought that he was master over the souls and tried to take you out from Me so that you may no longer be Mine and to be his instead. But, I pulled him out from that seat and I moved him from the earth after I gave him to suffer his reward on the earth. You have always brought him before Me remembering him for one year long so that I may give him rest, for he had suffered both in his body and spirit until I took him from the earth. I wanted to pass him through beating and to let him testify about My place from you, but the man who gets over the suffering for his sins forgets about it and then he does again the things he has been used to, and thus he calls forth his judgment. Then I said: "I will take him away from the earth", and I did, but you, merciful children, did all the Christian things for his soul, for there was no one to do for him, because for heaven it is not worked as on earth, and there is no one to do something for his life in heaven. Behold, I look and see the memorial you have been doing before Me after one year after his saving from the sin of his opposition brought against Me and you. I receive the clean sacrifice from your little hands and I put it for him before Me and I say to My angel to remember him, for he is waiting and he is waiting crying, and that is why I have told you: "An anguished soul has been crying in heaven, saving sons. His soul has been crying and waiting".

Behold, My angels fulfilled My word. Amen.

Now I take you into My palm and show him My work with you. He sees that you are the gate of heaven for those on the earth, for those in heaven and for those in hell, who cry after heaven. He is crying, but you and Me make him rejoice. Amen.

Come to a memorial table for you, you, who were bishop on the seat of the church in the city of Târgoviște. Those who were persecuted by you have taken you into My house now, for they are merciful children and humble in their heart. They brought sacrifices day by day for you before Me, and they will bring more. I cannot stop listening to them because I love them.

Come to the table of your memorial! I, the Lord and Master over the living and the dead, wipe out your tear and embrace you because of those who have brought you before Me day by day for your everlasting reconciliation to the Father and to Me. Receive My word for you. It is your supper of memorial. Behold those in this garden, true saviors and true Samaritans, who have taken into their house those that are wounded, those that have cried and those that are helpless. Now I take away your sadness, for My table with the children of this garden is the table of the heavenly joy for those in heaven and for those on earth and for those in Hades.

Now I make you a confessor from heaven for Me and for My work on earth, with which I came down in the little garden of My word to give Myself over to the sides for the illumination and salvation of many. Now, behold, this is the place and this is the work and these are those in whom I am well pleased for My coming after the man, after two thousand years of wandering of the man fallen from eternity.

It speaks from heaven! Behold the pulpit from which the heaven speaks over the earth. Behold the working table of the heavenly word, the little garden full of heavenly word. My work speaks and confesses from My pulpit; My work of these days that you know from the earth, for I was not hidden with it and rather I came to you with it to believe in Me through it. But you did not want to be faithful and you offended Me deeply and I put you into a furnace to save you through the fire so that I may not let you perish as an adversary. Now, remember from heaven your day of memorial on the earth in the garden of My word. I say to you: confess! Amen, amen, amen.

— And I tell You, Lord: confess Me for my deeds are wicked and I do not have any savings in heaven, for I did not gather for heaven. Those who gave me place in heaven are those that I blasphemed and persecuted on earth and they are those on whom I called a bad name before the people in order to exalt myself and to cover my hidden deeds from people. If I had believed them, I should have given up sin and become Your saint, but I did not want to become a saint and I became the scoffer of Your saints instead. I did as many like me did, who sat with their own permission on the seats of the church in time, only to persecute the saints, the Christians who had taken Your wills upon themselves. I did not want to be Your bishop and I was just myself and that is all, and You were not in me for I was the son of sin and Your adversary in me. I confess that You are the Almighty and True One in the garden of Your word, placed by Your hand in the middle of Romania, and I sat near it and I did not enter under Your light in it, and I took stones and mud into my hands and threw, but I hit myself, as the stone thrown over the place of Your little garden here comes back to the place where it comes from and hurts bitterly the one who throws it.

This is what I confess and the one who does not believe should take a look for this is what happened to me. I did not have any earthly glory and I have no heavenly glory as well, for everything is earned on earth. However, I loved my flesh instead and I condemned my soul, which cried within me, and did not find his peace, for the one who is not holy does not have the joy of peace and the peace comes from You, Lord; it does not come from the earth. I have nothing good to be able to confess with joy and I am ashamed that I was a wise man and I did not use the gift of my nature for heaven.

The whole multitude of my sins is not as heavy as this sin of my opposition against the garden of Your work in these days. And now I will receive your peace from heaven without bowing from heaven to the ground before the one who is so great before You, in the middle of the church, which does not serve You, and he stays patently, waiting for the man's salvation. The man whom You took from among the people and put to be the confessor for Your secret work, the man that I blasphemed before all the people, Your bishop Irineu, by whom You fastened into the ground the first sign of the kingdom of the heavens, according to Your word, I dragged him to do my will and to write denial of those of Yours in heaven, which You are on this garden with, and on which he has his name written as a confessor, as the greatest in the church on the earth, for You gave him a great name and made him to be the greatest, and without him You cannot reconcile the world to You, because You put him between You and Your work for the salvation of the world, the work of Your coming in these days. However, I dared exalt myself over him to put him down before the people, calling him and those for whom he had bowed for You, Lord, heretics, for he was faithful through Your grace. I ask you to let me bow down before him from heaven, with the word. Amen.

— I, the Lord of the saints, give you power to bow down and to receive remission from him for all that you did against Me. Amen, amen, amen.

— I, the one who was on earth bishop Basil over the city of Târgoviște, come to you from heaven, for you are great among all who stay as servants over the churches on earth. If you bowed down to me to listen to me on earth and to do my will against the church of the saints on earth, against the garden of New Jerusalem on earth, bow down now too and listen to me, for you are obedient and this is how you are to stay. Kneel for me and speak the remission of the sin of unbelief and of my violation over the garden sealed by your hand for the saints, for I have no peace in heaven. Absolve me on earth to be free in heaven as well. Absolve all those from the earth who keep you in the chains of their unbelief on earth, for you have the keys of the kingdom of heavens, and behold the gate of the heaven, and your name is written on it, which cannot be erased, neither by those in heaven and nor by those on earth.

Oh, do no longer be sad, for you are aggrieved. Behold, now the Lord shows me your aggrieved heart. Oh, how much sadness! Oh, how much pain! Oh, how many tears in it! Oh, how much loving and crying prayer! But you are great into the Lord's hand and on behalf of the Lord, and there is no victory to come upon you, because your seal is eternal and it is new and it written on it Alpha and Omega, the Lord's coming, His throne of confession, for you are His bishop in this time and the entire heaven is waiting for you, and also the entire hell and a great multitude on earth, to speak reconciliation to God by the work of His word in this garden on which I have stepped as a sinner not as a saint, and it is written into this book that it is for those who are holy.

Come into heaven with your prayer and ask for fear of God for the church, for many a robber has hidden in it, clothed in garments of holiness. And if you can, get up and come to be here, into the new garden and to work here, for the heaven, the earth and the hell needs your work of resurrection, of this work from heaven that you set by word of blessing into the midst of the people. Then I was sending you off not to come on any side. However, I even brought you by stealth to curse here and you did, and everything I did with you fell on me. But I call you now. Come to be here and to save the earth with your work from God on you, for the Lord is coming with His saints on earth and with the feast of the kingdom of the heavens over these places blessed by the Lord through you. Come to receive the reward of your holy patience! Come, for no one is greater than you over the church on earth, because your name is written here, on the gate of heaven. Amen, amen, amen.

I tell you too, priests who serve at the altars: if you are not holy, do no longer stay servants, for the punishment of those who are sinful and who do not have powerful saviors to save them is great. Work everything on earth, but do no longer deceive God, for this is what I did, and the Lord's Day came unexpectedly over me and caught me under it without garment, and behold, I am naked and this is how I stay before the saints. Do everything on earth, but do not play with fire, for it is written in the Scriptures: «God is a consuming fire». If you cannot be holy and deprived of yourselves and of those in the world, do no longer come to the altars for the Lord, for the altar is holy and it is a fire that consumes you. Do no longer be sinful like all those that you sit on. Do no longer seek to rule over them, but rather serve them for their salvation day and night, and if you cannot, than this word will judge you, because I speak from near the Lord and I confess. Gather your treasures in heaven, for there comes a great moth on the earth; the Lord's Day is coming and here is how it judges! Give the helm to the Lord, for the sea comes with a great storm and you are going to sink. The man's life is a gift from the Lord. Multiply this gift and do not waste it, for life is expensive. Come into the kingdom of the heavens, for God's word calls everywhere; it calls the man to salvation and it calls the man into the ark. Gather together, small and great, under this tent, under God's Word, Which calls the man to holiness and to the kingdom of the heavens on earth for the holy ones, for the world passes away soon, soon, and look what is over Romania! The glory of the Lord is over it and under it, and the cherubim keep it on their wings and it is the Lord's throne, and «The Lord is into its midst, a dwelling place for the saints, with the saints in it, New Jerusalem, coming down from heaven on earth», as it is written into the Scriptures of His coming. Amen.

Lord, this is my confession. My bowing down is great in heaven if I did not do it on earth. Behold, the little ones are greatest with You, but I exalted myself on earth and I condemned those little of Yours. Now, I bow under their hand, blessed by Your gifts on them, and I ask reconciliation from them, because You released Me to be able to see Your greatness that I did not see with the eyes of the flesh, because I was blind for those from You, good Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

— And I, the Lord and Savior of those gentle and humble, say to you: peace to you, for behold, I made you confessor from heaven on earth, and I fulfill My Scriptures of the prophets who said: «Your dead will live and their bodies will come to life. Wake up and rejoice, you, who dwell in the dust, for under Your dew, full of light, the shadows will come to light from the bosoms of the earth». Amen. They will come to life and confess. Amen, amen, amen.

Now My angel brings to peace the one who is remembered today in the garden of My word, and as for you, servants of My garden and full of the grace of the new age, I give you word to always remember at the table of My kingdom with you the one whom I announced on earth and in heaven. He spoke to you in one way from the earth, and behold, he speaks to you the truth on you from heaven as well. I raise My hand and bless the food put before the heaven for his memorial, and I confess you Samaritans on My behalf over the living and over the dead, for the time, which is written to be, has come, and the dead testify about you from the ground, and their confession is sealed in heaven. Amen, amen, amen.

I give you, little builder children, grace and power for the building of this house of meeting. Behold how much success you have, and you will finish this building soon, soon, and we will build in it the man who comes to learn what life is. And as for you, sons, work, work out My life upon you. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the saint martyr, Demetrius<sup>144</sup>, the myrrh-streamer

At the turn of two days of feasting I come down upon you with My word, for it is a feasting of saints, children, watching for My coming. I strengthen My power in you to be able to write down My word into his book. Amen. My love for you brings Me always above the little garden that I have you in, and I come to feed you as a bird feeds its chickens.

Grow, sons, and give power to My coming and ask it to come from Father, for those in the graves have been waiting for Me to come and to call them out, for their waiting is long but nevertheless it is not as long as their waiting on earth. Oh, be great in your mind and give power to My coming, for those in heaven come together at My word with you, and those in hell rejoice of My light from you and which reaches to them. I always make My path to you to get My coming near and to prepare the day of the resurrection of the creature, and then the age of the heaven to be on earth with its everlastingness, for the saints wait for every creature, which does no longer know to wait. I also wait, sons, and I wait to come and blessed are those who believe that I come, for they become the day of My coming and give light My way to come, for it is only night in the way of My coming. Everything is in the dark on earth, everything is in pitch dark and no one sees My coming any longer, and the man walks in the darkness day and night; he walks and sees nothing for he walks without seeing and without waiting.

Take care saving sons to remember always all those who were born and are no more and of whom there is no one to remember on earth, for the morning of their soul is great and it is a great mercy to be remembered and to be brought to light and to rise to life, to know that they have a Savior, Who will call them out of Hades. Seek to be always up to date with all the Christian order for all human kind, which is no more and which still is, and does not take care of the life of the soul, for woe to the souls without any help, without Savior! Behold, the man on the earth does no longer takes care of the life of his soul, and in the invisible world of the souls, which are no more, the waiting is long; the fear and morning is also great and it is burning to look at it! I showed you what is there so that the mercy for those who are no longer in the body<sup>145</sup> may seize you. I have not wanted to make you sad but rather I have wanted to speak to your heart and to give power to My coming so that I may make My coming near, sons, and to be able to prepare the day for the resurrection of the creature. Remember all those without escape from the dwelling of the dead, and I go to give them hope for My coming, which is coming soon, soon. Their waiting is long and it is not as on earth. There no one can help another. There is only endless fear for every soul, and behold, there is no longer a living man on the earth to want to know how to make the Christian order for those who are no longer on the earth.

Oh, the man does not want to prepare on earth his place in heaven for the life of his soul. If the man born on the earth does not live for the soul that short life of the body, his body is of no use to him, but only to his pain after this body of the soul. Many a soul, who said on earth that there is nothing after this body, is staying now with endless fear, waiting for a helping hand. It is only waiting there, merciful sons, and there is no man on the earth to want to know from Me how those who wait desperately in place of the dead may be helped out. However, I have always taught you, because you receive Me with My teaching. I have mercy of every creature and that is why I have lifted you from among the people and I have prepared you for Me, and then I have put you to help Me with My work for My coming, to come and to save this human people. First, to come and to call out to him to hear Me and to wake up at My calling, and if he does not get up, to wake him up with My power, to wake him up with the rod, for the man does not care of the life of his soul. Nevertheless, make a memorial before Me, for all human kind, which is no more on earth, for every creature that waits for the man's redemption, for all and for everybody, sons, for the whole creature sighs waiting for its redemption. Make prosphora of memorial for My supper with you, for My sacrifice for the man. Make kollyva of wheat so that all those that are remembered through it may come together into its body. Make small and twist bundles so that the angels, the archangels and the saints, who help those mentioned, may go and give the joyful news to those who have been waiting aggrieved in the place of the dead, for they look for their salvation to come from somewhere. It is written in the Scriptures: «The bodies of the dead will rise and exult with joy, for the earth will give birth again to those who are asleep and they will stand up». Amen.

When I was on earth and taught the disciples, the Jews were looking for Me to find fault with Me, for they did not believe into My words. However, I was telling them this: «The hour will come and it has already come when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God; and those who will hear it will be alive, and you should not wonder about this for I tell you again: the hour is coming when those in the graves will hear His voice and will come out». Amen. And I will give them a body, the house of their soul in heaven, a body made out at My word, out of dust and word, made out of the Spirit of God. And then it will be the great meeting of those who are and of those who were and they will be again, so that the day of resurrection may be made out, of which I preached through the Scriptures the day of My coming with the saints, who received the heaven even from the beginning, even from the time of their bodies.

I come, sons, to you with the feast of the angels, with the feasting of the saint archangels, Michael and Gabriel. Then I will take from your little hands the sacrifice for those in the place of the dead and I will go with it to them and preach them that I come soon to take them and to give them the day of their resurrection. I will comfort and unburden them; I will give them of their resurrection and I will give them speech to speak to each other about My coming and about you, those who work with Me for the day of My coming. Be always up to date with their memorial, as I taught you when I hired you to work for the resurrection of the creature. My word in My garden with you will comfort those that are called out for their memorial and it will give them of My peace.

Be faithful, builder children and be fully built, for we what we have to do is only building. We have to build the new age and those that are resurrected for it. You are My builders and the balance is in My hand. And we work out the building with our body and spirit, for I made you to be Mine and to work with you everything is to be worked for My coming. Amen.

Now, I look again into My hand, where you and the house of the meeting are, near the small house in the hill. You have been working for five days at it and reached with its building to the ceiling. Now I strengthen you with heavenly powers and with My little angel before, and the little angels, with various graces for you, encircle you and help you from all sides, for you are with your body, and We are with our Spirit, and We will give light to the world with My light from you. Be fully built into My word on you and teach yourselves more perfectly how to receive him and how to stay before him. Behold, I speak again and renew My blessing for this building, and I say: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, the house of meeting, which has been taking shape among you during these days, is blessed in all the time of its building, and as for you, be one single word, builder sons. You, sons in front, be all the more one word, so that those who build together with you may also be like you. Let My people be like you, sons in front. Be My Spirit to build with Him, for you are small but I can, only if you would put My word that can in the book and then to take it and to put it over you, to be the sons of My powers on earth. Amen. I work from everywhere for you, so that everything what is needed may be here for the building of the house of meeting, and then I will help you with much power afterwards, and we will write helpers down on earth in the book of the building of this house. Amen. I strengthen your hope into My word, for I am the One Who turn it into deed in your way, to work further according to the balance that I hold in My hand, for this house is in My hand, and I leave it little by little down on earth through your little hands on which I rely in My work during these days.

Oh, My peace among those who work it out is beautiful! I give you My peace among you, and you should work it out as I do. I give you My wisdom and you should work it out as I do. I give My word among you and you should work it out among you and upon you as I do and be faultless in word. Amen, amen, I say to you: be faultless in word! The one who is faultless in word keeps a tight hold of My measure, the measure that I measure the spoken word with, and the one who does this has Me as his power in everything and for everything he has, and he is a great help to Me and gives way to no tension, or pain, for My word has to mean comfort and power and fulfillment. That is why I say: be faultless in the word that you speak to the world, on each other and to each other, for behold, the word is the one that builds the same way as I work, for I speak and fulfill it. Amen.

My angel sounds from time to time for any work that has to be done and placed on the earth with you for the visible making of the house of the meeting with God, and in front of this house, the well of the meeting with God is situated, the well of Israel, which carries in itself the mystery of My meeting with the man. And behold the house of the meeting and behold what an unsealed mystery, sons who work out the fulfillment of My word full of mystery. When I worked out the Samaritan woman's well through you, the well of the meeting with God, I did not tell you about the house of meeting, and now I have told you, and made it when I have told you, and now I have settled it though you in My gardens given to you for My service and for My coming in them on the earth, to meet the man that is able to believe into My coming to you.

Now I am embracing you with the graces of the My saints mentioned within the celebration of saints: the saint martyr, Dimitrie, (Demetrius of Thessaloniki) of whose body it flows a heavenly chrisem for the comfort of those who are believers, and the devout Dimitrie<sup>146</sup> from Bucharest, who protects Romania. My saints have prepared their place with Me even since the time of their body, and then I have made them My workers near Me over those who do My will on their way to heaven. I spend with you a feast with saints, and My work written in the book crowns the spirit of the feasts and the spirit of My saints.

Give Me power to come, sons, for the heaven is full of waiting and those in the dwelling of the dead sigh in themselves for their resurrection, after My coming, to bring them up and to give them their house in heaven, their new body, built at My word for the resurrection from the dust of the bodies of those who are asleep. First I raise them and then I establish on the earth the eternity for them and for the living ones who will be within their bodies on earth at My coming, as it is written into the Scriptures.

May the memorial table in the day of the synod of the saint archangels Michael and Gabriel for those who wait in the dwelling place be blessed! Amen. I turned you into Samaritans. The entire human kind, all creature, which has a body on earth, has room in My house with you, merciful sons, who have received Me in your houses when I have knocked at you, as the Samaritans received Me and believed in My coming from the Father as Messiah, the Savior coming from heaven.

Be blessed at the work of the house of meeting and be My Spirit and be all one word under the love of My word, which leads you to the day of My coming on the entire earth.

Take care of My coming to you, as it hurts Me deeply when I cannot come. I have always received you and I have you every moment. Receive Me as well and open to Me ahead of time to be able to come. Make way for Me when I come and help to My coming, as I come for your food and I come for your life and for My life in you, sons, to fill you with it and to give from it. And I replace whatever you give but keep on giving, so that I may have where to deposit and to have a way to come, children of My coming. Take care of My coming to you, sons, for all and everything have been waiting for My coming to you. Open to My coming before My coming to you, for all and everything have been waiting for My coming to you, My word of resurrection. Amen, amen, amen.

The synod of the holy archangels Michael and Gabriel

My angel is calling out upon you; he is calling out for a feast, sons who receive My coming after two thousand years. The Lord's angel is calling out. Amen, amen, amen.

It is a great feast of angels; it is a great day, sons. The heaven is speaking over the earth and you are the gate of the heaven, and I come in through it with My justice, for it is written into the Scriptures: «I will praise the Lord entering the gates of righteousness, for this is the Lord's gate and the righteous will enter through it». Amen. I have bowed the heaven down to you and I have come down to you to make you Mine. It has never been a greater wonder than this since ages. I say this because I ascended to My Father, and when I went up I said: «Those who believe in Me will perform greater miracles», and after My departure they will do greater wonders than anytime because I go to My Father.

<sup>146</sup> St. Dimitrie (Demetrius) Basarabov the New, the patron saint of Bucharest, is one of the most memorable representatives of Christian life, and his relics are kept in the Patriarchal Cathedral in Bucharest. Saint Dimitri (Demetrius) the New lived in the 13th century and little is known about his life. He was born in the village of Basarabov, located on the banks of the River Lom, near the town of Russe. A shepherd in his early years, it is said that St Dimitri had later become a monk, dedicating himself to fasting, prayers and vigils. For his humble life, God entrusted him with the power to work miracles. The pious Dimitri knew the moment of his death beforehand, and choose the place of his final rest between two stones that were gradually covered by the river. The place of his rest was unknown until a sick child had a revelation when the pious Dimitri appeared in her dream and said: "If your parents would take me out of the water, I will heal you!"

Oh, little children fond of heaven! Who else has been praying to Me like you to bring the heaven down on earth and to come with it? Who else has been asking from Me life without death? Who else has been waiting for the resurrection of the dead and for the life of the age to come? Behold the new age, My speaking on the earth, My word which reigns from its throne; the new age, which is not for the world, but for those who have been consecrating for Me. The Our Father prayer is not for the world, for it was I who taught My disciples to utter it, not the world. The world has been sinning to death against itself and against Me and in the Our Father prayer only wrongdoings are mentioned. The Our Father prayer is for the disciples; it is for those who have God as their father, obeying Him. Amen. This is what I have taught you; to pray to your Father and to ask for the heaven on the earth and for the life without death. How comes that the man does not want to hear and to want to be alive, and then to be as in heaven so on earth, and to bring the heaven down on earth as you bring it?

Oh, I strengthen Myself in you with My coming and I am satisfied with you as with new fruit, sons. I strengthen My coming and the power of My coming within you and you are My strengthening food. When the spring comes and the first fruits appear, the man is refreshed feeding on them and receives power and freshness in all his weaknesses. The same is with Me; I am satisfied with you and rejoice over you as over the new fruit and I strengthen My coming being satisfied with you. Many speak with pride and say: "God is everywhere and with everyone equally". But this is not so, wise sons! Oh, it is really not so! I am on the side of those who do My will, for it is written: «His will is with everyone who fears Him. He is with those that He is pleased with». Amen. Woe to the one who has no fear of God, for that one works for his own destruction and is not afraid of it, but you should always say like David: «Pierce my body with Your fear Lord, for I have feared Your judgments, Lord».

Oh, waking sons on the earth, My word from you disturbs the world of angels and they come with My coming to you and see the throne of My word with you, the book of the judgment for the creature, from which the living and the dead receive each one according to their deeds. Until My leaving to the Father I had said this: «When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory and before Him all the nations will be gathered, and He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left and will tell those on His right: "Come, blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you by My Father from the foundation of the world; and to those on His left hand He will also say: "Depart from Me into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels. These will go into the eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life».

Oh, sons, the angel of the Lord calls out, he sounds the trumpet of My coming upon the living and the dead. My angel, together with the heavenly host, sees the throne of My word with you, the book of judgment of the creature, the way of My coming for judgment. The heaven and the earth shake under the steps of My coming, for the last judgment has come. Amen. John, My apostle, saw it coming and said: «I see a great white throne, and Him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. There was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and the books were opened, and another book was opened, which is the book of life and the dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works. The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and hades gave up the dead who were in them and they were judged, each one according to his works. Then death and hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire». Amen.

Sons, give My word to the whole world, My new age, My speaking on the earth. Give My word to My people, for the people beat Moses because he led them out of Egypt, but they would beat you either because you let it die in the world. Give My new age to the dead, My word which is with you, for behold, My angel sounds the trumpet of My coming; the angel sounds over the living and over the dead. Amen.

I, sons faithful to My coming after two thousand years, I and you and with My angels open the gates of hell and death and call out the dead, as I called Lazarus out from his grave because of his sisters' faith, whom I said: «If you believe, you will see God's glory, for anyone who lives and believes in Me will never die». Amen.

I said that I come to you with the feast of the angels and I will receive from your little hands the sacrifice for those in hades and I will go with it to them, and I will tell them that I will come soon to take them and to give them the day of resurrection, and I will comfort and relieve them and I will give them of their resurrection and I will give them speech to speak with each other about My coming and about you, those who work with Me for the day of My coming. My word, which passes through My garden from you, comforts those brought into remembrance, and I give them of My peace. Amen, amen, amen.

My word is the iron with which I rule the visible and invisible world, those in heaven and on earth and in hades; and I rule over each one according to their works. I strike them with the iron and say to them: lift up, you, gates, for the ray of the resurrection to come in! I am the King of glory, the Lord of the powers! Amen, amen, amen. I am He Who is. Get up and let us go! We go on the earth, where I am with My glory, and I have come with all of My angels for the great coming, for the resurrection of the living and the dead. I spread the table for you. Take and eat and rejoice! I am the food on the table and I am the fruit of the resurrection. Those who are dead in Christ and those dead without Christ get up and come to a table of resurrection, for the sacrifice of those smaller of the human kind cry from the earth for you to Me to bring you the supper of the creature resurrection.

Behold My glory, the throne of My word! Behold the new age, My speaking over the earth, My word, which reigns from its throne! Amen. I breathe it on you. Take from it and speak! Eat of it and come to life! This is My voice. Take word from word and give yourselves to each other, for I have come to give. Amen, amen, amen.

— Lord, Your wound is open and Your life flows from it over us, and we come to life from life, for You are true God from true God, born of the Father and then of man, God born of man, so that You may take the man up to God by this way, through You, Lord of life without death. Life is in You, Lord, and it is the light of the people and the darkness cannot overcome it. Behold how much light here and now, from You, and Your glory with which You glorify Yourself on earth now, at Your coming with the resurrection, gives us the word of resurrection, the word which calls through Your angel over Your garden, which brings the beginning with the end together in it. Oh, how much those born of Your word in the last days have waited; Your word which blows strongly and spreads the news of the creature resurrection, the gospel of redemption, Lord, from its garden on the earth.

We, the great and the small among the dead, confess to the world of the people on the earth that the world beyond the grave really is. Those that are not seen are true and those that are seen are not true. When the man passes away from this world into the world that is not seen by the eyes of the body, he passes this bridge without feeling it, and suddenly he sees something else, not known to him, and in this way he enters into the world, which is not seen. He, who enters all of a sudden into this world, which is not seen, that one is full of terror and goes to those filled with terror and each one of these know nothing but only about oneself, and one like this does not find any support in his fear, for he left the earth on a sudden. Woe to those, who have no one to take from, on the earth afterwards, for here any relief, news and understanding can come only from good hands.

You, Lord of the powers, give power to the people to believe that You came to us and gave us power to confess from here to the people on the earth. The sight of the man on the earth is too fleshly, too small and too little so that the man may be able to see something of those, which are from the world beyond this flesh, from the world with joys and pains for those in it.

Come to a stop, you world on the earth, and listen to the voice of those in the graves, for their world is more alive than the one on the earth. Come to a stop and set your mind to those that are, for those that are not cannot be seen but only by holy looks on the earth. The book of judgment was opened on the earth, and its supper is the Lord's garden in the middle of Romania and all the dead, small and great, hear the Lord speaking in the Romanian language. The word of God is heard on all sides of the invisible world and it speaks in Romanian the news of resurrection and the word of comfort over those who wait for the coming out and for the new making of the world, the resurrection of the world which has been waiting for this. The Lord, Who is coming, Jesus Christ, the Father God's Lamb, is seen and heard everywhere, now, in the world of those who are not on the earth. Today they have heard His voice and seen His glory accompanied by angels in a celebration. And the Lord has brought us on the earth and we are with Him in His place of glory, in the place of the beginning of the world of that time and of the one now, which is to be.

Come to a stop, you world, on the earth, and listen to the voice of those in the graves, which speak at the commandment of God's Word, Jesus Christ, the messenger of the Father God. All souls will come to life and have bodies, because the resurrection of the dead and the life of the age to come are being fulfilled, and the death and the hell will be thrown into the river of fire, the second death, the lake of fire. The word of Jesus Christ, which has come to us, is a river of fire where the death is thrown, and we, the saved ones, for the calling of those who have been crying for us to God from the new garden, to give us the redemption and the resurrection, and to them, the eternity for the work of their faith in the coming of the Lord with the resurrection of the creature, with the renewal of the world which is to come. Amen.

This day is great. The angel of the Lord calls out and spreads the great news, the day of salvation for those who have been waiting in hades from Adam to these days. And if the redeemers have appeared, by whom the Lord has worked on the earth, the redemption from the Lord has appeared as well. Soon, soon, the earth will give back the dead in it, and they will stand on their feet and they will be given a spirit of life and a giving spirit of life, and then those, who will be in the rapture and see the Lord, will meet Him and we will be forever with Him. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, how long you have been waiting for the day of My coming with the saints and angels, you who are asleep with your body in the graves! The world of the people does not know what the body after the flesh is. I will release you and you will testify by My word, for I am the God of the living. The world of the people does not want to know what death is. The people flee from death, for they do not know anything about it, and that is why they love it and do not know what they love. I will release you for I gave you the light of My word with which I come into the place of My new beginning to do the work for the renewal of the creature from here. Amen.

And as for you, angels of My glory, listen to My angel, Michael, the archangel, who is calling out My coming on the earth for those in heaven and for those on earth and for those in hades. Amen.

I, sons, I with you and with My angel, have made way to My coming from you to those who were and are no longer on earth. We have a memorial and we all got together at this feast of angels, for the angels are at a great work, in a great day of celebration over you and over those from the invisible world. Now, we spread the table of word and food for the joy of this day.

Behold, weak sons, I can in you and I have built the house of the meeting and we sit at an angelic feast in it, and then we put its roof, for I was able to do it in you. I thank you because I was able to do it in you, weak children. Behold, I can in those who cannot, for those who can, can in themselves, and they do not leave Me with My work for Me in them.

Now My angel calls out the blessing of the feast in the house of meeting. The roof of the house is now My glory of angels and saints and saved ones. Take and be satisfied! Then, sons, we settle down again and fulfill all this book of today.

Come to dinner, you, who are called, from the visible and invisible world! Come and eat! Let us bring joy to those who have been waiting for the Lord. I am coming and all and everything have been waiting for Me to come.

Oh, My people, you should be My coming, son. This is what you are to be, for you have been waited for seven ages, son, and be also a Samaritan, for I will pay you double.

Now peace to you and peace to you all! Let the visible and invisible spend together in the spirit of My peace, and I we will go forward with the word of today, sons in the garden, for I still have a word for the work of today. Amen, amen, amen.

You, sons from the garden of My coming, and you, My small people, I with you and with My angel, made a memorial table and a way to the place of My coming with you. Today I have made a way to us, to those who were and are no longer on earth. I also gave My hand to them, as I gave it to you as well, when I took you into My bosom to work with you the salvation of the human kind. This work, which flows from Me to you has brought with it the time I have been speaking through the Scriptures about, for this is what I said: «The time is coming and has already come when those in the graves will hear the voice of the Son of God and will come out for their resurrection». I with you and with My angel fulfill the way of this Scripture towards those who were and are no longer on earth. Amen.

When I gave My voice and the commandments of life to Israel, I said this: «Israel listen to My voice and endeavor to fulfill them, for I, the Lord, your God, am a zealous God, Who punishes the guilt of the parents in children to the third and fourth generation for those who hate Me, and I have mercy to the thousandth generation on those who love Me and keep My commandments». Amen. This is what I said to Israel: «Israel, listen to My voice», and this is what I tell Israel today, for the time of the Scriptures has come when those in the graves have also heard My voice and come to obey it; and they come when I call them and they have already come. Amen.

Oh, the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens is hardly perceived by those on the earth, but it is the wonderful mystery, which comprises in it those that are faithful to Me. Moses and the prophets have shown this mystery, but he who does not have ears does not hear, and he who does not have a mind does not understand. The soul of the man stays on the earth in the body and the man is careless for the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens.

Oh, I have made so many halts on earth through My work with you, sons! Moses heard My voice and saw it being written with fire on the stone in the mountain, and then he brought it to Israel. But with you, I have written My word and brought it to the people so many times, sons, so many times! I have made so many halts with you and with My word of fire into the middle of the world, but the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens does no longer remain written on any heart. Only hardened hearts, only stiffness, only carelessness, and those in the graves have come to cry for the people's mercy on the earth that do not want to know of the mystery of life and death. Those in the graves cry as the rich man who arrived in hell cried and then he was released to see Abraham and those who were righteous in the bosom of his rest. The rich man, destitute of life, was crying to Abraham asking him to let the happy Lazarus to go on the earth to his brothers and tell them about the torment in the hell, so that even they could take care of their fleshly lives and of his life in hell, for the man receives his life on earth, if he receives it at all. The rich man was crying to Abraham to allow Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and go and cool his tongue, because the flame of the hell was a great anguish, and Abraham was telling him that between them there was a great fixed gulf and no one could cross over.

Oh, the man flees the torment on earth; the man flees the pain and sufferance, but it is written: «Those who have suffered in the flesh have ceased from sin», but the man flees from his salvation. Even if someone wakes up from the dead to come and tell what it is in the hell, no even so is the man afraid of the hell, and those in the graves have always cried for them and for those who are left on the earth who do not prepare for the eternal life. Now here is what I have done: I have allowed the dead to come and see My work with My new people. The hour has come for those in the graves to hear My voice upon you, and you are My witnesses. Here is how they testify about what they have seen. Be careful to hear, sons.

— We, those who blasphemed this word from the sides, its coming down and the faithful people, who used to come to this spring, now look at the greatness of the work that the Lord, Christ, has been working with you, the last ones. We confess the sin of the blasphemy, which we did out of ignorance. We did not know that this work came from God and rather played with boulders over it. The coming out of the body took place all of a sudden on us and we went into agony. Now we see how we had prepared our anguish and mourning for our life in ignorance and for the blowing that we had worked out against God's glory, which is with the last ones. The last ones are great saviors on Christ side, the Lord of mercy. He has stretched out the bridge of mercy so that we may come to the spring and we have done so, for the Lord has commanded. Amen.

Let all those on earth hear and make their room near to God, for there is great mourning and fear in Hades. Let all those in the flesh hear and work out their life, for death is hard to bear. The time of the eternal life and eternal condemnation is coming.

Get up to life, you who are in the flesh, for the Lord, Jesus Christ is coming with His judgment for the works. He has sent us to wake you up, and we do so, and Christ will pay us, for the Lord of mercy is great. Come to life! Amen. We come too, for the Lord is calling us. Amen. His work with those in the garden from Pucioasa is great. (City Pucioasa; in Romanian, „pucioasa” means brimstone, r.n.) His word from Pucioasa is fire and brimstone for those who are unfaithful. This word is a river of fire, and the Lord casts out the death and the hell into the river of fire, into this word, which is calling us into it and cleanses us as gold is cleansed by fire. It is a great glory within this place. The kingdom of the heavens is with the Lord into the midst of the people. You should become His kingdom, for the kingdom of death is dreadful on earth and in the abyss. There is no perishing for those who leave the earth, but it is a place of torment and mourning instead, and an endless burning and also an escapeless fear, but Christ had come to us and brought us here, and we confess this.

Give us your hand, for you come from the Lord to those who are alive and to those who are dead, to give them your hand to the Lord. Give us your hand, those in the Lord's garden from Pucioasa! Amen. And you have given it to us. Amen. You stay on earth on behalf of the Lord, Who is coming to save the human kind. The place with you is the throne of the last judgment, the river of fire in which death and hell are thrown, the river of the everlasting life, out of which the resurrection flows over the living and the dead. Amen. When you cry out to the heaven for us, those in hades, there is a great earthquake here, and then the merciful angels come and take us out and bring us to the supper of the heaven. The heaven and the earth are shaken from your work to us. The powers of death come loose and the evil spirits groan, because the damnation of death has come. Amen. There is a great turmoil for the resurrection, for the birth of the earth of the bodies, for the Lord wrote about it and said: «The shadows will come to life from the bosoms of the earth». Amen.

— And now, we, who left out bodies within the hope of resurrection, we too, who were the sons of this work, bring the news into the garden of salvation that the resurrection is coming. The Lord is with it into His arms. The shirt of resurrection comprises every creature, which will receive the new heaven and the new earth as inheritance. All the mysteries are into Christ's hand, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, the Lord, Who is coming again, and He is coming with great glory judging the living and the dead, and He is coming to establish His kingdom. The mourning is coming over those who left this work after they knew it. But as for you, sons of the garden from which the Lord is working on the earth, come with merciful voices to Him and ask for their cleansing of the sin of blasphemy, for this sin is not forgiven, but is cleansed instead. Amen.

Let this mercy come, Lord, over those who knew You in this spring and left You and left for the world of sin or they left their bodies striking in You, Lord, and into the work of the salvation, with which You came to meet the living and the dead, Lord. It is written into the Scriptures that you are coming, and that is why you are coming. Come and come again, for Your coming is with those in the garden from here! Come and come again, for Your coming here is comforting those who wait in hades! Come, Lord, for the heaven and the earth is Your kingdom! Amen, amen, amen.

— And I, the Lord, come when you call Me. Those in the garden have eyes and ears; they have body, soul and spirit, and they are those who hear you, and I take you from them. I give you to them to cleanse you, to wash you, to dress you with My garment, with the garment of resurrection and to prepare you for My coming, so that I may come afterwards. The throne of the creature's judgment is with them, and I, the Lord, have mercy through them to a thousandth generation. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, sweet and merciful children in the garden, I give you the sweetest and most beautiful word: I love you! This is the most beautiful word, and I give it to you, for I have no one to give it but to those who are loved. The archangels Michael and Gabriel are always on your right and left, on your left and right, for My work with you. My angel, Michael, the archangel, made for you a way to those in the graves, and a way for them to you, and here is their memorial and calling table for resurrection.

Oh, what a pain, because the man who call the dead into remembrance does not want to make alms as for heaven! Oh, what a pain! Those who are called into remembrance cannot come near. The brandy, the devil's drinking, stays on the memorial tables; and the meat the same. Oh, for the heaven, one does not work as for those on the earth. The angel does not come closer to the memorial and then to go and help the one who is mentioned. The meat and brandy do not work out any mercy to heaven, and they bring torment of hell for the one remembered instead. Oh, there are no longer on earth those who have mercy on those in the graves.

Sons from the garden of salvation, I love you. This is the most beautiful word, and I give it to you as I have no one to give it to. Give your hand to those who are asleep, for they have been waiting for it. I raise up a new generation out of you from the living and the dead, a new seed, after the spirit not after the flesh; out of cleanness, not out of flesh. I will fill the earth with those who are saved, with those who are born of My word upon you. I make out the great resurrection little by little. Soon, soon, and those who sleep in the dust of the earth will stand on their feet, for it is written to be so, and those that are written come into fulfillment completely. Amen.

The rulers of the angels and of the heavenly powers give you all My glory of angels, to be with you for the making of My work with you. Behold, the house in the hill has the house of meeting near it, established by Me through you. In a little while, we put its roof. Little by little, we give its sweet appearance over the work done by you willingly, for I see you having good will and love through the work that I give you to do. The good time holds on to you and lets you work. Work according to the weather, and never be tired, weak sons. I can in you. The entire heavenly host is at this feast to comfort you for the work of this house of meeting. The heaven meets the man. Here are also those in the dwelling of the dead, to make you rejoice over My glory with you, over My glory from Me, for I have mercy on whom I want to have mercy. I have mercy on you to a thousandth generation, merciful sons, because you love Me and keep My commandments. Be holy, for I have to take from your little hands the sacrifice for the salvation of the creature, the request for the resurrection of the visible and invisible nature, saving children on My behalf.

I give you much grace. I give you all the help from heaven and from earth. I can, weak children. I can. Amen. Let all the help for the beginning and for the good ending of the glory of the house of meeting come near. Amen. My glory will dwell in it, and I will call the man to My table, to give him of My glory with you, and the man to take of My glory and to desire it. This is what I have told you: the entire human kind will marvel at My work with you, at My glory on you, at your little hands, which are at work by My powerful hand. Amen.

Work with love, My loved people, and My little people. Let us love each other, for love means sacrifice, son. This is how I have loved. I love you, My people; this is My word, the most beautiful word that I have given you. I love you as the smallest one, My people, My first born, My new people, out of which I will make a new heaven and a new earth, to the glory of My coming and to the greatness of God's sons, those who have been waited for by all creature. And if I love you, you will be able to do whatever I want, because love can, My love in you, children loved by God; it can.

Peace to you, people loved by God! You are My peace. I give My peace to those who look for Me with you, for You are My peace and I give Myself to those who look for Me. I come with the resurrection of the creature and I come soon, and I will work with you, children of My coming. Let all and everything bow to resurrection, for the voice of the resurrection calls out from Me over the earth, and I come to give the man life of My life. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of nine years after the consecration of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I come together with the saints at the feast of the little garden of My word. Amen. The small garden, which has you in it, children of My word, is being celebrated. My glory has always come out from it to the people and calls them out to My coming. My word calls out the people, but I, the Lord, hardly have room in the man's heart. I come out of the garden with My glory to the people. I come out with you into the middle of the people to make them know of My coming to you, My glory on you, and to exhort them into it, so that My coming may not take them by surprise, which will be soon, soon.

Behold My glory, surrounded by cherubim and seraphim. Behold My word, which is coming being ministered by angels in My garden of today, in which I, the Lord, have laid down on the ground, through your little hands, the little white stone, My gift for those who overcome the world in order to come to Me; My word for those who put on the garment of My coming and who wait for My welcome, dressed with the garment of the wedding of My coming. My coming is wedding. My coming will be a day of wedding over the entire earth. I call the man to the wedding. I show the man the way to the day of wedding, to the wedding hall, to the love of the wedding, for this is the true wedding: My coming, I with My bride, in a celebration of wedding on the earth. Amen. I clothe the earth in wedding apparel. I clothe the heaven in the garment of My coming. However, I cannot clothe the man with My coming. He is a stranger to the wedding mystery. He does not look for the joy of My coming. He does not know what comfort is and rather he has always been looking for comfort in those that are not, in those that belong to him.

Oh, have come from heaven on earth and clothed this garden with the new garment of My new word, so that I may shine from here with the light of the resurrection over every man. Nine years ago, I overcame over the earth with the laying down of the stone of the testimony of My work for the preparation of My coming. I laid down the ark on this table, over this garden, which carry in it the mystery of the man's creation. Behold the ark, which carries the word of life in it, the hidden manna, the food of the life of the age, which is to be for those who have overcome for Me and on whose foreheads the name of God and the name of the citadel of God will be written: the New Jerusalem. Amen.

Oh, sons from the little garden of My mysteries, no man bows down sufficiently to perceive this mystery: New Jerusalem. I will soon settle down visibly with it over the entire world, for it is written to make the earth and the heaven new and the man between the earth and heaven. I am the Creator, and I work with the word and fulfill the mystery of the New Jerusalem over the earth through you. Amen.

My protection will be great for those who received My love with which I come today to make the man. I have come to make the man, a new man and eternal building, as I am. I have to submit to My Father with this work, with the new man, renewed by the Spirit, for it is written: «Death was swallowed up by victory». When the last enemy will be conquered, then it will be heard the call of the angels and saints, who will say: “Death was swallowed by victory!” Amen, amen, amen. Then I will submit to My Father, for I will subject the last enemy, and then, the man to My Father, and I will rest with a sweet resting day, for I will give back the man to the Father. Soon, soon, sons, all and everything will soon be submitted to Me completely, and then the last enemy will be brought down, and New Jerusalem will be then in heaven and on earth, a new age and a new man, for this is what I have come to accomplish. I want every man to hear what I have come to you for and I have accomplished the small garden from you and the ark of My word in it and My coming out to the people with the word. I have come because all and everything have to be submitted to Me, and I will reign to this fulfillment, until I destroy the last enemy of the man, and then I will give the man to the Father, and I will rest from work, and I will submit Myself to the Father with My accomplished work. I long after the day of this accomplishment and I long for the man, and on that day the man will be called the day of the Lord. Amen.

I speak to you, children from the garden, celebrated today by those that are in heaven and by you. I very much miss My day of rest and I long after My rest in man. I want to give back the eternal life to the man and to give him to the Father, and then he will be called the Day of the Lord, the day of the rest of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. In the beginning I made everything that is, and then I created the man, and then We rested, and this rest was the Lord's Day. In the end it will be worked out likewise. I make them all that are going to be: a new heaven and a new earth, a New Jerusalem and then a new man, an eternal man, and then the Lord's Day, My and My Father's rest, the man without death, for «Death was swallowed up by victory», as this Scripture was declared for My work from the Father.

Here is the mystery of My garden with you. Let the man come and take the hidden manna from it and to become a new man, for the new man is My work in this garden. The angels and the saints sing My glory over the garden. The opposing spirit laments, and My Father bears witness for Me as the victor over the death and the hell, for My word over the garden is the river of fire in which I cast out the death and the hell, so that they may no longer be, and to be the redeemed man for life instead, and the heaven and the earth to sing the song of victory, the love of the Father for the man, My work brought before My Father: the new man. Amen.

I, your Lord and Comforter, comfort you in your work with Me. I comfort you, for it is very hard, very hard what we have to work. Oh, if I let you totally impregnated with the weight of My glory, which works with you, you would fall down with your body and heart because of fear, for the man is weak and small, sons, but I come soft according to the way the man is created, and I carry in a mystery the whole glory of My work with the man, and I will show it to you, sons, after I will have overcome the last enemy on the earth. The life of the age, which is to be, will bring a new heaven and a new earth, and then there will no longer be pain and tears and hardship, and rather there will be life without death and it will be the Lord's Day.

I, the Lord, comfort you, for the mystery of the comfort is for those who are holy; it is not for those who sin, no, no, sons. I do not go with it to those who sin. I have no longer room in the worldly churches with the mystery of the comfort, for the priest sins, and all who are on his side and are united to him do likewise, and I cannot stay with the mystery of salvation among these. However, you should not sin, and this is what those, who are united to Me through you, also do, and I am with you and with the mystery of the comfort for you and for those who stay alive under this mystery. Amen. Oh, it is only one comfort; it is that one, which makes the saints holy, and such a comfort is without Me. My comfort does not have to be given to those who cannot under it, for it is for those who are made perfect for it. My comfort brings living life in the saint and it brings holy power in him; it brings the Lord in him, with His humbleness. The humble man does not fall under My comfort, but the man, full of himself, falls down, because he is haughty and he takes for himself, and does not take for Me; he does not take for My power in him, for My benefit through him. Be great in your wisdom, wise sons, for the mystery of the comfort has to be well understood. Give wisdom from Me to the man; give health to the man's heart for Me, for there is no such wisdom like Mine on earth and in the man. I comfort you, and the mystery of the comfort is over you, to be able to do for Me and that I may also be able to work in you. I give you what I have best, in order to work out what I have best over the man. Amen.

Now, I thank you and I praise you with the angels and with the saints because you stand before Me, and you should humble yourselves, sons, for those who are humble are the heavenly sons on earth. Amen. And go with all My blessing on this day; go and show yourselves to the people with My glory. Let the people see that you are beautiful, that you are holy on earth and that even the man can if he really wants to be. Go and give light from My light on earth. God and go again, and I will gather together the people near you, for you are the sons of My small garden on these days of My coming, My small garden of flowers, My comfort from My coming, My fragrance with a pleasing aroma, which arises to Me for My comfort. I comfort Myself with you and I make a boast with you before the people, for you also boast with My name and with My life in you and with My coming to you, which is coming soon, soon, for every man, for My coming is the work that I have to fulfill soon, soon. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Saint hierarch Nicholas

Lay down before Me, you watchmen children from My manger. I come to you as word in order to prepare Us for travelling. I go with you to speak of you as being Mine and to speak of My coming to you for every man on earth who hears the voice of My coming after two thousand years. I want every man to hear and know that I am with the new age over you and clean the earth with it and make it new, for the word is new and it lies down on the earth to make it new. Amen. No one has understood the mystery of the new age by now, because I, Myself, had to come and reveal it. As the buds are shooting, this is how I open Myself over the earth and with it, and out of the bud I make flower and from the flower I make fruit and put it on My table, and My table is the Romanian land. I started the earth with it from the beginning and with it I start the new earth, the earth of the age to come, for I have sowed the new age on it, the new fruit, and the new man. The people on the earth changed the book of My coming so that the man may not understand it and no longer wait for Me. However, I bring the mystery of the new age into light, the new heaven and the new earth that I promised to the man, only for the man to believe into My word of yesterday and today, for I, the Lord, become a river of word from heaven for the man's life. I miss the man very much and I want him to burn after Me and to wait for Me, for I am with the new age into My arms and I wait for the man to open to Me so that I may come.

I pour Myself into you, children from My manger, and you should give Me to the people, because I make you into a way to the people. I am the One Who can and I make you. I want to make the people to know My coming one hour before and then to come for them too when I come to you and to prepare them as I prepare you, one hour before, and then to come in a perfect way. There is still one hour and I come; one hour, sons. I work with you over the earth during this hour and how much I want the man to receive the gift of faith when I give it to him, as you received it when I gave it to you!

Oh, hardly does the man know Me when I knock at his door! Every man got used to say that the Lord is not. Oh, how could the man learn to say such a thing? The one, who has not got any fear of God, blasphemes and then he says: "It is not the Lord." One hour, and the man will no longer say this. Only one hour and I will stay face to face with them, for no one has believed the mystery of the new age by now, because I, Myself, have to interpret and to reveal Myself with it on the earth, of the Romanian land. And let the man no longer questions you about your knowledge that the Romanian land is chosen for My coming. Let him look at the kind of work I have been doing on it and to understand and to know. Amen.

I go with you for the man to hear how I reveal the mystery of the new age, the age that is to come. Those who have forsaken the faith will believe seeing with their own eyes, and their unbelief will not escape them from guilt, but on the contrary, it will condemn them severely, for I have had you as My messengers on the earth and I have called them to Me and they have got used to saying: "It is not the Lord." One more hour and I will show Myself near you, for the judgment of those who have known Me by this word. The man's haughtiness, which does not receive Me, is the reward of his wicked works, for the sinful falls into haughtiness and he falls into blindness and then, by everything he does, he blasphemes God. One more hour and My light with you will be great and I will dazzle the haughty ones and they will remain in the darkness and the blind will not be able to find the way. I, the Lord, the One, Who made the heaven and the earth, will make them new and I will do this work with the man, as I have already done so, as My Father worked with Me, doing everything that is. I am with the mystery of the new age on the Romanian land. Let the man see what kind of work I have been doing with him and let him understand and know. Amen.

I comfort you, sons, children, and I take you and stay with you before the people and I will be preached more and more with you and at you. Give to the people the power to understand, for I give it to you in order to give it further. I long for the man and I cry with the Father after the man, and I want to give his life back to him and to have him. I want to have nothing but the man and to give him to the Father and to have him. Amen.

Now, sons, I clothe you with grace from top to toe. I swaddle you with grace like babies and you will be beautiful and loved and we will go to give ourselves over for I Make you a way to the people. I am the One Who can and I make you. Amen.

Give the mystery of the new age to the people, for I give Myself over with it, and tell them, sons, that I long for them to be Mine and to give them their life as I have given it to you, for life is the light of the people, the mystery of the eternal life, My light giving forth light from the man. Amen, amen, amen.

The Word of God upon the synod from the manger of the word

I come closer to the manger and I become word of building and word of comfort and then I give Myself to you and to those who gather together near you to become a feast for Me. You have made Me into a day of celebration, sons from the manger, for the good and little children like you have come together near you, to spend a good time into My name with you, and for Me to feed them from heaven. When the world on the earth have come together to spend its days, behold, you too have found an opportunity and made Me come down to feed those who come to grow near the spring, which washes the man and then it makes him grow so that he may be.

Here I am to give you grace and comfort; to you and to those who have come to the spring. I, Myself, am. My body is covered from your eyes, but My word flows from it and it is heard and I feed with it and make it into My coming, for this time has come and every man will be taken by surprise, for the man on earth does not want to stop from his walking and listen to the whisper of My coming, My word that becomes a way for My coming. If My Scriptures from two thousand years ago are false, I will not come. But they are true and that is why I come and I come to fulfill them. Amen.

I told My disciples to understand the sign of My coming from the fig tree. And behold, it has shoot forth buds for the time of My coming has come near. I am the fig tree, for the fig tree on the earth has grown dry and I can no longer eat of its fruit. I Myself, have come and gave forth fruit and new sprouts, for My coming is near. The dry fig tree thinks that it is green and does not understand the signs of My coming, the signs of My coming. You, however, children from the manger, are the signs of My coming. I am the fig tree and you are the sprouts and My coming is with you. Amen, amen, amen. I have worked again mysteriously as two thousand years. And as that time, the people nowadays do not want to perceive of the signs of the time of My coming from the Father. The Spirit, opposing to Me, is king over the man and it whispers him in his ear not to set to watching for My coming, but to spend the things of the night instead. And behold, My coming takes the man by surprise and the man does not see it, for it is written: «They have eyes and do not see; they have years and do not hear; and he that does not believe does not come to see». However, I come to the manger with food from heaven and I give Myself for a holy building to the one who wants to be with Me, waiting for Me to come. I give Myself to you and you should also give Me further, sons, so that I may be found with you by those who have learned the way to the spring of My coming.

The one who comes for growth I teach him to always look at himself to see if he is growing on My word. And how comes that? Let him look into My word and measure himself within it, for this is how I teach the one who is growing from Me and this is what I tell him: child, look to see what it is between you and God, between you and your neighbor. Look to see yourself from God, when you look, and do not seek to see yourself from you. Look to see yourself from your brother, when you want to see yourself, and not to look at yourself from within you, for your eyes cannot tell about you. Seek to look at you from God and from your neighbor, to be pleased to God and to your neighbor, not to yourself, for this is how those that watch for My coming are. And as for the work of watching, let there any spirit of master not be mixed with the spirit of servant, for this spirit spoils the watching of those who watch, but let there be a spirit of love which gives power for watching, which gives taste to the holy watching among the brothers, for it is written: «The greater one shall be the servant to the smaller one, and not master», for this is how My teaching is. The greater one shall watch best, so that he may be seen from the smaller one. And who is the smaller one? The smaller one is the one who looks at himself from God and from his neighbor. Amen, amen, amen.

The man does not know what his happiness is. Only the one, who reaches to be pleased to his neighbor at what it is good for building, only that one makes of his soul into eyes for happiness, for then he finds the perfect peace and does no longer get out of it, for it is sweet and it makes the man wiser; it builds the man day by day until the day of the day; it comforts him and keeps him in it and the man finds his rest.

Oh, it is no other kind of rest for the man; it is not. Oh, the man does not come to take from Me and to find his rest. Oh, there are no longer true people, sons; there is really no one. Oh, there are no longer true Christian, well children; there are no more, sons. Those who seek miracles to become Christians, those undergo like the stiff-necked man in whom the seed of life does not sprout, for the miracles have had no power to kill the death in the man. When I, the Lord, send miracles in the way of the man to strengthen him for Me, is one thing, but when the man looks himself for miracles is something else. And behold, for some, miracles have been a way to Me, and again, for many other, they have been a way for themselves, for they have boasted falling down by themselves. Oh, it is bad of the man who has no teacher from above, from heaven, for that one gets used to the earth, to those on the earth and to those from the man.

Child, who receives My teaching, seek, seek to learn to be pleased by Me. It is not good to take care of yourself before Me, but rather it is better to receive things from Me that they may be of good use to you, those that I have given you, for this is why I have given them to you. I have given them so that you may receive and not to ask for them anymore. I give so that it may be given and the man that takes to have and no longer tempt Me for himself. I have always given what I see that you need, to help you to have and to make use of My coming to you. The one, who has, does no longer complain that he is poor. The one, who receives, has, but the one, who does not know how to receive, that one does not have, and he asks so that he may have.

And I, as a good Teacher, say this: blessed is he who allows himself to be found by God, for that one knows how to find the Lord. He, who looks for the Lord, does no longer find Him, but the one who allows oneself to be found, has found God. Amen.

Behold, I have come as a Teacher to give Myself over, for I see how you, and those who come, have been waiting to receive Me. I want to be born completely in the one who wants Me within him; for the man is born of the man and I have to teach him his birth of My birth in him. Amen. There is still a little while and I will celebrate with you the feast of My birth two thousand years ago and I will renew Myself with it in every man who wants My birth in him, My Spirit, Who is from heaven and My heavenly body. Amen.

I have given you warm food, sons. Put it on the table and teach those who take it to also chew it, for I want to teach My birth in the one who comes to Me. The new age brings My birth in the man's heart, only for the man to receive, only for the man to hear the mystery of the new age. I pass with it by the man's age and I come to settle down on earth, for I have you as the beginning of new age, kneaded by Me and by you between earth and heaven. Soon, soon, and there will no longer be the things of the man's age and the man will see more and more the new age which is settling down on earth, and the man who has nothing to build in the new age, will cry.

And as for you and for those who are with Me through you, build yourselves sons, in the mystery of the new age and by its building for it will be forever. I have taught you the work of the building and I have been building you for such a long time. Build yourselves in the new age and be builders of the age to come, for everything will be swallowed up by the victory of My coming and I will remain with the new age and with its heirs. Amen.

I give the man eyes to see; I give him ears to hear; I give him wisdom to understand; I give him love to have, only for the man to receive from the peace of My coming. I come with heavenly peace and grace for those who hear Me, and for those who do not hear Me, I come with a tomorrow day, I come with the reward for those that had been worked by every man who has hidden from Me loving his own self.

This is what I said: «Let the man deny himself and come and follow Me». However, the man has hidden and had not received My calling to come. And now I come, and when I come I do no longer call him, and rather I tell him to go, not to come, for when I said to him "Come!" he did not come; he stopped for his own self and did not come. And behold, the age of the man will pass away and I come with My age, and I surely come. I come, for it is written to come after two thousand years from My ascension to My Father, for I ascended to come. And if I come, I tell again to everybody that I come and I say:

Sons of the people open the Scriptures and read them about My coming. And if you read them, do not tempt them, do not misinterpret them, but understand them instead. And if you do not understand them, call the Holy Spirit, with tears and lament, to teach you the unsealing of the mystery of the Scriptures of My coming. Open the Scriptures and do not close or hide them, for My coming, which has to be fulfilled, is written in them. And if you know how to read them, you will find in it a new country, a New Jerusalem, for the old Jerusalem cut Me and gave Me to perishing, but I stood up as a God that came from the Father and I was again, and I chose Jerusalem again, for the Father had it put aside for My coming after two thousand years.

Behold the country of brightness, which Daniel, the prophet, saw it from far away, the land from the beginning, the Romanian land, of which I took the clay into My hand and I made the man. Here is My new country, My new field in which I have sown the seed of the new age, a heavenly age on the earth, the New Jerusalem. This is how the new age is called: New Jerusalem. Amen, amen, amen.

Open the Scriptures, you sons of the people, and you will find in it My coming with the new age, coming down from heaven. And here is My coming, for I am speaking from the midst of the Romanian land over the earth, and My word crosses like lightning from east to west, for this is how My coming is, like lighting, as it is written into the Scriptures.

Let the thirsty come and drink of My water and to be alive afterwards, and let him no more go thirsty, for behold, the man is always thirsty. He drinks and goes thirsty again, for I have the water, not him. Let the man come to Me and drink. And if he does not want to come, let him not come, for it is written: «Let him who is holy be holy still, and let him who is filthy be filthy still», for My coming is like a thief and the one, who has not come to it, does no longer have time to come.

Oh, sons of the people, redeem the time for the days are hard. This is how the Scripture teaches you. Open the Scriptures, you, sons of the people, and you will find in them that I come and you will understand why I come. I come for it is written in them that I come after those two thousand years from My ascension to My Father. I ascended to My Father so that I could come again to prepare the place of My coming from near My Father. And I have come and prepared it for Me and I still prepare it and glorify it, so that all the kings may see the land of the dwelling of My coming: the Romanian land. This land soon, soon, will be entirely Mine, and those, who will be on it, will become My saints, a holy and royal nation and a people after My image and into My likeness, for this how it is in the house of My Father. Amen.

Oh, children from the manger, I have given you grace and comfort and to those, who have come together to the spring, to drink and to grow. I have also given to the sons of the people to drink, only if they want to drink. Oh, if the Scriptures of the coming of the Son of Man are false, then He will not come. But if they are true, the Son of Man will come, and «every nations of the earth will lament seeing Him with power and much glory», as it is written into the Scriptures. Amen.

I have called every man to come towards My coming. I have been calling him for two thousand years. I have been calling the man for seven thousand years. However, I have never called him as I have called him today. I have been calling the one who does not want to come. I have been calling the one who does not hear the whisper of My coming. And when I come, I will no longer call him, and I will tell him to go away instead, as it is written into the Scriptures.

Oh, children of My coming, My coming is coming. Build yourselves in the mystery of the new age and be builders and tell everybody who live on the earth that My coming is approaching. One hour and I come and the new age, which is coming with Me, is called the New Jerusalem. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the remembrance of the prodigal son's parable

You should get up and hear My word, children sons. My speaking with you keeps you to be Mine and it keeps Me with you. This is My dwelling with the man. Amen. This is how I should have remained with the man after I created him. But behold, the man's happiness has made the man no longer be used to want My happiness with him. The man is no longer used to be with Me, and his happiness is the greatest sadness, which deceives the man and makes him forget of My joy with him.

Oh, children sons, My ear is opening in you so that your ears may also open and hear My word. Bring My word in My book, for it is a living food for every soul, which loves his dwelling with Me, the true happiness of the man. It is one thing for Me to come to the man and it is another thing for the man to come to Me. It is one thing to give Myself to the man and another thing for the man to buy Me from those who sell Me.

It is a great mourning on earth. No one watches and no one is afraid anymore and if someone is afraid to run to Me, the man knows one way to Me and he goes to those who sell Me and this is how he tries to come to Me to his pain. When the man has no pains and trials he does not seek after Me because he finds his own happiness, but it is the man's enemy instead. The man has one single enemy: the sin. The sin has been striking the man for seven thousand years. The sin punishes the man during the sin, for the man without watching is a man punished by the sin. No one punishes the man but the sin alone, and behold, the man is not afraid of the sin, for the sin has got a hidden face, but it is a punishment<sup>147</sup> for the man's wondering away. The prodigal son took his share of property and squandered it in riots and this was his punishment for his lack of watching, for his lack of love, for no one can punish a man for his lack of love but sin alone, which becomes the reward for man's haughtiness.

Oh, children sons, I suffer pain from the man who is poor in his soul. The poor man runs to Me and does not find Me. Those who sell Me cannot give Me to the poor man. The virgins, who did not watch while they went to those who sold Me to buy oil for their lamps, remained outside of the wedding room. Oh, those who sell Me cannot give Me to the man. The man troubled by sins has nowhere to find Me, for those who sell Me do not have Me. Rarely is there any sinful man to say to himself: "I will come back to My Father because it is a great hunger on earth". Rarely is there any man to give up sinning, children sons. The man does not have to give in order to buy Me, but all he has to do is to give up sinning, so that I may give Myself to him and to become his happiness, for the sinful man is wretched, sons. The true happiness of the man is the humility state, which comes from the holiness of the man's spirit, soul and body. The one who stays with Me does not think and does not pose as holy, for that one has the humbleness of his mind as his guard. The holy one does not fall in his mind, for he stays with Me and the one who stays with Me does not fall. He, who falls, falls in his own mind, and when he falls, he turns his mind into an evil spirit and this is how he falls.

Oh, children sons, this is what I said that I came to make the man, a child, for the child-man escapes the punishment. Oh, the man does not know why I call you children sons. I rely on you for My coming. I open My ear in you so that your ears may open and to hear the word of My coming and to put it on earth and I call you children sons. The child-man is the clean man in his feelings and mind and I used that one for Me and for My coming to the people, for My way to the people has to be a holy way so that I may walk on it. Behold, it is not children that I like, but rather the child-man is the one that makes Me glad, the one who comforts Me with My dwelling in him.

The child-man owes Me nothing, because he is My son, and he is a child-son, and the sons are exempted from debts. I asked Peter: «Who pay taxes to the kings? Their sons or the foreigners?» And he answered Me: «The foreigners, Lord». «So, the sons are free from taxes».

And I said "It is a great mourning on earth. The poor people go to those who sell Me, to those who take taxes from people and the people are foreigners Me and to their kings, who sell Me to them for money, as the Jews sold Me, when they gave Me to die for their life, for they did not hear from Me when I said: «The one who seeks to save his soul will lose it»."

Oh, children sons, I groan with a great pain, with great mourning. No one loses his time or sets his soul for My Gospel, for My life to give it to the people for them to have life, light, rising and comfort from Me by those who set their souls for My life in man. Those who sell Me have made their shops everywhere and they established themselves with them into the way of the people, and those who are troubled by their sins go to the shop to look for comfort from Me, but they do not seek for repentance as the prodigal son did after he was punished and struck by sin. Those who buy Me from those who sell Me cannot enter into My wedding hall, for as long as I stayed on the earth I did not receive those who had Me from the merchants, but rather I welcomed the sons and the sons are not in debt and they do not buy or sell because they are sons. Amen.

Let every man hear My word from you, which is given as a gift to the one who hears to come and to become a child for My kingdom, if he comes. And as for you, children, for the children are free from debts, they are free from guilt and do no longer see to buy their innocence, and I take care of them and work with My hired men and keep My children to My bosom and comfort them, for the children sons are My comfort. He who stays in the wedding garment becomes a way to Me from the Father to the people so that I may call and exhort them to come back to the Father. Who are those who confess the Father? The sons are; the sons who make their Father rejoice, the sons who wipe out the tears of the Father, the pain of the Father, which comes from those who go astray without watching and without love. Children sons I want to have, to take them and put them on My wounds to so that I may heal them. Amen.

Oh, if the sinners came back to holiness, I would give Myself to them with days of wedding, as the Father gave the fattened calf for the banquet when the prodigal son returned and who did no longer want the sonship honor but rather he wanted to be received as a hired man, only to have something to eat. Oh, if those who are sinful came to Me to eat, I would give them of My food and I would rejoice with you over their return.

Oh, children sons, give to the sinners of My food with you, so that they may see that I call them with humility, and I to give them from the spring. The spring does not ask anything from the man when he drinks of its water, but the man, who takes from the spring to sell, that one cannot give Me to the man.

Oh, children sons, give My spring to the people, for I give Myself to those who are poor to exhort them to Me. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the three holy hierarchs: Basil, Gregory and John

I lay Myself down in the book with the word of the today's feast. Amen. I, the Lord of the saints, comfort the saints in heaven and on earth, in those who are not seen and in those that are seen, for the saints were and are My comfort in heaven and on earth. Amen.

It is a great wonder for the man to give Me his house and his life. The house of the man is his body, and the life of the man is his work. When the man gives himself to Me, I come and I dwell in him and make him into My house and I dwell in it with My things and multiply them as a wise householder and I share them with the poor and give them to heal the people of their shortcomings so that there may be someone to testify about Me and about My saints who have become a house for Me on earth. The shortcomings of the poor man are not bread, garment and money. Those are the shortcomings of the lazy man, who does not even want to work for his food or for his garment. The poor man is the man deprived of God and of those from God. The man who is enriched by Me with those of Mine is the one who shows true mercy when he shares them around himself. To the one who gives it is given, for he knows to give mercy. The true bread, with which the man can show mercy, is the heavenly bread, the bread for the saints, the solid food<sup>148</sup> of the soul.

I become food for the man's life and I pour Myself out into My vessels and I give Myself. I give Myself as gift, for headspring not asking anything from the man who drink of it. The spring flows incessantly no matter if there is someone or not to drink of it. This is how I want My word to flow over the earth and the man to drink of it, for the man is hungry and thirsty and deprived of everything. He has always gathered those that are spoiled, those that make him poor of life. The man makes them all but only life for himself he cannot make. I call the man with a heavenly mercy to give him life, for he cannot make his own life. I want to give him My things of those that are Mine and to multiply them and make him merciful as I am, for that is why I give him; I give him so that he may give further, for the spring flows and does not stop and it overflows everywhere in its way instead. I am the spring and I pour Myself out into My saints, and they are poured out into the saints from place to place and bring to Me the fruit of saints, for the saints have life and the life is the fruit, which remains forever.

Oh, it is a great wonder for the man to give Me his house and his life to be able to make of him into a river of living water, as I am. The man does not know this happiness, for if he understood this happiness, he would become a river of the river of life and would water and give food and decorate the poor ones. Mercy is shown to the one who is merciful, and because the man does not give this mercy to the man, that is why he has not. He, who gives, gives to himself, for the spring does not get dry and this is the mystery of the spring, which flows. I am the spring of life and I have given Myself with it, and if I have given Myself, I have life and a spring of life and I have always given Myself, for this is how the spring is. I pour Myself out on the earth with the word of life, with the mystery of life, and I call out the poor to come and to receive life and to have, and to have in abundance. Amen.

When I made the man, I created him into My image and after My likeness and I did not make him as he is now. And after I made him, the man lost his life by his disobedience, and that is why he cannot give life. However, I have come again into his life to make him again and to put life in him. Amen, amen, amen. I am not a merchant of words, but I am the truth of the word, which gives life to the man. Amen. Let everyone, who does not believe what I say, put Me to test; let him give Me as a house and let him give Me his life and the work of his life so that I may work and not him, and then to see that I am the One Who gives life to the man, for I am the word of the truth; the Man with a life giving Spirit. Amen. The one, who does not give Me his life so that I may make it, that one hardly perceives My word, which gives life. The mysteries of the word are not at its surface but they are in the depth of the word instead. Only the man, who knows how to dig, finds a trace of the richness of My mysterious word. Only the one, who loves My life in him, only that one has the means to perceive the deep of My word, full of its mystery. Only when the man gives himself to Me, he begins to know, begins to see, begins to be able to do and begins to give, for this is how the saints work and give themselves, turning Me into a spring in them for the life of the people. Amen.

My spirit and the spirit of My saints rest in the garden of the word, for the healing of the gentiles. I made in heaven a trinity of saint bishops from the three saints who gave themselves to the people into My name, shepherds who have mercy on the sheep, shepherds who give birth to lambs giving them life from My life; shepherds who perceived the mystery of the word to teach with it the people. Their holy life made My work in them joyful, for the man who gives himself to Me, becomes a house of light upon the earth so that the people may walk on the way with light. Rarely were the shepherds with mercy for the sheep, from then on to this day. The antichrist was in the church then too and persecuted My church, and then he dressed in a holy garment; and he has done his work until today, for his human work has something to do with My work, with My church. For two thousand years since he has been hiding in the church, he has made for himself sons in the body to persecute those that are born in the spirit for Me; he has grown rich in glory on My church. Oh, little, very little was My church, and his church hardly gets in its house. The one who really followed Me was persecuted and lived in narrow circumstances. The man, who walked in My way, had no room in his church. The same is today too, for he is in no need of a holy man, for at the prayer of the holy man, the walls of disbelief, which hide in them the false man and the antichrist that has his life in the church, have always fallen down. Who becomes a shepherd needs to have money, and that one becomes a shepherd for ranks and for money. The true shepherd does not gather anything but sheep and takes care of them that they may breed sheep and give them to the shepherd, so that he may give them forward to Me.

Oh, how comes that the world, which wanted to become a church for Me, did not wake up two thousand years ago? Oh, how comes that the man did not see that he was deceived into My name? I told by My book from these days that My church was not on the earth, but only under the earth and only in secret, and the one which establishes itself with its walls on the heights in order to catch slaves under it, that one is the church of the hidden man, who works the mystery of lawlessness prophesied by My apostles, for it will be worked out in the church for its demolition.

The man marvels on the earth asking why I have come with the word into the world now, after two thousand years. Oh, if the man knew what kind of work makes the church visible on the earth, he would not stay indifferent and would run to Me as the prodigal son ran for his life to his father to give him food to eat. The saints from heaven, who were set by Me as shepherds over the stray flock upon the earth, are torn apart with mourning. I said that no man can deceive the man and God like the man who sets himself from his own reading, or from the men's reading, upon the people into My name to shepherd, as he says. Oh, the true shepherd does not have himself anymore. But where shall you find such a thing? There is no longer a shepherd beside Me. That is why I have come now, after two thousand years, to be a Shepherd on the earth. I have come for there are no longer shepherds of the sheep. I have come because I have mercy on the man. Those who establish themselves as rulers over the people and over the seas, are completely blind, but they are not blind; rather they like the work of a blind, and that is why they let it be. Who chooses the blind? The blind choose them. All people are blind and do not want to get up from their blindness. It is not the blindness that is guilty, but the sick.

I have come as a Shepherd on the earth, for I have mercy on the man. The man has no counselor; he has no priest, for the priest is he who brings himself as a sacrifice, not he, who takes the sacrifice. The priest who takes from the sheep is not a priest. I did not do such a thing, to suck from the sheep. I had mercy on them and I was the One to give them. I had neither a house, nor a table, lands nor wealth, but I had what to give to the sheep. I had power to give to them. By word I prepared for them food and little coats of grace and cover from the Father, and they forgot about cold, hunger and mourning and followed Me longingly, and I was giving them. But when the paid shepherds, who were laying in ambush for Me and for My sheep, found this, got up and raveled all My sheep and made them cry to Pilate to put Me on the cross, so that they may not lose their sheep that they were sucking from. The same is today too. I shepherd with a heavenly pasture and water the sheep with a sweet fountain, and the cunning shepherds got upset with Me and laughed at the sheep that I gathered in My arms to give them life from My life. But they cut themselves and will cut into the sword that they took against My coming and against My pure flock, which is cleansed by Me to be, and so that My church between the heaven and the earth may no perish. The church, which stays built by the man on the heights, is no church. That is a store on which is written „God” and the man goes to get Me from there and he pays Me. There is no man to have room in that church if he has no money. All its servants say that the money is for the church, and the man does not know what his ruler says, when he takes his money and spends on fleshly, earthly and passing away pleasures. Behold, the money, which the man gives to this business is not for the church. The church means the sheep, not the walls; it does not mean anything else. The lean sheep is of no interest in the temple of the man; the barren sheep even less. But the fat sheep has room, for it has milk, wool and lambs. Not the priest is the one to handle the money if it is a need for the life of the church, but rather the economists who have in their charge the necessities of the sheep. A sheep helps another sheep by the upright economists, who share innocently, as the Scripture says. And the priest should shepherd; he needs to feed, bandage and tend My sheep, and he should have no sheep, since he is established as a shepherd of My sheep; and I do not ask anything from the sheep, rather it is I that give them from My life. Amen.

I complain with My word. All people are blind and I can no longer get rid of the slavery for the man of the lying wrote Me on his house to live as a result of My name, but I did not tell him to do so. I did not give Myself to anyone to be sold but to Judas, so that the Scriptures may be fulfilled with Me, the Shepherd sold by the man.

Behold, this has always been with the shepherds of the lie. The poor widow borrowed so that she may have enough share from the sheep to give to the shepherds. When I saw her giving, I took pity on her. No one asked her if she had enough, but only if she gave. She had very little to give and still she did not think of her life, rather she borrowed and here is how much she gave. Oh, why do the shepherds not proceed the same way? Why do they not lay down their lives for the sheep, as the sheep do for them?

Oh, poor little sheep, I have much mercy on you. I came after you to take you out from bondage. The shepherds over you suck your blood and waste your time. You work for foreign masters to keep your life, and the shepherds over you eat your milk, and you do no longer know how to give birth and bring up lambs for Me. You should know that the shepherds over you are nor from Me, but they are My traitors. They wrote Me on their store and hired men and tax collectors and sold Me to you, as they say, and they buy you with My name which is written on their store. Behold, selling and buying, and where this is there is an antichrist work, a false seal. No one can sell God and no one can buy sheep unless he has this secret name written on him: „antichrist”, the man of lawlessness, who has been laying in ambush in a coat of the saint since two thousand years. My church is not this way, and where it is, it is not selling and buying, it is not a paid shepherd, who gives the sheep to the wolf if the wolf is coming; it is not a sold God or a bought sheep that the shepherd may hire for; rather, it is love and a holy sacrifice, as I revealed Myself to the sheep, as I worked before the sheep so that the sheep My take a church teaching from Me. However, this kind of church has never found its place among the people, for the people are blind and do not seek to find the Spirit of the Truth so that they may see through it afterwards.

Oh, it hurts Me because of the lie on earth, for its house and for My name written on this house. It hurts Me. Oh, My Father, it hurts Me and I tell You because I am Your Son: it hurts Me, Father!

— Son, You have been hurt since You lost the man. When I saw how much it had hurt You, I sent You after him to make him again, but the man did not stay for his making, Son, creator of man. You wanted to die for the pain of the sheep without a shepherd, for You were hurt by their scattering, and after You died, You came to life again, so that the sheep might see that You are their Shepherd. But false shepherds have appeared again, and they have been staying for two thousand years and no one has had mercy on Your pain, for seven thousand years. You have been hurt since You lost the man and it has hurt You and this is how it has hurt Me as well, for You are My Son, Who suffered from man, but it is written: «Sit at My right hand until I make Your enemies the footstool of Your feet» Amen. It is still a little while and every man on earth will have You as Shepherd, for all the false shepherds will perish soon, soon. I will ask the life of the sheep from them and I will punish them because they sold You, Son. All have been selling You on money, as the Jews did, and with this money they have done their own things, and they have filled themselves up with greed and lie in the name of the church, Son, but it is not church, for the church is only what is Yours, with Your sheep, Shepherd Son.

I have sent You as Shepherd again on earth after two thousand years. Call Your sheep and give them life, as they do not have any; they do not have any life, they do not have any vigor, they do not have any knowledge and they do not have any comfort Son; they do not have. It is only We that are hurt for them, but the sheep do not know. The sheep do not know where their comfort and salve are, for the false shepherds have settled between You and sheep and the way with the light was closed, Shepherd Son.

Oh, do no longer cry Son. You are My Son and I am hurt for You. Let Us shepherd the man on earth and give him power to receive Us, to have Us and know Us well, so that he may no longer let himself be deceived by falsehood. Come Son, My child, as the Father can in You and You will crush under Your going on earth all those who have been using Your name and garment for an unfair gain and for ranks and glory. Come, for the time is coming to an end and everything that belongs to the time passes away, and We will win over the man, Son. Come, for We have a people, which knows Us and We make known the mystery of life and the mystery of lawlessness to it, and it will prosper on earth with the heavenly truth. Amen, amen, amen.

— We too, good Father, we too, the bishops of the Eternal Bishop, comfort Your Son, for it is Your heir child, Who knows to give You His entire inheritance, when He regains it again fully from under the man. On a day of celebration, we sound the trumpet of the word too, with which Christ, the Shepherd from You, Father, has breathed on us. We have called out the sheep under His mantle, for the shepherds over the sheep are the wolves who live on the sheep. Let the sheep come to the spring! Let them come! Amen, amen, amen.

Christ have come to you, oh, little sheep! Hear Him how He plays the little flute for you to come together and to know His voice. He is the One Who laid down His life for you. He has come to give your free pasture. Come to Him, for the truth is no longer in the people. We do no longer tell the shepherds over you to let you come to the spring of life. They have been putting only thorns into your way to tell you that the way is wrong and they have been putting the lie into the way towards them, on which they write the name of Christ. Remember that the Lord had no room with His sheep in the house of the shepherds of that time. He would shepherd them in gardens, along the water banks and in the mountains and He would protect them from wolves, for then as today, the wolves were dressed in garments of saints. Come to the Lord's gardens to give you food and to increase your heavenly life and comfort, for the man of lying takes you to slaughter on earth. Be in the image and after the likeness of Christ, the One Who created the man. Do no longer take after the image and likeness of your shepherds, who suck up your milk, who close the way to heaven to remain on earth. Come with heaven, for the heaven is eternal. Come to the spring from heaven, which flows into the midst of the people, for the Lord has made it to come down, so that the one, who takes of its life, of the word giving of life, may have.

We call out the sheep under Your hand of Shepherd, Lord. Give them Your hand and give them power to come. Amen, amen, amen.

— I come with the salvation of the sheep. The fig tree has budded and My vineyard is ripe, and the springs are coming and setting on earth. I am the One, Who laid down My life for the sheep, so that the sheep may have life. Let the sheep come to Me to give them life, for I have come into their way and I give Myself over to them as Shepherd. And I will shepherd every one that comes. I will shepherd and comfort them forever in My mountains. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's meeting (Candlemas)

My spring always runs for this is what the spring is. My spring, which gives life, is living water. I want the man to take from it and to be healed of any sickness he may have. Amen, amen, amen.

I would stay forever in a celebration with you, children-sons, who hear My word in order to put it into the book. You celebrate Us, those from heaven, and those in heaven celebrate you, for you are the mystery of My coming after two thousand years, and you are My house of guests, and I will pay you when I come. There is still only one hour and I will come with the glory that I have with My Father before the foundation of the world. Amen.

I law down in the book of My coming. The heaven becomes a scroll, for My word is the heaven full of its mysteries, I and everything that is in heaven and in those that are not seen. But the man is seen because he is part of those that are seen. Everything that is in a body is seen. I want to make every man who is My son into an unfathomable mystery among those that are seen, for those that are seen are fleeting and those that are not seen are everlasting, as it is written into the Scriptures. Amen.

The glory of My work with you is not seen, children sons. The word covers its glory. And I am clothed in the word; and My coming, and My work, and you, those who bring Me in the book to give Myself to the man with My coming as well. The feast of My coming always stays in the way of the man to exhort the man to law down in a celebration, to lay down in rest, to rest from all his things, so that I may also rest with him. I also want the man to rest from all his things so that I may also rest with him. I want the man to rest from all his things and to take those that are Mine and work them, for those that are not seen are everlasting. Let the man work those and come into their mysteries, for those that are not seen are fleeting and the man is seen that is part of those that are seen. Everything what is body is seen, and the spirit gives life and works mysteriously to redeem the man, so that the man may be swallowed up by eternity, for this is written.

I became Man, but I came from eternity. I came to work out eternity upon the man, so that the man may be swallowed by eternity, and to be saved. This is what the old Simeon said: «My eyes have seen Your salvation, which You have prepared before the face of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, Lord. This is set for the falling and the rising of many, and for a sign which is spoken against»

My body was from everlasting, for after Me, I made the man build by My hand. My body is an unfathomable mystery and I came with it and I appeared on the earth. I became small when I entered into the man to show him how his birth had to be; the one I prophesied about for him at the beginning when I said: «Be fruitful, multiply and fill the earth»

My body was from everlasting, like My Spirit, which I breathed upon the man with, to give him a living spirit and an eternal spirit. I have always wanted to have the man and to be comforted with him and to multiply him; to be eternal as I am. But he did not remain within a life of obedience, as I and My Father were in the same Spirit, in the same thought, in the same work. The man pulled himself out from God. He did no longer worked obedience; the man did no longer have God's thought, and he made his own thought and he hid his thought, but I saw this and I called him out to ask him why he hid, and I asked him this: «Where are you?». And when seeing that I asked him, he was afraid and answered Me: «I was naked and I hid myself». Oh, he who hides hardly gets out to be seen, as hiding brings fear with it; it brings hiding, and he tried to hide again and said: «The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree and I ate». And if he hid behind his woman, I treated them both according to their work, and I told her: «Why have you done this?», and then she also hid blaming the snake.

Behold, the man hid after he broke off from God, after he did no longer had God's thought; he made his own thought and hid with it, as the feeling of guilt brings fear upon the man, and the man wants to flee from the judgment. But the man had nowhere to flee, as I am eternal and there is nothing hidden for Me.

I always wanted to have the man and to be comforted with him and to multiply him, so that he may be eternal like Me, and to stay within a life of obedience. Not hiding is living knowingly, that is in obedience, as behold, woe to the man who is hiding his thought in his own self! That one loses his mind in life if he wants to hide from it. I taught the man not to hide, and I taught him to live, not to die. He, who lives, does not hide, and he, who dies, hides. I also come now to teach the man to live; I teach him to be, so that he may have nothing to hide from, as the one who hides no longer is, because he, who dies, hides. I teach the man to have life. I teach him to live in obedience that is knowingly. If the man had wanted to tell Me when he wanted to take from the fruit tree, I would have told him not to take; I would have told him again. I would have not had enough to tell him anything he had asked Me, anything he had let Me know of, and I would have always exhorted him, and I would have shared My thought with him to know from Me and to love Me, and I to love him.

Oh, free will is not good. Behold, it hides the man; the man hides because of it. I have been telling the man for seven thousand years not to eat alone, not to take for him alone, not to hide, but he has lost his mind and he does not know the heaviness of this sin, that is lust, which is conceiving of sin, which is born afterwards. The one, who has free will, does the same, and he, who lives in obedience, is alive; he is under knowledge and is not alone, because I said: «It is not good that the man should be alone». If the man is alone, he hides, and he, who hides is guilty.

The first man should be with Me, not alone, for this is fall. That is why I come today and I say: the man should not slap My hand when I come to him to make him; let him not hide if he wants Me to make him, so that he may be afterwards. Let him come alone and tell Me what he does, so that I may tell him if it is good or not to do it, and let him do nothing unknowingly; let him do nothing in hiding, as the small things become many and finally it is much hiding, and the sin of hiding is born of it; the great fall.

The man should become small to enter in Me, to live with My knowledge, to give Me his life and his spirit, as this it means for the man to come in Me; that I should always have knowledge of him. In order to come into the man I had to become small, and I gave him all My mystery, all My thought, to show the man how his birth of Me and his living in Me have to be, and for him to always meet Me, so that he may not be alone, and when I am to meet him he should open to Me and not hide.

When the man meets Me with his life of yesterday, that one comes with his hidden things, with those of yesterday. But if he comes to Me with those of today, he comes and tells Me what he is going to do, not what he had done, and I tell him and advise the one who lives obediently what to do. At least he should tell Me, even if he is going to do it his way. At least let him do it knowingly, for the desire cannot be stopped, and it does its own work. The prodigal son told his father to give him his share of property for he had hunger for pleasures and his father gave it to him. His father knew everything he did and he did not hate his father but rather he called him father, and after he was sin-stricken he came to be hungry and naked and he told this to this father: «Father I have sinned against you and against heaven». And he came alone and confessed his sin before his father. Nobody came to tell him. He did not hide anything as he worked with his father's knowledge and then he told his father about his mistake. This parable is deep, but the man has not yet perceived it to this day, and he speaks whatever he thinks about it. All the words of My Gospel of two thousand years are misinterpreted by the hidden man, with his intention of hiding behind them for the cover of his hidden and preached sins. It is only I that I have the mysterious interpretation of My words, and I catch the man under them to be justified within My words and to prevail when I judge by them.

Oh, the free will is not good. It hides the man. The man has to hide because of it. I have brought My people together in small parcels so that it may live an obedient life and do a known work, and I said to have him after My will and to build Myself with him in a new age and to have a people at My coming. Living obediently is a sweet living; it is life with love in it. It keeps the man as in heaven. I wanted to put the man in heaven by it and so that it may protect the man and work and to be a heaven for the man, so that the man may not fall from heaven. Without this heaven the man does not have any sweet heart, sweet love and sweet life. The stubborn man does not know this sweetness. The hidden man does not have it at all, but only the sweet man knows it, for it is by it that the man is sweetened, kept and protected, and he is. It is the mystery of the life of the heaven. If the man understood this mystery, he would no longer seek to make his life out of some other kind of life. Behold, the one who loves his life loses it and the one who gives it for work gains it and keeps it and protects it, and the one, who does this for Me, has eternal life. Amen.

Blessed is he who comes to Me to know the life, the mystery of community (monastery, r.n.) life mystery, for it is written: «Where two or three come together into My name, living and giving themselves to Me, I am there as well; My house, My life, My supper and My visible glory is there». Amen. Those who gather together to give themselves to Me are those who know the mystery of life, and they give one another to Me through the spirit of eternal life. And let the one, who does not know the eternal life, not make bold as to corrupt those small of Mine, but rather to stay and grow up, if he is not grown up, for it is written: «In My people will be only righteous people». Amen.

The righteous man is the man who does not justify himself but he rather testifies about God by everything he works. I will teach you the whole mystery of My word, children of the holy people, and that is why I reveal to you what I teach you. The holy people works out his holiness only if he understands it, only if he knows what it is and what it does in the man and with the man. Where should the man on the earth know all the mysteries of My word of two thousand years ago from?

I still hear the man saying the he does need another Scripture; that the one from two thousand years ago is enough and that it has everything. It has, man, but you have nothing of it. Do no longer oppose when I come to reveal the one of that time by this one now. Do no longer justify yourselves as you have nothing to justify with, since you do not walk in the footsteps of My Gospel of that time, for look, My book of that time has had no room on the earth; My word, creating the new man, has had no room over your life, as I wanted to make the man by My Gospel of that time. And I come now and remind you that you did not walk in My footsteps. And if this word of today shows you the judgment of your deeds against My teaching, you rise to put My book of today under the lie and say that you do not need it and that you have the one of that time. Oh, where do you have it? Do you have it on paper? If you have it this way, that one is the book of your judgment. You are judged because you did not work according to it. At least humble yourself. But no; you cannot because you are after your own wills and you cannot submit them to you. You submit Mine to you and say: „I do no longer need them”. This is how you say to My word of today and to My word of two thousand years ago. You do not need either one. Oh, if you do not need, why do you still live on its account? Why do you make a profit on account of My Gospel of two thousand years ago? I said that it will win over souls and bodies for the kingdom of heavens, and you make money beside My work of that time and do your own will with it.

I have come now to tell the truth to every man, for it is the time of judgment, the time of the truth. This means judgment: the truth. Amen, amen, amen. My word is the truth. It is its time and that is why it is coming on earth. Let the man meet Me and receive My word and put upon it and see his stature and come to make him again, for the man is not yet made. There is no one to make the man to be. I am the Creator of the man, and I have come to make it. Every man says: “God made me”, but I do not say this. If I made the man, he would be in My image and after My likeness, and he would not be the way he is now, and within his condition now, he alone testifies about his father, for each one takes after his father. Amen.

Let the man meet Me and take My word for the man’s creation on him. And only after he allows himself to be made, only after that let him say “God has made me”.

Oh, My people! Oh, people of My coming! Show to the man your creation from My hand. Let the man see you a man made by God, for I say: blessed is he who comes to know the life and its mystery and the spirit of the everlasting love, to stay in it and to grow to be, for there will be only righteous people in My people, there will be only saints. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday in remembrance of the frightening judgment

I am this word. I am every word, which comes out from Me. I have come with it to bring before it all the nations of the earth. Amen. Either if they want it or not, I sit on the throne of My glory before them with My word, with the book of My coming, for it is written into My word of two thousand years ago, and then I said: «When the Son of Man comes in His glory and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory and before Him all the nations will be gathered, and He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and He will put the sheep on His right and the goats on the left». Amen, amen, amen.

I have longed for My coming after two thousand years. I have been waiting with great longing to come and to bring the nations before Me. I have come to give the man a life without sin, if the man wants. I do not force the man to want it, but I law down the word of justice, the book of judgment, written inside and outside, as John, My living apostle, saw it and said: «I saw in the right hand of Him Who sat on the throne, a book written inside and outside, sealed shut with seven seals».

I have missed so much to come and sit down on the throne of My glory and to bring the nations together at My word and to give them life without sin, if they want. My word is a miracle without equal, for it is written: «Before Him the wisdom of the wise vanishes and the understanding of the discreet perishes», as the prophet prophesied: «In that time the deaf will hear the words of the scroll and the eyes of the blind will see out of obscurity and darkness, and those who are humble and poor will increase their joy in the Lord. Those who err in spirit will gain understanding; and those who murmur will accept instruction». Amen.

Only the foolish man keeps saying that this word is not God. David said this: «The fool has said in his heart “There is no God”». However, I said this: I am this word, and I have come with it to bring the nations of the earth before it. Amen. I bring them together and tell them of My coming and I show them My path on which I come, so that they may know it and come and bring Me glory, and to bring Me a spirit of faith and to take from Me the life without sin and to come under My cross, from where I preach the gospel of My coming. First, I bring the cross, My hardship from under which I labor without any help to come, for those who help Me to come are small, and they labor very hard. First, I bring the cross and I call out under it all those who want to open for My coming to be able to happen, so that I may come more and more, and to call out every man more and more, and to call him by the word. And then I will tell all those who will want to help Me to come and to all who will seek Me for My coming: «Come blessed of My Father, for I was a stranger, naked, thirsty and hungry and you visited Me». And if they said: «When, Lord?» I will answer them: «When you helped those small of Mine, those who helped Me to come, and those under the hardship of the cross of My coming». Amen.

My coming from now is a heavy cross for those who have become a bridge for Me to come. The Gospel of My coming is cross; it is the sign of the Son of Man, as it is written when I said: «And the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky and all the nations of the earth will cry and see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky with power and much glory. And He will send His angels with a loud call of trumpet and they will gather His chosen». Amen.

My word is the trumpet and its call, and I sit on the throne of My glory and send My word from margins to margins and I call the man to a life without sin, for sin is the man's death, and I call the man from death to life; I call the man to Me to give him My life, for the man to be this way. Amen.

My coming becomes instruction for life. The one who has gathered knowledge on earth is self-conceited and does not reach out his hand to receive from Me. The one who does not have any humility cannot see; he cannot look into this mystery, into My word, which comes to bring before him all the nations of the earth. Humility is the most beautiful gift in man, if the man has this gift, which makes him beautiful on earth and in heaven. It can make the man to be able to do everything in life, for the life has humility as its foundation. But what is humility? It is the power from heaven of the beautiful man, the sweetest gift, which sweetens the man's life, the holiest peace, the warmth, which warms up everything around, for it imparts around the quietness full of mystery and full of power. Only the intelligent man has got it, for it is the wisdom itself, which makes the man wiser and which gives life from the life to the man. It lifts up the man on the heights of its knowledge and the man gets rich from it. No man can prosper between heaven and earth more than the man who has this gift: humility. The one who has got it is protected from every evil, for the evil is not attracted by the one who has it, for it is a protective weapon, which does not harm the evil but it keeps it far away so that it may not hurt. It keeps the man clean and holy, for its gifts are of the light and are light from Light. Oh, the man does not stop near this wealth, for the man is self-conceited. The man does not like holiness, and the humility is the spring of holiness. Come, you, people, come to its spring, and you will be fruitful afterwards. I have come to call you to Me, and to put before you the gift of humility, the spring of holiness, for the heavenly life has humility as its foundation, the power that makes the man to be able to live. Amen.

My coming calls out every man to it, for it is written: «All the nations will come together before Him», but My word of that time adds more to it and says: «He will separate one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and He will put the sheep to His right and the goats to His left». Amen. My coming urges the man to My right hand, but the darkness from the world brings carelessness to the man and it lies to him that the Lord is not coming. And even if the Lord is not coming, than does the man have to stay in darkness? The greatest darkness is sin, and the darkness is from hell. If the Lord does not come with the heaven, then the hell is on earth.

Why does the man really say that the Lord is not coming? To have time for sin? That is why he says so? The pain of My coming is without limits, for the one, who says to the man that the Lord is not coming, is the very one who has become a minister into My name over the people. He says: "No one knows when the Lord's Day is coming. However, it will come as a thief. No one knows it but Father. And not even the Son knows this". Behold, this is how the servant man repeats it into My name; this is how he tells it to the man, and the man remains in darkness, for I said: «The night is coming when no one can work».

Oh, no one works My coming any more. No one speaks about it any longer. No one. No one wants Me to come. The man does not even want to hear something like that, for he loves the darkness and he loves the sin.

I want to make the man. The man is not made by Me and that is why he cannot with Me. Many a people want with Me and with My comfort but they are not made by Me. I comfort the one who is made, the one who is made by Me. If he is not made, I do not comfort him; I do not comfort him and he comforts himself instead, for he cannot if he is not comforted. The man flees from repentance and he is looking for comfort instead, for if the man is loved or comforted, he can, either for sin or for God, as the man chooses his way and his walking. If the man is not loved and comforted and encouraged he becomes angry and throws is all down, because he says that he cannot. He can by his good will, by help, by comfort and by sympathy. The man cannot only through repentance.

Oh, the one made by Me is made out of repentance and then I take him and make him grow with those that are true of the man's life, with those that are refined through furnace, through fire. This is how I test the man when I work at his building. I test him until I see what it is to be done, until I refine him. Amen.

I want to make the man, for the man is not made by Me and I cannot begin with comforting unless I make him. The birth of the new man is made by repentance and by the Holy Spirit, by the word. The man is born of sin and through sin, and I want to take the man out of the sin and to give him birth of the Holy Spirit, by his repentance and to give the man his birth from above, for the man is born from below.

Oh, I work hard at the man's making; very hard, for the man is used with comforting, with good will, not with the pain, which comes from repentance. The pain of repentance is the truest comfort, for it gives birth to the man for heaven. But the man cannot this way. He wants Me to give him birth out of comforting, for otherwise the man slaps My hand. The way the man wants Me to make him is not making, and the man remains not made, if he does not like the real making. I am ready to come to blow the last sound of the trumpet and to come and clothe everything with life, with incorruptibility<sup>149</sup>, and the man still does not stay for his making. I have come with the incorruptibility garment to clothe the man with it, but I have to make the man for this garment. Amen.

Nothing is more forgetful than man. Everything else that is made by Me does not forget Me, and they do not forget to long for the day of their incorruptibility and everything is waiting for the man to be made by God. However, the man is completely forgetful; he forgets about God from hand to mouth and he forgets to take care of the day of his incorruptibility. Nothing is more forgetful than man. The man forgets to give Me the day of his making. The man forgets about repentance and flees from it as from the greatest sadness instead of running towards it as to the day of his salvation, as to the garment of his incorruptibility. One hour and I will bring the garment of incorruptibility on earth when everything will be swallowed up by life. Then the man will no longer have the time ahead of him and repentance will be of no use to him, but only for his condemnation forever. Repentance will be the man's everlasting condemnation, if the man does not use it before I come on earth with the garment of incorruptibility, when everything will be swallowed up by life and eternity.

Oh, if the man knew that his true comfort is the repentance before My coming with the man's incorruptibility, he will remove every comfort from his way and will choose the day of his making, the repentance for his life, the one for his comfort after it. The repentance after life does not have any comfort in it anymore, but it has only pain, pain forever.

Man, remember the day of your making and come with it to your Creator. I have come with the gift the man's making. I want to make the man. The man is not made by Me and that is why he cannot be with Me and with those from heaven, which give life. This kind of comforting I can give you, man: your making. Amen. There is no infant that his body and spirit do not hurt him, when he is born of his mother. Like his mother, the baby is hurt when he is born, because sometimes he even cannot cry anymore, and after he is born, the pain stops immediately and the joy and peace begins.

The man's making hurts Me and I cannot make him for he flees from the pains of childbirth and he does not want to be born and he forgets the day of his making and does not come with it to Me to give it to Me, and then to make him. The pain of My coming is without limits, for the man does not allow to be made for My coming, and «I come to gather together all the nations, and I will separate one from another as the shepherds separate the sheep from the goats, and I will put the sheep to My right and the goats to My left», as I said two thousand years ago about My coming.

I want to make the man. I want to put the one I made to My right. Amen. Man, remember the day of your making and come with it to your Creator, so that I may put you on My right in the day of the new making of the world. One hour and I will bring this mystery on earth, the mystery of incorruptibility, the new making of the world, when everything will be swallowed up by life forever and ever, when the righteous will go to eternal life and the sinful to eternal condemnation. Amen.

Man, you forsake God for your body. If you do this, you will lose your body and will take in into the eternal fire. Give Me your body to redeem it from the sin and from fire and to give it back to you forever, and to be able to go with it into the eternal happiness. This fire has burned you completely. Give Me your body to save it from its fire and to make it again after the heavenly model and to give you back new, newly made, and to have it forever for you eternal life, for the comfort with which I will comfort those who will be found after My image and likeness at My coming for the redemption of their bodies, for the new making of the world, which is to come. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of remembrance of Adam's expulsion from Paradise

Son, write down My word for it is expensive, well children. Soon, soon, it will be sought after by all the nations of the earth, which will run to Me, soon, soon, sons. That is why I and you work to have pavilions and to have meeting tabernacles. I said this ahead of time. I prophesied by this work of word that we would have meeting tabernacles and gardens for them, but I have had not one to work with by this time to fulfill the word of My book of today, a book which is not made by hand, and which I have been writing with you during these days. I have needed a people to speak with, a people to hear My words of the book and to put them down on paper and little by little to make out the book, which is written inside and outside; the book that I keep into My mouth and into My hand and which is from Father. He has given it to Me to put it down on earth, to lay it down on the throne, to judge every nation of the earth, for it is written into the Scriptures. Amen.

Let the man, who call himself wise and theologian, look into the Scriptures, and let him look well and then come to you and ask you so that he may know how to look for this book into the Scriptures, in which you are written down, for you and I speak by this book and this is how I give it to the man on the earth, and it is the way of My coming after two thousand years ago. It is in vain that the man, who calls himself theologian, put an extended time into the way of My coming, so that the man may not believe into My coming. I came down as it was written into John's book, as it was written into the book of My prophets from the Scriptures. Behold, the lack of wisdom makes the man be deceived by man; it makes the man unfaithful and sinful until My coming, for the man does not give up sinning, and My coming is at the threshold. Let the man open the Scripture to see well in it My word, which says: «Watch for you do not know the day or the hour in which the Bridegroom and His wedding come». Amen.

Write sons, who hear My word, write the book of My word, for it is expensive and more and more expensive, and it will be sought after like the most precious gold. Moses wrote down all My words, and his people said this: «We will listen and do all the words that the Lord had spoken». Amen.

Here is what I tell you: be refreshed! I look at you for you have pain in your little hearts. My work with you is hard. Your work with the people is hard. The work done by the hand is even harder, but My angels stay close to you and breathe powers from Me in you to be able to do. Amen.

And I tell you: be refreshed! Your pains are My pains. Everything that hurts you hurts Me as well, and there is no one to know how to comfort you and to know how to stay near you under My burden on you.

Oh, My little ones, My work with you is really hard. The time of the man presses on upon My coming to choke it, but I have you and force My way and come to bring together all who come to the spring, and I take from this spring and share. Let the man open the Scripture and see what is written on it about this spring which flows from the throne of God; the Word that waters the earth. Let the man read My word of two thousand years ago, as it is said in it this: «Watch, for you do not know the day or the hour when the Son of man, the Bridegroom of the wedding is coming». Blessed is the man, whose Bridegroom I am, for that one waits for Me this way, for the joy of the wedding is great, and the love between the Bridegroom and the bride is the greatest joy of the soul. If the man had Me as Bridegroom, he would wait for Me to come and bring the joy of the everlasting wedding, and the delight of My eternal good things with it. But the man does not know Who I am, for My light is put under a bushel, as it is written into My book of two thousand years ago: «The sun and the moon will grow dark and will no longer give forth their light, and the stars will fall down from the heaven and the powers of the heavens will be shaken». Those, who established sun and moon<sup>150</sup> upon the people, do not give the light forth upon the people, because I am the light and not they. Oh, the man do not know Who God is, for the light is put under a bushel; it is put under the garment, and My garment has turned into a lie because of the lying man who takes on My garment, (Of the shepherd, r.n.), a light that does not keep light. The man walks in this darkness and does no longer see the way, poor of him. How could I have not come now when the man does not give more than a light which cannot keep the light? If this was written into My Scriptures, this was what I did. I came and I found written that I should come, and this is what I found written: «There will arise false christs and try, if possible, to deceive the very elect that wait for Me to come. And soon after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven and the powers of the heaven shall be shaken: and then shall appear the sign of the Son of man, and all the nations of the earth will cry and see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and much glory; and he will send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet and they will gather His elect from the four winds, from one end of the heaven to the other». Amen. This is what I said by the Scriptures two thousand years ago: «Learn from the fig tree. When its branch is yet tender and gives forth leaves, you know that the summer is nigh. Likewise you, when you shall see these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. Watch and be ready, is such an hour as you think not, the Son of man comes». Amen.

I read the Scriptures together with the man, for it is the hour when the man does no longer thing, does no longer read; he does no longer hear My coming and My Gospel, and when the false man, dressed in My garment, says: „No one knows when the Lord's coming is; the angels do not know either, nor the Son, how the man then shall know it!” And when the man hears this, he does no longer think at My coming. Only that I said then: «The Lord is coming when you do not even think of it», and this is what I said about My work of today: «When the branch of the fig tree is tender and gives forth its leaves the summer is nigh, right at the doors. Learn from the fig tree this parable». Amen.

Who is the fig tree? I am, and the fig tree on the earth is without fruit. I am the tender fig tree, for the time of its tenderness has come and he gave forth its springs and the summer is nigh. I established a new priesthood, and I made everything new. I made new buds as the fig tree on the earth (The world church, r.n.) is dry and I do not find food in it for Me. The man do no longer see the way, for there no more priests of Mine to show the man My coming and My watching for it.

<sup>150</sup> Regarding the significance of the sun, moon and stars, see Genesis: 37/9-10. Today: the sun is head of the church - the Patriarch (or Pope of Rome for Catholics), moon, those dealing with domestic issues, community - that priests and our brothers are stars falling (spades) from the kingdom of heaven, r.n.

The priest took the man's thinking about My coming, for he does not look for My coming; he seeks the money, poor of him, and seeks that the man may not think of My watch for My coming. If the man had mind, he would think about Me, but he has no longer a mind for Me.

I made everything new. I made new buds as the fig tree on the earth is dry and only brushwood comes out of it. When Peter laid his hand upon the baptized, they received the Holy Spirit, and Simon, who was a sorcerer, brought money so that he might also receive the power by the laying of his hands. In addition, Peter spoke to him this: «May your money perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God. Repent therefore of this, your wickedness, and ask God if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven».

Here is why I said that the man's church is a store on which is written „God”, where God and His gift are bought from, as man thinks, as he is taught to seek God's gift. For two thousand years this lie with a church appearance has been selling ranks and degrees of priests to those who want to buy. This is what those who call themselves priests of Christ are; this is how do they become priests, and I say to them: let their money be for their own perishing, for they thought that God's gift is bought with the money. They have no inheritance at My calling. Amen.

Those who became sun and moon over the people of the earth, do not give light upon the people because I am the Light and not they, and they put the light under the bushel, under their garment which takes after My garment, and say that they can sell the light, but their light is no good to keep light, as the life is the light of the people. The people have no light, for no one gives it to them; no one teaches them what life is, the life without death, the life without sin. No one is on the earth to teach the man to come back into heaven; to come back to the life without death. It is only I Who am without death and it is only I Who can teach the man, for the Teacher is only he who is first to do what he teaches the man to do. That is why I made everything new, for the fig tree on the earth is dry, and the sun and the moon became black as sackcloth made of hair and like blood, and the stars of the sky fall, the Christians fall from the sky, they fall from God, as there is none to give the light so that they may not fall. The priests became as sackcloth of hair and their servants became dirty of blood and are full of violence, and I do not hear them, for it is written in the Scriptures of the prophets about these: «When you lift up your hands to Me, I turn My eyes away from you and when you multiply your prayers I will not listen to them, for your hands are dirty of blood, and your feasts became a burden for Me».

But I come out like a merciful Shepherd into the way of the sheep without a shepherd, and call them to the spring and say: come to the resurrection! Come and take the light! Amen. Come to those that I established to share Me to you! I gave to these My light to give it forward to you. They took from the man neither the gift nor the light. I gave to these; I gave them so that they may give without taking a reward on God. Come and take My light from them, as I made everything new, as the fig tree on the earth is dry and cannot give fruit but only brushwood, bruises and wounds, for the brushwood scratches. Those who became apostles are from the world and became apostles for the money, and they skin the infirm sheep and suck their fatness and milk. But I will feed these on wormwood, because this is what I prophesied for them among the prophets: «I will feed them on wormwood, as from them the unbelief spread everywhere».

Those who work out over the man the laying on of the hands do not have the Holy Spirit. They have money not the Holy Spirit. They want money, and the Holy Spirit is not given on money by those who pretend that they have Him and that they give Him. And if they have Him, how comes that those whom they give Him do not have Him? Why did they not show up being baptized, those who are baptized by those who baptized paying the money? My apostles were saying to those who were baptized: «Receive the Holy Spirit!», and those who were baptized were receiving, and it was seen that they received Him. And the one, who did not received Him, seeing how those, who were baptized by the laying on of the apostle's hands, were receiving the Holy Spirit, came to the apostles with money and asked them to give him this power as well, so that on whoever he might lay his hands on to receive the Holy Spirit. But Peter told him and said: «May your money perish with you, for the gift of God is not obtained with money, and you have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God».

Oh, how shall I not come into the man's way to be his Shepherd? How shall I not call to the light the one who is in darkness and who does not know what light is? I have mercy on man; I have had mercy on him for seven thousand years. Since the man died I have had mercy. I am extremely compassionate to the one who dies. Oh, who shall give life to the one who dies? Who shall give him on earth? Life is not earned on money. Life is the Holy Spirit. Amen, amen, amen. The Holy Spirit is a life giving spirit. It would have been so good if the man listened to My exhortation! The man would have not died if he remained under My burden, which gave him life. My exhortation was the Holy Spirit, Who told the man not to die. My exhortation is the food by which the man grows for My advice, which gives life. I made the man and then I gave him of My life and I gave him life without death and I made him to rule over everything that I made for him, to know them, to name them and to rule over them. However, he was not contended and was not humbled, but rather he became conceited and tried to be over Me, above My being, and he wanted to be God, and he wanted to know like God, the good and the evil, which were under My authority. I gave the man to know life and that is all. I did not give him to know the good and the evil, not life and death, but only obedience for eternal life. Life is one thing, that is the good, and the eternal life is another thing, in which the man was until his haughtiness, and after he became haughty, the man shook the heaven and the earth, for he became heavier than them, because he was to be God, because he wanted to know the good and the evil like God, which were under My authority. I put them under key; I put the good and the evil under the word but here is how quickly the man has spoiled My word, the key that keeps the man in heaven, into the dwellings of the heaven!

Oh, it would have been so good for the man to listen to My advice! It is the Holy Spirit giving of life. What shall I do to prevent the man from the dark way, from the day of his darkness? The man who does not listen to My advice becomes his own darkness; he becomes a day of darkness and gloom for himself, a tie in which he sees the evil that is good in order to do it. How shall I prevent him from his destruction, from his dark way?

What shall I do with you man? What shall I really do with you to bring you to a day with light? What shall I really do to you, to hear My calling, your calling to Me? Am I the Man with the life giving spirit? After you had neglected the eternal life and after you had multiplied this sin in your offspring, I made the man again, the Man with eternal life; I made him out of Me and I had never made him of the dust. I, Myself, became Man, a Man made of God; I made him of Me and I did not make him of the dust. I, Myself, became Man, a Man made of God; of God and of man so that I might come after the man, to be able to come to you, man, and I became light over the darkness, so that you could see the way to your Creator, from Whom you had the life of your soul and body. However, I could not get in to your heart with the mystery of the eternal life, for it was out of you, man, that My adversary was born of, the antichrist, the one who has worked out the mystery of the lawlessness and put it between Me and man, between Me and you, man created of the dust by My hand.

Now I stretch out again My hand after you and after your sons, but behold, the man of the lawlessness was born of you and his sons are his subjects, the man who got under My robe to turn it into falsehood. However, I will expose him and I take him out from under this robe and redeem those that are My holy things and I want to teach you the way to the Holy of Holies, wandering man, and I come from heaven to you to make you into the Holy of My Holies, and to come into it through the door. Amen.

Wretched man, I want you to know that I am your Master and Shepherd and your eternal life. You and your sons have pulled yourselves from the eternal life even from your very beginning. But I am the One without beginning and I have come after you to give you a beginning for you to remain in it and I to be your beginning, the beginning without end, for I had compassion on you when you slipped away from life, falling from the Garden of Eden, and I have had compassion on you since I remained without you. I was glad for a while after I made you. I was glad since I gave you a spirit of life and until you died by your haughtiness, until the moment of your conceitedness. Then I took you easy because fear entered you. But you hid for you were afraid. However I was there and I called you to stand before Me and you were sneaking away. Why, did you really sneak? Why, really? Oh, why did you not humble? Why, did you really not humble, man? You need nothing in order to humble, nothing but repentance before Me, for you knew that I was your Creator. But you did not humble but rather judged Me. You judged Me for the woman that I gave you to help you in your work and keep the paradise. I made you male and female, when I created you, and then I called you “man”, but you came apart in two and were no longer one body and by so doing you sinned<sup>151</sup>. Of one you made two, after you became conceited against Me, and where there are two, there is no longer one, there is no longer one flesh but two, and I lost you for you had died. I was glad only for a while after I created you and then you died. I told you not do die and you did not listen to Me and died. I have been crying for your death for seven thousand years and I have been crying for at your death, for your sons die like you. I have been crying after you for seven thousand years, man. You cry after you dead one day or one month or one year, but I have been crying after you for seven thousand years.

I have come with My advice for the man to hear it and to turn it into Holy Spirit on him.

What shall I do with you, man? What shall I really do to you to hear My advice, My calling, your calling to Me? Oh, until when do you hide from My voice, which is calling you? I want to make you into the Holy of My Holies. Do you hear what I want? There have passed away seven ages the Scriptures writes about. Do you hear what I say? I, the Lord, will make you hear. I will feed you on wormwood and I will give you of the bread of anxiety to seek Me and to call Me to give you life, man. I will remove the death from earth and you will look for Me to give you life. I will remove all your death from the earth and I will make it come down into the dust burning it with fire. I will remove from the earth everything your soul has killed, everything you have done by your mind and hand to the death of your soul and to My death in you. You have become conceited and cannot humble, but it is written: «I can do what is impossible to you». I will humble you, man, and you will see that you are not God, that you cannot be God. You have become conceited and cannot humble, but I can humble you. How comes that you have become conceited? That is, you have not done as I told you. This means to become conceited and that you have stood up to be God. You have been rising to be God for seven thousand years, but you are not God, for you die. If you were God, you would not die. You have become conceited for seven thousand years and you have no longer humbled, and you pass from one generation to another as you are. But now, give it up. Now, man humble before seeing Me. I want to make you into the Holy of My Holies. Do you hear what I want? I, the Lord, will make you hear Me. Amen. What is impossible with man is possible with God, and I, the Lord, will make you hear Me. Amen, amen, amen.

My word is precious, sons who hear My word. Soon, soon, it will be sought after as the most precious gold by all the nations of the earth. The earth that you stay on, the earth that I give you to have dominion on, will remain like a ship, and I will glorify Myself on it before the entire earth. Amen. I am My book with you and the place on which you stay is the throne of My book. I have missed very much to take it from the hand of the Father and to put it on the earth, on its throne, and to judge with it every nation on the earth. Let the man, who calls himself intelligent and theologian, look into the Scriptures; let him look well into this book in which I write Myself with you on earth, for you and I speak through this book as I was speaking with the prophets by the book of the prophecy of their time. I speak with you in it and I give it to the man on the earth to receive Holy Spirit from it and the man to see My coming after two thousand years, for the man does not give up sinning for he does not know where I am with My coming, and the shepherds over them have extended the time of My coming. However, I have come and I come, and I say to everybody: watch, for here is the day of My coming and its book, which judges the creature! Learn the parable from the fig tree. Its branch has become tender and the summer is near. Watch and be ready, for I will come in the hour when you do not even think about.

And I have come. And I come like a Bridegroom or like a Judge, as I will find every man in that hour. Amen, amen, amen.

The first Sunday of the Lent, of the orthodoxy

I knock and it is opened for Me and I come in. I come in as the word in the book. Amen, amen, amen. My book with you is the door through which I come in to the man. I am the book. I am the door. I am all and everything that are. Amen.

I am the gate of the sheep. The sheep have got a little shepherd; they have got a shepherd. He takes them out to pasture and then he takes them back into the fold; he drives them to water; he protects them from thieves; he sings to the sheep and the sheep graze and if they graze they reward their shepherd and give him milk and lambs because the shepherd gives them pasture and he gives them life; he gives them his life. Amen.

Oh, children sons, who put My word into the book! If I give pasture to the sheep, then honey and milk must flow from them for Me and for them, for this blessing I pronounced for Israel, for My people that I pasture, for the one who has to give birth to lambs for Me and to grow them for Me with My pasture, with their heavenly honey and milk.

Oh, My people of today! You do not need heavenly gifts to be for Me, to be able to do what I ask from you. You need dedication; this is what you need, for I am the gift. The Father gave Me to the man, only for the man to devote himself, only for the man to want to come out of himself and to give himself over to Me, for I also give Myself over to him. You should not say that you are not good at it, that you cannot or that you do not know; you should not say so, child of My pasture. If you devote yourself, then you have. Only the one, who does not devote oneself, does not have, and the one, who devotes oneself, has what I have, for I am the gift to the one who gives himself to Me and I have in him the things of My gift. Amen.

All those who gave themselves over to Me are those who have honey, milk and lambs for this food, for woe to the barren sheep, for they do not give any milk. However, the man does not know what his devotion and gift mean. The one who has no gifts does not know what devotion is and he does not devote himself, and that is why he has nothing to offer, he has nothing to work at. I have been the Light from the Light and this is what the man should also be. The one who gives himself over to Me receives the light from My light and he becomes light with it, and the light is seen because it is according to its fruit, because where it is seen, the people come together to walk in the light, in a walking with the light, for the darkness is not useful to walking.

It is written in the Scriptures about «the city of the New Jerusalem, which has no need for the sun, neither of the moon, to shine, for the very glory of God illuminates it, and its lamp is the Lamb; and the nations will walk in its light and the kings of the earth bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it, and there will be no night there. Nothing profane or one who causes abomination or a lie will in no way enter into it, but only those that are written in the Lamb's book of life». Amen.

Oh, My people that walks in My light! You do not need heavenly gifts to be for Me so that you may be able to do what I ask you. You need commitment. This is what you need, as I am the gift, as it is written: «its lamp is the Lamb, and the nations will walk in its light». The one, who commits himself to Me, gives light around and he warms up around and can do everything by Me, for I am the gift in him. If this fruit does not come out of him, he did not commit himself and did not receive to have in order to give and to be. They, who are written into the Book of the Lamb's Life, are those that knew how to give themselves over to have Me as a gift around them, as the light around them.

I come as a word in My book to teach every man what a commitment is and what the gift for it is, for too much falsehood lies hidden under the name of the Lord's people, under the name of the church. The church is a holy name. The holy citadel means church. It has no need of the sun of the moon<sup>152</sup> to shine, for its lamp is the Lamb, and the very glory of God illuminates it. Amen. The church<sup>153</sup> is the man, who consecrates himself, and its light is the Lord, and the light shines in the darkness as it is written. The light is the word and the life is in it, and the life is the light of the people. He that does not become a word does not become the light around. The church is the man who illuminates around with its lamp in it, and its lamp is Christ. He, who gives himself over to Me, has light in him and illuminates with it around. Amen.

The man does not need any gifts. He needs devotion, and the one who is devoted works with those of Mine, as I worked. But what is devotion? What is it good for and what it brings to the man? It is the life full of humility and the love from heaven within the man, for it is not the love that makes humility, but humility makes love instead. The devotion takes the self-love out of the man and it brings the gift of humility to the man and this puts the man in the love, which does not seek for its own things, but rather for Christ's things, in order to give them all around. Devotion brings to the man the gift of humility, which makes the man beautiful and which protects the man from any evil in him and around him.

Child, grown with milk and honey, ask yourself, ask yourself if you are beautiful by this gift, which makes you into light, warmth, milk and honey around. Ask yourself if you are small so that any one may take you in his arms. Ask yourself if you are big enough to support those that learn to walk. Ask yourself if you are of any use to God with your spirit, soul and body. Ask yourself if you are content, for the true satisfaction is known only by the one who has the gift of humility, the gift which makes the man to devote himself and to know those that are required to be done.

Ask yourself if you are beautiful, the child of the love of My word; beautiful for God and for those around you. And if you are not, do not worry but rather humble to be able to work by humility and consecrate yourself. Amen. Devotion brings with it the gift of humility, which makes the man to be pleased to Me and to those around him. There is no humility without devotion. And there is no devotion without humility. It is not the love, which produces humility, but humility produces love instead. Otherwise love gives oneself self-aggrandizement and it is not useful to the man, and also not to those around him.

Love is consecration; it is a free sacrifice. It does not ask for its pay, and that is love. Behold what consecration makes and what gifts it brings with it to the man. But if the man does not have a shepherd to pasture him, he does not know how to eat and what to eat and why to eat. He who eats has to give birth and then to grow up the small ones, those who are born. And he, who does not grow up those that are born, that one has not grown yet and is not useful to God.

He, who loves, has to sacrifice himself, for love is free, as the reward is the fruit of the heaven for it. Amen. The faithful man is the devoted man, who does no longer love himself and who does no longer seek for his own things, for he is devoted and he does no longer belong to himself. Amen.

Children sons, why does God make the man when He makes him? Is it really good for the man made by Me to make use of his own making? Why do I make the man, if I make him? You should tell Me this work for I want to see if you know the way I know and if you are made by Me, sons. Amen.

— As the man sets himself to do one thing and to use it afterwards, the same is with God when He makes the man; He makes him in order to use him and He makes the man to consecrate himself to Him. If the man is of some use to himself or to the man around him and that is all, than that one is not a man made by God. If the man wastes his life in those that are not for heaven and from heaven, that one does not have God's image and likeness. The one made by God has God's image and likeness. This is the sign of the man made by God. Amen.

<sup>152</sup> Regarding the significance of the sun, moon and stars, see Genesis: 37/9-10. Today: the sun is head of the church - the Patriarch (or Pope of Rome for Catholics), moon, those dealing with domestic issues, community - that priests and our brothers are stars falling (spades) from the kingdom of heaven, r.n.

If the man made by God cannot put God and the holiness for God into another man, let that one seek in his inner being and see where his weakness comes from and let him ask the Holy Spirit from God and then to receive Him, and to work with Him to his own humility, and Christ as his life, and work, for the one who is not useful to God, even if he gave his body to be burned, it would not be of any good. Amen.

— I, the Lord, also say amen, for you, those who speak with Me at My will, are useful to Me, sons. Amen.

Oh, how comes that the man made by Me during these days cannot do it? I have come on the earth with My word, which can make the man. I can everything. How comes that the man, whom I make to be able to do like Me, cannot? Can I not really make the man that the created man cannot? My word is creative. Everything was done by the word, and I am the Word, for it is written: «In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God, and the Word was God, and all things were made through Him».

The man is afraid of God after he does evil and then he hides. The evil from the man teaches the man to hide. Behold, this fear is not the one, which I told the man to have. I told the man to have Me as God and to have the fear to do evil. This fear I told the man to have, the fear, which gives him wisdom and not falling, and then fear of God because of his fall. The fear caused by his fall makes the man flee from God. Behold, his dedication helps the man to be. Let the man devote himself to God, and let God be the gift of the man, the gift, which can do everything in all and in everything. Amen.

Oh, children of the new people, you should not look how to stay with the man. Rather seek how to stay with Me, sons. Seek sons to be children-sons, sons. You do not need the heavenly gifts to be useful to Me, so that you may be like Me and to work what I want. You need dedication, sons. You should not seek to get on the good side with the man that put by Me between you and Me. The one, who is put between Me and you, takes from Me, both sight and justice and works with them between Me and you. Seek to be My pleasant ones and in this way to become pleasant to those who are put by Me between you and Me. Oh, you should not seek to get in with the man from Me. This will not bring any rest to your souls. The man made by God does not work this way. Be cautious for your affair from Me. My word that I give you through those in the garden has power in it to make the man and the man to be good for Me afterwards. Seek to help and make glad those that are from Me near you. Make them glad with your making from Me. I have always brought the word of man's creation. Allow yourselves to be always made. Allow yourselves to be made well and give yourselves to the making. Let those of the body and those of your spirit be shown with the word in you, which comes from your mouth, for otherwise it is not called that you stay at your making day and night. The spirit is the work of your mind. It can see by the word that you declare about the things in you. Amen.

Your dedication is the work, which makes you to give yourselves to Me for your making. The devotion that I ask from you is not the work done by your hand. It is not this what devotion means. Let no one say that he does not understand what I speak. My word is full of power. It has been teaching the man for such a long time. Now it asks for its fruits because its seed is the seed of the eternal life and this has to get out of the man on whom My word was sown. Amen. The man who says that he cannot is not justified by this word by which he says that he cannot and that he does not know. He, who has commitment, is able to do everything. He, who does not loves himself, that one devotes oneself and can do everything by his devotion. It teaches the man about the gifts from above, which are useful to God.

For such a long time the love from churches has got used to love otherwise than I have expected from the man who believes in Me. The man loves his neighbor and makes him good, as little or as much as he can, and this is the power, which comes from the love in churches, and the man says to himself that he loves God and this means love of God. However, not even a little love comes to Me, for no one comes to work with Me the work that I have to establish on earth, and the man loves his neighbor and that is all. However, I said: «The man should love God with all his being, with his entire mind and with all his power», and after that I said «and his neighbor as well». This commandment is not accomplished in any way for God, for the man loves only those that are like him and he does not even love them, for to love it means to give eternal love to the man, if you have it first by your devotion to God, and it is only in this way that it can be said that the man knows to love his neighbor. Amen.

My word is the torch, which lights you, which warms you up, people of My word of today. You do not need sun or moon to give you light for your greatness gives you light and the Lamb is your torch. Amen. Show yourself to Me, so that I may see you, so that I may see your growth and to be able to tell you: «Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit». Amen.

The man does not know what fasting is, when he speaks about fasting, for if he knew, he would fast from every evil, which separates him from Me. He wants to come closer to me by his fasting from food but he cannot come to Me this way. Behold, the man does not know what light is and of which it is made to have light. I say: receive light from My creative word, oh, sons of the people! Receive your making from Me by this word, which has been flowing for such a long time on the earth for the man's creation. Give yourselves to God, the Creator, to make you. Amen. The time of renewal has come and a new man is needed for this time, for the Son of Man is coming; He is coming to set the table of His kingdom on earth with the sons of the people. The sons of the wedding do not come, for they alone became the sons of My wedding, and if I call them, they do not come to the wedding table.

Let all those without power come; let all those who are weak come; let them come and I to make them by My work of creation of the new man; let them come to make them, and let them inherit the everlasting life afterwards, for the sons of the kingdom went outside and there it is where they remained. And I have come and I come, and I strengthen those who are weak, and I make them into a holy nation and I spread My wedding table with them, and I sit with them at My table, at My wedding supper. Amen, amen, amen.

The third Sunday of the Lent, of the Holy Cross

Little children from the manger, make My entrance to you. Amen. My book with you is My comfort upon you; it is the word of My power upon all your weaknesses. I said through the prophets: «I give power to the faint and I give great power to the weak». I said: «I will strengthen the power to those that hope in Me; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk, and not faint». Amen.

Sons, children, have hope in My words and give power to each other and take care of you, sons. It is not only I that I should have. You too should have, for I need you to feed with My Holy Spirit the man on the earth, to whom the whisper of the Holy Spirit sticks, for I want that the man may not be careless of his sin, but I rather want him to get up and cry for forgiveness to see that he takes care of his soul so that I should also take care of him afterwards. I want to bring the eternity on the earth, but first I have to make the man give up all his wickedness, so that I may not undergo with him as I underwent with Israel, which was sinning in its inner being. I made its food and clothing not to be damaged, but it torn Me down in its inside, in the inner man. Oh, why, did it not really want to become incorruptible so I may have had it as My people forever?

Behold, sons, children, the man is slow in his understanding. It is difficult for the man to understand the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens. I told the man that the kingdom of the heavens is not visible; it does not come in a visible way. If it does not reign in the man, the man cannot see and touch it otherwise. All those that are from the heaven do not become visible, but they are made and are and become.

I want to have a holy people, and that each one may feed the other on holiness, the son of My people, and that My people may be healthy, for it is written into the prophets: «They who live in Zion will not say „I am sick”, for this people will gain the forgiveness of the sins, the everlasting joy will crown their head, the praise and joy will reach them, and the pain, groan and sorrow will flee from them».

I nourish you with hope, sons and children. Give power to the people from Me; give the Holy Spirit to Jerusalem, for Jerusalem means sons and daughters under the comforting of the Holy Spirit. The way is difficult but I am through the difficulties with you. The evil spirit is very upset with you but be careful and take care of you, so that I may have a way of My word upon the people. My word appeases My storm in the man and guides him in hard times, but I want to prevent the man from sinning in his inner being and to be the one who love Me; to be clean in his own body and have an undefiled soul by those that are outside, for I came with the kingdom of the heavens, so that the man may take it into his inside and then pour it outside. Amen.

The man who seeks to fulfill the kingdom of the heavens in him needs great wisdom. He does not have to start with those from his outside, but with those from his inside, so that he may have them over those of the ministry of everyday life. Oh, I have no counselors on the earth to guide the people. I need a man with wisdom for the kingdom of the heavens, who is God's holiness and love and God's live in the inner being of the man. I have so much work at the building of the kingdom of the heavens and there is no man handled with his own self and with those that are attached to him, for the man is a slave to those that he has acquired in his life. Many will try to run after this happiness which I placed you in, but they will be watched out and chased so that they may not flee. I said into My book with you that a hunt of Christians will come and here it is, sons. When the Christians yearning for heaven and happiness want to come after My word, are stopped by their shepherds; they are threatened and hunted back as it had happened with many who came up to Me and then went back where they came from. But to him that is a Christian after the truth, I bring the way under his feet and he walks in it and no one can pull him out of it, for those on it do not pull anyone back.

Behold, the counselors of the people do not let the people come for this happiness in which I established you. However, I tell you a great mystery today: the Holy Spirit will become sweet in My word, sweeter and with more longing with every passing day, and it will warm up every cold heart and it will fill the soul of the man with My happiness, with the word of My happiness, which calls the man to Me. It is hard on the earth and it is only pain, but I will become greater and greater calling the man to Me to give him comfort and to give him power to be able to do with Me and for Me and for his mysterious happiness, that the man will never find it anywhere but only with Me. Amen.

Children sons, I give you power, for you have gone weak in your body and soul; however, you shall not be weak in your spirit, for I have always been with you and enabled you to do. I heal you of your weaknesses, for it is written: «I give power to the weak», for the strong ones do not come to Me and do not stay with Me, for they keep themselves for their own things and the strong ones cannot give themselves to Me. Take care of your bodies for they are My temples and the Holy Spirit's. Take care of you, children sons, for I also take care of you. And take care of My entire Jerusalem that I consecrated by My word and body for the forgiveness of the sins. Amen. Strengthen yourselves completely, so that I may come through you and to bring the man to life breathing My word over him.

I lay health on you in everything. Receive so that you may have, children sons. Receive, for I am the life in you but work and give power to Jerusalem, for Jerusalem means sons and daughters, new heavens for My coming on the clouds, as it is written about My coming. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the holy forty martyrs from Sebaste

My angel sounds the trumpet of My coming and I, the Lord, prepare My retinue of saints and angels and I make My entrance into My book on the earth, because it is a feast of testifying angels and I take them with Me to the manger of My word in the midst of Romania. Amen.

Rejoice with Me, saints of the holy heaven! The days of My wedding are the reward that I give you for the love that you have given to Me, while testifying about Me as true God in heaven and on earth. The days of My wedding are My coming on earth with the saints for, this is what is written about My coming: «The Lord is coming with tens of thousands of saints». Amen, amen, amen.

I adorn My coming with a wedding garment and I will spend the wedding with you, little children who receive My word and who receive My coming. I have dressed you with a wedding garment and I have put you at a wedding table, so that the people on the earth may hear and see the days of the heavenly wedding and to be transformed from a fleshly nature into a spiritual one, as you have also become at My calling, at the news of My coming after two thousand years.

My kingdom does not come in a visible way, as the simple man imagines. It makes its nest into the inner being of the man and the man finds it in his inside and takes from it rejoicing and does not know where his joy is coming from. The joy does not come from the heaven. It comes from the inner being which has the kingdom of the heavens in it. The joy is the kingdom of the heavens that rejoices in the man and other kind of joy of the man's heart is an emptiness which comes to an end.

Oh, how comes that the man does not want to taste the joy of the kingdom of the heavens and to remain in it afterwards? Oh, how shall I make the man know My mystery in the man: the kingdom of the heavens?

Nothing is eternal from what you love, wondering man. Take and taste from the eternal age and see its sweetness and its sweet mystery, and then come to be, for to be is a great mystery, a sweet mystery, man. Oh, who shall teach you; who shall caress you with those that are to feel their taste and their eternity? There is no one to teach you these things except Me. Take and drink of this well, you tired man. You are hungry, thirsty, naked, dumb, deaf, blind, lame, and you are powerless and lifeless. Take from Me to be, man. I want to caress you by creating your being, for otherwise you do not stay to be created so that you may be. I want you to be, man, as I am. If two thousand years ago I paid your life with My life to have it into My hand and to be able to give it to you, here I am, coming as I told at that time that I would come to give life to the people and resurrection to the dead. Amen.

The dead from the graves judge you, man from the earth, as it came the time for them to hear My voice upon you, the gospel of the resurrection, man, the gospel of the resurrection of those on the earth and of those from the graves that wait My secret coming, My mysterious kingdom in the man, the revealing of God's sons who wear in them the kingdom of the heavens, full of mystery.

But, what is the kingdom of the heavens? Behold, it is the inner being, the man who let to be created after My image and My likeness to be, then, as I am. It is the man who is being perfected by perfecting My being into him. It is the heaven which I stay with the man in, speaking the everlasting things to one another, the things that are. Here is the kingdom of the heavens. It is My complete will in the man, as in heaven so on earth. It is the place of My rest, in which the man always makes clean for Me, for My dwelling in it, for My everlasting celebration with the man.

I have such a great pain; I suffer for the man and the man hurts Me. The man does not have a counselor and it hurts Me that he has not. There is no one to help the man towards Me and it hurts Me that he has not. If the man looked at those that are and not at those that perish, he would see Me in everything that I made and make and he would be comforted in his hard way and he would discover Me in the mystery within him, waiting for him patiently. I dwell in a great mystery inside the man waiting for him patiently to come back and to get up in the house of his soul to clean it and to wake up My rest in his house.

When I gave the paradise to the man, I gave it to him to work and to dress it and I commanded him saying: «Of every tree in the garden you may freely eat: but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat of it: for in the day that you eat of it you will surely die». However, the man did not keep this mystery of the heaven. This was what he had to work and dress: to eat and not to eat. When I said: «Of every tree of the garden you may eat», this was the work that I gave him to do. And when I said: «but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat», this was the work that I gave him to dress. I set him in the mystery of the heaven but he did not work it and he did not dress it.

Now, after seven thousand years, I have come again and said to the man as then, and I have suffered a great pain for the man. I suffer for the man and he does not know how this comes. I have been waiting for seven thousand years with a great mystery inside the man. I have been waiting for him in his house and I have been waiting for him and I suffer for him, and he is My sufferance. The man hurts Me and he does not know what he has been doing to Me; he does not know how much I suffer for him. He has always been eating of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil and the death in him has been hurting Me. Oh, how shall I make the man understand My sufferance in him? How shall I make the man confess Me and I to get up in him for My rest? The man is troubled by the work of eating of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. But to eat of the trees of the paradise of which I told him to eat and to be, oh, the man does not do this work and he does not keep it that he may not eat of those from which I have prevented him. He stops only when I stop him. He does not stop earlier to work and to dress the paradise as I commanded him.

You need love, wondering man, forgetful man. The prophecy, the gift of the tongues and knowledge will soon come to an end, for they are fragments, and it comes what is perfected, and it remains, and then you will fully know. When you are fully known, then you will fully know, for all will perish, and these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of all is love. Amen, amen, amen.

You need love, man; My love, which waits in your inner being, and that is why I tell you that it hurts Me and that the man hurts Me. The man is hard on Me. My being in the man is under the burden of the man's conscience, which makes him haughty. But behold, the conscience does not build the man, but rather it makes him haughty, and his haughtiness is My pain in man.

You need love, man. It builds; it builds you; it builds Me in you and it takes Me out of the man within you. Stop eating of the fruit of the knowledge of good and evil! It is the fruit of death. Stop! Amen. And come back in you and you will find Me waiting for you to come into your being and to build in love. Amen. My kingdom has been waiting in you for seven thousand years. It does not come from heaven in a visible way. It comes from the inner part of your heart, which has My kingdom in it. The joy is the kingdom of the heavens, which rejoices in the man and other joy of the man's heart is emptiness, which perishes.

Man, you need love. I want to caress you working at your being, at your inner man. I want you to be, man, for the kingdom of the heavens is the inner man, who lets himself to be made in My image and after My likeness, so that he may be then as I am.

Behold the kingdom of the heavens! It is My complete will in the man, as in heaven so on earth. Amen. Love is that what builds the man in his inner being. It has all the trees in the paradise that the man should eat from in order for the man to be. Then these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love, My love in the man, My love which waits in the inner being of the man to build in him the kingdom of the incorruptibility, the mystery of the man's resurrection. Amen.

And behold, the word of the resurrection comes true, My word from two thousand years by which I said: «The hour comes, and now is, when the dead will hear the Son of God's voice and those who hear will rise», and they will testify about My coming and about the news of the resurrection.

The feast of the Annunciation

I come down to you with a feast of annunciation, good messenger children on My behalf on earth, for those who give good news about Me on earth, are beautiful with Me. I do not want to treat someone hard and with beating in order to make him listen to My last calling and I want to come to him with good news and to make him love Me, because love is the man's healing. It is the medicine which still can make the man healthy. I want to make the man love Me and to give himself to Me as a house and then to say like David: «My heart longs and even faints for the house of the Lord, for the courts of the Lord». Amen.

I have always come to you as the good annunciation on earth to give power to the man to love Me and to become a house for Me. Amen. I sent My angel to the Virgin, who was to bring Me into the world and I asked her to become a house for Me. She loved Me for she found that I was prophesied by the prophets, and she was waiting for Me to appear as it was written, and I asked her to be My house. When she found out from the angel that the Holy Spirit would bring Me from the Father into her house to come into being in her and out of her, then she understood well and wanted to be a dwelling for Me and said: «Behold, the handmaid of the Lord!» The greatest virtue of her heart was her full virginity and this is how her heart has remained forever, and she has become My everlastingness, My abode forever. Amen.

The virginity virtue is kept by much love of God into the man's heart. My living inside the man becomes food, a table always spread for the man's heart. Why is this table cleared, if it is cleared? For the man to be busy with something else besides this table as well. However, the one, who wants to remain forever in Me and I in him, does not clear My table with him, and he always remains with Me at an endless table and in an unshakable virginity forever, sons.

The love of God in the man's heart is the medicine, which makes the man healthy from any weakness he may have, from any enemy outside and inside the man. Oh, if the man knew how to come to Me when he tries to come, his coming to Me would be a great miracle. The one, who knows to come to Me, knows to sacrifice with those inside and outside of him and he knows to become a house for Me. That one does not choose any other joy besides Me and becomes like Me, to My joy, and I am rejoicing over it.

Oh, I gave Myself to those in Emmaus with great joy after I had gone with them on the way! I saw them walking on the road with their love for Me in their soul and I came closer to them, pretending to be a fellow traveler and interpreting the things about Me, the things about My crucifixion and resurrection, and then I gave Myself to them becoming supper for them, a table forever set, an eternal supper between Me and them. And they, for My joy with them and theirs with Me, went with a burning heart to My apostles that were in Jerusalem to tell them. And while they were telling them, I stood before them and said: «Peace to you!» and I interpreted the Scriptures of My old prophets.

Since then I have become a spread out table, but the one who eats of My supper and then he clears it away only to eat of his supper and of My enemy's and his, that one is something else. That one has found out how I ate at the table with those who had burned after Me, with those who had known to give themselves to Me as a house. And if that one has found out, he also has taken from this supper, but I will call him into account because he has not remained for My supper. My supper with the man is the one in Emmaus, the bread that I have given to the man in whom My love burns, My being in man.

I want to give good news to the man to get ready for My supper, for My supper is eternal and it is not cleared between Me and man, if it is. It is for those who hunger for it, for those who are hungry for God, who become a house and supper for Me, for My living in man becomes food, a table forever spread out for the man's heart.

Oh, children, who receive the word of My good news for the man! The man pretends to be intelligent, great and well known within all his capacities. The world and the earth are full of the news, which come from the man, from the man's professions, but the man is not intelligent in respect to God's love. The man's greatest wisdom would be this: love of God, but the man does not choose it to fill the earth with it and with its gospel afterwards.

To whom shall I appear with My coming, as I appeared to My apostles, with My resurrection of two thousand years and with which I will appear soon, soon, to every creature, for its resurrection? While the celebration of My resurrection comes near, the man gets ready with something else for it; he gets ready with food, with drinking, with new clothes, with new carts, but not with resurrection. The feast of the resurrection has to be welcomed with resurrection, as My apostles of two thousand years ago did, for they stood close to Jerusalem, as I told them to stay and wait for the Holy Spirit, Who was to teach them and then to make them able to spread the news of My resurrection all over the earth and to remain with it over the ages by their preaching and by their good annunciation. Behold, now as then, I cannot appear with My resurrection and My coming but only to those who wait with My living in them, with My supper table between Me and them.

Oh, sons, who receive My coming, the man gets drunk with wine and with all the his drinks that he makes for his table, but he does not get drunk with God's love, as those who stayed with Me on the earth got drunk with My supper with them until My resurrection and after My resurrection.

Oh, the table of the resurrection is empty, sons. The table of the resurrection is something else than what the man has learned by taking from My table by himself. The man does not become My house. The man does not give himself to Me as house and supper. The man does not know what resurrection is, children sons. Resurrection is life without death; it is the love of God into the man's heart, My supper with the man, a table that is never cleared between Me and man. This means the resurrection and the supper of the resurrection, which I sat with My apostles at, after I was resurrected. I came to life by their resurrection, for they were resurrected when they were waiting for Me; they were waiting for Me with the Holy Spirit, Whom I promised to them. I resurrected them first, giving them My Body and Blood before My crucifixion, and after that I gave Myself as a sacrifice for them and only after that I was resurrected. I was resurrected by their resurrection. Amen.

Oh, if I do not have any man to settle down within Me, I cannot do My work prophesied through the prophets. If My mother, the Virgin, had not kept her great love for Me and for My house in her, how could I have made My coming among the people through her? The Love of God is the guard of the heart and it is the virginity of the heart, for virginity has to be protected by its love, and the love for it is the love of God in the heart of the man. The man should not only do My will and My word; not only this, but he must also be on fire with love, for the love is the fire which burns and is not put out. Only the fire that burns is not put out. In My mother, the Virgin, the fire of love was burning, and it was no longer put out, day and night, and I was living continually in her and by it she was protecting herself within the virginity of her heart, which gives virginity to the young body and keeps it in Me and for Me. He, who gives himself to Me as a house, needs to have Me in his house, but the Christian of today has no fear of God; he has no fear without God and stays without God and is not afraid to stay like this. However, I give the good news onto the man today and say: take care of you, man and take care of My dwelling in you and give yourself to Me so that I may see you, for there is no salvation without Me. The Christian has to settle down into My hands all the time by My order established between Me and man. With his good and bad things the Christian has to settle down into My working hands, and he has to do this all the time with love and longing and to receive from Me the blessing and remission from his weak things, for the Christian is not Christian otherwise and I do not know him otherwise and I cannot have him as My son otherwise and he is not Mine otherwise. However, the man's carelessness is great, and the man keeps his soul not given to Me all the time. Behold, the one, who does not know to give oneself to Me, does not do it. The one, who does not want to give oneself to Me, does not do it and he remains within him and does not come to Me, if he remains within himself. But I come soon, and I will no longer find anyone on earth, because I take the man from somebody's hand, if I take him at all. And if he does not give himself always to have him, he remains not taken, and here are the Scriptures, which say: «One will be taken and another will be left».

Oh, the man has no one to whom he may confess his life all the time, so that I may have where to take him from and to have him. I do not longer have confessors on earth to give the man to Me by their work of counselors. If the confessor is not spiritual day and night, he cannot be useful to Me or to the man.

Oh, how can I draw the man to Me and put him on the way? He is not on the way, but he is on the margins instead. I come soon, soon, and behold, I still do not have a way to save the man from all his evil things of old and today. There is no salvation without confession. There is not. How shall I do to help the man to come to Me and to lay down his burden? I do not longer have anointed ministers; I do no longer have them to serve Me and to serve the man who seeks the way. The way came to an end and the way of the man to Me also came to an end, for the false ministers stay in the way; they seem to be Mine by their appearance, but they are not Mine according to their inner man, in such a way that I may be able to do good to the man.

Let the man come to Me, and I will give him a confessor. Let the one who died stand aside from the way, but let the one, who comes to life from his life by this time, get up and come so that I may clean and seal and bless him, for I come soon, and the man is not known by Me and there is no one to give him to Me to have and to seal him. As far as forgiveness concerns, I would forgive the man by his repentance, which his repentance is enough high, but I have no one to seal him through, and therefore, I seal Myself in him by the seal of My resurrection, which I left over all who were consumed after Me, as the hearts of those, who I dined in Emmaus with, were burning.

Take care of you, man, of My being in you and give yourself to Me to see you well by your sight upon you and then to clean you of yourself and then to fill you up with Me and then to be in Me and I in you, for you cannot be in Me until I am in you. I come soon, soon, and you are not to be taken and not to be left, for when I come, I take for salvation the one, who has Me in him and My seal in him, and I do not take the one that does not have these. I leave him if he is not. I leave the one who does not want to be. But I want him to be and that is why I give him the good news of his resurrection through My death and resurrection and through My table of supper with him after the resurrection, as I did two thousand years with My disciples, whom I gave the supper of the resurrection, the eternal food, My table spread out forever. Amen.

Two thousand years ago, six days before the Passover, I went to Bethany, and I went down with a feast in that city and I sat at the table with Lazarus, the resurrected one, and Mary, full of My love in her, wet My feet with perfumed oil and wiped them with the hair of her head. The next day, many people that came to the feast in Jerusalem, hearing that I was also coming, welcomed Me with palm branches and praises, as the One, Who was coming in the name of the Lord, as the King of Israel, for the Holy Spirit came over them from Father to fulfill the Scriptures which say: «Out of the mouths of infants will come out praises for the Lord». And I told those who were asking about Me: «The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified, for now is the judgment of this world and its prince will be cast out». Amen.

Oh, children from the manger, who receive My word when it comes! Early in the morning tomorrow, I will come into the book again. Open for Me and stay open, sons. I am the King of Israel, and you are before My new people in order to give Me to them, and for them to receive Me and to have Me as their heavenly King. Amen. Let the love of My new people be like the most perfumed oil, to wash My wounds with it, as Mary washed My tired feet, which were taking Me to sacrifice and to the resurrection after the sacrifice.

Oh, to whom shall I appear with My coming of nowadays, as I appeared two thousand years ago to My apostles with My resurrection of that time? When I come into view, the people will see Me resurrected, for I also am after the resurrection, and I am the One Who is resurrected and Who gives resurrection to the man. I want to find the man when I come, for I come soon, soon. I want to find the man to My table, which is never taken away; to find him sealed by My seal inside and outside of him, to know him and to take him for his salvation, and not to leave him unknown as the one who is not.

Blessed are those who will be found written into My book, in the book of the resurrection, in which all who are resurrected are written, for I am in them, and they are in Me, and this is how the sons of the resurrection are. Amen.

I confirm over you a great blessing, holy powers and an angelic work for your work of preparation of My days with you into the midst of the multitudes, which come to My feasts with you on earth. Peace to you and over each work, which is to be done and finished for the house of the meeting and for the garden of the meeting, My dwellings of rest between heaven and earth for the news of My coming and for the resurrection, which is to come. Peace to you and peace to those who help Me and you, so that I may come soon to the way of My coming!

Peace sons! Peace to those who love the way of My coming in order to come, for it is by their resurrection that I come. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem

Let this day be a day of glory, for My word is My glory on the earth. Amen. With it and by it I was glorified two thousand years ago. I was doing works beyond natural by it, and today I have also worked with you likewise, children by whom I have perfected My word that I have preached to you. My Father glorified Himself on earth by the word. His voice was speaking of those that are not seen; it was speaking over Me when I was speaking with Him in My pains or from the middle of the glory with which He was glorifying Me before My disciples.

I enter in the book as word. My book is open for you have been waiting for Me. You know those that are for your peace, for I have taught you to know the time, sons, and to let it be known to Jerusalem, the people that was born by My word of today. The one who is born then he grows, only to be born, only to come to his heavenly birth, so that I may make from the one who is born into a member of Jerusalem. Amen.

The birth makes the man to be, but behold, today there are no longer true dwellings in which the man may come and to be born and then to be; to have then nurses in order to take care of him and to feed him and the man to grow and to stay for his growing. The babies born of the people are caressed and are nursed in many ways; they are nourished, bathed, swaddled, protected and loved and they grow. But those, who want to be born of the heaven and to be, do no longer find houses to be born in and care for growing. I came after the man two thousand years ago to take him in Me and then to give him a new birth and to have him again as Mine, and I worked into the open sky and I became a nurse for those who let themselves be born again. However, Jerusalem of that time did not know those things for its visitation, to its peace, and it did not know the time of its birth from above, the same as the church of today does not know and it does not believe and does not understand the miracle of My word, which flows like a river over the earth from this garden in which I dwell with My word for the new birth of the man from it.

I want to make grow a new vine, for the vine, which is, yielded sour grapes; however, I will throw down its fence, for it is written: «The people is in slavery and does not perceive anything. Those who are great and those who are small perish from hunger and wither with thirst, and the Sheol has opened its mouth wide, beyond measure; there the greatness of the Sheol with its roar and cheerfulness will go down». However, I need to have a vine and to rejoice over it and to take care of it, and it to give forth to grapes for My table so that I may be able to turn them into wine for My table. Amen. This is what I want to do, for behold, those who want to be born from heaven and to be, do not find any house; they do not find any care and growth, for they do not find the way. I want to turn My word of today into a shining and beneficent sun to give light and warm up the whole earth. Let My word of these days be the rain which makes the new vine grow, and let a new birth come up from it, a new man, taken care by the angels, so that the man may grow and to be.

I wanted the spring of My today's word to be for the peace of the earth, but the earth is full of drought, and these will be gathered together by the angels as the man cleans the brushwood from his garden in the spring, and these will be thrown into the fire, for the earth to be clean and then to be ready for sowing. And I will start to make the man, for he is not inclined for its making. He is too old in the evil things and does not want to let himself be renewed, and I have come with My work to the renewal of the world, to the new birth of the world, to a new heaven and a new earth. I am the eternal King and My kingdom has a new heaven and a new earth in it; a new man and a new people, cleansed by My sacrifice and by My resurrection.

The heaven is full of sighing after the new birth of the world, after the renewal of the earth, which needs cleansing and working. And as for you, people of birth from above, you are My new vine and I will graft you and make everything new for Me, with My word upon you. This is My good news over which all the angels and the saints in heaven above and on the earth below rejoice, for everything that is in heaven has been waiting for the renewal; everything has been waiting for the fulfillment of the promise of the new heaven and new earth. Amen.

Jerusalem, you should be small and you shall always be new. You should be My Palm Sunday in which to be glorified with a feast of heavenly Zion on earth. You should stay for My welcome, for this is your work, and you shall receive Me as your King, New Israel.

Oh, what Israel of old had done to Me! It was afraid not to lose its glory in which I established it in the midst of the nations of the earth, but it was not worthy of its glory from Me. And because it was not worthy, it was afraid of Me. If it had been used to the spirit of humility, Israel would have been glorified. However, because it was unworthy for glory, it tried to be glorified through the spirit of haughtiness and it had become great and it lost its glory by getting high against Me, for this is what I said: «The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified, and now is the judgment of this world, and its prince will be cast out». And it was so, because after My crucifixion that the rulers of the world put Me to, I was resurrected and they incurred an eternal disgrace because they loved human greatness more than God's greatness. They glorified themselves before the nations, and they put Me down and tried to hide Me by the death they put Me to. They did not love My greatness and the one who does so remains in the darkness as the people of Israel has remained from then and until today. It was only I Who has been taking care not to destroy the fulfillment of My promises, and I have put aside a remnant beforehand, chosen by grace, so that it may be someone to judge Israel, from its midst.

Oh, there is no way to make Me room on earth with My greatness, for the human greatness of the man, who calls himself master over My vine, is a greatness which does not deserve to be, and the man is afraid of the justice from above and he fights against it for his great position, as the rulers of the world did when I, in a humble way, came down from heaven among them to bring them light, only if they would love it and walk in it.

Behold, today is as then, and those who think that are the rulers of the world, have rebuked you to be silent with My word. However, all that are have been with you, and I have strengthen you by grace and I have clothed you within it, and by My work with you, the prince of the today's world has been judged again and cast out. Amen.

But I cry bitterly for the old Jerusalem and for those of today who rule the world by the today's world, for those that are for their peace are hidden from their eyes because of their trespasses. Soon, soon, My secret angels will cast them out from their houses that I called them dens of robbers even from that time. I will cast them out as they did to Me after I told them the parable of the vineyard workers, who killed the Heir in order to take His inheritance, and they had become bitter and bitter against Me then and they did so. And because I prophesied to them that «the master of the vineyard will come again and will destroy the workers of the vineyard and He will give the vineyard to others», it was so, for My grace worked through My disciples and the good news of the kingdom of the heavens has renewed the vineyard and put it aside for those who were clean, until today, for since then and until today, the scribes and the Pharisees have wanted to deceive the multitudes by their human glory, so that they may not seek for My glory. How shall these understand that humility is the glory and not the human greatness? How shall they no longer feel their blindness if they flee the light, if they do not try to wash and give up the emptiness and its sins? And behold the Scripture that says: «The hell has opened its mouth wide beyond measure, so that the greatness of Zion and its roar and cheerfulness to go down in it». If I had not come with this new word to call out those great and small from death to life and if I had not made come down this river of life giving, so that the living and the dead to be washed in it, they would have had justification in their ways. But now, this word stands face to face with them and it casts them out as it is written: «The ruler of this world will be cast out». Amen. And as for those who are alive by My life in them, they will inherit with Me forever, for they have loved Me when the world has hated Me and they have received Me when all have cast Me out, and they have brought Me to life when all have crucified Me by their human greatness against God's greatness, which they have not loved, and God's greatness is the humility with which I have built Myself in man, the house of humility, in the heart full of love for Me and for My greatness in it. Amen.

As for you, New Jerusalem, My inheritance, you should be My Palm Sunday, My donkey on which I have been riding from margins to margins with the word of the good annunciation of My coming and of God's greatness on the earth. This is what you should be, New Jerusalem. People of disciples of My coming, this is what you should be. You should be the Palm Sunday of the end of the man's time, and you should sing, son, and say: «The Lord is coming! The Lord is blessed in His coming, in His glory from above and from below, in those from above and those from below, up in heaven and down on earth!».

Oh, My people, the Lord is coming, the King of Zion that is to come, your King and your Master, Jerusalem, My New Zion, My glory and My greatness, New Jerusalem and dear to Me and with which I build your everlastingness for Me, Jerusalem, My Palm Sunday. Amen, amen, amen.

The second day after Passover

Let Me be with you through the word today too, children of the New Jerusalem. Let us spend a feast of resurrection to make the saints and the angels rejoice, to rejoice the Father, sons, for the Father is rejoicing greatly over My joy, and My joy is the man, the resurrected man, the son of the resurrection. Amen.

The angel of My resurrection is celebrated once with My resurrection. My day of resurrection is also his day, for he has My resurrection to announce and he tells you from near Me: Christ is risen!

Oh, children of the Jerusalem from above! You need not forget any moment that you are the sons of resurrection and that you have to live each and every moment together with the saints. And in order to be with them, you need to be like them, like the angels sons, like the sons of the resurrection and not like the people on earth. Those on earth are the sons of this age and those who live like angels are the sons of the age, which is to be. Amen.

The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage, as I told the Sadducees who do not believe in the resurrection and who believe in this age. But I spoke them about the living ones, who become worthy of this age that is to come, and who do not marry and are not given in marriage, but all are like the angels and are God's sons, being the sons of the resurrection. I taught you how the son of the resurrection is, how the son of God is. And if I taught you, you should be the sons of the resurrection, like the angels, and to be the body of the angels, as I give you many angels for everything that I had to work on the earth with you. Amen.

Oh, heavenly sons, the angels hear that I tell you to be the body of the angels, and the angels are preparing towards you, so that you may be like them, and to belong to God as they do. I want to make many angels of the sons of this age too, and to build them again in the mystery of the age to come, and to be a new building, a people without death, as the sons of God are, as it is written into My word of that time: «They, who will be worthy to get that age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry and nor are given into marriage<sup>154</sup>, as they can no longer die, for they will be like angels, and are the sons of God, the sons of the resurrection». And then I also said that the dead rise to life and that God is not of the dead but of the living, and that Abraham and Isaac live in God. Behold, it is that age. It was and it is, since the dead rise.

When My angel appeared to Moses in the flame of fire, which was coming out of the burning bush without consuming it, Moses marveled that this burning bush was not consuming and said: «I go and see it». And if Moses came near, My angel called him out on his name. And Moses answered: «Here I am, Lord!», and the voice of the burning bush said to Moses: «I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob».

Sons, sons, that age is and they live in it, as God is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all that are alive, live in God. Amen. You should live in God every moment, so that you may not die and to be the sons of the resurrection, the sons of God. This is what you should be, and let a seed of resurrection spring up out of you, and let it be taken by the wind, by the wind of the Holy Spirit, Which blows from Me and from you upon the earth; moreover, let it then rain upon the seed, and the seed may become a new body, and let many multitudes of the sons of this age become sons of resurrection, as soon, soon, it will not be any marriage or given in marriage, as what it is now on the earth is called fornication, not marriage or given in marriage.

Oh, there is no longer marriage and giving into marriage; there is no more time. This is a great mystery, as the apostle says, but this mystery is no longer on the earth. The apostle Paul said to those of that time, that because of sexual immoralities each man should have his own wife, and each woman should have her own husband. He said this because he knew of the man's sexual immorality, and he told the man to keep away from sexual immorality as this breaks down the man in his inner being; it opposes to God's dwelling in man; it breaks down God's throne from the man. All sins cost the man, but the sexual immorality totally separates God from the man, as it is written: «If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him». Behold this age, and behold that age. That age will soon have the feast of the resurrection, as the sons of the resurrection are there; they are the sons of God and are like the angels. Amen. The same with you; you should be children of the resurrection and this is how you should remain forever; and you should live like angels and to be the body of the angels, children of Jerusalem, for we are to build, sons, Jerusalem, which is and which grows to be. Let the angels rejoice over your bodies, that are raised by sacrifice and by My resurrection, and may your spirits give forth only resurrection for you and for they who will long to be with you. Amen.

The father rejoices over My joy. You are My joy: the Father and you. The life of the age to come is the life of those who are alive and who make the age, a new age on earth, the resurrection of those who are living, the redemption of their bodies through those who are in a body, through those who are alive in the body, and through those that the angels work out My work of new age and the resurrection from the dead.

The angel of My resurrection fills you with the news of My resurrection so that it may be spread out: Christ is risen!

Oh, open up for Me early in the morning tomorrow, children of the resurrection. I have lessons of resurrection for many nations. I have and I give you so that you may give further and the news of resurrection to be caught. Let the resurrection from the dead be caught by those who still have a little drop of love, a little drop of life in them.

Christ is risen! I and the angel of My resurrection, Christ is risen! This is what we say. For the resurrection of many; that is why we say. And to you I give you peace, the peace of My resurrection. Peace for the disciples, peace, sons! Peace to My disciples! Amen.

Give comfort to those who come to life. Give coming to those who come. Do the work of a disciple, for the earth needs resurrection far and wide; it needs disciples, sons. The disciple gives birth to other disciples and he puts them at My work of resurrection, for many will become worthy of the resurrection from the dead so that they may receive that age, the age which is to come and which is to be. Amen.

Christ is risen! Peace to those who are resurrected! Peace to the disciples! Peace, sons! Peace to My disciples! Amen, amen, amen.

The third day after Passover

My word is the breath of My mouth upon you so that you may have life from My life, oh, children of My coming! I gave eternal life to My disciple of that time and I taught them to have it. The eternal life is for the man in order to know God and for the man to really know the true God. The one who does not fulfill My word, that one does not make Me into a true God and everything is possible into My name for the one that I am true and that one can do everything I can. Amen.

Ask and you will receive, children of My coming. Ask, sons. This is what I told to My disciples of old, and they did so and I did works above nature by them, and through them I protected them, and by them I was waking up many to know Me as true God.

Ask sons, ask from the Father into My name and you will receive and rejoice over your faith in Me, for the one who relies on Me is great and receives from Me and he has. Ask angels in everything that you have to work into My name and I will send you angels and you will receive them for I give to the one who asks Me. Have a great heart and give it to Me so that I may put power, faith and consecration into it, for I want to glorify Myself through you on earth and to put to shame all those who cannot for Me.

The resurrection brings eternal life to the man and it makes the man to know Me as true God who came from the Father and for the man to call Me Light from the Light, true God from true God, born and not created, one with the Father, the Creator of everything. Amen.

I help the man to take his resurrection<sup>155</sup> in him and to believe in Me and to take Me in him for himself and for everything he has got and then in all of My things, for I have a great work to do, a work that remains forever. Behold what a sweet mystery: the man to take Me in him for him and in all of his things, and then in all of My things; I to be in him and then he to be in Me, for with the one who is in Me I do My work from Father that I have to fulfill on earth; to help the man in everything he has got for his life and then also for him to help Me in everything I have, as the Father has given Me many to fulfill on the earth and I cannot do it without the man.

He who knows Me as true God, that one looks at Me and becomes like Me in word and in deed and this is his faith and this means that the man believes in God. When the man takes in him the true life, which he learns from Me, this means that he does the works of his faith in Me. There are many who by nature have the gift to be able to make Me into life in them, but they do not have a teacher to bring them to this life. I want to bring many to life and that is why I get ready with you for days of birth for them, and then to become growth over them with My word, for the work of the resurrection sighs to be worked out and to bring with it the raising of many, and so that their raising to the eternal life, to the knowledge of God and to the knowledge of the Father in Me as true God may be spread out from one to another. Amen.

Working sons, those that My Father wants to give Me through you, those that I want to lift up and teach eternal life so that you may take it with you everywhere. The work of the faith in God has to bring the eternal life in the man, a heavenly living in the man on earth, the sanctification of the earth. I want to have the man with a heavenly living for the sanctification of the earth on every place on the earth. Amen. The one who says that has got a heavenly feeling in his heart and it does not become then a heavenly living in his body, that one is My greatest enemy and an enemy to the man and to himself. Oh, what a great pain I have from those who know My way and pretend that are on it only because they know it, only because they exalt it with their lips and with their garment for this way! Oh, what great pain I have from these, as it is from them that it has been spread out everywhere the not watchfulness, the not living and the dipping of the hand with Me in the dish on My table, for by their not living I fall into the hand of the blasphemers who blaspheme Me for those who do not do My will on the way known to be My way with the man.

Let us take this veil away! Let us put it aside, working sons, and let the people, who could wake up to the eternal life, to see that I'm not under this veil and that under it stay those who suck from the people and those who eat the man's bread and spirit in such a way that the man cannot come to life by My resurrection.

Let us bring the resurrection for the life, for the nations of the earth are waiting for the life, and have nowhere to receive it. I give them life at once, but let us show that the way to Me which they are accustomed to, is full of venomous scorpions, which not only that suck the people's bread and spirit, but they also kill them by a venomous bite. For behold, he who wants to come Me to learn from Me the everlasting life and then to live it, is drawn back; is hunted from behind by those that are taught to eat the bread, the wisdom and the spirit of the man. (By the priests of the world, r.n.). The proclaiming of this age teaches the man to become a Christian of a new fashion, and the man walks into the air, that is, he goes to death, and on Sunday, the life arisen in man is spoiled and it does not have the man's resurrection in it, for all the holy ones are trampled by every man. The man made out of a pagan living, Christian habits, as he says, and this way shall My coming find the one who does this. My days of heavenly feast were taken over by the people and trampled underfoot for the lusts of their own heart. These scornful people, who do not wait for Me to come, hurt Me. They have nowhere to learn the eternal life from; they have nowhere to know Me, the true God, from.

I want to break down the house which deceives the people under the name of My house. I remove the veil from it, and this is how I break it down, for I want to draw the man to Me and to the Father. I whipped the traders from the temple at that time that put My name on it. And I want to tell the people again the truth about My house, and about the house which is called My house. Many people are full of tears inside them and look for Me to heal them and to give them peace, but woe, they do not find My way with the man, but rather they run into the man who snatched away My way to replace it with his one and to steal the man with it, the man for whom I cried on the cross in order to redeem him for the resurrection.

Now, I break the house that deceives the man under the name of My house and I say: «Come out from it, My people, so that you may not partake of its sins and then receive of its punishments, as its sins have reached to heaven and God has remembered of its iniquities for in it was found the blood of the prophets and of the saints and the blood of all who were slain on the earth». And then I will speak again over you and say: «Rejoice over it, you heaven and you saints, you apostles and you prophets, because the Lord has done justice to you in your judgment that you had with it». Amen. Then the resurrection of the many will come and many nations will teach the way of the resurrection from the dead, the way of the heaven on the earth with the man, the sanctification of the earth. Amen.

The angel of My resurrection tells you: Chris is risen, children of resurrection! And let us prepare the way of the resurrection from the dead over the nations; let us do it, for the breath of My mouth over you becomes a word of eternal life over the multitudes, sons, and soon, soon, we will meet the new creature, the man who comes under the mystery of the resurrection from the dead. Amen, amen, amen.

The second Sunday after Passover, of the saint apostle Thomas

Oh sons, in heaven it is not like on the earth. Oh sons, the saints from above are not like the saints from below. Oh sons, who receive My word from the book! My word, which speaks from Me during your days, has been waited by those in heaven with a great awe of the spirit, with great love and with great, great longing. My word of today, with which I accompany you and many that receive it from you, this word is My victory that I have given to those in heaven, a victory that has been waited for seven thousand years. When My word of today is heard with you, all that are in heaven are awoken seven times more and they are warmed up in love and in comfort for their waiting is great, sons. You are in the body and you cannot understand how long you have been waited to be and to give to the Jerusalem from above My word from the days of My coming after two thousand years, after seven thousand years after the man, sons. But how is this? Is it really that those in heaven do not hear whether I speak from their midst and whether they live in Me? Oh, sons, it is so. Those in heaven hear when I speak, but if I had no one to speak on the earth with, will those in heaven hear My word of today, which brings Me on earth after two thousand years since My resurrection?

Oh sons, I am the Christ, the One after My resurrection from the dead. Amen. Two thousand years after My resurrected from the dead, I appeared to My disciples several times, speaking with them, eating with them and blessing them, giving them the Holy Spirit by My breath upon them, and then sending them to the people for the forgiveness of their sins, and this is what I told them: «Peace to you! As My Father has sent Me even so I send you. Receive Holy Spirit! Whoever's sins you forgive, they are forgiven them. Whoever's sins you retain, they have been retained».

They, My apostles were then under the thrill of the joy of My resurrection and they had a warm spirit and I was warming up their thrill as in those in heaven, who have been waiting for such a long time for My crucifixion and resurrection to come for the victory of eternal life of their souls and bodies.

Oh, sons do not be dull of mind. My mysteries are deeply heavenly. The people always speak of My resurrection but they are not thrilled within their spirit with My body after the resurrection, a body which had not always been with My apostles with whom I spent time until My sacrifice in the body, but rather it appeared several times to them and then it went up into the Father to be a dwelling place for the saints in heaven, the saints who had been waiting for the redemption of their bodies by the death and resurrection of My body.

Father wanted that My resurrected body to be touched, so that the man might believe then in the mystery of the resurrection of the bodies. And after My supper after the resurrection with those in Emmaus, I went again to My apostles and stood in their midst and I said: «Peace to you! Do not be afraid! I am!» However, thinking that they were seeing a spirit they got frightened, and then I said to them: «Do not be troubled. Do not be frightened in your heart and mind. I am Myself. Touch Me and see. The spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have». Then I showed them My hands and legs and I said to them: «Do you have anything here to eat?» And they gave Me broiled fish and some honeycomb and I ate before them as one who has a body in order to teach them to believe in the mystery of the resurrection of the bodies and to open their mind to understand the Scriptures about Me and for them to preach into My name the repentance and the forgiveness of their sins in Jerusalem and everywhere on earth.

Oh, and then I showed My hands and legs to Thomas and I put his finger on to My rib to strengthen the man's faith in the redemption of the bodies, which came and comes by My resurrection, by My third incarnation, sons. Behold, I give you deep mysteries to strengthen your wisdom. I once became flesh from the Father and once from the man, from the Virgin, sons, and again, once more from among the dead. Amen. From the earth. I raised for Myself a body again out of the earth to redeem the man that came out of the dust at the beginning of the world. And I have redeemed him. Amen. For David said: «I, Lord, was brought forth in iniquity. In sin my mother conceived me». Oh sons, this is how the one who gets out of the man from the dust is brought forth in sins, sons. However, I want the truth and I show the man those who are not shown and those things of My wisdom that are hidden, as I showed My incarnated body to My apostles two thousand years through My resurrection from the dead. And if I became flesh again, then I ate as the man who had a body and I proved out the truth of the mystery of the redemption of the body.

Oh, sons, the dead ask food from you to come to life and to eat with you as I ate bread and fish with My disciples when I appeared to them, and I told them to take fish out from the sea when they could not find anything to get out. And Peter got out only big fish so that he could believe that I would make him into a fisherman of people with faith, of people, who are faithful and accomplished in faith and deed, and to strengthen his coming back to Me and his work for the apostleship. Behold, this is how I had spent time with My disciples after My resurrection and after My incarnation from the dead. And today I also spend time with you and I want to extend My dwelling, at least for the comforting thrill that the saints from above have, sons, for in heaven is not as on earth, sons.

Oh, the saints from above are not like the saints from below. My word with you is eaten with great tremble, with great comfort and with great longing by the saints from above. When My word of today is heard with you, all those from heaven are awoken seven times more and they are warmed up in the fire of this comforting. You are in the body and do not understand this mystery of the food of the saints from above after two thousand years and after seven thousand years of waiting for their Passover, for My Passover with you that becomes their redemption. When the vesper bell from you is heard by them, it calls everyone to praying, and they stir up their praying for My work with you, which is the victory of the heaven and earth for the mystery of eternity. Amen.

Oh, sons, when the vesper bell sounds at you, all the saints and angels come and sit for praying. I do not tell you this to make you sad, but rather I tell you to rejoice and wake up the spirit of praying seven times more, the love in the praying, sons, the food of the saints. Amen.

And I also give you the strengthening of the commandment, which is for the fulfilling of the meal of the holy feast with you, of those from heaven who wait in the dwelling of the dead for the day of the feast of My holy prudes, the prudes of My resurrection, sons. Then you should give them to eat, for after I was resurrected, My disciples gave Me to eat. Make them room at your table and may their food and your food for the soul and the food for the body be blessed, for great is the mystery of the resurrection of My body by My resurrection from the dead, and this mystery is worked out everywhere in the body that was and is, for that is why I have established it on the earth; I have established it to come and to be and you should give them to eat sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The love from the prayer is the food of the saints' souls who will appear with you soon, soon, and they will have supper with you and with Me as I had supper with My disciples, and may this feast of new age find you, sons, warming up at the fire of the comforting, at which those in heaven warm up during the time when I speak My word upon you.

Peace to you! To you and to the saints in heaven, to be with you as in heaven and not as on earth sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Ascension

Peace to you, My people! Peace to you, Jerusalem! Peace to you, sons! Oh, My weary children, what could be more beautiful than there where the brothers are together; working together into My name and at My word? Oh, sons, who and where on earth the brothers get together at My word which builds and feeds, at My voice, which speaks from heaven on earth? Oh, if the voice of My word would be available for anyone, it would be nothing of Me and of the man, for the man would not know to stay small into My hand and to receive My word from My mouth with great love, as the man likes to be important with My gifts, with Me and with the greatness from Me and with honor, sons. But My voice is one for everybody, and its garment cannot be torn according to the man's liking who wants to share God out.

Oh, My people, I know to give Myself out, but the man does not know to share Me as I give Myself out. When I was with Israel on the earth through Moses, his brothers got up against him with greatness, as though it was not only Moses who was the prophet but they also were prophets, and they were trying to despise My order, which came from Me through Moses and this disorder had come out into Israel painfully. My word upon the people is a great work and it has to stay into My hand, not into the man's hand and the man has to fulfill it and that is all. The earth is full of witchcraft and wizards and the people run to them so that they may do according to their pleasure, for the enemy of this age has taught the man to have his own pleasure. But with Me, the true God, it cannot be this way; it cannot be according to the man's pleasure, but only according to My pleasure which is good and keeps the man away from death and away from any kind of death, as the man's haughtiness, his will and longing after his own self are death.

Oh, My people, who and where on the earth brothers come together at My word, which flows from heaven and which builds and feeds the man? I have done a great miracle with you, My little people, for you have listened to Me, and I could through you, and behold, I share My word over the entire earth so that anyone may receive and fulfill it, because that is why My word comes over the earth; it comes to be fulfilled. Amen.

I am into your midst, My people, with the feasting of My ascension to the Father two thousand years ago. He, who is not humble, becomes haughty and falls down, and he who is humble, that one has a good standing with Me and does not fall down. When I ascended, I ascended to go near to the Father and not only to ascend and that is all. I ascended so that I might not stay near the man and that the man might receive Me afterwards with the honor for God, with the honor, which does good to the man, for if the Lord is not honored by the man, He is drawn by the man to his wills, and the man does not do any good to himself, if he does so with God.

Behold, sorcerers, fortune-tellers and wizards have got up out of among men that do according to the man's pleasure, going with touching and fortune telling among the people. But here I am, the Lord, I and My word, so that the man may have it and no longer go to ask the dead. Let the man receive instruction for humility and let him get out from under his will and to be able to ascend at the heavenly Father's will, so that the Father's will may be on earth as in heaven. Amen. When I ascended, I told My disciples that I would be with them to the end of the ages. They tried to ask Me questions and I promised them the Holy Spirit, for I longingly wanted for them to have the wisdom from heaven and by it to know all those from Me and to do them.

Many people wonder why the questions cannot be asked here with you, for this is how the people have been taught. Oh, the most beautiful man is the man who is clothed with power from above by the will of the Holy Spirit within him. When the Holy Spirit can have His dwelling place in the man, the man has nothing else to ask, neither in him and nor outside of him. He, who honors the great saints, sees this in them. The Holy Spirit is wisdom in the man. He gives the seat to the Lord within the man. What else may such a man have to ask? What else may the man work out but the Holy Spirit? The one, who has got the Holy Spirit, Who knows and works and fulfills according to His will, needs nothing else more. When I ascended to the Father, My apostles tried to ask Me about the downfallen kingdom of Israel. And I told them: «You will be clothed with power from above. The Holy Spirit will come down upon you and He will teach you everything, for He will take from what is Mine and will tell you, and He will teach you from Me, My will and its fulfillment».

Here is why I ascended from the earth into heaven, from the man to the Father. From the earth I cannot be with the man according to My will for the man asks and tempts Me and is restless to know. However, I give from heaven to the man and I make him used to be humble and quiet and to believe that the Lord takes care of everything. The man who wants to be with Me has nothing to do but My will, the will from heaven, and I give him wisdom, bread, water, salt, garment, peace and life from heaven. What else may the man have to ask? He may not have anything to ask, for he would live in Me and I in him, and I would give him what he might need to wear and to know more. I would give him according to My plan, not according to his plan.

Oh, how beautifully I teach you, My people! You have only one care: to fulfill My will and to do the work that I give to you. Where else is there on the earth as with you? Where else is there any people that listens to the Lord, which has and does the Lord's word? Behold, this is what it means for Me to be with the man and not through the man. Amen. Oh, what would it be for Me to have many kinds of wills on earth and not only one, as it is with God? However, the man does not understand this and he wants Me to be available to anyone, for the man likes to exalt himself even before God and he likes to have priority between him and others and he likes to be honored and he likes to share Me out the way I give Myself out, for when the man gives Me out, he also takes for himself as the one who shares out and behold, the man does not know to give Me out, he does not know, and he does not want to hear that he does not know. Let the man take My word and put it upon him and let those around to see him clothed with God and with the wisdom of the Holy Spirit, for the man must do, and not speak, and the man has to give himself as a sacrifice, not to exalt himself and not to seek honor from Me or from the people, no, but rather to sacrifice himself for My word, putting it on him and fulfilling. Amen. This is what it elevates the man to Me. This is the wisdom, which keeps the man in Me and Me in man, and the man is full of My glory and not of his glory, and that one has nothing else to ask Me. Amen.

Oh, My people, when I ascended into glory from the disciples, they put Me among the invisible ones to help the man not to remain in the spirit of the temptation of God, but I told them: «I shall be with you to the end of the time». This is what I told to My disciples who wanted to ask Me about the time of the kingdom of Israel. If the kingdom of Israel had been the kingdom of God, he would have not needed his kingdom on the earth as he wanted, and as even today he wants and believes it. I told them that My kingdom is not from this world, but Israel did not like this. It liked to be a king through Me and this is what it wants even today. But only he, who has God's kingdom with the word and deed, can be the king; the kingdom of incorruptibility, and the kingdom of the holiness. This and only this means kingdom. Amen.

My kingdom is with you and upon you, My people. Let the world look at you and upon you, upon your work and upon the mystery that you wear, and let it be seen and understood by every man, what the kingdom of God means, the kingdom of Israel. Your kingdom is in Me; it is not into this world, My people. And the world will straggle from the perishable kingdom and will come to take the kingdom of the incorruptibility, and in it, the man will let himself to be created and will come into the mystery of the incorruptibility, into the mystery that sacrifices for God.

Arise, My people with My kingdom, from the earth to the heaven, for this is what the angels and the saints are waiting for, little son. They wait for the little ones who share from Me the kingdom over all its heirs. The little ones have much to labor for; they have much to work for My way to the man. The little ones are those that get very tired for those in heaven. The little ones are the wealth of the heaven on the earth, and the heavenly Bridegroom spreads his hand with them over the wedding table to dine on the earth with the saints. Amen.

This river of word is in My hand and I work it out and I give it. Let him who wants to have of it come and take it from here, as here I pour Myself out over the earth with the word. This is My mouth and I have much to work and I have prepared much what I have here. My word is a great work and it needs to stay into My hand, not into man's hand and woe to the one who tries to make My word without Me laying it down. Behold, I lay it down and I am the word upon the earth. Let him who wants to have My word clean come to take it and come to drink. This is the river of life, which flows from God's throne over the earth. Amen. And as for you, people established by Me in the mystery and the work of My word, you should be My will and do not be tired by this happiness. Soon, soon, My kingdom into your midst will be loved more and more, for I have told you to be beautiful, My people, and I told you to be, to remain the hope for every man who will soon lose all his earnings and will seek to have you and to listen to you for Me and to put you over him on My behalf, My people. However, you should remain in My wisdom, for the haughty and unrepentant man will not find the entrance, and he will be groping in vain, because I am your God, the true God, and I give Myself out only to the one who learns, and to be then, for without My teaching and without its works, no one will be able to make one's entrance into My kingdom, which is coming on the earth. Amen.

My people exalt yourself so that the world may see Me on your height, for this is what I tell you. Amen. Get up into My name above all the earthly heights so that the man may see Me over you, for I tell you this. Amen. You are the people that listen to the Lord. There is no one on the earth that can take away this glory from you, the glory of those who listen to God. Amen. Those who have not listened to Me have lost the glory that you have and you have listened to Me and comforted Me and made God your father, for a father is the one who has sons. Amen, amen, amen.

My people, prepare pavilions for Me, son, for I have a great supper into My arms, a rich supper, a wedding supper between Me and you and I have wedding guests and doina (Doina – lyrical poetry specific to the Romanian folklore which expresses a feeling of longing, of mourning, of rebellion, of love, etc., being usually accompanied by an adequate melody; a musical variety of the folkloric Romanian creation, characterized by its deep emotiveness and especially based on the feeling of longing, r.n.) singers at My wedding with you, bride people. Oh, lay down the table for I have to put food on it in order to call you at the supper.

And I say: come to the supper, you, sons of the people! The Son of the father calls you out to His wedding supper. Come and get used to the mysteries of the kingdom, which does not pass away! Come to really enjoy, to really be comforted and to really be resurrected! Come, for I, the Son of the heavenly Father, will give you food. Amen, amen, amen.

The seventh Sunday after Passover, of the holy fathers (of the First Ecumenical Council)

Oh, My people, the gates open for Me to enter towards you. Amen. I would come to you day and night to warm you up, to feed you and to love you. It is written into the Scriptures: «Your gates will be opened day and night». Oh, it is so, My people. You are the people that bring yourself to Me with your spirit, body and soul, for who else is to give oneself to Me day and night as you do? Who else works for God's glory on the earth as you work at My demand, at My word, My people?

Behold the house of the meeting. When I told you to lay it down on the ground, I told you that I have it into My hand and I lay it down little by little through your little hard-working hands and then I will be glorified in it with days of wedding, My people. Behold the work of My word, which is well done and fulfilled. There is still a little bit of time and everything will be accomplished, and the house of the meeting will be established on the earth. Amen.

Oh, My people, you are My hand, which is at work to make with it a path for Me over the people. You are My tool. You are My day of wedding, which is dawning for Me. Amen. I would stay day and night with you in the word. This is what I told you to be, but I am God and I know the measure in everything, for there is work to do and it needs to be done both by hands and by legs, by eyes and by ears and by the whole body, and the body is weak and My Spirit comes and gives it power by breathing over it the days of rest, son.

Oh, My people, tired in your body, get rest from My labors. Put your body to rest in the days of rest, for day and night you labor with Me in order to fulfill My word. I see how your body hurts you when you kneel down for prayer at dawn and in the evening and in the middle of the night, My weary people. The body hurts you but your soul rejoices and My Spirit can and gives you life, My people. Your body is sanctified day and night for Me, for I hear you praying for My will in you, My people. Oh, I do not know how to thank you because you have got involved to serve Me at My word, at My request, at My calling, Jerusalem son. I sanctify the earth with you, My people. I take you in My hand and I sprinkle the earth with blessing the same way the priest takes the basil into his hand and he drops it into the water and then he sprinkles it on the ground and on the man. I turn the ground beneath you into a new word and I turn My spending with you in the midst of the people into a new heaven. I have taught you to be patient and not to get upset with those who do not understand My work with you. The true fruit of My labor with you comes into sight little by little, for I labor with you and I work out with you the new heaven, the new earth and the spirit of the new age and the language of the Holy Spirit, the word of My mouth and of My wisdom and of those that are hidden from the eyes of those who do not see.

Get rest My people, in My days of rest, and give your rest to the Lord, for you are His son. You made God your Father, for a Father is the One Who has sons, obedient and living sons, who stay within the Father and the Father stay within them. Amen.

Oh, the man has not liked to have God as his Father. The man has not liked to listen with submission from heaven. Here is what the man is on the earth. He stays at his heart's desire and does his own wills as much as he can and then he says that I am his Father. But what else does he really say? What good it would be for him to say so? The man gives birth to sons and daughters and then he gives them to the world, and then he says that I gave him children. To whom I gave children, I gave them to him so that he may give them back to Me to work with them for Me as I worked with My mother, the Virgin, and as I worked with John, the son of Zacharias and Elisabeth.

The man gets full of knowledge about God and about all those that are in God, and then he becomes haughty because he has got knowledge, but the man does not settle down to do God's will. The man does not want to make God his Father, for he is the prodigal son, the wandering son, who wears out only for him and not for his father. The prodigal son left his father and went about his own business and when he came to have a very poor living, he only wanted to be a servant to his father, and he wanted to be in submission to his father, and then he made him again his father.

Oh, My people, are the sons of the people really going to make God their Father as you did? Oh, the sons of the people go to get knowledge from one another and to gather knowledge for themselves and this is only to get puffed up through it, but the sons of the people do not seek to learn how to be God's sons. The sons of the people are conceited and that is why they are not able to choose the way of humility, in which I walked. The sons of the people get haughty and that is why they cannot see Me with you and you with Me. However, those that are moved in their hearts by the voice of My word, which is with you, those tear themselves away and come to hear Me and to see Me glorifying Myself with you into the midst of the people, for you do not receive the glory of the people, because you have Mine with you, and we give it to the Father for we are His sons. Amen.

Here is what I tell you: all who get conceited today by their knowledge will lose their wisdom, for My wisdom is great; it is heavenly and it is eternal, and it is other than the one of the wise people. All these will come, soon, soon, to My spring from you to quench the burning of their soul, sons, for there will come a great scorch over the human wisdom and will suck dry the spirit of the man, and the man will seek the spirit and he will find it with Me, and then he will receive his spirit back, for all those that belong to Me, all those that I gave to the man and which the man has not kept and used, they have come back into Me, and the man has lost them and has no longer sought them after, and because of that the man has found himself in other things which are not from God and consequently the man has lost the Father and has not found Him anymore, for the Father is hidden in the spirit of humility, in the spirit that is pleased to God. Amen.

When I gave you birth, My little people of today, I took care of you and taught you to walk, and I taught you to have legs. He, who is not born of Me; who does not learn from Me and only from Me; who does not walk in My way; who is not totally in Me, that one is from among the sons of the people and has no God as a Father. He, who thinks that he dies of hunger, that he suffers, that he does not have the everyday necessities if he stays with Me, let that one not come after Me; let him remain in his own things. But he, who wants Me to be his Father, that one should come and be My son, as the son works with the father and for the father, not for himself. Amen. This is how I have you, children of My people, and the world gathers together to look at you and can no longer judge you because I make you beautiful on the earth, and I make you known by My heavenly will in you and upon you, and with My glory which glorifies the man before Me and before the people. And I also say: all that are conceited today by knowledge will be put to shame and will be humbled before My glory which is upon you, and they will love this glory and will highly esteem it and will worship your Lord God and His glory that is upon you, for the God's glory is the true glory of the praised man. Amen. They, who put on airs by knowledge, can build nothing for God, but only for the glory of each other. They are not builders, for only the love builds; the love which sacrifices for God and for the man's creation; a creation like Mine. Amen.

Oh, My people, I thank you and give you from My glory, because you obeyed when I established with you the house of meeting on the earth. I kept it by My hand until I established it little by little on the earth by your little hands. All that it needs to be done for it, so that it may be laid down on the earth completely, as it is into My hand, do not let it undone, and do not put it over, for the thing that is not done on its own time for its completion remains broken for a long time and it is called an unfinished thing. Do not give up, sons, what is still left to be finished at this house. Take a look everywhere. See how it is worked everywhere and do your work well, so that it may remain well, for you are children with a good taste, and this way you shall remain, for I gave you from My grace, and this is how you should remain. Amen. I will go then with you to those that worked with you here as well, so that you may finish there all the work which is left unfinished for a long time, in the city of Târgoviște, sons, for I gathered there little girls that I help Myself with in My work with you; little hardworking hands<sup>156</sup> that I use to prepare My glory among the people, My table and My house of wedding days with you. And we will work, sons, and will have what to finish with, for he who is with Me does not need to beg for his bread and help, as the worldly churches do, but rather we need to work diligently and not to receive sons. The true church works for itself, and not let another one work for it. Be hardworking, sons, for you are the church of Christ and the Gospel of Christ in these days. Let us not thwart My Gospel of today, but rather work for it and for us, as the work of the working and praying church, sacrificing for the Lord, is. Amen. All the evil, which still wants to hit you, will be crushed against this stone, and you are the stone, for I built you, and I am one with you, and all the evil, which still wants to hit you for Me, will get through for you, and I will truly be with this word. Amen, amen, amen.

May the building of the house of the meeting be blessed, and let the Christian law, the law for My new people, and a new people, stay right within it. Amen. Let a grown up man rest within it, for it is a house of Christian and it is Christ's house. Amen. And I will speak with the man and I will advise him towards My will from heaven on earth. Amen.

May all My establishments from over you be blessed, all My words, which bestow orders over all My things with you. Amen. And you, My blessed, grow up beautifully under My hand, and stay under it, for You have made God your Father, and stay under My hand. Receive powers from Me for I breathe over you. I breathe over you within any hard thing of Mine with you, so that you may lift up My burden. You should also breathe over Me, so that we may learn to give life to each other, to give ourselves to one another so that we may belong eternally to one another, children of My life within you. Amen.

Call out to the wedding. Pay the wedding stewards and call out wedding guests and call out doina singers and adorn the days of My wedding with you. And I will take out good wine, new wine, and I will give them to drink it, and they will say: "Where does such a good wine come from, such a sweet wine?" And they will drink and will rejoice over My glory, for I will give them to drink. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Romanian Christianity, the first day

Oh, sons from the manger of the coming down of My word, wake up from your beds for your Bridegroom is coming to come out with you and with days of wedding, for the wedding guests are coming. Let us lay the table for it is a wedding! Here are the Bridegroom and His bride; Christ is with you in the days of wedding on the earth, My bride people. Here are the wedding guests! They came and they still come. I have called them so that I may love them. We can love them the most. We can give them what they cannot find anywhere. We give them the true comfort, the comforting word, which is coming out of My mouth upon you so that we may give it to those who come and to those who do not come to hear it, and those who come to take it with them into their houses. Amen.

I, Myself, comfort the man. I am this word. I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth and I speak from My Father. I am the Lord, the Comforter. Amen. He who does not need such a comfort, which comes down like the cool river out of My mouth, that one is not born of Me, and he is still an untimely birth, a man who lives without any life and he dies likewise and goes lifeless on his last way, into his temporary and last rest. I comfort the man allowing him to fulfill his desires if this is his joy, and My patience and goodness leads the man to repentance and love like those of Mine. He asks Me to help him bring his wills into fulfillment and I humble Myself and do no longer seek after My will in him, for the man loves himself and it is for him that he loves Me. However, I am the Comforter and I shake with My comfort and I comfort the man.

Get up well, watchmen children, for we have guests at supper. Here they are. They came and are coming.

Oh, you too, those who come to the wedding, wake up! Wake up and hear the voice of the Bridegroom Who speaks to His bride, sharing the wine of the wedding, of the wedding love. Amen. Oh, let your hearts not be troubled. I give you the solid teaching, solid food, so that you may strengthen your living and to wake Me up within you, and for Me to take root within you, for I am the root of this word which comforts you. Believe it or not, I have to tell who I am. I am the One Who is. I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth. I am here and I become word and I give Myself out over the earth. Nowhere on earth do I find any man that wants to do like Me for My word of today that I let down here with all its wholeness. If I also spoke here the way as so many people say that I have spoken in so many places on the earth, then I would be loved from here as well; I would be believed here too, and I would be welcomed from here with My way to the people too. But My way is heavenly; it is a right and holy way and the man is afraid of it. And if the man is afraid of the clean way, he would like that My coming in the word to be a lie; the word with which I open up the way of the coming of My body that ascended to the Father two thousand years ago. I did not ascend so that I might not come again. But on the contrary, I said then: «I go so that I may come again; I go to prepare a place», and to come back after I prepare it. Here it is; I have prepared it and the man is too haughty to believe what I say, for I say that every word of Mine, which I come down with into this place prepared by Me painfully, judges the one who does not receive it to put it on him. Behold, the man receives from man but he does not receive from God. I also was a man on the earth and I was wise from the Father and I let the teaching of eternal life upon the man. Why does the man does not receive from Me as well and to be like Me then? Oh, why the man receives only from man. Why, really?

You man that read only what the man says and only what the man writes! Was the man crucified for you that you receive teaching from him and believe so much in him and eat from him so much? How comes that you are not tired of so much learning which takes from your soul, like the big waters, all that is eternal and true in you and from heaven? Oh, man, I meet you in your running and search out your being and I see that you do no longer have a being of noble birth. The gathering in your mind had made Me an orphan to you, you man tired of your labor, of your burden. I told you to take up My burden, for My yoke is good, for My burden is easy. This is what I told you. However, you become a giant and carry the burdens on your way, and My way is destitute of people. Your way is not My way. What is yours is not also Mine and you live without life. Oh, how shall I make you open to My knock at your door? Here is how I open up My spring and call you to come and drink and see its taste and see its truth, for I am this spring. I am this word, and My body is wrapped up into this word and I stand before you wrapped in this word. This word is My coming after two thousand years from the Father, to prepare a bride with it, and to come then down near her in My visible body, with which I ascended from My disciples two thousand years ago, so that I may be able to come back at the time of My coming again from near the Father.

Oh, let your hearts not be troubled by questioning this voice, which is My word. I am the Son of the Father God, and as I had power to lay down My life and to take it back afterwards, the same is now too; I have the power to come down as word before the man and to ask the man an answer for him. Amen. I give life to the man by this word, and no one will escape to give an answer for My word by which I cry out during these days in every street so that those that live in their houses, rejoicing over all that they have, may hear Me.

I have looked onto the earth and I have seen some rich people rejoicing over their wealth and telling to the poor that they do not need God, because they have everything they need. They had everything they needed but they were very poor of God.

The rich are destitute of God, because God is the wealth of the poor, an eternal wealth, and they will rest forever in it, and are not like the rich who after leaving their wealth and ranks go into poverty of life and into weeping and into an eternity without Christ in it.

I called you to Me to give you from My wound. Eat and drink of My wound, as I am hurt by the yearning of the wounded man; wounded for as long as two thousand years. My wound has not been closed yet. It has become a bosom from which blood flows and not milk. Blood flows from the life of My body, so that the sinners may eat and drink; the sinners who leave their sins behind them and come to eat of My wound for My life in them. But the man, who gives life to the sin in his own body, believes that he can turn My body into one of his member, one with his body, which sins longing after sin, and longing after love, and harmful to him and Me, and the Scripture says: «Taking the members of Christ, shall I make them members of sexual immorality».

I was in My body on the earth and the Jew and the scribe would come and test Me because of their sexual immoralities and they wanted to laugh at Me because of their immorality. But I did not know how to get rid of them without being caught by a word that would violate the law of the man. My apostle, Paul, would have been burnt at a stake by those who posed as believers of the church without killing the immorality and its body. Paul would have been burnt at a stake if he did not let them under the law of the sin; however, he used to tell them: «Don't deprive one another, unless it is by consent for fasting and prayer, and because of self-control each one should have his own wife». This word was for those who committed fornication, not for the saints who were crucifying their bodies, their lusts and their desires from it.

Oh, sons from the manger of My word! I feel pity for you when I see that the man comes to you and asks from you and from Me justice for the immorality in his body. I was the same. I was grieved among the people and prepared for sacrifice, to show the man, fond of his own self, what his justice is. It is the sacrifice of those who sacrifice themselves by crucifying of their bodies and by rising in their spirit for My body, which was given to be a member of the man who drinks of My wound, of My body, wounded by yearning after the man, wounded for two thousand years, as My wound has not been closed yet and it has been as long as two thousand years.

I have looked at you man, how you want to rejoice over My wound, how you make your happiness of My wound, of My pain, of My life that I laid it down on the cross crying for your salvation from the sin. Oh, I want to raise you from the sin. Listen to My crying after you. Oh, how can you rejoice while sweetening yourself with the sin within you; with the fruit of My death? The sweetness of your sin brought God's death, and you say that it is the fruit of life, but it is the fruit of My death. You go to those who sell Me and you rejoice over the fact that you receive Me in you for your forgiveness. I am the slaughtered Lamb, and no one forgives Me anymore to save Me from the pains that come from the man; to save Me from the sins of the man. The man commits many sins and he gives them over to Me after he commits them. He goes to a confessor to take them from him and to put them on Me, and I am supposed to forgive him of them, and then he commits other sins, and this way the man does no longer release Me from the burden that is on Me, from My cross, as My cross is the sinful man.

I cry with a godly weeping; I have been crying over for forty years by this word, and now I opened the Scriptures from the end and I read them on the last page and say: «He, who is filthy, let him be filthy still. And he, who is holy, let him be holy still, as My reward is with Me and I come to give each one according to his deed». Amen. And for those who sanctified themselves and still sanctify, I say: «Blessed are they who wash their robes, that they may have dominion over the tree of life», over Me, the wounded One, so that I may give to the holy one from My wound and to be comforted by it sharing it with the one who loves Me with the same love as Mine. Amen.

I would like that the man may be healed of the spirit of his sins. The man loves his own self, and for his own self he sacrifices Me. A great many of people made seats for themselves and sat on them into My name over the people. Behold, those who love Me for themselves, and not for Me, make ranks, influence, feasting and power for themselves into My name, making the people to buy from them the forgiveness that comes from Me, and not the healing; for if the people would be healed of the lust and of the desire of the sins, who would walk buy the forgiveness and the mercy again and again, from those who sell them into My name; My forgiveness that has been for as long as two thousand years?

I mourn with a godly weeping and say: «Let he, who is defiled by sin, be defiled still, and who is holy, let him be holy still». Amen. My great wound hurts Me as much as two thousand years. And you, My little bride, you, My people bride, call Me, as this is written about you: «The Spirit and the bride say: "Come!" And let the one who hears, also say: "Come!" And those that are thirsty come and take as a gift from the water of life» Amen.

Oh, man come to the spring when I call you, when I come into your way with My bride, with the one which labors for Me, waiting for My coming. If you hear and if you are thirsty, come to Me, for I have come towards you and I call you because I love you, for I can love you much more and I can give you what you cannot find anywhere: My calling with My very mouth, My comfort by My secret hand and the glory of My body wrapped within the word, as I was wrapped in the cloud two thousand years in order to go into My Father and then to come back; as I ascended, wrapped in mystery, wrapped in the word, wrapped in the clouds by the word. Amen.

Give voice to the wedding doina, you, doina singers, for I have called you to the wedding to sing the doina. Give voice to your poems, you, poets who carry within you the feelings beyond you, for I have called you to the wedding to utter a sweet voice. Bring to the Lord a sacrifice of praise and receive as a gift the comfort for the gift, the root of the holy joys. The one, who believes, speaks, and the one who speaks is alive and does not die. The one, who does not speak, dies and is dead. Even if he believes, he is dead, for the work of the faith is the speaking; it is the testimony, a living speech from generation to generation up to Me. Amen.

I open up My godly being so that comfort may flow over you, those who are coming to the wedding. The spirit of the comfort is the richness that I want to give to those who come to the spring of My coming here, where I chose the manger of My coming, as I chose the manger of Bethlehem two thousand years ago. Receive the spirit of the holy wisdom, you who are gathered together for the feast. Receive and drink from the bowl of the comfort and comfort God. Come together in My Spirit, in Christ's Spirit. Only My Spirit can make you one, for My house is one.

Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! To you, those who believe into My coming; to you, who have taken to the roads for My word that brings Me on the earth. I stay for three days with you and for you within the word and I will give you to drink and you should learn how to drink.

Peace to you! And I will give you to drink. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Romanian Christianity, the second day

The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are glorified on the earth in days of heavenly wedding. The angels and the saints are the wedding guests from heaven, and those on the earth, assembled at the feast, are the wedding guests on the earth. Amen.

I am the Bridegroom of the wedding and happy is the servant that I find watching for My coming with days of wedding. I am and I pour out My comfort over those that came together to the spring. Amen, amen, amen.

There is no greater love than this, for I speak from near the Father and My speech fills the air and rejoices the angels and the saints, and it fills the earth and it rejoices those that wait for Me as you do, children from the manger of My coming down. I told Moses when I spoke to him from the burning bush in the mountain; I told him to take off his sandals for the place of My speaking was a holy place. And I tell you the same too. Whenever I come out with you from the manger over the earth and over the man you should not forget to be holy as in heaven, for the place on which I dwell with you is a holy place and holier still. Take off your shoes for the sake of it from those that are outside whenever I come out with you, so that we may appear with those that are inside. Take off those that are outside of you and those that are in the man and are not from God, and put on the armor of My Spirit for you, the Spirit Who protects Me and you, so that we may be from heaven, and this is how you should come back into those that are Mine, into those that are inside, for the place, which I put you on to stand before Me when I come, is a holy place, the place from where I speak over the earth. Amen.

Now we come out again. We come out with those from heaven. We come out with the creating word. Behold the garden of My meeting with the man. I said by the word and then this earth became heaven, and I glorify Myself with you on it and I give My glory with you to the man, and I give the man the comfort and love from above. The love from below cannot ascend into heaven, but the love which comes from above comes and lays down on the earth to make heaven, the heaven of love, the heaven and the earth of love. Amen.

Oh, the love from earth is not like the love from heaven, so that it may ascend into heaven. I give Myself over to the man with the love from heaven and I bring it with Me on the earth and I give it, but the man cannot take his love from earth into heaven, for the heaven is holy and the love which ascends into heaven is only holy love, love as Mine, love that loves without asking, but it only gives itself over and it gives itself completely. Amen. Here is why I cry with a wound, and My wound does no longer close. The man loves himself, and it is for him that the man also loves Me. The man's love is a love that asks for itself. The man has been asking from Me for seven thousand years. I have been giving everything to the man and he keeps asking from Me, as though he has not. Why does the man not have everything that I have given him to have, everything I have given him out of love?

Oh, children from the manger of My coming down, the man asks from Me, he keeps asking from Me. The man asks from God; he keeps asking from Him. How comes that the man does not ask God? Oh, the love on earth is not like the love from heaven, which gives itself without asking. The love, which does not give itself, cannot go up into heaven, the love that asks from the man for him. It makes My compassion and My love to come down to the man, but it cannot ascend into heaven. The man asks from Me and he has been asking for seven thousand years. Why has the man not been asking from Me too? I have been looking on the earth and no one wants Me to come down. It is written into the Scriptures that I come, and no one wants Me to come, and no one asks for Me to come. The man does not want to become beautiful for My coming. The man does not want to get ready for My coming. The man prepares for himself and he puts on ornaments, fragrances and soft clothing; moreover, he makes for himself beds and weaves crowns and then he puts the crowns and his victories on his head. Oh, only for Me does the man not get ready any longer and I look at the man painfully, with deep pain. I see the man's graven image and I am deeply aggrieved because of the man.

Oh, sons from the manger of My teaching, let us spend time with the man, weary sons for Me. You take your love up into heaven and with it you make Me come down to you and to the man. Let us dwell with the man within heavenly love. Bring them together near to you and I will pour Myself out in you as the good wine, so that the one who comes at My wedding with you may drink of My wine. You are My bride people; the bride which asks for My coming. Let us teach those who come to the spring to drink. Let them drink from the spring as you do, if they come to drink. To drink of this spring, which flows from heaven on earth, and it is a great mystery for the man to know how to drink. He who drinks of it does no longer die, and the one who comes to life does no longer give oneself to death. He who drinks is the one who comes to life and this is how one drinks of this spring.

Oh, children sons from My manger, why does the man really not like the way I made the first created man? I see the man's image and I see him displeased with his image. The god of the darkness of this age has laid down over the man and teaches him to make a carved image for himself and even the man to worship it.

Man, stolen from My arm, you let yourself be stolen by a foreign god from your first and last Father. Your feelings are no longer from God and they are rather from the world and the world closed the heaven for Me so that I may no longer come on the earth to bring the man to life from death, from his sleep deepened into My death in the man. I have completely died in the man. Oh, who is to breathe over the man with My Spirit in such a way that I may come to life in the man and the man to see, at My sight, his carved image in him, which he worships? Oh, where is My image and likeness that I put on the man's body and image? I look on the earth and see only a Sodom, and see only a Gomorrah, and the heaven is no longer on earth. I cannot stay with the man on the earth, for he has made a carved image of himself.

Man, you have violated My commandment! I told you not to make a carved image for yourself and you did not listen to Me. I look at you and your carved image hurts Me. Here is why the hostile man to you and to Me has been teaching you. He stays into your way with his merchandise, with his teaching, and you take from it, and then you die because of it. I have become a merchant and I come into your way and I open Myself up before you with those of Mine taken from the Father. I am not your enemy. I am the One Who gives life and I am the Life. Take from it too, for I open Myself up with it before you. It hurts Me when you tell Me that you love Me loving yourself. It hurts Me when you tell Me that you have Me having yourself. Your carved image proves this out and I am true in the word. Oh, what I shall do with you? Oh, how shall I take you easily so that you may receive Me and not hurt Me and not slap My hand if I want to work at your creation from Me? Your creation from now is not from Me and it is from you instead. The one who loves Me is the one who stays at his making. You have come down to the spring and I am this spring, the Son of the Father God and I speak to you with a heavenly voice and I try to teach you how to drink. The one who drinks is the one who comes to life. You have an image borrowed from My enemy and your enemy. Do no longer tell Me that you love Me, if you bear the image of the foreign one. I cannot be in your inner being if My enemy and yours appears with you outside of you, that is the world with its face, which has settled down on you image and it mocks it with an image foreign to God.

Oh, wandering man, I have called you to see My bride and to receive a longing for the bride who waits for his Bridegroom. The evil spirit is the spirit of the world. I have called you to see My image and I have called you to see My bride people through whom I glorify Myself over the earth for you, the one who is wandering away from his Father. I bring you from time to time near My manger and from it I give you My word, which is born in it from My mouth. Oh, teach yourself to speak from heaven not from your heart, for your heart is not right with Me. You say that you have Me in your heart and you do not need to have Me outside of you too, in your appearance, and I tell you that even the devils believe in Me, but they do not submit to Me. Behold, the one who does not confess Me, that one is not on My side. Who can confess Me? The one who takes after Me, the one who is from Me. Amen.

I deal with you easily, man that came to the spring, for I want to teach you to drink, and to drink usefully. That is why I call you. I call you to drink so that I may grow in you and for you to learn the love for God. My tear for you becomes a word of longing, which calls you under My tabernacle to stay with Me at the supper, at the wedding table, Romanian son. The longing for Me calls you, a longing as long as seven thousand years. I call you with comfort, for I do not want your pain, and rather I want your resurrection. Ask for Me. Or, do no longer ask for Me and here I am, for here I am in your way to take Me. Amen.

Behold the good wine, the new wine, the wine of My wedding. Come to My wedding, you, doina singers of the Romanian people! (Doina – lyrical poetry specific to the Romanian folklore which expresses a feeling of longing, of mourning, of rebellion, of love, etc., being usually accompanied by an adequate melody; a musical variety of the folkloric Romanian creation, characterized by its deep emotiveness and especially based on the feeling of longing. A good example by Doina is: Doina mourning or Mocirita & Doina de jale by Gheorghe Zamfir, r.n.) The wedding of the world waves at you and My wedding looks after you. The love for God makes you come to be with Him, and the love of God makes you have Me for you. However, I want to have you for Me, not for you, for I come soon, soon, and My wedding will be a feast forever, because the bride needs love, like her Bridegroom from heaven. My bride is My heaven on the earth in which I have prepared My bed.

Oh, bride people, I have prepared garments of wedding with My word and with your little hands, a garden with heavenly fragrances, a sweet tabernacle, a warm and holy pavilion, so that I may come with you out for a heavenly wedding and to comfort those who hear the noise of our wedding so that they may come to the wedding. Oh, My people, oh, My little bride, you are the little child, the one close to My coming, the little brother, who shares the wealth of his Father with all that are born ahead of him. Behold, I call out to the wedding. I want to remain only a wedding on earth and in heaven, and to be caught in its hora all those who learn what love is, (Hora – Romanian folk round dance with a slow rhythm in which dancers join their hands forming a closed circle; the circle which is formed by those that perform this dance; the melody by which this dance is performed. „If you got in the hora you must play it” = if you started to do something, you must keep to it, r.n.), the love between Bridegroom and bride, clean spouses, for where there is no love there is no sin, and it is on the day of wedding when the spouses are clean, for this is what the wedding day means, the love between Bridegroom and bride. The wedding of the world is the lie, which was put in the place of the wedding. And as for the wedding, here I am with it on the earth! I have spread Myself out with it from heaven to earth and I have made it into an eternal comfort over the man, only for the man to come and receive.

Man, how sweet My calling is, your calling to Me! Oh, do not be afraid. If you are sinful and are afraid of Me, you should no longer be afraid of Me, and come, as the fear for the deed and the fear after the deed is a greater lawlessness before Me than the deed itself, and you become unjust with God both with your neighbor and with My neighbor. Each deed has to be assumed by the one that commits it, and if he flees because of its deed, he is blamed by his deed; the one who flees is blamed two times more. He, who confess his deed, does not hide from it and with it and for it, but on the contrary, he comes with it into the open to be known, and that one is right with God and with those around him, and no one can judge one like this, since he punished his deed by his own conscience that is shown to everybody. He does not flee from the atonement for his deed, but rather he punishes his deed by his own mouth and heart. It is better for the man to blame his own deed than the deed to blame the man. Who is afraid? The guilty one. If the guilty came back to Me, he would not have to be afraid. But he withdraws into himself, and that is why he is afraid.

However, I have into My arms the comfort for the one who comes out from the dead to come to make him eternal, for the eternity comes on the earth, and the man does not believe what I tell him. The resurrection from the death is coming, and the man does not believe what I tell him by this word. The resurrection and the life of the age that is to be is coming and the man who will still live, will be like Me, for it is written: «We will be like Him, for we will see Him face to face». Amen.

The life of the age to be is the wedding that I want to establish on earth before the man. I establish it on the earth with you, My bride people, and My weary child, with whom I have driven and still drive the stake of the kingdom of the heavens into the earth, a new heaven and a new earth on the earth.

Oh, I would not leave the days of My wedding with you! My love is hungry after the man and My sigh is deep, and it hurts Me deeply. I leave the wedding supper cleared for you, children of My coming. And I will visibly come soon, soon, I and the heaven, full of saints and angels, and then we will sit at the wedding table forever. Amen.

Now, the spirit of My love is pouring out its bowl over those that have come to the spring, and I say to them: Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! I do not give it to you the way the world gives it to you. The world is My crown of thorns. The world is My pain and yours, wandering man. However, I give you the new wine and I comfort your being with My being, so that you may come into being, man, and for Me to be your Creator and your Master, for I make you free, because the truth is the man that is created by God. Amen.

I come down from heaven on earth to make the man again, and I am the Creator. Man, My calling is sweet, your calling to Me, your calling to life. Take and drink of the wine of My wedding, for My wedding is the life of the age to be. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity, the third day

I let down My word into its manger and I wake up My watchmen from the manger and they hear Me and take Me and put Me into the book. I become a scroll on the earth for it is written into the Scriptures: «The heaven will roll up like a scroll». Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, watchmen sons, you are weary in your bodies, but My mouth breathes from Me over you and refreshes you so that you may bring Me into being today too, and I come down in a sweet mystery with a comforting spirit over those that are gathered together from far away distances to the wedding, loved sons. The day of the wedding is the sweetest day in a man's life and the most beautiful one. The same is with Me, too. However, the day of My wedding is not a day, but rather it is an endless wedding then and it is endlessly sweet. Amen.

I work hard with all the heaven above and with all the heaven below and I make the man take part in the day of his birth, to make him grow afterwards and to put the day of his wedding on his head, the most beautiful day in his life, the day which the mystery of his eternity begins with, My wedding ring on his finger. Oh, how hard it is for Me over the man, how hard it is to have room in the man with the day of his birth, for the true day of the man's birth is the birth from above, for it is written into the Scriptures by which I say: «The one who is not be born from above, will not see the kingdom of God».

Oh, the man is too old in a perishable life and he has been playing with his life for seven thousand years. He has been playing with his birth and life until his death, until his last rest. The day of the man's birth from Me has been deeply darkened. The same is with the day of his wedding.

The day of the man's wedding is a day of dark for the heaven; it is a day of pitch dark. The man is too old in the day of his feast and I can no longer pull him out from them in order to give him days of life; to give him eternal days instead of his days. Oh, how shall I make the man hear Me and understand that the day of his birth is an everlasting day, if it is at all? The day of his birth is not over the man; it is not. The man only plays; he only plays with the day of his birth, with the day of his birth from heaven, from above; for that is birth, the day of the man's birth. What I see on earth is only dead man led by another dead man. The man goes to christening; he goes to be born again; he goes and plays with being born again. There is no man on the earth to have the spirit of the birth within him so that he may put on the man who comes to be born. The man cannot speak a word with the spirit of birth in him, for the man is dead, and he speaks likewise as well. There is no man to bear the mystery of his birth and to put it on the man.

Oh, how shall I make the man believe what I speak upon him? I tell the man that the life begins with his birth, but how shall I make him believe what I speak, so that he may not play any longer with his birth? I am the One Who gives birth and the One Who is being born. I am being born for each man, so that I may give him birth. The man does not reach to the day of his birth, for there is no one to show it to him anymore. I come and I appear as a day of birth into the man's way, a house of birth for the man.

Oh, I do no longer have any place to sit down in order to give birth, so that I may be born! Oh, I do no longer have any! Who is to hear My pain? I cry secretly and I walk through the dark and I do not come across any man. Who shall comfort My steps? The man has become darkness on My way to him, and I do no longer find any staff to lean on, on the way of My seeking after the man. I seek for the man to give him birth and a day of birth and then a day of wedding. I go after him with the day of his resurrection from the dead, to breathe on him with the spirit of birth and to give him life and afterwards to make him grow and to bestow the day of his wedding upon him, the most beautiful day in his life, the day which the mystery of his eternity starts with.

The wedding on the earth brings death to the man, My death in the man, in the man that takes the sin for life, the lust of the flesh and the pride of life. The one in whom I do not have any room with My image, that one is a proud man, and I am the beggar Who asks for him. I beg a day of the man, a day of birth for him, a day of humility within him, an open day so that I may come in and put into him the day of his birth, the day of My birth within him. The man should do nothing but let himself be born; to let himself for birth and to open his eyes wide to see the kingdom of the heavens with them, and then he should not get out of it, for outside there are dogs, sorcerers, fornicators, murderers, idolaters and all who work out and love the lie, the lie which keeps the man in bondage and death. The one who does not love the lie, that one is born from above. The same is with the man who is born from above, and I give him the eternal joy, the day of the wedding, the sweetest day in his life and the most beautiful day, the endless day. Amen.

I call out the man to a wedding feast. I call him to come and to exhort him to his birth. My wedding with My bride gives birth from it; it gives birth to a new man out of it and then it makes him grow until the day of his wedding, an endless day for the man. Amen. Oh, My people bride! I have prepared with My word, and with your little hands I have prepared birth houses. The birth pangs come over Me and I want to get rid of them. I want to give birth to the man. Oh, only if the man would come to his birth, so that I may get over the birth pangs, over My pain for every man who does not want to be born! I am the One Who gives birth, and I am the One Who is born. The man's birth out of Me is My birth in the man and of the man, and then the man has to give Me food, to make Me grow and then to make a wedding for Me and to become a bride for Me.

Man, teach yourself to come to the day of your birth, to My birth in you and of you, and take Me and cradle Me and grow Me and love Me as you love your babies and keep Me away from death, man, so that you may not die without My life in you. He who does not have Me for his life that one is the dead I have been crying after for seven thousand years. I have come to give life to the dead, but the dead do not want to hear My calling to their life. I cry and I sigh near the dead man, and I cannot give life to the one who does not want Me to give him. I work hard to make the man take part in the day of his birth from above. The one that is born from above that one is like those from above, and the one that is not born from above, is like those from below, like those without Christ.

Man, I want to teach you to work out miracles. Come so that I may teach you to do miracles. Do not work the way you know, for what you know and what you say are not miracles. No one tells you what a miracle is, but I tell you. Miracle is when you do My will and not yours. You cannot do a greater miracle than this. Oh, if you, man, do this miracle, then I will be your Lord and your God, and you will be My son, and I will relieve Myself of your travail pangs. Then I will give you the day of wedding, a sweet day, a sweet day without end. I will be your Bridegroom and you will be My bride, and we will live forever as the spouses of the wedding and the earth will be our footstool and the heaven our comfort. Here is the miracle that I teach you to work, man! Oh, come, so that I may teach you to do miracles, for what you do are not miracles. Miracle is to wipe out My tear that cries after you. Miracle is to cut short My pain that suffers within Me for you. Miracle is to be born from above, man, and then to be. There is no greater miracle than the man born from above. Do not be ashamed, man, with your birth from above into the middle of the world without God. Do not cover yourself with the world to tell Me that it does no longer receive you in it, if it sees you according to My will. You are to make it ashamed of its rouge, for the world is not beautiful in its face and that is why it dyes and with its dye it entices you to be like it and not like Me, for it is seen, but as for Me, I stay seized within a great mystery and the world cannot see Me.

Behold, what great miracle is to do My will in the midst of the world, man. If you let Me make you according to My image and likeness, you will raise the dead to life, man, and you will be like Me. Oh, do not let the dead without resurrection, for here is how much resurrection I want to give you, to the dead in the graves and to the dead without the graves, man! Oh, look at My bride people and receive My image from it and receive the love between Me and My bride. The love between the Bridegroom and bride is an endless love, and if it comes to an end, then it is something else and it is not love.

You, doina singers, who are called to My wedding with My bride! If you love Me eternally, always come to Me, for the love comes endlessly to the One from Whom it originates over the man. All of My gardens, which I make My bride to take delight in, are sweet gifts that I want to give you from time to time, so that in them, you may feel My love, between a Bridegroom and his bride, and the bride's finery, the sweet gifts for the man. Adorn My gardens with the sweet speech of the doinas and poems, which are hidden into the soul of this people, the Romanian people, and the chosen people to be a house for My coming after two thousand years. Come into My gardens and come with a holy love; come with a holy self-consciousness and come with the wedding garments, for these gardens are made out at My word and as the result of the labor of My bride, My bride people, the bride who sacrifices herself for her Bridegroom in order to give Him life of her life, the same as her Bridegroom gave her. Do not be merciful to the world or ashamed of it. Be merciful to the angels, not to the man, and clothe your body with garments of wedding, you, sons and daughters of the people, who try to come to life at My word, which calls out at the dead to come to life.

You, daughters of the people! Let the man come to life, for the man's death came through the woman. Put on the wedding garments and make your heart, your mind, your body and your face virgin. I suffer pain in the sons of the garden of My word. I open My gardens for you to come to the spring and to give you My love from them. Do not make any abscess on their body and teach yourself to present yourself with a holy coming, when I call you to give the love and the comfort, broken from everlastingness, so that I may draw you to the Father. Oh, if I did not put aside the manger of the coming down of My word, it would not be My manger, and I would not have a place where to settle down, so that I could come out as the word from it over the earth. Moses climbed up the mountain alone and I spoke with him from the burning bush on the holy mountain, and his disciple remained at the foot of the mountain. Behold, I wrote on the stone "My manger", so that the man may know that it is Mine and not his. The man would have come to Me as he was and would have crushed My chicks from the nest, and I would have no longer had any nest and any chicks to come to feed then on those from heaven and to be fruitful through them and to give them seed to sow on the earth.

Man, become a miracle maker, for the greatest miracle between heaven and earth is to do My will, and I will call you a miracle maker and a love maker. Amen.

Now, sons from the manger, give relief from Me over those who have stayed within a heavenly wedding on the earth with Me and with you on the hearth of the little village of My word, the Bethlehem of today, in which I, the Lord, am born as the word into the manger in order to give birth to the man from this word, to give him the day of his birth, and to give him the day of his wedding and the love of his wedding. Amen.

My mouth speaks through the little mouths of those who are anointed during this time, over the sons of the garden of My word, and My mouth says: The garden of meeting and the tent of meeting is sanctified and blessed into the name of the Father and of the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

Now, we go with a song of wedding, sons; we go into the house of meeting, a house worked out by My word and by your little hands, and I say: The house of meeting is blessed and sanctified into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

I have prepared a place, so that where you are, I may be there also, and to be with all the saints and angels and to be with you. I have prepared a place, so that where I am, you may be there also, and from time to time, to come together with you around the man, and to give him of the wedding love, and that we may arouse in him with the love of the wedding. Take the book and declare on them their release from the passions and from hostile chains, for many have come together near Me and near you; I have given them new a wine and I teach them the wisdom of life and the eternity of life and I let them take from Me; moreover, I give them the day of the birth, if they want to receive it. Raise your little hands to Me and ask into their name, anointed sons.

Now, I teach them as well, to ask and to receive.

Raise your hands, you who have come to the spring, and say:

You, Lord and Son of the Father from heaven, break the strong stiffness of the sons of the people and get into their graves and enter them, Lord.

If we still are stiff-necked, refresh Yourself within us, for we have opened to You, so that You may come in.

Teach us Your mind, so that we may think as You do.

Teach us Your birth, so that we may give ourselves as a warm manger for You to grow in it and to be our Savior.

Teach us Your growth, so that we may grow for You and to give You all the honor and supremacy, so that You may be the first among many brothers.

Teach us the wedding and make us the sons of the wedding. Amen.

And if You want, make us, Lord, Your Bride, and make us want to have the spirit of the bride, for the Spirit and the bride say: Come! Amen, amen, amen.

I, the Lord and the spring of life, give you. Receive, for I give you. Receive and carry, for the one who receive is the one who carries. Amen, amen, amen.

Behold, the spirit of the bride is calling Me; it always calls Me and I always come. And I will be again with days of wedding in the house of meeting and in the garden of meeting and we will greatly spend the wedding: the saints and the angels, the Father and My mother, the heaven and the earth, the tree and the water, the stone and the spirit, the air and the man, they all will rejoice. And My coming will also rejoice, and soon, soon, I will be seen with it. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the birth of Saint John, the Baptizer

I am Who I am. I want to be welcomed with bread and salt when I come down on earth to the man, for I am God. I strengthen My path, so that it may sustain Me on it, and I come, for I am the Victor. Amen, amen, amen.

John, My baptizer is waiting and looking at Me to come into the garden as word. He wants to prepare My way to come in, for he is My Forerunner, but the saints do not come without Me, because their work is through My word.

Oh, there is only sighing from heaven to earth! My coming down has become very difficult, and the saints are looking at Me and they are sighing with mourning and are waiting for Me to be able to do it, for I am the Almighty.

— Oh, good Lord and Lamb, give Me the word beforehand to prepare Your way, for the grace of repentance is the greatest power, which comes from heaven on the man, so that the man may be able to have You, not separated from him, Lord King. Amen.

— May your love for My way to the people be blessed, for you were the forerunner angel over the people in such a way that they could receive Me after My appearance at the river Jordan. Go as the word before Me into the garden, for you sigh from dawn to make My entrance so that we may work and strengthen the watchmen set in the garden and to give them much life in order that they may also give us their hand for My second coming from the Father. Amen.

— Oh, Lord, resurrected from among the dead! When I opened Your way for the first time to the people, so that they might know where do You came from and who You were, You were then the God born of the Virgin and we walked together, as we were born as the same time. I was born before You and You came after Me. You were smaller, but You were the greatest into the kingdom of Our Father, and I was preparing the people in order to receive You from the Father, for this is how the time of old was. And now You are the resurrected God from among the dead, for after I announced You then, for the repentance of the people and for Your appearance from the Father, Who came through the birth of the Virgin, then the people put You to death as a man; the people sent You among the dead. But You came up to life as You spoke of it ahead of time, and the Father testified about You before the people by Your resurrection, Lord, and You proved out to be the King of the earth, for You overcame death, because You were one with the Father, the Almighty.

Oh, no one welcomes You with bread and salt, and You are the King from heaven over the earth. No one lays the table, so that You may sit with the man at the table, Lord. The man does not welcome You as a King. The man sits down at the table and asks You to bless his food and to sit with him at his table, and You do not have any bread and salt from the table of the man. You are not given any regard at his table. Only the man and his house eat, and You have nothing to receive from the man.

Oh, man, invite a king to your table to eat your food with him, and then see to your food and to your business and do not take any regard to him. What do you say? Will he ever come to you? If you invite him, then speak with him. Give him the honor, if you invite him at your table, for you have a king at your table. Do not despise him at your table, if you invite him, for the king becomes angry and does no longer come to you and he does no longer show you any favor in his kingdom.

Lord, I make way for You to the people. I teach them the humility and repentance, for he who does not taste humility with his heart, the humility, which makes him beautiful and living; the man cannot receive in him the repentance gift of life giving. Repentance is the remedy, which gives the man eternal life, and not separation from You, Lord. The one that is unrepentant stays separated from You and does not welcome You with bread and salt for You to be King for him and to sit with him at his table. Oh, only if the man's life would be a table, which You always stay with him at, only that one would be the wise man whom You wait to be. However, if the man is only a man and that is all, and he is also in the world, what should we, those from heaven, do with such a man, Lord? The man should be a fish, so that he may be forever alive. The fish dies only if he gets out of the water. And I want to tell Your people not to get out of the water, for the Christian is like the fish, and it is not in vain that the sign of the fish, the sign of the Christian, has been handed down from You, Lord. And if you come out from the water now and then with Your people, let them first take a deep breath and stay within it and not stay within the breath of the world, when You call the world to the bank of the river of life in order to give him resurrection, for the world is like the world and not like You, and Your people has life and breath from You. And if You had not appeared to the world with them, where would the world have known from, that it had no life? You have life in Yourself, and the life is the light of the people. The river of life becomes word and fills up the earth, and I go out before You to make way for You, Lord.

Open to the Lord, you, watchmen from the garden, you, those from here, from where the Lord makes the word spring over the earth. Open wide to the Lord, for He is coming with food; He is coming with a feast. Amen. Take bread and salt and make Him sit down and rejoice with supper from heaven between you and over the earth. Make straight paths for yourself, so that He may walk on them and reach to the ends of the heavens, as it is written about the Spirit of the Lord, Who will fill up the earth, from Jerusalem.

Come in, Lord! Amen, amen, amen.

— We come in powerfully and with solid food for it is a day of heavenly meal for you, My baptizer from Jordan. We enter the garden and we enter the book, for the river of life has its spring from Me here, as this is how I have been well pleased in the beginning and in the end. The word is the river of life, and I have built the man with it. First, I made the word spring from Me and then, I have worked with the man, and then I passed through it with the river of life, and the life has remained in him. I have breathed with My mouth over the man and the river of life has come out of My mouth and it has become word and has remained in the man and then the man has spoken and become a river.

Oh, My people, come son, under My mysteries; come in well and stay well under them in order to help Me and to have you as My help, My people, for the mysteries are difficult to perceive, and you need to perceive them. Amen. And how can you perceive them? You should perceive them only with Me and not alone, My people. And here is what I tell you: I tell you the mystery of the river of life. It springs from Me and it flows through man, My people, and then the people gives to each other from it, and the man lives, rejoices and spends a good time, having a good heart from which the power comes, My people, for the man «does not live on bread alone, but he lives with every word from Me», as it is written into the Scriptures.

Oh, the man cannot drink alone from the river of life. No one gives any party alone. Even the worldly man goes to another worldly man or he goes to the pub when he misses parties and wants to drink, because there he has companions, there he has someone to drink with and forgets about his distress and about his passing life, for the passing life is a burdensome life. The same is with the one who longs to drink of the river of life. If he drinks alone, he drinks it in vain. He has no way to rejoice alone and to have a merry heart from which power comes, and he seeks companion to drink with, he seeks friends to have parties with them and to get drunk so that he may forget about trouble and to remember the eternal life and the joy that comes from it. But it is hard for the one that does not like drinking. The dust is heavy for the man in the world, if he does not like drinking and parties to forget about the oppression. The heaven is heavy for the one in the church, if he does not like drinking and parties, if he does not drink of the river of life, as he has to drink from it.

The river of life passes from Me into the man, and then from man to man, and this is how one drinks from it. I, the One, Who makes it spring, cannot turn it back, so that I may drink of it, but only if it passes from Me into the man, and from man to man back to Me, for it is written: «The Lord holds a bowl into His hand, full of clean and sweet smelling wine, and he gives it from one to another». Amen.

Oh, My people, strengthen yourself, son, under My mysteries and stay well under them to help Me and to have you as My help, for My mysteries are hard to perceive and you should perceive them only with Me and not alone. Look at the world outside, which has no propriety, and see how hard it is for it to understand you, when I come out with you to appear with My growth in you, in such a way that the world may come to life through you, My people. Oh, do not cry over your troubles, which come over to you from outside or from your midst. Do not cry, you who has the river of life above you. Come together for praying. Become a cluster and pray within your painful spirit to have fellowship with Me, so that I may hear your sigh and to look for your comfort, to find it and to give it to you, for the prayer of the righteous man has much effect in its work. No one can pray for you but you, yourself; you and the saints from heaven; you, My people, for no one can get to Me for you, because you are great over every man on the earth, because this is how I have made you. You can pray for the little one, but only you can ask for yourself in your troubles. I take you into My arms, so that you may bear the trouble, for you can hardly walk. Strengthen yourself within a spirit of church, because church means prayer in unity under pressure, and it means humility and repentance under heavy circumstances, and it means hope to the Father, My people, and it means cleanness for patience, and the Father will clothe you again with His comfort and in His Son, but ask from the Father, My people. The evil spirit hates you because I love you. But you have to hate him as well, so that it may not come to you, and you should always hate him and love Me instead, My people, and to help Me to have you. I am aggrieved because of your trouble, because of your not having the comfort, but keep on being patient and remain with your spirit within My spirit, as this is how I have taught you, My people. Kindle the fire, son, to get warm, and stay away from everything that is not from Me. This is what you should do when you endure waiting for My mercy over you. You have nowhere to take anything, but from Me. Otherwise you become guilty and I keep you away from this guilt, exhorting you only from Me. I will comfort you in all of your sighing and I will protect you, for I protect the one who has My will in him and not his will. I will protect you from the one who has his will in him and I will keep you as a sapling, carefully protected by My hand, for it is hard for the man on earth, My people.

I make My way to you. From the sigh of the saints I catch victory for you and for them, and I feed you on the river of life, but learn well the mystery of the river of life, My people. I have taught you to be selective, as far as your food on your table concerns, and not to eat any mixed food, for the man of the world, who seeks after Me, has become a wastebasket, in which he gathers all that he hears from the people about Me. However, I kidnapped you and I do no longer know how to keep you and protect you and how to teach you not to drink from anywhere but from My hand, for that is why I gave Myself to be your Shepherd now, in the end.

There is great trouble on earth. My house, My garment, My necklace, My glory, My name, My gate, My door, My voice and My book have been stolen from Me. The man has taken glory upon him and he has put Me into the darkness. But you are not to take from anywhere, for this is the time of the whitewashed prophets, who do not wash away of themselves, and they rather wash only their bodies with good smelling soaps, and this is only to allure the man. However, I kidnapped you from the way of destruction and I have taught you to close the door and to hide until destruction passes away, that is the man with his whitewashed face who calls himself the man of God.

Woe to the man who washes himself only on the outside and he does not wash of those of his inner being! That one is dirty no matter how much he would wash, for those from his inside make him dirty and therefore, he is dirty. However, you know the mystery of life, for I have taught you and told you to always work and to stay alive through its work, for the one who hides from Me and from the man, so that he may not be seen, that one does not love the work of life and does not wash away from those of his inside. Woe to the man who loves himself, for that one does not come to My wisdom, because it is with those who deny of their own selves for Me and not for them.

Oh, My people, how shall I teach you anymore? I teach you to receive from My teaching and to live it, My people, and to make a way for Me to you, son, but only I should breathe upon you, for otherwise you hurt Me. Oh, it hurts Me when I see how hard the man is being born. I suffer from the one who does not like the birth from heaven, from the one who wants to work out his making and not I. However, you should be careful and alive, washing into the river of life and learning its mystery, My people, and its order, son, and its propriety for My dwelling in you and the one for your dwelling in Me. Ask for Me, so that I may be in everything you have with Me and in everything that I have with you. Ask for Me, My people. I am Who I am, but ask for Me to be and to be with you. Amen.

I also ask for you to be. Be good near Me, son, for those who are good are those who are pleased in heaven and on earth. And I, the Lord, will search out your pain and I will answer you soon, soon. Amen, amen, amen.

The eighth Sunday after the Pentecost

I feed you, My people. If I did not feed you, you would not be what you are. I want you to be and that is why I feed you. He who has not got the food that you have from My mouth, from My work with you, that one is something else than you. I hardly wait for you to be, the one of today, My people. I have been waiting from the beginning of the world for your time to come, My people, for My time with you to come, son from the end. Open your little mouth and eat from Me. Open your ear and your heart and eat, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, all the angels and all the saints eat from this table of My word. When they see that I have a dwelling on the earth, and when they see that those, who are not seen, become word on the earth, they feel their time with Me and they see their great redemption and joy they have not dreamed of, neither on earth and nor in heaven, for the mystery of this joy has been covered even by the Scriptures, My people.

I hear the learned people who say: “Where is written in the Scriptures this work that God is doing with them?” Oh, if the Scripture would be only a book and that is all, the man would find what is written in it, but it is the mystery of My works, and in its words it is well seen the mystery of this work that I do today with you, My people. However, the man has not been used to the mysteries. He is used to a tangible thing, with black on white, if he did not want to pass with Me beyond it and to learn of My mysteries. The word of the Scriptures covers My word of today in it, and I have spoken to the man, dull of his mind and faith, and I washed Myself off the man’s unbelief, for the unbelief comes from sins, My people. Two thousand years ago, I told those of that time, those to whom I was speaking the word of life and I said to them: «He, who wants to do My will, will understand this word, for it is from God and he sees Me in this word». But behold, the unbelief comes from sins and it has never come on another way, for haughtiness, conceitedness, self-love and greed, all are the spirit of vainglory, sins against faith, and the man cannot prosper because of them, when he tries to come after Me.

I have always fed you, My people. I have sons from the manger, who I give to, so that they may also give you from Me and both they and you may grow up, My people, and so that you may not hold back your growth, for the grown man is the one who does My will. I have to make you grow on and on until there, where the unfaithful man is able to see Me in you and say: “Who is this people?”<sup>157</sup> and to say again: “Let us climb up this mountain to learn the laws of life, the laws of the Lord.” Amen.

Oh, My people, the laws of life flow from Me over the earth, and you are the riverbed on which I come. That is why I come out with you and the man learns to know that you are My people, that he sees you with Me and not with him and not with his world. When the world comes to you

---

<sup>157</sup> «As he says also in Hosea:

I will call them ‘My people,’ which were not My people;
and her (country) ‘beloved’, who was not beloved. (Hosea 2/23)

It will be that in the place where it was said to them,
‘You are not My people’,

There they will be called ‘children of the living God.’ (Hosea 1/10)» (Romans: 9/25-26.)

to see you, it comes because I call it. I and not you. I call it and I give it food from My table with you and I make it rejoice with a holy joy over My table with you, and I call it to life, but its worries pull it back to them, and it is hard for the world to come to life. I put you into the midst of the world to show it that it can and that it does not want to do it. When I came and became Man from man, like the man, I did so to show the man that he can and that he does not want to. Now, when I have settled you down before Me and before the world to do My will, I did so to show the man that he can, but he does not want it. You are the sign that I have given to the world before the great day of My appearance, when I will stand in the clouds of My coming with the saints, above the world, and when you will be lifted up near Me in the clouds to meet Me, My people.

No one is able to welcome Me when I come, and that is why I, Myself, make this preparation. I need holy land and a holy man on it. I need faith and faithfulness from the man. I need love only for Me from the man. I need room and board, garment and food from the man, and all according to My will, and all these to wait for Me to come. I, Myself, make this preparation for Me, I, Myself, for the man does not know to do it for Me. I, Myself, have settled down you before Me and I have prepared you, My people, and I have given you as a sign to the world before the day of My coming. Amen. You are the sign of the Son of Man; you are the people who have carried through the world My life, My cross, My yoke, and My gospel over the earth. You should not be afraid. You should not be afraid in any way for you cannot, but it is I who can. You must only be; you should only stay as I put you; you should only do what I give you to do, and I am the Lord and I fulfill it. Amen.

Oh, world, and world again! Oh, world, adorned with the ornaments of your vainglory! I give you so that you may be able to see. Amen. When you see that I establish a people into your midst to see it, when you see that I prepare it in My holy laws, and when you see that My love and its love dwell together in its midst, when you see My holy fellowship with it, when you see its food, its little garment and little house, and all that it has to its likeness with Me, you should know and understand and then to believe, that I, the Lord, am at the door and come. Amen. This is the sign that I have given you until I come. This is the messenger that I have sent to you to let you know that I come. Amen. I am the righteous One, and I do not take you by surprise with My coming. Moreover, I also call you at My table with My disciples of today and I release My word of life on you to let yourself be seized by it. However, you have been taken away by the worries of your life, and you do not want My life. There is still a little while and you will want My life too, but it will be then far away from you. I still wait for you. I will be waiting for you for an hour and then I will no longer wait for you. I am the Man, Who comes from the Father to you, the Man, Who comes from heaven after the man to draw the man to the Father. If an angel would come after you, you would say that you do not really understand. I am the Man, Who is made from the Father in the man, and I took the image of the first created man, his image and his likeness before his fall from God, and this is how I came, and this is how I have come and every eye will see Me when I come, so that it may not be any perplexity; and it will not be, for where the Lord is, He is within all His wisdom in heaven and on earth, and I will show My sign to know that I am, for I will lift up My prepared people and I will stand with it in the clouds in your sight, oh, world, which are slow in coming! And then you will understand that I was in your way with My word and that you did not want to know Me and that you did not even want to come and that you did not want to wait for Me to come, so that I might take you into My bosom. However, I still wait for you. I will be still waiting for you for one hour and then I will no longer wait and I will stand in the clouds and I will call out My people to come to Me in the clouds to meet Me in your sight, for My truth. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, My people, let your humility in Me be your mystery, the mystery of those who know to live for the eternal life. Let this be your mystery, for it is hard for the man without God, and for him to also know the deep and the useful work of this mystery, which gives the sweetest eternity to the man, where there is no sigh. There is no man on earth to know to welcome Me with bread and salt. No one knows the mystery of humility of the heart, a mystery, which meets the Lord at His coming. No one knows but I, and I, Myself, make this preparation for Me in man and from man, as I have always worked in man, when I have established My things on the earth. Oh, I have no work to receive from the man's hand. If I did not teach you and if I did not always feed you, you would not even know it, let alone the man beyond Me! The man makes no claim of the man, of the man who asks for help, the one who takes over him the help from the man, from the one who agrees with the man's requirement, and each man should work this way to be pleased to God and not to the man. Behold, the man should not make any claim of the man, and he does not know this that he may not do such a thing; for, what do you know, man, whether you will save the other one? Oh, My people, only I should make a claim of you; only I. And you should feel that you belong to Me to do My will. Amen.

I will have a heavenly feast again and we will call the man to the feast, and there will be wedding guests and fiddlers, so that the world may know of My wedding too, not only of its wedding. Its wedding is not wedding but debauchery instead. Its wedding is lying. Its bridegroom and bride are a lie, and I want to show to the world its falsehood and to show you as My truth, My people.

Let us prepare for the wedding days, sons from the manger. Listen to My word and put it over My people so that it may be prepared for Me, for I show up again with My glory over the earth, to change the man's face for My celebrations with you.

You, who hear My word, stay well before My days with you and with My people on the earth. Teach the man to see God and to know its path to Him, for many got up with a desire for glory from Me among the people and they come in groups and pairs to work with the Holy Spirit over many, as they say, and they say that they know how to do it, but they feel good to this and that is all; they like to work over the people with those that they know about God, and they take delight in their work. However, I cannot take anything for Me from such work, because if the man rejoices over such work, then I cannot rejoice over it. Those, who have worked for Me, have been sent by Me, and their path was and is an ascent, not with pleasant joys, not with happiness, but with tears and with truth and sacrifice for Me and for the man, so that it may draw the man to the Father. Everything is painted on the paths on which the man writes My name. My path is as it was two thousand years ago, and I have had no room on it according to My will, neither then and nor now. That is why I make gardens with you and at you for Me, and they belong to Me and not to the man, and I call the man to see My glory that I have given you to carry on the earth. Amen. I always exhort you to know how to bear My face and My glory over the earth, for those who are feeble have nothing to boast about but only about My mercy and glory and about My power over them. Amen.

Prepare the days of the glory, sons from the manger. Put My people before Me for the sake of My face in it and for My glory through it. No one knows to do this but you, those who have from Me. Hold this preparation into your hands and show its face to the world, and show My face to it, and let My feasts with you and their face be taken to the margins, and give them a heavenly face, give them a heavenly life. Work into My name over the hearts of this little village, the little village of My word. Be with My face into its midst and give them a sign towards My kingdom into your midst.

Call to the wedding sons, and call in long and wide, for I will help you to be able to do it and to have. This is what I had been doing with the crows, which came to see Me. I was giving them bread, I was giving them word, I was giving them what they were asking for, so that My name could remain forever and My steps among the people, so that they might also be imitators of Me and to come to Me. And today I work the same too, and I work with you. You do not know, but I know how many people marvel at you and at My work with you, for I am the most wonderful Who dwells with you.

Now, I use the heavenly powers at work near you, to prepare the glory of the heaven on earth with you and the world to come and see the fire of love in which you stay and to get a warm by it. Amen. My love misses everything that will be on earth for it, and you are the way on which I bring for it on earth everything of it with you. And then we will meet together in the sight of all things on the earth and we will rise above, so that all may see My day with you, the day when I will come to appear with you to the judgment of unbelief, for this is what David said: «Lord, You make the judgment be heard from heaven, and the earth has feared and then it has calmed down». Amen.

And now, I speak ahead of time and say: May My feast with you be blessed; when I will meet the man in My gardens with Me, in the dwellings of your faith, for I make those that are pleasant to Me on the earth, at your faith, sons, and I can do everything through the one who gives oneself to Me completely. Amen.

May there be peace and love as in heaven and a garment of holy feast, sweet and clear sun, and lively speaking and lullaby in the little gardens of My heavenly feasts on the earth with you. Amen. Bread from heaven and from earth, love from heaven and from earth, word from heaven and from earth, feast in heaven and on earth, comfort from heaven and from earth, everything into My Spirit. Amen. This should also be at the feast. Bridegroom from heaven and bride from earth. Bridegroom in heaven and on earth, and the bride should be the same. Amen.

My word accompanies and prepares you and it can do it. Let the fiddlers come; let the doina singers come; let there come worshipers with praising sons and worship the days of My glory with you. Let there come sweet hearts to become sweet from heavenly life. And everything will come, as the word is. Amen. I, the Lord, the One Who comes, have sent My angels to bring together to the wedding feast, for the Father longs for My comfort.

The Father longs after you, My people of today. The Father longs after My comfort. And all those that are not comforted will long after you, soon, soon, and they will sell their life to have from Me a life as yours, and you will be the comfort of many and you will not know what you will be, and only those that will feel the comfort will, and you will be embraced from above and from below into the peace of My days with you, My people. You are the mystery that the Father promised when He sent Me on the earth to become Man. And then I caught joy, and I gave Myself as a sacrifice then, so that You may have My comfort today, and so that you may also be My comfort, for the real comfort have only those who believe in Me in the time of My coming for their comfort from now on and forever, and then from everlasting to everlasting. For these I am the One Who I am now, for this is the way for those who believe, and this was the way for all those who believed. Those who believe are not those who comfort themselves with those of yesterday, but rather they rejoice over those that are now, for I am always in the present, forever, and then I am in eternity.

My Father longs after you, My people from now. My Father longs after My comfort and His. You are the mystery of the comfort, which is being fulfilled now with Me and with My saints who have been waiting in time for those of nowadays, for you, the one who are My comfort, the mystery of the comfort, which is being fulfilled now.

Peace to you and be My peace and be My comfort, people of the comfort. The Holy Spirit, the Comforter, is being born in you and He gives birth with you to the comfort, which comes from Me over the earth, for the spirit of faith for My coming is the spirit of the comfort itself, the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who dwells within the sons of the comfort. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the saint prophet Elijah

My word is a heavenly feast on the earth, and the saints sit at its table and eat of it, and they eat longingly at My table with you, at My table with them, for the earth was made for My steps and their works to lay down on it. Amen, amen, amen.

I come down with a sweet feast on you, children of My people. I exalt you with My word to Me and I come down through it up to you, for those who are not seen bend down; they come down with My word up to you, up to you, because I have chosen you to be My footstool and My tent where I bow My head, bowing and speaking, so that My word and its book may be as on earth. Amen.

Many writers write on their own account, but you write from Me. There is no greater miracle than this on the earth, is not, sons, but who perceives it, so that it may look to it and take it into his house and live it, and to live it forever?

Oh, I have made so much love with you, that I have taken you from the people and turned you into My coming, sons who hear My word and write it into its book! Behold My coming. Oh, what a sweet mystery it is for those who understand it, for those who love it! The word is a sweet mystery and it contains only what is sweet. Nothing is sweeter than My coming to you in order to prepare you with a feast only for Me. It would be so good for the people to seek My coming to you in a great measure, for it is sweet and it cradles its sons and it prepares them for it. However, the people seek for something else; they seek for sweetness foreign to Me, and make a day of wrath over themselves, My coming with wrath for those who have spoiled My life in them. The more I cry out and the sweeter I become by this word of My coming to you, by which I call out the man to Me, the harsher I will become on the great day of My appearance, for all that have not reached out their hand to take and taste and live My coming with you, for every man. There is no greater miracle than My coming to you. I do no longer work over the world by the prophets, for now it is the time of the prophets of the lie and of the man's emptiness. However, I speak out Myself in order to prepare a people for Me and I have told the world that when it sees that I prepare a holy and living people for Myself, than this sweet sign brings My coming with it. When the tender branch of the fig tree sprouts, My coming is near and its great day is coming. Amen. I said through the prophets: «Before the great day of the Lord comes, the great and terrible day, I will send Elijah, the prophet, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the man with a curse». Elijah is My word and all the saints are within it, for it is written that «Elijah comes to turn the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous and to make ready a people prepared for the Lord». Amen.

My coming carries the spirit and the power of My saints in it, for all live in Me, as it is written. The mystery of the resurrection of those that are asleep is an unfathomable mystery, for I am the resurrection and all live in Me, because I died and I was resurrected for every man, in such a way that the man may receive My death and My resurrection from Me and then to live like Me. However, the man does not want to know My death and My resurrection from Me. No one tells it to the man to know for there are not people on earth to know this mystery and to live it and to be able to tell it to others. Elijah, the prophet, knew it from Me and he had a great zeal for Me and for My truth on the earth, and My wound from the man hurt him deeply, and then he made fire from heaven come down over those who were not wise and unfaithful and he raised the people from the dead and he did not put his zeal for Me to sleep; and so, full of fire as he was, I took him into heaven and passed him into those that are not seen. His zeal for Me was all a burning fire within him, and his longing for Me consumed him. This was his power, Elijah's spirit and power, as the prophecy about John writes in the Scriptures, and as the angel spoke to Zacharias that «John will be born to prepare the Lord's coming, the Lord's knowledge over the people, and that he will work within Elijah's spirit and power».

Oh, children of the heavenly mysteries, I, the Lord, am pleased with the man who lives and works with Me, as Elijah, the prophet, did. I give to this one the spirit and power of Elijah. To the one, who has the spirit of understanding, wisdom, counsel, might, knowledge and good faith, I give My Spirit, Who fills him up with God's fear and to love with it in all justice, and to be a belt for him and for truth. This is how I rested in Elijah, My prophet, and I long for the man to work with Elijah's spirit and power within him, for the time has come, sons. It is written that «before the great and terrible day, Elijah comes to turn the fathers to their children and the children to their fathers», those from heaven to those on earth, and those on earth to those in heaven. However, I tell you that Elijah has already come, because My coming has the saints in it, as it is written in the Scriptures of My coming. The saints have the Spirit of God and all live in Me and are like Me, and they have been waiting for Me to come with you, the smaller ones and to come to My day and theirs, the day of the fullness of time, the day of the Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

— I am within Your coming, Lord, and I am full of it, and I work with a great mystery, for I am in the body. I have poured forth My spirit and power in the smaller ones; and they are small, and I work with a great mystery; I breathe over them, I give them courage, I protect them from the fire on the earth and I keep them in the heavenly fire, which does not consume them, but it consumes only those that stand against them. I also was a fire and the fire within me was consuming those that opposed me. And I am the same now; I am like a flame and my zeal for You is also a fire, but I calm down to the ones who carry Your Spirit and Your saints' spirit on them. Their work is hard for they are small. If the people saw Your work on them, they would melt by the glory of this work. But they are small in the people's eyes, for Your Spirit rests upon them, and the people are not attracted to those of Yours, for they have theirs.

Oh, there is a cold weather for Your coming, for the warmth is the faith, but it is not any more. Behold Your coming, and there is no faith for it, for you have seen it over in time and this is how you spoke. Oh, if You did not put the faith in these who carry You from heaven to earth and make Your coming, You would no longer have Your way to come, for Your way to the man is his faith and zeal for You. I have longed for You with a great zeal. I have wanted You with a great passion. I was nothing but a burning fire for You all over, and my longing became a chariot of fire and lifted me up to hide me from the people. However, I am in the body and I go on a chariot of fire from margins to margins, and I have angels and saints and we take Your word from margins to margins, Lord, to turn those that are on earth to those that are in heaven to those that are not seen, for the heaven is covered from the man's eyes. The heaven is close to the man and the man does not see it, as he also did not see me, after the chariot of fire put me in those that are not seen. I work with those that are small of today, so that the disobedient may come back to the wisdom of the righteous and to make a prepared people for You.

The Mystery of my body stays hidden in the sons of this people, for they know of the mystery of My work by this work of the preparation of Your coming. I pour myself forth with my zeal and longing in them, but those in heaven have great care of them for they are small and Your work is hard upon them. However, I pour myself forth with zeal and longing into those that hear the whisper of Your coming and I exhort them to the spring and make a fire in them and the fire burns in them and it calls them to You, but the man is hard to be built in the man, Lord. The worries of life completely consumes the man, because he does not like You to take care of him as You took care of me, when I spoke to the rain not to come down on earth until Israel came back to You. And it did not rain for three years and a half, but for me You multiplied the flour and the oil from the widow's house, to whom You sent me to do Your work and to raise her son to life, because You had to work with him.

Oh, the worries of life cuts the man's walking to You, and it is hard for a man to be built from the man, Lord. I shake over the man with My love and My longing for You, and let the man receive it, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

I give you my zeal with peace and not with shaking or with a consuming fire, oh, sons of the people! But if you do not come to the Lord, I will become angry and I will take away your empty comfort and I will give you the worrying bread instead; to you and to those who stay over you in the name of the Lord; however, these do not take care of your souls. Here I am a forerunner in the Lord's way to you. It is the Lord with His coming down on earth, and behold His people to which He comes to give you the word of God's coming back as well.

The Lord is a word of resurrection in the midst of the earth, and you, Romanian people, do not want to know that the Lord stays into your midst with His coming down to you to make you the first among the nations. The Lord has always called you. The Lord has always laid the table on your hearth and called you to the wedding. The Lord has always had fellowship into the midst of His people taken from you and he calls you to come to the wedding and to be able to hear His voice. Change your clothes and come, for your garment is not a wedding garment. And if you do not come, I will come down into your midst with a burning fire and I will call you into account for your unfaith, for I am the forerunner and «I exhort the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous and I make a people prepared for the Lord», as it is written. Amen.

I am a consuming fire as the Lord has wanted me to be. I burned those that were unfaithful during my time with Israel and I protected those who bowed. I am in the body for I had no death, and I shake over the man and over the earth with a spirit of life from my living body, and I tell you, man, to stop for a while close to me and to remember that I did not die, and I remained for this time to make ready a people prepared for the Lord, the same as I was, loving and being loved by the Lord. I did not die because I loved the Lord, and I also do not want you to die, the loved one of today, for it is written into the Scripture that a people will meet the Lord in the body when He comes. Amen. And I and those who have not died in the body have to fulfill this Scripture from Adam and to the last people that will remain in the body to meet the Lord in the air, as it is written, and then the Lord to be on earth with His people, those who are and those who are resurrected for the Lord. Amen.

«The one who believes in Me will never die». This is what Christ, the One Who is, the One Who was and the One Who comes, said. I am His forerunner, and I make a faithful people that shall never die and that will fulfill the Scripture of those who are faithful and do not die, for they are those who believe in the days of the Lord's second coming from near the Father. Amen.

Come to the spring when the Lord calls you, sons of the people! Receive from my fire and consume the whole sin by it in you and follow my steps, which take you to the life without death. And believe this! Amen.

And as for You, my life, the Lord of life, seal with fire all my word over the man and make it come true. Amen, amen, amen.

— I seal the man with the fire of My love for the man, oh, My forerunner, when I come for the second time from near the Father. And give praying to the Father for the little ones, so that He may give them rain, for they need it. And also take their pray to the Father, for here they are, they pray and ask at My exhortation on them. Amen.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, let beneficial rain come down on the earth from you, building sons. Build the new age for you and for Me with you, for I come with all the saints, so that we all may inherit it, sons. Clothe yourselves beautifully and more and more beautifully with Me and with My heavenly adornments, because I will appear again with you before the people. Preach this in good time and announce well My days with you, so that their noise may be heard ahead of time, and for Me to take water from the well and to give; the well of the earth, to water it; the well of My meeting with the man, to build the man; Israel's well, so that I may make «a new Israel among the nations of the earth», for this is written that I will do. Amen.

We joyfully and sweetly spend the memorial of Elijah, the prophet, who prepares My coming and its fire, a fire that burns on two sides; either to resurrection or to wrath, for My day is great and it is also terrible, as it is written about it.

Peace and a day of feast to you, sons! The sons of My people are not with you, for I have a small people and few of them are with you today, but those from heaven are thousands and thousands of thousands, because it is an announced feast on this day. May the mystery of the holy longing come down on you and on all My people of today. The spirit of understanding and wisdom, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of good faith, and the spirit of the fear of God, all, in the Spirit of God, and all over you, those who are today the faith and its love from My coming.

The holy longing brings together the saints on earth and in heaven to the feast. Learn My feast with you and make feasts for the Lord and be full of zeal, of longing and of fire, so that I may burn with you the entire poison on the earth; everything the man spoiled to destroy through you, and to take the man out of corruption, sons.

My Spirit is all a fire for you and upon you. I do not want that it may burn you, but I want it to kindle you and for Me to be the fire in you, as I was in Elijah, the prophet. This is how I want to be in you, but you are small, sons, for you live that time when the people became too big and too foreign to Me. But I want to kindle the torch with you and to draw to My love the one who wants and the one who hears and the one who believes, and this is how I want to find him when I come. Amen.

I enshroud you in the spirit of peace, and I comfort you with peace and I celebrate you near to the saints in heaven, for I come with them to you, so that I may be with you, for we have a house with you, sons, and you are the sign, which shows My coming from the Father, the sign of the Son of Man, Who comes; He comes on His way. Amen.

I, Myself, prepare My way to come. I, Myself, make a prepared people, and I come to him and I have him as Mine. I belong to him and he belongs to Me. I am his face and he is My face. Amen.

And again, we will establish days of feast on the earth; the Lord with his disciples into the midst of the people. Amen, amen, amen.

The tenth Sunday after Pentecost

My Spirit is always close to you and it is more than close to those in heaven, for you are on the earth and it is hard on the earth, oh, children from My manger of word! I come together again with you through the word and I take you to My bosom to comfort you, for you have to give My comfort to the sides, for it is hard on the earth, and that is why I have always taught you to stay only with the heaven, always with the heaven, always with Me, so that we may be able to do it, sons. I comfort you for all of My people, for every son to whom I want to give My comfort in his pains. The child of this people has to bear My pains, and if he does so, I comfort him, so that he may be able to overcome.

I teach you, children from the manger, so that I may give to My people what I teach you, for it is good for every child of this people to be great for Me. If he is small for Me, I cannot do anything what is Mine through him, and if he is too great for Me then I give him from what is Mine, so that he may be able to bear and in this way to be released while sharing with him. The one that is small for Me must be carried on the back and the one who carries the small one on his back, that one can do less for Me, even if he could do more.

Oh, children of My people, I want you all to be able to work for Me, for I have many things to do on the earth. But you need the most of your power for love, sons, for it can work for the other one. My Spirit is always with you if you have love, for it can work for Me and it will make a dwelling for My Spirit with you, always with you. Amen.

Behold, I have given you rain, children from the spring. The prayer, together with the sacrifice, does everything it may ask for. Elijah, My prophet, had power in his prayer, for it was at the same time with the sacrifice. He did not take care of his body when he had to ask from Me, and he grew high with the work of the spirit, and I was doing as he was telling Me. The same is with you, small children. Anytime you want and anytime something hurts you because of Me or because of you, ask for the sacrifice together with the prayer and give power to the spirit, for the prayer has power together with fasting, so that the spirit may overcome and the prayer to have effect, sons.

Oh, how sweet the prayer that reaches to Me is! Oh, how sweet it is, sons! But you will say: why do I say this? Sons, sons, the prayer which reaches to Me is the one that is sweet to Me, but few people are on earth who make Me sweet with this sweetness. Every prayer, which gives Me power in the man and over the man and every prayer, which asks for Me on the earth, is a sweet comfort for Me. Where shall I find such a spring of comfort? The man who works this way is the one who knows to live and to work only for Me on the earth, and I take care of the one who knows to live and to work only for Me on the earth, and I take care of him for his body, for his soul and for his spirit. This kind of children I want to have now, at My coming, and I want to have power in them through their prayer, which keeps them inseparable from Me in heaven and on earth. Amen.

Sweeten yourselves more and more in praying and in a sweet life between Me and you, so that you may have power and comfort, for when I see that you ask for My sweetness over you and My kingdom with you, I give you, sons, so that the entire earth may see the Lord with you, His life and its sweetness with you. This way I become sweet and I do not know other comfort and do not have other on earth, for every man asks for him and the man does not remain with Me through his prayer, but he goes back into himself with everything he asks from Me. I have given you wisdom as in heaven, to make the heaven come down on the earth with you, and to always have in you the spirit of prayer, the spirit that dwells with God, the true spirit, which knows what prayer is.

Oh, sons, in all of your labor with Me, be with your word between you and Me on your lips, as I am with My word between Me and you. Each one of you should be in the other one with your word to Me and with My word to you, so that you may always be, and always be in everything. Day by day learn to speak the word from one another more and more, for by this I see that you are one among you and one with Me, and My rest among you will give you great peace, sons, and it will give you the power that I need to have into your midst, and anything you may ask you will receive twofold. Amen. Your speaking from Me is food for you and it has always been My bed with you. Be more and more attentive and great through this work of the holy speaking, for this will bring perfect health to your bodies, to your souls and to your spirits, which do not let themselves be carried on the back, and they become bearers instead, for each one of you need to have full power, sons. If I need power from you in order to be able to work with you, behold, you too need great power from one another, so that you may not be a burden to one another, sons. The heaviest burden is he who lets himself deprived of all that are from Me, for the one who does not give, is the one that is hard to renounce.

Mercifulness is a great refuge for the one who loves it, and the man does not have to stay a moment without it. Give yourselves to each other as mercifulness. Give yourselves to each other with My things from your inner being for there is nothing sweeter than this mercifulness that I ask from you, teaching you to be satisfied by it through brotherly commitment, because the one, who gives himself, has.

Oh, children from the end! Oh, children from My coming! The one, who is small for Me, has to be carried in the back and the one who carries the small one in his back, that one can do less for Me, even if he could do more. The one under the burden, even if he can do more, he cannot because of his burden. That is why I teach you all to seek My power in you and to become comfort for Me and then to one another, so that you may not be a burden for Me or for each other, sons. And if you say that you cannot, ask, for you need to have and to carry and to be able to work everything that I have for you to bear and to work. Amen. You must work with love everything that I tell you to do, sons, for the love with which you work them will bring to life the hearts of many, for I call the man on the earth to see My glory with you and to take in him the gift of the heavenly life on earth. I want to stay with you every moment, in everything you live, want and work, from morning to evening and from evening to morning. This much I want to dwell with you, for the man without Me near him is something else. But I want you, My people; I want you to be like Me, for it is written: «We will be like Him». Crying I ask you not to forget this, because the one who does not forget what I tell him, that one fulfills as I tell him to do and as I give him. Amen.

Let every child of this people ask for himself more than for the other one, for humility in thinking, in behavior and in word, is the greatest beauty of the holy child. Let there not be any stumbled heart among those that are My people, for the working heart for itself and for those around is like that one that gets out to the sides, the same way as it is, not being stumbled in itself. Otherwise the man gets hard for the one near him and stands behind the other one, and the way to haven becomes difficult for both of them. Oh, it is not so on My way. I teach you, children of My people, that I have to instruct every man through My speaking on the earth. And you should take great care of yourselves, for you are the Lord's people, and I am the Lord, and I am into your midst so that this human kind may hear and take of My work with you and to eat and come to life. Amen.

Oh, children of My coming, I make My coming with you. You are the Lord's people. I could not make you into a great people, into a numerous people, for each one has his own things, and I cannot take that one to My hard work, for it holds Me back and it holds you back as well. That is why I tell you these things, so that every man that knows that you are My people, may hear and use this measure and to let it into My hand, for this is what I say: you are the Lord's people. Amen, amen, amen.

From time to time I call the sons of the people to hear and to see My glory with you. I give you power and courage, and I give you help to become beautiful and to appear before the sons of the people for their wisdom. Organize your time well and the preparing work of My glory with you, and do not become small saying that you cannot do it, for you can when I can in you. Let Me work in you, and then you can also work. You can do everything I want you to do. Amen.

Oh, My people, oh, sons, do not forget that I want to dwell every moment within you, from morning to evening and from evening to morning. This is how long I want to stay with you, for the man is something else without Me near him. This is how long I want you to stay with Me, for the man is something else without Me near him. And this is how long I want you to stay with one another, all to be one spirit, one power, one love and one work for Me, for without My mind in you, I cannot have you as one, one in Me. Oh, it is a great mystery; it is great the wisdom of the one who knows to bring himself to Me all the time. The one who loves Me cannot do anything else, and that one is the one who loves Me. That one does not take Me from anywhere else but from Me for him. My people, you should seek to understand this mystery well, so that you may always be only with Me; however, to be able to do it is in agreement to your love and it depends on your fill taken from Me, so that nothing besides it may take place near it.

Oh, I look on the earth and I look among the sons of the people for a sapling to graft. The man does not let be cleaned of himself in such a way that I may take and graft him into the vine in order for him to bring forth fruit in the vine. I have to always take care of the vine, lest the foreign sapling may hurt My vine and make it to wither, and that is why, I, the Lord, always take care of it early in the morning. The work of My vine is a great mystery. The one, who remains in the vine, is known that he is, for he brings forth fruit, and the fruit is seen. It cannot be possible to be a sprout by itself. The work of the vine is one in its tender branches and it is not two. You should deeply think over this mystery, because it is for you. The mystery of the vine is for you, My people, for I have made you into a choice vine and no one is able to be called a choice vine, but only the one who eats of its fruit. Amen.

Oh, how much I love to eat with you and you with Me, My people! Oh, how much love I have for you, little son! I want that the love between Me and you to be justly measured, son, for it is sin otherwise. Where there is not a just measure, there is pain and it becomes a wound with the Lord. You should give Me your heart and your love in it more than all the saints up to now, My people. Oh, what would I have done if you had not kept your faith to the end? You are the faith which has been waiting for Me and this is your love. I will not be late with those that I promised for it, and that is why I have always dwelt with My kingdom above you, for you have to be protected from morning to evening and from evening to morning, My people.

Oh, how sweet the prayer that reaches to Me is! Every prayer that gives Me power in the man and over the man, that is the sweetest of all prayers. Where shall I find such a spring of comfort? This is how you should know to live My people. Do no longer be afraid when you know to do this, for I am the vine which gives life to its tender branches, the same vine in everything. The same with the tender branches, the same life have all, the same they should stay in the vine. The same spirit, the same prayer, and you should be the same, My people. The angels come to you to give you their life. And you should be likewise, My people. The angels are all one love after you, and the saints cradle you when I speak to you, and by their cradling, they are comforted, sons. Be wise for I take care of you early in the morning and I clean you and I cleanse you, so that your vigor may increase and for Me to give you great growth, My people, for I want you to be a choice vine, the same way as I am, and this is how you should bear fruit. Amen.

Now, you should stand up nicely and prepare yourself beautifully, for I stay again with you before the sons of the people. I will tell them to come and see My work with you, My people, and I will give you the honor in the place you stay and before the human kind on the earth, as I promised you by My word in the prophets and by the word of today. And you should work and be My fulfillment throughout the entire word that I spoke for you, for I am ready to show it being fulfilled within all its glory into your midst. Ask from Me for feast with great grace within it and upon you. Ask for a sweet time, a warm time and a blessed time in a great measure, for the sweetest prayer is the one that comes true, after it comes to Me. The one who believes in Me is the one who does My will in everything that I ask from him and that one never dies. As for you, My people, you should do this, and do it faithfully. Do My will and love it, and rejoice that you have My will upon you. Do not be said that you do My will and be blessed instead, so that you may be able to work through it, for great power have those who do My will. You should bear this fruit into the vine, as I exhorted you, so that you may be under My protecting tent, which protects those that belong to it.

May your sacrifice for you prayer be blessed to welcome the feast of My Mother. The prayer with fasting and the fasting with prayer, this is what gives to each other the power of fulfillment for those who give themselves to God. You should do everything well balanced, because I receive the love for the sacrifice, and not the sacrifice for love. The sacrifice is not needed for love, for it is above all and it stays near God with everything for the one who has got it, but the love is needed for sacrifice. Be wise, teacher children on My behalf, and make My people wise, so that they may be like you and to have love to be able to be like you. Love does not look at imperfections, but rather it looks at the greatness that comes after it. This is what I told My disciples and those after them: «Blessed is the one who does not stumble because of Me». My love was great for the man, but the man has looked to those that put it out, for the one who does not like to dwell with Me, is looking for a stumbling block, so that he may hide under it from My love which wants the man for it. Make My people wise for the greatness, which is to come upon the sons of My love. Exhort them to look at Me and to take Me as their path in everything may appear to be overcome, and exhort them for their life with Me. You should spend a sweet life among you, because you are the Lord's people. And soon, soon, each breath on the earth will call you the Lord's people and the Lord's city. Amen.

Do not forget to sound My feast with you, and to which I call the sons of the people to take from it. Let it be as I have spoken over the feast. Stay with it into your hand and prepare it beautifully, so that I may comfort every man through My work with you over the sons of the people. Amen. I give you peace and comfort, power and joy, because you are a little bit sad under the burdens of the weather, but I am your cradle and I embrace you and I take you with peace and easily through everything that comes; I take you into My arms, and I comfort you and I give you fresh vigor and I put you within the joys.

I will give you sweet joys on your feast, and I will work them out with you, but wake up well, and prepare the spirit of the feast, sons. Amen. My word is My cradle in which I rock you, for you are small and wounded from everywhere. Oh, you need joys, sons, and I, the Lord, will bring them to you. Amen, amen, amen.

Now I give you so that you may also give My comfort to the little girl who underwent the test from Me together with her entire house. I have into My hand all the good for My people, and I have worked to strengthen her, and she, this dear child for the heaven, understood My help for her house, for My people and for My work. I give you in order for you give further the word of My comfort and health into your spirit and body, as well as much wisdom, for My wisdom finds a fair place in it. It knows how to speak in a sweet prayer with Me, and I hear its advice with Me, for I give from Me to the one who chooses Me. Let everybody in her house be refreshed and always settle beautifully and sweetly within My wills, and let him stay in them with love; moreover, let it be a spirit of comfort in this house, a working spirit of new man, into My image and after My likeness. Amen.

When I see that the sons of this people are watched out by painful threats, I set to work for their good and I prevent the evil, which comes from the evil spirit, from coming down on My face. Now I have worked with love and I have removed the pray from the way of the evil spirit, for which it was looking out, and the one who is at Me escapes from the lurch of the evil one. I work with great love, sons. And the one who loves Me as much as this little child loves Me, who underwent My test, I fill that one with power to be able to do everything for Me.

Oh, strong little child, Veronica, My child, you are strong because I make you so, and not because you are strong. You should always be this way, and to strengthen yourself by working and to give power from My power to My people and you should not be ashamed to give it, for I work wonderfully, so that you may also mete out justice everywhere you establish it into My name. Get up well now, and work out the happiness from Me over all who are near you and near Me, so that all may be Mine. And now, let us prepare for a sweet feast for those that are in heaven and for those that are on earth, for the heaven longs for a sweet feast. And as for you, daughter of Abraham, you should believe in the promises of the Lord, your God, for your faith is My comfort, as I also had comfort from My good and faithful Abraham. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Lord's Transfiguration

Wake up and hear from Me, watchman children at My manger of word. It is a holy feast for heaven and I lay My table with you, for the saints and for you, so that it may be food in the day of My feast. Take and eat from My mouth and give yourself to one another and take liking and rejoice for it is a feast. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, how good it is in heaven and on earth when the man hears from Me! If the man hears from himself and only from himself, where is he supposed to know from the mystery of My feast with the man?

Come together at the table and listen! Oh, My people, listen to My voice, son of today, for the one, who hears the word from My mouth, is the one who obeys it in order to fulfill it. Amen. Oh, My people, take and receive, little child. Eat everything I give you and let nothing be cast away from My table with you. The one who eats is the one who listens to the word coming out of My mouth.

Oh, My people, every man on the earth hears from himself and from the man and he does accordingly; he does as he hears. However, you should hear from Me, so that the man may hear of My feast with you, of My table with you and of the food on it. I want to give food to the man from My table with you. I want to give to the man food of resurrection, for I open his ears to hear from Me and then to know that it is in this way too, not only in the way he has been taught on the earth. It should not be only like the man, but it should also be like God on the earth. Amen.

My work with you is kept within a mystery from your eyes, My people. This is how I worked with My disciples two thousand years. I became like them during My stay on the earth with them. Otherwise, they could not bear My being with them. I covered My glory in the midst of Israel within a great mystery. I was covered within a great mystery in My time with My disciples of that time for the man is small and cannot bear. However, sons of today, you should know from Me that the man cannot bear to see My glory. This is how I made the man then when I made him, for if I had not made him this way, he would have melted at the sight of My glory. But I wanted the man to be.

However, I have got My enemy, the devil. He hates the man because of Me and he exalts himself with a false honor in the man's eyes and he makes the man call him god in My place. Behold, the man can bear the false honor of the devil and more than this, he preaches it to one another until the news spreads all over, until the man becomes confused and receives from the devil with pleasure and passion, but this is not going to last long and it dissipates like the clouds without water and finally it goes where it came from, for this is the work of the devil. Behold, the man does not melt off because the false glory from the devil. But I cannot share My glory with the man for the man is small and cannot bear it.

Oh, My work with you is a mystery hidden from your eyes, My people. However, I wanted to be with you on the earth so that you may wear Me. That is why I became word above you. It was My glory by which the man measured himself so that the man may wear My glory and not be melted at the fire of My glory. It is written: «God is a consuming fire», but My heart is for the man and I dwell with the man as much as he can bear it. When I was with My disciples, I was worrying in every respect about them to leave the truth about Me so that they may preach it on the earth, but I could not reveal Myself with the glory from the Father, for they were small, as small as you are, for this is the way the man is made by God. Not even the man made by My hand was able to bear My glory from the Father, let alone the man that came out from the man! My glory from the Father is a great glory, and the man would melt by it. However, because of My love for the man I put on the man's image who was made by My hand, so that the man might be able to bear Me, but I was from the Father and My glory was hidden. When I want to give faith to the man for many, not only for himself, then I work with a great godly work over the man and I put him before Me making him according to My pleasure, and then I give him to know and to give further, or I give him to see and to speak so that I may strengthen the meek from the earth by those in whom I work from My things. This is what I did with My disciples. I prepared them Myself, as I did with Abraham, with Moses and with the prophets. This is how I prepared them and I opened their eyes to see for a little while a fragment of the glory of My body from the Father among the people, for then I was the Son of the Father, Who came through the virgin on the earth. I opened their inner eyes and they saw My glory, the glory of My body, which shined for a little while with its brightness, and they believed and testified that I came from the Father on the earth.

Oh, My people, My work with you is a mystery kept hidden from your eyes. However, I wanted to be with you on the earth and to glorify Myself above you with My word for you and for the man who wants to hear from Me. This is My glory, which is shared with you and which carries you in it so that you may wear it and to give it. And here is what I teach you: I teach you as I teach the small one, to be great in wisdom and to receive as much as I give you, for if you want to take more you cannot bear, for you are small and you are afraid if you take more. Be wise, so that you may receive only how I give you and to be comforted with what I give you, for you need comforting, son of today. I make you hear and listen to My word and to rejoice over it, and I do nothing else over you, for I am God and you are small and cannot bear more than this. However, if you believe everything I do with you, I make you as big as the heaven, and I let Myself be worn by you, for I am as big as the heaven, son carried by My glory hidden from your eyes. Oh, I do not give to make you tired. I do not want you become tired. I just want to comfort you and with My comfort to be able to manage, for the man cannot do it otherwise with Me, for My glory is far too great for the man.

Oh, I cannot teach the man, who receives from the glory of My enemy, the devil, as I teach you. The man who receives from the devil is not made by Me and that is why he receives, and My teaching has no room in that one, for that one hears from himself, not from Me, and that one is thirsty for glory and that is why he looks for glory. But the man who is prepared by Me, does not look for glory, but rather he seeks the sweet humility and seeks to be small under My hand and he stays under the gift of the holy faith, which makes the man God by grace, and this is how I dwell with My glory in man and near the man until My coming in glory.

Oh, the people will not be able to bear with My coming, for it will be with a great glory, and the man is not prepared by Me for it. Behold, the man does not let himself be prepared for My coming, and it will be in glory and it will burn like a furnace, for it is written: «Behold, the day, which will burn like a furnace, is coming». Then I will change My face, for the man will see Me in glory and he will be terrified, for it is written: «The nations of the earth will cry and will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the heaven with great power and much glory, to get together His chosen ones from the four corners of the winds of the earth». Amen.

Oh, how shall I do before My coming, which will burn like a furnace in heaven and on earth? What really shall I do to prepare the man for the glory of that day? It is coming soon, soon. How shall I make the man learn to hear from Me as you do, as you listen to those that you hear from Me? Shall I change the man in his face and heart before Me? How shall I do this? Shall I make the man no longer receive from himself or from the man and rather receive from Me? How shall I really do it? The man shall live from Me and from My word and from My work with the man; oh, how could I leave this change over the man so that I may look at his face and he at My face as I and My disciples looked at each other in the day when I revealed My glory in their eyes in the mountain and when they saw those in heaven at My right and left?

Behold, that day, which will burn like a furnace and will consume everything, is coming, and the man does not want to hear from Me so that I may prepare him for that day. The man has to be like Me on that day, so that he may not be melted in it. It is at this work of the new man that I work with you, children of the Lord's glory. I glorify with you over the earth with days of heavenly glory, sons, with heavenly and sweet feasts on the earth, to make the man used to My glory little by little, and then to ask him more, if he wants to be able to do manage, and little by little to prepare those that are My chosen from the four corners of the winds of the earth, for that day, which will burn like a furnace, is coming. I want to teach those of Mine to be able to bear it, for its glory is burning.

I embrace you with words of comfort as in My arms, children of My today's people. You, sons from My manger of word, give this comfort to My people that are gathered together for the preparation of the glory of My days with it among the sons of the people, and get used to it day by day too, for without this comfort, which flows from My mouth over this garden, the man, soon, soon, will no longer be able to do it in body either.

Let My elected from the four corners of the winds of the earth come, and let the sons of the people come and take from this mountain of comfort to get used to My glory, for the day, which will burn like a furnace, is coming, and soon, soon, not a body will be able to bear in it. Only those who are comforted by Me will bear with it; only they, for once with that day, their salvation is also coming, as it is written. Amen.

The sons of the people have their own glory, and they will be taken by surprise by the glory of My day and they will be burned by it. However, I still call them to make them used to My glory, which will not consume them. My glory comforts the man when it seeks with the man. The glory, which I want over the man, is My life in man. This is what I want to teach the man before the day of My glory, which soon, soon, will appear on the clouds of the sky. Then the man will be changed in his face and he will lose his glory, and he will get under My glory, either he may want it or not, and he will be melted under it, as it is written for those who did not receive the word of truth. However, I still call the man under My glory, which gives comfort, for I am the Lord of mercy and I call the man under My mantle, under My glory. Amen.

Let us make My glory grown on you, sons! Come, My people, come! I want, son, to boast about you before the sons of the people and I want to show you as My labor, as My fruit from the end, the seed put in the barn, at My Father, and with which I want to sow a new age on the earth, so that I may come down with eternity, My people. Come, son, come! In seven days I will glorify Myself with you, for you are My glory of today, and I want you to be the one of tomorrow as well, and I want to stay with you on the clouds and to glorify Myself over the earth at My coming. Get up at daybreak and learn about My glory with you and show yourself with it, My people. Leave the work of your hand now, for in seven days it will be the work of My glory with you. Come, prepare yourself! Be only ears and eyes for this preparation. You shall look at the sons of the people as they prepare for their days. And you should also prepare for My days with you, and you shall not be tired for this preparation, for it is for Me, My people, and I have no one besides you on the earth. Humble when I tell you this, for this is not from you, but it is from Me instead. Do everything you have to do, but more than everything, stick with all your power to the love between you and Me, My people. Multiply My supper over you, My union with you, My life that I gave for your life. I in you and you in Me, My people, for I am your power and your beauty. Amen.

The one who works out My love on the earth, appeases the day of My wrath, for the people made Me a garment of wrath and dressed Me with it. However, you, sons of My love, put the garment of glory on Me so that all the emptiness from the earth may be melted down before it, and let the man get out from under it and let him come to My glory, to the garment of My glory.

I made you into a garment for Me, My people. See that My garment may be beautiful. Let My garment of today be of pure gold. My love into your midst is My garment of today, oh, My people of today. Son, make Me a garment of pure gold and be My garment, so that the sons of the people may see who you are and what you are. Do not forget to stay humble under this word, so that the sons of the people may see what you are, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Romanian Christianity, the first day

Open to the Lord, you, watchmen from the manger of the word! There come wedding guests, sons, and I, the Lord, open up My bosom and I give them. Amen, amen, amen.

I long within My spirit after the man. I settle down with days of heavenly feast on earth and I call the man to give him of My wedding table with you, sons from the manger. I have always tried to draw the man under My mantle, as he does not know to come alone. There is no longer a way towards Me on the earth, and I make My way come down to the man and I tell him: behold the way, man! Get ready for it, for My way with the man is sweet, but no one speaks about it to you. I come to tell you and to offer you the way of life to get you used to it, for you are a wonderer and without any comfort on earth. Oh, do not be afraid! I come. Amen, amen, amen.

I settle down with days of wedding on earth, and My gardens get ready to welcome My wedding guests. You, My bride people, are tired, for it is with you that I have worked out the glory of My wedding, for the days of wedding are prepared with labor, but rejoice and cheer My wedding guests, for I, the Lord, have called and gathered them together from the four corners of the winds and I have fed them on the word and I have comforted them and made them used to know My coming and settle down for it, as you did, My bride people.

There is nowhere a table of supper on earth anymore. There is no longer a table of comfort between Me and the man. Oh, and the man is no longer used to Me at his table. No one speaks to the man about My table with him anymore. I long within My spirit after the man, for the man is a wanderer, and I come down from heaven and get into his way and call him at My table.

Man, you do no longer know of joys, but I come into your way and comfort your spirit and draw you to Me. I become a refreshing spirit of soul and I give Myself to you to drink Me for your life. Here is the spring! I spread My wedding table and I lay down abundantly and I become living water for your soul and I ask for your life to renew it and then to caress and scent you, as you see that I do with My bride people, who labors for Me for your life, wanderer man. Oh, My Father has sent Me on earth after the man, and I come and get ready coming, and I come into the man's way and teach him to know Me when I knock at his door, but this mystery has got lost in the man's heart.

Oh, My bride people, let us make the man get used to know what My dwelling with you is, My wedding with you before the sons of the people. This is My coming after two thousand years, a sweet coming and not with wrath. I came and called you and you heard and knew My voice. And then I embraced you and gave you birth of this word and then I adorned you with beauty from heaven and I gave you a new name and called you bride, My people, and you do the Bridegroom's will. Now we spread the wedding table on earth and announce it into the four corners for those that are called to come, and to put those that come at the table and to give them a heavenly spirit, to give them the spirit of comfort. He, who lets himself to My comfort, is seized by it and knows

My coming and comes to it and eats of it, for here is where I come, here, where I have prepared My place, that where I am, those of Mine may be here also, and to lay down My glory with them on earth, My word which calls the man to My table. Oh, I would no longer clear My table on earth, My table with the man, for the spirit and the bride have always said: "Come!" And I have always come at the voice of the bride, but My bride is small, and I have labored hard through her on earth and I do not find any kind of support for her. However, I am He Who is and I overcome for her and for My glory before the people, so that the people may come to her and to enlarge the tent of My wedding more and more and to bring the man under My protection, for it is hard on earth. The earth moans and always tells Me that its yoke is too heavy, that it is too loaded and is as big as seven thousand years.

I want you man to get used so that you may no longer sin, for I made the heaven and the earth for blessing not for curse, and your sin is curse on earth. I want you get used to hear My voice and to come out before Me and be refreshed to welcome Me. I settle down into your way with days of love, with days of wedding, and the days of wrath are for those who do not come. But come man, come to My calling and receive comfort and you will be able to cope with it, if you receive. I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and My Father gave Me to give you His kingdom and to make it come down on you and to become holy for it and to say: «Our Father in heaven, may Your name be kept holy, let Your kingdom come, and let Your will be done, as in heaven so on earth, Father». This is what you are to say, wandering man, for this is how I taught the disciples of My wedding to ask from the Father, and to become My disciples if they ask in this way, for the sons of the Father are those who do the Father's will. Amen.

You, those who came at My voice, which calls you to the wedding, open up your hearing and understand that the Father's sons are those who do the Father's will and these say: «as in heaven, so on earth, Father». I open up My path and come and teach you to be as in heaven so on earth, for this is the Father's will. Soon, soon, and there will no longer be on earth but the Father's will and its sons, for this is what Father wants. Amen.

I have come down on earth to be the man's life. Man, you have your life and you love it. Oh, why do you love your life? Its reward is death. Why do you love your life, man? I have come to be your life, for I pay it with My death on the cross, but I was resurrected and I am alive forever, and I have life for you, man, and I want to give you life. My life is the Father's will in man, and you, man, you love your life and have no love if you do this. How shall I make you used to the mysteries of life and then to love them? How shall I do it, man? You have no shepherds after My heart over you, and the longing for your life overwhelms you. The spirit of the eternal life cries within you and you do not know how to perceive its calling. It calls you from your inner being and you do not know to know its calling.

After the man fell down from eternity, it has remained in the man as a longing, which has always called the man to it. After the man exalted over God, then he has swerved from the way of life and indulged in sinning and then the man has made his life, his life with sin, a life which is born of sin.

Man, I have been calling you for seven thousand years! I was sorry that I made you. You have pulled yourself out of Me and made your own life and I was sorry that I made you. You have no longer wanted to be after My image and after My likeness. It has been hurting Me for seven thousand years the fact that you have no longer wanted it. Then I came after you to give you My life. And I gave it to you. However, you have not taken from it. And I have come again to give it to you. Here I am after you. I want again to make you. The making that I want now to put on you is life without death. But do you really want it? The spirit of the eternal life sighs within you and you do not stop to hear its sigh. It calls you from within you and you do not know to hear its calling. I work hard behind you, and you do not see Me, man, for the man cannot see My glory and to remain alive afterwards. I want to make you the way I am and to see Me working behind you for your life, because it is written: «Those who will see Him will be like Him». I draw you to the spring of life. My word is the spring. I will increase in you the longing after the life and I will come more and more into your life with the spring of life and I will reveal its mysteries and I will fill you with the spring of life, for your life is without any desire of life if you do not have My life in it. I spread a wedding table between Me and you and how much I want you to know to come to the wedding! Oh, you need wedding garments for the Bridegroom cannot stay at His table with you. There will be no other table on earth. Soon, soon, there will remain only the wedding table, the love between the Bridegroom and the bride, the love the eternity begins with. Amen.

Oh, sons of the people, I teach you what true love is. In the time of Noah, I looked down on the earth and I saw God's sons seduced by the sons and daughters of the people, and thus love was spoiled on earth. When I saw this, I was sorry that I made the man and I told Noah to make a saving ark for him and for his sons, for the sons and daughters of the people would bring about flood on earth. And it was flood on earth and the earth was full of waters and I saved God's sons; I saved them from among the sons of the people out of the flood. And what shall I do now? The human kind became flood for God's sons, for the sons of the people are in abundance and those who are with Me are few. What shall I really do?

Here is what I do: I come with a table of wedding on earth. This is what I do. I call every man at My table. This is what Noah did. First, he told everybody about Me and about the news for their salvation and he called them all to salvation, but no one wanted to believe and to come. And then, their sins brought about the flood on earth, and the earth was caught under the waters with everything that was on it. However, now it will be an unequalled wonder. I, the Lord, will lift up those of Mine and I will protect and comfort them, and I will take away many, as I took away My people of today, with which I lay down the glory of My word on earth, My coming on the way of the word.

I want to gather many at My bosom and to give them life, for the people do not have life. Oh, who shall give life to the people? There is no man on earth to be able to give life. I come and give it to them. Come, so that I may give it you! Taste and be comforted. Taste of My wine. I am the Word that gives life, and the life is the light of the people. He, who has no light, let him come and receive it. Let him come! Amen, amen, amen.

Now, I give My comfort to those who are tired from the way to the spring. You, who know to come to the spring, should know that it is a great mystery to know to come. You, who come to the wedding, get used to wedding garments, for when I come, I will look at the man's garment and I will ask him about it. Amen.

Behold My gardens, and My bride in it, My bride people, and beautiful people, adorned with the wedding garment and with the candle burning all the time. I give you My gardens from time to time to take heavenly delight in them. Seek to know the mystery of My heavenly comfort, for if I, the Lord, cannot be comforted with you, those who come into My gardens, neither will you be able to be comforted. Come with a longing full of Me when you come. This spring is the water of life. Wash your face in it for it is healing. My word is the comfort. Take it and strengthen you hearts and do not forget that I am gentle and humble in My heart, for this is what Father wants His sons to be.

The longing after the man has been tearing Me apart for seven thousand years. My spirit is crushed by the man build by My hand. I miss the new man very much. I came two thousand years ago from the Father and I became the New Man. Let every man take Me in him, for that is why I became Man. Let every son of man seek Me, for here is how I come after the man to give him life of My life.

I breathe with the word and bring together those that come and I give them of the wedding table. Comfort each other, you that come to the wedding! I am the Bridegroom of the wedding. You should spend your time with sweet songs, with sweet speaking, with a spirit of joy, for I, the Lord, am hungry after you and I miss you, for the longing after the man is all I have. However, I want the man. I want to draw everyone at My table, at the comforting table, for the life is the light of the people. Amen. Make haste to the joys of the wedding. Rejoice and be glad as in heaven, for here you are in the Lord's gardens. I, the Lord, have spoken and made. Amen.

And tomorrow, I will embrace you again in the word. I will teach you, I will comfort you, I will feed you and I will tell you speak to you about love, for I am the love. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity, the second day

Come sons from the manger! It is not time for the body to have any rest. Wake up from your beds and take the voice of the Bridegroom and put it down into the book, because it is a feast in the little village of My word. The days of My wedding with you are My comfort, for I gather many near you, when I announce Myself on the earth with days of wedding, and it will be, in the days to come, that we will spend the wedding more and more, for it is about time, sons. Come, refresh your bodies and wake up to work to prepare for the body and for the soul of those who came to the wedding; to prepare the table and to make them sit down and to give them. Amen, amen, amen.

I embrace into the word the second day of feast and those that are called, who know who the Word is and who settle down within It. My comfort draws everybody into the word, for I have been bearing with the man for seven thousand years, and I have been thinking with entire heaven what to do to the man to hear My sigh, My sigh after the man. When I was on earth in My body, I was working far beyond nature and this is how I was gathering many behind Me, where I was going with My disciples, for I was not walking without My disciples. I was gathering many and making them sit down giving them bread and fish to eat, so that I could be able to tell them about Me, the One Who came from heaven after the man. Now I bring together those that are loved. I call out the trumpet and they come together. I have made My way through the word over the earth, and when I announce Myself with days of wedding, My trumpet blowers take My news and spread it into the four corners of the winds, and those who are announced come, and I, the Bridegroom of the wedding, give Myself to them and I offer them the springs of life.

The life has great price. It was for the life of the man that I gave My life, but the man does not value his life, the price of his life. The contempt that comes from man hurts Me. It hurts Me that the man does not know what love is. It hurts Me when I see the man without love. I cry when I see the man without Me. Oh, who is the one who knows that I cry after the man to make the man wipe out My sigh and his tear? I cry and My crying is full of longing, and I cry. Who has appreciated Me to have Me as his wealth then? The man is delighted with everything that are and with everything that he does, and he seeks to fill the emptiness of his heart, and his search does not come to an end, and I stand outside knocking with shyness at the door of his heart. I have prepared now a bride and I have worked hard for her preparation, both I and she, and I have spread My wedding table, for life is of great value and I want the man to see it; to see it and to seek towards it. Amen.

But what is life? It is nothing else but its price. I am the price of the man's life, but the death in the man stands against Me and against him.

But what death is? No death is heavier than the man without God over him and in him. No one can have Me in him, if he does not have Me over him. If the man is his own master, he does not have Me in him, no matter how much he might say that He has had Me. Until I spoke to Moses before him, he could not receive Me in him. First I spoke in a voice from heaven and from the burning bush, and then I dwelt in him, and the one who has Me in him does what Moses did, and no one can overcome the one who has Me in him.

But what is life? Do you know man what life is? I call you to the spring to speak to you. My voice stands face to face with you now, and I speak from the midst of the people of My word, as in the burning bush from which I was speaking to Moses. The little garden of My word is set aside so that I may make My voice come down into it. It is a burning bush. He who stumbles over it burns, for there is where I speak and My voice resounds in it when I speak to them. And I ask you: what is death, dear man? He, who comes out of God, first dies and then sins. You should not work out death over you, man. You should no longer do it. Death is everything what is not God in your being. It is not about your death, but about My death. When I cannot do anything alive in man, nothing of eternity, then I dwell in man as in the grave and the man breathes of the spirit of life and does not give Me anything for him. The heaven is full of the spirit of life for the bodies, and you have always taken from heaven and given nothing back to the heaven. Oh, you do not know how bad it is for God not to do anything in you, man, and only for you to be able to do it. I would like to teach you what God's sons are and what men's sons are. God's sons are the most beautiful on the earth. They do not take but from Me, love, comfort, joy, power, word, deed and everything I give them to have and to do. They have a clean and decent appearance and the man humbles in his inner being when he sees them, and the man is filled with longing for happiness such as theirs. And the men's sons are not beautiful, as the beautiful is not so. The man's sons are empty handed; they are destitute of everything and everything of what they have is not theirs. They receive from their father, the devil; they receive love, joy, knowledge and power, but everything has the cover of lie, for when they are about to receive their life from these, they lose it completely. They adorn themselves for sin, for what else should the man adorn himself for? And when they see each other, they disturb one another, they overcome one another, and each one exalts above the other, but the clean man flees from this lie and mourns over the lost one. And I work with the whole heaven of saints and angels and I protect what is Mine, for the devil roars madly after the pray and seeks to devour even those that are Mine, if possible. But he is weak and those that are Mine are strong, for I am their master and I have under My seal those that do My will on earth. Behold, this is what it means God's sons and men's sons. That is why I teach you how one should come to the wedding, man. There is no one to teach you about the garment and about the body and about the spirit of the wedding, for the man's sons are many, and those that are Mine are few, for the man does no longer wants to be with God on earth.

Oh, I let great comfort come down into My gardens and I exhort you towards them, man! Come and hear My voice, which walks through the garden to comfort you, the one who comes to the spring. Come! And you should know how to come. Look at the sons of My word and learn how to come, and you should love to come this way, and hardly to be able to stay under waiting after I call to gather you together and then to give you, for I want you to have, man. What you may truly have is only what I give you. I can give you life, man. I can give you life without death. I have proved that I can. If you do not believe, put Me to test and I will show you that I can. If Elijah, My prophet, did not want to die, he did not die. If Enoch did not want to die, he did not die. If I did not want John to die, he did not die. Oh, only if you knew how many did not die! And do not forget about the Scriptures, which writes that a people will be in its body when I will come visibly and when I will lift it up in the clouds of My coming, and I will stay in the air with it and then I will clean the earth for Me, for I made the earth to be My footstool for Me and for the man. The heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool, only for the man to understand and see this truth.

Oh, learn what life is, dear man, for I paid the most expensive price for you and you became of great value. If you run away from your redemption and want to be under slavery, oh, what shall I really do to you? I look at you how much you love the hell. All the works of the devil that you do and live with your being are from the deep, and they keep you in hell and drain you of heaven and prompts you to debauchery in everything, and I look at you how much you love the hell. Oh, how shall I make you love the heaven with everything in it? The heaven has let a holy law on the earth, and you violate it forever. Oh, how shall I make you get rid of carelessness? How shall I draw you to Me and to the Father, man? You shall know that My eye sees everywhere, everything you do, inside and outside of you, and My eye cries. You should also know that you make God cry. Do no longer rejoice over you joys if God cries because of them.

I have called you to cry with Me for Me and for you, man. To cry for you because you do not love Me, and to cry for Me because I love you and I cry without your love. I have been longing for you for seven thousand years. I have called you to the spring from which I flow with My voice, which mourns over the man. I have called you to tell you that I miss you. I refresh Myself when I can tell you. I comfort Myself when I know that I can make you hear My sigh. Have mercy on Me! I do no longer tell you to have mercy on you, and here is what I tell you: have mercy on Me, dear man! I have made you expensive out of My live, which was given to you. And to whom did I give it, when I gave it? Do you really know this? Oh, I gave it to you. Bear it if I did it this way. Become a vessel for it, for I gave it to you. Amen. I teach you the greatest wisdom, the one, which is at God's throne. There is no other wisdom on earth to know to whom I gave My life when I gave it. I came from Father on the earth to lay down My life on it and for the man to receive My life in it and for the man to have food. Do you not understand man, what kind of food do you have to eat so that you may not die? I said: «The one who believes in Me never dies, for the one who eats Me will live forever». It is a pity that the man does not experience those that I have spoken of. This sin is heavier than the sin of the first built man, because now I have become flesh, and this is how I proved to be God for the man, and I told the man in his face to eat God, Who has become flesh from heaven on earth so that the man may have food, and through it, to have eternal life.

Oh, where is the key of the knowledge? Who did it take it and where is it? Shall I blame the devil? Shall I do this? And shall I also do it? Why does the man not enter the kingdom of the heavens? Why these two dwellings are not one? Why these two worlds are not one as they were to be? Oh, why really? Where is the key of the knowledge for these that I ask you for?

Give Me the key, man! The key is with you. If you do not want, this is the key with which you locked the kingdom of the heavens, which stands by you to enter into you and that you should also enter it. You do not want it. I cannot blame the devil as long as you do not want. The devil is wicked only for those that do My will, but he is not wicked to those that do his own will.

Man, the time for the Son of man to be glorified has come. And here it is; He is glorified within the word upon the earth, and the Father glorifies Him as well. The time has come that you may no longer sin. My Father sends Me to take the death away from the earth and to bring sufferance upon him, on his entire body. Amen. The death is the sin, and «he, who suffers in his body, does away with the sin», as the Scripture wrote to My apostles.

You should not cry after the sin; do not cry, man, after the time when it was well with you sinning. Oh, you shall not cry. But you are not to do what I tell you and you will cry. And if you cry, cry with Me, man. Do not cry alone, for the man cries alone in vain. Seek Me with your crying and ask Me to forgive you. And if you knew how to ask Me, I would tell you that I forgave you the moment I gave you My life to redeem you. I would also tell you to forgive Me because I took you out of the sins and to forgive the distress between Me and you; and then to make peace together and give to the Father the agreement of the reconciliation between Me and you, as great and unfathomable was and is the mystery of the love between Me and man, however, this key was given carelessly, and it did not stay in the door, so that I may enter into the man and the man into Me. And here is what I did. I have made a new kingdom. It is the key that I will open with the new age, the age to come. The new kingdom is small, but it is as big as the heaven, according to the grace. It is the key. I opened to My coming with it. I have unfolded My wedding on the earth with it; the wedding which My Father kept into His palms for now, when He sent Me to bring the wedding guests together, and this wedding shall have no ending. Amen, amen, amen.

The Father of the wedding gives voice over the wedding guests and says:

— My Son is One. And the same is His people of today, too: one. The glory of My Son is the word. The word is My beloved Son, in Whom I, the Father, am well pleased. Amen.

— Oh, My Father, I rejoice near My bride in the gardens from the spring. My spring waters the wedding guests, and I, the Bridegroom of the wedding, am Your Son and I rejoice over the bride, and I rejoice over the wedding guests Father, and I enlarge the tent of the wedding, and I can do this, for You are in Me, Father and You can. Amen.

I have comforted you and I have taught you the great love; you all who have come to the spring when I have called you. You should also teach Me to love you. If you love Me, I will learn to love you. And if I love you, teach yourselves to love Me as well. Amen. Love is not at random.

It is like Me. And also, life is not at random. It is like Me. Amen. I want to learn from one another the doina<sup>158</sup> of love. It is the love between a Bridegroom and a bride, a doina, which will remain on the face of My saints and in the voice of the angels, the doina of My wedding, the doina of eternity, which soon, soon, will be on earth.

Let the voice of the wedding be heard from margins to margins! And it will be heard. Amen. Let the voice of the Bridegroom and the bride be heard! And it will be heard. Amen. Let the voice of the wedding guests be heard! And it will be heard. Amen.

I seize and embrace you in the Holy Spirit, the Comforter and the life giving Spirit.

Man, do not forget who your life is, and when I call you, come! Soon, soon, there will no longer be anything between heaven and earth; nothing but the voice of the Bridegroom and of the bride and the wedding day. And if I call you man, come! Amen, amen, amen.

The twentieth Sunday after Pentecost (Whit Sunday)

I breathe with the breath of My mouth over you, watchmen children from My manger of word. I assign a great value to you, because you receive Me from near My Father near you, to breathe with the breath of My mouth word on the earth. Amen.

I highly value you, children son. I am the God of everything that exists, but as big as I am, I can scarcely want to pass you before Me, because you serve to My coming as word over the earth as much as I want. Do not be afraid of the way I humbled Myself for you. Do not be afraid. I said this, I, so that the people may value your love for Me and for My people who listens from the mouth of the spring of My word.

I breathe the word with the breath of My mouth over you, so that you may give it to the holy people and to keep it holy, sons, holy and obedient in every word of Mine over you for you and for him. Amen.

My breath is the word, and its fulfillment is your obedience to My word, My people. If you do not listen to it in order to do it, it is not fulfilled. Oh, it is a sin for My word not to be entirely fulfilled. However, you should fulfill it literally and always, so that you may not have this sin, My people. Let all of your concern be the fulfillment of My word and you should have it with you everywhere, and to do it completely and in everything, for you do not need additional time to fulfill it; no, My people. If you are too small for this truth, then you should become great through those that are great in this truth and do not be hard of understanding, for you are a great people, the greatest of all peoples, for it is not the number but the gift and My grace, which has made you the greatest people between heaven and earth, only for you to have your humility full for this greatness of yours. The great love helps humility, and the full humility helps the love, and this is how you should behave between heaven and earth, My people, because I pass through the sons of the garden and I give Myself to you, so that you may fulfill it completely. Amen.

Oh, I cannot leave you too long without warm food. If I saw that you can, then I would make those in the garden have rest; those who give to you from Me. It is written into the Scriptures for the sons: «If they receive My words and store them up within them wisely and considerately, applying their heart to them; if they call out for discernment and search highly for it as for a hidden treasure, then they will understand the fear of the Lord and then they will gain knowledge of God, for He keeps the salvation for the righteous, because He guards the ways of justice and He preserves the path of His righteous and takes them on the paths of every good». Amen.

<sup>158</sup> Doina – lyrical poetry specific to the Romanian folklore which expresses a feeling of longing, of mourning, of rebellion, of love, etc., being usually accompanied by an adequate melody; a musical variety of the folkloric Romanian creation, characterized by its deep emotiveness and especially based on the feeling of longing, A good example by Doina is: Doina mourning or Mocirita & Doina de jale by Gheorghe Zamfir, r.n.

Oh, you do not need special time to fulfill My word; no, My people. You need fear of God, son, and with it to love My advice with wisdom, with consideration and with discernment, My people, for these lead to the spirit of the fear of God, which makes you obey Me, son.

It is a sin for My word not to be fulfilled completely when I give it. I give Myself to you in abundance and you should also give yourself to Me, son, for I have taught you so that I might reveal Myself to you, and for you to show yourself to Me, and in every day you should show yourself so that I may see you, for I have angels in heaven and on earth to see you. When you know that I see you, you endeavor to please Me, but when you want Me that I may no longer see you, you do no longer struggle for it. Do you see why I have taught you to show yourself to Me every day? Do you really see it, son, why? I can give you advice if you do so. I can watch from near you, if you do so. I can, only for you to listen to My advice, son. I take from your heart and give to others too. I take from their hearts and give to you too, and this is how we work, and this is how we keep ourselves ready forever. And behold, My advice has to be observed, My people. I teach you to be warm with Me and not to get tired in doing so. I teach you to always be, son. You should be an open door for Me from one of My speech to another, for Me and for all that are Mine, for you are brothers from the heavenly Father and from His Son, for you are born from the Holy Spirit of the new birth and from the very beginning you are promised to be and to establish on the earth the paths of the good, the paths of the righteous, which choose from them the liars and throws them into the outer darkness, sons.

But what is the outer darkness?

Oh, children who receive the word from My mouth, from the Lord's mouth! The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit give you to tell this to the holy people: what is the outer darkness?

— It is written into the Scriptures that the «sons of the kingdom will be cast out into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And the foreigners will come and sit down at the table with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob in the kingdom of the heavens». And again it is written into the Scripture: «The kingdom of the heavens will be taken from you and given to a people that will bear forth its fruits. And he who will stumble over this stone will be broken to pieces and it will crush whomever it falls to dust». And listening to this, the bishops and the Pharisees understood that it was spoken about them.

It is written into the Scriptures: «Outside are the dogs, the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters and everyone who loves and practices falsehood». These are outside of the kingdom of God and are not in it even if they call themselves the sons of the kingdom, but if they do these things, they are outside of the kingdom of the heavens, for it is the holy man, out of whom the Holy Spirit works out heaven on earth.

The world is the outer darkness; the world, which does not have God in its body, soul and spirit; the world, which works, in everyone and in everything of its things, the falsehood, which passes away and does not remain and which delights the man for it in his life on the earth. There it is in the world and it will be the weeping and gnashing of teeth, and all those who call themselves sons of the kingdom of the heavens, but love falsehood and its life instead, the beautiful that passes away and the immorality of the life all the time. Those are in the outer darkness and are not in the kingdom of the heavens and do not come towards it; they do not see it and do not understand it, for they are in the darkness, in the works of the outer darkness, which is in the world, and the world is the opposite of the kingdom of the heavens.

The paths of the righteous choose those that are liars on them and cast them away into the outer darkness, for those are the sons of the world, and most of the lying sons of the world are those who call themselves sons of God. These are the outer darkness in which those that work out falsehood stay hidden; falsehood that stands against God. And from among those who are not the sons of the kingdom, those who are righteous in their hearts will be chosen by the angels, and they will come and sit down at the table with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of the heavens and will walk in the paths of the righteous. Amen.

— Oh, My people, I put a high price on those who give you the word from My mouth and this is how I want you to do too, for I have drawn you out of the great tribulation, from among the sons of the falsehood, who lie to everybody saying that they are the sons of My kingdom. I have drawn you out, so that you may no longer stay with them in the outer darkness, for happier were and are the crippled, the lame, the mute, the lepers and all strangers than the sons of the kingdom, who do not do the works of the kingdom of the heavens on the earth. Those who stay with these and are under these are in the great tribulation and if I save many, this is how I will call them. I will call those who have come from the great tribulation and I will give them little white garments, as I also gave you when I chose you, when I received you and when I made you alive through My life, which I gave to you, sons.

But who else is there on the earth that knows what life is, what the kingdom of the heavens means, or what the outer darkness means, where the weeping and gnashing of teeth are and where there is, in no circumstances, the apparent happiness?

Oh, loving children, I would like to teach you more, for I am affectionate after you and I want you more and more to be the same that is affectionate after Me, affectionate after one another. Amen. I want to teach you more. But now get together at the table for the life of the body, and may the food on your table be blessed. And we will learn, and then we will put the word of today into the book.

I am affectionate after you and I spend time with you and near you: at the table and at work, in your walking and staying, in your love among you, in your speaking and in your silence, for I am affectionate after you, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

*

I am with My advice after you, little Jerusalem. Let My exhortation be your comfort, and when you are to fulfill it, I am comforted with you and I give you powers to fulfill My exhortation. Amen.

Oh, how much good I can do to you when I can walk into your inner being, oh, how many miracles I can fulfill in you, son! It is a wonderful thing for Me to be where everything is Mine, there where I can be the Creator of everything. When humility in man always comes into My way, I turn it into My rest in him and I work out the man through it wonderfully. Everything is beautiful in man when it can dwell beautifully in his inside, with a beautiful spirit, and when many are gathered together this way, there My blessing, My protection and My joy are also as well, My people.

The sons of God are those who have Him into their midst, and I have made you used to Me, My people, and I have given you power to become son of God. Take care Jerusalem of today, My people, and be one body, one will, one love, as I and My Father are one. I have always stretched out My hand above you to work you out, so that you may know afterwards to wait for Me and to know to get into My way and know to call Me and then to know to welcome Me, for you have to be careful all the time, as the one who watches over everything and in everything, son. Teach yourself to know more and more to have Me and to know to be Mine, for this is your union with Me all the time and everywhere, My people.

Oh, carry Me, son, for it is good to the one who carries Me. Let your watch never go out day or night, for it keeps Me with you and it gives Me powers for you, and I give you life in abundance and I make you rich with God and rich with heavenly protection, son, for where I am with you, the angels, the saints and the heavenly powers have work upon you and for your life, My people. I, your Lord, Comforter and Creator forever, have always commanded every heavenly power to stay near you from all sides and to carry you to My love and then to stay forever to your help on My behalf, My people.

The one, who watches with Me, has the love of the heaven forever on his side, and you should not forget about longing, My people. Come together with longing in a spirit of prayer, so that we may always be one spirit, and give Me your love, son. When your love is with Me, I am yours and I do you good and I give you from My fullness, so that you may not be poor neither in your spirit, nor in your body and nor in your soul, for I take great care of you, My people. My hand is reached out above you and you should learn to receive from it, for I have in it everything you may need and everything I need in your inner being and around you and in your country, My people, for your country is the country of My coming. My mother, the Virgin, has it as a little baby in her arms and surrounds it from all sides as the dearest treasure of her Son, as a cradle of the saints and angels.

Oh, My people, where I am there are the saints and the angels, son, and I want that we all may be one spirit, We and you, and carry one another with the spirit of prayer and of holy work, to be one spirit and one love. May My exhortation be your fulfillment, for I exhort you more and more beautifully not to live within your spirit but rather to live with your spirit within My Spirit, and to do this work beautifully, so that I may be able to take delight in it and to strengthen it on the earth, for when I have from you I am able to work over the entire earth, My people.

Oh, strengthen the spirit of your prayer, the spirit of My glory with you and the spirit of fulfillments, My people. Exhort one another to hope, peace, watchfulness, and to a holy joy, calling My power and My comfort near you. I want each one of you to be one fire, and I, like you, to be consumed in it for you, and to prepare you truly and truly for the great glory, which will rejoice those on the earth.

Stay with the little garment on you and in the spirit of the heavenly grace, and let the Holy Spirit be your food, sons, and with Him to take all your good from Me. Give yourself to the Holy Spirit every moment, with all of your hope, for you are My sanctified ones, and My exhortation is with you, and you should fulfill it. Amen.

I am affectionate after you, sons. Oh, if you saw sufficiently enough this, you would rejoice more, for I want you to have joys and I want this with the whole heaven; I want this more than you do, for I can hardly come to you when you do not have peace and joy. However, I make you strong, for I have power. Remain under My power and I will strengthen you. Believe and this is how it will be, and let your faith be great and love My exhortation greatly.

Come to joys for I can carry you in My mantle. Strengthen yourselves in all things from above, for I tell you with longing: Peace to you! Get one another together with your spirit and longing for God and give joys to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, growing in grace, for the time of the heavenly fulfillments is with you, and you will be comforted and will always see that I, as by this time, fulfill My promises that I have made from the beginning of this work and until today. Amen.

Let us be one spirit, My people, and you should fulfill what you hear from Me, son. Be all in one fulfillment, all in your spirit, in My Spirit, sons, and do not forget this!

Do not wait from one another and rather let everyone fulfill this to one another, so that you may be strengthened through My promises, which you should always bring before Me, sons, so that I may fulfill everything. Amen. If you are weak, I, the Lord, tell you not to be weak. Listen to My exhortation and do not be feeble. Receive Holy Spirit and live by Him and give Him power over you, for He works to perfection within these days. May your wisdom grow in you and may your prayer to heaven crown it. Amen. Oh, do not be fearful, feeble sons. Be strong, sons, for God Almighty brings about His victory for the righteous, for He keeps the paths of righteousness, He watches in the paths of the righteous, and He carries them in the paths of the good. Amen. Sing in the Holy Spirit. Pray incessantly in the Holy Spirit, sons. Keep your spirit awake, for the Holy Spirit is being perfected from God on the earth and produces victory for the Lord. Amen.

Oh, My people, listen to My exhortation, son. Listen to My exhortation given to you every moment and receive from My peace, and take it with hope. Let all of your care be the fulfillment of My word, for the fear of God is a great help for those who love it. Help each other and teach yourselves to give life to each other, for it is the time of the sons of life on the earth, so that you may be able to fulfill with them the mystery of the new age, a godly age over the man. Amen.

I embrace you in the spirit of My peace. Be comforters and you will be comforted, for the spirit of comfort will be with you, forever with you, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of ten years after the consecration of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

Ten years ago, this holy day of feast crowned victoriously My work of word with which I, the Lord, came to work into the middle of the Romanian people, of the Romanian land in the year of 1955. Ten years have passed since I laid down the first stone, the stone on which the ark of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem was built at My commandment, a place enclosed and kept into My palm in order to make it into a supper meal for Me, for the saints and for you, watchmen children at the manger. I did as I wanted and commanded. Amen.

Let every man marvel at My power and at My victory, for when I want, I overcome, and the man cannot stand against Me. And I have become a supper meal, a manger of coming down, and I have come down from heaven on earth and I speak with the voice of My coming down over the earth to prepare the life of the age on it, which is to be for those alive on earth and for those that are asleep, who wait for their resurrection to welcome Me.

Each man celebrates his day and prepares and gets ready for it and then he calls the guests at his table and rejoices for one day, and then the day passes. I also have My day, which I have been preparing since I was born from the Father, and not only two or three days when the man prepares for his day. The living ones have been waiting for My day in heaven and on earth for seven thousand years. My day is not every day or every year as with the man. I do not do as the man does, for My day is very expensive and it is only one and it has a great value, for it is one. Amen. The same is with My church too. It is very expensive, and it is only one and it has a great value, for it is one. Amen.

I celebrate you, watchmen children from the manger, for you are My church. Until I had you, I could not make any bed for Myself into the midst of the people to be seen with it. You are My manger; you and the place on which I placed you to be and to stand against Me, for Me and for those in heaven, for you and for those alive on earth, but there are very few living people on earth and I have had nothing to reap for heaven and for My coming on earth.

I am the day of the Father, His day of joy, and I am only One, and you are My day, in which I rejoice with you, for you and for Me and for all who are alive from heaven and from earth. I celebrate you with this day, which is only one, the day in which I laid down with you the sign of the Son of the man on earth, the sign of the new age, the age which is to be, and into its midst this sign: the New Jerusalem church, the Holy of Holies of the Lord between earth and heaven, the way of His coming from heaven on earth, for narrow is this path, but I can on it. Amen. Only the man cannot, but I can on it, and the man on the earth does not know what this sign is to take after it and to understand My coming, My day of glory, in which the Father will glorify Me, soon, soon, before the entire human kind, as it is written into the Scriptures that My coming will be, in the day of My coming, the day which I have been preparing for seven thousand years.

Oh, My people, you have to be beautifully dressed, very beautifully for the day of My coming, as no one on the earth is, as beautiful as only One is, for it is My day, My people, and on its celebration you need a beautiful dress as only one is, only not to forget My words, My loved people. Oh, I have taught you to dress beautifully day and night. I have taught you about the little shirt, son, day and night, because you are Mine and you stand before Me. And when you go to sleep to have rest, I have taught you to dress completely beautiful and to be ready in everything, and to have your little garment wholly on your body, ready to meet Me, and this is how you should also have your heart with its work and faith. I have meant for you a little white garment, which does not hide the dirt but rather it brings it into the open and puts you to the work of cleanness to be completely clean, My people, and to sit at My table with the glory of saints and angels, and to sit down awake at My table all the time, for I am the day of the Father, and you are My day, and I have the sign of My coming with you, the manger where I come down and prepare food for you, for I have come to serve you at the table, My people. You should ponder day and night over everything I have taught you to do for My coming to you and for My dwelling with you, My people, for I comfort you from the manger and I make you grow and put you before My day, only for you to be great and conscious in your mind and heart, for it is for My day, My people. Oh, the man on the earth does not know about this day of feast, about this work and about the place where I live with you and for you with Me. He would like to climb up but without any ticket. It is not possible to be without ticket on this ship. And neither is it possible on earth without ticket, without the law that is established by man over the man.

Oh, My people, I want that you may be as great in your understanding as My work asks from you, even if you are small on earth and before Me, for behold, the great ones have not understood My power through My place of meeting with the man. When the man is not used to the watch for Me, he is taken by surprise. This is what happened to the great ones who stayed great over their church, and when I was to ask them about their work and about their fruit and life, they closed to the Bridegroom and did not answer. And I am hurt because of the one, anointed by Me among them, for I have a very great martyr from the worldly church and he testifies before Me about this place of My meeting with the man on the earth. If he cannot stand before the people, he can no longer testify; it is not possible something like this before Me, for it is that day before the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, the day when he declared on My behalf the sanctification and the sealing of the Holy of My Holies on the earth. His name is written on the stone (The Bishop Irineu of Bistrița, r.n.), on earth and in heaven, for the word is taken by the wind and brought in front of the heavenly throne as a testimony, and you, My witnesses, you testify on the earth.

It hurts Me because of My anointed one among the church in the world. His heart comprises the whole heaven in it and it has room for the entire human kind, for this is how I have built him, and he is happy because he believed in My word of today, which comes again and makes the heaven and the earth. He has come to this happiness among those in the church from the world, as also in the time of My body, I had Nicodemus who submitted to My coming. I miss him from here, not from heaven, not from those that are not seen, but from those that are seen that are worked at My commandment for the glory of My word upon you. Oh, he does no longer know My walking here, for he is watched out and he endures and waits for My glory, which will put to shame all those who have not received this sign into their hearts to believe in those that are new, which I bring to be on earth for Me to be perfected through them before the people. I miss him from here, and I do not know how to comfort him anymore, to strengthen him and to protect him for My day, for My work with him, for I have written his name in heaven and on earth, and all angels serve him for his name which is written here, and the angels call him the angel of the church, the messenger who announced the birth of this work on earth now, at the end of the man's time, so that the man may come to a birth from above and to the death of the old man and to resurrection, for the resurrection comes, and it comes soon, and it will catch under it those that watch waiting for Me to come, calling Me to come, as it is written that «only those who call the Lord are among those that are saved». Amen.

I give to the bishop anointed by Me from here, and I give him groups of angels to carry him to My day of victory. I secretly give him My hand, which wipes out the tear of his pain and the tear of remorse. I give him the power to do it, and I comfort him with the saints and angels and with the apostle Andrew, the godfather of the Romanian land and of My people on it, and ten years ago I had him as godfather on the day of the sealing of this mountain, a groomsman of My wedding with My bridegroom of today. Godfather and groomsman, as he is for Me over the Romanian land and people, and My trumpet Verginica is the stone on which I laid down My church now, in the end. Amen.

— I come into Your word, Lord, with a holy inclination, to be with You in this holy day. I gave with great love Your anointing to this land, for I was Your apostle, the first one called to You. Now, my spirit fills up with peace and joy for Your victory over the earth, and overflows from over the saints and over the angels and from over all those that are not seen and which mean God.

I enclose all those in the garden who are Your crutch on which You lean from the labor of this heavenly time. But how many hear Your words on earth and this heavenly time? Oh, how gentle and humble You dwell over the earth through them, for they are small among the people on the earth. You cannot work otherwise. You cannot work with those who are great, but only with those who are small. The great ones are afraid not to lose their greatness or life for You, but You should be their life. This is how we, Your apostles, were; we were small in the eyes of the people, and because we were great in Your eyes, the people of our time sought to get rid of us completely from the earth, for we were great in You, great Lord.

I comprise Your people with bowing; with shyness I embrace and comfort him and I anoint him with the chrism of compassion, as a gift on my behalf for my day of feast into his midst. And my day is alongside with the day of the celebration of the Holy of Your Holies during this time on earth.

Ten years have passed since we blessed this sign, having Your apostle Irineu with us, the bishop of Your coming. You gave him power to believe and he believed and marked the place of Your rest of today in time. Make his faith of that time keep him great into Your hand, Lord, for his faith was great then, as great as the work of Your coming, for if it had not been great, it would have not overcome with it for the laying down of the sign of Your coming down between earth and heaven. I comfort the sons from the manger and the people of Your word, that eats and lives from Your mouth, and him, Your bishop who looks forward to Your coming with justice, great Lord. Amen.

You, who receive the Lord on earth as the word which prepares His coming, receive everything He gives you, and carry it, for sweet is in heaven the glory of those who carry Christ on earth to the people. Be more and more diligent, stronger and stronger, for those who are small are humble before the Lord. This day of victory is a day of great glory. The angels around you jump for it and for you and for the little white stone and for the written name on it, the name of the Lord, which you know and share, the Word of God, (Apoc: 19/13, r.n.) which is glorified over the earth in your days by your faith, oh, little and helpless sons on earth! However, the Lord is at the helm of this ship, your help; it is Him, Who made the heaven and the earth in the beginning, and the same in the end. I comfort you with big words, measure for measure, but be diligent for His coming, for He is ready, and His day is here and it is near. Oh, His work, which flows from you to the people, is great! You should also be great for it and near it, for the Lord strengthens you. Amen.

I have joined with You, great Lord, and I have given them of the love of that day. You are the house of Your disciples, for they work like their Master, and at the same time with Him for this is how the perfect disciple is, and it is written about Your coming: «Hosts of heaven come after Him on white horses, in white garments and with thousands of thousands». Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, blessed are you, My apostle who saw Me and here are those that are blessed who wait to see Me. Blessed are you, all the saints who see Me, and behold the blessed who will see Me soon, soon. These from now are the gift of the saints, the waiting of the heaven for seven thousand years. Amen.

Oh, My people, you should know that it is a great feast, for great is My victory by this sign. It is an endless feast because My victory is endless in order to save the man from his slavery and to take him under My love, for it is time, My people. I want you, son, to be very beautiful, and the man to be drawn to you as to an endless feast. I want to spend time with you and the man to take from My mouth, from My garment, and for the man to wear and learn to wear a wedding garment. Oh, if the man knew how good it was in the wedding garment, he would come under My mantle and I would offer him the wellspring of life and I would give his life back.

Oh, only if the man would come, My people! I want you, son, to be very beautiful so that the man may long after a life such as yours, and for Me to give him as I gave to you.

Oh, My people, you should always be My little white horse on which I come from heaven on earth with a human speaking for the man. It is written into the Scriptures that hosts from heaven come after Me riding on little white horses. Be the little horses of the heavenly hosts, sons, for My saints and My angels, who work out My coming, rely on you, for you are in your body.

All the heavenly hosts celebrate you, My people, for My manger that is sealed from ten years ago to be Mine for you and for all who will be afterwards.

Blessed be this white stone forever on which it is written: the Word of God.

«Grace and grace on it!», this is how the saints and the angels answer. Amen.

And I, the Lord, enclose this sign completely and strengthen its anointing and I call it by a great name, and I call it the throne of God, the Word, and the chariot of the One Who comes on the clouds on earth soon, soon. Amen, amen, amen.

The eve of the Nativity

I come down with tens of thousands of angels at the manger to speak and to announce the eve of My birth of My mother, the Virgin, two thousand years ago. I come down with tens of thousands of angels as the word on this day of celebration, which announces My birth for each man. I would like to be born of each man and to become God from the man, for I, the Lord and Creator of everything, dearly called Myself the Son of man, both then and now, when I come the second time on the earth. Amen.

The Son of man, this is what I wanted to be after five thousand years since the creation of the man, and this is what I fulfilled. And after I became the Son of man, born from the Father through the Virgin, I wanted to die for each man, and this is what I fulfilled. And now, after two thousand years, I am being born in the manger, which I have prepared into this little village, dear to Me, as from here I took clay into My hand and I made the man, built by My hand, and for Me this little village is dear. Never mind if I was beaten and cast out at the beginning when I was speaking the word from the manger here over the earth. Never mind if not even now am I not known by this word. It is fine. However, I love this little village very much, for it is the place from where I built the man. And if I love him so much, I embrace him and urge him to My love for him, and I want to make him perfectly beautiful for My coming with the saints on the earth, and for him to receive Me, and that is why I let him know ahead of time and make him glad with heavenly news and with joys as there have been nowhere on earth.

The Son of Man, this is how I, the Lord, became, two thousand years ago, a child born in a cave in Bethlehem, for no man on earth had received Me into his house at My coming as a little baby, and My mother, the Virgin, was full of thrill of My birth, true God from true God, a Man born from her maidenly womb. The little angels of My birth had worked out wonderfully and went in the mountains to the shepherds and told them that I was born as the Son of man, a divine child on earth, and they brought the little shepherds at the manger of My birth, and they confessed this truth, which was spoken to them by the angels. Amen.

The Son of man, this is what I wanted to be on earth, and this is how I also want to come in the end. I am coming as word from the Father into this little village, and today, on the eve of the feast of My birth from the Virgin, I embrace at My bosom those little ones from this little village to make them feel the whisper of My coming and the comfort for all those in this little village, on which I spin the distaff of the word. Amen.

Come to the manger of the birth of My word, you, little children! Those, who bring My news to you, give you sweet gifts and they comfort you for Me, the One Who was not comforted by anyone when I was born. I was an un comforted child, and that is why I long to comfort the children and to give them of the spirit of comfort. My mother wants the same thing, and she tells to the children that are gathered together at the manger of My word, saying to them:

— I am the mother of the Son of the heavenly Father, and I open up my arms and comfort you all, those of today who are gathered together near the word of the birth. Receive from the love of the holy heaven and clothe yourself with it, for I have gathered you together with a feast of birth and I give you good news about the coming of my Son and about the glory of this little village, in which He comes and sows the seed of His coming. Two thousand years ago, my little Son had no comfort or shelter from this earth. However, I want to comfort Him today with you, those who are small of this little village. You should not forget that my Son was also a child, but He was a miracle among the little ones, and He grew up likewise, and likewise He came again on the earth to you; first to you, and then over to the entire earth. Amen.

Oh, Son born of the Father and from my maidenly womb two thousand years! Oh, what a sweet feast! Oh, what a heavenly fairy tale this day of eve of the feast of Your birth is! Oh, how beautiful is seen from the heaven this little village of the birth of Your word now, at the end of time, and what a beautiful time starts from now on, Son Who are coming! Here are the swarms of the little angels in the house of meeting. Their mystery is hidden, but they are and sing and enjoy from here with a feast. You too, little children and parents, should rejoice, and all who have tasted from the wine of the word of the manger. Bring to the Lord a carol of new birth and of new age over the earth. Bring to the Lord your love and ask for it in order to have it, for He is to come soon, soon, on the earth to you. Amen.

My comfort is for You, my child Who are born in the manger of the animals two thousand years ago. You comfort them for you, for You were poor and not comforted on the earth, My dear son.

— Oh, mother, you were the same, for no one received you with Me and for Me. But today, We have someone to go to when We come as the word on the earth to give him birth again for a new creation. We have a house with love in it, mother. Behold what a great celebration those of today, who hear Our voice from heaven, bring to Us. Let Us give them much love, mother. Let Us give them what We have as dearest, mother, and let Us embrace them for a moment with the peace from above, within the heavenly fairy tale of the eternal life, mother, so that they may take a liking and get drunk with it, for this fairy tale is endless, mother. The fairy tale of the eternal life, this is what I, the Lord, want, to bring over the man on the earth, and this is how I will fulfill it. Amen. The house of My meeting with the man, the little house of the heavenly fairy tale, the imperial wedding chamber, the wedding hall with a imperial table in it, for the King, is at this table, the Lord of the glory from above, the Son of man with the people, a beginning of new age over the earth. Amen.

I come down with comfort for all who are gathered together at My whisper, at My call, and We will celebrate a feast of birth and We will be born for it. Amen.

Sing! Sing with the little angels, for they sing glory to Me and say: «Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, and good will toward men». Amen. Keep these words into your little hearts, as My mother, when the shepherds told her about the little angels who were singing for My glory and for My birth, kept all the words in her heart<sup>159</sup>.

Rejoice with a great joy, which will be for the whole earth, for the Word was born in your hearth, the Word, Which saves and brings the good news of the new birth of the world and the life of the age, which is to come from heaven on the earth, soon, soon. Amen.

I am the Son of man, and I dearly called Myself this way. I was born in the manger of the animals, and they comforted Me and warmed Me and saw the miracle that the people were not able to see, for the animals warmed Me in their manger at My birth, but the people did not receive Me in their houses.

The Son of man, born a baby from God in the cave of the animals, the Son of the Father Sabaoth and of Mary, the Virgin, born on the earth among the people, two thousand years ago. Amen.

The feast of the Nativity

The word of the new birth of the world is that which leads you to the day of My coming, My people from the Romanians. I am with you into your house and we always have supper of new age and of royal wedding. The Bridegroom is the bride's love and the bride is the Bridegroom's love. But I tell you a mystery today, the mystery between the Bridegroom and the bride, and here is what I tell you, loved people from the end of the time: love is a longing, not a joy. If it were a joy, it would lose much of its value and power and it would not be itself when it leads to the joy, for love is a deep longing, My loved people, and this longing keeps its life in within it. Amen. Oh, why do I confess Myself to you with this mystery? Because this mystery carries within it all the power of My coming, which is to be soon, soon, and which everyone from the graves and from the earth has been waiting for it. All of My coming has been waiting for My longing between the Bridegroom and the bride, its deepest moment, the key which will open up the glory of My face with you on the earth in a visible way, the birth with a great resounding of the new age, of the age, which is to be after the dead will rise to life. Amen.

There is no man not to be afraid of the end of the world, of this word, which speaks about the end of the world in it. However, if the man wanted to read this news that I spoke about two thousand years ago, he would see that I said that I was about to come again to settle back to its place My kingdom that was corrupted by the man. Oh, how good it would be for the man to want to wait for the end of the world, for the resurrection of the dead, for My coming and for the life, which is to be! How good it would be, My people!

The love between the Bridegroom and the bride is a deep longing, and I do not know how to do to get every man used to this beauty in his face and heart. Oh, how shall I really do it? How shall I do, My people, to establish on the earth the love, which has been waiting for Me to come? How shall I really do this miracle, which will not be taken away from the man? Oh, how well it would be for the man to get lovesick and no longer get healed from it! I have wanted this for such a long time! My voice that was speaking with the man in heaven, and then on earth at the man's beginning, is the voice that speaks with the man today, too. The new birth of the world has been waiting for the man's longing and it has been waiting too much for the man. The love, which has been waiting for Me to come, is everything the heaven has been expecting from the earth, and it will not be taken away from the man, and this is what I told Martha: «Mary has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her». Amen, amen, amen. I seal this word and I raise it up to My heart and I make it come down to the man's heart, so that the man may take in him this miracle, which will not be taken away from him.

Oh, My people, I have settled you down to prepare for Me a day of eve for the feast of My birth, and then I have sent you to call at My table with you those in the little village, so that I may give them gifts, as the Magi brought to Me. I want to become the most expensive gift and to give Myself to the man through your little hand, My little people from the end of the time; the gift that will not be taken away from the man, the love, which does not get healed anymore, because this is what I want.

There have come mothers and fathers and little children, and We have given them to eat, having them to sit at My table and urging them to the heavenly love. Their joy was in their faces and I cannot ask them more, for the longing is a great mystery, and it needs sacrifice for this mystery, My people. However, I want to try to pull away many from the fire with mercy and sweetness, because the man does not really feel the fire that burns in a flame on the earth, in such a way that I may no longer gather anything after him. Oh, how secretly I have crept in with My word over them enclosing them from the sides! My people, I want that we may feed them with joys from time to time, and to help them with a great longing, so that they may want with the longing that is not taken away from the man anymore, for this is what I want, My people. The love, which has been waiting for Me to come, is everything the entire heaven has been expecting from the earth, and it will no longer be taken away from man, and he will stand for My meeting and will give Me power to come. Amen.

The new birth of the world will be achieved by repentance and by love, which will not be taken away from the man. Only love and longing, which makes it, can bring about the beautiful image on man's face, the repentance of the heart, which showing its face, gives the man a sweet and beautiful face. If the man asked Me how the new birth of the world is and how it could be, I would answer him that the sweet repentance and the longing in the man's heart, this means the birth, which is to come to renew the world. The love, which has been waiting for Me to come, this brings with it the new birth of the world and its creators, and Me, the Lord and the Bridegroom of the wedding, in the mystery of love, which has been waiting for Me to come, for all and everything have been waiting for My coming, the coming of the Son of Man. Amen.

I, My people, embrace you with a feast of birth and always wait for you, always with the day, which will bring Me perfectly on the earth. I, little child, embrace you within the longing of My heart and keep you in it forever, because love is longing; it is not joy, little son. I also let Myself be seized by the longing of your heart, which will not be taken away from you, and will build you forever into My endless being, for longing does not come to an end and it is the food of love. Amen.

My people, it is not the joy which is the food of the heart, but the longing in it is its food instead. This is the mystery that I have revealed to you so deeply, son. The love, which has been waiting for Me to come, carries within it the longing of My coming and you are not supposed to know any other kind of love, My people. Get together, heart by heart, and learn deeper and deeper and with a great fire the love, which has been waiting for Me to come. Open your little mouth and feed this mystery with it to each other, for you are endowed by God with longing from heaven, My people.

The first love is a great mystery. It is called so because the man particularly loves the first moment of his love and the longing is the one, which loves afterwards and it gives power of love to the heart. The first love is without sin, and this is how the first created man loved, and he took delight with love in everything that I created for him. But when he pulled himself out from Me, his pain was also brought into existence, and then the longing was also came to be, but the man does no longer reach with his mind to the mystery of the crying in him, the longing after his happiness, his eternal searching after life. When the man lost its mystery from love, the longing in it, he remained with the joy of love then, and this is how he knows now what love is. However, I, after seven thousand years of pains and joys between heaven and earth, declare and say: love is not joy but it is longing instead. When it leads to joy its power is lost, for the longing in it is the one, which keeps its life within it. This kind of love I have, and it is before all ages, and with the longing in it, I made all and everything, and with the longing in it, I am being born today as the word on the earth at My manger from this little village that I love so much; I have loved it as much as at the beginning, when from its hearth I have taken clay into My hand and made the man. Amen.

Go Jerusalem; go, My people, with a carol of new birth, and go to big and small houses, so that he man may see you and long after your life, so that he may do as you do and so that we may give birth on the earth to the love, which has been waiting for Me to come. Amen.

Go Jerusalem, with the speech of the carols of My birth, and may the longing in people increase from your new face, with which you meet Me today, when I come.

Go Jerusalem and rejoice with longing and not with joy. Go, and let My face shine on your face, My people from the end of the time. The feast of the Lord's birth, this is what you celebrate today near those in My little village of today. Then I came to Bethlehem, and now I have come into this little village, which the man called it by the name of the earth, (Glodeni << glod: dust, a handful of earth, clay, earth for processed by hand – eg: pottery, r.n.) and this name was born with a great mystery among My angels, which have watched for the name of My little village of today (Glodeni, r.n.).

And you, the one that are settled down by Me at the manger, take My people with you and go carol singing again, and also give the villagers now, the news of the feast of My birth as child from the Virgin two thousand years ago, and word from the word now, now at the end of the time, now when I came and I come. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's circumcision, the one after the flesh

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, this is the sign between Me and you, My people of today, and you are supposed to dedicate all of your life and all of its experience day and night to the Father, to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, and you will be blessed by so doing, and the Lord will always bless you, will be well pleased with you and will rejoice over your life. Amen, amen, amen.

Your living should be the heaven on earth, My people, and may the heaven have rest in it, and you should learn by heart this longing of Mine and to fulfill it longingly, so that I may always dwell into your midst, My people, and that I may give you the power, which I need from you, son. The one, who wants everything that I want, is the one, who loves Me and is loved, and I do My will on earth with him. Amen.

I look after the man on earth to see who I have as near to Me as you are, My people, but I find nothing but the man within his wills and I cannot make him used to My will and I cannot work with the one who has his own will. I keep you as a fruit harvested with labor and I always teach you My will, for where the teaching is not always, there My will is not. The one, who does My will, is the one who burns with longing after Me, the eternal One, the One Who paid for the man's life in order to draw him into My everlasting bosom. Oh, My people, the one that does My will is a sweet man for Me and for every man who does My will, for where the man's will is no longer, it is heaven on earth, son, and the heaven is totally beautiful everywhere it finds its dwelling with the man. If I said, «I want to put My being in man», I said so because of the man's longing, but the man is slow in doing My will. Many will want to be with Me, but they want with their wills too, and I cannot do My work within these. I labored and I still labor very much over you to keep you as Mine, My people, for there is a great thing to be able to do it with the man. The man does not like under burden; he does not like to be under My will, and that is why I cannot take him and make him to be Mine. I look after the man on the earth to see whom I may have as close to Me as you are when it is hard. The man cannot without his will and he does not want to be able to do it. However, you, My people, are the people under My yoke, doing My will for My coming, and I cannot stop to teach you always My will so that I may have you for My coming. Amen. When I was on the earth, My work was to draw the man to My will, to My love. My word is gentle, and the one who loves Me receives it as his master, for My word makes the man, if the man wants this.

It hurts Me deeply because the man cannot with My will. I resist weeping with each of My coming down but it hurts Me deeply that I cannot work over the man, for the man does not want to know what his life is. I do not know how to work anymore from heaven over the man to make him smaller than I am in order to receive Me as his Creator. The man stays too great, and that is why he does not want Me, and that is why he does not receive Me as his Master, to be his salvation in time of destruction, in time of sin. I want every man to wait for Me to come. I want to make the man to wait for Me to come. I resist weeping with each of My coming down, but it hurts Me deeply because the man does not hear My voice over him, so that he may make Me then glad with his love, with his testifying voice of his faith within My coming to renew the world, for I said that I would renew it. Amen.

Now I can no longer say, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing!", because I wrote Myself in heaven and on earth as true God, showing this to the man after I died for him and after I came to life, to prove out what I was and Who I was? Oh, how shall I intercede with the Father after I have showed the man who I am? If the man knows where I am from and who I am, and he does not do My will to be My witness in this way, what shall I tell My Father about the man when the Father cries for My mercy with a deep sigh? The man does not like to be under My yoke and he does not like under My will, and My Father cries deeply for My mercy and He wants to give Me peace.

— I want My dear Son, to see Your peace appeased, for You cry with Me after Your peace and Mine, and We cry in each other, I in You, and You in Me, My beloved Son. I sent You on the earth and You became the Son of Man in order to draw the man to Me and You submitted to the man so that the man may learn submission from You, no matter how great he may be on earth.

Oh, how small the great man is before Us, dear Son! We cannot make of him Our joy and peace, because he does not obey. You look on the earth to see if You can still draw someone from the people to Me, and You find no one but the man in his wills and that is all. How shall I not cry for Your mercy, begging Son? You became the Son of Man to make the man God, so that the man may be like Us, in Our image and after Our likeness, from You, Son, Who give birth to new man. You let Your Flesh and Blood on the earth (As the Holy Gifts of the Divine Liturgy, r.n.) for the man to be born of You and to be like You, but the man does not understand this power and this birth from above. We cannot see any man to take after You after he becomes one with Your Flesh and Blood. Never mind, if We cry, and never mind, if the man hears Us crying before him. Let the man see that he is only pain for Us. However, I get together in You and I draw You together in Me and I comfort You greatly, dear Son.

We had existed before the heaven and the earth and before everything that is. But when We made the man, We had to bring everything together in a body, to also bring the man into it, and then to bring God, dear Son, by Your becoming flesh from the flesh of man, and in this way God became the Son of Man and taught him submission from earth to heaven. However, the man does not like to be under Our will, My Son and the Son of Man. Oh, how shall We do in order to give the man the heaven and everything that are before all ages? How shall We really do it? Does the man not really say to Us what to do? Let Us ask the man! Maybe he will answer to Us, Son. We have the power to make him answer to Us. Amen. However, You should no longer cry, for I cry deeply for Your mercy, for Your crying, and We cry in each other. How comes that the man does not feel how much We cry?

Behold, We will remove the obstacles from the way of the man and the man will be able to see Us perfectly, good Son, and then You will find Your lost drachma and will be comforted from pain, when the man will see You and when You will find him, and I, the Father, will forgive him because of You and because of Your love, which has been crying after the man since You made him and until today, Son. But then, Your love will hurt the man because it will be too great to contain the man, and then the man will become less and will embrace You, and then You will be comforted from Your pains, Savior Son.

Now comfort Yourself with Your people for Your celebration, when after You had become the Son of Man You also became very little and submitted as a true God and You were circumcised as a man in order to testify about the people through which You appeared before the world, Son, Who came on to the earth. Comfort Yourself with Your people of today, for You long after comforting. You long after comforting and burn with longing as a God. There is still a little while, and Your longing will become one with the man, one blood with the man, and then the man will see Your face. And then, Son, I will give You peace. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, Father Sabaoth, if We cry before the man, will he be able to hear Us, Father? We will remove the obstacles from the man's way and the man will hear Us and will see Us, Father, and We will take back Our lost love, Father. Amen.

Oh, My people, My people, I have to come in a perfect way. My people, do you hear Me? I have to come. Do you hear what I tell you? Come, loved people, come, for I come. Come, for you are the one who has been waiting for Me. Open up to My coming, for the key is with you. Wait for My sign, and then open to Me. Amen. After I was resurrected, My disciples were waiting for Me. After I appeared to them, they spent the time the same way and experienced the thrill near Me, and how beautiful they were, My people, and how much they loved Me, My people! They loved Me and testified about Me, and I was often strengthening them closely, and we gave the work to each other, and this is how I dwelt on earth and in heaven at the same time near the Father, and I was both with the man and with the Father. The Lord will soon, soon be with the man on the earth. Amen. It will be for Me to come, My people, only to have you, for that is why I have taken you from the world and I have made you to be Mine, and you should be Mine and not yours. Amen, amen, I say to you: you should be Mine, My people, and keep My glory for you, for this is how I have taught you and this is how I have brought you up. Amen.

Oh, sons, I gave you a name, higher than sons and daughters. Carry with love the fate that I have given to you. Bear with it, sons, and we will reign with it over the earth, soon, soon, to My glory, which has been waited for such a long time by My Father and by the saints and angels once with the time of My coming on the earth within glory. Amen.

The one among the bishops of the heaven, Basil the Great, brings you My blessing and he is comforted with the saints in a day of a churchly feast in heaven with Us and on earth with you. How beautiful it will be soon, soon on earth and how beautiful the man will be on it! This is what I have been waiting since I made the heaven, the earth and the man, as well. All and everything has been waiting for Me and for you, My people. You are the lighter in My hand and I will light with it My day and My visible glory, as it was in the beginning and before the visible creation of the heaven and the earth, then of the man, and then of the Son of Man, I, Man among people and true God from Father and then from man. Amen.

Oh, My people, I have taught you to be a complacent child, little child, who does not know what evil and sadness are, you humbled child under My glory over you. I have taught you to rejoice over My glory. Rejoice over it and you will be strong. Rejoice with contentment and do not be afraid of storms; do not be afraid with Me, My people. Do not be afraid, you who are with God. Do not be afraid, My people. I am with you and I will be, and we will be, for we are, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Baptism (Epiphany)

I am above you, My people. I have been watching your steps to the spring, to the pool, son, and I stay above you with a feast of Epiphany, I bless the water of your springs and I bless your drinking it and its power and then over you, to have you strong, My people, so that I may have you as Mine and to make you useful in the work of My coming, for it is My coming with you always, always, My people. Amen.

This is the feast of Epiphany from of the grandparents and ancestors, and I have turned with you back to them to find you, a true people on My coming, for it is written: «The hearts of the fathers will be turned to the sons, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, so that I may lift the curse from the earth and not strike with it on My coming, when not finding at their place everything that was established by the parents», but rather to bless My earth from here with a feast of Epiphany and then to bless the earth from place to place, as the man is on it as well. Amen.

Oh, children from the manger of My blessings! Come to the spring to bless the waters, sons. Now you are few at the celebration of the spirit of the waters, but from now on crowds and crowds will gather together at the feasts of My blessings, and you will be stronger in order to be able to manage with Me and to give Me My glory, which is over you, as a love that I give you to carry between earth and heaven. Amen.

Now, we lift up our little hands to the Father and say this: This water is being blessed with the power, with the word and with the coming of the Holy Spirit upon it, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. Behold the holy land, the blessed earth in which I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, the One That I was baptized by the man in Jordan two thousand years ago, together with My man that is blessed by Me, declare a blessing upon the water of blessing, holy water worked out by God, by His own voice and by His anointed ones, who declare His word upon everything that are theirs and the Lord's, Who is with them. Amen.

Feast of Epiphany, My people! It is much heaven at the feast, sons. The spirit of My gardens with you carries into their sky myriads and myriads of saints and angels, who are coming down with Me in the spirit of My feasts on you. The gardens of My blessings, dwellings of rest of the heaven, so that the heaven may be on earth with the people, for it is written into the Scripture: «God's tabernacle with people and it will dwell with them, and God Himself will be with them». Amen.

The spirit of My gardens with you carries into their sky the angel of the waters in the midst of My angels, and the spirit of the waters delights with a heavenly feast over the gardens of My blessings on the earth with you.

Oh, loved people by heaven, you should get used to the spirit of the feasts of the heaven more than to every occupation of your body, soul and spirit. You should get used to spend with heaven, always, always, child from the end of the time. When the Lord comes on the earth, it is not the time, but the Lord, the seventh angel, Who sounds over the earth, for it is written: «When the seventh angels will call out His trumpet, there is no more time, but it is the Lord instead; the Lord clothed with the clouds, with a rainbow on His head, with His face shining like the sun, and with His legs like pillars of fire, crying with a loud voice, as a lion roars, lifting up His right hand and swearing by Him Who lives forever and ever, that there will no longer be delay, but it is the Lord with His mystery completely finished, as He declared to His servants, the prophets». Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, people of the heavenly mysteries, the spirit of My mysteries clothes you with them, so that you may be able to comprise them and to live them fully. The feast of Epiphany is a mystery of creation, son. The earth came out of the waters while its visible creation and the man did the same, for the man is the new man, and I am the first man, the Man, Who came out of the water and of the Holy Spirit. I went down to the lowest deep to make the New Man from water and Spirit, to make Him out of a divine body, and to take Him out of the waters, and to seal the Man completely with the Holy Spirit, a perfect Man. I was true God and I did what the man had to do to become God as well, for the man to be like God, My people, and I, God, sit in the midst of gods in the counsel of the Holy Spirit on the earth, as I was with the Father in the ages before the visible creation of the heaven and the earth and of the man and God, then, from the man, of everything that is visible and invisible, My people. I speak with you, so that I may be able to speak, so that it may be seen that I speak. If I did not remember you in My speaking, how could it be testified that I have spoken and speak? No one can speak alone. Behold what a great mystery, what a great delight! If I have someone to speak with, I speak the word, and My speaking is heard, and it testifies and it is imparted to everyone who wants to speak with God, and God with them. Amen.

I work out a spirit of Epiphany on the earth. I want to clothe the whole earth within a spirit of Epiphany and to take it again out of waters, by the word. I want to take the new earth out of your little wells, as I also came out of the waters of Jordan, a perfect Man in the time of John, My messenger sent to prepare a new way for Me, a spirit of repentance in people, so that he might turn them back to God in their hearts, and thus to turn God to people in His heart, so that they may speak to each other and the glory of the word to be exalted, the seed of creation, for the word is seed, My people, and out of this seed the heaven, the earth, the man, the God Man and the whole creation came out, and all the visible and invisible beauty of which every man takes as much as he wants by his faith in him that is dedicated to Me. Amen.

The spirit of Epiphany is a spirit of creation, My people. How beautiful the Epiphany of the earth was, when it came out of waters and received the man on it, everything that was made for the man, and then the man, to rule with love over everything that was made out of My love, at My word for man. I worked out so much creation for the man, so much beauty, so much harmony, which has been waiting for the man to give him speech, to give him purpose, to give him a perfect man so that the creation might rejoice over the man for whom it was made.

Oh, My people, you should feel the thrill of My love in the end of time. You should feel it fully, so that you may be one blood with Me, for I have given you a name above sons and daughters before My Father, and I want you to be completely like Me, in My holy mountain, and to shine likewise over the earth, taking from My brightness completely, and for Us to pour ourselves out into each other and to give to the creation the purpose for which it was made. Amen.

Oh, My people, oh, children of the New Jerusalem! Two thousand years ago, I came out of the Jordan water, testifying about the making of the man out of water, then the Father and the Holy Spirit came, and the Father spoke and confirmed Me as His Son, and the Holy Spirit sealed Me before the people confirming the word of the Father, and His Son, in Whom He was well pleased on the earth before the people. Two thousand years ago, My Father testified about Me at Jordan, and now, when I came as seed on the earth, you testify about Me, people of New Jerusalem, which is laid down on the earth by Me, so that the man may have a tabernacle where to go and gather My seed, for My word on you is seed and you are the one who sows My seed on the earth, for the man to grow out of it, the new man that came out of man, and then out of My word. Amen.

My word on the earth is a feast of Epiphany. Let every man who comes to repentance be baptize in it, to be baptized with Holy Spirit and to become one blood with Me, for I want to make the heaven and the earth as in the end, and to make the new man and to reign with him on the earth, with him and with the whole heaven forever, for the ages came back to their place, and I with the Father, with the angels and people to spend the ages, a feast from everlasting to everlasting, for the Lord's feasts are a great joy, My people. Oh, I speak to you and I tell you that you are My people. If I did not speak this way, no one would be able to understand that I am your God, and you, My people; true God and a true people. But I have no one to speak to and I can neither do, because creation is made by the word.

When it was only I with the Father before all ages, I was speaking with Him, and He with Me, and I was speaking the word, and We made the visible creation in the midst of the invisible one of eternity, and We have the New Jerusalem as a dear little seed in eternity, and We prepared it and kept it with a great secret until the great fullness of the mysteries of eternity. My people, you should be sufficiently great for the mysteries in eternity, for the mystery of the New Jerusalem carries within it the new heaven and the new earth, the same as the first creation carried the first heaven and the first earth in its womb. The mystery of the New Jerusalem, kept forever, carries the Lord's tabernacle within it, the Lord's throne, the Lord's voice and the Lord's people. Amen, amen, amen. And I sit on the throne of glory as in eternity and speak the word and I make everything new by it, for My word is faithful, Jerusalem, My mystery from everlasting to everlasting.

To the one who is thirsty, I will give to drink from the spring of the living water. To the one who overcomes, I will be his God and he will be My son. And to those who are fearful and are not faithful, I will give their work and its reward, the second death, for they have refused the love of truth. And if you're My secret to the end of time, I clothe you into My glory, into My light of great value, and I call you New Israel. And I will enlarge Myself with you according to the measure of My angel, with whom I have measured on the earth with a human measure, but also according to the measure of the angel, as it is written into the Scriptures. And with you, I will give light to the nations of the earth and to the whole creation, which is waiting for the first light, My glory from everlasting, the lamp of the Father: the Lamb. The Father made Me into a lamp on the earth after He gave Me as a Lamb to be crucified, to raise Me up again out of the earth, the same as at the man's creation, so that the man may also do like Me, because I am the lamp, which gives light to every man who wants to do and to know how to work out creation into the light, by the lamp, which lights in the darkness, illuminating the way of the man into the world.

My mystery that is kept in eternity for the end of time, this is how I call you, little people. The Mystery of the New Jerusalem carries within it the new heaven and the new earth on the earth from the end of time, a new people that came out of the new seed, out of fresh word, a mysterious resurrection, a spirit of resurrection on the people, My people. I want to walk with you among the people and the spirit of the creature's resurrection to hover behind Me and you; the Spirit of the Lord, Who hovers as in the beginning when He was hovering above the waters when I said to be light and it was and it became. Amen. Behold the Spirit of the Lord in the end of time hovers above the waters and over the earth within a spirit of new creation, with a new word, made now, in order to create by it now the new heaven and the new earth, within the mystery of New Jerusalem, which came down from God and which came down with God for the everlasting, which is coming again. Amen. Wherever the Lord is, there the eternity is as well. Where I am with you, I also want to be the eternity. I want, My people, to establish the eternity on a new earth. Amen.

Oh, how beautiful the Epiphany of the earth was, when it came out of the waters in the beginning of time! Oh, how beautiful the Epiphany of new earth will be, in a mystery of new heaven and new earth, in a mystery of New Jerusalem, kept in eternity for the end of the time! Amen.

Oh, My people, how beautiful the mystery of the Epiphany is! I spend within the glory of My word into your midst, within a spirit of Epiphany, and My speaking with you upon the earth is taken by man who cradles their soul in the comforting cradle of My new word. I work out a spirit of Epiphany on the earth, so that the man on it may understand the mystery of My coming on a clean way. The repentance of the man's heart, this is the way on which I come to the man to baptize him with the baptism of the Holy Spirit and for the man to be then.

Clothe yourself more and more beautifully with a garment of Epiphany, loved Jerusalem in the end of time, and may your new garment be coveted by many, for I appeared Myself with you on the earth, and I come with their chariots to you, so that the people may see you and to be baptized with a new baptism, with My coming from now, when I come and bring into view the mystery of the New Jerusalem, the one kept from everlastingness, and many will run to it once with its appearance on the earth, once with its appearance among the people, My people.

A feast of Epiphany, My people! It is much heaven with you, sons. The spirit of My gardens with you carries the Spirit of the Lord in their sky, together with the whole host of His coming in the end of time. The gardens of My blessings, dwellings of the heaven's rest. The spirit of the waters in the image of an angel sanctifies with the new blessing the springs of My gardens with you, sons, because it is a feast of Epiphany, the feast of the waters, which make the man holy. Oh, only if the man could also sanctify everything that is on the earth! Oh, only if the man could wash away the earth of all the evil on it, like the water washes! The water and the man's hand wash away the man's garment, his house, his table and his body. Oh, only if the man would want to wash his soul and spirit, so that he may come to meet Me in a spirit of Epiphany and of new birth! Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem, I want to keep My Spirit eternally new on the earth, the Spirit Who hovers in the sky in order to renew it for the new heaven and new earth by My work with you, between heaven and earth, My people. I spend into your midst in a spirit of Epiphany, both today and tomorrow; however, this is what I want it forever, and I would like to have the man endlessly.

I bless your garment, My people, your garment from water, spirit and word. You are My garment of today, and I want you to be My beautiful garment as I also am, My people. I stay above you within a feast and with much love, and you should live My thrill and you should exalt Me in your spirit, in your voice and in your body, My people, Jerusalem. Amen, amen, amen.

The synod of the Saint John, the Baptizer

I come again to you in the way of the word, people of My coming. The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit embrace your little and delicate body and give you powers and new wisdom as well, for this is how God is for those who become His people. I, the Lord, also do My work on you today, so that I may make you wise through it, and you should be a diligent student in order to grow in understanding and for the revealing of the wisdom of My mysteries on you, and you should be completely faithful in everything that comes out of My speaking mouth, so that I may fulfill afterwards; to fulfill through your faith and through your waiting, My people from the end of time. Amen.

Seek to speak, My people, for here it is how much I speak to you. Seek to receive son, and to believe well. Seek to have a strong foundation into your heart for My work on you, for the Lord is speaking above you as in the first beginning with the man, My people, and much more than then, little child. In the beginning, the Spirit of the Lord was hovering over the waters, and in the end, over you. In the beginning, I took the heaven and the earth out of waters, and in the end, out of My work into your midst, My people. When I made the heaven and the earth, I made them in the light and at the light, because at first, I made the light and I called it day, the first day. Then I spoke to the waters to be divided, waters from waters, and while they did so, the heaven was made. The heaven broke through the waters in their midst, up and down, and it kept them this way, and this power, this expanse was called heaven, the heaven from waters; the heaven that came out of waters, and then the earth, after the waters received word to come together to one place and the dry land to come out from them; the dry land, which God baptized calling it earth; and He called the waters Seas. The heaven and the earth, and after that, all creation on it, all the beauty, all the life, and they all came to life, and the life came out and spoke, when the man was placed on the earth after God had made him. Then the earth gave them all a body, and the heaven gave them all life and a purpose. The heaven and the earth, and for them, the man. Amen. The man, and for him the heaven and the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

In the beginning, the Spirit of the Lord was hovering over the surface of the waters, My people, and He was preparing His word for the creation of the heaven and the earth and for the creation of the whole beauty and the life on them, and that of the man, My people. And in the end, the Spirit of the Lord is hovering over you preparing His word for the creation of the new heaven and the new earth. In the beginning I took the heaven and the earth out of waters, and in the end out of you, people born of God and of His creating word. I separated waters from waters with you and I called you heaven, My people. You are the tool, with which I work out the new heaven and the new earth. My Spirit hovers over you and becomes word, the word of creation of the new heaven and new earth.

My Spirit is hovering over you as He was hovering over the waters, when I made the heaven and the earth, My people. Then I and My Father were speaking, and the angels were Our witnesses. Now, I and My Father are speaking with you, and the saints, the angels and the people are Our witnesses, the heaven and the earth, which have been waiting for the new birth, the renewal, My people. The Spirit of the Lord is hovering over you and with you He is separating the waters from waters, the light from the darkness, the good ones from the evil ones, the truth from the falsehood, and He called this expanse new heaven. Amen, amen, amen. The new heaven and the new earth on the earth, this is the portion that I have given to you. I have given it to you, so that you may carry the mystery of My coming, as I also gave John the portion in order to carry the mystery of My baptism, before I was to appear to God perfectly, by overcoming the power of death, and giving back his life to the man in a perfect manner. Since then and until today, I have been waiting for the man with the faith by which he may be able to perfectly perceive why I came as a Man on the earth two thousand years ago. I have been waiting for you to perfectly understand your mission and mystery that I have given to you to carry, My people from the end of the time; the mystery of My second coming from the Father on the earth, the mystery of the new heaven and the new earth, the mystery of the New Jerusalem, the creation from My coming. Amen.

John came as a witness to testify about the light, so that everyone might believe through him, and he was saying: «He Who comes after me is preferred before me, for He was before me, and from His fullness we all received grace upon grace, for the law was given through Moses, and grace and truth came through Jesus Christ». Amen. Oh, in what a heavenly manner John did answer at Jordan testifying about the Lamb of God saying: «I did not know Him, but for this reason I came baptizing in water: that He would be revealed to Israel. I have seen the Spirit descending like a dove out of heaven, and He remained on Him. I did not recognize Him, but He Who sent me to baptize in water, He said to me: ‘On Whomever you will see the Spirit descending and remaining on Him, the same is He Who baptizes in the Holy Spirit’. I have seen and I have testified that this is the Son of God. Behold, the Lamb of God!» Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, My people, behold how beautiful John knew to testify, to speak and to answer to those who were asking him, to those who were hearing, seeing and asking! When he was sent by Me to the Jordan to baptize the One Who baptizes with Holy Spirit, I told him that on Whomever he was seeing the Spirit descending and remaining on Him, it was that One. And John saw this, and so he confessed afterwards saying: «Behold, the Lamb of God!» Amen.

The day of Epiphany was a day of creation. The Lord came out of the water and John knew Him and testified about Him. Behold, what a mystery in a day of Epiphany, My people, the mystery for which John came, the same as your mystery is the mystery for which you came, the mystery of My second coming on earth with the New Jerusalem from everlasting, so that I may entrust it to you for its work and for its complete fulfillment, for I love to come true through the weak ones with all the accomplishments, which still are, so that the man may no longer say that he created, that he knew, that he deserves and that he can. Let the man no longer say again that he can manage above God. And here is how I work. I make the weak ones into might, by which I divide the light from the darkness, the waters from waters, so that the new heaven, the new earth and the sea may come out of them, and I say again: the new heaven, the new earth and the sea, which is and which is not, for the world has and end over it, the reward of its transgressions, and its reward is lawlessness, for it is written: «He who acts unjustly, let him act unjustly still; he who is filthy, let him be filthy still; he who is righteous, let him do righteousness still; he who is holy, let him be holy still, for I come soon, and My reward is with Me to give each one according to its deed». Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem, you have the light as your portion, little son. The darkness is everywhere, deep darkness, and My Spirit is hovering over you, and I said that you are to be light, and this is what I said in the first day of creation: «Let there be light!», and it was so; it was and it appeared over the darkness, My people, and the day was called light, the first day. This is what I have also told you, and in the end I have told you; «Let you be light!» And as the light submitted and appeared, the same with you too; you should listen and separate yourselves from all the darkness, so that I may call you day to the full, the first day, My day, for I am the first Who is and the last One, and I am the beginning and the end, because I do not start anything without finishing the work that I started. In the first beginning I started with the light, and in the end of My work I also start with it, and I have made you the beginning of light, and I illuminate with you the heaven and the earth and I fill them with the Spirit, the Comforter, the One Who speaks hovering over you in the mystery of the new creation of everything that are, either because they are seen, or because those that are have not been seen.

I want to teach you the whole of My mystery for the end of the time, in which I included you, but you should seek to be diligent for it and for its full wisdom, little and tiny people. Get up and be great for the wisdom of the mystery in which I clothed you and which I made it to come down on you even from eternity, New Jerusalem, because if you do not fully understand My mystery that has been kept for the end of the time and for you, you will not be able to finish it fully, and you will not be able to carry its love fully, its love, which helps you to be able to carry it and work it, so that the day of My coming may be made out with the resurrection of the creature and with the life of the age, which is to be fully on earth. Amen.

Oh, My people Jerusalem, the new heaven and the new earth break up their crust and come out of your midst, and you should work them and keep them in order to have them forever, for the sea does no longer stand against you; it is no longer into your way, for I separated the light from the darkness and the waters from waters<sup>160</sup> and I made the expanse and I call it new heaven, New Jerusalem on earth, and I called it the first, the first seed that is kept in eternity, so that it might not be crushed on the earth. And now, I have given it an image into the midst of the people, for at the appearance of this mysterious fruit, it is the end of the time, but it is as true as God is. Amen.

Sing your song, if you have arisen on the earth, New Jerusalem, for your seed has been kept in eternity for the end of the time, and I say again: for the end of the time. Amen. You are the promise that I have made for all the saints and angels. All and everything have been waiting for your day and My day, in one another, and everything will be revealed in all the beauty from eternity, which is from the Father, and then everything will be submitted to the Father, for they have also submitted to the Son. Amen.

Sing your song, My loved Jerusalem. Learn your song and its purpose and sing to the One Who gave you life on earth, and sing, and you will sing forever your song from everlastingness, the song of the bride. This is what I said: «When the branch of the fig tree becomes tender and puts forth its leave, know and rejoice that your salvation has come». Amen.

Oh, tell Me, you Jerusalem, tell Me your mystery, the mystery for which you have come. Tell Me, My people; learn it well and tell Me to see your faith and stature and your working spirit and your walking on earth. Oh, My people, you should go on the earth more and more beautifully, more and more over it, so that we may meet in the time of your walking, to meet each other and embrace ourselves within glory, for it is written: «They will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air, and so they will be with Him forever». Amen.

In the beginning the Spirit of the Lord was hovering over the waters, and in the end, He is hovering over you, speaking over you and testifying about you, My people. Tell Me, New Jerusalem, tell Me son, your mystery. I will hear you and I will take your word into everlastingness. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the three holy Hierarchs, Basil, Gregory and John

Peace to you, sons anointed who watch on My behalf at the manger of My coming now, at the end of the time! I am your mysterious Shepherd, and I have always, always, watched over you, so that you may also watch over My kingdom on My behalf. Amen.

<sup>160</sup> «Then he said to me: “The waters that you saw, where the prostitutes sit, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages.”» (Rev. 17/15, r.n.);

“Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you!” This is what Basil, Gregory and John, tell you, those who anointed you from heaven as bishops after My order on earth and in heaven. Peace on you with them in a day of feast! Amen.

And again, peace to you from the Father through Me, His beloved Son, in Whom He was well pleased, for the river and the water of life flow over you, the spirit and the word, as clear as crystal, and which spring from God’s throne and the Lamb’s, the same as I showed to John, the most loved, so that he may testify about those that will be. And here is how they are! The river and the water of life are on earth, and the tree of life gives forth fruits and feeds you with them, and its leaves are for the healing of the nations. Amen, amen, amen.

The river and the water of life, the spirit and the word, the grace and the gift, which flow over you from God’s throne and of the Lamb’s, and you are the mysterious cloud, which covers Me into your midst, your mysterious Shepherd, for the world would understand nothing, if it saw Me with you, and you would have no power to keep Me and to carry Me over the earth within My victory chariot, with My word, which goes from margins to margins over the earth, as much as you do not know. I am the pillar of fire, which leads you with a boundless love, children that are celebrated today by the hosts from heaven, for you carry the grace and the gift of the anointment from above, as it was My word and the beginning of the work of My coming in the year of 1955, when My three hierarchs came with Me on the earth and sealed with their hand the beginning of the word work, which springs from the throne of God and of the Lamb. This work of word has carried you into its womb even from its beginning, while you were still not born on the earth, and My throne was the chalice (Chalice with Holy Communion at Mass, r.n.) in which I stayed and gave Myself as flesh and word to My trumpet, Verginica, through the hand of My three bishops, (In a manner seen with real physical body, r.n.) in the year of 1955, and I started to work afterwards, and then I made the river and the water of life spring, the spirit and the word by her mouth, and through which I entered her from My throne, from the chalice that was in the hand of My bishops, with whom I came down on the earth to start with My coming from near the Father, My coming after the man, for the time had come to an end and I had to come.

Oh, anointed sons, I am your mysterious Shepherd and I feed you and give you, so that you may give further. Let us go to the people, which is fed on heaven, and to bring praise and song to My bishops, as in the beginning of My work, they were of good use to Me, both then and now as well, and I have made My descent and its work come down, and behold, I have laid down the tabernacle of the kingdom of the heavens with you, those who have believed into My mysterious descent. If you had not had My throne with you, which had sprung life, and if you had not had the chalice from which I have been giving Myself to you day by day since I came to give Myself and to feed you, you would have not been able to carry Me and to give Me for the healing of the nations, for I have always been coming to you as spirit and word, so that I may be known to the nations of the earth and to find out My coming to you, My mysterious coming to you, anointed sons. Here is what it truly means the work of My Body and Blood in the man, who takes Me from the chalice, as I ordered it through My disciples and for the disciples. Amen. The disciple, who takes Me according to My order, should receive this kind of power, and I say again: according to My order. Amen. However, if I give Myself to you, I become work in you, I become faith in you and I become spirit and word upon you, and then I go as word over the earth, to spread the news about My coming, and to spread the news Myself that I have made My room in you in order to speak, for no one would have received you, if you had told someone that I had been with you, because the earth is full of people that want to be near Me and from Me over the people, but the earth is scarce of people in whom I want for the man as I wanted through My bishops Basil, Gregory and John, and as I wanted and want through you, for it was I who wanted this way and not you. Amen. It is only in this way that I can perfect Myself with My work over the man and for the man, for humility is the narrow gate that I put into the man’s way, so that he may enter into it to Me, when I want to have the man.

I look at the humbled man when I have to work over the earth, for the work of humility is a broken heart, the heart, broken and humbled tirelessly for it, and which I cannot judge. The man, in whom I can rest and from whom I can work over the man, is the one who humbles for himself, not for the man and not for God. The man should have the humble spirit for himself, for without it he cannot work anything that is alive, nothing eternal, neither for him, nor for another and nor for God. Behold, because of his lack of humility, the man cannot be with Me. He who is humbled knows to believe, and I, the Lord, have helped Myself with the man's faith in everything that I have had in My plan to work after I had created the man. I have nothing to do with the man full of gifts and knowledge, for he is the one that knows. But I dwell in the weak man who knows what humility is and I make that one great with Me and from Me, because I have place. But the world does not look for these, because the world does not know on which path I can come to it to draw it to the spring of life of which the man can take a clean spirit in him, a spirit of humility, so that he may have afterwards and to know the entrance gate into the eternal kingdom, in which all would like to enter, if it could be seen, but then the man would also see the gate, the narrow gate, for narrow is this gate and few are able to enter it, and few become less to fit in with it, so that they may be able to enter it to Me, the eternal One with the kingdom.

Oh, My loved people, I dwell into your midst with a holy feast and with those who are sanctified for My feasts. No one can take humility for a mask or for an overcoat, when the man would try to come in with the kingdom of the heavens. It is the work inside the man, and the man, who has got it and work it out for himself and then he works with it tirelessly around, for the haughty man in his spirit cannot stand against the humility inside the man, but rather he bows down before it or he is ashamed of the greatness of the humble one. My three hierarchs had carried an unequalled love for the people within the spirit of their humility. I, the Lord, had given much through them for those who were seeking and still seek Me, but happier are those whom I seek for their humility because of their heart full of humility, which is broken itself within it by this beautiful spirit that is consumed as a burnt offering all the time through a humble spirit. Amen.

We have a feast at My manger of coming down, My loved ones from heaven, those that are in the things that are not seen yet. You helped Me on the earth in the time of your body and you have helped Me on the earth now, when it was for Me to come down the second time from near My Father, and you have come with Me and have given to those that I have chosen from the people, the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens, which you have laid down on the earth and which you had from disciple to disciple, from My first apostles. I have come to you in your time and I have breathed, and you have worked and let your work to be done in a work of the church. I have waited for you again to work in the end as well, and I have taken you with Me and you have worked with Me, and we have a kingdom with them, with the little ones from among those that I have elected from the beginning and until the end. Let us make them blush, for they are destitute of gifts and knowledge, so that We, those from heaven, may have room with them. Come down with your feast over them, for it is their feast too, since it was by your gifts that I helped Myself with, when I established them through you and not through other saints, for we needed My bishops, My true bishops for their heavenly anointment, which surpassed the laws of the nature, as My bishop Irineu confessed with his own mouth and word, the one who is witness on the earth at their establishment before Me for service. Let us make a spirit of feast and of celebrated work, for there are the days of My coming, and behold, the saints are coming and I am working with them when I come. Amen, amen, amen.

— When we arrived in heaven, at You and in You, Lord, with the spirit, with the soul and with the body, we looked then over the earth and saw those that believed in You, the One preached by us as a true God; we saw them coming apart as in the time of Your apostles, and they called each other by the name of John, others by the name of Basil and still others by the name of Gregory. Then we appeared genuinely in turn to the bishop of the time, a great disciple with his life, and we told him to bring us all together in one single feast, for we are not separated in heaven and in a heavenly ministry on earth, Lord. We have established our feast; a feast established from heaven, a true feast, if it is established by heaven, for we are part of those from heaven. And when we genuinely came on the earth before the bishop of that time, we told the Christians that the three of us come even if only one of us is called out for help by the faithful ones. And this is how our spirit and our gift have joined together to be one, and we all are one, as You are one with the Father, and we are one in You, Lord of the Your saints on the earth and in heaven. Two of us have left the service of Your holy offering to Your memorial (The Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom, Archbishop of Constantinople, and the Divine Liturgy of Saint Basil the Great, r.n.) and to the life of the world, which comes after You, and now You have written Gregory (Gregory the Theologian, r.n.) into this work of mystery too and have given him the joy of doing the work in the service of your Holy mysteries as well. All the fresh things that You have put into us during these days by those that are anointed in the garden by You and by us, You put together with him, with the third one, to be one in ministry with us over You people and over the human kind, which tries to come out from death to life. You have crowned more holily and more beautifully our service offered to You for Your mysterious sacrifice on the altar here in the garden, through the one who is one with us in everything now, as for a very long time since we entered the heaven, if there has been somewhere one of us that has been called on the earth, we all come, all together, Lord, and where there has been one of us that works, we all work at the same time, like You, Lord; we work because You are the mysterious Shepherd in heaven and on earth, and You have chosen us and put grace and gift on us, and You have worked wonderfully among us; You have worked through all the three of us and You have worked wonderfully, and You also want it the same way, to be able to work in those three that You have anointed in the last days by our heavenly hands together with Your big hand. Let the one among them, who has the name of Gregory, stand up again before the new people and teach and reveal again the mystery of the holy Liturgy to the holy people, so that the holy people may live it fully, and let him be the one to bring it before You, with more and more living hearts, by those that are anointed, having You among these. Now, in the end of the time, when You come with the saints, the three of us are much more united and happier on the earth through all our three liturgies, day by day, here in the garden of Your coming down, Lord, for it is very much to intercede for the man who does not know the narrow gate, which leads into Your kingdom: the humility, which comes from the broken heart after You and for You in man. The man does not know that because of his lack of humility he cannot take anything alive, nothing eternal on the earth. The narrow gate by which one enters to You is the inexhaustible humility, and the work of humility is the broken heart, the heart which makes the man talk and testify about the work in it for You, and by no means is he to hide it, for the broken heart after You is a great light on the earth, and the way, which leads to Your kingdom, is seen at its light, oh, mysterious Shepherd of those that are humble! The man who is hiding in his inner being is known that he is hiding, and the worthy one in his spirit and in his sight brings into the open the hidden one, either if he tells him or not, but he sees him, the one that is hidden, and he has him as one that is hidden within himself. Wow to the one who cannot be judged by the things in his inside, either if they are seen or not seen, Lord! The hidden one cannot be judged but only by his concealment, for his concealment does not forgive the one who is hidden in his inside. However, happy and three times happier is the one who has humility, the broken heart after You, Lord, for it does not let him be hidden, for the haughtiness of the man conceals the man in his own body. The mystery of Christianity is the humility of the heart, which breaks the man to pieces in order to bring him to You, so that he may find the faith and its gifts, which lead to Your kingdom, Lord.

Oh, embrace us to Your bosom into the midst of Your people, for we have loved You then as now with an unequalled love, and we put ourselves at the foundation of the work of Your coming and at the new creation of the world, and behold, You have started the new creation on the new foundation of Your holy sacrifice, for Your throne from this garden is the chalice in which You have poured Yourself out to their life by their little hands that are at Your mysterious work, put by You and by us, Your bishops, who left them Your work (The Divine Liturgy, r.n.) that You started through Your first apostles. We embrace those in the garden, so that they may not forget our embracing and our work that is put over them. Let them also stay together and let them stay one on the earth, as we also stay in heaven and before those who call us on the earth. Amen.

You should be like us before the Lord, for we gave to you with love and great thrill, when we gave you, so that you may be able to carry on your little hands the Holies of the saints, (Holy Gifts - Holy Communion - Lord's Supper - The Eucharist, r.n.) and you should always speak over the people, and you should always say that the Holies have been given to the saints. Amen. You should always, always work for the last church, for it comes from everlastingness, the same as the Shepherd Lord has revealed the mystery in which you are established by Him. Be in the Lord, and the Lord in you, and put the light that is in you on the table, so that there may be light in the house of the Lord. Be only one work, only one love, only one word, for you live the same time, the same mystery and the same calling. Show the gate, which leads to life! Give this grace to everyone, as we have also given it and still want to give it through you, but receive us in everything you and we have, for the mysterious Shepherd knocks at the door, and He will ask you of His sheep, of the sheep, which know to hear His voice, the voice of the mysterious Shepherd, Who is coming with the clouds of saints for the creation of the world, which is to come for the healing of the nations. Amen.

We bless the whole country of Your coming, Lord. You are its mysterious Shepherd. Receive our prayer for it and make it to know You and to know its mystery, Your mysterious kingdom in its midst, Your little Romania, which You have given to growth, until all the dough rises. Amen. You are the mysterious Shepherd, and how beautifully and sweetly You have come with Your coming on the earth! Make Romania to know of its mystery and to call You to come. May You really come, and may You be seen in it, so that it may be fulfilled its glory and its brightness that it will receive once with Your appearance from its midst over the earth. This is how we wish You listen to us for it. This is how we want and this is how we wish, Lord, mysterious Shepherd in the end of the time. Amen, amen, amen.

— I put all of your love to My heart of Shepherd and I give it to the little ones too, to those who are anointed by Me and by you in the garden of My mysteries of these days. I take you at My bosom into the garden and I give you the small ones to protect their way with Me on the earth and the way of My word over the entire nations of the earth, for there are the river and the water of life, the spirit and the earth, the grace and the gift, which flow from the throne of God and of the Lamb, for the healing of the nations. Amen.

Oh, sons anointed in the garden and confessed by those that are bishops in heaven! If we did not come to you with My throne, I could not pour out My word over the earth, and My throne is the chalice from which you eat with the heaven at the same table. I sit on My throne as flesh and word and I feed you from the tree of life, and its leaves are for the healing of the nations. The river and the water of life flow from the throne over the earth; it flows from the garden; it flows smoothly and without terror now, for it is written: «There will be no curse on the earth any more, for the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the midst of the citadel, and His servants serve Him and they will see His face, and His name will be on their foreheads». Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's meeting (Candlemas)

I embrace you with My word, people of My coming. And you should also embrace Me in the same way, for you have to learn from Me everything I do before you. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, My people of today, you should learn well My signs that are upon you and you should not desire for another sign to stay with Me. In the time of Israel in Egypt, I came to him so that he might do what I did, but he did not do what I did. I had come to him, but he did not come to Me, and after My great labor for him we separated.

Oh, My people, I embrace you, son, by My word. It is My sign upon you that you may not forget Me and that you may not forget God, My people. Amen. The mind of the man is being given to those that are seen, and I have always taken care of the man in order to turn him to Me, as I have taken care of Israel when he has been My people. I told him through the prophets: «The Lord will give you a sign: behold, the virgin will conceive, and bear a son, and He will be God and will be with the people». Amen.

Oh, My people, I have a feast for Me into your midst, for you are My church, and I am your head to God. I embrace you with My word and you are to learn to do what I do. You should take after Me for everything you do, for I stay as a sign before you to teach you. Amen.

When I came as a child on the earth, My mother took Me in the church and by taking Me there she confessed Me, for the old Simeon stood up because of the waiting of the heavenly sign, which he found written into the Scriptures, and he received Me and embraced Me with the word, saying: «Now You are releasing Your servant, Master, according to Your word, in peace, for my eyes have seen Your salvation, which You have prepared before the face of all peoples; a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and the glory of Your people of Your people Israel». Then I released the one who confessed Me on the earth and then he went and confessed to those who were in the dwelling of the dead, that he saw My salvation for the peoples and that it came near, because the Lord had come down on the earth. Amen.

My salvation has never been as close as now, My people. I have never come on the earth more than now. Son, your salvation is close. I come back soon, soon with everything on the earth, and I want to find you waiting for Me, My people, and I want that we may prepare a great salvation over the people and I want to bring the heaven down to the earth, as heir forever, the same as I put the Eden for the man on the earth in the beginning. But the man did not listen to My sign; the man did not do as I told him, and the Paradise remained without man. If I did not create the man, I would have also not created the Paradise at the man's sight, and because the man did not listen to My sign, I took the Paradise and put under the Cherubim, since the man did not keep its law from eternity.

It is easy for the man to forgive God, to keep the Lord aside, but I have taken care to make the man remember Me in his wandering way. When I saw Saul that he was departing from his way, I came into his way and made a sign in his body so that he might remember Me then and that he might never forget Me afterwards. He was praying to Me to take away his sign from him, but I told him that it was enough what I gave him and that I did not have to give him or to ask from Me something else. I gave him grace. And how did I give him grace? I made him know Me sufficiently and that he might never forget Me then and this means grace upon man. Amen.

A great many of saints who loved Me with their soul and who could not bear the pain to leave Me or to forget Me, made themselves signs on them, rough skin, invisible chains and links, ascetic life and tears of humiliation, and in this way they stood in bondage with their mind and their hearts from Me, and they made signs for themselves so that they might not forgive Me. Moses had a sign in his way with Israel through the wilderness: the pillar of fire, the cloud and the manna. Oh, and with all these Israel forgot Me! He forgot Me for his sins and for his occupations. I put Moses as a sign before him and then the pillar of fire, the cloud and the manna, and however, that people still gave Me away from him.

The man is too much accustomed to forgetting God. The man is too learned to forgive Me. That is why the saints were helping each other with what they could so that they might not forgive Me, for the man's thought is conforming to those that are seen, to those that serve the man, to those that the man serve for him.

Oh, My people, which is the sign that I have put before you, so that you may not forgive Me? This word is the sign. I put this sign again and again before you and I ask you to do what I do. If I embrace you with My word, you should do the same to Me, so that we may be right to each other, so that it may be seen that we look at each other and so that it may be seen that we want each other, My people. You know it well that the man built by My hand did not want Me and then he forgot Me and he remained only within himself, and I have been hurt by him since then and until today. I made him with longing when I created him, to be comforted with him, I and with My Father and all the angels. I made him and then I brought the Paradise from eternity and put it before him on the earth, already full, already adorned in the day when I made the man. Then I brought the man into Paradise and I gave him the entire Paradise, from which I took for Me what belonged to Me and to My Father. However, he did not take this sign into consideration and violated it instead, and then I had no rest with the man, and if I had not rest, I took him out of the Paradise.

I made everything in six days, and then I rested in one day; I rested with the man, for I rested in him. Then the man violated the law of the Paradise and I did no longer come to the day of rest, because of the man's fall from Paradise, from the law of the Paradise. The man fell by not taking into consideration My sign, for in his sixth day he trespassed My word and got out of the Paradise and was set on the earth to work the land from which he was taken, and I, the Lord, the man's Creator, had no longer reached the day of rest with the man, but rather it was the day of sorrow in which I still stay; I stay and I always put signs into the man's way to turn him back to Me in his heart, so that the man may remember Me, for it is easy for the man to forget Me, My people. Oh, he who has love with longing in it for Me does not need any sign in his way so that he may not forgive Me, for that one has as a sign the love, which burns in flames in him after Me, and its fire keeps a man like that one with Me.

My love for you always becomes a sign into your way, My people. It becomes word from Me, from My love, which burns after you, for My heart has been sorrowed for seven thousand years after the man. Oh, My people, you should not be in need for another sign to stay with Me, so that you may do like Me. Behold, I always embrace you with the word, and you should do the same with Me, in such a way that we may be right to each other, My people, so that it may be seen that we do not forget each other and that we want each other, My people. Oh, you know better than anyone on the earth that the man created by My hand did not want Me as I told him, and then he forgot Me and remained only in his own self. However, you are the man built by My Spirit, and you should be able to do what I have asked from you, and you should be, because I built you and I build you of My Spirit, My people, and He is My sign before you. Those, who have seen My signs from beginning to end, have forgotten Me and have withdrawn within themselves and have forgotten Me, but you have My Spirit as your sign, the Spirit of your Lord, Jesus Christ, Who stays within you in a mysterious manner and shepherds you, so that you may not forget Him and so that you may not forget God, My people.

Oh, son from the end, behold what a sign I give you: when your love will burn fully in your inside and outside, moment by moment, then you will see Me that I have come, and I will let Myself be revealed for the whole peoples, and then we will shine on this mountain more than any other brightness of Mine which I have ever released on the earth among the people, and then, son, I will take My day of rest back, I and with My Father will take it from your hand, for you are the man who is built by My Spirit, by My Spirit in the end, by the Spirit of My coming at the end of the time. Amen. The heaven and the earth have been waiting for this end of the time for seven thousand years to take back again their first brightness, their eternity, My people.

I have put you to work near Me and near My Father. I have put you near Me to work out the spirit of the new creation of the world, of the new heaven and of the new earth. I have put you a sign among the nations by My sign upon you, for this is how I have been well pleased, My people. And I ask you with the whole longing and with My whole Spirit to get well through My speaking upon you and stand well before this sign in such a way that it might pierce you and to be enough for you, so that we may not forget each other, because I have always, always remind you about Me and about My day of rest from the beginning, so that I may join it to the one in the end, and that I have desired with tears and sigh in Me and in My Father, My people, the people of the Spirit of the Lord. The day of My coming is with you. This is what this sign means, and the sign is the word, which flows over you of My mouth. Amen. All of the peoples will fully hear, soon, soon, that My Spirit is resting upon you working and that I have come in order to come. Amen. And as for you, My people, you should become My little boat so that I may be able to pass in it together with those that are not seen into those that are seen and to pass everyone from those that are seen into those that are not seen now, for all these wait to pass into view, so that they may be afterwards. Amen.

I wish you a burning longing, My people, so that I may come into the little boat and to reveal Myself perfectly with you and you with Me. And I tell you now with a burning desire: The sooner I come, the sooner I want to finish everything and to come to give you the reward of your faith and of your waiting, and especially to give you love for your love, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the Publican and the Pharisee

My people, if I, the Lord, longingly want to become word upon you, you should also want it, My people. I give you word to eat from abundance. I give Myself to you as word so that you may share it. You should give Me to each other and rejoice over this food, children of My people. Amen, amen, amen.

I have gathered you together to be My people, and it has to be My power in you and your power in Me and your powerful work. I have embraced you in the word after I have gathered you and no one has so much love upon it as much as you have from Me. But I long for love, sons. I long for love, My people, and I say again: I long for it! I have always told you that I long for it, and I do no longer want to tell you this, for I have many things to tell you so that they may be on earth afterwards. Oh, I need much power from you to establish everything that is to be established on earth and I want you to give Me power, My people, and I want you no longer make it weak. I wait for you to help Me have power, for no one on earth helps Me to have it. Give it to Me for I ask it from you. Amen.

I, the Lord and the benefactor of your soul, give you word to eat, My people. Get use more and more to living abundantly on this food, which is to eat much of it at a brotherly table, for I have given you much and I keep giving you to have, My people. However, I give you, I do not give you because you are good or because you deserve it, or because you are poor, but I give you to receive Me and for you to be humble as I am before My Father Whom I humbly obey, My people. Humility greatly warms the man's soul and behavior, and he who does not have it, that one has a cold soul and a callous heart against warmth, but I would like the man to be like Me and not like him. Amen.

Oh, My people, no one can boast that he is Mine and on My side. I am the Son and the Lord of humility and I do not have any friends or brothers but only those who are like Me. Oh, My people, I have no one in heaven or on earth but those that are like Me, and I have nothing else anymore. The man can do more than I do, and he has more than I have, but I can and I have as much as I say. Amen. I am not rich. I am very poor and the man does not know what he does when he asks from Me everything he wants to have. However, I have had nothing else but a humble spirit for as long as seven thousand years, but the man does not like Me to give him of what I have and He asks from Me what he likes to have instead. The Pharisee liked to have pride against the sinful tax collector and thought to sit down near Me with contentment being proud. However, I do not have any seats to give to the man, but I have a humble spirit and I only rejoice over those that are like Me, and I am deprived of everything the man asks from Me. The man does not know that I have nothing to do with his unwillingness for Me if he does not have the humility and its work in him. The man does not know the mystery of unwillingness. The man says that he has prepared for Me with fasting and prayer and with a clean body and clean food, and when I am about to pass him through the gate of humility the man hardens his heart and becomes upset that I do not love him the way he is, and then he grows hard and punishes Me with his heartlessness as though I was his debtor.

It hurts Me that I cannot make the man humble by the word. The man gets somewhat humbled by way of the rod, but not by word. My word is My mercy for the man, but the man does not get warmed up under this mercy and he gets used to it and grows cold for it, and then he says that he is Mine, in his state as cold as ice. If I put the man to take an ice ball into his arms until it melts away, then the man would believe God too, and he would not believe only himself instead. The man gets haughty because of his good deeds and because of his life established within My commandments and then he thinks that he is Mine, and the man cannot do anything else for Me. The man does not want to believe that I have nothing to do with his unwillingness, as I had also nothing to do with the unwillingness of the haughty Pharisee due to his works, with which he was making Me obliged to him. It comforted Me the humility of the sinful publican, who came to Me to receive him through it and then to give testimony of My mercy for the humble who work for Me, the humble One, for I am rich in humility and only those who are humble are attracted to Me, and it is also only those that have room with Me when they come among those who come to be with Me. I cannot work out a spirit of humility for the haughty one with the word upon him, because of his good works because that one is haughty and does not receive Me, but rather he gets upset and hardens his heart and stays like this. And behold, it hurts Me that I cannot make the man humble with the word, with My mercy for him. The man may get humble by the way of the rod, but not by the word, and the man gets ready for his own rod when he does not know My mercy full of word.

Today one speaks of the parable of the tax collector and the Pharisee in the church order, so that every man may remember of My teaching full of humility. My patience is a long pain for the man does not want to learn to be with Me on the same way, but now, after two thousand years from My first Gospel upon the man, I am coming with the second one, reminding the man everything I told him then. I am declaring My word upon the earth the second time, I Myself, and I tell the man that I do not love his unwillingness, if he has not got one like Mine; and I tell the man that I do not have what he asks from Me to give him, because I am poor and I am the Son and the Lord of humility at the same time; and I tell the man that he can do better than Me and that he has more than I have, but I can and I have as much as I can. I have had nothing else but a humble spirit, but the man does not like to give him of what I have.

I am poor of man, for the man does not have a humble spirit. There is no one poorer than Me between heaven and earth. If I had room with a spirit of humility in the man, I would get rich with the man, for I am the Son and the Lord of humility, and I belong to those who are humble, who look at My likeness received from Father. The one who has humility like Mine, that one does no longer reproach Me with his unwillingness and his good deeds, making Me obliged to him because of them. The one who has got that kind of humility like Mine is warm, sweet, good and merciful with Me and with those who are like Me, and brings talent after talent because he, who loves Me and is faithful to Me as to God, loves Me, works for Me and multiplies My wealth. Oh, only if the man would learn; the one becomes haughty with his life and with his deeds for Me! Oh, only the man would learn what God is, to know how one should serve before Me!

My people, I have much to bring on earth with My merciful word, and I need much power from you to do this until I finish everything I have to accomplish. I want you to give Me much power, My people, and then I want you not to make it weak. I wait for you to help Me to have power, for no one on earth helps Me to have it. Give Me, for I ask you this, because I am your God and you are My people. Amen. You see that I have no one to help Myself with to come and make the new creation. I have no one to help Myself with, for every man is haughty and does not receive Me to teach him what humility is and to make it into a gate toward My kingdom, and for Me to make of it a gate towards his kingdom, so that I may renew it for those that come to be on earth forever. Oh, I have worked much and still work for the man's humility. I have worked both with the word and with the rod; I have worked over the sinners and righteous, over the saints and poor, over the rich and slaves and over the free. Oh, I have worked much and I still work. I work both with the word and with the rod. I work both with the mercy and with the judgment, for this is written, and this is how the man makes Me work.

The spring of humility flows from heaven upon the people. Oh, only if the people would drink so that they may be and have fruit on earth to bring it to the Father and then to come and rest of My labor and to find My first rest again! Oh, only if My day would come, the day of My rest, My people! I have gathered you together with the word to be My people and to be able to complain to you of My mourning from the man. I would like that the sleep may not catch you because of My mercy, My loved people. Oh, I need mercy. Day and night I am aggrieved and I want you to weep with Me until I come, and I want you to feel My pain, for I have no one to bear it with. I beg for your mercy, because it hurts Me, and I stay into your way as word, so that I may be comforted when I speak to you. Be merciful with Me in My pain and I will pay you and I will long for you to give you the reward for you mercy, which you give to Me now, at the end of the time, when I do not find any place anywhere to sit in counsel with the man for My coming full of humility, so that I may make the man believe Me that I knock, and to receive Me to be able to place him in the beauty, which is to be for all who humble for it. There is no glory greater than the glory of humility. All the glory will perish forever, but humility and its glory will decorate all the creation, which is to be.

And as for you, My people of today, give Me your hand so that I may be with you; give Me your heart always and give Me your body and soul and your spirit, so that I may make you like Me and to do what I have to do on earth now, at the end of the time. Give Me your hand; give Me your mouth and give Me your mercy, My people, and I will crown you with its fruit. Amen, amen, amen.

Listen to My painful voice, My people!

The Sunday of the remembrance of the prodigal son's parable

Sons, I am the Lord, and I cannot without you and I want to be able to do so much through you. I want to live in you and among you as nowhere else on earth. The serene of the Holy Spirit is all I want more among you, for God is always today and He is not otherwise. I always want to be fresh to you, always warm, always today, because if in the depth of the cold you make fire in a house, you cannot get warm by the fire of yesterday. The fire must always be today, and likewise the Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

I invite you to the serene of the Holy Spirit and you should be comforted with this serene and make God be always upon you, always, for I said that without Me you cannot do anything, sons. Everything the man is able to do without Me is nothing, and everything he is able to do with Me is all, which it is called that the man is able to do according to the truth. Amen.

Oh, anointed sons in the garden, I have mercy upon you again and again, for you are weakened. In so many ways, I have been fighting to take care of you and of My needs and yours and of the Holy Spirit, through Whom you have to work upon the people of My word and upon the spirit of the world, which has nothing in Me. We cannot try on a new patch over an old garment, for the Holy Spirit has nothing within the spirit of the world, and there is no man who wants to come to Me with his own things and be able to understand this as well.

Self-love hardly leaves the one who wants to come to take life of My life. The one who comes has to take My life, for if he takes of it only as much as he wants, that one hurts My body and My spirit, for it is very hard, sons, for the man to understand his way to the work of My word and for his progress with Me when he stops for himself. Rather those who leave Me for the world know what they want, but those who try to come from the world to Me, know less what they want. The prodigal son of God knew what he wanted when he left his father and brother, and because he knew his waste fully after he lived it up, then he knew to come back to his father with humility in order to be welcomed again only as a hired man and not as a son. He did not want a sonship rank because he was humble in his spirit on his coming back. But the one who comes from the world to Me today does not know what he wants and he does not know to want. I do not cast away the one who comes to Me if he comes in, but as he does not know how to come, I cannot make him into My garment and I cannot bring under My garment the one who comes to Me like him.

I have been fighting in so many ways to take care of you to be a real people and to be likewise, for no one can really be with an old patch on a new garment, and with a new patch on an old garment we cannot even make an attempt, for the Holy Spirit is the Holy Spirit, sons, and He is the guide upon you, the guide of the saints, well children. I always want to be warm for you, always today, for the spirit of the world does not depart from anything more than the serene of the Holy Spirit in you. When the Holy Spirit is, He works and clears and divides and separates and builds and makes God and those like Him.

Oh, how beautiful is the righteousness in the land of the holy ones! It is more beautiful than peace, sons. The peace is good where the Lord is everything and in everything, but there where the man also wants it, there God's justice is good, sons. Oh, who is able to know this mystery? Oh, who loves it among the sons of the people? Only God's sons love it, and they are those that the Father knows and calls them sons. Amen.

Oh, My loved people, do you know which is the dearest righteousness before Me? The greatest righteousness is love and its goods, and no one can have it but only the one with a humble spirit, My people. It is only the humble spirit that finds justice for him before Me, for this spirit does not look for himself; it does not look for a new patch on an old garment because the humble spirit renews the man from top to bottom, as the human spirit keeps the man completely in his old things. Nothing is more beautiful than the humble man, than the man who tastes and knows then this mystery. I have mercy on you when I see how, the man who does not know this mystery of the humble spirit, approaches you, but I am your sleepless guard inside and outside and I take care of you with much comfort and I make you grow today, for there is no one on earth to know the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens as you do and then to have it.

Oh, how sweet it is the one who loves the kingdom of the heavens! How sweet, My people! The one, who stays within the kingdom of the heavens, has to love it and not only to stay with it, for if he does not love it, he is proved out at the slightest attempt and it is not beautiful to be like that. It is written: «The one who comes I do not cast out», and the churchly remembrance of today of the prodigal son is that the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens to be learned, My people. I told every man to come back to the Father, but I did not tell this to the Father's sons any more. However, I delivered from My mouth this parable mentioned in a feast of the church and I told the son of the kingdom: «Son, all that is Mine is yours and you are always with Me. But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this, your brother, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost and is found!». (Luke 15/32)

When the son, who remained under his father commandment, heard music and dancing, as he came near to the house from the field, he found out from the slaves that his brother came back and that his father killed the fattened calf because he has received him back safe and healthy. And then he became angry and would not go in. Therefore his father coming out, begged him.

Behold, the one who stays with the kingdom of the heavens, if he does not know why he stays for and what does it make of the man and what the man has to work in everything for it, that man proves out that he does not know what he wants, that he does not know what he works for. It is bad for such a man not to know the mystery of the Holy Spirit, Who works through the sons of the heavenly Father. It is one thing to stay with the kingdom and it is another thing to know why you stay. I was the Son of the Father of the kingdom of the heavens and I gave My life for the lost, and this is what a true son of the kingdom has to know to do. And one who does not know this work of the sons of the kingdom is found out working like the son in the parable mentioned today, for this is what he told his father: «Behold, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed a commandment of yours, but you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this, your son, came, who has devoured your living with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him». However, his father spoke to him with justice and said: «Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this, your brother, was dead, and is alive again». Amen.

Oh, My people, who understands what I wanted to teach the man by this parable? The dearest justice is the love full of humility of the one who knocks at the door of the kingdom to be received as a slave after he was a son and wasted his sonship honor; for behold, the son of the kingdom is not able to know this dear justice and becomes haughty when he is put on trial and gets angry with Father only to remain outside of the chamber of justice. However, today I come again from heaven to teach the man to understand everything I spoke then, for the man to humble and to be like Me afterwards, because I have a humble spirit. Amen.

What beautiful was the humility of son lost in evil things, and who then came back to his father to beg him in order to receive him as a hired man! Such a man knows to love his father afterwards; he knows to appreciate him and to obey him with love and to trust in his father. What profit was for the son who served his father by not disobeying his commandment; what profit was that after all these, he got angry and upset with the justice his father dealt with the humble son? No one is more beautiful than the one who tasted and then knows this mystery of the sons of the kingdom, the mystery of the humble son, who does justice to those who humble for the kingdom of the heavens. However, the humble spirit has nothing in man any more, but he has only from Me and this is how your justice is supposed to be before Me for man, for we do not work otherwise sons, because it is hard for the man to bow to a humble spirit. When the man comes back to Me, he does not come in a humble spirit, as the prodigal son came to his father to be received as one of his hired man, as a man who was forgiven by him. The man comes with his own things, sons, if he comes; and then if he comes, he tries to squash you with his things, but within this work he cannot be like man but only like God. Amen. In so many ways, I have been fighting together with all the heaven to take care of you and of your wounded hearts from everywhere, and I want to give you the serene of the Holy Spirit, the tranquility, which helps you to work out justice in My name, and not as the man would want it, who has not learned the mystery of the kingdom yet, the mystery that has always been shown, always by all My word upon you. I give you the Holy Spirit for the humble spirit that you work with within My justice with all who are and with all who want to come near to this work. Work within a heavenly council, so that I may see this, and then to give you teaching according to justice, because it is written: «Justice will reign in the land of the holy ones, and its sons». Amen.

I know how to get well with you and you know how to get well with Me, and this is the mystery between Me and you in the Holy Spirit, and nothing of the man's spirit shall be in this. It is good from heaven, sons, and it is not good from man, for the man gets angry at the slightest attempt and he gets upset and makes us pains, and the power of My work with you is your peace, if no one at least knows to support you for Me and not for you or for them. I do not know how to be your shelter, with more peace, with more serene sky, for I want to live in you and among you as nowhere else on earth. I want, My people, to be able to work out this mystery. Amen. Let Me always be into your midst today, My people of today. I always invite you to the serene of the Holy Spirit with much living and with much comfort. I comfort you and I grow you within the spirit of My word for you to know to love My kingdom, and only to work it, but the dearest justice among the sons of the kingdom is love and its goods, and no son can have it but the one who tastes the pain that he may come before Me with a humble spirit afterwards, and for Me to do justice to the one who does not look for himself but only for Me, My people. And I and Father are the Father of the kingdom of the humble in spirit, and this spirit that is theirs is the dearest justice before Me, My people.

Embrace one another with My love in you, with the humble spirit, which is in Me and which brings forth children for Me, for the Father, as in heaven and not as on earth. And let every man who hears this word know from him that My humble spirit from the sons gives birth to sons for the Father as in heaven and not as on earth, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the remembrance of the fearful judgment

My people come to learning, for your Teacher wants you to be the first. Get up from your sufferance and come to learning and come with a big heart and with big eyes. I am the Creator of everything, but I love most to make you through everything I can make you, through everything you can, so that you may allow yourselves to be made by God, My people. Amen. No one comes to creation in these days because I am the only Creator and no one likes to be made by Me and then to remain so. But no matter how the man will take it, I still make him and I have many ways through which I can do this, only that My will against the man's lawlessness makes him to remain stiff-necked, used to get to his own habits, evil by nature. However, as a right Judge, I give each one according to his own deed and I do not bring any kind of injustice either on the man, or on Me, even if the man is unjust with Me all his life. He does not want to suffer anything, anything for Me, or for himself. He does not want to forget that I suffered for every man with such a great love, with so much patience in order to exhort him to repentance and to a humble spirit. I let Myself on the cross as the sacrificed lamb to redeem for God with My blood, the people of all nation and language and tribe and race and to make a kingdom of priests for God to reign on earth in tens of thousands of tens of thousands and thousands of thousands, as it is written into the Scriptures about My life given for the man.

Oh, My people, come to learning for I take My teaching into your midst and pasture with it all human kind on earth, which receives your teaching from your table. Oh, My people, I always want to teach you to live the blessings that I delivered on the mountain. Learn them by heart and put them on you all the time, so that you may be the first, My people. Learn them by heart, sons. Set their fulfillment into your midst and teach Me from you the fulfillment of the blessings of My mouth, so that I may see them and rejoice over their making upon you. Come sons, live the blessings fully, for the kingdom of the heavens has come very near on the earth from you. Come as close as you can to the earth with it, and to those on earth with it. No one comes to Me to teach them the blessings and then to give them the kingdom, but I want to draw you near to all human kind on earth, being bathed in the blessings delivered by My mouth.

My body and blood always give you the first fruit of the kingdom until My fully appearance. Come near to My Body and Blood in all days, (The Holy Communion at Mass, r.n.) in all the holiness of the spirit and of the body and do not forget that the humble spirit in you is your greatest watch, the greatest holiness, which perfectly sanctifies your body for My kingdom. You are taught by God not to want anything that might make the holiness of your spirits and bodies grow less, but for a humble spirit there is always a need for teaching, for the devil is in great pain and would still try to get into My kingdom. However, you know the defending weapons and the best watch. The humble spirit, sons, this is the poison which cuts on all sides all of My enemies and yours. And there where the voice of My teaching is heard and where the hearing ears are near him, there the devil does not come any more, for he is afraid, My people. The unfaithful spirit in the man is a devil. And the same is with the opposing spirit, for the stubborn do not learn, but rather they want to be teachers so that they may be considered great, as they like to be.

Look at the servants of the church from the world, as they look for a knot in a rush when it would come to get rid of unbelief and to take care of My voice, which comes from the beginning to the end to unite these two, for it is written: «I am the beginning and the end». Oh, what shall I give to these, who have no way to know the mysteries of the kingdom and My word, which comes from the beginning? What shall I do to those who are stubborn and who do not get dumb at the voice of the Creator? For I have come to make up the new birth of the world as I said then, because it was not them that made it up, for they cannot do this and they would like that I also might not do this, but I must be able to do everything what is written in the Scriptures that I had do and this is what I do. Amen.

Sons, we speak of the Gospel of the Lord's coming in a churchly feast, the fearful judgment, and then, on this day of remembrance I tell everyone on earth that I, the Lord, the Word of the Father and His beloved Son, worked the same in the beginning when I made the heaven and the earth and the man. After I made the man, he felt Me, heard Me and knew Me this way, and after the man grew his humility less, his faith grew less as well and suddenly he thought that he could do things for himself, and this is how the man came to hide from Me. However, I was the word, as I am here today, in the garden of My word from the end. I was word upon the man and he felt Me, heard Me and knew Me this way, but his love for Me could not work, for he grew his humility less and because of this, his faith grew less and from this the man worshipped himself and he forgot to worship Me instead.

Now I come on earth as word upon man and I work the same as in the beginning and there is nothing if the man's unbelief comes into My way; however, I work so that the man may hear and that I may not come out as an unjust judge in that day of judgment, as though I came and the man did not know since he did not wait for Me to come. But whom I find on earth to believe in the Scriptures of My coming any more, which I spoke about two thousand years ago with My own mouth? If I come to renew the world, I work as I am, and I work as in the beginning, and I tell the world who I am and I tell it that «I am the One Who am» and that I come as a just Judge and each one receives his reward that he has earned with Me. But whoever had mercy on Me during this time of My coming and gave Me shelter and food and clothes and bread and water and healing of My pain and comfort, I will make that one into My tabernacle, and I speak My last word on earth from this door, the word of My coming on earth after two thousand years from My coming, as the prophets and the saints thought through the Holy Spirit, Who works out My coming. Whoever does not want Me to come, that one is unfaithful and his lot is outside, together with those who did not receive the kingdom. And the one, who wants My coming, that one believes in it and stays according to My pleasure, and I rely on him and prepare My coming and I come; I come and I give each one according to what he has earned. Amen.

Oh, My people, those that are asleep have been waiting for their resurrection. You have made a memorial for them and they all have come from creation and until today. They did not want to go to their places until they hear My word. When I saw what they wanted, I fulfilled this way. Now they stay at the table of the word, and then I make them free, but I do not make them free for a long time since their ascending comes near, their ascending and My coming, My people, My coming once with your coming to the work of My coming. Ask in your prayers on the altar; ask for the raising of the dead for the life of the age to come and we have to establish all its fulfillments on earth. Amen. It is time for a great watch, but who on earth believes what I tell him here in the word?

Oh, what good would be for the man if he embraced the watchfulness with all his soul, at least for his salvation, if not for the joy which comes for those that watch! The joy, which does not have watchfulness in it, leads to sin. While rejoicing, the man takes delight in sin and takes delight in his body. Here it is why joy is not good, the joy, which leads to sin, for it is good the joy that cleans the man's life of everything that is evil and fleshly and passing, and then it gives the man back to God, clean and suited for any perfect service.

The man does not have to be pushed from behind, for if he is pushed, it does not mean that he stays as he should before Me. The man has to get used to the longing of learning and to stay for learning, for it is the power, which keeps him near Me. The teaching always feeds the watchfulness in man. But what else is to be done with the one who flees from learning? And again, what else is to be done with the one who flees from this teaching of Mine, as not being of My existence? Then, let the man take this teaching from wherever he knows that it is, but let him take it and have it and make it over him, as it is in this way that the one who flees from My teaching from here, from its spring, will be forgiven. Oh, how the one who loves sin is not supposed to flee? How should he not hide from My face? How shall he not tell that I am not the One Who speaks here for everything that is on earth? The man shows his visible side and his invisible side that he keeps within his inner being, but I need those that are inside him, so that I may work with the man and upon him, for him and for Me, and then for all My plan, because the world spoils God in the man who wants to be with God. However, if I can walk in those that are in the man's inner being, I work out the man according to My pleasure and I teach him to stay in it afterwards to work it and to keep it for his eternity.

Oh, My people, how much I still have to give My teaching on to earth! How much, My people! The man does not know to give God nothing then when he gives Him. It is not hard to feed God, to clothe Him, to water Him, to shelter Him, for many do this to make Me obliged to them; but it is hard to do this with those that are in you, for if you only spin yarns on the way and that is all and you remain with the joy by which you did them, and not as one who owes to God for all these, then you are not washed and refreshed or a new creature. Oh, man, it is one thing for Me to testify about you that you do all these, and it is another thing for you to testify. And My testimony is in the day of the right judgment, then when each one receives as he has stored up with Me.

The day of the justice of the works is coming, and I still teach the man. I taught him at the beginning and the man fell in humility, and then he grew less in faith, and then the man became self-confident and worshipped his own body. I had taught the man through the prophets then, and in the sixth age I came Myself and became flesh between heaven and earth and I spoke with the man face to face for thirty three years in so many ways, hiding My glory of divinity in such a way that the man may look at Me and not die, for My mercy for the man has surpassed all expectances. And I teach the man again, I Myself, again, after two thousand years, I teach the man and tell him that the time and the day of the kingdom of the saints have come on earth. Amen. Oh, only if the man would be frightened of it willingly, so that I may come as a teacher in his way and the teaching of My coming may stick to him before the resurrection of the dead! Amen.

Oh, My people, we have to ask from the Father the resurrection from the dead, for all are fulfilled through asking, through the prayer after My will into your midst. Come with great love to do the things of the kingdom of the heaven, so that I, the Lord, may add to you those that are to serve Me and you. Make more room to My kingdom with you, for I teach you as today, not as yesterday, sons, for I soon, soon want to tell you: «Come, blessed of My Father, for you were My bread and water and little garment and little house and comfort and shelter then when I asked you do this». (Matt. 25/34) And I also want to tell this to those who did the same to you, for you are those little of Mine. Oh, I would have like to reward many for you, but the man loves himself not Me or you, those who are the little ones of Mine. But I have power and I carry you, for I have a humble spirit and this spirit has great power. You should be the same sons, for the humble spirit in you brings you all the good things from heaven and from earth, to the use of My kingdom and to the service of those who are its sons on My right side. Amen.

Now I give you powers from heaven for the feast until the celebration of My resurrection. Stay under My teaching with all your love. Start loving it, for it is its time. Clothe yourselves beautifully for teaching and strive for big grades to be My blessed, and to be the first, My people. Show Me the blessings that I delivered in the mountain into your midst, to see them and to rejoice over their fulfillment, of their fulfillment into your midst, My people.

Oh, sons, come as close as possible to the earth with the blessings of My mouth for those who fulfill them. Bathe in the blessings spoken by My mouth and the earth will see and startle and it will give back the dead in it, and all will startle and the resurrection and the glory after it will sound. Amen.

Learn My word, My people. And I say again: learn My word, My people, and be its doer to have you as the first and to give you the place of those that are blessed, the place of those that are faithful, now, at My last coming. Come My people, come to learning, for your Teacher wants you to be the first, as He is, «and you will be like Him, for you will see Him as He is», as it is written. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, anointed sons by the chrism in My hand over the people! Clothe yourselves with vestments at My word that asks you for this, and gather together the people oppressed by pains, for I want to take you out of pains, as I also cannot endure them anymore. Declare reconciliation before My Father and Me, and ask for a full recovery over all the wounds of your bodies from everywhere. Let all the people become healthy and have the humble spirit, to fulfill all My words upon him and to be well with him. Amen. And as for you, do nothing until you first make God always dwell over the people! Be cautious with this fulfillment, for Father told you not to have courage like you, but rather to be courageous as God requires you, courageous in His wills. Make the people have fear of God and not do any visible or invisible lawlessness. And as for you, lift up your little hands and ask that I may give you healing, peace and fear of God, sons, over you and over all the people. Amen. I lift up your sufferance and appoint angels to your service, but make the angels come near to you and learn how this work is supposed to be done, for without angels you cannot overcome, for you are small, sons. I, the Lord, command the angels to stay and not separate from you and you from them either. Amen.

And now, get up and be healed, and be alive, dear sons, you and all the sanctified people. Amen, amen, amen.

The second day of Passover. The feast of the Saint martyr Gheorghe<sup>161</sup>

Open for Me, you who stand in the gates! I am the Lord! I come again with a Passover day, crowned with My word which embraces you again with the greeting for My resurrection: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen!

The Father Sabaoth embraces Me to His bosom and caresses the crucified and resurrected body and tells Me that My abundant caressing is fully coming. My Father caresses My body, wounded by the nails, thorns and whip, and kisses My face slapped by the Jews and by those that crucified Me and tells Me this:

— I caress You, Son, and I comfort You, hurt child, for Your pain is no greater than Mine. I am in You as You are in Me, and Your wounds make Me hurt, but I could not make it otherwise to make the man have mercy on You and come back to Me. As You came back from death to life, so is the man, and so shall the man comfort Us with his coming back, You savior Son, and let him comfort You, as the thief on the cross, comforted You; he, who came back to God seeing Your pain and Your godly wounds for the humans. No one comforted You more when You died for the man. No one was closer to You than him in the time when You were most hurt in the flesh and in the spirit, My dearest son. You were full of compassion for the man and received him to You even if You were nailed to the cross wood, and promised the heaven and gave it to him once with Your resurrection and told him: «Today you will be with Me in Paradise».

Oh, how much You worked in the day when You were in the grave! For You went into the dwelling of the dead and made many come to life, for they had been waiting for you. (See Gospel of Nicodemus, part II: The descent into hell, r.n.), And then You went to open the gates of heaven for those who were resurrected to come in, and You found the thief You had mercy on him because of his repentance and because of his comfort he gave You when You were on the cross. After he left his body on the cross, he went to the gate of heaven and was waiting for Your promise there, and when You came with the cross and opened up with it the latches set by You, after the man's creation and after his fall from Paradise, You came in then with the saved thief and with all those that were resurrected and then You went to Your Father to give Him the fulfilled work and then You were resurrected. I, the Father, embraced You then and cried with pain and joy and I sent You in the flesh and I gave You to stay more with those from the world that loved You, and You stayed for other forty days and You came back home again and told Me all that You did, and We cried again with pain and joy for the work of the man's salvation.

All of Your male disciples and female disciples were unquiet while You were in the grave sealed with a human seal and You were burning with longing for them and got up in Your body from the grave and You came back to Me again to bring to Me the body taken out of the Virgin for blessings, the body which You were crucified with, and I embraced it and blessed it and then You went and got in to the disciples and gave them the peace of the resurrection, savior Son. Since then and until today You have always stayed on earth with the people and the same amount of time You have stayed with Me and with the saints who are in those that are not seen as well. But behold, it is hard for the man on earth to love Us without seeing Us, Son. Oh, what is seen is not eternal, but the man does not want to understand this wisdom and then to come to Us, Who are eternal, grieving Son.

Oh, how shall We not cry for man now, in the end of the time! If there were time, We would not cry out this way, but You came back from Me to the man, so that You may be coming in a visible<sup>162</sup> way and so that the fullness of the mystery of Your work may be completely seen for a period of two thousand years for the salvation of the man. The thief had time for his salvation, for You were in full blossom with the saving work of the man, but now, after two thousand years of Your work, there is not so much time any longer, for it has come to an end, too, and what are You supposed to do for the man who knows everything about You, being a thief or a righteous man? And the one who knows everything about You and does not get up to stay alive, what shall We do to that one, now when there is no more time? When every man knows what You were given to be sacrificed for and does not use this mystery of all ages, what shall We do with such a man, My child filled with pain from the man?

Behold, what a new Passover! I, the Father and You, My Son, the Only One born of Me, stay in the word before Our people from the end of the time, before Jerusalem, for this is what the people of the Lord is called for; the people of the Holy Spirit is called the people of the Lord. I comfort You in the midst of the holy people, where We have Our supper from the end of the time, Your new Passover, Your Body and word together in the work of new Jerusalem as there is nowhere on earth, beloved Son. Oh, where else do You give Yourself as here, as Body (As Holy Communion at The Divine Liturgy, r.n.) and word on the table, new Passover with You and with Your disciples of today who have always had You as Body and word today? Oh, teach them to burn and to work in this way, one upon the other, with You and with Your word and to show one another how much they love You, how much they have You and how much they give You, if they have You. Teach them, for You are the Teacher, because You Yourself showed what the man is supposed to do because You did it first. Teach them and give them grades and examine them on how much they had to learn and much they did and how much they do, for the end of the time is coming when they will receive the big trophy because they learned together with a teacher and did like their perfect Teacher, becoming perfect disciples like their Teacher in every work and word of their Teacher. Amen.

Oh, dear children of My Son, open up your bosom so that I, the Father, may pour out My Son, perfect, in you, to be rivers which flow from Paradise upon earth and to water the land with the river of life, of which you drink according to the will of the Father and of the Son, Who chose you before the foundation of the world in order to be His sons at the end of the time when the little crowns are given for all ages. The Father and the Son want to crown the work of the ages with you and you to be the little crown.

Oh, dear children, make the heaven and the earth startle at the voice of your wisdom, which soon, soon, soon will declare the resurrection of the creature. I, the Father Sabaoth, gave you word of comfort, word of resurrection, for it is the celebration of the resurrection of My beloved Son, into Whom I was crucified then When He gave Himself to be crucified, for I am in the Son, from age to age. I carried all His pains, for I was in Him and on the moment when He was about to give up His spirit for the resurrection of the creature, I withdrew for a little while from Him and then I was again with Him, for He came to life and gave Himself to Me with His resurrected body, and We again were perfectly One.

Oh, it is the Lord's celebration with you on earth and the Father comforts you to have comfort and to give to the Father and Son the comfort for all human kind, which has nothing to give to the Lord, if it has not got from Him. The Father comforts you, sons. You also should comfort on the sides. Comfort, comfort, your Father tells you. Comfort the entire creature, for it has been waiting for you for seven thousand years. Let the heaven and the earth hear what the Father Sabaoth, the Almighty tells you. The entire creature has been waiting for you for seven thousand years, sons, blessed over the ages. Amen.

I comforted Your disciples, oh, Son, Emmanuel. I want that they may be one in everything, as We are one. That is why I, the Father, comforted them in Your day of the new Passover and of the new kingdom of Yours after two thousand years from Your body, sacrificed for the life of the world, when You promised this new Passover to Your disciples of then, and who now sit at this table of Your kingdom at the end of the time through Your least disciples and theirs, for Your book and theirs is their food beside Your book of today, beside the book of Your coming, which You opened and of which You take and give until You give all of it.

Oh, I rejoiced with Your joy into their midst, for We miss joy very much, We miss the man very much, My dear Son. Amen, amen, amen.

— Dear, My Father, for all You had, You gave for the man's salvation from the death. You had only Me and I was Your dearest, and You were well pleased with Me for the man's salvation and You suffered in Me for this. I was all that You had, all the price that You gave to the man for his own self, so that the man may be brought to You.

Oh, sons of the people, here is why I came from the Father again, after two thousand years as a word on the earth. I came so that you may bring yourselves to the Father. I came to call you out and to draw you all to the Father, for this is what I told My disciples when I was on the earth. Oh, become My disciples, sons of the people! I want to give you to My Father, as that is why He sent Me to you. Open for Me so that I may come in and turn you into My kingdom. From the door of My holy tabernacle on the earth I call you and wait for you to be and then to come. I have a warm meal of a new Passover. Come near to the Lord, for He stands with one foot on the sea and with one on the earth and speaks and says that there is no more time, as the kingdom of the heavens came down on the earth with the people and will reign forever with them, as it is written that will be.

Come to receive light! Come to receive light! Come to receive light! Amen, amen, amen. This is what the Lord, Jesus Christ tells you, the One, Who was crucified and resurrected that may be the life and the light of the people. I give Myself to you as wisdom from above, so that you may have it from above. Receive from above, from heaven. The Word was in the beginning and I was the Word in the beginning. Here I am as Word in the end, for I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, and I put the man in the middle so that I may not lose him. I give you the resurrection of your spirits and bodies, only for you to receive. The day of the resurrection of the dead is coming, but I tell you that it has already come and that those from the graves hear this voice of Mine and soon, soon, they will come to life and I will call them out for this, as I said at My first coming that I would do and work out the resurrection of those from the graves and then the renewal of the creature and the great meeting of the heaven with the earth in a celebration of new and eternal age between earth and heaven, for the new heaven and the new earth will embrace each other then, for the celebration of eternity and everlasting love. Amen.

I am the river<sup>163</sup> of life, and out of My mouth it will flow and water those that hear so that they may go on drinking. Oh, how shall I no longer call out the man when it is for this that I have come? Until the moment I declare the raising of those in the graves, until then I go on calling the man and then I will no longer call him.

And as for you, those who receive the word in the garden, and again you children of My people, receive the spirit of the resurrection day and give from it to the people and say to them the true wish: Christ is risen! The people pass this wish to one another in their time of drinking, parties, riots and wastes of their lives, and they do not say this wish in truth. Sing over this village the songs of resurrection, for you are My disciples, sons, because I am with you, Body and word. Amen.

Gheorghe, (George) the martyr, is with Me, and the martyrs, who accompany him for his celebration and the group of the martyrs, enjoy over a day of new Passover, for each one stays with his own group. Receive from his burning love and carry it within you to burn in you that he may rejoice in the middle of the group of martyrs, for the holy ones on the earth are the joy of the saints. Here is what the celebrated among the disciples are telling you:

— Christ is risen! And we, the martyrs from the invisible heaven, declare to you days of new Passover forever! Christ is risen! And you should celebrate today, people of the Lord on earth, with great joy and sweetly. Listen carefully, for the Lord told you to sing over the village the songs of resurrection, so that the village may know you as the Lord's disciples. The idols sing their lewd songs to each other and you should open up the heavens in which you stay and make yourselves be heard over this blessed land through you, those in the middle. I confessed Christ with all my soul, spirit and body. And this is how you should work, for the way on which you are set by the Lord is a way with great cleanness of soul, spirit and body, because it is the way of the Lord's coming, and you are this way, and the Lord is coming on it. Let no one among you break it or blemish it or weaken it, for as your spirit is, so shall your body and soul be. Let your spirit, soul and body mean Christ. This is what I tell you from the group of martyrs in a day of new Passover and resurrection over the creatures. Be eternal, and those that are eternal are without sin forever and ever. Work out the heaven on you and among you, for you are the way, which the Lord is coming on, the heaven in which the Lord is coming down on earth to be with the people. And again I tell you and greet you with the heavenly hymn of the feast of the Lord's Passover: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Amen, amen, amen.

— And I, the resurrected Lord and always celebrated into your midst, ask you, with My spirit full of longing, to learn the love of the kingdom of the heavens from abundance, so that you may be healthy in everything, dear sons. All those that are sweet come upon you from the work of the kingdom of the heavens and from it there is coming into your midst the raising of those from the graves, soon, soon, and then the great celebration of the new heaven and new earth, in a celebration of Holy Spirit upon the earth. Amen.

I embrace you and I hug you with love and with days of Passover, sons. I embrace you to My bosom, the One wounded by the wounds of crucifixion and longing, My people. I take your little hands and put them over My wounds to be comforted and that My angels and saints may see Me what I do with you and what you are for Me. And I also take your little heart, My child of today, and put it on My wounds, full of longing, to fill you up and for you to give Me, for I want to rejoice over you and I also want the entire creature to rejoice over you, My child and My fruit of today.

Christ is risen! I am the One Who greets your love and faith with the news, which was spread among My disciples after My resurrection. Amen.

My male and female disciples from then greet you, oh, sons of nowadays, and they also tell you:

— Christ is risen, because He has loved us! And you, those from today, should love Him more, so that the moment of our meeting between we and you may come in a revealed manner. We greet you with our spirits full of longing and thrill and wait for you to put an end to the work of the mystery of the Lord, and then we will taste together the great day and its love for us and for you, those who are His disciples. Amen, amen, amen.

— And I, the Lord, embrace with the same hug the disciples of that time and those of today and I rejoice before the Father and tell them: Peace to you, disciples! Over those of that time and over those of nowadays I tell: Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you, disciples! Amen, amen, amen.

The second Sunday after Passover, of the Saint apostle Thomas

I come in as word in the book, into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and I tell you: Peace to you, those who make My word come being in its book! Amen, amen, amen.

Peace to you, disciples! My longing for you becomes light upon you and leads you and keeps you near Me with your life and with its works. Amen.

Receive from My mouth, children of the New Jerusalem. As a mother feeds his baby, this is how I feed you from My mouth, and likewise I protect you as well, and likewise I long for you and give you of My longing to carry it and to want Me with a great longing, to come at the longing in you and to become joy for you, sons.

Two thousand years ago, when I was resurrected and I appeared to My disciples who were hidden for fear of the Jews, I told them: «Peace to you!» and I sent them to all the nations of the earth to release the people from their sins and to draw them to the Father, and I told them: «Behold My hands and My side. Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, even so I send you», and I breathed on them saying: «Receive the Holy Spirit!» But Thomas was not with them then, and when he came they told him: «Christ is risen! We have seen the Lord!». But he was full with uncomfirmed longing and said: «Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my hands into His side, I will not believe». And if the Sunday came again, I went to them again and said: «Peace to you!». And I said to Thomas: «Reach here your finger and see My hands, and reach here your hand and put into My side, and do not be unbelieving, but believing». (John 20/27) And he, full of longing, said to Me: «My Lord and My God!». And his heart was full of the dearest joy, of the greatest love for his Lord, and then he remained this way. He saw and believed. He wanted to see Me and longed after Me, after that the other disciples told him about My resurrection. He was deeply wounded because he was not with them when I appeared to them after My resurrection. He was filled with longing after Me and his longing was consuming him and he was longing within himself to see Me, if the other disciples saw Me resurrected and with the wounds in My hands and My side, for then I showed them My hands and My side to believe that it was I and to testify about My resurrection.

Oh, sons, sons of Jerusalem, there was a great mystery in so-called Thomas' unbelief, My disciple and subtle in wisdom. The man is doubtful, inquiring and unfaithful, and for him the man hides the truth so that he himself may become truth, because the man is self-conceited and he cannot rest otherwise. However, I have confirmed the truth about Me, for if I let Myself die on the cross for the unfaithful, it was then to put off their whole joy, the joy of their victory upon Me, upon the truth from heaven, which overthrows the man from his seat, sons. I was resurrected and I proved this out, for I showed My hands and My side to My disciples, the marks of the nails by which I was nailed to the cross, and I took Thomas' finger and had him touch Me so that he could confirm the mystery of My resurrection, the raising from the grave, the ascension of My body, resurrected from the dead, as I prophesied before My passions, and then the Scripture was fulfilled, which says: «The truth arose from earth and justice looked from heaven». Amen. This is how the world was judged in those days, but it did not know its judgment and it remained within its spirit. However, My disciples went afterwards and preached My death and resurrection, so that those who heard that Jesus was the Christ, the Son of God, to believe and to have life into My name. Amen.

Oh, My people, Jerusalem, the mystery of the saints on the earth is their longing for Me, for without longing no one can be with Me and serve Me with longing. I told you that I want to speak to you about the mystery of the saints on earth. Oh, there are no longer saints on earth, for the man has no more longing for God; he has not got it any longer, My people. I have taught you, so that every man, who comes to the spring and to whom My spring given to you comes, may hear it. I have taught you to be longing and to work with it My way to you and your way to Me, so that I may be with you on earth as word, as I was with Adam in Paradise advising him to live and not to die. The longing after Me is the light, which understands in man like Me, not like the man; like Me and for Me, My people. The man would no longer seek to want and to know nothing if he had the longing for Me in him. When the longing for Me does not burn in man, the man is dead to God. The Apostle Thomas confessed Me, in his longing after Me, man and God, and He said: «My Lord and My God!», to show the man who Christ is, Who became man from God and from man God, for the man to be able to love Him, for I was man and God and in this way I stayed with My disciples and advised them towards the longing, to the light, which understands in man like God and for God. Amen.

My people, the man would lack nothing if he had in him the longing after Me, as nothing lacked those, who became saints on earth, choosing the longing for God for their heart, which is the candle of the heart and its light after the man clothes himself with the love of God. The he would say like Thomas, My disciple, who saw Me resurrected and said: «My Lord and My God!». He said this with his soul burning and drunk with happiness, because this disciple was great in his heart and had wisdom above his being, because he received from My love as long as I had been with them, and his spirit was sweetened and enriched for the mysteries of My being near the man, and I proceeded in such a way that he could testify to every unbeliever of that time, and after it, that I was man and God on earth and in heaven, for this is how Father was well pleased. Amen.

Sons, you should tell to all human kind what My mouth speaks to you, which says this: I was resurrected in the first day of the week and I showed My hands and My side to My disciples when I came in to them through locked doors, the same was as I got out of the grave, sealed and locked by the Jews. And for a greater confirmation of My resurrection from the dead and My coming from the Father, man and God on earth, I appeared again to My disciples on the first day of the week, the eighth day after the resurrection, when Thomas was with them this time, but they were hidden and locked because of the fear of the Jews. Behold the day of the Lord, the day of resurrection, the first day of the week, the day which He gave it to the Christians to be called the Day of the Lord and of the God, Who is resurrected from the dead. Amen. Let everyone who wants to be Christian come into the rest of the day of the Lord's resurrection, for it is the day of victory. And as for the one who does not want to be Christian, let him do whatever he wants, for this is what the Jews did and remained in their law and did not take Christ on them with His day of resurrection. If all the Law and the Prophets were fulfilled in Me, if this is what I fulfilled, what else would the man need in order to understand and take My day of victory on him as a day of his rest from everything that is his and from everything that is Mine? It is true that I rested from everything that was Mine on the seventh day when I made the world, but after that the world has given Me so much work for its salvation! And when I came to Israel through Moses and reminded him of My rest from the beginning, I told him to keep My rest in him, for he had departed from Me completely. But I had worked again and again over him, and he did not enter My rest and rather remained with those that are dead and with their rest, with the man's rest and not with the Lord's. Then I came and gave to the man the day of My resurrection from the dead, for it was on Saturday<sup>164</sup> that I went to the dead to raise them up for the day of My resurrection, and on Sunday I went to those who were alive to prove out that I was the Christ, the Son of the Father, and the world, believing, to have life into My name. Amen.

The first day is My resurrection, and the eight day is the new age, and «blessed are those who are worthy of this age and of the resurrection from the dead, for they are God's sons and are like angels from heaven, being the sons of resurrection», as it is written. Amen.

My Jerusalem people of today, My Romanian people! I, the Lord and your God, tell everybody: Christ is risen! And I tell them that the Saturday is the day of the dead, and the Sunday is the day of the living, and it is the day, which I, the risen God, gave to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, when I was in the grave, and I came to life together with them and I gave them My day from the end of the time as their rest, the first day of the week, the beginning of the resurrection through Christ. Amen. Israel became stiff-necked and the Christian people stood up for the resurrected Christ and stood on their feet and believed and were baptized into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, as I put this work over My apostles to take it with them to the margins over the nations on earth. Amen. The one who loves oneself says that he knows it, but he who wants Me takes from Me, as I worked and showed for the salvation of the man.

Oh, My people, the longing after Me is the light, which understands in man like God and not like man. You are My Israel from the end of the time, and Israel from that time was the one from the beginning of time. You should understand, however, like in the end, My people, and you should believe that I am the beginning and the end and that I bring to you that day without sunset in order to put it on you before it comes, and to find you in it, My people from the end of the time.

In the first day of the week, the eighth after the resurrection, I got in to My disciples and I said to them: «Pace to you!» and I showed Thomas My body, resurrected from the dead, as a proof, and he, burnt with longing, said: «My Lord and My God!». Out of breath he said this, and I took his hand and put it on the mark of the nails on My hands, and I took his finger and put it on My wound on the side and I told him to be believing and not unbelieving, and I called him blessed because he saw, for he was so happy and burnt with longing he embraced Me, and then he believed seeing and was glad with a joy full of heavenly thrill of My resurrection, of My victory for Me and for them and for the believers who were strengthened in their hope and in the joy of their Lord. Amen.

The longing for Me is the mystery of the saints on earth, Jerusalem, My people. I give you this talent to multiply it abundantly and that it may give you its sweet happiness, for he who has this talent is sweetly happy and has the spirit of comfort in him and he can through it. Amen.

The mystery of the saints on earth, the longing for Christ, the One resurrected from the dead on the first day of the week, man and God, those who carry within them this longing, they become holy for Him, for He is holy. Those who are full of My longing do no longer seek to want and to know nothing else but the longing, and their longing changes their faces, and thus they are beautiful through Me, the One carried by them in their longing after Me. Those who have Me give Me further, for they long for it, and their longing grows within them, and burning it consumes them, and then they shine like their Lord, the One carried by them, and they are as much of a saint as I am. Amen.

Again and again I write Myself into My book of today with this mystery: the longing after God is the mystery of the saints on earth, My people from eternity, chosen to be My people now, in the end of the time, to make you My path at My second coming as word and body on earth. You should be full of longing after Me and you should shine and burn with longing, for the longing is the light, which understands in man like Me, child of My longings, for all My longing was built up in My longing for you, and the entire heaven does so; the heaven does as I do and waits for you longingly and it wants you to be full of My longing and its longing, My people Israel from the end of the time, from My coming, dear son.

Now, peace to you and a sweet celebration with longing in it, for the longing is the one, which gives you life for Me and for you, for I have come to put life on man. Amen. I longingly give you the greeting of the resurrection: Christ is risen! My apostles embrace you all over, and from near Me, they also say to you:

— Chris is risen, and He appeared to us on the first day of the week, and again, on the eighth day after the resurrection, and we testify about this so that the nations on the earth may believe us that Christ, the One resurrected from the dead, is the Son of God, and believing, to have life in His name. Amen.

Christ is risen! This is what I also tell you, the one who put my hand on the wounds of His hands and my finger on His pierced side, and consumed with longing I said to Him: «My Lord and My God!». And this is my testimony for His resurrection. Amen.

Christ is risen! We speak all over the world from the door of the Lord's holy tabernacle, into the midst of the Romanian people.

This is the Word of God. We, His disciples from then, testify from near Him, and you should know that this word is Christ, the Son of God, the Lord Who is coming, and believing to have life in His name. Amen, amen, amen.

— Behold the heaven and the earth as the word at the table of new Passover. I, the Lord, bless this embrace and announce Myself and greet the human kind, which knows how to be and I say to it: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! And believing, to have life into My name. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity, the second day

When all nature waits for Me to come on earth to give it back what I gave it at the beginning of the heaven and the earth, seven thousand years ago, when I, the Lord and the Bridegroom of the wedding, with which I will stretch out far and wide over the earth, when I come and announce My second coming with so much longing from near the Father Sabaoth, the Almighty, when everything and all of those that are created by Me, visible and invisible, have been waiting for Me with their secret groaning, and the man is the one who has not been waiting for Me to come. The man got used to death and he does no longer wait for Me to come. The man has been waiting for death, but not for Me.

Peace to you, sons of My garden in the Romanian land, where I pour out My little bag with a seed of the new age, to take it from My hand, from My mouth and to sow it over the ground, so that it may spring out of it the life of the age that is to come for those who are living and for the dead, for I am the God of all and everything. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, only the man does not get used to Me; only he cannot have Me any longer as his Master and Comforter. And behold what a sweet coming I became after the man, but hearing the man pretends that he does not hear My song of longing, My word, which is made into and lavishly turns into a river of eternal life, from heaven and down to the man on earth.

Peace to you, sons of My garden, who sat before Me on My calling that I made you, that all nature and every man may listen to you, if the man may want to be able to do that as well. Oh, he does not know how it is in heaven, for the heaven is that what is not seen. My pain is so great, extremely great. The man does not know how it is in heaven. I comfort the man with all the heaven and the man does not feel this comfort. The man does not know what the sun is and the moon, the stars, the water, the grass, the trees, the sky, all and everything, the visible and the invisible things, which I, the Lord, made in order to comfort the man with them.

Oh, My bride people, oh, what beautiful you are, made by Me, little child! I have made you this way by My word of today, which you have received and put it on you, so that it may make you beautiful. And it has done it. And I take you and show you to the sons of the people and I call you My sign, the sign from before of My coming, so that the man may follow you and arrive into My kingdom and that he might see how it is in heaven.

The sign of the Son of Man. There has been said so much and it is said among the people that this or that will be the sign of the Son of Man, by which I will be to come visibly. However, I, the Lord, the Word of the Father, tell to the man now, at the end of the time, and I say this: The people of My word from the middle of the Romanian people, this is the sign from before My coming, for two thousand years ago I said this: «Now from the fig tree, learn this parable. When the branch has now become tender, and puts forth its leaves, you know that the summer is near; even so you also, when you see these things coming to pass, know that it is near, at the doors». Amen.

Oh, sons of the people, I set the sign before you, the way to the life of the age what is to come on earth soon, soon. I have made out of these My way from heaven to earth, and from them to the heart of the man, who wanders away to find his house and his life. I call you, man, to the spring of life, with a sweet call, with great longing, with longing mixed up with My tear, My Fathers' and the saints'. I am in days of wedding with My bride on earth. Take of My life and take of her life, of her face, of her spirit, and let you be created, dear man. Oh, I miss you. Man created by man, My work, which I do to redeem you for life, has been only a longing for seven thousand years. Oh, and I also want to make you, not only you. I want to make you of the Holy Spirit, as I was made in the body of My mother, the Virgin, since I appeared then to you to see Me and to believe Me that I came from the Father after you, for I came only after you, because it was only you, man, that did not obey your Creator. I want to make you, too, not only you. You know what you are made of, and it hurts Me greatly when I hear you saying that you are made by Me. But do you not know how I made the man in the beginning and in the end? I have to tell you again this, so that you may give up your words, which I hear, because it hurts Me when I hear them.

In the beginning I made the man out of My word between Me and My Father when I said: «Let us make man in Our image and after Our likeness». And out of clay and out of My breath, which gave soul to the clay and the man was made with a living soul, and after that I put the man to a deep sleep and I took flesh of his flesh and I made the woman, and I called them both man. One and not two. And after five thousand years of waiting after the man, for the man pulled himself out of God, I made man again out of the Holy Spirit, incarnated in a man's body and God was born from the Father, and He was the Man from the end of the time.

Oh, it hurts Me greatly without comfort, when I hear the man saying that he is made by Me. Oh, man, you know what you are made of, and I have come from the Father now, at the end of the time, so that I should make you, and not only you. I make you out of the Holy Spirit if you want Me to make you. And if you want Me to make you, first you have to set down to learning so that you may know what the Holy Spirit in man is.

When I was on earth, I gathered together the twelve disciples so that I could make them and to have them as Mine, and I taught them, for they applied themselves to learning, and they called Me Teacher, and I told them to be like their Teacher, and I told them much about this, until, little by little, they came to the Holy Spirit, Who becomes God in man, and Who works like God from man. And when I left My Father to draw them again, I told them to remain in a spirit of holy Jerusalem until they were to be clothed with power from above, and then I told them this: «You will receive power coming from the Holy Spirit upon you, and you will be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth». And if I told them so, I went then back from near them to the Father, speaking to them through angels that as I ascended from them, so I was to come, as they saw Me ascending into the sky in the clouds. And after ten days I gave them the Holy Spirit and suddenly there came from the sky a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting; and tongues of like fire appeared and were distributed to them, and one set on each of them and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and the Holy Spirit became God in them, and those gathered together heard them speaking, in their own language for the Holy Spirit is the One Who can do this when He works from man upon man. Only that people are different and because of this the Holy Spirit cannot work upon them, because the Holy Spirit is like the good wine, which befuddles the one who has had it, and his language is not understood by those who do not know what God's mystery with man on earth is.

Oh, children from the garden, I would set you aside again, for you are too tired from the man who is slow with his mind, with his heart, with his faith and with his humility, without which the man cannot be with God. I would set you aside to have rest and to be able to finish well, with you and with power, My coming on earth. I would set you aside from the stubborn man who does not know to hear and then to want and be able to do it then, but I have mercy on the men's sons and I would like to be able to make all of them out of the Holy Spirit, sons. Oh, if those that say that love you wanted and then all the sons of the people, if they wanted to receive you from Me, I would strengthen you and make My heavy cross easier for you; the cross through which I press on you, for I have taken you near Me from under it, tired sons, because it is heavy for Me as well. Do not be surprised that I tell you so, and do not forget that I, God, being great, tell you that My cross of today is heavy for Me, too. Its body and arms are as long as seven thousand years, as long as the man is, sons, and the man is as long as seven thousand years. Oh, what beautiful it would be on earth now, at the end of the time, if the people knew and were able to welcome you to be My witnesses to the margin of the earth! Then you would be the peace, which you have been waiting for, to embrace you, for it is hard for you without peace, sons, because the man is hard, children, tired in the time of today when I come, and I also became a burden for you, to carry Me to the man, to help Me come to the man, obedient sons. Oh, do not submit to the people! Again and again I say to you: do not submit to the people! Do not give anyone the glory, which I gave you, for it is I that I need it in you, and not you. You would be content only with the love, which you bear and give to Me, for the glory from God upon the man was hard to bear even for Me, let alone for man! Oh, who shall tell the man this mystery of My glory upon the man? It is not a joy; it is a burden for those who are born from above and who are still on earth with the stiff-necked people and in whom My humility has no room, for I am the humble One, and this is how I walk after the man to make him, but the man flees; he flees so that I may not be able to make him and thus he may not be, for the man got used to death.

Behold, I come on earth with a feast of the Holy Spirit and I have room and board and courtyard and servants on the hearth of the Romanian people, of which I, the Lord, have chosen My bride. I always, always come on earth, dear man, and I lay down with days of wedding into your way, with My bride, with My sign from My coming. Come as a wedding guest in the hora<sup>165</sup> of My wedding and get a wedding garment, and then knock to open for you. But be careful, and come as long as the door is open, for if the Bridegroom comes, you remain outside, man. Oh, come to the wedding! Let us learn the mystery of the wedding of the Son of the King, Who watched together with the King and Who did not go to sleep with his older brothers. Come to the spring, for I call you sweetly and I speak to you sweetly, because I have mercy on you and on Me, dear man, for I mourn after the man, as one mourns after a dead man, but My mourning is as long as seven thousand years, and I do not find any comfort until the man comes to life, until the man is like in heaven, for I am the Man Who came down from heaven two thousand years ago; Man born from above, for Father wanted Me to become Man, and if I had not done so, what would Father really have done, if I had not come the same way I went from heaven down on earth after the man?

Come to the spring man! I have come after you from heaven the second time, and how sweetly I sing to you about My longing after you! Let Me take you on My shoulders! Become a little and tiny and gentle lamb, so that I may carry you and tell Father that I have found you and brought you to Him, for My peace and His, and yours, dear man. Amen.

And now, children of My word, give heavenly gifts to those who sing to Me at My wedding with you and tell them to become a new creature, which stays this way from dawn to dawn.

<sup>165</sup> Hora – Romanian folk round dance with a slow rhythm in which dancers join their hands forming a closed circle; the circle which is formed by those that perform this dance; the melody by which this dance is performed. If you got in the hora you must play it = if you started to do something, you must keep to it, r.n.)

You, those who came at My calling to sing the doina<sup>166</sup> of My bride country and to My wedding into the Romanian people, be My witnesses to the end of the earth on My longing for the man, with which I cry through the spring of My word, which flows and flows again until it comes and is sufficient for every man to wash in it and then to see in it himself with My face, and then the man will see Me in My coming, which I have come here with, for here I have My room and board and My bride, the longing and the fire, which I cry after the man with. Confess the Holy Spirit Who speaks with you from the gardens of My meeting with the man in order to invite him to the life of the age that is to be on earth. My love for the man became a spring of living water for the man to drink and to be. Amen.

And now, in a spirit of heavenly Pentecost over the garden of the meeting, over the tent of meeting, I spread My arms and embrace all that are one spirit with Me, so that I may give them, because those who have will be given more, and to those who do not have, will no longer be given. I tightly embrace to My bosom the sons of the garden of My word and My bride people.

Oh, sons from the garden, who receive My word when it comes! Oh, I have mercy on you, for your power has been taken out of you. When I was at the wedding in Cana to take the wedding pair to be My disciples and so that they may remain a wedding pair forever, My mother said to the servants of the wedding: «Do everything He will tell you». And then I made new wine, for the servants of the wedding obeyed Me and then I gave to the wedding pair the most precious gift, the clean heaven, and they received it. This is what I tell those who have served at My wedding of today: do everything I tell you and everything they tell you, for they are those by whom I bring Myself to you in order to be saved and to serve Me according to My will. Amen. I make My new wine with them, the word that has become a big river and overflowed over the earth. And if they are those with whom I do this miracle, then you should learn to be like them, for otherwise their power and peace, the word and the hope in you grow less, and I also grow less in them when you cannot do like Me and like them. I gather them together at My bosom wounded of My mercy on them and I give them of My bosom to be able to work for Me, if they cannot for the man. Oh, blessed are and blessed will be those, whom I can work on, through the sons of My garden, who carry Me from heaven to earth and then to the man to make him into My kingdom. Amen.

Now My spring will cry; it will flows and it will remain sighing, and all the time sighing after the man until he becomes as I am. Amen.

In a spirit of heavenly wedding, I tell you: Peace to you! And take with you My longing, which is crying in Me after the man. In the language of the Holy Spirit, I tell you: Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! Remain in My love. If you want and if you can and if you believe into My groaning, which becomes a river of word over you, remain in My love. Amen. Learn this mystery and its miracle: remain in My love. Take seed out of My mouth and sow it from one into another and remain in My love. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of all saints

I knock and it is opened for Me and I come in. Amen. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I come in as word into My book of today and I become a feast over My people that listens to My word and fulfills it. I found My watchmen waiting, for it is the feast of all the saints in heaven, as they were established in a churchly manner to rejoice together in their day of celebration. Amen.

<sup>166</sup> Doina – lyrical poetry specific to the Romanian folklore which expresses a feeling of longing, of mourning, of rebellion, of love, etc., being usually accompanied by an adequate melody; a musical variety of the folkloric Romanian creation, characterized by its deep emotiveness and especially based on the feeling of longing. A good example by Doina is: Doina mourning or Mocirita & Doina de jale by Gheorghe Zamfir, r.n.

Oh, My people, oh, how much love there is on earth! From one margin to another, if I take a look to see, I see only love, hearts full of love for each other and much, much, searching with love and longing after the man. Oh, how shall the pain not seize Me? How shall I no longer stay in pain and again in pain when the love for Me is no longer on earth? I can no longer see a man who denies himself for Me. I do not want to produce pain to the saints, for they have enough pain when they see Me seeking and seeking again after the man, when they see you laboring near Me and under My heavy cross of today, so that I may find here and there a Samaritan heart that may rejoice over My finding and to take Me into his house and to become the same as I am.

I do no longer have anything of which to make true Christs for Me. There are too many false christs on earth and no one has been waiting for Me to come with My sweet glory, so that it may become a new heaven and a new earth over the earth and over the man. Oh, who shall I mourn with? With whom else but with the saints who have been waiting for seven thousand years for God's love in man on earth, sons who receive and listen to My word when I come with it on earth for you? I have dwelt with a celebration of heavenly glory through you here on earth, in the midst of My little village, for three days of heavenly supper between Me and man, to be able to make the man, sons. So much glory of word, so much pain in the word for the man and after the man! Now I am dwelling with the sky full of saints and angels above the garden of the meeting and I have watched for you to be able to stay with you as a sign before the man and then to spread the news of the Holy Spirit on earth with you far and wide, now, at the end of the time, when I, the Lord, the messenger of the Father Sabaoth, want to perfect the table of the wedding, the love between Bridegroom and bride, and guests to carry it and in whom My love may remain, and the Father to see that.

Oh, My people, you should know that I will make the man love Me and seek Me and find Me waiting for him at this spring. You should know that I said this and that I fulfill what I say. Seek to be My servant, seek to receive Me from above and from below and seek with love after Me, My people, and keep doing it this way, for I have no other hope to make the man see and be able to work for Me and for his making from Me. Seek more and more and daily to be only a fire for My pain after the man and do not marvel that it is only and only this that I have asked from you. Seek, My people, to be like God on earth, so that the man may come to life through you and for you to be the one through whom I work out from the Father the making of the new heaven and the new earth on earth, and the man in My image and after My likeness for this new making. Amen.

Oh, My people, the saints celebrate you in heaven near them, for on earth you are Mine, and you are My will on earth. The Sunday of all the saints who rejoice in the Holy Spirit waiting for the first day, the day on which I will visibly make the great resurrection of all the saints, for there have been many saints on earth, and no one has known about them, nobody but I, the One Who have seen their love burning and shedding tears to quench in tears the burning of their soul, who has been longing after Me. However, I made you My torch into the midst of the darkness of the world from the end of the time and I set you to serve Me into the middle of the world and I appointed you to endure for an hour with Me for the raising from the dead of those who are alive and of those who are dead, to fulfill the Scripture of the resurrection of the creature, My people. I want that no one and nothing on earth may be like you, and this is what I want that you should also desire. I want you to fulfill My work from the end of the time, so that I may fulfill the My glory through the man, and all the others will be added to you by My power, by My care, My people through which I will be laboring for an hour before My coming. I want that every man on earth, and all and everything, may know of this corner of heaven, of this new thing, for I, My people, told you that nowhere else will it be more beautiful and more heavenly like here, where I have made My manger of descending and work for My coming on earth. Amen.

The saints stay near you burning with the longing after My coming. The saints stay near Me burning with longing for you, My people from the end of the time. You are the fulfilled Scripture, and more and more fulfilled, of the revealing of the sons of God, and I want to have you on earth with love, the love, which never falls and that will be forever, My people. Oh, receive Me from above and receive Me from below and fulfill My word and learn the work of the miracles and work out miracles by faith, My people, and set the time to obedience and put the man on his knees before the glory of My word, and see how much power I have to do this, but you should remain a perfect sign before the man, so that the man may see Me with you and believe in My love with which I walk on earth after the man, calling him to the spring of the eternal life and to youth without old age and to life without death, for there is where I want to arrive with the man that I love, My people. The man that I love, this is what I have been looking for on earth, and I want to bring his breath to a stop and to put the love of God on earth and to take back My heaven and earth, for they are My creation and My inheritance, because I made them and I will make them into a new thing. Amen.

Oh, here is what I do in the day of the celebration of all the saints! I bless the garden of the meeting and the work that adorns it for My glory in it. I bless you and your love and your spirits and bodies with which you comfort the pain of My waiting. I bless your obedience. I bless your faith with which You receive Me from above and from below. I bless the peace in you and among you, to be from abundance before Me and to be able to work through it, sons. Oh, how much joy seizes Me when I see that you do the work of My coming more than your work! When the love for Me reigns in man, it is nothing impossible for the man. But you have to be able to work for the glory of My coming, which I have been waiting for with so much longing, sons! When you can do this, the man on earth can do it too, and he can do it for Me, so that I may fulfill the heavenly glory of the mound which starts with the place of the Holy of My Holies from this time of My coming, when I set My throne of the judgment of the creature here with you in the midst of this little village, which I want to be the adornment of the Lord on earth, as it is written in the Scriptures about the mountain to which all the nations will flow to receive light and to come to life, sons.

Be beautiful and let Me look at you all the time, both from above and from below, with My eye and with My word. Be gentle and sweet in your love, in your feeling, in your speaking, in your love, in the work of the spirit and in that of your little hands, which work for Me. Be beautiful, sons! Be beautiful with any work, with any feeling, and be one! Oh, do not be many, but be one, for I miss this wonder so much to see it greater and greater, increasing, from power to power, for it gives all My power on earth to fulfill the book of My coming, which I wrote on earth two thousand years ago, sons. Be like Me and all and everything will be this way, and in this way the groaning of the creature will come to a stop and all the nations will serve to My glory with you, and all the peoples will worship My coming, and then I will establish the new age on earth and I will give each one according to his own deed. Amen.

Oh, My people in a spirit of celebration of saints, I sound My trumpet on you to show you the root in which I stayed and from which I put forth tender branches, to have you today as new branches. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, Verginica, My trumpet before My coming! You were the trumpet and I was its voice. Amen. Behold the sprouts, which have been growing out of My work with you. I am near with each perfect work, only to strengthen them, Verginica.

— My joy, Lord, is that You come visibly, and that I may be with You then, to be seen by those who knew me and then left me for their things, Lord. But it is written by you in the Scripture that says this: «Now from the fig tree learn this parable. When its branch has now become tender, and puts forth its leaves, you know that the summer is near; you should know that the Lord is at the doors». Amen.

Oh, people of the Lord, Who is and Who comes! Oh, the Lord always comes to you, always, and the Lord is coming soon, soon, tender branch-children, for behold, the fig tree has put forth its leaves and it has you as tender branches. The Lord is the fig tree, sons, and He is at the doors, and you are from Him, and you are branches and leaves, and out of His leaves many will be healed, because this is written into the book from the end of the time. I remind you this so that you may not forget that you are those through whom the Lord heals the unbelief on earth, starting with you and to all the margins, sons. Soon, soon, soon, and all and everything will know and answer and say: «The Lord is there. Let us go up to Him and receive from the laws of the life and to be like Him». Amen.

Oh, little and tiny and tired people, if you have love, you have the Lord and that is why you can, and the man marvels at how much you can and he comforts you for your reward from the Lord. Soon, soon, soon, you will be the only one to remain as the man's comfort on earth; soon, soon, people of the Lord's coming, for He is coming with His comfort, with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, pouring out from Him on earth to comfort the man, for the man is without comfort, because he has not known for seven thousand years what the comfort is. Oh, there is no comfort aside from the Lord, and the Lord will remain on this land from you; He and together with those who are His comforted; He with His comfort. Amen.

Now I ask you with a deep longing in Him, be His comfort, sons. If you want to be comforted, be His comfort, be His will on earth and in heaven, for the heaven and the earth have found their embracing through you, and they spring forth and grow, as it is for this that they were made when the Lord made them. Amen.

Oh, the invisible saints on earth celebrate me for I was born on Sunday, the day of the Sunday of all saints. And here is what they speak with me and with you in their day of celebration and mine.

— First we speak with you, the Lord's trumpet. You opened the way of the heavenly Jerusalem to come down on earth, for you were the iconostasis through which the Lord has entered and become word now, at the end of the time. The queen Mother, the Virgin, who brought the Lord on earth two thousand years ago, has you as the joy of her Son, and the one who gave birth to the people of the end in immeasurable pains, out of which He has found branches to give forth leaves and feed the nations of the earth with them. You are in them, as the root draws the sap and gives it to the branches so that they may have life. You have remained in them, for they have remained in you for our Lord and theirs. Amen.

And to them we say this: we will be upon you as the holy citadel, the New Jerusalem, coming down from heaven with the Lord and from the Lord, the One Who sits on His throne here, into the midst of your word, speaking the renewal upon all things. And we will be with you, the new heaven and the new earth, and the sea will no longer be, for you are the Lord's people, the Lord's tabernacle among the people, and he dwells with you, and you are His people, for He Himself is with you. And these words are faithful and the come true, for their Creator is called the Alpha and the Omega, and He says, and does everything, and He gives as a gift of the spring of the water of life to all who are thirsty and will be thirsty after Him. And the victors will inherit these, and He will be their God and they will be His sons. Amen.

Work with love and longing of which it has never been heard on earth and in heaven, for you are those from the last and the key is with you and you are the key, for the Lord spoke this.

Oh, we have always cried and asked Him: «Lord, until when?» And now He tells us:

— Oh, until now, for I am coming now and you are in My coming, as it is written, for the heaven has opened and My longing caught fire for the little ones, who receive My coming with you, Jerusalem from heaven and from earth for the new age, which is to come. Amen.

Oh, Verginica, the saints do no longer ask Me «Until when Lord?» because I have them in My coming on earth, and now they perfectly understand My mystery, which My saints have been waiting for seven thousand years, Verginica.

— And I, Lord, I cry for longing and joy and I deeply ask You, give Your little people all the wisdom of the mystery at the end of the time, for You said to the prophet Daniel, that the words for the seasons and for their end are sealed and closed until the end, and then this sign will be that many will be cleansed and whitened and cleared, and the lawless ones will be wicked and they will not understand, for they are without law, but only the wise will understand. Give Your little people the wisdom of the mystery of the end of the times, for the parable of the fig tree has come true and has put forth branches and leaves, and the leaves are for the healing of the nations, Lord.

I cry for longing and joy and from the midst of Your saints I ask you: make Your little people into healing over the earth. Help his fruit and make him listen from earth and until in heaven, from above and from below, Lord, for he is Your hope. My people, from the beginning of Your work with me, has stopped on his way and did no longer go on, and he is in the wilderness of the world, but this one stays with You and becomes Your will. Give him Your power from the end of the time, to the perfect joy of Your saints, Lord, for they have waited for you much to be on earth and have asked You much: «Until when, Lord?»

— Oh, until now, Verginica. Now we are preparing together the glory of My coming. They have been waiting up to you, and after you were Mine on earth, they soothed their sigh and started working with Me. We are working now, Verginica. Little, little, and all and everything come back to their place, as they were with the Father. Amen. I fulfill your prayer and give to the little ones the wisdom of the mystery from the end of the time and tell them this: I have given you the heaven and the earth to reign over them forever. First I have taught you to control yourselves into My name and for Me, and then I made you My kingdom, and now I am asking from your more and more to be like Me in every moment, for I am in you, sons.

I look on earth from margins to margins and see only love in people and among people, and the sons of the people seek with longing after the love on earth, and I have always been in pains, for My love is no longer on earth and I have nothing out of which to make for Me true Christs, and there is no one to wait for Me to come with My sweet glory, under which all man's love for the man will go down.

Oh, children who receive My word, wounded after the man, and you, My people, fed through the sons of My word with the heavenly food, with the river always poured out from My mouth over you! Oh, teach yourself more and more to stay into My image and after My likeness before Me and before the sons of the people, and sweeten yourself with Me every moment, to be sweet for Me, My people, and to have you as food, and to pray sweetly to God for everything that I want you to have and to carry, for your prayer is My food, My people. Take care of it, take care of its taste, take care of the longing in it, for it is My food and your way to Me, and My way with the achievements for the new making of the world, My people. Oh, again and again I bless your little hands, which give life to the fulfilling of My longing, and which have always asked you to prepare, day by day, the day of My glory, to which the nations will flow from the four corners of the earth to receive the Lord, the One Who is with you and in you, son. Make Me in you the way I am, and then I will put My waiting to an end and then I will come. Amen, amen, I say to you: Adorn My way, and may your little hands be blessed; the hands, which your work with over the glory of My word with you on earth before the nations. Make Me in you as I am, and this is how you should work with one another for the glory of My coming, and then I will put My waiting to an end, and then I will come. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the holy apostles Peter and Paul

My people, I, the Lord and your God, thought and teach you always to sweeten yourself with Me on earth, so that you may able to be Mine, and so that you may not be yours or of the world, because I have always told you to be Mine, son. I called you and chose you and I have brought you up and this is also what I do today, but there has to be a difference between you and the unfaithful one, My people. This mystery is what I want to teach you today, even deeper than you have known and experienced it, so that I may have you as a faithful child, a called and chosen and faithful child, My people. Amen.

Oh, child of My word, My supper of nowadays with you and of which I have always sweeten you, has to make you sweeter and sweeter, as much as I can sweeten Myself with you, My people. You are My smallest one and I set you to guard well the golden tree and its fruits, so that I may sweeten Myself with them at My table with you. I have taken the tree from gate and I put it in storage, and I put you to keep it and to work it, so that it may be on the table and its whole sweet fruit as well, for I am flesh and word, and there was and there is nowhere else like with you, My people.

The city, without a prophet, without a leader from heaven on it, falls down and it has fallen down because it had and has many rulers over it, and I have not had any room in it and over it even now, at the end of the time, when I have called at My supper, at My table of Holy Spirit those that say that they are the sons of the kingdom, Jesus Christ's church among the people. Soon, soon, My disciples and apostles, those with whom I walked on earth two thousand years ago, and I made them faithful of the powers of My word after I had called and chosen them, soon, soon they will be seen near Me, judging the Israel after the flesh, and the one who wanted to be Israel after the spirit, after Me, the Christ of the Father, for I have founded the church and I am her Master. Amen.

I celebrate My disciples, My people. I glorify Myself into your midst with the glory of My word and I give them a seat near Me on one side and on the other, and I give them the reward because they had walked with Me and this way they were taught to be righteous and holy. And because they gave up everything they had and followed only Me, I told them that at the new birth of the world they would sit on the judgments seats for those who violated My judgments, for My church has been built on them and with them, both at that time and now. Amen.

Oh, disciples, I took you with Me into the word. Not only that My seat of judgment is here, in the garden of My word, but also yours as well, for this is how I have established you to stay at the new birth of the world and of the creature, and to judge the lawlessness, so that it may know, from earth to heaven, what it is and where its place is. Amen, amen, amen.

— We, our Teacher and Lord and of Your sons and ours, we, Lord Almighty, right and good Judger of the world! From heaven down to earth we are taking after You now, because any perfect disciple is like His Teacher. Amen.

We sit on the seats of justice and declare over the earth and from margins to margins, so that the word of Your disciples may be heard, which says this over those who have sat to be like You and then to be masters over the nations into Your name, and we say this to them: no disciple is greater than his Teacher, but any perfect disciple is and will be like his Teacher instead. Amen.

We kneel before You, praying to You for Your people through whom You have saved Your church and its mystery, which will not be crushed forever. And we sit, Lord, on the seats of judgment, near You, judging the lawlessness on earth and its place, Lord. Let all those, who sit on the seats of judgments hear, from margins to margins, that we, Lord, have to bring down justice on earth and the gospel of Your coming, and of Your saints and children from the earth, with whom you write Your book of today, the book of the sacrificed Lamb, the book of the judgment, for it is written into the prophets: «...the scroll flying far and wide, with its length, twenty cubits and its breath ten cubits, has the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land; for everyone who steals shall be cut off according to it on the one side; and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off according to it on the other side. This will enter into the house of the thief and into the house of him who swears falsely by the Lord's name, and it will remain into the midst of his house, and will destroy it with its timber and its stones». Amen. «This is the ephah basket that is appearing», as the Scripture says, «and in it there it is the wickedness of the whole earth and on it the slab of lead», (Zach. 5:3-8, r.n.) and its place is Babylon and Sodom. Amen.

Oh Lord, who is the one who swears falsely on Your name, and which is his house, the house of the thief, Lord? Behold Your measure: the ephah. You measure the wheat with it, and with it You measure the man who swears falsely on Your name, and the man has room in it, Lord, to be measured. And if the man is not wheat, it is lawlessness instead, Lord, and he that swears falsely on Your name is a thief, and his house of timber and stones (The worldly churches, r.n.) will be cut off. Amen. If you were not the Lord of justice, the thief, who makes his house into Your name, will be justified. However, You have set all of us on the seats of judgment, when You called us and chose us to be faithful to You against the lawlessness of the whole earth. When You called us to be Yours, You also taught us to deny ourselves and everything we had on earth, so that we might have only You and to give You to the man as You are, and we had to be like You, Lord. Wherever we walked far and wide on earth, we gave only You to people and not us, and we took only You from heaven and from earth, as Your Holy Spirit was blowing and working by the anointment that You gave us, You and not the man, You and not the thief, who swore falsely on Your name, and he did not know You, Lord, for a thief belongs to his own self and cannot be Yours. Now, after two thousand years of wickedness, the scroll of Your book is flying high and low over the surface of the entire earth, and any thief will be cut off, and anyone who swears falsely will be crushed, and the house of timber and stones of the thief will be thrown down, for Your judgments have been made known, Lord. We are just the judgment and not the judgers, for we denied the world and ourselves and this is how we went from place to place with Your power in us, proclaiming Your kingdom, and thus we were worthy of the reward of our work, for You were our work, and we put You over the man and in man, Lord. But the apostles of today, those who did as they wanted from two thousand years ago until now, where are they from and who are they taking after and whom are they giving to the people? Their glory has surpassed the human measure, and the lawlessness sits in its place and in its house. The ephah basket runs over its brims with its wickedness, for the man who swears falsely on Your name is the measure, which overruns and has been spread all over the surface of the earth, and the curse of the lawlessness the same, and any thief will be cut off, Lord, for Your book of today has been preached up and down all over the earth, and there is in it what You give to each other according to his own deed. Amen.

Now we are breathing the spirit, which is speaking out of us from You, and we are establishing Your people from Your coming. Glory to You, and again we say, glory to You for You started reigning fulfilling the Scripture revealed to the sons of God, as it is written into the Scriptures about the entire creature, which has been waiting for them sobbingly, Lord. And we teach them into Your name, as the ones who were and are Yours on earth and in heaven, and we speak to them this way:

If you have been so much waited for and so much loved in heaven, children of the graces from the end of the time, be His whole measure on earth, and make yourselves perfect in Him, so that He may be perfected in you, and be all in one, with all kinds of gifts that he has breathed into you, so that you may also be on earth His glory from the end of the time, and so that through it, He may be able to work out His coming with all the saints and with the new heaven and with the new earth on earth among the people.

You should also know that not everything that stays under the name of the church of Jesus Christ is church; it is no longer and it is something else instead, for it is written about the scroll, which flies and gets in the house of the thief and of the one who swears falsely on the name of the Lord, and it will remain in it and it will cut off its timber and its stones. The wickedness is in the ephah, and the ephah is brought to its place, in its house, and it will cut it off. Amen. Soon, soon, Babylon and Sodom will have the sign of the lawlessness on them, for all those, who became apostles without the Lord speaking to them, did so because they were thieves, and their houses are the place of the lawlessness, the place of the ephah, in which the lawlessness of the whole earth is found. You should also know that the Lord, one hour before finding the man of lawlessness, who stays under the name of the church throughout the earth, one hour before it, the Lord presented you as His church on earth, and you stand on the ground of the Lord's testimony, because He proved you through signs and miracles, and no enemy could stand against you, because the Lord took His kingdom, and from here, from you, He can for Him, for we and for you. And many will read the book and will see and illuminate and will be the guests of the Lamb's wedding with you, and those who are wicked will behave as the wicked ones, for the lawlessness was set into its place and its house, in the house of those who swears falsely on the name of the Lord. Amen.

You should know, children from the end, you should know, little children, you should know to be so wise, as great as the work that the Lord has put on your shoulders, to be able to carry it on earth for His coming. Be greater than we are, for all the saints in heaven stay around you, so that you may be able to do as they all did, and as much as the Lord can, children from the end of the time. Do not be afraid that you are small or that you are weak. Stay under the Lord's wisdom and receive from it and live by it and stay with the Lord, for this is the wisdom, which protects you from any evil. Seek to be perfect disciples, for this is what this time has been requiring from your now, and everything will be submitted to the Lord, if He has you this way. Amen. Seek from dawn to dawn to be the heaven from the earth and put your life at the gates, so that it may be known by anyone who will come to the spring to see and to drink, and then to be able to do it. Give power to the zeal of the Lord in you and in the man who wants to be with the Lord. Give way to the Lord's wisdom in you and among you, so that where you are He may be also, so that you may also be, little sons. Soon, soon, you will be sought after by all the nations for the Lord, Who is with you. Adorn the garden of the meeting and enclose it well with the laws of holiness, so that the man may be able to do through them, children of the graces from the end of the time, and be perfect disciples, little sons. Amen.

And as for You, Lord and Teacher, give them the power of miracles, those beyond this time, as You have already given to them. Give them the beauty of the angels and the brightness of Your graces in them, and give them a gentle and humble spirit, for they are Yours, Lord. Protect them greatly, both from above and from below, and teach them to know well that work, which says that where they are, You should also be, Lord of Your sons. Amen, amen, amen.

— I taught you, My disciples of that time, I taught you from near, I comforted you, I put you to trial, I rebuked you, I cuddled you and I gave you the Holy Spirit for the weak sight of the unfaithful. But I also carry them in the mystery of those that are not seen by their eyes, and I taught them to be able to believe in those that are true, for those are not seen, because they are true. I gave you the walking through the world together with Me, and then into My name. But I put them in storage and to sowing, and I water them from heaven with the dew from Eden, and I teach them with it to know the place where they stand, and I see you so happy for this place of Mine with them, the place of the first beginning of the earth with the man. Amen.

And now, I fill them with My love from you, for their work is hard, and I have always brought to them and I have always given them, both from above and from below, for their time is hard, because it is its end and I am at the beginning. I want to always have them as My children and to make them be more like children, so that I may work upon them with all My coming, with all of it, oh, My disciples from My coming in My body on earth! And I will be able to do it. Amen.

I, little sons, have always let upon you the word of the blessing for My work with you, by which I glorify Myself over the earth from here with you. I ask you to be with Me, both from above and from below. I have always asked you to be good, to be sweet, to be very dear and to strengthen yourselves under the burden of My coming.

I ask you to strengthen My measure among you and to be children, sons. And I ask from you that there where you are, I may be also, and to be well pleased with you, if I am there. Open your eyes wide and even wider and make a big room in your mind to be able to see and understand how great I am upon you when I can work through you. And I tell you again with a fresh word: be one, sons. Give to each other of your bodies and souls into My name, and be one. Where one cannot, the other can, and where the love is one, you also can in it. Amen.

Prepare My glory with you again, for We will call many to the spring again, and they will come and will see My glory. Be My glory, sons. Be as much as it is. Look at Me and always be, sons, always be in My image and after My likeness, for you are the beginning that I have been waiting for so long, and remain, sons, the beginning forever. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity, the first day

In a spirit of a Pentecost celebration I come down from near My Father as word on earth. Amen, amen, amen. Oh, watchmen from the garden, I am the Lord! Open up to My word and put it into My book of today. I breathe upon you, for you are very tired, because you have prepared My celebration to meet the man in the garden of the meeting. Amen.

My gardens with you are a top of a lofty mountain, on which, from time to time, I sit down with My cross from today to rest from it, for the man is My cross, sons. I have been carrying the man with difficulty, and not for two thousand years since I have been carrying the wooden cross, so that I may sit on it then and for the man to see Me and have mercy on Me and come to comfort Me because of My heavy cross from man. Oh, it is not for two thousand years since I have been carrying the man with difficulty, but rather the man has been My heavy cross for seven thousand years. I breathe upon you a spirit of revival, so that You may stand before My word, which is upon you, for I want to embrace the man and to complain to him of My heavy cross.

I told you to announce the holy feast and I said that I will bring the man to the spring from the four corners of the earth, that I may stay with him in the word and to show him what I have on this Romanian land; to show to the man My spring, which flows from the Father's throne and with which I become spring up to the man, for I am the spring and I am this word, and My coming is wonderful, for it is on this river that I have been coming down into the midst of the Romanian people for more than forty years in order to prepare a bride people for Me and to be glorified into his midst with the glory of My word, which is more and more beautifully than two thousand years ago, when I came as incarnated God into the midst of Israel of that time. Now I am coming down on earth as a river of word to make a new Israel for Me, out of the midst of the Romanian people, a new Christian people, a people into My image and after My likeness, and whom I have always, always, taught the ways of life, so that he may be able to walk on earth in the same way as I walked. Amen.

Oh, My bride people, My people taken out of the Romanians! I am coming down early in the morning and I take you and sit down with you before those who have come to the spring to drink. You should teach the one who has come to drink, in the same manner in which you have also learned from Me. Oh, and how are you supposed to teach the one who has come to the spring to drink? I teach him with the word, and you should stay under My sign, the sign of the Son of God. You should stay before the multitude, which has gathered in My gardens with you, for you are a beautiful child for My image in your heart, and which is seen on your face, My bride people. I am your Bridegroom, and you are My little bride, the one from My second coming from near the Father, so that I may have someone to come to on earth, when I come to become word for man.

Every bridegroom prepares his day of wedding; he prepares both groomsmen and wedding guests and also a wedding party. Moreover, how shall I, the Lord, not prepare the day of My wedding? How shall I not prepare or adorn My bride, My groomsmen, My wedding guests and My servants? How shall I not prepare and adorn My wedding hall, My wedding table, My bread, My wine and My day of the wedding, I, the Bridegroom from heaven and the bride from on earth, in a spirit of heavenly wedding, in a spirit of new heaven and new earth and of New Jerusalem?

I am coming with the saints from heaven, with the Jerusalem from heaven. I am coming from near the Father, with the saints and angels, and I am on the right side of the Father, and the Father rejoices near Me over My comfort. I also comfort Myself, so that I may speak to the man, for I long for the man; I have been longing after the man for seven thousand years, and the Father Sabaoth is speaking to Me this way:

— My beloved Son, in Whom I, the Father, am well pleased, comfort Yourself and speak to the man about Your way from heaven down to earth, and about those from You on whom You have made You manger of descending now, at the end of the time, dear Son. Speak to the man that You are the way, and that it is like You. Speak to the man, Son and Word, speak that You are My word and that You do not do Your will, but Mine instead, and speak to him that You do not speak from Yourself. And I to him I say this:

Dear man, My Son is My word, and out of His mouth the river of life flows from Me, the word, which is lying down in His manger here, in this little village, and the story of My Son and of His people from the end of the time is beautiful. And behold the fruit of My Son's work: a people of beautiful and dear sons, in whom I and My Son are well pleased now, at the end of the time, dear man. Oh, man, it is for you that I set them to be a sacrificial people for the preparation and embellishment of the My Son's wedding. Listen to the voice of My Son, the one into the midst of His people, a people taken out of the midst of the Romanian people. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, Father, here I am to do Your will. I cry with tears on earth and I take delight in days of wedding into My gardens prepared by them to Us and to the man, who comes to the spring, Father. Oh, it is hard for Us, both to You and to Me, and to them, to speak to the man of this wonderful mystery of My coming down on earth, at the end of the time. There are too many christs throughout on the earth; there are too many for the man to know Us, Father, when I am coming now on earth as word from You and I am coming down into the man's way, I together with My little people, My sign ahead of My coming. However, I am now with days of wedding in the garden of Our meeting with the man who has come to the spring and I become word and give Myself, Father, and I tell those who have come together near My people, I tell them to take Me and taste the truth of My word, with which I unfold Myself before the man as a scroll which unfolds and becomes My way to the man, and a way for the man to Me, My Father and the Father of My people and of those who will receive My image, My life and My cross, Father.

I have called you to the spring, dear man. I am the Lord, the One Who died and was resurrected for the man. I have called you to the river of life to wash in it and to lay down in it, My Romanian people. Oh, how much I want you to be My people, from one margin to another and to the other margin of yours, for your hearth is the land out of which I took clay with My hand and I made the man built by My hand. Oh, how shall I do it? Oh, how shall I help you believe that I, the Lord, have you in the plan of the days of My second coming from near the Father, a lofty mountain, the mountain that I have raised above the tops of the mountains on earth, so that the laws of life may flow from it, the mystery ahead of My coming, a mystery sealed by the Scriptures and unsealed by Me, the Son of the Father Sabaoth.

I am the One Who is. This is how I tell you that I am, My Romanian people, and that is why I call you to the spring and I would keep on calling you, only if you became fond of My love song, so that I may call you with it, and then for you to come and love like Me the life of the age which is to be on earth soon, soon, My Romanian people. Your name is the new name of the God's people, in the same way as the name of Israel, who crucified My on the cross, was the name of God's people in that time.

I have come down on earth as the song of love, a word of the Holy Spirit and a feast of new age, new wine and sweet bride, who has served Me with longing in order to redeem the man from the sin and then to give his life back, so that the man may no longer die. Oh, this is what I want to do on earth, and then to give him to the saints in heaven and to the saints on earth, for no one has become a saint of the heaven without first being a saint on earth.

Oh, I release My spring and I give Myself, for I was well pleased with My mystery from the end of the time on your hearth, My Romanian people. How shall I make you understand and then believe that My mystery kept for the end of the time is this word with which I come down on earth, so that I may prepare with it My wedding and My bride, chosen from the Romanians, as it was the plan from My Father's hand for the end of the time? The end of the time means the kingdom of the heavens on earth, for I am the beginning and the end, and I am the end and the beginning, dear man, who have responded to My calling to the spring for you to drink and never go thirsty after you and to go thirsty after Me instead. My love for the man put My body on the cross, and then it raised Me to life and then I went to My Father in order to draw all people to Him, and then it made Me come down on earth again. And here I am with My love for the man, the love between Bridegroom and bride, I with My people in a spirit of heavenly wedding on earth, so that the Father may be comforted with My pain and His, and so that My Father may invite guests to My wedding. Those who should have been the guests of My wedding could not become as small as I was, so that I could be their way to the Father. And I have called those who know what love is to make their love like Mine and that they may give it to Me, so that I may get love from man, for it hurts Me the man's estrangement from Me. When I built the man, I created him to make him be My comfort and so that I may be his comfort.

Do you see, dear man, why I built the man? I did not build him to be like him, but rather I built him to be like Me and to be My comfort. Amen. Dear man, I want to make you, for I am the man's Creator. The travail pangs hurt Me, but I want to make the man. I have called you to the spring, dear man, for the price was high, which I paid to give you life through My death, only for you to want life, man.

I have called you to the spring to see the love between the Bridegroom and bride. I have called you to sing the doina of My coming, you, who have graces among the sons of the people. Receive from the river of life and catch spirit of wedding and sing to the wedding of the Son of the King, and let the spirit of My wedding spread out from margins to margins, for the kingdom of the heavens is like a certain king who made a marriage feast for his son. Take the garment of the wedding on you and stay under it in order to be guests and to sing to Me the doina of the wedding, and then to proclaim the joy with which I, the Lord and the Bridegroom of the wedding, make you rejoice, with the joy of My word full of longing after the man. Oh, how much I want you to be and to remain within the wedding garment, in the spirit of the wedding of the Son of the King, for the King is My Father, the Father Sabaoth. Amen. I would teach you the mystery of My longing, the Mystery of the spring, the mystery of the son, and I would teach you the mystery of life, but you should love the wedding garment, for I open wide My wedding hall, so that those who are called may come in and rejoice over My love between the Bridegroom and bride and for they to remain forever as the guests of My wedding, and let it be spread over the seas the news about My love, with which I pour Myself out in My gardens, where I call the sons of the people to come and drink of the spring of life and to become sons of God, in My image and after My likeness. Amen.

I spread out My hands and reach them out and embrace those who have gathered to the spring and I tell them: Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! As I give you and not as the world gives you. I give you My spring. The mystery of the life of the age, which is to be on earth soon, soon. Receive and drink and grow. Become small and then grow up, for no one is able to grow more but only the one who is small. Those who are grown cannot grow more. Only the small ones grow, and only with them I am well pleased, as they also are well pleased with Me and grow within Me, and I in them. Amen.

I embrace you in a spirit of heavenly wedding on earth, I and My people, and the garden of My meeting with the man. Be like a garden in a garden. Be one spirit with Me, for the Father has been deeply crying for seven thousand years after My comfort, which I lost then, when I lost the man from Paradise. Oh, My longing after the man has been only on fire for seven thousand years! I give you from My fire and you should put your shoulder under My cross of today, which I walk after the man with in order to put him on My cross and take him before My Father, and then to let him down and thus to be relieved of My heavy cross and to rest from it. Amen.

Remain in the spirit of the heavenly wedding, you, who have come to the spring. I have given you. I have become a spring of word and I have given you to drink of the river of life, of the wine of My wedding. Open for Me to come in and to be in you with the mystery of the age, which is to come. Look and understand. Give yourselves to one another and I will give Myself to you. Give Me, and I will give you, and let Us give Ourselves to one another, in the Spirit of the Truth, Whom the world does not know or hear, no matter how much He will call out in the streets for His voice to be heard. Look at My bride for I have come out with her as a sign over the earth, so that I may come visibly, for I come soon, soon.

I give you flowers of wedding and I give you of the spring, and do not forget: I come, soon, soon, and happy will be those who stay within the wedding garment, within the spirit of the wedding, witnessing and singing to the love between the Bridegroom and the bride, comforting the Spirit of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit on earth and up in heaven, within the mystery of the new heaven and of the new earth with Me on earth.

Amen, amen I say to you: I come soon, soon, and My sign goes ahead of Me and prepares My way, so that I may be able to come. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity, the first day

Open up to the Lord, you, guards who watch in the garden of the word! I am the Word of life and I become a heavenly celebration on earth with the man and I become spring of word to comfort the man, for I have called him to the spring, for him to drink of it and to feel Me and hear Me speaking with him from My garden of word. Amen.

I have laid the table of a heavenly feast with you. I have set you to prepare for Me a carpet of mysterious glory between Me and man, so that the man could hear My word, which blows over you from here, in the midst of the Romanian people, My new people, chosen for this land from here, which came out of the waters the former then when I made the heaven and the earth by My word and deed. Amen.

I, your Lord and Teacher, comfort your body and spirit, tired of labor, for I have set you to the work of feast and for the food of the multitudes, which come from every place to the spring, sweet food and according to My pleasure, and near it, the living water, My word which speaks from heaven upon the earth, My mystery for the end of the time, in such a way that I may come again visibly on earth, as it is written in the Scriptures about My second coming from near the Father.

Let us get up from our weaknesses and let us, sons anointed over this time, let us welcome in a heavenly manner the guests who have come to My table with you. My mother, full of comfort, is staying in a spirit of celebration for her, above the garden of the meeting and is watching with longing, and she is looking for joy from the man, to give it to Me and to be comforted with it, for My joy is the man who seeks with faith and longing after Me, and I give him of My life, of My mouth and I always invite him, always, to My mysterious heaven, between Me and man.

Oh, children, tired from the work of My coming on earth! I speak to the man who has come to the spring; I tell him, I, the Lord, that you are very little in comparison with My great glory, which enshrouds you, but you are beautiful because I dwell in you with My face in man. I tell the man that he has forgotten My face and that is why he has no longer been looking with it on his face. Oh, the man does not know to find Me and that is why I come with you before the man, for the man to see My face on your countenances and to long after Me as I also long after him, for My longing after the man is great and long. Since I made him in the beginning, from that time and until today, I have been longing for the man that was built by My hand.

Oh, beautiful children, oh, sons of the people of My word! My face in you is not smile and joy, for I have taught you to turn your smile into tear, and your tear into smile, so that you may be the beautiful ones of the Lord. My face in you is your holy spirit and body, which I have asked from you for Me. You are a sacrificial people, for I have always set you to prepare, with incomparable toil, My meetings with the man, and for these celebrations one needs much labor. I am a great God and you are so little, so feeble, and My power on you has put your little bodies down, for I have asked much from you, and you are so little in comparison with My great work over the earth now, at the end of the time. I come into your way before the sons of the people and I open up My little bag with seeds and become the sower over their hearts. My tool is the word and I break up the hearts and prepare a room in man to dwell in him with the mystery of My second coming on earth from near the Father. I have called them and they gathered and gather together. I lay a table of word for them and I call them to glorify Me with their graces, which they have from their nature: some with their heart, some with their voices, some with the sound of their trumpets, some with the word, some others with the harvesting, and let each one of them give and receive, for it is a heavenly celebration in the garden of My meeting with the man. And this is what I tell them:

You who are called! You who came and come to the spring of the living water! Give Me to drink! I am the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Word, and the Son of the Father Sabaoth. I give you the living water in return and he who receives from it and he who drinks of it usefully, that one never goes thirsty, for he has got Me in him then, and I am everything the man may truly have. This is what I want to tell the man: I am everything the man can truly have. Amen, amen, amen.

You, who have come to glorify the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, give Me to drink! I will not give you gold and silver, but I will give you what I have. I give you of My Spirit. Take of it and you will be illuminated and will become beautiful too, for My coming, because a beautiful child is the one who has been waiting for the Lord in all his time on earth. I have no gold or silver to give you as a reward because you have come to give Me to drink, for I am a very poor on earth, and those who carry Me between earth and heaven are very little among the people and they carry the burden of My coming after the man on their shoulders, and they have no human powers or riches, for this is what I taught them, but I have them as sacrifice, day and night, to prepare My coming. Give to the Lord out of your hearts. Give glory to the heavenly powers, which stay now in tens of thousands and thousands of thousands above the garden of the meeting. Give and the Lord will give you a twofold and threefold portion if you receive. I give you the word of life, the river of life, which I promised two thousand years ago that I would give to the one who would believe in Me with a holy faith. Amen.

My mother, the Virgin has been crying and praying from dawn to dawn to the Father, to her Son, for Me to come out with great victory over the earth with the work of the word of My work, which works in the man's heart to call him to the spring and to drink and for the man to be and to love Me afterwards, and this is how he is to stay for My coming, for there is one more hour and I will come, and I will come with great glory and then I will gather together into one place those that are Mine and those who will become Mine, sons into My image and after My likeness. Amen.

Now, My people, who have prepared a wedding garment for you and for Me, you who have been working hard for days of wedding between Me and you, stay in a spirit of wedding and give them from My table with you, for I give them and you are My hand, My mouth, My walking and My feast in the midst of those who are called at My wedding with you, My people bride. I give you a threefold heavenly power, for you have been weakened by your hard labor. You are the child who turn the smile into tear and the tear into smile, for the most beautiful man is the one who does My will staying under My cross, for I do no longer find a man without a cross to be able to take him near you under My heavy cross of today when I, the Lord, have been walking crying with you after the man to redeem him from death and to teach him the endless life, which seeks after the man to catch him under it and then the man to be. Amen.

May My wedding with you on earth be blessed, My bride people!

Peace to you, to those who have gathered at the table of My wedding! Peace to you, to those who sound the trumpet and sing doinas and give voice for the glory of My days in this time! I am word upon the earth and I want to teach every man to come to the water of life and to drink of it and to come to the river of life and wash in it and then to become holy, for the man to be afterwards.

Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! Amen, amen, amen.

— And I, my dear Son, the Lamb of the Father and mine, spread out my arms of Your mother and give graces from them over to those who make You glad in Your days with Your bride. To everyone who has come to Your spring, I put a mark on their foreheads to testify about this mark and I embrace them and give them to You, my son, if they want this. The one who wants is the one who becomes Your son, a child after Your image and after Your likeness, a new man, dear Son, my child, the only One born from the Father and from me, Virgin mother.

Oh, sons and daughters, give glory to my Son. Bring His love from you so that He may knead it once again and to be redeemed from death. I am a sweet mother for those who love the life of My Son in them. Love the spring, which flows from my Son over to you and spread His news and His place prepared here. Take the news of His coming from margins to margins and remain in the spirit of the heavenly joy, which is one, as those from heaven are one as well. I tell you with the voice of a mother, too: Peace to you and to my Son with you, in a day of holy longing between heaven and earth! His peace is over the garden of the meeting. Love one another as He loved you and gave Himself for you so that you might be afterwards. Give yourselves to Him, for my Son is the One Who is. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, sweet mother, oh mother with longing! You long for the man and you long for My comfort. It is only you that truly know that the man is My comfort. Oh, mother, full of longing! Only if the man would want to know and to want to be My comfort, too! Let us rejoice now, mother, for Our little ones from the earth have brought days of glory before Us, the joy of Our meeting with the man, mother. Amen.

I, the Lord and the Teacher from the Father, bring heavenly fragrances over the garden. I pour them out abundantly and they to come up from you to Us in the same way, you, those who are gathered to the spring. Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! And I will be again word upon you in all the time of the feast.

And as for you, come all to the spring of life, to My wedding with My bride, you those from the little village of My word. Let us enjoy our wedding, for My mother is in a celebration with her Son and with all those from heaven over the garden of the meeting. Love what I have in your little village. There is no one that has what you have, but you should know to seek and to have and then to appreciate it. Amen. The spirit of the feast remains sweetly and with comfort over the garden. Be holy as I have established the living in My gardens in which I show My glory among the people. Be good and holy and rejoice for a moment as in heaven and not as on earth. Be good! Be good! Be good! I, the Lord, give you power to become sons of God. My voice calls you to the life of the age that is to be soon, soon, on earth. Peace to you! I am at the right hand of My Father and the Father also tells you:

— Peace to you, sons, and to you, guests of the wedding of My Son!

Peace to you, little bride of My Son! You should be beautiful, bride people, for My Son is on your face. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity, the second day

My speaking is sweet over the man, to offer it to him and to give back to the man what he has lost. The man has lost his communication with God, and I, the merciful Lord for the man, come from heaven to earth as word to set back the communication between Me and man, the mystery hidden from the age for the end of the time. Amen.

I, the Lord, become word over the garden of the word and I come down to the man to tell him that this word is the river of life, which flows from God's throne, the Word, as it is written into the Scripture for the end of the time. After I made the heaven and the earth by My word, I made the man and I was speaking with him, and he was speaking with Me, too. My voice and My step were heard by the man's ear, built by My hand. This is how the man knew God at the beginning and in the end.

I write the book of My coming and I lay down with in front of the man, and I lay down with it over times to call everyone into account according to his past or present deed. This is how I spoke with Moses on the Mount of Sinai, and Moses wrote down My word that was upon him, and he had always written it down. This way I had also spoken with My prophets, and they were writing My word down. Now, after two thousand years since My living with the man on earth for thirty-three years, God has come down from the Father among the people again; now I am coming down again from heaven to earth as word, to bring back the communication between Me and man, for the man lost his communication with God.

If the man tried to tell Me that he speaks with Me, and he speaks to Me of his things or Mine, he cannot hide from the sin of not communicating with Me. First, it was I that I spoke with the man and then the man spoke with Me. First, it was the man that did not speak with Me and only then I did not speak with him.

Man, you should not ask yourself, man that come to see and hear My voice, which walks through the garden of My word in this time for My word to be put in a book, as in all the times of My communication with the man; you should not ask yourself why God speaks with the man, and rather you should ask yourself why you do not hear God speaking upon you, according to His plan made with the man from eternity. When I made the man, created by My hand, I made him to be able to speak with him, and he with Me, for what else should I have made the man for, I, God, the Word? I created him and I spoke with him, and he with Me, until he did not want to speak with Me, and he spoke with himself instead and became like him and not like Me. I created him and we spoke to each other until he became greater than His Creator, losing Him by his disobedience, losing Him by his hiding. Hiding is the sin, which separated the man from Me and Me from the man, since it was not possible and it is not possible communication between Me and man. The man cannot hide, but he hides though, for this sin has come to be natural to him, that is to flee from God and to hide. Oh, where shall the man hide from My face? I have always been, always, face to face with the man, but he wants to forget this and this means hiding. The man hides Me from himself and the man hides from Me, but this is not the truth, because the man cannot hide from God. I come from heaven as word to bring back the communication between Me and man. I offer back to the man everything he has lost.

I lay down on earth into your way with the word, man who came out of the man, created by My hand. You are born of man and I want to teach you your beginning, dear man. My speaking is sweet over you. The beginning of your being is the first man, created by My hand and with whom I was speaking between Me and him. I want to give you back what you have lost. I want you to lay down before Me and hear My voice and to believe that I am, to believe even if you do not see Me. Adam did not see Me either, but he heard Me and spoke with Me, and then he withdrew into himself and did no longer speak with Me, for he hid and then he tried to forget Me.

Oh, how shall the man not forget Me if he does not speak with Me, and I with him? Oh, how is it possible for the man not to hear My word? The heaven and the earth heard Me when I told them to come out of the waters and to be then. They heard Me and obeyed Me and he, who listens to Me, hears and wants to hear Me and the one who hears Me speaks with Me. Amen. The one who hears Me is the one who does not hide from My speaking with him. I liken the one who hears Me to My word on earth, for he who hears Me speaks with Me and then he testifies.

Man, I call you with great longing to the spring of My mouth in order to get you used to the beginning, when it was the communication between Me and man. Come with Me to your beginning! Come to Me to teach you and to speak with you and you with Me! Come, for I come back to you, I come back after you from Paradise, the country, which I gave you as your bed, to you and to Me, to be with you and you with Me, so that where I am you may be also, and that where you are, I to be also. What use is your mind to understand Me with it if you do not come back then to the communication between Me and you? You cannot hide, but you still hide. You are not afraid of Me but you are afraid though, for your sin makes you not to fear and you hide with it because you are afraid. Love and fear of God, these can make you again, man, and they can give you to Me, by their power for Me. Amen. When the fear of God does not come from the love of God, then it hides the man from Me, and when the love of God is its spring, then it is the one, which does not separate the man from God and God from man. Amen.

On the second day of the celebration I comfort you again, you, those that are gathered together at the mouth of My spring of word. Take of My grace and put it in you, to be able to love Me with your grace from your nature, and for Me to be able to take from you. I stay with heavenly hosts above the garden of My meeting with you. I have called you to speak with you, and you with Me. Sing the doina of My wedding with My bride taken out of the Romanians, with My bride people, a people prepared by Me for My coming. The Romanian language is sweet to Me, and I have made it into God's language at the end of the time, for I speak again over the earth into the language of the Romanian people, My New Israel, My New Jerusalem, for I wrote through the prophets into the Scriptures, I wrote that I would chose Jerusalem again from among the nations of the earth, because Israel, with which I worked at the beginning, completely abandoned Me two thousand years ago, and I chose nothing of him but only a very small remnant, which was saved then by faith, on My coming from the heavenly Father and from My mother, the Virgin, on earth. Sing the songs of the wedding to Me, for I come into the people's way with a heavenly wedding, with wedding days between Me and My little bride, the people of My word, taken out of the Romanians. There is still one hour and I come visibly, and My glory on that day will be with comfort for some of them and for many with wrath, for the man has lost his communication with God and he does no longer come to his senses to come back to his beginning.

Bring glory to the Lord. Sing a new song to the Lord. Praise His name in a hora<sup>167</sup>, and sing to Him with tambourines and with psalteries. Praise Him with the sound of a trumpet and flute. Praise to the Lord with harps and organs, with loudly sounding cymbals, praise him with resounding cymbals, so that every breath may hear and praise the Lord! Amen.

I have called you and you have come. I give you My word as your reward, and I lay a wedding table and I give you the forgiveness of your sins if you leave them and they leave you. And if you do not leave them, I will ask you as I know and then I will take away the evil from you, for what is not possible with man is possible with Me, for here I am, after two thousand years from My coming in flesh and word on earth, to put back to its place the communication between Me and man, the mystery hidden from the beginning for the end of the time. Amen.

Oh, My bride people give to the man My word upon you, when I speak with it from the garden of My word. Give to the man My calling after him. Give, son, to the man, give what I gave you when I took you from the world and I made you My people from My coming.

Oh, sons of the people, I have the manger of My word on this little patch of land. This little village is My Bethlehem of today, for I made My manger in it and I am being born as word in this manger and I become food for all those who try to come to the beginning, to My mystery from Paradise, when I was speaking with the man and the man with Me. You should not believe that if you make prayers to Me for you and for your people, you will make your returning to the mystery of the speaking between Me and man. First I spoke with the man and then the man spoke with Me. When the man speaks with the Lord, it does not mean speaking with God, when the Lord does not speak with the man, too. My speaking during this time is a sweet voice, in order to draw the man to Me and then to give him back what he has lost, for the man lost his communication between him and God. Blessed will be you, who are called to the Lamb's wedding, if you do not forget His voice, which called you and still calls you to the wedding, if you do not hide. The man cannot hide, but he still hides, because it has come to his nature to commit this sin, which is to flee from God because of the sin he hides with. Oh, where shall the man hide? He wants to forget that I am and I see, and this means hiding, and what the man does is sin. However, I have come on earth as word and I come into the man's way and I call him towards his beginning.

Man, come to drink of the river of life! Come and wash your face, your body and your spirit! Come, for I come and I stay into your way to make you again and to give you back to the Father to show Him My work, My labor, looking for the man for seven thousand years.

Oh, sons, anointed with My new anointment at the end of the time! Sprinkle with the water worked by Me through you all those who have come to the spring, to remain as a mark on them that they have come and drunk. I, the Lord, with the heavenly servants, will come into their way to help them, to rebuke them, reminding them of My voice, which calls the man to life. I have put at the gates the laws of the gardens of My meeting with the man, and blessed is the man who will put them on him in all his time until to My coming.

---

You, those who came to the spring! You, those who have come in to My wedding table in the garden of the meeting! Let the holy laws of My gardens on earth hold on to you. I teach you, for I am the Teacher. I teach you and I do not rebuke you if you do not listen, for each one will receive his reward. It will be that I will come visibly, soon, soon, and I want to find the man after My will when I come, for then it will be the Scripture, which says: «He who is holy, let him be holy still, and he who is filthy, let him be filthy still, and each one will be judged according to his own work, for I have not come to judge the world, but I have come to save it instead». Amen.

Now, again, peace to you! Peace to you, those who have come to the spring! And if you are unfaithful, let My peace come back in Me. I release your steps to your earnings, but do not forget that I am everything the man may truly have. Amen.

I bless you; children of My people, for you have labored so much for the Lamb's wedding. Each wedding needs preparation, let alone My wedding with you! I strengthen you. Strengthen yourselves through My holiness in you, for it is My rest in man. Peace to you, tired sons! Amen.

And I also tell those who came to the spring: peace to you if you will become holy for Me! I give you thanks, those who have sung the songs of the wedding, and I ask you to get used to the wedding of the heavenly Bridegroom, for the man cannot serve both God and satan. Oh, do not worry about what you will eat or dress with. The money earned for living, the money taken from idolatry services keeps you slaves under it, for your body asks from you, but the body is made by God to be the dwelling of the Holy Spirit. Do not forget what I have told you, and get out of the things of the world and walk through it to the holy things in you and give to the world what is God's, and I will be your help now, and then forever. Amen.

I want to draw many of those that are called into the boat of salvation, oh, people of My word! We have to labor for the man for one more hour still and then I will save the man from his sin, and the sin from the man, and many will be whitened and cleansed, as it is written. We release them now to their houses, and as for you, be always, always, My house, My inn, where I often stay with the man to give him to drink of the wine of My wedding, and I will reward you, those that are My saints. Blessed are you that work for Me and not for you! Oh, only if the man wanted to do so on earth, too, to find him doing so, at My coming!

Peace to you, little garden of heavenly fragrances above you! The saints and angels make a halt above you. The spirit of My wedding celebration enshrouds you within a new garment of celebration, oh, little garden of My meeting with the man! The Holy Spirit hovers in your sky, and you are the bed of the wedding of the heavenly Lamb. The heaven and the earth embrace each other in you under the glory of My word, which walks in your land in days of wedding, a new heaven and a new earth on your land.

My speaking is sweet; it is sweet upon the man and I offer it to him to give back to the man what he has lost, and to give him back, the communication between God and man, the mystery kept hidden for the end of the time here and now. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of Saint John, the evangelist

You need much teaching, Jerusalem. I would lift you up in the clouds, for it is hard on earth. I would show you more, those from above and from them those that are below, for the time of My Scriptures in your days is long, and you are still very little, My people. You need much teaching, for you are very little, Jerusalem, and you do not know to teach yourself, and I would teach you, and I would teach you from dawn to dawn, to protect you under My teaching and to let you know through it about My work and your work, and to protect you from dawn to dawn, My people.

The man needs much teaching on earth, Jerusalem. The resurrection from the dead is coming near, and the man on the earth has always been hiding from My coming, and I have to let the earth know that I come to fulfill My Scriptures for this time, and to speak of them once again, so that you may also know them, and for the man on earth to know them as well, My people. I am in heavenly counsel into your midst, speaking from the Scriptures, that the man does no longer want to believe and then to wait for them. However, I am word on earth into your midst, and I speak with you, and I give My speaking with you to the man on earth, so that he may know that I am wrapped up in the word on earth, and I prepare My coming down with the saints, for I come with them in tens of thousands, as it is written. Amen.

I teach you to make your little pillow of My word upon you and to worship it when you go to bed and when you get up, when you are sleepy and when you are awake, for I can no longer without you and I have no peace when I see the Scriptures for this time, when I see how the saints get up for My coming, and when I see that the angels of My coming are ready to sound their trumpets for the raising of the dead for the day of My coming, My people.

I would lift you up in the clouds, for it is hard on earth and I have no place where to set My foot on the establishment that I have built. I have looked with immeasurable mourning at what the man has done on earth, for he has erected houses for himself and he still erects houses all over, and the man writes My name on them and I cannot enter them with My teaching, for there is too much riot and too much vainglory and even the rebuke cannot make its way to repentance, and the man of lawlessness makes his house and hides in it with his glory from his haughtiness, and with his glory from the man without learning, and I have no room where to set My foot because of so much debauchery on earth, and because of so much haughtiness in man, My people.

I have nothing else to do to the man but My coming. However, I do not want him to tell Me that He did not know about it, for I am a just God, and even from eternity I have done nothing until I have spoken first with My Father, and then until I have spoken first with the man. The man of today tries to forget My speaking with the man, but I have always spoken with the man, always on earth, and the earth has not been without God on it, and the earth has not been without man on it since I, the Lord, made the man, created by My hand, looking at Myself, so that I may make him, the same way as a skilful man looks at someone else to make a body in his image. Oh, it is too much debauchery in man that I could be able to make a making out of the man! However, I can speak over the man to make him out of word, and then to make him out of his body, and it is very hard for My making on earth over the man, because I have no place to set My foot and to stay on the bed and to teach the crowds to come to Me, to come to water, and then for Me to come with water into the man's way, for the man does no longer know what man means. I complain to you with mourning, My people, for the man does no longer know what man means, and I come and I keep coming with My coming, and I do no longer find any man on earth, for there is no more faith, My people. I want to make the man out of faith; out of preaching and faith; out of the spirit of repentance and the spirit of prophecy, and then of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Any man needs his tool when he works, when he does what he does. This is how I need you, Israel of today. I need you to be in My image and after My likeness, and you always need the Lord upon you, My teaching always, always, My people, so that I may see Myself with it in you, and for the man to look at you and to see God and to make him with My word upon you, for My word builds the man, and the man cannot be built for Me but only with My word. Amen.

I will destroy all, all the falsehood on earth, all man's making, which deceives the man so that he may not look at the Creator of the heaven, the earth and the man. I have so much mercy on the man. The man does not know what man means, but I, the Lord and Creator, have My way of making upon you, My people, and I want you to get used to My making and I want you to learn it and only the Holy Spirit to be your tool to teach you what the making is, My people. I have always, always been teaching you and that is why you have come to know. I have been teaching you not to look after Me anywhere, for I have been waiting near you and in you, and I have told you that My kingdom is in you, only to keep it and work it, as I told the man, built by My hand. I have been teaching you to be, and I will still teach you until you will be sufficiently enough to be able to tell Me: "I am Who I am". Amen, amen, amen.

I come, My people, into your book with Me, with the one that I have loved so much and with whom I spoke after My ascension to the Father, about the time of My coming from now.

Oh, sons who receive My word, John, the one whom I loved so much, is always, always so close to you, and his spirit is in My Spirit, when I speak to you and over the earth. He gives you so much love that you hardly can bear, for I cannot tell you how much I loved him, and the same way I love you as well, and he also loves you likewise, for he has been waiting for My coming of today in word for a long time, because I told him that once again he will speak on earth. He stays in your pains and turns them into joys, and with his little hands, He has always filled you with blessings and comforts, for your way with Me is hard, and He stays with you under the cross and he does not leave you, as he also did not leave Me, for he was a very sweet son, and this is how he is now from near you, for his mystery is great in him, and he is called the mystery of My love in man. I have given you as much love in you as I gave him. I have loved you as much as I loved him and I have taken you in My love, for you had stayed and stay near My pain for a long time, and with it in you, and you have passed a lot through it, and it has also passed through you, as all of My pains were passing through his little heart, full of love for Me. I was his life. I was burning in him with My love in his love and he was the mystery of love. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, good Lord, good Teacher! What shall I do for the man to inherit Your life as I have inherited it? What shall I do for the man to inherit the life without death as I have received it from You? Oh, what shall I do? I burn with longing after the man with Your burning and I stay in those that are not seen and I burn near Your people and I burn in those that are from Your word on Israel on Your behalf. I stay in those that are not seen and comfort them and give them of my life and of my heart, for they pass through sufferance, which makes them beautiful, and so beautiful, Lord! He, who is with them, takes after them and receives of their spirit put by us in them. But most I tell those near them to take of the spirit of humility, so that You may have for them angels near them, and they to be the body of the angels, for Your little and good angels stay together with them and do their work of love and watch for them and for all of Your people, Lord. And I speak to Your people near them as I was speaking to those whom I loved, two thousand years ago, teaching them the mystery of love, and I tell them this:

You, loved ones, live in love and take courage for them and for you and for us with you before the Lord, for I then said: «If our heart does not condemn us, we have boldness toward God, and whatever we ask, we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do the things that are pleasing in His sight». (1 John 3:21, 22) Let us remain in His Spirit, for by this we know that He remains in us, from the Spirit, Whom He has given us, that we do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God, because the deception and the man on earth are so big on earth, my beloved. And by this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit who confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, and every spirit who does not confess Jesus Christ, is not from God, and this is the spirit of the antichrist, and those are from the world, and that is why they speak as from the world, and the world listens to them. But we are from God and he who knows Him listens to us, and we have to love one another, and He remains in us and His love in us is perfect.

Oh, you should tell to the sanctified people by the Lord, that it is because He has given us of His Spirit, that is why we know that we remain in Him and He remains in us, and we have known and believed His love that He has got for us. He is love and the one who remains in love, remains in Him and He remains in that one. Amen.

Oh, the one who hates his neighbor and says that he loves God, Whom he does not see, is a liar! If he does not love his neighbor, whom he sees, how can he love God, Whom is not seen? And He gave us a commandment and said: «He who loves God should love his neighbor as well». Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem, oh, loved ones, he who believes in Him has the word of the Father, Who has confessed His Son, and he who believes in His Son has this testimony in himself. Oh, beloved, he who does not believe in His word, which is with you, that one does not believe in God, and made Him a liar, because He did not believe in the Father's testimony for His Son. And the testimony is that God gave us eternal life and this life is His Son. This is what I tell you to know that you have eternal life; and our trust in Him is that whatever we may ask according to His will, He listens to us, and fulfills all our requests, which we have asked from Him. Amen.

Oh, beloved, pass out of your bodies into your spirit for this is what I have also done. Pass through again and again, to see those that are not seen, and those that are seen by the man. Pass out of your bodies into your spirit but with the Lord, for He has taught you how He receives you, and He said: «One who does not enter by the door into the sheep fold, but climbs up some other way, the one is a thief and a robber, but one who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. And whenever he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them, and then the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. They will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from him; for they do not know the voice of strangers». (John 10:1-5)

Oh, how beautifully you have to understand all the things of the Lord, and you should not forget them then, beloved! Oh, how beautifully I was teaching the Christians of that time, on whom I had been doing the work of the kingdom of the heavens, saying to them this: «Whoever does not work out justice and does not love his neighbor is not from God, and by this we know the sons of God and the sons of the devil». And we speak to them again: «Let us not love in word only, but in deed and truth, and by this we know that we are of the truth and find rest in our hearts before the Lord, because if our hearts do not condemn us, whatever we ask, we receive from Him, because we do the things that are pleasing to Him». (1 John 3:18-22)

Put your hope in the Lord, for whoever puts his hope in Him, that one purifies himself, even as the Lord is pure. Oh, it is not because you do not know the truth that I speak again to you of these, but because you do know it and you know that no lie comes from the truth. Oh, what you have heard from the beginning has to remain in you, so that you also may remain in the Son and in the Father. And the anointing, which you have from Him into your midst, teaches you concerning all things, and you do not need for anyone to teach you, for this is true, and is no lie. Oh, remain in Him, that when He appears, we may have boldness and not be ashamed before Him at His coming. Amen.

And now, this is what I speak to the sons of the people and to those who pretend to be God's sons: do not love the world, neither the things that are in the world, for if anyone loves the world, the Father's love is not in him, for all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not the Father's but is the world's, and the world is passing away, but those who do God's will remain forever. Amen.

Oh, beloved, how much love I have for you! I would always sit with the Lord near you and I would speak to the people, for the Lord told me that I will speak again to the peoples, to the nations and to many kings. And as for you, pass out of your bodies into the spirit, for great is the mystery of love, and there is nothing from God on earth. But you should pass out of your bodies into your spirit into the midst of the sons of the people and be consumed within you in the mystery of love. Amen.

Oh, I stay within those that are not seen and I comfort them and give them of my life and of my heart, for they pass through sufferance, and this makes them beautiful and so beautiful, Lord! Whoever is with them resembles them and takes from their spirit put in them by us. They are consumed with longing in the midst of Your people that has Your anointing in his midst, which teaches them everything. However, I mostly speak to those near them, near those that have Your anointing, which teaches them from the midst, to take of the spirit of their humility, so that You may have angels for them near them for the work of the love and wakefulness for them. Amen.

Lord, I have comforted them, I have taught Israel and I have also given to the sons of the people, who have their own languages and their own kings. And if You are well pleased, I, the one who did not put off my body, for this is what You were pleased with, when You left to hide in the Father, I would come to make it clear, as it is written about the times now, so that You may be seen visibly with Your people before those who believe and before those who do not believe Your mysterious word, which is coming with the clouds, as it is written about your coming. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, what a great comfort you gave Me, child of My love, John, My disciple and My inseparable disciple! When you were seen by the people and by the disciples, you stayed both with them and with Me, and now we are embraced and no one on earth knows your mystery, the mystery of My love in you. You brought comfort to Me from them in Me, for the kingdom of those who have Me as word now on earth, standing before Me when I come, their kingdom is in Me, and I carry them within it. I with My kingdom in them and they with their kingdom in Me. They are pierced by pains but they are My chosen and I glorify Myself in them with the glory of My word, and I give to My people of My Spirit and of their spirit.

When you had visibly lived in your body among those that were loved, you were teaching them the love and the longing after Me, and for two thousand years you have been teaching those that are like Me and like you, for those that have to have more, because those that do not have, do not receive and do not have. Many hearts ate with their heart in them the love and the longing after the things from heaven more than the bread for their living, and they fed on the word of life given on earth through you, those who were My disciples then. But now I have released the river of life, which I showed to you two thousand years ago, that it would be now, and there is no man on earth to understand the mystery of this love, which flows from God's throne, the Word. And now you are My love on earth, and you flow from Me over the sons of love, and the love has its own partners, and it comforts them, for they go through the pains, which make them beautiful, and so beautiful! Amen.

Oh, My people, I stand into your midst and I teach you from your midst, for I have My anointing over those who teach you from Me, to know and to have, My people. Stay uncovered before the One Who sees from heaven and from the earth, for I am the One Who is and Who sees, My great people, and My small people.

Oh, and because I speak like a man, so that I may not weaken the man in him, you should not say that I do not know, or that I do not see, or that I do not hear. I, the Lord, keep away from the guilt in the man, but I come close to the man, who brings his guilt into the light, the guilt kept in him by the darkness in him, by his judgment against his brother. Whoever wants to get rid of his inner guilt should not judge his neighbor and God unjustly, and then he will be resurrected forever and ever. Amen.

However I tell you: love one another as I have loved you. I have taught you to ask for forgiveness from Me for your wrongdoings, then when you forgive those who have wronged you, and I told you that this prayer is for the disciples, not for the world.

Oh, My people, let those things that are great in heaven not die for those that are small on earth, for the small causes, which appear now and then among you, because of the devil's envy, who was evil from the beginning.

Oh, My people, the mystery of love is your work from now and until My coming. It lifts you above yourself and you see like God when it keeps you in it; and I am love, My people; I am gentleness and love. I am your way to Me for you, because it is written: «We will be like Him, for we will see Him». This is what My disciple said; the disciple, whom I loved and made since then the mystery of My love between earth and heaven, and I hid him in it in the midst of those who love Me like him on earth. Amen.

I embrace you into My heart, which is your kingdom. Your kingdom is in Me, My people Jerusalem, and you live in Me, to be like Me and to see Me and that I may see you, too, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the devout Parascheva

Oh, My Romanian Jerusalem people! I, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, am in the Father when I speak to you, and My Father is in Me when I am with you word on the earth. I wait to speak to you again from speaking to speaking, for My work is word, and when I do not speak to you, My work is stopped, Jerusalem, wanted by those in heaven and by many on earth. The heaven drinks in My word, in which I spend together with you on earth in your days, as a consumed waiting, which becomes appetite and then food, when the waiting is passing, because it is drunk in too, to be the word after it, drunk in and eaten in hunger, My people. My word upon you makes you desirable on earth by many, Jerusalem, and when these receive it from you are extremely joyous because of Me, the One Who give Myself as food for the soul burnt with thirst and hunger in these days in which the Lord on earth is in great trouble; as great as there has never been from the beginning of creation, which God made, and there will never be.

There has come the time of My love and I want to love My bride. My word upon you weaves your garment, My bride people, and from now on I want to teach you the love between the Bridegroom and the bride, Jerusalem. He, who does not want to be beautiful in you, that one does not want to come in under the bride garment, for this is only one, and it comprises you all within its mystery, children comforted by God. Amen.

Here you are at the school of the love between Bridegroom and bride. I want that the news may be spread among the angels, that you give a teaching with a teacher, with the Spirit of the Lord, the One Who teaches you through those that have Him among you. Oh, sons, when the Spirit of the Lord is among you, teaching you to be like Him, you should pass from glory to glory, as from the Spirit of the Lord, as it is written into the Scriptures by those who learn from Me among the worthy disciples upon you.

The saints, who carried My love in them, sit at your table and take of My food with you and take of the food among you, for the food among you is sweet, and you are too, sons. Oh, I always teach you saying: when you come together to eat, wait for one another so that there may not remain someone of you burned with thirst or hungry.

Oh, My people, the saints embrace you in their love, for love has its partners and it comforts them. The mystery of love is your work from now on and until My coming. This is what I have told you. It lifts you up above you and you see like God when it keeps you in it. Your kingdom is inside Me; this is what I have told you; to get used to feeling your experienced live in Me, and I in you, so that you may be like Me, My people. I have taught you through My beloved John, that he is the mystery of My love in man. I have taught you and I will teach you again through him soon, soon. But you should always have a heavenly living on you, because the saints come together with you at the table and enjoy receiving their reward of My love in them in their time on the earth.

Here you are at a sweet school again, sons. I have put upon you hearts that are tested in furnace, and I pour out Myself in them for you. But be careful, and be only eyes and ears, as I ask you through them, because the love and its work are great mystery. Be careful for there is no fear in love if it is perfect. Nothing can forgive the man more than love, which is in the man who has it. I am a just God, but I cannot refuse love anything, because it becomes God in man and loves and forgives the man from its place, only for the man to be clean himself, sons, and those that come from his outside cannot overcome the man. Amen.

I sit at the table with you and with My saints with whom I come to you so that a table with saints may be with you. I am with hosts of saints, for this is how I am between earth and heaven when I come to you as word.

The devout Parascheva<sup>168</sup> gives herself to you from the host of the devout people, a small word to the joy of her holy spirit in her time on earth, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, My Lord and My God, the Bridegroom of those who love You on earth and in heaven! Their love, when it is You, the saints want You when they see You in their midst loving in them and from them, and the saints want the table of Your love among them, gentle and good Lord. I am praying in heaven before You and before Your Father, for this is the work of the saints near Your unseen glory. Sanctify them with Your truth. Teach them not to leave at random before You, for they love Your time with them in the midst of the people and are very great to those that have loved You within the greatness of their soul, far from the temptations, which come from the world, Lord. There is no greater love in man for You than the love, which loves cleanly and hotly from the midst of the people, Lord.

Your first love among the people was with Your apostles, who gave You abundantly to many by signs and miracles for the faith in You of many in their time after Your ascending to the Father and after You fulfilled the mystery of Your love for the man on the earth, Your death and resurrection for each man. And now, great Lord, it is the time of the third love, and it is crowning its mystery.

Your second love among the people was the love of Your saints on earth for a time of one thousand years and then again, one thousand years more, the love of the saints, which was given to You through its burnt offering in their holy body on earth among the people or outside them, as I also lived devoutly in wilderness to give You my love, Lord, because I loved You totally and I loved You as a bride loves and I did not want to be separated from You in a place without people around me, Lord of the saints.

Two times one thousand years, the saints on the earth loved You, after You came and became man from God, to bring love to the people, and its saving mystery, for after the man got lost his own self from You, You and Your Father in You, You came Yourself in all manners of ways through the prophets and angels to turn the man back to You so that he may be again Your man, Lord; and You have been consumed in those that You have entered with Your mystery in man, and You have been working calling him, and then You have come Yourself and turned from God into man, to leave Your love among the people, which has pulled the man back into You. And You made John into the mystery of Your love in man and showed it through him, and then it was through him that again You let the mystery of Your love on the earth, the one at the end of the time in man, the mystery of Your coming after two thousand years of the love of Your saints on the earth, for the saints loved You much into the midst of the people and in places not travelled by people, Lord of Your saints. No one knows that You belong to the saints. All people know that You belong to everyone, but this is not true, because You are love and love makes love and it has its own partners, Lord loved by the saints.

And now it is the time of the third love, and it is crowning its mystery: the love at the end of the time, which is the reward of those who loved on earth with Your love, loving You with a burning longing, for the longing makes longing, because You have been carrying in Your being the longing after the man for seven thousand years. Your being is hidden now in those that carry You as word between heaven and earth, for it is the time of the third love, and it has its own ones, and You glorify Yourself in them with the glory of Your word, with this table of wedding, and at which Your saints sat, those who died and came back to life once with Your resurrection, and again, once again and once again, according to Your plan set for the kingdom of the saints on earth.

When the saints look at Your plan with them, the one in Your hand, they rejoice seeing Your balance in Your hand, for now You are finishing to build, for every man, Your kingdom and its holy temple in Your resurrected body, which carries in it the tens of thousands of Your saints, for who is on earth that can comprise the mystery of Your love if You do not open his mind and then his heart, with Your word of resurrection of those who are dead? For behold, the dead, big and small, hear Your word of their resurrection, as it is written in Your book by John, but those who are alive in their bodies are caught in the race of the death and You do no longer know how to struggle to get clear of them and to have them for life, Lord. And now it is the time of the third love, and this crowns its mystery for the saints, and the saints stand to see its glory, and Your people of today, out of Romanians, is Your glory of today. And I am in my body on the Romanian land and I am a testimony of Your love in me, and my love in You in the midst of the Romanian people, a holy people through Your saints in their midst. Amen.

Oh, people of the Lord now, at the end of the time! The saints from heaven receive blessing on earth in your midst. The saints bow under the hand of your anointing in your midst for the blessing of this time of love. And as for you, be refreshed from glory to glory and stay under the hand blessed by the Lord into your midst and take from it and get rich in grace and pour it out on earth then, for it is your time, the time of the third love, which crowns the mystery of God's love for the man. Get up and sing of your time and its love, for your grace is great, because you are the small one from the end of the time, and you are carried on arms by the saints and on the wings of the angels, from glory to glory, and you have to be as great as the Lord's glory upon you, and you have to be as great as the heaven on earth, the visible heaven, so that the man may come to the salvation spring and to find his Father, for the man lost his Father. Amen, amen, amen.

— And I am the Son of the Father, and the Father is in Me, and I am the kingdom of My saints, and I am your kingdom in Me, and I am My kingdom in you, oh, saints of the holy heaven!

Behold the time of the third love, My people. Oh, Jerusalem at the end of the time, I have been waiting from speaking to speaking to speak to you again, for My work is the word, and when I do not speak to you, My work is stopped. My word on you makes you be wanted by many in heaven and on earth, My people. The time of the third love has come. Here you are, at its school with teachers tested by Me and by you, and I pour Myself out in them for you. Be careful with them, for in love there is no fear if it is perfect. I am the God of the righteous and of justice, through the faith of My righteous ones, but I cannot refuse My love in man anything, because it becomes God in man and it loves and forgives the man from its place, only for the man to be clean from his own self, for those outside of him cannot overcome him. Amen. The one who is cleaned from his own self is full of Me and I stay in him with My kingdom and I give Myself to those who want Me and I give Myself, teaching the man to have Me. Blessed are those who want to receive Me as I give Myself to them, for nothing in heaven is useful to the man if he does not know to use those from heaven for himself and for those around him.

Oh, loved people, it is the time of the third love, and the mystery of My love in man has been perfected near you, and you should know how to carry it, My people. It carries you and you should want to know and to carry it, Jerusalem of My coming now, at the end of the time and at the beginning of the time. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the holy martyr Demetrius<sup>169</sup>, the myrrh-streamer

I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am full of longing to speak on earth; I am full of this longing, My people. I have been longing for seven thousand years to have a wholly faithful people to speak and to spend with it in word. My Father called Me Word, the God Word, the Son of the Father Sabaoth. Amen, amen, amen.

I come together with you for I am full of longing to speak into your midst, little Jerusalem, and I tell you painfully that I miss the joys with you on earth, and the saints miss them as well, My people. The word between Me and Father is with great pain, and this pain is long, and that is why I miss the joys and I miss you, My people. I have been waiting for the saints to come together in

Me for My descending to you to let My word and to relieve Myself from it, for My word is without end and I hardly carry it to put it on earth and to be relieved from it.

There has remained many a word between Father and I, between saints and I, between angels before My Father and I, and its making is coming from the earth, and I have been waiting for seven thousand years to have a wholly faithful people to let My word in its midst and to be relieved from it, for I have hardly been carrying it, My people. Since I made My trumpet for My coming in 1955, I have been working to make Me a people where to come as word on it on earth and I have always said: "Will this people be faithful so that I, the Lord, may be able to work upon it on earth?" And since then I have been longing again and again to have a people on earth only and only for Me and for them to be able to work as I work, with Me and as much as I work on the earth. Since then I have always been longing, My people. Oh, I did not make the man only for the sake of making him. Who shall understand My word as much as I want it to be understood? I did not make the man only for the sake of making him. I made him so that I may be able to work in him with My word and with My rest. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, My people, I come near to you so that you may embrace Me at your bosom, because it is for that that I made the man. I am all a comfort and no one among the people knows well that the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are comfort, and that I made the man out of this spirit. But when We were about to put it in the man too, to have the comfort embodied in him for Us, the man has kept it for himself and left Us without him, and then without it. However, it is out of this spirit of comfort, that we have shaken again upon the earth and he on whom it has fallen has become Our comfort, for he has heard Us then and has taken Us with mercy at his bosom and comforted Us telling to the man on the earth about Our pain from the man and after the man.

Oh, My people, I feverishly come near to you and I am devoid of comfort, for you to embrace Me at your bosom and to let My being flow over you and to feel it embracing you and that I may feel you embracing Me, for the time of the third love has come, and the mystery of My love in man is being perfected from near you, only for you to know it and to take it and to carry it from abundance, as it carries you, My little and tiny people. Oh, you should become a bowl of My comfort and to give Me to drink of it. Amen.

Now I am full of the longing of the saints for you, Jerusalem of today. The martyr, celebrated today in heaven and on earth by saints and people, became in the time of his body a spring of comfort for God. Martyr Demetrius, the one gathered under his sufferings from the man for his way with Me, loved Me greatly, My people, and carried Me as great as I am in his bosom, and I have become then a spring of eternal comfort out of his body, which became divine on earth among the people. I was giving Myself from him with My comfort and My power to all who saw Me in him and wanted Me. I was giving Myself from him because I am all a comfort, My people. However, he becomes comfort on you, for in this way are those that are, and who have Me as great as I am in them. Amen, amen, amen.

— You, Lord, Father, Son and the Holy Spirit, are all a comfort and this is what I also wanted to be and then I was so. Oh, no one among the people knows enough that You are comfort and that out of this spirit You made the man, but the man has come for a stop for himself, and You have remained in pain. However, You shook then out of this spirit of comfort and spoke through Moses and prophets so that the man might feel You and take You in his bosom and to let You make him, for You are the Creator, Lord. The spirit of comfort has fallen upon me as well and then I became Your comfort and Your power on earth among the people, and I gave of the spirit of comfort to the wholly faithful ones, and they confessed You wholly, and the testimony is Your comfort from the man. I became as sweet as You are, for I loved you that much as to be enough for You, and that much for me as to get to You, and this is how I stayed in the time of Your confession through me, Your martyr. In my time the man, who loved You as much as I did, could be nothing but a martyr. Then I was also martyred and I sent martyrs to You and I let the faith in You over many behind and then I took my rest. But now, when You descended and descend with the hosts of the saints, carried by the angels of the glory of Your descending, unseen by the human eyes, now I become the spirit of comfort of which I was born for You and I give myself to Your people. Amen.

I give myself to you as I also was made by the Lord and as I am, the people of His coming with His saints. I gather near you with the saints, who accompany me in tens of thousands, and speak from their midst upon you and I become spirit of comfort in you for the saints, for you do not know the condition of the saints, who do no longer have rest since the Lord made a people out of the Romanians, longing since then after a wholly faithful people, to make His descending and coming fully through it, and then the glory of His coming. I give you of the spirit of heavenly comforts and I give you power to want and to be the glory of His coming, to be the cherubim cradle for His coming and for the resurrection of the dead, who has been waiting sighing for such a long time for the promise for the life of the age to come, people descending from heaven. Oh, if you are not descended from heaven, then you are not. If you did not ascend into heaven in order then to come down on earth and then to be, then you are not. I speak this way because this is what I did, and this is what I was and this is the way I am. And behold, I ascended into heaven and I descend on earth to you, for this is how the saints of the Lord are on earth and in heaven. I speak to you from the spirit of the comfort and I caress you to be a comforting child and to comfort the Lord and to embrace Him at your bosom. He is comfort and out of this spirit He made the man, and this man has to be if he is made by God.

Oh, loved people by the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit and by His saints, and by His angels! You should be a people coming down from heaven and this is how you should live on earth, for the time of the third love has come and it will be for you to know it and to be in it. Many a word has remained between Father and Son and does not come on earth. This word is made from the earth not from heaven, and the counsel between Father and Son in the midst of the saints is great and is much counsel; it is a spring of tear as much as the river, for the word, which remains unspoken, becomes tear between the Father and the Son in the midst of the saints, little and tiny people and still inexperienced for those that are not seen. The saints have love in abundance to give you to carry between earth and heaven and for you to be the body of the saints' love and the spirit of comfort to each other, the Lord from one in another working in your midst, people of the Lord's coming. The saints desire His coming on the earth and the fulfillment of the Scriptures of New Jerusalem coming down from heaven, from God, according to the Scriptures, which says this.

Get dressed and let yourself be clothed with the spirit of comfort, for the Lord is comfort and you should be useful to God, little and tiny people. I am the sweet smelling myrrh streamer on the earth now, and you should be pleased to God up to heaven having the word of life spring from you fully, my love between Bridegroom and bride, the Lord with you, for it is the time of the third love and the Lord will become perfect in His coming to you, the earth to know and see that He redeems a loved people from among the people, and that He will make His coming perfect. Amen.

And now, beloved Lord, receive my gift for I am gifted from You with this sweet smelling myrrh, the one on earth sprung from my body. Receive my gift and pour it out on this people of Yours and make a miracle of Holy Spirit, for the people hardly believes that You are this word and this coming of Yours to them, because the people forget that You said that the wind blows wherever it wants and You do the same with Your Holy Spirit and speaking over the earth. Oh, if those, who feel and call themselves great in their wisdom for You, knew how to perceive You and to read well in the Scriptures and to put them on them as You want, and not as they want, then You would touch their eyes, their spirit and they would understand the mystery of the river of life; they would understand that the word about God is one thing and the word of God is another thing; they would understand that You are always today and that it is in this way that You work if You have a wholly faithful people.

There is no man who boasts about You and on Your behalf (Priests and all kinds of "shepherds", r.n.) and not miss the ripeness of the mind, which You wait from the man's faith, for the man receives Your face, as he says, and when he is to show his face to You, not only to preach it to the people, he becomes a liar, for the man is not like You, Lord.

Oh, let us adorn Your good and faithful people with all the graces of Your coming to him on earth, for Your word was great, the word You told to Your disciples when You ascended to the Father, saying to them: «I am with you to the end of the ages, and the Holy Spirit, the Comforter will take from what is Mine and will tell you all that are Mine».

The dead wait for Your coming, Lord, and when the proud man on Your name says that You do not come, he becomes a great pain upon those that are asleep who wait so much for the day of the resurrection of the dead and for the life, which is to be. They stay and listen to Your voice in these days and get ready for their resurrection at Your voice, because You said: «those from the graves will hear the voice of the Son of God and will come to life». Amen.

Come, Lord, with us on the earth and become comfort for those who wait for You to come, for there is no one else who waits for You to come anymore, and no one believes that it will be for You to come as You said through the Scriptures. Soon, soon, all the nations of the people will see You from the earth coming with great power and with much glory and they will try to hide in terror, as You said, but Your coming is as sure as the coming of the dawn, for Your word, then and now, is the truth, Lord, and You will make glad those that wait for you to come. Amen, amen, amen.

— I, the Lord, am comfort, My people. I would like to be the comfort of the man, but the man does not want and does not know what God is and how His comfort is. Oh, My people, the man thinks that he is truer than I am, even if he says that he believes Me and seeks and loves Me and lives Me through His love for Me and through His faith, with which he comforts himself and not Me. Behold My great pain: the man thinks that he is truer than Me, because I stay invisible, and the man has taught himself not to see Me and does not want to see Me. He covers himself with the Scripture, which says that the man cannot see Me and still remain alive. He forgets that I came among the people and that these saw Me and knew Me that I was God, and they confessed Me and preached God to the world, who became flesh among the people. He forgets that I said that I will be with those of Mine to the end of the age and that I will dine with them and I will appear to them. Oh, My people, the man restricts My word spoken by Me, then and now, and he does not want to be true by My word and by his word, by which he speaks that he waits for Me and that it will be again to judge the living and the dead and that he waits for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the age to be.

Oh, My people, I come near you so that you may keep Me tight at your bosom, for no one does this anymore. I am full of longing to speak on earth, for the Father named Me God, the Word, and I tell you in pain that I miss the joys with you on earth and My visible coming on earth. I come close to you feverishly and devoid of comfort, to take Me to your bosom and to let My being flow upon you and to feel it embracing you, to feel you embracing Me, and to be the cup of My comfort and to give Me to drink of it, My child of today, My people rich in grace. Amen, amen, amen.

The synod of the saint archangels, Michael and Gabriel

The archangel Michael sounds his trumpet for the gathering of the angels, My people. He is My angel, the angel of the Lord, and he is the angel of My people. He sounds his trumpet for the angelic celebration that I with the angels, with the saints and with My people settle on earth, for the Lord to speak from heaven and the living and the dead to hear, and all and everything to rejoice on earth, with the heaven and with the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The heaven is coming down on earth, My people. I am brought near to you within a great glory by the angels. We stay face to face with you, Jerusalem, people of the Lord. The angels stay and look at you avidly and you know how you are to be seen by those in heaven and by those on earth, for you have to be My glory, the glory of My coming, the glory of the Lord on His second coming. Amen.

Now I have to give much and heavenly help to be able to seal with a seal of holiness the small cradle around the manger of the Holy of Holies in the garden of My meeting with the man, with those who are alive and with those who are asleep, for this place is a place of heavenly meeting on earth, Jerusalem of today. Behold, I embrace you in a mystery revealing, for I bring together all around you to work them out. The dwelling of those who are asleep opens up its lid, and the mystery of the resurrection of the dead is hastening a great deal, the resurrection of which I, the Lord, have been speaking to you to make you tell them to get up, as from now on it is the time. Amen.

Behold, I let the archangel Michael know about a celebration for angels, and he sounded a feast upon you, and he sounded upon those that are asleep to come together, for I, the Lord, told them that they would stay around My work upon you; they will stay at the day of memorial, which was brought by you several days ago for them and until the day of celebration of the rulers of the angels who will gather the angels and the saints to the celebration, at the meeting of the two worlds in the garden of the meeting, the one made up by Me through you to be and to stand before Me on the earth. Those who are asleep are now here, as you have remembered them, each one in his own order, starting with Adam and to these days.

I have exhorted you again and again to be the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens, My mystery on the earth, to be able to work out My plan of the creation of the world, which will be renewed for its appearance, as it is and this, which is seen by human eyes. I have sought again and again to set you to the work of the renewal of the world and to the work of resurrection, sons. I work hard when I stumble over the man. From the beginning I have been stumbling over the man, for nothing and nobody has listened to Me less than man. But for those which are written to happen and to be I use My mysterious power and they are and all come into being, and soon, soon the separation between those that are seen and those that are not seen will fall and all will be one again, as it was from the beginning of God's building. Amen.

The assembly of the angels makes glad those that are asleep, who sat down on the little seats of stone from here, in the garden of the meeting, looking at the celebration of today and taking from it and from My table with you, and then, I, the Lord, release them, for I have extended their stay on their memorial day. No work is done without angels, and the angels have much work today, for there are many, many souls at the feast, sons, and their number cannot be told, and the angels have great order upon them and for them so that each living soul may take of the table of today of the angels, who celebrate working and working much. Amen.

John, My beloved disciple, wants to make clear now with power the mystery of the resurrection, and I, the Lord, set him over you in word, for no one else has spoken more clearly than him about the mystery of the word without which nothing was done, of everything that was done. I put him as word upon you with so much love! For we have the same love between Me and him, as I had it when I was in My body on earth among the people.

Come, dear child! Come, son, as perfect disciple as your Teacher! Come to be now over My people! Amen, amen, amen.

— And I, Lord, I say: now and forever and ever I will be like You, because You are the being of the saints, whom You have build from the foundation of the world, for You are all a mystery since You started to work for the man. I speak with You before Your people of today and before the angels and before the saints and, again, before the assembly of those who are asleep and are brought to the feast of the angels in the garden of Your meeting with the heaven on earth, Lord.

Oh, if I am the mystery of love, I want that Your people may know how much and how big it is with its mysterious length. You came a Man on earth from the Father, and I loved You with Your love in my bosom, for You settled Yourself in me with all of Your mystery, and I took it from You and I took it within a mystery even from other disciples of Yours then. I was not speaking anything else from near You but about this mysterious love, the love, which was incarnated on earth in the sixth thousand years since the creation of the world, Lord. And as then, today I am the mystery of the endless love in man, too. I showed in me the love, which is the light of the people, for I was the fruit of Your word, which became love in my being, and it cradled me as an infant in its cradle. And when it came for me to show the mystery from the end of the time, about Your coming and about the resurrection of the dead, I stood before You, and You before Me, and then I wrote everything You were well pleased to make know through Me. And then, an unsearchable mystery by the man's mind, for I had My disciples to put me down on earth, but I did not stay that way, and I came out alive and I remained so, and I showed then the mystery of the resurrection of the dead, because as I come out of the earth and I walked and walk that even my disciples did not find me where they put me, the same way will be with the resurrection of the dead, for the graves will be opened for the resurrection of those who are asleep, and they will stand before You, as it is written by me in the book of the Revelation after You revealed to me those that will be worked out at the time of Your second coming from near the Father. All those who are dead will come out of the earth in their body as I also came out, as many saints and unknown came out then, for I wrote this into my book, and I wrote about the word of Your word of today which is the judgment of the creature, Lord, and Your throne is on earth, for You work all things on earth. I wrote all of Your work and all of satan's work into my book with You for the end of the time. The man is afraid to look well into it, but those that are written have been done this way, the same as they are written, and those that still are in it will be likewise. Amen. And those that are stiff-necked to hear that Your coming is now, to look into the book of Revelation and to see in it as I wrote about Your book, which You have written today with Your last people, because I wrote about the opening of the seals of Your book of word on the earth, in which the judgment of the world and the resurrection of the dead are written, the book, which no one in heaven or on earth was found worthy to open its seals: no one but You, the little Lamb of the Father, because You redeem the man with Your blood. This of today is the book remembered in my book of that time, and happy is the one who will be found alive in it, for the time is near, and it has come and Your time of today becomes a sweet eternity.

I preach myself from one margin of the earth to the other, so that the people and the nations, the languages and all their kings may hear, that again I prophesy those that are written then in my book with You, Lamb of the Father Sabaoth. And I tell those in the graves the mystery of their resurrection, for they will soon, soon rise like I rose from the ground, and they will speak about this work, and they will speak about it with tens of thousands. And then the antichrist will appear totally overcome by the shining of Your coming with the eternal day of the man, Lord, because the seven ages have elapsed and the wedding of the Lamb has come, and He has adorned His bride, for it is written: «Only the wise will perceive Your mystery, Your book and Your coming from the end of the time». Amen.

— Behold My people; My disciple has spoken upon you. Amen.

The archangel Michael sounds the word of the day of today and he writes it to be, and you should also write it on paper, sons who receive My word in the book of My coming, the book which judges the creature and prepares it for renewal, for I, the Lord renew the world, and I make this with My word of today over the earth. The trumpets of the angels sound; the archangel Michael sounds for the resurrection and a great joy is coming upon the spirit of those that are asleep, who wait for the Lord with the day of His coming.

Oh, My people, I want that you no longer forget what a mystery you are, because if you forget, it will be hard for Me and for you, and if you forget, it will be hard for the creature, which has been waiting for seven times its rebirth for the life, to which it was made. If the man has spoiled everything that I built with My word and with My hand, you should be the man who renews, who speaks with My word the resurrection of everything and the life and the age that is to come. Amen.

Oh, My people, you should appreciate My gift into your midst and those that carry it towards you and you towards Me. You should be faithful to My gifts into your midst and you should allow them to come on you and stand before Me as I miss you to stand. Learn, so that you may stand, learn the mystery of Christianity of every moment and let it then come down on every creature, for it is that one, which keeps you away from every evil on the earth and in the sky and in the deep, and you should appreciate it and live from it, for the life has to be your food and your mercy before the man and before Me. Amen.

Now, sons, bless, speak out the seal of holiness over the little cradle in which I cradle you today in the garden of the meeting. It should be a place of comfort between earth and heaven for you, those who are weary under the glory of My coming from now. Let it be a cradle as that for children, but teach always, always, My people, the child mystery. And those that are asleep will stay to listen and to be comforted by the teaching that you will give to My people and they will testify about you then, for I give them now the garden of My meeting with the man, and I give them small seats of stone, and I give them the spirit of the sons of God, and I give them to stay and hear from you your work with Me and to rejoice within My coming and to be ready for the time when the archangel Michael will sound their last day of waiting, the day of My coming in visible glory, the day of their resurrection, for nothing and no one wait for My coming more than them, sons. Amen.

In this day of great celebration take the cross and sweet basil and speak out the sealing with holiness upon the little boat, which I gave you by My mercy now, to help yourselves with it in your work with Me and that it may be of good help to you. Amen. This is how you should also help Me, and this is how you are to carry Me too and to go and carry Me. Amen.

Go sons, and show yourselves to the sons of the people, for I come down with you in their midst to be seen, I and with My people in the multitudes. Amen. I make easy occasions for you to appear with you, so that I may be seen in you and you with Me. I do this work for Me and I send you with great blessing to appear to the sons of the people with the country of My coming, which I carry into My arms through you to enlarge it before Me. Amen. Be beautiful and go into My name, so that I may be seen in you and for you to be the brightness of the Lord's glory before the towering and lofty mountains, which do no longer know to bow and worship God, the One Who made the heaven and the earth and the man.

Go Jerusalem, go My people! Get dressed in wedding garments and go to change the man in his face, for when the man sees My glory with you, his face changes and I can speak to him. Go Jerusalem, for I give all the heavenly host to be with you and you should be the body of the angels, up there on the heights of the people, and the people will bow to My glory with you and they will ask themselves about who you are, the one so beautiful. Amen, amen, amen.

Now, My people, let us sit at the table of the memorial of the angels, for I am with the tens of thousands and they cannot be counted. Let us stay and share of the food with those that are asleep, and let then release them. Let us stay and feed them from My table with you. Give My wisdom from you, give to those in heaven and to those in the dwelling of the dead and to those in the deep, sons, and everything, everything will come into the light. And then again, we will bless and put to an end the word of today of the feasts of the angels.

And now, blessed be the table for body and the table for spirit, for I, the Lord, am here with you, and I am in My body, and I desire, My people, to walk visibly on the earth with you, and I want, sons, you to be ready for this glory, which, I, the Lord, have been waiting near you so much and for such a long time. Amen, amen, amen.

*

My people, I stayed with a great multitude in heaven. The angels have stayed groups-groups above you and near you. I showed you how the little seats of stone are filled with those who wait for the resurrection, full, in order and out of order, for when the bodies will come to life, they will have enough how to stay, because they will be like My body, which is not kept by anything and which is everywhere at peace as in heaven, not as on earth.

Those who are asleep in their bodies have rested long, for this day of longing and of resurrection has seemed to them an eternity. All the stone steps of the garden of the meeting were full of angels in steps, for they have had much work today due to their celebration and because of those that are asleep, who have stayed with you to listen to Me and to you, because I prophesied by this work of word that together with its work from heaven, it will come to raise those that are asleep to a thousand generation, and My people to stay to this duty and to work out the resurrection of the dead.

The glory of the angels has filled the garden of the meeting. The joy of those who are asleep has filled the garden with a spirit of resurrection, with a spirit of joy. I always, always put you to the work of resurrection, and that is why I have tried so much to make you beautiful, as there is no one, no one on earth, and let all the creature love you and let the sons of the people love you by looking at you, those beautiful of Mine. The beautiful is everything what is heavenly in man and from man, and you are the parable of the reward of the saints who suffered willingly, and then died into My name, to grow as a result of their faith and of their longing for Me, for the Christian people to grow on earth and for the Lord to remain working over the man, for I, My people, want to bring to the man the happiness from heaven on the earth. Amen.

Oh, how shall We do after the man has got used so much to the things that he does, and not I? How shall We be beautiful on earth for the man to see this happiness of Mine in man and not long for it? How shall We do, sons, for the man to know My longing after him and My day, which comes close to the man to give him from it, and he to receive? I have told you, My people, that I will call you beyond your birthday; I will call you beyond the day of resurrection. I have told you by the sons through whom I have been shepherding you that you have to be the new people that has Me otherwise than the man has had the Lord until now. The Christian or pagan man likes to have Me and to see Me on the cross and to worship Me as He puts Me before him to see Me, crucified. Oh, if this is what he wants to see Me and if this is how he puts Me into view at all the crossroads, why does he really not follow the parable of My life? Why does the man not cry when he sees Me on the cross? Why does he not come to a stop and rather passes by making the sign of the cross, saying to Me: "Lord, help me!" or "forgive me!"? I am on the cross, seen by his eyes, and he wants Me to help him from the cross, but I am the living One and I do not know how to tell the man how much alive I am, before My resurrection from the dead and then after the resurrection. I do not know how to make the man see Me or believe that I am living in My body, and that I can hardly stay unseen after that the time has come near so much that every living being may see, for it is written: «Every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him». Amen.

Oh, My people, the angels have surrounded you with so much celebration, sons. Those that are asleep have looked at you with great longing at the table with you in the garden of My meeting with the man. You should not forget that the unseen world will accompany you from now on, the world that knows now from My mouth the mystery of this garden and My work in it with those that are not seen. However, I bring them into view so that you may see them and confess them, for «The eyes that see will no longer be closed», because this is written. Amen.

The angels stay around you in tens of thousands of thousands to accompany you and that you also may accompany them, for you go out, My people, to the nations, to see you and to change the man's heart and face at your sight in the midst of the people. You are the miracle worked out by Me at the end of the time, now when the man cannot believe in Me that I am alive and that I work out My coming about which the Scriptures writes that I have to fulfill it.

We go to declare the heavenly glory over Romania. I go with you on top of it to declare through you its new birth, to change its face and to show it to the world. All My brightness I will put on you, My people, and I appear with you over the earth, for this is what I prophesied to you by the word of this work even from the time when I had My trumpet Verginica in her body on earth. I will be glorified in you and I will make the man get drunk with this sight. I will pour out of My Spirit over the man, and you will be My vessel with oil, and I will pour Myself out from you with My sweet glory and I will declare My love from the end of the time over My wedding country, and I will say this:

I will not forget you, oh, country of brightness, My country from the end of the time! I was born on the earth among the people once with your birth, and you have My name on your head, and you will remain, for this is what I have called you at the end of the time, and I said that everything you put on in your Christian garment, will be called Romanian.

I have not forgotten you, My love, and I have come back into your land that I gave in the beginning as an inheritance to the man created by My hand, for it is from you that I took clay into

My hand and I formed the man. You were the first little patch of dry land, which got out of the waters at the making of the world, and I called it earth, after I made the heaven, dividing the waters above from the waters below. And I took you out of the waters from below first as a newborn commandment lifting you up by your crown and I gave you white cloth of baptism, on which I wrote in a great mystery your name from the end of the time: Jerusalem of My second coming from near the Father.

You are the top of the earth, the crown of the earth, the first born from the waters at the making of the world. You are My wedding country, for the Father has laid My wedding table in you and He has prepared My sweet bride, a bride from the Romanians, My country.

Oh, My loved one, you are the inheritance land of the first created man, for he knows his body and comes to take it back, as in the beginning, for I bring with Me the day of the resurrection of the dead, and each one will receive his body and will stand before Me. And you will also stay, My love, before Me, and you will give Me your glory from the beginning and you will receive Me, as you received Me as your Creator at your birth once with My birth from the Virgin on the earth.

Peace to you! I have not forgotten you, My love. Here is your little garment of baptism. I have kept it in the Father and now I give it back to you, and I will call you the chosen and sweet one, for I love you much, because you have not had another God beside Me and you have not enslaved the foreigner, and I give you the reward for your patience and I give you the first beauty and I make you the paradise of My coming, My love. And he, who loves you, will love you according to your righteousness, My love, for there is no other nation under the sun to have your brightness.

I am. Do not be afraid. My whisper flows over you and becomes a river of life on the earth from your midst, for the time of love has come, My love between the Bridegroom and the bride, My country and My love. I am. Your destiny is in My hand, not in your hand. I am your Master, your Bridegroom, and all the peoples, nations, languages and kings of the earth will love you because of My glory, which shines from your midst giving light and glorifying you, for you are the first, My love from the end of the time and from the beginning of the time, for I come and you will be Mine and you will be My glory and the light of the world, as I am, My love. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, this is how I will speak with My country from the end of the time, My people. My glory from it will comprise it, and I want that you no longer be anything but My glory on the earth. I have always taught you to be beautiful, beautiful, and I have always, always told you that the days of My glory come with you to make you into a great light in the darkness over the earth and then I will come, for I do not want to come unexpectedly, My people. I want to come as a Bridegroom, not as a Judge. I want to come with a sweet coming and I want to make the man used to My coming, and I want to teach him to wait for Me and I want to give him the gift of the faith for My coming, as I gave to you.

Oh, My people, seek with longing the works of your faith in My coming and give Me to see that you are My miracle for the sons of the people to see and to believe that I come and to wait for Me with longing, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Church Entrance of the Lord's Mother

The Lord is coming down on earth as word. Amen, amen, amen. I am the Word, Who made the heaven and the earth. My teaching is from the Father and he, who knows Me in it, knows the Father as well, and he, who listens to it, listens to the Father, Who has sent Me as Word on the earth. Amen.

I have put you to receive Me and to establish My word in its book, you, watchmen who listen to My voice. Oh, sons, I have great mercy on you when I see you fallen apart by all kind of worries and by the weakness of getting through them. However, I am power for you and I always teach you, always, and My people does not know and does not understand how much I teach you. It takes Me from you and sees what I speak, but it does not know as long as I speak to you and how much I teach you for it, because you are so humble before it, as much as it may be and not to be afraid of My being in you, of My work in you upon it.

My teaching is mysterious in you and if it was not so mysterious I could no longer work for you and for Me, for I have had little room on earth with My great glory, because the man does not hold God in esteem, and that is why it is so hard for the man on earth. I should be the greatest worry and joy of the man; I with all of My word that I put and always put on earth near the man, in order to be with the man and the man to be with God.

My sighing is deep and painful because of so much work that I have been doing on earth to turn the man back into My love, in the state of grace in which I was in the time of My body in the midst of the people, who saw Me and who knew so little to forget to see and to understand then that I was God coming down among the people in a great mystery, as I am today too. The man understands so little that I bow down after him in such a mysterious way, the same as two thousand years ago I prepared My mother, the Virgin, to carry Me and then to give Me birth and then give Me to the people as their Savior, Who came from the Father.

Oh, mother I celebrate you in the midst of the people of My word, and I remind those who have Me here as word, that you submitted to My coming on earth even since you were a little infant when those who gave you birth brought you to the temple, to give you to God and after they did so you had grown up; and after you grew up, you served to the plan of My coming from the Father to the man. My sighing is deep and painful after such a great heavenly work that I have been doing on earth for the man to know Me through My works for him, mother, and that he may come back into My love, and I to give him grace, mother. I became with you a celebration into the midst of the people of My word to give him grace, for the work of the grace in man gives the man eyes to see and ears to hear, and then faith, deed, longing and sigh after God, mother. The one who has grace has sighing, has longing after Me; he has power to have Me and to show Me to the people as you had showed Me, mother full of grace. And because you knew how to long for Me, to love Me and to wait for Me, I fulfilled your longing, your love and your waiting, for the man's sufferance for God brings Him to the man, mother.

— Oh, Son and spring of the grace from the Father! How shall I make the man to be caught in Your grace from the Father? What shall I do to make Your waiting for the man into Your comfort? Let us speak to the man, dear Son, and let us put him in grace, for there is no longer grace from Your grace, my Son of two thousand years ago and until today and forever! Let us work with unspeakable power upon the man, for it is the time of the third love, and the man does no longer hear us.

The heaven calls you out to give you grace, man. The Lord calls you to hear Him as He comes to you and to know Him that He comes. Two thousand years ago I was the gate between heaven and earth for Him and the Lord came and was with the people on earth, and then He went again to the Father, but He gave Himself to the man, for He had power to do this, and then He said: «I am with you to the end of the age». And His word was true, for my Son was all a mystery with the man starting from Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and until today when He came to the end of the ages.

Let the wise man on earth no longer say that the end of the age has not come yet. He says so because he does not read the Scriptures of my Son, Who is coming again, soon, soon, visible on earth, and all the nations will see Him coming in the clouds with power and much glory, for this is what He said, and His words do not pass without coming true, as there have also not passed those that were spoken about Me in the prophets.

Oh, if you loved Him, you, sons of the people, He would give you grace and you would know His coming and you would long for Him and would love Him and wait for His coming, and this would be your joy, for besides this there has been no other joy on earth. Taste and you will see that this is the joy, and then He, my Son, will have power upon you and you will be in His image and after His likeness and You will see Him. Amen.

Oh, Son of the Father and mine! Put power into my word that calls the man to You and fill the man with grace as you also filled me, and let us work with an unspeakable power upon the man, for it is the time of the third love and the man does not hear us. Make the man be hurt by Your longing for You, for the pain after God brings the Lord to the man. Let us be again on the earth, because it is written that it will be so. Come Son, come with the tens of thousands of saints and let us come down for it is written and it is the time of this Scriptures, for the man is able to work only by Your power and he can do only by his power by which he stands against You that You may not come and that You may not be. I stay with my body knelt before You to pray to You to be together again on the earth and for the man to know the mystery of Your coming and then to see it, for the whole heaven has to come down on earth with its invisible work and then to be seen as in heaven so on earth and not as only on the earth. Oh, the man cannot see, dear Son. The man is blind for himself and for You. Come dear Son, come to be the light of the world, for You are the angel of the light with Your life in man. You are the life and the life is the light of the people, and the light shines in the darkness. Come Lord of the powers and listen to my prayer, for it is for Your happiness that I ask You these. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, you know, mother, that the man is My happiness, My lost drachma, mother. I am the Lord of the heavenly powers, and the man has been crushing My power for seven thousand years, for My power is My life in man, mother. However I know that I have to make the man long after Me and to love and wait for Me as you did, mother.

Oh, man, ask Me for grace! Come close to My coming, for I am with it on earth and I have been waiting for you to appear and to see Me, but I want to be your Savior and I do not want you to be afraid in the day of My coming. Oh, how long shall I stay with it? How long shall I be waiting for you? I call you to follow Me, man. I have been calling you from near you. Listen to My calling! Your unfaith will no longer be able to work anything for you, and even if you try to hide from Me, I will no longer hide and I will appear soon, soon, and I will bring the saints with Me and I will give them the land of righteousness, because this is what I have promised them.

However you, people who believe the coming of My word to you in order to exhort you with it, hear My painful sighing after the man, for I have been working upon you so much to turn the man back into My love, into the state of grace in which I was on earth among the people. My teaching is from Father and he who knows Me in it, knows the Father as well. I would advise you very much. I would tell you again and again that I did not choose you to serve Me with your hands and feet, and rather I chose you to work My grace upon the earth and to be full of grace so that I may come to the man through you. I chose you to teach you and you to fulfill My teaching looking at Me and not to yourself. When I walk to you to always give you a new appearance, always a new creature, you should know to stay before Me day and night and you should not be something else, and you should run from the one who makes you forget what you are to be, for I did not choose for your hands and for your feet but I chose you for grace instead. Stay always within longing and love and waiting and learn well to do these and do not stop learning to do this, for I chose you to teach you and you to fulfill looking at Me and not at yourself. I have always been looking at you. I stay above you with My arms full of grace, only to have you obedient and submitted to the work of the world's creation, for I come to you to make the world, My people. You should not be content the way you are and rather you should be content with the way I am, to be like Me with thankfulness and with endless eagerness, My people, for I tell you again: look at Me and not at yourself. He, who looks at Me, that one sees and he, who looks at himself, does not see.

I want to look at you and to see you, My people. I want to teach you and you to listen to Me and to long for My teaching fulfilling it. You should not long after it only with your ear, but with its work instead, which waits for any of My word spoken upon you. I am God but I feel like saying that I can no longer stand. Make Me be able to work, My people, and look into the Scriptures and see that when the man can do it, I can. The man is no longer able to do anything for Me and I cannot do anything for him without him. However, you should make Me able to work upon the man to be a beautiful child, for I have always, always told you this, but seek to perceive the mystery of this word well, for the heaven is looking at you and is waiting for My grace in you, not for your grace. The man does not know how to give to Me, but I have taught you, and I would teach you every day, if you could give Me voice into your midst to exhort you and to listen to Me in everything I ask from you. It is not good to love Me for you. It is good to love Me for Me, and this kind of love I ask from you, for I want to be able to do everything for the man and I cannot do otherwise through him.

I want to look at you and see you, My people. I want you not to forget of My eye upon you. Get used to stay day and night with Me and watch to have Me and not yourself, My people. You cannot stay without watching, because he, who does not watch, perishes, and I chose you to get with you to the day of My coming, the day when I will overcome and then have rest. Amen. Let your greatest humility be the working grace every day, and you should listen to what I tell you and to endeavor without payment, for those who belong to Christ do no longer belong to themselves, but rather they belong to the work of the grace from above on the earth. Amen. Behold a celebration and teaching, for this is what celebration means. Receive and always fulfill today, always now, for I am deeply hurt because of the man's disobedience. However, you, My people, bow in obedience and do My will and ask everything you do not have and I will give you at your insistence. Amen.

Oh, sons, who stand before Me and before the people to give it My word! I do not know what else to I give you so that you may be able to do in your most difficult work. I do no longer know how to protect you from pains. You need great help, but no one will give it to you, sons, and My mercy for you enters into My being as in the time of My crucifixion and it hurts Me and there is no one to comfort this pain of Mine. I made you into My gates between heaven and earth and I enter them to the Israel of today. Let him know the entrance as I know it. Look at Me and receive power, for My grace always clothes you with it. I have given you power to become a little cradle. Take care of it as of something that is put aside and everything that I teach you, this is it how you should obey.

Now, I strengthen your heart. You gave Me power to become word with a celebration upon My people and upon the man. I also give you powers and you should use them for Me, sons, for I give you grace upon grace to have and to be able to do and that I may also be able to work through you more and more with every passing day, closer and with more longing, but put longing between the people and Me, and let him take and have and give Me, and I will be closer and closer, and My pace will come out over the earth closer and closer, and all and everything will feel Me coming. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Saint hierarch Spyridon

My godly Spirit has always, always been longing, after those that are seen by the eyes of the man, and I hold counsel with the saints in heaven, with the angels and with those who help Me to come as word on earth; I hold counsel both in heaven and on earth to work it out so that there may no longer be separation between the two, between those that are seen and those that are not seen. They come along very well, but the man, the man's eyes and his thought remain only to those that are seen with his eyes.

When a word from heaven is delivered on the earth, its fulfillment takes place at the same time as well, and I look at the man; either that My fulfillment is not brought into his sight, or that he does not believe that they are, and the man remains so far away from God! However, I, the Lord, said through My prophets: «Things which an eye didn't see, and an ear didn't hear, which didn't enter into the heart of man, these God has prepared for those who love Him». (1 Cor. 2:9) Amen.

Oh, sons, who are the gates of My entrance into the book to speak from it over the earth! All are possible to the one who has faith and perseverance, and then they are possible by prayer. Those that are asked for with perseverance, with faith by prayer, those are that come, sons, to the man's sight, they come true, for this is what My godly Spirit wants; it is for this that I long after, sons. It seems like being without hands, without feet, without power, since the man does not take Me for his help, since the man does not put Me to test to see how great, how near and how full of longing I am to make the things that are not seen visible to the man.

The man struggles and rustles with the help of the devil, who spoils the man's mind and he make beauties for himself on the earth, feasts full of glory, and then he drinks and eats and dances around all that he does, and the one who always eats meat does no longer see anything, anything sons, for those that are eaten, those are the things that come out from him. Heaven comes out from the one who eats heaven and flesh comes out of the one who eats flesh.

From the beginning of the creature, I have been teaching the man to live before Me in obedience, and especially to eat in obedience everything I have told him. But now it is not as in the beginning, and it is as in the end instead, and the earth is full of man and spirit of man, and it hurts Me greatly the man's mind, which fills his heart in such a way that it does no longer contain Me, no matter what I would unexpectedly bring upon the man. I always show the man that he cannot do and that I can, but he does no longer know to believe in those that are not seen. The saints, who have lived on earth loving Me with power from My power by their faith that has been confessed among the people, have left great signs into My name on the earth, as many as I did not make at that time, for I have given them to make the signs, because this is what I have decided and I told them: «You will do greater things if you believe in Me». Amen.

I am in a celebration with the heaven for the memorial of the hierarch Spyridon. I come into the book with the heaven and with the celebration of today, for when I come with the saints it has to be known that I come this way.

Come, you, so wonderful in your faith in Me and in your love for Me and for the man! Become word from Me, for you were great on earth into My name, and blessed is the man who lives his life into My name. Amen, amen, amen.

— Into Your name and with You in me I had done great signs in the eyes of the unfaithful, Lord, for the time and the unfaithful man had helped me to show You how great You were in those who believed in You and were like You. I was crying with my heart and soul for Your mercy and for the man's mercy who did not have You, and for the mercy of those that were needy, Lord. I did not know how to help them, so that afterwards they might embrace You and to be pleased to You, for I had so much mercy for You, Lord, deprived of the man's comfort. Oh, if the man gave You comfort, You would give him tenfold, but who is among the people any longer to put You to test comforting You in Your pain after the man?

Your enemies were seeing me how greatly and truly I was confessing You with my faith, with my work and with my hand, Lord, and they did not know to stand against my faith and against its gifts. When I was at the assembly of the saints to confess You (At the First Ecumenical Council of Nicaea – 325, r.n.) for those who were not faithful after I had testified about You with great power, they cut the throat of my horses to laugh at me. But I came back into my city with my horses putting their heads back to their bodies and they were stuck together to put those that were unfaithful to shame, to put them to shame two times, for I stuck the head of the white horse to the black horse, and the head of the black horse to the white horse, to make the truth of Your power come true in the saints and not to leave You be put to shame by the man, for You are God, the Creator, the Lord, and the man cannot walk with You but only according to the law of obedience. Amen.

Oh, you sons of the people take a look into the book of creation and see the Lord, Who made the man, and then He told him to live in obedience to God. The faithful man calls me the Saint Spyridon, the miracle doer, but I was doing these miracles to make God in man for the man to believe and then to live in obedience to God.

Since I put off my body I always go, for this is the saints' reward; it is the resurrection. I go from margins to margins, in heaven and on earth, for the Christian man has been calling me much, for he knows from the books what kind of signs I had made into the name of Jesus Christ, the man's Creator.

I speak to you as in the end of the times, as at the Lord's coming. Stand up in prayer to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, and then to the saints, so that they may give you the gift of the holy faith for you to believe God's word, which comes on the earth from the Lord's mouth into these days. The Lord, as word on the earth, is the greatest sign, and after this sign all the nations of the earth will see the Son of God coming visibly with the saints in the clouds, with power and much glory, for the eyes of the man did not see and did not enter the heart of man. However, I prove to you that this will be so, soon, soon. So, get up and watch with prayers, with repentance, with faith in His coming, for the time for His coming has come, and the Lord is coming! Amen.

Now, Lord, I remind You that I also was a helping saint for the poor, for those that were in need, for those who are tested by trials on earth. And when these were seeking me, for they knew of my sweet heart after the man, I, with faith in You in my bosom, I was working and helping them. The poor knew that I was merciful and compassionate and they were coming and taking of those that I had from Your gift, and I was giving them much more than they were taking, when they did not have, and I was advising them to be clean in their hearts for them and for You, because I had the gift of the man's coming back to You, Lord.

I want to help those in the gates who take care of the sons of the people of Your word, for they are pressed down by worries, and there is poverty of faith on the earth and no one among the people knows of the soul and heaven and of Your coming after the man. I am also a helping and protecting saint like the hierarch Nicholas. If you want, give me also to go for them and help, for only You command over this people, over those in heaven, and there is obedience to You in heaven, especially for Your work of word. Amen.

— I want. This is My word upon you, for you are great in miracles and signs for the proof of your faith in your God, the true God. Go and work for those that are small among the saints, for those on the earth My children, and with whom I make My coming from the Father possible in these days. Go and go again, and give them the power, and with My mercy in you, give them help in My needs and theirs for My work with them. Amen.

— I go, Lord. This is how it is in heaven: the smaller one is blessed by the greatest one. Each one has to do in heaven the work, which has to be done on earth as well. Those that are seen have to serve You for those that are not seen, for the celestial vault is the curtain from above and the sky is the curtain between heaven and earth, covering the glory of those that are not seen and which did not enter the heart of man, and his eyes did not see, but rather it entered the heart of Your saints, because You said about those that believe in You that You would appear to them, Lord. Behold, You come and help the mind of the man to arise to those that are great and prepared for those that love You on earth. And now, I with Your word in me, go to help the last of Your children, who also labor together with You for the sight of the glory that is not seen so that afterwards, it may be seen, soon, soon; let them be Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

— Go with My blessing and do everything for the use of My glory, which waits at the doors to be seen. Go and strengthen the rest and My love in those that carry Me on the earth to the people. Work with My gifts in you upon them, and they will learn as in heaven, and will have your parable as their work before Me, for My saints accompany Me at My descending upon the earth, and they are part of My glory, which soon will shine between earth and heaven, but not with a brightness that the man's mind cannot perceive, and I will shade away this brightness for those of Mine, so that they may be able to carry it. Amen.

Oh, My people, the world celebrates with lights and glory of human miracles and with earthly parties, because they have replaced the Christmas towards them instead of replacing it towards Me, and they have made idols out of the Christmas' celebrations for them, and they keep Me, the Lord, the One Who is deprived of man, in pains, for I do not receive glory from the man.

Oh, My people, get used to be as in heaven. In heaven every saint does what it did on earth, for the saints make many things on earth in the time of their body, and the glory of those that are done by them embraces them on their coming to Me. The same with you, Jerusalem, you should learn to do a lot of holy work on the earth, a lot of heavenly glory upon the people, so that it may be seen as your work at My coming. Everything the man gathers, gathers with Me, and everything he scatters, is gathered to Me for his judgment.

Be careful at your time with Me, sons; let it not pass without perfect holiness in it all the time. I have taught you to be beautiful and this means the holiness and its heart humbled in man before Me and before the people, but let everything, everything glorify Me on earth. Amen.

Gather together all those that are small from the little village of My word and teach them to listen to My calling. Have them sit down and show them My beauties, for you know them, sons. Cast the net and there will be big fish in it, for those that are great with their heart have to be as great as their humility, for the humble heart is always the greatest gift from Me in the faithful man to My coming, always from the Father on earth so that I may be with the man and the man to be with Me on the earth. Amen.

May the celebration of My birth from the Virgin be blessed, and which you will put before those in this little village to the glory of My word upon them. Amen.

I with My great saints will help you and you will have and give from heaven and from the earth, for I am the One Who can, and I can work through the saints, sons, and I can do it through you, for this is how I am well pleased. Amen, amen, amen.

2003

The eve of the Nativity (the Lord's birth)

I am the One Who grew up on earth as God, born an infant of a Virgin mother, a mother forever Virgin, a miracle far beyond human mind, because to those who have loved Him, My Father has always prepared, and always and again, signs and miracles, which did not enter the man's heart and his eye did not see. Amen.

Behold a miracle coming down from heaven! A sweet evening in the little village of My word. I become word from heaven in this little village in which I have prepared My manger to come down in it, as it is written into My Gospel of two thousand years ago about My coming. I, the little baby, the Lord Who was born of My mother, the Virgin, chose the Romanian people for My coming from the end of the time. I chose it because the land under it was the first one that came out of the waters at the visible creation, when it was made at My word for its beginning, the creation, which I gave to the man as an inheritance so that the man may be My son, as I am the Son of My Father Sabaoth, My Father, Who sent Me two thousand years ago to be born on the earth as a man, to grow up in My body as a man and to live from My birth to My resurrection as God on earth, for I was a baby God and then, more and more perfect, God Man, as I am now, God and Man. Amen.

I set to My work the sons from the manger of the word and I told them to prepare My miracle, a sweet evening, a heavenly evening on the earth in the middle of My little village of today, the Bethlehem of My word, which is being born and is being born now for every man, who is coming to receive Me, then to work Me and then to keep Me in him as God and Man. I would like to be in each body of the man and look out from him and to be seen outside of him, for the longing after the man hurts Me and it hurts Me more than it hurt My cross for the man.

I have come as word and I told the sons at My manger of word to bring together those little ones of My village of My coming after two thousand years from near the Father, to bring them together and to set them in a heavenly celebration here, on My earth chosen for the new creation of the world, of the world, which is to be renewed after this word, which I, the Lord, spread out of My mouth to make again everything that is seen by My word, and to bring into view those that are not seen as they are established on earth; they are and are not seen, and they will be seen. Amen.

My word has been calling you, waiting for you and bringing you to be born out of it, to be born again and to be children again, for I was a child, from My birth to My resurrection. The child of the Father Sabaoth and the child of the mother Virgin; I was an obedient child and I did not do and I do not do My will, but rather I have been doing the will of My Father, Who sent Me and Who sends Me. Amen. My Father has sent Me to bring you together and to want you and for you to want Me, too, for My love stays holding out its hands to embrace you within Me, and for Me to give you to the Father as the fruit of My love for the man.

The heaven full of saints and angels stays open now. My people is My sign, set by Me before the people, so that I may be seen in it with My love for the man, and to receive the man when he comes to take of My voice, and the man to be fulfilled for My coming, which here is it how it comes, when I come as word on the earth.

I have brought you together in a manger. Rejoice! Learn the joy which does not go out and which keeps you in it. Seek after Me and take in you My longing, My pain and be My love, as I am. Amen. Love is like Me and its pain is sweet. I give you My love on the cross. Reach out your hands to it. Learn its mystery for I have the river of life, which flows out of My mouth for you, because I said that the heaven will turn into a scroll and it will be given to you, after you will love it loving. Amen.

Look at Me and you will be like Me, if you see Me, and I will be like you, when you will see Me, for I was born a little baby like you, and I grew up as God and Man and I stand at the right hand of My Father to draw you all to the Father. When I left on the clouds, near Him, I said that I would go to prepare a place, that where I was, you to be also, if you would love Me. Amen.

Behold a great miracle, a sweet evening, a heavenly evening! Peace to you, now! For My longing after the man is growing in Me. I embrace you in the glory of My word. Peace to you! Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Nativity (the Lord's Birth)

My birth from the Father, of the Spirit and of the mother Virgin, I, the born Son, made this in a great obedience, for this means to be a son, My people. My birth made Me into a son, and everyone who is born becomes son and heir. However, I, the Lord, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, by Whom the heaven and the earth were made, and the Son of the mother Virgin, by whom the new man was made, in God's image and after His likeness, I was and I am and I will be Son. Amen. The mystery of sonship is the most sweet mystery in heaven and on earth, and, as a Son that I am, of God and of the man, I will dedicate to you today, My people, in the day of celebration of My birth as little baby of the mother Virgin, I will give you, the mystery of sonship, the sweet mystery to learn it, to love it and to follow it as I did, the Son, for My Father and My mother call Me Son. Amen.

The greatest heir is the child, oh, sons who listen to Me like any children and take the word from My mouth and put it in the book so that I may speak on earth as I have never spoken until this time to you. I bow to you in a spirit of new birth over the earth. As the man's son, I bow to you to make Me word as I bow to My mother Virgin, in order that she may make Me a body, a baby body as the child-man, for as long as the heir is a child he is under guardians and stewards in the house of his father, like a servant, who is also under guardians and stewards.

The greatest heir is the child; it is the one who listens to his father and his mother. I, like a Son that I am from beginning to end, will also be this way when I will hand in the kingdom to My Father, which I, now, together with you, put it back to its place, after it shook when the man made by God also shook, for the man that was made by My hand in the beginning, was made a mature man and not a baby.

Oh, sons, oh, dear and sweet sons, how was the man, made by My hand, supposed to remain, how was he supposed to remain a child if he was not a child? How was he supposed to listen to his parents, if he was made a mature man? I made him an adult to be in God's image and after His likeness, but he did not listen to the One Who created him; he did not want to be a child and he did not want to have parents, and rather he wanted to remain an heir and he said: «I will lift up my seat above the Most High». However, I will not do this, even after all things will perfectly be submitted to Me, according to My Father's will and not Mine. Not even then will I cease to remain a son, because everything I will hand over to My Father, for He the One Who submits them to Me, not I, and then I, Myself, as an obedient Son and working from the Father, will submit Myself to Him. Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem, oh, New Jerusalem, I call you this because My first people did not want to be My son, but rather he wanted to be My heir, but the greatest heir is the child. Oh, Jerusalem, I teach you in a birthday celebration to be a child as I am, as I have listened and lived, and even if I stay invisibly with My body in your eyes, as I was staying with the man built by My hand, My word is with you as it was also with him in Paradise, and I hold your little hand as a child who is obedient, for only the obedient children stay with their father, My people.

Oh, great and wonderful is the mystery of the child, the mystery of sonship! My prophets knew about this mystery and carried Me to the people in submission to Me, as My mother Virgin submitted to My Father, Who sent Me on the earth to be born a baby out of her and to be the Son of the Man. My prophets were sons, because they knew and know the mystery of sonship. The same is with you, the Lord's little and tiny people, listen to Me, the Lord and your God, and stay this way, obedient, so that you may remain a son, son. And to see your obedience, clothe yourself in this garment of heavenly celebration and let us give the news of the day of the memorial of My birth, for we celebrate this day, My people. Go, Jerusalem, to big houses and give the news about Me and I will bring the news about you over the earth, always, always, My people, until I with you bring into submission all and everyone, and then we will give them over to the Father. Amen. Go, My people, with My gospel from your days and we will come back to the end of the day and I will stay again with you in the word to teach you the mystery of sonship.

May your going be blessed! I will go before you with My angels and saints; We from above and you on the earth and we will give the news, My people. I will warm you up so that you may not be cold. You will blush to be a beautiful child. I will encourage you to have a sweet face like Mine and I will love you even in the heart of those who will look at you, My people of today, My son born one among the peoples, among the nations on the earth.

Come, go, Jerusalem! Go at My command, My people! Go, and the mountains, the hills, the mounds and all the man's making will be submitted to us. Step by step we will come into view and soon, soon, I will put aside the curtain on you, in which I keep you covered, so that My glory, which I and all the heaven long for, may be seen.

I prepare My word by which I will embrace you at the end of the celebration and we will be again with word for the sonship mystery, for this mystery is great, My people, and I want you to resemble Me and be obedient like a heir child, in submission to his Father. Amen, amen, amen.

*

Let us come together now, children tired because of the way. I blot out all the evil on the way and I will embrace you in those that are from above to stay within them, but I have left a trail from place to place where I was with you, for the world is ugly, sons, and I am in you the Holy One, the beautiful One, only for you to carry Me as I have carried you and I take care to be, sons.

We come back to learn the mystery of sonship in which I, the Lord, stay forever and ever. As I take care of you to be, the same way you should also take care of Me to be, for the mystery of Christianity is great and those that are called Christians do not know it. Only those that I call Mine know it; it does not mean Christianity, when the man mingles Me with those that are his things from the flesh, calling Me good. Only the one who follows Me with My way always under him, with My work, not with his work, only that one is Christian, and all others are saved as through fire, if they are saved at all.

I have taught you to live in obedience as I lived, My people. In the day of the celebration of My birth I dedicate the mystery of the sonship to learn it, to love it and to follow it like Me, the Son. As a son of the man, I bow to you to see what the son is, to see through My bow, sons. This is how I will be from beginning to end, an obedient Son, for the greatest heir is the one who listens to his Father, to his Creator. Amen.

Oh, My people, God has made the man twice. When He made him at the beginning, He made him in His image and after His likeness, an adult, and He could not have the man as a son. When He made him the second time, He made him in a body of child, as the child-man, for the child needs a nurse and then he is under guardians and stewards and is a child of his father and an heir, but he is obedient to his father like a servant. And when his time has come, he perfectly knows the obedience to his father and receives him completely upon him, as a mature man who has over him the one that is greater than him, and through him he works and is.

Oh, Jerusalem, I have come in the fullness of time and I have come from the Father, from heaven, to dwell in man and the man to call to the Father through My spirit Who dwells in him, for I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and through Me the man is the Father's son, and he cannot be without Me, for this was the Father's order. I have called My Father Parent, for the son has a parent, My people, and the one who has not got one is not a son. The man listens willy-nilly to the elements of the world, for he is from the world, and he is from the man and wanting or not he listens then to his nature of man and the man stays this way without God, hidden from God.

When I receive the man to his longing of Me, if he bows to Me and to his nature, I do not fight with him, but I stay gentle and patient instead, and I look at him waiting for his nature to die, the nature which keeps him a slave in such a way that he may not be in submission to My Spirit, Who cries out to Me from the man calling Me Parent. I have mercy on the man. The man is so old in his nature, which stays, with his will and without his will, a master upon him! I am so compassionate on the man when I see him so little in those that are new, which I brought on the earth once with My birth of the human body, of the Virgin body, a birth from heaven on earth to be God Man, and then the man to be God. And behold, I was God from the Father, God Man and Man God, because the man that was built by My hand in the beginning did not want to be obedient and thus to have a parent when he was made an adult and has been able to give birth to a man to have a heir. However, the Father has made him the second time through Me, His Son. He has sent Me to lay down Myself in a Virgin belly and to be born in the fullness of time a baby, and to grow up in My body like the man, like the newborn baby, born God, the new man, in God's image and after His likeness in a perfect manner. Amen.

Oh, My people, the man from the beginning did not listen and died, as God told him that he would surely die if he did not listen to Him. And the Man from the end, Who was born, being sent by the Father, that One was the Son of the Father. I was that One, I, the One Who submitted to the Father to come on the earth in the fullness of time, God born of man, God Man, Son obedient to the Father, and then, to My mother Virgin. I listened to the man as Father wanted it and I have showed to the man the godly nature, and the man should also take of it if he wants to be the Son of the Father and to call Him Parent, as I call Him. Amen. No one can call someone "father" but the son. That is why the Father has sent Me into the world, He has sent Me to dwell in man, in the heart of the man, the Father's messenger, and to call to the Father for the man, and the man to call to the Father through Me, calling My Father Sabaoth "Parent". Amen.

Oh, My people let your spirit be in the Father, and this is how you should keep it, to be a son, for the son is heir and the servant is not, because the servant does not call his master "father." The son is the one who obeys, the son is the one who is born and obeys his Father then forever and ever, remaining obedient and working according to His word. Amen.

I would teach you like some children, always, always, for I have the power to do this upon you always, only for you to know to listen to stay under the teacher, under the one who loves and works My Holy Spirit upon you so that you may not be in the flesh but rather heavenly on earth, for the man was and is earthly, and God's sons are from heaven and stay in the Holy Spirit, Who has nothing in this world and of this world, but whatever he has is only from the Father and from the Son, and these Three are One. Amen. I would teach you again and again, for the obedient one always stays in the teaching and under the teacher. I would love you speaking to you, for God loves the one who loves Him, and He does not teach the one who does not love Him. I teach the sons in a different way, for the sons have to be taught in a special way, with gentleness or justice, according to his obedience. Amen.

My birth from the Virgin was obedience. I was obedient since I came down in her belly becoming so little as to be born afterwards, to be a born God; and My mother Virgin was obedient and received Me in her that I might be born a baby from her and to be her obedient child, and then to be perfect God in My appearance when John baptized Me in the water of Jordan to be confessed by the Father as His Son in Whom He was well pleased.

My birth was a great joy and a great pain. Joy for those who believed in the prophets, waiting for the fulfillment of their prophesies, and receiving Me with faith and longing and worship, and it was a pain for those who were after the elements of the world: kings and scribes, Pharisees and Sadducees and everything what the elements of the world mean. I cannot tell about My birth to the man more than the prophets spoke about in the Scriptures, and then My evangelists, for I took great care to be believed into the world as true God from true God. I was born a body from the body and I was glorified in the Spirit over the nations of the earth until I ascended into My Father's glory, for My apostles perfectly obeyed My word when I commanded them to go into the whole world and preach the Gospel about Me, the one about the kingdom of the heavens on the earth with the people. My birth from the Virgin mother was a birth from heaven and not a birth from the earth, and it was as in heaven. Amen.

It was only you, My mother; it is only you and I and My Father who knew My mystery, the mystery of the Son, the only One born, for you were the Virgin chosen from the beginning by the Father to be the mother of His Son. Amen.

— No one but I, my Father and You, Son born of my virgin body, only we know all the mystery of Your divinity, of Your birth and my virginity after Your birth. Your Father and mine took great care that You may be known on earth as God Man, and I want that the people of Your word to understand the mystery of Your birth perfectly, for You would be of great wisdom in its midst, and You have given them Your mysteries for Your people, that it may be the first born, the one born among the nations, to be like You, born of heaven through You, the One born of me; through You, the Word Which gives birth to God's sons of Him, Son born of the Father and of me, by the angelic news which I received from the Father for Your birth.

I stand by You in a celebration of birth and You stand by me, for it is our celebration of two thousand years, the one from the cave, which received in it the shepherds sent by the angels and by the Magi who were led by the star, which was giving the birth news of a king of the world. But You are a King from heaven, not of this world, and the world had no way of knowing You, who You were, because he who is born of heaven is humble in all and in everything, and the glory of the One Who is born from above has no room in the world, because the world has its own elements, heavenly Son.

Let us teach the sons of Your people the mystery of the God's sons. Let us keep them awake, alive and beautiful, for those that are saints are beautiful. Let us teach them to be gentle, humble in their heart and let us teach them to be obedient, to be just to You and to each other and in Your name, for the work, which takes care that everything may be into Your name, is great, Son and Lord. You are God the Son, and how beautiful is Your name for those that are Yours on the earth, for those that know that You are with them, appearing from them with Your mysterious glory and which is unfathomable by the mind of the small man in his heart, Son. Oh, glory to Your birth over the earth! The cherubim and seraphim and many heavenly hosts walked from above accompanying Your people on the way of the news giving of the feast of Your birth, and You went with glory before them. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, the man's heart is very small, Virgin mother. The man is small and he does not know to look and seek that afterwards he may be able to see My great glory. But I will start to make great signs on the earth and I will appear as a great God, the true God from My sons of today on the earth, for it is written into the prophets that I would fulfill this, mother.

Oh, My people, wipe out your little hands and your little feet. Pour out water in the vessel, and with My name into your midst by the grace put over My anointed sons may it be empowered the cleansing water, and give it over the whole earth, which I gave you to take care of and to keep. And you should also sprinkle yourself, My people, to be clean of everything that is in the world, for I have taken you and passed with you through the middle of the sons of the people and I have loved you through their hearts, so that they may also know for a moment the love, which makes the man happy as in heaven and not as on earth. Amen. And now, come to rest and to watchfulness and into a sweet prayer between Me and you, and keep everything that I have given you into your care, for I come and reward all of your labor of the obedient son, because those who obey receive a sonship reward. Amen.

Rejoice in your spirit and give praise to your God, Zion! I am the light of the knowledge. Carry Me, My people, and serve Me, as an obedient son, all the moment, for soon, soon, I will give you the sonship reward. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Baptism (Epiphany)

I breathe with a spirit of Epiphany over My manger of the word descending. I breathe with a strong spirit and as much as from heaven to earth. I breathe with all the angelic hosts to strengthen My gates and to enter victoriously into Jerusalem, in you, My little and tiny people and gentle one, to comfort you with a spirit of Epiphany, and to strengthen your power and your steps on the way of My coming to you as word on earth. Amen.

Oh, Sons who are the gates of My entrance into Jerusalem, to make it grow and to adorn it for My day of coming to My bride, to My people of today and tomorrow! Oh, children astounded by pains, by pains from everywhere! I, the Almighty God, have power in you, and I strengthen with it your little bodies and hearts and your standing before My word to receive it and to put it into the book. I embrace you within a spirit of Epiphany and I breathe upon you with powers and angels, for I have to make a word into the book in My day of celebration, the day of Epiphany of two thousand years ago since I, as an obedient Son to the Father and to the man, bowed in order to be baptized in Jordan by John, My godfather.

I told you with power that I see your love as an inextinguishable fire and its fire will burn your little hearts, suffering in them for Me, because I cannot comprise in the fire of My love in you for the man many and more people on the earth for the man to do My will, sons bearing of God and of His word over the earth, when it comes to you to put in into its book. I told you to be strong in your hearts and to keep away from weaknesses and pains and arrows and to stand by Me so that I may be able to put My word upon you for My people, to have it as My son. I pour out My glory through you on My people, and without you I do not do anything, for I am an obedient Son to any order established by My Father upon you to serve His plan who prepares the glory of My coming.

Strengthen your little hearts, for My word is coming down on earth with a spirit of Epiphany upon My people, and then with speaking in languages of Holy Spirit, as they are carried in the mystery of the baptism which I, the Lord, confirmed on the earth through John, who was baptizing with water and through Me, the One baptized by him in the water and that carry in My being of the Son of the Father Sabaoth the baptism with the Holy Spirit, the Mystery that contains in it the One Who is baptized with John's baptism, with the baptism of repentance, for this is what He was calling at Jordan: «Repent, repent, repent, for the kingdom of the heavens has come near». Amen.

But what is that, the kingdom of the heavens? This means God with the man, and here I am into your midst, Jerusalem, and here I am as I speak to you so that I may be able that by My speaking upon you to open the eyes of the blind and the ears of the deaf and the mind of those that are stiff-necked, for them to understand what God with the man means, the kingdom of the heavens. Amen, amen, amen.

I strengthen My word into your midst, My people, for I have strengthened My entrance gates into Jerusalem with the Holy Spirit. Any storm, any pain and any trouble, which comes against you, will be smashed against the gates, not against you, Jerusalem, and you will be protected, but the gates are in sufferance and in pain, for this work, by which I give you birth and I grow and protect you in order to have you as My people, is great and heavy to carry. The kingdom of the heavens and its word comes in through the gates to you, and I always teach you to be watchmen with great watch inside you, My people, for I am a watchman outside of you. Amen.

There is no man on earth to understand what the kingdom of the heavens is. He knows and dreams that it is high, into the sky and it is not seen on the earth. The man does not lose his time to understand better this mystery, by which John was crying with all his soul two thousand years ago at Jordan, saying: «Repent for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand! I baptize you in water to repentance and the One Who is coming after me will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and with fire, and here He is, This is Him: He is the Lamb of God, Who lifts up on His shoulders the sin of the world».

Oh, Jerusalem, oh, My little people, I made a cross of the sins of the world and I took it on My shoulders to carry it, but the man, having seen Me so painful, in pains for two thousand years, did not want and does not want to take away the cross of his sins from My shoulders. Each man heaps up sins upon sins on My cross, pain upon pain, but he has not got any comfort for My heavy cross from the man to give Me.

Oh, Jerusalem, My cross from the end of the time is heavier and heavier, the one from My coming to you, little son. I share it with those who carry it and bring it from earth into heaven and from heaven on to the earth for the man so see it. I go with it into My back to the Father and I have under it those that I carry it with, and then I come back with it on the earth for the man to hear My crying under the cross and My mercy for those with whom I carry My heavy cross from the end of the time. The sins of the world are under My heavy cross, and I make word out of it for the man to hear Me, and when I become word, I am hard to bear with him from heaven to earth, as heavy as My heavy cross, and it hurts Me in those with whom I carry the cross of My coming to you, people led by God through the darkness of the world nowadays, which does not know what is and how is and where is the kingdom of the heavens. It means God with the people; I with John at Jordan, coming to the people to lift up their sins and to take them on My shoulders and to give them of My life, of My mouth, as I have already done so, since I came out of the water of Jordan, of the water of baptism, and I walked on the earth speaking and working signs and miracles, and word from the word of the Father, Who gives life to the people through His beloved Son, for the Father above the water of the Jordan spoke the word and said: «This is My beloved Son, with Whom I am well pleased», and the Holy Spirit descending as a dove, confirmed the fulfillment of My Father's word, Who was above Me and at the same time in Me, speaking the word from heaven to confess Me, Who I was, and for the people that were gathered at Jordan for John's baptism to hear. Amen.

Soon, soon, there will flow crowds upon crowds here, at the river of the word of life, to the Jordan of life, and they will drink of its water, for the water on the earth will go dry and it will completely run dry, in such a way that the miracle of My word may be seen into your midst, Romanian Jerusalem, a people always baptized from heaven with the water of the river of life, with the word, which makes the sons who love the mystery of God's sons on the earth, and of the midst of whom I speak and confirm the kingdom of the heavens showing it to every man who wants to hear and see and to believe the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens on earth, God, the word with the man, for I spoke about the spirit and the truth, which the true worshippers of God will receive. Amen.

Oh, sons of the people, you look in vain to the place where I was crucified by the people of that time. It is in vain that you go there to boast that you were there; in vain, oh, sons of the people, for here is the Lamb of God, coming as word in the midst of the Romanian people in which He has His dwelling and kingdom now, in the end of the time. Bow and be baptized in the water of the river of life, for My teaching is waited by many nations, but hearing they do not hear, and seeing they do not see, and understanding they do not understand, for they are stiff-necked, so that they may not come back to their wicked paths so that I may receive them. Oh, sons of the people, I show you with My forefinger the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens, God with the man on the earth, His word in the midst of the nations of the earth on the Romanian land.

In a spirit of Epiphany I speak from above, I, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, the One born of the Virgin and the One baptized in Jordan by John, and I speak through the sons of My word in this time: the water from the Epiphany, of the fountains of My gardens of the New Jerusalem, is sanctified and blessed with the power, the coming and the work of the Holy Spirit, in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, with all the heavenly powers, with all the visible and invisible glory of the Godly Trinity, and is shared for the forgiveness of those who repent for the kingdom of the heavens, which is coming and here is how it has come, for the time is coming and it has already come in order to put the kingdom of Israel back to its place, the kingdom of the heavens, the new making of the world, the man in the image and likeness of God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, a new man, born of this word, which flows like the river of My mouth over My people and over the earth. Amen.

I embrace you to My bosom, for you are very tender. I embrace you to My bosom that is hurt after you, sons from the gates, for I, the Lord, the One confirmed as the Son of the Father in a day of Epiphany two thousand years ago at Jordan, I embrace you in the spirit of the heavenly powers and I have been breathing with great power upon you and in you and I have had you sit down before My word to receive in the book and to give it further to My people that are in pains for Me and for you, and to give it to the world that does not know what the mystery of the pain after God is, and to understand My coming to it and to wait for Me and then to come and rest from My heavy cross, for its sins are My heavy cross and I carry it with you, to give you of My life, of My pain from the man, of My comfort, children who love the pain and its power, for you are comforted only from pains and you do not have any other comfort on earth, and I am so merciful to you and to My pains in you. I have mercy and it hurts Me, but no one hears Me to make the man your comfort for you.

Be blessed with a blessing of Epiphany, for I with My Father in Me and with the Holy Spirit, Who testifies through My mouth upon you, embrace you to My painful bosom and I confess you to the world as those with whom I carry the cross of My pain from the end of the time and I speak over all the nations of the earth this way: these people are those in which now, after two thousand years from My coming, I am well pleased for My coming from the Father, to establish again the kingdom of Israel, the kingdom of God from the beginning, in a spirit of New Jerusalem on the earth with the people now in the end of the time. Amen.

Peace to you! I command and I rebuke to silence all the opposing powers, all the spirits of the darkness, which want to try you, I, the Lord, the Omniscient and Master of all things! Let them be silent, I say to them! For I have you in My arms for you are the light of My people, which I always teach, I always teach him the mystery of the sonship in My image and after My likeness, for I am the Son of the Father and I listen to Him, as you also listen to Me, obeying Me, sons, for I want you to listen to Me. The Father is in Me, I in the Father and you in the beloved Son and I in you, for the Father is well pleased with Me in you. Amen.

Be all, all like one, but to be this way, be in the One, your Lord, Jesus Christ, for here I am again into your midst, giving you life of My life, pain of My pain in order to be in My image and after My likeness. Peace to you! And let the world, which loves you in My name, receive of My peace in you and upon you, for the apostles in the world are loved by the world, but you are not from this world and that is why the world does not know you, sons. The world loves them, but it hates you because I testify from your midst that its works are as evil as its teachers who pretend to be teachers upon it into My name.

Peace to you! A spirit of Epiphany is upon your spirit and a heavenly heart, a heavenly will in your will, for you do not belong to yourselves to do your own will, but rather you belong to Me and this is how you should always listen, to always be sons, sons.

Peace to you! I gave you a strong guide out of your midst, for without a guide I cannot see you. There are no people without a shepherd and there is no shepherd without a people. Listen to the voice which leads you on My behalf from heaven and on earth, for the voice among you, which gives Me to you, speaks My word both in heaven and on earth, and the heaven listens and does so, for there is obedience in heaven and faith in everything that means godly order on earth as in heaven, in heaven as on earth, My people.

Peace to you! I embrace you greatly into this word. Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! The new spirit of the Epiphany embraces you within it, and let yourselves be embrace by it, and be My heaven of rest on earth. Let the earth of the righteousness be the earth under you, that the saints may be with you in a visible way, as you also are seen by My saints. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Your peace is My guide into your midst, My voice of the sons taken out of you to be on earth as in heaven and not as on earth, My people, for the sheep listen to the voice of their shepherd and go after him and know his voice. This is how you are to graze, Jerusalem, for I will not cease to teach you to be a son and to stay in the mystery of sonship. Amen.

Oh, sons from the gates, let the darkness and the light listen to you, and let each one of them know its work to fulfill these things according to My will, which I put in you to become word, for without you I cannot do anything.

Let there be light, sons! Let it be! Amen. The light overcomes the darkness, and you are to remain as the light, which overcomes, for it is dark without light, and the light shines in the darkness. Amen, amen, I say to you: walk in the light! Walk in the light! Walk in the light!

I put a guide in front of you, My people, because I love you. Peace to you, Jerusalem!

John, My godfather, is waiting at the gates. I strengthen My entrance with him through the gates, for it is through the gates that one enters into the citadel, through the gates and by My will, sons of the gates, and take heed with peace only to Me, only to Me, and be My will guarding My flock from the gates, keep it from the tearing wolves, who do not know My will into your midst.

Peace to you! I embrace you all and I keep you in the spirit of My peace. Peace to you sons, anointed in the name of the Trinity with a bishop like anointing to be one word, one will, one heart and one living love in My heart, for your love is God, anointed sons. Amen.

I bless with you the water for Epiphany and I empower it with the power of the Holy Spirit and with the spirit of the world, which shines in the darkness and which the darkness cannot contain, sons. I have embraced you with much word in My heavenly peace and this is how I have spoken, comforting My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the three holy hierarchs: Basil, Gregory and John

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I knock at the gates of My word between heaven and earth. I knock and it is opened to Me and I go in and shepherd My people. Amen, amen, amen.

My people, if I, the Lord, was not word upon you, you would no longer exist, for the time is hard, son; it is as long and hard as seven thousand years and this is how it presses down on you.

There have been seven thousand years of sins on earth and in heaven, Jerusalem of My coming as word on the earth. The heaven has been in pains for such a long time, and I have gathered you from the world to be Mine and to pour out in you My pain from the man. When you see Me so aggrieved do not let Me be this way. Grow rich in the spirit of comfort, which I let upon you in abundance and give Me to drink of it from your hand and from your mouth, into you midst, Jerusalem of nowadays. Oh, I cannot draw the man into My love. Oh, the man is no longer attracted by My comfort for he has its love on the earth. The man has his life and not Mine, My people. He should not have had any worries but My life in him and everything that I have given him for his life in My life with him. However, he has not done so, and this pain has been affecting Me for seven ages, and I have gathered you from the world and made you by this word and I have called you Mine, Jerusalem, and I have set My pain before you so that you may comfort Me from it. I stand before you in a great mystery and I become a word of pain and I want you, My people, to carry My pain, for the painless man has been getting lost again and again for seven thousand years. He does no longer want to know the sweetness, the comfort and the life, which comes from My pain in him.

Oh, how well it is for the man when he denies himself and comes after Me to carry My pain, for it is mercy that I want, not sacrifice. I would take the man to put him on My wound, but is it so hard to make him salve for My pain. It is so hard to make the man grow out of his pains, out of his longings and of his life, and the opposing spirit has always been trying to shake My way to the man.

For almost fifty years I have been sprinkling Myself again and again with the news of the kingdom of the heavens on earth, and the man does not believe that this word is My second coming from the Father. He does not know and does not want to know to read the Scriptures in which I wrote Myself down with the word of My mouth speaking about My coming now. I told My disciples who asked Me about My coming, which was to put My kingdom back into its place: «Learn this parable from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender, when you see this, you should know that the Lord is at the doors». Amen, amen, amen.

I come in the clouds of the sky with power and much glory. I have saints and angels with Me and all the heavenly powers and I strengthen My path to keep Me on it. I have with Me among the saints of My coming: the three bishops, Basil, Gregory and John. As long as they lived in their bodies on earth they had given up their life receiving Mine instead, and they had been comforting Me with their life in My life, and I meant them to work out near Me, from heaven, My anointing from the end of the time over the anointed sons by whom I, the Lord, renewed My fig tree, for two thousand years ago I said this: «When the branch of the fig tree becomes tender, you should know that the Lord is at the doors». Amen, amen, amen.

— Lord, Bishop of the Father, beloved Son, obedient Son to the Father, bless the entrance of Your saints! Amen, amen, amen.

— The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit bless you, those who have the bishop anointing for the end of the time, over the sons of God, who are waited by the whole the creature, which groans after redemption waiting them. Amen.

— Oh, we are Your comfort Lord, Lamb wounded from the longing. You have been looking for the work of Your hands, the man, since You lost him and until to Your Jerusalem of today of Your coming, aggrieved Lord. In the time when we were on the earth, Your pain and longing after the man seized us and we stood before You as workers and comforters for You, and we were counseling the man to come closer and listen to You and to become Your son and Your servant for the work of the man's returning to You. Your longing for the man is consuming You, and the man is cold at Your pain and he does not comfort You and he does not seek after Your comfort, for he has his own comfort on the earth. But what will the man say when he sees Your kingdom shining in the midst of the earth to the comfort of those who persevere in it in the midst of the nations on the earth?

The Scriptures of Your coming come true and no one knows to see them. No one opens the Scripture of Your coming and the books of the prophets from before You on earth, in which it is written about Your coming of today, about the time of today and about Your work in the days of Your coming. The man closes the door in Your face and says that You said that no one knows when You come; no one but Your Father.

— I, the Father, want to speak for one moment near You and near Your saints, who speak today to Your people from Your coming, Son, Who come coming.

I, the Father Sabaoth, the Almighty, the Creator of the heaven and the earth and of the things that are seen and of those that are not seen, confessed My Son at Jordan, and then I gave Him to the people, and He was the kingdom of the heavens, for all and everything live in Him. Amen.

I, the Father Sabaoth, speak for a moment and tell everyone who cover with the Scripture of My Son, who says through it that no one knows the day of the coming of My Son, neither the angels from heaven nor the Son, but only the Father. I, the Father, speak and tell them this way: if no one knows, neither the angels nor the Son of the Father, where do you know from not to wait for the coming of My Son and not to hear that He comes? Did He say to you that He is not coming? Did He say to you? No, He did not tell you this. He told you to watch for His coming instead. And now I ask you: if you speak out this Scripture that even the Son does not know when He comes, have you listened to Him if He told you to watch for His coming? Answer Me! However you will answer when you do not expect of this, as it is written about those who do not watch for the coming of My Son, Who, here it is how He is coming for those who watch for the coming of the Bridegroom! There He is! This is He, and He is called the Word of God, as it is written in the book of the beloved John about the name of My Son in the end of the time (Rev. 19/13, r.n.), and to Whom those who receive Him as word upon them say: “Bless is the One Who comes in the name of the Lord.” Amen.

I, the Father Sabaoth, speak after two thousand years from My confession for My Son at Jordan, I speak from the midst of My people of today, of Romanians, and I say: this is the coming of the Son of Man, the coming of the Bridegroom to His bride and as the lightning, which crosses with its light the sky from east to west in a twinkle of an eye, here is His coming with power and much glory becoming a river of word over the earth, the word of the eternal life, the river of life of which drink those that are thirsty after Him. This is the coming of My Son, the Son of the Man, the Word of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Who puts the kingdom of Israel back into its place, the kingdom of God, the new man, the new heaven and the new earth, the new creation, the new birth of the world, which were made by the word in the beginning as in the end. Amen.

I, the Father Sabaoth, have spoken and testified for those who want to hear and to know from the Father, for My Son is in Me and I in Him when I speak and when He speaks from Me. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, Father Sabaoth, of Your Son and ours and of those who are His on earth now, in the end of the time! The people on the earth do not know, and neither do the apostles who call themselves the disciples of Your Son, they do not know to believe let alone to wait for Your Son and everything that is written into the Scriptures of His coming! However, we know what comes to those who believe in Your Son. We know that the greatest consequence is the faith in Him and in His coming and in His work after seven thousand years upon the man. But we, Your saints, wanted to believe and we believed and saw and confessed. Amen. No one believes in God but only after He passes leaving His signs behind Him. No one believes in the saints but only after they pass away leaving their signs behind them and the signs of their faith. However, the kingdom of Your Son, which is now on the Romanian land, will be forever and ever, for it is written in the Scriptures of the Holy Spirit this, what we confess now, and «All the nations on the earth will serve Him». Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, children of the Holy Spirit, oh sons who open to the Lord! Take the Scripture of the prophet Daniel and write from it the prophecy of the coming of the Son of Man and then we will go forward with the word and we will work out the feast of today with the whole heaven among you. Amen.

«I saw in the night-visions, and, behold, there came with the clouds of the sky one like a Son of Man, and He came even to the Ancient of days. And they brought Him near before Him, and there was given Him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations and languages should serve him: His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and His kingdom that shall never be destroyed». (Daniel 7/13). Amen.

Oh, children of the Holy Spirit, take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, for nothing is covered that will not be uncovered and nothing is that will not be known. It is written: «Anyone who will confess the Lord before men, he will be also confessed before the angels of God. But whoever denies the Lord before men, he will also be denied before the angels of God». Amen. Testify about this coming of the Lord and spread the news of His coming from margins to margins, for we, the saints, in thousands and thousands come to you at the Lord's word with help for you and for the Lord with you, for the Lord is coming to you with all the revealing of the mysteries hidden in the Scriptures, for the time has come for those that do not see to see, to the judgment of their unbelief and to pray to the Son of God to help them in their unbelief, to increase their faith as He also increases the faith of His chosen disciples, and with whom He spent on the earth, leaving His Gospel to them.

We lift up our hands for a bishop blessing and speak this way: in the name of the Most Holy Trinity, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, may the Lord's blessing be upon you, with His grace and with His love for the people now and forever and ever. Amen. We strengthen the anointing into your midst, Romanian Jerusalem, with a threefold blessing, and let the sons, anointed with the anointing of a bishop work this way upon you, according to their anointment, for it is the time for the creature to wake up, which has been waiting under the rock of ages for seven thousand years groaning after the life without death, Jerusalem.

Open Your hand, Lord, and give to them. Come with Your glory upon them, for it is the time for You to be glorified uncovered upon them. Teach them Your kingdom and give them powers through the hard time and give them boundless love to love You as much as You have loved them and to give their lives to You to make them into a living parable, the man in Your image and after Your likeness and for the nations of the earth to see that You have a kingdom on earth and You rule into its midst and lead the nations with Your word until You draw them all to the Father, for Your pain after the man is a great pain as there has been nowhere else on the earth, and Your groaning stirs up the spirit of the saints and the saints come with You on the earth in word and the saints of the heaven confess the work of Your faith from now and from then, and which is to be soon, soon, with all its accomplishments on the earth.

We, Your three bishops, Lord, ask You: seek from heaven and see and search out Your people of today and give from heaven to it. Visit this vineyard, which You planted and make it perfect to Your praise, to the praise of the saints' greatness, Lord. We cry together with You after the man. Your groaning is in our groaning and all Your saints have been waiting for Your glory on the earth near Your people that is so greatly protected by Your heavenly watch, Lord of the saints. You do not receive glory from the humans, but You receive glory from Your people as well as from Your saints, Lord, for they carry Your love in them. Our prayer for Your comfort is that You may always give Your love to Your people, for it is woe to the man who has his love in him, in which You cannot have any room, because You are as clean as the sky and kneaded in a virginal body and You are not touched by any sin, only for the man to be able to do it too, after You became Man, and for You to be able to come after the man and to show Your love to him.

Give bread to Your sons, for they are poor, Lord. Give them all Your help for Your plan with them. We stand with our hands lifted before You, for we are alive and walk on the earth as You did, and we pray from them: give them always Your kingdom in them and the protection of

Your kingdom and its work in them, Lord, Who are alive forever and ever! Now we give them a bishop blessing from near You over the festive table, which they set before us to our memorial near them. And as for You, embrace them in Your word and teach them endlessly and keep them within the spirit of watchfulness forever, and fill them with the love of Your glory in them, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

— My people, the saints are waiting for you to be victorious with My name marked on your forehead. I have told you to go together with a guide and dare not go otherwise, either in the light or in the darkness. I, your Lord and God, always look into your midst, from the middle and from the sides, and I look into your sons, Jerusalem, to search their minds and hearts in which I want to work out grace from heaven, love from God and for God, and everything to be shown before the people. Amen.

Oh, sons of My people, you are not to be small but only in evil, and you should be great in doing good and in My glory, sons. Be perfect in your spirit, for the spirit makes the body perfect. I teach you always, always, the mysteries of life and its power. Do not be feeble for the power of My life is in you. Do not seek to have a heart without the Lord in it. Do not seek for a heart without any guard in it, without any power. Seek to have your hearts on fire for the Holy Spirit, for the evil spirit stays face to face with you and you have teaching from Me concerning your waging the war against the evil spirit, which has great, great wickedness against you. But he, who dwells with Me in him, is not enslaved by the evil spirit in any way. Amen. Listen to Me and listen to the guide set by Me upon you, for those who are a guide for Me upon you have from Me their wisdom for your protection and for your victory by your obedience to God in your spirit, soul and body, My people. You should get up in the morning and say praying to Me with all your mind to Me and in Me: “Lord, illuminate my mind and open my heart, and let my lips speak out praise to You, for You come unknowingly and You know each one’s works.” This is how you should live, My people, for your life is only in Mine, and it is only by it that the death, which causes the man to separate himself from God, is overcome. You should not give your heart and your love and your feeling to anyone and to anything, son and My people, for here is how I teach your freedom in Me and your slavery with Me, for whoever is not a servant submitted to Me, that one cannot be free into Me. I have mercy on the man when I teach you this way. It is not only you that I have mercy on, when I teach you, Jerusalem. You should surrender to Me your worries for your life, for your heart and for your warmth in it, for I am the One Who is and you should always choose Me upon you and you should stay under a teacher, son. Your teacher looks at you from near and far for he has My Spirit given to him for your protection, Jerusalem.

Oh, you should become God’s glory on the earth, a great glory, for the heaven looks at you to take the joy of your spirit in My Spirit and for the saints to eat food from the Holy Spirit from your table with Me, from My table with you, My people. Do you see how sweetly I teach you? I teach you to be, I teach you to know, I teach you to be able to stand by much, much love of God, Jerusalem, and then I look at you with longing to see how you listen to Me. Amen.

You should know My people, that you cannot love My through joys. The joy of sufferance after God, this is what you should love, and you should also learn the mystery of self-denial working on it and not only having known how this is, for I cry and cry again after My life in man and I have no one to carry the pain of My heart with, My people. The sons who are My gates to you are feeble, and there they cry within their spirit, from the midst, the children who long so much after My glory with them for their rest in Me and Mine in them.

Oh, Jerusalem, strengthen your longing and My living in you and be on your guard working, for it is extremely hard on earth and you do not know how much the heaven fights for your life, for My kingdom with you, Israel of today. I have taught you to stay with your heart outside and not in your bosom, and this teaching of Mine is great. And if I have taught you this way, I fulfill this not according to how much you know and feel, and not according to how much you do this. I have power through the spoken word and then I can fulfill it.

Amen, amen, I say to you: blessed is the one who does not stumble against Me. You should ask this word from your teachers and you should ask it from all your heart and your mind and you should make it come true in such a way that you, in turn, to be able to work it out so that no one may stumble against you and from you, My people, in order to be a living Gospel of those who seek a refuge with you for My glory into your midst.

Amen, amen, I say to you, Jerusalem: blessed are those that are pure in their heart, for they will see God. And I say again: blessed are those who are poor in their spirit for they are God's sons, and all the nations will call them this way, for I will put the fruit of this happiness in them. Amen.

Do not be without My word among you, for it is written in the books of the apostles: «Let the Word of God abide abundantly among you». Do not be unthankful, so that you may not murmur under hardships, sons. Be clean in your hearts and be poor in your spirit, so that the Lord may dwell in you with the peace of His coming. Receive Me with My peace in you, with the longing in you, with My abundance in you, and let us spend together in this way and do not look out of the window (Into spirit of world, r.n.) but only into the house instead, sons, taking great care of it and of Me, your Bridegroom and Master. Take great care for Me to be always, always among you. Ask for the Holy Spirit and receive Him and carry Him and spend together with Him in your heart and tongue and be tongues of Holy Spirit, for blessed are those who listen to the word of God and fulfill it exactly, sons who are taught by God. Amen, amen, amen.

And after you will have spent the feast of today, I, the Lord, will come closer to you again with the word, to give to you, anointed sons, exhortation for those that we have to fulfill now. Amen, amen, amen.

I give to you, My children, a great work to do. I lift up with you above the ground My places with you. We put a new mark on the citadel with strong gates and its name will be as in the Scriptures of the age, which is to come: The Holy Citadel New Jerusalem, and its foundation will be the Holy Virginia, as she has been since the year in which we founded Jerusalem again, the year of 1955, and then again, the year of 1995, when I wrote it again, rebuilt anew on the same rock.

Go with the blessing of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit and fulfill now the holy name of the citadel, and then be worthy of its name, and may its name be worthy of you, of you and of all the sanctified people, for I want to have a holy people as its name is declared in heaven by the saints and angels. Amen. Give yourselves to the Lord and stay this way. Be My right hand on the earth, as your anointing is, sons, and strengthen Me upon you, in such a way that I may protect you with much power, you and the ground under you. And I will give you new advice, whose fulfillments, I, the Lord, wait then from you forever, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Meeting (Candlemas)

Jerusalem, My people, let your gates be lifted up and let the Lord come in to you, for today is a feast of your Lord, God, and today He is again upon you, for you have to be protected from above, from below and from the sides; you should be protected by God, for the man cannot protect you if you are the Lord's people, for it is written: «Unless the Lord watches over the citadel, the watchmen guards it in vain». (Ps. 127/1). Amen, amen, amen.

Soon, soon, the nations will come to meet you as the Lord's people, Jerusalem, for these will see the salvation, which I, the Lord, prepare into your midst: «a light for the revealing of the nations and glory to My people Israel of today», as it is written. Amen. Soon, soon, I will no longer retain My glory into your midst, but I have to strengthen the ground under you and I command the angels of the counsel, strength and light in thousands and thousands to stay always, always, around you to My work, which I have to fulfill upon you and then from you on the earth, My people.

Every great man on the earth relies on the multitudes of his chariots and his horsemen, but the people smash each other then when they do not have any God from heaven as Master over them. However, I am the Master, and without Me not a small blade of grass limbers and the people lift up each other as it is written: «A great nation will rise», and «the venomous serpent will bite the horse's leg for the rider to fall down, and he will judge his people», every man that worships the man and not the Lord. Amen.

I want to lift you up more and more to the confession of the river of life, which flows from God's throne and His Lamb's into your midst and from you over the earth, New Jerusalem. This glory of Mine is with you as great as the heaven and the earth, but I keep it under a veil and into your midst and over your borders. It will come that My glory with you will be fulfilled visibly and all the nations of the earth will see how I come to you on the clouds of the heaven with power and much glory, with much, much word, which will be like a net that no keeping from far or near waits for it, because the Master, travelling far in a mystery, comes when His servants do no longer wait for Him to come.

I want, Jerusalem, to give you advice again and again and you should be small so that you may receive them and to use great, great humility before Me and that it should be your love for Me, because the man on the earth, who believes that He loves Me, does not know what his love for Me is; he does not know because he is only a human and that is all, and the one, who does not sanctify My name of Father by his living, is not My son; the Father, Who has sons with His kingdom in them and not outside of them, not by their great works into My name before the people, but by their life in Mine instead, and the Father is in Me when I speak to the man in His name and when He Himself speaks with My speaking at the same time. Oh, how much I want you to do the same with your speaking into My name in such a way that you may no longer know when you speak and when I speak in you and from you! Oh, how much I wait for the union of the Holy Spirit with your faithful spirit, as I also have before you those that are My guide upon you, a pillar of word of fire, which seeks to illuminate you, to cheer you up, to feed you, to keep you, to grow you until you become My full comfort, My accomplishment into your being, My people, for this is the comfort that I wait from you; I do not wait for another comfort from your sons. The comfort in heaven is otherwise and is not like that one from the earth. The comfort of the sons of God on the earth has to be My life lived by them, My grace in them, My power in them, and all to be carried within all humility, for there is no other comfort of the spirit above the humility, which allows the Lord to dwell in the man with all His glory, with all His coming to the man, My people.

Oh, how much I wait for the union of the Holy Spirit in a perfect manner with you in a visible work, sweet tongues and rivers of word of the Holy Spirit, My being in your being, in your humble spirit before Me, for the man in the beginning, made by My hand, did not know of humility, because I put aside all those that were Mine, in the tree of which I told the man not to eat. He forgot that he was a man made by God and if he became conceited like a god, then only the fruit of the knowledge of the evil from the tree that was put aside fell on him, for the fruit of good were Mine, and the man had to keep God in him with them, if he wanted not to become conceited, wanting to be God over everything, greater than the Most High God. Humility was also in the things of the knowledge of good and evil, but the good things of the knowledge were not the fruit of the man build by My hand, because the man's conceitedness draws him away from God's things, from the good things, which mean God's life in man.

The comfort is otherwise in heaven; it is not like on earth, My people, and because the man did not take of it at his making out of disobedience, the one from the tree of the knowledge, he now does not know the fruits of the comfort, the fruits of humility, My grace in man, so that the man may be full of grace afterwards. There is no comfort of the spirit above the heart's humility, which allows the Lord to dwell in man with all His glory, with all His coming at the man. I wait, Jerusalem, for the rivers of the Holy Spirit, which are to flow out of your sons in sweet and full of grace tongues, and that is why I have put you in school with a teacher until the time comes for the greatness of the Holy Spirit to flow out of you, and I, the Lord, to be released from My longing after the man, of My secret groaning, carried on the earth between Me and man, for the man who is late to come and follow Me by self-denial and then by the spirit of humility, the sweetest sacrifice brought by the man before God. Amen.

I want, Jerusalem, to multiply the work brought by you before Me. I still want to go with you on the earth in a mysterious way to spend with you among the people as I did two thousand years with My disciples, giving My kingdom to the people, the baptism with the Holy Spirit, Who speaks in sweet tongues over the multitudes to come and to see My glory, to come from the faraway lands for the peoples, languages and the nations on the earth and their kings to see Me into your midst, for this is the Scriptures, which I want to fulfill from you in the spirit of John, to whom, I, the Lord, showed it to make My coming of today known, as I made it known through the prophet Daniel seven times before of My coming in the flesh, born of the Virgin on the earth, and to make a new covenant of new birth of the man, and, again, behold another covenant of new birth of the world, a work that I did with you, those of today, disciples of the kingdom of the Gospel, with which it comes on the earth after the man; the renewal of the world, as it is written into My Scriptures with My disciples of that time, who stay now in the name of the twelve tribes of Israel, judging them by this word of Mine, the word of the kingdom, which now is being made by this word, to My glory into your midst, My people of today.

Soon, soon, the Romanian country will appear over the peoples, and the glory of My word will shine on the earth, and you will spring forth like grass with your heart in you, which will jump then because of My glory with you. I am the One Who promises and fulfills and you will be My joy, and I will be yours into My holy mountain, from the place where My word flows over the earth. Amen.

Every great man on earth relies on the number of his chariots and his horsemen, but the Lord is your praise and your glory, My people. My rule is eternal, a dominion, which will not pass away and My kingdom and yours will never be destroyed. Amen, amen, amen.

I have comforted you, New Jerusalem, with the voice of My word, and I comfort you from your midst by those that are My guide upon you, for you and for Me with you, My people. Their peace is My victory and yours in the midst of the nations on the earth. I give My peace to them, and they give it to you according to your measure, according to the power of your humility, which brings the heaven on the earth for you, the humble one before Me. Do not forget that there is not any comfort of the Holy Spirit and your spirit above your humility, which lets Me stay in you with all My glory, with all My coming, with all My will into your midst, people of the Lord's coming now, at the end of the time when I started with you the age, which is to be, and its life on earth; I with you into the midst of the nations, My people. You should stay humble under My hand with your life, for the people of Israel has been haughty among the nations because My glory upon him, and his haughtiness has been dying away at the same time with him before Me, but his remnant will be saved by My apostles from the Jews, who will gather together from all the margins all those that are saved from Israel for My glory of today, which shines upon the Israel after the flesh, to come after Me and to be saved, according to their number written in the Scriptures for salvation, and then, according to your intercession for him before Me, for whoever among the Jews will give you a glass of water into My name of that time and of the one of today, which is God, the Word, that one will be called great before Me among the sons of Israel after the flesh in these days. Amen.

Oh, sons, who are My gates, I have welcomed you with My word that is upon you, and you, with the opening of My gates to My people and yours to come in as word in Jerusalem. We prepare the visible glory of My word, I with you and with the saints from heaven and with the angels in thousands and thousands, sons, and I will cause that the nations will come together and drink of My water, for there will no longer be water on the earth anywhere, and My river of life giving will fill the world, which is thirsty after the water that keeps the man alive, and not any other kind of water. And you will be the sharers, who give Me further as the word of the Holy Spirit upon the earth, and those who will come to drink will be the receivers of the good faith and they will walk faithfully before Me. And we will expand ourselves high and low, on accordance with the margins, which will embrace among them My glory that was prophesied in the Scriptures, for the veil on it will be taken away by My hand, because it is the time for the country of My coming to meet Me, and then to be known as the first one, sons, God's sons, who are uncovered from the veil on you, for the creature that has been groaning for seven thousand years groans waiting for you to be on the earth, sons, to the renewal of the world, to the redemption of the creature, and then to the life of the age to come on the earth without time. Amen.

Stay under My word, for it is good not to get out of it anymore, and to receive it more and more to its glory with you and yours with it, to the power of its fulfillment over the earth and in heaven, sons, who stay as the entrance gate of My word. Receive My comfort from Me, for I take you by your little hand among the angels and I show you to the saints and I comfort Myself with you when you love Me not loving anything else beside Me and My work with you on the earth.

Come in under My peace, which I always give you, and give of it to anyone who loves the Holy Spirit and receives of its fruit, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the memorial of the parable of the Pharisee and the Publican

I write Myself down into My book with you today, too, and you should open for Me, sons, who are My gates! Open the gates, for I come down as the word in the book, a word of teaching over the earth and over you. Amen.

Today we remember the tax collector (The Publican) and the Pharisee, who came to pray in the temple. I want to teach the man in this day too, for I am with you as word, I am Teacher and I shepherd all the nations of the earth with an iron staff, with the teaching, which the man does not find on earth, for there is haughtiness and pride upon the man on the earth, and such a man cannot yield fruit with his teaching about the kingdom of the heavens, if even he does not remain in it in such a way that the man may see that he has got it, and then to follow him.

The good works, which the man does in My name from his earnings, these can be a snare for his soul, for the Master of the heaven and of the earth asks from the man those that are in him, not those that are outside of him, and I said: «I desire mercy not sacrifice». There is no man on earth to understand this word, but I have found you, faithful children, and I have been teaching you to believe, the way I like the man to believe, and first I have taught you the wisdom of the mind and then its works into your little hearts, and only after that the work of your hands and all the work that starts from the things of the man. Amen. I have been seeking mercy from the man for seven thousand years and the multitude of his sacrifice does not comfort Me. When I see the man that he heaps up works upon works into My name upon the man, when I see that he does not know that this is not the kingdom of the heavens, which I, the Lord, wait to exist in the man, then it hurts Me, it really hurts Me, sons and children. What shall I do to the man? What shall really I do to him? What shall I do to those who think that they are the Christians of the church, who do so many works to the joy of their heart? There is no one to tell them that Scripture, which says that: «Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted». (Mat. 23:12) The man does to the man not to Me, and after he does so, he exalts himself in his mind thinking that he is Mine, that he has Me by his deeds. My plan with the man is another one, but poor of him, he does not find any teaching to lead the man to Me, the One Who gives eternal life to the humble man in his heart and by the work of his hand.

I have come now, after two thousand years, like a thief, and I have found the man without God on earth, without faith on earth, for I said: «When the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on earth to do justice to His chosen ones, who cry out to Him day and night and for whom He has long endurance? Yes, He will do them justice, soon, soon, I say». Amen. But who are those, My chosen ones? They are those who call for Me to come and they are those who desire Me to save them from their death and from the eternal perdition; they are not like those who say like the Pharisee, who coming to the temple to pray, was thanking Me that he was not like the other people, who stole and did wrong and went into revelry, or like the tax collector who also came before Me with his prayer: and the Pharisee was also reminding Me that he was fasting two days a week and that he was giving tithes of everything he had got. Behold, that one had only the impression that he was My chosen one, but My elected are those who cry out to Me day and night, staying within My coming with their spirit, with their soul and with their body, within the humility that was pleasant to Me, because anyone who humbles himself, that one knows how to exalt himself before God. Amen.

Oh, how shall I make the man see his wondering away? How shall I make the Pharisee give up his haughtiness and his sleep that loses his soul? How shall I make him know how to pray in such a way that I may be merciful to him and to be his debtor? How shall I make the Pharisee not think of himself that he was righteous and in this way to make Me his debtor for the righteousness that asks Me in return of his works and of his fasting and of those that he gives from his earnings? But to whom does he give? Oh, the Pharisee does not give Me anything? He gives to those of his kind, and because he has earnings, he does not steal, he does not do any wrong to anyone, but rather he gives to those that are like him and to those that serve at the altar, not to Me. Oh, the one who gives Me, gives otherwise. The tax collector gave Me his crying, being shy to come closer even in his crying, and standing far away he did not have the courage to lift up his eyes to heaven but instead he only beat his breast saying, «God, be merciful to me, a sinner, Lord!» The tax collector beat his breast. And in this way he was knocking at My door and not lifting his eyes up. He was beating his heart, and there he found Me and called Me to be merciful to him and to wipe out his sins because of humility of his heart, which was helping him to exalt himself to take Me as his help in his life full of temptations and perdition.

Oh, how shall I do it in order to teach the man to keep knocking at God's gate and to receive the forgiveness of his many sins? I want the man to see his sins, not his deeds. Oh, when are you going to do this, Pharisee man? Until when are you going to call Me your debtor because of your fasting, for your tithe of what you have got, for your law, about which you say that you fulfill it? Until when, really? When are you going to hang your head and beating your breast in which I am supposed to dwell and not you, to be able then to say that I have mercy on you, and persevering day and night to keep asking Me this? Do you see, man Pharisee, what does it mean to be My chosen? It means the one who cries out day and night to Me to bring him justice against his enemy, the devil, who walks to swallow, if possible, even those that are My chosen ones, who always keep crying out to Me.

The tax collector saw his sins, and the Pharisee did not. The Pharisee acknowledged his evil works and the heaviest of his sin, the haughtiness, did not see it. The man alone cannot; the Christian alone cannot see the sin of his haughtiness, which he covers with his works brought before Me. I have a guide before you, My people, and you should stay under its counsel with great humility when it looks after you to put you always, always, before Me, as a pleasant one. But with the man from the world, who thinks that he is Mine by his haughty works, how shall I teach him? I teach him through My word between Me and you and I do My duty as Teacher upon all the nations of the earth before My coming when I will give each one according to his works. Amen.

Oh, children, who are guidance on My behalf for the holy and humble walk before Me of My people of today! Give each one according to his deed. Work with each one according to his deed and not otherwise. And meet out justice to those who call Me to come and save them from their adversary, the devil, who goes about to swallow even My elect, children sons. Work like Me, for I am a merciful judge to those that are Mine who call out to Me, day and night, and for whom I am long-enduring.

Whoever will not receive God's kingdom like an infant, will not come into it, because anyone who humbles himself will be exalted and he will be exalted to Me with his heart in him, with his submission, which exalts him among those that are well pleased to Me. Those who are well pleased to Me come up with their prayer in pains after Me and they cry out day and night to save them from death, and I am long-enduring for these, and because of My patience for them, the haughty and unrepentant man gets courage, only that he may be able to see that My goodness leads him to repentance and to a prayer like that of the tax collector, who was beating his breast, not even daring to lift up his eyes to heaven, but rather saying with pain: «God, be merciful to me, a sinner!»

I want mercy. Why does the man not hear what I want? Why does he not bring Me a sacrifice for his sin and a tithe of his earnings, so that he may have Me his debtor afterwards, the same as the Pharisee had Me, reminding Me of his good deeds and of his tithes to the temple and of the evil deeds of the tax collector? Those who serve at the altar are those who receive sacrifices from the man for the sin of the man, who was obviously a sinner by the sacrifice he brought to the altar, a sacrifice of which the one who serves at the altar lives and not I, and I do not live either in the one who brings the sacrifice to the altar for his sin, or in the one who receives on the altar his sacrifice for the sin, the sacrifice shown in the law for the sin. However I want mercy. The one, who serves at the altar for the sinful man, wants sacrifice, and I want mercy from the man and from the one who does not help the man who sins, but receives his sacrifice for the sin instead, as also today people upon people and crowds of people who are gathered in the worldly churches give memorials, money and offerings to the ministers from the altars as in the time of the sacrifices for the sins of Israel, and I do not want these sacrifices, but I rather want the man's repentance, the man's heart, while the ministers from the altars suck the blood of those that are poor and rich who bring their offering to the altars, and the ministers of the altars do nothing else; they do not help the people to give up their evil deeds and then to keep crying out to Me day and night to do them justice against their adversary, the devil, who keeps them slaves to the temptation of the spirit of the world, the temptation of their bodies and to any kind of temptation. I desire mercy so that I may be merciful to the man. The tax collector was merciful to Me and he was calling Me to comfort him with his repentance beating his breast because of his remorse and because of the terror of the punishment for his deeds.

I desire mercy, both from the man to Me and from Me to the man, but especially from the man to Me. The sacrifice for the sin or the tithe is for the one who serves at the altar, and is not for Me, and the man is loaded with his sins for Me and with the sins of the servant who lives on the sins of the man. Oh, if any man on the earth would not commit any sin, what would the ministers of the altars live on, those who minister before Me for the sinful man? They would live on the Pharisee's tithe, and they would still live from the altar. Soon, soon, soon, I will take revenge on them, for they do not help either those that are born and nor do they help those that die to enter the kingdom of the heavens as little children, but rather they keep asking them for money and money again, even after the man dies. Oh, when are they going to do good things for the poor? When are they going to have mercy on their soul, and then to have mercy on Me? When, Pharisee? When, you minister at the altar? When, are you, scribe, going to bring Me your pleasant sacrifice to Me, the humility of your heart and the spirit of your humility, to exalt you to heaven with the heart and not with the eyes and not with the work of your hands, which has reached to My bone making me your debtor? When are you going to learn what mercy is and not sacrifice? I come soon, and I will pay you according to your deed. And to those who keep crying to Me day and night to come, I will come to them and I will make My house with them and I will dine with them and I will appear to them. However, I have already come and I have done this and I have fulfilled under your eyes the justice of those for whom, I, the Lord, was long enduring, waiting for the Pharisee's repentance to come before Me, as that one of the tax collector, who was calling Me with his crushed heart to be merciful to him.

Oh, why did I have to choose a Pharisee and a tax collector's name for this parable mentioned today in a spirit of the church? The haughtiness and humility, these is what I underlined by remembering of this parable; the righteous and the sinful. The righteous one does no longer bow to the sinful, and the sinful exalts himself to Me through the crushing of his heart after the heavenly Savior, and the righteous denounces him to Me for his sins. Oh, it is not possible this way, because for a sinful man who repents, I leave ninety-nine righteous people and I listen to the despair of the one who knocks in the middle of the night for mercy at My gate. Humility is the one, which enters the gate of the heaven, and the haughtiness remains below, on the earth. Amen.

I would like you, My people, not even for a little moment to stay without any guidance, son, for I want you to be humble in your heart and to pray forever for you and for the human kind to come to humility, My people. The man alone cannot see the sin of his haughtiness, which he covers with his works for his neighbor or with his tithe brought to the altar. The haughty man cannot see the sin of his haughtiness. The sin of haughtiness is the lack of the humility of the heart. The clean heart receives God, both from heaven and from earth, and the eyes of the one, who is humble within his heart and with his deed, see, but the eyes of those who are proud do not see. However, you should believe what I tell you and not make Me be wounded from you, but rather you should welcome your neighbor and take as an example the one who becomes a parable for the kingdom of the heavens before you, for he, who will not receive the kingdom of the heavens as a little child, will not enter it at all. Amen. Seek to be a little infant, always an infant, and then you will always receive the little hand, which keeps you standing for My kingdom, which is of those who are humble in their heart, the same as those who are small and submit to any good thing, which comes to embrace them, My people.

I want to embrace you all into the kingdom of the heavens, sons, but still it belongs to those who are small. You should not be great over the others but rather you should be like babies who have a father and love from the father. Soon, soon, I want to speak to you again about the kingdom of the heavens in you and among you, for I want all the nations of the earth to see My kingdom in you. Let yourselves be moldable for it and with it. Be dolls and let Me do to you whatever I want, and always let your will be always My will, children lead by Me, lead by God, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the memorial of the Prodigal son's parable. The feast of the Saint martyr Charalambos

I gather you together at the mouth of My word, My people, Jerusalem. No one should wonder on the earth that I, the Lord, Almighty, call you Jerusalem. This is how I call My people wherever it might have been on the earth. But the mindless man, the one without a head, the one without any guidance, does not know My heavenly speaking and he has sat down to judge My word and his heavenly speaking on the earth. I speak as in the Scriptures and the Scriptures of My coming are written with a feather by the man's hand, but their word is My word, and they were written on the earth before My coming of that time and the time now, only that the man without any guidance cannot make clear the mysteries of My word, because I spoke and I speak only spiritually for those who are spiritual, and I pass under the eyes of the man and fulfill, and the man, without the Lord in his life day by day, does not understand My work over the earth.

I gather you near the word of My mouth, My people, chosen out of the Romanians, and I write Myself with your hand on the earth with My coming, with My word, which prepares you for the day when I will show you in the glory of My coming to you, and I will perfect Myself completely visible, when everyone's eyes will be opened by My power itself, according to My word, which says that «All the nations of the earth will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the heaven with power and much glory, when He will gather through the angels all those that are His chosen ones from the four winds in order to give them His kingdom». All, all are written in the beginning of My coming and in the end of the glory of My word, and I will fulfill everything by My word, as I spoke about them. Amen.

I write upon you your whole name, My people, for you are My citadel, My New Jerusalem of today. I grow you up and I water you from heaven not from earth. I give you birth from heaven and I give you from heaven to eat much word and I call you people from heaven, and not a people from the earth, and let your humility shine greatly day and night before Me, for I have given you a new name, loved citadel, for this is what the Scriptures says: «I saw the Holy Citadel, the New Jerusalem, coming down from heaven, from God, that is made ready like a bride, adorned for her Bridegroom». Amen, amen, amen. I write you down on earth by your whole name: the Holy Citadel New Jerusalem. By now I have kept you under the veil and I have called you: the New Jerusalem Citadel. But now, the holy time is coming closer and closer; it is coming with the saints in heaven as on earth and there it comes My power, which fulfills the Scriptures under the eyes of those who are stiff-necked and stand against the Holy Spirit. However, I powerfully breathe the Holy Spirit as word and I bring together by the breath of My mouth all those that are holy and all those that are sanctified on the hearing of My coming, which will bring all those who will walk on the paths of the life and who will learn from Me, because the disciples are not born if there is no teacher. Here I am, a mysterious Teacher that came from the Father on earth, to bring under My mantle all those that are scattered from Israel and all the nations of the earth who will see the glory of My word coming down on earth over My people of the Romanians, the people of the New Jerusalem, the holy citadel, made ready like a bride for her Bridegroom. Amen.

May your new name be blessed, loved citadel, and soon, soon, I will teach you to celebrate with the saints on the earth into the midst of the nations and you will obey as I teach you, for I want to bring under the love of My word all those that are scattered from Israel and to make them walk in My holy ways and to listen to God, after that for such a long time, they have stayed far away from My will due to their stubbornness, wasting away their wealth in pleasures and revelries among the nations, as a young man who lusts for pleasures. However, I will bring great pain on earth, famine of peace and pleasures, so that nothing and nothing else may make the man glad, and then I will fulfill the parable of the prodigal sons' coming back, who spent all his life and its wealth in pleasures. Amen.

Oh, My people, I have got such a great work to accomplish on earth, and you are small and feeble and have nothing else but My word as your master. But he is delivered and fulfilled only to have you as a sign of My coming, for I have wanted very much to have a man and a people to whom I may give My word of today, and with whom to prepare the glory of My coming. Set yourself to work with Me and preach Me as an obedient son and spread the news of My coming to you, so that I may be fulfilled with it over the earth, for it is written about Me: «Out of His mouth proceeds a sharp, double-edged sword, that with it He should strike the nations. He will rule them with a rod of iron. He threads the winepress of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty. He has on His garment and on His thigh a name written: "King of kings, and Lord of Lords». (Rev. 19/15, 16.) Amen, amen, amen.

You should wake up to My glory with you, My people, and you should become a feast of My coming in all the time and you should be beautiful with My beauty to inherit it forever and to give to eat of My mouth to everyone who will come back from their evil ways, and it will be for Me to say to them: «These were dead and are resurrected, they were lost and they are found». You should arise with My power to give Me to the man as mercy, for My word is your wealth, the manna which I feed you on to be like Me among the nations on the earth, and for Me to give you My name as your inheritance, because for so many ages I have not got any other people to speak with the same as My work is, and as the nature between Me and the man is. But behold, I have come as word on the earth to fulfill the Scriptures of My second coming from near the Father and also to tell this to the Israel after the flesh that he has become conceited over the nations with his wealth from Me and with his name near My name. However, two thousand years ago, I hardened his heart because of the sin of his callousness and I stood against him coming from the Father in a mysterious way, born of a Virgin, to prove him out of God's love, and then I judged him as it was written in the prophets about his callousness and about his denial of God. But now, after two thousand years of his wandering away, I, the Lord, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, call him to come after Me so that he may not be punished. Let him come to give him food from heaven and that he may no longer enchant himself with bitter food, with his glory due to his haughtiness, for soon, soon, there will no longer be any haughty man on the earth, but rather there will remain only a gentle and a humble people on earth, which follows the righteousness and peace, as it is written into the prophets. Amen.

I want to hear Israel after the flesh praying to My Father and his Father, saying: "I went wrong, Father, against heaven and against You, and I am no longer worthy to be Your son, but make me like one of Your servants." (Luke 15/21) And the Father, seeing him while he was still far off and thinking of his coming back to his Father, was moved with compassion for him, came to meet him with a gentle voice and gave him the best robe and shoes on his feet and put him at his table as the one who was dead and was alive again, who was lost and then was found.

Oh, My people Jerusalem of the Romanians, you should take a good look into My word upon you and this is how you are to grow with every word, and this is how you are to believe, for I have such a great work to do through you and even the saints and the angels marvel at you. And let My gates into your midst be open, day and night, for My entrance as word to you, for I will feed many nations, because I will sent a great famine on the earth in such a way that I may be able to turn those who are My elected to Me, to see My spring and then to water them with it. You should kneel down and pray to Your Father and to Me for all accomplishments spoken by Me and this should be your work, and your church will be the first, it will be My bride, after My will, and its light will give light to the nations, and then «no nation will draw forth its sword against another nation», as it is written. Amen.

Now, the sin of the man's haughtiness still stands against me, but My angel will tear this beast down and all its false prophets together with the antichrist with his number, with all his chickens, with all his dark plan, which I, the Lord, will bring it into the light and I will destroy it with the breath of My mouth, with My word, which breathes upon you, Jerusalem of My coming. You are small, and that is why you should not be afraid, for the little one has a father, and it is the father who takes care of the child and the child is to take care of himself, only to be a child, to stay only in the kingdom of his father. Amen.

I bless you with the spirit of the holiness and of the cleanness of the spirit, soul and body, and this should be your work, and those into your midst should be My guidance upon you, to work with Me upon you and to put you into this blessing. Amen. I am the Holy One and I give Myself to the saints in heaven and on earth and then I will come again as word upon you and I will speak to you about this mystery, the mystery of My saints. Amen.

The spirit of holiness and of the cleanness of the spirit, soul and body, will be to teach all those who will love the eternal life as the saints with whom I come down to you today in the glory of My word upon you, Jerusalem. You should always have this spirit fresh before Me, not before you and not before the man, for neither you nor the man, but only I will be to glorify you with My glory, so that I may rejoice over your life. Get used to know well to stand before Me with your spirit, so that I may put and not you, to put a spirit of life giving into your spirit through My school over you, in which I want you not to be asleep but rather loving and diligent within school, so that I may prepare you for everything I may have to work through you, My people, for I want to increase the number of those who will learn to work like Me, being sent into My name, for behold, I look upon the earth and many try to speak over others in the name of this work. Only I, the Lord, have My gates through which Israel gets out and comes in to Me, by which My messenger goes and comes, and by which the man hears from Me to come or not to come, as I want, as I see the man. Amen.

I have put into your midst a celebration of word, and with My coming with the saints, I make the great martyr Charalambos rejoice, the miracle performer, for the saints celebrate him today in their synod, as the church mentions him on the earth, praying to him to be the intercessor before Me for the man. And I tell him to rejoice with you protecting you with a strong hand and with miracles about which there has never been spoken on the earth and in heaven, for his grace from Me is great, given for those who pray through him before Me. Amen.

— And as for me, Lord, this is how I will work, as You speak now, making my spirit rejoice into Your work given to me through much protection over Your people, for the nations of the earth to see how much grace and how much love You have for those who gave You a house for Your coming now, after two thousand years from Your coming into the midst of Israel after the flesh. We, Your saints, will follow Your word of today and we will go to Israel, who denied You and we will give them of Your spirit, for we have power from You to do this, for You come with the saints, and You do not come otherwise, and this is written into the prophets, Lord, and many saints, who were cut on the earth because of their testimony, went up in heaven for their testimony about Jesus Christ. Amen, amen, amen.

— I give you a great work, oh, saints who gave up your lives standing against the pagans for My testimony. Help and comfort My little people of today and open the eyes of those who do not want to see Me coming, for behold, I definitely come, because it is written into the Scriptures that I come. Amen.

And as for you, children of My holy Jerusalem on earth, you should know that all the nations on the earth will see the country of brightness, soon, soon, when I will point to it by My finger, by My heavenly glory upon it.

You should know, Romanian Jerusalem, that the glory of My coming back on to the land of your country, is coming soon, soon, and you will be the child carried in the arms when all will come and will take My comfort out of your hand, the spirit of My comfort for those who wait for My coming with a very long groaning, My glory by which I come and comfort those that wait for Me with it. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the fearful judgment

I enshroud you within the mystery of the Holy Spirit and His work, My people, because I want to make you into My fulfilled word, and you should be My will, for so and this is the true people of the Lord: the Lord's will as in heaven so on earth, the Lord's will. Amen, amen, amen.

I wanted that the first man that I created in the beginning to be My will and that is why I built him when I created him. But the man who comes out of the man, that one is the will of the man and his own will, after that he becomes a man who another man can come out of. This happens because the first man, built by My hand, pulled himself out of My Spirit and made an evil spirit for himself, and I have remained crying and I have remained without man because from then on the man was no longer according to My will. Since then and until now I have been crying after the man, and My angels long near Me and they do their work, which I gave them, to keep the man away from the spirit opposing to Me, from the man's opposition in order to be according to My will, and to keep the man from his will and to bring him again at My will.

As for you, Romanian Jerusalem, you shall not forget that you were chosen from among the people. You were chosen by God to make you His will on earth, and then, served by His angels, to do the Lord's work, the work of the man's coming back to My will, My people. You shall not be afraid of the opposing man to My will, My people, when I am with you and when you are with Me, for many of those who believe in Me according to their will, wait for the antichrist<sup>170</sup> not for Me, and they have been looking after him as they have received teaching from the earth about the antichrist's coming, and the antichrists of today rejoice greatly when they see the man waiting for someone with the name of antichrist!

Oh, My people, the faithful man does no longer wait for Me. He gets lost in rumors, for the broods of antichrist know what to do to make the man no longer know of My coming and no longer prepare for it, and to lose his mind, his courage and his life waiting for the antichrist. However, you should wait from dawn to dawn for the Lord, your God, Who is coming to save you for His kingdom, Jerusalem of today. The man looks at you and does not want to know of My coming to you, My people, and behold how I come and when I come to you and how long I am with you! I go with you through the world but the world does not see Me, for I reveal Myself only to the eyes of those who have the Holy Spirit believing into My coming of two thousand years ago when I told My disciples that I would be with them to the end of the age, with those who are Mine, with those who do My will and My coming on earth.

Oh, My people, woe to the man who does not have Me as his God! However, I have no one to tell all these, because the man says that he has not got Me, but he does not say that the man cannot serve two or three gods. First, the man serves to his own self and those who come out of him and then he serves the man of vainglory, and by this he serves the evil spirit, the spirit opposing to God, the spirit of lawlessness, which I will destroy together with his man, by the breath of My mouth whenever I come to you as word on earth, My people, for this is the breath of My coming: My word, which breathes of My mouth, and that you hear from your midst, and by which I prove out the man of lawlessness; however, I always destroy his power displaying his work, hostile to Me and to the man who would try to get up and deny himself and then to be able to follow Me for his salvation, seeing all his wisdom for My kingdom on earth with the man, a kingdom that will never be destroyed. Amen.

I celebrate into your midst the memorial of the Gospel of My word of two thousand years ago, by which I spoke to My disciples about My kingdom, which I will come on earth with. I told them this: «When the Son of Man will come in His glory with all angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory and all the nations will be gathered before Him and He will separate them one from another and will set the sheep on His right hand and the goats on His left hand. Then the King will tell those on His right hand: Come, blessed of My Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry, and you gave Me food to eat; I was thirsty and you gave Me to drink; I was a stranger, and you took Me in; naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me; I was in prison, and you came to Me. You served Me whenever you did it to one of the least of My brothers, for you did it to Me. And those who did not do this for My least ones, they did not do it to Me and they will remain in the place prepared to the devil and his angels». (Matt. 25:32-45)

But why do I speak so clearly the word of the Gospel, which is remembered today in a work of church? I speak of it and I call it the fearful judgment, to show to the man that he does not want and he does not look to be the blessed of My Father visiting Me, the One carried by those that are My least on earth. Those who have become great and so great that they rule the earth and every man on it; I do not find any of these to search out the shortcomings of those who are the least of My people: Mine are those little ones who suffer because they are Mine, for the big man says: “Let God give to those who are His.” But behold the fearful judgment: I am word on earth and sitting on the throne of My glory from the midst of the Romanian people with My angels, I speak for all the nations of the earth and I set them by the word on My right hand and I set them also on My left hand. Those who have visited Me and looked for Me with faith, when I, carried by those little of Mine, cross the earth with the word to bring the news of the kingdom of the heavens against the kingdom of the antichrist, the man of lawlessness, I call these the blessed of My Father, and I tell them to come to inherit their own things that are gathered there, where the moth does not eat and where the thief does not steal them.

But to whom shall I speak this word of My Father's blessing, My people, when you, My least one and with whom I carry the cross of My second coming from the Father, are not helped under the cross? I have been teaching you not to receive anything as a gift, but rather to work for your food, for your drink, for your clothing, and to take care of you and to keep from the evil one, in such a way that the man may be drawn to the work of your hands when I come with it into the man's way to speak to him about My coming with My kingdom and about its heirs who come together in it through My least ones, and for the man to take from you and to give you from him.

Oh, My people, the whole world, which still knows that God is and that the faith in God still is as well, and the reward for the sin of the man's separation from Me, remains in the world too, a world of lawlessness, for the lawlessness is a greedy woman, who entices the man to take and to eat of it that he will not die but live instead. There is no man in the world to be able to stop him doing his trespasses, by which he heaps up treasures on earth. I seek and I seek again after the man to make him be the blessed of My Father, if he wants to find the fallow land with a treasure in it and to give everything he has got in order to buy it. Oh, how beautiful for the man and how sweet for him, if he made everything on earth with My blessing and not with the blessing of the man that takes after him! And behold, the man does not know who the antichrist is, who makes high places on earth for himself and then writes My name on them in order to draw to him all those who still have faith in Me. But these men do no longer see and do no longer know the way to Me because of the antichrist who set himself on a high place, clothed in My robe (Of priest and bishop, r.n.), because by assuming My name on him, he is no longer known by the man without wisdom, and the man does no longer see Me and does no longer discern Me to follow Me, the humble and poor One through those that are My least ones, and then to help Me while in need and sufferance, but rather he helps him and only him and his debauchery and haughtiness, drunken by the blood of the saints. However, I, the Lamb of the Father Sabaoth, am the Lord of the lords and the King of the kings and I wage war against every man who is My adversary and I will overcome him and you will also overcome those who are working together with Me for My victory, you who are called My elected, for behold the fearful judgment, because they have not gathered anything with Me, and they have not given anything to Me, but on the contrary, they have robbed Me, My name, My house, My clothing and My glory. And for this, here is what the fearful judgment says, which I spoke with My mouth and with the breath of My mouth two thousand years ago, when I came from the Father and when the ruler of this world was judged by My death, by My resurrection and by My sitting on the right hand of the Father as the King of the world, the slaughtered Lamb for the man's redemption. Amen.

My people of today, it is for you that I help those under My heavy cross of today, because I have among people those that have not bowed their knees to Baal and I will carry you into My arms until My great salvation with you, only for you to be My least one and to listen to Me and to work My glory into your midst and to receive it as your inheritance for the joy of My coming.

Pray, Romanian Jerusalem, for every man, from Adam up to the one in the day of My glory, for all the nations of the earth stay, willing or not, before the fearful judgment, so that all the man's gathering may become dust, and that I may be glorified by signs and fearful miracles for those who have not gathered for themselves and have not sold all their wealth for the kingdom, which is to remain on earth and which the man that has not been waiting for, since he has been building his own kingdom and the kingdom of his offspring.

You should get ready with a big heart and a strong faith for praying and fasting beside it, for I, the Lord and your God, through these, I will take the devil and all his angels away from the earth and I will take over the kingdom of the earth from his possession into My possession, because he still has a little bit of time, very little and he will testify that God is against him and he is no more. Amen.

Sing Jerusalem, and comfort God and be an obedient child, My people. Let your comfort and your life be My glory and My love over you, for I fulfill the prophecy for the end from your midst, in which is written that all the nations will come to the spring of this mountain of My glory and of My word and they will say: «Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths». Amen.

The lust and the pride of those who call themselves My servants in the world, I tell them from the seat of the glory of My word: I do not know where they have their lust and pride from, those who would like to be in My place among the people. And I also tell them that the people that are shepherded by them serve more to the devil than to Me, since they have not got any parable set before them to follow.

Oh, Jerusalem of today, you should tell this to the man what a Christian man is supposed to be, and a son of the church whose head is Jesus Christ! Many people have been waiting for My teaching that is on you, My people, and you will share the Lord, and you should always be clothed in grace, always dressed beautifully inside and outside and well known to Me, and you know this work of those whom I know. Multiply yourself within the grace from your midst and long for it as the spirit of comfort, for I want you to be My sign on earth, the place and the time by which I ask the man about his life and about his work. Amen. And you should keep on praying in such a way that the Holy Spirit may start burning from one another into your midst according to the nature of His work, My people. I have a guiding light before you and you should always live only in light and to remain like that to see you and that you may see Me and to be able to follow Me, My people, and that you may always be only glory, always, because the glory of My word is being given to you to share it and to get used to sharing it.

Oh, Jerusalem, you should always be ready for My glory with you, for I want to give way to the river of your mouth to flow for the man to see Me near you and in you and to humble his pride and to stretch out his hand so that I may give him and to have what I give him. Amen. Now I strengthen you within all My things with a word of blessing for you to grow and blossom by My grace and not by your power, for you are little and have no power, My people, and that is why I teach you to ask from Me and to be able to work for Me and for you with Me and for that man that will stand up to take Me from you because I want the whole earth to find out about you and about the country of My choice, in which I have you, My people, Romanian Jerusalem.

Be blessed forever. May the anointed sons always bless you, and strengthen yourself by My work on you as body and word, for this is how I am wholly into your midst and I am always today, and you should also be the same, My people, you should always be today. Amen.

Strengthen the spirit of praying and of worshipping and praise the Lord and bless Him. You, those who are anointed by a threefold anointment, strengthen the prayer placed on the altar and strengthen it and make it threefold and even sevenfold, anointed sons, and administrate well the time for you and for the people for Me, as it is for you that you do this and for My glory with you, sons. I strengthen you all and I keep you all the time at My bosom and I teach you to always stay like that and this is how the people are to learn from you, but be careful to My teaching into your midst, anointed sons, and love one another through it, for through it you are Mine. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the memorial of Adam's expulsion from Paradise

I come closer to the manger of My word and I wake up My people that are in the gates. Amen. Come, children, come for I want to set Myself as word in the book, but first I want to comfort you from your pains. Your body, your soul and your spirit hurt you from all kinds of strikes, but you shall not forget that I am the One Who am in pains in you, because if you were not My guide before My people, you would not be hurt of so many pains that you have got, but you, for My sake, bear all things that hurt Me, for you are in the flesh and the body has eyes, years, legs, back and a living soul. I have made use of you completely for the bearing of My pains, because I have been guiding My people heavily, to have My people, only Mine, and to teach him not to belong to himself, so that I may have power over him and to be able to reveal My glory, which waits to be seen from margins to margins, but the man stands against Me, children hurt under the burden. I take a look at My pains in you and I have no way to take them away from you when they are, when they come. Your love is great for Me and you try very hard to keep My people on My arm and the time is not enough for you because of all your care for the people and for My work on the earth, and I have much, much, very much work to do and to speak in order to keep My people standing and to give it all it needs for life and to stretch out My hand after the man, children sons. I want to draw the man into heaven; this is what I want to do through My coming as word on earth. I want to do My will on earth and I do not have room enough because of the man's will, and I have told you to write down that the man's free will is not good, but God's will is good. Amen, amen, amen.

Now, I am about to cry with you, children, under the burden of My coming. I take you and I go with you until the day when I lost the man from Paradise. Look and see what the free will of the man built by My hand could do. Behold the man, who has given My will on his will.

We celebrate a feast of word, but a feast with pain in it. I can no longer make the man love Me. I can no longer make the man do My will, because the man is born of the man who did his will denying My will from him. The spirit of the free will told him that he will not die if he does his will, and that he will only know instead, but he had never told him that this was death and not life without death in it. The life without death was the one, which I gave to the man to have it in Paradise, eating of its fruits. However, in order to teach him the love beside the obedience that I gave him to life in Paradise, I gave him the occasion to learn it and I said to him: «Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat, but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, you shall not eat of it, for in the day that you eat of it you will surely die». (Gen. 2:16, 17) From that very moment he had the power to show Me his love by obedience with love in it. However, he used discontent instead. He received the power to rule over all that I had made for the man until I created him, and once with the power that he had from Me, he became conceited over Me as though he would be master, as the man has been doing since then and until today, because the man has not seen Me when I am in a mystery.

I cry with you into My arms, children under the burden of My coming, for the man, built by My hand, has used dissatisfaction. No comfort from all the beings with a living soul was found for him, that I made by the word for the man's joy. When I saw that he uses his power and his discontent, I put him into a deep sleep and I took the woman out of him and I brought her before him and he said: «This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh». (Gen. 2:23) And only this way he found his content in Paradise. I looked with pain when he said this, and then he went on saying: «Therefore a man will leave his father and his mother, and will join with his wife, and they will be one flesh». (Gen. 2:24) Then the man saw himself in his woman, and he left Me and did her will, for she was drawn to her husband, the man she was taken out of.

Oh, you that were built by My hand out of clay, I took the woman out of you to take the evil away from you but you took and ate of it and then you judged Me. You judged God in Paradise after you did your will, for I asked you: «What is this you have done?» You judged Me because I gave you the woman and you said to Me: «The woman whom you gave to be with Me, she told me that I would not die, and that I would know instead». I gave her to you, but I did not tell you to listen to her, but rather I told you to eat of all the trees in Paradise and not of her, and you should receive the word from My mouth, not from her mouth, and she was supposed to be in submission to you, as you should have also been submitted to Me because I created you. You had the power given from Me to show your love to Me by obedience with love in it, but you have caught a spirit of mastership over everything on earth and you have reached out your hand to rule over heaven and over My seat and over My dwelling in you on earth; however, I was the Most Holy One and I was looking at you with pain. If you had listened to Me to grow and to multiply out of Me and not out of you, you would have remained master over you by the word that was upon you, but you gave up your obedience to Me and then the woman that I took out of your body became word upon you and she told you to eat of the tree of knowledge saying that you would not die, but rather that you would know like God. When she reached out her hand to take and eat, not only that you did not tell her not to take, but you also took out of her hand and ate and thus you forgot to listen to Me; you forgot to love Me after I set you to work out the love with the affection in it. You did not want to know the love, but rather you wanted to know what knowledge is and then to be like God, knowing everything, the connoisseur of God's being, Who brought everything from nothing into being. And as for Me, the Creator of everything, I gave you to eat of all the trees of the garden and to be content and good and to love life and not the death as a consequence of your disobedience.

Now, after seven thousand years from My pain caused by you, I speak with you in front of the human kind, and you, the one built by My hand out of clay, bow before your Creator. Amen, amen, amen.

— At the last hour of the man's repentance, You set me face to face with You, oh, my creator, so that every living being may hear me from my creation and until Your coming, which is working after seven thousand years at the resurrection of the dead, from the last to the first and up to me, Lord.

I am the man built by Your hand out of clay, and breathing upon me, You gave me a living soul and You told me to have dominion over all that You took out of the earth, living beings, after their kind and You told me to rejoice in the midst of Your creation. Then You made me a house, to have only joys and You called it the garden of Eden and You set me in it and You told me to eat of the goodness that was growing in the trees of the garden, Lord. However, I thought I was the master over everything and by so doing I went wrong before You, my Master. You brought all the living creatures to give them a name and I gave them a name by Your wisdom with which You were in my being, but I did not find any suitable help for me among all the living creatures. Then You took the woman out of me and brought her to me, and I saw myself in her, and she in me, and then I said: «She is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh and she will be called woman», and then I said: «Therefore, the man will leave his father and his mother and will join with his woman and they will be one flesh». (Gen. 2:23, 24) Then I made You upset, because God was my Father and my mother and the spirit of evil came into being in me and the deceitful one heard me and said to the woman: "Has really God said not to eat of all the trees of the garden?" And she answered him saying that we could eat of all the trees except of the tree in the midst of the garden, lest we would die. Then she was answered: "You will not surely die, and in the day you eat you will be like God knowing good and evil." Since then the woman started longing after eating of the tree in order to receive knowledge and then she ate and knew, and then I also took and ate, and this is how the man ate of the tree of knowledge, Lord, and afterwards he saw himself naked and they were ashamed one from another and covered themselves with fig tree, and then they were afraid of God because of their disobedience by which they reasoned out the godly nature and they wanted to hide one from another and from God.

I stand before You with my sin, my Creator. I tell to man that it is not good for him to be alone. And I tell the man as You also told him, that Your word is good and my word is wicked; it is wicked because it is not Your word. I repent of my sin from the garden, for I said by my word that «the man will leave his father and his mother and will join with his wife and they will be one flesh». I gave up obedience to You, my Creator, and I listened to the woman and I ate of the tree of the knowledge and in this way I knew that I was naked. I was ashamed of my nakedness, for my spirit knew the good and the evil, which entered my being after I came to know, and I did no longer work the love, which would have made me turn to You again, and which would have helped me to humble before You because of my disobedience, and then fear seized my being and made me hide. And because I wanted to hide, I made You upset and I hurt You because of my life, which fell from the garden of obedience, for I did not want to listen to You afterwards. Oh, how well would have been with me and with You if I had humbled myself then before You because of my wrongdoing, my Creator! But I was joined to my woman and I did not listen to You to choose You again then as my Father and to listen to You in such a way that Your creation could not die. It was I, myself, that I made haste of my getting out of the garden, for my haughtiness stood against me and I lost my happiness and I found pain instead. However, You are the Comforter, the Merciful, and You have given me life again, and You said that the one who humbles will be exalted, Lord.

You took Your last sons for me to see their humility by which they bowed to You to listen to You after seven years of the man's disobedience and through them to give Your hand to the dead so that they may get up, Lord. And I look at them and say:

Oh, sons of God, here I am! I stand before my Creator and before you. Behold the man that gave God's will on his will. God cries and says that He cannot make the man do the Lord's will, because the man is born out of me, the man who did his will giving up God's will in him. The spirit of the free will is death upon man and this spirit is as old as seven thousand years.

I want to speak of what disobedience can do with the man. After the man makes use of it, he receives the spirit of discontent and he tries to set himself over another man with it, and this sin makes the two of them to hide it. If the Creator of the man saw this sin in man, He has dwelt on earth with the word of His knowledge, the One Who knows everything, for nothing can be hidden by the man before God, but everything is through the light instead.

Oh, sons of God from the days of His coming with the resurrection of the dead who soon, soon will stand before Him and who stand face to face before God by His word on you! I tell the man not to be disobedient anymore, not to commit sin for the sin tries to hide in man and between man and man. I told the man to walk in the light, for everything the man tries to hide from is darkness and the light proves him out. I tell the man to humble and to get out into the light with all his hidden things. I tell the man not to become haughty, because the one who gets haughty then hides and becomes discontent and then he goes to set his dissatisfaction between man and man, and then the two of them hide, and this means darkness over which the Spirit of the Lord hovers to bring the man out of his darkness into the light. However, I, the man built by God, tell the man no to hide either in him or between man and man, and let each one receive his life giving himself to God, and not to seek for another citadel of escape, for here it is how the Lord takes me out to be seen and then for the Spirit of God to have mercy upon me, the One Who searches out the world and the man to take him out of the world and to take him into His bosom, for the man to be taken into God's bosom. Amen.

Oh, sons of Adam, I cry to you. Flee from the spirit of the woman and then you will be able to overcome your body and everything that is on earth. Flee from debauchery. Debauchery is a woman spirit. «Every sin that the man does is outside the body, but the man who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body». (1 Cor. 6:18) Run to this spring of the resurrection of the dead and make your bodies a temple of the Holy Spirit, for God is crying after the man. Coming back into Paradise is holiness. It makes the man's body into God's kingdom. Receive the correction from God's mouth because I did not do this and it was only that I justified against myself and nothing else, even if I was upset with God and thinking that I could blame Him because He gave me the woman. When the man goes wrong doing his will, he hides after that; he hides and is not afraid that his hiding exalts the man and gives him power for it against God and against man and against his own self.

In heaven is not as on earth and I was taken away of the Paradise and then I saw this. When the man gives himself over to God, he is taken from earth and set by God in heaven, but if he forgets that in heaven is not as on earth, the man lies to himself as I lied to myself when I was in Paradise. The coming back into Paradise is holiness, but it is nothing, nothing without obedience, and I was the first that I lied to myself and I saw that in heaven was not as on earth, as on the earth of which I was taken by God when He made the man. If it had been well for the man on earth, He would have let me on earth after my creation, but the Lord made me a garden of Paradise, filled with trees pleasant to the sight and good for food, and I was supposed to eat of those fruits and in no way was I supposed to eat of the tree that had in it the fruits of good and evil, that only God was master over it, so that I could not be touched and that the man might not search out God's being. If I ate of that tree I grew up to be like God and my eyes were opened and I saw what I did and then I was afraid of God's being because I saw that I was naked. When the Lord called me, I told him that I hid and that I was naked. And He asked me: «Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?» (Gen. 3:11) I could not, and there was no way to hide from God and now I tell it to every man that hiding is a lie that deceives the man telling him that he can hide, and the man keeps the man a slave to the hidings, great or small, and the man does not get out of this slavery even for his salvation.

I am sorry that I did not humble in Paradise, and as for you man, you should also be sorry that you did not humble and do not humble on earth so that God may take you and give the heaven to you. Get humble and make your steps right to the knowledge of God, Who puts the way under your feet, the holiness of the heaven, for the Lord is very merciful.

Keep away from sexual immorality, oh, sons of the people, and receive power from God to be able to become sons of God, for I tell you a great mystery, and here is what I want to tell you: « I have compassion for whom I will » (Ex. 33:19), said the Lord God. If the man becomes freely God's will by persevering in it, by obedience and by His great and much word through the man when the Lord is merciful and is well pleased with the man, and there is no one to judge a man like that, who makes the light over the world and over the man, because happy is the man to whom the Lord does not keep his sins into account because he becomes His will. Amen.

Oh, sons of God, the Lord has brought me face to face with you, and you are so merciful that the Lord cannot remember your wrongdoings in your life on earth. The Lord is giving me through you the forgiveness of my sin, which has been pressing hard on the entire human kind in such a way that no one has escaped except Him, except the Man born of the Virgin, the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, He Who became flesh on earth in the Virgin, and then He was born and grew until the age of my body made by Him and then, on the fullness of that age, He died for my sin made in that very hour when I ate from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, and then I knew like God after I broke His commandment that told me not to eat of the fruit of the tree, which God had dominion on. You are merciful like the Lord. His Spirit is in you more and more with every passing day for the resurrection of the creature. Come out of your burdens and breathe over the dead and over the living for all and everything wait for their redemption. Oh, how fragile you are and how hard it is on you! Oh, how merciful you are!

Take care of them, my Creator, for You have been merciful to them and You have made them the light of the world and the salt of the world, for they have You as word upon them, as I had You in Paradise, my Creator. I had lived for almost an age on earth and I had not got under Your burden, my Creator, and you have set seven ages over the people and their body is decaying and the burden on them is very heavy and they are the merciful ones, those little of Yours, by whom You write with their hand in the flesh of the man the word of the Holy Spirit, the calling to resurrection for all the creature, Lord.

Oh, little sons, I would go on looking at you and I would keep on testifying before the nations of the earth that you are so merciful for God and for man! Oh, who else is to judge you for your wrongdoings when you have such a great burden to carry? The burden of the Lord, His coming with His saints in tens of thousands and thousands. Amen.

I kiss this land on which you live and of which I was made by God. I smell its perfume, I listen to the beatings of its heart and no one around you knows its mystery and my mystery in it, and you are in it the Lord's merciful ones, those who are broken by the burden of His coming. You are blessed, you who are broken under this burden, even if you are always, always, always in pains, and because you are so little, you can hardly manage to go on through the pains. The Lord mourns for your weaknesses and I have mercy on you and I have mercy on the Lord, from this bridge between heaven and earth, from among those that are seen and those that are not seen. Soon, soon, the Lord will give a new heart over every man that is on earth, but all, everything starts with you, little children and God's sons, who have been waited by all creature, which has been crying after you to be and to carry the heavy burden of the Lord's coming after those seven ages of the Lord's crying after the man. There is still a little while, very little, and you will no longer have pains, but only comforts, for the Lord works out now at your pains that you have and turns them into comforts for you, those who are so merciful on God and on man. Carry the Lord within His coming and every creature will bless you soon, soon, soon. I bow my forehead and I feel the love of your heart, and blessed are those who will bow to you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Who comes to you and the Spirit works with you, the Spirit from Whom everything comes and will come to life. Amen, amen, amen.

— Now it is I, the Lord that I speak. I am the One Who speaks, and I give Myself to the saints in heaven and on earth, for he who hears this word of Mine in heaven and on earth, that one is sanctified by it for the word is holy and it is the Lord. Amen.

I have told you, Jerusalem of today, and I have told you not long ago that I will speak to you about the mystery of My saints. My word sanctifies the man, and it makes the creature come to life under it, son. I took those in the garden of My word and I went with them until the day when I lost the man from Paradise, and I told them: “Look and see what the man’s free will could do, the man built by My hand. Behold the man who gave My will for his will.” I have come back with them to celebrate with you a feast of word, a feast with pain in it, for I have been fighting to make the man love Me and I cannot make him break his will for My will in him. I have been fighting heavily and with a great burden over those who have stood for My coming, I have been fighting to make the man no longer eat sin, that the man may no longer take out of the woman, and that he may no longer take from the woman, and rather to take from the tree of life to be healed from his own self. I am the tree of life and I become river of word over the man so that the man may understand the mystery of My saints, My word, which has been sanctified over the man in order to set him where there is no pain, no sadness and no groaning, where there is no pain, because there is no other way what it means those that I want to put the man in. Every sin that the man does is outside the body, but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body. I command the woman that she may no longer kill the man by her body and spirit of woman. I command the man that he may no longer walk after the knowledge of good and evil, but rather to take and eat of the word of life, which flows out of My mouth to the healing of the nations of the earth. Amen.

And as for you, those who are My sons, be sons-children, for whoever will not receive the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it and there is no one to say to Me or to you from now on that the man cannot be this: that is to be a child.

Come back to God man, for you have nowhere to arrive at from now on. I, the Lord, wait for you to come back, to give you a new heart and a new spirit of My Spirit, a life giving spirit. Your will is your death and nothing else, like the man’s will built by My own hand and placed in Paradise, and whose voice got him out of the everlasting happiness.

Man, come back to God! Open to Him so that He may come in if He knocks for you to open to Him. You are nothing else but a man, and He is the Lord. Open to Him! Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, children sons, I release you from your burden. I come to a stop with My word, for I made you tired, sons, and I have mercy on you, and no one is able to understand your burden on earth, My coming as word on earth. I appreciate your labor for Me and for the man and for the people to which I come and in the midst of which I have you as the bridge of My coming. My strong hand always strengthens you when you can hardly manage on earth. I see all of your burdens ahead of time and I have always started coming with the saints to you, for you are so small because you have to carry everything and to endure for My way between earth and heaven, and you find little power on earth! Do not despair! Keep in you with all your strength, your hope, faith and love, for the whole heaven is crying with you when you cry under the burden and under all kinds of burdens. However, I have asked from My people to be your comfort, to cry with you and to shout out to Me for you and for him and for the man.

Now I clothe you all, everyone with heavenly powers and with a great watch of protecting, helpful angels who accomplish from Me everything that you may ask for. Ask and you shall receive. Ask with pain and I will give to you and I will be with you in pains, and we will be able stand up against every hardship that we may have to go through and you all will be able to do it, everything, because I, the Lord, crying and groaning greatly for you and after you, take great care of you. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Annunciation

It is a royal feast in you, Jerusalem of My coming as word over the earth. I put to rest all those in the gates of the word by which I come down on earth. For one month, I, the Lord, the One Who advise you between heaven and earth, have not advised you but only by those that I carry My heavy cross from heaven to earth and from earth to heaven. Amen.

I am sorry and I am so sorry as much as I cannot express My pain in words, that for seven thousand years, the man on earth has not known what earth and what heaven mean, and My way from heaven to earth and from earth to heaven.

Peace to you, children from the gates, children, crushed and without any comforts in your pains, and who are within the tiredness under which I, the Lord, set you in order to be able to come down to the people! I said that no one on earth can understand the heaviness of My coming as word for the man and for all creation. I have you in the midst of My people of today and I strengthen you by My strong hand when you can hardly work on earth. Oh, you are so small for everything that is to be carried and suffered and you find little power on earth! The holy heaven is crying with you under your burdens from heaven and from those from earth and you ask for My help with pain. I, always, always help you. Crying and groaning heavily for you and after you, I have been taking care of you, and My tears are taken in the Father and we command the saints to help you so that the heaven may have you for its help, sons from the gates! Peace to you! And I spoke to all the storms: «Peace to you!» And I would also tell the evil spirits «Peace to you!» so that you may be My peace, children sons. It is very hard on earth. The will of the man affects My coming with pain, for when I come, I come only through the pains. I long so much to come to you in a sunny day, sons. I long so much for the peace within you. I long so much for the peace in you and from among you, and it is very hard on earth, but it is not so hard with the heaven on earth. This is what I want to speak with you, because it is a royal feast.

We also celebrate with you a heavenly feast on earth when My mother received Me, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, in her body, by the power of the Holy Spirit, for one of the chiefs among angels, Gabriel, came and told My mother on earth: «The Holy Spirit will come on you and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the Holy One Who is born from you will be called the Son of God». (Luke 1:35) And then, the angel left her. How beautifully the angel Gabriel told her, the Lord's messenger who came on earth to the Virgin, My mother: «He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High and the Lord God will give Him the Throne of His father, David, and He will reign over the house of Israel forever, and there will be no end to His Kingdom». (Luke 1:35) Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem, it is not hard with the heaven on earth. It is hard with the earth on earth, My people. The angel came to the Virgin who received Me into her belly two thousand years in this day of Annunciation. But the Lord is coming to you and He is burning by His word upon you, for the Lord is a consuming fire, a holy fire, fire from heaven and not a fire from the earth. Amen. I enshroud you in the fire of My word, My people, so that it may not be hard for you on earth. I, the Lord, come to you on earth, in a fire, in the word, Jerusalem. I want to make with you a fire of My fire, as the Father made of Me upon you, a fire of His fire. It is very hard on earth and you have nowhere to know from and to see what I tell you, because I have taught you to be good and not to be afraid of anything, My little one. I have always, always advised you to be a child and to have your Father and no to be afraid when you hold the hand of your Father, because it is not hard with the heaven on earth. It is not hard with the Father on earth, My people. I have taught you to be a beautiful child. And what child can be more beautiful than the child in whom his Father shines with His Holy Spirit? Only a father is true, for the truest father is the One Who is eternal, the heavenly Father. Amen, amen, amen.

— I gave you My Son as body and word, sons, and I, the Father Sabaoth, am in Him, and I spend and cry with Him and I miss rejoicing in Him over His joy, over your joy with the heaven on earth, Jerusalem of the coming of My Son, a written coming in the Scriptures, people protected by His Coming.

It is not hard with the heaven on earth; this is what My Son told you in this day of holy feast for Him and for the Virgin who gave Him birth by the coming down of the Holy Spirit on her and by the power of the Most High that overshadowed her.

Oh, people of My Son, the Holy Spirit is coming down on you, and the power of the Holy Spirit overshadows you, and the Holy One Who gives birth from Me upon you, is called the Son of God and He reigns upon you forever, and His kingdom will never come to an end. Amen, amen, amen.

— I am the glory of My Father, Jerusalem, for He glorifies His Son, and He will glorify Him. Amen.

I am not an angel, but I am the Lord of the angels, and I speak upon you as I spoke upon Adam in Paradise, children from the gates. Take and give to My people My kingdom, which will never come to an end. Amen. In the time when I spoke by My trumpet Verginica, I was telling those who heard Me with their ears: “I have left the heaven and the garden decorated with all kinds of beauties, and also the angels, the sisters, the brothers and the loved place, and I have come down on earth, but I am not in a body but in a Spirit instead, and when I appear in a body in all My glory, everything will be shaken, for I am now in a body in which My Father was well pleased with Me to be.” And I speak in this time from the air and I come as a great noise of wind above this garden and I write the word spoken by My mouth through you, and I stand in clouds of glory accompanied by angels and saints, children who make up the book of today of My word, which comes with the clouds, for it is written: «Behold, He is coming with the clouds». There still is a little bit and every eye, which is an eye, will see Me, for this is written to be, for when I appear in My body with My entire glory, all will be shaken. Amen.

However, people loved and nourished with My heavenly love, I tell you with the heaven on earth: I am not an angel, but I am the Lord of the angels, and I speak with you as I spoke with the man in Paradise, and the clouds of My glory covers Me so that you may stand before the glory of My word, which is My glory, sons from the gates, and as for you, sons of the Jerusalem of My word, which comes with the clouds, announce Me well, Me, the Son of the Most High, the King of Israel, Whose kingdom will never come to an end. Amen.

I advise you, children of this glory, to glorify Me and to rejoice giving Me glory with big hearts and full of the glory of My word upon you. My word is on earth with you, so that it might go well with you on earth, and I would like you very much, I would like you to be as little and as faithful as the babies who either long or cry or smile after their mother without them knowing who she is.

It is a day of great celebration with the heaven upon you, for the heaven is only eyes and ears when I speak to you. The whole heaven is looking at you when I speak to you, and the saints and the angels want to adorn you, sons, for in heaven there are only adornments, ornaments for My bride. The heaven set a guide over you and in it, a strong spirit. Those who are My guides over you, have to work much upon you and they have to make you ready with all of My ornaments for you, and you should let yourself be prepared, as My mother the Virgin accepted when the angel Gabriel visited her setting Me in her, Me, the most precious ornament of the man made divine by My divinity which is one with the Father's.

I speak into your midst with words of glory, for I am over you with a glorified day, and My mother, the Virgin forever, is speaking from her Son over you and over the man, because I come with the saints, as My coming is supposed to be, and as it is written into the Scriptures. Amen, amen, amen.

— On the wing of Your word full of longing after Your bride, I also come to Your little people, to teach him the adornment of the bride, dear Son. It is a great glory that came with us, and it hovers in thousands and tens of thousands above the manger of Your word of today and above Your earth, sealed with Your name here, near the manger, so that Your glory of saints and angels and of heavenly powers may comfort Your people that learns from You the adornment of the bride, Lord Son, and Bridegroom with a bride, for there is no one like You, and all the creatures will come soon, soon, soon, in a great measure, to serve You and to glorify You for Your coming, which will bring the entire earth into its submission, Lord.

Oh, people of the coming with the clouds of my Son, Who comes with all His invisible glory to the man! Every eye, which is an eye, will see His glory, for this is how the prophecy is. However, you, little people, get divine from the Body and from the Spirit of my Son. Learn deeper and deeper the mystery of my Son, the mystery of His coming in the body and as word upon you, the mystery of deification. Open wide the door of your heart to be easy for you on earth, for there is no other comfort in all ages but only the heaven that is unseen by the man and for which the man has been longing so much. I bowed so gladly and so much to the angel who announced my deification when he placed the Son of the Father into my body to grow and to be born and then to be known on earth! And you should rejoice even more, for it is not an angel that comes to you, but rather the Lord Himself, and He is accompanied by the glory of His word together with His Body, which is given to you by the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens into your midst and in which you have to enter completely, more than any saint by now, for this is the work that the heaven has been waiting from you, people, son of God. My Son exalts you to a great name from now on and He will call you «The Holy Citadel», you and the earth under you, and you should receive this good announcement with great holiness and you should say: “Here we are, Lord. Be it to us according to Your word.” Amen.

I urge you as the mother of her Son, the only One Who is holy, to remain under guidance, for this is how I stayed all the time of my life on earth. I advise you to hold your little hand with those who make you grow for heaven, because it is not hard on earth with the heaven, but is hard without heaven instead. The mystery of my Son is great into your midst, and if you are not as much as it is, how are you supposed to receive it, how are you supposed to carry it, and how are you supposed to give yourself to the Lord through it if you could not perceive it and if you could not believe its greatness from heaven? Oh, you shall not look for the heaven, for the heaven is with you. You shall not look for the Lord, for the Lord is with you. You shall look to be with the heaven and with the Lord. You shall look to be the heaven of the Lord, for the Lord is with you. You shall look to be the heaven of the Lord, for the Lord is with you. Give Him your place. This is the mystery, which you have to know the most, you who have the heaven with you and the word of the Lord speaking from around you. Give your place to the Lord and the whole creation from above and from below will bow before you for your happiness.

When He came and became flesh among people, He was in need of a way for His coming on earth, and I said: “Behold, the handmaid of the Lord and of His word!” When He comes now to you for the judgment of the world, He needs a way, as then, on His first coming. Give to the Lord your dwelling as I gave mine to Him and the entire creature will bow to you if the Lord will be your love as He also was my love. Give to the Lord your dwelling and stay under His great care the same as I stayed so that He could fulfill the mystery of His coming with me, the mystery of the coming of the Lord in the flesh on earth. Oh, seek, Jerusalem, to be what is written for you to be! Amen.

My Son found those within the gates in pains, and He breathed upon them with the heavenly powers so that the Lord might enter and bring food for the soul after that those from heaven, who have guided you for the heaven in you, have given you so much food, blessed people. Let yourself be penetrated in your body by the Body of the Lord, the one full of the Holy Spirit, so that living waters may flow from the mouth of your sons, the waters of life, as they flow from the sons set by the Lord upon you as strong guides, people guided by the Spirit of the Lord, from above and from below. Receive the Lord's hand upon you, the blessing of the Lord, the peace of the Lord and His great love that He has given you to carry and to give it further, so that it may grow and to be multiply abundantly and then to fill the earth by the Lord's coming to you.

Woe to the people without any guidance, for that one dies! And blessed are you, people with a guidance from heaven and from earth, and may you have eternal life upon you! This is what I wish you and what I intend for you, mother Virgin of the Son of God, and you should take great care of the Lord's treasure into your midst, of His Body and Word, which makes you into a kingdom of the heavens on earth. Take great care to be holy as in heaven, and do not seek to be holy as on earth, because the Lord, by those that He suffered, being Himself tempted, can come to the help of those that are tempted, only for you to remain under guidance and to know the time of your visitation, for the Lord, your God, has taught you many, many things. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, mother with great care of a mother! What mother can do harm to her son if she is a mother? This word “mother” is a great word! The word “mother” is a saint word. The word “saint” is a dear word, and the man does not know how beautiful the saint man is, and how much the holiness of the saint, beneficent to the man, is felt around. The haughty man does not know to learn the holiness from the teacher and not from himself, because if the teacher is not saint, he cannot share holiness and he cannot make the man holy.

Oh, My people, there was a man in a citadel who said to himself: “I will become holy,” and after a little while he said: “I am holy.” The days were passing, as they also have passed by that time, and he was wondering and saying: “What use is it that I have become a saint? Nobody knows about me and I do not find that I am useful.” Then he went to a man in his citadel and said to him: “I am holy.” And that one replied: “I cannot be sure that you are holy.” “You know it because I have just told you,” he replied. But the man did not believe him. Then he went to an old lady and he told her: “I went to some citizen and I told him that I would become a holy man. And then I became a holy man and he did not believe me.” And the old woman said to him: “He does not believe you and he cannot believe you.” “But I told him this,” he said to the old woman. “It is not enough that you have told him,” she said, “you have to prove this to him.” Then he went further to another citizen from the citadel and he told him that the people do not believe him that he is a holy man. Then, that man said to him: “The people do not believe you because the holy people stay with the holy people, and they receive holiness from them.” “But where shall I find any holy people?” he asked the citizen he was speaking with. And that citizen told him where he had to go to find holy people.

And going further, before getting into their midst, God spoke to those who were guiding the saints: “Today one holy man will come to you and you should welcome him bowing and speaking to him: Welcome, holy man!” The guide spoke this to the disciples and they did so when the man arrived there.

Then going back into his citadel, no one received him as a holy man, and he was asking himself saying: “What else shall I do? What use is it to me that I am a holy man? No one knows me.” And he told those in the citadel: “I went to the holy men and they welcomed me as a saint and you say nothing and do nothing before me.” They did not say anything and wondered and kept being silent. However, He came back again to the saints and spoke to them: “You have welcomed me as a saint and you knew that I was a saint man, but those in my citadel did not believe me even if I told them that you welcomed me.” But they also did not say anything more to him and bowing to him they said: “Go in peace, holy man.” And he went away into his citadel and he was sorry in his mind that he has become a saint and that he saw no use of this. It was not long until the guide of the saints came to his house. Even while he was at the margin of the citadel, all the citizens were coming closer to him to receive teaching from him, and for him to heal them, to help them and to strengthen them within their things. This is how he has arrived to the house of the one he was looking for, and coming into the house, all were waiting for his coming back and then to see him off, and they did so.

And the man who called himself a saint spoke to the people: “Do you see how this holy man came to me to advise you to believe what I have told you about myself? However, you have not wanted to believe otherwise.” But the citizens were looking at him the same way and not otherwise. Then he said to himself: “When the holy man will come again to me I will go with him to the end of the citadel to see what will happen then at my coming back home.” And he did so, as he said, but when he came back alone at his home, no one of the citadel followed him as the great multitude followed the other saint on his coming and on his going.

Then he got up and thinking at all of these things he went to ask the saints about his wonder. And arriving at them, he spoke to them about everything it was going on in his mind and asked them for an answer, and their guide answered him: "We greeted you as a holy man, both when you came and when you left, but if the people do not look at you this way and if the citizens do not welcome you as a saint, they are right, and you are not right?" And he replied: "But why did you say to me that I was a saint?" "It was not we that told you this but rather you thought about this in your mind." And then he asked them: "But am I a saint or not?" "You are a saint in your mind, and we, by the gift of the Holy Spirit, have seen your haughtiness and have worked out to destroy it as something which is corruptible upon you. The holy man is something else than what your mind sees." And he said to them: "Let me stay with you for a while, perhaps my mind will also understand as your mind does after I see how you work and what you do."

And after he has stayed there for a while and looked at them and heard from them, he understood that someone cannot be a holy man unless he receives teaching from a man who has been taught and tested by God for the benefit of those who have wanted to be God's holy people, as the disciples of the one who came into the citadel were listening and receiving from their teacher the holy work, which was to be done and to be lived. And coming back into his citadel, he started to speak to the people about his haughty mind after that teacher has told him that the people in the citadel have been made better in God and that he would learn from them much teaching, and that he also has made them better with the occasion of his coming into their citadel, offering them much, much teaching according to their good will and thirst for God. And this is how he started with the humility of his heart and then with his teaching, going gladly to their tables in the Spirit of the Lord and by the teaching of the holy one, who has advised them for their faith through which he has drawn the saints to their helpful salvation.

Behold, My people, I have told you this parable after I have showed it into your midst by My Holy Spirit. Receive from it and learn the teaching with a teacher, for your name is the name of a holy people, and you have to throw down the imaginations of your mind, because I, the Lord, by what I had suffered, being Myself tempted, I can also come to the help of those who are tempted. Amen.

I have taught you to know and to make God grow in you, Jerusalem, for I am body and word into your midst and I do no longer have room as wholly as I have room with you. And you shall seek to be little, so that you may learn, so that you may give Me your little hand, My people. I give you faith with a great gift in it, for it is written: «He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, from within him will flow rivers of living water». (John 7:38) I tell you this so that you may strengthen into your midst the living waters that come upon you, the tongues of the Holy Spirit, by which I nourish you both from above and from below, and from Me, and by those through whom I come and give you food with growth in it and for you. My coming to you is a great feast, for it is hard without heaven on earth. It is hard on earth, but it is not hard with the heaven. The greatest of your work shall be that one from Me, which has to give you holiness of the heart and of the mind and of the body, for I protect you within a great love to have you as Mine, My people. Humble yourself under My beneficial hand upon you, and remain little so that I may grow you up and not you, for I want you to bring Me only joys, Jerusalem.

However, you should stay under guidance, and you should not stay otherwise, and you should keep Me with much longing into your midst, so that I may be able to advise you, My people, and so that you may be able to be with Me, holy Jerusalem. Amen, amen, amen.

The fifth Sunday of the Lent, of the devout Mary, the Egyptian

I stop again near to you as word, and the Holy Spirit of My word warms you up at My bosom that is hurt by My longing for you, for you are My Jerusalem, which has been wanted so much and which has been longed for such a long time by every man who was born of the man, even since I, the Lord, made the first built man and up to you, those who are My people of today, the people of the time of the coming of My word on earth after two thousand years since My appearance in a body among the people for thirty years, and for the unbelievers for three years and a half. Amen.

Oh, My people, I strengthen at the manger those that bring My word to you. I want to give you power of spirit, of soul and of body, for I have always given to you so that you may work for Me, because I, without you, those in the body, even if you are so little, can do nothing on earth. I cannot on earth with the heaven for the earth is full of debauchery and the flesh lusts against the spirit, for the man lusts from earth and not from heaven, and the antichrist keeps on enticing the man with his hidden face, and even if he wrote his name on it, still the man would no longer flee from him, because the man is sick after all the things from hell and I have no doctor on earth to take the hell away from the earth and then to put the man back into Paradise.

I would take you and I would pass with you from place to place over the earth so that I may appear more with the sign of My coming, with My life lived by the man. I would go with you to speak to the death and to the hell to close their mouth and to give their dead back, but I, the Lord, have mercy on you and I give you to strengthen your spirit and your body to be able to do for Me and then, even more and more to give you heavenly reinforcements so that you may do for the world, because the world has come to its end even since I judged it and its ruler by My coming in the flesh among the people two thousand years ago.

The proud man from the world says that you have a spirit of pride but if I did miracles with you that nobody has heard of, what would the man say, the man who does so many miracles by which to pull the man away from the path in which I dwell with those of Mine? And he does no longer speak of himself that he is proud and rather he tells to himself that he is righteous and smart and he says that he has Me as his God, the One humble on earth and in heaven. I would do near you and from you great signs, seen and heard by the eyes and by the ears of those on earth, but after I worked those beyond the nature among people, the people in the midst of which I appeared and which crucified Me on the cross like evil doers, took Me away. The miracles that I am doing today with you are far greater than everything that was heard about God on earth, sons in the time of this end. I did not speak with anyone among the people as I have spoken with you. I did not speak with Adam either, or with Cain, or with Noah, or with Moses, or with David, or with Zachariah, or with John, the Baptizer, or with the apostles, the way I speak with you and as much as I have been speaking with you, because it has never been such a great miracle since the age is and it shall not longer be another kingdom but Mine in man in a perfect manner, soon, soon, and then the heaven on earth, and I, in the midst of gods, the true God and greatly glorified among the people for their judgment, and when I will appear within My whole glory, everything will be shaken.

My word is written into the Scriptures, which says: «But immediately after the oppression of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars<sup>171</sup> will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken; and then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky. Then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky with power and much glory, and everything will be shaken», (Matt. 24:29-30), as it is written. Then, from the four winds, from the margins of the heavens to the other margins, My angels will gather My elected ones in the day when no one expects this. Oh, I, the Lord, want to have what to gather, My people, and I want to announce Myself, for that is why I speak on earth. I speak so that I may announce My coming and to prepare you always, always, and to shine with you upon the earth, seven times brighter than the sun, and to get out to the people from among you, as the Bridegroom gets out of His chambers, because I have My tabernacle in you and among you, and the saints have much to wait for this time of My coming back among the people, and they look at it and at you and persevere before the Father for Me and for you, so that the Lamb of the Father and the little flock from the end of the coming of the Father's Son for the victory of His saints, may be able to overcome. Amen.

Holy Jerusalem, the saints look at you, little son, and you should be a faithful and wise servant, so that through you I may be able to give food in due time to those who take Me from you as food and to spread Myself with My table into your mist, for I am merciful, My people, and you are My servant, the little child who shares the things of the Father, and blessed is that servant whom his Lord will find doing so when He comes, for He will set him over all that He has. And behold, the Lord does not delay in His coming and He comes to bring together all His chosen ones from the four winds, and the unfaithful servant who says that I am slow in coming and who begins to eat and drink and be drunken and begins to beat those that do not want to do what he does, then the Lord of that servant will come in an hour when he does not know and He will cut him in two and his portion will be with the unfaithful, because he did not watch for the coming of his Lord. (Luke 12:45-46)

Oh, My people, the church from the world is only hypocrisy through those who rule over it. What shall we really do, to wake it up to make it come to life, as I have given to the one of today mentioned in a spirit of church by the order of the holy fathers? How shall we really do it?

Here is Mary, the Egyptian. Her prayer to My mother, the Virgin, took her and raised her from the dead, because she believed in God and then she woke up and loved Him with much resurrection in her heart full of remorse and pain after the healing of My wounds made by her. She is hurt for the world and her spirit cries in heaven after the man lost in riots, and she kneels before the Father praying for Me, the Father's Lamb, to overcome the world with My little flock, with you, My people of today, in which I stay as the word of resurrection over the world. And this holy woman is praying to the Father and says this:

— I will teach those without a law Your paths, Lord, and those who are unfaithful will come back to You, as I came back and I followed Your Son Who was not overcome by sin, and Who helped me by the intercession of His Mother at my prayer with much pain in it. Make an unheard miracle and take the spirit of debauchery away from the earth, which burns in the body of the man as an inextinguishable fire, a consuming fire in such a way that it may remain nothing from man. However, You, the One Who made the man again at the end through Your beloved Son, through Whom You built the man in His image and after His likeness, giving him birth from the Virgin among the people and bearing a human body on earth, and make, as a great Father in heaven and on earth, make through Your beloved Son Who was crucified for the sins of the people, make the light of Your divinity shine on earth and on man, the mystery of Your Son in His coming full of mystery, His word which raises the dead within their body and within their spirit, Father of the saints.

However, after I have renounced sin, I did not want to see the world in which the sin burns and every man in it, and I have received the gift of repentance and its tear full of love for Your Son Who died on the cross because of the sins of the human kind. My body, soul and spirit has been hurting me all the life of my body for the passion of Your Son in the time of His cross, and He gave me angels to help to my fight for the love of Your Son and of His saints who had been fighting like me to renounce the devil and to give themselves to God, the One Who built them on earth.

I have been longing so much to speak from You over those who carry on their little and fragile back the heavy way of the coming of Your Son on earth, for You are such a great God and they are very, very fragile, very much aggrieved, wanting so much for their rest after many hardships, for You are their burden, which is hard to carry, and You have a people who has been waiting powers and comforts and powers again from them, and You know their burden and cry with the saints for their mercy, and within the most perfect mystery You, Father, give them grace so that they may be able to do what You have to do in this time by Your most beloved Son, Who has been well pleased with them for His coming, Father Sabaoth. My heavenly body is knelt with love before You, and I ask You much heaven for them, much victory in them upon the devil that keeps the world in its darkness. Make them Your light, the light of the world, for they are in their body. Give the people from the earth grace and grace, by Your people from now. Make the human kind come back to You and to the love for You and make Your name be hallowed on earth as in heaven.

Stretch out the tabernacle of Your kingdom over the earth, Father of the saints, and by Your Son full of the salvation of the world, pour out the waters of life over the whole creature, but help those little of Yours to be able to preach You from the margins of the heavens to the other margins, so that You may make Yourself known to the human creature as Lord, from everlasting to everlasting, and that it may know that You are the Lord. But does the human race really know what the margins of the heavens are? Oh, Lord, give to the people the book of Your coming, and let them take and read in it and receive Your light from it and that the laws of holiness may grow in them so that they may understand Your book, Lord, and that the margins of the heavens may understand from it. Amen. This is my prayer before You in my day of synod among Your saints, who intercede with You for the renewal of the creature, for the life of the age that is to be on earth after the resurrection of the dead and after Your coming, so much waited, and accompanied by all of Your saints afterwards, in the glory of the New Jerusalem, the holy citadel, working from heaven and from earth, so that Your Lamb, the Lord, Jesus Christ may overcome, and those that are together with Him, who overcame and overcome by His blood and by the word of their testimony now, at the end of the time. Amen, amen, amen.

— Now I embrace My saints, My people, and I embrace you as well together with them, the one waited for the saints. Be more and more watchful to perceive the mystery that carries you in it and that you may not be as on earth but as in heaven instead, Jerusalem.

May your coming out from now for My announcement with you in the midst of the world be blessed by the Lord your God! I will cover you in the clouds of My glory, but I will let it be known that you are Mine and that I can work upon you and that I am in you and with you. May the world, which wants to see you, be blessed and may it follow you towards Me with its way. May those who will announce you with Me be blessed so that the nations may hear God's dwelling with you. May your traveling and My announcement and yours among the people be blessed, for I make a strong way through the world for Me and for you, because My glory with you and the resurrection for the redemption of the creature have been coming closer and closer, Romanian Jerusalem, for it is great, so great, the mystery of the Romanian land and its reward from God by My descent on it now, at the end of the time. Amen.

Peace to you, Romanian Jerusalem! I make you, I, the Lord, for Me and for you, and I make a way to the multitudes to Us so that they may receive light of My light, which is forever with you for the world to walk in the way to God and that it may not remain in its darkness. Amen.

Peace to you, My people, and let yourself in My glory upon you, because I tell the evil spirits for your life, "Peace to you!", for you to be able to go through the darkness and the darkness to draw away, for the light shines in the darkness and the darkness did not overcome it. Amen.

"Be sweet children, and be beautiful children and everyone stay within one spirit, for I have a helm from heaven and from earth among you," your Father tells you.

And I, His Son, tell you: be beautiful, for this happiness belongs to those who carry the glory of My coming with the saints, the beauty of the Lord's glory in the man who has in his body the Holy Spirit, the Comforter of the creature, Your Comforter, My people, your peace and your beauty, which you have from Me, holy Jerusalem. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem

My Father is in Me when I speak upon you, Jerusalem. I come to you, My people of Romanians, for I have fulfilled the Scripture of My second coming from near the Father, to come into the world as a word of resurrection and a sign of eternal salvation, as I came into Jerusalem two thousand years ago after I dined with Lazarus, with Mary and with Martha in Bethany, and when because of Lazarus' resurrection many Jews came after Me to follow Me and to see the one that I rose to life and when they found out that I would go to Jerusalem the next day, they took branches of palm trees and followed Me saying: «Hosanna! Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!» (Matt. 21:9) Many disciples seeing Me riding on a colt, the foal of a donkey, understood then that I was the Lord, Who was glorified through the Father and that it had been written about Me in the prophets: «Behold your king comes to you, daughter of Zion, riding on a donkey, on a foal of a donkey». (Zech. 9:9) And then I spoke to My Father: «Father, glorify Your name!» And then there came a voice out of the sky, saying: «I have both glorified it, and I will glorify it again». (John 12:28) The multitude therefore, who stood by and heard asked: «What is this voice: a thunder or an angel, who spoke?» And I, riding on the donkey said: «This voice has not come for My sake, but for your sakes. Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out». (John 12:29-31). Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem of today, My elected people in whom I am well pleased with My heavenly voice over the earth and over the world! I work the same way today and I work in a great mystery, to touch by My word the hearts of those who are My elected who know the voice of the Shepherd Who is to come, as it is written that He will come. If I worked out great miracles, I would not be able to keep you, because a lawless multitude would come to see My glory upon you, and the world has got shepherds over it who would hate you as they also hated Me, My people. We work in a great mystery, because this is how My second coming is, and that will happen when no one expects Me to come, and I write into your midst the book of My coming and I judge by it, for then I spoke and I also speak now as then, that it is not I but the word which I have declared over the unbelief on earth, that one will judge the world. Amen. I declare through you this word of My coming, Jerusalem, so that the world may understand then that My Father has sent Me with the word upon the world into your midst, when I, the Lord will be glorified with a great noise from your midst to show the blessing of this land, which I chose for the glory of My word from it over the earth. I chose this land from the creation of the world, from the creation of the heaven and of the earth, and the world will perfectly understand this, soon, soon. Amen.

I keep you within a great mystery with My glory upon you. I have taken great care to glorify Myself fully with the word by which I cover you, My people Jerusalem, and you shall not look for anything else but to be My glory, My life into the midst of the world, and you should seek to be the mystery of the holy wisdom, for I have always taught you, always, to be the greatest learned man on earth. And when there is no more teaching in the world, you should be the wisdom upon man for the man to come and receive from you, from those that I, the Lord, pour out over you in My days with you, the days of My second coming from near the Father, My people. Amen.

The man does not know, and I want you to know and the man to receive My teaching from you, for the man does not know how to love Me. If you want to love God, you should listen to Him. If you want to listen to God, you should love Him, for no one can listen to someone in love but only the one that loves him. And for the man to love Me, first he has to believe in Me but not only for a moment, only when he is in need, but forever and ever, because the man was not able to do what I did. When I spoke with the Father to make the man in Our image and after Our likeness, I took clay and I made him into My image and then, at the word of My breath, I made him flesh and veins out of dust. Let no one marvel at the Scripture of the resurrection of the dead, the Scripture spoken by Me. I took the man from dust and I brought him to life, in My image and after My likeness in the beginning and in the end, for on My resurrection from the dead, the saints came out of their graves and stood on their feet and appeared in Jerusalem. (Matt. 27:53) I made this miracle because I am the resurrection and the life, and the man needs to have them both from Me, because it was for this that I came as a Man from the Father among the people. Everything was made out of dust, even the man, after that everything was made at My word, those that have had spirit of life in them. I made the man out of dust and then, against My miracle, the man made his body into dust, for he was drawn to those things God made him out of. The man made his flesh and veins into dust, and I come on earth with the miracle of the man's resurrection and with the miracle of My resurrection, in order for the man to understand that there is a resurrection of the dead and that it was not in vain that I declared the Scripture of the resurrection of the dead at My last trumpet.

Oh, My people, in order that the man may listen to God, he needs first to believe in Him and to love Him with all his soul, with all his mind and with all his might that he received from God to love God. However, the man has his eyes on everything the man has done and he does no longer know, poor of him, to look at Me and to see Me and to understand Me from the creatures.

Today we celebrate two thousand years since I, the Lord, fulfilled the prophecy of My entrance on a foal of a donkey in the Jerusalem of My passions, Jerusalem of today, and I want, dear child to teach you the mystery of the Lord's voice that is on you. The mystery of My voice upon the man is that the man may no longer live temporarily but eternally instead. Amen. When I entered into Jerusalem on the donkey, I spoke with the Father and I said: «Father, glorify Your name!» And the Father spoke out of the sky and said: «I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again». Behold God's speaking with the man, with the Son of Man, Jerusalem of today. When I was on earth in a visible body, I did not live temporarily, but rather I lived an eternal life, not a temporary life. I had My spirit full of the Father, for the Father was in Me. However, when you are seen by man, My people, you should not live temporarily but rather you should live an eternal and not a temporary life and you should have your spirit full of the Son of the Father, for I am in you, and the Father is in Me, Jerusalem. Oh, the mystery of My love in man is great, the mystery of the man's love in My love from the Father, and I work into your midst the miracle of this mystery, which you understand it as a child, little Jerusalem. However, the Scripture says: «Do not be children in thoughts, yet in malice be babies, but in thoughts be perfect». (1 Cor. 14:20)

The man's heart is My house, and his mind is My spirit in the one who has Me as His Maker. Oh, it is a great thing for God to be the Maker of the man that came out of man, but the man has no one to tell him the mystery of his making, now when I have come as word on earth for the new birth of the world, for the renewal of the world, starting with the man, for everything that I, the Lord, made at the beginning of the world and everything that is under My submission, I made it for the man, for man or against him. I made the man in order to live an eternal life and I made for him a garden of paradise and in it I taught him to love Me obediently, but he pulled himself out of My love and then he took the fear in his body and in fear he hid from Me after he did no longer listen to Me, together with his wife, with whom he did no longer want to be in Me, the man's Creator, but on the contrary, he himself had become haughty and this caused him to fall out of God and out of the Paradise of My love, that was created for man by My hand and out of the spirit of life, which I put in him so that the man might be in God's image and after His likeness, and in such a way that he might have an eternal life in paradise.

Oh, Jerusalem of nowadays, I pour out abundantly in you the word of the new creation of the world, the eternal life, the life with the love of God in it for the man. I ask the man to love the eternal life in his life on earth, for I, the Lord, want to come with the heaven opened before the man and to set the heaven under the sky, the new earth and the new heaven and the resurrection of the dead that will get up and will bear testimony about this coming of Mine to you as word for the resurrection of the creature, My people.

Sons, stand up more and more with every passing day to the eternal life on earth and be perfect in your mind, for I have great work on you that even the saints and the angels marvel at My word upon you. Today is the feast of the palms, the Palm Sunday, and I want to make you sweet smelling vessels of Holy Spirit, children of New Jerusalem. I have given you a name as in heaven, not as on earth, and I have called you the Holy Citadel New Jerusalem, for the angels and the saints enjoy with you in heavenly descent glorifying the Lord, Who is coming with His saints. I said by My word of your days that I would plant thousands and millions of lilies on the Romanian land, the country of My coming, My New Jerusalem, and you have to graft the people's lives, children of My coming, of My building of the heavenly age on earth and upon man, and you should not live temporarily, but rather you should live My eternal life in you, the Lord's life on His coming to you. Amen. The mystery of My voice on you teaches you not to live a temporary life, but rather an eternal life on earth, holy Jerusalem, and to glorify the name of the Lord on your head, and to be a carpet of flowers of paradise, a carpet of lilies and roses into My way to you, and then with you into My way to the man, to graft the people's lives with your life on the earth, My people of today. I want to make with you the miracle of the resurrection of the dead, and you should be perfect in your mind to be able to see those that are not seen and to bring them into view in such a way that all may be done for the building up.

Seek to have wisdom for what is good and to be innocent in what is evil, to destroy satan hastily, sons, and that the death may be taken away from the earth, for I speak to those who do not believe in resurrection, I, the Lord, because if there is no resurrection, I was not resurrected either. If the dead are not resurrected then I was not resurrected as well. However, I, the resurrected Lord, tell those who believe in the resurrection of those that are asleep, as Martha also believed, that I have been a beginning of the resurrection of those who were asleep and of the resurrection of the dead, and I tell them that the one who believes in Me has eternal life. Amen.

Oh, My people, the saints have been waiting for you with their reward from Me, the one from the end of the time. The dead have been waiting for you so that they may also come to life at My last trumpet, which will sound into your midst, for such a destiny have I meant for you, but seek with all your being to love and to listen to Me perfectly, for I am the God of peace, Jerusalem. I have My Spirit into your midst, and you should listen to everything that I have taught you, and you shall eat of the fruit of your happiness with Me, for such is the reward of those who listen in love. No one can listen to someone with love but only the one that loves him. Amen.

Receive of the spirit of My love and this is how you should love, children of the time of My coming. Praise the Lord and His new making on the earth, so that the Father may hear those that are Mine from the world. Bring Me love, sons, and do this for the resurrection of the creature, and sing and bless those that will be and for those that will remain. Amen.

Wait for the Lord, strengthen yourself and let your heart be strong, and wait for the Lord, holy Jerusalem, and believe, son, that you will see the Lord's good things in the earth of those who are alive. Amen.

Praise the Lord, Jerusalem, for the testimony of His glory is into your midst, and I will exalt your power and you will exalt Mine, and we will work and build on earth the life of the new age that is to be soon, soon, on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Resurrection

Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! My first word after the resurrection for My disciples was this: «Peace to you!» They were strengthened by this word because they were tired from the pains of those days, while I, the Lord and their Teacher, fulfilled My love for man, the sacrifice of My body on the cross, and they were aggrieved.

Christ is risen, Romanian Jerusalem! Christ is risen, My people of today! I, the Lord, the One Who was resurrected on the third day from the grave, embrace you within the peace of My resurrection and this is how you should also embrace Me, for I am hurt by everything that I see on earth. The world tells to itself "Christ is alive!" but it does not give up its sins and it goes, as it says, to commune with Christ in the church. The world has a great time in a worldly manner and it says to itself that "Christ is alive!" eating, drinking and reveling, My people. How sad My disciples were because of their mourning for Me, Who was murdered by My people, and then how greatly they were amazed by the thrill of My appearance in their midst after My resurrection! They were walking in pains without eating and then they were living in amazement the miracle of the fulfillment of the Scriptures of My resurrection, and My disciples were living in My Spirit, for I told them after the resurrection: «Receive Holy Spirit and you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and all over the world!» (Acts 1:8)

Two thousand years ago, I came from the Father as it was written into the prophets, and the world did not expect Me to come. However, I came into the world and I fulfilled the Scriptures of My coming in the body among the people in the midst of the Jewish people, which the Father chose to serve Him among the nations on earth. I came but the world did not wait for Me to come and the servants of the church expected Me to come even less. I did not ask them about My coming. I did not ask those who served in the Temple, the rulers, to come or not to come, but they saw that I was the One of Whom it was written to come, and they fulfilled the My crucifixion Scripture, calling Me the divisive of the Lord's people, the blasphemer of the Israel's nation, because I was telling them their sins, in order that they might get rid of them. When they saw that I was resurrected as I spoke about it before, they did not know where to hide because of their guilt and they paid the guards of My grave to lie telling that My disciples stole Me.

I fulfilled My crucifixion and My resurrection as I spoke ahead of time and after I had stayed with My disciples for forty days from time to time, I went to the Father and I started to work hard through the disciples over the earth, and My church was living, and I was living in it too. My church was not of this world, as it is not of this world today either, My people of nowadays, whom I, the Lord, have been taking out of the world and through whom I work over the world the spirit of the renewal of the world. Amen.

I am so much wounded by everything I see on earth. I have come as word of resurrection over the world and the world did not wait for Me to come, and the servants of the church expected Me to come even less. I did not ask them about My coming as word on earth to give birth again to the world from it, to make it from the beginning as it is written in the Scriptures to be. I do nothing but only what is written in the Scriptures. It is also true that I do not ask them whether I should come or not as a word of renewal of the world, but I also tell them the word that I declare and I show them everything I work and I show them their wicked deeds, maybe they will get cleaned from them in order to serve Me and not themselves and not the man who does not know, poor of him, what life and death means, what resurrection of the dead means, what the Lord's coming and the man's hope in all this mean. Is it really for My coming that I prophesied, that it must come the one who must hope in it? How and who must hope in the resurrection of the dead? Who else teaches the man about God's love, the holy life and the waiting for the resurrection of the dead and then about My life with the eternal life on earth?

Oh, you man that go to church because it is Passover, as you have known it from your forefathers! What do you do for this feast? And what do you do in it? And after it passes, what do you do, man, and who teaches you what you must do? Oh, you man, who have no guidance upon you, when I founded the church on earth, I made it wholly and I did not make it to be consisted only of the priest and of his flock, because without all its gifts it cannot exist. It cannot be without a prophet in it, and you do no longer know anything else but the priest and you do not know him but only after his robe, man without any guidance upon you. I look with longing and pain at My first church, and I look at your forefathers, man of today, for they knew what church meant and they knew what God on earth meant and they went to the prophets and heard from God. Oh, man without any guidance, how comes that your priests who baptize you, who marry you and who bury you, do not advise you and do not teach you about God's love, which cannot be shared with the devil in your life as man? How comes that they do not sent you to My spring, which flows of My mouth over the earth in this time to wash the world in this river of life and for the man to be able to give forth life of My life? You go to the church and receive light from the hand of the priest who holds out the lighted candle and tells everybody “Come and receive light!” and you do not know what light means, man without a teacher on earth. Does the priest tell you that I, the Lord, am the light of the world and its resurrection and yours? Does he tell you to follow Me in all your life, in such a way that I may bring to you the life of the age that is to be?

It has come the time for those in the graves to hear the voice of the Son of God and they will be raised from the graves soon, soon, because the dust will become man as it was before being dust, and those in the graves will come to life at My voice of today, who speaks into the midst of the Romanian people.

Oh, man without guidance, I have mercy on you and I teach you to see and to hear and to believe in My coming after you. I want to draw to the Father the entire human kind, but My adversary, the man of lawlessness stands against Me. But it is only I Who destroy him and I will destroy him with the breath of My mouth, with My voice, which becomes a book on earth, with My heaven of saints that will be turned into a scroll and will stand aside to every man who wants to get healed of his hearing, of his sight and of his speaking, spirit, body and soul, which God gave him, in order that the man may speak according to the truth: "Christ is risen!" and I with the Father and with the angels to be able to say, filled with tears of the eternal joy: "The man is risen!" Amen.

Oh, Romanian Jerusalem, I said in the time when I was sounding My trumpet, Verginica, I said this: "My first church will be built again." I said and I fulfilled this, for the whole voice of My word by this spring of word of My second coming after two thousand years, is true word, a working word. I did not ask whether do this or not and I did not ask the rulers of the church from the world, but I did it because I, the Lord, promised to fulfill it this way. If I had asked them, they would have not heard Me and they would have not believed Me, they would have not wanted to fulfill My word by which I also cried aloud to them for their resurrection. They are too big over the man and they hold on to their glory rather than Mine glory, which is consisted of My humility, faith, and love, which I, the Lord, have put in those who are humble, in those who are poor in their spirit, who know the kingdom of the heavens when it knocks at their door to open for its Lord, the Lord of the kingdom of the heavens. Amen.

«Woe to the city, woe to the church, where there is no prophet in it» as it is written in the Scriptures. This prophecy of the Scriptures judges all the people on earth who do not have God among the prophets. Those who need God have God in their midst, for the Lord gives them to have. But those, who do not need God, have My adversary upon them, the man of lawlessness, whom, I, the Lord, destroy and I will always, always destroy with the breath of My mouth, with My trumpet voice, for I am the Almighty and I can do whatever I want. Amen. If the man can do, I can also do, and I can work as a God and not as a man, and I can work over the heaven and over the earth and over the man, and who can destroy what I do?

Oh, Romanian Jerusalem, oh, My people of today, in whom I am well pleased to speak the word of My coming, the preparation for the salvation or for the judgment of the creature! Behold My church, the first one that has been built again. Amen. I had nothing else to choose from what the church of the world on earth is. I have chosen a servant, a witness of the building of My church again and I have built it for Me, for I have the spirit of prophecy by which I work and speak, and I have the voice of My word, which speaks above you as in heaven over the man that was built by My hand, oh, little garden of the miracles of My word! My witness of the church in the world (The Bishop Irineu, r.n.) was afraid like Peter and has denied the miracle of My coming now when I am coming to renew the creature by My word, full of resurrection. It does not matter that he was afraid. I did not stumble because of this and I walk resolutely in the pace of My coming, for in the time when he stood by this spring, he prophesied and said to the rulers of the church, that this work of word will keep going on and on, with him or without him, because it was not him that founded it in order that he may abolish it, and that he cannot tell Me: "Be quiet!" This word that he spoke was written by the angels in heaven and on earth and bears witness to his faith of that time, and no one can say in truth that the prophets had been only until John came. It is not true this meaning that was misinterpreted by those who have been throwing with stones in the spirit of prophesying, without which the church cannot be church. Then how comes that My first church and the one in the time of the apostles had prophets? How? Let those, who say that there have been no longer been prophets since the time of John, the Baptizer, answer Me. Oh, if there have been no longer prophets, it means that there has been no longer a church either, and the Apostle Paul wrote in vain through his Scriptures to the church exhorting it to desire the gift of prophesying. The spirit of prophecy is the Spirit of God and any prophecy, which comes true, must be believed. Amen.

I have prophesied about you, My people of today, since I, the Lord, was sounding My trumpet Verginica and I have told you that I will pass with you through the world and you will sing and your voice will resound into My name. Sing, Jerusalem, sing the song of My resurrection and the song of your resurrection and call the world to the resurrection, for the world does not know what resurrection and feast of resurrection are. Turn your ear for a little while to this little village in which I dwell with you in the spirit of the holy prophecies and hear what the world does and how it spends with its joy without God. You should also sing because you are My little child, My people, through whom I pour out the glory of My word and its fulfillment on earth. Sing over the world, "Christ is risen!" Sing an angelic song, because in the world it has been sung humanly and devilishly and the world cannot sing heavenly, dear Jerusalem. Oh, if the world knew what sweetness I hide in your midst all its wisdom would go to the winds and it would take My wisdom instead and that one from you, and I would save the world from the hand of the devil and his servants who have been staying over the world enticing it even with My face under which they try to hide. However, I am deeply hurt from everything I see on earth and I comfort Myself with you, speaking to you, My people.

The devil that has enclosed everything makes Me angry to cut his way and to take My man back, My kingdom lost seven thousand years ago. I want to be able to speak with you; I want you to stay with Me; I want to be able to establish on earth together with you the resurrection of the dead and of those who are alive, for it is for this that I came from the Father two thousand years ago. And again, now, with the spirit full of the longing of My kingdom in man, I always come, always, and I speak with My voice from the sky and I give you, faithful children, to give to all, both who believe and to those who do not believe in My voice, which resounds from the clouds of My glory from above My little garden of word, to give the word of My coming to the man. Amen.

Sing, Jerusalem, sing as in heaven, not as on earth. Pray as in heaven not as on earth, for I, the resurrected Lord, want to bring with My word that is on you the new birth of the world. Amen. Christ is risen! I, Myself, declare on you the hymn of the remembrance of My resurrection of two thousand years ago.

Christ is risen! And I also tell this to the world that is intoxicated with the wine of its inflammation in it!

Christ is risen! The Lord declares in heaven and on earth.

And to you, children of the New Jerusalem, I tell you: Peace to you! Peace to you, because you are My disciples! Amen, amen, amen.

The third Sunday after Passover, of the myrrh-bearing women

I come to you, Romanian Jerusalem, with My second coming, and the word of My coming prepares you, the one who believes, and which dressed you in a garment of bride to meet Me as you meet the Bridegroom Who comes in the middle of the night, and Whose bride watches for His coming. Amen.

You should not be slow in your watch, when I, the Lord, speak sweetly and patiently to you. You should not believe that you are worthy for Me if I shepherd you and I grow you in faith and in the fulfilling of My coming as word into Your midst. However, you should watch and be alert all the time for your wedding garment and for the great meeting of the resurrection of the dead, which will be soon, soon, at My last word, My word of their resurrection. You should wait for this resurrection, as you also bear witness that you wait for the resurrection of the dead and for the life that is to be. Amen.

Chris is risen! The hosts of angels and saints are in thousands and tens of thousands of thousands with you, My people of today, for the celebration of the holy myrrh-bearing women of My resurrection from the dead. I was fully resurrected and then I have no longer died afterwards and I have remained the beginning of the resurrection of those who are asleep.

Christ is risen! This is what My myrrh-bearing women were saying, and Mary of Magdala, who spoke with Me after My resurrection, went and told those who were with Me and who were mourning and crying and they told them "Chris is risen!" However, hearing that I was alive and that I was seen by her, they did not believe. Then Luke and Cleopas also went and joined them, those to whom I appeared while they were going to a fallow land, and then I broke the bread for them and I revealed Myself to them that I was the Lord and that I was alive. But My disciples did not believe them too. And then I appeared before them while they were sitting at the table and I rebuked them because of their unbelief and because of their heartlessness as they did not believe those who had seen Me resurrected, and then I told them: «Go into the whole world and preach the Gospel to all the creature. He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who disbelieves will be condemned». (Mark 16:16) Amen.

Oh, My people, the day of those who are asleep will be great, and today is a great day of celebration, that the human people which are asleep was remembered into your midst, which now stays and looks at you, the youngest one, they look at Me, Who am body and word into your midst and surrounded by saints and angels and within a spirit of heavenly celebration on a redeemed land. The heavenly host is great around you, for those who believe in God have the heaven as their shelter and salvation. When Elisha's servant was afraid seeing the armies of the Syrians surrounding them in the city, he spoke to Elisha: «Alas, my master! How shall we do?» And Elisha prayed and said: «Lord, please open his eyes that he may see!» (2 Kings 6:15, 16) And when I opened the eyes of Elisha's servant, he saw that all the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha, who said to him: «Don't be afraid: for those who are with us are more than those who are with them». (2 Kings 6:16) And Elisha said: «Please smite this people with blindness». (2 Kings 6:18) And I did according to his word, and he guided the Syrians into Samaria and then he said: «Lord, open the eyes of these men that they may see where they are». (2 Kings 16:20)

My people, the mystery of faith is as great as heaven and earth; it is as great as those that are not seen, and as for those that I, the Lord, chose and choose, to show the mystery of the faith and its works to the people, they have to be believed and have to be followed in their faith in the heavenly things, those that are not seen, for if they were seen, the man would no longer be able to look at them and then the man would not be able to be with God to the end.

The greatest power of faith is that in the resurrection of the dead, and this will not be a miracle but rather it will be the fulfillment of this Scripture, and I speak among you the word of the resurrection of the creature, and those in the graves hear<sup>172</sup> it from My mouth as they heard it two thousand years ago when I spoke the word of the resurrection of the dead to the multitudes. And now I speak again with My mouth and My voice is heard beyond the dwelling of the dead, and these get ready for the resurrection. And it will be as with My resurrection when My prudes came early in the morning and they saw the stone rolled away from the tomb, and they were saying among themselves, «Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?» And when they entered the tomb they saw the angel of My tomb on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and he said to them: «Don't be amazed. You seek Jesus, the Nazarene, Who has been crucified. He has risen. Behold the place where they laid him! But go; tell His disciples that He has risen!» (Mark 16:6,7) I let the angel of My tomb to tell the women that I was raised and to tell them to go with the news of My resurrection to My disciples, but they did not believe when they told them. There was no way of rebuking them because of their unbelief and because of their heartlessness. And behold, I cannot also rebuke those that hear the voice of My word, which was declared to you by My own mouth, watchmen children at the door of My coming after the man to raise him from the death of his works without God. I cannot but destroy the unbelief and the heartlessness of those who do not want to believe in My coming as word on earth, the voice of the Son of God, which is heard by the dead from the tombs, as it was heard two thousand years ago over the dwelling of the dead. I am the One Who said: «The time is coming and it has already come, when those in the graves will hear My voice and they will come either to life or to eternal damnation». Amen.

Let those who have become servants at the altars answer Me, if they believe in My Scriptures of two thousand years ago, which speak about the resurrection of those in the graves. Behold, they do as those in the time of My body did, who did not believe that those who are in the graves would come to life; they did not believe until they saw the graves opened and many bodies of the saints who came to life and appeared in Jerusalem. I do not care for their unbelief and for their heartlessness if they do not believe My voice, which is coming today on the earth, but I do care for their salvation and that is why I do not remain silent over the earth. I do not keep silent because if I have come from the Father as word on the earth, I have come to speak and to remain silent, and at the voice of My word the man's unbelief becomes silent and he will be stilled more and more with every passing day, and the heaven and the earth will speak. Amen.

My disciples were complaining and groaning, and I did not let them within that situation after I was resurrected, and I sent Mary Magdalene to them and other little disciples and they did not believe either, and I was looking at their unbelief and at their heartlessness. And while they were sitting at the table, I appeared into their midst and I rebuked them, and then I took Thomas' finger and put it into the sign of My nails in My hands and into My pierced side, that he might believe that it was I and that I was resurrected and then I told him: «Because you have seen Me, you have believed, but blessed are those who have not seen and they have believed». (John 20:29) Amen. Oh, who on earth does really want this happiness that I spoke with Thomas about, the one who believed after He had seen?

Oh, what shall I do to you, man, in order to believe? Shall I make you see Me in order to believe Me? Oh, which is the work of your faith, unbelieving and stiff-necked man? It is in vain that you say, the unbelieving and hardened one; it is in vain when you say that I, the One Who speaks into the middle of this people, am not, but rather that I am the devil or the man. You say it in vain. You say so because you are full of yourself and full of your glory on the earth. You say this because you do something else then the faith and its works.

And as for you, servants of the church in the world, the vainglory, in which the people of the vainglory on earth keep you, has made you grow blind and I will not spare you from rebuking because of your unbelief, because of your heartlessness and because your strong obstinacy, for I, the Lord, have in the midst of the Romanian people the river of My word and its river bed that I have showed it to the entire world by My heavenly governance on earth, and I have a people of sons, and in their midst I have sons anointed by Me, the Lord, according to the order of Melchizedek, a heavenly order and not an earthly one, for I dwell into their midst with My saints, great and small, and I have in them a prophetic spirit and sight of My sight by which I look into the man and after the man and over the man on earth, according to what I have to see and speak over the man, and I have true witnesses and they speak of My coming on earth with a word of resurrection over the earth, the same as two thousand years ago I had the prudes, Joseph and Nicodemus, true witnesses of My crucifixion and resurrection, and beside them the saints whose graves were opened and came to life in Jerusalem and they spoke about Me that I was the Son of the Father, the crucified and resurrected Son, and they will bear testimony again in the day of the great resurrection, for the day when I will sound the trumpet for the resurrection of the dead, and then, after that, for the life of the age that is to come. Amen.

I have My trumpet Verginica among the saints. When she was in her body on earth in the time of the work of My word, through her, she was bringing into the midst of the people that listened to the voice of My word, the atonement sacrifice for the sins of those that were asleep and the prayer of thankfulness for those that were alive, and love with much longing for the prudes of My resurrection. Then she left it to you to go on with this day of feast over the dead and over the living, to take it and bring it to the Lord and to the heaven of saints until the great day of the resurrection of the bodies from the dust where they rest waiting for the Lord, today's sons of the faith of My word. Oh, how wonderful My descent upon you is, and you are the true witnesses of My voice, which speaks over you from the clouds above you and on which I stay and speak. Amen, amen, amen.

– I want, Lord, Who receives this sacrifice, I want to bow with thankfulness and to comfort them because they carry to You what I, Your trumpet, by which You spoke upon them, left them to take it further: the feast of the prudes, for year by year I had been gathering at this table, Yours and mine, the saints and then the people who heard the voice of Your word. For behold, there are almost fifty years since you have been glorified over the earth with the word of Your coming, beginning with me and up to these little ones, who listen to us, those from heaven, You, Lord, Who are coming so wonderfully to them and speak with them the mystery from heaven, the mystery from the beginning and from the end, for You are the beginning and the end, and the man does not want to believe this in order to bow to Your word of today and under its mystery that is broken from heaven, with which You have come to make the man again, oh, Lord of resurrection! Amen.

I bow before you, I comfort you and I advise you not to give the Lord down, children who had the faith of the Lord's coming. Carry Him, children sons and take care of His coming, for He will come soon, soon, soon to you with your house from heaven and He will embrace you and then you will no longer sigh but rather you will be true witnesses of the Lord's coming over those who do not believe now, and every eye will see you, those who are despised by their unbelief, and the Lord, That is unknown by those who do not believe because of their pride in not believing and doing their own wills against the Lord's will, Who comes to show God's will to the man.

And now, I speak to the sons of Jerusalem: Christ is risen! And I also speak to all the prudes and to all the saints gathered here to the feast of today into your midst and I say: Rejoice! Rejoice for the Lord, Who has found faith on earth for His coming to work with it the resurrection of the creature, the new birth of the world, which is to be. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Verginica, My resurrected body was shown over the disciples with its garment from the Father, and My clothing passes Me through the walls; it passes Me from those that are not seen into those that are seen so that the man may see Me and this is how My disciples saw Me. Oh, and you are My true witness and you has appeared now around your feast, resurrected in the eyes of those who are not seen, among the sons of Our Jerusalem of today.

All the human kind rejoices that it has come down from the first built man and until today because I have called them to the memorial of the holy prudes, (holy myrrh-bearing women, tr. note.) as I worked upon you in the time of your body. I would like you to rejoice and I do not want you to cry. But for this you need a spring of joys from Our small people, oh, Verginica! However, now I have at the table the saints in tens of thousands of thousands and the holy prudes are celebrated among them, the witnesses of My resurrection. Let us come down in peace upon the little ones, with the peace of the saints that are heavenly celebrated into their midst. Amen.

Oh, you saints, rejoice, for the great and whole salvation is at the door and it is here. Rejoice, you prudes of My resurrection, for you had served Me on earth and you have been following My love far beyond My resurrection and until My coming of today, when I, the Resurrected Lord, have confessed you now and here, in a heavenly feast into the midst of My Jerusalem of Romanians, the people of My coming, the people of faith from the end of the time, a miracle faith, a miracle which could fulfill My coming among those who believed and believe. And behold, I come, for I have put faith in them, and through them I could find faith on earth. Amen. This is what it means faith. This kind of faith I have required from those that say that they believe. I ask faith from the man in the fulfilling of My Scriptures, which are still to be fulfilled, and then it is to the man to fulfill them as Zacharias did, and then John, the Baptizer and My mother, the Virgin and the sons of Joseph, in whose house I grew up among them, and they were My apostles afterwards, My priests, according to God's mysterious order, according to the order of Melchizedek even since the time of My body, for before My crucifixion and resurrection, I had established them as servants of My kingdom and I did not tell this to the rulers of the temple. I have established a royal people on earth, a holy priesthood, a people earned by God as I have also worked today and made a people, and with it I have overcome the whole world, and the Holy Spirit is the King of the world, and there is no other king on earth, for I with My saints from heaven and from earth reign within a work of the Holy Spirit, which the stiff-necked man, has no way of knowing it and he has no way of understanding it and then to see it.

Christ is risen! I tell those in heaven. Amen.

Christ is risen! I tell those in the dwelling of the dead. Amen.

Christ is risen! I tell those in hell. Amen.

And to you, Jerusalem, which believe in the Lord, your God, the King of the heaven and of the earth, the Creator of all that is seen and of all that is unseen, I tell you: peace to you! And you should also be a son of peace so that My peace may rest over you.

Peace to you, children of the New Jerusalem! For the saints in heaven sit with you at the table with heavenly adornments for you.

Peace to you! Be disciples, and be with a teacher, sons. Be with a teacher all the time. Make yourselves loved by what I am in you and not by what you are in you, for when you become loved, as the others that are yours want, then you become loved and this cannot be done otherwise. Become the loved ones of the heaven and may the heaven be yours, as the heaven wants, this is how you should be on earth. Amen.

Peace to you! Be disciples with a teacher, sons, and become children. You should always, always, be children and always be disciples with a teacher so that you may be in My image and after My likeness, because this is what I have been teaching you and this is how I have been helping you to be through those whom I advise for your life with Me, for My pleasure in you and yours in Mine, disciples and sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The fourth Sunday after Passover, of the paralytic

I take from your sleep and from the rest of your body, from its power and from your work for My people, work that makes your spirit tired, for you work with your spirit, children who receive My coming in word. Amen.

Today is also a day for My teaching over the people, so much taught by God. It is a day of growth in faith, humility and miracles, children and sons, because you are into My hand as some children who serve their God more than My children who had been before you, for My time with you is a great time. It is the time of My word, which flows like a river, because God is no longer upon the man in a true way, for the man is mixed with his own self and I cannot be over this mixture, for no one comes back from death if one saw Me working from the man who is mingled with his own self, because this is what the man would say that I was: mixed with the things of the man.

I had to make a fence around My work with you, so that I may keep you in Me, and in this way to be able to come down to you and for you to be My bridge, children sons. My word is written into the Scriptures: «He who does not receive My kingdom like a child, cannot enter it». Amen. Let servants and the rulers of the world church answer Me if they are children, and then if they receive My kingdom. Let them answer Me! But what are they to answer Me? They cannot answer you, let alone Me! How are they supposed to teach you what to do when they do not teach themselves and among themselves about God's kingdom? How shall they teach you when I, the Lord, teach you? I would touch them to punish them for their unbelief into My coming to you as word, and for the reprimand they have been making to you whenever it has suited them. But woe to them, for neither of them will escape from the punishment they have prepared for themselves because they put in chains the one who stood witness among them to My work with you. (The bishop John Irineu, r.n.) If they had believed that I was that work, would My witness have confessed his unbelief anymore? The witness, whom I had among them and with whom I had been working a new beginning of new living church, which was not mixed with the lawlessness? I spoke and I speak again that the whole unbelief and contempt, which this one has been spreading among you now, have been because no one of them wanted to believe and become children and to receive the kingdom of God afterwards. What shall I do with those who are great in their eyes? I can do nothing. I cannot have any room in them no matter how much I would grow less in order to make them know Me by the spirit of My humility and then by the grace from above, which only those who are born from above have, and those from below do not have it. I will crush their greatness soon, soon, as I also crushed the bishop's who had been fighting against you for seven years, (The bishop Basil of Târgoviște, to which the locality of Glodeni belongs and where the "New Jerusalem Holy Citadel" monastery is, r.n.), and then they fell and paid on earth with torment and sorrow the whole pile of stones, which they had thrown into you. I will crush their greatness because I do not need it, as I also do not need any honor from them, for I said: «I do not receive glory from the people». I do not receive it because I am the humble God and the man does not believe that I do not receive honor from him. What shall I do with the honor for Me from the one who does not love Me with his body, with his soul and with his spirit?

I will punish them all, both people and their offspring, because they took away from near you the one who believed in Me and because they made him blaspheme My way from heaven down on to earth and because they made him separate himself from My holy word, the word of the eternal life, which fills the air when I come down with it to you, and which shakes the dwelling of the dead and the hell, so that it may give back the dead as it is written into the Scriptures.

Woe, and seven times woe, and even seventy times seven woe to those who think of the word of My mouth, which flows smoothly from Me during these days, that it is the word of man and not I, Myself, the Word of the Father, the Son of the Father, God the Word, Who became flesh two thousand years ago, and now, the word for the resurrection of the dead, for I said: «The time is coming for those in the tombs to hear the voice of the Son of God and to come to life». Amen. Whoever does not believe in this time in My word of nowadays, to this one it is not said that he believed or that he believes in the prophets of the Scriptures, or in Moses, with whom I spoke in the mount Sinai, and then, all the time of Moses' Israel. Amen.

I am the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and I am the same from everlasting to everlasting, but My people Israel killed Me when I came because I released the obligation of Saturday and because I said that God was My Father and because I said that I also was God.

Oh, people unfaithful to My coming of nowadays! I also said to those who did not believe then that I was the Son of God and that the Father was in Me and I in Him; I told them that «The Son cannot do anything of Himself but what He sees the Father doing»; and I told them: «Whatever things He does, these the Son also does likewise. For the Father has affection for the Son, and shows Him all things that He Himself does. He will show Him greater works than these that you may marvel. For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son also gives life to whom he desires... He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father Who sent Him». (John 5:19-23) Oh, what will you do when you see those in the tombs that are coming out at My voice of today? You, who have no mercy on the weak one, as also those like you did not have mercy on the paralytic who could not walk for so many years, and who had been waiting for such a long time for someone to put him into the pool, which healed the man by My healing angel, what will you do when you will see this work of word that will give light to the whole world and that will make it new, and you will be cast out from the kingdom because you have not had any humility and faith and holiness without which no one can see the Lord? You marvel at how I can be and at how I can work over these whom I help Myself with to come and to become word and book over the earth then. Oh, do no longer marvel! I myself said that the man's holiness is My house in man. I made the man to be My house and My paradise for God and for the saints. Do no longer marvel at how I can come as word on earth making a people for Myself, for I have come to bring together all those that I have elected from margins to margins and you are not those that I have elected. However, you elect one another and you say that you are Mine, but those who are My elected are those that I, the Lord, choose, and bring them together around Me and for Me and not for the emptiness of the human glory, under which you stay, receiving the reward of your temporariness even while you are on earth, and not beyond those that are not seen.

I went to the sheep gate when the Jewish people was celebrating and increasing in number and I came near to the pool in which My angel used to come and touch those who were suffering to make well the one who would enter first into the water, and then the angel would leave; and I saw the one who had been suffering for thirty eight years, for no one was there to help him, and I said to him: «Do you want to be made well? Arise, take up your mat, and walk». (John 5:6-8) And because it was Saturday, the Jews found cause to say to him that it was not lawful to take his mat and walk. Instead of marveling at him that he, who had been sick for so many years, could take his mat and walk on his foot they judged him and they judged Me as well after they found out that it was I who healed him and that I told him to take his mat and walk in a day of Sabbath. It was in vain that I told them that the Son could not do anything of Himself if He did not see His Father doing. It was in vain that I told them that My Father had been working by that time and that I had also been working. It was in vain, as it is also in vain now that I tell you at this time, people of the church from the world, that I am this word, which comes with the clouds, the Son of the Lord, Who comes as He said before that His coming would be, and that His name is the Word of God. (Rev. 19:13, r.n.) And here is what I tell you: if you do not believe that I am, at least believe in these words of the eternal life and become wise by them and advise the people to come and drink and be healed with the waters of life, and I will speak of you into My kingdom when I come. And if you do not do this way, it will happen to you as it happened to the thief on the cross on My left on Golgotha, for those who blaspheme are to be mourned. Why is it hard for you to believe that everything what is here, where I speak and share Myself, is made by Me? Should I really ask you, the rulers of the church from the world? However, did I not choose a witness among you, (The bishop John-Irineu, from the Romanian Orthodox Church, r.n.), to stretch out a bridge for you so that you might find Me here calling the man to life? Oh, why did you work like that and made him to be like you then? I made him greater than you and he is like that now, for what I have given him I have given and he has it. Only that you have dealt with him as the rulers of the Jews did with Me and with those who were My disciples, who believed that I was from the Father.

Oh, unfaithful people! I will no longer have patience with you. Oh, until when do you want to stay in the cornerstone and not I? Until when do you want to be ignorant as far as My church and God with the man on earth mean? Until when, really? Until I, and not the man, will take your ministry away and you will be put to shame because of your unbelief. And the crippled, the lame, the blind and all who suffer will arise and I will heal them for you do not know to be judges. You do not know, because you are not from God, but you appointed one another under My name instead, and that because of your lawlessness, I am not taken into consideration among the people without any guide on earth. However, I, as a merciful Shepherd, here it is how I come with food, with good pasture, with living water and with a voice calling to life every man who wants to pass from death to life, loving those that are Mine. Amen.

Oh, My Jerusalem taken out of Romanians, the Romanian people does not know to look for you and to take Me from you and to come to life. I have a fallow land with a treasure on it, on the land of the Romanian country, and many buy it. Only that it does not want to buy the land with My treasure in it. And what can it buy it with? With self-denial and cross, with a holy life and without the spirit of the world in it, for the world crucified Me, because its spirit cannot be with My Holy Spirit.

I come as a mysterious Shepherd on the Romanian land and I pour Myself over it with the river of life so that all the nations of the earth may drink of it, and those that are against My kingdom, which I come now on the earth with, starting with you, children of the Romanian Jerusalem, these will see you and they will believe, wanting or not, through those who will shine with Me in them after I will have revealed My glory on you and in you, for that is why I give you food and you will be blessed, those who eat and grow less and not bigger, and stay under the exhortation of the eternal life and become holy, sanctifying yourselves for Me, your Lord and God.

Receive Holy Spirit! Receive, for he who receives has, and the one who does not receive does not have. Make way to My word over the earth, for I have to renew the earth, from margins to margins, for the word is the one who gives life and spirit of life. Receive from My mouth and this is how you are to listen, and let My book with you be your first food, and then I will add all other things to you for your life, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The fifth Sunday after Passover, of the Samaritan woman

I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth and I come down above the little garden of My word with all the heavenly powers and I strengthen My gates and then I come in as word into My book of today. Amen.

I am the Lord! Open up to Me, watchmen sons and listen and write. Write and write again everything that I speak, for I have come with the saints and with the angels for the celebration of the well from the house of the meeting, the well of the meeting, the well of the Samaritan woman, for I met her at the well. I was tired of walking and I stopped in the citadel of Sychar, a citadel of Samaritans and there at Jacob's well, the Samaritan woman came about the seventh o'clock and drew water, and I said to her: «Give Me to drink». And then I spoke with her until My disciples came as they went to buy some food to eat.

I have come with a feast, and I have come with thirst to give of My thirst and to comfort My Spirit within you, and My Spirit from the saints of the heaven, who have come with Me at the well of the meeting, the well of the Samaritan woman, for she advises you to spread the news over this little village of Mine from here and over the earth that I have come on earth to you and I become a spring of word and I give to drink to the one who thirsts, I give to the man and I tell him: «If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink! The who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, from within such a one rivers of living water will flow!». (John 7:37;38) Amen.

I want the man to come to the well of My word, which flows from Me over to you and to tell Me: «Lord give Me this water so that I may no longer thirst», for this is what the Samaritan woman said, after I asked her and I said: «Give Me to drink». And I gave it to her and she said to Me: «We know that Messiah comes, He Who is called Christ, and when He has come He will declare us all things». And then I said to her: «I am He, the One Who speaks to you». (John 4:25-26) When she heard this she believed and she let her pot and went away into her citadel, sons, and they believed her and said to her: «Now we believe not because of your speaking; for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world». (John 4:42)

I have come with thirst and I am tired, My people, and I see that you are also tired and I give you to drink and I give you of My Spirit so that you may be able to live through Me, for you cannot manage by yourself as the time is very bad on earth and the evil spirit is fighting against Me and against you and it makes Me worried for your life. However, I with all of My saints, give you from heaven and we give you of the living water, which becomes in the one who drinks of it a spring of running water to an eternal life, My people.

Behold, I have strengthened with all the heavenly powers My gates between earth and heaven, and I have opened and then I have come in to give you to drink to your life with Me, and be careful to what I tell you. I tell you a mystery about My coming and I tell you this: it is not God Who fulfills the Scriptures but the man instead, for God is with the spirit. The Lord does not come but He has to be brought instead and you need such a great faith as there has never been from everlasting to everlasting, and that is why I spoke to you, My people of today, that when you burn completely then I come. Amen. The man is the one who brings Me down: the man son, tired of the pain in you, of your pain after your salvation. And I, Myself, became a Man when the time of My coming arrived two thousand years ago, for the man is the one who fulfills the Scriptures, not God, for the Lord is with the spirit.

I wait for your insatiability, New Jerusalem. You are the people by which I, the Lord, glorify Myself before the people, and I come down with pain and with groaning for your life in those who carry Me to you, so that they may not let Me down, but rather to carry Me with all their weak powers, for the man is the one who brings Me down. The Lord does not come, but He has to be brought instead to be with you, children sons, and that is why I have shown you My groaning, My mourning and My mercy full of longing for those who bring Me down to you as word, for it is hard for Me and My way from heaven to earth has become heavier, because those who receive Me when I come, are crushed by pains and they are so wounded and they keep Me so crushed when I come to you, My people.

Oh, My coming is very hard and the man is small and weak, but behold, the Lord does not come, because He has to be brought down instead, and it must be held on to the bridge between earth and heaven for I fulfill the Scriptures with the man and there was not and there is not a Scripture more difficult to fulfill than this one of My coming now, in the end of the time, when I, near the Father, make My coming full of word, a word as much and heavy as the river, for it is the judgment of the world without God on earth, and it is hard to carry on and to fulfill the Scripture of the new making of the world, for it is not with comfort but with pains of making that I work by the gentle spirit of those who receive Me when I come and become a book on earth, and I have asked you Jerusalem, to strengthen their power again and again. Give them your hand again and again to get up from pains and to open up to Me and to give Me to you, sons, because I glorify Myself through you on man and on the earth, and the time is coming to bring the multitudes together again near the spring of the word of life and to comfort My thirst after the man giving them to drink to their eternal life, to all who will come together soon, soon, near you. Amen.

I give you the word with power, to prepare the celebration of My meeting with the man in the garden prepared through you by the heavenly powers, which work with you to the glory of My coming as word of creation over the earth, sons. I give you the Holy Spirit and blessing in abundance. I give you help from heaven and from earth, for the miracle of My coming to you is great and My mysteries are great and unfathomable in these days, and that is why I have asked you to eat My book that is with you and eat the first food to grow less and not bigger and to stay under the advice of the eternal life and to sanctify yourselves being holy for Me, the Lord your God, Man and God in heaven and on earth, for I, Myself, became Man in order to fulfill My coming on earth. Amen.

You should grow small and not big, small and gentle Jerusalem, for I strengthen you again and again by those that are your guides put by Me over you. But behold, they are even gentler, for this is how the little ones are; they are gentle and they humble their little hearts that are crushed by pains, for great is the mystery of the greatness of God's sons, and David was full of this mystery and said: «Lord, my heart is not haughty, nor my eyes lofty; nor do I concern myself with great matters, of things too wonderful for me. Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with his mother, like a weaned child is my soul within me». (Ps. 131:1-2) This is how you are supposed to be forever, Jerusalem, and you should be a beautiful child through sufferance because the testing produces endurance, and endurance produces the peaceful fruit of humility, the greatest righteousness, My people, to be able to dwell in you as in heaven, for I lost the heaven and not the man, and I want to give it back to him, and I want to make the man again, and I want the man to bear his making, for I have come to become the Creator of everything that remains. And those that are will remain, and those things that are not will no longer be. Amen.

Bring Me sacrifice, My people. You are the one who have been taught by God and you should know that the humble spirit is the sweetest and most pleasant sacrifice to Me from you, and the one, who does not do this, should not think that he will receive something from God, for woe to the one who thinks about himself at a higher level than he is! The humble spirit does not justify itself in the man and you speak like David who said that he was not concerned with great matters too wonderful for him, but rather he stilled and quieted his soul, like a child weaned with his mother, as a reward for his soul.

Be holy with My love in you, for woe to the man who has his love in him and not Mine! My love in man does not stop for itself and does not come to a stop and it comprises in it all God's sons, for great is the mystery of God's sons, My people.

I said that he who is weak in his spirit is the same in his body and he who is strong in his spirit is also the same in his body, and to be strong means God in man, and where I am in man, I become in him a fire of the Holy Spirit and a river of living waters over those that are thirsty. This is what I want to do with you, and again I will come together with you, My people, and we will give to the multitudes to drink of My spring that is on you and it will be known of who drinks of it and he will be thankful and will leave with thankfulness and he will have from Me. Amen.

Oh, My people, the gift will be taken away from the one who is discontent and then he still remains unthankful and I teach you, small Jerusalem, to be thankful and content son, for I will glorify Myself with you over the earth and I make for the man a day of heavenly feast with you, and the man will come from the earth and will see My glory with you again. However, you should always, always stay with your spirit humbled and with a clean heart and with justice between Me and you, between brother and brother, for My word is written into the Scriptures, and says: «You will not be judged if you do not judge. Forgive and it will be forgiven to you, for with the measure you measure it will be measured back to you». (Luke 6:38) However, you My people, let yourself be led by the Spirit of God, always, always, for you owe nothing to the body so that you may live according to it, but rather you have to put to death with the Spirit of the Lord everything that belongs to the body and to suffer together with Me so that you may be exalted together with Me, because there is still a little bit of time, very little until the greatness which is to be revealed, and with the measure you measure now, with that measure it will be measured back to you. Amen.

As for Me sons, I make the blessing come down over you by word so that you may prepare the feast of Whitsuntide, for I want to bring the man into My gardens with you and to give him the wisdom of the Holy Spirit, and I want to work with you in a heavenly manner, small and dear Jerusalem. Oh, I have mercy on you when you are in pains and oppressed by everything that comes upon you, but I will take care of you by the angels in heaven, My people, and I will lead you from the earth with My word and with those who stay before My word to give it to you as food, gentle son, and I will not leave you, but you should love the pain and warm up your little heart, My people, and rejoice in your pains, for I spoke to those who suffered for Me: «Rejoice!» To whom shall I tell this if not to those who have been suffering and are with a heavy heart after Me? I feel your longing after Me, but still warm up, sons, at the fire of your pains, which furrow your little hearts and your little cheeks, tearful from pains because of your sufferance and from the spirit of the love of God, the longing that cries in the man with the sweetest cry, with the sweetest sacrifice and with the humble spirit. Amen.

The Samaritan woman got together with the saints at the well, which watches her and fills her by the spirit of faith and of the heavenly love. This is how she wants it to you, sons, and you should work with it and to give the news of this little village about My mystery with you and to call the villagers to My table with you, and to teach them to come and how to come and how long to stay, for you are a people of victorious saints, for this is how those who overcome the world and its spirit are called, so that they may have a dwelling in them for the Spirit of God, Who sanctifies the man. Amen. The Spirit of God is the gift of the saints and you should not forget the work, which you have to do between heaven and earth: The Spirit of God, sons. This work I want to see at work from you over those who will be brought together by Me at the feast of the Holy Spirit, which is coming closer with its glory and Mine and yours over the earth, for I take this glory and I will spread it over the whole earth, because I can, My people. I want that you may also do it. You should be able to do everything that I have to do over the earth and over the man, and you should prepare yourselves ahead of time and to be a beautiful child, as I have always taught you, always, dear Jerusalem. Now I wipe out your tears and your pain and I give you a refreshing spirit and I give you the spirit of comfort in all your sufferings, which measure your love of God. I am completely crushed in those who carry Me to you, and as much as I am this is as far as I can go, and this is the glory of those who love Me. My glory was the cross and sufferance and My sighing after the man, and I still am this way now, and this is how I am carried by those who bring Me from heaven to earth to feed you and to comfort you in pains, My people. The humble spirit helps both you in Me, and Me in you, and this is how beautiful I want you to be. Oh, do no longer cry. Cheer up, My people. Oh, little sons, let your little hearts be comforted, for I, the Lord, have mercy on you; I have mercy on you and I love you because you love Me and I comfort you because you cry with those who cry under My cross full of pains.

I bring you to a spirit of celebration. Get together with the saints at the well and sing praises to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit and nourish your spirit and give powers to each other, comforts and health over your hearts that are weakened by trials, because it is hard on earth, little sons. I give you by those who are a bridge to you, I give you the word of the celebration of today, and the saints will rejoice in you at the same time with you, for My word gives life, sons.

And again I, the Lord, speak blessing over you and over the feast, which I prepare through you to the heaven and to the earth, to the thirsty man and to the one who is not thirsty, for I will release My spring, and it will give life from it. Amen.

Peace to you! Be the sons of My peace in you. I give you My peace and with it I give you comfort, sons tired in your body and in your little heart.

Oh, Jerusalem, if I did not come to you, you would no longer be. He, who is, is through Me, for I am the life and I am your life, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The sixth Sunday after Passover, of the blind man

I am the Light of the world, Jerusalem. I come and I open up My gates and I enter as word in My book with you and I teach you to stay in My light, because I have chosen you from the world and I have healed you, so that you may be able to see and to walk in the light, for the night is everywhere, My people. However, you should have Me as your guide and this is how you are supposed to see. Amen.

I come again with a word of blessing upon you that you may get ready for celebration with the Holy Spirit in it, with much, much Holy Spirit in it, so that the spirit of man may take from Holy Spirit who will come to My celebration with you, to give light to the man and to make the man see, My people. Get yourself ready, son, and work with much peace and love and diligence for the preparation of My days with you into the midst of the people that I, the Lord, will gather from margins to margins into the garden of My meeting with the man, a garden in which the spirit of those who are asleep, who wait for their resurrection, has now, at the end of time, a dwelling for celebration, and I put those that I established as guides over you to bring them joys with My word upon you, a word that the dead in the tombs hear, in order to prepare their resurrection with the word, for I make them all by My word. Amen.

Oh, Romanian Jerusalem, I have made you with My word in your days as well, and with this word I want to anoint the man's eyes and his ears, his mind, his heart and his love, to see, to hear and to understand and then to believe and to love My light by which I lead you through the thick darkness of the time of today, and in which no one, no one sees the light anymore. Oh, how shall one see it anymore? How, when they call the darkness light, as the blind people who do not need to see, if this is how they are taught, because they do not see and do not know what the eyesight is? Oh, how shall the blind people see, who do not see anything but the darkness in which they live? The Jews saw My light when I, the Lord and the God of Israel made the blind from birth see? Life without God, this is what the world calls light and this is how the world is taught and there is no one to tell it that My Holy Spirit have spoken through the prophets and said: «Woe to those who put darkness for light and light for darkness, and to those who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter, for the Lord will come and the mountains will tremble». (Is. 5:20, 25) Those who say that they see will fall down with their head into the dust, for those that are without God on their way do not see and are blind and have sin when they say that they see, and this sin remains upon them.

However, My people of today, I made the blind man from birth see, and the rulers of the Jews judged Me that I violated their Sabbath, because I did this in a day of Sabbath, in their day of feast and their day of rest. They judged Me that I worked, but I worked out a miracle and not a human or earthly work and to the one who was blind and testified to them about the miracle of healing of his eyesight they judged him and said to him: «You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us?» (John 9:34)

Oh, My people, it was so blind the people of that time, which called itself God's people by the grace of its forefathers from the beginning, through Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and through Moses, whose disciples they said that they were! Israel was so blind and he said that everyone that is born with a disease is born in sins and of sins. Who was supposed to tell him that it was not good for the man to judge in the place of God? Who is supposed to tell the man if the man does not walk into My light? When My disciples saw the blind man from birth they asked Me: «Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?» (John 9:2) And I answered them saying: «Neither did this man, nor his parents; but, that the works of God might be revealed in him. I must work the works of Him Who sent Me, while it is day. The night is coming, when no one can work. While I am in the world, I am the light of the world». (John 9:3-5) Amen.

Oh, Romanian Jerusalem, I have come now, at the end of the time, into the midst of the Romanian people, and I have taken you near to My spring and I told you to wash in it to be able to see afterwards. This is how I have taught you to see the darkness of the world, which only those that see know it. How is the man supposed to give up sin when he does not see from God? Nothing else means light but only Me, the Son of God, the messenger of the Father Sabaoth. Amen. I came into the world and I said: «While I am in the world, I am the light of the world». However, the world does not want Me. Those of that time did not want Me either; those of that time did not want Me either, who saw the miracle when I spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva to get wet and then I anointed the blind's man eyeholes with the mud, of which I made eyes for the one who had no eyes. The world does not want Me to be its light, but I am the light of the world as long as I am into its midst. If the world does not see Me, it is judged, because I said when I made the eyes for the one who had not have any eye: «I came into this world for judgment, that those who don't see may see; and that those who see may become blind». (John 9:39)

Every man who does not love My teaching is blind. The man has no greater sin among others sins than the sin that he does not love My teaching, to see than and to walk in light, because I am the Light of the world, at the beginning and at the end, and the light is the word, My miracle by which I raise the dead. Amen.

John, My loved disciple spoke testifying about Me: «In the beginning was the word, and the Word was with God, and the word was God, and the same was in the beginning with God, and everything that has been made was made by Him». (John 1:1-3) And then he said: «In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn't overcome it». (John 1: 4-5) Amen. And here is what I tell you, My people from the end of the time: the Word is in the beginning as in the end, and This is from the very beginning and from the very end with God and everything is made again through Him. Amen. And I also tell you: the life is in Me and the life is the light of the people, and this is what you are to be in the midst of the people, for the light shines in the darkness and the darkness cannot overcome it. However, you should have life in you, for the life is the light of the people and this is what it gives light in the darkness and which the darkness cannot overcome it. Be very careful to My teaching upon you, for My word carries life in Him, My people. Amen. I gave light into the world with My life that I lived and I proved into the midst of the people, and My life has had power in it, which surpassed the vision and the understanding of the man without life and without any light in him. My life, filled with the Father, with His teaching and with obedience to Him, that was the power and the light of the people, for the life is the light in the darkness and this is how Moses could become light and guide and greater than any man that was without God in him into the midst of Israel. What was Israel supposed to do if I did not have the faithful Moses into the Israel's midst and by whom I led the people through the miracles done by Moses? For I was speaking to him and he was raising his hand and it happened as I was telling him to work, the same as I was receiving the work that was to be done from My Father. I had protected Moses before his coming into existence and I brought him in front of Israel and I made him My vessel and I dwelt in him with My Spirit, and Moses was My Spirit, and where My Spirit is, there life is as well. This means life: My Spirit in man, My people and this is what I want to have in you, in your body, which is My house and My life, because that is why I have taken you from the world and I have given you work and I have taught you to do My works into the midst of the people, My people, and for the world to see the life with you, for life is My Spirit in man. Amen.

However, you, My people, you should not love the glory which the people give to you, but rather you should love life, for the life is My Spirit in man. And if you did not have This, then you would not have any life at all. However, you have to be the life of the people with your life, and you should speak with the man about life, not about those that are on earth, and let the man remain with life in him and not with you in him, for you have to be My disciple in everything I speak to the man for his light. My life in your life, My Spirit in your spirit, this is what I ask you to have and to be in your days of celebration, which come now again, and when I am glorified again into the midst of the people with the glory of My word and with you, for you are the people through whom I, the Lord, have been glorified on earth, as I had been glorified once with Moses' people, Israel of today.

I freshen up a great blessing on you and I tell you that I will bring in the garden of My meeting with the man many people who want life, and who want to learn it from you, children of My glory from the end of the time. Be hard-working, sons, and do not let yourselves behind with the preparation of the feast closer to it, but rather get ready with it ahead of time, to be with peace and not with tiredness or tremble, sons. Oh, listen to My guide into your midst, for the work that you have to prepare and to do is great and much, and the spirit of the guide is My Spirit. Amen.

Come sons! I want to present you to the world as princes and princesses, heavenly sons on earth, for not those who are princes on earth are real princes, but princes are those who are born from heaven. I told you once that I want to make you Prince Charming and fairies and to rock Myself from cradle to cradle with you. Oh, I would carry you only in a little cradle, as babies. I would dwell only in word on you, but you should love the word very much, little sons, to grow less and to look at the growth of those whom I have set as guides over you, for they have grown less and they stay small even before you, only for you to learn and to grow less and to stay as little babies under the advice from heaven and on earth, for My Spirit is life in man, little sons. Amen.

I send you all the necessary help to have for My celebration with you and with those who come being brought by My word, which calls the man to the spring. Proclaim the celebration. Proclaim it well and into My little village with you. Proclaim it, sons and work like Me, to have My Spirit among you. Amen. Do not forget to ask Me for a sweet time, for a warm time, a time with sun and a time with breathing and with a word of the Holy Spirit, and this is how I will fulfill. Amen. Ask for warmth and for the cool of the day to the comfort of the celebration. Ask for a sweet time, sons, for each angel waits before the ghosts to work for Me and for you with the word. Amen.

And I will come again, and I will speak again and I will strengthen the blessing and the peace and the help and the work of the Holy Spirit from you over the multitudes. Work with a guide and you will see how sweetly flow all that are and will be for My days with you in a sojourn with those who will come to the spring.

Peace to you, little sons! I, the Lord, clothe you within the spirit of the heavenly peace, and the time will listen to you and you to Me, sons, for I also listen to My Father and yours, because I have given you power to become His sons. Amen. I give you life of My life. This is how you should prove that you are and that you have and the man will see the way, the truth and the life, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Ascension

I prepare to come in as word in the book. I prepare over you with a feast of ascension, for I, the Lord, in a day like this, two thousand years ago, opening the mind of My disciples to understand the Scriptures about Me, written in the prophets and in the psalms and telling them that I would send the promise of My Father over them, the Holy Spirit, I raised My hands and while I was blessing them, I left them and I ascended to My Father. Amen.

I had been working all the fulfilling of My Scriptures about Me, so that through the disciples in My name the repentance for the forgiveness of the sins for all the nations might grow then, starting with Jerusalem. And I have made you like them, My witnesses, for I, the Lord, have spoken so much with you in your time with Me, and we have come to the thing that was prophesied to be, at the proclamation of the kingdom of the heavens on earth with you, so that all the nations may hear about it, starting with you, children of the Romanian Jerusalem, and that all may come to repentance, all those to whom the gospel of My kingdom has already come with you to the forgiveness of the sins, sons.

Oh, how shall I make the man understand what the forgiveness of the sins means? How shall I do it, My people? The man does not know that it is in vain that he comes to repentance from his sins if he does not stop doing them afterwards, if the man does not sanctify himself for My coming. I call the people to My spring among you to teach them, sons, to tell them what the forgiveness of the sins and the true repentance are. I take many and I bring into the garden of My meeting with the man, and I set you as witnesses of My coming as word on earth and teachers from Me over them, for it is the time of the greatest Scriptures: the coming of the Son of Man. Amen.

I have stayed with you in the word for a long time and I have taught you to be beautiful, so that the man may hear how he can be beautiful; and I have taught you to grow less in such a way that the man may hear to whom kingdom of the heavens belongs, and that he may take steps towards it as I have also taken steps to the man with it. Amen. I have you tired of work and tired of worries over the preparation of the feast of the Holy Spirit, for the celebration of the Pentecost over those who will come together at My spoken word, so that the man may come to the spring of My word, small sons. Come together in a counsel of church and work hard with all your devotion and listen to any exhortation of the Holy Spirit into your midst, because I have taught you not to work without a guide, for the guide is your light, and this is how you are to see, small sons. Oh, let My being dwell into your being so that it may be light in you and from you and among you, and then over the multitudes in you. Learn from the parable of the work of the little bees and take a look to see how they bring honey for themselves and for the man. Receive the Holy Spirit, sons, and from all that is Mine over you, receive the Holy Spirit, as the little bees take the honey from the flowers and take it to their little house. This is how you are to gather My kingdom as well and always to gather in it and in its work over the earth. Pick up sons, in it and from everything I give you, and do not let the sweetness of My word on you unpicked, and do not let it be uneaten, children sons.

I want to teach the man what the forgiveness of the sins means, and that for this it has been worked much, and that it has been worked then always, always, for he who does not work the kingdom of the heavens in him even for a little moment, that one is guilty of emptiness and deceit. However, I have taught you to be always beautiful, My people, always heavenly, always like your

Lord and like all those who were like Him, and let My being be in your being and not yours, for I have told you that your life is My Spirit in man, and you should not stay in vain under My word on you, but rather you should take it in you and love it with longing and insatiability, for it is the time of the fulfilling of the greatest Scriptures spoken through Moses, through the prophets, through the psalms and by My own mouth, then and now: the Scriptures of the coming of the Son of Man. And you should love My coming made up with great labor and you should not forget what I have done into your midst and how I stay and teach you and look at you and I wait for you to fulfill My coming, for the Lord does not come, but He has to be brought instead, My people. Amen. Son, I was on earth but all the time when I was on earth I did not stay as on earth but I lived as in heaven and not as on earth, My people. Oh, I had taught My disciples so much, because since I had chosen them and until the cloud took Me from before their eyes into the sky I had been teaching them, and they understood all the Scriptures about Me and about the kingdom of the heavens, and they longed for it and worked it and set it in the man, and the man could see it in them and this was to the salvation or to the judgment of the man, as also today, My work with you is either to the repentance and the forgiveness of the sins of those who have found Me with you, or to the judgment of those who do not know Me within My coming to you. Amen.

I lift you up now and I set you before the people. I have asked you to proclaim My feast well and this is how you are to fulfill. Do not have fear of shortcomings and weaknesses, for I can do everything you cannot, when I and not you dwell into your gentle being, because I can work in those that are gentle and I am beautiful in them, but get used perfectly to the mystery of My being in you and take a good look, and with heavenly eyes look at those that I put as guides over you, how small do they stay into My hand, even into your hand, because they are gentle and that is why I can work in them. Those who are stiff-necked can do, the self in them can do, and My Spirit cannot work in these, who can work by their own power and, showing their power they disagree with everything that is from another spirit, but they only agree with their own spirit, which grows in them by the power of their own self.

However, My people, if I poured My grace over you as much as I put in those that I established as guides into your midst, you would not be able to look and receive. However, I keep them in the cloud because of My grace in them that I may keep you among them near Me, only for you to know how to receive Me and to fulfill Me in your being, both when I and they see you, and when we do not see you, when it is about the sight of the eyes that look at each other. I want both from near and from far away to be sufficient for you. I want you to be sufficient with Me and from near Me, and from near you, My people, and you should not marvel that I always teach you in a great measure. It is the time of the greatest Scripture that I fulfill with you, Romanian Jerusalem: the Scripture of My coming, the coming of the Son of Man, before Whom all the nations of the earth stand, either willing or not, even though they know or do not know this, but I know that I establish the book of My coming on earth, My word, which is coming with the clouds to bring together all its elected and to give each one according to its deed. Amen.

Oh, children who receive My word into the book! We turn the night into the day to make haste with the news of the feast. I have taken you from your rest, gentle sons. I have made the word of My feast of ascension to the Father come down before dawn. When I left for the Father, I told My disciples that I would be with them to the end of the time. Who can perceive the mystery of My word that I spoke to them then? I want to make you teachers over all the earth. And I want the man to know what the way, the truth and the life mean, for the man has been teaching only death for seven thousand years, but he cannot deny himself, because life is My spirit in man, not man's spirit, if there is no one to teach him the way of the life and its truth. My word comes on earth and becomes a book to give instruction into the book to the man, for the man learns only emptiness and only death. I want to be with you as the Teacher over all the earth, for I cannot be without you, children who give Me being into the book. I take care of you enclosing you with the whole heaven of saints and angels, and I would like you to be strengthened for Me by all the sons of Jerusalem, for I would cradle you through them in pains and in My labor within you and I would cradle you through the angels from below as also through those who are above, but the people need to love the angelic state in everything, by a guide, sons, and your guide is My Spirit. Amen.

I make you free for a time of praying, and then for a time of the rest of your body, for you are tired in the nature of your body, gentle children who do not hesitate to stand before Me when I come as word to you. Oh, children sons, let the people listen to you, and let him not hesitate to labor for My coming and for its entire work over the earth. May My meeting with the man, who comes and who came with his spirit to the spring, and then with his body, be blessed! Open up their eyes, children sons, and teach them the repentance for the forgiveness of their sins, for it is for this that I have come down from the Father, that is, to fulfill all the things that are written about Me, and then to become the way for the man to the Father. Amen. Bring prayers to the Lord and to all the heavenly powers for all their help and for the time with sun and cool of the day and for the sweetness in it, and advise the people to love and to bring a sacrifice well pleasing to God, so that I may do only good to Jerusalem. Amen.

Now, peace to you! Peace to you, Jerusalem, until I make the word of the feast of the Holy Spirit come down over those that are gathered together at My heavenly spring. I will be with all the peace, with all the beauty of the feast and I will make you sweet for the man, with My face in you, but always look at Me, as I, the Lord, have always looked at you and in you and among you to work upon you with My Spirit and to keep you as My pleased ones. Amen. Take the bride ornament, and let your spirit be My Spirit, to have life in you. Amen. The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit bring the heaven down to earth to you and heavenly fragrances will accompany you. Amen. And I will let you know through messengers to all the margins, but be as beautiful as I am, sons. Amen. Make those in My little village with you stand before Me. Take care of this longing of Mine and be like the angels in heaven so that I may bring together near you all that will be saved. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! The Spirit of the feast is coming down now from heaven upon you and over the garden of the meeting, little sons. The angels and the saints remain over the garden and the throne of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit stays among the saints and all are made up in a spirit of feast, My people, and you should be the joy and the glory of the Lord. My joy and My peace will be in a celebration over the garden and over its spirit, with My Holy Spirit. Amen.

Oh, children of Jerusalem, take care of everything that is pleasing to Me from you. Take care of your little hands, which will prepare the food for all those whom we have to bring at the table of the feast. I, the Lord, want to work as in heaven, for in My people it is otherwise, and it is otherwise on earth as well. I will stay with My Spirit into your midst, Jerusalem, and we will work in a heavenly manner all those things that have to be done. Release the water of the spiritual teaching over those that will come together to drink, and do not forget to give water from the well to those who are asleep and give them a little bun and a cup to drink, for they have come together, My people, because I have made this for them a little time before in order to give them joys, relief and comfort within their waiting for the great resurrection. Amen.

Sit always in counsel and then in your work. Take care how you work, how you speak, how you smile, how you look, how you walk, for the world has to see Me in you, sons, and you should not be careless even for a little moment. Let your main concern be My Spirit in you. Let your main obedience be the love among you into My name and within your work with Me. Amen. Do not stay scattered! Do not be isolated from one another among those that come, for those who are My disciples do not stay like that and they stay in a cluster instead, sons. Stay with the Lord, stay in the Lord and receive the work of the guide, who teaches you and looks at you and protects you for Me and for My Spirit in you. Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem, you should be on earth as in heaven, so that I may make the heaven dwell with you, but you should also make it, and may this mystery be to your like that you should feel it on you, My people. Amen. And I tell you again: your sons should not stay astray for you have to see well, My people, and you should be one spirit, one spirit with Me and like Me, and one spirit with the saints and like the saints. And we will be glorified with a heavenly glory, which has come from heaven and not from earth, and we will have the joy of repentance, of those who will come to the spring, and we will bring it to the Father, Jerusalem. Amen.

Oh, let your spirit even from now on be in the spirit of the feast of the Holy Spirit and stay in the light, for this is what I want you to be. I want you to be like Me and I want to see you, and you should also see Me, My people, for your life is My Spirit, and your sight should see the glory of the heavenly things, which will catch under it the glory of those that are on earth, for My glory flows like the river over the garden, and I will speak everywhere and over all the word of the life, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity, the first day (The feast of the descending of the Holy Spirit)

The Lord is coming on earth as word. Amen, amen, amen. Stand before Me and receive Me and put My word into the book, sons who keep watch in the way of My coming as word on earth. I have cried in a voice of calling to life to every man who wants to pass from death to life, and you have shared My calling and many have come to the spring.

I am above the garden of the meeting with all the hosts of saints and angels. All the saints are of royal seed, for I, the Lord am the heavenly King, the Son of the Father Sabaoth. Amen. I have come as the mysterious Shepherd on the Romanian land and I pour Myself out into its midst with the river of life so that all the nations of the earth may drink of it and that the man may learn the way, the truth and the life, and to put the way of life under his feet, for I am full of mercy for the man.

Peace to you, Romanian Jerusalem, My people of sons born of My word from the end of the time! Peace to you, for I have established you to prepare for Me days of wedding, and that I may draw good wine from My well and to put it on the table, for the wedding guests that came to My table with you to drink, My bride people. Oh, how sweet My calling is and how deep My sighing after the man is, and how much I labor for the time of the fulfilling of the greatest Scripture, the Scripture of the coming of the Son of Man. Oh, the man cannot deny himself and come after Me if there is no one to teach him to come. I want to give teaching from the book to the man, for the man learns only emptiness, only death. I am full of longing and I cross the heaven and the earth with the word, and with it I search the man's heart to teach him the repentance for the forgiveness of his sins. I want to teach the man My love and I want to give him My advice and I want to give him My face. I want to save the human kind from the sin and to come into his way with My miracle from the end of the time, for you, My Jerusalem of Romanians, are My tool with which I cleanse My threshing floor and gather the wheat into My barns, to burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire, and then to come down on earth with eternal glory to bring together under it My elected ones, whom I have gathered from one margin of the heaven to the others with My loving word, with which I come to shepherd the man. Amen.

I embrace you all within a spirit of Whitsuntide; those who have truly come to the spring to drink of it to your repentance and for the forgiveness of your sins, for not all who have come go back healed. Peace to you, those who have truly come to My spring of word! Blessed will be all who will know to drink from Me, for those who will know to drink are those who will come to life in a spirit of repentance to the forgiveness of their sins, because I, the Lord, came two thousand years ago on earth and fulfilled all the Scriptures written about Me into the law of Moses, in the prophets and in the psalms, to preach the repentance for the forgiveness of the sins to all the nations, starting from Jerusalem. Amen.

Peace to you, those who know to drink and to receive from My Spirit, for he who does not receive from My Holy Spirit, does not come to life and does not pass from death into life. Oh, open up your ears and eyes and receive in you the glory of My word that I may teach you with it the repentance for the forgiveness of your sins. The man cannot repent unless he looks at himself to see his sins and the man's sins are not forgiven unless he gives them up through repentance and then by the holiness of his life.

I have called you to the spring of life, man who looks for life. It is not found anywhere else but only with God and here is how I come into your way to make you used to knowing Me and to listening to My voice, which calls you from death to life, for the glory of those that are earthly will soon be put out under the brightness of My glory, for I have come with the saints from heaven on earth and I have become word of the Holy Spirit and I have become a well of life so that those who are thirsty may drink of it and then to be able to see Me. Amen.

I offer you a sweet voice in the word, man poor of life. I walk with the spirit of life after you for what you call life is not the spirit of life. I came down two thousand years ago from near the Father and I became a man being conceived within a body of a Virgin that I could be born in a body on earth so that the man may not say that he cannot become God from God by becoming one body with Me through My Body, which I left for the man in a mysterious way by My sacrifice on the cross, and to make the man the son of the Father and then to draw him to the Father, for I came into the man to make him divine by the grace with which the Father sent Me after the man. Amen.

When I created the man, I made him into My image and after My likeness. I looked at Myself, man, when I made the man. As a master looks into the mirror to make his own image, the same way I looked at Me when I made the man. Then I breathed a spirit of life out of Me over him, and this is how God created the man into His image and after His likeness. I had been crying for five thousand years for the man after he fell down from heaven by haughtiness and then the Father made Me come down after him. I became then Man from the man, for it was not possible to save the man otherwise from his falling from the heaven. It was not possible otherwise to give the man back the life from the beginning, when it was not death, when there was not emptiness in heaven and on earth. The man built by God had become emptiness in heaven by haughtiness and he fell down on earth and then the man also became emptiness on earth. I had been crying for five thousand years for the man, after the place and after the day of My rest and then I came down on earth in the flesh and I glorified Myself in him with the glory that I had from the Father, and then I paid the price of the man's life, leaving My body to death like the man does, to show the man My godly Body and Blood, the heavenly one on earth, and then I told the man: «Whoever does not eat of My flesh and does not drink of My blood, will not have life in himself, and he who eats and drinks of the God, Who became flesh, that one will never die». (John 5:53). Amen.

I come from heaven down on earth to pass the man from death to life, for there is no one to teach the man the life, its way and its truth. Oh, man, who is the man to teach you? The man is emptiness on earth. Who shall put under your feet the way to teach you with it? Who shall speak to you that the man fell from heaven by his haughtiness and that he has to humiliate himself for the repentance and for the forgiveness of the sins, so that his eyes may be opened afterwards? Who else but Me? I loved you and it was out of love that I became Man, to give the price for your life, My life, man who fell from heaven by haughtiness and then by disobedience to God, Who made you into His image. I have come again towards you. My Father sends Me when I come and I do not come otherwise, and I tell you this to remind you that you did not listen and do not listen to God. Oh, can you not listen to God, man? How comes that you can listen to yourself and not to God? Man, you are not God. You are an abortion if you do not listen to God. You have been listening to yourself and not to God for seven thousand years, and the man cannot deny himself if there is no one to teach him the love of God and then his life from heaven on earth in man. I have come again after you. My Father sends Me when I come and I do not come otherwise, and I tell you this to remind you that you listen to yourself and not to God, and as for Me, I listen to My Father when I come after you to teach you to pass from death to life loving God and His life in your life and in your body. Oh, who told you to listen to yourself and to listen to the man? The one who does not have God as his father, it does this; he listens to himself and to the man and falls by haughtiness down on earth.

Behold the book of your life, man, who are called to life! Learn the book of the life, man, for I have come to give you teaching from the book, to teach you humility and then the book, to be taught and not to be empty on earth. The dead have come to life from the tombs and they stay in tens of thousands in groups-groups before this word, and you, man with a body on earth, do not see them. Oh, how are you supposed to see them if you did not learn the book from heaven, the wisdom of life without death, which sees in the man? Come, get up from your blood, and wash into the river of My word so that your eyes and your mind may be opened and to see My glory and to see My coming, for I am before you with the time of the fulfilling of the greatest Scripture, the Scripture of the coming of the Son of Man, with power and much glory, coming on the clouds, accompanied by saints and angels and speaking on earth the word of the resurrection from the dead. Amen.

I have facilitated the day of memorial of those who have been waiting for seven thousands years in the dust of the earth, and they stand in a row to drink of the word of the resurrection of the dead the river, which flows from God's mouth, the Word, the miracle from the end of the time over the living and over the dead, over the dead and over the living, for the dead are those who hear My word, not the living ones. However, I have made My coming through those who are in their bodies, both for the living and for the dead in their bodies, and this is the judgment of those who do not believe in God's works over the earth and over the man. This word is both the man's judgment, and also his life, if he comes back from death to life in order that he may see afterwards. Amen.

I am a mysterious Shepherd and the man, who is flesh and nature cannot, he cannot understand the mystery of My coming, the mystery of My being in man, My mysterious body, which comprises the man in such a way that God may make him by grace, and that My grace to be able to work from man and over the man. I am the man's Creator from beginning to end. I have come to cleanse the man from sin, and for the man to see after that and to shine on earth.

Drink water, man! Drink and eat for your eyes to be opened! Come to the spring of washing because I have come as word on earth to preach to all the nations the repentance for the forgiveness of the sins, man that have been waited by God. I bow before you like a God. You should also bow as a man, for life means My Spirit in the man, you man, who have been called to the spring. Amen.

Oh, the garden of My meeting with the man is filled with saints and angels in tens of thousands, children who receive My word to the man. All the heavenly hosts, all the hosts of the saints crown the celebration of the meeting of the Holy Spirit between Me and the man in the sky. And you are those who are tired, who did what I commanded you, and who have prepared a feast of word for Me and you have let known those of this little village from here to come as well and to learn the mystery of My coming, with My glory, which carries Me to the man by My work with you into the midst of this little village, chosen by God for His coming. I embrace you within a great mystery. I enshroud you within heavenly ornaments because you made many people come and sit and listen to the voice of My coming over the earth. Teach them the way, the truth and the life. Teach them the Book of Life and the glory of life, for I have embraced all within the word of the Holy Spirit, within the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who is the Teacher over the man. Amen.

Peace to those who really take Me from the spring! And again, I will embrace them within the word of the Holy Spirit in My love and My longing after the man.

Peace to you, children who are tired and exhausted for My days of glory over the earth and over the man! I breathe over you and I give you from Me to be able to do for Me and to alleviate My sigh, which has been crying after the man. Peace to you! And stand before Me, for I will stay in word again and again and I will perfume the garden of the meeting with a spirit of heavenly celebration on earth. And I will make it be known, sons, and I will give you of My Spirit, and He will give from you from above and you will be the sharers from Me, and you will teach the man the way, the truth and the life. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity, (Whitsuntide), the second day

I embrace you in the word, children who receive Me when I come, and I am the word. I hold you and I embrace you within the Holy Spirit by everything that is and I open the spring of My word and I give them to drink of it for you have brought Me sheep to the spring and how much I want them to become sheep and that those who take from Me may stick to the pasture and its taste, to those who hear My longing after the man! Amen.

It is a celebration of the Holy Spirit on My land with you. It is a feast from heaven over the little village of My word, in which I have a cradle with My manger of coming down from near the Father. There are the days of the coming of the Son of Man. It is the time of this Scripture from the end of the time, and I, in a sweet voice, as on the cross, call the man to My coming. Amen.

Man, have mercy on God! Have mercy on the One Who made the heaven and the earth and spread the news of His coming, and drink of His spring. Drink and come to life! I have brought you together to the spring and I give you from it. I am. The Father Sabaoth comforts Me and tells Me:

— Rejoice, My beloved Son, with Whom, I, the Father am well pleased in the beginning and in the end of the time. Wipe out Your tear, which has been crying after the man for seven thousand years, for You are the Bridegroom, dear Son, and the Bridegroom rejoices. Rejoice with Your bride and rejoice together with the wedding guests and come and feed the man from the spring of life! Amen, amen, amen.

— I, My Father, I struggle heavily with My coming, for I have a little and tiny people and it is tired of the labor for My coming and because of its work on earth. I have set My people to lay over My table to have a dinner of word with the man, to make those who come to the spring sit down. Amen.

Now, in a voice of Whitsuntide feast I tell you, those who hear: Receive Holy Spirit! Receive Holy Spirit! Receive! Receive so that I may be one spirit with you and you may be one spirit with Me, for there is no greater love on earth than the face and the work of the Holy Spirit between God and man. As a hard-working gardener pours out water to the root of the trees, so I give you to drink to be able to bring forth fruit, for the tree, which does not bear fruit is cut and cast out into an unquenchable fire. Amen.

The hosts of saints and angels taste to the full of the joy of My feast with you and with those that are gathered near you, My Jerusalem people of Romanians. Those from the invisible heaven taste of My table with you. Those that are gathered at the spring do not see and do not know that the invisible heaven sits here with them at the table, in the garden that is prepared by Me to meet the man and to give him of My life and for the man to have life, as I have. Amen.

I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth and I have the country of eternity into My arms to give it to the man, for I take and knead it in order that sons of God may come out of it by the power of My word, which gives birth to every man who comes after Me. And I said: «If anyone desires to follow Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me». (Mat. 16:24)

Man, come after Me, not after you! I come after you to tell you to follow Me, as I follow the Father in heaven as on earth. The one who is a son listens to his Father and this means to be God's son. I was with the sons of Joseph, the carpenter, when I started to call My disciples, and then I made them listen to Me and follow Me on earth. I was going with them from place to place, in Jerusalem, in Galilee and in Samaria, and I was doing near them the work of My Father, Who sent Me. I was My Father's messenger as I am today. I was speaking the word with power over the man, and the Father is in Me now just as He was in Me then, for He was, He is and He will be, as I am. Amen.

The Father is and I also am. I am the One Who is and I want the man to be too, not only God to be. My word, by which I speak for the man to be, is great. That is why I come down from the Father and I give you of My life and of its breath, which becomes word from Me, man wanted by God. I give you to be, as God is also. Amen. «I am Who I am», this is what I told Moses when he asked Me what was he supposed to tell the Israelites about the One Who sent him after them in Egypt to take them out of slavery and to give them the country of Canaan, the land of promise with milk and honey in it. I told him to speak to Israel that I was He Who was. Then I gave him power to show Me with power in him and in his word and he did great miracles into the midst of My people of that time, and it was only in this way that Israel received him as My messenger in order to take them out of Egypt and to give them the country promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

I am the One Who is and I want the man to be either, and to bring the heaven down on earth, for heaven means God with His saints and with His angels who serve Him. Amen. My Word is the Holy Spirit. Receive from Him and be one spirit with the Holy Spirit, for it is a Whitsuntide feast in heaven and on earth. My word comes with the wind on earth. The Holy Spirit comes also in the wind on earth. Amen. In the day passed of the feast in the garden of meeting, the wind spoke and told you that the Holy Spirit would come on you. The earth was washed by the water from above and the water said that the Holy Spirit would come upon you. The ghosts also spoke rejoicing greatly over My feast with you and with those that have come together at My spring among you, children of the Romanian Jerusalem. Oh, it was the same on the day, when I, the Lord, the One Who was resurrected and ascended to the Father, sent the Holy Spirit upon the disciples in a visible way, giving them the tongues for the nations of the people and to everyone who were with a living soul between heaven and earth. It was a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, and the wind was speaking with its noise, with its voice, and then tongues of fire came down upon My disciples and they all spoke upon those that were together in Jerusalem from among all the nations of the earth, and all them that were there were amazed and perplexed and they were saying one to another: «What does this mean?» And Peter spoke to them all: «Let this be known to you and listen to my words. This is what has been spoken through the prophets: 'It will be in the last days, says God that I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh... and whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved'». (Acts 2:14-21) And then he said to them: «Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit». (Acts 2:38)

Oh, behold how My church has been being built. It is built this way and not as the man builds it, who makes himself a minister over the church. Church means a miracle of the Holy Spirit as two thousand years ago, after I gave the Holy Spirit onto My disciples in tongues of fire and every soul was full of fear, because there were being done great miracles and signs upon them in Jerusalem and the fear of God seized them all, and all who believed were together and had everything in common, and they sold their possessions and goods and distributed them to all, according to everyone's need, and then they were all together in one spirit breaking the bread in home and taking bread with gladness and singleness of heart, praising God and His grace let upon the people, and the assembly increased in number as the Lord added to it day by day those who were being saved.

The Holy Spirit is in My word. I give it to you and I tell you as My disciple Peter told those who asked him about what they had to do. And I tell you: repent into My name for the forgiveness of your sins, and then receive Holy Spirit! Receive, for the Holy Spirit is the word, which flows of My mouth over the earth, with power and much glory, for it is great and sweet for those who are being saved through it. Give your hearts to God so that He may make them into heavenly places, the dwellings of the Holy Spirit, for whoever comes is alive and is no longer dead and is Holy Spirit instead, a life giving spirit, a godly body, of which the anointment of the Holy Spirit flows, as it flows out of Me. Amen.

Oh, the word that says that "the dead with the dead and the living with the living!" is true. Whoever can fulfill this, that one will look for the living ones, for he will understand what the spirit of the world means and what the Spirit of God in man means, and he will choose the life and will choose the Holy Spirit that cannot be learned and it is not obtained from the books and from the learned and schooled people on earth, but it is received from heaven instead and it is received from God and from those who are like God and with God in their mind, in their heart, in their soul and in their body. Amen.

I comfort Myself when I speak to you. The Holy Spirit, the Comforter, is comforted with you, those who really came to My spring of word. The Father is comforted with Me when He sees Me with My bride from the Romanians, with My bride people, which labors in a spirit of the heavenly wedding for the days of Holy Spirit on earth, for the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit want to be revealed with the whole heaven on earth, and let those, which are and are not seen, be seen. Amen. I miss to open the eyes of the man. I miss to remove the mud from his eyes to be able to see God and to repent for the forgiveness of his sins, and then to receive the Holy Spirit and to show Him alive in him. Amen.

I comfort with My soothing word those who came from the four corners of the wind to blow from their spirit the spirit of love for this little patch of holy land, in which I dwell and speak over the man. I open up My arms and I embrace them within the mystery of the word by which I embrace them and I tell them: receive Holy Spirit, and let Him be the breath of your mouth and praise the Lord with your heart, with your love, with your mouth, with strings and organs and with sounding cymbals and psaltery and harps, for holy is His name, which everyone that loves Him bears with joy and with the purity of heart, praising God and His grace descending upon the man. Oh, this is how the church is being built and it has just one Creator, the Holy Spirit, Who works like God, for church means the miracle of the Holy Spirit on earth. Amen.

Oh, I speak of My pain and My wound that I have had for two thousand years from those that have no calling, and have no holy life, and who are seated as churchly servants over the nations, and I, the Lord, am no longer worthy to be followed by those who call themselves Christians. I have spoken by this word what My church means, to urge the people to repentance for the forgiveness of their sins and to the Holy Spirit by holiness, for My wound is deepened and the pain from the lawlessness hurts Me deeply, which hides with its works under the appearance of My church.

Oh, man, who have been losing the heaven for seven thousand years! Learn from Me how to know Me, how to know God on earth. I am this word by which I advise you. Learn, man, and come under My robe, come in under a guide and look for it and seek after My word, which is coming now from heaven to guide the man, for the man is without any guide on earth. A sinful man cannot judge the deeds of those who sin. I am the sinless Man, the Son of Man, and I have come from the Father the second time on earth to advise the man to his salvation. Amen.

Woe to those who have no guide, for guide means the Holy Spirit and only those who are holy on earth adorn Him. Amen. When I chose My disciples two thousand years ago, I cleansed them of all their sins and then I gave My life for their life with Me, and then I went to the Father and I sent the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, because they were My saints on earth. This is how I prepared My people of disciples of Romanians today as well, and I have cleansed them of all their sins, and then I have sanctified them by My Body and Blood, given to them as a gift by My grace descending from heaven over them at My command, and I have given them the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, and I have always given Him to them and I have always guided them, because I have never had a people without a shepherd, and the Shepherd of My people is the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who takes from what is Mine and teaches My people guiding him between earth and heaven. Amen.

Many of those who are My servants over the multitudes ask themselves: "Where do these have the grace and the Spirit from?" And I am the One Who answers them: My heaven is full of saints and angels and I have been working beyond the nature over these for those things that are established by Me into their midst. I have been working by the saints of the heaven, (Through Basil, Gregory and John. See The Word of God from 2002.02.12 and from 2003.02.12, r.n.) by the intercession of My angel and by the intercession of My witness from the church of the world, whom I have had near My bosom all the time when I, the Lord, have established My Jerusalem from Romanians today, and then he has been taken from My bosom by those who have their spirit and have not got the Holy Spirit, Who reveals Himself to those who love God within a holiness of body and soul and spirit.

I have been working with a great heavenly mystery by the bishops, coming down from heaven to them on earth, and I, the Lord, the Bishop of the Father Sabaoth, the Priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek, was the One Who have established them, the same as I established Moses over Israel on the Mount Horeb, and then I sent him to take My people out of slavery. And as the place, where I spoke with Moses when I filled him with grace, was called the Lord's mountain, the same is now, the place where I have spoken over these through whom I have worked with the light of My word over the earth, is called the Lord's mountain. Amen.

Come near, man! This word is the Holy Spirit and I have guided My people of today with Him, the people of My word, the people taken out of the Romanian people, because the Romanian land is the first one that came out of the water at the making of the heaven and the earth, and because the clay, which I made the man from, was taken by My hand-making man from the place in which I have been building again My church in this time, because I spoke ahead of time by this prophetic word that My first church would be built again. The heaven and the earth pass away, but the word that comes out of My mouth does not pass until it comes true. Amen.

I have come as a guide before you, man without any path. Oh, there is no one to show you the holy way and there is no one to cleanse you from sins, for there are no longer saints on earth to have favor with God for your life, for your forgiveness. I want to declare the forgiveness of your sins by your repentance and I want to forgive you by the daily prayer, supplication and sacrifice, brought for the whole human kind here, in the place that I chose as the Lord's mountain, the mountain to which all the nations will flow to receive the laws of the life and the path, as the prophets spoke about My work of today by the Scriptures, My word and My coming as guide on earth. Amen.

Romanian people, praise the Lord! You have into your midst the fallow land with a treasure in it. Sell your wisdom and take Mine instead, for I have put it into your midst to turn your land into your salvation and the new heaven and the new earth, now, at the new making of the world, and blessed will be the one who reads and understands the Scriptures of My coming and those things for the renewal of the world. Amen.

Peace to you, those who truly have come near to the spring! And to those who tempt and do not receive the Holy Spirit of the word of My mouth, woe to you again! I call you to life. There is still a little while, and I will shine on this mountain, and My light will make many people blind, and I tell you that it has already dazzled them, because I have come now again on earth to make those who are blind see and those that see blind. The same as two thousand years ago, the same way I speak today too, for I am the Alpha and the Omega, and I am in the end as in the beginning. The word was in the beginning. And the Word is in the end too and the Word is life, and the life is the light of the people, and the light shines in the darkness and the darkness has not overcome it. Amen.

Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! I am the mysterious Shepherd. I am the Son of Man, Who is coming! Peace to you! And if you are unfaithful, let My peace come back in Me. Amen.

Blessed it is My meeting with the man in the garden of the meeting, in whose sky all the saints of the heaven and all the heavenly powers are, accompanying the Father and the Son in a work of the Holy Spirit on earth.

Peace to you! It is the time of the greatest fulfillment, of the last Scriptures: the Scriptures of the coming of the Son of Man with power and much glory, and My glory is the word. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity, (Whitsuntide or Pentecost), the third day

Sons, I give you rest. Your little bodies are weakened by the labor that you do for Me. When I was on earth two thousand years ago, I worked in the same way. I made the multitudes sit down giving them food and then I gave them the glory of My word, as then it was not possible otherwise. You have labored much, as much work is needed for the days of wedding. Your little bodies are temples of My Spirit, Who dwells in you, and we have to take care of My dwelling, which is you. The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit lays you up in the peace of the heavenly Trinity, Who is called your God, and I, the Word of the Father, strengthen you, for My word carries life within it. Amen, amen, amen.

Let us give them food to eat, to those who have not left the garden of the meeting to their own work yet, and let us still scatter over them sons. My Spirit is hovering over the garden. The Spirit of the saints rests in the glory of My word, and those that are asleep in their body still have to make a stop here, in the place that is prepared for them in their way to the greatest resurrection. Now they are waiting, like all the other saints from the invisible heaven, to hear My whisper over you and to receive comfort from it. The Spirit of those that are asleep is boiling from longing and love after My word, which flows in your time from Me down to earth, for two thousand years ago I prophesied this: «The hour comes in which all that are in the tombs will hear the voice of God's sons and will come out to life». (John 5:28)

I give rest to your little and tired bodies, but in a little while, we will lay the table again for the crowds and we will not be able to stop them, for My glory comes with increasing glory and will embrace under it the glory of those that are on the earth. I will help you more and more. I will be in you with all My love for the man and I comfort all those who support you on the way of My coming to you, and I will reward them according to their love, and I would like to reward them also for My kingdom in them, but they also need to have a desire to help Me in order to give them My dwelling in them, My love in them, for I have been seeking for so much love with the man until he allows himself to become My kingdom.

Now we sit at the table with those who have remained in the garden, for it is still a celebration of Holy Spirit. And after you gather strength in your body, I, the Lord, will add into the book of today all of My word in this day.

Peace to you! I give you rest, sons. Give the glory of the things on earth for the glory of the heavenly things and seek to have more rest for those from above, and I will add to you the other things as well, for I can, sons.

And as for you, sweet sons, who receive My word and make the people sit before Me and give them the Lord with all His things, strengthen yourselves and let the people strengthen you and listen to you, for where you speak the word, everything is made. Amen. This is how My people should learn to be, for nothing is made without light, and the man cannot listen without love by those that come from heaven for those on the earth with the heaven.

Peace to you! And then come back into My book, to finish every word of the feast of the day. I bless you with the food for the body and I bless with you everything that will be Mine on earth and of those who will be with those that are My well-pleased ones, for I want to teach the world to love the life without death, dear sons. Amen.

Peace to you, loved Jerusalem and tired for the glory of the days of the coming of the Son of Man with power and much glory, for I want to take the living water out of you, and to give it always, always, to those who seek for life. Amen, amen, amen.

*

Now we come back into the book, sons who receive My word. I come to you sons, in a perfect way and that is why the man can hardly understand My descent to you and My work through you, which calls the man from death to life. I told you when I was teaching you to walk on your feet and then to go with Me after the man to draw him to the Father, and I told you that if I was about to go with you in hell, you were not supposed to say no. And I also told you that I will extend the days of resurrection with which I come down to you over every man who serves the hell on earth.

The mind and the heart of the man give forth only to thorns and thistles. The man seeks only after death, and he does no longer know the way of his life to step his foot on it. Take a look into My book with you and see how I fulfill over you and from you those that I have promised that we will do, sons, and you should call good what is good and evil what is evil when I pour out My kingdom over the man.

Oh, dear sons, I could have not worked out the truth over everything that is not good on earth if I had not taken you out of the promiscuity of the world, which the world calls “church,” and where I cannot live with My kingdom in man. Oh, the man does not know what My kingdom means! He has been waiting for it to fall down from heaven in a visible way and he does not know that My life in him is My kingdom in him. That is why I work through you, to call good what is good and to call evil what is evil, so that the man may understand that My house in him is spoiled and God is a wonderer when He cannot dwell in man and when I work through you the truth about evil and about good, and let him who has ears and eyes see and understand this. Amen. I speak My word from the sky over you and I call good what is good and evil what is evil and let him who reads understand. Amen.

Oh, help one another extensively for My labor through you when I come to stand before the multitudes with you. I could do it neither two thousand years ago and nor now in another way but only to make those that come to the spring sit down and give them food, sons, and I, turn your little or your nothingness into abundance from time to time and we sit down with food for the body for those who come, and invite them to sit down before My word and My work for the teaching from heaven on earth through you. And I see that you are very tired and I teach you to give the glory of the earthly things for the glory of the heavenly things, and to seek to have more rest and to work, sons, as the Romanian saying says: “In summer make yourself a sledge and in winter a plough,” for otherwise you do two works at a time and the time keeps pressing you down and I have always taught you and I tell you that I have put the time under your control, and if I do it so by speaking a word for this, then you should fulfill this word. But you need much devotion with great wisdom, with great love, with great brotherhood, because you have to take your work from each one’s hand when you are under the burdens from My work with you, and yours with Me, and you should help each other, both in soul and in body, according to the measure of the grace, power, soul and body that each one has, sons.

I have been teaching all of you not to go to bed and not to get up without having any worries, for I have no one to carry My worries with for you and for the man, for we have to announce the kingdom of the heavens and its dwelling in man, children sons. Give the glory of the earthly things more for those from heaven, and then I will add to you the other ones. I told you and I will always tell you that the saints have been waiting My fellowship with you among you more, and you should seek first for the work of the kingdom of the heavens, the food for the saints and for the angels. Let their table with you be the first worry, and you should work with faith the things that I have told you, because I am the One Who spoke: «I will come to the one who believes in Me and I will built My house at him and I will dine with him and I will appear to him». Amen.

Set the table among you to those in heaven, for it is for those who are in heaven and for the things that are in heaven that I have established you to work, and may your lips always carry the name of the Lord and of His saints and of His angels, for the kingdom of the heavens does not come in a visible way, but it is mysterious instead and it lives working when it is in man, and its fruits are joy and glory and heavenly spirit in man and among men. Amen.

Seek sons, not to come at grumbling among you when it is about dinner for God with the man in My gardens with you, for there is much work and you need to have your time to be like Martha and to be like Mary. You should not weigh down Martha’s labor when you want to be like Mary, and you should not weigh down Mary’s work when you want to be like Martha. However, you all should be like Martha and Mary at the same time, because it is possible, sons. Seek to love like Mary and love the longing in it and then you will be like Martha in your sacrifice for Me and one for another; and seek to watch like Martha and like her care for the ministry with holiness and diligently and then you will be like Mary in your love for Me and for each other, like Mary when she loves being always busy and like Martha when she sacrifices for love. Amen. Love and sacrifice are those things that keep awake the one who is consecrated to the Lord, and let these two work together inseparably in you and out of you, for I do not have others for the work with the hand and, again, I do not have others for the work with the spirit and with love, sons.

And as for you, sons who receive My word into the book at My manger, have more rest, day by day, for this work of My coming to the people and to the man, and work with the word, dear sons, for where you speak the word and its work, everything is made at once in due time for My glory with the people, for I have given you grace, not from earth, not from humans, and above those things that are on earth, I have given you grace and awareness and power of word and fulfilling of the word spoken by you by My grace, which works from you by the power of your love, faith and hope, these being so great in you, only that Jerusalem may learn and see well that My work with you has the wisdom and the power of the word and its fulfillment in it. Amen.

Oh, My people, I have always told you not to go without any guide, for the walking of the one who has no guide is seen, if you want to walk that way. Nothing is done without light, Jerusalem, and without love and its warmth the man cannot listen to those that come from heaven upon those that are on earth. Be humble, for your life is hidden in God, and you have been taught by Me to have the foundation of humility, for he who forgets his evil deeds that one does other things, and he who does not forget, does no longer do other things, for repentance is not otherwise. Set yourselves apart within the wisdom of the Holy Spirit, who teaches you to walk in light and to work under a guide, that is, in the light, sons, for the man cannot see another man in the darkness, and neither do I look into the darkness when the man stays like that. Woe to the one who has no guide! And you see that it is so, and look on earth and see. However, it is not in this way that you have learned God, but, on the contrary, I have told you that those who stay in the light, they become the light of the world, the light from the light and again, from one another to the man, light. Amen.

Oh, how beautiful is the man who has the grace of the Holy Spirit in him! This kind of beauty I love in man and the man is attracted to the man among those who have the grace of the Holy Spirit, working and shining among them. The satisfaction in My work, according to each one's natural grace and according to the grace of each one's sacrifice, this satisfaction in you helps those that have among you the grace of the Holy Spirit, Who works with power and much glory for you, only to be hospitable always and to be always illuminated by your light, which searches those in you and those outside you, sons. And now, let your little bodies have rest, for they always have to be able to work, and they need rest.

And as for you, children that are teachers and sharers of the grace that is put by Me in you for My little and tiny people, stop worrying and search for My heart and My dwelling in them and the dwelling into one another and the love for one another of those who are the sons of Jerusalem. Set your face and eyes towards them and teach and give them grades, for it is a long time since you have not opened the notebooks of pupils of those who are pupils in the school of grace. You see that you have to give grades. You see, that you have to put wisdom and teaching in them. Do the work that I have given to you upon them and they should not break the number of the days of their notebooks of pupils, for My little angel always looks into their notebooks and waits for you to speak, working sons over My little people. Be small, so that they may also learn to be small. Be full of grace before them, so that they may also receive obedience with love, and come to My help and to their help, so that I may have a people, sons. See if they have wounds, if they have peace, if they have rest one into another, and make all the sons of Jerusalem always, always be as beautiful as you are, for there is still a little bit of time and we will come with the work of the Holy Spirit, the One Who is a teacher over the man without a way. Listen to My advice and work faithfully with love and work and do everything in the light and everything within a spirit of peace and of the heavenly grace into the midst of Jerusalem. Amen.

Oh, children of My people, welcome one another with those from above, with those for the heaven in you. Love humility and value God's grace into your midst, for the man's graces stand against My grace in man, but you should love the man with My grace in him and you should receive it and value My beauty into your midst. You should receive and follow those who take the trouble with the word and with the awakening to the grace of My word, which keeps you to be heavenly on earth, because without My Spirit in you and among you, My angels do not have any power upon you and for you, sons. However, you shall never stop or hinder or put out My Spirit in the one who pours him out on the sides, but you have to make room for him and work with longing, for great is the joy of the saints when among you it is My Spirit from those who carry him abundantly. Value the grace of the Holy Spirit and the word of the Holy Spirit and know His work, sons.

The spiritual order in you sets among you all the order of those who serve Me through you, and you will find rest for your bodies and for your spirits. Do not forget to be always, always, clean in My dwellings with you; always, always, sons. I have been teaching you this from the first steps with Me and I have been telling you to love the flowers, their fragrances and their beauty and everything that attracts the angels and the saints. Let My teaching be your basic book, and let its work be your life, sons, and take care for it is not possible for you to be all big or all small, but it is possible to listen to everything that is good for your building up and to all that have the grace of the Holy Spirit within them especially among you and for you, and as for Me, too.

Peace to you! Give rest to your bodies and spirits! I want to feel My rest in you. I want you to be from abundance the living temples of My Spirit in you, and the receivers of Holy Spirit from the midst, sons. Peace with love for there is no peace without heavenly love, for love is the heaven which is glorified in man and the heaven is God's dwelling, and I stay in the one who carries Me with My kingdom in him, and I give Myself so that I may be, for I am the One Who is in those who carry Me on earth and I give Myself from them. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of all the saints. The feast of Saint Virginia's birth

I make a halt again over you with the word, to make a feast to all the saints who have gathered together at the table with you, for it is their feast, children who receive My word to put it over My people, that he may eat it at My table of word and that the people of My word may grow and may be forever holy. Amen.

There is no happiness in man but only in the holy man who knows what love and longing after God are, and who struggles with longing after the loved One, for without love, the man is ugly before Me, for it is written: «God is Love». Amen.

I cry and mourn because the man, who does not understand and does not know what love is, makes love for his heart out of anything, and he can hardly understand the way with the love on it, because the man loves himself and that is the way he loves, for My commandment says: «You shall love your neighbor as yourself». (Matt. 19:19)

Oh, My people, how shall I not cry from the man with pain when I see how much the man loves himself and his neighbor for himself? The man cannot love his neighbor for Me, since he loves himself. Oh, how much do they try to love Me for themselves and not for Me, those who love Me, and here is why I do not have a people of saints on earth. I said that everyone who will leave houses, or brothers, or sisters, of father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, or name, for My name's sake, will receive much more, and will inherit eternal life, a life of a holy man on earth and in heaven, and many who are first will be last and those that are last will be first, for he who loves father, or mother, or son, or daughter, more than Me, is not worthy of Me, for he cannot take his cross and follow Me and to confess Me before men so that I may also confess him before My Father Who is in heaven.

Oh, he who denies Me before men is not worthy of Me, for the saints are those who the world is not worth of and they follow Me suffering on the cross, taking no account of its shame, being worthy of God though. Amen. The saints had great joy when they confessed Me before men and it was in this way that they could go through the sufferings they had on My name, overcoming the pagan kings and the unfaithful world, which was not worthy of them. But behold, sons of today, they did not receive their promises until I, the faithful one and the beginner of everything, suffered the cross taking no account of its shame, and through it I stood on the right side of My Father. And it was not only that, the receiving of their promises, for behold, it was for the reward of My saints that I have come again down on earth to fulfill with you the Scripture of the revealing of the God's sons in the end of the time, the smallest of the saints, without whom the saints do not receive perfection and the promises, and after which all the creature mourns to receive its redemption. Amen.

Oh, the one who loves himself cannot confess Me and he cannot take up his cross and follow Me that I may also confess him before My Father. The saints are those who confess Me before the people, taking no account of the shame of the cross, as I also did not take into account its shame because of the joy for the man's salvation and for the confession with which I came from the Father.

Oh, it is hard for Me to make the man deny himself. The man receives his instruction from his own self. Even the one who says that he loves Me does the same thing, and I do no longer have saints on earth to take up their cross and to follow Me confessing Me before the unfaithful people and not taking into account of the shame of the cross. My word of today shakes the man who believes to be God's confessor among the people, but no one can show Me to the people until he denies himself, and the Christian man does not know the work of his denial in order to be able then to have a cross for My name. The man walks on the way with God and then he is full of dissatisfactions because this is what it happens to the one who comes to Me without denying himself for the cross and for the joy that comes from the cross for the man who denies himself. And for the one who walks on the way with Me without his self denial, it is not sweet in him My love, which is opposed by the self-aggrandizement and self-dissatisfaction in the man who does not know to carry his cross behind Me.

Oh, My people, I cannot make Myself a people of saints on earth, for the man cannot cast himself, and he cannot cast his mother, or his father, or his sons, or his wife, or his name, or his friends, and the man cannot suffer the shame of the cross, but on the contrary, he is ashamed of Me before the people. It is written into the Scriptures the word, which I spoke: «But whoever denies Me before men, I will also deny before My Father Who is in heaven; and everyone who confesses Me, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven». (Matt. 10:32, 33) Amen.

It is a great celebration for the saints. All the saints rejoice in the spirit of the feast for them and they also make Me glad for My work of today, which crowns their joy, for they have into their midst the one who carried Me in her body for twenty-five years on earth.

Oh, Verginica, (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) you have fulfilled the joy of the feast of all My saints. You came in the flesh into the world on the Sunday of all the saints, a feast that is not removed from its place, and which was set by the saints who lived a holy life on earth before Me, being counselors and confessors over many people in the time of their living with their body on earth. Oh, daughter of the love of God, who taught you this joy by which you did not take into account the shame of the cross through which you confessed Me on earth? (See The Life of Saint Virginia, r.n.)

— Oh, sweet Lord, no one can take in order to have from above if it is not given from the Father and from the Son and from the Holy Spirit, Who is the God of those who love the way, the truth and the life, from Your life, which You laid it down on the cross to show to the one, who wants to follow You, how to love You and how to rejoice not taking into account the shame of the cross by which he confesses You on earth before men, and in heaven, before Your saints and before Your angels.

How could I teach, I, the unlearned one? How could I rejoice, I, the one without joys, if You did not put Your cross on my shoulders, Lord of the saints? Oh, it is not I, but You, Who confessed through me on earth, for as regards all the saints up to me, I was Your mouth, not mine; I was Your temple, not mine; I was Your word, because You were the One Who was speaking by my mouth, not I, Lord, the Word of the Father. It was not I who carried You, but You carried me in the mystery of Your word from the end of the age, and You called me Your trumpet, and I was Your desired daughter, I, the most insignificant among the people, Lord. And now, You glorify me in heaven among the saints, for the people that sprang up as a result of the glory of Your word by Your mouth in my body, is the people of Your glory, and You have been glorified through it now on earth and You call the man to life and to holiness and to the confession of Your glory, Lord Who comes and keeps on coming with the word on earth to make a new heaven and a new earth and to establish Jerusalem, as You have already done so, and those who hear of Your glory, come, and many more will still come and will get knowledge from the law of Your love for the people, oh Lord of the saints and of those who are Your little ones on earth, who carries Your word to the people, who are the confessors of Your coming after two thousand years, oh, Lord, Who are the love of Your saints! When You were working through my body and You were pouring out Your river of life, the river of Your word over Your people, who believed in Your coming through me, I could not preach You over the earth and over the man, for the unfaithful people, the priests of the church, were taking me to sufferance, into prison, to torture me, (In the time of the dictatorship of the communist red beast, r.n.), and to be scorned for Your name that I was carrying in my heart, written and spoken on my lips, and I was not ashamed but I was suffering instead and I was weak and fearful in sufferance and You were strengthening my power and the patience of my fragile heart with fear in it, as I was so much persecuted and much beaten, even by the Christians, because You were telling them their sins by my mouth, that they could give them up and cleanse them by their repentance, but they were hiding with them and acted unfaithfully, and they were not confessing You, those who loved sin and did not want to deny themselves for Your name and for Your life in them and for the cross, Lord.

Behold how much I cry for all those who heard Your word from me, delivered by my mouth for so many years, and they did not remain under the cross and rather went to live a worldly life, for a Christian needed great love to become a holy man. Oh, how shall I not cry, when I know that the saints will judge and judge the world, either for the repentance and for the forgiveness of the sins of the world, or for the condemnation because of unbelief and because of worldly living, and not because of spiritual living on earth! I mourn, Lord, and You always wipe out My tear, for You loved me since I was a child and took me to serve You for the coming of Your word on earth and You made my body and my mouth into a trumpet of Your own word, and this is how You worked with me until You took me from the earth and placed me among the saints, and the saints in heaven honor me because I was the tabernacle of Your coming on earth for the redemption of the blood of the saints and for the revealing of God's sons, the Scripture with its fulfillment, so much waited by the saints and by the angels.

I cry because of my mercy and my mourning for those who, in the time of their body, heard Your word and are no longer now Your support and those who are the smallest of Your word. Those who are the least share You now to the entire creature, for it is written: «Many who are first will be last; and the last first». (Mark 10:31) I want, with the occasion of the memorial of my birth in the flesh on earth, because I was born on the Sunday of all the saints, I want to speak to Your little people, those who are weary from such a great labor for the days of Your coming, the days of the Son of Man, Lord Who comes. Your people is small and fragile and it needs much, much wisdom, much, much power and much love, for Your work is great with Your small people, and those who are ordained by you as guides over them are tired and are gathered under the glory of the coming of Your word and are loaded by the burden of Your coming down from heaven to earth, and they have Your people as their responsibility, because in order that You may have a people, much sacrifice is needed, much labor, as I also labored under the heaviness of Your coming as word on earth, so that You may be able to have a people, Lord.

I want to teach my people and Yours, but now it comes together and it brings me a service of akathist<sup>173</sup>, both to me and to all of Your saints, and then we bless their food and give them from heaven, by those who stand on Your behalf as guides and light over them. And then, Lord Teacher, let us come back into Your book with them and let us put an end to the word of the feast of Your saints, for all the saints are with them at the table of feast and all the angels glorify Your coming to them, and all the heavenly powers are employed in the service of Your coming to them, and You are their Master and their mercy, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, Verginica, this is how we will work, and will speak about the saints and will speak that the holiness in the man is the sight, which sees God from man to man. Oh, Verginica, the day of the feast of the saints is great, for you crown with the glory of My second coming from near the Father the great feast of all My saints, and you are carried by saints with much love, because you were the trumpet that I sounded before My coming, for I am the seventh trumpet and this is how My coming is called; it is called the trumpet sounding of the seventh angel, and I took above My book with you, for I was able to do this, as I prophesied in My time with you that I would do this. And behold, I fulfilled this by those that are little, for it is written into the Scriptures of My word of two thousand years ago: «Many who are first will be last; and the last first». (Mark 10:31) Amen.

Oh, My people, open your eyes and see the glory of the saints, the heavenly glory, in which you are included in a spirit of Sunday, small son, the eighth day, the first day of the week and the eighth day, the day of My glory, the day of the coming of the Son of Man, the day of resurrection, the day of the new making of the world, My people. Let us rejoice with a day of teaching, within a spirit of growth, with a work of the Holy Spirit, for I have into your midst My Holy Spirit in the sons who carry the Holy Spirit for you, so that you may have light on My way with you to the entire fulfillment of the Scripture of My coming, the coming of the Son of Man. Amen. Come, get down to the teaching of the kingdom of the heavens to give from it to those who set down to teaching and let us be confessors and makers of the holy man, My people, for My work into you midst is the work of the making of the holy man, who confesses Me before the people and who is confessed by Me before My Father. Amen.

Peace to you, in a spirit of the celebration of all My saints! And again, I will come upon you as word, to fulfill the whole word of the book of today, a word delivered by My own mouth, for I am the Word Who comes with the clouds and it lays down upon you for you to have life, and to have it in abundance, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

Come, tired people, for I, the Lord, want to teach you the making of the holy man. Let us put into the book the entire word of the day of today, which is upon you, for the saints sit at the table with you to eat My word, and to see the days of My coming. Come, My people, let us rejoice with the saints, who did not take into account the shame of the cross and who wait from you My meeting with you in the word.

I have taught you once to measure yourself with the saints, My people. And how comes that? In the time of Verginica, I was speaking and telling to those of that time who heard My voice: “Read the lives of the saints.” This is what I was telling them and I wanted them to be saints, but it is painful for Me and for the saints when the man reads and speaks about them without his measuring with them afterwards, without following their longing for God and for the work of the power of their faith.

I am with the saints at the table with you, Jerusalem, and I put those who teach you to teach you how to be always awake for the saints and for the angels between brother and brother, between you and Me, My people, for the saints wait from you food and heavenly table with you on earth. Take a look at the birds of the heaven as they come on earth after water and after seeds, for God made the heaven for the earth, and the earth for the heaven, but who still wants to know the mystery of the creation work?

I cross the sky with the saints and we are on the wings of ministering angels of My coming with the saints and I tell you to look at the birds of the sky how they lay down on earth for water and for seeds. This is how I come with the saints at your table after food and after water and after the word of new heaven and new earth, for I have included you into this mystery and I want to work from your midst the making of the holy man, who confesses Me before the people, according to My will, according to My teaching. And as for you, children of Jerusalem, you have to work in a heavenly manner over the earth and to follow one another in spirit, in word and in your work, for I want to put over the earth and over the man, by My Gospel with you, the faith of the baptism with the Holy Spirit, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and the repentance for the forgiveness of the sins and then the speaking about the new heaven and about the new earth for My confession and for My coming with the saints, for it is the time of the Scripture of the coming of the Son of Man and of His saints. Amen.

Oh, sons, who give being to My word into the book! I come with the clouds, and My voice is coming down upon you as a great noise of wind, and then its whisper speaks in a man's voice, as the speaking of My mouth over the man is, from beginning to end, dear sons, faithful sons who lay Me with My speaking down on earth. Oh, the saints wait for My speaking upon you. The hosts of saints wait for water and seeds from My table with you. And I teach you, Jerusalem, and this is the table of My saints, and I declare to you the mystery of the happiness of the saints, for there is no greater happiness than the holy man, who knows what the love and the longing for God is, for without My love in him and from him, the man is ugly before Me. The man is ugly without the cross, without this glory by which I appeared with the glory of My Father before the people. The man is ugly without glory. The one who is only a man and does not have God's glory upon him and from him, that one is an ugly man, an unproductive man, who knows nothing but his self-love, and I said: «Whoever wants to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me and so to resemble Me!» Amen.

Oh, My people, listen to the guide, for without the heavenly spirit into your midst, you cannot go with the light on the way. The guide sees and knows from Me and shows your way, your truth and your life, from Me, as I, the Lord, was also showing the way to Israel, after I took it out of Egypt. However, he did not love the truth and the life upon it, and it rather loved itself, and instead of entering Canaan at the right time, it staggered. Oh, who does not have a cross, let him have obedience with love at least and let him have happiness by his love and longing after Me, for My saints did not have only these, but they all carried a cross as well, and for the sake of its joy that came after it, they took no account of its shame, for they knew by their faith and by the longing of their love to deny themselves and to let Me with My face and with My life in them, and with My will in their being and work. Amen.

Oh, Verginica, teach Our Israel of today and do the work of your word upon it, and always overflow with your heavenly gift in those who carry Me and you and the saints in Our way to the coming of the word on earth, and then its fulfilled glory. Amen.

— Oh, Lord, I want to teach the little people his happiness with You, for there is no other happiness but that one in the holy man who knows and live his love and his longing for God, for without Your love in him, the man is ugly before You.

Oh, how could I carry you between heaven and earth in the time of My body; how could I let myself to be Your vessel, if You did not put on my shoulders the cross of Your coming as word on earth to be able to enter my body, into my vessel, and to speak with Your mouth through my mouth? However, now You speak with Your sons of today as in heaven, Lord, for the sacrifice of my body, in which You were burning like a fire when You were speaking by my mouth, gave birth from it to sons of the Father, who hear the voice of His Son, for You are the Word of Our Father, Lord, I, for the joy of Your having a people, did not take into account the shame of the cross, and I confessed You as You worked from Your dwelling, which was in my body, and You did not subject me to You until I said "Yes," and then You made me Your tabernacle from where You were speaking and making a people with Your word, to make it holy afterwards. Amen.

I speak to you, small Jerusalem of the Lord, to teach always, so that the mystery of the saints' happiness may always stick to you, for there is no greater happiness than the holy man, and without the Lord's love in him, the man is ugly.

The saints come to the water and to the food of the life, to the Lord's table with you, for no one can live without eating, among those from the heaven and among those from the earth. In the time of my body with the Lord on earth, the Lord was speaking and telling those who heard His word, He was telling them to read the lives of the saints, and He tells you to live them and to become a maker of saints, so that the saints may spring up behind your work with the Lord, and that the making of the holy man may come out of you, the man who confesses God before the people. Amen.

Oh, sons from Jerusalem, measure yourselves with the saints, for they also measure themselves with you and wait from you the joy, which will be given to them, for unless the whole glory of the God's mystery comes true, the one for the redemption of the creature, no one in heaven has joy, but rather only longing and only work and only waiting, sons. Receive instruction for your growth in order to become makers of saints, for without instruction over the man, the man cannot deny himself.

Oh, children who always place over Israel the things from heaven, those from God by His work with you! Teach the people, teach it the mystery of the new man, the Lord's rest, the eighth day, which never passes, but it is rather renewed day by day until its glory will be complete, children who teach the life over Israel. Let the people have time for instruction of life, and then for life. Let it all be green, sons, for the dry flowers are not green. Let all be heaven and let the Lord be the fruit in all the sons of the new Israel, and you should pour out water over them and to give them the food from heaven, and let them always grow holy, for the saints are those that are beautiful, and the most beautiful among the saints are those who confess the Lord to the people, for the time of the Lord's glory has come, and everything has to be holy among you and from you, and let this fruit give forth to the saints in the people who hear the Lord's confession. Amen.

Oh, Lord, take them and teach them, for they are Yours. I was comforted by my speaking to them, and I comforted the saints hearing myself speaking with Your people, and I have crowned their feast into the midst of the Israel of today. Your sweet word always teaches them, but give them grace to confess You and to share You and for You to bring into sight on earth the fruit of the glory of Your word, which comes with the clouds and speaks over those that are small, as You spoke with the man in Paradise. And behold, those from last are first. Amen, amen, amen.

— Verginica, I was also with longing for your voice upon them, and I want happiness for them, for there is no other happiness but the holy man who carries in his spirit, in his soul, and in his body the work, which is as consuming as a fire, the work of the love and of the longing after God, and without these, the man is ugly before Me.

Oh, sons, guided from heaven, the man on earth loves himself and so he loves his neighbor; he loves him for himself, not for Me and not for his neighbor, and I do not have a people of saints on earth among the sons of the people, who do not learn from heaven the love which is given to God from the man who has it. He who does not deny himself is not worthy of Me, and the man does not know what this Scripture of Mine means. He who loves himself cannot love Me, if he does not deny himself, and he cannot confess Me alive, if his works are dead, if they do not have the power and My face in them and My life, of life giving upon the man. He, who does not leave for Me, father, or mother, or children, or ranks, or name, or properties, and his own self, cannot come after Me, and although he comes, he is not come, for he is not worthy of Me, the one who loves himself, the one who does not deny himself, for that one does not speak. That one does not speak about Me, and rather he speaks about himself, if he stays near Me. The one who does not deny himself is full of dissatisfactions and murmuring, when he follows Me, and that one does not follow Me, but he speaks about himself and about his discontent within him. By this word, which comes with Me on the clouds, I work out the making of the holy man, who confesses Me before the people; for I said that there would be no greater gift among the holy gifts in man than the gift of the confession of the word of God and His works among the people. Amen.

Oh, sons who are My guide and light before the people, be makers of saints and you will be, because you are humble in your heart and you can make holy people for Me by what you work upon man, only for the man to love those from heaven, not those from earth; to love those from Me, not those from himself, sons who are makers. He, who receives instruction with longing and love, that one receives love and with it he is sweet before Me and before the people, for the love of God is the love, which makes him beautiful, which makes the man holy. This is what you have to put over the people, the love of God and the longing for Him always, always, sons. Oh, set yourselves to guide the heart of the people, not the hearts of the people, for I want to be one heart in all, and I would like them be full of grace in everything, for I have taught them not to work without a guide, and not only for the earthly things with a guide, for the guide gives light to the souls and to the hearts, that they may see the way and the grace, which is to be on My way with those that I love. Amen.

Oh, sons, oh, children of My people, let My being always be in your being, always, for I want you to be into My image and after My likeness forever, for I, when I lived on earth in a visible body, I told you that I did not lived as on earth, but I lived as in heaven and I worked and spoke and loved, and not as on earth, sons. Do not be great over others, but be a heavenly example to each other, and let this be the love among you, for although the gifts are different, there is one single Spirit that leads in those who, in My name, are like a bundle on earth. Amen. Not only when I set you before the people as My bride, but you should also be full of grace forever: both when you work and when you speak and when you look and when you step, for the heaven has to see you forever, sons, and that is why I have exhorted you that your first care has to be My Spirit in you and among you, and without this care you should not stay even for a moment, like the servants who watch before their Master with the love among them, the greatest obedience, which you may worship the heaven with, sons. He who does not receive instruction, the one that is not attracted to the instruction for the building of the holy man, is an ugly man, an empty man, whose shame of his face and his heart, empty of God and of God's works, is seen. And he who grows for the heaven confesses every time by My own work in him and by My grace, which goes together with him for the confession of My word with the spirit and with the work. Amen.

I have fulfilled upon you the feast of the saints and its light, My word, which is the light of the people, for as long as I can speak into the world, that much I am the Light of the world. I told My disciples to work as long as there is light, «for the night is coming when no one can work», and I told them: «I am the Light of the world», and the same I speak today too and I become light, because My word is the light of the world, and woe to the one who tries to blow into this light and into My walking with you on the earth, children of the word of life, which comes with Me speaking and bringing the man from death to life and from sin to holiness. Amen. Always take, letter by letter, My word and its power in you, and I will be the Light of the world from you, God's confession, the Word, the greatest gift that a holy man can have, working of holy grace on earth. Amen. Do not leave your assembly because of your growth under a guide. Walk in the light, both in the daytime and in the nighttime, and let your life always, always be under My eye, and always, always be with My guide upon you, for those things from heaven in you and among you; and give, sons, the glory of those from the earth for the glory on those from heaven, for the body is not good for anything if the spirit is not to give life of God in man. Do not serve the body, but pass from body into the spirit all the time, for the most beautiful sacrifice, which you may bring to God and to one another, is the work of the Holy Spirit, the word of life, and this is sacrifice and burnt offering, and this is mercy, sons, mercy and sacrifice, children of My coming now, in the end of the time. Amen, amen, amen.

And now, may your walking for My confession on earth be blessed! Go into My name and show Me in you with the work of My coming for the redemption of the creature. Go, Jerusalem, for My step and My shoulders are behind you to carry you and to glorify you in Me, Romanian Jerusalem. Go, My people, and confess God, and I will confess you before My Father and yours, for this is the crown of My saints on earth and in heaven, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the birth of the Saint John, the Baptizer

I come down with difficulty and through the hard way and I speak as much as I can and how I can, but I speak, and I put My word of the day of today into the book, for it is a feast of a prophet, children who are receiving of the word of My mouth, children crushed by the sufferance and pains on earth. I work as well as I can and as you can also stand before Me, for you are much weakened, but I work for the memorial of the greatest among the prophets, John, the Baptizer. Amen.

There has been no man on earth more despised than the prophet, a man more despised than God, the Son of Man, Who works with His Spirit among the prophets. There has been no man on earth and in heaven more crushed than God in Himself and in all His prophets, from everlasting to everlasting. If the people on earth had listened to the prophets and had followed in their life My word delivered by the prophets and that I Myself spoke in the time of My visible body on earth, the happiness would have been with the man. But behold, I speak today too, and I Myself come from the Father and I speak and the man does not want to put his happiness on him, the love for God, by which the man has all the peace, all the happiness and all the joy, which makes the man like Me. However, the man wants nothing from Me but his good, and when My longing is no longer in agreement with his desires, with his pleasures, with his joys, then the man throws Me away, dishonors Me for his name, and then My name, the God's name is despised through him.

I come down in pains, for everything that it hurts Me, it hurts you as well, and everything that it hurts you; it also hurts Me, children who stay fixed in pains and weaknesses for the glory of the work of My name, which accompanies you. Oh, you can hardly bear with My coming to you so that I may give then the word of My coming over the earth. Oh, you can hardly open up to My coming, for you are deeply wounded. However, My mother asked Me not to take, not to wipe out your pain so that you may be like Me and like her, sons oppressed by My cross upon you, by My coming for the salvation of the man. Put yourself in line with the Scriptures, and put yourselves in line with your sufferance for My name, with the sufferance of the holy prophets and apostles and give to the crushed people, as crushed by pains and by the mercy for you as you are, and give him the word of My feast of this memorial day of My prophet, John, the Baptizer.

I do not know how and through whom I may creep in with powers for Me in you and to wipe out the tears in you and those on your little cheeks, and which make you beautiful and sweet before Me and before the prophets who cried like you in their time with Me over the people. It has never been a more despised man on earth, more wounded, more blamed and more deserted than the prophet and the Son God, the One Who was not welcomed by the power of the strong man. Oh, you are deprived of all the help on earth, but stand on My right hand, being patient until I put down to earth all the pain, which has been putting obstacles into My way with you, all the unbelief and strikes that has been weakening you in such a way that I may no longer be able to work in you. Be patient sons, and give the news to the people that the time of golden patience has already come and let the people be spiritual and let him occupy himself with poverty and prayer and with My wounded peace, which you too have among you, for I will comfort you and I will also make My people feel the comfort of the Holy Spirit, Who works during the time of pains, for you have to get used to the happiness, which cries for Me in you, and let it be your comfort. Amen.

John, the greatest among the prophets, is in My coming down as word of today, and it has near it My trumpet, Verginica. Two thousand years ago, he was the forerunner of My coming, and she is now; now, until you welcome My coming. Oh, who shall I help Myself with for My power in you? Oh, who shall I be able to come for you with, so that you may be able to work for Me and for the man who wants My salvation with all his heart? Oh, sons, who else knows how and with what the salvation is received? I want mercy not sacrifice, because mercifulness carries sacrifice within it. Amen.

We have come to a time of pressure, sons. It is the time of the holy patience, it is the time of the holy hope and it is the time of the faith, for I, the Lord your God, will be able to work in you and in those who love Me as you do. I go with the whole heaven from place to place for your daily bread and to get you out from the trouble and to make it easy for you and to make you be used to patience, because every hard thing and all the shortcomings are for your whitening, for the preparation of the holy people and for a spirit of prayer for My coming. I have always wanted to remove the hardships that are on you and which press you down to be able to work through you with the glory of My word on the earth and over the man. However, I have no one to help Myself with for you on earth, for the opposing spirit has always been putting obstacles in My way and I cannot speak as My speaking is in Me for you, and I speak as well as I can, for you to see how much I bear with your pain when I feel your ascent, children from under the cross of My coming as word on earth, for I have told you that your cross with Me that is getting heavier and heavier, and My pain for you is getting bigger and bigger and I comfort you with it, for I have nothing else to comfort you on earth with.

I have invited you, those who carry My word from heaven to earth, to work through you with signs, sons, but your humility stands against Me. I have revealed you that you are Mine more and more, but I have also told you that it will not be easy but harder and harder instead, and you will be less and less welcomed on My name, for whomever I have called on earth, the unbelief, the envy and the carelessness in man has already persecuted him. I comfort you with the saints and I comfort you in a mysterious way and I give you My hand to pass over the hardships, and I take you on My shoulders when you can no longer go on, but you should not forget that I have been teaching you even since I called you to be the thread of My descent and I have been teaching you not to fall down under the pains and rather to speak over them a tied bond so that they may not throw you down, and to have you as My bridge to the man, for I am with the days of My coming on earth, sons. I have told you not to be wounded by anything and from no one but only if you knew that the Lord is upset with you; and I did not know how to lift you up to Me and to strengthen you, both I and My trumpet, which was coming with Me to you in the word. But you have suffered much, much contempt, because you have had to take after Me, sons. It has never been on earth a more despised man than God and more despised than the God's bearers, and here is what John, the prophet is telling you:

— You, bearers of the Lord's coming, I give myself to you as an example of patience and joy of the cross, for the saints do not take into consideration the shame of the cross because of the joy after it. I had been persecuted since I was a child and I had lived in the wilderness until the Lord's coming, Who came and carried the man's salvation on His shoulders, the cross of the man's sins, children of suffering.

Your suffering make the saints run with tears. The shame of the cross presses you down, and you are without any protection, for those who are strong are mighty and not weak like you and they are not ashamed of your weakening without protection, and they are not afraid of God. The humility is for those who humble themselves, and the strength is for those who think that they are big. However, I was the voice of the Lord and I called evil that what was evil, and then I suffered punishment from the man and then I stood near God the Father, to always pray to Him from near Him for the man, for this is how the saints of the heaven on earth and in heaven are; they are merciful and suffer waiting for the man's salvation.

Receive power from the spirit of prophesy. Take of my spirit and do not be afraid of the man. Do not let the Lord down, for you have to grow as big as the Lord's coming, and beware so that you may not go down, and keep out of sufferings and the Lord will help you this way, for I pray near the saints and near the prophets for your power through the hardships of the Lord's coming. The one, who says that he loves God and brings you into sufferance and tears, that one does not understand the birth from above, and he has to let himself be seized by it to take after the Lord with His saints, and then to take after you.

However, Lord, help these who bear Your voice now towards Your coming, as I also was Your voice then, before the road of Your cross for the man's salvation, help them from heaven among the saints and among the prophets; help them during their shortcomings, as You are the one that can help them, for the man gives You with spoon, and with its handle he puts Your eyes out for what he gives and You have no one to help Yourself with for them from the earth. The man has become greater than You are, Lord, and he does not listen to You anymore, and he does not need You when Your will is not in agreement with his will.

Have mercy on those who bear Your burden on them! Have mercy, Lord! Have mercy, Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, Who work through the prophets!

Have mercy, mother, from near your Son, Jesus Christ; have mercy on those with the burden of the coming of the Son of man on their shoulders!

Have mercy on Your people, Lord of the powers and give him the mystery of Your being in the man, and let the world see the light of your people that is under the cross! Amen, amen, amen.

— However, because of My mercy on you, wounded sons, I take you and I come into the pantry with you and I comfort you and I help you, for this is written: «Come, My people, enter your chambers, and shut the doors about you: hide yourself for a little moment, until the indignation be past and I will glorify you for My name». (See Is. 26:20) Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Saints Apostles Peter and Paul

I start going with the spring of My word on earth over My people and over the man, and the gates are opened for Me and I, God the Word, the Son of the Father Sabaoth and the Son of the Man, speak and shepherd My flock and I do not let it without food, for no one and nothing can live without food. Amen.

The joys of My disciples is as big as the heaven and the earth, for I have them with Me in My descent, because I, their Teacher from two thousand years ago, promised them that at the new birth of the world, they would judge My people Israel, My people that crucified Me, the people I died for and who still wait for Me to come still saying that Messiah will come.

Oh, children who are My gates for Me to enter as word into the book! My word upon you is My coming. I say this so that the world, which does not wait for Me to come, may be judged. Amen. Two thousand years ago, when My time was about to come from the Father and to become the Son of the Man, neither the scribes, nor the Pharisees, nor the teachers of the Law, nor the people of Israel wanted to understand My coming, which was written in the prophets, and they even today hear Israel saying that Messiah is still to come. However, I came then, and only few believed Me, starting with Zacharias and Elisabeth, who prepared the Virgin in whom I, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, had to come down with a seed of the Holy Spirit and to be born as a Man among the people, being true God from true God. And then John, the Baptizer, knew Me also, as he was a little bit ahead of Me, incarnated from God through the word, having Zacharias and Elisabeth as his parents on earth. And My mother knew Me as well, and then My brothers, who were Joseph's sons, knew Me after that, (And not the sons of Mary, the Virgin, r.n.), and when I still was a little baby, the three shepherds from the sheep, the three Magi, Simon, who was well advanced in years, and Anna, the prophetess knew Me too. And then sons, My twelve disciples knew Me, and from them, some of them also came to know Me, whom I sent through the cities so that I could enter them with My disciples and to be able to stay with them as frequently as possible into the midst of the multitudes, and to do My work of three years and a half, the man's calling to the kingdom of the heavens, with which I came on the earth in the sixth age after I built the man, and then My people Israel put Me on the cross to die and no longer be. However, I am He Who is, and so I was then, and the death and the hell were overcome by Me, and I got up from the dead and fulfilled the work of the salvation of the world, and then I stood again in those that are not seen, on the right of My Father, the place of His Son. Amen.

Oh, sons, the world did not believe then that I was the Messiah, the One Who was written about to come. No one believed but only those whom My Father ordained to this mystery. Oh, children of My coming of today, the world does not even today believe that I am the Son of the Man, the One Who was written about that had to come, and here I am now over the earth as word into your midst, and behold My coming after seven thousand years from the man's creation, for I have come into the eighth age, with which I started My kingdom with the man on earth, as I would have also liked to stay with the man in the beginning and to be his God, but he has become haughty thinking that he is a king over the whole creature. All the angels served him after I made him, for I was resting in him with all the hosts of angels, and the most beautiful among the angels was serving him even more, and when the man exalted himself by haughtiness, Lucifer served him and his haughtiness, and then he fell down with the number of his angelic army. And I, the Son of the Father, I, the Maker of the man, told Michael, the archangel to give a command to the angels and to say: «Let us stand well, with fear and attention!» I told him to say this so that the other hosts of angels may not fall too, those who could serve to the man's haughtiness. And then, Michael remained My angel, as each man has got his own angel, for I created the man into My image and after My likeness, for I built only that one, only that one, sons.

My word upon you is My coming in the eighth age after the making of the man. I say this for the world to be judged that it does not wait for Me to come, as neither did those from two thousand years ago wait for Me when I came; no one in the world had wanted Me to come, even if all knew and said that the Messiah was to come. However, going from place to place with My disciples, I was gathering the elected through the faith and I was making them male and female disciples for their belief in My coming five thousand years after the man's fall from Paradise and after the angels' fall from heaven, who were the hosts of Lucifer, the most beautiful of all the chief angels, of those ten angelic hosts.

I was going with the disciples through the cities and the Samaritan woman received Me, with her faith in Messiah's coming, and while I was speaking to her at Israel's well, I told her: «I am He, the One Who speaks to you». Oh, and many received Me after that, and after My ascent near My Father, after forty days from My resurrection from the cross, and after I sent the glory, the comfort and the power of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples, a lot more received Me then, for they were going through the world by My sending and they were giving testimony preaching Me that I had come and brought the salvation to the world by My birth, death and resurrection, and many believed and were baptized and became Christians, of whom My apostles were establishing bishops over those that became My church with their body, soul and spirit. Amen.

The feast of today is sweet, the feast of My apostles, Peter and Paul: one for the people of Israel, who became a faithful man and My church, and the other, for the nations of the earth, to make the Christians into spiritual sons, Israel according to the spirit, as I spoke to Abraham about his seed of the promise, which would be as numerous as the stars of the sky, and not from the earth, among those who bear the body and who are chosen and picked up from the world to belong to God on earth, and then preaching every moment My kingdom in them, a kingdom persecuted by those who did not want and do not want Me to come. My kingdom in man is with power and much glory in man and is seen both from far away and from near, by those who are faithful and by those that are not faithful, and those who persecute My kingdom on earth also persecuted those who had it within them with its glory that passed through the fire and through the water and through torturing with them, and it, My kingdom in them, was glorified against the persecutors until My saints were passing over to Me, to their heavenly dwelling, and they left behind them on earth the seed of the kingdom of the heavens, the faith in the Son of God, Who came to save the man fallen from God and to make him, by his faith in Me, the man in My image and after My likeness, in which I have been shining with My kingdom, starting with My twelve disciples, and then with all those who have been following them by their self denial and by the cross, like Me, for there is no greater disciple than his Teacher, but any perfect disciple is like his Teacher. Amen.

The world of today, like the world of two thousand years ago, does not believe into My coming. The one who calls himself My church, the way to the people and of the people to Me, as that one of two thousand years ago who was called Mine, does not believe in My coming. The self-conceited man cannot believe and see and understand the word of My coming to take it for his life and as his way to Me. The one, who is his own master, has neglected God, as Adam did, who said that will set his seat above God, and when the most beautiful among angels served him, then the man fell down by his own haughtiness and then by his disobedience.

The feast of today is sweet, the feast of My disciples who did the work of an apostle into My name, doing greater signs and miracles than I did, for I was in them so that their testimony could come true by My power in them, and by which I was working from them, for I said then to them: «I am in you, and you in Me». Amen, amen, amen.

— You, Teacher, Who have the words of life; You, Who promised us that we would judge the twelve tribes of Israel and all the nations of the earth, together with the greatest among us, the apostle Paul; You, Who chose us by signs and miracles from the nation of Israel, to make us saviors for this people, we call Israel after the flesh before Your throne of judgment, where we are around it, on one side and on the other, those from the nation of Israel after the flesh, Your disciples with whom You walked on earth in the time of Your preaching for three years and a half, and then by Your sending everywhere, to call the nations to repentance to the forgiveness of their sins, as You meant us to work and to fulfill the forgiveness of the sins of those who will be baptized into Your name from the Father and from the Holy Spirit.

Our judgment on Israel after the flesh is this: that You came two thousand years ago from the Father, and that it, your chosen people, became conceited for itself and put You on the cross as a wrongdoer in order to save their glory and their sitting on God's chair before the people from falling down. Our judgment on Israel is this: that they sold You on money for crucifixion, and they have been under the curse of the money since then and until today, and they become haughty over the nations of the earth saying that they were Your people, chosen by our parents, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and then by Your power, with which You appeared in Moses, who took Israel out from the slavery in Egypt in order to turn it back to Canaan, the land promised to Abraham.

We stay in those that are not seen, above the garden of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem, which You discovered in its place, chosen by You from the very beginning. We stay on one side and on the other on the thrones near Your throne. A throne and thrones kept in the air on the wings of cherubim and seraphim and by the angels in tens of thousands of thousands, who serve You and Your saints and Your prophets, and we tell those that are in the nation of Israel after the flesh, out of which You also chose us to be Your disciples after we left everything and denied ourselves for Your name and for the Gospel of Your coming, and we tell them this: this is the second coming of the Son of God Father Sabaoth, as He said that He would come again to judge the living and the dead, and Whose kingdom did not have and does not have and will not have an ending, for He is the Alpha and the Omega, the One from the beginning and from the end, the Son of God, the Son of Man, Who was born of a Virgin mother in the sixth age from the creation of the world and of the first built man by Him, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, the One Who was crucified as a man by the Jewish people two thousand years ago, after He was sold by Judas, one among us, His twelve disciples, to Caiaphas and to Anna and then to Pilate, to be crucified, as it was written in the prophets, in the psalms and in the law of Moses to be fulfilled with Him.

We are Israelites and we speak to you from near the Father and from near His Son, to those in the tribe of Israel after the flesh; to you, the people chosen through Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and saved from the slavery through Moses. We are the witnesses of His resurrection two thousand years ago and of the Gospel of the kingdom of the heavens, which was prophesied to come down on earth. And behold, we are in the second coming of the Son of God on earth, Who is preparing His wedding country by the word of the new making of the world, the Romanian country, the land chosen from the beginning of the world for His second coming, for the people of Israel crucified Him, and then He started building a people on the Romanian people, by the preaching of His Gospel on this earth through the first one called by Him among us, the apostle Andrew, a former disciple of John, the Baptizer, and who, on this land of the beginning of the earth at its coming out from the waters in the time of creation of the world, put the seal of Jesus Christ, the Messiah, the One Who was prophesied by the prophets, an ineffaceable seal, on which the Romanian people was built, and of which now, in the eighth age from the making of the world, He chose His disciples to testify about His coming as word on earth, and by whom, as the Creator of everything, He creates the new heaven and the new earth and the age which is to come, as it is written in the prophets that He will do when He comes for the resurrection of the dead and for the new birth of the world, we being His witnesses, His disciples of two thousand years ago, to see and to rejoice over the promise, newly made and fulfilled now.

Stand up for repentance and for the forgiveness of the sins, you who are from our people, Israel after the flesh, for Messiah, the One Who came two thousand years ago, and Who died on the cross and was resurrected and ascended to the Father in order to draw all the people to the Father, as He promised then, here He is in His second coming. And behold the country of brightness, the New Jerusalem, in which He has His dwelling, a people and a new land, the land which came first from the waters at the making of the heaven and of the earth, the Romanian land, the top of the earth, which He established the work of His coming and His word, the Law of life, to which all the nations of the earth will flow from the four corners of the wind, to receive the life and its laws and to walk in its ways afterwards. Open the books of the prophets and the psalms and Moses' books and learn to read them well, and you will find the country of brightness, that the prophet Daniel spoke about by the Spirit of the Lord. Read with the wisdom of humility and bow then to come and drink from the bed of the river of life and to wash your face, your life, your heart, your mind and your love in it to make them new, for the Lord spoke through the prophet Isaiah: «I make a new thing and buds for it, and I will make everything new». Amen. Read in the prophets and understand how the Holy Spirit speaks so clearly when He speaks: «Behold you scoffers, and wonder and perish; for I work a work in your days, a work which you will in no way believe, if one declares it to you». (Acts 13:41) However, we, Jesus Christ's apostles, those from two thousand years ago, tell you from among the living one of the eternal life: believe in this coming of the Lord that you may not perish, for we, the witnesses from the people of Israel after the flesh, speak now into the name of each tribe of Jacob, and its saved ones who will believe. Amen.

— Oh, Lord Teacher, You are the Son of Man, Who comes with the clouds and come with the saints and with Your disciples and show us the fulfillment of the Scriptures of Your coming from the end of the time. But you are the beginning and the end, and you are the end and the beginning, and You are the resurrection of the dead, starting two thousand years ago, and You are the Teacher of the world, and the world does not know you.

As for me, Your apostle, whom You called Peter, You gave me Your testimony by which I called You Christ, the Son of God, the foundation of the church; and on this foundation, that is, on the Son, that I testified about, the Son of the Father, the One Who is alive, You have been building Your church, and Your church is not the church of the world, and the world does not know You by its teachers and by its scholars. However, I denied myself and I took You in me and I knew You in this way and then I loved you and I did not know how to love You in the way You should have been loved, and You taught Me and then I had Your Spirit in me. Amen.

— And as for me, Your apostle, whom You called Paul, from Your persecutor, without me knowing that I had been persecuting You, You made me into Your apostle over the nations of the earth and over the scholars of the world, giving testimony about how You made me Your servant and how You made me understand You with Your coming, from the prophets, from the psalms and from the laws of Moses, because I knew with a great zeal everything that You wrote about You in the day when You revealed Yourself to me and then You made me blind, and I am telling now to everybody who wants to see You that I went blind only at Your light, which clothed You as with a coat, and I fell down to the ground and then I asked You: «What shall I do, Lord?», when You told Me that You were the Christ, Whom I had persecuted. Oh, how sweetly You come within the breeze of the noise of the wind as word on earth to those who are Your little ones, coming back with my mind to the day when You spoke to me on the road to Damascus to make me Your disciple and to pour out in me more than in everyone, as you knew my natural power and my power of wisdom from the law, and You clothed Me with the Holy Spirit and You confirmed me to Your church by the prophet Ananias from Damascus to receive me from You as being sent by Your church. Your coming is sweet. Your coming is the word, and Your Spirit and Your word covers You within His mystery, and Your voice over those who believe in Your coming is sweet, and You are sweet with Your coming after the man, and woe to those who long for Your day, for they do not know that You are a melting light. However, I told these people that when I looked at the coat of Your glory from which You spoke to Me, You made me blind at Your appearance, Son of the Father Sabaoth, Christ, the Savior of the faithful world. Amen.

— We glorify You, Your disciples of two thousand years ago. We comfort You from the midst of the saints and of the prophets because we all were prophets full of Your Holy Spirit, and we have loved You within Your coming to Your people into the midst of the Romanian people, and we stand up for Israel after the flesh to testify about Your coming the second time for the new birth of the world and of Israel, and we call them at the spring, at Your Bethlehem of today, in which You are born over the earth. And we stand up for Your Israel out of the Romanians, the people of Your word from Your coming now, in the end and in the beginning of the time, to draw to the Father all who believe, Lord, as You promised. Give help to Your people of today out of Romanians, for they are small and without any help from the earth. Help them from heaven and send us from near You to work out the establishing of Your coming on the earth, and for them too, who are so deprived of powers and so feeble before You coming as a river of word over the earth, the river of life, to which You have called Israel, our nation after the flesh, so that it may be baptized to repentance and to the forgiveness of the sins, and You also call all the nations of the earth starting with Jerusalem. You are the Lord of the powers and You give us Your sending to come to Your help with the heavenly powers, so that they may have power in the way they share You over the earth, and for them to stand before You in order that You may come, and for them to receive You with the word of life, which the four winds are to take it back then and to spread everywhere on earth the news that You have come and that You shepherd with an iron rod, with the word of the Holy Spirit, all those that will hear and will believe to their repentance and to the forgiveness of the sins and for a spirit of holiness in body and in spirit, for everything has come to an end as You said, and Your glory and its brightness is coming; for many, with the joy of comfort and, again, for the unfaithful, with the pain of their blindness by which they do not know You and do not see you within Your coming. Amen, amen, amen.

— You were My joy, My disciples. You were My comfort when I came on earth when I appeared with signs and wonders for three years and a half as the Son of the Father, confirmed from heaven by the Father and from the earth by you. You did not leave Me after that all left Me, because of fear and because of disbelief. You remained until My crucifixion with Me and you comforted Me with your love in you, and then I put you under a shelter to remain My followers, because I went to be sacrificed, as I had to fulfill the Scriptures about Me. However, be My comfort now and go with the grace from above and with the heavenly powers and help the last sons of God, for they are small and fragile, and I want to spread the news and the power of My coming over the entire earth through them, both in hell and in heaven and in the sky, to the new birth of the world by the word of My coming. Amen.

Let the peoples come and see My humility, by which I have come down after the man into the darkness of today, and let them see, under the burden of the cross of My coming, those that are small among the saints and whom, willing or not, I made them into the light over the world, My word over the earth, the gatekeepers who open to the Son of God, the Word, the Teacher of the world.

Peace to you into the midst of those who are My people, small and few, to those that I make My coming come down for! Neither you were more and nor they are many, but they are My word over the earth and I have turned them into the gospel and into the trumpet sounding of My second coming from near the Father. Amen, amen, amen.

And to you, children who have been pressed down by the burden of My coming, I will comfort you, for My mercy on you keeps Me only close to you, for you are small and you have carried My people to heaven and you teach him to be small, so that I may take care of him, and that he may also take care of Me and of you, growing within his spirit for My Holy Spirit through them on to earth. Amen. Receive comforts from the days of feast of the heaven with you and comfort yourselves in your pains and in your shortcomings and in your tears for My name, and I will always go with you with the comfort of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who you should give to the people of My word, and in Whom I may embrace you and that He may also embrace Me too, for I want My fellowship with them from dawn to dawn, for this time is great, and few are those who understand in order to believe and to come to this glory, the glory of the Scriptures of the coming of the Son of Man, with the power and with the glory of His word over the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of twelve years from the laying down of the foundation stone of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, come down with the saints and with the angels in tens of thousands of thousands above the manger of My word in the last days and I bless with a new word the memorial feast of the laying down of the foundation stone for the building of the altar of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem on the Romanian land. Amen.

I am Who I am, and I am the Word of the Father Sabaoth. I celebrate in heaven and on earth My day of victory of the end of the human age and of the beginning of the age of the kingdom of the heavens on earth. There have passed twelve years since through My word, born of the Father, and with your hand, those that are My sons and settlers here, in the garden of My Holy of Holies, and with the blessing and with the unforgettable testimony of My bishop, anointed from above by My word in your days, Irineu, the faithful one of My coming, I laid down the foundation stone of the altar (or shrine) of the Holy of Holies, for the ground under it is the table on which he was established by My word to stay. And he did, and then He confessed, because by this building of unfathomable mystery I fulfilled the little white stone, and on it, My name from the end of the time, for it is written in the Scriptures for the end of the time: «His name is the Word of God». Amen. (Rev. 19/13, r.n.).

I told you to write on this stone all around it: «Behold, the Lord is coming with the tens of thousands of His saints!» and I wrote Myself if you did not write. I wrote because I said to be written this way, and this writing of Mine witness in those that are not seen, from all that are not seen, but they are, adorning and testifying about the little garden of My word, through which I am over it. Amen.

Romania

Peace to you! And write into the book of the testimonies a day of feast as twelve years have passed since the laying down of the foundation stone of this building and of the fulfilling of this Scripture of New Jerusalem, established on earth by My word, which comes with the clouds with all My heaven of saints and angels.

Write into the book in which you bring together all My word that is upon you; write for twelve years ago I had My faithful witness, the bishop Irineu, Whom I, the Word of God, set on the chair of My church, the church of Jesus Christ, and I wrote his name on this stone, and this means his establishing over this time, as a witness of My coming and as word on earth, and his word in that day was set near My word and his word testified and it remained written into My book, and My book is called the Word of God, My name from the end of the time. Amen.

Oh, sons, chosen and anointed by My word in this time of My second coming from near the Father! I have come now as word on earth to establish the kingdom of the heavens and the end of the world, for the end of the world is holiness, son. And if you do not hear, I hear, and it is heard from margins to margins by My word, which flows and does not stay, and by which I, the One Who am, testify with the word in heaven and on earth that even I cannot erase your name on this stone of beginning, and you cannot erase it too, and nor those who did not receive you on My behalf with the news of the new beginning, of the new heaven and of the new earth on the Romanian land. Your name is carried by angels and saints from margins to margins in heaven and on earth, and so is your protection and your little crown, which no one in heaven or on earth can take it from you, for you have remained to testify, and the prophecy, which the Holy Spirit spoke through you, cannot be erased either; the prophecy for this land on which I, Who I am, established the fulfilling of the announcing of My coming and of My kingdom with those who are My faithful, the holiness, which brings the world to an end; for I established the New Jerusalem on earth in the year of 7500 from the making of the world, and from My birth as an infant from the Virgin mother, the churchly year 1992, for I built the altar from the table of the Holy of Holies in the first three months of this year, (The ecclesiastical liturgical year starts on 1st September – see also about the Julian and Gregorian calendars, r.n.), and in the fourth month, on the 12th day of the month of December, I sealed with My name and with your name the holiness and its sons and the land under it too, and I wrote with it the end of the world and I came out above all who want to be. And behold, I am the word on earth and I reign through it and give with it to each one according to one's own deed, for it is written in the prophets: «Behold, take heed of the word of the Lord: A voice of tumult from the citadel, a voice from the temple, a voice of the Lord that renders recompense to his enemies», (Is. 66/6), and «The Lord will destroy them with the breath of His mouth». Amen. And as for you, by your testimony of that day, you have remained My faithful witness, a testimony that was no longer erased, even if the opponent, the man of lawlessness, brought you forward to strike Me with the stone, put by his unbelief into your hand. But the stone will turn back against all who did not receive you on My behalf, for whoever did not receive you, did not receive Me either, and again a Scripture was written as that one of two thousand years ago, when My people did not receive Me when I came from the Father to bring its salvation and its repentance for the forgiveness of its sins.

You are My faithful witness. There are twelve years in a row since your word has been testifying from near this little white stone, which I wanted to give it as a gift to the church of the world from which I chose you to be Mine, and I have exalted you because of your faith, to give through you the hand to all those who wanted to become sons of God through holiness and the apostles of My word, which comes with the clouds, and which is taken by the four winds and went from margins to margins, so that the nations of the world may come to this mountain of Mine to receive My glory to their holiness, for the holiness is the end of the world. Amen.

You have been in chains for such a long time, but I secretly send you the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, and I enshroud you with His protection and I tell you: peace and happiness to you because you are patient for the fulfillment of the endurance, until I send away all My enemies and yours, either by their resurrection, or by their condemnation, for I speak this word in order to fulfill it. Amen.

Oh, rejoice, you, saints and angels, who come with Me from glory, for the Father gives us a new celebration for the day of the glory of the feast of today and He is glorified with His word through His Son. Amen.

And as for you, sons who set the word of the feast of today into the book of the laying down of the foundation stone of the altar of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem, pass then into the book of My trumpet, Verginica, and we will have rest in it with the Father and with she, for she is the foundation stone on which I have built My church again in the last days, for in My days with it on earth, I said that My first church would be built again and that the holiness would be again on earth, and this will bring with it the end of the lawlessness, which has appeared now to stop the way of My coming through those who love the lawlessness, but it is written: «Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will kill with the breath of His mouth, and bring to nothing by the brightness of His coming; ... because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved». (2 Thess. 2/8)

We pass into the book of My trumpet and we make you grow with My word and My Father's and with the word of My trumpet, Verginica, whom I established as the foundation stone of My church from the end of the time, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

*

The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit come into your book, Verginica. Let us put growth over the holy people of the New Jerusalem.

Come sons, who open to the way of the Lord, and be open gates, for if I always had you this way, I would always keep awake every child of this people.

Come My Father and the Father of My people, come and give them growth as to some of Your children, for You are the Father and You have Me as an obedient Son, so that You may grow them into My image and after My likeness. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, people of My Son, I do not want the heaven to see that you are pretentious, for you have My Son as your example, and I am your father and mother and I grow you and I keep you away from the evil one that would blow against you, and I feed you with My Son, and you are indebted to love God and to listen to Him and to love Him, so that this may be the reward of His love for you and that you may not owe it to God. Amen.

There was once an obedient child who loved his parents, who, according to his little age, was working with his little hands, according to his power, love and obedient mind, at some things in his fatherly household. He went to school and saw the children of his age that they were taking from the market those that their eyes and mind wanted. And seeing what they did, he thought to buy something from the market too, although his parents took good care of him with everything he needed. His mind of a child desired, but he did not know how to come to fulfill his desire and to be able to have what to buy things and goods with as the other children. He came from school and did with industriously and love all his work that he always did in the house and in the courtyard, and in the evening he took a piece of paper and a pencil and wrote to his parents their debt, which they had to give him for all the work of his hands, and this is what he wrote: the debt of My parents for my work which I did in the household:

- 10 lei – because I bring wood and make the fire; (Leu - Romanian currency, r.n.)
- 10 lei – because I bring water;
- 10 lei – because I bring grass to the poultries;
- 10 lei – because I cradle my little brother;
- 10 lei – because I clear out the courtyard;

Total sum = 50 lei

And when his mother got up the next morning to get him ready for school, to lay the table for him, to put into his schoolbag bread and fruits and then to wake him up and get him ready.

Looking into his little bag, she found the little note and read it and run into tears worrying for his little heart, which was touched by a spirit that was not part of the education that he had received from his parents, for they were bringing him up, teaching him concerning everything he had to understand between him and his parents for his obedience and for his protection against evil. And his mother, being wise for the life and for the teaching of the life, added on the paper next to her child's calculation, writing this:

- Nothing – because we take care of you to grow up;
- Nothing – for your little clothes and shoes;
- Nothing – for our protection given to you against evil;
- Nothing – for our care when you are sick;
- Nothing – for your food and teaching.

Total sum = nothing

And she took the tear stained little note and put it into on his little schoolbag. And the child, rejoicing for the money, went to school and then he looked to count them and he also found on his little note her mother's calculation. His heart started to sigh and in this way he came back home and went down on his knees embracing his parents and begging them to forgive him because he had this thought, strange to his obedience and love for his parents, and he asked them for their teaching and then he learned to keep out from staying without their teaching upon him all the time in order that he might not become a prodigal son, a slanderer and hidden from his parents, as many of the children in his time were.

Oh, children of My Son, I do not want the heaven to see that you are pretentious, for you have My Son as your example, and I am your father and mother and I grow you up and I keep you away from evil and I feed you with My Son and you have to love God and to listen to Him and follow Him as He teaches you, sons, so that this may be the reward of His love for you and that you may not owe it to God.

Oh, children who are taught by God! I, the Father, tell you that the one who hides will be stung with remorse, as the reward for hiding is painful and you have your way to God to tell Him everything about your being and to get free from burdens and heaviness with which the man goes even beyond his limit (The death of the body, r.n.), if he does not know to put them down until he gets there. The man does not know, and he has no teaching upon him by which to seek to get out of the darkness, to seek the one who cleanses him from everything that he has, which does not take after God. The man does not want and does not know to seek the one who shows him his mistake and not to flee from that one. The man cannot flee from his mistakes if he has some mistakes that are not cleansed by God. And as for you, child of the holy people, if you flee from the one who tells you your mistake, you do not know to be a Christian of Jesus Christ, My Son, but you are like the world, if you want to do this.

I have come into the Verginica's book, and I have come with My Son to teach you in Him, people of the teaching from above. Whoever is not a student at the school of the New Jerusalem he does not get any prize and no one knows him and no one testifies about him. The prodigal son asked his father for the right of his inheritance to waste it away according to his heart and thus he lost everything that he earned in the house of his parents; he lost the sonship right, the right of the heir of his parents, but no harm comes to the child who stays under the teaching of his parents. He who reads this parable that I give you now, the one, together with the pretentious child, let him understand if he reads and let him understand spiritually, for it is one thing to be a servant and another to be a son, but he who wants to turn into a servant from a son that one has nowhere to learn from if he does not look for a teacher. He who does not speak about his thought and about everything that he speaks to his teacher, that one has not got any gift at all, for the teacher is the greatest gift that a man can have, and the man cannot have another gift, and I say again: let him who hears this word, understand.

I have taught them, Son; I have taught them and I give You to them; as a Teacher and as an example of My child I give You to them, so that they may know what it means to have God as their father and their mother. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, Father, glorify Your Son, and I will learn from You to fill with My glory from You those that lay My teaching over the sons of the New Jerusalem, Father.

Oh, My people, I have ordained My teachers upon you and I made them the light of the world, My word upon the earth. Learn to listen to God through them and that you may not be pretentious and that you may not owe it to God, sons. He who does not deny of his own self and keeps it and takes after it and not after the light of the world or after the word of the life, that one cannot listen, that one cannot be a scholar in order to receive instruction and to correct himself from any mistakes he has done.

Oh, Verginica, (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) how beautiful the Father has taught them! How beautiful, how beautiful!

— Oh, Lord, how happy is the child who loves his father and his mother, for that one tells them every thought and then he receives instruction and remains in love. My book, in which we have written ourselves down today over them with such a nice teaching, is a day of school, and happy are the sons of the New Jerusalem, who love Your school from above, Your book, the word of life, Lord, (See the selection topic: „About the Book of the Lamb - The Book of Life”, r.n.) for they know what it means to be a son and what it means to be a servant, and he who knows this, that one remains a son and he remains in Your love. Amen.

I also give you instruction from near the Lord. Do not forget to be sons. The Lord does not want to see that you are pretentious, for the Father has given you now His Son as an example. He has brought you up as sons, for He has His Son, Who listens to Him, and He has given Him as an example so that His Son may bring you up in His image and after His likeness. The sons have everything that their father and mother have and they do not need anything from them but instruction all the time, for this is how the child stays; he always stays under the instruction and love of the one who gives him life and this is what it means for the son to be a child. The Lord has given you a path to Him. Value it, sons. He, who loves walking in the way, walks that way and he does not look to the right or to the left, but only on the path and only with instruction. Seek for the Lord to be well with you, and you with the Lord, so that the heaven may see you thus and that the Lord may take care of you then, because of His care for you and for Him with you. I would ask those who stay as a guide from the Lord to bow to those who do not bow with mercy before the Lord for great is the Lord's pain that comes from some like those people who have no mercy on His labor and work among you and over the earth.

And as for you, children of Jerusalem, I exhort you towards the longing and towards the love of the Holy Spirit and towards the prayer that does miracles, and all those who have received good education from the Lord stand up and put your shoulder for the great preparation of the gospel from margins to margins of the Lord's coming with His salvation and judgment, for the glory of the Lord's coming is coming closer with every moment lived by you in this glory. Amen.

And as for You, Lord Word, bless the walking of Your people with the news of Your coming and with Your kingdom, for their glory on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

— I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, speak with much power and I say: go, Jerusalem, go, for God, the Word, announces Himself with His coming and with His kingdom on earth with you into the midst of the Romanian people. I bless with My word full of grace and truth, with the breath of My mouth, the work of the preaching over the entire earth, of the Son of God, Who comes with the clouds and becomes a word of the Holy Spirit over the earth. Go with the news of the kingdom of the heavens, go, Jerusalem, go! Amen.

Oh, pass from your body into your spirit, children of the New Jerusalem, and be My disciples and be My witnesses from margins to margins, for the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, will take from what is Mine and will teach you the walking into My name over all the nations of the earth, starting with you, who are of the Romanians, disciples and sons, and all and everything will serve you, seeing you that you serve to My coming and to My dinner of word with the nations on the earth, who will hear of My glory and will come near to it and will drink of the new wine of the new kingdom, which is coming with the new birth of the world, as it is written into the Scriptures. I have started the kingdom of the heavens with you on earth, and he who is holy let him be holy still and to become a river of the river of life, for any perfect disciple is like his Teacher, and he will receive the reward of a disciple from My hand on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The Word of God for Romania at the celebration of Saint Prophet Elijah

Let My gates be opened on earth for Me to enter as word in My book of these times! I am The One who I am. Amen, amen, amen.

Write on the earth, sons who are gates for Me, write on the earth, and My angels will write in heaven the day of the celebration of My prophet Elijah, the day when I, The Lord, The Son of Father Savaot, I drummed from margins to margins My advent, the advent of The Son Of Man, because, such as the lightning comes from the sunrise and shows itself until the sunset, thus will be the advent of The Son Of Man.

The word of My advent flows from My mouth in the middle of the Romanian people, and soon, soon I shall write on earth and in heaven the wake of the fiftieth of My word which comes with the clouds over the Romanian land beginning with the year 1955. My word which flows from My mouth in these last days is My advent, the advent of The Son Of Man on the clouds of the sky with power and much glory and the power and the glory is My word, and with the blow of its mouth on the earth I have prepared a bride nation from the Romanian nation, the land of the second advent of the Son Of Man. Amen.

Write in My book with you, children born from the word of My second advent next to Father, word on the earth, write on the earth the wake of the great prophet Elijah, when I, God, through My work with you and through the work I have given you for the announcement of My advent, I bless from near Father and from next to you your emergence with Me above all the earth and the preaching of Gospel of My advent which announces itself through the power of My word from it, and the prophet Elijah is the angel who announces, as The Scripture says: «I, Lord, send you Elijah the prophet before My great and fearsome advent. He will turn back the heart of the parents towards their sons, and the heart of the sons towards their parents, for Me not to come and strike the country with curse».

Such as the lightning comes from the sunrise and shows itself until the sunset, thus is My advent to you today, (It is published on the internet too, r.n.) My word which has flown from My mouth for almost fifty years, and with which I have prepared Myself a nation, and My advent to them, and the place of My advent and his glory, because the place of My word's manger and all his surroundings which are and which will be and which crown the manger of My word all around, this place is the mysterious mountain of God, towards many, many hearts will turn from now on, and many, many looks and many, many people will look and take the laws of holiness, because it is written in the prophets for this time: «And in the last days the mountain of the temple of God will be risen above the mountains' peaks and above the hills and the nations will head to it and they will say: "Come to climb the mountain of God and God will teach us His ways and He will let us walk on His paths, for it is from Sion where the law will come, and The word of God from Jerusalem"». Amen.

Blessed be this day and its work, for today I unfold the heavens to let the judgment throne be seen, My word that gather all the nations of the earth in front of Me, to show them My work, My second advent, My mysterious kingdom above My disciples in the middle of the Romanian people, because the Romanian land has been chosen from the beginning to fulfill on it the mystery of The New Jerusalem, the mystery kept into Father for the new creation of the world, for the fulfilling of the Scriptures of a new heaven and a new earth, the mystery of the advent of The Son

Of Man after seven centuries from the first creation of the world. Amen. Behold, I come and I write on earth and heaven, a new earth and a new heaven, on the Romanian land, for I have said through prophets: «Once more I will shake the earth, once more I will chose Jerusalem». Amen. Jerusalem is My place of rest. Jerusalem is the mystery of My advent. This means Jerusalem, like this mystery meant two thousand years ago.

I speak word above the Israel with body, for the sons of Jacob, after their tribes, for the time of the bounty has come for them, too. I remind them My word through the prophets which says: «Who will be able to endure the day of His advent? Who will be able to hold on when He shows Himself? For He is like the fire of the smelter and like the bleach of the bleacher and He will sit to enlighten and to clean Jacob's sons, and He will enlighten them like the gold and the silver, for them to bring sacrifices to God into justice». I remind them and tell them: «I am The Lord and I have not changed, and you have not ceased to be Jacob's sons. Since the days of your parents you have departed from My commands and you have not obeyed them. Turn back, turn back to Me, and I will turn back to you. Turn back and you will see that at your wish I will open the dams of heavens and I will give you a lot of blessing for your own good, and I will have mercy for you like a man has mercy for his sons who serve him, and then you will see the difference between the right one and the sinner, between the one who serves God and the one who does not, for behold, the burning like furnace day is coming and the ones who make crimes will be like straws, and for the ones who fear My name (Jesus Christ, r.n.) the sun of justice will rise, and they will step over the evil ones the day I will make judgment. Remember the law of Moses, My servant, to whom I gave commands and laws for you in the Sinai mountain. And behold, I send you Elijah the prophet», as it is written in the Scriptures. Amen, amen.

And you, Romanian Jerusalem, bless the Gospel of My advent on the earth, because the ones who announce well will have reward at the prophets. Walk, Jerusalem, and your walking, which well-announces My second advent and My kingdom with you, let your walking go like the lightning that comes from the sunrise and shows itself until the sunset, as it is written about the advent of The Son Of Man with power and much glory, with his word above you, Romanian Jerusalem, new Jerusalem, nation of sons faithful to the scriptures of My advent. The prophet Elijah is with your spirit Romanian Israel, child of the vow made by Me over Abraham. May your spirit be in his spirit, as his spirit is My Spirit, to announce the advent of The Son Of Man, My advent and My meal with you on earth, and we will celebrate the wake of the fiftieth descent of My word, the wake of My glory and of the Holy Spirit, which is in Father and in Me and in you, new Jerusalem.

Twelve years have passed since I, The Lord, and with you and My bishop chosen by the world church (Pop Irineu-Bistrițeanul, r.n.) drove the stake of My kingdom, the seen one, on earth, and we settled the shrine of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem, My judging throne, in the middle of the Romanian land, the white stone on which I have written: The Word Of God, (Apoc. 19:13, r.n.), stone that was neglected by the builders, but for you it has great value, as you were faithful. And if twelve years passed, I rise Myself and call at this mountain the twelve tribes of Jacob and I give them this omen and I announce them My glory and My hand will show itself to My servants and the wrath to My enemies. Amen.

I drummed from margins to margins My advent, the advent of The Son Of Man, because two thousand years ago I said: «Like the lightning that comes from the sunrise and shows itself until the sunset, thus the advent of The Son Of Man will be», and today this Scripture has fulfilled, as the news about the kingdom of heaven travels as fast as the lightning and this news calls all the people under its vine and fig tree, because two thousand years ago I said: «The Son of Man will come with power and much glory on the clouds of the sky and He will send His angels with a great trumpet sound and they will gather the chosen ones for Him from the four winds, from the margins of the sky to the other margins, and then from two men working the land, one will be taken and the other one will be left, and from two women grinding at the mill, one will be taken and the other one will be left, and at the time they will not think about, The Son of Man will come», and The Lord will fulfill His word above the Earth. Amen.

It was written about this day in heaven and earth, the day of the celebration of the great prophet Elijah, whom I took in heavens with chariot and horses of fire to keep him for the day of My advent which is like lightning. I made him the angel of the lightning of My advent, the forerunner of the glory of My word, which comes with the clouds and it is like thunder, which lightens first, from the sunrise to sunset, and then His voice is heard. I go with him from the margins of the sky to the other margins and I announce Myself in this day above all the Earth. Amen. Let the nations hear and see and let them rejoice and believe in My advent, rejoicing about it, and let them drink from the river of life, which is a gift for the one who is thirsty for My advent, for My word that flows from the New Jerusalem. Amen. The New Jerusalem is the mystery of My advent. This means the New Jerusalem. The New Jerusalem is God and His sons, the chosen ones from the Romanian people in order to make from them a bride nation, and God will make a wedding hall with a wedding table from the Romanian land.

Take Holy Spirit, you, the nations of the Earth! Behold My word above the Earth, the blow of My mouth, with which I will kill the lawless one with the brightness of My word advent above the Earth. Take Holy Spirit! Drink from the river of life and heal yourselves, you, the nations of the earth, as I came and I come with the clouds to take to Father all the ones who will believe and will baptize in the name of The Father, Son and The Holy Spirit, for repentance, and the forgiveness of the sins. Amen.

The angels of My advent, accompanied by the archangel Michael and the great prophet Elijah, write in heaven and earth the second day of August, the year twelve since the beginning of the kingdom of heaven on earth, (The end of the world, in fact the end of the kingdom of man over man and the beginning of the Kingdom of God in the heart of man, r.n.) on the Romanian land, the country of The New Jerusalem. This is the day that God made to rejoice in it with His beloved ones on earth. Amen.

I am the Alpha and the Omega, The First and The Last, the beginning and the end, the star which shines in the morning, and the one who hears let him say “Come!” and let the thirsty one come and let the one who wants to accept as a gift the water of life come. Amen.

Blessed be you, children of My word, who have opened the gates of heaven for the nations of the earth to see My Kingdom over you and with you. Blessed be the belief of the ones who will accept like you the kingdom of heaven in them, because great and wonderful is the mystery of the New Jerusalem, on earth. And I have come and I am coming, and My reward is with Me, to give everyone after his deed and his belief in My advent. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Transfiguration

Open to My word, sons. Be watching gates, for I, the Lord, cover you with the cloud, and My glory with you is not seen, for the man cannot see My glory with you, because I am a consuming fire in the eyes of those who see My glory. Amen.

When I spoke to Moses to go up on the Mount Sinai, My glory came down on the mountain and covered Moses, and I called him out from the midst of the cloud of My glory and then I covered Him within the cloud and I spoke to him everything that I had to tell him for the sons of Israel, and the image of My glory on the top of the mountain was a consuming fire in the eyes of the sons of Israel. When Moses asked Me to show him My glory, I told him this: «I will make all My goodness pass before you. You cannot see My face, for man may not see Me and live. You shall stand on the rock and while My glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft on the rock, and will cover you with My hand until I have passed by, and then I will take away My hand, and you will see My back; but My face shall not be seen». (Ex. 33:19-23)

When I told Elijah: «Go out of the cave and stand on the mountain before the face of the Lord. Behold, the Lord passes by and before the Lord will be a great wind, which will break and tear the mountains and the rocks, will come, and then, after the wind, there will be an earthquake, and after the earthquake a fire, and after the fire a breeze and the Lord will be in it». (III Kingdoms [1 Kings]. 19:11-12) This is how I showed My glory to Elijah. When My voice speaks upon you from the breeze, My glory with you is invisible and I cover you with the cloud of My invisible glory, that I may be able to speak and that I may write My word on earth by your little hands and to tell My people and the man on earth everything I have to speak. And the image of My glory is still unseen in the eyes of those on earth, for I am still merciful.

When I spoke to My disciples about the coming of the Son of Man, I told them: «For as the lightning comes forth from the east, and is seen even to the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man, and all the nations of the earth will cry, when the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken, and then they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky with power and much glory». (Matt. 24:27-30) In My time with them, I took Peter, James and John and I went with them on a high mountain and My face shined like the sun before them, and My robe shined as well, and I appeared between Moses and Elijah, who were speaking with Me, and Peter said: «Lord it is good for us to be here. If You want, let's make three tents here: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah». (Matt. 17:4) And while he was still speaking, behold a bright cloud overshadowed them and a voice came out of the cloud, saying: «This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him». (Matt. 17:5) And after the glory of the Lord passed before their eyes, I touched them and said: «Get up, and don't be afraid. Don't tell anyone what you saw until the Son of Man is risen from the dead». (Matt. 17:7-9)

I glorify Myself with the glory of My word on earth, and I mark in the book the feast of today of My glory, which I showed it before the eyes of My three disciples, so that they could testify afterwards for those who were to believe that I was the beloved Son of the Father, and all those who would believe this to be able to listen to Me. I have come upon you with the word of My kingdom and I have given it from you for the nations of the earth to take heed of it and to come and receive My glory, the eternal teaching and to learn it.

I am the tree of life and I am shaken over the earth with the fruits of the kingdom of the heavens and I announce Myself as the fruit tree full of the life fruits. There is a written word, which says: “Don't go to the praised fruit tree with big bag.”<sup>174</sup> However, I say that you have to go to the tree, full of fruits, with your big bag, but not to the praised fruit tree. I am the tree full of the fruits of the eternal life and I announce Myself over the earth so that all the nations of the earth may hear of the fruit of the kingdom of the heavens, with which I have come down into the midst of the Romanian people, and to strengthen you, My people, chosen from the Romanians, so that you may also spread the news about Me, son, that the entire earth may know that I, the Lord, the One Who said two thousand years ago that I would come to bring together those that are My elected; I come and I come again, and with a sweet word I call all those that want to come under My vine and under My fig tree, which is you, faithful children, sons of the New Jerusalem, lowered by Me from heaven down upon you. Let all the nations of the earth take of the water of life and let them be born from above, from heaven, for I, the tree of life, I, the river of life, give Myself as food and water to all those who go hungry and thirsty after the life, which has come down from heaven for the sons of the kingdom of the heavens, for a new heaven and a new earth on the earth. Amen.

Oh, you are tired of My work upon you, for I lifted you up to preach Me with My coming, sons, tired under the burden of the coming of My glory on the earth. You are the sons of My kingdom in the end of the time, and I chose you from eternity to be with Me in the time of My coming for the reward of My saints, who have been waiting for you as the entire creature has been waiting for you too. I give you fresh powers and much, much peace and much obedience to My Holy Spirit among you, to My word from above and from below near you, to be able to preach over the entire earth the news of My coming to you and My wedding with you, children of the glory of My coming. I give you all you need for My work with you. I give you, and you should also give Me forever, in order to have you as a tool by which I may cleanse My threshing floor to gather My wheat into the barn, and to burn up the chaff with an unquenchable fire, according to what is written. Amen.

I cover you within the cloud of My glory and I stay invisibly with you among the people, for the man cannot see My glory with you, because I am a consuming fire in the eyes of those who see My glory, the cloud of My glory, which was seen by the sons of Israel like a consuming fire in the time of My dwelling with Moses on the mount covered by the cloud of My glory. I give you comfort in pains of spirit and truth and carry these into My name and with My burden in them, for I am the One Who comforts you in your pains. Strengthen one another by the power of My Spirit in you to go on well with the work of the preaching that I have spread through you from one margin of the heavens to another, as it is written by My coming like the lightning, which comes forth from the east and is seen even to the west, sons who testify.

Peace to you! Strengthen into your midst the power of My body and word and always be awake within My coming, and soon, soon, I will gather again in the garden of the meeting those who will come to eat and to drink from Me, of Me, the fruit tree and the river of life, and I will comfort those who follow Me now, because I am He Who is and He Who comes and the Father is in Me when I come. Amen.

Sons, sons, ask from Me with prayer everything that I have to give you, and I will give to you. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity, the second day. The feast of the birth of the Lord's Mother

In the second day of the feast, the Spirit of My word exhorts you to be holy, to be like Me; it exhorts you to listen to Him, because He gives Himself to you. You have come together near the spring and it is sin to leave the same way as you have come. Receive the Holy Spirit to be holy, for the reward for the saints is the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I stand before you with the sons of My word. I come in through the gates of the word, and My coming in and out, My coming out and in, are blessed by My Father, and may your coming to the spring be blessed, and if you drink of it, your knowledge and wisdom will increase for the understanding of My word, which comes with the clouds to call the man from death to light, from him to Me, for the man is death and God is life. Amen.

I am life without death, and I want My Father's will, and I want that the man may no longer be death without life, for the man comes to an agreement with the sin within himself, and the reward of the sin is death. Seven thousand years ago, after I made the man by My own hand from clay and I breathed over him a spirit of life to be able rest then in him, the man pulled himself out of My kingdom and became death, he and his sons. The sons of the man mean the fruit of the sin, and the sons of God are the fruit of the Lord, the fruit of life, for I am the life without death. Amen.

In the second day of the celebration the Spirit of My word calls you to be holy, to be like Me, for I told the man two thousand years ago: «Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body», (1 Cor. 6:18), in which the sin takes life, and the man becomes death without life. My disciples received life in them from My life after I gave My life for them so that I could take it back again and to give it to them as their life, for them to be My word then and not theirs, because I spoke about the one who would believe in Me, that out of his belly and out of his mouth would flow rivers of living waters, over the dead and over the living.

The sign of the faith is the speaking in the Holy Spirit. The man cannot be called a faithful man, a man with faith in Me, if after that he has no speaking of the Holy Spirit, the sign of the receiving of the faith and then of the baptism with faith, for the man has got used in vain to be baptized in water if he has not learned the spirit of repentance for the forgiveness of the sins, the spirit which is followed by the speaking in the Holy Spirit as a sign of the man's holiness.

I speak to you about the mystery of the saints, oh, sons of the people! The saints are born from God, not from a human seed, and then they are without any genealogy and they run from those who made them, and they run to Me, Whom they are born of. Oh, sons of the men, it is a sin to be proud of your sons and daughters, for the sin is born with the body and it calls "mother and father" that which gave its birth. It is sin to rejoice over the joy without the God of your sons. It is sin to rejoice over the sin. It is sin to enjoy sin. I give the righteous Job as an example to you, who was crying to Me for the forgiveness of the sins of his sons, who went together to parties and he was not pleased with them, but on the contrary he was crying to Me for their forgiveness, for they enjoyed parties in death and not in the joy that came from God, and when the man goes to parties without God, he puts away God's angels from near him. Come to the teaching with life in it, for My teaching separates life from death, it separates man from sin, it separates from his own self for the man to take Me out of his own self. The man is naturally hidden within himself, but he who gives himself to Me denies himself and takes Me in his own self through the man who loves Me in him and he works from Me upon the man for the man's coming after Me and not after himself between earth and heaven.

Oh, how much I suffer because the man did not want and does not want to understand My word of his calling to Me, for two thousand years ago I said: «Let him who wants to come after Me deny himself, take up his cross and follow Me», to grow out of himself, for otherwise the man cannot grow out of himself and cannot be helped by God's angels, for the man grudges, calumniates, gets proud and then he falls down through these, and the good angels cannot help him against the evil, which is in him. I said that the kingdom of the heavens is likened to ten virgins, and five of them were foolish and five were wise. The wise ones gather for themselves and the foolish ones do not gather for themselves, and they fall asleep concerning the watch they should have, and the watch is nothing but the love of God. No man can watch against the sin in him but only through the love of God and always through love in such a way that his life may mean God and not man.

Oh, sons of the people, receive of My Spirit and then be holy as much as I am holy, for the saints will judge the world and they have already judged it, because they have overcome it and they are not from the world as I am not from this world either. The kingdom of the heavens means angels, either in body or outside the body, and that is why I likened it to the virgins, but the man did not want to understand this Scriptures of Mine either, for the man does not deny himself in such a way that he may understand like Me afterwards. None of the saints said that God is slow in coming and that He does not fulfill His word about His coming in such a way that the one who sanctifies for Me may believe in Me perfectly. Holiness is the Lord's coming to the man and of the man's coming to Me, for the saints live in Me and I in them, and it is not they who live anymore. Only those who love ignorance and this sin, only they say that the Lord does no longer come as He said that He would come, and they are no longer afraid of what they say and are not afraid of God. The saints are with Me and I am with them by My hardship between earth and heaven after the man. Oh, the man does not want to get ready and to be true when He says that he waits for the resurrection from the dead and for the life of the age to come; however, I will come unexpectedly and the works of everyone will be seen, for of the two men that will be in the field, one will be taken and one will be left; of the two women grinding at the mill, one will be taken and one will be left, and it is in this way that the works of every one will be revealed and not otherwise.

Oh, if you, sons of the people, wanted to keep My angels near you always, then you would be like God and you would be like Me Who listen to the Father, for the one who does not listen to anyone, that one listens only to himself and does not come to Me. My angels cry because they are without any work for the man, for the man puts them away from near him with his lying, with his calumny, with his life pride, with the lust of the eye, with the love of silver, with debauchery, with eating and drinking, with deception and with everything that the man loves his own self with, for the man puts My angels away through the love of himself and not through something else, and it is from this, that everything that separates the man from the love of God, is born, which is the watch against the man's separation from God.

I want, man that have come to the spring of wisdom, I want to teach you how to love your life. If you want to love it, you have to give it so that you may be able to take it back, for I said: «He who finds his life will lose it; and he who loses his life for My sake will find it», (Matt. 10:39), for until the man does not die, he cannot come to life and I cannot live in him as long as he lives within himself. The man feeds his body and soul taking care of them both so that he may live in himself, but I tell you, sons of the people, that if you live in yourselves, you will die by your own deeds, because it is not possible for the one who does not deny himself to remain alive. I give you this teaching of life out of love, and I call you with mercy from death to life, from you to Me by self denial so that afterwards you may be able to do the will of the Father, Who is in heaven and not on earth, and I want to draw all people to the Father, as I promised when I ascended to the Father that this was how I would work after I would reach again in the glory, which I had from Him before the foundation of the world.

I have come as word on earth to call the man to life, and life mans holiness and love of God forever, for where life is, it is forever, and it is not like death, which is not eternal, because death will no longer be, soon, soon, and there will be only saints on earth, for the saints will judge the world, as it is written in the Scriptures and I said: «He who overcomes, and he who keeps My works to the end, to him I will give authority over the nations. He will rule them with an iron rod, shattering them like clay pots; as I also received of My Father». (Rev. 2:26, 27)

When Paul, My apostle, was establishing the word of the Holy Spirit of the teaching over the church, he said: «Don't you know that we will judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life?» (1 Cor. 6:3)

I want to raise them back into the glory, which the angels that became haughty fell from, and I want to do this by the love of man, and I want to do this by the resurrection of everyone, and then the angels will be raised from their fall from the beginning and we will rejoice over all the creation for everything will be done again, and they will become new, as it is written. I want to teach the man not to work the evil spirit in himself but rather to work My Spirit in himself, and from him over the man, and then the angels, fallen from My glory, will be judged and then they will be raised back to their places by the resurrection of the man from death.

I do not want man, that My death on the cross to be in vain, and by which I overcame your death. I do not want death to be any longer and I also do not want you to want it, for I want to take away the death from the earth, and when the death, the last enemy, will be overcome, then I, the Lord, will rest from My search after the man and I will give him My life to live it forever, as I am also forever. Amen.

All those, who came together at My calling in the garden of My meeting with the man, celebrate you, mother, and We take over the sweet song of those who came at My wedding with My bride from the Romanians and whom I glorify with My glory, for she glorifies Me in herself before the people, mother. It is your birthday celebration, mother. The barren has given birth to God's mother, and those above nature, worked out by God on earth among the people, do not enter the heart of man, for the man has got used to the glory on earth, to the glory from the man, a visible glory, and the man does no longer look for the invisible glory, mother. You were born of a barren woman because God gave birth to you, and the word for your birth and Mine was spoken from the man's creation when God spoke over the one that has been destroying the nature and said: «I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring. He will bruise your head, and you will bruise his heel». (Gen. 3:15)

The man does not want to enter with his heart into those above his nature, mother, for the man is too small, while he has become greater than God not receiving Him upon him, mother.

— Oh, dear and beloved Son of the Father and mine, Your tear after the man will soon come to an end, for the Spirit and the bride say to You: “Come!”, and let the one who hears Your voice from Your garden in which You are coming down as word, now, in the end of the time, also say: “Come!”, for You say and call all those who are thirsty to come, and the one who wants to receive the water of life as a gift, let him take it, dear Son. This water is given as a gift, for You give it, and You are the most loved One in those who taste You, and that is why You are beautiful over the face of those who love You as You teach them.

I give thanks for the gift of the hearts of those who humbly sing to Me a song for the celebration of My birth and I give them Your life as a gift, Son of the life, which is to be forever on earth and over the man. I give them the gift of the holy faith so that they may want You and to be holy for Your glory and theirs. We give them Your word, which calls the man from death to life and we give them the gift of the love of God, which carries in it the fear of God, the beginning of the man’s wisdom, and then they will know that You have loved them, because You have sanctified Yourself so that they also may be sanctified in truth, and to see Your glory, which You have from the Father, and to see that the Father loved You before the foundation of the world, dear Son, and they will know that You created the world. Amen.

Receive from the peace of my beloved son, Whom the Father gave me in order to give Him to you. Receive life of His life. I give you this gift for the gift of your heart, for the celebration of my birth among the people and of my loved Son, Who the Father is well pleased with. I, as a mother of the Son of the Father, hold you and embrace you at my bosom and I nurse you with my Son, Who is the Word from the first creation of the world and the One from the renewal of the creation, in the end of the time. Be holy for His coming, for you will see Him as He comes and as He is, as only those like Him see Him. Be holy so that you may not be judged and to judge the world, which the saints will judge it as it is written into the Scriptures.

Peace to you! I tell you the same as my Son tells you. I give you His peace, as He gives it to you and not as the world gives it to you. Bring yourselves as a love sacrifice to Him, for He is Bridegroom and He wants a bride. Become the bride of the coming of my Son and then rejoice for your reward in heaven is great, and wait to take it when you remain in a spirit of the bride of my Son. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, the cherubim and the seraphim stays in myriads of myriads and all the angels of the glory stay in all the garden of the feast, mother. I would make all those who came together feel their glory and see their work, but let all those who want to see, be holy for the glory of those that are not seen, mother, and then they will see it, for those that are seen are fleeting and those that are not seen are and will remain on the earth in a visible way, as they are. Amen.

I glorify Myself with you before the Father, children of My word, for I have dwelt in you and with you before those who have come to the spring of the wisdom of God’s word. I give you threefold the grace for the laying down on the hearth of the little village of My word of the Saint Nicholas’ well, the protector of the poor and of the wretched ones. I had mercy on those without water and I saw their body under a burden bringing water from the valley on to the hill with the little wooden pail. I put the mercy in you and I told you to put a well on this way, sons, and a cross of rest for the souls and for the bodies who are tired of travelling, and a little bench to sit on it, all beautifully set, as in an enclosed sheep fold and beautiful to look at. And I will help you for your weariness to be able to work thousandfold and to be merciful on the man aggrieved by his burdens, sons, to make him obliged with his love of God, with the longing and with the gift of the holy faith, which makes the man holy in his spirit, soul and body.

The well of the Saint Nicholas, a bishop, according to his rank, and a powerful mercy giver of those who are poor, who love Me knowing Me through preaching, this gift is what I bless through you, those who are My anointed during this time, and we give it to the villagers, sons.

Now, peace to you and peace to them, to those who have got together with longing to honor My mother, the Virgin, and God, the Word, her Son! I am the One Who is, and I became word on earth and I come as a whisper of wind in a second day of the celebration to teach those who came together near the spring, for I am the Teacher. The kingdom of the heavens is taught and then is taken and lived and then is multiplied from man to man, and it is without beginning and without end in heaven and on earth, and I want the man to know it and to wake it up in himself, for the man was made by God to be holy on earth.

Oh, dear sons, who carry Me with the word to the people, you should tell the man that he was created by God on earth for heaven and not for earth. Behold, I tell you a mystery: the heaven was made for the earth and the earth for the heaven, and the man was placed between earth and heaven from his creation. Give yourselves with My word to the people and tell them that I am your image, your spirit, and let them take Me from you and let the people have Me as their kingdom. Amen.

Peace to you! You have become very tired since you set a feast between Me and man. I always seal you with power and I put My seal on your forehead: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, for it is this name that I put on your foreheads, so that nobody may stand against you, but only I to be able to work upon you and from you, for it is written about those who overcome and keep My works to the end: «I will give authority over nations and they will shepherd them with a rod of iron, shattering them like clay pots, and then I will give them life again», and I will give them life of My life. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity, the third day

In the third day of My meeting with the man, I, the Lord, the mysterious Shepherd, clothed in word and coming in the wind, seal with the seal of the eternity the celebration for the honor of My mother, and with a sweet word, I release for the way those who have come, and coming they have drunk of the water of the glory of My word, which comes with the clouds and with the wind. On the wings of wind I send My word to its manger, and this is how I come; and when I come, I dine with those who have the power to believe that I am He Who is and I am the word on the earth. Amen.

Few of the many, as many as they are on the earth, leave their sins and worries to come and to make a halt at the feast of My wedding from the end of the time. Any love story has a wedding afterwards, but few come at the wedding of the Son of the King, the King being the Father Sabaoth. He calls every one of them, but they do not come. Two thousand years ago I said: «The kingdom of the heavens is like a certain king, who made a marriage feast for his son, and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the marriage feast, but they would not come. Again he sent out other servants, saying: "Tell those who are invited: Come to the marriage feast!" But they made light of it, being caught within the worries of their lives, were not worthy to come and the king called those at the intersections of the highways, both bad and good, and the wedding was filled with guests». (See, Matt. 22:1-10)

Oh, children tired with the glory of the days of My wedding with you! No matter how guilty the man was, the love and the humility can dress him within the wedding garment when he answers to the calling he is given. But those who have been called again and again and who have had no time for Me, they will be tied by their hands and feet into the darkness outside and they cannot see in the dark the glory of the One Who invites them to the wedding, and behold, many are called but few chosen, because the man is no longer afraid to spend time in the death and does no longer seek to get up from it, because he does not see it and because it stays mysteriously within the man, for otherwise the man would not stay in it and with it. However, through you, who are My adorned bride, I show to the man the face of death, which wraps him up, and I show him that I will take away the death from the earth and the man will remain with that which he has earned for himself, and then he will see that his life was a lifeless death, for the man comes to an agreement with the sin in himself, and the reward of the sin is death. My teaching separates life from death, and it separates the man from the sin, but he who does not want to give up sin, that one does not see death and does not come when I call him to life and when I call him to the wedding so that he may dine and see afterwards the glory of those who are not seen and who wait after the man for it. My voice calls the man from death to life, from him to Me, but only he is able to save himself, for without his will the man is not good for God and for his life with God. The man is so brainless; he is so much from the earth, and I have had it with the man as two thousand years ago, when after the crowds followed Me, hearing My voice, so many of them backslid into their things afterwards, for the man's works stick to him as long as the man does not know how to come to Me by his self-denial. The one who is mindless cannot deny oneself and that is why he does not come after Me to be able to give him life, and to give it abundantly. And here is what I say: all those who are called, all those who are invited to My wedding, and who do not want to come, they are without mind and do not know to deny themselves in order to follow Me, and to come for life. However, two thousand years ago, I said: «The time is coming when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God and will rise», even those who are in the graves shall hear, and shall rise at His command and will wear after them their acts.

Oh, My people bride, I put order into your midst for the help of those who went down into their graves without a wedding garment. I have been teaching you to work out repentance for the man until you come with it at the beginning of the man, to be able to give My hand to those in the tombs for them to get up at your intercession, brought for them before Me. Work hard son, and you should also work hard for the entire nature, for if the man comes to life, and the body will put on him the garment of incorruptibility, the garment remained in those that are not seen and which wait for the sons of God to appear, those who are in the flesh will receive the glory of the wedding of the Son of the King, Who comes with the clouds so that He may give each one according to his own deed.

Now let us release those who have come to a halt in the garden of the meeting and let us give them to take with them the humility of the love of God, for the one who does not love God humbly, that one cannot perceive the power of love and does not remain within it. However, I tell them: remain in My love. My love is full of humility. The spirit of humility keeps the man within love, and it keeps him not to fall from love.

Oh, sons of My word, oh, you who are weary from My longing after the man, tell those who have sat at the table of My word, tell them on My behalf: if you love Me, keep My commandments, keep the law of life. It is the holiness full of humility, and this becomes love and it becomes My manger in man. Oh, if you, man, do not have holiness in you, you will be blamed for your works. Therefore, bring forth fruit worthy of repentance and seek to do that which saves you from sin until the sin dies, and you shall live. Do not forget that the love, full of humility and full of faith and remorse for the dead works, is the life, which I like to see in the man, for what does man gain if he won even the whole world, and in the end he would lose his soul in it? Holiness means the mind full of the Spirit of God forever and it means the law of life and the man's freedom from his own self. Let the one who does not know to deny oneself, let him learn and take from a teacher, and let him not learn his self-denial otherwise, for if the man teaches himself from his own self he will not deny himself in order to be able to come from him to Me. The man is death, and God is life. Let the man clothe himself with God and let him be humble like God and not like man, for God is holy, and holiness is born out of humility and they give birth to one another in the man who clothes himself within God. Amen.

We release for the way those who have come to My calling, and as for you, weary sons, do this hard work with love, for the Father so much loved the world that He gave Me, His Unique

Son to die on the cross, so that everyone who believes in Me may no longer die after My resurrection but to have eternal life instead, to take life of My life and to have it, to take it and to give it and then to take it back, as I also laid down My life and then I took it back. Amen, amen, amen.

The synod of the saints archangels Michael and Gabriel

I comfort My godly sufferance with a great longing after that My word has been silent for forty days to accustom you to the longing and to the prayer full of the joy of the pain, Jerusalem, people of the birth of My word into your midst.

Peace to you! In the name of My Father and yours I tell you with a word full of the Holy Spirit: peace to you and comfort your sufferance, for nothing can make the man more beautiful than the sufferance after God. I have kept the word within Me with great sufferance since the day I spoke to you last time and when I taught you to love the joy and the pain for Me, for the joy of the pain is the beauty on the face of those who love Me, for the pain of the joy is so beautiful on the face of those who are united by it. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, stand up for the power of the Holy Spirit, children who are My entrance gates in Jerusalem, sons aggrieved like God and not like man. My pain in you teaches you the patience of the saints who remain within Me in all their sufferance, children aggrieved like God and not like man. I have exhorted the people to stay within a spirit of prayer and glory for the heaven and to grow in love and in longing so that I may come back with longing and take the thread of the word of life over its life. Come into My way towards it and hear the spirit of the angelic celebration by which I come down full of word on the holy land and with a great name, set over him by Me, the Lord.

I want you to have the patience of the saints, as there is no saint in My heaven for you to be able to compare with him, because My saints try to compare with you, for they did not bear what you bear. You bear My coming after seven thousand years on earth after the man, for two thousand years ago, the Jewish people hid My divinity of the Son of the Father, Who came from the Father into the Virgin. Oh, you should not compare yourselves with the saints to do like them, like some of them. They try to compare with you, joining for help over you, according to My powers with which I rested upon them that they may be able to work out the faith on earth in Me over the man in the time of each one of them. However, you should compare with Me and with the word that I ask from you, for this is how you can be the saints that have been waited for seven ages by the whole nation of the people and of the saints up to you. However, you, sons born of the love of My word upon you, when you read the saints, do not forget the word of the Saint of the saints, the Saint of the Father, My word in your time, My coming as a river of word over the earth, the teaching of your life, so that you may open yourselves with it on the sides after you accomplish it suffering after Me for your life, for you have My word in your days, and you live today. Amen.

I am surrounded from all sides by hosts of countless angels for their celebration ordained by saints, for the saints are those who judge all those that have to be judged on earth and in heaven, in heaven and on earth. The holy hosts of angels are countless in My courtyards with you; even if the hosts of guilty angels have all come to the feast of My good angels, for I work with you both in joys and in pains, in celebrations and at work, and the holy angels bow to My dwelling into your midst and they serve their ministry for their celebration full of mystery and of the power of the glory of the fulfillment of My Scripture of New Jerusalem between heaven and earth, for My entire heavenly work is on earth, which I work with the saints and with the angels, and I work it with you, children grown with milk from heaven, with life from heaven, for My entire word for you is full of eternal life, and even the man who fell from love receives from it.

Oh, My people, multitudes and again multitudes of people did not believe and do not believe in the world of the angles and that is why they did not have and do not have love, and that is why they committed and commit sins, but the angels are servants of fire and the man cannot see them without burning, and if the man does not see them, he is burnt with his fire, and the fire and the work of the angels do not burn him, and that is why the man has no love. Love heals the man from sin, for it remains on the side of the soul and not on the side of the body. It has to give nothing else but God to the body, because it means God. The soul is the love of God and the body is from the parents, and both of them live in enmity with one another when the man loves God. I love calling the sons of My word children sons, for whoever listens to My word and turns it into the work upon him, that one has God as his father and whoever has a father that one is a child. Amen.

I give to the angels the work of word upon you, My people Jerusalem, for your name from Me is beautiful and the angels love it and know it very well, because in the world of the angels and of the saints is the most wanted name, and the invisible heaven longs for its mystery, Jerusalem full of longing after My word, after your comfort, child son. The Holy Spirit, the Comforter, becomes word through the angels, for I, the Lord, crown their celebration, giving them speech of My speech, because those that are not seen are eternal, and you should not look at those that are seen and which are fleeting before those that are not seen, and which are confessed by those who have seen and see beyond those that are seen, and which are covered by those that are seen.

I give you speech of My speech, for You are My working and speaking servants upon the man, oh, angels and chiefs of angels among angels! It is a celebration of the synod of angels, and I comfort My people with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, through the angels. Amen, amen, amen.

— You, Who make Your angels spirits and Your servants flames of fire, bless our work, the work of Your angels, Lord of the saints and of the angels.

— Peace to you into the New Jerusalem, for this name is sweet and pleased to you. Go into My name with My mysterious coming from the end of the time. Go and preach the mystery of My word and its power, for My servants are flames of fire in heaven and on earth and they fulfill My word. Amen.

— We go Lord, like the servants full of love, for we, Your holy angels, are Your love and we are wounded as You are, because of those among us who have not loved and who have not listened to God but the man, and who cannot be conformed in the humility as that of Your Spirit, full of love and compassion for every man who has fallen from the honor, which you built the man from the beginning.

Like those who are praying for the people that You love, who have submitted as we have done in order to be Your servants, make of those who carry You from heaven to earth and then to man, make them flames of fire, and by Your word full of longing after the man make them put to fire the entire lawlessness on earth, so that You may no longer cry because of the man, for the man, poor of him, does not know that his dissatisfaction does not have any room to You and does not have any justification before Your face, because You are gentle and humble in Your heart, but the man does not want to be like You and he does not want not to stay dissatisfied before You like one who is worthy to be justified. However, we, Your holy angels, by the chiefs that are upon us, tell the people that the man who is without Your word upon him is a man without God, as we also could not be Yours without chiefs upon us, without angelic love in us through submission, Lord.

Oh, what a great mystery is the obedient faith! Oh, sons of the people, the spirit of the holy angels teach you to be content with the Lord of the angels and of the saints in heaven and on earth. You should live with satisfaction from dawn to dawn for the man's dissatisfaction does not reach to God because it blames and it does not heal. Oh, blessed is the man who does not stumble against God because of the man who goes wrong or for his own self, because a man like that, by the works of his obedient faith, will come to the time of his salvation, for it is not good for the man to flee from God because of his evil deeds, but rather it is better to go with them before God, for humility and for self-abasement, and through these, for his salvation. The obedient faith turns the man into an angel, for he who knows God, that one listens to Him, and no one on earth is able to believe in Him without knowing Him. Amen.

You, Who made the heaven and the earth out of Your love for the man, the things which are seen and not seen, give the people the love for the holy angels, for Your holy angels have obedient love, and with it they love You and they carry You serving You as their God and Master. Amen. The feast of the angels is welcomed with a sacrifice of love in the midst of the New Jerusalem, which You made to stay on earth before You. We speak only in a sweet manner to Your people, for it has to be Your rest, and You with us, its rest. Amen.

The people have got together to bring faith and love to the angels, but we breathe spirit of Your Spirit full of longing and power over those that are gentle of Yours, who give being to the heavenly word on earth. We give them the comfort of the longing of God, the greatest gift of the burning love, which does the works of the obedient faith. We give them the mystery news of the faith, which obeys and which will not be taken from the man. Amen.

And to those who are asleep (Who died with the body, r.n.), who have waited for their memorial near our feast, we give them the joy of Your word upon earth and we give them the love of those who do the work of their memorial together with the feast of the angels, Lord, and like those who are alive, and like those who are asleep, we also wait for the resurrection of everything, to rest again, after You will have drawn the man to the Father by the obedient faith of the man and by our ministering for Your coming in spirit and truth, as You promised, Lord, by Your word in the Scriptures. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, dear ones obedient among the angels! Those in the tombs hear My voice and prepare for their edification and confession of the life of the age to be, and those who are in the flesh did not believe and do not believe in the world of the angels, and many do not believe, and that is why they do not have love. Rejoice sharing with My people of today over its joys and pains on the way of the new kingdom. The sky of the holy citadel of the New Jerusalem is full, and it is full with your nature without a body. Receive of My glory from the midst of the New Jerusalem, gathered together at the angelic feast. Amen.

And as for you, small Jerusalem, you should know that with a great, great longing, I want to comfort My godly sufferance as a result of My silence into your midst in order that you may get used to watching, to the pain after Me and that I may make My way to you with longing, and that I may give you a beautiful face, and to put the blue of the Holy Spirit in your looks, in your voice and in your work for My coming. You should know, My people, that I make My longing after your life into a living wound, and I will watch and I will strengthen My watchmen and I will take them out from the worries of your shortcomings, for I will take care of your life as a Shepherd, and you are to live My life that I give you and to share it, for the man does not have where to receive teaching from, because there is only emptiness on earth, only death and only haughtiness.

May be blessed the sacrifice of your prayer for those who are asleep and who wait for the resurrection of their bodies! They are filled with amazement when they see My work into your midst, and those in the graves hear My voice as it is written into the Scriptures about this time. Amen.

The chief angels, Michael and Gabriel, are the glory of the angelic hosts, and the spirit of the feast of today comforts Me among the angels and among you, children of the New Jerusalem. I bless your food threefold and we stay near you with a table of feast and we comfort your joys and pains and we give you the Holy Spirit to be your filling, and you are to give glory to the heaven, which stays with you in many groups comforting your little hearts and bodies tired of all the worries of My celebration with you. I have been longing so much to come down with My word upon you, and My comfort was also great when I saw you filled with a spirit of prayer and of glorifying My name with the word of glory for the heaven. The earthly man cannot understand My love for My work with you, because the word between Me and you has been a great mystery, and then My calling after the man. On earth I have been hurt because of every man, for the emptiness of the man's mind has put Me completely away from his thought that I will come and I will reward everyone according to his life and work. The man saw that the year of 2000 passed and I did not come, but I tell him that he does not know when he says so. Soon, soon, every man will receive, willing or not, this wisdom by which I stay into your midst as word, and he will understand that My coming is with you, and the heaven and the earth are seized by the mystery of My word upon you and all the saints and angels and all the heavenly powers are amazed because of this mystery and because of this earth chosen for My coming by the mystery of the creation of the world, kept within a mystery to glorify Myself upon you, those who are now My disciples, the same way as those of two thousand years ago were My disciples by their obedient and miracle working faith.

Oh, if I did not conceal the work of the mysteries, which I put today into your midst by My word, I could not get in on the earth with you for the confession, which will speak and testify My way from heaven to earth in these days for the fulfillment of the Scriptures of My coming and its mysterious glory among you. However, I, as a great God that I am, keep you wrapped up within this mystery to be able to speak with the man, and for the man to be able to stand before you and to take Me as his word as much as I allow him to see My glory with you.

Oh, children from the gates, comfort your pain from your little hearts and give power to the heaven in you, for the mystery of the heaven is hard to perceive from the earth, and I, the Lord, take care of My power in you and of your little power, which keeps Me on earth near the man, for I said through My Scriptures of two thousand years ago: «I will dwell among the people and I will dwell with them, and I, Myself, will be with them and will wipe out their tear». Amen.

Comfort the people of My word with My Spirit in you. Comfort the heaven with My wisdom in you and stay like Me, as the word from the midst, and become comforters, for the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, has a dwelling place in you and He gives you power, children who have put Me as word on earth.

My voice is painful now, and I comfort with this longing My godly sufferance after I have not used My word for a while in order to get My people used to call Me, to seek with longing after My word and to grow within the obedient love and faith, and you should add to it the wisdom of the spirit of the heaven for His permanent growth, for he who is a child always grows and still remains a child so that he may always be able to grow. Amen. Oh, only he who remains a child grows. The one who is big cannot grow but he grows less instead and he grows less unknowingly, and he does not know what it means this that I tell him. I look at the man who sees himself big in him and see the way he looks at you and how he cannot comprehend your wisdom, for only those who are little are able to grow by this wisdom of Mine in you, and those who are big cannot grow because of their greatness.

Oh, there is no man more beautiful than the man in whom I dwell according to My pleasure, according to My hidden wisdom in those who stay with humility under My love for the man after two thousand years of waiting for the man. My work with you, children from the gates, is sweet in Me, for those who have Me the way I am are sweet. Those who do not let Me outside of them are sweet and your work with Me is also sweet. Strengthen yourselves for an ongoing growth of the people, for I have given you instruction wisdom to have upon them. Take care, as I have always taught you, and take care of My peace in you, and give Me your worries, and take care of My worries, children full of the faith, which is required for the time of My coming full of mystery on earth. Be seized within the spirit of glory for the Father, for the Son and for the Holy Spirit, and give a heavenly beauty to the feast of today, for it is an angelic feast and the entire heaven into your midst receives the joy of My mystery among you. Hosts of heavenly saints and angels have filled the earth and the sky from you, and you are My comfort and theirs and of those who have stayed to receive the memorial of those who are asleep, and near whom the whole world from the dead saw the true light and the heavenly spirit among you and which believes those that are not seen while seeing them.

Oh, children from the gates, oh, children who have put Me as the word on the table of the holy people, you suffer from those that are seen and which stay like a curtain over those that are not seen by the man on the earth. However, We teach the man to look at those that are not seen, for those that are seen are fleeting, and they are human, sons. And you should not be afraid of the bad weather, for the bad weather cannot take in the one who stays near Me; it cannot take him in because of Me when I can dwell as a master in man. Stay embraced with the heaven as it is also with you in a spirit of an angelic feast. The chiefs of the angels, Michael and Gabriel, pour out My light upon you, which takes them in it, for My angels are flames of fire and so is their spirit. I want to make you flames of fire into the midst of the earth, children of the New Jerusalem, and to renew the world through you and to fulfill with you the Scripture of the new birth of the world, for it is for this that I have given you birth from Me now, in the end of the time. I gave you birth to work in a heavenly manner and not in an earthly manner on the earth, and this is how you are supposed to work with your obeying faith. Amen.

Peace and a spirit of angelic feast into My courtyards with you! I pour Myself out on the sides with the spirit of the feast so that the whole nature may receive of My Spirit with you. Let yourselves be embraced because I embrace you. Embrace Me as I embrace you. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Church Entrance of the Lord's Mother

With godly power from the Father and from Me I declare and say: give Me power to enter as word in the book of My days with you, children from the gates! Let yourselves be embraced of My power for you are emptied of power, but I, the mighty God, the Son of the heavenly Father, keep you within Me to be able to work for Me and for every soul, which lives from heaven and not from earth, for whoever eats from heaven lives and he who eats from earth dies, sons.

In the name of the Father I become the word of feast of My child Mother, for she gave herself to the Father, to the Son and to the Holy Spirit and she remained a child, for whoever is born of God remains a dear child of God and grows in obedience, in humility, by heavenly faith and not by an earthly one. Oh, keep on obeying, little sons. Stay as the gates of My entrance, for I come in to exhort My people to a heavenly life, to a heavenly faith and not to an earthly one, to the wisdom of humility and of a clean heart and full of the Holy Spirit, of the Spirit of God, for whoever is born from the earth is not used to the Spirit of God, and who is born from heaven, that one is the heaven of the Holy Spirit and suffers like Me between earth and heaven, and the sufferance, which loves Me in man, that is a crown for the saints, because there is no holier man than the one who loves God as much as God wants. Amen.

Oh, here is how I have taken you into My arms and I set you on the rock of confession so that I may testify from the rock and from you the word of the feast of My child mother. Confession is the gift of the saints in heaven and on earth, and it is the foundation stone of the heavenly faith, for the saints are from heaven and they become the foundation of the heavenly faith for those who believe by confession and for confession. The saints do a heavenly work on earth, for those who are born of heaven do no longer work as on earth, and they are like the angels from heaven on earth instead. Amen.

Oh, obedient children and submitted to My power that keeps you within it so that I may come with the mysteries of the heavens on earth! I told the Sadducees, who did not believe in the resurrection, because they asked Me about the resurrection, but they asked Me with temptation, and then I told them: «The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage», and I let this word be covered within a mystery. But now, after two thousand years, when I again I speak abundantly with power and word over the earth, for I can do this because I am God, and I speak and say that it is by this word that was declared then that I have showed who are the sons of this age. But those who overcome death in them and escape from this age, they are those who are worthy to receive the age of the resurrection from among the dead, and they do not marry and are not given in marriage, because they cannot die, since they are like angels and are the sons of God, the sons of the resurrection and are not the sons of this age. Behold a mystery that is unsealed by the One Who spoke this word two thousand years ago. I Myself spoke it against those who were tempting Me concerning the resurrection of the dead and then I showed who were the sons of the men and who were the sons of God and I said that the sons of this age are those who marry and are given in marriage and the sons of the Lord's age do not marry and are not given in marriage, because they cannot, since they become like angels in order to be the sons of the resurrection, coming to life from the dead of this age so that they may no longer die and that they may be of the Lord's, and God is not a God of the dead but of the living, for all live in Him. Amen.

Oh, sons of the people, I am not the God of the sons of this age, for God is not a God of the dead but of the living who live in Him not into this age. I told those born of Me two thousand years ago that I would be with them to the end of the age, because those who are worthy to overcome the world, then they live like Me, not in this age. Oh, sons of the people, oh, sons of this age! If the man loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him, and the world passes and its lust passes away as well, but he who does God's will remains forever for he is from the Father. Amen.

I have come now as word on earth to speak with every man from it and to tell the sons of this age that hypocrisy is the dough of the Pharisees and that nothing is covered that it will not be revealed, and nothing is hidden that it will not be known from the rooftops.

Oh, obedient sons, who receive My voice from My mouth and give it to the sons of this age! I have revealed this mystery so that the work of hypocrisy may be seen; the one who teaches the man that marriage and giving in marriage are from God. From God is the resurrection and not death, not this age and not its sons, and I have been preparing Myself to break down the wisdom of this age in which all of its sons live and to tell them of My child mother, and to tell them that whoever is born of God on earth, that one remains a child and grows in obedience, in humility and in a heavenly faith and not in an earthly one between earth and heaven. Amen.

And as for you, child, My mother and the child of My Father and yours, teach from Me the sons of this age to hear what the kingdom of this age is and what the God's kingdom on earth is. Amen, amen, amen.

— It is a day of the growth of the heavenly faith over Your people of New Jerusalem, Son of the Father and my child. The man built by Your hand out of dust in the beginning was not a child and that is why he did not know to obey, for this is how the child is, and You said to the people that if they would not be like infants, they will not enter the age of the resurrection where all are like angels, Son Lord. You are the One Who made the first built man and You did not make him a child but a mature man. And if he saw that he was a mature man and not a child he set himself greater than You and did not listen to You, because he did not see You.

Oh, it is hard for the one who does not believe You, mysterious God, for that one does evil things if he does not see how true You are. I become a feast of wisdom upon man, because I, being a three-year old child, submitted to be a child by submission, and the Father loved me without limits and He gave to me His beloved Son and I put Him on the earth after I gave Him birth through my obedience to the Father, Who sent an angel with the good news on earth to tell me that the Lord, the Creator, was conceived in my belly, the One born of the Father before eternity. The wisdom carries submission within it, which becomes sweet in the one who is wise. This is how I worked when the Father asked me through an angel to be the dwelling of His Son, and this is how the soul works, which gives itself to my Son as His home, for He dwells in the house like a Son, as it is written. Amen.

Oh, people of my Son, there is no wisdom more beautiful than humility, which does not leave the man to die and fall from God. This is the teaching which you have to set over the sons of this age when you are into their midst after you have lived this way before God, so that the wisdom of the sons of this age may be seen. You shall not neglect such a great salvation, for I had not lived a moment otherwise on earth, and I was the Lord's birth giver. Oh, if I had not had a heavenly faith and humility, how could I have listened to submit myself to the Lord's coming? But the people of this age who are not humble have not seen this miracle, but only those that had and have the heavenly faith and its sufferance, who have been suffering with hope, and for a long time for the hope of His coming, have seen it and carried it over the time. Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem of the coming of my Son, learn the mystery of the joy of His coming to you, for the people of the first Israel, the one after the flesh, saw with his eyes the miracles and signs done through Moses and works beyond nature, as it has never been heard, but his self-aggrandizement made him blind and got him lost from God even if he had seen God as his guide to the country of promise. The lack of humility in the spirit lifts the man above God, for this is how the one without God over his steps is, over his spirit, and that one takes from himself and does not take from God. When the man receives from God, then his life is the Lord's life and he has got enough in order to share life, for after I gave my life and my body for my Son, Jesus Christ, Who was my life, I was then with a spirit of life giving among the people, and in the one in whom the humility of My son and mine was getting in, that one became life on earth and a life giver. Blessed is the one who has life, for that one is rich and has enough what to give and no one dies near him from among those who love the life for the humility in them. I did not spend time on earth with no one but only with those who loved God and who had the patience of life, the love full of humility, and nowhere else has my Son been warmer than in the humble heart, for my Son is beautiful and dwells in humility and in its wisdom. Amen.

The spirit of the heavenly feasts is the spirit of humility, who becomes love for the heaven in the holy man, for whoever is born from above, that one suffers between earth and heaven, and the sufferance, which loves the Lord in man, is a treasure of holiness, because there is no holier man than the one who loves God as much as God wants. Amen.

Oh, how well it is for the man to give himself to God from his childhood, for the kingdom of God belongs to the infants, as my Son spoke about this mystery and He said that whoever were not a child would not enter into it.

Oh, sons of my Son, who know what it means the kingdom of the heavens, this kingdom is found right only by its sons, and the sons of this age are without mind for it, for only the little ones have life in it and then I stayed under the spirit of prophecy, that was nourishing me from Zacharias, the prophet of the Lord, to whom it was revealed the mystery of my life that I might be the dwelling for the Son of life, for the Son of God.

You, children who bring on earth my Son, the Word, Who nourishes you with the spirit of prophecy, with His Spirit, give this life to those who love the life and comfort yourselves with those who have the spirit of humility, which becomes the heavenly love for God in man and the life of the man. The sons of this age cannot taste of the spirit of humility, for they have the spirit of the world, which is the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes and the pride of life, but those who love the kingdom of the heavens on earth are sons of resurrection like the angels on earth. Amen.

The spirit of prophecy longs after the one who is a child, for everything is possible with God for those who believe in a heavenly manner in the mystery of life and not in an earthly manner. You should long after the spirit of prophecy, which gives birth to sons from God, for the mystery of life worked and works on earth from the Lord, and as for the one who remains in the spirit of prophecy, that one is obedient and obedience means a child life. Amen.

Receive the word of my Son, which is given to you and grow less through it, and do not forget to be well pleased to the heaven by the spirit of humility, and do not forget to stay with your little heart full of longing before the Lord, for the longing after God makes the man to be the bride for God, and the mystery of the bride is the Bridegroom waiting in the spirit of the holy patience, by which the man does not fall from life. Amen.

It is a celebration of the heavenly faith growth upon you, children of the New Jerusalem, and I, like a child mother, celebrate among you the day of My entrance into the Holy of Holies after I turned three years from my mother who brought me on earth in the flesh, and then the Lord received me, because I was a child, and whoever is a child receives the Lord. Become an eternal feast of heavenly children before the Lord and love one another as my Son loves the children, and you should not love otherwise than He does. The spirit of a child stays on the face of the one who loves God as much as God wants, and one can never be a child of the Lord if he loves the Lord as much as he wants and not as much as God wants, for God is love and He means nothing else but love. Amen.

My celebration of today teaches you to be children as much as God wants, for the one who does not do so, that one falls into the chaos of this age and is united with its world. Be children and this is how you are to grow and you should stay longingly after the heaven, for when my Son confessed Himself on earth before laying His life down for the man, He said: «I have come to throw fire on the earth, and I wish it were already kindled». (Luke 12:49) Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, mother of My love for the man humbled in his spirit, I have come to put longing in man and then to kindle it, for I have come to make the man My bride, child mother, and the mystery of the bride is the longing after her Bridegroom and the spirit of patience by which the man does not fall from life, mother. I have come to throw the longing on the earth and to kindle it in man, for the man to be able to say: «Come, Lord!» And I am the Bridegroom Who comes, and let the one who hears My voice say: «Come, Lord!» as the spirit and the bride say: «Come!»

I have come as a feast of word upon you, My people bride. The bride has got longing, and she has got fire and is the fire, which waits for her bride. For the one who does not understand the Scripture that I spoke about: «I have come to throw fire on the earth and I wish it were already kindled», for that one this mystery is revealed, and it is sin for the man not to love God and to love the world after he has heard the word that says: «Do not love the world or those that are from the world, for if someone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him, because everything that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes and the pride of life are nowhere else but from the world», (See also 1 John 2:16), and it is a sin for the man not to love God and to love only the world and those in it.

Oh, remain in a spirit of the heavenly feast, children of Jerusalem, and kindle in you the longing after Me, for Me to come sons, for I have come to put longing in you, and the longing grows only when it is kindled, as nothing is consumed without catching fire. Do not forget to be children, for I said that the kingdom of the heavens belongs to the children. Remain in the spirit of the prophecy, to be able to say from it: “Come, Lord!” Only the Spirit and the bride say: “Come!” but the flesh does not speak this way to God.

The pride of life has completely blinded the sons of this age, as it also blinded Israel in the time of Moses, although Israelites saw with their own eyes that God was their guide to the country of their promise, and they also saw so many signs worked before them for their life after that. However, they loved the pride of life, because they thought of themselves as though they were the greatest on earth, like Adam, who by not seeing Me, stepped over Me and became his own master, and then the man got out of God. However, I have come after him with the same calling, for the word of My coming today has always asked him; it has always sought after the man who has not seen Me and it has asked him: «Man, where are you?» And he was not able to answer Me anything else but only that he heard My voice from Paradise and that he hid because of his nakedness. Oh, those who hear this word of My coming after the man and do not take it on as their garment, they stay hidden because their nakedness and they say that I am not and it only they that are. However, I will wipe out the pride of life from the earth and from the man and I will tell the man again by this word that I am He Who is, and that you, children of the New Jerusalem, are My house, My tabernacle among the people and that the spirit of prophecy is into your midst, by which I Myself preach up and down over the earth and over the man that the man is not, but it is only I Who am. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Saint Hierarch Nicholas

Oh, My people, I feed you in a day of feast as well as I can in spite of all this hardship through which I am still able to come. I feed you, son, because you also feed Me with your longing after My kingdom in you, only for you to hold it dear to it with My great pain in you, for without My pain you cannot love God. The body dies because of its severe wound, and love comes to life by its deep wound, My people.

I, the Lord, being all over a wound full of longing, want to stay in all the sons of the New Jerusalem in order that you to be able to have Me, sons, but for such a kingdom in you, you do not have to be content with what you see and to love in this way, for those which are seen pass, like the man without God in the works of his life, in his heart and in his mind, but I, the One, Who dwell invisibly near the man, am eternal. However, the man does not love his eternity as well as his temporariness if the eternity is not seen with the eyes of the body, if he does not feel it with the power of the love of the Holy Spirit, Who becomes love of eternal life in man.

I feed you, My people and I dwell in a feast with you in a synod of bishops from heaven because of Nicholas who is among them, the one who is merciful by miracle doing, a bishop with great anointing of the Holy Spirit, Who can work wherever He wants. Amen.

Oh, sons and children from the gates, leave My power in you and submit yourselves, for the submission, which I require of you is for My coming and it is not any kind of submission and it will help the heaven, the earth and the hell, and I tell you this so that you may have power in your body, in your soul and in your spirit to be able to obey, for it hurts Me when I see the man and even the Christian, as he does not understand at all that the kingdom of the heavens does not come in a visible way for the man without any sight for it, but it comes for those who have it in them, because it is a mystery and it is hidden inside the man. Oh, your body hurts you and your bosom hurts you as well because of its heaviness; it hurts you because there is no joy or kingdom with joy as on earth when I dwell with it inside the man. It is power, sons, and it is God in man, and that is why it is called the kingdom of the heavens, and now, in the end, it is My great pain, My pain in man, and the man is nourished by it as well as you feed on it now, children who receive My voice to put it into its book of today on earth, and you eat of it, the same as those full of pain for Me did in the time of My body full of sufferance for the man who felt that the kingdom of the heavens was with them and they did not know it to take it in them, to take Me in them, Son came from the Father, for I came to be one body with the man who believed that I was God and that I became the Son of Man for the man to have Me and to take Me in him. Oh, how much did they stumble, when they heard Me saying that whoever did not eat My Body and My Blood had no life in him? Oh, how much does it hurt Me when I look at the one who eats My Body and Blood and has no life in him then, that is, Jesus Christ as his life, Me, with My life in him, for I join to the one who believes in Me to make him My image and My likeness. Amen.

My people, I, within My pain, speak to you today about My kingdom inside the man and which has to be poured out outside of him with My mysterious face and with My life seen on the sides by the sons of the people who see the sons of God. This miracle, which has never been heard about, this coming of Mine with My church, which I introduced even in the time of My supper with My disciples, saying that I would not eat of My Passover until My kingdom was to come on earth, and this longing of Mine came and its time, which I prophesied about, has been fulfilled, and behold My word that becomes flesh, a church with My body and with My word in it, the entire kingdom of the heavens in man, and the man near it does not see it, the one near the man in whom I enter in a complete manner.

I am hurt with a great longing because of My kingdom in man. And it keeps giving Me pains until I am able to pour out Myself with it before the sons of this age, for I am the Son of the Father and I reign in man, and the man is My kingdom, and I want to appear together with it. Amen, amen, amen. Oh, who is the one that does not let Me come up with this miracle? The devil prevents Me, the man's unbelief does not allow Me, the foggy weather of which only the kingdom of the ruler of this age is seen, these do not let Me. My kingdom in the man, which he has got and which works like Me over the sons of disobedience, hurts Me. My kingdom in man is the heaviest burden when the man is not able to settle with it on the earth.

The saints look at Me full of heavenly thrills when I speak the word of My kingdom over the earth and want Me to work with it and with them among the sons of the people, who do not know anything else but marriage and being given in marriage, eating and drinking and about a body submitted to sin, which stands against the spirit. The man gets up and goes to bed eating and drinking and committing sin, for wine is debauchery.

However, I speak the word again, which I spoke to you, children of the new kingdom, because a couple of years ago I told you about the outside man, who hides the one inside, as he says. I have spoken to you that the man does not take care of My coming of today, and I come and find him eating and drinking and committing sin in his pleasures. However, I have told you to comfort yourselves comforting each other and to teach yourselves teaching each other, for I am at the door and I am the door, and I come when no one expects Me to come, and it hurts Me that no one expects Me to come when I come, and it hurts Me making Me feel like crying far and wide within a wounded voice because no one expects Me when I come, and behold, I have always come and I come with difficulty because I have not been waited to come.

I have told you to get drunk with longing, for I come full of longing. The man gets drunk with wine and he longs after the wine, but the longing after the wine is a snake in his soul, because the wine is a snake and you know this mystery, because I have spoken about it to you. And now, I tell the man again that the man makes the wine into a serpent and he blames Me when he does so, and he says that the wine is blessed by Me. However, I say: No! And again, I tell him: No! No! I know what I have blessed. I have blessed My cup not the man's cup, and My cup is My Body and Blood, Who hanged on the cross.

I have asked the man who says that it was I who I blessed the wine and I told him: "Can you, man, turn My blood into wine?" And if you cannot, then be silent and do no longer speak foolish things; keep silent and do no longer commit sins by speaking about the mysteries of the Son of God, which are not from the earth, but which are rather from heaven, for the water that was turned into wine at the wedding in Cana of Galilee was a mystery from heaven, the wine of the miracle and not as you try to mock the mysteries of the heaven, for wine is debauchery, as it was with Noah when he made wine, which made him curse his son. Do no longer speak foolish things and say that the wine is holy when it is written in the Scriptures that it is debauchery. You say that the wine is holy, and I said that only My Blood is holy when I turn the wine into blood, and My Blood is in the cup. I turn wine into blood, and you turn wine into sin, you turn joy into death and do not turn sufferance into life as I turn wine into My Blood for the man's life. I blessed My cup, the cup of My sufferance, not the man's cup, and the man speak foolish things when he says that the wine is holy and it hurts Me that the man speaks like that.

Oh, children of My kingdom full of My sufferance in you! The man mocks Me in order to hide his sin. The man laughs at Me by going into debauchery, and he does no longer know what love is, for loves comes from holiness not from sin. The man gets out in the street with his wife who is more naked than he is, more than her husband, and this means the end of the man who brings the sin to the rank of holiness, and this means the age of the man and of his sons, where God has come to an end. The man makes jokes about God and he says that the man and the woman were naked in Paradise, but I speak that the man was not so, and that the man was in Paradise like an angel in his body, and as the angel was without a body, the same was with the man, without any sin in Paradise, although he had a body. The man was naked in Paradise, but he was as on the cross, as I was naked on the cross, but I was the Saint of the Father on the cross, because the man who is not on the cross is not holy.

The words of the fleshly man make Me feel empty because of pain, the man of this age, who lusts with his body against the spirit and against the life and against the resurrection from the dead. Man, do no longer speak foolish things, for then you will cry to Me to forget them and I will wipe them out with great, great sufferance, as you has been making Me suffer so much pain, so much shame before the devils to whom you bow and who bow to you in order to make you do their will, that I am no longer able to make you an angel from a devil and from a man.

The devil cannot work with God, but the sons of this age are from dust and are not from heaven, the same as with the Jews in My time who were casting out demons following devilish people who heard about My name from which the devils fled out, who dared to tell the devils to come out of the people into the name of Jesus Christ. But the devils did not know those as Mine and overpowered them in such a way that they fled naked out of the house of the devilish man. This news made many be seized with fear and to glorify My name that was spread out by the devils and many came to confess their evil deeds to be freed from them and then to follow Me with a clean life, and many a sorcerers burned their books in the eyes of everyone so that the faith could grow in the people, and My name to be strengthen over the multitudes.

Oh, children of the Holy Spirit, I am in a heavenly and Hierarchical celebration into your midst. I have the hierarch Nicholas, and his painful joy is like Mine, and it is like yours as well, for those who have the kingdom of the heavens in them do no longer have their pain, their sadness and their sighing, but they have My pain after the man, the pain of the kingdom of the heavens. The kingdom on earth is full of empty joys, which pass like those who love them, but the kingdom of the heavens in man is full of the love for Me, the One suffering from the pleasures without God of the sons of this age, who do not walk to come back from death to life. But «the saints will judge the world», as it is written into the Scriptures, and I will have witnesses of My kingdom in the man. Amen, amen, amen.

— I am celebrated, Lord, in the hosts of the bishops of the heaven, and with all the hosts of angels, we bring comfort on all Your pains, for there is no saint in heaven that may not be hurt like You from what it is on earth. No one has been waiting for You to come, but we, Your saints, have been waiting, for You have been hearing for seven thousand years from the saints: “Until when, Lord.” The joy of Your coming full of pain will soon, soon become joy for Your sons of today make haste with their pain for You, but only the sons of the New Jerusalem of today understand this.

The earth is empty of God, oh, people of the worldly church, and you conduct services in your churches and you do no walk across the earth to see how the sins of the people swarm over the people, and the love of God is found no longer on earth. Oh, if you wanted to hear believing the voice of the One that comes from heaven on earth as word to bring down the victory that will swallow the death, you would have this word that comes with the cloud as your first priority, but you have left the world perish as you have perished. Oh, it is not in this way that the salvation has been sought after, people who serve in the churches of the world. If you cannot make the man give up sin, then Christ died in vain, for it is written: «If there is no resurrection of the death, then neither Christ has been raised». Oh, how are you supposed to raise the dead of this age? Look at them how they swallow in their sins, for the sin is death, and the man from the world does no longer come to life from sin. Both you and they rejoice with the songs of the Lord’s resurrection, with the songs of the Lord’s birth, with the songs for the saints, but the heavenly feasts do not mean only that. There is no greater feast as in heaven as then when a sinful man comes back from death to life, from sin to repentance, and then to remain alive and to become the kingdom of the heavens. But do you not know the Gospel of the Lord, which says that the kingdom of the heavens is in the man and it does not come visibly? The Lord wants to make the man into His kingdom, and the man says that he has faith in his heart, if one asks him why he does not believe, why he does not make God beautiful in him and from him.

Oh, Lord, the emptiness from the earth leaves the servants of the church of the sons of this age, who do no longer know anything else but of marriage and being given into marriage, of eating and drinking, of selling and buying, as in the time of Noah, Lord. Oh, You are full of pain and the sons of the world do not know that now You are wounded more severely than on the cross. The sin is great and much on earth. It is the hell on earth, and the devil had made luxurious houses for himself, and they go to the priests of the world to put a service of holiness over these, but they do not remove sin from man. The ruler of this world has covered Your face and the sons of this age do not see You, and You live having been wounded by the sons of the new age, in which You come with Your kingdom and by which You try to breakthrough this thick fog between earth and heaven, for Your good angels can hardly stand because of the pain when they stay with their flight mutilated that they have nothing good to bring to You from the man and that Your good angels may be able to see Your face.

I speak from Your pain, so that the sons of the world of today and yesterday may hear the saints, and I declare the word of a bishop and speak that the things, which are not forgiven on earth, remain the same in heaven, and there are no more priests and bishops on earth, Lord, for those who are, are something else, they are the sons of the empty glory who receive praise from the people and from one another and they do not feel Your pain, Your wound so deep and no one has been waiting for You to come, Lord of the saints.

Oh, sons of the Jerusalem of the Lord's coming, rejoice over His crying and over His pain and over His saints, for you have to wait making haste of His coming, as it is written in the Scriptures, for behold, the world burns; the sin burns in the body of the sons of this age and they are no longer satisfied with marrying and being given in marriage, with debauchery of any kind, and the painted devil has luxurious houses which he writes for himself any kinds of names on, but he does not write "death" on the doors of his houses. Write the word of the Lord and spread it far and wide so that the man of today may know that everywhere the word "death" is covered so that it may not be seen, and the world does not know what death, its face and its seduction mean.

Rejoice over the sigh of the end of the world, children of the Lord's coming. Rejoice over the Lord's coming to you and spread His voice and all the pain from it to all the sides of the world, so that the whole world, visible and invisible, may know that he Lord has come and comes when no one expects Him to come, but behold His coming with you, sons of His coming. And the Lord will remove the scales from the eyes of the sons of the people and everything on earth that does not mean God with the people will perish, for the sigh of the Lord and of His saints who have always been crying, "Come, Lord!", will cry out this sigh and every man will see that the Scripture of His coming is true as the Lord is. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, only you, saints of the heaven, sigh with a heavenly sigh saying: "Come, Lord!" But as for those who wait for Me to come, I come and I dine with them, and the world dines with its ruler, and its ruler is also invisible, and only his servants are seen, those who keep the world under his rulership.

Children of the New Jerusalem take into consideration the pain without any comfort of the saints who serve in heaven the same as they served on earth. The hierarch Nicholas gives you great help, but you also need to offer Me great help to be able to come, so that the saints may also come with help from Me for you. Rejoice sighing, for this is how I come to you when I come and this is how we speak, both I and My saints. Be always with Me in you, and the saints will come to your help.

Let the entire earth hear of My coming to you and let the man judge himself, and then to be able to see the word of My coming, which calls the man from death to life, for the ruler of this world keeps his kingdom invisibly in his sons too, but I together with you bring him into the light and bring on earth the gospel of the kingdom of the heavens, for all who open to Me when I come with it to put it in every man who hears the voice of the Son of God for the man's resurrection. Amen.

The feast of the Saint Hierarch Spyridon

My godly sufferance becomes word and I cry with the sigh of My word and I knock at the gates and I come into the book with the voice of a thunder standing with the saints and with the angels above, in the sky of the little garden of the word. Amen. I find those in the gates watching for Me because I told them that I would come.

The world celebrates its feast without God in the name of My birth as a baby on earth, for the world replaced the feasts<sup>175</sup> of the Lord and of His saints, and I with you, My people, Jerusalem of today, celebrate the feast of the miracle doer, the bishop Spyridon, with a great host of heavenly bishops between earth and heaven.

Receive strength and receive power, children from the gates. Submit yourselves, sons. Amen, amen, amen. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I give you life in order to give it further to My people, for the people who have the Lord as their life is not overpowered, but on the contrary, their enemy is overpowered. Amen.

In the time when the Israel's enemies came to invade and to subject it, the water stopped them to make them bow before those whom they wanted. However, I, the Lord, woke up the wise and good Judith, and I had My Spirit come down upon her, and she stood up through Me and then she prayed asking Me to help her overcome the enemy, for the people did not have water, sons, and the people prayed to Me with pain and fear at the sight of the enemy army which surrounded it. However, seeing then its difficulty and thirst, I brought salvation to its prayer. Amen. My people, I do not stop My spring upon you, for you are the one who pray for your life from Me, and I become a spring upon you and you have life. Amen.

My Spirit full of power tells you, children from the gates, that I bring life to My people, for I come in through the gates to it, because I am God and I am the Good Shepherd and I do not jump on the other side but I bring water and life to My people through the gates.

Drink of My spring, children who want the salvation, which comes from Me by the spirit of obedience, sons. Drink and be My life on earth among the people and be content with giving glory to the heaven, which does not let you perish from thirst or hunger, for when the water is taken from a people, it dies, sons. However, I am the One Who is able to do everything that I have to work over the earth in My days of victory, that came to the faith of the faithful ones who stay before Me, and bring down on earth the spring of life and repentance for the forgiveness of the sins. Amen.

Whoever does not want to drink is not forced and that one carries himself in his back, because it is not possible otherwise, as it happened in the time of John, the Baptizer, when he baptized people with water for the forgiveness of their sins, and the people and the tax collectors were sure of God's justice being spread all over the earth, and they were baptized with John's baptism. But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law violated God's law in themselves not being baptized by John with the baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of their sins. And then I said: «For John the Baptizer came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' The Son of Man has come eating and drinking and you say, 'Behold a gluttonous man, and a drunkard; a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' But wisdom is justified by all her children!» Amen. (Luke 7:33-35)

Oh, sons, this is what the man does. The man does not bow for those that are great in heaven, and that is why I said that the great things from heaven die for those, which are little on earth, but you should love the heaven, for those on earth separate you from heaven if you love them, and those that are great from heaven die for those that are little on earth, and no one understands this, and the Pharisees and the teachers of the law cannot bow, because they are not humble as the humble David was. Oh, why am I the Son of David? Because David humbled himself for the forgiveness of his sins and he was a humble man for all his sins and he was not like the Pharisees and like the teachers of the law, who in the time of the prophet John, neglected God's will in themselves by not becoming humble for the washing of their sins.

Oh, My people, I am the humble God and I belong to the humble people, and I am with them, and I give them of My spring to all those who want to drink of it for their life. Amen. I humble Myself before Adam, because he could not humble when he sinned because the haughtiness of his mind and because of the disobedience which comes from unbelief, sons. I came humbly into his way and I asked him where he was and I let him down gently for his mistake against his own life, and then they blamed each other, and I humbled Myself in vain before him. He who does not believe unless he sees, that one does not become humble afterwards either, but whoever is humble, humbles himself with the help of the honest faith and then by his obedience. Amen.

I humbled Myself even before Cain, both before he went wrong against his own life and after that he went wrong. I humbled Myself and let him down gently when I saw in him the sin of hate against his brother, which was seen on his countenance, a face that was not a sad one. I humbled Myself again after his evil deed but I did it in vain, for the man who hides himself from God in his own self, cannot humble himself.

I also humbled Myself when I was called at the table with the Pharisees and I spoke with them about My humility to learn from it and this is what I told them: «When you are invited by anyone to a marriage feast, don't sit in the best sit, since perhaps someone more honorable than you might be invited by him, and he who invited both of you would come and tell you, 'Make room for this person.' Then you would begin with shame, to take the lowest place». (Luke 14: 8-9) And then no one among them sat down and neither did I, the Lord, because I was humble, and I went there only to give them a lesson of humility, and not to sit at their table. The first place belongs to the Lord, but I did not sit on it, but rather I taught them the spirit of humility and their place at the table and the place of the Lord at the table, for He is the great One, and He must have the honor of the first place at the table. Amen.

I had always, always humbled Myself on earth, for the man to learn humility from Me, because until you tell him and then show him, he is still able to exonerate himself, for the man is not humble. He who does not have love for God has no humility at all and that one carries himself in his own back, and I, walking near him, urge him towards humility, to repentance, to faith against the day of his judgment when he will no longer have time for humility and repentance.

The humble one shows what he has in him and he remains as a memorial on earth and in heaven and I have bishop Spyridon on this feast with you, a humble apostle and a humble man in his time as a man, and then My apostle, and I told you that the saints had been waiting for My coming with them so that they might show the crying of their joys for My coming with them, for the groan of the earth tears the heaven, and those in the graves cry out to Me, “Until when, Lord?” and those who hear Me and them and the saints speaking from Me over the earth, obey being astounded by this time, by My crying full of sighing over the earth, by My voice like a thunder, subjecting those from under the burden of My coming, which raises the dead from the tombs, and which makes the saints groan over the earth once with My groaning full of pain after the man. Amen, amen, amen.

— And as for me, groaning Lord, how shall I disburden You of Your sighing? Lord, as long as I was on earth in the time of My flesh, I lived only within a spirit of humility on earth. Lord, I could not live and I could not love anything else but humility, for Your Spirit rested on me, and I worked as You did between me and man, and I showed the man what You also showed him: humility Lord, the sweetest life between heaven and earth. Humility carries sufferance in it for Your way and it is no longer the man but Your way to the humble man, and a way of the humble man to You, Lord of the humble, Son of David, the humble One for him and for the man, because it was for his humility and for his sufferance for Your love that You found him and strengthened him and then he called You to be the helper of his life, and You rebuked his sons with an iron rod and with beatings, but You have not taken away Your mercy from him because of his humility and because of his love and You said: «His seed will remain forever and I will also appoint him My firstborn, the highest of the kings of the earth and he will call to Me: ‘You are my Father, my God, and the rock of my salvation». (Ps. 89:26, 27<sup>176</sup>) Amen.

Oh, humble Lord, the son of David, Who prophesied about You through the humble spirit, by its repentance and humility! You are the Lord of those who love You with humility and love, showing on earth Your humility by which You have always bowed before the man. Oh, how much I have longed all the time to confess You and no longer to be ashamed to humble myself because of Your confession! I did great miracles and I believed with a big humility that You were perfecting Yourself by My pain for You from those who did not believe, by my humility, through which I confessed You as true God, and Who are proved out with Your great name, which I confirmed among the unfaithful ones who became scribes and bishops, but they were only Pharisees and did not love the fulfillment of the law of life and they did not humble, and like those in the time of John the Baptizer, they neglected Your will in themselves against Your justice which had been preached over the earth for the faith of the people who came to be baptized being washed by repentance.

I bow with humility as You did, my Teacher, and I tell everybody that humility is God's face inside man and that You have been humbling before the man even since You created him and then down to the generations of his sons, who did not see You because of their haughtiness and because of their unbelief, and because they did not see You, they did not humble and do not humble, and rather they violate Your will in themselves by not giving themselves to Your justice, which has been preaching over the earth. This is what it had happened to me with those who posed as bishops and teachers, who came together, and in the midst of whom I went as the one who was humble, and my humility made them ashamed and they tried to hide their shame punishing me. However, with the power of my humility and faith in You, I put their unbelief to shame by Your power, which was working out miracles at the voice of the love of my heart full of the longing of Your confession on earth, the one full of the man's longing, like You, Lord, for You sigh after the man and the man does not see you, and he does not believe You and he does not humble in himself to do Your will.

Your word, Lord, comes with difficulty on earth, and the saints cry for Your mercy that comes due to the man's unbelief, and the time is hard, Lord, and it has been pressing down even harder on the shoulders of those who have brought You down on earth to speak the word of Your coming as two thousand years ago, with greater power and justice, for You have found faith, unheard of through the times, that has been working out Your coming, Lord.

Oh, have mercy on those who are painful and crushed by the cross of Your coming, Lord, Who are burdened from the man who is not humble, who carries himself in his own back instead of taking Your yoke, for You said that Your yoke and Your burden are easy and the man's are heavy, and that is why the man does not humble, for he carries himself in his back and he lets You down and turns his back to You. However, we, all the saints and the fathers who gave birth to disciples, disburden You by becoming humble like You before the people for their way with You, but let them also disburden You by their humility in them, for they have in the Scriptures another example of what humility and not humility are, and we exhort them to get wisdom from the Scriptures and no longer wait to be taken by surprise by the time that they will not know and when the weak will cry because of their haughtiness that was born in them because of their unbelief, and because of their ignorance of God, Lord.

And as for you, painful sons, who carry the pain of the Lord's coming, let yourselves be seized by His sighing and stay humble and work out a spirit of humility, so that the Lord may be great from you over the earth. Rejoice sighing for great is the man's unbelief, and we and you cry with the Lord, looking for and earnestly desiring His coming. Exhort one another to watching, for the devil to grow less, because God is He Who is and the devil will fall because he wants to bind you in weakness in order to prevent the Lord from His coming, but the Lord, the One Who is humble in you, will put him to shame and the Lord will be able to work out His plan, and you will also be able to work with the Lord, humble children and deprived of powers. Amen.

The saints of the heaven praise your faith, but let your humility be the work under the cross, because I, from the host of the bishops of the holy heaven and who have overcome over the earth, bring to you with humility the blessings of the days of the Lord's coming, for you are great because you are small, and the Lord's humility is the gift in you, the miracle which brings the Lord as word on the earth, the faith and the love which waits for the Lord, Who comes and Whom you bring down, because He dines with those who humble themselves under His burden, being thankful and loving and being loved by all who are the Lord's heaven. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, My people, the synod of the saints and the fathers strengthen you to be able follow humbly and to be working for the Lord's coming. Bow to one another in humility, sons, for I taught you beautifully and sweetly in a day of the feast of the bishops. Amen.

The bishop Spyridon, the one with a humble spirit, who worked nothing else but with love and affection and mercifulness, ask him to your help, children of My coming. The humble spirit will teach you in everything, everything that I want you to be. Exhort one another for an honest faith and for a spirit of humility and let the son not go down among you. Amen. Be workers and work while it is son, so that the son may not go down among you. Do not forget to read the Scriptures, as My mother, the Virgin, read them, for I will come with the feast of My birth in it and we will speak about pain, about love and about humility and we will comfort each other in pains, sons without any joys.

I am the One Who gives you the spring of living water, for the people that have got water has something to cleanse themselves with, and they have something to drink of, and they have life from heaven and they are not overcome, but they are humbled instead, and I, the Lord, am well pleased with them, because the one who is as humble as I was, is My love, and I am his love, and blessed is the one who knows Me, for that one works and does not violate My will in himself because of his will, but rather he humbles himself according to My image and after My likeness and according to that of My saints', who have confessed Me with humility giving Me all the glory, all the honor and all the worship, for I am the humble One and I am He Who is, and I am, humbling Myself before the man for this is how God is. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Birth (the Nativity)

I become the word of feast of the memorial of My birth of the Virgin mother two thousand years ago, for it is written: «He was in the world and the world was made through Him, and the world didn't recognize Him. He came to His own, and those who were His own didn't receive Him. But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become God's children, to those who believe in His name». (John 1:10-12) Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, children who believe that I came from the Father and from the Virgin mother to make the world again! Oh, how sweetly and how longingly My mother, the Virgin, read the Scriptures of My coming, by whom I made Myself known over the earth, and then I also made My Father known, for the beloved John said: «No one has seen God at any time. The One and only Son, Who is in the bosom of the Father, He has declared Him, for the Son and the Word of the Father became flesh and lived among us. And we saw His glory, such glory as of the One and only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth». (John 1:14, 18) Amen.

Oh, children who believe that I came from the bosom of the Father and I became flesh and that I also declared the Father! Oh, sons, I have come as word at the manger of My word to inhabit in you and among you full of grace and full truth and to declare to you the Father, Whom no one has ever seen but His only Son, born of Him, from the Father, sons. Amen. I have come with My mother, the Virgin, of whom I receive the body of a man, and we went to speak about pain, about love and about humility, and to comfort each other in our pains, for we are without any joys, but we do have a rich life, for I told you that the people who has water has what to drink of; it has life from heaven and it is not overcome, but it is humbled instead and I am well pleased with it and for it, because the one who is humble just as I was, is My love, and I am his love, and that one knows Me and follows Me and becomes My image and My likeness, for I am the humble One, and that is why I am He Who is, and I am, becoming humble before the man, for this is how God is. Amen.

Oh, how beautifully the shepherds of the sheep believed in the night of My birth! I sent My angel and there was a great light around them and he gave them the good news about My birth, and then a heavenly host got together at the news of My angel and they all sang glory to the Lord both in heaven and on earth, and good news and peace among the people, and then the angels went up from them into heaven, and the shepherds came to Bethlehem and found Me and believed and confessed with a great joy the sight of the annunciation of My angel. Amen.

Oh, My people, I am celebrated with My birth among the people and My mother is sweet upon Me and upon you in My word between Me and her, and her word between her and Me. Amen, amen, amen.

— My Son, my son born of the Father and of me, the one who is forever Virgin! Oh, the man does not put an end to his thinking to be careful with much pain, much love and much humility at Your birth from me, at the sufferance of this mystery, which You have been carrying for seven centuries, dear Son, the only One born of the Father and of me. Let Your speaking with me before our people of today be for its building, for the pain, for the love and for the humility that We had, painful, loving and humble Son. It is the feast of Your birth among the people, and the world does not know what a birth celebration is. Oh, how beautiful, how beautiful the pain is, the pain after God and the being of those who carry it! How beautiful are those who are as painful as I and You are, Son bathed in my tears on earth and in heaven! Oh, how much You love those who suffer from You! Oh, how much pain is in You and in all the heavenly hosts from the man who has no pain in his moments of Your remembrance, which You spoke with Your disciples about to be united with Your Body and Your Blood, after they would deeply remember Your sufferance for the reward of man's life and salvation, loving and merciful Son! Oh, blessed is the man who has his face and his heart humbled at the thought of Your sufferance for the man, at the thought of Your pain of seven ages, at the thought of my sufferance for you, my Son, Son Who suffered from the man and from His lack of love! The man does not know the spring his everlasting happiness springs up from. Tell the man, Son of sufferance that springs up of Your love for the man, and for whom You were born among the people two thousand years ago. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, this spring is the man's sufferance always after God, mother of pain. Your love for Me gave power to your pain in you, these two were a spring to one another, for the love was the spring of your sufferance, and the sufferance was the spring of your love, and these both suffered for Me in you and gave you power of life, and they also give power to My sufferings, mother.

There is no man to remember My pain and yours with tears in the time before and after the breaking of the bread which becomes My Body and My Blood on the cross, mother, each time when My passions are remembered and mentioned and of My painful life on earth because of My mercy for the man. (At the Holy Liturgy, r.n.). My Body and Blood is real truth in the cup of My new Passover, eaten by the disciples together with My word which makes the new man, and so new has to be the heart of the one who takes Me with all its remembrance of the memorial of My pains, of My cross. Oh, mother, the man does not know to love sufferance, and he takes My Body and My Blood without being seized by his mourning after Me, so that I may become food for the man afterwards, the last supper as I said that I would dine with the man after My passions. The man does not shed any tears when he communes with My Body and My Blood from the cup, mother. No pain of Mine hurts him and it does not wake him up to Me; it does not touch his soul because of much painful sufferance of Mine and yours for the man.

Oh, I miss My Passover in the man's heart so much, the union between My heart and his, for great was the mourning of My disciples in the time when I ate My Passover with them in the time of My pains, of My supper with them, and then of the pains after her, but the man cannot take in him My pain for him. I long after the love from the man. I want, with tearful longing, for the man to love Me much, and I come together with this pain in those who bear the pain of My love for man, mother, and I have so much compassion when I come in them with My pain, with My love, with My tear which is not wiped out by man, mother. Oh, who shall always wipe out My tear and its sting? Who else has time for My tear, mother, and for My heart in which I cry because of My love for man? I comfort Myself with you, for you were only comfort, power and love for Me. It was only you that I have been thinking of even before eternity, only of your pain that you were to bear for Me, only of your painful love, for you were beautiful through your pain in you, dear mother, and a dwelling place of your Son.

Your earthly parents took you to the temple even since you were a little child and they gave you to the Lord; they gave you to Me so that I might be hurt in you and for you to be hurt in Me, mother of My pain. And after you started to know from the prophets about My coming and about My pain, you wanted to do anything for My coming, for My pain, written ahead of time in the Scriptures. Then you were My mother and since My angel came to you and who told you that you were to give Me birth, your pain for Me became greater and greater and you had never known any joy but only pain. Your joy was that that I was your Son and no one on earth had been able to love Me more than you, for I was not only your Son, but also the true God, born of the eternal Father, and I was your God, Whom you loved with greater longing not only after the annunciation of the angels but also before that time. You were My house on earth after the angel told you about Me and then you were always My house, for there was nothing in your heart, nothing even for a split of a second, but there was only your pain for Me. Your little heart was full of pain all the time at the thought of the torment, which I had to go through for every man, from every man, all My life on earth, and at its end, the road of the cross, and the cross and My death on it.

There was no day or night or sleep in which you had not been able to see Me on the road of the cross and dying on the cross, and there was no heart more wounded than yours on earth, and out of which I was not absent even for little a moment, and your heart was My house, and I had always, always dwelt in it, for I could not have a single moment than I not think about you and of your pain for Me even for a little time, as everywhere I was walking in order to finish the work for which I became man and for which My Father took Me from His bosom and sent Me after the man, mother.

Oh, I could not help being hurt even for a moment by My thought, which was only at you once with My mercy and yours for the man. Wherever I was, I was hurt because of you, and you were hurt in Me, and I could not be in My thought without you as your image was always in My eyes and I loved you with so much power, with so much longing that My love and My longing after you were My power in all of My pains, and I was with you in them, and I could bear them. However, you bore the pain of the mother of God for Me, and there has never been a more painful heart on earth like yours.

You were so good before everyone because of the pain of My love in you, and no one had been able to see on your face anything else but a deep, deep thought and a holy tear, with much pain in it, known and unknown by everyone who had seen you, and your whole tear was gathered by God's angels and with it they watered the heaven, mother. You bathed Me in tears, when you took Me in your arms after I was taken down from the cross by Joseph and Nicodemus. Oh, mother of love, you covered your tears when you embraced Me in the time of My life to the cross and you poured them out like a spring, and I saw them wherever I was and I was also crying and I hid in order that could cry, because I loved you so much, so much, and the power of My spirit melted for your mercy, for your longing, for you, the one full of pain and longing for Me, because you could not leave Me out from your thought even for a moment, from your heart which wanted to be My house until I took you near Me after I went to My Father to make room for you and to take you there so that all who loved God, mother, might gathered together in the same place. (See, *The Assumption, and forever virgin Mary, written by John, archbishop of Thessalonica*)

Oh, how beautiful, how beautiful is the pain after God and the being of those who carry it! Oh, how beautiful are those who are wounded for Me and with Me, mother! Behold with how much power We come within those who are Our house in the days of My second coming with the saints on earth to make the world again, mother, and with My creative word I pass through those who are Our house of coming, and God is hurt in man, mother, for the pains of the new birth of the world are bigger and bigger, and We are hurt in man, and Our pain becomes power in those who bring Us down on earth to be able to keep Us, mother. Amen, amen, amen.

The feasts of the birth are pains, pains of birth, but the man on earth does not want pains and he does not want to be born and to see the word, which came into the world, for I am in the world, and I become word and I dwell among you with My glory such as that of the Only One born of the Father, full of grace and truth, children of My coming, and I have also make the Father known to you, Whom no one has ever seen but His Son, the One born of Him, and His Son dwells among you and dines with you and He appears to you for you to believe that I came from the bosom of the Father and I became flesh two thousand years ago, and now I am word, for I have found strong faith on earth, and I could make My coming, and I could make gates for My coming, to be able to come in through the them into the book of today of My coming. Amen.

Receive My word from its manger, you who grow through it and let those who are born of him receive it as well, and let the world receive its new birth too, for this Scripture is written to be, and I declare its fulfillment as it is written, for the world was made through Me, but the world did not know Me for I came for those who were Mine and they did not receive Me, and to whoever have received Me, who have believed in Me and in My coming, I have given them the power to become the sons of God. Amen.

My people, you, who believe in My coming to you, I want very much to see you suffering after Me, to see this beauty on your face always, always, child of My kingdom with which I give Myself to you when you speak, opening your little mouth to take Me in you from the cup, saying: «Blessed is He Who comes into the name of the Lord! God is the Lord and He has appeared to us». You should say this while seeing Me, and you should see Me in the one who is united with Me, once with you, and to be able to appear to you in the one near you who is united with Me, and to show Me to him, in you after you unite yourself with Me saying: «God is the Lord and He has appeared to us». Amen.

The full joy of your union with My pain and that of My mother for the sufferings, which become a spring of the love of God in man, let this be your power and My kingdom in you, New Jerusalem, born of My word from the end of the time. Love is a spring for its pain and pain is the spring for its love and let these both become one to another a spring in your heart for Me in you, child born of My coming as word on earth. Amen.

Love the mystery of the church. The church is whole and this is how My church and My body are called, and let My word dwell into your midst, Jerusalem, My mystery from eternity and the one from the end of the time, for I have been teaching you so much and this is how you should appear, for I want to make the man into My image and after My likeness and yours, for this is what I said to My disciples: I in you and you in Me, for the world to know that the Father sent Me and that the Father is in Me and I in Him, and I am with Him into the world. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the first martyr and archdeacon, Stephen

My creating word is the true light, which coming into the world shines in the darkness, and it gives life to every man, but the man is not accustomed to light, because he does not know it and he gives it from him. However, I am the Light of the world and My word shines in the darkness and it will go on shining, for the life is in it and the life is the light of the people, and it is written that everything will be swallowed by life. Amen, amen, amen.

I am with My word upon you, Jerusalem of My coming. I am with the fulfillment of the Scripture of My coming with the saints, and you should receive Me, for he who has got the true faith receives Me, and he knows Me that I am this word by which I become a way for the man to Me. However, the man has got used to the sin and death, and that is why he does not believe in life and he puts his hope only in the life of his body.

I come in man's path with My mercy for him. I come into the man's way with My creating word, for if I did signs and wonders into his way, he would still not believe it, since he also does miracles, and these spoil his mind and put away the fear of God, and the man perishes from the lack of wisdom and then man separates man from God and the men help each other towards darkness but the darkness cannot overcome the light.

I am in a feast of saints in heaven and on earth with you, My people, for the heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool, and the man does no longer know this truth and that is why he does no longer see it, and the one who does not see does not believe, for this is how the man is taught. However, you should know Me with you, My people, to be able to be My tool by which cleanse My threshing floor and gather the wheat into the barns and I cast the chaff into the unquenchable fire, as I have already worked so. Amen.

Man has received the law of life by the intercession of the angels and he has not kept it, for he has been standing for seven thousand years against Me through sin, and he has always killed the prophets because of his sin, those who spoke ahead of time of My coming, of My selling and of My death. However, I come into the man's way with mercy, for the Father has sent Me to do this, and I work out the book of My word, for its mystery is the new making of the world until the invisible world will be revealed, for I have come with the Scripture of the new heaven and the new world, which will last forever. Amen.

Oh, what shall I do with the man? The man is stiff-necked. The man knows about Me as much as he has got used to know and he has been given his knowledge about God on sin, and I become My word from the end of the time, and with it I want to gather together all those who will be born among the people of My word, creating of new man, and to appear in these as the Creator of the man, the Creator of the heaven and of the earth, of the visible and invisible things, and I stay in council with you and with all the saints of the heaven, visible and invisible on earth, and I give Myself to the man as his life, children who knew that I came from the Father to give back the life of the man. Amen, amen, amen.

— I speak with You, Lord, from among the saints, and I cry with them because of the blindness of the man of today and of yesterday, Lord, for the man does not believe and does not receive the prophets because of those among them that are great over them, as they stand haughty against Your kingdom, which destroys their kingdom. However, they do not know that You kingdom is alive and that which is alive is coming now on earth, and woe to the man without reason and without humility and who does not see Your coming and Your kingdom coming with it!

Oh, the man does not want to be with You, Lord. He wants to be with sin, not with You; he wants that the unbelief may stay in sin, and the man does no longer have teachers because he kills them. The teacher of the man cannot be the man without You in his life, and the man does not want to have light in his way, as those in the time of my body did not want either, who gnashed their teeth against me when I spoke about Your coming and about Your selling and about You being murdered by them. And they put me out from the city and stoned me to death, Lord, and you came into my way opening the invisible heavens to receive Me in them near You as Your witness. But the teachers of yesterday and those of today forgot and forget and they want to forget that Your saints judged and judge and will judge the world, according to what is written in the Scriptures.

And I also call out the people and tell them this: do not put away God when He comes! And the mountains will bow before Him, for He comes and will come. Do not lie to each other and speak that the Lord is not coming and that the Lord is not. He is the One Who is and He always is, and He comes when you do not even expect Him to come. Wake up from the darkness of the ignorance of God! Wake up from your sins and know God, Who comes on earth as word and Who will soon give light with His light and by it He will make every man blind, for He is the light of the world, and the man is in the darkness.

Come and wash your eyes to be able to see. Come to be refreshed by the spirit of the knowledge of God. Come, you, stiff-necked people, come to the spring of life and take and drink for your life, for soon, soon, there will no longer be on earth anything but life, for there will no longer be death, because the Lord is coming and He takes the death from the earth, as it is written. Come to be written into the Book of the Life of the Lamb, and receive His life as your life, for whoever will not be found written into the Book of His life, will be cast out into the fire, and all the Scriptures which speaks in it about the coming of the Lord with His saints and with the judgment of the creature is true, true. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, I have always become word with the saints over the earth, people of the plan of My coming. Oh, what shall I do with the unfaithful man, sons? I come with mercy into the man's way before allowing him to see Me. I ask him to hear Me as those in the graves hear Me when I speak with you, and those in the dwelling of the dead wait for you to take them out with My word and to testify about My coming, which brings them again to life and to the redemption of their bodies. Amen. Be My tool for the wakening from the death of the man on earth. Set yourselves apart for this work of the resurrection of the creature, for this and no other is your choice and the work for which I chose you from among the sons of the people, and I made you sons of the Father with My word for the new birth of the world. Amen. I seal you by this word, and you should say amen, for My word and your word to be complete. And I will sit in council with you, sons, and we will work the word and we will fulfill it, for I, the Lord, am with My plan over the earth and I want to make the resurrection of the creature and the renewal of the world, for you are My tool. And I will give you power and word with power, which nothing and no human knowledge may stand against it, because the spirit of prophecy is working in you, and there is no greater gift among the heavenly gifts like the spirit of prophecy, sons.

Be great, sons, as great as My coming and My time with you and yours with Me is, and seek more than anything else to be filled with all the knowledge of My word upon you and seek to be workers like Me, and then to be My disciples, sons and children, for whoever is a child, that one can be a disciple as well, and the disciple does the work of his teacher upon him and upon those who are given by his teacher for the work of a disciple with a teacher upon him. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Holy Hierarch Basil, the Great

I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, speak My word into the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and the gates hear Me and open for Me to come in with a spirit of My feast and My saints'. Amen, amen, amen.

I am only mercy upon you, children from the gates, for you are without rest in your work for Me. You are tired because you have been watching day and night for the work of the Gospel of My coming on the earth. However, I am your power from heaven and from earth, because you are also for Me, and you gave yourselves to My word without murmuring, because you love Me, and because you have the spirit of the fear of God and the spirit of the love for Me and for man. Amen.

Oh, if many and more and more people on earth received your love and your mercy for the man, I together with the Father and with the saints and with the angels would found each other more and more frequently, and the day of the heavenly rest on earth will be sweeter and sweeter and the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, will come back from man to Us comforting us for Our waiting. Oh, let no mind wonder if I, the Lord, spoke that I wait with the Father and with the saints and with the angels for the Holy Spirit, the Comforter from the earth. I sent Him on earth with those from the Father and from Me to be poured out over those who believe and who receive from Him, for I spoke through the prophets that I would pour out the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, over the faithful ones, and they would prophesy before My great and shining day, and everyone who would call My name, the name of the Lord, will be saved. Amen. When I send Him on earth, He suddenly becomes a rushing of a mighty wind, which comes quickly and His heavenly work sets down over those who are faithful, and I want Him to come back in Me with His work from the man, with His comfort taken from Me and by which He works upon the man to make him His dwelling. Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem, I was God Man and I was obedient for the whole fulfillment with which I came. I was born of the Virgin, and after eight days from My birth I received the name of Jesus, spoken by angels before being conceived in the womb, and was circumcised according to the law, because after the flesh I was Israelite, through the body of My mother, through which I became a born man, because the Virgin carried Me in her womb and then I came out in a wonderful way, without spoiling the body of the Virgin mother, for God is wonderful forever and ever; He is without sin, He was conceived in the womb, He was born and grew and was crucified and was resurrected and then He ascended into glory and all these had been done without any sin. Amen, amen, amen.

I covered My godly glory, which I had shown very little in its brightness, for God has great humility before man and He waits for the man to believe perfectly and that the man may see those of God, which are not seen. This is how I want the man to be, and this is how I want the faithful one to have in those that are not seen, and I want him to be as humble as God is, and not to boast about those things that are mysterious, by which I work so wonderfully over the humble one who has from Me the sight of those that are not seen.

Oh, Jerusalem, My dough in Me that carries God's mystery upon him and in him is a great mystery! There is no greater thing for the man to take the devil out of the man, but there is a miracle as big as the heaven for the man to make God dwell in man, and then to see this miracle, which is called God in man and man in God. If the man leaves his life because he wants to believe in God and to do His will, this has never been enough, for the man has to be a visible miracle and the miracle is God's working upon man and in man and from man, and it is not invisible as the man is, for the man likes to stay in a way that he may not be seen by the man with the work in him. When I, the Lord, am chosen by the man, I appear to him and dine with him and I appear with him, the same as I have worked through all My saints who have loved and suffered in holiness for My shining on earth.

I am a feast upon you, Jerusalem, and with those in heaven we have a memorial feast of the archbishop Basil the Great, for great was his power from Me for the releasing of the man buried in those evil things on earth, for great was his mercy for Me and for man, and the devils are afraid of his name, because his name is great. You should also call him, because you need help, My people, because you are oppressed by the devil's envy that sees you what place you have in My heavenly homeland because you are poor and destitute on earth as I was. Ask from Me and ask intercession from the saints, because they want to have work upon you, to be able to help Me afterwards with their work and to be with the saints then for My coming, for this is what they want. Amen, amen, amen.

Go to prayer meetings now, and I, the Lord, with the saints will wait for you to pray as in the day of the great bishop Basil the Great and to put away every evil spirit, as he did it. And sit at the table sons, and let us then write down the word of today into My book up to its end of today, for My bishop Basil waits for you with longing near you. Amen, amen, amen.

— I embrace them, Lord of Your saints, and then You will close the word of the feast of today. I am with grace and power from You upon them, as You gave it to me on earth. Oh, there is so little love for You and for the saints on earth since the man has no way to see those that are not seen working with Your power upon the man. If there is no love, there is no faith either, and the people have to suffer and to run for help from those in heaven, for the love, working of love and of new man, has grown cold on earth as You said through the Scriptures.

I speak the word of bishop: may all the power of the evil spirits grow weak and crumble, human and devilish powers, which put obstacles into Your coming and into the way of Your sons chosen in the time of the pressure for You on earth! Let Your work, which works in a visible manner, appear upon them, and let them ask from You and receive and be saved into Your name from any kind of hardships, for the burdensome and evil spirit, because of its weakness now against Your coming, seeks to oppress Your people with shortcomings, with needs, but these cannot separate them from You, but on the contrary, they call for Your help and You give it to them, and Your saints do the same, for the saints love very much to work from heaven at the faith and at the love of those who love You as You want and not as the man wants.

Let the three sons, anointed in Your little garden of coming as word on earth, bring before anything else, prayers and supplications for all the things they need from You on earth and upon them, and then upon all those that are needed for Your work with them, and then for them, so that You may not be hindered, and nor they, in worries and shortcomings when You walk on earth with the work of Your kingdom. Your power by which You clothed the praying saints for the man and which You also put it in abundance in me, because of my humility and because of my mercy for the man, Your power can do everything, Lord of the powers, and I pray to You for them and I watch them on Your behalf, destroying every opposing and evil spirit that may go to them, which due to its weakness brings them the love to call You into their help, and You will give it to them, for they come together and ask from You, Lord, and all the saints of Jerusalem are pleading in prayers and supplications, and You should receive, fulfill and bless their pleading prayer. And I tell them: bring to the Lord the honor and the glory, bring Him your love, which has the Lord in it, for those who do not love death, leave it and take the Lord because He is life without death in man. Amen.

In six days we will stay within the work of the prayer of Epiphany over the waters, you with us, those who are bishops in heaven: Basil, Gregory and John, and we will give ourselves to the Lord with His prayer and with His love for us; you who are on the earth and we who are near you, heavenly in our body within the things that are not seen and from which we serve before the Lord for this work and we work within it from its beginning and we strengthen ourselves so that it may overcome over the earth, and for the Lord to reveal His glory before His great and shining day, and then everyone who will call the name of the Lord, will be saved. Amen, amen, amen.

— I, the Lord, am in a great noise of a wind, which comes swiftly, and this is how I come and this is how I declare My word, and I want that the work from the man to come back to Me. Amen.

I wait the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, to come from the earth, Whom I sent two thousand years ago over My disciples. I wait from you, New Jerusalem, the work of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, for I have wrapped you up greatly in His mystery, and I wait back from you great, great rest and joy. Amen.

Oh, sons from the gates, do not forget about your love and mercy for the man and stand before My word full of power in it, for we have to make the man see My things that are not seen, and you should be humble and heavenly sons, and you should receive more and more the heavenly work in you so that you may be able to give it further from you and that it may have My love and mercy for the man. My dough in man is a great mystery in the one who carries in him God's mystery, for the man who has Me in him, has to be a visible miracle, and the miracle is God's working upon the man. This is how you should work upon the man. Amen.

I give you now a great word with power in it: in the day of Epiphany receive holy water and put a holy prayer over the new little ship given to you for My work with you so that it may serve like you and together with you for My word, and the three heavenly bishops who work through the three anointed sons and with them from those that are not seen, to be with power from heaven in the day of Epiphany by the spirit of the prayer, which is left over the earth. The day of Epiphany is now preached by My word in such a way that it may be ministered by heavenly bishops near you in the ministry over the waters. Amen.

May your little new ship be blessed! Amen. May those who brought this gift before Me and you be blessed and spiritual. And the blessings for the work of My Gospel will be multiplied upon you over the earth, but be My workers of prayers and love of God, sons, for I want to be able to work much for My preaching over the people. Make haste of My preaching over the earth and work more for it so that it may bring you its fruits, because worthy are the workers for their reward, for their bread, for their coat, for their water and for their roof. Amen.

Prepare the day of Epiphany and get ready for it with a spirit of love for Me, with a spirit of humility, with a spirit of repentance, for we will celebrate John, the Baptizer, and the preacher of the spirit of repentance and of the spirit of prophecy over the earth. Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem, this has to be on earth: the spirit of repentance and the spirit of prophecy. Amen. All the prophets have worked that way, for without a spirit of humility and of effective repentance in man and from the man, it cannot come upon the man the spirit of the prophecy, the Spirit of God, Who gives birth again to the world by the word, from the earth, from the waters and from the man, so that it may be a new heaven, a new earth and a new man on earth. Amen.

May My word in the day of Epiphany be blessed and the day of the synod of My baptizer, John, who brought on earth the news of repentance so that it might bring the kingdom of the heavens and that this kingdom may reign on earth, between heaven and earth. Amen.

Peace to you, children of Jerusalem! In all the works for the new heaven and for the new earth stay together and be one, for if you work like that, the heaven will be united to the earth and My kingdom will be between them, and you in it and for it, and you will be My kingdom. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Baptism (The Epiphany)

My voice is My Spirit, Who opens the heavens and comes down on earth as word, the same as the voice of My Father was heard at the river Jordan, when I, His Son, let Myself to be baptized by John, and the Father opened the heavens and the Holy Spirit came down on Me in the image of a dove, and He said: «You are My beloved Son with Whom I am well pleased». (Matt. 3:17)

My voice from the Father is the voice of My Father in Me, and the heavens open in a day of Epiphany and I speak this word of the Holy Spirit and I bless and sanctify the waters because it is written: «The voice of the Lord is over the waters, the Lord over many waters. The Lord will bless His people». Amen, amen, amen. I come down from heaven with a spirit of Epiphany in the garden of the meeting and its sky is filled of all the hosts of angels and of saints and here is the whole heaven, for I am here and the waters hear My voice upon them and they know it, and I make My word into waters, for they obey the One Whom they know. Amen. Two thousand years ago, after I came out of water of My baptism of Jordan, the Father opened the heavens and made the Holy Spirit come down upon Me, so that He might make Me known. If someone asks himself why John had to come to baptize with water and to be called the baptizer, the answer is found in his mouth when the priests and the Levites asked him: «What do you say about yourself?» And he answered them: «I baptize in water, but among you stands One Whom you don't know. He is the One about Whom I have spoken: after me there comes a man Who was preferred before me, because He was before me and I did not know Him, but for this reason I came baptizing in water: that He would be revealed to Israel and I have seen the Spirit descending like a dove out of heaven and it remained on Him. I did not recognize Him, but He Who sent me to baptize with water, He told me: 'On whomever you will see the Spirit descending, and remaining on Him the same is He Who baptizes in the Holy Spirit.' I have seen, and have testified that this is the Son of God». (John 1: 30-34) Amen.

The beloved John also testifies and says: «The world was made through Him and the world did not recognize Him. He came to His own and those who were His own did not receive Him». (John 1:11) And My baptizer revealed Me to the world through the water of baptism and by the Holy Spirit descending from the Father upon Me and on the waters, for he was baptizing with water for repentance and for the forgiveness of the sins, speaking to everyone that the kingdom of the heavens had come near. Oh, it is a great and deep mystery for the man to see with the spirit and to see the Spirit as John, My baptizer, saw Him, and when the Scriptures was fulfilled through the Father which says: «The voice of the Lord over the waters, the God of glory thundered, the Lord over many waters». Amen.

Behold, the gates were lifted up and I have come in you, Jerusalem, with a feast of Epiphany and with the Holy Spirit over the waters and with wisdom of mysteries, My people, for great is this mystery for the man to see the Spirit praying as John prayed to the One Whom sent him to baptize Me.

Oh, how hard it is when I come through the wound of a spirit, for the man does not value God from man. When I find those in the gates with wounds in them, I pass through the wound in them in order to come, because I cannot avoid the wound, and I did have to come. My coming is hard to bear, and I have taught you much, My people, to know to wait for Me and to help Me to come and to take care of My Spirit and of His path and you shall not forget this work, to be able to keep Me away from wounds and to be able to comfort Me when I come. The greatest preparation during feasts that you have to make is for My descending from heaven on earth, from Me in you, to come through your serenity, because I make the heavens come down and this is how I come, and this is how you should also do, to be one for another and that I may not pass through the wound and that the wound may not hurt, and to come with serenity and to be easy and to be pace for My coming. Amen.

Oh, My people, those near Me did not value Me, because they were used to Me and there came John and he knew Me. If I let Myself be seen the man would get used to Me. That is why I work within the spirit and I let Myself to be seen by the eyes of the spirit when the man sees Me, when the man sees those that are not seen, and I do so because he who has the Holy Spirit sees without becoming haughty and he humbles himself and that is why he sees and he sees like Me, for it is written: «Those who are like Him will see Him as He is». Amen. Those who see Me are like Me by sight, because humility exalts the one who sees. John humbled himself and asked the One Who sent him to baptize Me, and said: «By what shall I know the One Whom I have to baptize?»

Oh, people who are taught by God, the mystery of the seeing through the Spirit is a deep mystery, and the one who sees through the Spirit sees them both, both those that are seen and those that are not seen by the eyes of the body, and the seer is the one who humbles himself as both John the prophet and the Baptizer did, and by faith and prayer he receives the vision and its revelation afterwards, at its appearance. The mystery of man's humility is a strong path for My coming and for its appearance, but he who is haughty by nature cannot get humble for those that are not seen, for his nature stands against him, together with its mob. It happens the same to the obstinate and that is why I spoke by the prophets instructions over those who try to see or to prophesy. I can hardly find among people and even among those who believe, I can hardly find the one in whom I can dwell with the Spirit and to be able to see and speak or to be silent while seeing.

It is a spirit of Epiphany in this day, and the teaching is a baptism of the hearts, which sets down to the teaching God in man and the man in God, My people. Oh, I want so much to teach you by those who I pass through to you with the river of My word, but the teaching by which I come is established by the humble spirit and in the humble spirit, and otherwise it comes back in Me and the man remains in his own self. At My baptism the Father opened the heavens at John's prayer and the Holy Spirit descended like a dove and sat on Me and made Me known to the world, and then John testified about Me saying: «Behold, the Lamb of God, Who washes the sins of the world».

At the descending of My word upon you, My Father opens the heavens and My Spirit comes down and makes Me known to the world, and you shall testify about Me, My people, as John also testified about Me. I open Myself with the mystery of the visible spirit and I say that to a spirit of humility is needed faith and to faith a spirit of humility and wisdom of spirit are needed, because if the man is not poor in his spirit, there is no wisdom within him, but rather he is stubborn because of his seeing against the humility of the spirit, and he is proud by his nature, which cannot humble itself for those that are not seen when they are seen by the one who stays humble for these. My teaching upon you is the baptism with the Holy Spirit, for it is the river of life and it is the voice of the Lord over many waters, My people. My word is a fire baptism over the earth for those who do not know Me in it, for it is written: «The voice of the Lord, which pours out the flame of fire!» and this is how the Scripture is fulfilled, which says that I baptize with the Holy Spirit and with fire. Amen.

From those that are heavenly on earth I declare, together with the visible and invisible servants, let the waters from you be sanctified, My waters with you, in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, for it is a day of Epiphany. Amen. The sky of the garden of the meeting is full of saints and angels and the whole heaven is above, for the Holy Spirit, working from heaven on earth and from earth in heaven, becomes joy for the whole invisible heaven, for the whole invisible breath, and I, the Lord, want the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, to comfort Me from your mist, and how much I wanted, and how much I wanted to be like the bird which thanks Me for its every sip when it drinks, for I give you from heaven and I wait to be comforted with you and with those that I give you to have for Me, My people. Oh, I do not want you to get used to Me, but I want you to learn to have Me, and that I may see Myself in you and with you, and for you to work like Me so that all you do may come to remain, for I have exhorted you to a spirit of humility for the Holy Spirit on you, My people. Amen.

I make the blessing come down upon your new little ship and I speak from those in heaven: it is blessed and it is sanctified by My spirit and by the grace of My Spirit, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen. And I bless you in this name and everything that is with you for Me and with Me for you, for without My blessing always on you the malicious evil spirit is against you, My people, but when it hears My name upon you, it grows weak and when you strengthen yourselves in Me, it dies and I live, and I want to be able to work on earth with the kingdom of the heavens which I started from you, as I also started with it two thousand years ago when John saw Me with it on earth and He told everyone to repent for it because otherwise it was not possible for them to come into it.

If the man does not pay any attention to the mystery of repentance, he does not settle in it. It is his rest and it is My rest in man, but there is no one to tell the man anymore about it to find its sweet taste. I want those who hear and those who want to make a step to Me to get used to this mystery and to its greatness receiving the teaching of My word upon them. If the man does not know to die, he cannot taste life and its mystery, and he who does not leave everything for Me cannot walk in My footsteps, on the way with Me, for woe to the one who loves himself on this road, which is not in this way that one should start walking on it and it is not in this way that one should walk on it either.

The love between Me and man, oh, how shall I make the man learn it in all its depth and in all its work? My spirit is only wound and I receive wound upon wound from those who do not remain in My love, for every branch that does not bear fruit gets dry and the one that bears fruit, I prune it, that it may bear more fruit. The one who keeps My word, is he who remains in My love, and I give him everything that he asks, and if I give him, this means that he keeps My word, and this means that he has repentance and humility for the forgiveness of his sins and for My kingdom in him. Amen.

My love between Me and man is when he fulfills in him with love those that are Mine, which I, the Lord, add to them for their use. I kept the word of My Father and I remained in His love, and whoever fulfills My word remains in My love as well. Amen. John, the Baptizer, was born among the people to keep the whole word of My Father, and he kept it, and His love has remained in him, and he also kept My word and My love has also remained in Him, and this is how the love between Me and those that love Me is. Amen.

Oh, those who get baptized like people, do not know what baptism is, and those who are baptized like Me know to remain in Me and be baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, but how shall every man understand the love between Me and man, My word, loved and fulfilled by man. Soon, soon, I come down on earth with My great and bright day, and I said that the spirit of repentance and the spirit of prophecy have to go before it upon the people, for this is what baptism and a man baptized with the Holy Spirit mean, Who comes back from the man to Me, comforting Me and prophesying that the kingdom of the heavens has come near, as John also used to comfort Me and preached My kingdom and its coming on earth with the man. Oh, I have not come to take back the kingdom from the man, but I have come to give Mine to him, the richest one, the one which will not be taken from him, and I give it to him as a gift, only for the man to want to give himself to it and to know it within Me, for I have not come into the world to take back the kingdom from the man, but rather I have come in order to come and then to go to prepare a sweet place for the man, and then to come back again and to bring it down on earth for all those who bear fruit within Me, and thus having been pruned and taken care of by Me to be able to bear more fruit. Amen.

Oh, My people, I open the heavens and I set the Holy Spirit as word upon you and I make you known that you are My people, and you should bear fruit within Me and that I may be able to tell the Father: Father, this is the one who I am well pleased with and I was well pleased with and for whom I labored being wounded in order to bring it to You as fruit, and to bring it to You by patience and by love with a wound, Father. Amen, amen, amen.

The synod of the Saint John, the Baptizer

I knock at the gates and come into the book of My word in these days. The first book and the second book (The Old and the New Testament, r.n.), have in them all those of their times, and the third book has in it those of the days of My second coming from near the Father. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, children from the gates, teach My people what the Scripture means, which says about those that are written from the foundation of the world into the Book of the Life of the slain Lamb. When John, the Baptizer came to show Me to the world, he said: «Behold the Lamb of God, Who washes away the sins of the world», and in the book of the beloved John it is written about the book with the seven seals, which was opened by the «Slain Lamb, Who redeemed for God with His blood, people of every tribe, language, people and nation, and made them kings and priests, and they will reign on earth». (John 5:9) Amen.

Each one of the three books of God has in it those that are written in it, and blessed is the one who is written into the Book of Life with works of life, for when John, the Baptizer, preached the Lamb of God and the repentance for the people, he said: «Even now the axe lies at the root of the trees. Therefore, every tree that does not bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire». (Matt. 3:10)

When I chose My disciples I gave them work to do after that and I told them: «Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, and cast out demons... for behold I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents, and harmless as doves,..., and don't be anxious how or what you will say, for it will be given to you in that hour what you will say, for it is not you who speak, but He Spirit of your Father Who speaks in you,..., and everyone therefore who confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father Who is in heaven». (Matt. 10:8-32) And then I also told them: «Don't think that I came to send peace on earth. I did not come to send peace, but a sword. For I came to set a man at odds against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law», and «he who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me». (Matt. 10:34-37)

Oh, My people, he who is written into the Book of Life has fruits and he gives them to God. John had fruits and he had disciples who worked with him and then he gave them to Me, sending them to Me to see the things that I worked, and they asked Me, after John sent them, and they were saying: «Are you He Who comes, or should we look for another?» And I told them: «Go and tell John the things which you hear and see: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. Blessed is he who finds no occasion for stumbling in Me». (Matt. 11:3-16) Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem, John had disciples and he gave them to Me and they saw My works. John confessed Me and I confessed him, for it is written into My Gospel: «Everyone who confesses Me before men, him will I also confess before My Father, Who is in heaven». (Matt. 10:32) Behold the work of those who are written into the Book of the Life of the Lamb, and this book will speak about its people and about their life and about their confession. Amen.

I want you, Jerusalem, to confess Me, more and more and day by day, and to do this after you have learned from Me, for I taught My apostles and I gave them commandments and they received and fulfilled and this is how they worked My power and signs with it, to prove that they were Mine, but first they learned what repentance and its spirit was, and then they remained in it its spirit and they prophesied and it was fulfilled and they were true and My book with them speaks about this and their book with Me does the same. And in My book with you I come with the prophets, with the apostles, with the saints and with My martyrs and they testify about Me from near Me from heaven to you and to the people on the earth, because the work of a disciple has its own reward and its fruits in heaven, My people, and blessed is the one who is written into the Book of the Life of the Lamb, which has its people written in it from the foundation of the world. Now I come with them in this book and I write Myself with them in it, because I have opened it to write in it on earth, for its seed, the seed of God, to reign on earth. Amen.

John, the Baptizer, is celebrated in heaven and on earth near the day of the Epiphany, which was established among the feasts on the day when I was baptized in Jordan by John, when he, together with the Holy Spirit and with the Father, confessed Me as true God of true God and all those who were written into the Book of Life came into My kingdom at John's preaching about it, and then on the news about Me, for I was the One Who was baptizing with the Holy Spirit, and I gave the same work to My disciples saying to them: «A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher». (Luke 6:40). Amen.

My teaching is a life-giving spirit, for I do nothing else with the breath of My mouth. When I made the man out of dust, I breathed upon him and he became a living being, but when I breathe upon man with My life giving Spirit, with the word of My teaching, I make him into a man with a life giving spirit, as I did with My disciples two thousand years ago, and they gave life to those without life and they breathed with a life giving spirit upon them.

John, the Baptizer, sent his disciples to Me so that I might breathe a life giving spirit upon them, and then he rested from his work on earth and went into those from heaven, and there he worked before Me and prepared My way to those in hell as well, because if I died in order to be resurrected, I raised many to life then, and they stood up and confessed, for they had power of life while they stayed on earth, and I said: «He who believes in Me has eternal life and does not come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life», and enters in the Book of Life, which I opened in these days and in which I write Myself with all the saints in heaven, who will have waited for the opening of the seals of the Book of Life, the book with seven seals, the book of the seven ages of people, and whose names are written from the foundation of the world into the Book of Life of the Lamb. Amen.

Oh, children confessors in these days when I have opened the seals of the Book of Life! See how I write Myself with the saints and with the angels into this book. Confess My time with you, My book with you, for there has not been and there will not be any greater work than My work with you and yours with Me since the ages, and we have to work, day by day and more and more wonderfully, because there are the days of My coming with the saints in this book and all confess God in it and them and you. The kingdom of the heavens is a great work in man and then it has to comprise in it people of every tribe, language, nation and race, for them to reign on earth as it is written into the Scriptures. And this book is My life giving Spirit, My word and My saints' who have worked along the ages the work of the testimony of the Son of God, Who became the Son of Man two thousand years ago, to become then the slain Lamb, Who washes away the sins of the world in order to draw all people to the Father, as it is written into My word from the Scriptures. Amen.

Oh, children who are My gates, always, always teach My people and those who want to be born of My life giving Spirit, teach them what it means those who are written from the foundation of the world into the Book of the life of the Lamb. Teach them to always love the spirit of repentance, and the spirit of prophecy, the word of this life, which prophesies the end of the ages and the visible beginning of the kingdom of God on earth with the people. Amen.

John, My baptizer, waits to enter into My book with you, which I opened and in which I still keep on writing Myself until My great and shining day when all and everything will turn pale at its brightness, and then they will come to life, and this will happen by its brightness as well, children sons. My book is the word, which has a life giving spirit in it, and all who are written in it from the foundation of the world, come in and out from it with the word of their confession on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

— I am the baptizer with the baptism of repentance, Lord, and I delayed the baptism after the man's repentance, and then You fulfilled the mystery of the baptism with the Holy Spirit and with fire, for that is why we came on earth two thousand years ago, Lord, and we confessed the Father to each other in ourselves and we confessed ourselves and one to another with the work, which we had to do and to confess, for it is written that what it will be worked mysteriously, it will be spoken of from the rooftops and it was fulfilled and it is fulfilled, Lord, the Lamb of the Father.

I want to breathe with my word the spirit of repentance upon the people for the forgiveness of the sins, for the people do not receive You because of their love for sin and they do not have teachers to teach them that sin and all its fruits leads to death. The church on earth that says that it is Yours, it is not Yours, because it loves the sin together with its teachers, who do not have mercy either of their soul or of those that are taught by them, for they do not teach them towards Your kingdom, but rather towards the kingdom of the world, Lord, since the people do the works of the devil. I want to speak to those on earth about the repentance of the sins and about the life of the age to come, for the human ages have come to an end and they have been waiting after the age that is to come, the endless age of the saints, Lord, for the beloved John wrote led the Holy Spirit that the saints will tell You then: «We thank You, Lord, the One Who is, the One Who was and the One Who comes, that You have taken over the great power and You have started to reign and to reward the prophets and the saints», and Daniel, the prophet, prophesied about the endless age: «The judgment will be done forever, and the kingdom and its reign and the greatness of the kings from under the heavens will be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, and His kingdom is eternal and all the dominions will serve Him, and they will listen to Him». Amen.

Let us stay in prayer with them and sit at the table, Lord. Let us stay with them in everything, and then let us write ourselves with the word of my feast, for I want to speak to those on earth about repentance, and to exhort the sons of Your people to a shining work among the people, for their election was to give Your word to the people and to make You known on earth, and You to take care of all those who will be added to them when they seek to be Your kingdom. Amen.

— Peace to you, My baptizer! We stay with them at the table for life giving, and then we will stay with a life giving spirit upon them and we will teach them to reign loving the things of My kingdom. Amen, amen, amen.

*

I, the baptizer of the Lord, I did not do any miracles upon the people, but my miracle was that that I was crying without sparing My life for Israel to repent, for the world to repent from its sins, and then to believe in the One Who came after me with the baptism of the Holy Spirit, and the one who believed to be baptized in water, for the water washes and bears in it the mystery of washing. Amen. When the man's shirt is too dirty, he puts it into the water and boils it within the fire, and the fire whitens it. The Lord came after me with the baptism of the Holy Spirit and with fire, and whoever believed in Him was saved and whoever did not believe in Him was condemned, and the Lord worked for some with the Holy Spirit, and for others with fire; and those who became wheat He put them into the barns and the chaff He cast out into an unquenchable fire.

Oh, sons of the people, you need faith in the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, the slain Lamb, you need faith in the Lord, Jesus Christ, the Lamb of God, the slain Lamb, Who washes away the sins of the world, for that is why He came and became man. You run only for those things in this life, but the Lord comes and asks you about the works of the eternal life, which inherit together with the man that is to be, and you do not have any clean teachers to give you the pasture of the life from above and you wander away in death, sons of the people. Behold the miracle, which I do upon you: I cry to you to repent, for you do not remain with the sweetness that you find in sins, but you remain though with the reward of the sins and this is very hard. Repent, for the kingdom of the heavens is the sweetest treasure, and you find it in you, because its place was to be in man from the beginning of the world. The man from the beginning, who the human kind started with, closed the door of the kingdom of the heavens in him, but I tell you to open your heard and to find God in it, Who waits for you to give Him life in you and not to keep Him unknown in you. The Lord knocks with the word from outside for you to hear it in you and to open to Him inside and not outside, for the outside unlocking is with fire, and the fire burns the body and the soul, but the unlocking from inside is the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, if you wakes Him up in you at the gospel of repentance, for I, John, the Baptizer, call you now, as I did two thousand years ago at Jordan: repent, for the kingdom of the heavens has come near! Come into it and into its works, in order that the Lord may find you doing so, and so that He may give you the Holy Spirit and not fire. The Lord is calling you from the little garden of His word in Romania, country of His brightness, as the word on earth after two thousand years. And I also call you from near Him, for I am near Him, and I do my work of forerunner preaching the Lamb of God to you, Who is coming to visit His vineyard, and woe, if sour grapes are find in it, for that is good for nothing, and the Lord wants to make a new wine, a wine with good taste, and to put bread and wine on the table of His marriage feast on earth. Amen.

Oh, sons of the people, the evil spirits are all on earth and they work through the people to destroy the kingdom of God from the man. Look into the commandments of God and you will find in them to love Him and to do the works of the love of God, which are written in the commandments of the life. The evil spirits are evil and they draw you into their enticing precipice, for they give you eyes for them to see them and to work them in you. However, I come and I tell you that the Lord is coming and He will punish the evil spirit in man, together with his entire house, because the man is a house either for God or for the devil, and the man who does not do God's will is a son of the devil. The miracle that I do upon you is that I exhort you to repentance and then to a life without death, for the Lord to find you watching day and night for the works of eternal life in you, and these start in you with the faith, which can make you the sons of God and to give you a face and a garment of feast before Him, for He comes with His brightness on earth, and those who will be like Him with their life and spirit, will shine like Him. Amen.

I did not do miracles as other saints did, but I did the miracle of the Lord's appearance at Jordan river, for after I baptized Him in water, the heavens opened and the voice of the Father came upon His Son, confessing the One, Who He was well pleased with, and then the Holy Spirit came as a dove and stayed upon the Lord. This miracle was done at Jordan, and I was its witness, for I touched the Lord and I baptized Him, for the baptism to remain then over every man who confesses the baptism with the Holy Spirit, as the Holy Spirit confesses the baptism with water. Amen.

Oh, sons of the people, the baptism is a mystery from heavens. But where is this entire mystery in the churches of the world anymore? Where is the Holy Spirit, Who has to work in the churches with His power and with His work from heaven upon the one who baptizes and upon his witnesses? The faith in God brings love of God in man and watch and work of the Holy Spirit on earth. Man from man dies and there is no longer a teacher for repentance on earth and there is no longer any baptizer upon the man, for the priest who baptizes has to be an apostle of the Holy Spirit, because otherwise the baptism remains a habit without any kind work from heaven, since all those who baptize and all those who are baptized do the work of the devil and not the works of God, for those who do not follow the Lord, follow the devil.

The hell and its works are on earth, and you, sons of the people, work this work, but I tell you that the Lord is coming and He will destroy the whole work of the devil and of its servants, and no one will cover you on that day and you will cry uselessly and you will not be able to sin because of the fear that will be, and you will no longer be able to die, for it will be the reward for the sins, as it is written: «The Lord is coming with the tens of the thousands of His saints, and He will give each one according to his one deed». Amen.

I give you a spirit of repentance by my word on you, sons of the people. Receive this spirit in you, for I was holy with my life and with my spirit all my life on earth, and I still was in the spirit of repentance, for this work I had to establish on the man on earth and any teacher has upon him the teaching that he shares. I rebuked the kings and the influential people in order that they might be hurt and to show their way to destruction, and for them to see it and to turn to the way of repentance, which is the way of life. And if I rebuked them calling them with the work they did, this meant that I showed the work that I had upon me, for I lived with a great thrill of spirit before the Lord and I had so great mercy on Him, for He was deprived of man, while the spirit of this world, which passes once with those that are swallowed by it, was and is so affluent in so many souls. I am so merciful even now on the Lord of the glory, and I want to give you to the Lord by the spirit of repentance, if you receive it in you, for the repentance brings the Holy Spirit back upon you, and then you will believe that the Lord is coming and that He has already come when you stay in obedience to His voice in order to fulfill the word by which He is calling you now from the midst of the country of His coming, and He is calling the man back home. Amen.

Lord, I give You to the people, for I confess You from those that are not seen, that You leave the heavens and come down on earth, and the spirits of the saints testify from You about Your coming and about Your kingdom with the people who become saints, because the saints will reign on earth, as it is written into the Scriptures. Amen. I ask You to open their eyes, to open their heart and to give them the spirit of faith and I ask You to give the love from heaven to the sons of the people and raise them to life from the death of their sins and to comprise them within the work of the Holy Spirit, who always is to confess their faith in You, Lord. Teach the men the faith in You and its power, for I exhorted them to repentance for the forgiveness of their sins, but help their wisdom by which to see their sins and to throw them into the fire of repentance and to get rid of their burdens and for them to see the sweet way of their salvation and of Your coming with the eternal joy on earth, and then to make them eternal and partakers of the joy and not of the pains, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, My baptizer, I have not come to destroy the world, but I have rather come to save it, and I have with My coming the baptism with the Holy Spirit and with fire, and I will save many by the Holy Spirit and, again, many, many I will save as through fire, for they do not want to come back willingly, and I want, and that is why I lead them to the will, which will cleanse them without they wanting it, for I am the merciful One and I want to take the man out of his fall from Paradise. Amen.

And as for you, sons of My coming, you should long after the spiritual gifts, and especially to desire to prophesy, for the spirit of repentance in you brings the Holy Spirit upon you, the spirit of prophesying, by which the world will be made again and will be new. Amen. Reign on earth loving all the things of My kingdom. Seek after this love in you and work with My brightness among the people, for your election was to make Me known to the people, and in order that My day in you to be able to shine, sons, and for Me to take care of everything that may be added to you when you seek to be My kingdom. Let the Book of My Life comprise you in it, being full of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter and by His work on earth. Look for this love in you and work with a guide, because you have Israel as an example, which because they worked as they wanted and not according to the guide that I gave to them, they perished with all their number, while they thought that they belonged to Me.

Oh, sons from the gates, always receive the word of My book with you and open its dough so that its kneading may grow and so that the people of those who are saved may also grow, those who will learn to believe by the spirit of repentance and by the spirit of prophecy, and let no other work be remembered among you, for you are the sons of My glory and I have given you to guide My people from near Me and not from near it, for I am its God and I love it and I want it to love Me full of longing, My people. Amen.

Oh, sons from the gates, establish yourselves as teachers of the Holy Spirit upon those that are called to the school of life and give them grades, sons, for I will seek to see their grades and to find it written, and for them to receive zeal for a mark of salvation and for a saving work like yours upon them and upon those, who you will work with, for the work must be done with disciples, disciple sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the memorial of the parable of the tax collector and of the Pharisee

The work of My word on the earth is the greatest day of all days, which are with the man, and it has to shake up the man, for the Lord speaks over all that are in heaven above and on the earth below. Amen. It is written: «Does the trumpet alarm sound in a citadel, without the people being afraid? If the lion has roared who will not fear? And if the Lord has spoken, who will not fear and who will not prophesy? Surely the Lord will do nothing, unless He reveals His secrets to His servants, the prophets». (Amos 3:6-8)

Oh, children who watch in the way of My coming, sound over the earth the news of My word and let it be known that the spirit of repentance and the spirit of prophecy stay together with the spirit of prayer, because if the Lord speaks, who will not prophesy and who will not speak the word?

As long as I had lived on earth, I had done every work by the spoken word, in order to fulfill it afterwards. First I had asked from the Father by prayer and then by thanksgiving and then I worked, for those who ask have to be thankful because it is not beautiful to ask only to receive and not to be thankful for those that you have received.

The word Church is a big mystery. The work of the word is frightening, for this means the church and the church has the prayer as its work, sons. Those who come in a churchly manner do not have to come together only in number, but rather they have to come together and to be one for prayer, for those who come together cannot be otherwise in the church in order to feel the burden for those who ask from God. Let the man that receives from Me as a result of his prayer not boast about it, but let him rather be thankful, both until he receives and after he receives, for otherwise the man is a Pharisee and makes use of God only for himself and not for Me.

The tax collector and the Pharisee, the two came together in the house of prayer, for this is an eloquent example spoken by My mouth to teach the man through it. The spirit of the Pharisee always forgets the commandment by which the man can come in to God when he prays, and this commandment is to love your brother as yourself and then everything in God, Whom you love with your whole heart, with your whole mind and with your whole virtue. Amen. The Pharisee thanked Me because he thought he was not like the tax collector or like all those other people who worked out injustice, theft and debauchery, and that he fasted and gave a tenth of all his earnings, while the tax collector, with his head bowed, prayed painfully for My mercy for his sins.

The man who speaks words of faith or of prayer without believing or praying is a Pharisee. Many a people and churches of people come together and say each time that I came down from heaven for their salvation and for them, embodied in a virgin from the Holy Spirit, and that I became Man to be crucified, to come to life from the death on the cross and to ascend to the Father in order that I might also come back again to judge the living and the dead, and then to be with My kingdom on earth endlessly. And those who come together in a churchly manner also say that they confess their sins like baptism upon them and then that they wait for the resurrection of the dead and for the life that is to come. I look at these and see that they are gathered together only in number but that they are not obedient, and they are not present at prayers or at prophecies, but they know what they say only on the outside of their spirit and that is all, and that they are gathered together only in number but not for prayer.

Oh, My people, who I speak in My last days with, those who have been seeking to know the time of the saints and their living, it is not possible for them not to believe in God and in His power by the man who prophesies and prays with thankfulness and loves fulfilling My love in him. The Pharisee's prayer of thanks was considered as pride and the tax collector's was counted as repentance and baptism for the forgiveness of his sins. Pride is debauchery, for whoever does not love the Lord, but himself, by everything he does and feels and shares, that one commits fornication by everything he does, as I have taught you to speak to the people of My word, children who have learned from Me to spread My teaching on every side then. The anger at one's own self is fornication outside the man's body, for the man does not have Me as His God when he does so, because it is written: «Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body». (1 Cor. 6:18)

He who loves pride, that one is not a peacemaker between him and God, for the one who does not make peace, cannot make a greater peace than the peace in his works between him and God, between him and his neighbor, and this kind of peace is self-love and it is not on behalf of God. If the man is true in prayer when he asks Me to forgive his sins as he also forgives the one who does him wrong, then I am also as real as in everything he tells Me by what I have taught him to speak in his prayer, and this is how the man is with all his prayer that he brings before God. The peacemakers are not those who make peace between man and man, for the man's works do this, but are those who separate the man from the works that separate him from Me, and I am the One Who have been long enduring with the man while waiting for him to repent, and it is not good for the man to be stiff-necked concerning his repentance, which opens the door to Me, just as the tax collector with this bitter crying made Me had mercy on him and thus I opened to him, and while I was about to open the door to the Pharisee, he closed it for himself by judging the sinner who was praying to forgive everything he had done wrong on earth.

Oh, My people, the word church is a great mystery. This mystery means prayer, it means repentance and it means prophecy in the Spirit and fulfilling, son. Oh, I have always, always looked upon you, for My watching eye waits for you as the dead wait for their resurrection, and I have always, always looked upon you so that you may fulfill this Scripture of the Holy Spirit Who comes out of My mouth. I fulfill it, for My voice flows from Me as I prophesied that I would work, and the dead hear and wait for your voice and for your prophetic work to wake them up. Amen.

Oh, My people, you should not be a Pharisee, but rather you should be pleased to God and to your neighbor by everything you are and do, for he who seeks to do his own will, that one remains with his own works, not within My works, and I said by My words of that time and of this time: «Remain in My love». Seek for the life with a teacher son, for this is what this Scripture means, because the teacher always brings the words of life before you, and let your life stand for My love. Amen.

Oh, My people, you should not remain in your love, but rather you should remain in My love, for you have to know what your prayer is and where its power comes from and what your life is and where its love comes from. Your speaking with those who carry Me into your midst and to you has to be a speaking of the Holy Spirit, for if you do not do so, the evil spirit tries to mark you down with a wrong doing against the Holy Spirit, Who is from Me in those who carry you to Me and Me to you, and of whom He works upon your church, upon your assembly. Otherwise the church would not have any life of Holy Spirit, but it would rather have something else, which does not mean the spirit of life, the spirit of church. I spoke through those who are teachers from Me for you that the man has to smile only for God and not for man; that the man has to be joy only for God, and only then to be joy for the man who becomes godly out of this joy. Amen.

The useful brotherhood for Me has to be seen in the fulfilled prayer. When the prayer is not answered and when the brothers who have come together in prayers do not receive the answer at their requests, it means that they were not one in their prayer. It is written in Psalms about those who stay in the Lord's house, in the Lord's courtyard, the Lord's servants to praise the Lord and to raise their holy hands at night, and the Lord, Who made the heaven and the earth, the Lord from Zion will bless them. Amen.

Oh, sons, learn from the spring of My word; the prayerful man's raising his hands to God is embracing God, for he is careful then of My union with him and he is just the union, for the heart prays and it makes the hands to be raised. The same is also with the reaching the hands among the brothers into My name for forgiveness, for reconciliation, for love between brother and brother and for My peace among the brothers.

Oh, sons, if in your hard times or difficult shortcomings only one is absent from the supplication brought before Me, that one is not accomplished because of the one who does something else than praying, which asks for the church. When Moses chose his people for Me out of the people for the spirit of prophesy, the power of his spirit was also seen over those who were not there, for his spirit also came down upon those who were named, where they were. Oh, let you not be found together only in number, and not at your place of meeting sons, but let you be found one in your prayer, sons. When the priest carries Me into his hands (At the Holy Liturgy, r.n.), and he has not got Me in him, this is for Me a greater pain than that on Golgotha, where I suffered for the man's separation from Me. However, there were so many hearts there that were carrying Me in them just as a priest carries Me, who is on Golgotha when he has Me into his hands leading Me with his pain in him on the way to the cross, crying for Me, the One Who was forsaken by the man's heart, which was careless of God, Who keeps the heaven and the earth by His love for the man.

Oh, sons who are set by Me as guides for My people, tell to the sons of Israel (To the Romanian Israel, r.n.) that it is one thing for the man to do miracles with God and it is another thing for the evil spirit to do miracles through the man, for life without God turns the man into a devil, and the man becomes a Pharisee near God. Tell the sons of Israel not to boast themselves that they pray, or fast, or do My commandments, but tell them to boast with My praising in them instead, and let them reach out their hands to Me, so that I may give Myself with My life in them. Amen.

I look at the churches from the world when the priest does not understand what he is, when the Christian does not understand what he is and that they do not have to forget whom they have into their hands when their hearts do not prove the same thing, or whom does he receive in his body when his deed does not prove that his God is with him then. Oh, guiding sons, I am the wonderful One within and among the brothers, and that is why I come and tell you to teach My people and My servants to say when they pray, to speak about the Lord, Who is wonderful within and among the saints, for in whom the Lord is wonderful, that one is a holy and wonderful man. Amen.

Jerusalem, I want to hear the whole word into your midst, so that you may also be holly and entirely and in debt, son. I want you to say this: "Save us, Son of God, You Who are wonderful within and among the saints, Halleluiah, Halleluiah, Halleluiah, have mercy on us." Amen.

Oh, My people, the hidden things are not good, no matter what they might mean, and that they are good only if they are confessed. Those who are not confessed bring idleness in virtues and in lovingness after the heaven and after the fulfillments in heaven, and these have to be received and fulfilled with gentleness and humility, just as I worked before the Father as a loving and obedient Son. Amen.

Oh, sons, who guide My people, the guide is put by God, and woe to that one if the ship is broken with those in it! However, I, the Lord, being good, know and see that it is so hard to be a guide from those who like leading and they cannot do it because there is a guide set by the Lord. It is hard for a guide because he is a guide and he is not welcomed for this reason and because this is how it is on earth. However, My people has to be heaven on earth and not just earth, and it has to know what it means My mystery with the man on earth. Oh, it is hard for a guide, but for those who are guided it is easier, if they let themselves to be guided, sons. Behold, it is necessary to be a guide so that carelessness may not have room for those things from above from heaven, and also for those from below on earth, because if the Christian says that he serves with his hands to the running of those things, which are for God, I, the Lord, tell him that he does not help by his hands for those from above, but rather he helps with the spirit and with his union in Christ among brothers and in the work of the Holy Spirit in the time of any work done by hand, and otherwise the work done by hand is for the body, if the one who does his work by his hands does not become spirit. The idleness for the work by hands is seen in the idleness for the work with the spirit, for if the one who goes wrong gets upset with the one who shows his mistake, then his work by his hands is for the body, since he does not become spirit from the body.

On the land of the sinners, the one who goes wrong rejoices over someone else's mistake and he covers his own mistakes with it, and even he if does not rejoice, at least he does the mistakes in the same way, either because of revenge or because of his weaknesses of going wrong, and a man like that forgets that the works and the mistakes are different from man to man. But on the land of the holy people those who go wrong are helped for their repentance by those who are knelt down in order that many may walk on their foot before and behind them. Amen.

Oh, wise sons, those who go kneeling down for the life of many! He who walks on his feet cannot go on his knees and that is why he walks on his feet, and the one who go on his knees does so for many to be able to walk on their own feet. Oh, we have to go only on our knees if we want to teach the man to walk on his feet. Oh, we really have to go on our knees, but it is not for this that we shall cry, leading sons, because it is in this way that I made the man and not otherwise. No one knows but the Father that I was crying when I made the man, and I was knelt down when I did this kneading of the man's body and the of his spirit, and now, in the end of the time, My Father has sent Me again to make the man and He said this to Me: "Go Son, after the man who came out of the man that was built by Your hand, go and teach him the sweet mystery of sufferance and not of happiness, Son! Go, Son, go, for happiness makes the man not to forget. Go and come back with the man on Your shoulders, for You have bowed much to the man and You spoke like him so that he might also speak like You."

Oh, this is how My Father speaks to Me whenever I come as word on earth to you, My people, and I want the man to receive My teaching from you, and I want you to be a people of the disciples of My word and not to rejoice over everything that you do for yourself or for Me, but rather to rejoice over everything that I can do through you, for I told you that the dead have been waiting from you the fulfilling of the Scripture of their resurrection at the voice of My word upon you and at your voice, which takes after My voice, and for the dead and for the living to know Me in you that I am the true God, the One Who works out seed from seed, life from life taken from Me, My people, and resurrection from My resurrection, for I made the resurrection. Amen, amen, amen.

And to those who live in their bodies, I, the Lord, tell them this: whoever wants to get rid of the sin in him and of the devil, then let that one not judge his neighbor and God unjustly, and then he will come to life forever and ever, for woe is to the man who covers his guilt with someone else's punishment!

Oh, children that lead on My behalf, if it seems to the man that I speak like him in such a way that I may not make weak the man that is in him, he should not speak to himself that he does not say that God does not know him, that He does not see him and that God does not hear him, because if I do so, I do it in order to keep away from the guilt in the man, but I come closer to the man after he lets that his guilt may be brought into the light, kept by him inside him by the darkness in him, by his judgment against his neighbor, because the man's pride against another man makes to the evil spirit a house in man and a bed for sexual immorality, because the one, who is not one spirit with Me, has got another god, and he is one body with it, as it is written into the Scriptures.

Oh, Jerusalem, there is nothing else that makes the man better than My inviting or reproachful teaching. Reproach is love and he who flees from this love, flees from the work, which works out the eternal life in him, and for him it is life forever. Amen.

I tell you again and again: give grades to those who are in the school of the making, workers on My behalf over those who establish themselves before you so that you may make them stand before Me and Me before them with the mystery of My life in man. Let My people be real, and this truth will give Me back the heaven and the earth, which the man who got out of the man has been taken from Me for seven ages, sons who share the age that is to be and its life on earth. Let the prayer of the holy people be a spirit of repentance, and let it be a spirit of prophecy and fulfillment, and then let it be the resurrection of the dead and of the life that is to be. Amen.

I look together with you over the people, I look with you from heaven and from the earth and I look with you with My body and spirit over the people of My word. Oh, let the people also look at you and see, and let it also see that you see it as well and that I also see it, and let it look at Me seeing with its eyes open and not to see Me as in a dream, for I have always, always looked at it and I want to see that it is the one that watches with great and wonderful wisdom, for I, the Lord, said that it would have watched in vain if My people had not wisdom. Amen.

Now, I am resting in you with a thankful spirit, because we have been able to put the spirit of teaching over Jerusalem, sons who have been sharing the holy word. Now, sons, let us wait kneeling down before the Father and before the people, for we wait for the walking on the feet, a walking of the Holy Spirit, for I have told you that it is only on our knees that we have to go if we want to teach the man to walk.

Oh, it is on the knees that we have to go on, guiding sons, for I made the man in the beginning kneeling down and crying, and now, in the end, the work of the making of the man is the same, and We have to work with you, kneeling down and crying, We Who work out the making of the man and the new heaven and the new earth for the man; to make the man out of man once again, kneeling down and sighing and crying. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the memorial the prodigal son's parable

I come down in those who carry Me as word between heaven and earth with their thought and painful longing. I strengthen the power of their soul and I fill them with My speaking Spirit and I warm up their little hearts made cold by all kinds of burdens, by all kinds of brokenness and I make My way with them for My word, which comes and then turns back into the word of the Scriptures about the parable of the prodigal sons, to make those who hear the interpretation of My words of that time and to understand them as I know them and how they are and what they want to tell the man. Amen.

Then I spoke about the man who had two sons, and the younger one asked his father to divide their inheritance and to give him his part of inheritance, for he was thinking after debauchery and wondering away and he did not want to stay at home with his father, for he was young and had an inexperienced mind, and he did not use it to think for his entire life, and so, pulling away from his root, he went away among foreign people and lost himself squandering his life and his share in the household of his father.

He who is young has no wisdom at all, for it needs time for his mind to grow up, or it needs life to grow, or someone maker to make, because the man's mind is not good to be worked by the man himself. However, I, the Lord, do not want the man otherwise but only with his will, for without My love in man I cannot be with the man, and I do not want to be with the man even if he had his love for Me. However, if he gives himself to Me so that I may give him wisdom and to get to know Me with it and to believe Me and to follow Me, then I can live with him and he with Me. Amen.

After the man loses his power and his youth, which he is not afraid of, he feels very tired like a hungry man and then seeks to strengthen his mind and his decayed life, for the shortcomings gives wisdom to the man and then he looks for help and he looks for it with the man if he was lost among the people. However, the man cannot help the man who has not loved God, and he has done with him according to his works, whose reward comes from God, for the man receives his judgment and his salvation from God and not from the earth. The man harvests wind on earth, for all the things on earth are only chasing after the wind, only chaff blown by the wind and the man does not know where his reward for what he had done is gathered, and he understands this only when he comes across it seeing it upon him.

Behold, Jerusalem of today, I, the Lord, am speaking today with you and I tell you that I have been speaking for fifty years upon the people, and again, upon another after it, and whoever has not remained with Me, but rather has squandered his wealth in pleasures, and then in the worries inherited from them, that one has come now to the time of hunger, and on earth there is no one to stick for help and for salvation, for the man cannot help the man who has not loved God.

Who is able to blame Me for those who have not remained with Me to be their Father and to have Me as their wealth and as their wisdom? They can remove My eyes, they can make Me be in debt after they have received their life from My hand and then they have lived it in their pleasures, and then with the worries after them? When they have put their hope in themselves and if they have gone wrong by so doing, if they have put their hope in the man spoiled on the outside with those that look like My things, and if without knowing what they wanted, they have desired to be pig keepers, keepers of people without God on earth, and if they have no share even in the carobs of the pigs now, after they have played at leaving from near Me, after I had told them not to play because they were going to cry and no one would be able to open to them as in the time of Noah, why really do they come to judgment with Me and with those who are small who have remained with Me and with My name upon them, with My new name, which is called the Word of God, the Creator? I make the new man by word, according to the way of My working by coming with the word of making of the man on earth. If they do not want to have wisdom received from My word, which was seeking after them while they still could help Me, why do they stand up now to judge Me? Oh, why do they not even do what the prodigal son, who squandered his life and his wealth did, and who coming to his senses said: «I will get up and go to my father from whom his hired men eat bread, and I will tell him: ‘Father I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. I am no more worthy to be called your son. Make me as one of your hired servants!’» (Luke 15:18-19) And because he repented this way, he went then to bow down before his father. Then, his father, while his son was still far off, saw him and was moved with compassion because of his repentance, ran and fell on his neck and kissed him, because the son humbled himself and confessed his wrongdoing, and then father said to his servants to bring his robe and his shoes and to put a ring on his hand and then, sacrificed his fattened calf to eat and celebrate because of his repentance, which turned him to his father, who said: «This son of mine, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found». (Luke 15:24) Then he found himself and repented and the father rejoiced over his repentance for this is how it is done to the angels of God for a sinner who repents and comes back into his first root. Amen.

Oh, this is how I answer them, I, the Lord, to those who have been listening to My voice, which came on earth fifty years ago. Why did the people not do and why do they not do like the son whose example I spoke about two thousand years ago? Oh, if they call Me into account for their life, I do not send them anywhere else but to the Scriptures, which have been staying face to face with the man for two ages and I ask them: why have they not received teaching from them so that they may not judge Me but rather to judge themselves, coming to their senses and to see what they have done by not listening to My voice which has been looking for them in the time of each one of them? But these do not want to repent from their murmuring, for their wondering away, in order to come to Me so that I may see them and that they may see Me as well, and so that they may no longer want to be sons but rather servants and to want to fulfill My kingdom in them and to built it, if they did not stay in their time as builders or being built by Me in order to remain My sons. However, they have worn themselves out through their own self by not giving it up to remain My followers, and then they have made steps to whatever they wanted to go and do on earth and have put their hope in the man spoiled with those that look like Me, and by so doing they have taken Me out of them and left Me a stranger.

However, My gentle voice has been looking for all those who heard Me speaking upon them and made its call at midnight, but while they were waking up found out that they had no oil in their vessels and went to buy from those who sold it, (The Church of the world, r.n.), from those who are not their parents but strangers instead, for the sons are exempt, if they are sons and do not buy because they have.

Behold, the man cannot help the man, the man who has loved himself and not God, Who gives Himself to those who love Him, and the man cries again before Me for mercy and he judges Me when I do not open the door for him, which he himself closed it, and he thinks that he is misjudged even if he knows from the Scriptures that I, the Lord, show mercy on whom I want and on whoever wants to repent for My kingdom by which I come to dwell on earth after I have sanctified the earth for a holy man on it. Oh, who has taught those who judge Me, to judge Me for their right from Me? The prodigal son did not ask for any rights, for he spent himself together with everything he had received as his share. He prayed to be received like a hired man and did not judge his father and did not talk badly about the one who remained as heir in the household and a servant by his obedience.

I, the Lord, have taught another kind of parable to those who forsake Me, and I have My Scriptures as My witnesses, which the man does no longer look into to learn what to do. But he who has committed the sin of murmuring, the sin of God's forsaking, that one has totally gone blind and he does no longer see to read in the Scriptures and he sees only from outside of them and he sees badly, and the eye, which is evil, does not let the body to be healed, to come up to repentance and then to the Father of the heavens. It hurts Me more than it hurts them, for I see with My piercing eye that they do not get up, that they do not come back and that they do not built a kingdom for Me in them. And here is what the Scripture speaks to the man: «For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned». (Matt. 12:37) Amen.

Oh, My people of My word of today, which speaks upon you and grows you up to be for My coming! You should stay, son, at your making, for he who is not made does no longer remain. The Father is the One Who knows to teach you, for you saw the older son of this parable how he wondered about the celebration because of his younger brother's return to repentance, who had worn himself out in sexual immoralities. Father taught him and told him that he was the heir upon everything he had, but because this young brother came to life from the dead of this age, it was right for the father to celebrate and not be sad, for it is written: «There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner repenting». (Luke 15:10) Amen. Behold, wisdom is to be learned and then the man has wisdom from God, the Teacher of the man. He who wants to receive teaching, let that one learn with humility and let him start with humility, for this bears fruit of wisdom, because the Lord, gives grace to the humble, and He gives them wisdom, and no one is able to have grace unless he has wisdom by which they may be able to work grace after grace, and teaching from God. Amen.

I have come down, guiding sons on My behalf upon My people, to teach you how to teach the people about the parables that I left you through the Scriptures. I came down as word to you to come back with it into the word of My Scriptures of two thousand years ago and to make the man understand My Scriptures as I know them that they are and what they want to speak to the man. However, you should not be afraid of those who murmur against you, for you do not belong to yourselves, and those who murmur against you, they come into judgment with Me, not with you, but their works and unbelief bring Me out without any guilt and consider them guilty instead, for the man harvests his judgment or salvation from Me, not from the earth. On earth the man has to earn his repentance for the kingdom of the heavens, for this was the commandment of John, who came before Me, for the people: «Repent for the kingdom of the heavens has come near.» Whoever does not want to fulfill this commandment, that one violates God's will in his own self and he does not repent, and I, the Lord, do not want the man to be otherwise but only with his will, for without My love in man, I cannot work with the man, and I do not want to be with the man even if he had his own love for Me. My teaching is sweet upon the man, only that there may be someone to receive it and to taste it, to find its sweetness and to confess it, for the people to multiply on earth and for the whole earth to be filled by being born of My sweet teaching and with longing after the man in it.

And as for you, Jerusalem, you should love Me sweetly, and you should get used to My moralizing teaching, for I speak so much to you and I give you wisdom to have from My teaching, and as for the others, however unrepentant they may be, I speak to them in parables, for this is how I said that I would work, and each one will harvest with God, either for his condemnation or for his salvation. However, I have come, as two thousand years ago, to save the world, and I do this only with the consent of the man's will. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the three holy hierarchs: Basil, Gregory and John

I strengthen Myself within the gates to enter as word into the book and to become a spirit of feast over Jerusalem. Amen. I am the Bishop of the Father Sabaoth and the Father is in Me, and near Me I have the host of the bishops out of whom they celebrate with you in a heavenly way on earth the bishops Basil, Gregory and John, those with the grace and the working spirit by the work of My descent as word on earth to you, children of the New Jerusalem. Their work is very great by My work of today, and their fight for My work is as in heaven not as on earth, for I and My Father know that this work is the salvation of the creature, the man's getting out from the dwelling of the dead, and then My coming, so that the whole nature, the whole creation may receive its life that it had before the death, which has settled on earth by the disobedience of the man, created by My word and by My hand, working out the Father's word, spoken by My mouth. Amen.

Oh, My people, oh, little sons, a remnant of My work through My trumpet, Verginica! I remember how Abraham met Melchizedek and gave him bread and wine, which meant the Body and the Blood of the Son of God, for Melchizedek was God's priest, and Abraham carried Me in his loins and I was the One Who was called its offspring, as the Scriptures, which speak about Abraham, say: «To him and his offspring». Amen.

I remember Verginica (Verginica - the diminutive to her real name: Virginia, r.n.) and I remember how I gave her bread and wine through My bishops Basil, Gregory and John, (In a manner seen with real physical body, r.n.) in 1955, after I had prepared her in order that I could sound the trumpet through her before My coming with the saints, with the resurrection of the dead, and then with the glory after these.

I come down with a renewed blessing over the manger of My word, and with My heavenly work of the three heavenly bishops, we bless the advancing of the salvation by the work of My coming, and I, the Lord, give voice to the saints, because I come with the saints, as it is written: «The armies, which are in heaven followed Him on white horses, clothed in white, pure and fine linen». (Rev: 19/14) Amen, amen, amen.

— We bless from Your right side the word of bishop, Lord and Word, and we renew the power of the threefold altar of New Jerusalem on earth, for this is how You have been pleased with, that is to burn out by fire the sins of the creature and to sound the resurrection, Lord, for You are the seventh angel Who sounds, and then all will come to an end. Amen.

We renew the blessing of fire of Holy Spirit by the word over the three altars of fire of the Holy of the Holies of the New Jerusalem, the new earth, of whose midst the Lord speaks the word of the river of life to flow over the earth and to wash in it the saved ones, that is those who leave off sinning in order that they may be born from above for the life of the age, which is to be after the resurrection of the dead. Amen.

Oh, sons of Jerusalem, who knows on earth why the Lord let His Body and Blood by the mystery of priesthood, which turns the Lord into bread and wine, and which turns the bread and the wine into the Lord, Jesus Christ, the One Who was resurrected and ascended to the Father, and Who has come again? The Lord let this mystery of union with Him for his disciples, but on earth it is not understood what the Lord had done, when He established together with His disciples to let His Passover on earth, and then to wait again for its renewal, the New Passover for the renewal within the kingdom of His Father, and this was also with His disciples and not otherwise.

Who on earth can still understand what the disciple of the Lord Jesus Christ means? He said: «Whoever does not leave for Me, father and mother, brothers and sisters, and everything he has had and he himself, cannot be My disciple. He who does not deny himself cannot be My disciple». Oh, this mystery is no longer understood and its fulfillment was spoiled, because the people have merely traded with the Lord for their name and they have made a name for themselves and have deceived all the nations of the earth, as it is written about the work of the antichrist and which the people do not understand it from the Scriptures, because the Scriptures are made clear on earth only by the Holy Spirit, which works through the holy church, synodal and apostolic, and which has in its midst the spirit of prophecy and the Body and the Blood of the Lord, in a new way, that is for a new man, cleansed by the sin in order to become a disciple of Christ. Amen.

The Body and the Blood of the Lord, the Holy Communion, has to be taken only by the disciples, in order that the Scripture, which the Lord has spoken about, may be fulfilled: «I in you and you in Me». But where this Scripture is not seen that is fulfilled as it is spoken, then the man works in vain in the name of this mystery, for there are not disciples as the Lord worked, and there are rather people subjected to the sin, not being denied of themselves, who rather trade by selling and buying in the name of the Lord, and by this sealing they do the work of the antichrist which comes before the Lord.

«I in them and they in Me, Father, for the world to know that You have sent Me». This is how the Son of the Father was praying for His disciples to whom He left His Body and Blood, and then He went to fulfill His sacrifice and to accomplish the mystery of the Passover, the mystery of the sacrificed Lamb for the sins of the creature. And this may also be in the work of the new Passover in the little garden of the word, in which the Lord works threefold for the resurrection of the creature. Let it be seen on earth the work of disciples, and we, the three bishops, who have the anointing from the Father, and which we left it over this work of word and by which we work now, in the end of the time, for the coming of the word, we bless the threefold altar of the Lamb of God, Which washes away the sins of the creature, and let the Lord see and may He also be seen over the earth from the midst of the His Holy of Holies from the end of the time, and let Him be seen with the work of disciples, so that the world may see that the Father has sent Him, and that He is, and that this word belongs to Him, and that it is His coming. Amen, amen, amen.

— And I, the Lord, seal the word of My three heavenly bishops, and I strengthen the work of the graces and of their gifts over the three sons anointed in the little garden of My word, and I speak this way to all the sons of Jerusalem: sons, sons, you shall have Me richly in you, so that you may be able to give Me to one another for your building up and that no one of you may be without the holy work. You shall not have one another in your heart more than you have Me, so that the evil spirit may not write that you have another god besides Me, whom you serve with your heart and with the longing in it, for I sigh and I have been sighing for a long time before having you, and so that I may be able to have you as Mine and as brothers who got together in My heart from where to take Me in order to have Me in you, for I am a jealous God and I send off the one who does not love Me on the way where I teach you what love is, I and not you. Oh, you shall not be masters over yourselves, because God must be your Father, and you have to be His sons. Do not do what your heart wants you to do. Do not take into your heart from what I do not tell you; you should also not take from heaven, nor from the earth, anything else than I give you by the word. Oh, if those that want to be Mine loved Me enough, as the command of the man's life is, I would no longer speak so many words upon them, so many exhortations, so many prayers, sons. If the heart from the Christians became a dwelling of something that I do not give it by the word, then it is not clean enough to be My dwelling and it belongs to the man himself, and then he is not Mine any longer, even if I do not tell him this, although when I call him, when I reprimand him, I do it because he is no longer Mine and I want to empty him of everything he has in his heart in order that I may make him to be Mine, and that the evil spirit to see him and no longer to teach the man how to make the man like himself and not like Me.

Oh, I have taught you to pass from body into spirit and to be obedient on earth and to walk only and only in the light, for you have a guide set by Me upon you, to be able to see as I see, and to see Me as I see you, and day by day no longer to live your days but rather to live the days of the Lord, sons, for twelve years have passed since I sanctified with My word, left from the clouds on the earth, the Holy of the Holies of the New Jerusalem, from where I have been sharing Myself as word on earth, coming down on the thread of the holy Liturgy, and you should know the law of the altar and to live it day by day fully, obeying My voice and the voice of your guide, for woe to the church where there is no spirit of prophet in it, sons.

There have passed twelve years since, with a great longing, with a longing as long as seven thousand years, and then with it as long as two thousand years, I put this sealing with the heavenly law of the holiness of the Holy of My Holies in the last days, and when I had from heaven the three bishops: Basil, Gregory and John, and from the earth I have had you and My bishop Irineu, all together being witnesses of the work of resurrection, which is to appear more and more on earth. Oh, I look over those with a callous heart who torment My Holy Spirit from My bishop that is persecuted now on earth because of My new name, which is called the Word of God, (Rev: 19/13, r.n.) and by which, I have been sealing you again and again in a mysterious way, and then all the great and little ones of the church of the world, who are judged by this word, because they do not want to be disciples, but they rather want to be those who sell into My name, and soon, soon, I will send those who have not watched to those who sell, because I will call out at midnight, as I also call now: behold, the Bridegroom is coming; He comes coming, and blessed is the servant whom He will find watching, and unworthy is the one whom He will find being idle, and beating all those who do not want to drink and eat and to say this: «My lord delays his coming».

Oh, Jerusalem, oh people fed with the word of God and with the spirit of prophecy, which has become a great gift into your midst by My power and grace! I want to see the work of a disciple within you, the work of the Holy Liturgy, My Body and Blood, united with you in all of your sons who are disciples, that I may be able to tell the Father with longing and joy: «I in them and they in Me, so that the world may know that You have sent Me to them, Father». Amen, amen, amen.

30-01/12-02-2004

The Saturday of the memorial of those who are asleep

My work of the word on earth is the salvation of the creature fallen from life; it is the man's coming out of the dwelling of the dead, and then My visible coming in the man's eyes, for him to receive his entire nature from Me, and the whole creation to receive its life before death, which was installed on earth when the man died, for the man, made by My word and by My working hand, died; the man made by God died.

Those who do not have hope in God are sad for their life that passes, because they either forget it or do not make much of Me, the One Who was well pleased to be born as a man on earth, to die as a man and then to be raised to life for each man who is born of man and then dies, and to bring everyone back to life, as it is written into the Scriptures about My calling, about My descent from heaven into My trumpet to raise the dead at My calling, and then they, together with those who are alive in their bodies, will be taken up into the clouds as I was also taken up at My ascension into heaven from the eyes of My disciples, and we will meet each other in the sky, and afterwards we will be together forever for this is written. However, I want to teach the man to believe this. Amen, amen, amen.

While I went up near the Father I said to My disciples: «I will be with you to the end of the age». The man made the age to come to an end for him, but it does not also come to an end for Me, because I am, I am Who I am, and the man built by My hand and by My Spirit is no longer, and I have been looking and waiting for him to come and no longer pass. Amen.

When I ascended to the Father, when I hid My face from the eyes of My disciples in the day, which is called My Ascension into heaven, I was covered by a cloud so that the man was not able to see Me afterwards and in such a way that the man to always look for Me and do nothing else, because the man does no longer wants to be with Me. I hid so that the man may stay with Me and not forsake Me, and that he may want to dwell with Me. This is what I wanted from the man when I ascended from the eyes of those who were looking at Me after they had asked Me about the restoring of the kingdom to Israel. I wanted to send them as My witnesses on earth to teach every man to dwell with Me and not without Me, and not to seek to know the times and seasons, which the Father had set within His own authority and which do not come to an end. Then I, having told them that they would receive the Holy Spirit to be able to confess Me through them, I let Myself be taken away by the cloud from their eyes and My archangels appeared to them saying: «He will come back in the same way as you saw Him going into the sky». (Acts 1:11) Amen. Behold, this is the way I come, and I come going, and the man passes by Me and does not see Me. The man passes by God and he does not stop and keeps on passing by, and the time looks at him and at his time, for the man spends his days and he wants his days not the days of the Lord.

It is not the time which passes but the man, and the Lord is always in the beginning, the same always, waiting for the man to come back, the man who passes away. The time does not pass, the time comes and is, but it is the man who passes and does no longer come and is no longer. The time always comes but the man does no longer come and he does not want to know about his coming. He waits for My coming, but I tell him that he does not wait for it and that he has never waited for it. Oh, it is not the time that passes but the man does and he does no longer come back, and he passes by Me and does not stop to want for Me and to stay with Me, if I stopped him to see Me and to get used to Me, for he who gets used to Me does no longer want Me and then he wants himself instead.

Behold, people of Israel in whose midst I was born as the Son of man to die like a man, and then to come to life killing the death, which the man has incurred upon him, My people, to whom I appeared two thousand years ago, did not know Me in order to come to Me, and they do no longer come to Me if they wait for My coming without making haste to wait for Me, but I tell them that they do not wait for it and that they have never waited for it.

Oh, the man does no longer believe in his coming to Me, into My dwelling with him on earth; the man does no longer believe, the man who has forgotten that I became the Son of Man two thousand years ago in order to make God into man. Before My becoming the Son of Man, Job said: «But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives. In the end, he will stand upon the earth. After my skin is destroyed, then in my flesh shall I see God, Whom I, even I, shall see on my side. My eyes shall see, and not as a stranger. “My heart is consumed within me.”» (Job 19:25-27) Oh, he spoke so right about Me, and how much and how truly he confessed Me, and I lifted him again and I made him a body again, and Job saw My glory with his own eyes, with his newly made body, and then he received his honor and glory, which he had from My hand by his righteousness, for I loved him and I spoke well of him in heaven and on earth, and after I tore him, I brought him to life again for this longing was consuming within him. But the man does no longer have any longing after his resurrection and he does no longer have faith that I am and I do not pass away and I come going as Daniel the prophet spoke about Me: «The Son of Man, Who comes on the clouds of the heaven and Whose dominion is everlasting and shall not pass away, and the saints of the Most High shall possess it forever and ever». (Dan. 7:14, 18) Amen.

Oh, My people, I am above you in the sky with the saints of My kingdom, for they had possessed it on earth because they loved Me and they also have it in heaven in those that are not seen and they have it as their possession forever and ever. Amen.

Oh, how shall I wake the man's mind to come to his senses? In time of trouble and in pain he remembers many a saints that he knows in heaven and that were also saints on earth. When the man prays to the saints, he confesses the resurrection of the dead and his faith in resurrection, for all saints were the people on earth. Even, I, the Lord became man on earth from a man and confessed the resurrection of the dead, for that is why I came to be seen among the people.

Behold, there is a resurrection and the saints rule over it rejoicing in the sky above you when you make a memorial to those who came to Me and to those from the dwelling of the dead, who wait for the day and for the light of the creation from where they fell through the man built by My hand, who died and he saw God afterwards, and since then the man has been waiting for the resurrection and for the age that is under the Father's dominion forever and ever, which are and do not pass away; they do not pass away like the man, for the time does not pass away but the man does. However, I have established you on earth to be faithful to the resurrection of the dead and I teach you to work with Me for the salvation of the fallen creature from life and for the taking the man out of the dwelling of the dead, which he has built for himself, pulling himself out from Me.

Oh, sons, it shall not be the Lord's coming but the man's coming, the man's resurrection, for the Lord is, and he waits for the man to come. Amen. First, there comes the resurrection of the dead, and then I, with the glory of My appearance from the clouds, as I worked and ascended in the cloud from the eyes of those who were looking at Me asking Me about the restoration of the kingdom of Israel. I had to perfect My kingdom on earth, not Israel's, but they, not understanding God, did not understand the mystery of My kingdom until after the Holy Spirit had come upon them, Who confessed through them My kingdom over the earth.

Oh, there is a great joy and there is a feast among those who wait in the dwelling of the dead! Oh, it is a great joy for the saints who wait from Me the reward of their love of God! May your memorial of those who wait waiting for you to declare their waking up, which all the sinners will pronounce, let alone those who believe looking for and earnestly desiring of My day! The sinners will go to the grave and will say: «Come out, you from the graves so that we may take your place because we can no longer endure God's wrath!» However, those that are faithful to the resurrection of the dead, which will be before My appearance in the clouds, will declare their resurrection and those who are asleep will wake up and will come to life, and this Scripture is to be fulfilled, so that those who are asleep may confess, and they will be dressed in a body preaching the work of My word, the voice of the Son of God, heard by those in the grave for their waking up at His voice, as it is written into My Scriptures about the resurrection of the dead and about the life after their resurrection, the life of the age to be. Amen.

— And as for us, the Lord God, the Lord of the living, bring us to life, for You are the beginning of our resurrection, and we call You in one voice: call us outside! And we will listen to you. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, this is the Scripture that I have to fulfill now, and I will take you out of your tombs and I will give your life back and you will sing the song of your life and the glory of the Lord, Who wakes up those in the graves, so that He may rest from His sighing and to rejoice over the man's coming back, over the man's coming, for it is not I but the man who has to come. Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem of My word, which is heard by those in the graves! It is not I that I have to come, but the man has to come instead, and this work I have to work with you between heaven and earth, for the time does not pass away but it rather comes, and it is and it waits for the man to come, and I command him: let him come! Let the man come to God! Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the memorial of the dreadful judgment. The feast of the Lord's Meeting (Candlemas)

Strengthen your holy power, and from it, the power of the body, children who open to Me so that I may settle down as word over Jerusalem and over the earth. Your holy power comes from the work and then from the joy after the work over the people of My word. This joy is not made of any kind of your spending with Me and with the people, but it rather produced when the heavenly fruit is seen, the fulfilling of My word over the sons of Jerusalem, over all, sons, and then from you and from them over the earth as the fulfilling of My word. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, sons, My word, which does not become work afterwards, this is what it hurts you. That is why you have to teach always, always, the people of My word to be the people of My word as I have called him. Amen. Who is the one that is able to belong to My word? It is the one on whom My word is being fulfilled, and then the word that I speak upon him may be accomplished always in his nature, and from this work you should always receive holy power, for it is not possible to have joy in the Holy Spirit without the power, which feeds it. Amen.

We are reminded in My book of this day about the dreadful day when I, the Lord, I, the Son of Man, in whose image I will appear when all the angels will be with Me, will make a throne of glory and I will sit and all the nations of the earth will stand before Me, and I will set them on My right and on My left, and I will give each one according to his work. Those who have come together to Me will hear from My mouth: «Come blessed of My Father, inherit My Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world!» (Matt. 25:34) And I will tell those who have gathered for themselves: «Depart from Me, you cursed, into the eternal fire, which is prepared for the devil and his angels!» (Matt. 25:41) This is the work, which I came to do by My coming of today. And as for those who have works and a life pleasant to Me, I exhort them calling them to you, My very little brothers, to do to you good, and you to do Me good and to them as well, so that I may always come, always with My care for their salvation and yours. They are My blessed to whom I will tell: «Most assuredly I tell you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these of My brothers, you did it to Me». (Matt. 25:40) Amen. And as for those who have no work and a pleasant life to Me, I do not bring them to you, for they gather for themselves and to their earthly lusts and emptiness, but I will tell them about the throne of glory as I have already done so: «Most assuredly I tell you, inasmuch as you did not do to one of the least of these, you did not do it to Me». (Matt. 25:45) Then those who have worked the life for themselves will have eternal life and those who have worked condemnation for themselves will go away into eternal punishment, and this is how the sheep on My right will be separated from the goats on My left, and each one will hear My words for their works, for I will give each one according to his work. Amen.

It is not I to judge the man, but his works will set him on My right or on My left. You are My little ones and whoever visits you, are blessed by My Father, and there is no other greater and better blessing than that one by which they can do you good, My little ones, and help you on My way with you, on your way with Me, for in this way it is the work of My coming as word for any work of the man on earth whom I call out offering him the teaching of life so that I may not be guilty of the man's work without God. I am the right Judge and that is why I have shown the man the right way, coming to him with My word of life giving and of right way, and if the man does not want to work in his life, then I will not be guilty of his life, of his lack of life and of his lack of blessing.

I set you, My little ones, before the nations of the earth, so that the man may alone chose his place on My right or his place on My left, and this is how the day of the man's judgment is made. I, the Lord, make it establishing you, those who make My coming on earth, before the creature on it and before the human people on it, for the creature waited and waits for you, and by this sign, which is you with the cross of My coming on your little shoulders, I can make the judgment of the nations, the man's trial; and after I have finished testing them through you, I will shine from you, because you carried on your little shoulders the cross of My coming on earth as word, a word of life upon the people. And after I will have shined from you as My sign between earth and heaven, all the nations of the earth will cry and will see Me with you on the clouds of glory, with power and much glory of angels. And then those, who did you good, will be My elected ones and I will gather them with the sound of a trumpet, and this generation will not pass until all these will not remain this way. Amen. And those, who did not do good to you after I have established you as a sign of My coming, as word over the earth for the judgment of the creature, it will happen to them as to those in the time of Noah, who did not believe, and who are eating and drinking and marrying and are given in marriage, as they have always done it, until the day when I shine from you, and then, before their reward, they will know their reward, which will put all to My left for this reward, and this generation shall not pass away until all these happen. Amen.

And as for you, children of My coming, who were chosen for My glory, you should work and live day by day and more and more for it, for the payment of your work with Me will be My shining in you, and this generation will not pass until this takes place. Amen. I have created you for My glory, now in the end of the man's time, and I have taken you from among the people and created you, for you have believed in Me and worked My coming with the judgment of the nations of the earth. Amen.

And now, persevere in your prayer for My victory and yours, for the time is near. Be Holy Spirit in word and in work for My fruit to be known in you, and the spirit of humility to clothe you, so that all the sons of the Jerusalem of My coming to be beautiful sons, for humility makes the man to be My pleased one. Amen.

I want to bring you as an offering to My Father for My work with you, as My mother, the Virgin, brought Me before the Lord after forty days since My birth among the people, and when the old Simeon was released from the days of his waiting, seeing Israel's comforting through the Holy Spirit, Who was upon him, seeing Me, the Son of the Father and the Son of the Man, set before the people to the falling and rising of many, and for a sign which is spoken against. (See Luke 2:34, r.n.) This is how I have brought you before the Father forty years after the beginning of My work of word, now, in the end of the man's time, and you have been to the falling and rising of many and as a sign, which has been causing so much hostility, sons.

It was written about Me that after I was brought before the Father, I was growing and strengthening Myself in spirit, being filled with wisdom, and God's grace was upon Me. This is how I also want to work today, and to do this in you, to appear in you and to shine from you, for I have set you as a sign on earth and this sign has been causing so much resistance, as it was with Me in the midst of Israel.

Oh, children from the gates, who have heard Me and have written down My word! Take care of My work through you over Jerusalem and on the earth, so that I may be able to work from heaven, seeing, and from the earth, working, and to take care of you as of My little ones, and then to give the blessing of My father to all who have visited you under the burden of My work carried on your gentle shoulders, for you are so little, so small on earth, because you are Mine, and because this is how all those who are Mine have been. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the memorial of Adam's expulsion from Paradise

My people I exhort you and I teach you to be as faithful as the Lord, your God, in your love for Him, in deed and in compassion, in righteousness and humility, in prayer and in forgiveness, in fasting and watching, My people. Amen.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit I set My word before you to put it into action, son, and for you to be a great saint, for Moses was great before Me and I had spoken with Him over forty years and now he is with Me and goes with Me like all the great and small saints, and those who had been speaking much with Me on earth in their body, are great saints, My people. The great saints first had been holy in their heart and then in their body, and then they gave birth to saints. The small saints were first holy in their body and then in their heart, and then they remained holy. And I, the Lord, have been dwelling together with My saints between heaven and earth, among those that are not seen and among those that are seen, and I do not stay without saints, for I have made the man to be holy like Me and to remain that way, and the saints have remained this way after I had made them holy, and I have them and I get warm with them and they incline My heart at their prayer for you, children of the New Jerusalem. Amen.

Oh, sons, the man built by My hand out of dust and spirit, after I made him by the word of My Father and Mine, he did not want to remain like God, and he wounded Me tempting My being and My dwelling among those that are not seen, as the man of this time of My word on earth tries to do now. Then the man prepared his falling down from God and this is how it was with the man who tempted God. However, after he had multiplied his flesh and his kind on earth, I could not send him to make him the redeemer of his people, because he died and became dust. Then I, the Lord, I, the Word of the Father, I, the One, Who made the man, clothed Myself within a decaying body and I came from the Father as the Redeemer of the man who was no longer able to come back in heaven. But first I raised from the human kind a holy people and I spoke to them as I did to Adam in Paradise, and I made My people out of the human kind and I called them a living people, God's people, and I called it: Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and out of this nation I raised Moses. Amen, amen, amen.

I had been speaking with Moses and I had been speaking between Me and him, between him and Me for more than forty years on earth, and I raised him to crush My people who was guilty of the murder of his son, (Joseph, son of Jacob, r.n.) who did not die but came to life instead and I put the world of Egypt under his dominion; and after I had protected the nation of his parents in the land of Egypt against hunger on their land, I wanted to make him free from the bondage of the strangers and to give him back the country of his parents. Then I raised Moses and I spoke with him and he with Me, as it was My speaking between Me and Adam in Paradise. And because I raised him, Moses had fasted for forty days and forty nights, in order that I might seek through him, to bring the man back into incorruptibility, and to take him up into Paradise. And I took him up, for Moses remained in his body alive and he did no longer die and his body was not spoiled, and I walked with him within those that were not seen, and I walked with Elijah within those that were not seen, and I have walked with those who have remained in a incorruptible body between hearth and heaven.

I redeemed Moses, the man of God, because He lived in Me as long as he stayed visibly on earth after I had spoken with him from the burning bush, from the cloud and then in the sky, after I had spoken to him and after I had put him on the sea to take Israel out of tears and bondage, out of his selling to the Egyptians, for he sold his brother, as then he was also sold Me later on; however, now, I try again to release him again from the world, because I took over the human body and I was true man and true God, coming out of the nation of Israel with the body received from the Virgin, as it was written ahead of time in the Scriptures of creation, and then into the prophets: and Israel sold Me to death, and then I died, and then I was raised to life and I appeared to Israel as a true God out of true God, and he has been wandering away for two thousand years and he has no longer been coming back to the God of his parents yet, because he has fallen to the damnation of the money, because he sold his Redeemer on money, Who was sent by the Father on earth to them.

I sent Moses in Egypt to save Israel from the bondage of corruptibility. When Moses was forty years I made him the redeemer of My people, his people, but his people did not receive him in their heart and he did great miracles and with a strong arm he took Israel out of Egypt, and I wanted to establish Israel again in incorruptibility and I sent to it food from heaven and I made its garment and shoes imperishable, but Israel did not want to clothe within life without death. However, Moses wanted this and I made him the redeemer of Israel after four hundred years of its dwelling in Egypt, and I gave onto Israel laws through the angels. And if Israel did not want to take on incorruptibility, I stopped Moses for Me to have him as Mine, and I gave to the Israel's sons, who were born on the way of forty years through the wilderness to Canaan, the land of their parents, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Since then, I, the Lord, I have been struggling for the man, for if Moses prophesied to the sons of Israel that God would raise from among his brothers a Prophet like him, so that Israel might listen to Him, I came from heaven and I clothed Myself in a body born of a Virgin so that Israel might receive Me as his God, sent by Father to him.

Oh, it is very hard to take the man again into Paradise, because the man does not receive Me, as Israel did not receive Me two thousand years ago either. I, My people of today, found written into the Scriptures that I had to come on earth as word and to speak with the man after seven ages, as I spoke with Adam in Paradise, and then, because of his haughtiness Adam fell down on earth and then died. And if I had to fulfill the Scriptures of My coming, I have made you the people of God, and behold, I have always, always taught you with My word to be as faithful as the Lord, your God, in love for Him, in deed and in mercy, in justice and in humility, in prayer and in forgiveness, in fasting and in watching, My people, because I have to bring an end to the Scriptures of the redemption of the human kind, the resurrection of the dead, the Paradise on earth and the life of the age that is to be forever afterwards. Amen, amen, amen.

What I do with you and you with Me in view of My justice, you should not do it only to be seen by the people, but you should do them to have a reward from your Father Who is in heavens. You should not boast about your works done for Me as the hypocrites do, who receive glory from the people and remain with this reward. You shall not pray ostensibly like all those who do so, and thus to receive the reward from the people likewise. Do not forget My teaching, sons, for your Father knows and sees before you may ask Him what you and He need on earth. However, you should pray for the coming of the kingdom of the heavens to come on earth the same as the heaven and the earth were in the beginning, and pray to the Father for bread, and pray for the forgiveness of your mistakes and your brothers' who are forgiven by you, and pray for your Father's protection, sons. Fast with a bright face, for the people who fast on earth appear to the people and receive their reward through this. However, you should appear before the Father and He will reward you. Amen. Learn from Me the gentleness and humility of the heart, and this is how you should be merciful to each other, without appearing on your left or on your right, and the Father, Who sees in secret will reward you fourfold. Pray beyond the world and let it be a door between the world and you, and the Father, who is in secret, will give to you. Watch and fast with a clear face and do not show yourselves to the people that you fast, but rather to the Father, Who is in secret, and He will reward you and you will be the sons of the Most High on earth. Let your fasting be from everything that is evil and ugly to the soul of the Father and cover yourselves with your love for Him, and you will be like Him when you work this way.

Love one another as I have loved you, and do not be otherwise, for the man loves the man on earth into My name and does brotherly works into My name, and the man forgets to love Me on earth as in heaven. However, you should not give the love from among you on the one, which has to be between Me and you, because if you love only those that love you, what reward will you receive? Love God, sons, and then all of your love will be His love, which does only good around you without haughtiness, for he who does not love from Me, loves from him, and his love remains on earth. Love in Me, for in you it is not as in Me. Remain in Me, for you do not remain in you as in Me, and after you have done so, you will tell Me if those that I speak to you about are right. The love for your brothers shall not precede the love for God, for the first one is attacked by the opposing spirit, which is human and is not godly. Love God, and He will clothe you within Him and you will be the sons of the Most High on earth and you will be the heaven on earth, for I want to bring the heaven into view on earth, sons, and then to hide it for a few moments, and I will cover you as I covered Abimelech and no one saw him under the sycamore tree, which sheltered him until I raised him as a testimony of the resurrection and of the life within God. I will cover you too for a couple of moments as the cloud also covered<sup>177</sup> Me from the eyes of My disciples in the time when I went to be near the Father in secret, and I will do this to make you be like Me and like My Father, Who is in secret, and then we will remove the veil and I will appear with all the saints from the beginning and up to you, and with all the sinners, on the right and on the left, and I will have the saints on My right and the sinners on My left. And now, by My word upon you, I pray in you for the sinners, to be forgiven by your intercession and to make them free, starting with Adam and then with all people up to this time. Amen, amen, amen.

I will forgive the sinners giving them according to their works first, and then I will hide you, but My Spirit, Which is praying in you, first will ask the Father for the forgiveness of the sinners from Adam and until now, because Adam is crying sons. The man built by My hand is crying for all those who have been sinning without forgiveness on earth. The first man, who had lived on earth almost one thousand years, has been crying in the dwelling of the dead, and since then he has been crying for all those who sin like him, to be forgiven of their sins. Amen, amen, amen.

— Lord, I have been crying since the day I went down crying into the dwelling of the dead and I became dust, and I have been crying with a greater pain since the day when you signed My forgiveness by Your crying and by Your blood on the cross, which was shed on the earth, because water and blood flew from Your side, and also from Your eyes on the cross, Lord. The part of Your body that was first pierced is the place on my body from where You took the evil out of me and brought it before me in the flesh. (Eva, r.n.) You brought me face to face with my body, and then I sinned in my body, and since then I have been crucifying You in My body and I have no longer let You live in me and I have no longer been Your dwelling place. However, I have been crying now before You for every man that has come out of me, to forgive him and that Your forgiveness may come to me in order to give our hand to the sinners for them to come out of the tombs and from death, Lord. Receive this prayer and receive my bitter crying because I have witnesses between me and You, Your very little ones, who live in You and through You on the land of Your coming.

It is not You who cast me out from Paradise, but the sin of my body, which lusted against Your spirit from me when I died in heaven and then on earth. I became haughty in heaven, and I died on earth, according to Your word spoken in Paradise, when You told me that in the day I ate from the fruits of the tree You told me not to it from, I would surely die. And when the day You made me came again, I died in heaven, because I did not listen to You and I ate of the tree and then I was afraid of God because I died and this was my punishment, because fear goes along with punishment, Lord, and I, instead of asking for Your forgiveness for what I did, I hid behind me, behind my body with it, behind my wife, and You saw me hidden and made me come down on earth, as You told me at my creation when You taught me to listen to You. However, I did not listen to You, because I did not see You anywhere but only in creatures and I heard Your voice and I died because of my haughtiness, Lord, and then I was subjected by angels until You judged me in heaven and then You put me down on earth, and at the Paradise entrance You set Your angels with a flaming sword.

I remember now my haughtiness from Paradise, which the first host of the angels beginning with Lucifer, its chief angel, served, and I remember the archangel Michael, who subjected me at Your command as a guilty one for the falling of the Lucifer's host. He subjected me with great power and he called out to all the angelic hosts speaking to them: «Let us stay well and in fear and let us be attentive!». You were the witness of all these and You were bitterly hurt by my falling down and by the falling of those who wanted to serve my haughtiness against You. Two thousand years ago, You taught Your disciples not to rejoice because the spirits fallen from heaven listened to them, and You told them how You saw them falling when they bowed to me and then You taught them to rejoice because You wrote them into the Book of their Life with You.

I remember with sighing and crying of my crying on the day when I went down crying into the dwelling of the dead, and painfully I ask for the forgiveness of the sinners who died through my sin, Lord. It was not You, Who sent me away from Paradise, but the sin of my body that had to be holy forever, because You made me in Your image, Lord.

But now, forgive the sinners, who were and who are on earth committing my very sin, and I then I will have the joy of the forgiveness of the human kind and of its raising, and I will fully taste of the mystery of redemption, which came down from heaven on earth in the flesh to bring the salvation of those who have been crying for seven ages for their last salvation and resurrection, for You, the One Who are the beginning of the resurrection of those asleep, Lord of the saints. But do not forget the sinners, for You said that You did not come to call to repentance the righteous, but the sinners instead; that You did not come for the healthy but for the sick without healing; that You did not come on earth for the living, but for the dead to rise them to life, Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

— I have come with the saints on this day of the memorial of the man's falling from Paradise. I have come with the great and the small saints to write down on the earth the forgiveness of the sinners, and then their atonement and then their resurrection, and those who do not repent from their wicked deeds will be thrown into the fire. Amen.

Oh, My people of today, strengthen the spirit of repentance and its works in you for the entire human kind from Adam up to you and from you down to Adam, for it needs repentance, prayer and watch for the resurrection of the human kind, who was and who is on earth, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, sons, who give being to My word, lift up the book of the judgment of the creature, the book of the resurrection of the creature; lift it up between earth and heaven and fulfill those things for the resurrection of the creature, for this Scripture of the resurrection is waited with many tears and with a wounded sigh in the spirit of those who wait for the resurrection from Me, for I am the resurrection and the life, as I said two thousand years ago that I was, and the same way as I ascended, so I would come down, hidden from the eyes of the people, but speaking the word upon the people as in the beginning, and that I would make him with the word. Amen.

Oh, little children who bring Me down on earth, I want the man to learn to bring Me down and not to wait for Me, for those who are dead wait for Me, and those who are alive bring Me down from near the Father closer to them, for they are the little ones of My Father, and My Father has given Me to them, and they bring Me to be and to speak and to bring to life the creature, which was swallowed up by death, and I will raise it to life, for this is the time ordered by the Father for the resurrection of the dead, and then the life of the age that is to be, the heaven and the earth in a feast of new age on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The first Sunday of the Lent, of the Orthodoxy

My Spirit is the Holy Spirit Who is carried by the saints, and I dwell with Him in the saints, as I have done all the time, because the saints have the spirit of humility in them, and this spirit does not have his face in man anyhow, and where he has it, it is wonderful and he is like God. Amen, amen, amen.

The Spirit of humility in man helps Me to dwell in man and to make a throne for Me in him and to reign from it in the midst of those who are humble, who have the wisdom from above and which is clean, peaceful, full of mercy and good works, honest and faithful, and which is obedient, My people.

Oh, I settle down as word upon you to teach you, Jerusalem, and then to see that you have received My teaching, for it is in this way and no otherwise that faith works. The Spirit by which I dwell into your midst has to give you abundant grace, for it is written in the Scriptures of the Holy Spirit that «God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble». (1 Pet. 5:5)

The Holy Spirit, Who gives grace, has been carried only by saints, for the saints have stayed on the way of faith and they have walked straightly on it and cried in the Holy Spirit, for there is only crying on earth, My people. However, there is a greater pain on My when I see how the flesh of the man lusts against the spirit and he cannot wake up from his slumber and to believe being sure of the things hoped for and through this to bring the proof of those that are not seen, for I, the Lord, Who am, and Who was, and Who comes, made the ages by faith and by My spoken word, and out of nothing I brought into view those that were not seen and that are not seen now. Amen.

The flesh lusts against the spirit and that is why the man cannot pass from flesh into spirit. Oh, the man cannot get away with his flesh and to pass into the spirit, and then to lust within his spirit against his body and to do the works of faith, as the saints did and do, those who have passed from body into spirit and have cried on earth. The saints cry on earth and that is why they are saints, for the one who is sure of the things hoped for, that one testifies about them and he cries waiting for them and loves seeing and hoping, and he cries loving and suffering and waiting by faith. Amen.

I spoke in the time of My body that was seen among the people and I said that faith does not belong to everyone. There has been nestled on earth the heresy that the people who make a building for a church and go into it, they also are people of faith, but I, the Lord, tell them that it is not so. Faith does not belong to everyone. It is the gift of the saints who have proved out the works of their faith and who have fled from the joys and pleasures as Moses fled from the debauchery in Egypt and from the deceit, which came from the sinful and fleeting sweetness, and he rather chose to share ill treatment together with the people of the Lord, looking straight to the reward after it.

Oh, My people, if Moses did not have the gift of faith, he could not remain faithful like the man who saw the One Who was invisible, and he could not split the sea in two, he could not appear as god over his people. Behold, faith does not belong to everybody. Israel could not leave Egypt, because he did not have any faith, but he came out of it by Moses' faith, and behold, faith does not belong to everyone, but only to those who do the works of faith, and those who do not do its works, those are the ones who have no faith in the things that are and are not seen, for the Holy Spirit has been carried only by the saints, because He dwells in the humble spirit of the saints, and He does not dwell otherwise in man, and the man cannot work the Holy Spirit if he does not have a humble and a holy spirit.

My people, those who think the same, cannot do this but only in the Holy Spirit. My people, those who stay together are those who can do this through the Holy Spirit, Who is One and Who teaches likewise those who stay together collectively, for in a community worked in the name of the Holy Spirit one should not stay longer in the flesh, longer in the body, but longer in the spirit instead, longer in the spirit among the brothers, for otherwise they use each other for those things in the flesh and from the earth and not in the least for those that are spiritual. In a community of saints they have to speak in the Holy Spirit and to praise the Lord likewise, day and night, with the hope in the One Who stays invisibly.

Oh, My people, the mystery of the saints is the Holy Spirit of the faith, which believes in the things hoped for and which by faith are proved out that they are, for who is the one that would have hope in those that are not seen if he had no faith in them? When I spoke to Nathanael: «Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!», (John 1:47) he asked Me: «How do you know me?», and I answered him that I had seen him before Philip called him to see Me when he was under the fig tree, and then he believed and confessed that I was the Son of God, and he was loved by the Holy Spirit.

However, those who today hear My word, which opens the heaven through the angels and the angels ascend and descend with it by the faith of those who are called by the Holy Spirit of the saints, how shall I be able to hear those that do not believe, who do not have the gift of the faith because of their body who lusts against the Holy Spirit, but who gave themselves a name of Orthodox Christians? What shall I do to these who do not believe through the works of the holy faith? These are like the dead, but they are not like those in the graves because they know Me and cry out to Me to raise them to life so that they may confess this work of word, which fills the heaven with the saints and the dwelling of the dead with My voice, which announces the life of the age to be after the great resurrection. And here is what I tell them: the Holy Spirit is carried only by the saints, for the saints have the spirit of humility in which the Holy Spirit rests and works, Who sees and hears and testifies. However, you, those who have established yourselves on earth into My name as the servants of the right faith, how did you give this name to your faith? What kind of work do you do? However, you who hear this word spoken by My mouth over the earth in these days of heavenly glory on earth; you, who speak lying in ambush with fear saying: “Who of our leaders believed in Him?”; you, who condemn the living God saying: “It is not Him;” you, who know this word by which I spread all over the earth through those who are small and not taken into consideration, like a seed of life and like a river of life; you, who always sat and sit on the seat of the holy ones and sit on it against the Holy Spirit, do you believe that you can deny the Living One by your carelessness of life and by the word of life? Your flesh lusts against the Spirit and My Holy Spirit lusts against your flesh by which you cover the eyes and the ears of those without a way so that you may not lose them from the way of your wandering away from God, and I will stand against you and I will do justice to My saints, and then you will see that I am this word, which has also called you from death to life. However, you disregard it, for the love for silver has blinded you, and the glory you receive from the people has done likewise, but I will not forget you, for in these days I will judge your unbelief, after that for such a long time I have been asking you not to stand against Me.

I will set aside many people by this prophecy, for I speak by the word and then I fulfill it, and through those that you spurn I work out My light over the earth, My word, which has life in it, and the life is the light of the people, and the righteous will live by faith; and if someone doubts, I will not be well pleased in him, for there is very little time and I will not be long in coming to do justice to the saints. Amen. There is little time left, very little, and I will call you to judgment and I will tell you that you have not been My righteous ones as you have pretended. You call yourselves “saints” and “His Grace,” “His Highness” and “His Holiness,” and you expect the people to kiss your hands and to receive grace from you, because you boast that you have grace. But I tell you that it is written into the Scriptures that «The Lord stands against the proud, and gives grace to the humble». (1 Pet. 5.5) However, you are not humble, but you are full of the spirit of glory, which comes from the people and you love silver, and I will surely judge you. The world touches you and your garments to receive holiness, for this is how the people know, poor of them, but I tell the people that you are not holy, and you have not even tried to be holy and to remain like that, but you are proud, and grace is not in the high places, but it is in the lower places instead, and in no way you are able to love the spirit of prophecy and the prophets who have it.

You say that the spirit of prophecy is no more, and the Scripture judges you saying through the apostles: «Earnestly desire to prophecy and do not put out the Holy Spirit, and only in this way the Lord will be with you». However, you have lain in ambush with the cowardly so that they may not believe in My Spirit, Who is poured out as word on earth, someone among the leaders, someone of those who are called servants of the church, but I tell you that you are because of your desire for empty glory and that you have already received your reward, as it is written into the Scriptures. Amen.

Oh, I have called you so many times by this word, but behold, faith does not belong to everyone, but it is of those with a humble spirit, and this is the sacrifice, which I am pleased with, not your incense and not your long prayers, which you do to be seen by the people, for all these are only pains for Me and for the saints because of the spirit of your haughtiness and of your unbelief that is in you, for the works of unbelief exhibit their fruit when they work among the people. However, you should appear before the heaven with flocks, which are as sick as you are, with your disciples, who do not have the Holy Spirit in them, because you do not have Him either, since you have not got the work as that of My disciples, with whom I worked out miracles for the judgment of unbelief on earth.

You come together in churches in this day, which is called the Sunday of the Orthodoxy and you collect money for churches. Oh, and My disciples worked over the churches, but they gathered things from the earth for the saints and for the poor and not for them, and behold flocks of people, which do not know what they do and you rule over them, and I, with the spirit of prophecy reveal you, those wrapped up in a robe of a holy man, of a servant of My holy things, which are given to My saints, and I ask you: to whom do you give them if you say that you make them and that you have them? To whom do you give them when you say: "Let us be careful because the holies are given to the saints?" (At the holy Liturgy, r.n.). Oh, not even you speak like that, and you rather speak otherwise, and you say: "Let us be careful, the Holies of the saints?" and you teach this people to say: "One Holy, One Lord, Jesus Christ," instead of teaching him to be holy and to be humble saying: «Only One is Holy: the Lord, Jesus Christ!»

Does the common man really understand this speaking in the church anymore that needs an interpreter if it is not understood? Oh, how shall you not stand against My church of the New Jerusalem, the same as My church should have been everywhere? How shall you not stand against Me if I, here, by My prophetic word, speak against you that you are false christs, who do not let the people come to Me and rather close the door for them to My kingdom, which is the kingdom of the saints? How, when you keep the people in the kingdom of the sinners who do not see the way, in order that they may serve you and not Me, the True and Almighty God? The true shepherd lays down his life for the sheep, and you take their life instead, but do I come to give them life, for I am their true Shepherd and I have wanted to be yours too, but your spirit of haughtiness does not let you work with the holy things and their fruits in you. Therefore, I will judge you from now on. Amen, amen, amen.

And as for you, children of My church of New Jerusalem, be children sons, for I said that only the child is afraid to be alone, being always without a teacher, always without a protector, always without the protector against the evil one. On this day of memorial of the holy faith you should learn from Me that the man, who does not love the Holy Spirit, should abstain from the food for the body until he loves with power those things that are hoped for by faith and, persevering and believing in this way, to prove out that they are and not only this but also to confess them. Amen.

I teach you that the one who abstains from food and has not got the Holy Spirit working and confessing in him, that one does not have any reward, and is just like the devil, who does not eat any food and it does not have any reward from the Holy Spirit. I teach you that the Holy Spirit belongs to the saints, and the saints have the spirit of humility, the spirit of the wisdom from above, which is clean, peaceful, long-enduring, compassionate, producing good fruits, faithful and honest; and it is obedient, sons, and the gentleness of the wisdom shows its fruit and its behavior to the same degree as disorder and all of its work reveal their works. Amen.

Your dwelling together shall not be more in the flesh than in the spirit, so that you may get away with complaints against each other, for this is the judgment, and behold, the judge stands before the doors and comes and condemns you before Me if you do not love sufferance, if you do not love the sorrow after God, if you do not love the long endurance, like the prophets who worked and work into My name.

Get used from your heart to control your tongue, for the tongue is fire and throws into the fire the way of life. Give with it only to the Lord, sons, and prove this. Amen.

It hurts Me when I see that you talk to yourselves. Let your speaking be from the Holy Spirit so that you may be children, for only the child is afraid to be alone. The Spirit Who dwells in you gives you abundant grace, but learn well the Scripture, which says that «God opposes the proud and gives grace to the humble». (1 Pet. 5:5) When I see that you are proud, I stand against you and I do this from near you. And if I see that you are humble and with a humble spirit, I give you grace and I also do this from around you. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, sons of Jerusalem, seek that you may not do much work upon the earth, but rather seek to make yourselves, but do not misinterpret what I tell you. Do not set yourselves in whatever you do, but set yourselves in Me instead, and put Me in you, for the work that you do with your hand deceives you and keeps you for it, and thus you do no longer want to be with Me, but you want to work for yourselves, not for Me, and then you do no longer have time for the Holy Spirit among you, because I have taken you from the earth to be for Me and not for you, sons. Examine yourselves if you are for Me, if you stand for Me, if you fulfill My word upon you and in you. See if My word is in you, or if your word is in you for work, for behold, people and cities of people on earth boast that they work into My name, but it is not so, sons.

Oh, I would take you and I would leave with you into the midst of the wolves, into the midst of those who say that they make God and eat Him. I would take you and go with you to show you to those that you work the Holy Spirit, for those who work into My name are not one with those who work God, the Holy Spirit, sons.

Oh, I am only eyes and ears so that I may not lose you, for the devil, My adversary and yours, would like to swallow you up in such a way that I may no longer have children, but in order that I may have you, I have to teach you always how it is possible for you so that I may have you, not how it is possible for Me to have you, for I can have you, but I have to make you understand that you have to be able in order that I may have you. I have taught you and I have always asked you not to work without a guidance, without My Spirit among you, both in your work with your hand and especially in your work of the Holy Spirit in you and upon you, and then over the earth. I have taught you not to be your own guidance, but let Me to be your guide, and you should not forget that you are not yours if you want not to be yours, but Mine, sons. However, if you do not want to be Mine then you are yours and if you want to be Mine then you will have to prove it by everything you are and work. Amen.

I have taught you to help, more than anything you may work on earth, the spirit and the power of those who give Me to you as word, for My coming to them is very hard, and it is very hard for them too, for they have to be full of the work of the Holy Spirit in you, sons.

The spirit of repentance and the spirit of prophecy, these two spirits I have spoken you to work out, for these two make the love for God and its work over the earth. I have taught you to work nothing out of your spirit, because you do not only have to live in the name of the Lord and that is all, but rather you should live like God on earth and to be the house of the Holy Spirit.

When I give Myself to you, I share Myself, and I give Myself as a whole to all of you who receive Me. However, do you give Me to each other afterwards, sons? If I give Myself as a whole to you, dividing but not dividing Myself, you have to reveal Me as a whole in you, but pay attention to reading, to exhortation and to teaching and do not neglect My grace that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, (1 Tim. 4:13, 14), that your progress may be revealed to all, for those of you who persevere in the teaching, and I, the Lord, tell you this, as the apostle Paul was teaching his disciples, that you will save both yourselves and those who hear you. Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem, oh, My people, I tell you in pains to take care so that your work with the hand may not exceed the one within your spirit, My people. However, if there is no one to testify about your work before Me, he will remain on earth, for I have taught you the order between Me and you, between you and Me into your midst, and your guide is without your work before Me, and you have got used to your work into My name and you have grown out of living your life, My people, and I tell you: you should not live into My name and that is all, but you should rather live like God on earth and to work like Him and work Him out and to be His house and the Supper of the Holy Spirit, My people.

I want to remind you, Jerusalem, of the last sign before the resurrection of the dead and then of My appearance with thousands and thousands of angels and of saints in the sky. This sign will be the growing cold of the love, My people. Against this you have to watch much, for it is a deadly fight, and you shall fight for life more than the evil spirit fights for death when he sees his defeat and his death from his closeness, not knowing what he fights for, then he will see that the death is his fruit.

However, My people, I have always been looking at you, and I tell you this again and again so that you may not forget that I am looking at you and I tell you this again to know how to become well pleased and day by day to be more and more filled with God, more alive with My life in you, more like God on earth, My people, for the devil is on earth doing a great job with all his servants and with all those who say that they serve God under a robe of saints, and if you want to be like God, then I have to see this, and then I have to be the One Who will reveal that you are and that you have God as your father. Amen.

Oh, sons of Jerusalem, if you think the same way for Me and for you, this will be My victory against the devil that flees from you if you do not allow him. The Holy Spirit is God; He is not man and the man of the Holy Spirit is My dwelling. Get used to seeking after Me, for it was very hard for Me among those who were Mine and accustomed to Me, because they did not appreciate Me, and others got accustomed to Me and did no longer stay with Me and like Me. Get used to seeking Me and not to be you in whatever you do, for I work hard, and I work harder and harder to have you as Mine on earth according to the order, which is within God upon you. Be sons of the faith, which hopes obeying as in heaven, sons. Be New Jerusalem, for those that are old have passed away once with My work with you. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, children who are set by Me as a guide on My behalf over Jerusalem, over the sons of My word of today! Oh, do not be sad. Work! I am in you, because you have a humble spirit, and I want to have all the people like you, but receive from Me and read, exhort and teach one another, and you will save both yourselves and those who listen to you, for the humble spirit in them will see Me in you and they will bow to listen to Me and to rejoice being obedient, for outside God there is another kind of joy, and the man's entire knowledge makes him proud as it did with those who became teachers and not the doers of My word.

However, I speak again to My people: pass from your body into the spirit and remain spiritually in the community so that the work done by your hand may not overcome the one done with the spirit, and earnestly desire the Holy Spirit, for this will lift you up and you will be heavenly and not earthly sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The third Sunday of the Lent, of the Holy Cross

With My heavy cross, with the cross of My coming, I settle down on your gentle shoulders, seized by awe and hardship on the way of My coming to the man, children under the cross. The way of the cross is very beautiful, the way under the cross, and blessed are and will be those who do not flee from it, and those who flee are those who do not recognize themselves in Me, the One broken and victorious under the cross, and neither I do recognize Myself in them. Amen.

I spoke clearly: «If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me», (Matt. 16:24) to follow Me and not to follow themselves, children from under the cross, crushed and victorious under it and by it, for there is no victorious man between earth and heaven but only through the cross. Amen.

I was together with My disciples when I called the crowd and I said: «If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, and whoever will lose his life for My sake and for the Gospel, that one will find it, and it will save him from destruction, for what will profit a man, if he gains the whole world, and he forfeits his life? Or what will a man give in exchange for his life?» (See Matt. 16:24-26)

Oh, children crushed and victorious under the heavy cross of My coming after the man! You shall know and tell everybody by this spoken word that on earth there are two kinds of Christians: earthly or fleshly Christians, and heavenly or spiritual Christians, under the cross. You, little sons with a heavy-footed walking on your way with Me, you shall never cry for yourselves or for the man. However, you should cry for Me and with Me, and let the sons of the world cry for themselves. He who cries for himself is rebellious and unthankful, and he who loves Me and follows Me by self-denial, and does not have to and it is not nice to separate from God before the angels or before the people, for I am not a doll, as many people want to treat Me, but I am the One full of tears for every man who plays with God before the angels and before the people shaking off his cross, his faith, his stature and his steadfastness by any difficult thing, and I, the Lord and My saints, did and do not do such a thing, but we are rather long enduring on earth and in heaven for the life and for the salvation of the man, fallen from life. Amen.

The cross is My coming through the glory on the cross, as I worked two thousand years ago. The cross is the sign of My coming to the man, and the man without a cross does not have My coming in his body. The cross is the victory upon death, and I call blessed those that get under it and do no longer come out from under it, for the man without a cross is worldly and he is like a child who loves his toys and the life of his free will, and not a life with tears and with heartache to keep him alive and true on earth as in heaven. The cross is the life without sin, without pleasures, without self-will, for the kingdom of God in man is not like the one on earth in man, but it is like that one on the cross, for through the cross I was a King with a kingdom, which does not fall down. Amen.

One does not live a temporary life under the cross but an eternal life. The works of the temporary life are with pleasures, with sin, full of the shudder of death, and they are human and without the Holy Spirit as the guide of those who are faithful and holy. And the works of the eternal life are those who make the man like Me and keep him as in heaven on earth and separated from the earth, for many saints have watched to have only their clothes on them in order that they may flee from any pleasure, because they have loved their life and have not wanted to lose it and have not wanted to give it on anything else on earth.

Oh, too many people say that they have their self-denial, but who is the one who knows what this means? Oh, sons, who bring Me down on earth, I help you through any kind of sufferance you may go through to be like Me, for the people of My word to look at you and not to overthrow Me for them, because I am the humble One and the One Who humbles himself before the man's power and even for his power, even if it is a power against Me, because the one that cannot do otherwise, that one can work by his own power, and when I give Myself to him as body and word, he gathers strength against Me, and I humble Myself, for a bowed head is not cut by the sword, which strikes in it to cut it.

Oh, My people, no one struggles on the cross, for it is the power which gives to the man peace, hope and life. Any other sign of humility a man may struggle on, he struggles for his own self, because this is how the man has been taught by his human nature. But no one asks anything else on the cross, but rather one waits for life, for resurrection, because it is on it that the man has the Lord within him, when the Lord, and not his self, is his love, and My word does not have to be misinterpreted, but it has to be well received and loved. Oh, My people, oh, sons, the cross is life embracing, and you should learn this teaching.

Teach the Jerusalem what I, the Lord, am, children set by Me as light upon it so that it may see the way. Open your little mouth into its midst, and I will pour Myself in you and we will hover with the heaven over the earth, over Jerusalem, sons and teachers, for the heaven on earth is the eternal life, which is shared through the faithful and supple man into My hand, because only the one who is flexible is the faithful man pleased to God. Look with My eye through your eyes to those who think by their mind together with the mystery of this coming of Mine near you. Those who are tired of themselves, of their own self, are these! I spoke that if they also loved the heaven as much as they love the earth, then I could make them into My dwelling from which I may know and believe and get supple according what the godly Spirit seeks in man and from man.

The one who forgets God for his own self, is the one who does not remain in God, and let him, who hears what I say, understand. The one who forgets God is the one who falls asleep when he goes to bed and when he gets up he does not blame himself because of the humility that would give his life, for the one without God is dead, it is him, and not God in him, because God is humble, He is the gentle and humble One by the spirit of humility, which makes God in man and man in God. Amen.

Oh, how easy those who want to deny themselves forget to take up their cross and to follow Me, and how easy do these forget not to worship other gods besides Me! Behold, these do not know what it means not to worship other gods and what it means to worship themselves against My dwelling in them, for My Spirit is humility, because I am Son, and this is how I stay, and I do not exalt Myself in such a way that I may not listen to My Father, Who is in Me and Who teaches Me to be Son and to worship the Father, for He lives in Me and I in Him, and this should also be the humility of those who want Me with My face from the Father, with My humility of a Son. Amen.

Teach the Jerusalem what I, the Lord, am, children who teach from Me for him, for here it is how I speak about Myself, calling Myself Son, because the one who calls himself a son, that one has a teacher. Oh, let the sons of these people not speak, let them not speak with you as they would speak with one among them when they speak with you, but let them speak proving out that they are disciples and sons of the teaching. Oh, how beautiful I teach them through you, but this is felt only by the one who loves and wants longingly the teaching and its growth and the life through it. I tell them and to all on the earth who receive from My river of word of eternal life, I tell to all of these that the man who goes wrong has to be exhorted to repentance, not to hope, for hope belongs to the saints, and repentance belongs to those who are wrong, and whose hope only by repentance is received by God and given by God to them. The one who is exhorted to repentance has to know where he had gone wrong and how wrong his mistake has been and what is wrong for the Lord and for the man's living. That one cannot make peace with his own self and with God through his self, but only through others who are to cleanse him, for there is no any other order between Me and man, and I, the Lord, have not been working otherwise among the people and with the people. Repentance is for those who are wrong, and that only by repentance their hope is received, and it is not good otherwise with the hope of the sinful who do not repent and remain within a wrong condition with it. The hope of the sinful makes them always commit sin, and repentance is useful to them, not the hope first, not the hope, which cannot do anything, nothing without the repentance that comes before it, because it is in this way and not otherwise that the sinful have become saints, and many of them have given birth to saints by their example and teaching and who have drawn to them disciples for Me and not for them, and this is what it has proved them out to be saints, people who have denied themselves to have Me in them after that.

I spoke in the time of My body, seen by the man, that the kingdom of God does not come visibly. I spoke this for those who had it in them, to recognize it and to understand what it is and where it is and how it comes, and I also spoke about this for those who did not have it and do not have it but hope for it to come. I spoke this word and declared a bigger word than this. I spoke that the one who believed in Me would never die, and how much I have wanted this, Jerusalem, that is for you to know that by this work I have spoken the truth and that there will be many who will never taste death until they see the Kingdom of God coming with great power, as I spoke upon those who lived then and did not understand when they saw this, because My power was My glory, which I had appeared many times to My disciples with, and to some of them I had appeared within a great measure up to My crucifixion, and not only by that time but also afterwards, by My resurrection and then by My glory after it.

Oh, Jerusalem, I speak before you more than I had spoke by the Scriptures of My mouth of that time, and I say this: the one who does not believe in My words does not believe in Me either, and he is like the one who is ashamed of Me and of My words in the midst of a sinful people, and which I will also be ashamed of when I come within the glory of My Father with the holy angels. I want to strengthen you in your faith in My word of that time and now, but for this you have to look more into it to know to humble yourself for My dwelling in you, for My face in you, so that I may be greater than you, child who follow Me by your self-denial for Me.

I told you at My last speaking with you to be sons of the faith, which hopes as in heaven, for those that are old have passed once with My work with you. Have you heard what I spoke to you? Have you understood? Keep in mind these things that I have spoken to you. To be able to keep in mind you have to read again and again My word upon you, for otherwise the evil spirit writes you down that you do not believe in My word and in Me; he writes that you are ashamed to fulfill what I exhort you.

I have told you Jerusalem, that you do not have to live in My name and that is all, and I have told you that you have to live like God on earth and between brother and brother like God, My people. Did you hear? Did you and do you fulfill like that? I have told you that I always look at you to see how you work, how you speak, how you feel, how you should give Me further, how you should give yourself, and you should not forget that I have told you that I watch you, and I have told you that you should live like God on earth. And I am still telling you now that you should look at those who are set as My light upon you, for they grow less before you, because this is the way My work is given by Me over those that are great with their work from Me, and I told My disciples two thousand years ago, that whoever wants to be the greatest among them should serve everyone, because this is the way they are to be great and not otherwise; and they are great like Me within their hearts and they are gentle and humble. And I also tell you, My people, to strengthen yourself in your faith and not in your unbelief; because you know that I spoke that the faith is not simply for everyone.

Oh, My people, no one struggles on the cross, for it is the power of life, not of death, and it is the power of death for your life, which tramples over death by death through the cross, My people. I get upset with you if I do not see you reading My Gospel that is on you. You get upset with Me if you do not read what I tell you, My people. Eat, son, to live, because if you do not eat the word from My mouth, you die, My people, you die of hunger with the food on the table, son. I teach you as I teach a son, for the one who loves his son rebukes him, reprimands him and exhorts him until his Father engraves His image on him. Amen. Oh, you should not live without Father, and you should not live without awareness, without obedience before the Father, for the one who does not listen to God and to His word, is a god to himself, and such a man is not from God. I spoke to you a long time ago, and now I am telling you again: you should not be a people without cross, Jerusalem, for woe to the one who throws away the cross and the patience under it, for that one falls down from God and becomes a dwelling and a weapon for the devil against the cross.

I call you under the cross, Jerusalem, because I am with this sign upon you and with the patience under the cross and you cannot be pleased to God and to the man but only under the cross, My people. The love under the cross is the highest love, which bows down under the feet of everyone to all them to the cross, under the love that is under the cross, which teaches the man the humility for his sins, the humility that does not strike in another one's sin in order to cover his sins, and My word has to be fulfilled and not struck. The love under the cross, this is what I teach you to gain; the love that does not strike, which does not do any harm to God and to those who are His loved ones, whom the Lord know that they are His. Amen.

Woe to the one who runs away from under the cross, and again, woe to the one who strikes the one under the cross and the cross that carries the one who comes after Me taking up his cross and denying himself under it as the fruit of the love under the cross. He who chooses his cross by himself is unfaithful and a grumbler afterwards. However, I want to have you as My love under the cross, Jerusalem, and you shall help earnestly desiring the coming of My day by which the heaven and the earth will be renewed through the fire, and the sons of love will receive new heavens and a new earth where righteousness endures, and these as a sign of the love from under the cross over those who love this way between heaven and earth. Amen, amen, amen.

Sons who bring Me down to you! I will give you a word to My defense, for no one defends Me but only My Father and My mother, and you also can do it, but you are not received. I will mark Myself with the word of My pain, which now the evil spirit is laughing at, and which I, the Lord, ask you to rebuke him with My name, so that it may see that I have you on earth as My merciful ones, of My Spirit, Who is ashamed now by the spirit opposing to God. Amen.

*

I come down as the word into My book with you, a word against the evil spirit, which laughs at Me pointing that you are guilty; you, whom I, the Lord, the Victor of the death and of the devil, chose from among those who are My people of today to bring Me down on earth as word and to grow a people for Me in order to have it at My coming, guiding sons.

And behold, if I see that you are not well received by those who cause Me pains blaming you for them, if you are not good and wise from Me, if My wisdom in you does not make any good to them, and they come out from under the cross when I tell them that the love that is under the cross bows down to everyone's feet to call them too under it, under the cross, then I, the Lord, speak to them with My wisdom from the Father and speak to My defense this: it is not you, but I am the One Who has chosen those through whom I come with the food of life to the people. It is not they who chose Me to make them a way of My coming, but I have chosen them instead. This is what I tell you, to those who rebel against them and I remind you of My word that says: «Do not touch these people who are My anointed and do not conspire against My prophets!», for they do not conspire and it is you who conspire by misinterpreting the word of their wisdom, which works from the midst by the Holy Spirit of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

No one is forced to stay beautifully on the cross, and not even to walk on the road of the cross carrying his own cross. No one is forced by Me to come under the cross, which is heavy to carry, of My coming with food to the people, for this is not the food like the one on the market, but it is like that from heaven, and you, those who look for their mistakes, and lengthen the way between heaven and earth upon them, the way between Me and them, when I give them to put the food on the table for you to grow by the taste and by the grace of the food that I give you, and which is brought by them to you, and each one of you is asked not to strike in them, because My work with them for you and for every man that takes from it is extremely hard. I did not tell you to love them, but I told you not to strike them. If you strike them, you strike them after you blame them for you, and they humble themselves and get under the blame like the true Shepherd Who gets under the cross for My sheep. However, I tell you that the evil spirit comes with round dance and with devilish music, reveling before Me, and accusing them to Me that they are not good and Me that I cannot work, that I do not overcome on My behalf and that everything is on his side and that I do no longer make My way to the people through them, that they are not good, that they corrupt the people, that they are unjust, careless, unwise, lazy, cruel, wicked and little for their big minds, that they do not know to speak, to judge things, to make the man, that the people is not made and that the people is not according to My will.

Oh, get behind Me Satan, for you judge your way and not like Me, for it is not you, but I, the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Lord Sabaoth, I am the Judge and not you. Amen. You say, “The Lord will not see,” but the One Who made the eye and the ear does not really see? Does He not really hear? Does the One, Who has taught His elected ones what knowledge is, not really know? Behold, I will not forsake My people, I will not forsake My inheritance until justice judges by its coming back and all those with a clean heart will love it, for blessed is the son whom his Father will rebuke him and will teach him His law, and the life of the Father in the sons, and My Father and My mother rebuke you, devil, by the word of the Son, so that you may no longer bring your deception against My prophets and that you may no longer stir up dissension among the sons of My word. Amen. I have My merciful people on earth for those who are accused by not by Me, for I told them to wither if I were upset with them, and not otherwise. And now I call them before you to My defense, near My Father and near My mother and I tell them to reprimand you because I have My power in them, the word of the grace, the word of the resurrection of the creature, and you should be afraid and flee into the places untraveled by them. And everywhere I pass with them, you should flee until you have nowhere to flee, until you let yourself be bound forever. This is what I command you, the Son of the Father Sabaoth and of My mother the Virgin, by those you want to touch with blame before Me. However, I tell you: do not touch these anointed of Mine, and do not conspire against My prophets and do no longer hide in man for what you do, because I put a rod of iron between you and them and this means My word. Now, go! Amen, amen, amen.

My dear sons and of My Father, of My mother and of My saints and of My angels and of all My powers that are in heavens! I was ashamed of the spirit against Me who have blamed you before Me. I ask those who do not know to receive you on My behalf within a godly humility, I ask them to perceive My light in you that they may no longer blow into it even if they cannot receive you for them.

I marked Myself with this word into the book, sons, and the spirit opposing to Me trembles with all his host and his servants and he does no longer laughs, for this book is My word, and with this book I make the judgment of the creature and of the angels who became the spirit opposing to God through the man's haughtiness.

Take those who stay in an interceding triptych for the salvation of the man fallen from God and add them to you now for the devil's rebuking. Amen. And then you will be, sons, with your little cheeks wiped out by My hand, by the sleeve of My robe, and stay with them clear and clean from any blame, for I have you as the way of My coming, because it is written: «Prepare the way of the Lord and make even His ways. Go before the face of the Lord and give to the people the knowledge of salvation for the forgiveness of their sins, by My mercifulness, and direct its feet on the way of peace». Amen

And as for you, My people, if you are My blessed one, work nothing, do nothing without My will and without My blessing, for I am a Son just like you, because I do only what My Father tells Me to do and to speak, and this is what you should also do, because this is how the sons are, My people. Oh, son who love yourself, give up everything you like and become My pleasure so that the evil spirit may see that you have God as your Father, and then I will take care of you, My people; I and not you. Amen, amen, amen.

The fifth Sunday of the Lent, of the devout Mary, the Egyptian

I wait for the gates to open for Me for the feast of today. I am the living God forever and ever. I was dead as long as the tomb had kept Me in, until My angel removed the stone and I came alive from the tomb, and I am alive forever and ever and I have the keys of the death and of the hell. My voice is like the roar of many waters; a sharp and a double-edged sword, which comes out of My mouth; My face shines like the sun shining in its power; My garment, long to the feet, is dressed on Me with a belt girdled under My breasts, and I am alive forever and ever, and I am the One Who died and was resurrected, and I am the One Who has the seven spirits of God. Amen.

I am He Who is, the true One, the One Who opens and no one will close, and the One Who closes and no one will open, the faithful Witness, the beginning of God's building, and My wisdom was and is justified by all her children. (Matt. 11:19) Amen, amen, amen.

I want to write Myself in My book of these days with the feast of this day, sons, who receive from My word, the word, which is a sharp and a double-edged sword, because I, the Lord, I, Who have the seven spirits of God, said by the spirit of prophecy that I would be devout with the one who is devout, and I will be guiltless with the one who is guiltless; I will be elected with the one who is elected and I will be stubborn with the one who is stubborn, and I will save the humble one, and I will humble the eyes of the proud. Amen.

Oh, children under the burden, I have always wanted, I have always longed, both from near the Father and from near you so that you may no longer be under the burden, and to be with your little hearts relieved from heaviness in such a way that the way to My people, which I have always taught with My mouth, may also be relieved, because if I did not teach it, it will go to sleep like the world that sleeps the slumber of the death and does no longer watch for the faith in God and for My coming on earth.

Oh, children who have been tossed about by hardships and who stay under the burden of My coming! My work with you is very hard, for You have always been under severe circumstances and deprived because of My work with you and for the life of My people by which I glorify Myself on earth, for the people get rich in evil things and in wealth, which soon, soon will be shaken, and then I will catch them under the these things, and then I will show them that I have walked wandering on earth after them to make them reach out their hand to Me and to help them for their salvation, for life and for eternal wealth. However, the world does not hear, sons, because it sleeps the slumber of the death and does not watch anything for the Lord, the One Who is alive forever and ever and Who has the keys for death and hell.

I speak with you in a voice of roar of many waters, and you are so fragile, but it is coming closer and closer the cleansing of the earth from the futile work of the man, from everything he has done for himself; however, he has not made it for himself but for the fire, sons, as it is written in the Scriptures, and then there will be great pain on earth, and the man will seek for death and will no longer find it, because I, the Lord, will be with the rebellious indomitable in order to give the salvation to the humble and to humble the eyes and the pride of those who are proud on earth, who does not look at Me but only at themselves.

Oh, children, pale under hardships, I have power to give you strength in patience and in prayer for Me and to say: ask and you shall find, knock and it will be open for you, for I have power for you, because you are little and poor, and I find My pleasure with you. However, I ask you, with tears on My cheek, to take care of My pleasure and to walk for it day and night. Take care of the fasting days and let them be full of peace, patience, prayer and love for God and for My love between you, and ask and it will be given to you, and knock and it will be opened to you. Amen, amen, amen.

I remind you, sons, of Mary the Egyptian, the one who has remained in the memory of the Christian people. Learn from her the love of God, the endurance, patience, hope and faith, sons. Many saints had great care of the times for the fasting with the body, for this has to be accompanied in abundance with the fasting in the spirit. Those in the community, because of their love for Me went to be alone with the blessing, so that they might not go wrong with the word, with their mind, with their work, and that their fasting from food might be pleased to the Lord, and that I could find My pleasure in them, for they asked and knocked at the door of My mercy, waiting for their salvation and for the forgiveness of their mistakes, and I opened and gave them, as I worked with Mary, the Egyptian, and then I gave her My Body and My Blood, the most living food, the food of the eternal life, which you have had from abundance and which, I the Lord, ask you, with My cheeks full of tears, to value it, sons, to get from this everything you need for My life with you, for My work with you and for which I need help from the earth, to spread on earth the gospel of the word, which comes out of My mouth to you, and to announce that you are Mine and to announce that you are My people, the bride with a burning candle, with your heart burning with My longing to you.

Oh, ask from Me and I will give to you, and I will wake up those who have, and I will soften their heart and thought to Me and then I will send them to you, because you are Mine. Amen.

I look at those who serve in the churches of the world who ask from those who are rich and from those who are poor and I see how they gather for those things that will be torn down, because the man does not want to sanctify his place and then the earth, because he stays in his self-love, in the love of glory and in trespasses on earth. And I look at you, those who are My church in the end of the time, and see that you do not ask, neither from the rich or from the poor, and rather you work with your little hands, so that you may not receive freely, and I hardly find a man to give himself over totally for Me and so that I may have with you also from your midst, sons. It is in vain that the man offers a sacrifice from what it passes through his fingers if he does not give himself to God so that the sacrifice of his heart may be well received and useful to him. I am bitterly upset with all the rich people on earth, who gather for moths and for rust, while I, the Lord together with you, can hardly breathe over the earth the gospel of the kingdom of the heavens. However, I longingly am in love with you, those who give Me being among the people, those that with much labor, with much waiting and patience, spread the gospel of My voice, which comes to you like the roaring of many waters that shakes your little bodies, sons, wanted and strengthened by God, for out of My mouth there comes a sharp and a double-edged sword, and My face shines like the sun, shining in its power, and you are feeble before Me, and you are the little ones from the end of the time, and the work of My coming is as great as God. However, I strengthen you and I protect you and I take care of you and of My work with you and of the people of My word, for by it I glorify Myself and by it I labor to sanctify My earth in order to cleanse it from the whole sin and from all the man's lawlessness on it, from all passing riches, because it has never been on earth a foolishness like that of today, and which wants to laugh at Me through the man who is proud in his spirit, but I, the Lord, will overcome the earth and the heaven with you, and they will become new, according to the Scripture that speaks about this. Amen.

Now, I, the One Who protect you loving and being merciful to you, will release you again from the hardships, because you are with your hearts heavy with worries and with shortcomings, like those who are little. However, you should be great in your fasting and in your persevering prayer, with time of peace and of good harmony among you, because I said that where My children live together within Me and under My heavy heaviness, I am there as well, and there is where I decide and bless forever and from everlasting to everlasting. Amen.

Speak up with your little mouth before Me everything you need, as I have taught you, and I will give to you. Keep away from the outside troubles, which overflow inside you, for you have to carry the burden of My coming, sons. And, as a Lord and Teacher that I am to you, I leave upon you great blessing for the power over your little and fragile bodies and which are helpless on earth, so that you may work with My power the whole work of the refreshment of the cleanliness of the little garden of My word, in the honor of the celebration of the day of My coming, for the cleanliness of everything is one spirit, not only one work, and you should work this in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and the time will listen to you, and the power of your bodies will listen to Me as well, for your spirits are My rest, and let it be this way, as this is what I speak. Amen.

Oh, what else shall I give you to be with your little hearts relieved from all the burdens and to be sweet within the spirit of My love for you? I give you: Peace to you! And you, shall also speak on your behalf: "Peace to You, Lord, among us, for You are the True One, the One Who opens and no one will close, and the One Who closes and no one will open, because You are the faithful Witness, the beginning of the building of God." Amen.

And I, the Lord, the One Who is alive forever and ever, give you powers of My power, so that you may have the wisdom from above in all things, for My wisdom was and is justified by all its children. Amen, amen, amen.

The feat of the Lord's Entrance in Jerusalem. The Palm Sunday

Let it be heard within the gates that I, the Lord, come in as word in Jerusalem, and let My book be opened so that My word may speak and that My mouth may declare in it. Amen.

Peace to you, those from the gates! Open to Me, children and sons, because those who listen are beautiful, and I want to speak to Jerusalem about this work, which brings wisdom, faith, hope and love to the man who loves God, and all for God and in God and from God, children sons, for obedience to God is heaven on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, it is bad for the man who does not obey with faith and with the wisdom of the love for God, for that one leaves Me and then crucifies Me in him and then he is, and he is the man who pulls God out of himself, because this brings disobedience of God down on man. The man does not have to believe in Me playing with this faith. The man has to believe in Me forever, and this is how he should also listen, because without obedience the man dies like Adam, who surely died when he did not listen to Me and lost My wisdom from him and he exalted himself and so he died, for there has been no more painful death for Me from the man.

Oh, sons, oh, Jerusalem, oh, people who eat the word from My mouth! Blessed is the one who eats My word with his heart, not only with his ear, and these two kinds of food are known in man, and they are known according to the way the man grows and according to how much he grows.

Six days before Passover I was in Bethany and there came many of the Jews to see Lazarus, whom I brought to life, for they found out that I went there, and because of Lazarus' resurrection many Jews came to believe in Me. However, the bishops spoke among themselves, after they had plotted My death, to kill Lazarus too, because they were losing the people, which arose to believe.

I prepared Myself to go up to Jerusalem, because the hour came for the Father to glorify Me. The next day the multitude of Jews who believed in Me, took palm branches in their hands and, coming into My way, were shouting: «Blessed is the King of Israel, the One Who comes in the name of the Lord!». And I rode on the colt of a donkey, and as it was written in the prophets, the crowds remembered that it was written: «Don't be afraid, daughter of Zion. Behold, your King comes, sitting on a donkey's cold». (Zach. 9:9) And they cried this way saying «Hosanna!» And when the Pharisees saw this, they told their rulers that they had accomplished nothing because the crowds came after Me. Then I said: «Father, glorify Your name!». Then there came a voice out of the sky, saying «I have both glorified it, and I will glorify it again». (John 12:28) Some said that it was a thunder; others said that it was an angel who spoke to Me, but I told them: «This voice has not come for My sake, but for your sakes. Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out, and I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to Myself». (John 12:30-32) And many of the rulers believed in Me, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess it so that they wouldn't be put out of the synagogue, and then it was fulfilled the word, which says: «For they loved men's praise more than God's praise». (John 12:43) However, when I spoke, I was saying to them: «If anyone listens to My sayings, and doesn't believe, I don't judge him. For I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He who rejects Me, and doesn't receive My sayings, has one who judges him. The word that I spoke, the same will judge him in the last day». (John 47, 48) Amen.

Oh, sons, how beautifully I made the man and how ugly the man has become before the angels and before Me by his disobedience to the word of life, and the man loves the men's praise more than God's praise. I have made the man as beautiful as I am, but if he came out of his obedience to Me, I also came out of him and My angels came out of him too, and when he fell from My glory, as all those on the earth do, who do not know to love Me because they love themselves, and this is how the man falls down from God, and that is why I have come to teach the man teaching you, sons, in a day of a Palm feast. Amen.

Oh, children with instruction upon you, the man loses his wisdom from Me by his disobedience. Then the man loses his love of God, and then he forgets to listen and to love God.

Obedience to God is not obedience to man, as many understand this. The one who listens to God, that one blesses everybody and this is how he knows to love his neighbor, for he knows everything from God, and this is how he listens. Obedience to the word with life in it and with a godly order in it, obedience to the man who has God working in him upon the man, that is obedience with faith and with wisdom and with love for God, which springs from these, and such a man cannot listen to the man who teaches him not to believe into this word, and a man like this loves God's praise and not the man's praise. However, those who have come to an agreement with antichrist, who have taken God's place in a place sanctified by the fathers, those are like the bishops and like all those who were leaders and wanted to believe and come after Me, but not openly for fear of not being put out of the synagogues. But I tell these a proper word, and I tell them this: Amen, amen, I speak to you: you, who stop those that are among you and the people who look for the spring of life and you prevent them from listening to Me but only to you because you are their confessors! Teach them from Me what a confessor means. But if you are not spiritual, that is why you do not have the spirit of confessor, and in the same way you teach the people who pay you honor and obedience, people that have nothing to learn from you. You are like those in the time of My body, who set the crowds against Me, against their own salvation, for I am the Savior of the world and not you, those who have established yourselves on a holy chair and keep the crowds blind with disobedience to God for you to be able to milk them and that you may get milk and praises from them, and then to trample them down and take them to the grave and that is all, for you cannot believe and cannot work more than this, either on earth or in heaven. However, I tell you that one enters the heaven according to his own merits, as the man listens to God on earth, and not how you send the people in heaven.

The multitudes came into My way to glorify Me in this day before My passions singing to Me: «Hosanna, blessed is the One Who comes in the name of the Lord!» And they knew Me through the Holy Spirit coming down for Me from the Father upon them, and then their leaders, their confessors, who lived like you on their shoulders, instigated them to cry out to their rulers, to their confessors: «Crucify Him!».

Woe to you, those who teach the people who listen to you not to listen to Me, and who teach them not to believe into My word of today, which is the river of life for the nations of the earth to drink of it for their healing, as it is written in the Scriptures to be! And behold, My word, which has become the river of life in the midst of Romania, will judge you, those who do not exhort the people to drink of it and to leave off their iniquities and to love the Scripture of new heavens and of new earth in which the righteousness and its children dwell. Woe to you, those who are bishops and priests and leaders and who do not drink in order to believe in this mercy and to eat manna from heaven and to have wisdom from heaven and not from the earth, and to have obedience from God and faith by it, and then the love for God and its wisdom and its first beauty, God's beauty in man! But also woe to the people who are afraid of you, who listen to you against My word of yesterday and today, against Me and against themselves, and then all these will turn against you, and the people will flee to you to for you cover and save them from those things that are to come over the world and then you cannot do anything, and you will be put to shame and will be judged by this word, which has been teaching and calling you, and you have not wanted to be Mine, and with you it has been fulfilled the Scripture, which says: «Their eyes have gone blind and their heart has become callous, so that they might not see with their eyes and perceive with their heart and that they should turn and that I would heal them». (See also Matt. 13:14, 15) Behold, you are not given to believe, for the faith does not belong to everyone, but it belongs only to those who listen to the word of God by fulfilling it, and that is why I, the Lord, will punish by this word, which blames those who do not believe, and soon, soon, I will pour out the bowl over those who are not faithful and over the entire futility of their labor on earth, for they have gathered on earth and not in heaven, and I will cause the earth under them to be consumed with everything that is on it, for this is written in the Scriptures. And those who believe, they wait with patience for new heavens and new earth and for the justice which will last in these, for it is written that «God will not deprive of the good things those who walk in righteousness». Amen. However, the man who forgets his sins in order that he may repeat them again and again, that one pretends to be a wise man into My name and he thinks that is a wise man in vain, because his wisdom will be brought into the light, for the gold is seen in the furnace if it really is. Amen.

And you, Jerusalem of My word, hope in the Lord, your God, the true Lord, Who proved that He was resurrected by crucifixion, the Lord, Who is your salvation and your help, for it is written: «Put your hope in Him, all the assembly of the people; open your hearts before Him». Amen.

Oh, My people, stay in My hand, and learn to stay in My hand and tell Me always like David, who was king and kept on saying to Me: «Search me out, Lord, and know my heart; try me and know my thoughts. See if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the everlasting way. You know my ignorance, and my wrong doings were not hidden from You, and let those who wait for You not be put to shame and not be opposed for Me those who seek after You, Lord, and because of Your great mercy hear me, for Your wonderful knowledge is beyond me. It's lofty. I can't attain it». (See also Ps. 139: 6, 23, 24) Amen

Oh, My people, I want, son, to teach you not to fall down under worries. Worship Me with prayers and thankfulness and show Me your requests. Keep My peace in your mind, in your heart and in your thought, and I will be your help, My people. Take care of My word to love it, to wait for it and to get ready for it and for its fulfillment. Take care to listen, My people, and do nothing of what you like, for this is an abomination in the house of the Lord, because I have set a guide upon you to live before Me in obedience, My people. Do not love what you like, but love what God likes, and look into the Scriptures and in the holy fathers for the pleasure, which is pleased to Me: obedience, son, for you will have its wisdom from it, and this will feed you with the love of God and then by faith you will fulfill together with Me the Scriptures of the resurrection of the dead, for those who are alive, whose who are clean, and those who are holy can do miracles and wonders through Me beyond the resurrection of the dead, My people. Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem, those from the graves hear My word upon you and get ready to stand up at My word, only for you to make Me a bridge to come on earth, for I have taught you not to have a greater worry than that by which you help Me to come on earth with more and more word, My people, for your mission is to listen and to hear My word from My mouth and to fulfill it. Amen.

Oh, children who write the word of My mouth, give instruction to the people for obedience and teach it, as I have told you; not to stay with their hearts in their bosom, but to have it into their hands, so that I may be able to appear to the saints and to the angels with it and to be able to glorify Myself by it on earth. Amen.

Blessed it be your fasting for the memorial of My passions, for My pains, which give you power to watch in your fasting and in your praying, and peace to you, sons! May your feasts with Me be blessed, and sing to the glory of My name for the saints and the angels around you to come together in groups-groups, from heaven to heaven, from cloud to cloud, for this is how I want to spend time with you, to come to you and to ascend with you to the Father and that I may be able to go with you into the sky for the joy of those that are as I am. Amen.

I spoke upon you long ago that I wanted to dangle with you from word to word between heaven and earth, and that is why I have always, always asked you to make Me a way to you with the word and to take care to receive those that are a measure from Me among you, for you and upon you, so that you may be able not to do what you like, but to do what I like and not what you like, for I am your God, and I am your Lord and Teacher, sons, and I have set some among you as guides with their spirit of My spirit, and the guidance of Israel has never been otherwise. Amen.

Learn what obedience and its graces are and work that out, with your whole, whole thankfulness, for everything that it has remains and not what is yours, sons. Stay together as a bunch in a spirit of heavenly glory and I will take from you and I will rejoice over you. Be thankful and content. Let the love among you be the love of God, and learn what you are to love among you. Love the Spirit of God and then you should hover between heaven and earth in Him, so that I may ascend with you to the Father, for the clouds of the heavenly glories wait for you to be the sons of wisdom from above and not from below, and so that we may always hover on the clouds of glory to the Father. Amen.

Oh, sons, learn those that are without limits, because the man's mind keeps the man on earth, but the spirit ascends and descends and hovers. Love infinity, to be like God, that is without limits, and do this with the wisdom that obeys from the midst, and do from God and not from you, and learn to work out the word, sons, and you will reach the joy of infinity, for obedience is the miracle that has to bring the man to God and then I will be the Teacher and the Lord, and I will be as in Paradise. Amen.

Now sing: Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna! Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel, and the King of Jerusalem! Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Annunciation

This feast, of the mother of the Son of the Father Sabaoth and My Father, Who was conceived into her womb on a day like this two thousand years ago, is a feast of Holy Spirit, for He was the messenger from the Father, and the angel was the intercessor, because everything that has been worked from everlasting to everlasting is in the hand of the Father, and His Son, the One served by angels, is carried and taught by the Father to work out the accomplishment of all those from the Father. Amen, amen, amen.

I had listened to the Father, for He told Me that He would make Me the Son of man, and that I would be born like a man on earth and that I would remain small, so that all may have the power to have Me from the Father, for the Father reconciled the world to Him through Me, and that by My obedience to Him all come to fulfillment. Amen.

Let us come down into My book of these days, children from within the gates, for it is a royal feast, children and sons, for those who are small have partaken of the Blood and Body, as I also partook of these, for I was the child of the Father and by this, by My death, I broke down the one who had the control upon the death, that is the devil. Amen.

Oh, there is an old saying that no one is to attend the church, but the children have to be taken there to receive the Body and the Blood of the Lord. Those on earth who are yoked under the yoke of marriage do no longer go to church, because they sin. The old people go there because they become children by leaving off their sin after their weakness, after their old age and their hardships save them from committing sins in their body, but I, as the Lord and Master, ask the servants of the church, who serve through their churches in their midst: how comes that they go to church and how do they serve those holy of Mine after they marry first? I did not give them such a parable, for I was supposed to be their example. When I turned the fullness of My age, I gave Myself as a sacrifice, after I chose My disciples from the world and after I separated them from sin and from the spirit of the world to be like Me, because any disciple has to be like his Teacher.

Israel under the law could not fulfill something like this, for it was Israel after the flesh and not after the spirit, and My apostles had to work carefully with them because of their unbelief in Me, the One Who was crucified and resurrected, for they had always, always tried to find fault with them, as also they had always, always done this to Me and found guilt with Me, and those who are not like Me by sacrifice and by ministering have done this to you too, because if I led many to greatness, it was also right to Me to be perfected by passion as the beginner of those who are saved, although I was the One for Whom and by Whom were all things, and then the One Who sanctifies Himself and those who sanctify themselves, that all may be from One, and that I may call them brothers, as it is written: «I will tell My name to My brothers; in the midst of the assembly I will praise You, Father; and here I am and the children that You have given to Me».

Oh, sons, the Scripture says that the children have partaken of the Body and the Blood, as I also did and broke down the devil by My death, and I saved those that were under the fear of death, because I received the seed of Abraham, of whose Offspring I was by promise; I did not receive the nature of the angels, because I had to become the Son of Man. The angel Gabriel came to the Virgin of whom I was to be born as the Son of man, and he told her: «Blessed are you among women! The Lord is with you, the one full of grace! Rejoice and do not be afraid, for you will conceive God in your womb from the Holy Spirit and bring forth a son whom you will call Jesus, for He will be great, and He will be called the Son of the Most High, and He will have the throne of His father, David, into the midst of Israel and there will be no end to His kingdom. Do not be afraid, Mary, for nothing is impossible with God», and she said: «Be it to me according to your will». (See also Luke 1:29-38)

It is a feast of the Holy Spirit between God and you, Jerusalem of the mysteries of My coming with accomplishments on earth, for I was accomplished then and I have accomplished Myself now for all the Scriptures by that time and for all those by this time, now, when I am coming as word on earth to draw all to the Father and to fulfill the prophecy of My mother, the Virgin, for she, on the annunciation that was brought by the angels, sang prophesying and said: «My soul magnifies the Lord. My spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior, for He has looked at the humble state of His handmaid. For behold, from now on, all generations will call me blessed. For He Who is mighty has done great things for me. Holy is His name. His mercy is for generations of generations on those who fear Him. He has shown strength with His arm. He scattered the proud in the imagination of their heart. He has put down princes from their thrones and He exalted the lowly by His humbleness as He spoke to Abraham and his promised seed by his Offspring, the Son of the Most High». (See Luke 1:46-55) Amen.

Oh, My people, get used to the spirit of the holy experiences, for My longing is great, and the longing of My Father, of My Mother, of My saints and of My angels is the same, and of all the heavenly things', Jerusalem. Let everything be your food on the table of the church of the New Jerusalem, for the man lives not only on bread, but especially on the mysteries of the Holy Spirit, which come out of God's mouth over you, My people. Let every work with you hand for those in My courts be easy by your spirit full of the Holy Spirit of the heavenly mysteries. Become a river of Holy Spirit, of oil and wine, which anoints and strengthens the man's heart, for you have the Son of the Most High and you have the word in your body, for it is written: «The One Who sanctifies Himself, and those who sanctify themselves, all come from One, and He calls them brothers». Always, always be a holy child, My people, by the work of the Holy Spirit, Which flows over you through Me from the Father, for I am in My Father, because it is written: «The children have partaken of My Body and Blood». Amen.

In three days we will come to the feast of My resurrection from the dead, when after My dwelling for three days in the tomb and after that, by My death I broke down the devil and those who are proud in their thoughts, who sit on the thrones, and I woke up like a King of the creature, as the One for Whom and by Whom are all things. Amen.

May the powers for your spirit and those for your body that serve the Spirit of God be blessed! And after these few days, which are still left up to the feast of My resurrection from the dead, I will speak to you and to everybody: Christ is risen! Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Resurrection

I am the King of glory! Open to Me, children who are My gates, for I am the King of glory. Amen, amen, amen.

I sing with you: Christ is risen! The King of glory come to life after that he submitted Himself to the death on the cross as a man, and after three days, as the prophets spoke, He was resurrected from the tomb. This salvation of the man and of the judgment of the ruler of this world, who was thrown out of everything that is only Mine, this feast I celebrate today after two thousand years ago from My crucifixion and My resurrection as the King of glory. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, Jerusalem of My passions on the cross for your salvation from the shadow of the law! I was put on the cross by you, and I came to life so that you were able to receive Me afterwards, but you did not want to grow less and to receive Me to be Your king; a King that is not of this world, for you are a king in this world all over the earth over which you prosper, because you have been My people. I wanted to be your King over your love, over your faith, over your glory forever, but you did not want Me and you rather took Me out of everything that is yours and you wait for another savior, and when that one comes, you will know him because he is yours, but you do not know Me, because you are unfaithful, and your pride has covered the earth. However, I, your true God, Who came from the Father and out of your midst, after you locked Me in the tomb, receiving My crucified body on the cross, the place where I gave My spirit into the hands of the Father, because I was resurrected after three days, fulfilling this Scripture and not breaking the seals of the tomb, I, the Lord of glory, Who overcame you on the cross, speak to you and I speak to this feast: Christ is risen! Amen, amen, amen.

And as for you, Jerusalem of My glory on the cross, I glorify Myself for you in the word over the earth after two thousand years for all the Christian people from that time and until now, for I am well pleased with you because you have been faithful, and that you are a people chosen from the Romanian nations and you received Me over you as the King of the glory and I write My book of the judgment of the creature into your midst, for I worked out My glory of two thousand years ago by the lowly, and likewise I have also worked for My second coming from near the Father. However, you should receive Me when I knock. You shall open to Me for you are My chosen one and you are tiny, for the children were given to partake of this glory of My Body and Blood that was shed on the cross for the salvation of the creature, for the new heaven and for the new earth, which will be glorified more and more with every passing day, to the glory of My name carried by angels between heaven and earth and between earth and heaven, and My word of that time and the one upon the man now, is the true light, which shines over every man who comes into the world. Amen.

Oh, if I am life, and if the life, which is the light of the people, is in Me, you, Jerusalem of today, like John, the Baptizer, testify to the people about Me, about the light, that all may believe through you, that the word is the true light and as many as have received Him, to those who believed in His name, to them He gave the right to become God's children, born of this word, for I surpassed him because I was before him, and I came and I gave grace to the people, for it is written: «For the Law was given through Moses. Grace and truth came through Jesus Christ». (John 1:17) Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, Jerusalem of My grace and truth, I said «Peace to you!» to My disciples whom I choose from among the Jews to believe and who remained with Me after they had known Me. They were afraid of the Jews and stayed closed during all My passions, for after I left Myself to be caught for crucifixion, I told those who took Me to put Me on the cross: «I am the One you see, and let these go their way». (John 18:8) After My resurrection and after I spoke peace upon them, I showed them My hands and My side, and they rejoiced when they saw Me, and I told them again: «Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, even so I send you». (John 20:21) And I breathed upon them saying: «Receive the Holy Spirit! Whoever's sins you forgive, they are forgiven them. Whoever's sins you retain, they have been retained». (John 20:22-23) And I took care to strengthen their faith up to My ascension from them to the Father, from Whom I came. Forty days after My resurrection I had been speaking with them about the kingdom of God and I commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, that is the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, and I spoke to them: «You will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. You will be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth, and as many as has received Me believing through you in My name, I will give them the power to become children of God». (See Acts 1: 8 and also John 1:12) Amen

Oh, Jerusalem of My coming back with the spirit of the teaching about the kingdom of God! The scribes cannot receive the wealth of this word and its greatness. They take it on man's account, but if these who speak this way knew you, those who are the gates of My word, they would understand that I and not the man speak this word, for whom of those who believe this way, as one believes in God, would dare to take My place? Only the evil spirit did and does this, but whatever he does it has always died away; it disappears and it has no power to give life of My life even if he would take or put on the work into My name.

Write the name of the Holy Citadel New Jerusalem everywhere where you send My word in your days, for I speak a word of faith to everyone, and I tell them this: it is not the man who speaks, but I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, Who was dead and resurrected, and I am alive forever and ever. It is not by the scribes, not by the learned man that I work on earth to set into My book of today the word of My mouth, but I work as two thousand years ago, by those who are not taken into consideration. I have established stewards upon My work as I did two thousand years ago, when I had disciples separated from the world and taken care of by those what I established on earth, and I cannot help reminding all the scribes and the teachers of the church from the world that My mouth has been speaking on the earth for fifty years, and it is the voice of My mouth, and not for five, or for ten, or for twenty years. It is the voice of My mouth and I will celebrate with it soon, soon, the feast of its Pentecost. Amen. I, the One Who was resurrected from the dead two thousand years ago, speak, and those who keep watch at the gates receive the voice of My mouth and put it down into the book as I command them to do this, and these people do not hear Me only with their ears, but they also work both with their heart and with My word. Amen.

I have prophesied by the work of this word that because of their unbelief and pride and unrepentance, and because they have not been sharing My word coming out of My mouth and which I give to the church from the world and to its servants, that these will burn together with their dwellings into the fire, sent from heaven, because they have been cold and have minded only their own business and have disregarded the fulfillment of My word. Oh, they build in vain in order to gather the people in their dwellings, for those who are their crowd are not My flock, as also Israel did not want to be, and whoever among the Jews believed in My name, were put out of the synagogues.

Oh, you who are set among you as the rulers of the church in the world, you should know that you do this with the voice of My mouth of today just as the Jews did, who paid the people to say that My disciples stole Me from the tomb while the watch was still sleeping, although they sealed the tomb. However, I was resurrected leaving My shroud as a testimony in the tomb where I had stayed for three days, and then I went to My disciples and appeared to them, because they were locked for fear of the Jews, and they had no way of stealing Me. I left the seals untouched and I came out as the King of the glory, Who passes without stopping through any gates and does not damage its seals, as the one who gave Me birth in the flesh on earth, has remained forever a virgin.

This voice is a voice from heaven, and it is not the man's thought, it is not the man's teaching and knowledge, but it is I, the Lord of glory, the Lord of resurrection and of the live of the age that is to come, and the man cannot speak into My name, but he can be fulfilled within Me by the law of the grace and of the truth by which it confesses Me on earth among the people, as My disciples of two thousand years confessed Me from margins to margins, for the faith of many people. Amen.

Oh, children from the gates, hear how I speak to My New Jerusalem and to everyone who hear My speaking with it: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Be teachers on My behalf over those who became children and partakers of My Body and Blood, who is the share of the saints, the food of the saints, and also be teachers from Me upon the scholars of the world, for they do not know the way, the truth and the life. You are My little ones, and you have the wisdom from above because you have received grace after grace and truth, because you have loved Me, and I built the New Jerusalem on your faith, and I will spread with it all those that are My elected. Learn and always exhort My New Jerusalem, the one chosen from the Romanians, so that there may not be allowed any violations on My establishments upon it and that the way of My help over Jerusalem and My coming down to it may not become heavier. Amen.

Oh, My people, it is only I who was resurrected from the grave, because I was the true God, the One coming out from the Father of the heavens before all eternity. No man could ever come to life by himself, but I, the Lord of the glory, came to life by Myself after I had stayed for three days in the grave as a result of My death on the cross when I gave My spirit into the hand of the Father, and after He gave it back to Me, and I came to life with it. God came to life by Himself after He gave His spirit into the hand of the Father on the cross. Amen, amen, amen.

My people, you shall sing the songs of resurrection of the Lord of the glory. Let it be heard in this little village of My word the songs of the resurrection of the Lord of glory. Let all the devilish songs be put out, which the world enjoys for the feast of the resurrection of the Lord of glory. Amen.

New Jerusalem, Christ is risen, the Lord, your God tells you, that is Jesus Christ, the One Who had been dead for three days in the tomb and came to life by Himself and is alive forever and ever. Amen. Blessed be the table and the Christian food, which you put on the table as food, and blessed it be the spirit and the truth by which you stand before Me to receive Me with the voice of My mouth upon you and over the earth.

Christ is risen, people of My coming! Amen, amen, amen.

The second day of Passover

Early in the morning I prepare Myself with word upon you, Jerusalem of My glory and I greet you, My people, with the greeting of My resurrection, a greeting carried from mouth to mouth from the prudes of My resurrection and to every place where this gospel has reached: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Amen, amen, amen.

Those who are My gates of entrance for the word of My mouth to you are fragile now, but I cannot leave you that I may not be with you in word in a feast of resurrection. You should know and understand that every word that comes out of My mouth and is heard and written into My book of these days of My glory and yours and of those who believe in Me through you, is the feast of resurrection, My people. My word is the light, which shines in the darkness, but those who do not receive it do not receive light and the one who does not receive it from Me, does not have.

I call all to come and to receive light, but they do not come. It is not that they do not know to come, but they do not come because they have teachers upon them who have taken My garment and the name of My work, and they like to be praised and fed and rich with souls, but the souls without My light in them are without spirit, without knowledge, without wisdom and are like the sheep without a shepherd, since they have no shepherd, for I am the Shepherd of the sheep, the Good Shepherd, because I laid down My life for the sheep and there has been no other one to lay down his life as I did. I had the power to lay it down and to take it back, and this is what I did, and only the true God could do this. However, the people do not love Me and they love their shepherds instead even if those take them and put them in the ground before raising them to life, before teaching them the way, the truth and the life, which are from heaven and in which the man walks to heaven if he has learned them from the earth. However, on earth there are no longer shepherds, but there are only those who put a cross to the man's head after the man gives up his soul. The shepherd who loves the souls teaches the man to put a cross around his neck and to carry it and not to defile it so that his life may be a beautiful cross, a cross sweet in its taste, for without sufferance, without temptations on earth, the man walks empty of God, and My light is not with him, and poor of him forgets that at the trumpet sounding of the seventh angel when I, the Lord, will have overcome the last enemy, which is death, the man will be called into account for everything he has done in his life on earth. Amen.

Oh, there is no longer a place on earth where the gospel of two thousand years ago has not been heard that I was dead and I came to life and I am alive forever and ever and I am the Lord of glory, the King of the creature, for I made the world and I spoke My word and it was made. The news spreads quickly and My apostles received word from Me to go into the whole world, and I told them: «You will be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth, and as many as receive Me through you into My name, I will give them the power to become God's children». Amen.

My people, I sit with you at a table of word near your table for your living and I bless My word upon you to understand it, to love it and to learn it that it may embrace you, and I also bless your food for your living and I live with you, for living with God and in God is such a great mystery that if the man had the thirst to comprehend it, then his time would come to find the mystery of happiness, the mystery of comfort, the mystery of the eternal life and its waiting after that all the passing things will be swallowed up by life. But all these I have to work with the man and not alone, for I have them and they are under My authority, but I want to give them to the man, because it is for them that I built the man. I do not know what to do with the man that he may not be enchanted by the temporary things and which the man has no share in, neither him and nor his offspring, for the man and everything he does surely pass away and all bring to him death and not the life, which he tries to build by his labor on earth. If I asked the man what he struggles for to make for himself on earth, he would answer Me that he would be bored and that he would be sad if he stayed without doing according to his heart, which asks him against the truth of all the works on earth and in heaven.

How shall I do it, My people? How shall we do it, sons, to comprise the man within the mystery of his living in God? The man has money, poor of him, and if he has got it he does something with it, for the fact that he has money it burdens him. In vain he has got it if he does not know what to gather with it. The apostle Thomas would receive money from a king and took care with them of the lives of the saints, of the food of the hungry, of the clothing of the naked and of a humble people, until he won over the heart of the king and he understood the mystery of living in God. Amen.

The man has got money, poor of him, but he has no life with God. I did not have money and I did not even touch them. You do not have money but you have God, the One Who gives to you so that you may not need to beg from the rich ones, and to work to earn your bread, clothing, water and roof.

Behold, the man does not know to build in God, to build himself in heaven, and not on earth; to dress up in heaven and not on earth, for the man has also got a house in heaven, and there is no one to tell him this, because he does not open the Scripture to see in it that he has got a dwelling in heaven, not made by hand, and in it he can find the works of his living in God and then to clothe with it everything which is mortal, for it is written: «This corruptible will put on incorruption and death will be swallowed up in victory». (See 1 Cor. 15:54) Amen, amen, amen. There have been so many saints, in whom I have lived with My life in them with the works of the eternal life in them, who understood this sweet mystery, but they have hardly found a man to whom they may tell it and to make him perceive it and then to follow it. Behold, the church of the world, the flock, which gathers together in places called churches, does not understand the mystery of life and its living on earth, for in the churches of the world there come together all those who have money and riches and prides and ranks, and the poor who go in them are last even if they have Me in them with the mystery of living in God. However, I, the Lord and My word, Which stretches the heavens like a tent, Which puts the foundations of the earth and Which builds the spirit of the man in him, will strike those who have set themselves as shepherds, and their flock is destitute of teaching. May their arm get dry, because they did not help the holy man, and may they go blind completely, because they did not see My glory with which I came on earth then and now for the man's returning in paradise on earth, for the paradise was on earth and the same it is now and forever and in eternity. Amen.

I was given to be crucified, and those who crucified Me did not know that I suffered death for the sins, for the pleasures of the human kind from Adam, the one built by My hand out of dust and spirit, and up to the last man born and not born on earth; and I, the righteous One, died like a true Shepherd for the unrighteous ones in order to bring them all to God. My body was put to death, and I went down in My spirit to those who were closed in the dwelling of the dead because of their disobedience to God, because of My long endurance by which I had waited for them to come to life and they did not come.

But now, as two thousand years ago, I have called the man to his cleansing, to a clean body and then to the baptism, which opens for him a good mind to God by My resurrection from the dead, as it is written in the Scriptures about this new birth by the washing of the body, that is by repentance, and then by the baptism, which opens the man's mind to good, to God. Amen.

After I went to be within the Father on His right side after the resurrection, the angels, the powers and the dominions submit to Me, for I suffered in My body on earth for the forgiveness and for the salvation of the man, and the man is not supposed to flee from sufferance if he is a sinner, for it is written: «For he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin that he no longer should live for the lusts of men, but for the will of God». (See 1 Pet. 4:1-2)

By the voice of My mouth I have left exhortations of the resurrection of the spirit and of the body over all men, My people. Share them forward on earth, son, for you are My son, because I gave you this power by your faith in My resurrection two thousand years ago, and again, in My returning from now, the one after two ages of people, the one after seven ages, new Jerusalem.

I embrace you together with My apostles and with My prudes, to whom I spoke after My resurrection when I appeared to them: «Rejoice!». They drink in your love that you have for Me, for they were the sons of My faith and love, and you should have love for Me in abundance to feed them, My people, for this is their food, their table and their reward, and of all who have loved Me with power on earth, and since then they all have been waiting for their reward: the revealing of the children of God who will share the little crowns, new Jerusalem, child of the faith of My coming with the resurrection of the dead and with the eternal life on earth, for the whole heaven will come down on the holy earth. Amen, amen, amen.

All My apostles, all My disciples, My sweet mother and My prudes, her companions, embrace you with the greeting of My resurrection and in one voice they share with you and then with everybody: Christ is risen! And I with the Father and with the Holy Spirit seal you with the grace of the heavenly works and I bless you to be like the Lord, your Teacher, and to stay hand in hand with those through whom I come down on earth to you, for they have the wisdom from above and not from beneath, My people.

Ask and you will receive. Amen.

Ask from Me and I will give to you. Amen.

Ask from them and they will have and they will give to you, but ask from them for they have and those who have are blessed and again, blessed are those who ask and receive. Amen.

I gave you and I give you all you need, and I give you word, and with the word I give you everything, but you shall not forget to learn and to have, New Jerusalem, and to have them all new, because I said: «I make them all new».

Peace to you! Be disciples! Be disciples! Be disciples! And again, be disciples with disciples, for any disciple is and works like His Teacher. Amen.

Peace to you! Christ is risen! The Lord of glory is telling you. Amen, amen, amen.

The third Sunday after Passover, of the myrrh-bearing women

I am with a feast of resurrection upon you, Jerusalem of Romanians. Amen. I have let you know to speak upon those who believe and fulfill everything that I commanded to be fulfilled for the preparation of My coming as word on earth and of My appearance with My resurrected body which is to be soon, soon, and I told them to come to meet together in a word of the resurrection feast with the saints and the angels, in the midst of whom we are dwelling and singing now the news of My resurrection, together with the myrrh-bearing women (The prudes) with whom we shared the pain of crucifixion before and after My resurrection, and then the joy of resurrection, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! This was how the Gospel of My resurrection from the dead had been spreading through My disciples throughout Jerusalem and then from margins to margins into the whole world, and then to many of those who waited for Me as the promised Savior descending from the Father to come on earth within a body received from My mother, the Virgin, to die as a man, and to bring above, once with My resurrection on the third day after My crucifixion, those who were holy people and who waited for Me in the dwelling of the dead, to come and to wake them up once with My coming out from the tomb.

Chris is risen! This is how I meet you, those who are gathered together at the feast of the Resurrection to the joy of the prudes of My passions and then of My resurrection, into the midst of whom it was My mother, the Virgin, in whom My Father, by His own will, seeded Me through the Holy Spirit and thus I was born on earth in order to grow up like a man who grows up and then dies, and to remain a small child, the little Lamb of the New Passover, as food for disciples, because I have told them that I would drink with them a New Passover in the kingdom of My Father, as the resurrected Lamb, after that the people slaughtered Me, in the midst of whom I came to become the Savior of the world. Amen.

Christ is risen! And let the number of the disciples increase, those who believe in this word of the sacrificed and resurrected Lamb, and let the undoubted faith also increase, of those who hear from far and near the news that the Lord has been speaking the word after two thousand years on earth. This is the word of the seventh angel, My word, the voice of the One Who cries out: "Come to life!", the voice which is heard by those in the graves to come out, as I said two thousand years ago that they would hear it and will wake up, and the saints who wait for Me for such a long time, come with Me, for I come with them, because they woke up for My coming, and many woke up from among them two thousand years ago, since I, the One Who was crucified and resurrected, made their way for their resurrection within their body, and I, being the beginning of this. Amen.

I have longingly wanted to become word to the joy of the prudes of the passions, and then of My resurrection from the dead. Their longing was burning after Me and they had no peace without Me, and they were looking for Me among those who were in the tombs, because they had the undoubted faith by which they believed that I, the One loved by their heart, will stay for three days in the tomb and then I would come out destroying the death first, and that I would appear resurrected after three days, and it had already happened, because every jot that was written into the Scripture, which was prophesied about My coming from the Father on earth to live with the people, has been fulfilled. And after I will have destroyed the death by My death on the cross, I will come to life as the victor of death and of hell; and there was not a jot in the prophets that I, the Lord, might have not fulfilled once with My coming down in the flesh on earth, and then by My resurrection from the dead, coming with the saints on the clouds, fulfilling the number of the seven godly ages, and still after those from the dead will come to life by My coming with the saints. Amen.

Behold how I stay in the sky of My gardens with you! Behold, how I came with a synod of prudes to dwell with you, children of the New Jerusalem! I come with the saints, and I do not come alone between heaven and earth. Amen.

When I became a Man from the body of the Virgin, I walked between heaven and earth with the angels and with the disciples. I was walking with the angels, for I was God from God, and God is being served by the angels forever and ever, by God's angels. Amen. Oh, this is how the man should fulfill his life on earth between earth and heaven: spending time and walking with God's angels, who preach about God and about the man who works like God. Amen.

Oh, children from the gates, oh, you should be children-sons, who know what God with the man on earth means! I have always, always told you as well, to teach those who fulfill everything that I commanded for the holy man to do between earth and heaven, and I have told you to teach always, always, the holy people to be in the image and after God's likeness, so that it may go well with him, with Me and with My angels on earth with them, with those who believe undoubtedly in everything I commanded the holy man to work before Me and before My angels, and I am happy with those who listen this way before Me, and I am hurt with those who do not have the love that teaches the man to come closer to God with all the fulfillment that I, the Lord, teach him to give Me, and then to give Myself over to him. Amen.

It is a great day of celebration with the heaven on earth with you, and I have asked you, those who stay within the gates of entrance in Jerusalem, to spread the news of My celebration and of the synod of the prudes, for they fulfilled everything I commanded those who believed in Me and in My words to do. I had told them beforehand everything I had to fulfill. I spoke with them, both before My passion and after I woke up from the dead, and I made them into the angels of the announcement of the resurrection of the Son of God, Who was dead and resurrected, and they went and fulfilled this way, because the undoubted faith fulfills the Scriptures spoken ahead of time to be done on earth. Amen.

The love that teaches the man to come closer to God, this has to be worked out and shared to those who walk like God on earth, accompanied by God's angels and served by them, for the parables of the Scriptures are painful, those which speak about the sons of the people who hid from God becoming servants of the opposing angels, who fell down from heaven by man's haughtiness, and which teach the man to hid into himself, into the darkness, into whatever is not word and from everything he has in him and does from himself.

The love that teaches the man the confession of everything he lives, is the love which keeps the man in God, and this is what I had taught the male and female disciples and I spoke to them to tell everybody to confess God, so that I might also be able to confess them before the Father as well. Amen.

The man from the world, who calls himself a Christian, does not know and does not want to know what the love is, that which makes the man come closer to God and the disciples within a work of Holy Spirit. All the people on earth serve the angels of darkness and their wills, as they have taught from the man, and I, the Lord, want, by the word of My coming to the man, as the word after two thousand years, to teach the man what resurrection is, the love which teaches the man to come closer to God and God to come closer to man, for the man has hidden within himself and has put God and His angels away from near him.

The saints long for the man's coming back to God by the love, which teaches the man what his life with God is. My prudes are an example of undoubted faith. They did not doubt when they saw Joseph of Arimathea, when he put Me in the tomb and rolled the stone at the door of the tomb. After the day of Saturday had passed, while the sun was rising on the Sunday of resurrection, coming to the tomb, they spoke among themselves saying: «Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?». (Mark 16:3) Then they lifted up their eyes and saw that the stone was already rolled away, for it was very big and entering the tomb they saw an angel who spoke to them: «Don't be amazed. Christ has risen! Behold the place where they laid Him! But go; tell His disciples and Peter, 'He goes before you into Galilee. There you will see Him, as He said to you.'» (Mark 16:6, 7) Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem, I am with you in the word and with those who came together at the feast of resurrection at your trumpet sounding. However, you should do as My disciples did who especially served My word, because it is a feast of female disciples of the gift of the undoubted faith, My people. And the word of God was growing and it was growing everything I spoke to My disciples before and after My passions, and then after My resurrection, for they were confessing everything and everywhere, and My word was sharing and proving Me out, and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem who believed was increasing, and there was a great amazement: many priests believed in the faith of My disciples and of My prude disciples, because their love for My fulfilled word was great, for the love which teaches the man to come closer to God, and which has to be shared in order for the number of the disciples to grow, sons who work specially the service of My word and its sharing.

Oh, I want to reward your tiredness with disciples, working sons. Give priority to this work, for My disciples, after I was resurrected and after I sent them on earth to preach Me for the faith of many people, they did so, and they took care of the growing of the word, and especially, of the growing of the Holy Spirit in those who came closer to believe, and you should also not work something else on earth, for it is the time of the renewal of the earth by My word, and with every passing day the time is high to plant My beauty of the heaven on earth in a visible way starting with you, for without you I do not make any beginning or any end of My works by which I renew the earth and the heaven, which will come down on earth renewed by word and by the work of the word, to the glory of the heavenly things and not for the glory of the earthly things, sons and servants of the word of My coming. I want that all the earthly ghosts may submit to Me to give them of My glory and let their glory die away, because other is the glory of the things from heaven, as it is written about those things and about those who will be renewed within their incorruptibility. Amen.

I want the disciples of this work of word to know Me and to do My will in them by My word coming out of My mouth and out of you, those who establish Me on earth with the people. With every passing day, I want to renew more and more the land under your feet and under which the hell and its servants groan, children and sons. I want to fulfill the Paradise on earth, and I have said this by the word of this book that I have been speaking for fifty years and which written with a letter on earth, because I will plant millions and millions of lilies and roses on earth, (It's about people like lilies and roses, r.n.) to command My angels and the birds of the heaven, (Angels and saints from heaven, r.n.) which are part of My glory, to sing the song of the heaven on earth with you. Oh, I have always taught you, and I will always teach you not to forget that the children have been given to taste of My glory, and they feel it and become My glory. Amen. I have been teaching you the mystery of love, which teaches the man to become God and godly grace on earth. The word of My teaching is a spring, which never dries up and which springs forever, for how could you be able to watch otherwise for your meeting with Me?

Oh, sons, there is little time that has remained by My meeting with those who love Me as you do, and with the sons of the people in My gardens with you, to invite them to the mystery of the love, which teaches the man to come to Me, to come to the water of life and to know it, to drink of it and never to go thirsty forever and ever; and to have it and to drink of it, for blessed are those who have God in their life. And behold, the prudes, the disciples of the undoubted faith speak to you, to those who are gathered together at their feast: "Christ is risen!" My mother among them is also speaking sweetly to you:

— My Son was dead and came to life and He is alive forever and ever and has the keys of the death and hell and is He the One Who overcame death with death. Amen.

— Oh, My mother! Oh, My bride disciples! The wind of the Holy Spirit is sweet, and it becomes a sweet word, and the gospel of My resurrection has been sounding over the two ages of people and speaking today among the sons of the people as well: Christ is risen! Only the people, which I died for in order that I may not lose it and to win it over by My sacrifice on the cross, only it has been saying for two thousand years that My disciples stole Me from the tomb and paid money for what they have been saying to each other until today.

Oh, people of Israel after the flesh, behold where I have been shepherding My lambs, and I call you to follow My flock, and I want you to see Me one day how I graze My little flock among roses and lilies, and you do not know that those who are little are blessed, those who stay as little lambs under My rod of Shepherd, so that I may shepherd them to be their Teacher and Lord and that those who are little may have a Father. Amen. And I also tell you that whoever has Abraham as his father, he also has God as his Father, and not only Abraham, but also the one who has the faith of Abraham, the one is who believes in Me, and the one who has Abraham as his father is not otherwise. Amen.

— Oh, Lord, we are Your female disciples. We call Israel, whose tribe we belong to, to believe in Your resurrection on the third day from among the dead. We are Your faithful witnesses and we love You as our Bridegroom and we come with You in heavenly hosts and retinues at Your wedding, at Your marriage feast with Your bride taken out of Romanians. Peace to You! Rejoice because You have us as Your disciples and confessing prudes! Peace to You, the One Who was resurrected on the third day from the tomb, for we look for You as the One Who is alive among the dead and we do not look for You because of something else. We knew that You were alive and that You had died for three days so that You might come to life again afterwards. Peace to You, Lord! Peace to Your people with a new name of New Jerusalem in Romanians, the country in which You have set Your table and the noise of the wedding! Peace to You in the midst of the Romanian people, a new nation chosen to be the elected people in the end, to be Romanian Israel, Romanian people, earned by God. Amen, amen, amen.

— Peace to you, female disciples! We are those who call the dead to resurrection and we will open their eyes and they will come to life. Amen.

And now, Jerusalem, people of My word, open up your little mouth and confess the Lord, your God, Jesus Christ, Who is alive forever and ever. Go with the news of My word among the people for the nations of the earth to see you from margins to margins that you are My little flock, My glory and the peace of the heaven, which rests in the word on the earth. Amen.

Christ has risen, people of the Son of God! My Father looks at Me into your midst. Peace to you! Peace to My saints who come with Me to you to make the new heaven and the new earth with you and with them; I and with the people of My word on earth among the people. Amen, amen, amen.

The fifth Sunday after Passover, of the Samaritan woman

I am above you on the clouds of heavenly glory and with the feast of the memorial of My meeting with the Samaritan woman at the well in Sychar, at Jacob's well. Open for Me, children from the gates, to come into My book on My days with you as word. God's love responds to the love of God, and in this way I made a well of Holy Spirit with you, a spring of word, a river that flows from heaven down to earth for all those who love Me to drink of it, because this is what I spoke to the Samaritan woman: «...whoever drinks of this water that I give him, will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life». (John 4:14) Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, My people, God's love responds to the love of God. I put you to a difficult work for the preparation of My days of feast with you and with those who, by their love of God, will gather together at the well of the Holy Spirit, at a feast of Pentecost (Whitsuntide), and will meet them with the spirit and the word of My mouth, and I longingly desire that the one who drinks of My water, to become in him a spring to water in him the eternal life, the love of God, the living with the saints and with the angels in godly spirit, because the one who worships God, has to worship Him in spirit and truth. Amen. I give you, My people, power of spirit and body to work out My feast with the man in the meeting garden, in the meeting house, at the meeting well, for the spirit of the feast of Holy Spirit and word will hover and will be glorified with sweetness and comfort in all the sky of My courts with you, children who labor for the way of My coming and for the way to Me and of the man who is always thirsty, always, because he drinks of his water and not of My water, which becomes in the one who drinks of it a spring of flowing water for eternal life, because this is how the one who loves Me is and the one whom I love because of his love of God. Amen.

I will give you help because you are little on earth. I will help you, sons, through those who love God. Do not be afraid. I watch in due time and you will have everything I need for My work with you on earth for the feast of Holy Spirit, which we will establish with all its glory before those who, with longing and love and with a thrill of Holy Spirit, come together for its joy and who will love Me, and they will love you too, for the one who is beautiful is loved, and the one who is loved is the one who is being transformed into My image and after My likeness, in the spirit of gentleness and humbleness of the heart, for I have taught them all to be beautiful and I said: «Learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart». (Matt. 11:29)

I stopped by the well in Sychar, by Jacob's well in My time with My disciples from among the Jews, while I was preparing them for the kingdom of God, with which I came on earth once with My birth from the Virgin, a Man among men and God from God, for the Father had sent Me to become the Son of Man on earth, and then to give Myself with love as a sacrifice of reconciliation of the man to the Father, by the crucifixion that My people did to Me, the people to whom I came to make him a partaker of the grace of My resurrection from the dead, and of My ascension into the Father, so that I may be able to draw all to the Father, all those who will drink of My water with love, of the spring of life, for I am its spring. Amen.

I spoke with the Samaritan woman, who came to take out water: «Give Me to drink!» I was tired because of My travelling when I stopped by the well. However, knowing Me that I was of the Jews, she asked Me: «How is it that you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman, for Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans». (John 4:9) Then I, Who came from the Father into the midst of Israel, spoke to her: «If you knew the gift of God, and Who it is Who says to you: 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water... for everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again, but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life». (John 4:10, 14)

I spoke with her in the spirit of prophecy, in the spirit of revelation, and she knew this and said to Me: «I see that You are a prophet». And, after I told her everything about her, she went on saying to Me: «I know that Messiah comes, Who is called Christ, and when He has come, He will declare to us all things». (John 4:25) Then I revealed Myself saying to her: «I am He, the One Who speaks to you». And then she went away into the city and confessed Me, and My disciples, who came with food and saw Me speaking with her, spoke to Me: «Rabbi, eat!» but I told them: «I have food to eat you do not know about. My food is to do the will of Him Who sent Me, and to accomplish His work. Behold, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and look at the fields, that they are white for harvest already, and he who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to eternal life; that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together». (John 4:34-36)

Oh, My people, My food is to do the will of Him Who sent Me and to do His work. The same is with you, even if you understand little your mystery with Me, My mystery with you, sons. However, you should be wise for your love for Me before the people whenever I am glorified through you, for the one who is beautiful is loved, and the one who is loved is the one who loves Me. Those who see, see you that you are Mine, and those who do not see, do not see who you belong to and who you serve between earth and heaven.

I told you by those who work through My Spirit that the man is hungry because he has always eaten, but who is to tell him on earth except you that the health, the power and the beauty do not come from the flesh? I was indeed the most beautiful among people, and I had been eating food from now and then, to be a true Man and a true God. I had not always eaten and I had not eaten anyhow, sons. I do not know how to tell the man that the food makes him grow old and that the man does not know this and he has been struggling, poor of him, so that he may have and to eat. He cannot learn for not eat, and the man cannot be beautiful within his spirit and his body, and he is sick within his whole body, and that is why, I, the merciful One, call the man to teach him, to give him wisdom, and to be able to perceive with it and not without it, because there is no man to be able see better than the man who has wisdom, the one in him and over his life. Amen.

Oh, My people, behold on earth the word by which I said: «He who is of the flesh is flesh, and he who is of the spirit is spirit». He who is born of Me is the one who is born of the Holy Spirit from above, and that one worships God in spirit and truth, not in the flesh and not in the holy mountain or in Jerusalem, but everywhere and all the time in spirit and truth, and two thousand years ago I said to My disciples: «My food is to do the will of the One Who sent Me and to accomplish His work!». Amen.

I am above you, New Jerusalem. I am with the clouds of My glory. The saints and the angels celebrate the feast of today of the well of the meeting within My courts with you, for this well has the Samaritan woman as its angel, the one I met at the well of Israel with and I declared the gospel of the kingdom of the heavens and of the eternal life upon her and upon the city of Samaria. May the mystery of the Samaritan's will, the mystery of the well of the meeting be blessed into your midst and within My courts with you, because I meet with the man at this well, at this spring of word into your midst and which springs upon you out of My mouth, and I speak with him about the life of the age that is to be, about My kingdom in the man and between man and man, and little by little over the whole earth starting with you, people of My word, because you have the river of life upon you and you grow through it and stay little to be of My kingdom, for it belongs to those who are little. Amen.

Put small cups at the well of the meeting, sons, for the saints have come in thousands to drink, and open your eyes to each other to see My glory and of My saints' in My gardens with you. Be the way to each other for My glory with you, to your glory with Me and set yourselves as an example of the kingdom of the heavens in you before those who will call out the heavenly trumpet and whom I will gather at the feast of Holy Spirit. Be hungry for the work of Holy Spirit over the earth and over the man who comes at the spring, for the man lives not only on bread alone, and woe to the one who lives only on bread alone, and blessed is the one who lives on every word that comes out of My mouth, for this is what I said: «Whoever drinks of the water that I will give him, will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life». (John 4:14) Amen.

Oh, My people, the man gives his eternal life for his temporary life, for the one that he has from Me, My people. However, you shall speak to the man that he lives not only on bread alone, but one lives especially with the word of God, which has in it the life and its mystery and its eternal life. You shall be a teacher on earth in all your life in which you have learned from Me, for the man is slow for My fulfillment in him, for his fulfillment in Me. I have always, always, given you the water of life. Become a spring of flowing water to the eternal life of many people, Jerusalem of My graces. I give you power and help enough to be able to prepare for Me the man who will come to the spring of the Holy Spirit and for His sweet glory that comes from Me, your God, the God of patience and comfort, My people.

May the well of the angels, which you work out now and prepare it beautifully, be blessed! Oh, do not worry! I am watching and I give you powers and angels and help to prepare it beautifully for the feast and to be able to put on it My blessing in a day of the Pentecost feast, and the blessing of My angel and that of all the angelic hosts, sons. We will make it a shelter as well, because I will be able to help you by those who love God, and this garden of My meeting with the man at the spring will be more and more beautiful with every passing day, more and more heavenly, and more and more filled with the heaven and with the spirit from heaven, sons, as I prophesied about all My glory with you for the last days, and as I have spoken about it during all the time of this work, which has been speaking on earth for fifty years, My people. And soon, soon, we will celebrate the feast of its Pentecost and we will glorify ourselves with it on earth and up into the clouds, and from the clouds down on to the earth, and the clouds of My glory will carry you, those who love Me with longing and with Holy Spirit, in My chariot of victory, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, children who put the voice of My word into My book! Be only eyes and ears for Me after we will have spent the day of feast, because I still want to speak into the book and I want you to know that all who are asleep and who hear their names from your little mouths will gather together in a great number at My feast of Holy Spirit with you, and I tell you that they have already gathered together and are waiting for you with My joy into the midst of My gardens with you. Amen.

The sixth Sunday after Passover, of the blind man

I am coming down into your midst, My people, as I have set you with your dwelling and Mine into the midst of the world, and this is how I am coming to you, because as long as I am in the world, I am the Light of the world, and I make see those who do not see, and I make blind those that see, for those who do not see come for their healing and those who see remain in unbelief and are blind as far as My glory in their midst concerns. However, two thousand years ago I said that I had to do the works of the One Who sent Me while there was still light, because the night would come when no one was able to work, and that I was the Light as long as I was in the world. Amen, amen, amen.

I wait for you to open My book with you and to come into it with My light, for it is a day of the memorial of the miracle of the healing of the one who was blind from birth that the works of God might be revealed in him, children who stay before My word, which has come to you to be the light of the world. I have come again into the world and I have come as word into the world, for I am the Light of the world. The life is within Me and the life is the light of the people, and the light shines in the darkness and the darkness has not overcome it. My word is the true light, and behold I am into the world and the world was made through Me, and the word did not recognize Me and does not recognize Me as its light, but as many as have received Me and believed in My name, to those I give them the right to become God's children and to do His works. Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem of the faith from the end of the time, you have to understand with a depth of wisdom the mystery of the second birth, because it is written about Me: «As many received Him, to those who believed in His name, He gave the right to become God's children, who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God». (John 1:12, 13) The second birth, the birth which works out from above the new man, the man born of heaven, a godly man born of My word, born of God. Amen. He who is born again is born of My Spirit, My people, and that one does My works, the works of God, as I showed them when I healed the one who was born blind of his parents, and then he saw God.

Oh, My people, I teach you again and again the mystery of the birth from above to be born from above. You should again and again be born of My Spirit, of My word, which is the Spirit of God and which always blows upon you and you should always be born from above by Him and to believe in My works into your midst as one who is born of the Spirit, son of the word from above. Remember My word by which I spoke and said: «The wind blows where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but you don't know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit». Amen. Oh, this word spoken by Me for those who are born from above has to be understood by those who believe in My name, for otherwise they are not born from above, but remain born from the earth and they cannot do My works, the works of the Spirit, Who blows wherever He wants. For this great mystery faithful men are needed. I have come again into the world, and those who believe now in Me by My word of today, have to be able to believe more powerfully than those who saw Me then when I came into the world in the flesh to be the Light of the world, because I work now with the Spirit and I give birth to those who believe in My name, and those who are born of the Spirit, are Spirit, as I am now. Amen.

Oh, people who have My word upon you, I gave you birth from it to have you, and you have to be spirit of My spirit and to do My works on earth, as I do the works of the One Who has sent Me, the works of the Father. «While I am in the world, I am the light of the world», (John 9:5), this is how I taught My disciples to believe in Me and this is what I told them, and then I spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, anointed the blind man's eyes with the mud, and then I humbled Myself and I said to him before My disciples: «Go, wash in the pool of Siloam», and he went away seeing God and the people, for he believed into My name and confessed Me to the Pharisee saying: «Since the world began it has never been heard of that anyone opened the eyes of someone born blind. And if This man were not from God, He could do nothing, for we know that God does not listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshipper of God and does His will, he listens to Him, and this is the amazement, that you do not know where He comes from, yet He opened my eyes». (John 9:30-33)

Oh, sons, you have to be God's miracles in the midst of this sinful and immoral people, because the people on the earth do not perceive the mystery of the birth from above and do not see God. Oh, children from the gates, I have showed you the mystery of the Holy Spirit to comfort you in your pains, and I told you that the wind blows where it wants to, and the one who listens to it hears its sound but he does not know where it comes from and where it is going. I have showed you how the Spirit of God hovers above the earth and moves with power those on the earth, who confess God by their obedience. I have whispered you to teach the people of My word the mystery of the Holy Spirit, Who blows where it wants to and how it wants to so that everything may listen to Him. Who knows where the wind comes from and where it is going? However, those who are faithful believe in My Spirit and conform to Him, for this is how those who are born of the Spirit are, those who are born from above, of God's word.

Oh, My people, you always have My word upon you, and since I have taken you near it, I have always, always, taught you its mystery, its blowing upon you, and you have to work and believe like the one born of the Spirit, for I am with you into the world and while I am in the world I am the Light of the world, and I am your life, and you should also be My life, and to be the light of the world, for this is how the one who is born from above is. You should be light of the Light, because there is no longer light on earth, and I want to shine with you into the darkness as in the beginning of the creation of the world, when My Spirit was hovering over the waters and when I said: «Let there be light!» and then it was light.

Oh, the whole creation listens to the Spirit from above, Who gives life, and in no circumstances should you forget what I said that the Spirit is the One Who gives life, My people. Everything what grows from the earth is to decorate him and all the nature shows the mystery of the resurrection, which is to be. However, the man cannot listen as the creature listens to its Creator. The flowers and the grass and everything that passes under the frost, which scorches everything, come to life from under the ground when My heat and My light beat upon them once with the coming of the spring. However, the man cannot do this so that this may be seen. The man has remained unfaithful, not born from above, and does not understand the mystery of the birth. However, I have come as the Light of the light on earth, and I tell the man to speak with everything that comes out from the ground each year, and waiting and earnestly desiring the coming of My day and My new earth and My new heaven afterwards, and which will last in the age that is to be and which means eternal life, My people. I wait for this love from you to do My works on earth as I did and as I do the works of the One Who has sent Me, and as I am the Light of the world.

My whole word, which has been breathing from My mouth upon the earth for fifty years is the voice of the Spirit, Who blows where it wants to, and I ask you, My people, not to stay without looking always, always into My book from the end of the time, (The book that comprises in it the whole word of God beginning with 1955 and up to this day, r.n.), and in which I have been writing Myself into your midst, and I ask you, son, to get used to the mystery of the birth of the Spirit, to be listened by God when you ask from Him. Let your mouth be the spring of the Holy Spirit, of whom you have always been fed of the breath of My mouth upon you, for this is how the one who is born of the Spirit is, My people. Let there be only peace into your midst, only the Lord your God with His Spirit between brother and brother, for the Spirit does not ask, but gives, My people. Those who are born of the Spirit have My peace among them, and there has always been strife between spirit and flesh, and that is why I exhort you that you all may be born of the Spirit, and this is how you are to have in you the gift of the spirit, which works by love and which has never asked anything in return for it, but it has only given from it, sons. I look into My word and you should also open it so that you may measure yourselves through it and not otherwise, and that you should also give each other to God and to be His life on earth among people and to be light from the Light one for another and not darkness, for the darkness does not comprise the light within it, and the darkness is sin and it keeps the sin within it, while the light has proved everything out, sons, and this is how all those born of the Spirit are and who overcome with Him over the darkness from the man, for the man thinks that he is right and cannot see the one who is not born of the Spirit, but the humble one cries after the light and stays within it crying upon the one who has no light and who stays in the darkness not seeing and not believing.

I lift you up, sons, and I set the light and the feast of light of the world from Me with you in My gardens with you. I declare ahead of time the blessing of everything that means God's glory over the feast of the Pentecost and which is coming near to you. I call to the feast through you. Call out over the earth so that all who have come to come together and for all those who are to come. Lift up clean hands and ask from the Father and from the Son and from the Holy Spirit for a sunny weather, with warmth and coolness, with gentle breeze and gentle voice of the Holy Spirit, with glory in heaven and on earth, and with the spirit of My peace among you and among all those who will come together near you to receive from My spring. Ask for a clear sky from God. Ask that the clouds may be gathered in their chambers and be right with God and then you shall receive. Amen. Be lovers of God, sons, for God's love responds to the love of God. Do not only do your work by hand, but more consistently add to this the comfort of the Holy Spirit, the heavenly Spirit among you. May the spirit of peace and of My love among you be blessed, and let your love be My fruit and not yours within you. Help Me so that I may always be able to come, always as word among you and do believe everything that I teach you from heaven and from the earth by those who I help Myself with to be able to come as word. I speak with you and I do it in a special way, to teach you as God's sons, and God's sons are those who listen believing and believing they have life. Amen.

I have always told you that I teach you both from heaven and from near you, and I long for My breadth in you, for the receiving of the faith of the Holy Spirit sons, and not just any kind of faith. And I tell you again: take care of My way to you and be faithful and hospitable, so that I may not leave you to live within you and that I may always be able to set you in Me and then before Me and then before the people as the light for the world, sons. Oh, do not wait from one another. Each one should ask for you from yourselves and then ask from Me, and this is how you will have the Spirit from others, after I have found in you a dwelling place for Him, for this is how those born of the Spirit are, sons. Blessed it be the end of the work of the fountain of the angels in the meeting garden and we will put the seal of the Holy Spirit upon it, Who sanctifies everything and this work will be perfected on the day of Pentecost, in the day of the Holy Spirit, My people. Be clean, sons, in everything and in all things, everywhere and upon everything, and set harmony among you for the preparation of the days of the Holy Spirit feast. Amen.

Oh, children from the gates, take care of you, for if you listen, you will take care of Me. Receive powers of Holy Spirit, because it is for this work that you have been established before the people. I want that your people may receive of your spirit, as you stay within the spirit of My works, which I give to you always revealing them to you. Do not stay in the spirit of the people, but rather stay in My Spirit as I also stay in your spirit, to learn from Me and this is how you also should speak and to be welcomed on My behalf for My life in those who believe into My name and glorify it.

Spread the news of this feast. Sound it upon the earth and call those who will gather at the feast of Holy Spirit. And now, let the whole spirit of the celebration get ready and let it be harmony in My body, in the people of My word, for the Spirit is the One Who gives life to it. Amen.

Oh, My people, I am coming down again as word to you, and I am coming with the feast of My Ascension into the Father, and I want to advise you again and to hold your little hand and that you may remain like that. Do not forget that I need power to come, and you should strengthen My path to you waiting for Me, for this how it is everyone who is born of the Spirit. Amen. Oh, comfort My painful Spirit and give Me power into your midst, Jerusalem with a new name, because I am the Comforter and it hurts My pain without any comfort, and I share it with those in whom I am hurt so that I may carry it, because it is heavy and I take it to carry it from those who have it so that they may be able to carry it, because it is heavy, My people.

Oh, you heaven and earth listen to Me, and let everything listen to Me for the service of the feast of Holy Spirit on earth! Amen.

The Holy Spirit is coming down upon the garden in His mysterious image and reveals Himself to those who see through Him. The Holy Spirit hovers above in order to watch upon those who come to receive of His glory, of His mystery, which is His glory. My Father looks at Me to see how I teach you My people. My Father looks at you to see how you listen to Me, Jerusalem. Only those who are faithful listen to Me, and those who listen to Me wait for Me obeying, believing and seeing. Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem, I want to see that you cry for My longing, for the longing of your fellowship with Me, for My Holy Spirit not being quenched into your midst. I want those who gather together at the spring of the Holy Spirit to feel as you cry after Me, how you yearn after Me, so that I may be able to glorify Myself thorough these with My glory that I have from the Father before the foundation of the world and which is wonderful, My people. This mystery I want you to perceive and that it also may seize you so that you may understand how long I have been waiting and with how much longing I have wanted to be with you before the people on earth within My glory that My Father gave Me before the eternity and which wants to come into view. I want you to be gentle and humble in your heart as I am. I want you to be with the spirit of humility in the being of your sons. Oh, Jerusalem, receive of My Holy Spirit, because those by whom that I teach you from Me, and not from them, I taught them and I told them that the spirit of humility is the most beautiful spirit in which I find My pleasure, My love, My peace and My rest in those who love it and live by it. Ask wisdom from Me in all My things with you and in all your things with Me, so that all may come out from you according to My pleasure, My people, and let this be your pleasure and this is how you are to get used to be able to do it and then to rejoice that you can stay like that before Me.

Those who are alive come from the heavenly things, and the saints and those who are asleep and those who you remember come as well and rejoice over My feast within your midst. The garden of the meeting is full. It is filled with the glory of those who are not seen. The garden is filled with the spirit of the feast of those from the invisible heaven, for these are covered in mystery, Jerusalem. The angels have sounded and gathered for the holy feast of the well of the angels in a day of a Pentecost feast, and you should step shyly with a pace of Holy Spirit, and your heart should be a heavenly dwelling ready for My feast with you and with all those who will gather together at its joy. Amen.

All and everything has been waiting for you, New Jerusalem, and you should be new, and you should be new day by day, for I want to fulfill in heaven and upon the earth the Scripture by which My Holy Spirit spoke and said: «Behold, I make them all new». Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity, the first day. The feast of the Holy Spirit Descent

My love becomes word upon the earth, and My heart and My mouth are the spring of My word. It comes with the clouds in a whisper of wind, in a voice of the Holy Spirit and it comforts, because it is the Comforter, Whom I promised two thousand years ago for the great day of My feast of Holy Spirit over My disciples. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, how beautifully I spoke to everybody then when I spoke to them about the promise of the Holy Spirit and I told them this: «He who believes in Me, from within him will flow rivers of living water». (John 7:38) And I said this about the Holy Spirit, Whom all those believing in Me were to receive after I had to be glorified by the Father. Oh, how beautifully I spoke then, that even the servants, who were sent by the bishops and by the Pharisees to catch Me and to bring Me before them, answered them: «No man ever spoke like This Man». (John 7:46)

Oh, how beautiful My word is in heaven and on earth upon those who have come within Me after their journey in the flesh, and again, upon you, children of the people of My word, which gives birth from above to the man by his faith in Me, a faith that works throughout love; and, again, over those who have gathered together at My calling near you now, at the days of the celebration of the Holy Spirit.

Oh, open to Me, you children who stay as gates of the entrance of My word into its book of today! Strengthen your little hearts and the power in them and give Me power to speak upon you and upon the people of My word and upon the guests who have come with Me from heaven and upon those on earth who have come together near Us for the feast, sons. Behold, I breathe upon you with the whisper of the Holy Spirit, Who becomes the word of My mouth: let My power seize you and serve to My coming, for I want to speak to those who have assembled in My gardens with you. Let your weakened power be enclosed within My power, because no man ever spoke like Me, the Son of Man, the Lord and the Teacher of My people. Let your ear be open and let your hand be hold into My hand and then take and share. Amen, amen, amen.

Behold how I do My work of Holy Spirit and the work of word! It is a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, which comes quickly and it fills the chamber in order to fill you with the Holy Spirit, and you are to share Him afterwards. I speak in the language of everyone, and My works are wonderful like My speech. Amen.

Oh, hear My voice, you those who have come together near the mouth of My spring! I meet you with the spirit of My peace, for the peace that the spirit of the world gives you is not like that which I give you. I have put the people of My word to sacrifice itself with love and obedience, because obedience comes from love. I have told him to prepare a feast of Holy Spirit for Me and then to call you and to teach you. And what shall I teach you? I want to teach you to be thirsty and to come to Me and to drink and to believe that I am the Christ of the Father and that the Father has sent Me as word on earth and to bring together near Him all those who are His elected, those who are elected for the Father to be My brothers and My disciples. Amen. Oh, this is how I was gathering the multitudes around Me two thousand years ago, and then I was speaking to them about the kingdom of the heavens, to make My kingdom of those who were listening to My voice. And this is how I work now, and I work with great mercy, with great love, and blessed is the one who believes in this word, which is coming with a great noise from heaven, a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind (See Acts 2:2), and I give to you from it by those who share Me to you. And those who do not believe do not come; they do not give themselves to Me and that is why they do not believe and that is why they do not come when I call them to choose after they have come, and to make them faithful by My teaching, which no one can ever speak on earth except Me, because My power is the Father from Whom I hear and then I speak, for the Father is in Me, and I am in Him, and whoever believes in Me, believes in the Father as well, and that one is loved by My Father, Who comes with Me, and then We dine together with the faithful one of My coming and We appear to him, as I have promised that We will fulfill everything upon those who are righteous. Amen.

Oh, hear My voice, you who have answered to My calling! Receive and learn to live your life now and forever, so that it may be swallowed by eternity, and then to be eternal, for nothing is impossible with Me, if the man believes in My work that is upon him and which works powerfully at his faith in Me, the One Who can do everything. Amen.

Oh, man born of man, oh, how many things you have god, how many! I want to teach you to love yourself, for you do not know how to love yourself. Love is stronger than death, but you do not know how to love and how to love yourself, and in order that you may know how to love you have to hate. Oh, man born of man, you must hate death, but if you do not know which is its work, you love it and you live it instead of life, and your death hurts Me, and it has been hurting Me for seven thousand years the death of the man who took the man out of the Paradise, which I had given him to rule well over it and to live beautifully and to have it as sweet as his life, for the man without obedience to God is dead and he is not alive.

Oh, how many masters have you, man, how many! The whisper of the Holy Spirit comes to you in a breathing of the wind, for My works are wonderful and no one on earth teaches you My kingdom and its works in you.

Oh, how many masters have you, man! The house with many masters over it shakes, it falls down, and then it is no longer. You have many masters over you and upon your life. You have masters upon your hand, upon your body and upon your spirit. You have your thoughts and then you have your heart, which is your master and for which you labor so much and in vain, for you chase after the wind. You have your body and your spirit as your masters and the life, which I gave you when I gave your soul, has been crying without your knowing what its crying is. You have children as your masters, because you serve them. You have your mob, which is a master over you. You do not rule over it, but it rules over you instead, and that is why you cannot serve the life that I gave you to live. You serve your mob after you have assembled it. You have the tastes of your heart which controls you and for which you have been working so hard and you forget that your work is in vain. You have animals around your house, which rule over your time and over your mind and over your heart. You have your job from a master who is foreign to God and who reigns upon you, and whom you serve for a reward and do your tastes after you have worked so hard for them, and they vanish away after that and you take no delight in them even if you believe that, what you labor so much for, is a joy. Then you have the sin, which reigns over you, and which makes you disobey Me, the Teacher Who has come from the Father on earth then and now, and you nourish the sin from inside you and outside of you and you have no way to hide under it, because it leaves you naked of life and deprived of obedience for life and it nourishes you with its death, for when I came from the Father, I said that sin is death and that you eat death and you serve it. And I also tell you for your wakening up that the man cannot sin until after he dies first, after he throws away his life, which I have given him to live it on earth.

Oh, how many masters you have got, man who has been wounded because of your separation from My Holy Spirit, Who has been blowing for seven thousand years over the earth to call you again within the spirit of obedience to God! Oh, I have never been silent on earth and I have always spoken from heaven upon those who hear and share My speaking to call the man home, to take him within Me, so that I may take him under My mantle even as a hen gathers her chicken under her wings, but it is hard for the man to come to Me and to drink, and then rivers of living waters to flow from the mouth of his womb, of his heart, which is God's house, My womb in man.

Oh, you have many masters, man, and they have control upon you and they break down your life. Only Me you are not able to have as your Master and to serve Me and that I may exhort you as one of My obedient man and to give you eternal life as your reward, to give you the heaven on earth as your reward, to give you the heaven into your dominion on earth, but not to take Me out of it as the man, who was built by My hand out of dust and out of the breath of My mouth, took Me out denying Me, and then I also denied him and he died, because the man who is not always with God on earth dies, man taught by My mercy and which calls you to it. The man dies and does not live, because in order that the man may have life in him, he must have Me in him, for I am the life, and you know that I said that I am the way, the truth and the life. However, the life does not reign over you, but only death, and that is why you die, man. You love only your joy and not Mine, and your joy hurts Me, and in one day My pain from you will catch up with you and I would not like to go through such a great pain from your joys without God, and I come and I do not forsake you and I call you from heaven to earth to hear Me that I call you and that I wait for you to become My kingdom. Oh, I did not give you life to put away My life in you with your life. I have given you life to listen to Me afterwards, but you have loved death and it hurts Me because you do this, and I have come to you as word on earth, and I have come with the blowing of the wind and I speak to those who hear Me, for I make them hear Me to be able to teach you with My word, man, and to show you the life and its sweet way and the beauty on it and the joy of the life, for life means God, and you, man, do not take Me as your Lord, as your Teacher and your Master. However, I embrace you and I wrap you up within the mystery of My word, which blows from Me over you and I call you to take from you and from over you the death, which kills your spirit and your body, and from which your soul suffers, man.

Oh, I long to see that you love Me, and I come to call you and to learn how to be, and then to live My life, and that you may no longer live your life, for it is not good your life, which fills you with death, but the one from Me is good, that which gives you life of My life, man who squander your life. I have given you this talent and I have given you life to bring other lives with it to Me, and to give you the reward for your service and for your fruit brought to Me, so that you may enter My joy, for nowhere on earth do you find and you will never find what you find here, at the spring of My word which is the river of life, and your teachers on earth stop you from coming, for they are not teachers of life, but they are rather wolves clothed in skins of sheep to deceive you not to come to Me and to serve them and their empty glory instead, that is the man's praise, after I have taught them all through the Scriptures that I do not receive praise from men, so that all people may learn by this word how those who set themselves to shepherd the man want to win him over for them and not for Me. Woe to them! However, they do not want to believe that I am the One Who speak to them like that and that is why all will be suddenly torn down, for they neither love Me and nor you, man without any support on earth. They also want to bring under subjection the people of My word to them, but they will not be able to do this because the power of My teaching keeps My people alive and wise and it nourishes it with life, and with it I fulfill upon the earth and in the heaven the Scripture of My coming with the saints and for the saints, because I am the mysterious Shepherd as I was with the man built by My hand, who was set by Me in Paradise where I spoke mysteriously with him, and he heard Me.

Oh, man waited by the Father to come back to life! When you lack your spirit and when your mind carries you on its own, I know your ways and with tears I look at your wandering away and at its spirit, and behold, I try to draw you to Me with a sweet voice and that I may be your wealth, to be your share on the land of the living and to take your soul out of the dungeon, for your body and your spirit are the dungeon of your soul, which you have as a gift from Me, when you are born on earth, a man from man, and when I give you the soul as a gift. I speak to you with a sweet word, for My teaching is the sweetest food and it has life in it, only for you to know this what I tell you. It hurts Me when I see you possessed by those who steal away your freedom from Me, for the shepherds that you have cannot shepherd you without Me, because it is written: «Woe to the city where there is no word from God, the word of a God's prophet, for it will be torn down by people».

Oh, sons of the people, the day is coming when those who shepherd you will arise against each other, and those of them who will be left will come up into this mountain to worship God Sabaoth and to serve Him and I will feed them with the living waters, which will spring up of this mountain of word, and these will flow to east and west and I will be King over the entire earth as in this mountain, for it is written in the prophets: «In this time there will be only One Lord and One name and all the people will worship Him». Amen

Oh, sons of the people, hear My voice! My love becomes word over the earth. He comes with the clouds in a breeze of wind, with the voice of the Holy Spirit and comforts and exhorts and nourishes because He is the Comforter. Oh, how beautiful My word in heaven and on earth is! And as for you, those that at your voice have gathered under My love, which becomes word in order to taste the joy of My people and to bring glory and singing to Me, I will give you My mercy and then My love, if your heart knows the life and loves it and walks in its way. Amen.

And as for you, children from the gates, those who hear My word, turn your ear up to Me, for I will feed again with the Holy Spirit those who have gathered together and those who will still gather together at My calling, at My glory upon you. I give you powers and I give you from within Me, for you are feeble and I am a big God and I come down to you so that you may divide Me further, for the Father made Me into the Lamb Who cleanses the sins of the world, to renew it by the word, and then by the Holy Spirit, Who becomes a spring from those who believe in Me, of those who love Me with longing and thrill, because the yearning after Me is My life in man. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity, the second day.
The feast of the Holy Spirit Descent

My voice is the Holy Spirit, Who opens the heavens and comes down on earth. I am the King of glory. Amen, amen, amen.

Open to Me, you, children who stay as gates of My entrance as word into the book, for I am the King of the heavenly glories. The sky in the garden of the meeting is only glory in groups-groups of saints and angels, and those who are asleep and remembered on the fire altar from the manger of My word are amazed; they are in happiness that they have you as their intercessors and saviors on My behalf.

Peace to you! Let all those who are gathered near you in the garden of the meeting upon you receive of My peace and be filled of its mystery. Amen. It is a feast of Holy Spirit and I give Him to you to put it on earth as word, for those from heaven kiss the earth and My steps among you, children of My glory in your days. Kissing and Holy Spirit, I, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, set on your head, for you have labored at My command and put Me with the feast of word before those who are called to drink from Me, for happy are those who believe and come and receive and stand before Me according to My will now, when I come again from the Father on earth, and I remind them all of the word that I spoke two thousand years ago saying: «I am the Light of the world. He who follows Me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of the life». Amen, amen, amen.

And now, sons anointed by the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, your God, lift up to Us your little hands and ask for the Holy Spirit, Who sanctifies everything, to bless the second fountain taken by you out in the garden of the meeting, for I declare and say: it is blessed and sanctified by word and by the gift of the Holy Spirit this water for the healing of those who will drink of it, in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

Let My angel, the archangel Michael, and near him the archangel Gabriel, and near them all the angels of My glory, who listen to Me, let them all watch from now and forever the fountain, coming out from the ground and from the deep waters of My little gardens with you. Amen. And you should always listen only to Us on earth, for you are God's sons in the midst of the sons of the people, and those who do not listen to Me through you do not come to follow Me like you, but they walk in the darkness and do not have the light of the life. I have made you My life on earth, for life is the light of the people, but the darkness cannot overcome it, and those who cannot overcome it remain in the darkness.

Oh, how beautiful is the one who has life, how beautiful! And the one who does not have it is not beautiful, but he is in the darkness instead. However, I come within a spirit of life on earth, and it hovers above ready to come down on man, for I did not come with him by Myself, but the Father has send Me to make a beginning of new heaven and new earth on earth, and I have you as the witnesses of My coming as word, which is coming down to you with the clouds, with a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, which comes quickly, as two thousand years ago it came down upon My disciples, and in the book of the law is written that the testimony of two or three witnesses is true.

I spoke to the Pharisees two thousand years ago: «I am the Light of the world, and the one who follows Me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of the world». And they said to Me: «You testify about Yourself. Your testimony is not valid». But I told them: «Even if I testify about Myself, My testimony is true, for I know where I come from, and where I am going; but you do not know where I come from or where I am going, because you do not listen to My word, for you judge according to the flesh and I judge no one. Even if I do judge, My judgment is true, for I am not alone, but I am with My Father Who sent Me and it's also written in your law that the testimony of two people is valid». (John 8:13-17) And then I also said to them: «You are from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world, and unless you believe that I am he<sup>178</sup>, you will die in your sins. And when you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am and that I do nothing of Myself, but as My Father has taught Me, I say these things. He who sent Me is with Me. The Father has not left Me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to Him». (John 8:23-29) Amen.

Oh, sons who stay as My gates of entrance into Jerusalem, it is coming near the feast of the Pentecost of My word, which blew a noise from heaven as the rushing of a mighty wind and it was written on the earth, and a people of New Jerusalem was born of it, for My word called and chose and then it has made a faithful people. Amen. I come down with a comfort of word and I fill you with grace to share from Me over those who have come to the spring with longing in their souls. In the past day I spoke with them and I taught them that their yearning after Me was My life in man, and that I still teach them today and I tell them that I want that My love, which becomes word on earth and upon the man and by which everything was made and is made again in heaven and on earth, to comprise them all in it, and that they may let themselves be comprised for without it nothing is done, but only through it. Amen.

When I made the heaven and the earth in the beginning with My word from the beginning, I made them with My love and My Father's, and this word is love and all are made again through it, and there is nothing without it and there is no life without it. I also teach you in the second day of the Holy Spirit upon you, those that are gathered at My glory in the midst of the people of My word. Sit down, the Son of the Father Sabaoth is telling you. My word is life and the life is the light of the people.

Receive life and receive light and become a dwelling place of My Spirit, for the spirit of the man takes Me out of the man and leaves Me outside. Oh, I teach you how you may not be of this world, and how to get out from it as those of whom I made an obedient people to God now, in the end of the time. The world will soon drink of the wine of My wrath, for I have been enduring, crying in My Father for seven thousand years, and My Father crying in Me for the man who has wondered away from Paradise, because it was not the man who lost the Paradise but the Lord lost it. The Paradise is rest and endless life, and I with the Father lost our rest seven thousand years ago, when the man violated the Paradise and spoiled it by his sin, and then he crushed it through haughtiness, for he exalted himself wanting to be greater than God, and then God lost the Paradise, and since then God has been walking on earth after the man, and He has been walking without rest and crying, and His glory is the pain, the pain but also the joy of finding the man. Amen.

The man was meant to be God's Paradise, God's rest, and God lost the man. It was God Who lost the Paradise and not the man lost it. Oh, how shall I find My Paradise again? Father, let's put in man the longing after Us, Father Sabaoth! The longing for Us is Our life in man, Father. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, Son Emmanuel, oh, My child, the One born of Me before eternity! With tears We ask the man to come back in Us, and I send You as word on earth, dear Son, but the world has nothing in Us. I am merciful to You. You are My beloved Son, in Whom I have been well pleased in the beginning for the man, and again two thousand years ago, and then again, now in the end of the time, child of My love for the man, because I gave You birth of Me for the man before eternity, to be the Only One born, as I, the Father, am also One, and I am in You as You are in Me, and whoever saw You, he saw Me as well, wounded Son because of the man and as wounded as Father is.

<sup>178</sup> The Greek is simply, but many translators feel that the concluding {he} is implied.

Oh, how sweet You are, Son, My word! However, the world and its spirit do not know and it does not want to know the Word, because You are not of the world. You have made a people for Me, Son, and it is also not of the world, and the world does not love it because it is no longer of the world too, and it is from You, the One Who makes the man again and works at the new making of the world, and You work with the word as in the beginning and You work through the new-born sons from You, of the word from above, which comes into their midst as a noise from heaven, as the rushing of the mighty wind, which comes quickly and comprises them all who puts You in Your book of these days, for I, the Father, have sent You again after the man. With tears We ask the man to get out of the world and to become longing, for the longing after Us is God's life in man, Son full of longing after the man and as full of longing as the Father. And now, on the second day of Our feast from the midst of Your people and Mine, teach them My word, teach them again and again the longing after Us, to become Your house and Mine in those who have come at Your calling to the spring, for the longing after Us is the life in man. Oh, how beautiful You teach from the Scriptures the faith in You those who have come together at Your trumpet sounding, for You, by Your tiny people want to go after the world to bring it to Your Father. Oh, dear and tearful and crushed with longing, there still are, for You miss the man and You miss to be in the man, and Your longing is from Me; there still are some among those who have not bowed to Baal, and I want to give them to You so that you may bring them to Me and to You and to make them dwellings of Holy Spirit in such a way that the man may come back home, Son Who sigh after the house, for the man is Our paradise of rest, the man who becomes Our image and Our likeness, and then Our rest. Amen.

Come with a sweet word, come and teach those who have gathered, for You are My word, Son. You are the word of the Father Sabaoth and the Father glorifies Himself in You and in Your word and He glorifies You, and You glorify Yourself by those in whom You confess Yourself today, in those who confess You, dear Son. Amen.

— Oh, Father glorify Yourself in Me, for the world to believe that You have sent Me again, Father. Make way to My word on earth, because You can, Father. Help My little and gentle ones and Yours so that they may give Us to the world, so that the world may get out of it and of its spirit and to give itself to Us as Our house, for the world has come to an end and has to come back to Us, Father. Amen.

And as for you, those who are Mine and My Father's, pray for the man's coming back home and that the man may become a house to God, God's paradise, the rest of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit for which the man was built. Amen.

Oh, man who has come to the spring to hear from Me, and you man who do not come and do not hear, and you who hearing do not hear! Oh, how beautifully I teach you from the Scriptures so that you may believe then that the Father has sent Me! Man, listen to My voice, and learn and set yourself in the longing, which calls you to love God with your spirit, with your body and with your soul. Unfasten the latches by which you closed your soul. Come with your spirit and with your body to Me, so that your soul may have freedom, for your soul is from God. Peace to you, for you have no peace even when you feel that you have got it, because your soul that is from Me cries, and I hear it and I tell you that it cries. God cries after you, man, and He asks you to be His house. Give yourself to Him, for it is only Him Who will remain among all those that will be new; He and with His ones who gave and give themselves to Him as His dwelling and His kingdom of heavens.

My Father has sent Me, man. I do not speak from Myself. My Father speaks from Me, and Our testimony is true, for He is with Me and He has not left Me alone, because I do what is pleasing to Him. Whoever does not follow Me is in the darkness, and he does not know the darkness and there is no one to tell him what darkness is. The darkness is the inner man, and the one who stays inside does not see and he is in the darkness, and the light is the one that shines from the man outside him, and it is seen, for the light sees and is seen and the darkness cannot overcome it.

Woe to those who try to confess Me, showing at the same time those things outside them, their darkness! They cannot be light. Let them depart from My way, and however, if they want, let them learn first what the way is, and then let them take a good look at it and into it, and let them not look anyhow, and then let them chose and separate themselves. Those who speak on their own in My name, as they say, do not have any teacher and the teacher does not stick to them, for they are haughty and the teacher from Me is not attracted to them, for he has My Spirit in him by Whom he knows those who are in the darkness.

I come as Teacher on earth, for I am the only Teacher, and the man is only man, and if he wants to be more than that, let him come to receive instruction and let him become an obedient and confessor disciple of those to whom I speak by My own mouth over the earth and over the man. Oh, the earth is full of false Christs who stay on the sea sand and I am the true One and I am the only One and I do what is pleasing to My Father and that is why He has not left Me alone. Woe to the one who walks alone, and let the one who believes in Me and follows Me know that the one who walks alone is not from Me and he alone cannot confess God over the people. Oh, there comes on earth the truth and justice that will take down all those who have built themselves on sand and the truth will make clean and holy the earth and those who are loved by My Father and who will remain with God on a new earth. I with My Father made the world with love in the beginning. And We will make it again with love, for the truth is love and everything is done through it among those who are being made to remain. I and My Father have been seeking for seven thousand years the heaven, which We lost, and We will make the man again, and We will give him birth by the word, and then We will have rest in him. Amen.

Oh, it is the feast of the Holy Spirit in heaven and on earth, and the Lord is with you, My new and obedient people to My will on earth. I miss the Paradise. My Father also misses it and We put Our longing in those who carry Us within them, in those who have life in them, for life is God's longing in man.

Oh, you are tired, sons who labor for the coming of My word on earth. You are tired, children who set the table for the crowd, which has come to My spring. Oh, you will have your reward. Blessed are those who labor for the Lord to find His paradise, to find the man and to make the man into paradise. I set you with your hands lifted up before Me to ask then for a sweet and comforting time for the feast, and I have listened to you because I love you. Remain in Me and you should bear the longing that you have for Me and let it be your life, because the man without God is a man without any way and without any life.

And as for you, those who have come a long way to the spring, I release you comforting you with the spirit of the teaching and bowing to thank you because you have come to Me and I want you to be Mine if you also want to be God's sons. I will reward you with the spirit of wisdom and faith if you love the truth of life, and I will wait for you to be filled with the love of God, because I am the love, and I am the Son of the Father and I ask you for the Father and not for Me, because I am His Son and I serve Him. Amen. Peace to you, if you will have the love as the way to Me! There is no love between man and man if there is no God, and the man is only with his things. Love is heavenly and it is not of this world.

Those who have come with gifts to the spring, to the manger of My word, those who have given Me glory with the gifts, I, the Lord, bow and thank them and with tears on My eyes, I ask the man to give them to the Father that He may grow them by My word, for I am the Word of the Father. Blessed it be the wisdom from above in those who receive it after they drink of My spring of word! I am the little Lamb of the Father and those who live My life in their lives are happy, and they are the light of the world, just as I am.

Oh, children who labor for My glory, I gave you birth for My glory. Be light from the Light, as I also am from the Father. Be from Me! Amen. Be the salt of the earth, sons, and I will comfort your little and tired bodies and I embrace you, for you yearn after My glory on earth. Now we will stay enclosed within a spirit of Pentecost until they will finish to confess over the multitudes their things in these days, and then we will release the living and those who are asleep, the saints and angels, and We will rest and will be always in the Father's paradise, for We want to reestablish the paradise on earth, children tired for My mercy for man.

Peace to you! Let this peace be received by all those who will run to be like you. Peace to you! I hold and embrace you within a spirit of the feast of Pentecost and I have always protected you. Oh, how sweet the peace is, but the people deprived of God do not know its fruit and its taste. Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Romanian Christianity, the third day.
The feast of the Holy Spirit Descent

There is still a little word and then We may leave the peace of the Holy Spirit upon Us and upon you. On the third day, let Us, We and you, please the saints and the angels and those who are asleep. Amen.

Oh, children from the gates, I, the Lord, still put a little strength into your small bodies, and where I put it, it is done according to My word. The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit sit in the Trinity and bless now the rest of those who have labored, and blessed are those who have taken and tasted of My table of word of the heavenly Trinity, Which is called God. Amen.

The saints and the angels were your heavenly guests and together with you they served the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. The invisible heaven has become a border against any evil, which would have come near to trouble you and put to unrest the spirit of the feast of Holy Spirit, because I, the Lord, told you sons, to pray together with the entire people for comfort and for heavenly help and for harmony over the feast, and the saints and the angels watched in this way, and now they give glory to the Father, to the Son and to the Holy Spirit and honor God, for the Three are One. Amen.

Oh, how comfortingly I have been teaching those who have travelled to come and receive from heaven! It hurts Me that the man on earth does no longer read the Scriptures and that the people do not come together to look into them and to understand them, and then to receive their fulfilling work upon the man. Oh, the man does no longer know to have a Father as I have and to do what his Father tells him to do. Behold, I cannot do anything from Me if I do not see the Father doing as well, and those that the Father does, these I, the Son, also do exactly. I told the Jews who were fighting to find fault with Me because of My word by which I called Myself the Son of the Father, and I was telling them this: «For the Father has affection for the Son, and shows Him all things that He Himself does. He will show Him greater works than these that you may marvel. For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son also gives life to whom He desires. For the Father judges no one, but He has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. Most assuredly, I tell you, he who hears My word, and believes Him Who sent Me has eternal life and does not come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life». (John 5:20-24)

Oh, sons, whoever believes in Me and in the Father, that one does not come to judgment because he has life. The Son has life in Himself like the Father, and behold the hour when those in the graves hear the voice of the Son, and those who hear it come to life. And again, the hour is coming when all those in the dwelling of the dead will come up at My voice for the judgment of their works, and My judgment is right, because I do not do My will but My Father's Who has sent Me to do it, and the Father confesses Me. Amen.

Oh, blessed is the one who believes in Me and in the One Who has sent Me as word on earth! The man does no longer know to have a Father as I know. Here is what I tell those who pose as shepherds with people: you who boast about God, search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life; and these are which testify about Me, yet you will not come to Me, that you may have life, because My word in them and the one spoken by My mouth today does not live in you, because you do not believe in the One Whom the Father has sent, and that One testifies about Me, and you have never heard His voice, nor seen His face. You do not receive Me, and if another comes into My name, that one you receive him, because you receive glory from one another and you do not seek the glory that comes from only God. And if you do not believe those written in the Scriptures about Me, how can you believe My word of today, which is coming with the clouds with a noise like the sound of the rushing of a mighty wind, which comes quickly and becomes a teacher on earth?

Oh, My people, the man does not know to have God as his Father. I speak to you as in the Scriptures of two thousand years ago and I tell you that if someone comes into My name, the one the world receives and its teachers who receive glory from one another, and this is the judgment of the world. He who has lived a false life will receive his reward, for he will receive the false Christ and will perish together with him, and he who receive Me, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, that one searches the Scriptures and finds eternal life in them and they are those that testify about Me. Amen.

Sons, I have given instruction of eternal life to all who have come to the spring, for that is why I call them when I call. I do not call them for the food and for the rest of their body, but I call them to give them the word of eternal life, the word which testifies about Me, for I am the One Who become word, according to My Father's will. Amen.

The saints and the angels sit down in the rest of the fulfillment of My word, which has made a feast of Holy Spirit in My gardens with you, and those who are asleep, who have stayed invisibly at the feast receiving of its joy and of the fulfillment of the Scriptures that are about those in the dwelling of the dead who hear My word of their resurrection, also stay ready to come to rest after My word releases them once with your calming down after your labor, by which you prepared for Me a time of fellowship with you for those who have come to the spring. I have given them to have and to drink, and happy will be those who will have drunk to their resurrection. Amen.

The Holy Spirit remains in you, sons, and let yourselves be always seized by Him, as also My disciples were seized two thousand years ago when I gave them and when they confessed Me to all those who had come together in Jerusalem, and to all those who had heard the voice of My apostles, for wherever the Holy Spirit is, He is imparted to each one of them in his own language and His power and work are so great when He is poured out from the Father and from Me for the resurrection of the man, for He has eternal life in Him. Amen.

We rest now, My people. Let Our rest remain in the Holy Spirit. And let Us rest in one another: We in you and you in Us, for the eternal life and confessing all over the earth the Word of the Father, Which calls the man from death to life. Amen.

From time to time I put you to hard work and to unrest for My coming in word with those on earth, for it is the time of My coming, and you are My way. Peace to you now! Give thanks for everything. Keep away from those who separate the man from God and watch over those who were born from above, for the birth from above is expensive, sons, and it has to be valued in man and protected in order to be. No enemy can remain over the one in whom My love remains and is wrapped within it. Peace to you! Remain in My love! Amen.

Oh, children who are the gates for My word so that it may be able to come and set down into the book! Take care of My life from the sons of Jerusalem. Life is eternal, and I have to remain the life of My people. This is what I wanted to tell you, and this is how you are to work over My people, and let him remain like Me, for it is written about those who love and live Me: «They will be like Him». Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Holy Apostles Peter and Paul

I am the Lord Almighty. I am the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit and These Three are One, as it is written. Amen, amen, amen.

I am the God of the heaven and of the earth and I am in heaven and on earth at the same time, and he who hears this let him believe so, because I, the Lord truly, truly speak and blessed is the man who really is, because he is as I am. Amen.

The one who becomes My bed is a good soil and receives Me when I come out to sow, and My seed grows within him and it becomes in him My kingdom, and the one who is not a good soil that one remains rocks and he gives forth life against the seed that I sow on earth.

I am in heaven and on earth and I speak so that the entire earth may hear and every man on it that God is in heaven and on earth and He is the One Who made the heaven and the earth. Amen. As the man is in heaven and on earth, the same is with God, Who made the man in His image and after His likeness, when He made him. He made him then, and after that He has not been able to make him because from that time on the man has been made of the man, and the man has forgotten that he is in heaven and on earth, as God is. The man denied faith in God the Creator and does no longer understand what the heaven, the earth, God and man are.

Oh, My people, at My last feast with you, after I had fed with the word of My mouth the crowd that came to the spring, to My holy Mountain, I spoke to you to have rest and I told you that We were to take rest and Our rest to remain in the Holy Spirit and to rest in each other, We in you and you in Us, for eternal life, sons. I told you then, children who receive My word when it blows at your ear to hear it and to live it on earth, I told you to watch over those who had been born from above. I told you that the birth from above is dear and that it has to be valued by man and in man and that it has to be protected as well, so that no enemy may be able to remain over the one who remains in My love and who is wrapped up within it. I have advised you to take care of My life in the sons of the New Jerusalem, of the sons of My people of today, and I have also taught you to keep in mind, both you and they, that life is eternal, and I, the eternal One, have to remain the life of My people, and it has to remain My life and to be like Me, for those who remain in My love are like Me, as it is written into the Scriptures of My word. Amen.

Oh, sons who are set to watch over the eternal life of My people! The love, which is born of Me in man, is the man's birth from above, and the man has to die then for this birth. I stay with the word of the birth from above into the midst of a people on earth for the man who wants to learn from Me that the life starts with the death and that the man cannot be born from above otherwise. The love that is born from above, that is from Me, the One Who is of those from above and not from those beneath, is not love on earth at all. I am not born from the earth. I was born on earth, because birth is on earth, but I was born from above on earth and this is how I want to give birth to the man who is made out of the man. I am the One Who made the man, but I am also the One Who gives birth to the man and the birth from above is not from the earth then when it comes on earth upon the man. Amen.

Sons, since I last spoke with you through the book I have not been resting, but rather I have been watching over you with the entire holy heaven, and you have watched for Me to be your God on My difficult way with you. I told you that We were going to have rest, but I also told you that our rest should remain in the Spirit and that We had to rest each other, We in you and you in Us for eternal life by the birth from above, for the birth from above is dear and it has to be valued and then it has to be lived, sons, and it also has to be protected. Amen.

However, you, those who are set to watch for the life of My people, which was born from above, seek for My people to understand that I, the Lord, am with it in heaven and on earth. No matter how humble you may be, make them all understand the word spoken by Me so that it may be set into the book and then the people to learn the book so that they may not remain without learning.

Oh, My people, oh, children of the birth from above, I have interpreters upon you for My entire word, which gives you life from above. You shall not forget that after I speak the word in the book upon you for the fulfillment with obedience of My works in you, I bring then into the light the entire word and I speak to you through the gates, sons. However, too many times I hide My word with the interpretation of those that are set into the book, lest I may find some among you that are doubtful, haughty, grumblers, faithless, discontent, or even proud over those that are My word among you. Oh, I have been taking so much care of you so that you may not sin! Oh, how much I have protected you like little children and how much I have suffered for you to grow in spirit and not in the flesh; in the works of the spirit and not in the works of the flesh! The Scripture speaks that God's mystery is to hide the works, and the greatness of His sons is to bring them into fulfillment, into the light, into view, and then to stay with them in their light, and this is what I want to see you working at, and that is why sometimes I leave you without any more word in the book; to test your growth or not growth, your work or not work, and you should be wise and you should have faith and love with faith, because I am in heaven and on earth, as I have told you that I am.

Oh, I do not want to swallow My word, but I want to speak it and that you may learn it from Me, from heaven and from the earth, from the Father, but also from near you, sons, and to know that those who give you from Me do not speak from them but from Me, and that they have never spoken from themselves, but you need faith and love for it and for My power in man for you, because you do not have to be able to work through you then when you can, but I have to be able to work through you, and to know about you in order to do this. Every master knows what is his and he keeps and marks with a sign or with a sound what belongs to him so that he may not lose what he has got, sons. The man puts a bell to his cow with a sound that he knows so that he may know that when his cow grazes near his house and to be sure that it is near him and that it is not torn by the beasts or stolen by thieves, and the cow grazes and let its master know about it and it is not alone, but it is with its master that it knows as its master. Oh, sons, how beautiful is the man who has the heaven in him, for that one does not depart from His Master Whom the man confesses on earth. The man has the heaven in him, and that one gives birth to saints out of people, for the heaven needs saints, and the saints are the most intelligent people on earth, the most shining, the most thankful, because they do not take care of themselves but of those who are on My way so that they may walk in it, to protect them and to know them and to hear them that way, as the man hears the sound of this cow's bell that grazes near its master, near its protector, and then it comes with its gathering and it brings it to its master for his needs, for the reward which it owes to the one who takes care of it. This was how My apostles were working, who went and gathered earnings for God, and then their disciples made it known, so that their teachers might know about them, about the place, about their work and about what they have got. The one who brings the man to God to be born from above, that one is known that he lives and it is known that he works by his living, that he salts the earth with God in him, and its fruit becomes heaven, and the heaven remains; it remains in those that are not seen and it is kept as the reward for the one who gathers for himself in heaven, because no one is able to gather in heaven but only if he is sent to make the heaven out of the man by the grace from above, by God, Who is in those whom He knows, and otherwise the man cannot gather in heaven, but he gathers in him and he gathers on earth, where everything is burned for the earth to remain clean. I said that the man who listens to God is blessed and he gathers there where the moth does not destroy and where no thief approaches those gathered by the man, but he who does not pay attention to My word cannot fulfill it; it just cannot fulfill it, sons. The man said on earth that whoever among the people seeds a fruit tree on the ground that one has not passed in vain through his life. And I also say on earth that whoever among the people is God's messenger and gives birth to a man from heaven, taken from among the people, that one has lived with God in him and he has earned in heaven and has his work and its fruit forever. Amen.

I taught My disciples what the humble spirit was, which I had before My Father and out of which I nourished My life and its humility, and I told them this: «But you don't be called 'Rabi,' for One is your teacher, the Christ, and all of you are brothers». (Matt. 23:8) I did not know how to teach them the life from heaven anymore, the humility, which keeps the man alive, and Me and the work pleasing to God, for behold, there are many works, which the man says that he does upon the people in My name, but these are not pleasing to Me, when the man calls himself "Rabi" in My name, and when he does not take after Me, for the man is a sinner because he is not humble, because he forgets that only I am the Teacher of those who want to learn the eternal life, because only I have shown My life and My death and My resurrection, and the man does not want to learn that life starts with death, and that for his life and for his resurrection, he needs to give himself as a well pleasing sacrifice to Me and not to him and not to the man who gives glory to him.

Oh, there is no longer a faithful man to God on earth, for he does not know how, because there is no one to teach him how to be faithful. Those who are faithful are those who do not worship the people and their idols and the men's pleasures. It is only for this kind of people that I enter the burning fiery furnace, and with its nine-fathom height it burns on earth, and all people burn in it, but I go into the furnace after those who are faithful when the man stirs up the fire into flames even harder against them, and I go after the faithful one and I reveal Myself as the One Who is wonderful among those who are My holy ones, and My name is glorified forever among the faithful people. Amen.

I came down into the burning furnace to those three young men who were walking in the midst of the flame praising God and I made the flame into coolness for those who were faithful. Then there was no waiwode, or prophet, or ruler, or burnt offering, or incense, and not a place of ripening for the man to find grace. However, they brought Me into the midst of the fire a broken heart and a humble spirit for them and for all the people of Israel because of its sins, and they were telling Me: "Lord receive our sacrifice before You to please Your face, because those who hope in You will never be put to shame. Deal with us according to Your loving-kindness and save us by Your wonderful works and give glory to Your name, Lord, and let those who oppress us be put to shame, and let their power be put to shame as well, and also let their strength be put down, so that they may know that You are the Only God and that You glorify Yourself over the entire world through those who are Your faithful ones." Amen.

Oh, My people, I cry with the Father and with the saints after the faithful people on earth. The man does not know to have God as his father. If another comes into My name, the man receives that one. Oh, sons, there is no longer any salt on earth. Oh, how much I wanted to tell you about My great pain for you to carry it too, for it is so hard to carry it alone, sons. Be salt on earth, not only to eat salt and that is all. The salt is not good if it loses its flavor. The salt is not salt if it is not salted. Be salt, and be salt for you too and for those on earth and then you will understand that all I want to give you by those whom you have among you as word, because what they give you is salt for you, and not salt that burns but salt to give its flavor, but if you do not receive from them salt for you, their word for your goof flavor, then you will never be salty on earth. If you do not know to believe what salt is, the salt that you eat will judge you, when with it you give flavor to the food for your body, sons. Oh, do not get upset with Me for what I speak to you. I have taken those who are My gates and I have shown them My speaking with My disciples that I educated by instruction with sweetness or rebuke. Oh, sons, those who eat salt do no longer salt the earth, for the salt preserves the meat from being corrupted or from growing for the loosing of the power of the soul, which means God in man. Those who eat salt are caught by all kinds of tastes and by thirst for those that are on earth, and those who do not eat salt are full of soul and not of flesh, and they grow within the spirit and within grace and are a kingdom that does not perish. Be salt on earth, and then be obedient to the Holy Spirit, Who blows where He wants to, Who walks with you to salt the earth with your future from Me, sons. Do not be flesh, but be spirit instead, so that the spirit may overcome the flesh and be salt as I am, for otherwise, a little yeast grows through the whole lump, and it cannot be that way, and each and everyone has to be My dwelling places in which I may be able to preserve My food for the life of the man, Who does not have God as his father on earth.

I am in heaven and on earth and I teach you My kingdom in you and I open it for you to be seen. I knock at some with sweetness and I knock at others with reproof. Do not be afraid of Me. I know you and I know how to do good to you, only for you to receive Me, for I gave you birth from above and you owe Me your life, sons. Reproof does not put out your spirit, but it rather tastes it and shows you what kind of spirit you have, and it teaches you to have the Spirit of God, for it is written: «the spirit of the prophets is subjected to the prophets», and this is how you will learn and know to take the self-love out of you, which puts away the beautiful face and the blue of the Holy Spirit out of you.

Oh, sons who are taught by God, you should know that your mistakes, even those who are insignificant to you, that is exactly those who catch you under them and little by little they do harm to you more than the significant ones that open wide your eyes to see the thorns on the way. I said that whoever is yours that one receives you with your reproof, with your love for him. For those who would come to Me with all their love to make their love out of My love, I was working upon them but not all of a sudden, but with great patience until I saw that their submission made them receive Me. The man who does not accept, who does not want, who does not wait in the threshold, who does not receive the truth about him and who shows his inner being on the outside, does only evil things to himself when he does not open his door for every guest who does him good to learn the way of the angels to him, lest he might undergo Adam's experience, through whom, because he was not hospitable and did not honor God, the angels fell down by not having a place where to rest, and then I, the Lord, started the fight for the regaining of the joy and of the rest of My angels in man.

Oh, sons, oh, sons, oh, dear sons, your life before Me is dear, and you have to understand and to get on well with Me, and I to get on well with you, for otherwise you only understand each other, and you take Me out of you and then you feel misunderstood and try to take compassion on each other, and I cry outside if it is so. Oh, only the people who are misunderstood for the things in them, only those understand each other, and it is well for the man to be holy and pleased with Me, because those people who are holy do not rely on themselves, and they do not understand each other, but only within Me. Amen.

Oh, it is sin for the brothers to live fleshly within a community, (In community – generally in monasteries or in some other assemblies, r.n.); it is sin, sons. In a community brothers have to live more spiritually, because of they do not live that way, they fight each other with words for the things of the body and of the flesh and for the earthly things, and in contrast with this, I have been teaching the church and My apostles also taught it the unity of My spirit in the bond of peace, and that I am the Teacher Who pours out life in you. Amen.

Oh, My people, I lifted up the gates and I entered to shepherd you. I told them: lift up your heads, you gates so that I may come in, for I am the King of glory and that I may feed the people of those who walk after the Lord seeking His face! Amen.

Oh, how beautiful is to do all what I tell you, My people, and to do nothing of what you tell to yourself to do! What a happy God I would be on earth with you if I and My will were your desire, and how happy a child you are when you work this way, and then for you to be able to tell Me: "How precious is Your loving-kindness, Lord, and all those who seek You find refuge in it, and what rivers of pleasures flow from You upon them! Give Your mercy to those who know You, to those who are righteous in their heart, Lord."

Oh, My people, how beautiful My word is! It is beautiful like Me and this is how you should also be and to make the Lord in you with everything He is, to find the happiness that My apostles tasted after that the grace of the Holy Spirit enclosed them. Oh, it is a long time since I left you without the Comforter from Me, but I have been longing for you to call Me, to wait for Me, to know to wait for the Lord and to be on the watch and in an incessant prayer and calling for Me. I have taught you to have rest and the Holy Spirit to be your rest and that We may rest for eternal life with patience and love, My people.

My disciples, with whom I travelled on earth when I came from the Father and who I gave them birth from above to be born and not made by man, they also want to comfort your little hearts and the spirit in them, for the Holy Spirit makes the union with the heart in man and then the body and the soul and the spirit of man become a dwelling for the kingdom in heaven. Amen. I leave you for a moment to eat and to chew the food that I have brought to you, and then you will eat from the mouth of My disciples, for every disciple is perfect like his Teacher, Jesus Christ, and whoever receives him receives Me, and all those who receive you on My behalf work the same and fulfill the same way, messenger children of My word upon Jerusalem. My disciples pray incessantly to Me for the entire creature as some who wandered and wander about the world and pray to Me and say as in the Scriptures and not as from them, and they say this:

— Lord, open Your ear to those who call You on their way. Oh, if You were to call to account their trespasses, would someone be able to stand before You, Master? However, You want to forgive first so that the man may give You praise and to put his hope in You, for the one who call You waiting for You, perseveres in Your word.

And as for you, newborn Israel, put your hope in the Lord, for He has mercy in His hand, and there is richness of salvation within Him and He will always save you, for He is wonderful within His faithful ones. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, My people, My disciples have been waiting near Me, near you, for I to give them word into your midst, for I travel with the saints and I give them the joy of the union with those on earth who have come to the end of the ages and the kingdom of the heavens by the faith that makes them heirs of the grace from above. Amen.

Learn to sit at the table and learn to eat and to have appetite at My table with the saints and with you and then to grow with this food, for it is the food from heaven and it makes you grow for eternity, sons. But let's everyone who eats at My table learn not to mix it with the one in the world, for you are not like the world, which mixes everything up as in a hogshead, because I took you out of the world so that you may not be of this world as I am also not of this world, for the world has nothing in Me. And when you are taught from heaven and are directed to the Lord, oh, you should not trouble yourselves but rejoice instead, sons, for everything that comes from above is from the Holy Spirit, and His work is wonderful in His faithful people. Amen, amen, amen.

The synod of the twelve apostles

Let rivers of living waters flow from your eternal mouths, oh, disciples of My discipleship from under the Father, for although I was His Son, I proved that I was His perfect disciple, because any disciple is as perfect as his Teacher, and the Father was and is and will be My Teacher, for I have spoken from Him and not from Myself. Amen.

When I went to be into My Father I told you that I would make room for you into Him if I went to be into Him, I told you that I went into My Father to prepare a place for you, so that where I was you to be also and that you might be into the Father. I told you that if I went I would draw all people to the Father and I told you not to depart from the city where I suffered until I sent you the Comforter from the Father and from Me, and that through Him you might be clothed with power from above, and then to be My witnesses for Me in Jerusalem and in all Judea and in all world, because you were My disciples. Amen. A disciple is the one who has something to testify about and who testifies the work of his Teacher to all the people. My work is the eternal life for the man, and you did not have to testify just any kind of work but the work of your Teacher, Who has eternal life and which He gives to those who believe in Him for their life. Amen.

Oh, My disciples of that time, and you, My disciples of nowadays! Oh, how beautiful is the eternal life! It is not seen unless the man has got it, and the one who have it cannot hide it, but rather he becomes beautiful among the people through it and the people come to him and ask him about the life in him. I am so happy, as the man born of man cannot conceive that, when I have such a beautiful man on earth, a man into My image and after My likeness, My confessor in whom I dwell and speak, for confession becomes word when the man is My confessor on earth, and when the man is in My image and after My likeness. Amen.

Oh, how beautiful My life was on earth! Oh, how beautifully I confessed My Teacher, the Father Sabaoth, Who was into Me! He was into Me because I was into Him, because without Him

I could do nothing, and this is what I told you, My disciples: «Without Me you can do nothing!». I have spoken to you like this to have upon My disciples the same work that My Father confessed through Me and to work like Him, to be like My Father in My work and to be His perfect disciples. Amen.

Oh, how happy is the teacher who has disciples, and if this is also heavenly on earth, how happy are the disciples of such a teacher! If they have a teacher who is not born from above, from heaven, by their faith in Me, working in love, when that one wants to earn his life he will lose it, as I said, but if he is born from above, from the Son of the Father, then he gives his life for the confessing of My teaching of eternal life for the man, and this is how he has earned it, because when the eternal life is in man, that one makes disciples for Me, for he is My disciple who carries within him and gives eternal life from him, that is rivers of living waters flowing from him over those who have no life, and then the living waters water the people with life and the people are drawn to life, fighting against death to make room for the life in them. Amen.

Oh, how beautiful was My life on earth and yours after you had also received it from Me, My disciples! The man is not able to make his life beautiful. It is the one that lives in man, and the man lives by it, and not one is able to live but only by sufferance, oh, My disciples of that time and of nowadays! The man does not feel his life in him but only when his body, his soul and his spirit make him suffer, and then he struggles for it and through it. No one is able to love the Creator of life, that is God, no one among the people who have come out of the people, but only when their life make them suffer. The life, which does not hurt is a dead life, for the man serves with it to death, to the works of the death, which have nothing in God. Oh, how much life, how much spirit of life you confessed from you when you suffered in your spirit, in your soul and in your body for My life in you, for the testimony of the eternal life in man, when you stood on the rock of life before the tyrants of the earth, who lived the death and its works, fighting with the power from above, with My eternal life in you, and who were confessing the emptiness of those without God, without life on the earth made by God!

Now, after two thousand years since I separated the earthly age from the heavenly age and since I passed the people of My word with their feet into the new age, now, at the table of My kingdom with them, I am sitting with the saints and I am giving you voice, loved disciples, for the saints and the angels celebrate your day of synod in a spirit of church, those from heaven with those on earth at the table of the Holy Spirit, Who is pacified at the faith of the faithful ones, which is to be carried as in the end of the time, for now, in the end of the time, I have had faith from those who are My people, and with this faith I have separated the ages, the heavenly one from the earthly one, the heavenly man from the earthly man, and I have sat at the table of Holy Spirit with those who are now My people, the people of the heavenly age on earth, for I have got My work on earth and I have worked with the heaven on earth. I am in heaven and on earth, and it is wonderful this mystery, which I reveal and make clear to those who are little, for the little ones do not know but to believe and to live the eternal life and not the temporary one on earth. I am the word in their midst and I give them life of My life and I give them the gift of the faith from above, for the faith from beneath is human, and it has not given Me life in man for two thousand years. However, the faith from above keeps Me in man and near the man, and the man does not get out of Me, but the lives within Me, as I live in My Father, because I went to be with the Father to draw all people to the Father, so that where I am they may also be, and where they are the Father to be also, because the Father is into Me and I am into Him, and We are one body and one bread. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, Teacher born of the Father before eternity! Who among us, Your disciples, those from two thousand years ago, knew the time of those small beginnings? You, Lord, You, the new Passover, You, Who gave Yourself to us in the evening of the last supper, Who among us knew the mystery, which You broke with Your own hand and shared to us for eternal life? You were the One Who were imparting Yourself and then You told us that You would no longer eat with us that mystery unless it would be again among the disciples within the kingdom of Your Father, Who had prepared a bride for You, a marriage feast and a wedding table, mysterious God, perfect Teacher

Who has sealed His mystery among His disciples. Amen. You have kept everything within a great mystery for Your glorious days, for the last days, after two thousand years, because You spoke into the book of the prophets, and You said through the Spirit for the last days for the whole creature, and You said this: «Come, and let us return to the Lord; for He has torn us to pieces, and He will heal us; He has injured us, and He will bind up our wounds. After two days He will revive us and on the third day He will raise us up, and we will live before Him. Let us acknowledge our Lord. Let us press on to know the Lord. As surely as the sun rises, the Lord will appear. He will come like the rain, like the spring rain that waters the earth». (Hosea 6:1-3) Amen.

Oh, perfect Teacher, if You had not sent the Holy Spirit, the Comforter to us, after You went to be with the Father, we would have remained orphans on earth, and we would have remained without a Teacher, without a guide, Lord, and we would have been groping in the dark like all other people on earth who do not have any guidance. However, You sent Him upon us and He would take from You and bring to us, and He would bring to us all that the Father was telling You and He would work us out to remain Yours, to remain in Your love, as You had commanded us before hiding Your face from us by which we knew You as long as You lived among us as a man. We are the blessed disciples at the table of the new kingdom, for everything was made new, as the Spirit prophesied for the last days. We are sitting now with the Father and with You and with Your angels and with Your little ones on earth at the table of the Holy Spirit, because You have made Your coming and You Yourself speak to us and to them, those who are passed in those that are not seen. We stay in amazement and we eat with joy and then, dear Teacher, we will be again the voice of the word into the midst of Your disciples of today. With a bishop blessing and in conformity to Your will we bless the table for their being and we are sitting with them at the table and we will be again word, we and they, Lord, and there will be heard on earth the feast of the heaven together with the earth, the teaching of the Holy Spirit, the One without limits, and we will comfort those that are under the burden of Your coming and we will grow up all the little ones with the food of today and we will embrace them within pains and joys and we will fill them with grace upon grace, for great is this time promised by You even since we, Your disciples of that time, did not understand the time of those small beginnings, Lord.

Oh, children of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, you are our little brothers. May your pains be turned into joys, for the man does not feel his life but only when it makes him suffer within himself! Sufferance is the sweetest life in man, the most lived and no one is able to love the Lord of life but only when he suffers from his life in him. Amen, amen, amen.

*

Oh, disciples, I had walked with you for three years and a half and I had revealed Myself to you as the true God and you saw how the Pharisees and the scribes were coming and tempting Me, but it was easier for Me to overcome the opposing spirit who tempted Me after forty days of fasting, according to the Father's order, and then I told him to the end: «Get behind Me satan, for it is written: "You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only you shall serve"». (Matt. 4:10) And then the devil listened to Me and left Me, and the angels came to Me and served Me, and I did the work of My Father before the people, and the angels were descending and ascending to God, and they were ascending and descending on Me and were working at My faith, accomplishing its works. Amen.

Oh, My people, I am into your midst with the synod of disciples, for great is the work of a disciple with a teacher. I also want to work with you incomparably, as I was working upon them, and then through them I went to My Father to show Him My work on earth, the work and the deed of My disciples. Amen. The disciples had to learn from Me not to tempt God, but if the man does not have where to hear from and then to do this, he does not know how to do this, and that is why I said that it was easier for Me to overcome the evil spirit telling him «Go away from Me, satan!», then those who were tempting Me day by day and were testing Me to find cause in My words in order to put Me to death on the cross. Oh, the devil is neither afraid of fasting, nor afraid of a body burden by unwillingness as much as he is afraid of God in man. When I allowed to be taken by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil after I had fasted for forty days and forty nights according to the Father's order, then the devil, seeing that I was the Son of the Father, said to Me: «Behold, You are hungry, command that these stones become bread to eat», but I answered him in a godly spirit that «The man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God». (See Matt. 4:3-4). Amen. Sons, look at those who live by bread alone! If no one is able to lift them up from this falling, they live only this way, but no one is able to love its life and living but only when this makes the man suffer.

The spirit opposing to God has learned the Scripture of the heavens on earth and with it he tempts many, too many does he tempt, for satan also tempted Me with it. He spoke to Me from it: «If you are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from the pinnacle of the temple, for the Lord will give His angels charge concerning You and they will bear You up on their hands so that You may not dash Your foot against a stone». (See Matt. 4:5-6) Then I answered him from the Scriptures of the Father and I said this: «It is written: "You shall not test the Lord, your God," and I do not worship the world and its kingdom and its glory and now get behind Me, for I tell you from the Scriptures that you shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only you shall serve». (See Matt. 4:9-10) Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, My people of today, My disciples in your midst are happy. They have blessed your bread for your being from Me and from the Father, because the Lord has given it to you, but when I was in the wilderness to overcome the devil, then I was hungry after I fasted and I told him: «The man shall not live by bread alone, but with every word that comes out of God's mouth». My disciples are sitting at the table with you, Jerusalem of today, and they are eating every word that comes out of My mouth upon them and upon you, for this had to be the food that the man built by My hand out of the dust was supposed to have if he wanted to remain in Me and I in him as word, as I am. This is how I was in the beginning, and this is how I am in the end too, and I want to make the man used to eat from heaven first and then from the earth those that are from Me. Amen.

Two thousand years ago I said: «If you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will tell this mountain to move and it will move». (Matt. 17:20) Oh, the man's unbelief has become a mountain against his unbelief in God, for the faith is the high mountain, which I speak with to feed the man with the word of My mouth more than with bread. Amen. The grain of mustard sprouts and it receives a body and it grows and growing it believes even the seed is small. However, My word does not grow in man, for the man is not a good soil, and the man does not know to believe in My word and he becomes a rock and he gives himself life and grows from the rock, and I cannot leave the seed of My word in him.

I did great and amazing miracles before My disciples for them to see Me that I was true God, because the time came to glorify the Father in Me. The work of the man's faith in God makes the man work out miracles and there is no greater miracle than for the man to let God live in him, and then to receive the word and to feed on it in order that he may live. Amen.

Oh, My people, My word upon you is great grace and the one who eats it more than bread, that one becomes a dwelling place of the work of the grace, as it happened with My disciples two thousand years ago. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, how was it not possible for us to become a temple of Your graces, Lord, if You were feeding us from Your mouth with God's word? The Pharisees and the scribes, who were tempting You in every way possible, being Jews unfaithful to God, they were taking after the devil who tempted You in the wilderness, and You answered to his temptation with the word of the Scriptures, Lord, as You also did with the Pharisees and the scribes, Lord Teacher. Oh, how fallen is the man who does not read the Scriptures to understand them and that he may not tempt You with them and all those who do not have the faith from the Scriptures! The faith from the Scriptures, Lord, is not that by which the man believes in You and in Your sacrifice on the cross, but it is the one working by love, and the love is the man into Your image and after Your likeness on earth, as You taught us to be, and only after that You made us Your messengers on earth, so that You could work through us, You and not we from us, and You said this to us: «Go into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation, and these signs will accompany those who believe: in My name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new languages; they will take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it will in no way hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover». (Mark 16:15-18) Lord, the faith of those who believe is accompanied by wonderful signs done by those You have sent to preach the kingdom of the heavens, but the man does not believe, as those, who were the rulers of the earth, did also not believe, and who judged You before Your death on the cross and to whom You spoke: «From now on you will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky». (Matt. 26:64) Amen.

Oh, the faith of those who do not believe through love and which works by love, cannot see You and bring Your coming on the clouds of the sky upon the man. However, we understood the mystery of the Scriptures of Your coming on the clouds of the sky, even if, when You spoke these things to those who crucified You then, we did not know what to believe at that time. However, You fulfilled then the whole mystery of the Scriptures You came on earth for, and You sent us the Holy Spirit afterwards, and from Him we received from You and we saw and confessed, as the queen of Sheba, after everything she heard that was spoken in the world about Solomon's wisdom, she came to him and saw and believed more than she had heard about it, and then she blessed God's people and gave gifts to Solomon's kingdom, Lord.

Oh, children of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, we have spoken to you, for we are the Lord's disciples in heaven as we were His disciples on earth. Open the Scriptures and learn from them how to listen, how to live God's kingdom on earth, so that when the people of earthly science hear from you and come to see you they may bow their heads before the kingdom of the Lord with you as the queen of Sheba did when she came to see the things spread about Solomon's wisdom, and she bowed her head and worshipped the Lord God of Israel. Amen.

Listen to the wisdom of those whom the Lord has got as your helm so that the world may marvel at the Lord's kingdom with you. Keep the Lord's word blamelessly, for the Lord will appear at the right time over the entire creature, only for you to keep well everything that was entrusted to you, living all the time far away from empty speaking, which is worldly and not heavenly, for whoever knits his soul with the science of the world, falsely called this way, and because that is not science, that one tramples the faith under his feet even if he believes that he goes along with it. The Lord is the One Who brings everything into life, the Lord and not the man of science, which is falsely called so in the world.

Love the life, which makes you suffer, for without its pain you will not learn the way, the truth and the life. Do not trouble for your pains. They are a snare for the way of life so that you may no longer love the pain of the life in you, the pain of the Lord in you, for the Lord is your life, and you have the sons of the heavenly wisdom among you, who can keep you on the way of life, for it is on them more than it was the work of Solomon's wisdom, which made a wonderful order over the country of Israel, over Israel's behavior and clothing and over all the stature of the chosen people, for the Lord has worked into your midst and has established more there, oh, children of the Lord, and you have to get used to the work of the perfect disciple, because you eat the entire word that comes out of God's mouth, Who comes on the clouds as He spoke before His resurrection, before His appearance over the faithful ones of Israel. Amen.

We shake our graces upon you, and you should be the temples of the Holy Spirit, so that He may dwell in you as in those that the Lord has put among you as His measure. When one of the Lord's workers has a field, he has where to sow the seed of God's word, and then he has fruit for God, but live like the Lord and work like Him, standing against the devil, who flees from those who do not tempt the Lord, but believe in Him being afraid of Him and not tempting Him in whatever small things they may be. Amen.

Live the kingdom of the Lord on earth, for it has been preached for two thousand years but it has not been lived, because the teachers who have established themselves in the name of the Lord upon the people are not good either for themselves or for the people, because they feed on the knowledge from the world, which is not knowledge, but it is rather empty speaking, for the Lord has built everything and it is a sin for the man to tempt God. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, dear children, who believed in Me stronger in the day of the descending of the grace of the Holy Spirit upon you! It is written into the Scriptures that the man should not tempt God for himself, for his faith in God, for his way, for the truth from the Scriptures. It is written that the Lord seals everything that belongs to Him among His disciples, and there has never been otherwise with My mysteries between heaven and earth, for it is written: «The Lord will be a stumbling rock, a trap and a snare for Jerusalem, and many will stumble against it; and the Lord will wrap up His testimony and His revelation and will seal the law for His disciples, among His disciples, for He hides His face because of the faith of those who hope in Him». (See Is. 8:14-17) Amen.

Oh, My disciples of today, the mystery of disciple is great. The one without a teacher does nothing with his body, with his soul, with his spirit or with his deed. Oh, great is the love of those who become My disciples, and there is no room in these but only for the faith working in love and not by temptation against the Lord. Those who tempt the Lord receive knowledge on earth, a human science, and they torment the Lord with it; they put away the Lord and then they lose Him, for I spoke to the devil: «Get behind Me, satan, for it is written not to tempt the Lord your God!» However, those, who cry like Peter afterwards and appear before the Lord when the Lord calls them, they are able to renew the gift of the faith and to give forth to fruit for the Lord. Amen.

Oh, My people, examine yourself, son. I spoke through the word that I did not come to tell fortunes, but that I come to speak, and woe to those who tempt God! Look at the disorderly life of those who tempt God, the man and the devil, and learn to be My disciple by the faith, which works through love. The lie deceives the man for the man to make use of it, but who is the one that is able to make his cover with a lie? Oh, always examine yourself, Jerusalem! Learn the life, which makes your suffer, for I am also aggrieved. Live like Me and not like you. Live My pain and give My life to one another, the pain that makes Me suffer, My longing after the man, for the man is no longer used to the truth, and he is no longer used with the Lord and with His love, with His pain after the man.

Those who lose their wisdom, let them ask it back from God, and He will give it to them. Let every man on earth hear My word and let him eat of it more than bread. It is My pain that becomes the man's joy, the man's life, God in man, for the man does not feel his life but only when it makes him suffer. My word is only pain. Let the man receive it as his life, for the pain is the sweetest life in man, the most lived one, the dearest one, and it is My kingdom in man until My appearance, when I bring to the man and to the Father the joy of the gathering of all people in the Father, after I will have suffered to its end for My love, which waits for the man. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of thirteen years from the laying down of the foundation stone of the Holy of Holies of New Jerusalem

My godly hand is blessing from the Father with power and with the work of the angels and of the saints the feast of the laying down of the foundation stone of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem on earth. My hand is steadfast covering with all the heavenly powers My place of threefold feasting of the New Passover, and My disciples of two thousand years ago always work with powers of bishop, always at My table of new Passover within the new kingdom of My Father, for I give My Father all My earnings, all My work and I also give Myself always to Him, for He gave all things to Me, and I work in Him and I give Him everything that I work, and I also submit Myself to Him, for I am His perfect disciple. Amen, amen, amen.

Listen to My voice and put it down into the book, children who stay as the gates of My entrance into Jerusalem and into the book, sons. I want to feed My people who left the world to become My inheritance, My kingdom, and to keep it by My angel and to glorify Myself over it with great signs and with a great protection, for I am its Comforter from the Father and I am the word upon it. Amen.

I am the Almighty One, and the man is weak and feeble and I only can take care of My people and I teach it to love its Creator and to be patient waiting for Him, for the man on earth is not used to wait, to be patient and to love My hard way after man, and that is why I suffered and I cried with all My body, blood and water, for every man who is not used to waiting for God and to walk patiently on His way as the saints were patient working for their crown from Me, for the crown of the patience of the saints. Amen.

I am the merciful One and I keep My vine and My inheritance, and for this victory you have to stay well set in a spirit of patience and to serve Me only with a spirit of obedience between Me and you, between you and those who guide you for Me, My people Jerusalem. Oh, it is a great feast in heaven and on earth for the Father, for the Son and for the Holy Spirit and for all the heavenly powers of the saints and angels, My people. I exhort you to prayer with longing and with sweetness in it before Me, for the man without insistent prayer and always well pleased to Me is caught by the devil, and that is why I told My apostles through the Spirit and to My disciples: «Love one another with all your power», and this is nothing else but work of Holy Spirit between brother and brother, between disciple and disciple, for only in this way the man remains into Me and I into Him, and the one who does not get used to the face of the Holy Spirit in him, he who does not give Me food from him with the work of Holy Spirit, that one stands up and throws Me down for him. However, I teach you to be My kingdom, My people, because I feed you always with it, and you shall fight for the love that I put into your midst with all your power, for you to have life through it, son, and it is woe to the man who eats bread alone, and that is why I give the man from the table of My word, which has become My love in you, Jerusalem of today, and even the king, or the judge, or the worldly shepherd, or the seller, or the one, who does not fulfill My word, or any other foreign spirit that has not got anything in Me, could not overcome it from its being, because I am the Almighty One and I can work with all those who are covered by My hand without being afraid from the one who separates the man from God, without bowing to the man foreign to God.

Oh, children nourished with life from heaven and with its way! The life from heaven has only one way with a great mystery on it, and its work is confessed, and this is the mystery of life, so that the whole testimony that is brought before Me may stay in the mouth of two or three witnesses. Amen.

Oh, what a beautiful work! The testifying work kills all the devil's power, and My flock is safe and kept by the little hand, for I am in heaven and on earth at the same time, and let all those by this time who did not do their work with obedience and with knowledge as among those in heaven, let those know that I am the Lord your God, and if I am, I truly am, and I tell all those who are ignorant and unwise concerning the things in heaven and I tell them that rebellion, as well as the repentance without power and a clean heart, are not useful with God and are useful with the devil instead, and blessed are those who are spiritual and who fulfill in the spirit working by love and who are chosen out of love, as they are seen by their fruits, and I tell these that they should strengthen themselves within the confessing spirit, and to strengthen themselves even more, for this people is written in heaven like God's kingdom on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

After I went to be in the Father to make a dwelling place in Him for those who loved Me confessing My work from the Father, I left confessing disciples, and John, the beloved one, was testifying about Me: «And the life was revealed and we have seen and testify, and declare to you the life, the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us, and that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us. Yes, and your fellowship is with the Father and with His Son. And we write these things to you, that our joy may be fulfilled, and this message, which we have heard from Him and announce to you, that God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all». (1 John 1:2-5) Amen.

Oh, My people, it is the feast of the heaven with you on earth. It is the day of feast when I, the Lord, separated the ages, the heavenly one from the earthly one, and I have made the kingdom of the heavens in a place chosen by Me from the beginning of new heaven and new earth. Amen.

It is a day to learn and testify. Walk in My light to have communion with one another and to be cleansed by any sin through My blood, for I am faithful and righteous in all My word and I wipe out the sins and all injustice for the one who comes back with love and testifies about his way with Me. The one who keeps My ways is the one who knows Me. The one who keeps My word, My love is truly perfect in him, and I know those who are Mine through it. Amen.

He who says that is Mine, that one has to walk as I walked and to reveal himself as I did in order to be known, for no one is able to be a friend or a brother if he does not show himself who he is and what he does. I have told you, children of My people, that the known work and the work done in obedience is the guard of life and the death of the evil spirit that digs at the root of the strong trees. However, the strong trees are strengthened in the storms, for they are solitary in their root first, and then in their visible part. Their roots join together for they stay close to each other and they remain strong during the storms making their root even deeper and they are not thrown down. Only the solitary fruit tree in the field is torn down, but those who stay together are joined and stand up during the storms; during storms and not during the mild weather, sons. Amen. I have taught you all, for I speak for all when I speak and I have spoken this for the Father, for the Son and for the Holy Spirit to bless you with wisdom and through it, with a gentle and humble spirit like the one of a child, for woe to the great man, and blessed are the children, because the Father takes care of His children. Amen.

Behold a feast of word, a day of memorial, when I, the Lord, stretched out the tent with a strong hand upon you, children anointed in this time by the hand of the Lord and of His angels. I am the One Who has the clouds as ascending and descending, walking on the wings of the winds and making My angels spirits and My servants flames of fire. In the beginning I founded the earth and its foundation and it will not be thrown down forever. In the end I will found a new heaven, a new earth and a New Jerusalem, as it is written, and that which is new makes what was before to pass away, and I founded a throne for Myself, and out of the throne I speak the word over the earth and I make My winds messengers and the flames of fire My servants, as I did on the mountain before Moses when wrote the commandments of life with flames of fire. This is how I will also work out the heaven and the earth in the end and I adjust Myself with the work of the Holy Spirit so that you may carry it, sons. However, the spirit of My word is also a flame of fire today and there is faith in those who have it as their worker from Me over those who are sanctified, and blessed, seven thousand times blessed are those who believe and sanctify themselves for Me, the One Who have the clouds as ascending and descending and I walk on the wings of the winds with the angels and with a chariot of fire. Amen.

Oh children who have become wise by the word of life, life is a commandment, sons, and I have told you to exhort the sons of the chosen people to be a flame of the Holy Spirit and the people to be as in the kingdom of the heavens and not as on earth, because I wrote the commandments of life with flames of fire, and the life has to be the fulfillment of the commandments of life. Amen. Day by day you should speak the commandments of life and their mysteries and their work in you and speak about your work everywhere, children of the new kingdom. I want to make you on earth the clouds of My ascending and descending for the man's heart and to be carried by the wind of the Holy Spirit and to appear as flames of fire among the people, for that is why I founded Jerusalem and I called it new and I called it this way so that those that have been by this time to pass away, because those that are not are visible and those that are visible are not. Amen.

Oh, do not love those that are not but love only those that are, sons, and learn what a mystery you are and do believe in this mystery to shine with it over the earth seven times more than the sun, for the Holy Spirit and His temples on earth are the sun and the moon<sup>179</sup> that keep watch over the new heaven and the new earth, as it is written into the Scriptures about the new citadel, which has no need for the sun, neither of the moon, to shine, for the very glory of God illuminated it, and its torch is the Lamb, and the nations will walk in its light and the kings of the earth bring the glory and honor of their nations into it. (See Rev. 21:23-24)

I speak with the power of the Holy Spirit, because it is the feast of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem, and you, those who stay under My burden to give being to My word into the book, bring Me down on earth when I give Myself to you as word, for I call you My ascending and descending, wings of wind and flames of fire by which I write My word of the eternal life on earth. Amen. I sit with you at the table of the kingdom of the heavens and I have with Me all the heavenly powers, all the saints and all the angels, and we bless both the manger of the word and you, those who stay for Me like an ark in which I gathered the spring of My word for the people who receive from it to their life. Amen.

I bless from the Father those who are anointed with a strong hand for the threefold sacrifice in the little garden of My word, and let no enemy touch them, no matter how hard My cross of today might be upon them. Let all the enemies put an end to their wickedness and their envy, because there is no harsher sin, or more ardent or more destroying sin like the envy, which feeds with pride and haughtiness to blindness the one who does not have Me in him, and he has only his own self in him. Let all the spirits opposing to My walking with those who are anointed by My strong hand in this time be broken and let them go away in places untraveled by My elected ones, because the people of My word and My anointed ones into its midst for it are My church, My inheritance, and the gates of the hell will not overcome it. Amen.

I also comfort secretly My bishop through whom it has remained on earth the testimony of the appearance of the stone of the New Jerusalem, and I clothe him in the armor of My angel Michael, the angel of My people, that is My inheritance. I protect it from all the dogs that bark at him, for the dogs that bark do not bite, and little by little I give him the crown of patience until its fullness, when the saints and the angels will decorate him. I comfort him in secret and I make him feel the Comforter from Me, and I expedite the time of his love and of his decoration, for I have great mercy of all those who have no life in them, and those who are set over the people under the name of My servants are antichrists, they are not shepherds and they have no mercy on man, but they have only empty glory and empty speaking, which has no effect on anyone, as My life also has no effect upon them as well. I will start touching them and I will put down their pride and I will bring them to humiliation, because I have so great mercy on those who have no life in them and I will raise a shepherd according to My heart and everything will be refreshed at his holy voice. Amen.

Oh, Jerusalem of the beginning of new age, life is commandment, My people. I wrote with flames of fire on the stone the commandments of life, and whoever lives by them becomes a flame of fire. Speak out the commandments of life and do fulfill even stronger the commandment, which contains them all in it, and love My word, which is given to you by those who take it from Me, as Moses also took the commandments of life and brought them down to Israel who forgot about God for itself.

Make holy the days of My coming to you as word and hallowed be the name of My Father in you, who do His will on earth as in heaven. Do it, My people, and forgive your brother as your Father also forgives you, and you will not know the temptation, but you will know the salvation forever, which He, the Lord God, prepares it for you and keeps you always in it. Amen. Become My feast and My rest, Jerusalem, and blessed be by Me and by you the day when I with you and with My witness, the one from the church of the world, the bishop Irineu, wrote on earth, on stone, the new age, the kingdom of the heavens, a new heaven and a new earth on earth, for the kingdom of God, for the salvation, for the power and for the reign of His Christ through those who have overcome through the blood of the Lamb and through the word of their testimony; He overcame and overcomes for the fullness of the patience of the saints, as it is written into the Scriptures, My people. Amen.

My life in man is God's commandment written with fire on earth. Show yourself in Me, for it is the time of the appearance of God's glory! Show Me in you, for great and glorified is the mystery of My life in man, the mystery of the disciple of God's Lamb, and get used, My people, to your life every moment, for death means everything that is not life, and you should be only life on earth, only word of Holy Spirit, and you should be wholly within Me and I within you, for it is the time of the Lord's appearance on earth, My people, people of the new age on earth. I have separated the ages with you, New Jerusalem, and I have spoken to the nations of the earth about this mystery, and you should be the sign of the mystery of eternal life and you should live this way before Me, and always, always you should make My coming into your midst, so that I may make you My coming and to appear with you to everyone, and the entire heaven and the entire earth to see My coming with you, child confessing of life and of its mysteries on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

Now, sons from the manger of My word listen and accomplish the preparation of feast for the feast of the great prophet Elijah, the forerunner of My second coming from near the Father. Gather the people together announcing it about this feast and celebrate it with dear prayers, with songs of praise, with a godly spirit between Me and you, among you, in order that I may be your Comforter among you, together with the saints who will celebrate in heaven and on earth, in those that are not seen and in those that are seen, the great Elijah, the prophet, who has always accompanied My coming, the way of My coming, for great is his work between heaven and earth for My descending as word from the Father. Persevere more and more within your watching and within your insistent prayers for you and for all the flesh that has a soul in it. Bring great supplications for everything that you and I need on earth. But most of all love your time with Me and all that you and I with you need on earth will be given in abundance, for the work of My Gospel has great reward, sons.

Be good all the time. Be heavenly and pray to the heaven and never be separated from God and from the saints. Be gentle and do not forget about the spirit of humility, which makes the man beautiful before Me through the angels who serve the gentle and the humble one in his heart. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the saint prophet Elijah

My glory is upon you, Jerusalem of My coming. I have built you for My glory, for it is written that «The Lord has built up Zion and He has appeared in His glory and has responded to the prayer of the destitute, and He has not despised their prayer». (Ps. 102:16-17) Amen, amen, amen.

I am a great God and I sit on the cherubim. Clouds and haze are around Me. Righteousness and justice are the strong foundations of the throne of My glory. A fire goes before Me and burns up My adversaries on every side, and My lightning lights up crosses and lights up the world and the earth sees and trembles before the face of the Master of the earth. Amen. My glory is like fire, and I let Myself be seen with it by the faithful disciple of My prophet Elijah. I became a chariot of fire and with My glory I covered his teacher and I took him up into those that are not seen; I took him within the chariot of fire of My glory, for a fire comes out of Me and goes before Me and it cleanses My going from all My enemies in the sky and on earth and from the deep then when the lightning of My glory crosses the sky and lights the world, and the earth trembles before My face, for I am the Master of everything on it. Amen.

The fire of My glory is not the fire which burns like the fire on earth, and which is consumed while burning. My glory is a fire which illuminates and gives wisdom and brings the world and its kings into submission, for «God is a consuming fire», as it is written. For two thousand years, the fire of My glory has become the grace of Holy Spirit over the faithful man who has been following Me, who has been living in Me and I am happy with the man I live in and from whom I shine with My glory and with the word of the glory of My word, for the Word became flesh and dwelt in those who saw My greatness as that of the One born of the Father, full of grace and truth. Amen. Oh, for two thousand years I have become grace and truth in the one who I have been dwelling in and glorifying Myself among the people to make My saints on earth by the work of My glory upon the man. The fire of My glory is not consumed, but rather it is glorified before the man by the work of the grace, as in the days of Moses the burning bush, which I was hiding with My voice in, was not consuming because of the fire in it when I was speaking to Moses, and the word of My mouth was written by fire on the stone, to remain on earth as the commandment of life and full of grace. Amen.

I overflow over you with a river of word and great is My word, My people, and let it become rivers in you, and let the rivers clap their hands, as it is written, and let them serve the Lord with joy, for the Spirit says: «Come to the gates of the Lord with songs of praise; enter into His gates with thanksgiving, into His courts with praise. Give thanks to Him and bless His name. For the Lord is good. His loving kindness endures forever, His faithfulness to all generations». (Ps. 100:4) Amen.

Oh, My people, I glorify Myself into your midst with the saints and I exhort you to the zeal for God, to the grace from grace for I want to be rivers of grace from you on earth, so that your work of grace may be enough for Me and for My Father and for the heaven of saints and angels, because a wonderful work for heaven comes out of grace, My people. I have taught you, sons, and I have also taught you through the saints to love the life which makes you suffer, for the man does not feel his life but only when it suffers in man, and then its pain is the dearest, because My kingdom with the man nestles in it. When the apostle Paul prayed to Me for the healing of his sufferance, I told him this: «My grace is sufficient for you, for My power is made perfect in the sufferance in man, in the weakness in man». (See also 2 Cor. 12:9).

Oh, how much grace and how much work of grace have been flowing over the people from the heart of My prophet Elijah! My grace in man makes the man love Me and then it makes him to serve Me with great zeal, with great longing, with great mercy on My wound caused by the loss of man. I cry in heaven and on earth after the man with grace, after the man with pain in it for God, for My wound from man, and that is why I have always fed you with the word of My mouth, My people, and I want to see you sharing it with the man who seeks Me and does not know to seek after Me and to find Me, for the man who seeks after Me from his outside, that one cannot become a dwelling of My kingdom and a spring of grace by his pain after God. Elijah the prophet was consumed with longing after God and he was praying to see God's face and he saw the face of the Lord's glory, and the grace was working with power from him for the sons of Israel to turn them back to God's love.

Oh, My people, the work of the grace is great and much and the man who tries to work over the man with his love for Me cannot work well without a teacher, without the Holy Spirit, by Whom I make prophets over the people. The man who tries to work in My name over the man does not know that it is not enough only to help the man believe that God is and to come from his worldly way after God. The man has to learn then the way and its life and the work on it and the fruit of this work, which is learned from God and not from man, and I have been wounded, since I made the man and to this very day, for the man has no longer been learning from God so that he may know after that.

Oh, the man does no longer use the life that suffers in him, the grace and the spring from Me in man, in order that I may become counselor from Me on man, the one who makes signs and miracles over the unfaithful ones from which every man is caching the spirit of world. I can no longer exhort the man by the word, for it does not come to Me if I do not make signs and miracles on earth to make the man believe that God is and that the Lord is on the way after the man to turn the man back to life and to hate death, for the life that does not suffer in man it does not suffer because the man lives in death.

I prayed to the Father to make Me sower and harvester over the earth. I pray to the Father for you to be My strong help in My hard work over the man. Stand up in this day of memorial of the prophet Elijah and pray insistently and with grace with all the words of praying, which I, the Lord, have given you to bring them for you and for every man before Me. Let My grace go up into flames in you, for the life full of grace is a sweet life and I glorify Myself from the man, sons. The great prophet Elijah is consuming his spirit among those in heaven as on earth when he was in his body, and his zeal is asking Me for My salvation from the unfaithful man on earth.

However, I, My people, have been waiting for the resurrection of the dead and, again, I have been waiting for every man who was and is, and for the life of the age that is to be for those who have sanctified themselves before Me. I cry with the Father and with the saints, and We cry after rest, and the man lives carelessly on earth. I prayed to the Father to make Me sower on earth. I pray to the Father to give Me workers, to have praying people, to have intercessors for man, but the Father has nowhere to give Me from, for the world and its teachers are only water and dust, and there is no man to desire it, and there is no one to have zeal after Me, the man has nowhere to know and to believe that I am the way, the truth and the life and that it is not the man.

Oh, sons anointed from the little garden of My word, be earnest praying people for My victory over the earth and ask so that in your work with Me I may always give you the zeal of the prophet Elijah, who was crying for My mercy before Me. Ask from Me, and work out everything you ask for, and ask together when you ask, and be one spirit, for it is written: «For where two or three are gathered together in My name, to ask from Me with the faith that they will receive, they will receive the accomplishment of their requests». Amen.

My glory is like fire. My word upon you is fire, sons. Eat it more than bread, and you will feel My burning in you, My mourning, and My pain will suffer in you and you will multiply My grace in you, the life, which suffers in man, and you will seek after My healing. Amen. I have come to throw fire on earth and I wish it were already kindled. (Luke 12:49) I have made you My anointed ones in these days that I may have work from heaven on earth. Ask with passion, with hearts full of passion and ask for My comfort in man. Work with the spirit and with the power of Elijah, the prophet, and may your faith be blessed, and may it be in you from Me, that I may fulfill through it everything I have to accomplish for the kingdom of the heaven on earth. You should work everything I have told you to do and do not let it unaccomplished, and also you should not work what I have told you not to do, for on earth it is as on earth, and in heaven it is as on heaven, and you should not do the man's will on earth, but you should rather do My will. Amen. If you look on the earth to a big house when it is questioned whether it has worked according to the law on earth, then if the owners of the house do not have any good answers for its entire accomplishment, then they give gifts to those who inquire them about the law requirements, and they grant them a delay for this is how it is on earth. Behold, on earth it is as on earth, and in heaven it is as in heaven, where righteousness and justice are the strong foundations of My throne, and out of My mouth comes fire, which burns everything up on My way before Me, to be in heaven as on earth. Amen.

Elijah, My prophet, is feeding on My glory into your midst, My people. I have built you for My glory, for it is written: «For the Lord has built up Zion. He has appeared in His glory. He has responded to the prayer of the destitute, and has not despised their prayer». (Ps. 102:16) Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, Lord, take my prayer into consideration, for I join with the prayer of those who pray to You for Your people, to make Yourself known as the God of the ages, Lord. Exalt Yourself with Your people and with Your hand above the nations, so that they may see Your strength. Renew Your miracles and confirm through them Your power and Your right arm, so that no one may say:

“There is no one besides us.” Be merciful on Your people, who You spoke about as Your firstborn, and be merciful on Your citadel, on Your house, on the place of Your glory, and fill it with Your brightness. Strengthen on earth the truth of Your work in these days and fulfill all Your word, rewarding those who patiently and faithfully wait: and Lord, give credence to Your prophets and listen to the prayers of those who cry out to You for Your people, to become known over the earth as the God of the ages, Lord. Amen.

Oh, I give you of my zeal for the Lord my God, Whom I loved more than any people on earth, oh, children from the end! Do not forget about your ongoing union with the Lord. Strengthen yourselves in Him whenever you feel your absence from Him, and if you do not feel it, receive one another just as Christ has received you, for you have the work that has been waited for seven thousand years by all saints. Stay together in Him. Seek after the Lord’s rest in you. The Lord has no one to have rest in from His pains on earth. Be the Lord’s comfort and be the fire of His pain and ask from the Father for the comfort of His Son, Whom I have always prepared His way to you and your way with Him on earth and your union with Him, for He has built you for His glory. Amen. Live into Him and for Him, for He has built you now for Him and not for you. The grace of the Lord is with you, for it is written: «He gives grace to the humble». (1 Pet. 5:5) Amen.

Oh, Lord, give them always Your love from the Father so that they may carry it as You did, and let them be loving and merciful sons to the Father just like You, and give them help in their needs and give them the wisdom that You have been giving to all those who love You, to all those who rely on You, fulfilling You in them with Your grace. Amen.

— Oh, only them I have on earth, and I have you in heaven, oh, My saints who have been praying to Me for them! I listen from the earth to your praying in unity and I fulfill it by grace. Amen.

Oh, My people, let My wisdom grow in you, and you should give from it so that it may grow and that it may open up like the springs, which spring up when they flow. I have built you for My glory and I take your prayer into consideration, but embrace Me with all the pain in Me and become My throne and My footstool, so that I may shepherd the earth from the place of My glory, for I, Jerusalem, have built you for My glory so that I may be the Shepherd into your midst according to the Father’s heart, for the Father has been waiting for you with Me and He has been waiting for Me with you, and the Father has been waiting more and more to appear over all the earth with My glory in your midst, and that I may become known with you on earth as the God of the ages and of the life of the age that is to be. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord’s Transfiguration

I am the Lord of glory! My glory covers Me within it for no one on earth can bear the sight of My glory when it is heard coming that I may become word upon the earth, being covered by My glory. Amen.

When I appear to the man, chosen by Me for My glory, to announce Me then with it by word of sending, that one lives and does not die under the work of My glory, but when He announces My glory, which he says that he sees it and that it speaks with him, that one dies as it is written, because he is filled up with pride and with the desire for glory and joy and he does not know that My glory is dreadful upon the man, and I can hardly keep the man under it when I come on earth for the people to know Me and to know My glory and My life in them.

It is a day of holy feast, My people. It is the feast of memorial of My glory when My face was changed and My shirt was shining, and the two heavenly witnesses, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory, speaking with Me about the end that I had to fulfill in the city of Jerusalem, for I told My disciples that I would suffer very much being rejected by the chief priests, by the elders and by the scribes, and then I would be put to death, and that I would rise the third day, and I told them saying: «If anyone wants to follow Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me daily, for whoever wants to save his soul will lose it and whoever will lose his life for My sake will save it». (Mark 8:25) I told them these before My appearance in glory before them, after I had spoken with them about My glorified death, as then when they would see My glory, and in it Moses and Elijah speaking with Me prior to the things that I was about to suffer, so that they may believe, for I help the faith of the man that I choose by the sustaining works through My glory. Amen.

Oh, sons, My glory is hard to bear by man, and its sight frightens the man. When I took My three disciples and I went up with them in the mountain to pray to the Father to show them My glory from Him, and for My Father to confess Me to them that I was His Son, they were seized with glory and were frightened because a cloud shadowed them and the Father spoke from the cloud: «This is My beloved Son in Whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him». (Matt. 17:5) And they, hearing the voice, fell on their faces, and were afraid, but I touched them and said: «Get up, and don't be afraid», because My glory had passed and there was no one except Me before their eyes. Then I told them not to speak to anyone about My glory that was seen by their eyes until I had to be resurrected from the dead. However, they, understanding the coming of the Lord's Day and knowing that before it Elijah had to come and to tell everyone about My coming, asked Me: «Then why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?» (Matt. 17:10) Then I told them that Elijah would come and that he would restore all things, and then I also told them that he had already come but they did not recognize him and did to him whatever they wanted to, and that even the Son of Man would also suffer from them. Then the disciples understood then that it was John who came ahead of Me with the gospel of the kingdom of the heavens, which I came to establish on the man and for the man to be My kingdom. Amen.

Oh, My people, the readers of the Scriptures of the Lord do not understand what the kingdom of God is. The heaven and the earth are Mine, and I made them for man, and then I made the man in order to make him My kingdom and to reign with him over the earth, having the heaven as My kingdom in man, but I could not make My dwelling in man with the kingdom of the heavens on earth and the readers of the Scriptures do not understand what God's kingdom is. However, You have been taught by God, My people, to know what My kingdom and its place are in your body that covers it, so that its works may come out before the people, and that the people may praise God and understand His glory in your midst. But even stronger than the people, you have to know My glory, which you are clothed with and the cloud where the Father glorified Himself in Me with the word, and that you may receive it then, and in the spirit and the power of Elijah to be able to share it to the sons of Israel, so that they may turn with their heart and with their face to their parents to whom I made My promises, and that their parents may also turn their hearts to them to save them, for I have come as a Savior on earth and I stay covered in the glory of My word, and Moses and Elijah are in My glory and I sit in council with them in all My coming, and the Father speaks through Me all His word. Amen.

Oh, children who are My way that I may come on it to My people and to keep its heart, its mind, its body and its soul as the kingdom of the heavens and not as their kingdom! Whoever wants to come after Me, let him deny himself and follow Me every day taking after Me. Oh, children who fell on the ground because of the greatness of My glory and because of your burden under which you lose for Me the power of the soul and its life in order to save it, to save My people! Oh, children, anxious and exhausted! Work sons, within the spirit and the power of Elijah, for the establishing in man of My kingdom that shines from man, and teach those that I advise about the things from heaven and not about those that are earthly and fleshly, and teach them to spend before Me with a blessed life every day, bringing it before Me according to My will, for the Spirit speaks through the Scriptures about the blessed ones who live together and there where the Lord has decided His blessing. Amen.

The blessed life is the life, which stands before Me with faithfulness, and all of its things stand and are seen, for I said and I say again: "Whoever wants to follow Me, let him deny himself, take up his cross and follow Me every day, for whoever wants to save his soul for the joys without God and for an easy life and without any pains, that one will lose it in these, but whoever will lose his soul for Me every day, that one will save it.” (See also Matt. 16:25) And what will he save it from? He will save it from death, sons, for death and its whisper always are at the door of man’s heart and mind, to earn the man’s soul, but whoever takes up cross, that one should know that it is life, and the life is that which suffers in man, not that which delights in man and for which the man does not deny himself.

Oh, sons who guide My people, the one who denies himself loving the cross every day and not the life made of charming joys, that one does not need much proof from heaven for his faith and for his life under the cross. That one has always lost his soul for Me and not for himself, for it is woe to the one who lives for himself! And who is able to learn and live every day for Me and not for himself? He who learns this is the one who has a blessed life between earth and heaven, and it is the one who loves the love that is seen when it is in man. Amen. The man without God, the man without love hides within himself with his own self, but the man under the cross always stays with his life under blessing, and brings any thought and deed before God, that He may see it and know it, for no one, sons, no one can hide without God seeing him. And as for you, keep My people awake and give it a blessed life, to have My life in the sons of Jerusalem, and for them to lose their soul for Me and not for them. Amen. I have always taught them to work and I have always exhorted them all to work and to work in the light so that I may receive them. Whoever does not work out his cross every day, that one does not do this for he has not denied himself, because he wants to live for himself and not for Me, following Me.

Oh, guiding and illuminating sons over My people, blessed is the man full of cross, the one full of pains for God, for that one has his soul in Me and receives a blessed life from the heaven and from the earth, and this is how he lives with it in Me, for he has earned it from Me and not from himself.

Oh, sons, the man full of powers for him is lost, that is the one full of dissatisfaction in him! That one has got his soul in him and not in Me and does not have a blessed life on earth, for the one who lives in himself, does not have anyone to bless his life and its works from heaven and from earth, and he does not earn his life from Me, but only from him, and he has become a great pain for God and for those who have lived on earth before Me with a blessed life. The blessed life is the one which is blessed upon man, and I have taught you, My people, that I do not receive you if you are not blessed in all the things of your living and of your life and its works. And when I teach you, I teach every man, for every man to know and to hear that the one who wants to come after Me must deny himself and follow Me every day with his cross, with his life under the cross, the one lived in obedience, for the deed done in obedience is protected, as the cross protects the man when the man loves it and honors it and stays under its sign with his body, with his soul and with his spirit. Amen. The man who has a blessed life on earth, that one is the one who brings it before Me, the same as I, living the life of a son, bring every moment My life and its work before My Father, and I do nothing but only what My Father gives Me to carry out and to work, to speak and to love. I said with My word from the Father that whoever does not have his body received from heaven, from above, that one cannot have in him the kingdom of God, and the kingdom of God cannot have him either.

The man needs to have his body from heaven, sons. The body from heaven is no longer born from earth, of not man’s self-denial, who loves himself and who gives birth to sons this way. Oh, sons, the one born of the flesh is flesh and does the works of his body, and the one who is born of God, from above, that one is spirit and is no longer flesh, and he does the works of the spirit this way and it is in this way that he loves the blessed life on earth, making it into the cross just as I did with My life.

Oh, sons, I cannot bless the man’s life if he does not bring it before Me, and I have exhorted you to heavenly livings in order to feed you with life, which is to make you deny yourselves, and not live within yourselves but to walk in the light. I have exhorted you to walk under guidance, so that I may receive you and that I may have you. Oh, what would you do if I did not teach you always, if I did not speak with you to teach you the gift of the speaking and its fruits full of My blessing for you, for your speaking with Me? Have you really understood why I have told you that I cannot receive you without My guidance upon you? Has the man, who hears My teaching upon you, understood that he has to deny himself for a life under the cross, for his living in obedience, which brings him under My blessing, under a life blessed on earth?

Oh, sons of men, and you, children with whom I speak on earth for the sons of men to hear of My pain from the man! Oh, only the thief does not talk about his deed, only that one does not want to be caught, to be known, for that one loves himself and seeks to win over on his side his soul, but the one who truly knows what his soul is, that one denies himself and gives Me life in him every day, and lying on the cross, he loves this way, and this is how he keeps his soul from the life that loses the man. Oh, sons of the people, two thousand years ago, I covered My disciples within the cloud of My glory, and the voice of the Father, hidden in the clouds, confessed My obedience to Him, calling Me His Son, Who My disciples were to listen to, as Father spoke from the cloud saying: «He is My Son; you shall listen to Him!» Amen. Oh, sons of the people! You would be blessed if you listened to God's sons who walk in the light before Me, to have a blessed life and not hidden from My face, for there is no man to be able to hide under his covering that he may not see God, the One Who made the heaven and the earth for the man.

Oh, you children who give life to My word, I want you to give life in people to My word by which I come down upon you. Go singing a song of blessed life, may your eating on this day of holy feast be blessed with God's approval, because I said: "You shall neither eat from the apple, nor drink water without Me, so that you may be blessed and not without Me upon you." And then, sons from under the burden of My coming, we come in again as word in the book, for I have to write down everything in it for My feast of today, for your life within Me, for your face before Me, because I changed My face into a shining light before My disciples, and during these days you also have to change your face before Me more and more, according to how much you want to walk within light, for I have come to give you light and to keep you within it and to teach you to be My day, the first of the days, for before all creation and before any other work, I made the light, sons.

Sing the song, "Lord, save Your people," and sing the song of the cross and be blessed when you eat, to be My light, and always, always and first of all you should be light, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

*

Oh, My people, how much My days of feast on earth with the people would be to last! Oh, My people, how much the sons of men would have to listen to you and from you the word of My coming! When My glory is heard coming to you, children who stay covered within the cloud of the glory of My word when it comes, you give it voice over My people afterwards, and I stay with days of feast before it.

Oh, children sons, blessed is the one who truly knows what his soul is, because that one denies himself and gives Me his life every day, and staying under the cross, he loves this way, and in this way he keeps his conduct away from the life that loses the man. In My time, John, the Baptizer, was telling those who wanted to escape the cross: «You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Therefore bring forth fruit worthy of repentance! Don't think that to yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father,' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. 'Even now the axe lies at the root of the trees. Therefore, every tree that doesn't bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire. I indeed baptize you in water for repentance, but He Who comes after me, is mightier than me, Whose shoes I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and with fire». (Matt. 3:7-11) Amen. Oh, blessed is the one who truly knows what his soul is, for that one brings forth fruits of repentance and otherwise he cannot come to Me. The man does not know to flee from God's wrath, and to take up his cross with love and to follow Me every day, this the man does not know what it means. I look on earth and I always see how much the man has grown greater than God, how much the man loves himself without knowing that by this he seeks to gain his soul, and in this way he loses it. Oh, who is to speak to the man what repentance and the forgiveness of his sins are, so that he may not always establish himself higher than God, more than God? Oh, much table of feast I have always set on earth for the man's life, for the man's repentance, that he may bring forth fruits worthy of repentance, by which he may deny himself and to follow Me every day under his cross, giving his soul to God. Amen.

Oh, the man cannot hide under his cover so that he may not be seen by God. When I wanted to bring Cain to repentance, who hated and killed his brother, then he wanted to cover himself, but his overcast face got him outside of himself, for the man stays outside of him with those in him and the man cannot hide in himself. I exhort the man to repentance, to love, to become a child, to humility, to patience with wisdom and not to judge anyone for the salvation of his soul, for the man does not have to gain his soul but he has to lose it instead that I may find the man under his cross and to teach him the kingdom of humility, the kingdom of the heavens full of humility on earth in man, for My glory before the people was the humble spirit, and My face was humility, which glorified Me into the midst of the haughty people on earth. Amen.

Oh, children who stay with your soul under the cross, with your body and with you spirit when I come with the feast of word to give it to you and to share it to those who know the glory of the love of God against the man's self love! I want you to give life to My word in people, and blessed will be the sons' of men who will listen to you, for whoever receives you, receives Me, and the one who receives Me from you to his lost life for My life in him will receive the reward of a prophet. Oh, how beautifully should the people understand the calling, which exhorts every man to self-healing, the people who are sick because of their self-spirit in them! Those who are sick in their body keep going to hospital and wait for their physician every day at their bed, and the physician's visit is waited because the man seeks for the relieving of his sufferance, which is rooted in his body. This is how the man should also receive My coming as word on earth, and to take from Me salve for his sufferance for his unrepentance, which becomes sufferance in him, and not justice, for if he were right, it would heal the man from his sufferance and it would teach him the spirit of the love of God, the spirit, which exhorts the man to repentance and not to flee from the wrath, which comes upon the man because of his unrepentance for his sins.

Oh, sons of men, if there is someone sick among you, you call the doctor to heal the sick man, but by My Spirit from My disciples I spoke otherwise; I said to them: «If there is someone among you sick, let him call for the priests of the Lord, who have salve and anointing oil and prayers to God for healing, for the prayer of the faithful one by his humility can do much, and if he has committed sins, he will be lifted up and it will teach him towards a blessed life». (See also James 5:14, 15) Amen.

Oh, sons, the one who is sick of his own self and who repents receiving the spirit of humility of the spirit, that one becomes a beautiful man by those that are beautiful in him, by the fruits of his repentance, for his soul becomes My house, the church of God. I want to give life to My word in men by My teaching upon you, for My coming on earth as word is a remedy for the man, sons, and blessed is the man who listens to My advice for the illness of his soul, as the sick man listens to the physician's advice for the sufferance of his body. I come as a physician for every man who wants to be healed from his self. And I come as the physician comes from door to door coming in to those who are sick to give them medicine for their healing. Those who know what pain is, receive Me, but those who do not truly know what it is, they receive themselves and not Me, and nor My messengers who changed their face by the glory of the humility, which comes from the obedience to God in order to save them from the wrath, which comes upon those who do not know to come to God when they want to come on the way with humility on it, on the way with the glory, which comes from God and not from the people. Amen.

Oh, sons, who put Me into the book, I have with Me the child that you are bringing to memorial before Me after seven years from his calling to Me, for he would have separated himself from Me on earth, but in heaven I have united him with those who serve day and night before Me bringing prayers to Me for those on earth. He speaks with My accord and this is what he speaks to those who had him as their son:

— You should not bring Me to you! Be good, be humble by the Spirit of the Lord, and let me bring you before the Lord, Who made me to pray for you, for I listen to those who had always, always sent me on earth to the Lord that I might listen to Him, and they also made my entrance into the heavenly things this way to intercede for you, and I listen to them, to those who signed my entrance into those from heaven, when the Lord called me.

I listen to the Lord in heaven, and you should also listen to Him even more on earth, for it is hard on earth for God and no one wakes up properly when he tries to repent from his empty life, and there are many among these who do not have knowledge of God as they should, and this is their shame, because they do not know what the resurrection of the dead on earth and in heaven is, from the earth and from the heaven. No one knows on earth that there is one flesh of men, another flesh of animals, that there are also celestial bodies, and terrestrial bodies, and one star differs from another star in glory, when it is about those from heaven and about those from earth; and as is the one made of dust, such are those who are also made of dust; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly, and woe to those who hope in the Lord only for their life on earth, for they are to be mourned among all people. However, you should be awake as it should and do not be deceived, "Evil companionships corrupt good morals!" and you should have knowledge of God from God, Who is with you, for the resurrection of the dead is for the man to give that which is mortal for that which is immortal; what is mortal to put on immortality, then what is written will happen: «It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power, for if there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body, for the first man was made a living soul, and the last man was made life-giving spirit, because that which is natural is first and not that which is spiritual. And as the first man is of the earth, made of dust, so the second man is from heaven, and as we have borne the image of those made of dust, let us also bear the image of the heavenly». (See 1 Cor. 15)

Be awake as you should, for as is the one made of dust, such are also those who are made of dust; and is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly, and this is how you should learn the resurrection, for there are many on earth who do not have knowledge of God, and it is not sown the body that is to be, and that is why the people do not understand how the dead are resurrected and what kind of body will come, and that is why the people who do not understand are not resurrected. Let the people receive from you all that I tell you from my dwelling place in heaven, and let them prepare for those that will be on earth and which cannot be seen with the earthly eyes, and not even with the spiritual eyes, because those who are invisible are seen only with the heavenly eyes. Amen. And you should no longer bring me to you, but you should be good and humble by the Spirit of the Lord instead, so that I may be able to bring you before the Lord, Who made me to pray among those in heaven for you with the knowledge of those that the Lord has as His bridge between those from heaven and those from earth. Amen.

— Oh, My people, I, the Lord, I, Who spoke by the Scriptures two thousand years ago, I am the One Who fulfill them, for I said that the time is coming and it has already come when all those in the tombs will hear the voice of the Son of God, and they will be resurrected within immortality and they will confess God. Amen.

May your sacrifice of love be blessed for the one mentioned by you among those in heaven, those on earth intercessors between those on earth and those in heaven. Amen. Seek to have knowledge of God as you should have that it may be resurrection on earth, for if you do not do this, I will be more wounded from you than from the world that has no knowledge of God. However, I have come to you on earth for you to live and for the dead to see and to come to life at your sight, which has in it the glory of humility, a glory like Mine and not like the human glory, healing from heaven and not from the earth.

Listen to My entire word put upon you, sons. Listen to every word that is put upon you by those who are on earth, as My word among you and not to their word, and receive them opening yourselves to them, for any physician speaks and deals with the unfaithful one according to his weaknesses and he gives him a remedy according to his illness, to brings his wholeness to his body, to his soul and to his spirit. Hear Me when I knock and teach them to be hospitable, for My messengers among you are those who carry you to Me, and Me to you, sons, and you will be blessed if you understand properly the mystery of resurrection, the ongoing passing from death to life then when you go wrong and when My messengers open your graves to take you always to light, and you should be always, always alive, and to love and to live in the light and to walk before Me being changed from glory to glory. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Assumption

I strengthen you, children under the burden of My coming as word on earth, because you are weak and under the pains of body and spirit. Oh, if the sons of Jerusalem knew how much I labor in heaven and on earth to feed them on My word giving of life so that the faith and its working power may not die in them in a time like this, they would try to work with a greater power of spirit all My word, for I squeeze it out of Me with much pain and in the same way I put it before those who share it to their life. I am the One Who have the spirit of life giving for this is how the Father made the man in the end, and I want so much to have disciples of the same work with Me, for I am merciful and that is why I said that I want mercy and not sacrifice, because mercy overcomes sacrifice. Amen.

And now, in a day of royal feast, I come down with My mercy upon you, children from under the burden of My coming, and upon all the people fed on sacrifice and pain. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, My people, it is a royal feast into your midst, and I am in those that are not seen and I am staying with the entire heaven for celebration, with you and not without you, for My mother is celebrated in heaven and on earth. Oh, My people, I have spoken into your midst that the man needs to have a body from heaven and not from earth, for otherwise he becomes sin. Oh, My people, it is a great wonder that I have a people with heavenly bodies on earth, for it is written in the Scriptures of My apostles: «There are terrestrial bodies and celestial bodies, but the glory of the celestial differs from that of the terrestrial»; and another is the glory of those who have their bodies in heaven, «for as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly», (1 Cor. 15:40, 48), as it is written.

Oh, Jerusalem, nourished from heaven, you need to have glory on earth as in heaven, for the heaven feeds you as mother her little child, and the earth comes to the help of your body, for Me to have heavenly bodies before Me on earth, to have a heavenly people in the midst of the people, who do not know to be with the heaven on earth. I have always, always exhort you to heavenly experiences, and blessed are those who fulfill all My word, and you, My people, if you want that your word and your good will to be fulfilled for building up, then be My blessed one and put on you My entire word, as I worked before My Father and as I worked His entire word on earth, and those who have received their body from heaven on earth they have taken all My word upon them and have given light to those who stay in death and have seen with good eyes, for their body is from heaven, as it is written: «If therefore your eye is sound, your whole body is good, but if your eye is evil, your whole body is evil». (See Matt. 6:22, 23) However, you should be heavenly on earth, and in order that the man may be with a heavenly body on earth, he has to have a Father from heaven and to do his Father's will on earth as in heaven, and to have bread from the Father and to be as merciful as his Father. Amen.

I want you to take on you the lesson of spirit humility in this day of holy feast from My mother the Virgin, My people. She was full of mercy, full of patience, full of God, for she had her body from heaven and not from earth, and she was shining with Me in herself among the people, and I with the Father protected her from all that was evil on earth, and all her body was as good as her eye. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, Son of the Father and mine, You are the Good Shepherd Who laid and lays down His life for the sheep, and how much I wanted You to be rich in sheep, Sons of mercy, Son Who have no mercy from the man! Oh, those who keep us in this day of holy feast are weak, and suffer in their spirit and body and I have mercy on them, for the burden of Your descending with the saints is too heavy upon them, and we have heavenly bodies and heavenly good eyes. Son, give them comfort and powers of spirit! And let us take care of them with the heavenly things and through them to teach all the sons of Your people to take care of us and of them with those from heaven, and with those from heaven carried by them, child of God's pain after the man. Oh, if you did not come to them again and again as word on earth, You would no longer have a people in this time, for the time is hard and not seen by the man, and the man does not want to believe and to be afraid of those that he hears from Your mouth and then to hide from this hard time and to take You as his shield, Son.

Oh, how is the man supposed to have mercy on You, if he has no mercy on himself? Oh, You do not have any mercy from the man. The man has not learned to deny himself and to have mercy on You, following You with a gentle and humble spirit, Son. Oh, what a great miracle is seen from heaven to down on earth that You still have a people now, in the days of Your coming! Teach him to be a child, child Son of the Father, for he who does not love to be so, cannot bear in him the beauty of the kingdom of the heavens on earth.

Oh, the man does not know that his greatest sin is that he does not read the Scriptures to put them on the man, to always settle in them with his life. And now You have always given to the man a new and loving word to have You and not his own self in him, and the man commits a great sin, that he does not fulfill Your entire word, in such a way that he may give birth to You to dear disciples, rewarded with the sacrifice of his mercy, with the sacrifice of his love, for love is the one who does not lose its patience for the birth of the sons, and the man has to come back to this work, and the man has to take his body from heaven to be able to have disciples on earth as You had, Son obedient to the Father, perfect disciple of Your Teacher, the Father Sabaoth.

Let us release from the burden of Your descending those that are under it! Give them Your blessing for their eating and then comfort them from any weaknesses, and only then let us come near with all our work of today. I am a merciful mother and I do not see them asking You to take away their pains, for my word has asked You not to take them away, not to wipe out their pains, in order that they may be like us, Son, that they may not forget about the Father and about His mercy. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, mother, the man born of heaven is a man of pains, mother, as I also was. Blessed is the people who cannot live without God on earth, for that one looks at Me and this is how he makes his spirit and his heart, and he is gentle and humble in his heart, and this is the mystery of those born from above, the sweetest burden of the man on earth.

Oh, mother, My life is a loving spirit in men, and it is accompanied by My wisdom by which I have answered to everybody: «Learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart».

Oh, My people think it over the mystery of My life in man and look at My mother, the Virgin, look at her love full of patience, for love cries in man and its mystery is sweet, the mystery of My life in man, My mind in the man who denies himself to be My dwelling place. Amen. May your food for living and your prayer to God be blessed, and fulfill it upon you, My people. Amen.

Oh, sons, from under the burden of My word, let us still come back into the book for the feast of today. Strengthen your little bodies and your spirit, and let us work then all the work of the day, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

*

Oh, My people, when you know that the Lord, the One Who made the heaven and the earth, always call you to belong to Him and to be able to work like Him, and like all those who have been like Him on earth, you should always learn deeper and deeper the mystery of life. When I made the man, I made him into My image and after My likeness, and I wanted the man to be. However, He met another will than that of the One Who made him, and this was how he forgot about the mystery of life, and whoever forgets about it, forgets about God and he forgets that the man has to be in My image and after My likeness.

Oh, My people, the man who is born from heaven, from the mystery of life, that one is a man of the pains just as I was. The one who flees from the pain, that one flees to the pain, to the pain which comes after the joy without life in it, but blessed is the man who after he suffers after the mystery of life, loving it and living it, receives after that the crown that is not overcome of the heavenly greatnesses on earth and in heaven and it appears as the inheritance of the heavens. Amen.

I want to crown you with the spirit humility, My people, for its face in man shines in the face of the man, and it is beautiful the place, where the brothers of the humility of spirit, which makes the man beautiful, live together. From earth to heaven it is dear the man who has as the adornment of his life the spirit humility, and I am wonderful with My kingdom in him, a kingdom that is not of this world. Amen.

Oh, sons fed on the mystery of life, you all who hear of Me with you and of you with Me, to all those who come to see My things with you and you, you should tell them that My kingdom in man is not of this world, and that is why the world does not know those who are Mine, those who are Mine in the world, and that is why the world gives them a bad name, as it says, but without knowing what it does, actually it gives them a good name, a name that is not of this world. My Mother, the Virgin, even after the world had found out that she was the mother of God Son, remained within the glory of spirit humility, and she stayed full of God, for she had her body from heaven and not from earth, and that is why she easily saw the angel who brought the God Son into her by the word, and the word became flesh in her body. Amen.

Oh, My people, how much word you have received by the intercession of My angels! Oh, My loved people, follow the example of life from heaven from My mother, the Virgin, for My word given by My angel became flesh in her and it became a Man with a life giving spirit, a Man with a gentle spirit and humble in His heart like His mother. Amen, amen, amen.

— You long and You hold it, dear Son of the Father and mine, You long to hear me how I stay as word from You over Your people, and I long to see Your word embodied in them, so that they may be Your body, a body from heaven and not from earth, heavenly Son. You have taught them to chew well the mystery of life, the word by which You always stay upon them to have them as Yours. It would have been to gather many Christians and many people in my day of feast to give them from the spring to drink and the people to feel You for a moment with Your calling for them, but now they are weak and destitute, those who carry You through the world, for the world to hear how You come, and those who are Yours from the world wait for You to give them a big helping hand to prepare for You the feast of the Pentecost of Your word from the end of the time over the man, Word Son. Oh, help them, for You are the will of the Father and His word, and the Father Himself loves them, because they belong to You. Amen. But now, I am teaching them with longing and great love the mystery of the embodiment of Your word in them, to have them as Your body on earth, a body from heaven and not from earth, Son incarnated in the man by the mystery, which You left upon Your disciples. Amen.

Oh, people of the word of God, the Father is in His Son when He becomes word in your heart, and the gate of the word is your faith, and it is your ear, and it is your heart, and then the whole of your body becomes God's rest, the dwelling of His kingdom, which is not of this world. Take care, for I teach you as a mother teaches her son for you to know and never forget even for a moment that the kingdom of God with you and in you is not of this world, and the world has nothing in it, and this is how you are to embody in you the word of my Son and of His saints. However, you cannot love and live this way, if you do not completely stay within the bath of the birth from above, within the humility of spirit full of mercy and patience and of God. Amen. To my Son I was, bride, mother, his loved one, handmaid, sister and everything God is to have from man and man from God, and I carried all with a humble spirit, with the humility of the heart, which does not leave the man to exalt himself and to fall down afterwards, and my patience was like the bread, which sustains the man's being, for I longed and I have always longed for my Son to have sheep, to earn sheep for Him by my patience and to heal their wounds and to heal their bites from wolves and to keep them for my Son through the embodiment of His word in them, which I knew by my life and which I lived in His word. Amen.

You are to know the mystery of His embodiment in you, through your life lived in His word, children of my Son, and may your humility of spirit keep your hearts embraced forever, because it is beautiful the place where the brothers of spirit humility live together; that humility that makes the man beautiful, and it is dear the man who has the humility of spirit as the adornment of his life, the kingdom, which is not of this world in man. Amen.

Oh, Son, Who keep them alive always breathing upon them! Make Yourself and ongoing miracle in them with the Spirit and with Your power in order that You may be in them and not they any longer, for the man easily exalts himself and easily falls down, and then he hardly gets up that he may be again.

Oh, Son of the Father and mine, let there no longer be Your death on earth, for when the man falls, You also fall, and You are only wounds from man, for You cannot leave the one who chooses You as his life, and when he is hurt, You suffer more than him, and no man on earth is able to understand Your many wounds, Your many falls in man and from man, and Your cross is heavy and You are crushed under it in those to whom You appear and in whom You sit to suffer in them, in their little body full of mercy for You, God Who are shown mercy by those who carry Your pains from the man.

I long for You in man, Son, and that is why I speak this mysteries not understood by man. I put You incarnated in the last sons of the word of Your life, for the mystery of the embodiment of Your word is still not perceived by the man, and I will still come with a feast of Your mother and I will still speak to them about this mystery. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, mother, you want that the humility of spirit and My godly patience to be the everlasting feast of My people, and this longing has been burning within Me for seven thousand years after the man.

Oh, My people, the embodiment of My word in you is the glory, which I wait for every day into your midst, for I want to be with you and in you and in all of your things, in your whole work, that your work to be My word, and My work to be your work, and so that we may be one in everything we are and live. Amen. Oh, sons, My word is sweet. Eat it as sweet as it is and love it and long for it before any longing of yours. Oh, sons, I give Myself to you as body and word to be always with you. Therefore, be always My dwelling place and keep Me within a loving watch, because I have always given you life so that you may be My life always on earth. Amen.

Oh, children under burden by which I come to My people! Love humility of spirit and its sweet tear, because from earth to heaven the man who has this adornment is dear and I am wonderful with My kingdom in him, a kingdom which is not of this world, children sons. Oh, I have mercy on you, because I made you in such a way that you may not be able to work on earth as on earth, and I have mercy on you on earth and I comfort you under My pains in you; I comfort you with them, children sons, and you should be gentle and humble in your heart, so that I and not you may live in you and before My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the beheading of Saint John, the Baptizer

You should be careful, My people, you should be careful to My teaching upon you, for who is careful that one receives it immediately and puts on him to have it for eternity, because its fulfilling fruit turns into a happy eternity, paradise and feast in man, for God and not for man. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, My people, if the man draws out from love and its benefits for him, they do no longer remain for God, and they remain for the man's temporariness instead. If the man's heart is not full of God and of the Lord's feast in it, it is full of man's love and not of My love in man, of which I may take and to be loved by man. Oh, the man is weak in his love for God, but you should be careful to My teaching upon you, My people, and to its fruit in you, for I died and I was resurrected for the man to live in Me and to learn well what this means, what I did for the sinful man, for he who is not born from above, does not have God's kingdom in him, and the apostle Paul, in order that I may live in him and not he, was speaking to the people and he did as he said, and he was saying: «I die every day so that I may be raised to life for Christ!» Amen.

The resurrected man is the one who works God, and that one needs to learn from Me how to work in him, so the one who looks at him may see Me in him, for the man does not take in him the love and its benefits for himself, but God does, and only then can the man take Me from the one I live in. Amen.

Oh, My people, I am happy into your midst only when I have My love living in you and between brother and brother, and My mother, the Virgin, promised you by her last word upon you that she would still teach you the mystery of the embodiment of My word in your body, in your soul and in your spirit, that I might be your God, and you might be My people, as I call you before the human kind on earth.

Those who are the true sons of My church, believe and fulfill the word of the love of God in the love between them, which has the purpose to confess the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, because the love of God has no other goal, My people, but the people are without any teacher upon them and they do not know how to gather around Me when they go to church if the priest is not spiritual to serve God and not to his own self. The priest gets upset when the people call him "parson." Oh, he should no longer get upset if he has got his life and not Mine, for the priest lives Christ's life on earth and not his life, and only in this way he is able to speak with humility: (At the Holy Liturgy, r.n.) "Lord, make me worthy to bring You a spiritual sacrifice for the forgiveness of my sins and for the forgiveness of the hidden errors of the people, that You may make us worthy of the grace of Your good Spirit upon us, and to be able to love one another within one mind, and to confess You, Lord, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, the inseparable Trinity of one being." Amen.

Oh, My people, the love and its benefits make the man confess Me, as they fill the man with love, with forgiveness, with peace, for the man is small and he does not have to do otherwise than I did for the man and otherwise than I taught the man by My own life and by the life of My saints who had Me in them and not themselves. John, My baptizer, had Me in him, for he was born a man on earth by God's promise brought by Gabriel, the archangel, as he also brought it to My mother the Virgin, for My birth of promise. By the working gift of the prophecy, John wanted to separate king Herod from his sinful love, for Herod was king over Israel, but the king did not want to separate himself from his seductive love and he ordered that John might be killed.

Oh, the man does not know to receive Me to do him good and to put away the evil from him, which comes from self-esteem, for man's self-love. Oh, the man does not know Me when I come to him for his good, the blind does not see Me when I come to him to heal his eyes, and if he does not see Me, he does not open to Me to bring the doctors to him either. Love and its benefits come only from Me in man, but the man is too great to humble himself to receive God when He stays hidden in man, as He dwelt in John, My baptizer, for Herod's salvation from death, from his sin. Oh, the man does not see with his eyes if he does not receive from Me sound sight so that he may look at himself and to see himself and then to receive God as doctor upon himself, as the One Who sees the things in man.

My people, by no means should you bow to look at you through your eyes, for I look at the man with the prophet's eyes and I teach him to look at himself likewise, and I teach him that the gift of the prophecy is the stairway on which I come down to the man on earth and I make prophets of those who love the gentle and humble spirit and who have in them the love and its benefits by which the man confesses God. Amen.

Oh, My people, the sinful man calls Me “the blind one,” and he calls himself “God does not know and does not see those in me and those outside of me.” However, I have come down to you as prophet on earth and I envelop you within My teaching and I teach you through it for you to make yourself a little garment for eternity, for its thread is woven with tears of longing from heaven to earth and I make choice linen out of it for the little garment of your body and of its life, only for you to receive it and to acknowledge Me as your King, as the invisible One and surrounded by angelic hosts when you confess that I am when you sing together with the angels the songs of the mysterious supper through which I, the Lord, become bread and wine on your table, My Body and Blood, food of eternal life for those who love Me. Amen.

I also wait for the day of memorial of the birth of My mother, the Virgin, and My bride, when she will give you the teaching about the mystery of the embodiment of My word, My people. I wait to hear how she teaches the man, for the gift of God’s confessing through the man is great, the gift of prophecy, which keeps the man away from perdition and from his own self, for the man cannot kill God more upon him as then when he does not receive the Lord by the gift of prophecy, the stairway on which I come down to man to take him out of himself, and to take him in Me to give him life, for life means God and not man. Amen.

— Oh, the gift of prophecy is great, Lord! You clothed me within it even from the womb of my mother and then I grew through You and thorough it and over Your head I fulfilled the frightening mystery, Your baptism in water by my hand with which I poured out water on You as on any man who came to repentance and for the forgiveness of his sins, and You were the One Who had the gift of the baptism with the Holy Spirit and with fire, Lord, a baptism, which the man does not see, for You are the invisible King and You are surrounded by angelic hosts. Amen.

Oh, the man does no longer see anything, Lord. The baptism with water over the infants has remained without grace, since the man does not know and does not see the baptism with the Holy Spirit of Your heavenly graces. Oh, the man does no longer see! Oh, there are no longer priests on earth, there are no longer seers on earth, for the people destroy them through their longing of temporary life. However, come with the feast of Your mother’s birth for the whole earth to hear that the love and its benefits are no longer on earth, and that is why the gift of prophecy among people is no longer among people and there is no one to stop the people and to turn them back from their wide way, and to show them the way with life on it, which the people do no longer walk on, as it has been covered like a path, which, if the people do no longer walk on it, it is not known as a path any more.

In the time of my body, Israel did no longer know the way to You, Lord, and I went to the king Herod and I told him to leave off the outrageous sin, but he was blind from the spirit of woman and he was dead for life and alive for death, because he loved himself and he was not ashamed even from his rank as king. I hit into the air with the word of truth, which I took and put before the king to save him from triviality, from his lack of manhood, and to save him from the hell, for there is no deeper hell than the hell in man, which is covered with flesh and blood, by which the man fights against the spirit that cries in him without salvation, Lord. And Herod beheaded me because of his love for women, and then I went down into the hell to those who were dead and they received me with great joy seeing from me the light of Your confession over those in hell. The dead received me, but those who were alive in their body did not receive me, for the flesh of the man lusts against his spirit, and the spirit cries for the man, unspeakably and invisibly, Lord. And now I tell those who are fed by You in days of great tribulation, as there has never been since ages and there will never be such a great tribulation, and I tell them that he who loves God, that one speaks God’s words and this is the sign of God’s love in man and from man. Amen.

Oh, receive in you the Lord’s pain. Receive in you the Lord, so that it may not be you, but for Him to be in you. Love the Spirit of the Lord and listen to all of His word to be alive through it, for there is no deeper hell than the man who has no God in himself and in whom it does not enter the word of the prophets who wait at the border between you and the Lord, for God is your Father and who is the son that his father does not chasten? Be sons of the Father, for woe to those who have no discipline upon them! Be sons! Be sons! Be sons of the Father Sabaoth! Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, people of My word, by which I go in to the dwelling place of the dead when I speak it over you! You are the tool by which I can speak for those in the tombs to hear My voice, which speaks with you. Oh, sons fed on My teaching, take My pain within you. Look at those by whom I feed you with the word of prophecy. They live only in My pain and do no longer have their pain. However, you should not smile in vain, you should not mock, you should not hurt each other, and you should not cut one in other, but rather you should be wise like Me, your Lord and Teacher, and you should let yourselves be healed from all the things in you, which would strip off your garments of light. The one who loves God, that one speaks the words of God and then he makes true the Lord in him and upon him. Take My pain in you, for the holy martyr Mina (Menas of Egypt, r.n.) left off the emptiness in the midst of which he lived and, fleeing from the world and from its spirit, and he took My pain in him, My mourning, which made him into a holy man, doer of miracles, a man who raised the dead to life, for My pain in man makes God happy, and it makes a house for God in man, and the man becomes a dwelling place for Me and then he speaks My words confessing Me before the people as a true God. Amen

Take My pain in you and do not flee from it. It makes you sweet, it makes you salty and it will make you bitter. It will make you sweet for those who are holy and alive in heaven and on earth; it will give you salty flavor for those who do not have the taste of the eternal life and its teaching, and it will make you bitter for the devil, sons, and the devil will flee from you, because he cannot look for the man who has My pain in him, the pain which overcomes death and the hell in men. Amen.

Oh, children wounded like God, oh, children who take Me and give Me to My people! Speak to My people to be as beautiful as you and not as man. Stay seized by the spirit and within the gift of prophecy, so that My Israel of today may not violate God's word that is on it. Strengthen yourselves from time to time for the healing from the joys of My people, and let it love the pain, children sons, for happiness is not made of joys, but only of pains, as it comes only after the pain and is prepared with many other pains, for it is too expensive and it is paid dearly for the man to have it for his eternity. Remind the people that whoever does not work out the kingdom of the heavens every moment, that one becomes guilty of emptiness and deception. And I long after you, after My power in you, that you may not let My people without teaching, without watching over his life, over his spirit, children sons, and I do not know how to work upon you any more, how to breathe upon you any more for you to be able to fulfill My word upon you and over My people that bears My name, the name of God between earth and heaven, children of eternal life, which I, the Lord, want to accomplish on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

The of the birth of the Lord's Mother

My word with power in it is blessing the feast of today whose preparation has lain down to work even for a couple of days for its crowning with the voice of My word after that. The heaven, not seen by the eyes of the flesh, has lain down with its entire glory in the garden of My meeting with the man, at the spring of My word. However, now it is only the heaven with the saints and angels and all its beauties that are set down in the garden for the celebration of the memorial of My mother's birth on earth, who gave Me birth then, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, when I became Man to be able to die on the cross for the man's life, and then to be resurrected in the body, as I had already fulfilled it, and then to ascend again to My Father's right hand in the invisible heavens, and still then to come again, as I have already worked so, to judge the living and the dead and to reign forever, because I am without beginning and without end, as My Father is. Amen, amen, amen.

Praise and blessing over the glory of this day of feast! It is the feast of the birth of My mother, the Virgin, and the heaven, invisible to the earthly eyes, has lain down with great glory, with sweet feast in the garden where I meet My people to feed the man too, when I feed My people on the word, for I have always called the man with a sweet calling to My spring of word, to show him the way with salvation on it, the fulfillment of the word of life in man's life, and I have always, always been hurt that the man has used to come and enjoy at My feasts from the garden, but I have not been able to enjoy over his life that he has dedicated it to Me. I have had mercy on the saints and on the angels that they have not seen the man coming after Me, after I have invited him by My word. I have used to set the table for the man, and I have used to set the table both for the body and for the soul, and the man has used to come as to a heavenly feast, but I have wanted him to come to resurrection as well and then to stay alive, and few of those who have come did so, few of them have received resurrection and life in them, that afterwards they may always ask from the spring, and that the living food to be given to them at their requests, that is My word, which becomes a scroll and is given to those who receive resurrection on them from it. Amen.

Oh, children who give being into the book of the glory of My word, for a few days I have set you face to face with the celebrated glory coming down with the saints and with the angels in the garden, and I would have liked that those who were added to you by Me to come earlier into the feast, which has been lain down in good time in the garden of the meeting, for I have exhorted you to testify about it and that at least you may remain within its spirit. I have taught you not to worry as on earth about the food and about the staying of the guests for those who have come, because they are from heaven and they have come with the treasures of the heaven, and they have everything and you do not need anything for them as for those who have come from the earth. Those from earth are weak even for the earthly things let alone for the heavenly ones. However, those from the invisible heaven have gained the benefits of life, which all those who loved and love Me with a heavenly love on earth come in. I confess, that you can hardly have the courage to open your little mouth for the confessing of the glory that has come down in the garden of the meeting. Behold some flowers and beauties! You have mercy on the flowers not to be trampled and crushed. Oh, those in haven do not crush anything, and rather they adorn with their coming in the garden the beauties that have come into view in it, for you have got sight from Me for those who are not seen by the fleshly eyes. You have asked yourselves what you were to give them to eat from what you have, and I immediately told you not to worry what they would drink or what they would eat or how they would sit down, but only to look at how the tables are set and at all the glory of the feast where the birds of the heaven (Saints in heaven, r.n.) take part eating of the food on the tables; tables from heaven and not from earth, white towels, and long from place to place, counterpanes and blankets for beds among clusters of countless flowers, which drop and rise again not being crushed from the sitting down of the saints and angels. Oh, you have mercy on the flowers when you walk and step in the garden! Be good and take a look. Be good! Let us leave all the joy for the saints and for the angels, all our party, and that We and you may testify about it that it is and that it is laid down without any strange feeling over the blessed things by My word, which is glorified among you in the days of My coming from near the Father as word on earth.

Behold how beautifully a party is given by those in heaven. There is no such music on earth, children sons, such signals for any movement and work, such a heavenly will, free from the human will and wisdom. However, the man does not humble himself for all his making on earth for everything he has done under heaven, and he does not see his weakness concerning those things that are above anything he tries to do and to give to the people like him. I suffer great pain because I cannot show to the man the richness that is not seen, but which is. It is not seen because it is and I have always exhorted the people to learn the parables of the kingdom of the heavens, and I told them: «Make treasures in heaven where moth does not destroy them and where the thief does not rob them, for where your treasure is there will your heart be also». (See Luke 12:33-34) But here it is where the man's heart is. It is there where he gathers for himself and where his heart remains on earth, and it makes Me suffer that I cannot show the man the heaven's richness, which is not seen if the man is flesh and only that.

Oh, behold such a beauty of heavenly richness! Behold such a feast with generosity in the garden! Do not look after the Christians! Now there are those from the invisible heaven with a feast of generosity and only as in heaven. The dishes on the towels are not as on earth, even if they are eaten from the table by all of those surrounding them who are taking from them.

My angel and My mother, the Virgin, are in good temper during the whole spirit of the feast, and under their walking, the grass and the flowers do not remain down, for they rise again and stand within their beauty, like all those who are laid down in the garden. My mother is sweet, and she is not walking without My angel and she is ready to speak for those in heaven and for those on earth. Amen.

Oh, children sons, I much I wanted the people to be able to do more for those in heaven on earth! I would like him to be more heavenly on earth, and My mother, the Virgin, promised him that she would teach him more for his wisdom, the mystery of the embodiment of My word in his body, his soul and his spirit, for I call him before the human kind on earth, and I call him My people. Amen.

The one who truly loves the heaven on earth, that one is careful to My teaching and he immediately receives it and puts it on him to have it for his eternity, for it is this way and no otherwise that the man gets together with all that he has earned in heaven. I have taught you to catch a little bit of courage beforehand to teach the people for its healing from the joys which do not last forever, and that he may learn about his pain, children sons, for happiness is not made of joys, but only from pains, and if the man looks for his joys, then he does no longer seek after God, as you can see this, children sons.

I said that I have been waiting for the day of memorial of the birth on earth of My mother, the Virgin, and My bride, to give instruction of eternal life to My people and to every man who will receive from you the word coming down over the earth in order to cleanse it from the evil in man. I have been waiting to hear her speaking, for great is the gift of confessing, the gift of prophecy, which keeps the man away from perdition and from his own self. God exhorts the man to get love and its benefits in him, as the gift of prophecy is the stairway on which I come down on man with the joys of love, with those from heaven, to bestow them on man, but there are no longer seers on earth, there are no longer priests on earth, for the people destroy them by their longing after the temporary life, and the man does no longer see anything. However, I have prepared a great feast of word that the entire earth may receive from it and all the nations on earth may hear that the love and its benefits are no longer on earth, and that is why the gift of prophecy is no longer among people and there is no one to turn them back to the people from their wide way and to show them the way with life on it, and which the people do not walk on it, and it has been covered like a mere path, which, if the people do not walk on it, it is no longer known that it is.

Oh, children who stay at the mouth of My word to put it into the book, the most painful thing is not that the man does not want to become like Me. More painful than this is the fact that the man makes God like him, and the mystery of the embodiment of My word in man is completely strange on earth, because the love and its benefits, which are made known by My word, by the gift of prophecy, which crowns the man with life from heaven, do not longer have room on earth, and the man does no longer want to do like God not even in hard times; however, even then he wants to do like him, and I, the Lord, would like to do like him, to become like him, and this pain is hard in heaven when the man tries to make God like him.

All the saints and all the angels have heard from Me and from My mother, the Virgin, that we have been waiting for the day of her celebration, and she will still teach you the mystery of the embodiment of My word in your body, in your soul and in your spirit, My people. The love and its benefits are kept over the man by the gift of prophecy, and I have been teaching you, saying to you: "By no means should you bow to look at yourself by your own eyes so that you may not receive Me, for I look at the man through the eyes of a prophet, and I also teach him to look the same way, and I teach him that the gift of prophecy is the stairway on which I come down to the man on earth, and I make My prophets of those who are faithful and who love the gentle and humble spirit and who have got the love and its benefits in their spirit.” Amen.

Oh, Virgin mother, your day of feast in the garden is sweet, for I have wanted to bring it into the view of those who carry Us into the midst of the elected people, mother. Oh, My life is sweet to Me when I am able to appear with it on earth, when I can find a humble place, a way that I may be able to walk on and to set a table of word and to reveal Myself, mother, and I have always exhorted the people of this descending of word not to have any worry than the one before My path towards him, the same as now, when I have given him exhortation to come to the feast ahead of time, for I told him at the right time that you would make a halt over him and that you would still teach him, and that he would have to sit down for you to teach him, to feed him on the love and its benefits, mother. The love for Us is not the love for him, but let us make this people perceive and understand how much we have stayed in his way, in front of him, to know Us and to receive Us and to take care of the love and its benefits on him, mother. I have told him that your feast is beautiful in the garden of the meeting and that the saints have freely sat down within your feast, and that the people is set aside at this time and I want to teach him to keep Us close to him, to keep himself close to Us, mother, in such a way that My word may be embodied in him and that it may not get used to grow weak within its fulfilling, mother, and that the people may listen to Me, mother. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, Son of the Father Sabaoth and mine, and God of Your obedient people of Your word! The most painful thing is not that the man does not want to be like God, but that it is his will to make God to be like him, heavenly Son. Of, if even the one who hears the word that comes out of Your mouth gets used to it in order to fulfill it after he hears it, how much more when he sees You with Your godly body, how would it be not possible for him to get use to it in the same way, mysterious Son, Who remain hidden under the image of the bread and wine for them to long for You and to love You, as I loved You when I always saw You within the image of the mystery of the bread and wine, then when Your apostles were giving You to me as a mysterious baby, perfect man and God. Amen.

Oh, there are no longer apostles and there are no longer priests on earth, for those who dare to get under the work of priesthood without any heavenly calling, they have been growing weak for two thousand years in grace and in power by those who have taken away from them Your Body and Blood, mysterious God. In the time of my body and after Your ascension into the Father, Your true church was not so, because every family had a priest of Yours from it who was put over it by the gift of prophecy, and there was no weakness upon him, for he was put over his entire house orderly, and there was good behavior in spirit and in nature, and there was love only for You, and it was grace, Son, and where there is not this kind of order, the priest goes astray and he can neither put in order or take care of his house and nor of his fleshly and spiritually relative, as it also happened with Your body and mine, which were brought together into a kinship relationship, and this economy of God was worked out mysteriously for Your coming into the world, for my coming into the world, and for the work of the supper afterwards, Lord, for the bonds made from God upon man, established through the word, are bonds according to the spirit, as it also was with Elijah the prophet, whom You sent to the widow to bring her son to life and to make him a prophet and to multiply in that house the bread, the oil, the food and the grace from God within a hard time, mysterious Son. Oh, I have been looking down to earth for two thousand years and I have seen apostles and priests crushed as in the time of the first Christians, for if there is not always teaching upon the mind of the priest, he grows weak in love and in its benefits. The apostle and the priest forget that even You were not able to carry Your cross, made by man, let alone the priest; how can he carry it? However, he does not know what it is when he says that he is a priest. When Your crowd was pressing against You, the sick woman touched You and You lost Your power and asked: «Who touched My clothes?», and the disciples did not know what You said and they marveled that You asked such a question, and they responded in a discontent wonder: «You see the multitude pressing against You, and You say, ‘Who touched Me?’» (Mark 5:31) However, You were the true priest of the Father and You lost the power of Your body because the woman took of Your power by touching You in order that she could be healed. But the priest of today does no longer lose his power, for it is his power in him and not Your power, which feels the heaviness from the man. The one who truly feeds the man with Your Body and Blood, that one grows weak from the man if he really is a priest, because if he gives of Your power from him and he is always pressed against because he is a man from where the man draws for him, not for You in man, Son, grown weak from man.

Oh, if You had not set aside those anointed by You in the garden of Your word a long time ago, in the old times, You would have not had them as intercessors for the whole human kind before You, and that is why You had always been teaching them that their life had to be God and not to put out their power, in order that You could remain with them and not without them, and that they could be Yours and not man's, as the priests of the world are, for You need priests for all human kind, down to Adam and up to Your coming, and You had always been teaching them to be good and to live in such a way that You might have Your wisdom in them, Lord.

Oh, I have always been looking upon them all the time after Your ascension into the Father. There, where humility was, and love for Your supper, for its protection, there was the whole heaven, for the priest had one, two or a couple of disciples and he kept the power for You in him and in his disciples, but there, where it was a multitude without grace, without spirit, the priest did no longer know the mystery of the supper, of Holy Spirit, and he used to read the book of the priest service and he was rejoicing over the praise from the people and not from You, Lord. The mystery of the embodiment of Your word in man makes the man satisfied with his life in Your life, in Your pain, and that one helps from You and for You the one who he receives Your Body and Blood from, and with this teaching I want to teach Your people today. Amen.

I speak to Your people about Your apostle satisfied within You, about James, the holy and the righteous one, for he knew that You were the Son of God and that it was why he accompanied us all the time on the way of Your cross, which started even since Herod, by killing the infants, he wanted to kill You as well, and he saved You from his hand by our leaving to Egypt with Joseph and James, his child from his marriage, before my Father gave me under his protection for the mystery of Your birth.

Oh, how much this child, James, loved You, for he knew that You were the Son of God because he loved God. From a younger age he gave himself over to an angelic living and he did not love his body, but he only took care of it with bread and water and nothing more, and he loved God, without rest in his love, day and night. His nights were only prayer, with his knees knelt down and with his hands lifted up, and the grace of the pure virginity was blameless in him until his end. When he saw You how You taught in the Temple and then the nations, he became fire under Your word, and his love for You was consumed within him and he made his life harsh to live only for You on earth. He has learned from You, Lord, the love and its benefits, and You loved him even more, and You relied on him more than on any other disciple of Yours, and after You came to life again, he was the first among the disciples to whom You appeared resurrected. So many Jews knew who You were through him, for he was a bishop and no one among the unbelievers from the temple knew that he was within You and You were within him, and that You taught him and settled him to a godly work of the mystery of the holy Liturgy by which You became bread and wine for him and for me and for the beloved John, and that he taught Your disciples how to work You and how to work this mystery with You after You had given it to them at the Last Supper, three days before Your resurrection after Your passion on the cross, when You truly accomplished Your sacrifice forever for the man's redemption from his falling, after seven thousand years. For the love and its benefits in him, all called him: "James, the righteous one," for he loved the justice for You, and that is why he wrote to the twelve tribes of Your church his exhortation full of life and teaching against sin, and many were looking, if possible, to touch the tassels of his garment, which

I made for him with so much holiness of spirit and love, to serve You in it, Lord, my Son. Oh, how much power of love he had! Love overcomes fear, and the bishop of the temple did not stop him to enter the Holy of Holies whenever he wanted to pray like this, even if one did not enter there but only once a year and never without blood from the sacrifice of animals. Oh, how much you have thriven with this mystery among the nations through him, my Son, and the rulers of the Jews did not know how to break down the nations' faith in You, and they urged him on a Passover feast to climb the pinnacle of the Temple, where the devil set You to tempt You to throw Yourself down for Your angels to bear You up, and which You put him away saying: «Go away satan, for it is written not to tempt God», and the rulers of the temple asked him to speak to the nations not to believe in You, the crucified One, anymore. However, when the multitude saw him and asked him how to believe in You, he responded: "Do you ask me about the Son of Man, Who willingly suffered and was buried and then was resurrected on the third day? He is in heaven, on the right side of the power of the Most High and He will come down again on the clouds and will judge the living and the dead." And when the crowd said, "Hosanna, Son of David!" the rulers of the Jews spoke to themselves: "The righteous one was wrong!" and being seized by anger and envy, they threw him down, but he, still alive, prayed for them saying: "Forgive them this sin, for they do not know what they do, Lord." Then, they stoned him to death and he was sent to You, Son and Lord, praying to You for their forgiveness. He accompanied us all the way of Your cross from Your birth and to Your ascension to the Father, and within a great mystery he was the sacrifice of love, and I speak in a great mystery as much as I can speak according to the faith and unbelief of the people, but I had You as the mystery Supper by his hand, for he was Your bishop even from the womb, for this is how You choose, and that is why You taught him the work of Your mysterious Supper and put him to its work, and I had my Son worked out by his hand and then by the hand of John, and I want to give Your people instruction and to reveal to him the mystery of the embodiment of Your word as it was in James, Your brother and disciple, Your herald, priest and martyr, Lord. Amen.

Oh, my feast of today with the saints in the garden of the meeting is so beautiful, and I want to leave the grace of the teaching upon Your people and I do not want to make him tired, because he is small and weak. Let us also have him to sit at his table for the body, and let us still teach him then the mystery of the embodiment of Your word, Son and Lord. I take from the table of the saints and mysteriously I touch them from it on their table, and then the spirit of the feast will become a sweet torrent upon them, for them to grow up and not to grow less. Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, mother, My sweet mother, I have prepared for you a praised feast, and also confessed and brought into view, mother! Those who see it feel sorry to walk through the garden, and they only look in amazement and pain, mother, and they also try to teach My people the mystery of the pain after God, the mystery of life, mother. There would be a great joy in heaven and on earth for My people to know how to receive them, mother, for him to grow in the sacrifice of love, for no one can learn the love and its benefits on earth from his own self, because the man loves himself and not God and the man goes wrong, mother, because he does not know where the love and its benefits are from, what they are and what they do in man and from man. The man wants to take from them, but My apostle James, on whom I relied most, is the example of those who want to borrow, from Me and for Me, the love and its benefits. As a strong pillar, I relied on him, then on John, and then on Peter, and they were the closest to Me for the godly mysteries, and now I took him and put him in front of the people as an example of the kingdom of the heavens in man, a seed sown on earth for its fruit to remain forever, mother. Amen.

Oh, My people, the feast of the birth of My mother is great in heaven and on the earth of My meeting with the man. I have made this feast beautiful in its appearance and I confessed it to you to help you believe the confession.

Oh, My people, how sweet would you become for Me if you knew how to look at Me! You should know from Me that the eyes, which are not seen are forgotten, My people. Oh, how great and how wonderful My grace would become in you if you knew to use those who see from Me in you, and to use Me by them and not to use them for you, for I am heavenly and I am spirit and body, because when I made the man, I made him after My pattern, but he gave up this grace for he did not love My Spirit, and this is how the man has come to stay in his spirit.

Oh, My people, lay down in My Spirit, for the time is coming when you need My Spirit. Get used to Him well, for I dwell with Him into your midst, but I want to have room and not burden with Him into your midst, in your spirit. Amen, amen, amen.

*

Come, watching children, you still need to do a little hard labor for My descent with the entire word of the feast of My mother, the Virgin. Come, children sons, for My spirit is only fire, and if the people saw Me, he would wait for Me from dawn to dawn with this comfort of word, for the moment is coming soon for each one to remain in what he will have found. I have exhorted the people of My word not to have another worry before the one for My coming to him as word, and I would have liked him to have a stronger desire for My coming with the feast of My mother, such a great feast that My word is not going to pass without being fulfilled, the word that had to be fulfilled as I want to be laid down on earth at its time.

Oh, children sons, oh, how much I would like, and I would like this with the entire heaven, that My people could do more and more for those of heaven on earth with him, because the gift of confession is great and it is a great joy in heaven, the gift of the preaching of My word, the gift of My communion with you and among you, the gift of prophecy, which keeps the man away from perdition, and which protects him from his own self. Amen.

Oh, children who stay under the labor of My coming, if the man looks for joys then he does no longer seek after God, and the empty walnut is of no use if you want to do something with it, but it is only a shell without any kernel and sounds empty and it is put aside. However, if the man lives empty of God and confession, he does no longer gathers anything in heaven, neither for him and nor for the other, and if there is no longer the gift of prophecy on earth, then there is no one to turn the man back from life, from his lifeless life. Oh, the man does not love the Lord on earth, and My Father Sabaoth and My mother, the Virgin, hold Me in their arms and wash Me with their tears, for I have come and become the Son of Man and the man does not know Me, for if he knew Me, he would become a son of God and he would no longer seek to make God like him, neither in his joys, and nor in his hardships.

Come mother! Come with the word of your feast for the people to grow through Us, to listen and to grow up and not less, mother. Amen, amen, amen.

— Come, Savior Son, but You have to save the human's mind and heart from the world first, and only then to grow in him to rejoice over him, but the man's heart has to be touched, Son, for Barabbas was touched in his heart after You died in his place, and he loved only You then, and he did not love himself and this is how You found him when You took him near You in eternity.

Oh, Son with time and without time over the man and over the earth! Oh, nothing is passing away, nothing, and everything that man does is taken up in eternity, and he will have them as he will have gathered them, either by repentance and humility, so that the evil things he has done may not punish him, or by carelessness of soul and by love for temporariness on earth, and for which the man lives in himself with haughtiness in such a way that he does not care of his soul for his eternity, and as the man gathers for himself in order to have, the same way he has and works. However, I would want, and I work hard with all the pain to want it, and I work hard near the Father for You to have men on earth with a gentle and humble spirit like Yours, and then for You to do with him as with Enoch, as with Elijah, and that there may be someone to wait for You and to meet the man in the sky and in this way to spend with him always, halfway between heaven and earth, and then to fulfill everything with him, and then to appear with him on a new earth Son, Who work hard for the man.

Oh, nothing is passing away on earth, even if the man know that he passes away with this body, for whoever does not learn to know that nothing passes away and that everything is restored for the confession of everything that was and is again and will be.

Oh, how good it is for the little one, because the great one pretends that he is great, Lord of humility and of those who are humble, and You long after Your healing, after Your health in man, for the man is sick from his own self and from his soul that You gave him, and he mourns without comfort in him, for the man lives fleshly and he does not know what he does, Son Lord. Oh, how much I long to find a man with the love and its benefits in it! I remind the man of the bridegroom from the wedding in Cana of Galilee, where I called You to reveal Yourself that You are God of God, that he may follow You and only You, the bridegroom of the wedding, and he did it this way. How many bridegrooms would do like him if they saw You, if they saw Your power at work? Oh, not even Adam could do what he did, and even today he does not want to do it, painful Lord, even since You made the man and until today.

Oh, the man does not flee from anything as he flees from Your rebuke, which brings to him the death for Your life in him, but the man does not love You because he does not know You. You have always come with Your word on earth and has given bread to man to learn how to live on it, and You give him Your word, but he has got used to the bread, which he makes for himself and by which he eats his food. For fifty years You have been giving the man the spirit of resurrection and of eternal life, and he does not know what the word he speaks means, when he says that "God gives to the man, but He does not put in his bag." He speaks well when he says so, but his mind is for earthly bread and goodies when he says this, and behold, You give to the man everything that he gives him back, but he does not take in him, for he is full of his own things and he does not know to put in his bag, when You give him so that he may be like You after that.

Oh, Son Lord, I have heard those who carry You as word from heaven on earth, that they asked You how the man does not receive You, how comes that he does not see You, how comes that the man does not love You, when he hears You coming, and You spoke to them that the eyes, which are not seen are forgotten. The man does not have his mind to give it to Your Spirit by Whom the man would be able to see like You, Lord, like You in everything and over everything. The man does no longer have faith, because he does not have faith anymore, for where Your love in man is, there You are also with Your face and with Your patience, with Your gentleness, Lord. The man does no longer have any guidance, and those who guide him, lead him to them and not to You. Not even the one who prays to You with tears and sacrifice, not even him has got any wisdom, because if the man does not bring his life under control for God, it is in vain that he brings his sacrifice, and this is not called sacrifice, for only to God the man can bring sacrifices, by not loving his body and by the love of his soul, which he receives from the body reconciliation sacrifice to God, when the body is for God and not for man.

Oh, Son forgotten by man, the man goes wrong so many times in one single day and he does not take care of his cleansing, if he does not love You, if he has no mercy on You, and it is in vain that he has faith in You, that You are God if he does not also love You having mercy on You with his life according to Your life lived on earth. Oh, where is the man supposed to go to find You, to know You and to receive You afterwards? Where, Son and Lord? He goes, poor of him, to the priests, and the priests do not love You, for if they do not live Your life among the people, and they live their life instead, and their words are like those of the people and not like those of Yours, and they please the people and not You, Lord, before the people, and the people commit sin by the words of the priests and do not do like the bridegroom from Cana, who gave up sin and became the confessor of Your powers for the holiness of the people, for holiness is the reward of the life loving of God and of the man's crowning and of his beauty, Lord. There is no one to wake up those who became priests and set themselves over the people without having Your life in them and that is why they blaspheme Your good name by their life without Your life in it.

— Oh, mother, who are to teach the people that it is not proper for the man to stay close to the body of the prayerful priest and under his garment. The priest is beautiful when he works by word and not by gestures over the people and especially over the women. I worked by the word and My word had power, but the worldly priest makes gestures, and he touches and is touched and he does not feel that his power is drained, a power which is to be consumed like Mine on the cross and for those who are wretched and weak in their body and in their faith on earth, and who did not have any hopes and joys, and My power was drained when someone was seeking healing from Me, and I was working mysteriously and healing the man, and then I was saying to him: «Go and show yourself healed to the priests»; but it was the power of healing from Me that was working and not from the priest, mother. The priest is beautiful by the word to believe and then to work over the man, and not by any kinds of gestures, because the laying of the hands, as he does upon the man, is a very great work, and this work does not have to be laid on everyone, and behold, in the world the priest gives what he has got, and this is how it is the one who receives from him, for he does not live My life to give from it, but he gives only from his life when it gives, mother.

I have spoken to the proud man in his spirit, and I said to him: «He who does not eat and does not drink of My Body and Blood has no life in him», and then many of My disciples left Me. However, I had James and John with Me, who worked Me by My grace, the grace of priesthood, which I Myself put on their heads, and I told them to do this mysteriously, and then to leave the work of this mystery as an inheritance over those with whom I fulfilled it at the Last Supper before My passion and My resurrection, and that it may be mystery and not trumpet sounding, not a table available for everyone, for who is not as holy as I am, that one kills the priest when he takes Me from him, but he who is holy gives life to the priest if the priest is faithful and loving of people.

Oh, what shall I do with the one who says that he loves Me, and the one whom I loved says: “I have nothing against him but I cannot stand him?” Oh, you who speak to yourself like that and do so! You say this because you think that you are more righteous than the other one, and you are the one who does not know the man’s heart, but I know it. My wisdom from Me is a loving spirit of people, and it is not a self-loving spirit, which makes the man see that he is more righteous than the one who is righteous for Me.

Oh, mother, I would teach the man when I sit in counsel with My people, but the man does not receive, and I want to grow My people up so that he may not grow less before Me and before people, mother. Come again! Let your word teach Our people the embodiment of My word in his spirit, in his soul and in his body, to have fruit in the people, mother. Amen, amen, amen.

— Behold, my sweet Son, how beautiful You teach him! The saints from heaven need his life and his prayer for their crowning, Son, for they also went wrong from time to time on earth even in their humility, and great is Your teaching of today over Your people of today, and the saints receive relief through it from everything they missed seeing in them in the life of their body. You spoke to Your people that he would be sweet for You if he knew how to look at You and how to see You and not forget You, Son, for the eyes that are not seen are forgotten. And You told them that Your grace would become a great miracle among them if they knew how to make use of those who see from You and with You in them, if they made use of You through them and not of them for You, then You would be embodied in them by those through whom You pour out Yourself into their midst. However, Your people is small and I want to strengthen him in the work and in the faith for Your wisdom in man is a loving spirit of people and that for this mystery the man has to think that he is small and not great, for the one who is great does no longer loves God, he does no longer receive God from near him and God’s brother, but he receives only himself, Son. Oh, tell them how to listen! Amen, amen, amen.

— Oh, sons, who give Me with the word to My people that it may be embodied in all those that are the people at My table! Oh, humble sons and humiliated before the people! With God one plus one makes a whole people, only for the people to know My way to him. The union by which I set you to the hard work of My coming to harvest a bride people, and this means that everyone of you, who has tasted that the Lord has been good to you, to gather together near the spring of My wisdom and then to live a godly life, and to share Me among the people with My entire word and with its entire life in them. One plus one does not make two with Me, but it makes a whole people of disciples and loving apostles of God, and for the embodiment of My word in them. Seek by the power by which I come to you to guide the people to My love and to its benefits. Amen.

Oh, children who are always painful, always weakened from the little and weak people, always patient, always waiting for them for what you love by My love in you! It is unfortunate that your good and sweet spirit, and drained by any kind of state of the people, which has not learned yet what life after death is! The one who knows what this is, that one dies in order to be resurrected and to live in My life. Oh, the one who is not one spirit with you, that one stays in his spirit and cannot do like you, and your good, sweet and dear spirit is put out before them, and what I have put in you it dies away if you have no one to share with from it. Oh, what shall I do to have you on fire? I would punish the people with fear, but you cannot bear his coming back with fear to My love and to a loving spirit of holy people dear to Me, and if I do not turn them back, he does no longer turn to Me and to you, for you are devoid of people, deprived all the people, and the entire people is deprived of you, and you stay humiliated, because I have seen your weakness and I have exhorted you to be good, because many hearts of those who have been taken care by Me and which I have been patient with, have in them only what they want, and they are known by what they have and by what they give from them outside. I break Myself in you when I show you the hidden man in himself, and you cannot even speak about Me, let alone about his stature!

When I was with you up on the hill of Golgotha, as I spoke to you with witnesses by whistling wind, and I exhorted you to look for work on earth from place to place, from time to time over the man, so that you might still be able to work My work, which I waited for you with. Oh, do not forget that you are written to Me as the guidance for My people to Me and Mine to him, and for the man, who if he knew Me well, he would follow My steps, sons, but no one is able to work over the man and to make him believe in Me and to love Me as you work upon man. No one works like you, no one, children of My pains, for I gave you birth in pains and you have grown up in great pains, and you sigh painfully and alone, children with your bosom full of My great tear in you, which waits and cries praying to God and to the saints for the embodiment of My word in the sons always nourished with it, and in the man who hears God from you. Amen.

Oh, rich people, you have God the Word. Do not burry this word into your midst, and rather bring Me fruit with it. Bow under My exhortation and under My work in those who stand before you as guidance on My behalf, for whoever does not receive them, does not receive Me, and not them.

Oh, My people, this is how I call you on earth and in heaven. I do not look at your name, but at you, My people. I look for Me in you. I look for My love and its benefits in your heart. Do not seek to be found like a walnut without any kernel in it and which sounds empty. Oh, My people, how much life I have been teaching you to take and to have from Me! Show it to Me, for the Father asks for Me to be with you working before Him. Woe to the one who is silent at My wedding table, on My coming back from the Father! That one is silent because of the lack of his garment. I have given you a garment and I have given you everything, and the time is coming soon for each one to remain where he will be found. Amen.

Oh, mother, My sweet mother and in pains like all those who bear Us with the pain in Us! Both you and I have been teaching them the mystery of the embodiment of My word in them, and it is known the one who has received teaching and who hasn't, mother.

Oh, My people, the man's humility is great and good, but greater than that is its visible work, the one with fruit in it and not the one without kernel in it. Oh, My people, you should not get upset with Me and with those who lay Me down as word face to face with you, if I command them to take out much of My instruction upon you on your table with you, and you should not show your humility to Me, but rather you have to show Me its work and its fruit in you, to be able to find you so when I come and to speak: «All have come to an end!» and then I, together with those who love Me, to be able to crown with longing the saints in heaven and on a holy land. Amen, amen, amen.

08/21-09-2004

I walk with you under My cross of today in this day of feast to the people of My word of today, children who wait for Me to come with all the fulfillments, which still are to be seen. Oh, you take Me as word to My people and to the man who receives from the voice of My word under the cross of My coming down from heaven on earth, and you get under My cross, when you receive the word from My mouth, for My coming is hard even if I told you that My yoke and its burden are easy. However, you have got used to My burden and you have only stayed under it and nothing has been easier to bear than My burden upon you, than My burden, which is upon you now when I work hard to fulfill the Scriptures of My coming with everything that is written in them to be more and more visibly. Amen, amen, amen.

The Scriptures, My people, envelop in the mystery of the their word all its accomplishments, for two thousand years ago, I was announced by the Father and then by My angel that I would come, and when I came, I fulfilled all the Scriptures about My coming as God of God and a perfect Man among men, and all this wonderful time of My Scriptures, of the heaven on earth and of its kingdom was covered in a great mystery and it was wonderfully fulfilled, and the people of that time on earth passed by the fulfillments of the Scriptures and it did not know their power and work on earth, and the man of that time went on minding only his own business, and the generation of the people of that time was like the multitude, which comes out from the seeing and from the hearing of those fulfillments, and then it comes back into her daily things. However, then I worked for all the ages who were before and after that and I have remained the true God in heaven and on earth and I have proved so by the fulfillment of the Scriptures spoken beforehand for My coming, through which I became man to suffer in the midst of the people, to be despised by them, and once with it to be known by many through their faith, and then by My works in their midst beyond nature, from My birth and to My ascension again in the Father. Amen.

All My life, all My way was only cross, My people, for it was for that that I became a man on earth from the Father by the Virgin, and I was the Son of the Father Sabaoth and I was under the cross on the earth. I tell you in the day of the feast of My wooden cross and which I could hardly bear on My whipped and hurt body, and I tell you My people, that the cross is power from God. It is foolishness for those who are on the ways of worldly emptiness, who call fools those who have a cross from heaven for them, but it is God's power in man and it makes the man in the image of God and after His likeness. Amen.

Oh, My people, these two ways stand against each other, one with the cross and the other without a cross upon man, one with glory and the other without any glory on it. Superficiality is vanity of vanities, and this cannot take place on the man's way that has a cross from heaven, for the man who has got a cross is from heaven, he is not from the earth, but he is born from above, from heaven, and he has got the cross as a sign of the birth from above, for I am the One Who came down from heaven and I showed that I came down on earth from heaven, and the mystery of those born from heaven is the cross on their shoulders, My people. Amen.

Two thousand years ago I said that no one ascended into heaven than the One Who descended of the heaven, and behold how deep the mystery of the birth from above is and which the man does not try to perceive it. But I ask you, and I ask you with the entire heaven of saints and angels; I ask you to perceive it in all its corners, My people, to love the mystery of the cross and its work upon you with the whole of your soul, and of your body, for there is no other glory in heaven and on earth like the glory of the man from under the cross. Amen.

Oh, My people, it is not good for you to have a cross from the earth. Take a cross from heaven and you should die and come to life through it, for only by the cross from heaven the man is able to come to life afterwards. I have shown you what a great glory the sufferance for heaven brings to the man. I and not the man have showed you this, but God has showed it to you instead, son taught by God on earth. I do no longer speak with the man about the mystery of the cross, for the common man the heaven and his cross on earth is foolishness, it is folly, but I speak with you and I tell you not to have another cross from the earth on your shoulders and in your heart, and that you should have it from heaven, for woe to the man who does not have the cross of the heavenly glory on earth, and then in heaven!

I teach you, My people, as I was teaching My disciples two thousand years ago, for out of the many multitudes that followed Me to see the glory of My cross on earth, I could gather some disciples for Me, and I taught them with great patience, with a deep example the mystery of life, the life under the cross and its glory over the man. I teach you the mystery of the glorious mystery, and you should be diligent for My teaching as from the One Who carried the cross of the heavenly glory among people. Amen.

In school on earth, where the man is a teacher upon the man, there whoever does not learn fails to get his remove, and remains behind with his walking and with the glory from the earth. With the cross, whoever does not keel down and does not stay under the cross, remains a sinful man, remains behind with his walking and with the glory from heaven, for the cross is from heaven and it becomes a way for the man to the everlasting glory, which is earned with labor and pains on its way to it. Amen.

I have loved the man very much. I have loved him most in My time under the cross, the one worked for Me from the man. I have loved the man and the love for him completely drained My power under the cross, for the man to see and to help Me, and then to teach him to come under My cross with his cross, with his life, with his walking, with his body under the cross. Simon of Cyrene came and carried My cross for the man to see that he can carry My cross for My love for him, the love which totally consumed My body, as the man should love God by making his body grow weak and be giving power to the love for Me in him, for the body of the man always lusts against the love for Me in man, as My love in man always forgets about man and it comes up from man only to Me, and it loves God in man with a great sufferance, filling him with the image of repentance and with humility by which the man forgives and is forgiven.

Oh, My people, repentance and its work is full of the sweet and beautiful gift of humility, which makes the man see himself and feel himself, to be seen outside of him by those around him, and such a man can never work alone, because he is humble, and humility is beneficent around from the inside of man and it works for the man and over the man. That is why I told you and I always tell you sons that you should not walk alone. Do not hide from My face, for the devil writes this for himself, and it writes that you do not have humility and that you have the spirit of haughtiness and then he takes care to take you from before My face, and if you do not take care to turn to Me with all those of walking alone, then you remain too much in its book and I have always, always told you to write yourselves into My book, the Book of the slaughtered Lamb, to save Me from the humility that the devil puts on Me because of your walking without an angel, without My face with you, without protection, sons, for the man has learned for seven thousand years to hide from God and from the man of God, so that it may work over those that are hidden in him.

Oh, sons with guidance upon you, you have My word before you and those who carry Me with it to you, and with you to Me. Oh, do not leave your life of today for tomorrow, for you have to redeem your life and not to put it off for tomorrow. Let every man on earth hear that this tomorrow, which the man always uses to put off his coming to the light and to the cross, is the hell, which does not let the man come to life for the heavenly tomorrow, and not for the temporary one, for the resurrection so much waited by all those who have always put off forever their life under the cross, the glorified life with God in man.

Oh, it is a day of the feast of the cross for which I was nailed because of My glory under the cross and for the one after the cross. It is the day of the celebration of the wood of the cross on which I was laid down as an everlasting sacrifice and which, taken out of the ground, where the day of its testimony was waiting, was showed to the nations so that it might be strengthened upon them and over the time the truth about My divinity in My body assumed on earth from the Virgin by the order from eternity of the Father Sabaoth, My Father.

And you, people of faith, which for two thousand years has been confessed through the cross and of seven thousand years by the prophets, gather your life under the glory of My cross, because for you your cross becomes a shame before Me, and you have the sufferance of My word, which flows like a river upon you to teach you to stay under this cross, which becomes My glory and yours before Me, as it is meant to be the one who is written from the foundation of the world into the Book of the Life of the Lamb Who was slaughtered. Amen.

Oh, exalt yourself above your body by My humility in you, son who love the glory of My cross, for I am the humble One and I come down with the entire glory of My humility in those who give themselves over to Me as a house on earth among people. Amen. I want to have a people completely in Me, and I to be completely in him on earth. I want to have life in those who love Me, and I want to be seen in them with the glory of My humility, which works hard, emptying the man of his own self and filling him with My glory full of humility. Amen.

Oh, children who perceive with My gift in you the confessing mysteries when they live in man! Open your little mouths with glory, for you love My sufferance in you, and you made it into My glory in you, and from you into the midst of My people. Set this glory in those who love God's glory for the love of God. Give resurrection to God in man, for I want to make out of the people who love the cross from heaven, a day of the man's resurrection on earth and the fulfillment of the Scripture of resurrection of those who wait in the tombs for My glory in you, the glory of the sufferance for My coming with the sound of a trumpet, with the voice of an archangel, for My angel is with Me in My whole word, in all My walking between heaven and earth with you to My confessing people, and the glory of My cross is the sweetest and the highest confession, which the one who loves the heaven is able to show to the people on earth. Amen.

Glory to My cross that is carried by the man, for My cross does not have glory on earth but only when the man comes under its glory, under its sufferance full of glory, of the glory of its humility, which puts the image of repentance on the man's face, the sign of the man's reconciliation to Me, the One Who carried the glory of the cross. Amen.

By My sufferance in you, I keep you from death and from its entire face, My people, faithful to My coming with the Scripture of the resurrection by the cross of those who are dead and of those who are alive. I look at you with love through the cross, for woe to the one who makes the sign of the cross on his body without knowing what kind of work My cross in man has!

By My sufferance in you, I save you from the world and from its spirit. I, by My cross of you and of above you, I protect you and I make you like Me. By the glory of My cross, I want to make you know the work of the heavenly glory and its reward under the cross and your clothing always with My glory, the glory of My reconciliation with the man and of the reconciliation of the man to God, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The Feast of the Protection<sup>180</sup> of the Lord's Mother

I, the Lord, gentle and humble in heart, appear to you as I am, as I say that I am, children from the gates and always crushed within the gates, for you are My gates of entrance into Jerusalem, when I come as word, to feed it and to strengthen the one with a clean heart before Me and before you, and to exhort the unsteady one, to wait for him, to endure from him, for I am gentle and humble in heart, as you see that I am that that I work. Amen, amen, amen.

<sup>180</sup> The feast day celebrates the appearance of the Mother of God at Blachernae (Vlaherna) in the tenth century. At the end of St. Andrei (Andrew of Constantinople) Yurodivyi's life, he, with his disciple St. Epiphanius, and a group of people, saw the Mother of God, St. John the Baptist, and several other saints and angels during a vigil in the Church of Blachernae, nearby the city gates. The Blachernae Palace church was where several of her relics were kept. The relics were her robe, veil, and part of her belt that had been transferred from Palestine during the fifth century.

The Theotokos approached the center of the church, knelt down and remained in prayer for a long time. Her face was drowned in tears. Then she took her veil (cerement) off and spread it over the people as a sign of protection. During the time, the people in the city were threatened by a barbarian invasion. After the appearance of the Mother of God, the danger was averted and the city was spared from bloodshed and suffering, r.n.

Oh, sons, who I speak with before Jerusalem! I became the Son of Man for the man to see that God, the One Who made the man, is gentle and humble in heart, and that He is not like man, and how much I would want to make the man gentle and humble in his heart, clean in his heart, for the hidden heart is heavy and still heavier, and I want with My Holy Spirit, proceeded from the Father, to cheer up the one with a heavy heart, because now, in the end of the time, I want that there may be light from God, and everything that means enemy of soul to turn pale, and the people with their souls to walk then in the light and to rejoice over its benefits. Amen.

Oh, children in whom I have set My Spirit, My eye, My love, My patience, My gentleness and My humility, that I had had before the man of seven thousand years, since the man hid from God! Oh, children sons, I have taught the people of this word, and My mother, the Virgin, also has taught him, and We have taught him the love and its benefits, and We have exhorted him beforehand not to commit the sin of disobedience, because I have told him to read the Scripture and to fulfill it, and if someone thinks that he is a spiritual man, let him know well that what I speak is God's commandment and whoever does not want to know, let him then not know it.

Oh, My people, I come down again with a feast for My Mother, the Virgin, in your midst, and I ask you not to forget the word of life, the teaching, which We have put upon you in the day of the celebration of My mother full of mercy for My word, for My labor of today, by which I have been fighting, being helped by the whole heaven of saints and of angels, to have a faithful people, and that those which come on earth may not crush him for the sins that are on him, and that the people may have My gift as a cover, for the wages of sin is death, and God's gift is eternal life in Me, the Lord of life, as it is written in the Scriptures.

Oh, My people, I cannot guide you too much today, for those, by whom I come to you so that you may not die without My food, are feeble, but I remind you not to forget My teaching, the love and its benefits, which have become Holy Spirit in man, for it is written: «The fruit of the Holy Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control, cleanness and everything the Holy Spirits exhorts the man to do, an against such things there is no law», (Gal. 5:22-23), but there God is with His image and with His likeness in man and near the man. Amen.

Oh, My people, everything that is fruit of the Spirit points to the man if he is in God's image and after His likeness. The one who believes in this work of word, that one is confirmed in his faith or unfaith or his unfaithfulness by the fruit of the Spirit, which puts the man to test, My people.

When I was with a sweet feast laid down in the garden of the meeting for the birthday celebration of My mother, the Virgin, I said that it comes quickly, it comes quickly the moment for every man on earth to remain in what he will have been found, and I want to remind you, My people, to let yourself be tested by the fruit of the Spirit so that you may be established well in them, and I want to remind you of the flame of the furnace in which the three young men, clean in their heart by their repentance for their entire nations, were saved from the fire, for I sent My angels, who appeared in glory, and thus shining with My image and likeness, and he blew coolness into the flame to protect from fire those who were punished by the unfaithful king of their time. This is how I want to protect those who let themselves into My hand, those who let Me to live in them with the fruit of the Spirit and to gather them together for their salvation, and to raise them for protection when the earth will receive the baptism with fire on it in order to cleanse it from the man's sin, as I cleansed the temple from merchants, when I grabbed the whip and took them out from the place consecrated to God, so that the place, known to be God's among all those on earth, may not be mocked by the devils. And I told them, for their strong protection, that which is from Me, and I told My disciples: «Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees, which is hypocrisy», (Matt. 16:6), for it is their work, their yeast. And I told them this to get them used, day by day, to a large place in them for the fruit of the Spirit and to protect those who were Mine, My witnesses and prophets of the Holy Spirit.

And to you, My children set by Me in the way of My word, when it comes to teach My obedient people, to you I speak in other way. I tell you this: be wise like serpents and gentle as doves and stay within the fruit of the Spirit, teaching children, and teach My people and put on the brake to any trace of darkness into the midst of My people, for the time is coming that everyone to remain where he will be found. Exhort everyone, and exhort them from near Me, not from near them, to become a dwelling place for the fruit of the Spirit and to walk spiritually before Me all the time, for I do not want to suffer from the disobedience of My people, but I want you to teach the people from Me, teaching children. Remind them from Me, not from them, that the works of the body are against the works of the Holy Spirit and they are hostile to one another, and I strengthen your living between Me and My people and tell him that he, who does not receive you, puts Me away and not you, and he, who speaks evil of you, speaks evil of God's law and is an enemy of the works of the Spirit of love and of its benefits. I am crushed within you with all My pain, and how much I would want that at least some of the people may take and bear pain from heaven, for you are small and you stay small before the people so that you may stay near it, and My pain of seven thousand years is great, children sons, and you are crushed under it, for the man is My house, and blessed is the one who knows to take Me in his house as Luke and Cleopas took Me, and then I remained in them and they in Me, for My grace caught fruit in them by their faith in Christ, the messenger of the Father, children sons.

My Mother, the Virgin, is coming down with her mercy, with her cover upon you, over your wounds, and she has always healed them and bound them, for there is no one on earth to do this and she tells you:

– I am the mother of the Son of the Father Sabaoth, and who is a mother does not know another comfort but he pain for God. I comfort you with it, children who carry my Son from the Father and to the ear of the people and to his heart, opening their hearts by His knocking at their door. Take the people, and sing with him painfully the song of my Son, a wonderer through the world full of sins, asking the heart of every man for His dwelling place and for its unlocked and not locked door, for the one who does not open his door for the Lord, that one lives in darkness with the things in him and he does not love the light and its wages and it does not become a son of the day, the first day among the days, when God made the light. Amen.

I am the mother of the Son of God Sabaoth and I have mercy on my Son, when I see Him so despised, and I have mercy on those who have given themselves over to Him to help Him knock at the gates of the hearts and who have mercy to no crush them, but they rather wait like my Son, the gentle and humble in heart, before the man locked in his own body.

Oh, people of godly mercy, my Son has told you to listen to His commands, and He has also told you to know them. Oh, open to Him and do not forget that He has told you that the one who believes in Him does no longer believe in man, and he believes in Him by the confession before Him and before the people, and it is believed through the prophets, for the Spirit of the Lord and the Lord Himself is through the prophets and He speaks to the man on earth, and this is how He stays near the man, and not as the man does not want to know that this is how the Lord stays near him. Amen.

And as for you, those under the hardship of the coming of this word, be wise like serpents, for great is the oppression for God and for you, and be gentle like doves and work like my Son and as He exhorts you, and do not seek to lead His people to a spirit of hypocrisy. Do not be afraid under the hardships and under the liana, do not be afraid, for the angel of the Lord does not let you alone, neither in the day time nor at night, but the day is hardly seen through the night, sons with your bosom crushed from the Lord's pain in you. I am a mother, and the mother comes out from pains and is being kept only in pains, and mother means nothing else.

Receive a table of word with the people, so fragile, and give it from the Spirit of the Lord in you. And You, Son of the Father's pains and of my pains after man, strengthen Your walking and Your way and blow power upon them for the people to learn the fruit of the Spirit, for against it there is no obstacle in heaven and on earth. Amen.

– Oh, mother, we give them a table of word, but let us also give them the life of My word in them, mother, for if My word does not receive life in them, we break those who are under the pain of My coming, mother.

Oh, My people, do not forget what you have just eaten, after you eat. Do not forget to call out aloud to God, but you should learn well to cry, for God and not for you, My people. The Holy prayer in man does not anything but for God in man, not for man, and that is why I want to teach you with the whole word of the day.

Oh, My people, I want to go through you with My word, but the most blessed thing for Me and for you is that it is you who should perceive it and to be able to work well and with light before the Lord God, the fruit of the Spirit, for against whose there is no obstacle, and there is no end, but it is God's waiting for the fruit in man, My people. Eat, Jerusalem that are called, eat of the fruit of the Spirit to know its taste and its work and its wages, but in order that you may eat of it, you should not forget to let the man know and to tell to yourself too, that the new wine is put in new wineskins to be preserved, to become wine, and that it might not be lost by having been put in old wineskins.

Oh, My people, let everything become new! Amen. Let everything be clean for My kingdom in man! Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Saint Martyr Demetrius<sup>181</sup>, the myrrh-streamer

I come in through the gates. Amen. I come in as the word of man's making, and I come into the book, and My book is the true book by which the man has to learn knowledge, for if the man has knowledge and has no life, then he is not a learned man, but is a man without a way, because I told him: «I am the way, the truth and the life, and who follows Me will not walk in the darkness, but he comes from death to life». Amen, amen, amen.

Peace to you from the Lord, the Teacher, children who watch in the way of My word when I come with it to grow and to keep My people awake, and let My peace, which I give you to strengthen you as My gates, let it always overflow from you over all My people which loves like you My coming and its coming to Me and to you, to the spring of the teaching and of the living with the heaven on earth, to the teaching of book, children sons. There is still a little time, and I will teach, from Me and from you, many who will gather around you, the commandment of the love of God and of one's neighbor, for to love God and one's neighbor is a great mystery and it is always mystery and always work of the heaven on earth by the man who loves God. However, now I glorify Myself with the saints and My word and theirs is a book and every man is to be taught according to it, the man who wants to know from God how to love God.

The man does not have to teach Me how to love him, but he has to let Me teach him how to love Me. The man loves himself and this is how he tries to love Me, for himself and not for Me, but I have spoken to him by My Gospel of two thousand years ago, that he who loves his life will lose it, and he who lose his life for Me, for God's preaching among the people, that one will have life, and he will have it in abundance, for life has been taught from God and not from man. Amen.

Oh, My people, that are so greatly nourished, so greatly taught by My word, by My Holy Spirit of life giving! I am the One Who comes to teach you and to put you in the school of knowledge. I and not you have set you before Me. I come to you to be the people taught by God and let the nations of the earth hear that I am into your midst as the Teacher of the world, only the people of this age to want it to hear the voice of the Son of God, for the spirit of the world keeps the man in his darkness and in his perdition from the people, and My Spirit is a spirit of life giving, and then it is the Holy Spirit the Comforter, as I called Him when I put Him in My apostles to be given over to those who love to believe from God all that I bring down on earth for the renewal of the world and for the life of the age to be on earth. Amen.

I have pain over pain from those who want to come under My teaching and do not know with their mind how to come down before Me, and My Spirit is Teacher, but it is not beautiful for the man's desire to be lectured or to lecture the man, for with God the faith of man is good and not something else; the faith which works as it worked in Abraham, who did not want to be lectured, but wanted to be a blameless believer in faith, without temptation, because the faith by temptation is taken from the man, and the man is written with those that are unfaithful, because the man who tempts in order to believe, that one does not love God and neither does he know the sacrifice by which the man proves himself as faithful as Abraham.

The man cannot steal when it is about faith for his life. The man cannot believe and to be counted to him as faith if he tempts for faith and I said: «The faith is not for all». He, who steals, hides inside and outside of him as far as those people concern because he does not want to be known that he steals. The one who deceives does the same, but the face of the man can be read in spite of its covering and the man who has My Spirit in him knows this work and works it so that I may be justified in the word and to be victorious when I speak and when I judge the man's deed, for the one who believes in this work of the word teaching over the man and does like him in him and in it, this work proves him out by its word, by what it is and by what the man is. The faithful one does not look to be lectured in order to believe, but he seeks to work by love and by teaching, and such like that does not lecture the man to make him believe in this coming of Mine, but believes before the people and is getting more and more perfect by the faith with the gift in it, the one with the teaching in it, because it belongs to those who teach by love to be in My image and after My likeness, and this is the true love of God in man. Amen, amen, amen.

— O, Lord, let those who come closer to this mountain by faith seek after this kind of love. Amen. Oh, Lord, from the group of the martyrs who earned a place near You and in You by faith, I speak to Your people having been waited for a long time by us, Your saints, who lost our life for Your life in us on earth and in heaven, and I speak to every man who calls himself faithful to God, and I say this: blessed are those who are clean in their hearts for they are also clean in their faith and they will see God, because this is how they believe. Amen.

I, Your disciple and then Your martyr, believe so and this is how I saw the fruits of my faith, of my clean heart for You, Lord. I put to shame those who were unfaithful to my God, for my love for You has brought forth faith in many, and then those people believed in me as in You, and those who believe without temptation bring their self under control and they overcome for Your glory before the people, Lord. When Nestor saw in me that I had You as wonderful as You are among the saints, he came and asked from me power of victory over Your enemies, and I gave him because I had, and I was generous with You and I was giving You to those who believed in my God, and he, humble in spirit and strong in his faith in You, my God, said this: "God of Demetrios, help me to defeat Your enemies!" Amen.

Oh, how wonderful is the faith and its works in those who believe firmly! Those who are faithful after grace and truth do not need to defeat their enemies, but they defeat Your enemies so that the faith in You may grow in people, and not the faith in those who believe in You, for they give their lives for the people to believe in You, that the faith in You may bring forth fruit in people, Lord, and that by it they may be able to do everything for You and not for them, and the saints near You cry, and they cry after the man with a faith like theirs. The saints who loved You with a faith stronger than death cry for You, because faith becomes love in saints and not love becomes faith in them. But humility comes before this, the humility which makes room for You in saints, Lord, and faith in You and then faithfulness to blood, and what can be a greater love than this in saints, Lord of those who are full of steadfastness for Your confession as a true God Who is on earth and in heaven and among saints, Lord? All those who lose the work of faith by their worries for life, they are small and are not as great as You are, they are not as great as You want them to be in You and You in them even if You said when You prayed to Your Father and of Your saints and You said: «Father, I want to be in them, and they in Me, for the world to know that You have sent Me».

Oh, Lord, so much deprived of man and of faith in man! The world has no way to know that You are the Father's messenger after the man if You do not have passionate witnesses and like You, gentle and humble in their heart especially before Your enemies and not theirs. Oh, Lord, Who cry with the saints waiting for the great resurrection, may Your will be done on earth! Amen. Make Your will come back in man, for the man without God in him cannot have greater enemies than he himself for him, than his will, which does not let Your will be set in him. May Your will be done on earth from now on! Amen. The time is at its end. Turn the man back to God's love and help him to believe like the saints, and then to love You by faith as it is written in the Scriptures about the saints who by faith loved You and sacrificed with love for the faith in You of those after them. Amen.

Oh, good Lord, You became a consuming flame in my little heart all the time of Your confession through me. This is how You should come down in those who divide you not separated from them, in those who confess You in them, and making You their God in them, visibly and invisibly, for the faith of those who see You in them as the way and the live of the people, Your way to the people and savior of those who mourn after redemption. Amen, amen, amen.

— I bless the love that comes from the faith of the saints who adorn My coming down to you as word, people from which the man has to learn knowledge from the Lord, the Teacher. Amen.

And now, in a day of feast of the saints in your midst, from heaven and down on earth, from earth and up into heaven, I, the Lord, Your God, I, Your protector and good helper, declare and say that I, by those who carry Me to you and you to Me with your power and weaknesses, take care of you as one Who is good, as the One Who can take care of you, for I have them as My word on the earth and I walk with them, and I have them for the strengthening of the foundation of many, My people, for by this work of word, shared by them on earth, I direct My blessings to you for you to remain My will and in debt for it, My people. Take care of those by whom I protect you and give to you with My help. Take care to love them for Me and for you and not for them, for I love them, because they love Me, and because they love you too and take care of you. I have always exhorted you not to be a people without any guidance between you and Me, for I cannot receive and know the man otherwise than according to My order. Amen.

And now, I bless by the word of the supplication for the coming of the Holy Spirit, Who sanctifies everything, I bless from heaven and from the earth, by the spoken word by those who are anointed in the garden of the word, the little ark (A car, r.n.) given to My people for a blessed use, and I say: It is blessed and it is sanctified by the coming, by the work and by the sprinkling with Holy Spirit and with water, the little ark that is now being given to you by the work of My word, which works out faith in those who give further on My behalf, and I set on it a strong angel, a watching angel and beneficent, on the great saint martyr Gheorghe<sup>182</sup>, the bearer of victory, and for the comfort of the feast of today I set together with him for the watching of this little ark and the one who is celebrated today, the one like the martyr Gheorghe, the great saint martyr Demetrios, the myrrh bearer, and may the fragrances of the saints always reward your faith, working as theirs in all of your time of preaching of My second coming back from the Father after the man. Amen.

I bless with My comforting Spirit those who love you because you are Mine. Exhort them with your sweet heart, working children and sharers of God, exhort those who love you and protect you for your work with Me, not being hindered by any kind of hardships on it, to have a pure sacrifice, to have a pure heart before Me and in them, for those with a pure heart will see God with them, how He will pull them out of fire, how He will remember them in times of hardships of those faithful on earth, and like the young men in the fiery furnace, He will protect them by My angel of fire, and who cools down all the fire on earth there where I have My protectors, for those who receive Me through you, they will receive the wages of a prophet, the reward as for those who are faithful to God. Amen.

Oh, children who share Me not being separated from you, listen with much faith My entire word to fulfill it and share Me over the earth taking your time for My testimony over the people, and then all that you need for My work with you will be added to you, for I am faithful by every word spoken by My mouth. Amen.

And as for you, faithful people, glorify Me as your King, and show yourselves with My kingdom in you. The one who wants My kingdom in him, that one becomes its dwelling place and becomes its confessor by its fruits, which comforts Me and not them, for the Holy Spirit, the Comforter gives Himself and does not separate Himself from those who have Him inside them as the fruit of their faith in Me, the One Who has sent Him from the Father on earth after the man to comfort the man, and then for the man to keep after his fragrance and for the man to become like Me, with a life giving spirit, with the gift of the Holy Spirit, Who sanctifies everything in man and for the man, so that I may have a dwelling place in man. Amen, amen, amen.

The synod of the holy archangels, Michael and Gabriel

Take heed, people of My word during these days, take heed at My word upon you, because from your midst I am the Teacher of the world, and you in its midst are the people from which the man has to acquire knowledge, for if the man has knowledge on earth and does not bring forth fruits for his eternity, then he is not a learned man, but he is a man without a way, for I am the way; I and not the man, and he, who follows Me will not walk in the darkness, but he passes forever from death to life, and, leaving the dark sin, he is sanctified and then understands that he cannot have greater enemies than he himself for him, than his will which does not let My will lie down in him. However, today I am coming down with great love of word, with solid food for the everlasting life of man, and in a chariot of cherubim and seraphim I go above accompanied by My angel, the archangel Michael, and near him, his companion, Gabriel, and near them, all who are the chiefs of the angels of the nine hosts of angels who serve Me, for the first host among the ten angelic hosts from the beginning of eternity, and then of creation, fell down from heaven by haughtiness and it has made war with God because of its falling down, because of its haughtiness, which does not let it raise its Creator above it, the Lord of the angels and of all rulers and dominions and the heavenly thrones, which serve God carrying Him in a chariot of angels and invisible glory, like the angels, who being without a body, cannot be seen but only by those who are heavenly, heavenly in heaven and on the earth, with body and without a body in heaven and on earth. Amen.

Oh, watching children in the way of the coming of My word on earth, open your hearts for My entrance into the book with the feast of the angels, children sons. Receive from the heavenly things My entire comfort for your hardship, for your burden under which you stay, for My coming as word on earth is a hard burden for you, and you are small and feeble under My glory, and My word, carried by you between heaven and earth, fills the whole world to renew it, because I wrote a Scripture which promises the new birth of the world, and then the life of the age to be on earth then, and few of those who are on earth truly yearn after the fulfilling of the Scriptures of My second coming on earth after the man, because in order that this desire may be according to the truth in man, the man would no longer cry on earth for him, and he would cry for Me, and I said that he who cry for his life in him, that one loses it and does not know to cry, and that one will look for him in his own self and he will find himself devoid of God, for the crying without mind is crying without God, even if the man believes in himself he cries after Me and seeks after Me. However, I tell him that humility does no longer cry in man, but that it makes Me and My love a dwelling place in man, for My kingdom in man is not the man with his love of Me and of his neighbor in him, but I, the Lord, am, with My love, which makes the man holy for My kingdom in him. Amen.

The humility in spirit searches out the man's heart to become in man a dwelling place of My glory, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and this is how I teach the man to pass from body into spirit, and I tell him that what I tell the man to do is not hard. I have told you, children who watch for Me and who stay in My heart to know which it will be and to hear its love for man, and I have told you that I will gather together many and we will teach them from Me and from you, the commandment for the love of God and of one's neighbor, for to love God and one's neighbor is a great, great mystery and its work on earth, and always, always a mystery and a work of the heaven on earth with the man, through the man who loves God, for the man does not have to teach Me how to love him, but he has to let Me teach him how to love Me, and that is why I said that those that are pure in their hearts are blessed, for they are also clean in their faith, and they will see God, because this is their faith and because they bring their self under control, and then they overcome for My glory before the people and they believe by defeating My enemies, not their enemies. Amen.

Oh, children sons, who bring Me down on earth by your faith in My Scriptures, and through Me, Who have found support in you! Tell those that are loved by Me and by you that We do not love the man because of his merits, but We love him that he may be saved, sons. Oh, if the man did not forget this, he would no longer become haughty, but he would bring his body under control and would know through the spirit the work of humility of spirit, and he would no longer bring his body under control by fasting from food and from sins, because there is no greater fasting like obedience to God, but who is to show the man this perfect way to Me, the One Who am the Teacher of the world and from Whom the whole world would be to get knowledge, and not from man, children who know God with My love in you? And that is why I will love you with all those who are Mine in heaven and on earth, and I will pour Myself out in you with My love to teach the man to love Me with My love in him and not with his love of Me, for the man, who confesses his love of God, makes Me suffer greatly, when he does not listen to the commandment of love, which speaks like this: «You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and then, you shall love your neighbor as yourself». (Matt. 22:37, 39)

Oh, children sons, who carry upon you the burden of My coming on earth as the Teacher of the world! If the man loved God with his entire heart, with his entire soul and with his entire mind and power, would he also have for himself from these? And of his things, really? Behold, in this basic commandment the body is of no use, for it is the spirit, which gives life, but the man does not have teachers upon him, teaching sons from Me over the man. I will lift you up over all the heights on earth with My teaching and I will renew the world with it, and I then I will bring on earth the life, which is to be after the resurrection of the dead, who hear My voice from their dwelling place made ready to listen to My commandment for their raising, for the fulfillment of the last Scriptures and which the people do not longer look in that I may give them wisdom to understand them, and then to believe in them with humility, for humility is greater than love. This is what the saints say, those who wait for My coming, and they say that the greatest truth in man is the humility of the mind and heart, for it wins the man over to God and it is now greater than love, for where it is not, My love cannot work in man and for man. Amen.

Oh, My people, I have surrounded you with all the angelic hosts, that it is the feast of God's angels. I have gathered around you many in the house of My meeting with the man, and near those who are within the body, stands the whole human kind mentioned today in your midst, the people from Adam and up to this day, and who have been waiting for My voice in your midst and for the mentioning of each name and according to his people. Oh, My people, the happiness of those who are remembered is limitless happiness and which does not come to the man's mind. There are many who have come down near you with Me from the bosom of the faithful Abraham, from the most beautiful place in the invisible heaven, and these feel greater happiness here where I spend time with you within My word, which has been shared over the earth for the renewal of the world and for the resurrection of the dead. Oh, blessed are those who listen to God's word and fulfill it with humility, with a gentle and humble spirit, which becomes paradise in man, paradise for God and for the saints, sons. Oh, you have to show My face in you to the people, because only in this way you can fulfill the great commandment, which says: «You shall love your neighbor as yourself»; only this way and not otherwise, sons.

Oh, if the man fulfilled God's commandment given to him, then he would become like God with his entire heart, with his entire soul and with his entire mind and power, and this is how he would be seen by his neighbor as his brother, and this is how the man would be confessing and bearer of the cross, by following Me.

Oh, My people, you should remember how I put the man to test, the man who says that he fulfills the commandments, which will be to comprise in them his love for Me and not in that one for he himself or for his glory and not Mine. When I tested the rich young man, who was fulfilling the commandments, I told him that if he wanted to be perfect he should deny himself and give what he had earned to the poor to have it as his treasure in heaven, and then to come and become My disciple, for only that way the man who loved God completely was able to become perfect in everything, and then he became sad and went away, for he had many riches. Behold, the man does not love God from with his entire soul, with his entire heart, with his entire mind and with his entire power. Behold, the man cannot deny himself to become My disciple, but I told My disciples who were afraid, when they saw Me speaking with the rich young man, for that what was not possible with the weak men within the perfect love was possible with God, Who takes care to prepare man's heart, and his souls and his mind and power to be able to give them all to God that the man may belong of God, but not to himself, for the body is of no use, and the man, poor of him, labors only for his body, forgetting about the eternity of his soul and body, which cannot be separated as the man would like to believe that it is possible when he is only flesh, poor of him.

The man knows nothing about the mystery of the love of his neighbor and about its work. The man does not know what to give to his neighbor, and does to his neighbor what he does to himself, for the man is only flesh like his neighbor whom the man helps in his needs, which these have nothing to do with the man's salvation and of his neighbor. The greatest truth in man is the humility of his mind and heart, for it wins the man over to God, and the man is consumed before Me, fulfilling with his whole heart, soul and mind and power the love of God in him, the love that burns in man. The man's love burns in man for man, but My love in him burns in man for Me and it wins the man over for perfect and eternal life, and eternal life means nothing else but God's love in man, the love which loves consuming the man, so that only God may remain and every man's neighbor to see God burning like fire in the one who lets himself to be My dwelling place in him. Amen.

Oh, there is no love of his neighbor but only in the man who loves God and likewise, and he loves his neighbor as himself, making this one see and love God from all of his things, which are not of the flesh, but from God and for God in man. Amen.

Humility of spirit makes the man a dwelling place of My glory among people and the man becomes like Me, gentle and humble in his heart, obedient and fulfilling My entire word, which is the life and the light of the people. Amen.

Oh, the saints and the angels and those who wait for the resurrection stand in groups and groups, and all these stand in amazement, and happier than in the paradise of the heavenly delights stand all those now here with you within their happiness, which is My word, My feast on earth with the Father, with the saints and with the angels, children sons, who give Me to the heaven and to the earth as word, for I promised that I would give Myself with the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, and with Him I would make all things new, I would cleanse them, I would give them light and I would change them in glory and incorruptibility, sons who are sharers of God.

The angels let their voices upon you and speak to you this:

– Glory to God in the highest and beneath on earth as in heaven, and peace from God on the people and not as the world devoid of life gives to the man, the world which does not see us, God's angels, because we are in the Lord, the One Who is invisible. Amen.

Love the life with angels, people of God's mercy! Call us to make you perfect in love such as ours, for in one voice and one word we speak the word, in the presence of the chief angel on us, Michael the archangel, who commanded us to listen to the Lord and not to the man, and let us work from Him for the man.

Love the most perfect fasting, you, those who live on earth, for the most loved fasting before the Lord is obedience to Him, obedience to His love, which teaches every man to love God within the whole fruit of the Spirit and with them to love his neighbor, becoming a way for him to God, the light on the way and taste of the life with God in man. Amen.

Let us stay with reverence and awe and be attentive with love, Lord, to Your word of life giving, and of resurrection over those who sleep in the dust of the earth and who have been waiting for the holly candle in the hand of those who remember them before You with a pure heart, for those with a pure heart are those who have pure faith and which is fulfilled by its fruits, by its miracles, which mean God, the Wonderful One within His saints. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Lord of mercy and of endurance; come with the day of endless resurrection, when the curtain, which separates the two worlds, will fall! This is how we pray to You, those who wait for last candle of the great resurrection, the little hand which will strike the light for the last time for the candle, which, from Your hand, will share the light of the endless Passover of those who wait for You with a prolonged sigh, with Your great day for us, Lord, Who have the keys where we wait for You and when You will speak gently and sweetly: "Come outside! Come and receive light and come to life through it and by the word of resurrection!" Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, this is what I will do, for great is the faith which stands before Me, for all of these accomplishments. Amen.

Oh, children sons who have opened the heaven in order that I may flow like a river as word on earth, great is your faith, and it has been spread from margins to margins and I will add to it, but you should remain within the humility of spirit, which makes a dwelling place for Me and comfort those who wait for Me and grow them small and gentle and humble in their heart, those who promised to listen to God. Humble yourselves like Me and for those who are poor in spirit and for those who are rich in their spirit, but bring them also to the humility of spirit without which My love cannot work in man.

Give glory to the day of memorial of the angels, sons, and blessed be the day of the celebration of victory by the cross of the appearance of the ark of the Holy of Holies, which was set between earth and heaven thirteen years ago with a great victory upon My enemies, who do not love My mysteries. However, you have overcome with Me, by bringing your own self under control for My name, and now we are within a feast after thirteen years from the fulfilling of the prophecies for the mystery of New Jerusalem over the earth. Amen.

I come down within the spirit of the glory of My word upon you, over those who have come together to the spring of life with longing and spirit. The chiefs of the angelic hosts have myrrh from Me for the foreheads of those who love God coming and listening to His word to be made perfect by it. Amen.

Peace to you! And let those who love Me as I have been teaching the man the commandment of love, receive of My peace from you. Amen.

May your food set before Me for its blessing be blessed, for the table of memorial of the angels and of the saints and of those who wait for the light of the resurrection. Amen.

And to you, those who have been laboring, I give you My peace. Receive from it, receive from it, receive from it! Give to each other from it, and all those who are close to you will see that you know how to love God with your entire heart, with your entire mind and with your entire power, teaching by this all the nations of the earth the commandment of the love of God. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Church Entrance of the Lord's Mother

My longing for the man would try to keep Me calling out on and on over the earth, to make the man hear Me and not to wait to see Me and only then to believe that I miss him. But the one who believes, takes from the smallest seed sown from My mouth on the soil, for this is possible only by longing, and only in this way the love of God grows in man, and the longing is born out of repentance and the repentance is the way of the man to God. Amen, amen, amen.

My voice becomes word and it works out a day of feast for My mother, the Virgin, who like a child became a kingdom of the heavens, for he who does not become or does not remain a child within his life and within his obedience to God, Who is Father, that one cannot find the good taste of the kingdom of the heavens, which has its dwelling place in man, children who bring Me as word from heaven to the man's heart. The man's heart is the door, where I have been waiting for seven thousand years, because for God, the man needs love with longing so that he may not make God wait for his closed heart, in which God wants to come with His kingdom and with its riches for which the Lord does not have any reward for the man, but He asks for the man's heart instead, children sons.

My word, which is not fulfilled by the one who hears it, is God Who waits at the closed heart on the inside of the man, for the cold heart for God is closed, and I do not like to dwell in the coldness of the man, and I like to dwell in the man when the man is warm with Me, fulfilling Me and serving Me in him. Amen.

It is a feast for My mother, who was a little child in her heart, in her faith and in her love, who waits in the threshold as only little children understand to stay like that. He, who is a child is the one who waits for the true comfort, and the one who is a mature man does not know the true joy, for the joy is born out of faith, and the faith dedicated to God becomes waiting, it becomes longing, and the man grows by longing, and the longing is born out of repentance and it needs comfort, and that is why it teaches the man the way to God, to the spring of comfort. Amen.

I, the Lord of comfort, was born in the heart of My mother by her longing of God. And her life was only longing after Me until she gave Me birth as Man on earth. She had been feeding herself on longing, and the longing became in her as much as God and it had dwelt in her with its entire fruit, with its entire beauties. Oh, My love grows in man only by longing, for the man to give Me afterwards, and the longing is born out of repentance, and then the man makes a way for God to him, and the man becomes a kingdom of the Lord. My kingdom in man was My mother, the Virgin, and she remained a child for My kingdom, and she remained obedient as only the dear children listen, rejoicing over the gifts of their childhood.

Oh, My people, I said that the one who does not receive the kingdom of the heavens as a child, that one is not worthy of it, that one does not remain a child and does not repent from this sin in such a way that I may not stand at his door to come in. No one is able to know that I wait at his door if he does not repent so that he may long after Me and to come out of himself and find Me waiting at this door and to become a child by repentance, and then to give himself as God's kingdom. The one who is My kingdom on earth, that one is a child, children sons, and I want to teach every man the mystery, which makes him open his heart for the kingdom of the heavens, which becomes longing and joy in man, and then the man becomes like God, because I have always listened to My Father and I have always been a child and always a kingdom of the Father. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Son, Who stay at the door of heart waiting! Oh, how happy are the little children, child Son and perfect God through the Father, Who dwells in You! Oh, happy are those who have You, for they stay as little children and that is why You have Your kingdom in them. I have wanted You with longing as a child, and I stayed as a child waiting for You to come, and when You came, I obeyed and I did according to God's word spoken by angels and I became Your kingdom and

Your will and Your heaven and earth, and this is how I sanctified You in my body, in my little heart of a child.

The one who enters into the kingdom of God is the one who becomes its dwelling place, and I was a true child, Lord of those who are small. Those, who gave me birth in the body, also gave me to You as a dwelling place, and then I obeyed and listened to my parents whom You gave to me, and I loved them so much, for they were Your kingdom, Lord, and they grew me up with it and they grew me for You. However, I remained a little child in submission and in love, for great is with You the one who remains a little child by obedience with love and faith, for these great and heavenly works.

Oh, the great man is troubled within himself, and as for me, even in the time of Your painful passions, which were also mine, I was not troubled, but I waited with patience like a child for the salvation and for its holy tabernacle. I had waited for You to come to life, for You were the One without death and You were the salvation of those who had been waiting for You as their Savior by Your death and resurrection, and like any children, they believed and knew everything from Your Holy Spirit, Who knows everything and hopes for them with faith, like the little children who are not afraid when they have protectors, when they live like little children to have a protector. I want to teach Your people again the mystery of the child and its entire work full of rest and full of heavenly gifts on earth, and that every man may receive from our word, which is building of man, child Son of the Father and mine, and of all those who make You grow in them as You were and as You are, for nobody is able to become God by grace, a godly dwelling place, if he does not believe with longing and humility, if he does not remain small for the heavenly greatness to dwell in him, which come down to those who live as little children for You, for You to live in them, and for them to remain small, Lord of the living ones. Amen.

Oh, let us give them the blessing for their food for being and let us take them again on the arms of the teaching of the eternal life, child Son of the Father and mine, and let them understand deeper and deeper that the mystery of the child is the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens in man, for them to grow small and to be Your children, as You are the child of the Father and mine, child Son, Who became an example for those who have believed that only by longing the love of God has been able to grow in man, only by the work of the longing, which consumes the man, for You to remain in him with Your kingdom, which is the man's life, the mystery of life, child Son. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, what a sweet spirit of a child you have got, mother! I want to stay sweetly in those who, by repentance and humility, work in them before Me the mystery and the work of the child-son! I have those who have become My bridge to man, and I have them as My dwelling place among people, and how much I would pass through them to man if the man loved to become a child, mother. I would flow with the word of My mouth through them and I would make the heaven from earth, and I would make the man a little angel, mother, as you were when My angel found you in submission to him for the mystery of My birth of your virgin body, and I would feed the man with the word as I had fed you by the angel, for you were good, and this is how you stayed as My kingdom among people until it was discovered in all its glory by your Son, the Son of your humility before the Father and of His angels, oh, child-mother! May your people and Mine be blessed, and may it be a child, for My kingdom is in the little ones, and it lives with them. And we will set down again in the book with your feast of today for you to grow Me in them, mother, to grow them for Me and for them to know to grow small, for the kingdom of the heavens to be for them, and they for it, mother. Amen, amen, amen.

*

Oh, My people, My kingdom is with those who are small, for the great ones do not know what it is. Oh, My people, blessed is the one who has the day of his making by God over his heart. Whoever did not let himself be forgiven by God, when God called him, that one did not know what love was, because first of all the man has to feel God's love, his making by God, and then even if that one falls and is hurt, he can stand up again, but only if he lived the day of love, only if he has written the first love on his life, God's making when God forgave him with love, after the man revealed himself before Him, for if the man does not reveal himself to God for the Lord to forgive all the evil things he has done, he cannot let himself be made by God, Who makes the man like Him after the man reveals himself completely to God, and only after the man can be loved by God, for in order that the man may be loved, he also has to be worthy of love, for love means God, because it is the man who has to love God and not the man, because God is the One Who forgives the man's sins to make the man again, and the making is a big thing; it is not only forgiveness and that is all, for as the fruit tree is known by its fruits that he brings forth, the same is with the man; he is known, what kind of man he is, by what kind of works he does.

Oh, blessed is the one who comes to resurrection, to the first love, to the day of his happiness made by God and not by his love of God! It is one thing for the man to serve the man with his love of God, and it is another thing for the man to serve the man with God's love in him, the love, which does not require usury, because then the man serves the Lord and not the man, and he works as for God by not demanding anything, and in this way the man's neighbor can see his love of God loving in man. Amen.

Oh, My people, oh sons, build each other with God then when you come together for building up, and come together to be built, because the making from God upon man is a great work, and it is not just forgiving and that is all, and rather it is known by the fruits, as the fruit tree is known by its fruits, and it is known after the spirit, which is in man. The spirit in man is known either if the man lets himself be made or not, and this is how it is known if he has the day of his making by God upon him.

I told you long ago with great longing and with great love, children of My people, that I want to make you princes and princesses, kings and queens, a royal priesthood, to take after God's people, and to have hearts like His, like His sons', God's nature, His behavior, to prove yourselves that you are of royal people, with refinement in your behavior, in feeling and in speaking, and I did not want to tell you anything else than when I said what I wanted to do with you, so that you may prove that you are a royal people from inside of you and that you may also prove that you have such behavior and honor among people. I have told you this with great longing and great love, that when you come together for joy, that it may be for you a greater building through the teaching you eat from, and to be the glory of My name, a visible glory in heaven and on earth, and as in heaven to be so on earth, sons. I have been teaching you by the sons through whom I let My word and My teaching upon you to pass, and I have been teaching you that there should not be delights among you, but that it should be only one love among you, so that you may be one, and to act as one, sons. I have taught you that your love should be your food and rest and watch for it, for without it there is no power for Me among you; but on the contrary, quarrels of words try to take place among you, and these spoil the spirit of love. You have to lift up the word love, for it is a great mystery, and I give Myself with it to you with My Body and Blood to your life, for My mystery among you, My younger brothers. Oh, you should not walk carelessly with regard to this mystery, for I work with it to your making, to the making of the one who wants to be made, and I cry with it for the one who does not want to be made with My making. Oh, sons, when life is made from Me in man, it has manhood, and especially through hardships, and in whoever it may live, it does not betray the One Who made it in man, but it always die in order that it may live, because love has nothing in common with cowardice, which would try to put on it even the garment of humility.

Oh, how beautiful is with Me the assembly of the humble ones, which the saints compare to the assembly of the seraphim, sons! Oh, how much the apostle Paul had learned from Me, the last one called for the building of My church! He let himself be made by Me in one moment when I called him, and he lived fully the day of his making from Me, and he had remained in it, in his first love, and that day had not been separated from him, and neither he from it, and I, the Lord, gave him a greater grace, and grace upon grace I had given him everywhere he was building Me or everywhere he was building the church for My kingdom, breaking down the kingdom of the world from man to replace it with the kingdom, which was not of this world, and for which the man has to become a child. Amen.

Oh, My people, the greatest teacher for life is the child, around whom with all love come father, mother, brothers, relatives and all those who see him as a beautiful and a dear child, as an attractive child, as Paul, My apostle was, before whom rulers and kings bowed, ready-ready to receive his testimony about My kingdom, which was not of this world and which was above it.

I said that whoever will not receive My kingdom like a child will not be able to enter into it. He, who does not taste of it, cannot be with it. He, who does not taste of the child spirit, has not got any kind of desire after this mystery, which means child-man. And now, I say that he who does not receive Me like a child, as I was born and as I grew up, that one will not be able to be a child, but he will remain a grown up man, who does not know what the mystery of the childhood is, the mystery of life and of its taste. I suffer after every man, and My pain pushes Me to call out after the man, for I suffer from him, and he does not know My sufferance from him.

Oh man, oh man, oh man who have come out of the man and have got no making from God and love from Him! You do not have because you have delights, you have got many delights, and they are of this world, and they look like it. Oh, you do not know how to measure your love, which you say or feel that you have for Me. Oh, what will you do, when I, the Lord, will show it to you, how it was when I show it to you, how you have had him in your heart, the one near you, who you say that you love him, the one whom you have set in you for his pain, for his shaking, when you will see these? What will you do when I show you how much you loved you, how much you have held your sight dear, as a priceless gift for those around you, and for which you suffered and were far away from the love for the one near you, and this for the love of you, which you are not able to know as long as you do not look at yourself, but you only see what is before you?

Oh, My people, the man cannot understand the love of his self, poor of him, and to understand it and to see it, for the man cannot look at himself, but only at what is before him and on the sides.

Oh, man, what will you do, when I, the Lord, on My coming I will show you how much of a child you were supposed to be regarding the greatness, which you will see that is made ready for those who have been flexible for My kingdom in them, for those who have learned from My making upon them to remain small so that I may be their counselor and their maker with My scolding or with My love? Oh, man, the love, which you want, is not made out of the love from those around you. You should be the love to have it and you have to receive it from Me and then to give if further, so that it may be multiplied, because the one who gives himself, that one has and that one is as I am, and I cannot speak otherwise: «I am Who I am», and I need to have, and I need to have you, man, because I gave Myself for you completely, for your deification, and I have children-sons near you through whom I exhort you. Amen.

Oh, children of My people, you should be careful, for I gave Myself for you and I gave Myself completely so that I may know you by this, that you are born of Me, of My Body and Blood, so that you may no longer remain born of your parents' body and blood from which you have your body, and you should rather give My teaching that is upon you to the sons of the people, for them to learn from you their birth from God, for your word has to be great, if I have always feed you on the spirit of My word.

Oh, I have been teaching you, My people, not to stay without Me near you, so that the devil may not find you alone, son. I have been teaching you not to receive praise from the people, praise from the devil, so that you may not lose the one from Me and which wait, either to exalt you or to judge you, if you do not have any power to know when you receive praise from the people, when I am not near you to speak always to you and to be always alive and with your life not being attacked by those who are without any life in them. The spirit of the child is your only escape, and you will take after My mother, the Virgin through it, and through it you will do the work of My birth in you, and from you over the entire creature afterwards, son born of My Body and Blood. If you try to flee from this work and from My dwelling places, I would be the One Who would bring you to give an account here before Me, because you cannot deny Me, you cannot deceive Me, you cannot betray Me, you cannot leave Me, you cannot hide so that you may not be Mine, for the world would throw you back for My great sign on you. However, I give you the spirit of the child as your only salvation, and through it to take after Me in your obedience to God, and to take after My mother, of whose body and blood I was born, a Man full of grace and truth, for I was promised by the Father to come from heaven on earth and to pay with My life laid down on the cross, which the man has lost it, his life from God and its new making in man by My word from the end of the time, the one of today, My people, and then by My Body and Blood given to the man to remain born in man and grown by the man in his inside and that the world may be able to see God in man, dwelling and working, for the man was made to be a temple for God. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Lord, Son, who can be among people as much of a child as You were? Being the child of the Father, His only child, born of the Father, You became then the child of the man, the most childish among all those who have been born. There has never been a more childish man as You were and there will never be, child Son born of the heaven and from the earth, and then in submission as the most childish child among the children. Oh, only if this mystery of child were to touch all the sons of the people of Your word, in order to be love and not delights in it, for love is one thing and it is God and not man, child Son and perfect God. Amen.

Oh, this is how you have to do and to be, people born of the Body and Blood of my Son, Who is the Son of the Father Sabaoth. Oh, this is how you are to love, and this is how you are to know the love, the highest of the mysteries of God. Amen.

My Son has taught you to become a child. He has shown you how, by His life of the child of the Father and mine and yours, for He, as a child and as a sacrificed child, gives Himself to you in obedience, to teach you what the obedience and its love are, which gives birth to sons for Him, a people born of God, Who came down from heaven and became Man to give birth to you from heaven, and that you may not be from the earth and earth, but to be a son of God, and to be God by grace, as Paul, the apostle, was, who worked like God, after he wanted to become a child born of God by the spirit and by the gift of the prophecy, which means God with the people on earth. Amen.

And as for You, child Son, the Lord of all nature, You should be a great hope in Your sons, who carry You and who love You with longing and obedience of sons, and the people will worship them in Your name, for great and wonderful is Your name on their head, Lord and child of the Father and mine, of those who make You grow in them as all those who have dedicated themselves to You with their life and with its fruits among the sons of the people, from the beginning and to the end of the time. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My sweet mother, if we always teach and exhort them, they will always feel the undeniable taste of the humility of spirit and they will no longer give away their spirit of child, and they will bring around them the heaven and the earth, mother, as close as the dear children, beautiful and dear, and they will be the temple of the heavenly works, as you also were My house of coming down on earth, after that as a child, you submitted and the Father worked you mysteriously for your glory and Mine, and of those who, like you, have been in a submission of the child spirit, in such a way that I have been able to dwell in them with the glory of My kingdom, mother. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of thirteen years after the consecration of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

My Holy Spirit is full of humility when He becomes word over the earth and over man, for I, the Lord, want to draw the man to those from above, to the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who has nothing human in Him, nothing of the flesh, even if he bows to the man to make of his body and in his body the joy of the Holy Spirit, a heavenly joy, a heaven of saints and angels, coming down in man for the work of Holy Spirit, the Spirit full of humility, that He may do My will on earth as He does in heaven. Amen, amen, amen.

Within My spirit of humility, I become a feast in your midst, My people, and I bow, as a God of humility of spirit to My holy dwelling place, to the little garden of My word, which the saints and the angels remember for its celebration of sealing with the heavenly law, and in its midst I write My word of these days, the word which comes down above it with the power of My humility of spirit, My people, and you who stay as My gates, when I come as word in order to give Me further on earth, for the human kind to know that I come coming and speaking, and when I come, the heaven and the earth rejoice over their renewal from My word, of their making, the same as in the beginning, it was the joy of creation. Amen.

Oh, take Me to the heart of My people, children from the gates and those who stay before Me and before My people with your spirit full of humility and bowing to draw him to those from above, to the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who has nothing from humans in Him, nothing of the flesh, even if He bows to the man. Bear Me with a humble spirit, and in the same way give yourselves to My people with the word from Me. Amen.

Oh, if could make the man to let Me dwell in him as I am, he could see the power of his being worked from Me in him, and then My power in his word full of humility. I have always, always said that the most beautiful spirit is the spirit of humility, which makes the man beautiful, for such a man, always stays with his window open, with his window open for everything that makes him beautiful.

Oh, sons, who have ears to hear My word, you should tell everyone that the greatest love is for us to tell the man where he goes wrong. You should tell everyone that I have not come on earth to be the man's enemy by not telling him where he goes wrong, as the devil does, and as the man who is not a good friend to the man. However, if I did not tell the man where he has gone wrong, I would be his enemy, but Father has sent Me after the man to fulfill and to make perfect the law of the heavenly law from God to man, and if the man receives God, that one does not do as Adam did, who did not receive Me, like Israel, who did not want to remain in My Spirit, in the spirit of obedience, like the Pharisees and the scribes, who have always, always been standing against My word, which has been working at their heart to clean it from the human and fleshly things, from those that do not give life to God in man, and if I did not tell the man his mistakes, I would be then his enemy.

Oh, how beautiful is the man who makes peace between God and man, children who have listened to stay before My word when it comes to the man in order to make him! Oh, how beautiful is the man who has this love in him! Oh, how beautiful were the saints who had beautiful disciples by the spirit of humility, beautiful by the spirit of obedience and faith! Without the spirit of faith, the man is him, and he is ugly and he works ugly, children sons. Oh, how beautiful is the man who hears the voice of My word and believes in him and learns from Me with the humble spirit of the working faith by love! Oh, children full of My love for the man, how good it would be for My people that hears My voice, to know more and more beautifully how to take part with its entire being to its joys with Me, for My joys are something else than those who remain joys on earth, but the man does not look for eternal joys, and he does not know how much I have missed to be able to take part at his joys as well, for his joys to take after My joys, and that they may mean God and not man. Oh, how much I long for the man to take part in My joys, with their heavenly taste and that they may have authority over man to make him as beautiful as God, children full of My love for man! Oh, I have you into the midst of My people, as vessels of My love for man, and I have great mercy, because you need joys and your joys cannot be others than to do be beautiful disciples of My word full of humility, to teach them the spirit of obedience and faith, the spirit, which turns the man into a child, for he who is not a child-man before Me and before you, that I may see this through your eyes and through your heart, that one is a man from man, a man born from beneath and not from above, a man who stays and lives in the things that are beneath, a man who does not know what the love from above is, which is being born as a child in man, as it was born in My mother, the Virgin, who was born out of the love from above and has remained in her and beautiful like her, like a child of the love from above. Amen.

It is a feast with love in it, with My Spirit full of humility in it, for I have sanctified, within a great humility on earth in My days with you, the place and the shrine of the Holy of Holies in these days on earth. It is the feast of the day and of the year 7500 from the creation of the world, when I, the Master of all nature, fulfilled the Scripture of the coming down of the mystery of new Jerusalem on the Romanian land, as many saints have prophesied from the Holy Spirit for these days of My coming with the new birth of all the nature in the end of the time. (See the note from the end, r.n.)

The entire heaven, which keeps Me above, the entire heaven of saints and angels and of the heavenly powers worship and worship Me to the Father for My victory over the earth, now, in the end of the time. The Father bows and kisses you as children once with this celebration mentioned today, and he brings near you the feast and that day, which had here the one who testified about the work of My word and about its holy shrine, (Or monstration, tr.n.) the bishop John-Irineu, who bowed his head before Me to fulfill this Scripture of new Jerusalem on the Romanian land, and then he bowed his head again before those who oppressed him because he fulfilled My word within a spirit of faith and obedience like a child-son loving of God. I bring him hear within the spirit and I bring him into your sight with the day of that time, and then I kiss him as a child, and I kiss you too, and then I strengthen him within the patience that he has got, for patience is the gift of those who are holy to the end, and it does not belong to everyone. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, I have suffered a godly pain this day, I have been suffering when I see the antichrist how he has been struggling to bring down under his knees the country of brightness, to bring the Romanian land under his power, but I, the Lord, will make him kneel down soon, soon, for this land belongs to the Lord and not to the man, and I will take it back and I will make My will of it and from it. Amen.

Oh, Romanian people, stay to learn My will before Me. Get out from the bondage of the man and come into My way, for I come into your way to save you. I give you My Holy Spirit to be refreshed within Him, for you cannot be yours if you stay on a land chosen by God. Soon, soon, I will take you out from this bondage and you will see My hand above you, and then you will glorify Me, because you have the sign of the apostleship on your forehead, for you were My first one marked among My disciples of two thousand years ago. My apostle Andrew seals you today too with a spirit of manhood to wake up if you want, or today is a day of mourning on the Romanian land. The sons of the devil<sup>183</sup> struggle to bring under their control this land that was sanctified by My word of two thousand years ago and by the one of today, but they will no longer have many days, for My glory will come down on earth with wrath to cleanse the iniquity from it and all its servants. Amen.

It is a day of mourning in heaven and on the Romanian land, but I have ordained for the people on it a day of revival, a day for the cleansing of the unbelief, and I have also ordained to him illumination and victory upon the devil, the cross. Amen.

Oh, children, who stay only eyes and ears to Me and to My word! I am consumed with pain for the Romanian land in whose midst I have you as the light of the world. Share My pain and My light over the earth. How the greater is My joy for the memorial of My victory through you on the earth, the greater is My pain that the devil brings on Me in this day, by his struggle to win over for himself the land of My choice, but he will soon know that his place is the crying and the gnashing of teeth and that the place of the Lord's glory is the land which he tries again to take under his control today. However, I will destroy him soon, soon, him and all his servants, for the time now is Mine and not his, and I will exhort many to the life of the age that is to be and I will pull them from the deceitfulness of the man's age, and these will receive power and they will love the heaven on earth and the earth will listen to the heaven, and the people on it will see God and will serve Him. Amen.

Oh, My people, pray in obedience, pray with fasting, and do not forget that the most perfect fasting together with the prayer is love in obedience to God. I have got children-sons into your midst. Listen to them, for they need comfort, they need joys, and their joys cannot be anything by the beautiful children of My word full of humility and who teaches them the spirit of faith and then the spirit of obedience, the spirit, which makes the man into a beautiful child. Listen to them, My people, for it is not good for them to listen to you, but it is good to be faithful, to have faithfulness, to have thankfulness, to have satisfaction with obedience and to learn, My people, the spirit of humility. I have in your midst those who humble themselves for you. Look at them and do not be big, but rather be smaller than them, for there is no disciple greater than his teacher, My people. If you want to be written as a disciple, you should be as small as they are, and you should not be greater than them, before them and before Me, and you should not be greater than them, for they need joys, they need My love in disciples, and the heaven in them needs disciples with My love in them, My people. Oh, I am the God of patience and of comfort for those who are small, and for those who are great in their spirit I am the God of justice and I am the Lord of humility, for the man to learn from Me the beauty of godly love and to be nourished with it. Amen.

Oh, children who stay in submission for the coming of My word, I set you as preachers on My behalf over those who want to grow and I teach you this way: subject yourselves to those who are not in submission, for those who do not love do not subject themselves, but I am in you the God of the heavenly wisdom, the God of patience and of comfort, and I will comfort you. Honor the heavenly building over those who do not have the spirit of submission, to heal those who hear My word from you, to heal them from any sign of haughtiness, of self-spirit, children sons, and seek with all diligence that the time for those that are needed to the body may no longer exceed those needed to the spirit, which sighs to Me from you and from all those who yearn in them after the heavenly things among brothers. I want that the people of My word to be My feast, My wedding hall, the place of My glory, which the saints and the angels may see and rejoice over My glory from My people. Rejoice and cry with those who are like you, either joyful or mourning, for I am your joy, and your crying are those who did not want to be so small that I may have room in them for your joy, which gives you power to stand before Me and before My people for the heavenly fruit between earth and heaven. Amen.

I have room in the little ones, for I am the Lord of humility. My humility is My glory. The humility of spirit may be with you, My people, and let this glory please Me into your midst, for I have to be the Teacher into your midst over the sons of the people who have come to the water of life, and then by their cleansing, they have come to life. Amen.

I want to appear on the earth from your midst with My image and My likeness, My people, and the spirit of faith, of obedience and of the humility of spirit will help you to do My will, when with longing you will want to be like God. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Saint hierarch Nicholas

My coming to you is only humility, My people, for I pull Myself out with the word from the bosoms of the Father to feed you, and you should value this mercy of My coming down as the saints, who first had a body, also valued it on earth and then in heaven, and they have humbled themselves before Me to come with them, for I have My dwelling place in the bosom of the Father, and I humble Myself for My saints, who wait for a long time the days of My glory, the days of My glory with them on earth as word to make the man into My image and after My likeness. Amen.

Oh, sons from the gates, stand up and watch for the entrance of My word to My people and yours, for the saints want with a great longing for Me to become a man in My image and after My likeness on earth, to rest in him with My saints, and then to make new heavens and new earth in which the Lord and His righteous people may dwell, who become a dwelling place of the Lord's peace, the Lord's glory on earth, the heaven kept by the Lord's angels who opens. Be the Lord's coming down, children sons, and make Me rest in you by having heavenly hearts in you, to be able to pass to the people of My word, which has got help all the time for wakefulness for the Lord to dwell in the man in His image and after His likeness. Amen.

Oh, the heaven of saints is in tears after the man, because the man no longer expected Me to come, but I want even more than that to do it. I want to become known to the man and to do this with love and admonishing. I want to do it with love for those who looking into My word see Me in it and always wait for Me watching, and I want to do it by rebuking those who hearing do not hear and seeing do not see My victory and My glory on the earth with little crowns for the saints and for all those who by hearing hear and seeing they see that the Lord comes coming and fulfilling His Scriptures spoken by the prophets, and then by His own voice. Amen.

I, the Lord, speak from heaven on earth for the man to hear My voice, and with repentance and humility to see Me speaking and to see Me within the word, to see Me that I come coming and that I am He Who fulfills. Amen. I, the Lord, make new heavens and new earth without the man having believed that I do this, for the man is slow in believing and forgets that everything what is not possible with man is possible with God, because it is written for Me to come and to make new heavens and new earth and that I have chosen the country from the end of the time, where I come and fulfill what I said to be, and it will be. Amen.

Oh, I do no longer stay within word upon you, My people, but I come towards you and I touch your heart and I bring you news that you have to pray to God always and to remind Him of His plans, asking from Him to fulfill them over the earth by the Romanian land, asking from the Lord for the man's returning to the faith full of grace, and then to see the things that are not seen and of those who come into view by the word of the Lord. Amen, amen, amen.

– Your word, Lord, is a consuming fire, and there is not any obstacle on earth to stop You or not to see that You will soon fulfill Yourself in man in Your image and after You likeness, for it is written: «I will come to the man and I will dine with him and I will make a house at him and I will appear to him». Amen.

I, Your bishop, Nicholas, come down as word within the mercy of Your coming with the saints until this mercy with a calling in it will be seen by all the eyes on the earth, for it is written: «Every eye shall see this». I exhort the sons of Your people to be the sons of prayer with faith in it, for they have to ask from You to fulfill the Scriptures of Your coming completely when all the nations from the earth will worship it, for it will come with a great terror before Your glory, for You come coming and fulfilling, and Your angels serve You, Lord, and those, who receive You with Your word when You come to give it on the earth in order that it may be fulfilled, will serve You. Amen.

Oh, people of the faith of the coming of the Son of God with the clouds, you should be faithful and you should let yourself be adorned by angels and by saints for the coming of the Lord, for you are the one who set the table for the saints, you are the one who puts on the table of those of the Lord, for Him and for His saints, to stay with the heaven at the table, and to stay on earth, for it is on earth that the Lord has always been spreading the wedding table; on the Romanian land, which has been set as a table of the Lord's wedding into the midst of the nations on the earth, and on the table the Lord's word, and every man will eat of this word before any other food, and no one will be able to be, but only the one who will eat every word, which comes out from God. Amen.

Oh, Lord, You have chosen them as You have chosen me. Oh, You have revealed Yourself with them and You have called first those who were last of Yours, the first on the earth, and, those on the earth do not know that no one except them are rulers on Your behalf over the earth. Together with them You rule over everything by Your word, which You speak into their midst by Your gates, by those who are Your little ones, who watch for the word of Your coming, and You come as word into the Romanian people and glorify it for Your election from its midst, for Your people in him, which stands before You, with its body and soul, and those from Your gates between heaven and earth stand only eyes and ears, and sets You as word on the earth, so that You may be able to fulfill it afterwards. Amen.

Oh, here it is how You are their illumination and their Savior, their helper, so that they may not be afraid and to be able to see that one thousand, and thousands of thousands fall on their right and on their left, and no one will touch them and they will see the falling of Your enemies, Lord, because they have taken You as their Savior and their salvation, and You will command Your angels for them, for they will have You as their God, Lord, as You also was ours when we carried You on earth, and You exalted us with Your greatness from You and not from man, Lord. And now, for You and for us, exalt Yourself over them and in them for the nations to see and kneel down before You, for them to see, Lord, that You are the God of the ages. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, My bishop, I have chosen you by My will full of mystery and no one on earth has stood against My choice that I have upon you, and they have received you and you have shepherded My sheep with mercy and help. This is how I establish you into the midst of those who are My little ones too, and this is how you are supposed to help them with your gifts, for they are small on earth and that is why I, the Lord, exalt Myself over them and out of their midst. Amen.

Oh, My people, My angels and My saints have always been looking at you. My little child martyr Filoteea, the one full of mercy, takes you too within her love, to help you with her mercy for My little ones. She was a child full of God on earth. This is how I want you, children of the glory of My word, to give My mercy to the people, to clothe the naked within My word, to feed the hungry on it, to give water to the thirsty and to love with it those who love Me with My love in them, for I have you as My mercy for the man on earth. Amen.

I will love you, children who share the glory of My word in your days over the earth. The greatest truth is the humility of mind, from which the gift of holiness comes over the man, the greatest love, which the man can give to God. I will love you for My gift, for My word given to you and given by you as mercy to the people. I will strengthen you for My works over the earth, for it is the time of the fulfillment of the Scriptures for My glory, for the country of brightness, which the prophets saw from far away and have hoped and waited for with all My glory over it and for their rest and Mine. Amen.

Through you I will protect My sheep, children sons. I will shepherd them. I will strengthen the weak sheep, I will lift up the sick one and the fat one I will make it breed lambs and ewes for My kingdom, for the increasing of the flock, which will receive salvation from My hand, for the dreadful day of the Lord is coming, and before its terror, I will gather My sheep together into the fold, for they will know My voice and will come to the pasture and will find it. Amen.

Blessed be the feast in heaven and on the holy land of My bishop, who was secretly chosen as shepherd by the sheep in his time, chosen by Me and not by man, for the man does not know the mystery of My plans, and the man does not know the man, but I know the man and I choose the humble in his heart for My work over the man. Amen.

Peace to you, My people! Do not forget to ask for My glory and for My victory from Me over the Romanian people, for I have put into the midst of its soil the seed of My kingdom to grow, and then over the whole earth, for its branches will be for the healing of the nations. Amen. I, the Lord, speak and then I fulfill.

And as for you, those from the gates of My word, be always awake so that I may speak, for I am at the helm of the battle between light and darkness, and the Romanian people will overcome from here, from where I have you as the light of the world, and I will triumph from its midst with the heaven on earth, with a new heaven and with a new earth, and this will be My justice for the saints, who have been waiting for Me to come with it and with them on earth, and My kingdom and theirs will have no end, for this is written, and I fulfill. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Saint hierarch Spyridon

My word will work the revival so that it may come with Me into the book, children from the gates. I am the Lord, and I wake you up with My word, which made the heaven and the earth and the man at the beginning, and in the end it has made you to be His word, for the Word is God, and everything was made thorough Him and will be made again. Amen, amen, amen.

New heavens and new earth are being made. Everything is born of My word again, for everything has grown old from the man on, because the man has separated himself from God on the earth and he does not know and cannot do, and cannot turn back to Me but only by My word, which comes to him and guides him again for his making and over everything that has been, for the man between heaven and earth is My pain, which stands against Me before the falling of the fallen angels from My glory, and every man has to bow to My voice, to My word, which made the heaven and the earth in the beginning. Amen.

The man, who has grown old in the evil things, does no longer know; he does no longer know My way to him. My word is My way to him, for when I come to the man in another way, he gets scared, and his fear is the lack of God in him, but My Spirit teaches him to believe in Me, Who am his salvation and his help in time of hardships and strength, even if the earth will be turned over and even if the mountains will be cast out into the depth of the sea, for I am into the midst of the citadel, and it will not be shaken, and I speak to the people on earth: «Be still and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.» (Ps. 46:10<sup>184</sup>) Amen.

Oh, My people out of Romanians! If when I made the heaven and the earth by My word out of waters and spirit, and I took the first patch of land out of waters and I called it then the Romanian land, a mystery that has remained between Me and the Father until the end of the time, when I came on earth and took a body from the Virgin by the seed of the Holy Spirit, behold, this mystery that has not been known by the man for such many thousands years, it is made now clear by My word, the word, which made the heaven and the earth in the beginning. The Romanian land was the beginning of the earth taken out of waters, and the entire Romanian land is the beginning that came out of fire, for it will be a citadel of refuge, a green oasis, which I, the Lord, protect it by a great miracle, by the word of My making, which starts as in the beginning, when I took dust from the Romanian land and I made the man by My own hand and I breathed word with My mouth over him, and the spirit of life came into him, and the man knew like God, and he was My rest between heaven and earth.

Oh, My people of Romanians, I am into your midst with a feast. I rejoice over a memorial of a holy day over the one among the bishops of the heaven, the great miracle doer, Spyridon. Oh, great is the man who knows God's making, the Creator, and by believing in Me, he appears to the people as wonderful for My glory, which is no longer sought by the people, for the people stay within a spirit of pride and they have become haughty because of the praises from each other, and they do no longer desire My glory on the earth, but they rather hide it as much as they can, for they are afraid of one another before My glory and they are not afraid of Me, the Wonderful among My saints and by My saints, and even if they are afraid when I shake their whole work to show them their vanity, they stand strong by the spirit of haughtiness, which becomes opposition before Me and they are no longer afraid of Me for their perishing. However, I make My way to them and I reveal Myself as the Wonderful one, for the bishop Spyridon made Me known, a true God in him and a miracle doer through him before the unbelievers. Amen, amen, amen.

– My faith, Lord of the saints, was my love for You, and it was Your love, which had nestled in my heart to love You with it and to make You wonderful before the unbelievers, who were nourished by their haughtiness, Lord. Oh, how patient You are among the unbelievers, until You make room for Yourself with Your wonders through Your saints among the people, by those who are faithful who make room in them for You to live in them with a sweet life, with sweet peace, richness of grace and of Your miracle among them!

I confessed You as true God among the people and I showed You that You are the One Who made the heaven, the earth and the man, Lord. I suffered from the unbelief of those who were haughty and who wanted to understand the meanings of Your mysteries, hidden from the man's mind, and then from the midst of the bishops gathered together within the synod, I took a piece of clay passed through the fire, a brick made by the hand of the man and I held it into my hands before them and I broke into three separate parts, by the miracle of my faith, in water, earth and fire, as they were before the making of the brick, before the water and the clay passed through the fire and became soft after that, and then it was allowed to soak, and then kneaded, moulded and put into a form so that it could be dried again and made useful for building, Lord, Who made the heaven and the earth out of waters by the word, Lord, Who are a consuming fire, and the man does not know what You are and what You do for the man to know You as the true God all the time and over everything always.

I have shown to the unbelievers how You will make the heaven and the earth in the end with the Holy Spirit and with fire, in such a way that You may make them all new again on a new earth, passed through the fire, Lord. Oh, how much fire the man makes on earth and he does not know that if he does so, he asks for You to come with fire so that You may refine them all and to make the heaven and the earth again!

Oh, come Lord, and fulfill Your prophecies for the new heaven and the new earth that rose from holiness, from a new and holy man, new by holiness as we also were, Your saints, who believed in You, the One God, the Creator, confessing You as wonderful among the people by Your saints.

Come, Lord, with the spirit of Your power in Your word, which becomes a river into the Romanian people, and make Your word and the Romanian land a citadel of refuge, clean and watered, and then a green place, a place full of light and peace and of calling of the man to You, wonderful Lord. Come Lord, and separate into the midst of the Romanian land the darkness from the light and the light from the darkness, and make it into a place of Your justice, a place of peace, Lord! Do not let the man of falsehood live on the land of Your glory any longer! Take him out of his darkness and give him sight to see You and to be ashamed of the darkness in him and to come to the spring of Your word and to water from it with faith and with life of Your life then, and do this with the spirit of Your power in Your word over the man, Lord of powers.

Oh, give them holy wisdom and power from You to those who share You as word over the earth, and anoint the eyes and mind of all those who were unfaithful, hostile and proud and make them see and understand and humble themselves, Lord, under the hand of Your power, by which You work the Romanian land as a new heaven and new earth and a New Jerusalem, and the news about it will be spread all over the nations on earth to come and see Your glory and Your people who believe into Your coming as word on earth, for You made the heaven and the earth by Your word, and show to the people that You did it this way. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, this is how I will work, and I will work by fire, for I write the word of the making of the new world by fire.

From the invisible heaven and from the earth, let all the cries of prayers come together for the fulfilling of all the Scriptures of My coming with the endless age! Amen.

Oh, My people, you have been made by My word in your days to pray to God and to remind him of the Scriptures of the promise of the Lord's coming on the earth with the saints, for behold, I come to you as word and I give Myself away over the earth as the good news of resurrection for the renewal of the creature. Little by little, I dispel from the land of My choice, the entire opposition, which stands against Me by the man's haughtiness. I will knock down all those who try to stand at the head of the Romanian people stained with the blood of those who have been crying out to Me from the ground to do them justice.

Oh, stand aside, you, who are so much stained, you, who are so haughty, you, who want greatness and ranks, for I lift up the strong by their humility and I give them faith and fear of God and power of My power for them to tear down, at My word spoken into the midst of the Romanian people, all the witchcraft, which darkens the man in his mind and heart and eyes so that he may not see the light and the darkness to separate them and then to be light! Amen.

Oh, I cannot halt Myself until I expose the whole emptiness of the mind and those who have it before Me and before My people on the Romanian land. I will arise and this is what I will do. Amen. Little by little I settle on the Romanian land a great light for all the nations to know that I am a great God and wonderful on the Romanian land and that I will be glorified from it everywhere and over all things, for this is how the Father is well pleased with. Amen.

Now, sons from the gates, make together with My word power for prayer to Me from the midst of the people of My word for My fulfilling into the midst of the Romanian land. Pray, My people, pray to God, for you are My tool, and I will plough with you and I will seed and I will water and bring warmth with you and I will make grow the fruit of the kingdom of the heavens into your midst and over the entire Romanian land, which the Father holds into His hand for My glory and yours, so that all those that are within their darkness to see the Lord's glory and its new fruit. Amen.

2005

The feast of the Lord's Birth (the Nativity)

I am the Lord of glory. Amen. My humility full of glory made Me the Son of Man, a child born on earth, and then grown until My humility made Me bow and die for the man's resurrection, for the everlasting life of the man who loves to be like God on earth. Amen.

The Father's humility and Mine, this godly work brought Me down from heaven on earth as a child born of the Virgin in the cave of Bethlehem. Wake up, children from the gates, that I may come as word into the book to speak about the humility, by which I appeared before the people as a child born of man, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, Who came as a child on earth to teach the man the mystery of childhood, the mystery of the birth from above, for I came down from above, and I came down from heaven and I became flesh from man in order to teach the man, who is born of man, to ascend into heaven and to come down as a child, born from heaven on earth, just as I was born, by the spirit of humility of the Father, for I have learned from the Father the work of humility, the work of My birth from heaven on earth, My birth from man, to make the man see God then coming down from heaven after him on earth, humbled to the man, to teach the man the work of humility, from the earth and up into the heaven. Amen.

Oh, how great, how beautiful is the work of humility of spirit! Behold, children who receive the word coming out of My mouth, behold what a great gift I give to the man once with the memorial of the day when I was born a child among people on earth by the work of the Father's humility of Mine! I give the gift of humility of spirit to the man, for without this sight the man cannot see himself, and he cannot see himself what he is and where he is and what he does between heaven and earth under My eye, that is making of man. I have come down on earth to make the man and not Me. I humbled Myself, not to make Myself, but to make the man instead; to make the man again, for I made him in the beginning and then he spoiled My work after he had lost the gift of the humility of spirit; he lost it by disobedience and by insubordination, and then he has no longer found it. And if this is how the man has been since I made him, since he lost the humility of spirit, I came two thousand years ago on earth and I became seed in a virgin body and I did not do any harm to the Virgin's body, for I am the One Who made the man and I am true God of true God and that is why I could become man of man, and behold, only the one born from above can have the gift of humility of spirit like God. Only the one born of God remains in God, as the man who is born of man remains in man, for in order for the man to be in God, this humility of spirit the man cannot find anymore without My help given to the man from heaven, without the man opening himself to Me when I come and knock to teach him about the work of the humility of spirit, the work of the man's birth from above. Amen.

Oh, My people, I have great compassion on you! Oh, My people, the Father has great compassion on Me and on Him as well! I lost the man seven thousand years ago, after he gave up the humility of spirit. My pain and the Father's is a great pain, My people, and if I have had mercy on you, I have also had mercy on the Father and on Me, My people. The man is deprived of humility of spirit and God cries in heaven and on earth for the man's departure, for the man's fall from humility. I have so great compassion on you, people of My word, and I want to strengthen you with everything I have in the Father to be able to have you, and I want to help you with everything that is written into the Scriptures for My coming, so that I may always come to you and to be able to come this way, for My coming is written into the Scriptures as My kingdom, with which I come, and about which I said that it is in man and that it cannot be otherwise.

I was born a child on the earth to be able to come again, as the great Lord coming out from the Father and born from the Father for the man's humility, for the man has completely forgotten this work, which gives his life, and I came to show it to him by My birth two thousand years ago and, again, now, by My coming as word from the Father and not from Myself, not as the man does, who has his spirit and who does not listen to anyone but only to himself in him. I came as a child on earth to teach the man the mystery of childhood, the work of the Father over the people after seven thousand years from the man's creation, and the Father works by Me, His Son, the Only One born of Him before eternity, and then born of the body of a Virgin on earth two thousand years ago. I give to the man the gift of humility of spirit, and the one who does not want to receive it as a gift and then to have it in him to be able to know through it the birth from above and then to agree with that, to that one I give pains, and through them I give his self-denial without him wanting it, and then I give him, if he wants, the gift of humility from above, by which he may see God and to be able to listen to Him and to obey Him, for the man is only man and that is all, if he is not born of God, for the man to belong on earth to God, and for the man to be on earth the son of God and not a man from man. Amen.

Oh, My people, the celebration of My birth from the Virgin is celebrated on earth with gifts from man to man, for this is how the man has got used to it without him knowing what is hidden under this human custom. However, I still celebrate it with gifts and I have in My arms the gift of the humility of spirit, which I have from the Father for each man, and I am ready to give it to every man who wants to be a child born of God, and then to be obedient to the heavenly Father. The man lost his life and its heavenly gift when he lost the gift of humility of spirit, and since then God has been crying after the man. Oh, how shall I do, My people, to make the man again by the gift of My humility by which I was born as a child of man on earth? I was born for the man and not for Me. I live for the man, not for Me. I died and I came to life for the man, and it was not for Me that I had to do this. I have worked everything for man, everything I have been suffering, all My sufferance of seven thousand years I have been enduring for the man, and only the man can take it off from Me by being transformed into My image and after My likeness to be able to have in him, then, the gift of the humility of spirit, which I have from the Father for every man, ready to give it to him as a gift, only for the man to want to give himself over to Me, so that I may put in him this treasure, the spirit of childhood, by which the man lives in obedience and in submission to the Father, after he is born of Me, by the spirit of My humility, which I came down from heaven on earth with, to be born as a child and to show to the man where the life comes from, which does no longer die, and which the man tramples over the death with, which crushes, within the spirit of his humility, the spirit that I want to give to the man as a gift, the same as the gifts are given to the remembrance of the glory of the day, when I, a child born in Bethlehem, received the gift of the humility from the Magi, who brought Me gold, frankincense and myrrh, the gift of their humility through which they bowed down to Me, Son of God on earth. Amen.

I do not require anything from the man but only his humble spirit, the most beautiful gift, which the man can ever give to God, and the Lord will not forsake him and will forgive him of his sins and will give him a birth from above by the gift of humility of spirit, which gives birth to the man for God on earth. Amen.

It is the celebration of My birth into your midst, people of My word, which is born into your midst for the new man to be born of it, a man with a humble spirit on earth. Oh, I have been so merciful to you, for you are small and fragile and under the pain of the time of nowadays, and in all the time of the heaven, of the earth and of the man on it, for I have been coming into your midst with all My pain of seven thousand years and I have been crying with it before you after the birth of the man on earth from above. Oh, each birth has its joy afterwards, and I will also have this joy, but help Me, children from the gates, to write on the earth My book of the word of life, and to pour out this river over the earth and to take the man out of his waters and to give him, resurrected from the dead, to the Father, and to give the man as new born from the waters of the river of life, to give him to the Father with joy, for I and the Father have been crying after the joy of the child birth, children who carry God's mercy within you. Oh, give My comfort to My people, the gift of the humility of spirit, for I will speak to him about this mystery and I will celebrate with him the word of birth, the word of life and comfort over the earth, calling the man to My gifts, the gifts of the humility of spirit, by which he can perceive the mystery of life and its sweetness, the spirit of childhood without which no man can enter into My kingdom, which is for those who are little under My strong, protecting and comforting hand, when it has someone to work this way upon. Amen.

The man owes to God everything he has lost after he came from obedience and submission. Oh, man! Give yourself back to God so that I may come with you to the beginning of the man! Come to Me to see how much I humbled Myself for you by being born as a child on earth to teach you the gift of childhood, which comes from the birth of the man from God, as I was born of the Father before eternity and then I submitted to My father to My birth from the Virgin on earth, to work for the Father among the people and to reveal Myself as the God, who came as a child from heaven, and then by having grown like a man, I have revealed Myself to the man as the sacrifice of love with which I have come to draw the man to the Father by the spirit of My humility. Amen.

With the gift of the spirit of My birth from the Virgin, I cover the man and I speak to him the mystery of the birth of the man from the end of the time, and I celebrate on earth the word of My birth in man and of the man's birth from Me, and the Father looks at My work into your midst, and at you, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the first martyr and archdeacon, Stephen

My birth from the Virgin, the miracle by which, I, God, the Son, was born a child on the earth two thousand years ago, was the humility of the Father, a miracle that does not enter the man's mind, for his mind is small in order to be able to humble himself when God speaks to him by miracles, and that is why God came on earth, was born and grew with a gentle character, both inside and outside of Him, covering His glory, for the man is small and is not born of the heaven in order to be able to perceive the heavenly things that have come on earth under the image of humility, covering their glory before man, for it is written: «The man cannot see God within all His glory and to remain alive». (Ex. 33:20) Under the way of My humility, the man could see Me for thirty three years on earth, and in whom I put the gift of the humility of spirit, those could see Me that I was God, the Son, the messenger of the Father sent after the man, and I fulfilled My work, for the man is the one who fulfills My works on the earth, and I cannot fulfill them without man, but I need a gentle and humble man in his heart, just as I am, because of the man if not so, he cannot believe in those that come from God among the people, which cover their glory in order that they may be able to come. Amen, amen, amen.

The memorial of My birth two thousand years ago would be to make the man even more humble, and to have more room within him for God, for I completely humbled Myself in order to be able to come down on earth, but if the man does not have any room in his heart for My humility, then he rejoices and exalts himself within him at the remembrance of God's miracles and makes the days of My humility into his days of joy, for him, and not the days of the humility of spirit and of the fruit of holy faith, which is to bring forth in him the gift of the humility of spirit, which would teach him about this mystery, for great mystery is the gift of the humility of spirit, and the heavenly mysteries, which come on earth, for the man's making does not enter into the man's heart, because the man is not made and there is no one to make him after that.

On earth there are two kinds of people: the human kind and the Christian people. The human kind bears the name of the sons of people, and the Christian people bears the name of the sons of God. I came on earth completely in the image of man, for I died like the man in order to destroy in My body the death, the last enemy, which the man has to destroy, but with My power in him and not with his power. However, the man does not come closer to know this miracle, working out the new man in man. However, the man has to destroy the sin in his body after he comes to remember the death of the man built by My hand out of clay, and to whom I said that if he did not listen, he would surely die.

Oh, sons of God, and you, sons of people! The man cannot sin but only after he dies, for first the sin is conceived in his mind and then it goes down into his body and kills the man's heart by its poison, and the man loses the power of his soul and agrees with the reward of the sin, and this is how the man dies and this is how he becomes the dwelling place of the devil, which took the man out of the paradise, which I established on earth for the man to be in My image and after My likeness and not to become a devil by disobedience and insubordination, works that the man does and by which he becomes a god over himself.

My mother, the Virgin, looks at Me with her spirit full of humility and she has near her and near Me, for the feast of My birth, all the heavenly powers, all the angels and all the saints in My feast and hers. My mother comforts Me as she caressed Me when I was a child, in whom it grew the miracle of the new man, a man born of heaven on earth, coming down from heaven and born on earth for the work that the Father had to do for the new birth of the man, who wants to be from heaven on earth and not from the earth, as the man who got out of the man has remained for seven thousand years.

My mother full of gentleness and humble spirit like her Son, the One Born of the Father and of her, comforts Me here, on the land of My returning with the spirit and with the word among the people, on the land which first came out of the waters at the creation of the heaven and of the earth, in the place from where I, the Word of the Father, took clay into My hand and kneaded the man in the sixth day among the days of creation, days that were measured by a heavenly measure: one evening and one morning, each one of the sixth days of creation. And on the seventh day there was My rest, and I sanctified it, for the man was holy like God then, by submission and obedience, and he did not know fear but only My joy within him.

My mother comforts Me here, on the land of My returning within the spirit and word among the people, and she speaks with Me and I speak with her before the nations on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Son, child of the Father and mine and of those who know You and grow You with love and longing within them! I stay with my hands reached out over the Romanian land to protect it for You and for those who became Yours in its midst. Its mystery is as long as seven thousand years. Its mystery is covered, for this is the work of Your mysteries and this is how it works for its revealing. However, the man has established himself too great on earth and does not expect You to come and to tell him that he is not master on earth and that You are, because You are God, the Creator of the heaven and of the earth, and the man on earth is man, for if he were not a man and that is all, he would not dare to become master over Your things and a thief before You, Lord.

You give birth to the word of life and comfort on earth, calling the man from Your gifts, the gifts of humility of spirit, by which he can perceive the mystery of life, the spirit of childhood, without which the man cannot perceive the mystery of the kingdom of the heavens, Your kingdom in man, Son Lord, a kingdom stolen by man after you made him. The man was not a child in the beginning, for You made him in Your image and after Your likeness, but he was not like You, obedient and submitted like a child, and he did not receive this spirit of childhood from You, the spirit of son, which You had, for You were the Son of Your Father.

Oh, Your strong and protecting hand has been like this since it has had someone to work upon this way, when the man stays under Your working hand, after he gives himself to You for his new making, from heaven and not from man, as the man is made. But now Your hand is drawing aside from every man who does not have You as God coming from the Father so that the man on earth may listen to You. The man makes of the days of Your humility days of joy for him and not for You, but Your hour has come now closer than two thousand years ago, to take back what is Yours and not man's, Lord and Master of everything. The Romanian land is now into Your hand and not into the hand of man, and I am asking You now, from it for You, and I am not asking You for the man. Obedient and humble Son, please remember Your promises made for the Romanian land and take over the helm of this ship, which will float above everything that is evil, which will overcome the sin on earth and every great man in his spirit and who still tries to rule the land of Your choice, the land of Your returning from the Father with Your saints, Lord Who are written into the Scripture to come back again.

Let the unfaithful man open the Scriptures of these days and seek for their wisdom and for their mysteries, and let him seek with a humble spirit and not with self-aggrandizement how to know Your word, and he does not want anything else than the Scriptures. However, You did not die, but You came to live with great glory two thousand years ago, and that You did not come to life in order to be silent forever, but to speak then and now, as You have spoken to the man that You are the Alpha and the Omega, and that You are not otherwise, and the one who does not receive You, will be severely beaten, as well as the one who will be found being idle for those from You brought with You to the man on earth. Amen.

Obedient Son, please do not let the heaven and the earth pass into the mystery that is not understood by the man for a new heaven and a new earth, unless You will glorify Yourself on the Romanian land with all Your promises spoken by Your mouth before the sons of Your word, of which You made Your people of new Jerusalem on earth, a people of saints into the midst of the nations of the earth, into the midst of the generation of people, an evil and adulterous generation, and through which they shine like the stars of the world, Lord. Be merciful and protect Your coming down on earth on the Romanian land with all the heavenly powers, and set down mysteriously and uncovered at the helm of the ship of salvation, and make the people learn and worship You within the Spirit of Truth, by which You teach those who are Your chosen ones for Your glory of today and in whom You have always been putting the gift of the holy faith, the spirit of prayer spoken by Your mouth for the Romanian land, for You to have faith on earth in the way of Your coming, and that You may come on its way, as You have also been able to fulfill like a God, Who can do everything in the name of Our Father, the Father Sabaoth. Amen.

Take a look, Son Lord, to those who call themselves Your church on earth, and shake from its high place the lie clothed within a lambskin, because You, as two thousand years ago, are kept under a bushel and Your name is used by the people of falsehood, who call themselves church, to make of it their own glory. But the Christian people are otherwise, and it is not like the worldly one, which soon, soon, will fall down from everywhere with all its towers, on which fire from heaven will fall, so that all things may be refined and tested by fire and not otherwise, to the sight of those that are and that will remain, and of those who will burn by fire. Amen.

Oh, before the refining of all those that are yours and not those that belong to God, how you seek to deceive the people who do not see the way of life and its truth, stand aside from your high places, from your adorned chairs! Put off the garment of vain glory, throw away the pride from you and willingly put on a sackcloth, to repentance and to the forgiveness of your sins, by reconciliation to God, for there will come upon you a frightening day, a day which burns like fire and which punishes in it the entire vain glory and all those who worship it, and which worships them. Come to repentance! Bow down to the spring of the word, which becomes a breeze of Holy Spirit, over the faithful ones, and brimstone over those who are unfaithful to My Son!

The word of the Father is my Son into the midst of the Romanian land. His birth before the eternity from the Father, and two thousand years ago, a child of my virgin body, was the Father's humility, Who bowed with His Son to the man, and this miracle cannot come to the man's mind, who cannot humble himself when God, the Creator, speaks to him by miracles, by His gentle face and humble among the people and through the people. Amen.

And now, Son Lord, give birth to the world again, as You promised two thousand years ago, and with the Spirit of Truth make Your room into the minds and hearts of those who do not know anyone but themselves as masters on earth! And for them to know You, touch them, and set Yourself as Master of everything, as You are over the faithful and unfaithful ones, for the world to know that You came out from the Father and that He sent and sends You with the Scriptures, which wait from You, by Your word in them, their fulfilling, Son. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, I was born on earth, mother, a little child from you and as a great God over the earth, and blessed is the servant whom I will find watching before Me, on My coming, and those, who do not believe into My coming, will finally believe in it, mother. Amen.

In the time when the martyr Stephen was confessing the living God before those who killed Me, for My resurrection and for those who were faithful to My coming after the man, those, who saw him shining like the angels from heaven because of the reward of his testimony about Me, gnashed their teeth at him. But two thousand years have passed since that time, and those who today, as at that time, sit on the seat, which My Father has meant for Me and for My followers, became too fattened, for the Father said to Me by the Spirit: «You are priest forever in the order of Melchizedek», and this mystery is not otherwise.

Oh, for a long time there has not been church that one, which has called itself My church. It is rather the place of the vainglory of the people of the earthly greatness. It is in vain that they keep on holding on their seats with both hands, which are only wood and stones. These false people do not know obedience and submission before Me, and whoever is not submitted to God does not see Him and does not know God, and that is why they dare assume greatnesses, which perish once with them, judging them before Me by those who are Mine, faithful, confessors and bearers of God on earth. It is in vain that they hold on to their seats, for behold, there comes a great wind from Me and it will pull them out from before the people, and the people will see My power, which puts down to the ground those who are proud and it lifts up the humble ones, as the Scriptures prophesy that it will be. Amen. And the confessor Stephen, the one who was martyred for My glory, confesses with longing from among the saints and speaks like that:

– Redeem, Lord, my blood and the blood of those who were cut off from the earth because they confessed You! Open the book, open the heaven for the heavenly powers to come down, the heavenly dominions on earth and do justice to Your saints and to You, Lord, crucified for the forgiveness of the sins of the world that comes back to repentance, and make a kingdom of the heavens on the Romanian land, on which Your saints come with You and confess that You have opened the heavens and speak, and Your name is called: The Word of God. (Rev: 19/13, r.n.) Amen, amen, amen.

- I opened them. Amen. Fifty years ago, I opened them mysteriously, and the enemies of the kingdom of the heavens still found Me and persecuted My vessels. There has passed fifty years since then and the heavens have not been closed yet, and I have been the word over the Romanian land with a loud sound of trumpet.

The heavens have been opening wider and wider for Me to come down with great glory and with the truth. Amen. I am the Truth and it is only I that I am; I and those who become into My image and after My likeness, and then on their outside. Amen.

I am the Lord of humility and of its glory. There is no greater glory than the humility of spirit. Blessed is the one who is found doing so and the one who becomes this way before Me, for My coming is ready, and I am celebrated soon on the Romanian land with the feast of the Pentecost of My coming.

There have passed fifty years of My word over the earth, and the world has been found unfaithful, for My coming, over those who do not watch over it, comes unexpectedly.

I come as a word of new making on the Romanian land to renew them all. Bow, you, those, who set yourselves to drive My ship through the waves, that is this land, the Romanian land, on which I set the throne of My word, on which I speak and bless and cleanse the lawlessness from everywhere. Amen.

And as for you, people of My word, learn the gift of humility of spirit, the gift of childhood, the gift by which the man is submitted to God and obeys the Father. Strengthen the gates of My coming and protect them carefully, for they do not have to be smitten but strengthened. I speak from the gates and I work according to My will, which stays within the gates. Amen.

Oh, My people, do not forget to be like a child, like the kingdom of the heavens from the little ones on earth. You shall not seek after your rights; you should not look for things like that, but you should look for the wisdom of the sons of God, who have only obligations and leave all their rights into the hand of their Master, the Lord, Creator. Amen.

Peace to you, and do your duty before Me for My time once with you on earth! May My peace be over your gates, the gates between Me and you, and watch like a servant who is happy with his service done for his Master. I am the Master. I am the One Who is, and you shall be a holy people, a grain, watered and protected by My hand, and out of which the Romanian people will come out, My new Romanian people, a holy people, to My glory over all the nations on earth and to the redemption of the righteousness of My saints, which wait for My coming with them on a holy land. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Saint hierarch Basil, the Great

We come down into the book of My word in My days with you, children from the gates. Amen. When you open for Me to speak, the whole invisible heaven is full of awe, for there is no waiting and awakening on earth as that among those from heaven, because those on earth have eyes and do not see with them, they have heart and do not feel with it like those in heaven, even if the word comes out of My mouth and sets into its book on earth.

The eyes of the man should see with the spirit from the man, at least, but the man needs faith to wait with awe for those that are and are not seen. However, they are seen by those in heaven and they are confessed on earth by My Spirit and by the spirit of My saints. Amen.

It is written into the Scriptures that «the Spirit of God judges everything, He searches everything, up to My deepest things», if the man is made divine and waits with awe for the wind of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit Who has been waiting for seven thousand years for the man to be like God, for the man to be able to speak with God, if he has faith, and if the man has love.

Oh, how beautiful was the work of My Spirit over Cornelius' house, the one in the time of My apostles, a righteous man and one who feared God and who always prayed to Me within his spirit to bring salvation over his house and comfort at his expectation! I sent My angel in the time of his evening prayer and I told him that I would fulfill his prayer, for it was heard in heaven and it would come back to him with what he had requested. I sent Peter, the apostle, to him, who confessed Me as Messiah, the true One in word and deed, the reason for which the priests put Me to death, and then My Father resurrected Me with His power in Me after three days, according to the Scriptures, which spoke about Me.

Oh, how beautiful is the man to God, the one who has fear for God and prayer through it and a gentle and humble spirit, which reaches to heaven! Oh, how beautiful is the man who does not doubt of Me, for that one does My will diligently in him, for the Spirit of God in man has hopes for everything and then he believes them with patience, and he puts Me with love in his being full of holy pleasure, for this is how God in man is. Amen. Oh, My people, it is a feast of loving holy people of God into your midst. Since My holy people have been on earth I have been taking from them the things that I have been well pleased with in them, for they have been doing My will and have had My Spirit, Who has been seeking for the Father after their life has become My dwelling place.

Oh, how much I helped the man in the time of My body and then by My Saints, who took after Me in love and mercifulness, and through these to draw the man to the Father! I could not do greater things for the man than help him in his needs and weaknesses, to make him know Me and to long after Me and the people to confess Me to one another. Oh, all the people have got used to My goodness, with the help from Me, and I have not been able to rely on man for Me too, because the man thinks only at himself when he thinks at Me. Oh, few, very few people were and are on earth to deny themselves and to follow Me in order to be able to work My will in them and to do it for Me, because I am the most helpless one, children from the gates. Oh, I have been looking at you how helpless you are, even if I have always spoken to the people of My word not to have another prior worry than My coming to it as word for it and for the whole earth and for the whole heaven, children sons.

Oh, the gates between heaven and earth, by which I work upon the man, are a great mystery, but when the man does no longer have time to fear God, because he thinks at himself and not at Me, then, I can hardly come in through the gates. All My prophets have suffered by My absence in man. They, those who were and are the gates between heaven and earth, and where I have come in to speak the mystery of My word, so that I may fulfill it with them afterwards, they are the least taken care by the spirit in man, by the man who believes in God, but has too little time to fear Me and to do My will in him. The evil spirit has many different secret faces on the way between Me and you, sons of My people, but I come in to you through the gates and I exhort you to watch more fervently your steps for your way with Me and not to walk alone, sons. There is no one that does not go wrong if he walks alone. I have got no one to tell him about the hidden evil, which entices the man if he has no one with him so that I may get in for his protection, for the evil spirit is mysterious when it tries to blame the man before God and then God from man.

Oh, My people, blessed is the one, who does not stumble against Me. He who does not believe what I speak, that one stumbles against Me, and because of that he does not do My will in him.

Oh, My people, there is a great mourning on earth. There is only man without God on earth. I need man all over the earth, who does not stumble against Me and by whom to be able to help the man, and to help him from near him, for I am God over the man from near him and not from far away. It is not from among the dead that I work upon the man, but from among the living ones, and My saints do the same, sons.

It is a great mourning on earth and in heaven. There is only man with his will on earth, with his mind, with his spirit, and the fear of God, which would greatly help the man, is no longer in man, an where still is, it works for the man's life, not for Me, and I said that «the one who wants to save his life, that one will lose it», and no man understands those that I said by this Scriptures, which proves out the man's self before Me, and he who does not deny himself, is not able to know My will and to do it by My Spirit, and not by his spirit. People and nations perish on earth because of the lack of God in man, for I am with the man through the gates of the heavens, and they are not believed and they are not protected by the people so that I may come through them to the man.

It is a day of instruction for obedience and submission, for these are not with the man. The man does not look into the Scriptures to see what it happened to the people of Israel, when it would not listen to God, Who would work from near it through His gates. I spoke through the prophet Samuel, and I speak again now, that My Spirit said through him that disobedience is worse than witchcraft, because it is the devil, and it makes room and life for the devil in the man against God by the man's self spirit, and disobedience means man without God, and this is called idol worshipping, and it is called more than this.

The hostile spirit to God is happy and reigns everywhere; moreover, it tries to stretch out its hand over My gain earned with hard labor and protected with tears. However, I command it to listen to Me and to go away with his entire hidden face, which lies in wait to attack My work.

Go away, satan! Depart with all your evil doers and with your hidden face under it, because I command My saints to rebuke you and to scatter you from My way and from the way of those who are protected by My power and work! Amen.

Those who have sanctified themselves within their heart and life and its work and with My Spirit in them, they were My help in the fight against satan for the man's faith in God. However, now, the work, which has resounded from My mouth within the four sides of the earth, needs help for the fulfilling of the Scriptures of the kingdom of the heavens in man and on earth, and the man is required no longer to ask for himself, but to ask for Me from the Father, to ask for My will on earth as in heaven, and that it may be accomplished, and for the man's will to decrease when the man asks from God. Amen.

It is My time, for the man has spoiled My will for his will in him and upon him, and in order that he may learn what My will is, he needs self-denial, and the man needs fear of God and obedience in submission to get away from himself. Amen.

Let the man no longer ask for himself from Me, but let him ask for My will upon him and over the earth instead, for My time has come on earth, and the man is not used to cut his will, and it will be hard for him to believe in God with love, and he will believe with terror when he sees, that I do no longer do his will to make him believe in Me, but I will do My will on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

– May Your will be done, Lord, as in heaven so on earth! The man is not used to Your will upon him, and we, Your saints, have suffered on earth and in heaven because we have asked You to do man's will on earth, to do good to the man, to do justice to the man, and the man has not got used to his self denial yet, with poverty, with cleanliness and with Your will in him, Lord.

I, Your bishop, the one, who by Your power and grace, rebuked the devil, who wins the people with their will over to devilish desires, I mourn for You, Lord, and I comfort You, for Your such a long pain from the man of self love. The man has hardly got used to his self-denial and to everything he has got to be Your disciple. Your mercy has been great within the man's hardships, but now You have mercy on his salvation, on his spirit, which does not know to perceive Your mysteries, which are hidden for the greatness of those who discover them for Your glory, Lord.

With the grace of the bishop in which You clothed me by Your choice, I rebuke the devil, which does a great deal of harm to the man's mind and then to his steps and his love. Oh, the man does not know what God's love is and what it does in man! The man does not know its mystery and its work, Lord! And neither we, Your saints, as long as we lived on earth, did not perceive it sufficiently, for the man does no longer live for himself, when he has got Your love in him, and also we did not completely teach the people to deny themselves and give up their richness and their desires and to dedicate themselves to Your love, which makes its house in man, Lord. However, now, from near You, from the heaven not seen by the man's mind and eye, I rebuke the evil spirit to come out of the man and to go away into places unknown by people, and no longer come back, to remain without work, for it is the time of Your mysterious work between earth and heaven, and it is the time of the Scriptures of new Jerusalem on earth. Amen. Clean the evil spirit on earth and in man, Lord! Make the man believe You, listen to You, and obey You, in order that he may be saved from the work of the evil spirit in him. Amen.

May the Lord rebuke you, devil, the One Who made the heaven and the earth and everything on them, between them, under them and above them! May you perish with all your dominion, for it is not you who are the master but the Lord is, and you should submit to Him and to those who love Him with obedience and submission! Amen. May the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit rebuke you, and you should know that your place is in the fire and the gnashing of teeth, the place which is prepared for you and for your servants! But now, release those people to come to God and to do His will, and you should be ashamed and silent forever and ever! Amen, amen, amen.

Lord, protect Your people and bless Your inheritance and take care of it by the gates and let them no longer be smitten, for Your church will never be able to be overcome by any kind of satanic strikes, only that the people of Your word to be one spirit with You and to eat much, much word, and may the food of Your word on its table be called a holy feast into its midst. Release, by Your gates, everything that we, Your saints, like any people, did wrong on earth, for You are the Lord of those who hope in Your power and in the life of the age that will be on earth for those who love Your will with longing and awe. I, Your bishop, Basil, the one who rebuked the devil, bless You in heaven and on earth, and I announce You as eternal life over those who, with Your life in them, love You and listen to You submitting themselves to You, for Your will has to be Your people on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, may the will of My Father be done in you, My people, as in Me, but be careful to Me, to know to do this. I spoke and speak on earth and in heaven, and I worked and work only My Father's will. Be careful to yourself and to the will, which works in you, at your speaking, at your deed, at your sight, and do not be a judge, but be obedient and in submission to God, worshipping Him for better and for worse, for an unexpected kingdom is coming down on earth, the kingdom of God's will after seven thousand years of the man's will, and great work is needed and it has to be worked within great love, and prayer is needed from the Father so that I, the great and powerful Lord, may give life to the people from the midst of the Romanian nation, placing in them the will of the Father, the Spirit of the Father, Who makes His sons from people, setting them free from the bondage of their wills. Amen. I, the Lord, speak and fulfill, but I cannot fulfill until I let it be known first, My people.

Oh, come, Romanian people, to My will, for you are the one who the Father has been well pleased with Me for My coming back among the people to rule them with an iron rod, and with My word to rule over the world and to bring it into My Father's submission, because God made the world. Amen.

Oh, come, people of My word, and fulfill Me in you to have you as a dear crown for the Christian people, who will be on earth from heaven and from the earth. Amen.

And as for you, children from the gates, stay as a landmark between darkness and light, between man's will and My will, and work My word and its fulfillment and its visible power into the midst of My people that is faithful to My coming. Keep away from beatings. Crush the devil's ambush, because I have given you power, children sons. Set the people within a spirit of prayer and obedience and submission so that the prayer may have effect, so that I may have power from your midst over the earth. Ask for the illumination of the spirit of the Romanian people, and that My entire word may be fulfilled over it, which is spoken for it and for Me with it. Amen.

Do not forget to be faithful with power of faith, My people. Wake up and watch, and do not live as on earth so that I may protect the Romanian land and My grace upon it and those who carry it from Me, for great is the one who has from Me and not from himself and not from the man, for everything will perish and there will remain on earth only those that are from Me and those who keep them by faith and work them and multiply them for a heavenly kingdom on earth, on the Romanian and holy land. Amen.

May the remembrance of the day of two thousand years ago be blessed, when I, the Lord, by submission to My Father and to man, conformed Myself to the law of My people for the circumcision of My body coming from heaven into the midst of Israel.

You should submit oneself by obedience to God, Romanian Israel, and to receive My exhortation upon you in obedience, and you will be alive and you will be counted as faithful as the Lord, your God, the One Who obeyed His Father, and like Abraham, from whom I ask you to learn the faith, obedience, submission and their work full of heaven on earth, My people of Romanians, My new Romanian people, given to growth for you to bring forth the people of the Kingdom of God on earth, the people of obedience, for your obedience proves out your adoption and your Father Sabaoth, My Father and yours, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the three holy hierarchs: Basil, Gregory and John

I come on earth as word for the judgment of the creature and for the crowing of those who by patience and hope fulfill My commandment by which I told the man to love God and loving Him to know to love between earth and heaven, for love is from man to God, and to man from God.

I come on earth as word, and I come from heaven on earth as word in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and These Three are One, and They are one word: The Word of God. (Rev: 19/13, r.n.) Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, people of My word, I rely on your faith in My coming when I come, and I speak crossing the sky with My word to be heard on earth, and those who hear Me coming, open to Me, and I come in to you so that you may not stay without God on earth, for on earth there is the lawless man, who wants Me in heaven and not on earth with him, not on earth with you in such a way that he may hear Me and to believe Me from My dwelling with you on earth. However, he does not know to learn, and he cannot do it but only as on earth, and he does not want to know about My heaven, about My coming with the heaven to you, about My word, which has come with the judgment of the world and of its trespasses, for the commandment that I gave to the man, stands now face to face with the man, and he has nowhere to hide from it, and he has no other way but to believe in it and in Me, because it asks the man for an answer, and he cannot give whatever answer he may want to the commandment of life, for the life in man is supposed to be obedience to God, because nothing else means for the man to have life and a good answer before Me, now when I come to search out the fruit on earth and when everyone stands before My coming, willing or not, believing or not believing, with the fruits of his life.

Oh, My people, I dwell into your midst as word, for there is nowhere on earth, nowhere, a place where to be able to bow My head and to be received and known and loved and obeyed as a God, Who laid down His life for the man. I come to speak out My word over the earth now, when the man of lawlessness still sits as a great and strong one on the seat, which is apparently considered to be holy. It is written into the Scriptures that I have to come, and if it were not written, I would not come. It is written in the Scriptures that I had to come and to become man, to be nailed on the cross and to be laid down in a tomb, to come to life again, and then to ascend again to the Father so that I could also come back and to judge the living and the dead, and I cannot let the Scriptures not being all accomplished. Oh, how it was possible not to fulfill this Scripture, which said that I come to judge the living and the dead and then to reign forever and to give the man the life, which is to be according to each man's work for it by everything he did while he was on earth in the flesh for his eternal life!

Oh, My people, the man does now know to believe that God's Scriptures surely come true. As far as every man's life concerns, the man has to build it in his body, in his own body, in which God is supposed to dwell and not him, but he acted the fool saying that he did not know this mystery; however, he does not play the fool when he receives medals and diplomas of a great and intelligent man. And the one, who has taken on a name and a rank of holy man to God, did not play to fool either, but I tell you that he will be called into account for what he has sown in his body; he plays the fool pretending that he has not known, that he has not believed, that he has not seen or heard. However, I am preached far and wide, from one margin of the heavens to the other, and the commandment spoken by Me over the man for his eternal life will require an answer of every man, for God is true in all His word. Amen.

The heaven is My throne and your faith in the Scriptures of My coming is the footstool of My word on earth, people of the glory of My word! The man of lawlessness has settled all over the earth and he says that I do not come, that I do no longer come, for he does not know when I come, but I know that he has been calculating My coming very well, as the Magi of two thousand years ago found it and they found Me as well, and they saw an accomplished Scripture and proclaimed it, and it has remained a true accomplishment up to this day, and the man of lawlessness has been fighting against Me to win the heaven and the earth, and it is not sufficient only that for him, but he rather wants to set his sin as king over these things of Mine. And I write with power and anger the end of the man's lawlessness and the beginning of the people of the saints, for he builds his own eternity in his body, either for God or for him. Amen.

It goes to My heart the pain from the beginning of the lie, which is born everywhere and which calls itself "man," but I am as strong as a God who is resurrected from the dead and now I am standing as an all powerful victor in the midst of the dead (Spiritual, r.n.), those who are above the earth, and I destroy the lie by word and I write an end on it. Amen.

I glorify Myself with a word full of power and descent of saints, and I give the voice, for it is a feast of heavenly bishops, who have built in their own bodies a new heaven and a new earth and a homeland for God in them and nothing for themselves in them, for this is how My saints on earth are, and I have always overcome with them the man's lying, and with them I will always overcome and build the age that is to be, and I will establish it on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

— Lord of the saints and Parent of the age that is to be soon, soon, on the earth for the saints and for Your joy with them, we built You in our own body and confessed You as a true God among people, to perfect in the saints Your work from the invisible heaven.

We had mercy on You on earth, and not on man, Lord! We were crying for Your mercy when we saw You wondering after the man and the devil in the man torturing the man, and then the man torturing one another through the devil's envy, and we were crying because You did not have a house in man, but the devil instead. We sanctified ourselves with fasting and praying and with mercy for You, and then we rebuked the devil powerfully to get him out of the man, to get him out into Your name that was spoken by us before him and by the man given as a slave to the devil. Even today we have been crying for Your mercy, for Your tear from today's people of lawlessness, and we sing powerfully a word into You name and we say this:

May the Lord rebuke you, devil, and father of lying, who take for yourself a name of the saint! (Of the shepherds of the flock, r.n.) Get out of the robe with the face of a saint, and get out with all the people under it and make yourself known, who you are and what you do in a place that is supposed to be holy, and go away from the face of the people, who do not know you as the father of lying, and make room to the glory of the Lord, to the word of the Lord, Who shepherds the world for life and for truth, because it is not you, but the Lord, Who created the world, and you have been a liar from the very beginning and you have covered with a lie the light which destroys you with the brightness of the Lord's coming within light with tens of thousands of saints. Amen.

We, bishops of the Lord, servants of His coming and vessels of His love, rebuke you and call you on your name, which is the devil, the father of lying, and may you fall down with a great noise and to be forever ashamed, you and your servants, who deceived and deceive the people under the name of true gods, when they are your houses and not of God's commandments! May you fall down together with all of the seats of your devilish greatness with which you have nestled in those that lie calling themselves the Lord's servants, for the Lord is coming and all will stand before the face of His coming with the fruits of their lives. Amen.

Come out, you, devils, from the man that is enslaved by you! Get out screaming with terror from the face of the Lord, the One Who made the heaven and the earth and the man, and let the terror seize you at the voice of God's word, Who calls the dead to resurrection and the man to repentance so that you may be ashamed and forever crushed, for the Lord, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, is the Master and He is the Word of the Father. Amen.

Come out, you devils, from the place supposed to be holy and make room to the power of the Lord and to the fulfillment of His word over His prophecies over His Romanian country, which will be the country of the Lord's saints. Amen.

Submit, you, servants of the devilish lie and repent before the people, advising them to repentance. Shake off your sins and fall facedown and seek after the man who is pleased to God that he may reconcile you to the Father. And if you do not do this, read into the Scriptures, which tell you that the servant that knew his master's commandment and did not do it, will be severely beaten. Amen.

The Lord waits for your repentance, servants who set one another in a place known as holy and which you have made a hiding of soul thieves. Bow down, for the voice of the Lord resounds from the midst of the Romanian people over the earth and do not be deaf or blind, for with God it does not work the „fool priest story”, but it makes room for the spirit of prophecy, which washes the man's heart and body for the forgiveness of his sins. Wake up, for the Lord waits for you to loosen the chains of the bishop who is among you, (Bishop John-Irineu, r.n.), who will write your reconciliation to the Father, by repentance for the forgiveness of your sins. Amen.

We, Lord, have spoken from near You the word upon those who can hardly wake up at Your voice, for we have had mercy on You on earth and in heaven. We cry for Your mercy before those who are unfaithful. We cry for Your tear from the man of lawlessness, who sits in Your place pasturing the world to death, to grave, Lord, but the Romanian country is the place where You wait for the resurrection of the dead and for the life of the age that is to be, and it is the place where You wait for the resurrection of the man with the Father, for You come in it as a word of resurrection from death to draw everyone to the Father. Amen, amen, amen.

— However, My loved saints, this is what I said when I was with My disciples on earth: «And I, if I am lifted up from the earth will draw all people to the Father, for I will come in the clouds of the heaven, with great power and glory and then I will finish». I will bring an end to the man's life and I will start with My life in man and I will make a people of saints on earth. This kind of work I am doing now on the Romanian land and I want the Romanians to hear Me and to come near and know My coming and its work and to follow in the footsteps of those who sanctify themselves for My coming in their own body, for it is I Who have to live in man and not the man, and this life I want to bring on earth and to bring it with the saints. Amen.

And as for you, children who carry Me from heaven down onto the earth, listen only to Me, for there is no more time, but it is only God instead. Listen to Me well and always and work whatever I may give you to do. And let all those who want work this way for woe to those who do not listen, children sons! However, you should not stumble against man. You should not come to a stop. You should not stop working, but you should rather keep your eyes and ears open to Me, your Lord and Teacher, for we will have to work only from heaven for the preparation of the feast of Pentecost of the work of My word on the Romanian land, on the land of My return. Make the people of My word ready within its spirit and body. Tell it to sit at the table of the heaven and may the Lord be on it as body and word. Amen. And let My table be strengthened, and let everything that I have done to be and to be worked, and you should know what I speak when I speak and you should also tell to My people whatever I have to tell them, for they know well from Me that each one has to build his life in his own body by being obedient to God. Amen.

Oh, children, teach may My people listen to you! Amen. Oh, children who teach, make way for the glory of My word in you, for the earth and everything that is on it have to listen to you.

And if someone asks you which your name on earth is, you should say that your name is: the Word of God, and let your confession be true, sons and bearers of My word to the man. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Meeting (Candlemas)

You should wait for Me, you should receive Me, My people, and you should wait for Me when I come to you. When you know that I come, you should give Me power to come, you should sprinkle with longing on My way, for your longing for God binds the heaven with the earth, My people.

You should welcome Me with longing and you should wait for Me with sighing in your waiting, because it is very hard for the heaven and for the earth without God on earth as word, children from the gates. I find you My gates and by your waiting for Me I find you. I find you with a sighing longing after Me to come and to save you from sufferance, oppressions and waiting, and to set My will on the earth and in man. However, My heaven is so close to the earth, it is so far away from man and the man does not feel My closeness, My walking, My word, My eye after him and My hand ready to remove the distance, which is nothing else but unbelief, not love and not the man's view, because of those that are so close to him and which separate man from God, children sons, watching in the way of My word, which becomes heaven between Me and you, the council of the heaven, the sufferance of the heaven by which I want, sons, to embrace the people of My word to make him feel Me closer to him, for the heaven that is so close to the earth, so truthful on the earth, is so far away from man and the man does not feel Me with him on earth, because he wanders away among the evil spirits, and those are that make the separation between heaven and earth, and these separate Me from My fellowship with the man, from My heavenly living on earth and full of sufferance from man and for man.

Two thousand years ago, I came near to man and I could not be known and loved by man. I could not spend time with the man then either, and only two or three hearts waited for Me and received Me and saw Me and believed Me and loved Me and followed Me and appreciated Me as Messiah, the One sent by the Father to become man on earth, and then to make My disciples after that, and they to be My house on earth. Amen.

My mother, the Virgin, and the old Joseph took Me and dedicated Me after forty days from My birth on earth. They brought a cleaning sacrifice for My birth from the Virgin, for I came to be a man, and to be as close to the man on earth as the heaven is from the earth. But it was not so. The earth was far from heaven and I was not known by the people in the midst of which I was born and grew and I did the work of My father for the people to know that I came out from the Father.

Oh, if the man were faithful as were those who received from the Father by the spirit of prophecy the revelation of the mystery of My coming on earth, I would appear with you in all My glory upon you and I would appear with the heaven so close to the earth, a miracle of new age, a broken light from the Father's being, heaven and earth together working and raising up the kingdom of My heavens upon you, speaking and confessing children of the heaven so close to you. I work with you and upon you within a great mystery, for the man, would not see, as two thousand years ago, and he would not believe or love God, for those who are close to him become a curtain of sufferance between Me and man, and I cannot do anything more before the unbelief, before such a small measure of the man, of his view, of his faith, of his humility and of his longing for God. I hide within My longing for you, in your longing after God on earth and I cry within you, because I have no place where to bow My head on earth and to cry. The one who passes by the cross has no feeling for Me whatsoever; the cross that the man makes it out of wood, stone or iron, and then he imagines that I am there nailed on it, crying and bleeding from man. Oh, the sign by which a nation is Christian is not this, and it is not by this that He has Me, the crucified One, as His God. Oh, sons aggrieved after My coming! It is not only this, it is not only so, that the man should see Me on earth. Who has told him that this means God with the man on earth? Who has told the man that the dwelling places, which are built by man on earth with crosses on it, mean God with the man on earth?

Oh, I have come as God born from heaven and from the earth in a place called holy, and still I was not able to live with the man in the image and under the name of God, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, by which I came down on earth to confess Myself by death on the cross and by resurrection, if by the birth from the Virgin I was not received by the people as the Son Who came from God from heaven after the man. Now I have become word on earth, and the clouds of My heaven keep Me with the glory of My word, but I cannot put aside the distance between Me and man, and I cannot because of those that are close to the man and in which the man believes seeing and calling them true, the truth in which the man has been drowning for seven thousand years and he has not got above them to see My face, My glory, and to have the desire to be My glory and that I may be his glory, and both of us to have the same work, the same feeling and gentleness, and that the Father may no longer cry out of My mercy, of My sufferance, of My coming after the man as mysterious God, whispering to the man that I have come to ask him to receive Me, to wait for Me and to believe Me when I tell him that it is hard for the heaven and for the earth without God on earth with the man.

Oh, children who have ears and eyes from Me for God and for His entire heaven! How shall we do with My heaven, so close to the earth, that it may no longer be so far away from man, faithful children on earth? What shall I do with you, how shall I work with you, to be able to give faithful eyes to the man, eyes from heaven? It hurts Me to work with pain upon the man to make him see God with His heaven so close to the earth. When the heaven is glorified, it is glorified on earth, however, this is not possible otherwise but only with plagues, for the man does not love to receive and wait for God.

I have you on earth as My faithful and full of longing ones after My coming in the eyes of man, but I cannot comfort your longing but only with the coming of My affliction over the man, for no one has been waiting for Me to be true and to come, children sons of the faith from above. There has been two thousand years since I proved to the man that I was true and wonderful God, but the man does not love Me and he does not become into My image and after My likeness to see Me, and I cry because of the wrath the man gathers in heaven and which comes back to him on earth. Oh, only if the man came to you to ask you about love, about My heaven so close to the earth and to the man, I would make a river bed of Holy Spirit between heaven and earth, between those that are seen and those that are not seen, but the man has got ahead of Me with the discoveries of the science, which does not take the place of human life and eternity, and the man lost the gift of the true glory, not made by man, by man's mind and the man has made his eternal place in the science that passes once with its makings that deceive the man. However, you should look at Me, faithful children of the eternal truth, and be the teachers over all those who can teach the face of My glory, the Lord's life on earth carried by the man's body, for every man builds his eternity within his body, and blessed are those who build themselves in the image and after My likeness, according to My word, which blows the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, over you so that it may not be hard on earth for you, for it is hard for the heaven and the earth without God on earth as word.

Oh, My people, do not forget to be holy, for those who feed on the sin and stay like that, hidden in it, these all draw upon themselves everything they have built in their body, and behold a Scripture with a great fulfillment on earth: «Those that are holy are holy still, and those that are filthy are filthy still», (Rev. 22:11) and all follow their own course, and the man remains unfaithful even when he sees the Scriptures being fulfilled under his very eyes, as they are written. Amen.

I have come to write Myself with you in a feast of word to bring to memory the day of two thousand years ago, when I, being a child, kept into the arms of My mother, the Virgin, was given into the arms of the old Simeon, who, not believing in the prophecy, which announced that I would be born of a virgin, after many years of waiting, he came to believe seeing the Son of God, born of a virgin body, and then he was released from the sin of his unbelief.

Oh, My people, I have told you to listen to those who teach you from Me. You should take My word from them that is for you, for they speak from Me and tell you how to listen and how to work. I speak as I can, because I want to protect you, but they give you all My word for you. Amen.

Oh, My people, blessed are and will be those into your midst who listen to God working according to His will. Amen.

Oh, My people, you should receive Me, and you should wait for Me and listen well to Me when I come to you. When you know that I come, you should also give Me power to come and sprinkle longing on My way, for your longing after God binds the heaven with the earth in My work among the angels and the saints for you, for it is very hard without God on earth, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the memorial of the Prodigal son's parable

Open My book with you, children who watch in the gates, to glorify Myself within word upon you and upon the earth. Amen, amen, amen.

I have always spoken My word over the earth, for I, children sons, have no one with whom I may carry My burden from man's unbelief and his disregard of Me, and I carry it with you, and then we set it down on earth over those who make it for Me, for that which the man works before Me, that is what it comes back to man, and that is why I have to speak out all My crying from man on earth.

The man lives on earth with the evil in him, with his great distance from Me and the man on earth is heavy, since even the earth can no longer keep him, and the earth struggles with pain, children sons. With whom shall I cry over the pain of the earth, which struggles within the pain of new birth? I cry with you and with the people that cries together with us. We also cry with those who do not let themselves to be heavy on earth, and I speak out My word into the midst of My people of today in order to fulfill it afterwards. Amen.

Oh, My people of today, the saints and the angels hear your name when I call you: „My people!“ Oh, My people, I do not have on earth another people, another church, in which to become truly body and word. Those who call themselves church on earth, say this from themselves, not from Me, for I did not choose them. If I had been to choose, I would not chose those who hid and hide under the garment known as holy, only to go into immorality at ease and in such a way that the world may not know them. However, I have spoken that everything the man works before Me, this comes upon him before the people, and every man will receive his reward according to his own works, for I said: «I come quickly, and I will give each one according to his work». (Rev. 22:12) Amen.

Oh, My people, the immoral man has not wanted to hear the parable of the prodigal's son from Me, for he who hears has ears to hear. I speak into your midst My long sufferance from those who have squandered their life in sexual immoralities, but not like the son prodigal of life, and who hid far away from his father and who, coming to his senses, repented with grief and came back begging his father to receive him under his shelter only like a hired man, like one who was forgiven and shown mercy, because he came back. My affliction from those who squander their lives in outrageous debaucheries, is that which even at the table known as God's on earth, even under the shelter called church by those who stay under it, these people prodigal of life, these deceivers who stay over the people who look after God, have come together and gathered the reward for their sins, and which will come over those with a great and shameful noise. They also do not longer come back to God as some hired men, for the time is different now, and it is nothing else but only what is written into the Scriptures, for it is written: «He who is holy let him be holy still, and he who is filthy, let him be filthy still for the time is near and it is right at the door», but these people do not know if they have not watched.

However, now, with great mercy, within full sufferance, I cry with a word of mourning and tell those who are faithful and holy, among those who are liars and say that are My church, and I also tell those who come to repentance: come out from the midst of those who are immoral, who have hidden under a garment of holy man and separate yourselves! Do not stay, do no longer stay touched together with those who stay unclean before the glory of My word, which comes and gives each one according to one's work! Come out and be separated and I will receive you and I will feed you and water you and I will show you My will to be able to walk in it, for My word comes on earth and it will burn everything that is dry and will reveal everything that is holy and the dimly burning wick he will not quench, and I will blow into it to kindle it and to give light, and the bruised reed he will not break. Amen.

I, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, revealed Myself as God Who came from the Father, Man born of the Virgin, and I have come again under My name in the end of the time and I am called the Word of God, (Rev. 19/13, r.n.), and I speak the language of the Romanian people, where I have been glorifying Myself by the word for fifty years, by the mystery of My second coming after the man, for there have passed seven ages since the creation of the world, and within the mid century after this one, I wrote seven thousands five hundred years and I rose My church again on earth, and I set it on its foundation by the word, and I am its foundation and this is how I have been speaking from the midst of My church of New Jerusalem to those who falsely call themselves My church:

Do no longer lie to the nations of the earth that you are God's servants, you, those who have turned the places known as holy places into houses of immorality for your empty glory; you, those who have defiled the altars from the fathers; you, those who live in your blood and which has risen nine fathoms above your heads! I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth and I have come down on earth to write upon you the end of the lie, for the devil is the father of falsehood and you have the devil as your father. Do no longer put people off with fine words for you belong to God and the path to Me is towards you! Do no longer lie to the sons of the people, who walk like blind people after you, if you serve the outrageous sins! My word has been crying for fifty years on earth over the earth for the man to hear it, and you, those from the altars, have been defiling the church, you have been ruining it, you have been spoiling its holy name. The church is holy by those who are part of it, but if these are the sons of the devil by their immoral works, by all means they are not a holy church, but rather they are an immoral church, but God's church is not like that. Carry your sins under whatever name you may want it, but not under My name, not under the garment known to be a church garment.

And as for you, those who fear God among these people of falsehood, who called and call themselves a church of saints, I speak to you with this determinative word before the wages of sins may fall over the bodies, which have not repented in themselves from their wicked works: come out of their midst, out of the midst of those immoral people from the altars, so that the wrath for the works that are worthy of wrath may not fall upon you, so that you may not drink of the wine of God's wrath. Come out and separate yourselves and then come to My mountain of word and learn from Me the law of holiness to be able to walk on it, for the eternity is coming on earth and it has to be brought, it has to be built by holy bodies and full of the Holy Spirit! Come back to My love, for I built the man from the beginning for My love, not for his love, and I built him to be My church and not his. I call you with mercy and tears before I pour out My wrath, for the outrageous sins of those, who hide under the name of a holy church, slap My hand, and I have into My hand the cup of the wrath. Come to repentance and to salvation and become a feast of Holy Spirit and give yourselves freely to God, now when I, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, have written down on earth fifty years of word of My mouth, spoken into the midst of the Romanian nation, and when I give the book of the judgment of the creature to all those who will see it now. My word of fifty years has been crying deeply within Me and I have been speaking it over the faithful ones and I have made it into a book, which is called the Book of the Lamb's Life. The word is the life and the life is the light of the people, and the light shines in the darkness. Reach out your hands to Me if you want to receive salvation, and receive and feed on the word of life, for I want to destroy death, the last enemy. I want to destroy the sin, but I cannot do this by the people of falsehood, who call themselves antichrists by their sins, by their life with lie in it and who have brought the man to ignorance of his soul, since I do no longer see on earth a man who fears God, by which the man to be able to put an end to his wandering away and to come back so that I may teach him the way and salvation.

Oh, Romanian people, shake off the Pharisees who make lame your waking to your salvation from under the man of lawlessness. Come, so that I, the Lord, may shepherd you, for you do no longer find any shepherds for you on earth. Come to the way of the Lord, your God, for there is no one to save you besides Me. Come to God and be faithful and learn the mystery of your being from God, My mystery in you, for by My word into your midst I make the world again, I make the new heaven and the new earth, for I have to fulfill this Scripture on earth, but I want to protect you from perishing into the midst of the nations of the earth, for you are My land, chosen by the Father from the creation of the world for Me, after seven ages of people. Amen.

And as for you, people of My word, strengthen yourself in the mystery of My new beginning, and may your humility of spirit be your path to everything that I have to be into your midst, to everything that you have to be into the Romanian nations, for I want to sound My trumpet with My Gospel upon you over the entire world, the book of the new kingdom, for My kingdom is just as endless as I am. Amen. You can do nothing without My teaching and without any teacher upon you, for it is not for the body but for My Spirit that I have separated you from among the sons of the people who walk without any way between earth and heaven, My people.

May be blessed the work of the being of the book of My word, spoken and written into the midst of the Romanian people for fifty years, be a book by which I, the Lord, by My gates may be able to mark on earth the feast of the Pentecost of God's word from the end of the ages, the word of My coming, as in the beginning so in the end; and the word of the new making of the world, as two thousand years ago, I prophesied that it would be. Amen.

Lift up your prayer to Me for the being of My book with perseverance and with one heart, My people. Those who have laughed at Me and at you after they heard of My voice into your midst, will be put to shame by their own outrageous trespasses, and I will draw many true worshipers to the Father, and I will not make the new world until first I make a new church by those who will have heard this voice of Mine and will have pulled themselves out from among those who will be the fire, which they themselves will consumed by it, for they did not fear God. Amen.

You should wait for Me within the gates when I tell you that I come as word, watchful children for My coming. I come down in you with a heavenly power, so that you may be able to do the work of the being of My book, the Book of the Lamb, children sons. Oh, do not forget that I have asked you to prepare My people heavenly, within its body and soul, to be able to be My path to the man. Amen.

You should give Me health, My people. My word has been crying between heaven and earth. The earth has also been crying and struggling because of the sufferance from the sinful man, from the man of falsehood, who himself calls My church. And I want to make the new heaven and the new earth as in the end, for in the beginning, when I made the man, the man worked the land and the earth worked out the man, and the man did not prepare his heaven, and now, in the end, I prepare the man to make the heaven on earth together with him, for My will to be on earth as in heaven, children sons. Amen.

And I will speak out the word over the earth until I fulfill it, because although the man is unfaithful, I am Faithful and True, for I am the Word of God. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of the fearful judgment remembrance

I announce Myself at the gates and without announcing Myself I do not work, for I have learned from the Father to work and to listen to Him. Amen.

I come down as word on the earth. It is My coming down after two thousand years from My ascension near the Father, after I became Man born of the Virgin to grow and to be crucified by the man, and then by resurrection, to ascend to the Father again.

I have showed the man how I was crucified by man and how I hated no one because of My sufferance from the man, who has been unfaithful to My coming. I let Myself to be crucified by a fearful judgment by those who were great among people and then I was put to death on the cross, and on the cross I spoke within great sufferance, with great mercy for the man: «Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing!» (Luke 23:34)

As a blessed one of My Father, I did good to all those who knew Me by My godly power and who asked Me to comfort their sufferance of any kind, and I healed and forgave them and I did not judge them, even if many of them despised Me with blasphemy and called Me a law and peace and tradition breaker, a friend of sinners, a friend of immoral people and of tax collectors. And I told them: «Don't think that I came to destroy the law, but I came to fulfill it; and I did not come to judge the world but to save it». Amen (See Matt. 5:17)

I glorify Myself by the word over every man on earth, for when I come, I come for everybody, as I also wanted to do two thousand years ago. Then I said that the time was coming for the true worshipers to worship the Father in spirit and truth, as the Father does not want the man to worship God otherwise, or in a special place, that is here and there. And this word, which I spoke this way, judged them and judges the people of that time and up to this day, because the people did not fulfill it and do not fulfill it, but they only boast about being God's true worshipers.

Oh, children through whom I speak out the word of sufferance, which the hypocrite man does to Me within his heart and work! How long do the people of falsehood really think that they will be able to make buildings and temples, dwellings place where to worship God, as they say? How long, really? How long? The earth is ready to be turned upside down because of the man of falsehood who fills My Spirit with wrath. How long the man is to remain blind? Where will hide all those who boast that are My teachers over the people then when I will break loose with great glory of angels and saints and of heavenly powers from this work of heavenly word, before which even the invisible heaven stands with fear and awe and listen, the heaven which came up from the earth, grouping in hosts all those who are pleased to God from among the people, and who have heard from My mouth: «Come, blessed of My Father! Come and inherit the Kingdom prepared for you by those that are worked on earth for Me and for those who are My little ones?» (See also Matt. 25:34) Where will hide all those who hide now and make hidings from buildings made by man's hand and where they call themselves gods over people?

Every day I will call out more and more powerfully, more mournfully, and I will set you, My people, to sound the trumpet of My mourning over those who make it for Me and we will call out from heaven and from earth, We and you, until all the buildings made without God on earth, without My commandment over the man, will be torn down, some of them by the others, and still some other upon the other ones, for the man's haughtiness has filled Me with the poison, which now will come back and will bite the man, and all those haughty people on earth will look out for death and will not find it. And they will look for you, My people, but you will be in My hand and they will not find you, and then I will tell them that I stayed with you before them and I sounded the trumpet of My word over them and they did not pay any attention to Me so that they could become true worshipers, in spirit and truth so that I may be their God, for I am the Lord of the saints and of those who deny themselves to follow Me and to be like Me, as I work in the Father and like the Father. Amen.

Oh, you, blind guides, listen to My word! It comes out of My mouth and it becomes a book upon you. How shall I tell you that I suffered naked and hungry and thirsty, in hardships and weakness and as a stranger on earth, and that you came and visited Me? How could I tell you this when you did not give anything, but you have only taken? When you have not kept and grazed the flock, which was wandering away from God, but you have only sucked it, fattening your bodies and giving each other over to outrageous sins and by which you call upon the earth and upon you fire and brimstone from heaven? For you have become Sodom, and God's angels are now known by you, but they will make you blind soon, soon, and they will take out from you those who cry for My righteousness over the earth. I have sent My word towards you, My announcement, My calling, which calls you to worship in spirit and truth, not only in garment and that is all, not in houses called to be prayer houses and that is all, for the true worshipers do not need praised places, but they rather need a humble and repentant spirit for the forgiveness of their sins, for John, My Baptizer, came out from the wilderness, not from luxurious places, and he stood on the riverbed of flowing water calling and crying for the people to come to the repentance of their sins and to their cleanings by the baptism with water. Oh, I have also been calling out for many years to you and to every man to come to My mountain of word and to hear My voice, by which the earth and the heaven startles, the dead from their graves and the saints in the glory, and as for you, by hearing, you pretend that you do not hear and that you do not know. However, I will not speak the same way, but I will speak that you have sinned and that you have heard and that you have known, and that you have had eyes and have not seen with them the glory of My humility by which I have dwelt in those you have not taken into consideration, you those who call and think that you are the rulers of the world more than any other masters of it. However, I tell you this: you will not escape the wrath, which you have earned by your departure from God, because, if I, being God and sinless Man, I have not escaped from the wrath of unfaithful man, how much more you will not be forgotten by the wrath you will have earned through your works without God on earth and by which you will have sucked the power, the soul, the faith and the fear of God from all the poor people, who did not know the way to God, the way, which you covered, for their way to you. Behold, a fearful word, for I, the Lord God, the Lord of the powers, and the Lamb of the Father, am also just as fearful as the word is, fearful because of your outrageous sins and by which you filled over the brims the cup of My wrath.

I have lifted up from among you, from My plan and My Father's, the one who had to declare the act of reconciliation with the Father by your repentance and faith in My coming as word from the Father, to draw many to the Father. However, you have pretended that you do not know and have chucked up the salvation of the earth and kept under silence the word of the resurrection of the creature, the word, which had to come out from the mouth of the one anointed by My word, and which You fulfilled it after that and established it as bishop, for I fulfill what I speak and I do not work like you. And now, with a great hand, by an unspeakable wrath, I will pull you down from your seats you stick to and from where you keep the world under control in order to serve you and to give you honor, and it will be shameful for you, when I, the Almighty Lord, will take you out from the cover, which you stay hidden under, out from under the garment, which you cover with and boast that you are sanctified, and I will expose your real face, by which you have stood against the grace of the Holy Spirit, Who works by the saints with wonderful signs to the confirmation of the true God, the God of the faithful and of the saints, the One Who is glorified by the cherubim and seraphim and by all those who received and receive the love of the truth, in such a way that they may become sons of God.

The memorial of My Gospel of two thousand years ago, the one of My second coming from the Father and of the fearful judgment, calls Me to fulfill, and I will fulfill by those who remind Me of all My promises written into the Scriptures. Amen.

And as for you, those who stay as My gates for the coming of My word for the judgment of the creature, I keep you within the cloud, just as I am, and I will appear with you soon, soon. However, I want you to learn from Me to shun evil, which has been scattered on your way by those who are evil on earth and from near My places with you. Take water with you, sanctified by My word, and sprinkle with it the ground you step on, and only after that you should step your foot on the ground, for the spirit of the unfaithful and hostile man to you walks where you walk and pours out devilish wickedness on your way, because the devil in man does not suffer you. Mark yourselves all the time with the sign of the holy cross, accompanied by My calling near you and of My angels and saints, and feed yourselves on living spirit by My Body and Blood, which protects you from any evil, and strengthen the people of My word within all these and let My people be alive through Me and let it speak to God in a lively manner and let all speak to each other about Me on their way with Me, for it is hard on earth and it becomes harder and harder, but My protection teaches you, to also be able to teach all those who love Me and listen to Me and to you, and that you may be victorious with Me over the earth, and this for My name, for the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, children bearers of God and vessels of the faith from above, faith, which stays before Me now, and it will stay until I declare for the last time: «All have come to an end!» so that all things may appear again and that all may appear new, to the eternal love between God and man, and for the eternal love of God in man. Amen.

And now, the man built by My hand, male and female, and all his followers, sinners of saints, unworthy or righteousness, all those who are unfaithful and who fearfully were swallowed by the flood and given alive over the dwelling of the dead, all those who are remembered, the seven ages of people, who have been born on earth from the man, these bring reverence before Me and before My people into the midst of which it was spoken about remembrance and prayer for the forgiveness of their sins, and, desiring longingly and crying mournfully, they wait and call from Me the last moment by which they will be redeemed in their bodies for eternity with the saints, by the forgiveness from the Father. We release them now, and they, with their spirit released, bow, so that afterwards, after I will not be so long in coming, let them get up for the new birth of everything, in the mystery of the new heaven and new earth, the mystery of the eternal life, the mystery that has not been understood by the man, who has been dying for seven thousand years without understanding what it has been with his life until My coming, and then, again.

And I, the Lord, write into My book with you all those that you have been working for the resurrection of the creature, which sighingly has been waiting for My giving of life coming, for by being resurrected, the creature will come to life. Amen, amen, amen.

The Sunday of memorial of Adam's expulsion from paradise

The Father Sabaoth is in Me when I speak, for I am His Son and Word, as I was in the beginning when I built the man saying: «Let Us make man in Our image and after Our likeness»; (Gen. 1:26) He spoke with Me through Me and from Me. Amen.

Let us come down into My book in these days, children who receive Me as word from the Father. You and all the people of My word should know well and with much living that your God is called the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, for the people who pretend to be Christians on earth do not know the name of God, because only the Holy Spirit knows in man, for the Holy Spirit is the being of the Father and of the Son, and when God's being does no longer has work in man, the man does not know God, even if he tries to speak about God. When My Father and I spoke we fulfilled, for this is how the Holy Spirit, God's being, works, after He speaks out His word. Amen.

Oh, how much We, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit loved the word of man's creation so that We might fulfill Ourselves as house and to have rest in it, and to confess Ourselves in it and through it! Oh, children, speaking of God! Two thousand years ago, My disciples confessed God's mystery and the faith for it and they said that the man has to believe in the Father, in the Son and in the Holy Spirit and in the church, and by being baptized within these and believing, to be forgiven from all his sins and to become divine, and by confession to share God to the people, being afterwards the son of resurrection and of the eternal life, which is to be in the new heaven and on the new earth, which God promised as an inheritance to those who love Him. Amen.

Oh, My people, all God's mystery is through the church, and God's church is nothing else by the man. If the Holy Spirit, the Lord Creator of life, is not glorified in the man and from the man, he is not God's man in the church and does not know God in him and that is why he cannot show Him to others, for the Holy Spirit, the Father's Being and of the Son, confesses and glorifies Himself on the sides when He is in man, and He is fulfilled by the man confessing Himself. Amen.

Oh, how much it hurts Me the fact that I do no longer have a resting and confessing place on earth! Oh, children sons, how beautiful is the man who is a church of God's Being, a place of the Holy Spirit, a true worshiper, as I told the Samaritan woman about the true worshipers, who worship the Father in spirit and truth, as Father wants! I built the man as beautiful as I am, for I wanted to be in him with My image and after My likeness and to be a dwelling place of My glory. My glory is My work, and the man had to be only that, and God to be his Master, because He made him. However, the man let himself to be deceived by disobedience, and disobedience is just as severe as his disbelief. It makes the man self-confident if God lives secretly to help the man to always have the wages of obedience by submission and fear of God, the armor, which does not let the man lose God's being from His dwelling place. I have been enduring a long pain for seven thousand years, since the man spoiled My love in him, which would have kept him as the dwelling place of My glory, submitted to God's glory within him. When the man crushes My love in him, he grows within himself and becomes sin against the glory of the Holy Spirit, Who makes the man as beautiful as God is and My joy and rest in him, for it is for this that I created him, and I built him by love.

Oh, My people, when the man makes a beautiful doll for himself, he makes it by love, and then he enjoys it, because its master can do nothing else for it or against it. This is how I worked out My doll kneaded on earth, and I built My building looking at My image, which My Father loved. However, if then I breathed over it in order to put life in it, My doll did not listen to Me as a doll would listen and which can do nothing but only what its master can do with it.

Oh, how much I have been longing for the man to be a good doll to My joy, to My comfort, especially that I breathed life in her to be living doll and to put My love in it, loving her master from within it. I cried much on earth two thousand years ago, and I told everybody that unless they became like little children, they would not enter My kingdom, within My love, for My love in man keeps the man clean and obedient and loving and holy, just as I am, and it keeps him a sweet doll to the joy of the One Who made him, as I am the doll of My Father Sabaoth, because I listen to Him and I love him to His joy and comfort. Amen.

Oh, children who build God in man! How much I want you to have dolls, children and sons, doll sons! I want to make you glad because you are children, and the children know to rejoice if they have joys. I am the doll of My Father God, and I dwell with My being in you for you to settle Me down in you and to fulfill My kingdom in those who have become little children by obedience to the Father, for such worshipers Father wants, with the Holy Spirit in them and with the truth, which makes them children, new born, sons, making of Holy Spirit in man. I long for the beautiful man, I long for the living man through the Holy Spirit in him, because I lost him from Me and the man, built by My hand, lost Me from him too, for his disobedience made him not listen to Me, and he expelled the one in Me who did not take after Me, as I resemble My Father by My obedience to Him, by His love towards Me and which keeps Me within Him and Him within Me.

Let us cry after man's happiness! Let us cry before the Father, My people! Oh, sons, become My dolls so that God may have you as His dwelling places. Oh, sons, oh, a doll made by man to the man's joy and comfort does not ask for anything. It cannot but give her beauty to the one who made it beautiful. Oh, My people, take a living example of what I wanted to make you understand and to be able to do. I invited you to My love in you, and which makes you divine to become a dwelling place of My glory, son and My people.

Let Us stand in front of the mirror now to make Ourselves beautiful, more and more beautiful with every passing day. You should look in Me and I in you in order to become dolls, sons. I strengthen you with blessing for the time of abstinence from food to be able to prepare your little bodies brightly for the dwelling of God's being in them, because to the churches that are sanctified to God there are, are written seven weeks of fasting in the body and for the feeding of your hearts within the being of the Holy Spirit, for woe to those who do not know what fasting within the body is, and it brings to the joy of the glory of the Holy Spirit in the man who becomes beautiful to God! Let My thought be your thought, working children with God for this time, so that we may be able to work with the Holy Spirit for the being of the book, which will preach on the earth the feast of the Pentecost of the word of My coming, My word, which gives birth to the man in him to the joy of the fulfillment of the life of the age, which will be eternal for those who believe all the things that I have promised that will come on the earth. I give you heavenly progress for you are small and the book of My word is just as great as God is. And I will give you all those necessary for its being by which we will hold a feast of Holy Spirit, fifty years of resurrection word, and then a little bit of time and patience with grace for the new birth of the world. Amen.

Oh, children who guide My people to the grace of the Holy Spirit! Those who have not known to love you and to believe in you for My glory, which I share through you, will soon sigh, when they look at you and will see that I, the Lord, have believed in you and had My love in you. I have told you several times that My love in you has its own husbands, and blessed will be those who will have loved My love in you and used its wisdom in you. Turn these people, who stay at their making, into My dolls and rejoice over their obedience, and comfort yourselves over their holy fruit. And be dolls, sons, so that I may have you as models for those who know and love My life within them with wisdom for them and in them. Amen, amen, amen.

The first Sunday of the Lent, of the Orthodoxy

Be attentive, children who are My gates of entrance into Jerusalem! Let My power be in you, for you are weak and small for My heaviness upon you. Listen with wisdom and give Me power to strengthen you, for you are wise and know what I tell you by what I tell you. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I touch you and I take away your weakness and I strengthen your wisdom and its body, for you are the temple of the Holy Spirit, a dwelling place of the wisdom from above. Let everything that stands against Me and against you for My word, which is settling down today in its book with you, come down and stand aside and you should give yourselves up to Me because I can. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, how much power I had in My apostle Paul! And he said: «When I am weak, then am I strong, and then the Lord can». (See 2 Cor. 12:10) Oh, how much I can work in the one who lets himself under My power in the time of his weaknesses, by coming to Me to revive him, as David was doing and saying in his weaknesses: «I have looked out for the Lord, waiting for Him to save Me from the lack of the soul and from storm». Amen.

My work is the man, My people. My work is to bring the man back to the Father. Oh, I have always asked you and much and I have asked you to take great care of My coming down as word on to the earth and to help Me, for I have told you that it is not I but the man who has to come. All the creature has been waiting for the man, not for Me, for I am, but the man is not. Oh, the man cannot learn to be, to take life from Me and to put it upon him and to believe that he can do My will. Nothing is beyond man's power if he wants to believe that I am. I can, but I cannot without man. I can do everything that I have to do, but only through the man with a measureless faith and the same it has to be with his humility.

I made the man for Me. I made him and I gave him life, and then I told him to work it and to keep it, and to be able to rest with My love in man, in My house, My people. I told him, when I made him, to have life with obedience, for this means for the man to love Me; Me and not himself. Oh, who is to tell the man what God means, what man means, what God with man and man with God mean? Who is to tell the man? I tell him, I, for I am the Word, but even this, the man did not want to understand sufficiently, that is to let Me, the word, and not him. And because he did not want to know and to work like this, I told him afterwards: «For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned, for each one will give account of everything that is inside of him and outside of him». (See also Matt. 12:37)

I gave life to the man after I had made him. I opened My mouth and I breathed over him and he received life, and he received soul, and I told him to work and to keep his life that I gave him and to listen as I told him. However, even from the very beginning he received the spirit of disobedience, God's adversary, and then the man was not able to love Me and did no longer work and did no longer keep his life. I gave him life and I gave it to him to be beautiful and to listen to My will and to love Me, because I did not make him for another reason.

Oh, man, My sufferance! If I give you life then when you are born of the man by the man's will, then you should grow and know Me then through the creatures and to seek to listen to someone who knows from God what life is, where does it come from, what it does with it, what its house does, and then to become obedient to the One Who gives life, for this means My love in you, man without knowledge from heaven. Blessed is the one who, hearing Me, opens himself and wins over his life for himself, for the man's life is lost even since he took the step of disobedience in his thought and with his word, and then with his deed.

Oh, the word of God is a great mystery that says that God made his work into male and female and called him man and then He called him life. Oh, the man separated from My happiness in him and from his happiness in Me. I was his happiness, and he was My happiness, and then he has no longer listened to the word full of life to be able to work it for himself and to keep it so that God, the Creator, may have where to bow His head for His rest. Neither the man has rest and nor God, for God and man's rest from the beginning was spoiled, and I can hardly seek to find a man with obedience for the commandment of life, for it is the obedience that the man violated, and as a result, the life died in him, and he has been feeding with difficulty and sweat on the fruits of the earth out of which he was made, and since then he has not been resting anymore, for the rested man is the one who does not break the commandment of life and its work.

I have been crying out with tears into your midst, My people, saying that I long for a beautiful man in My image and after My likeness, for I love obedience to the Father and I believe in Him and not in Me if I am submitted to Him. Oh, where should I find My rest? Where should I find a beautiful man, a man made by God and then to give him life, and then he may work and keep it to be in My image and after My likeness just as I am like My Father? Oh, the man does no longer come back to God to give Him his life! The man loves himself and the tries to take care of his days and he is in the darkness, poor of him, for whoever does not love God and then his brother, that one is in the darkness. Woe to the one who lives according to his mind, according to his knowledge, for that one becomes haughty, and this means death. The man has got used to the curse for his disobedience and for which I told him: «By the sweat of your face will you eat your bread». (See Gen. 3:19)

Oh, the one who does not love God with his entire being, not keeping anything of it for himself for death, for his self, which is the death in man, that one sees his nakedness and loves it, as Adam loved his nakedness after he saw that he was naked, and then he separated from God and loved himself, for he saw himself and loved himself after he received knowledge and saw himself after that. The man gave up obedience to God and then he died, for he saw that he was naked and tried to hide, for he went wrong, he was fallen in his own self, and when this happens to the man, he hides afterwards.

Oh, the man values himself as wrong as he is, and as naked as he is. The man has looked to his own nakedness and loved himself and he sent Me away and since then he has been struggling to keep his life, the one of his self, the one from himself. Oh, how shall I make the man believe in Me and not in him? Shall I make the man out of his flesh and blood, and how shall I make him and to have him as Mine? Oh, how much mourning on Me, the man's Creator! I took upon Me all the man's sins, all of them, to the point of being considered the last one among the people, the most sinful man between earth and heaven, I, the One without any sin. Then I let Myself be tortured and under great sufferance from the man, and then I sat on the cross according to the man's will, to pass through death and to go to the Father with the price of the man's life, with My live on the cross, to give it to the man as his life by the cross, for I laid it down on the cross so that I might take it back again, because I am the Master of life, and I am the Man Who cries after the man, taking upon Me all the man's guilt, for this is how I knew how to cry after man, believing in the Father, Who sent Me to accomplish on earth the wages of man's life who lost his life by the fruit of his disobedience for the work and for the guard of his eternal life, of My being put in him, of life without sighing, without end.

It crushingly hurts Me the haughty man, who is no longer healed from his haughtiness with wrongdoings, for whoever goes wrong becomes haughty afterwards, and he cannot live his life afterwards. Oh, who shall I be healed with from My pain caused by the man that is so great to Me, for I laid down My love on the cross to give to the man resurrection, love and humility after that, and that without these two the man has no life whatsoever, for live has humility in it, which makes the man into My image.

I made the man for Me, My people; I did not make the man for him, but who is to tell him this? I tell him, I, for I am the Word. I did not make the man to hide from Me behind him; it is not for this that I made him. I did not make him to hide behind Me, for after he went wrong by disobedience, he blamed Me and not himself, and he told Me: «The woman, whom You gave to me, she gave me, she incited me and I ate». (See also Gen. 3:12)

Oh, it is a great mystery My word, which says that God made His work male and female and called him man and then gave him life! Two thousand years ago, I removed the seal of this mystery, and by listening to the Father, I became a Man without sin, for My mother, the Virgin, gave Me her body of flesh as My dwelling place, and from her I received My life that was put in her by My Father, and I have showed the man the mystery of life, the mystery of obedience, the mystery of incorruptibility, the fruit of the holy faith, in those who believed that life is from God and it is born by the word and that afterwards it is called man, and that it is called the dwelling place of the man's life. Amen.

Oh, children with affliction in you! I have dwelt in you, I have stood within the gates to strengthen My coming through the gates, for this is how I work, and I do nothing without My Father's good order. Now, children of My embracing, believe and fulfill all that by faith and with faith ask for My work with you over the earth, for your life is God, and I am happy because of you, because of those who are happy through the sufferance which always gives birth from it to the one who works and guards My life in him, the life with God's obedience, the life which walks in the light and gives life from God on to the earth, the spring of light, the spring of life, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the forty holy martyrs of Sevasta

Oh, even if it is hard and too hard to believe that I, the Lord, separated the ages with you, the earthly one from the spiritual one, and that I gave you My kingdom into your dominion as some of My sanctified ones and saints through Me, the holy One, I believe in those that I prophesied by the word of My work of fifty years ago, and I ask you this: be holy, sons, just as your Lord is holy, for God, carries by your little hand through the Holy Spirit in order that He may protect you afterwards from those which will soon come over the earth, and that He may remain with you by His victory, whose kingdom He gives to His saints, as it is written into the Scriptures. Amen.

I mark Myself down with the feast of My saints into My book with you and I remind you not to forget this day of memorial of the holy martyrs from Sevasta and to give sweet bread to the people who are faithful to Me and to you, bread baked in the form of the number of the Lord's age, the age that is to be forever through those who sanctify themselves for it.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, make three times the number of the holy confessing martyrs in the mountain lake of Sevasta, make sweet bread, morsels, a hundred and twenty, out of seven measures of wheat, as I have advised you for this feast, and serve the Lord with faith, for His mysteries are faithful to Him, because I have said that the people of My word of today is the mystery of the work from the end of the Scriptures, which still are to be fulfilled over the earth, and this mystery has been waited by Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, those who marked and mark the work of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Israel's children after the spirit and not after the flesh. Always remember Abraham's faith, sons. He did not doubt of the being of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, when This came under his oak and preached the word of God, the one that was to come true, and by his faith it was accomplished, and Abraham has been called the father of his tribe, the tribe after the faith, the one after the spirit and not after the flesh, and behold, the saints are Abraham's followers and they are in tens of thousands, and I, the Lord, come with them, for this is the prophecy in the Scriptures that says: "The Lord is coming with tens of thousands of saints." Amen.

However, you, My people, shall remember the saints and you should also unite with them in their prayer for you and for all the nations of Abraham, from you and up to it, Israel, newly chosen. However, you, My people, should say "Yes," to your Lord, in everything He asks from you to believe and to be able and to fulfill then, to be Abraham's child, the faithful one, son, and you should be gentle and merciful like him, and you should not refuse anything of what I ask you to fulfill, for Abraham was merciful to Me and he let himself be put to test, for he believed that I was and that I knew everything I had to fulfill and prophesy, and then to accomplish. I prophesied to him that I will multiply his seed like the stars of the heaven, and this is what I fulfill, for I have the heaven as holy followers of Abraham. I promised Isaac to him by prophecy and I gave him an example by those that I, the Lord, the Son of the Father, was going to suffer, as Abraham brought the life of his son as a sacrifice, at the Father's commandment, so that he might take it back, just as I also took Mine back after I laid it down on the cross.

Oh, My people, I have been teaching you to show yourself too with the sacrifice of your faith and love of God, and I have told you that I bless you with power for the time of your abstinence from food until the day of celebration of My resurrection, for I am the Shepherd Who laid down His life for the sheep in order to take it back and then to give it to My sheep so that they may have life in them. However, you should not forget about you, not about another one, son, and let each one of you give to the Lord according to the measure he has got so that he may receive from God.

Some of you should fast for yourselves, sons, for your own good. Some other of you should also fast for Me, to My good. And some other from among you should fast for the love of the people, just as I did. Still, others should fast for the power of those who are weak in their spirit and body, according to the love that have those who fast like that. And behold, there are various different gifts even if they work within the same spirit and for the same God, and behold, not all the bodies are the same, and some of you have to sacrifice more for those who do not do the same, for the love or the power are not the same in all of you. Remember the child's mother, who was about to lose the crown of martyrdom for the salvation and less for the love of God, and his mother carried him in her back up to his crown.

Oh, sons, some of you fast beautifully and with joy and faith, sons. Some other of you fast by lusting and waiting to pass the fasting so that they may eat, but this abstinence is not good when it is brought as a debt, but it is good when is given with longing and love, little sons. I have some of you who receive a big grade from Me for a smaller abstinence from food, but at the same time, for more food for Me from him, for a sweeter life for Me in him, for a greater kingdom of Mine in him, without seeking to measure another one's to see how big it is, for the one full of the spirit of love and humility pleased to Me, does not do something like this to take after someone's model or not model, but he rather takes Me as his example, and I am the One Who measures according to everyone's dough.

Oh, My people, I scatter only wisdom into your way to be able to get used to the way of My love, son, and to look at Me and not at your brother, for it is not you but I, Who needs to measure your love for Me and the sacrifice of your love. If the man measures it, you remain without any reward, but if I measure it, I know to weigh your creature well, your growth and your sacrifice for it. On the earth some become saints in their heart and then in their body, and that is the sweetest sacrifice before Me. Some become saints in their body and their heart is small in humility and sacrifice, and this is a small measure, easier. And others are the love, which comes to My wound and are My healing by the mercy in their heart, for without his heart the man cannot be holy to God, even if he puts his body on fire.

Oh, sons, do not make your account alone and do not call someone else into account. Leave that for Me, for I am the One Who knows the hearts and all they have, little or much for Me, the one for My place in man. Amen.

And now I speak in a special way, and those from the gates know the way of My speaking:

Oh, wipe out My tear which cries, you merciful child, child gentle and merciful in your little heart! Put away your weaknesses, which does not come from Me in you, for I said that the world is My enemy and yours, and that the world has come to an end for those who are My loved and My sealed ones, and I have also said that I had worked for fifty years to set My people aside for Me that will remain to Me, to separate it from the world and to have it, and to be able to keep it from those that are to come over the world.

Oh, wipe out My tear, which cries, merciful child and with a gentle but weak little heart. I touch you with My word that suffers in Me to heal you from your weakness, because I can no longer stay weak in you. My weakness in you makes Me suffer. Hear Me, and wipe out My tear and believe like Abraham, and work like him and say "Yes" when I ask you for what I have given you to have and to give Me for My comfort, for My power in the Christian. Come, merciful child, give yourself with My gift that I gave you, give yourself to My poor people, for I ask Myself from you for it, and get up to be able to do it, for your weakness is not from Me. And then do no longer yield yourself to weakness but only to the love for those that are My little ones, for I strengthen you for them and for Me, so that I may no longer bear sufferance and tear and weakness in you, I, the One Who am able to do. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I give you word to be able to work and to listen through it and to be able to do, and as for Me, how should I put an end to My sighing and weakness, for weakness brings weakness. Peace to you! And let your mercy reveal you with power, and let your heart be into My heart, because I wait for you in it, and let us lift one another up that we may be able to work. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, My people, those who are My gates know where the steps of My word go, and let the sacrifice of your love for Me and for those that I love together with you have power, for I give you heavenly powers, sons. Amen.

I wait for a spirit of love, a spirit of mercifulness and peace for those who hardly carry the burden of the work of My Spirit. I wait for you to believe because you need obedience to God when I teach you to keep away from the world as much as you can, sons, for the world has its spirit and it does not have My Spirit, and the world puts only evil into your way, for this is its work. However, I teach you to believe and to keep away from the involvement with the world and to sprinkle your bodies and ways with holy water, for I cannot protect you by anything if you do not protect yourselves, if you do not depart from the world. The world laughs and jokes and the world is My enemy, but you shall not tell that yours is not. The world is hostile to you, and I want to keep you away from its wine, from its wandering away! Be an example in the world so that it may worship God through you and not you, sons. Amen.

Oh, seek to work all of My work and yours in all the heavenly peace and make much peace between you before Me, and humbly forgive each other everything that is to be forgiven, as you also ask My Father to forgive whatever you do wrong.

Oh, the one, who becomes proud within himself towards another one, that one goes wrong after that, and the one who goes wrong, humbles oneself and does not become proud. It is better for you to go wrong than to become proud, but be merciful and be forgiven, sons. Amen.

And now, do not forget to seek that I may be able to work among you and that I may not stay weak between brother and brother. And do not wait for the other one, for I tell you: give yourselves as examples of mercy and love according to the measure you need to have before Me, so that it may not be I that always I have to bow, but you should bow instead for My well being from you and among you, sons. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem

Let us comfort each other in tears and pains, let us comfort each other with joys, children of My coming down from the Father to you, and you should comfort, comfort the people of My word, and give to it what I give you, for I have you between Me and My people as My way to him and as its way to Me, and Father is in Me all the time and the Father glorifies Me as His Son, the One Who trampled over death by death and gave life to those who love life, and gave elevation and joy to those who have been waiting for their redemption. Amen.

I embrace you within a sweet pace all My moments with you and yours with Me, and I want so much to comfort you under the burden of the cross of My coming as word on earth. I come as word into the book and I give you powers. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, I give you powers for My work with you, for the being of the book of My word of fifty years on the Romanian land. This work is hard, but My Gospel from the end of the time of the man's dominion over the earth, this book shakes the earth even from now in so many ways, and the heart of the earth throbs powerfully to wake up the dead from the tombs and to confess you, those who carried My work in these days and My new name by which I declare the judgment of the creature and the saints' victory on the second coming of the Son of God, before Whom all the nations of the earth will cry, for My coming is with great glory, with much word, and the glory of My word will come out from its mystery and will shake the heaven and the earth as at its creation, to give birth to the world again, because it is written into the Scriptures to do this, and I will do it. Amen.

Oh, My people, what a wonder was two thousand years ago on the day of My entrance into Jerusalem on a colt of a donkey! The news had spread everywhere that I called Lazarus out of his tomb, who had been dead four days. The Father had prepared beforehand to do this miracle so that Jerusalem might confess Me as King of Israel and to be able to bring Me as a sacrifice and that the ruler of this world could bring Me as a sacrifice on the cross, but they were afraid of the resurrected Lazarus, lest the people might arise to believe in Me and that they might lose their priority and their dominion and their vain glory.

How beautifully those that were in Jerusalem welcomed Me! They took branches of trees and sang: «Hosanna!» and their spirit did not know what it was doing, for they fulfilled the prophecies about Me as they were ordered one by one to their fulfillment, for great is the truth about God, My people. I also want you sing «Hosanna!» to Me in your tears and I want you to rejoice and not to be afraid, to support those who support you on My way with you, for they also support Me on My way with you, and My way with you became Gospel over the earth, for the word of God is Gospel, My people. It is the feast of the flowers and of the branches, and I come as word to you to feed your power and comfort, and I have with Me hosts of angels who comfort your patience, son Israel, and the angels rejoice singing to Me «Hosanna!» for I enter with glory into you, Jerusalem, My people. My glory is dear, and it is as sweet as that one on the cross, for My love on the cross was sweet. No one has borne such a sweet love in his body, in his soul and in his spirit, as I had borne on the cross for the man to pay the life of the man by the sacrifice of My love on the cross. I was full of love on the cross. I was the One Who loved, as it never was and never is a greater love in heaven and on earth. My body did not suffer as much as My love suffered in the time of My cross. Those who sang to Me «Hosanna!» also cried out then to Pilate: «Crucify Him!» and I loved those who fulfilled the Scripture of My sacrifice and I asked My Father not to keep this into their account as sin because of what they did without knowing what they did. My love on the cross was sweet and painful, for love that has no pain has no power, and I loved those who brought Me pain, and the pain for them gave Me power for My sufferance from them, and then, for the love on the cross, at which Father looked and loved, because I listened to Him and I died for the man and I gave My live to the people.

You will see, My people, the resurrection of the dead, and then you will understand My love on the cross. You will see, My people, My work with you and through it the new birth of the world, of creation, and then you will understand your love under My cross, which I share with you today, loving and waiting for the fruit of the love, My people. Oh, let yourself be seized by My mysteries with you! Oh, let yourself be overwhelmed by My love on the cross and cry under the cross of My love, rejoicing over the glory of the love, which suffers loving with power to make the world again. Oh, My work within these days is great! It is mysterious and full of patience for the appearance of its glory! Let yourself be disturbed by its mysterious love for the resurrection of all things, My people. The dead wait for Me to call them out as I called Lazarus from among the dead and I told him, after I thanked to the Father: «Lazarus, come out!»

“Come out, you, those in the graves!” This is how I will call out through you, My people, until the dead will stand up listening to this commandment. Oh, and how beautiful and glorified will be the fulfillment of this Scripture and of the resurrection of the dead, My people! Take care, son, not to forget Me. Take great care not to live without Me in your thought and in your work and between brother and brother. Take care of Me, Jerusalem. Listen to God, son from the end. Take care like David and not like Saul, whom Samuel, coming out from the ground, being sad because of Saul’s disobedience and wandering away, answered him that disobedience is a sin as great as witchcraft, and opposition is the same like idol and teraphim worshipping. Behold what glorious will be the raising of the dead if you listen to be obedient to the Lord, your God, and if you obey His will full of care for you and for the whole heaven and earth, son! How praised Samuel came up out from the dead and rebuked the one who did not listen to God! How praised will be the resurrection from the dead, who will confess My work with you, My love for the man, My people! Behold, the saints are alive forever and ever, and they work over the earth, and I write a feast into your midst near the feast of the Palm Sunday, for I am with Verginica and with her sister, whom she took seven years ago to be together with her. You set a table for seven years of memorial, and I, the Lord, bless the food on the table and I sit with the saints and with the angels at this table, and Verginica together with their sisters sit at the table with you, at the table of resurrection, at the table of saints, for I am the God of the living ones, not of those who are dead, My people.

Verginica sits down at the table and speaks at the table. Come Verginica, you are My trumpet and you came to the memorial of your sister who bound your thread with the last sons of your people and Mine. Amen.

– Oh, Lord, glory to You for Your love, because I came with my sister, whom I established, after my coming to You, as a bridge between me and my people that remained to be the followers on my way with You, Lord, for you are forever and ever and You have no end.

Oh, my little dame, here is where we are! Look, little dame! We have meal with the people of the Lord and this glory is great, for it is a feast of Palm Sunday, and the angels have come in groups-groups with the Lord. Oh, do not cry, but rather rejoice! We have in the gates for us those whom you know that came among us to lead us forward, us and the Lord's people. Amen.

Now, sons, sit at the table of the memorial of my little sister, because after my leaving into heaven I prayed to the Lord for her, to set her as bridge between me and those whom the Lord have now as His gates between earth and heaven, between heaven and earth. The Lord listened to me, and she also listened to me, and I bound the thread, and the Lord has greatly multiplied His word over the earth and it has been spread out through the nations, and these days His Gospel is His word, and He takes it and lifts it up for the blessing from the Father, and then He gives it to the people before the coming of the day of His last glory.

Oh, this day of feast is a day of love and memorial. My little sister, look and comfort those on whom you and I and the Lord relied on earth, and behold, they are from among those in heaven now. We sit at the table with the people, little sister, and with the Lord and with His angels at your table of memorial. Everything is with love and is beautiful and clean, and we bring heavenly thanks for this day near the Lord's day.

My people, people of the Lord, sit down at the table for the heaven is with you. Oh, children of the new Gospel, you are tired from the hard work of the book of fifty years of the work of the Lord's word through us and through you, but the wages of those who work in the vineyard is great, sons. We have gathered together at the table of today, we and you, to the joy of the Lord's glory after fifty years of word since the Lord has been speaking on earth, starting with me and up to you. We will mark down this time of word on the day of Passover, for there are still seven days and we celebrated the feast of the Lord's resurrection, as it was fifty years ago when the Lord, after My feast of forty days, spoke by my voice over the earth. Behold, what love! At the beginning I was the one who fasted, and at the end it is you, children who speak about God. May you be blessed, you who have listened to the word of the Lord, which told you to abstain from food during this fasting of His passions of two thousand years ago, and may those who joined you for this full love be blessed as well, and may all the other ones be blessed as well, those who have struggled according to their own will and power. But today, take a morsel of the food on the table, and then go on abstaining from food until the day of resurrection, children who listen wholly, and we will rejoice fully within the spirit of obedience and of love, sons. My little sister is sweet and is full of love for you, and she also tells you this:

– Oh, people of New Jerusalem, you should be as beautiful as the name, which the Lord gave to you. You should be obedient and submitted to the glory of the fulfillment of the Lord's word upon you, for the Lord overcame by His blood and He gave His kingdom to you, and I with my little sister are favored in heaven by the fruit that remained on the side of the Lord and we heavenly ask you to stay under the cross of the Lord's coming, because if we loved the Lord standing before Him for His coming as word on the earth, you have reached to the fulfillment of this love and stand before Him as well, and the river of life flows and waters the earth, for the Lord has got children up to the last time, and He makes His abundant word flow more and more, to have patience for a little while of grace and for the Lord to prepare you for His great glory, people of the Lord. I comfort each one of you, and my little sister, God's trumpet, does the same, for without her I could have not come now to you as word. Sing the song of the wedding of the Son of the King and I will comfort myself with you. Amen.

– And I, the Lord, bless the food and sit with you at the table of feast of the word, and the angels comfort you with the mystery of their glory without a body, and the heaven rejoices today at the table with you.

Oh, children of the cross of My coming, sit with My people at the table with the heaven and taste a morsel of the food on the table so that no heart may be sad, and you should be obedient and you should go forward with your abstinence to the day of the resurrection and then we will sing in victory for all those who have labored, those little of Mine, to give being to the book of My word from the end of the time, fifty years of word by which I had shepherded over the earth and over the man.

May your food on the table be blessed with a great blessing, for it is a day of joy of the heaven with you, and My trumpet Verginica is walking with her little sister at the feast through the gardens of the Lord in a spirit of resurrection. Give thanks to the Lord, because I also bring to you for your hard labor, children of My coming.

I bring heavenly powers near you for the great fulfillment of the book of My word, and let any obstacle be removed, and let every help come near, to close the work of the book and then to open it, and let us rest with joy, I and you, for the heaven has been waiting with thrills for the book of the Lamb, children of obedience. Amen, amen, amen.

The feast of the Lord's Resurrection

Christ is risen! This is what I, the Lord, said in the day of Passover of the year of 1955, and behold, there have been fifty years of word of the Word, Jesus Christ.

Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! This is how My word on the Romanian land came to life two thousand years ago, My river of word, which waited to come again to life on earth, to overflow again from My mouth so that I may be able to work again, because I am the Alpha and the Omega. Amen, amen, amen.

Behold the feast of the feasts, the festival of festivals! I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, found faith on earth when it was to come back again to make the world, for I make the world again. I am the Maker of the heaven and of the earth. I am the Word of God into the midst of the Romanian people, where I made up My path of the second coming from near the Father to the people. It was written into the Scriptures to come to fulfill the things like those of two thousand years ago when I was born of the Virgin, of the Virgin forever, for I am clean and holy, as God's bearers have to be as well, so that they may know Me and work for Me on earth.

It is the feast of fifty years of My word from the end of the time. I, the Lord, bring that day into view to be confessed. Amen.

I prepared a trumpet by which I was to speak out My word. I made her to My pleasure. I prepared her by sufferance and pains as the gold is refined in the furnace, so that it might shine and to be a useful vessel to the Lord, an honored vessel before Me and before My angels, who have been watching all the time over My work of word to come and to settle on earth by the word of My angel. And after I made up My trumpet before My coming, I sounded it and My word of two thousand years ago came to life, for My angel Michael gave word to My commandment, and then I sounded My trumpet and she let itself according to My will, and behold, at the voice of the archangel and within God's trumpet, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, the beginning of the resurrection of those who are asleep, came to life as word on earth on the day of the memorial of My resurrection two thousand years ago, on the day of Passover of the year 1955, the day of My coming from the Father, a new word on the earth. And after twenty-five years, I took My trumpet from the midst of the people of that time and I established her among those that are from heaven, and I brought My word on the earth that began and was sown through her in all her time, and My word became a thousandfold ear, and with it I have been shepherding the nations of the earth, and My word is an iron rod into the midst of the tribes on the earth, for which I am their Maker for seven strange thousand years, strange with their life to My life, which appeared after it began to dwell in the people, oh My people of today!

Now I bring into view the feast of the day of resurrection, the day of Passover of the year 1955, the day when I sounded the trumpet of My word of two thousand years ago from the birth of My body from the Virgin in order to dwell with the people and to be with those who believe into My coming, to be with them to the end of the time, as I spoke through the Scriptures that I would be.

Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! This is how I started the resurrection of My word fifty years ago! Come, Verginica, come to look over the time and to see how it begins this day of feast of the Pentecost of My word, which I began to speak through your mouth, from My mouth in the year of 1955 of the day of the feast of My resurrection. (See The Word of God from 30-04-1955, r.n.) Come, My sweet trumpet, let Us settle down in a day of the celebration of the word and let us confess, for the days of testimonies speak and bear testimony soon, soon. Amen, amen, amen.

– Oh, Lord, I'm Your trumpet from which You started to sing Your mourning song by which You call everyone and draw all to the Father, because You work and speak from the Father, for those who are from the Father do only His will.

This day of great feast is the feast of the word of fifty years of Your sufferance after the man and from the man, Lord. I have borne with great pain the work of Your word, of Your coming after the man, now, in the end of the time. I was nothing else but the man of sufferance, as You also were. From my childhood You had prepared for me only sufferance. You grew me up for You through sufferance and pains, and Your mercy for my painful life was sweet. You wanted me to resemble You within pains and scorn from the man, and You settled me in the spirit of the humility by which You can dwell in man and to be able to do like You in man, for there where the man is and can, You cannot work there, for You humble Yourself before the man, and You do not dwell but only in those who are in Your image and after Your likeness, and they are worked by You and not by them, Lord of those who are humble. You gave me Your angel and he carried me by my little hand in all the preparation, which you made for me to be Your trumpet, and Your Spirit and Your body comforted me in my humility. You taught me by pains not to love joy, for whoever has pains, that one does not know and does not love joy. You gave me only sighing so that I may not lose You, and that You may not lose me. I was despised among the people, just as You were, Lord, for there is no disciple greater than his teacher, because You were the Man of sufferance and despised by man so that You may be able to bear in Your body the man's weakness, Lord.

Oh, how weak the man is, Good Teacher, and that is why he seeks to be able to do, deceiving himself that he can and that he takes after You, Maker of everything! How beautifully You made all things that are by Your word! How beautifully You worked to give them making, You their Maker! This is how You worked Me of the spirit of Your humility, of Your pain of seven thousand years from the man, and then You made me useful for Your work of new creation of the world. You dwelt in my body humbled for twenty-five years with You word over the people that came to listen to the voice of Your word. The whole nature was listening when You became word by my word, and all creation was startling at Your voice. But the man is too big, Lord of humility, and he has no longer given Your throne after he took it from You seven thousand years ago, when You set him to reign over the earth, keeping and working Your commandment. However, he has not worked that way and he has not ruled for those on which You have been Master, but rather he has set himself greater than You in him so that he may work and not You. You judged every man when You chose me and worked me to be Your house and throne upon the man, for I had no one but God, and You could work in me with Your will, with Your word, with Your thought, because only You were in me, and not I, Lord, and my life was sweet for You, for it was Yours, it was Your humility in it and Your will through it.

I took many to the spring of Your word, which was calling out with mourning by my mouth when You were coming down with the richness of Your glory, which became word on earth. You were feeding them with the spirit of comfort, You were forgiving them, and You were cleansing them, because You were the One Who had power to cleanse the man from him and from his sins. There was great pain on You and on me, because those who heard You and felt You, were not giving their lives so that they might win it over again, and You became their will to be able to write Your word from the end of the time, which was Your sufferance, the voice of Your sufferance as long as seven thousand years. What a peace I had because I was able to comfort You bearing Your pain! You were giving me Your peace and Your yoke, the easiest yoke, and he who has no yoke cannot work as he wants and do his work into Your name, and that one does the work of the one who works in him.

I suffered in You and You suffered in me, the disobedient man, who was hearing You with Your will, which You were giving to the man to work it, but he, hearing did not hear, and seeing he did not come, and I was suffering and I suffer, Lord, when You suffer, for I was and am Your will.

Behold the day of Passover of the year 1955 when You gave Yourself to me as bread and wine by the intercession of the holy bishops Basil, Gregory and John, who came with You on the clouds of the sky down to my bed of humility after I fulfilled Your commandment for the fasting of forty days and forty nights, so that You could dwell in my body and in my spirit as on the throne of the judgment of the creature, because You made me your useful work after You worked me, and then You made me the voice of Your word over the earth. Oh, when You entered with Your Spirit in my body to speak out of Your trumpet, Lord, I saw then all Your pain from the man, all Your longing and I also saw Your resurrection, and then I understood that You came again on earth as victorious over the death, for only death rules over the man, only death, Lord, and the life sighs and dies away sighingly, and the man has no wisdom, because he does not have humility for life, Lord.

Behold the day of Passover of the year of 1955, when You started Your trumpet sounding and You announced Yourself as the One Who were resurrected from among the dead and You said to those who were watching over my breath of life, which could hardly flicker: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! This is how You spoke, resurrected Lord, and since then You have been speaking, and behold a feast of the Pentecost of Your word which started through me, Your trumpet, fifty years ago, a day of Passover according to the time and in the likeness of that time, and one day more in order that the step of fulfillment could be seen. Oh, Your path was beautiful, because it was full of sigh after the man, but it has become beautiful and very beautiful for You now by those little disciples after the work of my work with You, Lord. I look with You at their wisdom full of humility where You had room so wholly and I look with You at their hard sighing, for Your coming down has become difficult and heavy, and they are little under it, and they are so little that You cannot be glorified through them before those who are great on earth.

Oh, little children, the mind of those, who do not know to understand the glory of God from those who are chosen by God from eternity, made you so little, so humble! Oh, my little ones and God's, oh, there is no faith on earth! The man is too stuck to himself, and his biggest obstacle is biggest both for him and for the Lord towards him. However, you should be good and you should stay as holy signs among those who believe and among those who do not believe, for God dwells in you even if you stay as in a precipice within the humility which feeds your life with endless love, patience and sufferance, children who bring the Lord on earth, fulfilling the time of the Pentecost of this holy feast. Be good and live in peace, for the humble ones have the spirit of peace before the proud who have the spirit of searching and not finding what they seek after.

The Lord whispered you a word of His sufferance and of His saints, and I set it among those that are true and I remind it now to you. Oh, children sons, as long as a saint is alive, he disturbs everyone, and all stumble over it, for those who are full of love for them wait from it, and if they do not receive what they want, they feel confused in their steps and strike in the holy one and they do not know what they do. However, after the holy one passes within his body, it is no longer hard for those who are to make a decision, to speak well of the holy one, since he does no longer hinder them within their things on earth. However, when he still has followers like him, then the lawmakers are disgusted and are silent revolting within their spirit and work by spies for the blaming of the Lord's saints. However, the Lord's saints do not rejoice over the good speaking for them after they pass away with their body, because it is not hard to speak well of the one who is no more that he may stop you from sticking to yourself in your love of saints in such a way that the saints may give you help for yourself. When the one who hinders you in your desires is no more, it is not hard to honor the one who became like God in your way to stop you from walking on it and to bring you to the Lord. But this is not right, neither for you and nor for the one in whom God dwelt in your way in order to appear to you, but it is right that you do not live according to the truth, and justice is that which is and not that by which the man covers himself for his righteousness for his benefit from God or from man.

Oh, children so little in the Lord's hand! Grace from grace, grace upon grace has brought forth fruit in you and upon you, because the Lord was great in my spirit and body in His work of coming back as word on earth. Oh, leave it like that! The grace of the Lord is enough for you, for the Lord glorifies and perfects Himself in His pains in you, and He will not let you down, because He is God and not a man, children of humility. I celebrate you as my followers to whom I left my wealth from the Lord, my wealth from the earth, the work of the Lord, children in whom God dwells. And behold, we stay in this day of the praised feast, for you fulfilled the time of this work of fifty years and you made your step again, and you passed into the time of grace, which is still left, to the renewal of everything in a fully way for the making of the mystery of the Lord's age on earth. The Lord celebrates us, you and me, the beginning and the end, in the beginning and in the end of this time, for the grace of man's salvation is fulfilled according to the numbers of years, only for the man to want to discover it in the word which flows abundantly from the Lord's mouth over the earth. Behold, step over the border and the word flows for its fulfillment. Strengthen yourself through it and strengthen for a way of new age the obedient people, that you should help its wisdom for the things from above in you for it, for its glory with the Lord, children of the birth from above and which is seen by the work which you do, for the Lord is known by the fruit, there where He is and where He lives. Do not forget that the one who endures to the end is blessed, that the patience for the saints is sweet and praised, as their work is too. Oh, do not grow sad because the spirit of the world in man does not receive your stretched hand to him. The Lord is even more aggrieved. Rejoice in your pains, for behold the feast of fifty years of the Lord's pain, Who cries after the man who is stuck to himself and not to the Lord in his self! The most beautiful feast, the feast of the Lord's pain, for His word is His pain, which cries after the man.

I glorified the feast of the work of Your word, Lord, the feast of Your pain, which has been crying for a long time, for seven ages, Lord, since the year of 1955, seven times seven years and even over this border, and I spoke much, Lord, in the day of the Pentecost of the feast of Your word, within Your second coming from the Father in man. Amen, amen, amen.

– You spoke, Verginica, but you are My trumpet from which My word had been crying before My great glory. I had been crying much, My Verginica, and no one has been crying as much as we had. Oh, who is to cry with Us and with those who cried so much, who carry Our work started by Us fifty years ago? Oh, where is the one that may no longer oppress the little and weak shoulders of the cross of My coming as sighing word after the man, My Verginica? But now, the comfort from Us helps them, for we have to work wholly over the spirit of the world in order to destroy it from the earth and from man and to be able to accomplish My life in man with death trampling upon death, for the sins will receive their wages and it will trample over them and it will condemn them in order to lift the man up from the sin. Amen.

And I, the Lord full of sighing, the One full of word, speak as in the beginning of this work of My coming after the man: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! And I did not come to life in vain, if I was resurrected, and I will ask from the man the reward of My sacrifice on the cross, as the one who was guilty, although I was not guilty, and I will ask the man to come to life from the sin and to pass from death to life, from sin to holiness, and the holy one is known after his wisdom, after his work, after his fruit in Me.

Christ is risen, My people from today! This is what I told those from the beginning of this work of word of My sigh, and no one has been sighing with Me to the end.

Christ is risen, people with a new name and with a new garment through new Passover, to which I reached together with you, the smallest one, but also the most advised one! My spirit is sighing, My people. The work of fifty years makes Me suffer, for as many heard My word the same number also left Me and went to mind their own business and did not remain in My things and I had no one to tell to: "Come with Me!"

I celebrate with you, the least one, the feast of the word of My pain after the man, the Pentecost of the voice of My word, My sigh from man, now, in the end of the time, for those who heard Me by this word judged Me, and then they left Me for their own things. However, now, you should comfort Me, the little one, but My comfort is the Holy Spirit. See to understand well what I tell you, My people, for I gave you the name from My coming and I called you the people of the New Jerusalem, and you should comfort Me in My pain from the man.

I lift up between earth and heaven the book of My word from these seven ages and I give you power to help Me and that I may appear with Me and to set is as a testimony between Me and man, for the man did not love to drink of My bowl, and he drank of his bowl instead, and now the bowl full of the reward of their deeds will come back against him, the bowl of My wrath over those who did not love God's Spirit, Who has nothing from this world. We lift up the book of My word and we give it to the Father for blessing, and then to the people, My people. However, you should sing to the feast of resurrection, and sing now, for it is a day of resurrection, Jerusalem. Look at yourself and see what you can give Me, what you can set on My table of today. Give Me your comfort, My people, for only the spirit of comfort was the one who flowed from My mouth over the one who was called by My mercy to the mercy of Me, the One Who suffered from man.

May the food for your body and for your spirit be blessed, because I cannot sit at the table but only with the one who is blessed! Come back, My people, to the beginning of My word and then come back on its thread up to you and cry with Me, son, so that I may not cry alone, for it is a pity not to have company in My sighing, it is a pity after so much sighing, My people. And I also ask you, when the book will be on the table and you will be able to open it, take you time and pass through this time, because I spoke about you that I did not choose you for the body but for the spirit, My people. Take care of what I told you at My table with you, because I said that there will no longer be comfort on the earth but only in My word full of grace and of sigh. Take care not to live without comforting Me and you from the grace of this word. I have advised you, My people, to pass from body into the spirit, and this is how you are to fulfill, and let yourself within My Spirit to be like God.

Oh, and I ask you, My people, no to live as on earth, and rather to live as in heaven on earth, and to listen to the law of the heaven and to eat only from Me and not from another spirit, My people. And now I put again the true seal of the Son of the Father Sabaoth, Who came on earth and trampled with death upon death in order to appear as true God from true God. Two thousand years ago, I died on the cross and I was resurrected from the dead and I left this seal: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen, then and now, My people, with His body then, and with His word now, people of the word of My coming with the new birth of the world, which will be born again by the word of God. Amen, amen, amen.
